1.1.1 The Gift Of Eternal Life Is Wrapped In The Wonderful Package Of Jesus (2020-05-29 22:25)

Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

I was reading a wonderful book today by one of my favorite preachers, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968). As I read his books and hear him preach, I see Dr. Bob Jones Sr. in Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). It is clear to me that Brother Jones had a tremendous influence on the life and preaching of Dr. Jack Hyles. I love both of these dear men of God!

It grieves my heart to see how our nation has changed for the worse in my lifetime. What discourages me is that today's professed Christians (particularly my own camp of independent Baptists) cannot see the forest for the trees! We are changing so quickly and most Baptists are in woeful denial. Here is a beautiful quote from Evangelist Bob Jones Sr.:

> "Young people, you can't buy salvation. You can't pay for it after you get it. But if you don't already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.
> Before I stop I will use an illustration I have used many times here at the college. Maybe those of you who have heard it have forgotten it.
> Do you see this quarter? I want to give it to you. But I am a peculiar man. I just give away quarters one way. I put a quarter in a book, shut the book, and offer you the book. You don't want the book? Well, all right, you can't have my quarter, then. I have a right to put the quarter in any sort of package I wish. You, of course, have the privilege of rejecting the quarter.
> God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He > has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! That was so simply, beautiful and eloquently said. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. preached the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

1.1.2 Once Saved, Always Saved (2020-05-29 22:50)

1st John 5:11, "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son."

The subject of eternal security is a controversial subject, but it is 100 % Biblical. My friend, if you don't believe in "ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED," you are not saved. It's that simple. The reason why is because if you're trusting Jesus, then you can't lose it. It you think your salvation can be lost, then you are relying upon human effort to keep you saved. This is why I expose the Salvation Army as heretics.

Please notice three things from our text Verse in 1st John 5:11...

1. Eternal life is a gift from God.
2. It is "eternal life," that is, it never ends.
3. Eternal life is obtained only in Jesus Christ!

Amen! The inspired, precious, inerrant, preserved, holy, King James Bible, teaches that once a person is saved, they can NEVER lose it!!!

Many Baptists are not saved. It is sad but true. I can tell you unequivocally that if you believe you can ever forfeit your salvation, you don't have it friend. Dr. Hank Lindstrom preaches a wonderful MP3 sermon on the subject titled, "How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

Once you are saved, you have passed from death unto life. John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." What a beautiful Scripture teaching eternal security of the believer. There are two types of people in this world: 1) those who believe; 2) those who don't believe. The Bible promises that those who believe have everlasting life. God authored the Gospel of John to convince us that Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, and that by BELIEVING on His name we will have eternal life. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

1.1.3 Bob Jones University Preaches Another Gospel Today (2020-05-29 23:13)

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would be appalled, disgusted and angry if he [1]heard Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaching the students that to be saved, they "must persevere" in holiness, ministry and service to others, and faithfully "run the race" to obtain the "award" of Heaven itself. Dr. Pettit is preaching another gospel, not the Gospel of free grace once delivered unto the saints! Dr. Pettit made this blasphemous statement at Bob Jones University (BJU) to 2,700 impressionable students on January 26, 2015:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ([2]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Folks, that is the exact opposite of what the founder, Dr. Bob Jones Sr., believed and taught the students at BJU. [3]Dr. Jones would blow up the college he started with dynamite ([4]he said so himself | [5]MP4 | [6]MP3) if he could today! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a religious liberal! They actually pay him a 6-digit salary to preach a counterfeit gospel, sending those misled students to Hell. Still not convinced? Read this heretical quote from Dr. Pettit:

> "So when we talk about 'The Race,' what are we talking about? We're talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—"I GOT SAVED," but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven." —Dr. Steve Pettit ([7]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 10:27)

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ([8]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57)

Kindly said, Dr. Pettit teaches strange doctrines. I shared with you earlier what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught. These two men are light-years apart in their plans of salvation! [9]Steve Pettit teaches BJU students that if they perpetually lie, they'll go to Hell. That is another gospel!!! If you are saved, you can lie all you want and still go to Heaven (Acts 13:39; Romans 5:20). You shouldn't lie. Lying is a sin. God hates lying. However, none of that has anything to do with the free gift of God, which is eternal life (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). I am not trying to be mean. I don't get paid a single penny for my preaching. Since I began my online ministry in 2002, I've never accepted one cent! I've had people send me money, and I sent it back to them, every penny! I do what I do because I love God, truth and people!!! I have a full reward in Heaven, the greatest being all the souls saved and lives changed through my humble labors for Jesus Christ. To God alone be all the credit, praise and glory!!! Jesus said without Him we cannot do anything (John 15:5). Jesus even keeps you and me breathing (Acts 17:25). Jesus is precious!!!

1.1.4 When A Gift Is Not Really A Gift (2020-05-29 23:34)

Romans 5:17-18, "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

Kindly said, a gift is not really a gift when Bob Jones University teaches about salvation. I have listened to dozens of sermons this week, preached to the students of Bob Jones University from '[1]The Daily Platform.' In my humble opinion, it is a disgrace what Evangelist Steve Pettit has done to destroy Bob Jones University spiritually. I was shocked the other day when I heard [2]Dr. Pettit teaching Lordship Salvation to 2,700 impressionable students. We've got a whole generations of devils coming up in America, who will corrupt the churches because of the Satanic influence of BJU!

> "The Wolf likes gift-giving to be even-steven—especially in terms of money spent—so beware of possible posturing or pouting if he or she is disappointed."
> SOURCE: [3]https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/tech-support/201312/th e-5-types-gift-givers

Here is a heretical quote from Bob's Jones Statement of Faith:

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). As you see, Bob Jones University are 'THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING,' who teach that God demands something in return from you for His free gift of eternal life. They say you must be willing to repent and turn from your sins!!! BJU falsely says that God requires an exchange, something in return, you must pay the price of repentance from your sins! Ladies and gentlemen, the Devil is running Bob Jones College today!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Would Be Ashamed Of Bob Jones College Today

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself taught something very different than what the college teaches today! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught salvation through simple faith in Jesus Christ, none of this "turn from your sins" crap that heretics' Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Ray Comfort and Calvinists are all teaching! Dr. Jones rightly says:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will > blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I have read the entire book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. titled: "THINGS I HAVE LEARNED," and there is nothing about "turning from sins" to be saved. The last chapter of the book is titled, "HOW ARE WE SAVED?" There is no mention of "repenting of your sins" or being "willing to turn from your sins" to receive the free gift of eternal life. The foolish Bob Jones University crowd have been [5]BEWITCHED!!! (Galatians 3:1-3). Oh foolish Bob Jonians, who hath bewitched you, that you should follow another gospel? Oh [6]foolish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I dearly love so much, who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

God Is A Genuine Gift Giver

Psychology Today lists, "The 5 Types Of Gift Givers." The Lord is 'The Genuine Giver.' Psychology Today says this about 'The Genuine Giver'...

> "If you are lucky enough to have one or two of these folks in your life, it's time for rejoicing. The genuine giver has actually thought about you and what would give you pleasure."

What did Jesus say? John 10:10, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." Bob Jones University is 'The Thief.' Jesus warned us about 'The Thief' in John 10:1, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep." God is 'The Genuine Gift Giver,' who wants to give everyone eternal life, to give us pleasure. Bob Jones University is doing the work of Satan, falsely claiming that God is 'The Wolf In Sheep's Clothing,' who demands that you be willing to pay the price of forsaking your sinful behavior, in exchange for His gift. Do you really believe that God is a 'Wolf In Sheep's Clothing?' Do you believe that the gift of eternal life requires an exchange for your sinful bad habits?

Eternal life is a free gift, with no strings attached. There are no obligations. [8]Dr. Steve Pettit heretically teaches that you "MUST PERSEVERE" (his exact words) in holiness, ministry and service to others to get the "award" of Heaven. That's exactly what he calls Heaven, an "award." What a false prophet! Heaven is not an award, it is a free gift! When corrupted BJU chapel speakers talk about "grace," they don't get grace!!! Nobody gets grace who teaches that Heaven in an "award" for those who faithfully "run the race" and "persevere" to finish it! BJU is preaching another gospel!!!

All that is required is that you come to God by faith as a needy sinner, to accept His free gift, by receiving the resurrected Savior's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. You don't have to be willing to turn from your sins, which would be an exchange, and not really a gift! God is a genuine gift giver, and not a wolf in sheep's clothing!

1.1.5 The Holy Spirit Is The Earnest Of Our Inheritance, Which Is Eternal Life (2020-05-30 00:27)

2nd Corinthians 5:5, "Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit."

Every believer is "sealed" with the Holy Spirit unto the day of redemption. And again we read:

> Ephesians 1:11-14, "In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

This “earnest” is evidence that God will do all that He has PROMISED to do. When we get saved, we do not receive all of our inheritance. Our corrupted flesh, with all it’s bodily afflictions, does not change. But one day, when we receive all the benefits of salvation, we will get rid of this ole flesh, and receive a brand new glorified body fashioned like unto the Lord’s awesome body. Our new body will have [1]SUPERNATURAL POWERS, just like the Lord’s resurrected body did:

> Philippians 3:20-21, “For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.”

What a glorious day that will be!!!

> What a day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see;
> The one who saved me by His grace, when I look upon His face;
> When He takes me by the hand, and leads me to the Promised Land,
> What a day, glorious day, that will be!

> HEAR SONG: [3]WHAT A DAY THAT WILL BE!

The Holy Bible doesn’t place any conditions on the believer’s eternal security. If you are a born-again Christian, you are SEALED by the Holy Spirit unto the DAY OF REDEMPTION. The Bible doesn’t say that we are sealed until we sin. The Bible doesn’t say we are sealed until we mess up. The Bible doesn’t say we are sealed until we lose our faith. No, the Bible says, we are sealed UNTO THE DAY OF REDEMPTION!!! God sealed us with the Holy Spirit “OF PROMISE” to guarantee our inheritance. 1st Thessalonians 5:24, “Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.” What a great God!!! Those who BELIEVE will never die! Once saved, always saved!!! Thank you Lord Jesus!!!!!!!

God gave each of His children the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit, as proof of His promise to finish what He has begun. If you have the Holy Spirit, you know Him! Philippians 1:6, “Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:” I do not believe in the heretical Calvinist doctrine of the Perseverance Of The Saints; but [4]I do agree with Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), who believed in the Perseverance Of The Holy Spirit in every saint. 1st John 3:24, “ And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

If saved, always saved!

The Holy Spirit is not given at salvation, and then retracted later because of gross immorality, and then given upon repentance from sin, and then taken back again and again every time a believer strays off the path of personal righteousness. This is the nonsense that Pentecostals teach, claiming that David in the Old Testament lost his salvation when he sinned. Dear friend, the greatest truth I could ever teach you is the distinction between between [5]God's imputed righteousness at the time of salvation, and the personal righteousness of the believer.

When a Christian chooses to go into sin, straying off the path of holiness, that does NOT affect or change God's imputed righteousness to the believer (Romans 4:5-6). This is a truth that the proponents of Lordship Salvation do not understand. Evangelist Ray Comfort authored a popular commentary of the Bible called: 'The Evidence Bible,' in which he totally ignores the doctrine of imputation. Very likely this was because Ray based his commentary upon 'The Amplified Version' (AMP) which completely removes the theological word "impute" from the Bible. This clearly evidences the [6]grave danger of well-meaning scholars who tamper with the Holy Bible . In an attempt to help the lazy reader understand what imputation means, they have obliterated the entire theological concept from the reader's mind. The same is true of the beautiful theological word propitiation and other key words in the inspired Word of God.

The sealing of the saint with the Holy Spirit is solid proof of the eternal security of every believer. Beware of preachers who speak of salvation as being a lifestyle that you must live. They are preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Christianity is not a religious life to be lived, it is a new birth (regeneration) by the Holy Spirit of God. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Jesus taught in John 3:7b, "Ye must be born again." Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world! You don't get to Heaven through religion, you get to Heaven by receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins.

James 2:17-22, "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?"

Please notice that faith cannot be dead if it doesn't already exist. Can a man's dog be dead if the dog doesn't exist? So in order for a man's faith to be dead, THERE MUST FIRST BE FAITH. In other words, this passage of Scripture is not teaching that you need works to be saved. There is faith. James is talking about a saved man.

Notice that the apostle James says “shew me” and “I will shew thee.” Clearly, James is speaking about being justified in the eyes of other men, and not God. A man can only be justified BY FAITH with God (Romans 4:3-5). Since people cannot see our heart, they can only judge by our outward appearance (1st Samuel 16:7). So with men we are justified BY WORKS. James plainly said “shew me” and “I will shew thee.” James talks about the FRUIT of the Holy Spirit, which will be present in the life of every obedient saint. This has nothing to do with the ROOT of the believer’s faith, which Paul talks about in Romans.

God is telling us that our faith will not be effective reaching others for Christ if our walk doesn’t coincide with our talk. This is what the Bible means in Hebrews 12:14, “Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord.”

1.1.7 A Christian Falls IN GRACE, Never FROM GRACE (2020-05-30 01:50)

Galatians 5:4, “Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.”

One of the most commonly misunderstood phrases in the Holy Bible is “ye are fallen from grace” in Galatians 5:4. May I share a wonderfully truth with you dear reader... a born-again believer can only fall “IN GRACE,” never “FROM GRACE.” Romans 5:20, “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.” Whenever we have sinned as redeemed children of God, “GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND.” God’s limitless grace reaches deeper than the lowest sin that a Christian can commit! There is no stain of sin so great that the precious blood of Jesus cannot wash it completely away!

My friend, if you have believed the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen from the dead the third day, then you have no criminal record in Heaven. You may have a rap sheet a mile long here on earth, but if you are saved, you have no record in eternity! Romans 8:31-34, “What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us."

I cherish the following insightful quote from Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982), which emphasizes the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ...

> "You haven't got one thing to do down here—and that's to stay on the Bible trail—keep the Commandments! You say, but Brother Roloff: 'Do you really believe you've got to keep all Ten Commandments to go to Heaven?' I sure do, I sure do! He said: 'Fear God and keep His Commandments!' Now you're going to ask another question: 'Have you kept the Commandments yourself?' No Sir! 'Are you going to Heaven?' I really am! That'll be my next stop. 'How you gonna get there, you haven't...?' I met a man called Jesus! And I said: 'Lord, I'm a sinner, I've broken so many of the Commandments.' And He said: 'Well, I have Good News for you, I've kept 'em all, and I've swapped My keeping for your breaking! I said: 'Really?" He said: 'I really mean it!"' —Evangelist Lester Roloff (sermon quote, '[1]The Lost Fear Of God')

I love that! Jesus swapped ([2]imputed) His perfection for our sinning! Jesus lived a SINLESS life. There has NEVER been a single Christian since the beginning of time who fell FROM GRACE! Hebrews 4:15, "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin." Jesus never sinned, not once, even in thought or word. In order to be acceptable as a sacrifice for the sins of the world, Jesus had to be complete spotless and without sin or character blemish. Anyone who alleged that Jesus was a sinner in the least way is a demonic LIAR!

There have been some very wicked movies produced which portray Christ as a sinner. One ungodly film is "The Last Temptation Of Christ" (1988), produced by reprobate Hollywood director Martin Scorsese. Another ungodly film is "The Da Vinci Code" (2006), produced by reprobate Hollywood director (and former "Happy Days" star) Ron Howard. These are ungodly men, who portray the sinless Lamb of God as a fornicator with Mary Magdalene. It is blasphemy against the Son of God! Dear reader, Jesus is the perfect, sinless, spotless Lamb of God, Who died on the cross in our place, suffering the reproach and death of a criminal, so that we (you and me) sinners who knew no righteousness could be made the righteousness of God in Him. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he [God the Father] hath made him [God the Son] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." What a beautiful Savior, deserving of our utmost praise and worship!!! [3]JESUS IS ALMIGHTY GOD!!!!!!!

A Christian Believer ALWAYS Falls IN GRACE, Never FROM GRACE!

Remember, a believer who sins (and we ALL do every day), only falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." The unsaved person is still under the curse of God's LAW, condemned already. Ah, but the dear saint of God is under God's free GRACE. All of the false prophets today, like Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, who require turning away from sinful behavior to receive the free gift of God, are not teaching GRACE! Anything other than grace alone is NOT grace! Romans 11:6a, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace..." The moment that anyone adds the slightest addition to the Gospel of grace, it ceases to be grace.

If you think that the life you are living on earth can affect your eternal life, then you don't get grace!!! As Jonah rightly pondered in the belly of the whale in Jonah 2:9b, "SALVATION IS OF THE LORD." No believer can ever fall from grace, it is impossible. When we sin (and we ALL still do because we are human), we fall IN GRACE! Once a person has eternal life, which is the gift of God, they can NEVER lose it!!!

Here's a wonderful poem authored by Pastor Danny Castle about the three stages of life; It's called "NO ROOM FOR JESUS" . . .

NO ROOM FOR JESUS...

No room for Jesus when I'm young and free,
No time for the church, or a Bible for me;
No room for Jesus when I'm a grown man,
I'm busy making a living, doing the best I can.
No room for Jesus, when I'm old and gray,
I've lived good enough, I'll make it my way;
Now as the time comes to die for me,
only it is now I am beginning to see,
When at Heaven's gates I stand and plea:
What a fool I've been, they'll be no room for me.

SOURCE: Pastor Danny Castle; from the awesome sermon titled: '[4]Do You Have Room For Jesus?'

Dear reader, a born-again believer can only fall "IN GRACE," never "FROM GRACE." Romans 5:20, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound." Whenever we have sinned as redeemed children of God, "GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND." God's limitless grace reaches deeper than the lowest sin that a Christian can commit! There is no stain of sin so great that the precious blood of Jesus cannot wash it completely away!

God's GRACE is freely available to the most [5]hopeless drug addict on the street—whose body has been abused, wearied and broken with immoral sex, drug needles and puss-filled sores from infected. God loves you and offers His GRACE, through faith in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day. The Christian believer falls IN GRACE, when we sin (and we ALL do every day), because we are eternally safe and secure with the arms of our heavenly Father underneath! Deuteronomy 33:27, "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them." Eternal life is the believer's assurance of salvation! Eternal security is not a separate doctrine from eternal life, they are one and the same thing! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

1.1.8 The One Thing That Determines Salvation (2020-05-30 17:50)

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” —John 3:36

This is a wonderful printed sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), about how to go to Heaven. This is so simple and everyone needs to read it, b ut first I want to say a few words of introduction.

The churches (including independent Baptists) are absolutely filled today with demonic heresy. Churches are teaching the Devil’s lie of “Lordship Salvation” (which says if you are still living in willful sin you have never been saved). I’ve actually heard several pastors refute Lordship Salvation, but then turn around and teach that you must be willing to turn from your sins to be saved. Folks, that is what Lordship Salvation is!

Proponents of this heresy say it is not enough to receive Jesus as your personal Savior to get to Heaven; but also, they say you absolutely must make full surrender to Him as “ Lord ” of your life. They say things like: you MUST forsake the world, turn from your sins, commit your life to Christ, run the race, persevere in holiness, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost. That is exactly what Pastor John MacArthur heretically teaches

. Dear friend, the Gospel is “ Good News ” to be believed, not a lifestyle to be lived. Eternal life is a free gift which comes wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus. If you want the gift, you must receive the package of Jesus!

Without further ado, here are the beautiful words of Pastor Curtis Hutson:

> “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.” —John 3:36
>
> What is the determining factor in salvation? Exactly what does a person have to do to be saved? The Bible doesn’t leave us in the dark. The answer is found in the Word of God.
>
> In Acts 16:30-31 the Philippian jailer asked Paul and Silas, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.”
>
> The jailer was asking, “What one thing is absolutely necessary for my salvation?” and the Bible answer was, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.”
> In John 3:36 Jesus divides the world into two groups: “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Here you have those who are believing on the Son and those who believe not on the Son. Those who are believing have everlasting life, according to the promise of God; and those who believe not shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on them.

In John 3:18, again Jesus divides the world into two groups: "He that believeth on him is not condemned [is not under sentence]: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Here again Jesus says there are two groups: those who believe and those who believe not. Those who believe have the sentence lifted. They are not condemned. And those who believe not are under the sentence of sin, which is the second death, because they are not believing on "the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Galatians 3:26 says, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." This passage plainly says that everybody who is a child of God is a child of God by faith. Romans 5:1 says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Neither time nor space permits me to share with you all the verses that say believing, or faith, is the determining factor in salvation. There are at least 153 verses in the Bible that make believing the determining factor in salvation. Mark 16:16 says, "He that believeth not shall be damned." So if the Bible is true, faith in the Lord Jesus Christ is the determining factor in salvation.

I've heard or read a number of sermons on "saving faith"; but the Bible never puts the word "saving" before faith. Faith is not the Saviour. Jesus is the Saviour. Faith is an attitude of the soul through which Jesus saves.

The Bible never tells us to believe and be saved. It is always careful to say, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved," or, "Whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life," or, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." It's the Object of faith that makes faith important. Faith in the wrong thing could result in a person's damnation.

Now since faith is the determining factor in salvation, it is important to know what faith is.

So far as I know, there's only one definition of faith in the Bible. It's found in Hebrews 11:1. But while there's only one definition, there are many illustrations of faith in the Bible. I think the best illustration of faith is found in Hebrews 12:2, where we find the expression, "Looking unto Jesus."

I. Faith Is Not Looking At Jesus But Looking Unto Jesus

Almost everyone will admit that Jesus Christ existed, that He was a real person. Every time we date a check, we admit the existence of Christ. Faith is not looking at Jesus as a historical personage.

James 2:19 says, "The devils also believe, and tremble." Even the demons admit the existence of Christ. In Acts 19:15 the evil spirit in the man said, "…Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?" No, faith is not looking at Jesus; it's looking unto Jesus, which is another way of saying depending on Jesus.

Suppose someone cosigned for you to borrow money, and if you didn't pay, the authorities would put you in jail. And suppose the money came due and you had nothing with which to pay. You called your cosigner and said, "Bob, I've got problems. You know that note you signed for me—well, the money is due, and I can't pay it."

Your friend replied, “Don’t worry about it. Just look to me!” He means by that, “Just depend on me. I’ll pay it.”

Jesus Christ says that we owe a sin debt. Romans 6:23 says, “The wages of sin is death.” To pay what we owe, we would have to die and go into Hell and stay there forever. But He says, “Don’t worry about it. You just look to Me.”

Isaiah 53:6 says, “The Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.” Two thousand years ago God took every sin you have ever committed and every one you will ever commit, and God Almighty laid those sins on Jesus Christ. While Jesus Christ was bearing your sins in His own body, God punished Him in your place to pay the debt that you owe as a sinner.

Jesus uttered seven things while He hung on the cross. Just before dying He said, “It is finished.” Nothing can be added to it, and nothing can be taken from it. It’s complete!

His death on the cross made full payment for your sins. And now He says to you, “Look to Me! Believe that I did die on the cross for you. Believe that I did pay your sin debt and look to Me. Look to Me, and all is well.” Faith is not looking at Jesus; it’s looking unto Jesus, depending on Jesus, relying on Jesus, putting the matter of your salvation in His hands and trusting Him to get you to Heaven.

II. Faith Is Looking Away From Everything Else and Looking Only to Jesus

Martin Luther translated Hebrews 12:2, “Aufsehen zu Jesus,” which means “looking up to Jesus”; in other words, looking away from everything else and looking only to Jesus. It means that you look away from your works.

How long do you think you’d have to work to earn Heaven? Read the description of Heaven in Revelation 21 and 22. Why, the Bible says the street in Heaven is made of pure gold. The gold is so pure it’s like transparent glass. You can see through it. Earth has no way of refining gold that pure. If you worked ten million lifetimes, you couldn’t begin to earn Heaven. And the Bible says in Ephesians 2:8-9, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

And consider this: If a man worked to stay out of Hell, the very motive would render the work ineffective. He would be working from a motive of fear. According to I Corinthians 13, all work must be motivated by love. Paul said in verse 3, “And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity [or love], it profiteth me nothing.” So if a person worked to stay out of Hell, the motive would render the work ineffective.

A boy once asked an old preacher, “Sir, what can I do to be saved?”

The preacher replied, “Son, you’re too late.”

“What!” exclaimed the boy, “too late to be saved?”

“No,” said the preacher, “too late to do anything. You see, son, Jesus did it all two thousand years ago.”

Now wait a minute! I believe in good works, but not as an instrument of salvation. You don’t work to be saved; you work because you are saved.

I would not work my soul to save,

For that my Lord hath done,

But I would work like any slave

For love of God's dear Son!

"Looking up to Jesus" means I look away from my righteousness and only to Jesus. I'm for living right. You ought to live as clean, as moral and as pure as you possibly can. But Titus 3:5 says, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." Isaiah 64:6 says, "All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags."

Now just a minute, friend. The Bible doesn't say the worst you do is like filthy rags, but the best you do. There is no way that anyone could ever be righteous enough to go to Heaven. You would have to be perfect, and there are no perfect people.

Sam Jones, the Methodist evangelist, once asked a congregation, "Does anyone here know a perfect person?" A lady raised her hand. "Yes."

"Do you know a perfect person?"

"Well," answered the lady, "I've never met her, but my husband talks about her all the time. She was his first wife."

The truth is, no one is perfect. Jesus said, "They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance" (Mark 2:17). Faith is looking away from our righteousness and looking only to Jesus. You don't get better to get saved. You get saved to get better, and you can't get better until you do get saved.

A stanza from my favorite hymn says:

My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame

But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

"Looking up to Jesus" means looking away from our church membership and looking only to Jesus. Everyone who accepts Jesus Christ as Saviour should join a church. But you don't join the church to become a Christian. Being in the church won't make a Christian out of you any more than getting into the garage will make an automobile out of you. I'm a church member, and everybody who's saved ought to join a Bible-believing church. Acts 2:41 says, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls."

On the other hand, if you're depending on the fact that you belong to the church to get you to Heaven, you'll go to Hell through the church. In Matthew 7:22-23 Jesus said, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

According to the Bible, many will miss Heaven even though they were church members and worked hard, even preaching or prophesying in Jesus' name. But they will miss Heaven because they did not totally, fully, completely trust Jesus Christ. They trusted their works.

"Looking up to Jesus" means you look away from your baptism and look only to Jesus. I'm for baptism. Every person who accepts Jesus Christ as Saviour ought to be baptized, but baptism is not an instrument of salvation. It's an outward expression of an inward experience. It's like putting the wedding band on the finger after you are married. It doesn't marry you, but it shows everybody that you are married. Being baptized doesn't save you. It's an outward symbol telling others that you believe in the death, burial and resurrection of Christ.

The man who's depending on his baptism to get him to Heaven will go to Hell through the baptistery. Now why do I say that? Because John 3:36 says, "He that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Wait a minute, friend, Jesus Christ says if you're not depending on, believing, trusting, relying on the Son, you "shall not see life; but the wrath of God" abides on you. The man who's trusting his church membership or his baptism or his reformation or anything else other than Jesus Christ, will not go to Heaven. John 3:18 says, "He that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." There is no promise to those who partly believe on Christ and partly on something else.

Someone asked me, "But doesn't the Bible say in Mark 16:16, 'He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved…'?"

"Yes," I replied, "but the next expression says, '…he that believeth not shall be damned."' You see, believing is the determining factor, not being baptized. That's like saying, "He that getteth on the jet plane and sitteth down, shall fly to Jacksonville, Florida; but he that getteth not on the plane, shall not fly to Jacksonville." It's the getting on that gets you there, not the sitting down. But any fool knows if you get on, you ought to sit down. If you don't sit down, you'll wish you had sat down before you reach your final destination.

If you've trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour, you ought to be baptized. But you should not be baptized thinking that baptism saves you. If you do, you're not trusting Jesus Christ; you're trusting baptism. Faith is looking away from everything else and looking only to Jesus Christ.

III. Faith Is Not Experiencing a Feeling But Relying on a Fact

I've dealt with people who doubted their salvation because they did not think they had the proper feelings at the time of conversion. There is not a verse in the Bible that tells a man exactly how he has to feel in order to be saved. As a matter of fact, the Bible never says you have to feel any way to be saved. Acts 16:31 says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

I remember when I was first married. We drove back to my wife's home, and there were some friends in the yard. When we got out of the automobile, someone asked me, "How does it feel to be married?" I said, "I feel exactly like I did a few minutes ago." But you know something? I was just as married as the fellow who had some great feeling.

Not everyone reacts the same to the same experience. I remember one night I was driving home from a revival meeting when a car overturned in front of us. Several people were badly injured. Some who saw it cried, others ran to help, while some buried their faces in their hands. One lady fainted. Now they all saw the same thing and had the same experience but reacted differently. I've seen people cry when they trusted Christ as Saviour. I've been with others who smiled, while others laughed and some even shouted; but they all had the same experience. They all trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour. No, faith is not having some particular feeling. Faith is depending on a fact.

Now here's the fact: Two thousand years ago Jesus Christ died for you. He bore your sins in His own body. God punished Him in your place to pay the debt that you owe. That's a fact. Whether you ever do anything about it or not, it's still a fact.

What you must do is believe that fact and not only believe in your head that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay your sin debt, but depend on, rely on, trust Him and what He did for your salvation.

If I were not a Christian and wanted to be, I would simply pray this prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I know that I am a sinner. I do believe that You died for me. And here and now I do trust You as my Saviour. From this minute on, I'm depending on You to get me to Heaven. Help me to live for You and to be a good Christian.

After praying the prayer, I would accept what God says in the Bible—that I do have everlasting life because I'm trusting Jesus Christ for my salvation: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life" (John 3:36). I mean I'd accept what God says, whether or not I ever had any feelings.

Once you make that decision and trust Christ, perhaps there'll be some feeling. But whether or not the feeling comes, the Word of God is still true. God cannot lie!

When you trust Him, you will have everlasting life. The determining factor in salvation is believing, trusting, depending on, relying on the Lord Jesus Christ.

F. G. Pentecost said, "Two and two is four—that's mathematics. Hydrogen and oxygen form water—that's chemistry. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved'—that's revelation."

You ask, "How do I know?"

"Well," he said, "the burden of proof lies with you. Put two and two together and see if you don't have four. Put hydrogen and oxygen together and see if you don't have water. And believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and see if you won't be saved."

1.2.1 DO GOODERS Don't Go To Heaven, DO TRUSTERS Go! (2020-06-04 18:29)

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

DO GOODERS don’t go to Heaven, DO TRUSTERS go to Heaven!!! What a wonderful statement. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said that in [1]this sermon clip. There is a horrible spiritual disease known as “

[2]Lordship Salvation,

which has infected most churches today. This counterfeit gospel teaches that a person must make full surrender to Jesus not only as one’s Savior, but also as to be saved. This means

Lord

to be willing to turn from your sins, to be saved. This means committing your life to Him, to be saved. This means following Jesus no matter what the cost, to be saved. These are all a perversion of grace!

DO GOODERS don’t go to Heaven, DO TRUSTERS go to Heaven!!!

Repeatedly in the inspired King James Bible, we read that whosoever believes on the name of Jesus Christ will have eternal life.

1st John 3:23, “And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.”

Some preachers have been woefully deceived, thinking that turning from sins for salvation is not Lordship Salvation! How is that not Lordship Salvation? Of course it is Lordship Salvation! Anything required than simple childlike faith in ’[3]The Gospel,’ is a false plan of salvation! Whatever changes God wants to see happen in a believer’s life is His department, our only part in salvation is to BELIEVE.

DO GOODERS don’t go to Heaven, DO TRUSTERS go to Heaven!!!

1.2.2 DO or DONE! (2020-06-05 02:11)

Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast.

There are two types of religions in this world—DO and DONE! You either have to DO something to earn or merit your way to Heaven; or else it is DONE and Jesus Christ had already paid you sin debt on the cross with His blood. Take your pick friend, but only one path leads to lie, the other path unto death. Matthew 7:13-14, “

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

” The reason why so few people ever find the way unto eternal life is simply because it is so easy! I have studied all of the major pseudo-Christian religions, and I can show you that each of them teaches you must DO something to be saved.

For example: Roman Catholics are taught that they must keep Seven Sacraments (e.g., water baptism, holy Eucharist, confession, confirmation, et cetera) to get to Heaven. None of that is biblical. These are manmade tradition, fabricated over the centuries by the Vatican. Mark 7:9, “

And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. ” Mormons, Jehovah’s Witness, Church of Christ, Lutherans and Seventh-Day Adventists all require water baptism to get to Heaven. The Word of God does NOT require water baptism for salvation. You cannot show me even one Scripture that mandates baptism to get to Heaven. The repentant thief on the cross wasn’t baptized, yet Jesus promised him eternal life (Luke 23:43).

Sadly, there is another form of false religion (a cult) which has crept unawares into about half of all Baptist churches today, known as “Calvinism” (aka, “Lordship Salvation”). This is a deadly damnable heresy, which says that faith alone is insufficient to get to Heaven. In addition, these heretics require that you do one or more of the following: run the race, make full surrender to Christ as “

Lord,

” commit your life to Christ, count the cost and pay the price, be willing to turn from your sins, live a lifestyle of repentance, follow Jesus no matter what the cost, make public confession, et cetera. None of these things comprise the Gospel.

The Gospel of free grace taught in the Bible is based upon what Christ has already DONE to pay for our sins. Sanctification is a process, which begins with being born-again. Sanctification is the process of becoming Christlike. We are saved by faith in a moment, but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. God finishes what He starts. Philippians 1:6, “Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:”

However, when corrupt preachers mandate a changed life to get to Heaven, they have combined works with grace. They are preaching another gospel. Sanctification is a matter of growth in grace as a believer, and has nothing to do with accepting the free gift of eternal life. Salvation is salvation, and discipleship is discipleship.

> —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon, “[1]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

Either God does the saving, all of it, or else you don’t get His grace! Isaiah 64:6 says that even our righteousness is filth in God’s sight. That is because no matter how much good we do, we cannot erase the sins we have already committed. That is why we read in James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

" If you understand this Scripture passage, then it will become obvious just how foolish the very idea of a person turning from sins

to be saved really is. I don't care how much you may attempt to turn away from your sins,

YOU ARE STILL A WOEFUL SINNER! Listen dear friend, the only difference between a born-again saint of God, and the vilest lost sinner upon the face of the earth, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washes all our sins away (1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). DO or DONE! Which is it friend?

1.2.3 Just Enough Faith (2020-06-05 20:00)

Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

I used to wonder if I had enough faith to be saved. What if I didn't have enough faith at the time I thought I was saved at age 13? What if I didn't really get saved? How could I know if I had enough faith back then? I cannot even remember my frame of thinking 40 years ago. How do you measure faith? I want to share with you a precious truth that I learned at a church revival as a teenager, that really helped me answer these questions. All the faith you need to be saved is, “

Let’s look again at Romans 10:13, “For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” All the faith you need to be saved is just enough to call upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ!

The word

“call” does not mean to audibly call; but rather, it means to entreat (to call forth). It is the same meaning as the old English term. I used to go to the grocery store with my mother and see a sign that read: “Please call again!” I used to wonder what that meant. We came into their store to shop, we didn’t call them on the phone. When I became more educated I understood that it meant something different. The English dictionary provides 26 different meanings of the verb “ call.

” In the Greek, it simply means to entreat, which simply means that Jesus will save you if you come to Him by faith. John 6:37, “All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

What a precious promise from God! If we will only call upon the Lord Jesus for salvation, that is all the faith we need to be saved.

How much faith do you need to be saved?—JUST ENOUGH!

If you have “just enough” faith to put your trust in Christ, going to Him alone for the forgiveness of your sins, that’s all the faith required. Here again we see the SIMPLICITY that is in Christ. All that God requires to receive the free gift of eternal life is to appeal unto Christ. When I was 13 years old, the best I knew how, I cried out in my soul from a church pew and asked Jesus to save me. The truth is that I didn’t even have to ask Him, because God has already promised **“

(1st Corinthians 1:21b

).

It is okay to have some doubts. God will still save you despite any doubts you may have, if you'll simply act on the belief. If you have so much doubt, that you CANNOT believe on Christ, then you have a serious problem.

However, If you have "JUST ENOUGH" faith to take God at His Word

, by receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, then you are doing exactly what God expects of you. You obey the Gospel by believing it!

Jesus never one time spoke of degrees of faith in believing. Jesus simply told us to "believe on Him." John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and BELIEVETH ON HIM, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." If you "believe" on Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you are saved

All humanity are sinners (Romans 3:23). The Bible teaches that death is the penalty for our sins (Romans 6:23). This includes the second death in Hell (Revelation 20:15: 21:8; Psalms 9:17). Do you see yourself as a needy sinner? God sent His only begotten Son to pay for our sins on the cross (John 3:16). Do you believe Jesus died on the cross FOR YOUR SINS? Do you believe Jesus was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)?

If you believe these Bible truths and have "JUST ENOUGH" faith to BELIEVE this 'Good News'

—you are saved by faith!

You don't need to spend countless hours worrying over whether or not you have enough faith. If you have "JUST ENOUGH" faith to "CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD," that's all the faith you need to be saved. Either you "believe" on the Lord Jesus, or you don't. I believe!

All the faith you need to be saved is to obey the Gospel, by believing it!

1.2.4 ’Turning From Sins’ Is A Counterfeit Gospel (2020-06-05 23:47)

Galatians 3:1-3, “O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?”

The just do not live by works [1]Mr. Paul Washer! The just do not live by works [2]Mr. Ray Comfort! The Holy Bible proclaims in Hebrews 10:38a, “NOW THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH”!!! Paul Washer has drawn back. Ray Comfort has drawn back. They have “fallen from grace,” trying to keep the LAW to be saved, which effectively is the same thing as adding works to faith for salvation. According to these errant preachers, if you don’t have good works you are not saved. They all make the same grave error of wrongly defining “

to mean a change of lifestyle. The Greek meaning of the word in the Bible is simply a change of mind. Mr. Washer heretically teaches:

> “What you need to know is that salvation is by faith, and faith alone in Jesus Christ; and faith alone in Jesus Christ is preceded and followed by repentance—a* turning away from sin, a hatred for the things that God hates, and a love for the things that God loves, a growing in holiness and a desire; not to be like Britney Spears, not to be like the world, and not to be like the majority of American Christian, but to be like Jesus Christ!” [emphasis added] —Evangelist Paul Washer, YouTube video titled: ’[3]Paul Washer is not saved - Beware Of The Calvinist False Prophet,

Paul Washer is your typical false prophet who speaks with a forked tongue! On one hand he says that salvation is by faith alone. That much is true! Who can argue with that? But then Mr. Washer goes horribly astray from the truth, teaching that faith alone must include turning away from your sins before and after saving faith! You cannot show me the junk theology Paul is teaching anywhere in the Holy Bible. [4]You might find that crap in the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions, but you won't find it in the inspired King James Bible!!!

Kindly said, anyone who says that you must be willing to TURN FROM YOUR SINS to be saved is a theological LIAR! [5]Bob Jones University are theological LIARS! [6]Dr. Steve Pettit is a theological LIAR! [7]Evangelist Ray Comfort is a theological LIAR! [8]Pastor John MacArthur is a theological LIAR! Eternal life is a free gift, which demands nothing of the recipient except to receive it by faith. Even a small child can do that! Yet, Mr. MacArthur's counterfeit plan of salvation is so complicated that he says, and I quote: "[9]There is no such thing as a childhood conversion!" Isn't that terrible? Why does Bob Jones University and their alumni [10]bid Godspeed to this man?

Simply Believe The 'Good News' To Be Saved

The apostle Paul only wanted to know one thing of the church at Galatia in Galatians 3:1-3. Paul only wanted to know if they believed the 'Good News' that they heard preached unto them! Paul didn't mention the matter of their sins at all. Paul didn't ask them if they had turned from their sins? Paul didn't ask them if they were working at forsaking their sins? Paul Washer is an unsaved devil in the pulpit today, leading millions of people into the fires of Hell with him. We are saved by faith alone, period! Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

> “More people will die and burn in Hell, because they’re trusting too much!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon, “[11]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

Whenever there is a grey area, it is because it is not the truth! The truth is that NONE OF US have given up our wickedness. We are ALL woeful sinners! 1st John 1:8-10, “If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.” I love you my friend, whosoever you may be. I am a big sinner just like you, like all of us. I don’t want you to be deceived. Christ died for OUR SINS according to the Scriptures (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)! Christ died for UNGODLY SINNERS like you and me (Romans 4:5-6)!

Receiving A Gift Imposes No Obligations On The Recipient

Once you have the gift of eternal life, it can NEVER be lost, jeopardized or forfeited for any reason. No Christian believer can sin enough to exhaust the grace of God!!! Romans 5:20, “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.” Where the deepest and darkest sins abound in a believer’s life, the wondrous grace of God reaches deeper than the stain of sin has gone, cleansing us spotless by the precious blood of Jesus Christ, the beautiful sinless Lamb of God!!!!!!! This doesn’t give the believer permission to sin (Romans 3:31; Hebrews 12:6-8), it just means that our salvation is secured in Christ’s sacrifice upon the cross of Calvary, and NOT in our performance, sincerity or level of commitment to the things of God in this life. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

No one has ever turned from all their sins. To make an attempt to do so is the sin of self-righteousness. The saving Gospel of free grace does not include human reformation! Salvation is not reformation, penance, penitence, religion, legislation, rehabilitation or education; it is REGENERATION! Jesus said, **“

Ye must be born again

(John 3:7). Only by the miraculous new birth can anyone enter into the Kingdom of God. Turning away from sins is not necessary to be saved. You need not be willing to try! Bible repentance is the acknowledgement that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God, seeing your need for the blessed Savior. Come to Him now Oh needy sinner, believing that Jesus Christ paid your debt of sin on the cross with His precious blood. Believe that He was buried and physically resurrected from the dead three days later. Simply believe this ’Good New’ and you are saved dear reader!!! Nothing else is required by God to receive His free gift of eternal life.

1.2.5 Eternal Life Not A Different Doctrine Than Eternal Security (2020-06-06 11:30)

John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

The inspired Word of God does not make a distinction between Eternal Life and Eternal Security. These doctrines are one and the same! The Lord Himself promised eternal life to anyone who believes on Him. Some preachers make a distinction between eternal life and everlasting life, but I see no such distinction. These are used interchangeably. Although some saints will shine more than others in Heaven (Daniel 12:3), and have varying degrees of rewards (Matthew 6:19-20; 1st Corinthians 3:8), every believer will have " life " in Heaven. So I don't see any difference between " everlasting life " and " eternal life " in the Scripture. They are one and the same.

Likewise, the doctrines of Eternal Life and Eternal Security are the same. You don't receive eternal life at the time of salvation, and then struggle to obtain eternal security. The believer's eternal life in Christ Jesus is our eternal security!

Beware Of False Prophets

I have heard false prophets (e.g., Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur and Paul Washer) teach that a person who lives in willful perpetual sin cannot be assured of eternal security. For example: Here is a disturbing quote from Ray Comfort from his 'The Evidence Bible.' On page 1513 of 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,' under the section "Questions & Objections," Ray Comfort addresses the statement: "Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin." Here's Ray Comfort's reply to this statement:

> "The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon 'repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ' (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6." [Emphasis added] —'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,' by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Those are some very dangerous words at the end, "…assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross." Clearly, Ray Comfort thinks you must make an effort to reform your life of sin to be saved. That is another gospel.

Another example of junk theology is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014, who told 2,700 BJU students on March 30, 2020, that [1]if they perpetually lie they'll go to Hell:

"And sadly, for some of you, it's [lying] going to find you out in eternity. If somebody perpetually lies, what does that say about him? Could it be simply exposing the reality that you've never put off the old man, and put on the new? Where do perpetual liars go? Revelation 21:9, 'all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."' —[2]Dr. Steve Pettit (March 30, 2020; 'The Daily Platform,' #696 - 'Tell The Truth,' 17:48 time)

Dr. Pettit is preaching another gospel of works! " All liars " go to Hell the Bible says (Revelation 21:8), which is why we all need God's " [3]imputed righteousness " (Philippians 3:9; Romans 4:5-6). We don't have any righteousness to offer God, so He gives us His righteousness by faith. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he [God the Father] hath made him [God the Son] to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.) " Sadly, Steve Pettit has a perverse Calvinist view of the Gospel, teaching that you [4]cannot merely say, [5]"I got saved"; but rather, he heretically teaches that you're not completely assured of Heaven until you get there! That is as Satanic as anything I know!!! How is that a free gift?

Tragically, [6]30 % of all southern Baptists are Calvinists. The teachings of John Calvin are another gospel. Calvinists view salvation as a process, that includes sanctification and glorification. So if you are shacking up with your girlfriend, and don't go to church, and live like the Devil, Calvinists say you are not saved. They are not saved! Calvinists pervert the Gospel of free grace, following the heretical foolishness of a [7]mass-murderer who has been dead for 500 years! The moment that you place your trust in Jesus as your Savior, you are forever born-again! The life you choose to live from that point forward is entirely a matter of discipleship, and not sonship (salvation)!

If you are saved, you 100 % have eternal security!!! God doesn't give temporary life or probationary life, He only gives eternal life. God has NEVER taken away anyone's salvation who was already His child. Ephesians 1:13, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise," The Bible even calls the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit, the " holy Spirit of Promise. " PROMISE! What do you think that means? It means God gives the Holy Spirit to every one who believes, as He promised (John 14:16; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). The Holy Spirit " SEALS " every saint at the time of salvation. You can lie all you want Bob Jones University' student, and not worry about God taking away His gift of salvation. You can lust and tell fibs all day long, and you'll still be " SAFE " in Jesus! Kindly said, evangelists' Steve Pettit and Ray Comfort are devils in the pulpit!!!

Once saved always saved is 100 % biblical! Nothing more is required than simple childlike faith in the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.2.6 The Counterfeit Gospel Of 'Unshackled' (2020-06-07 05:46)

2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."

I visited the famous Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago as a kid hundreds of times. My father was a Skid Row preacher and regularly preached at PGM, taking men into the Prayer Room after the sermon to lead them to Christ. This was in the 1970's and 1980's when Harry Saulnier was the mission's director. Back then PGM preached the accurate Gospel of free grace, and none of this " turn from your sins " crap that they preach today in 2020.

I was listening to their latest Unshackled program today, titled: "[1]Bill Terrell, Part One" (program #3590 - aired in 2020). I was disgusted as I listened to Bill's testimony. He was a career criminal, who found religion in prison. PGM's favorite GO-TO Bible verse is 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." This verse simply means that when you get born-again, the indwelling Holy Spirit now lives inside you. Your spiritual understanding has now been opened (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). The Comforter is now with you for the rest of your life. Everything is new! However, this Bible verse does NOT mean that your addictions, lusts and desire to live in wickedness is suddenly taken away! If you listen to the 'Unshackled' program, you will hear Bill say at 19:10 in time:

> BILL - "I found a verse I like in 2nd Corinthians 5:17, 'Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.' A new creature. It's funny. I have no desire for drugs or any of the things that controlled my life before. Could that be what it means?
> FRIEND - That's exactly what it means!

That is another gospel! Getting saved is simply receiving God's free gift of eternal life. By choosing Jesus Christ as your Savior, this does not miraculously remove your desire to do drugs and forsake " the things that controlled my life. " Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) is horribly perverting the Gospel of free grace, presenting it to lost sinners as a lifestyle that must be lived. By teaching that getting saved requires surrendering CONTROL of your life over to Christ, PGM has added Lordship to God's plan of salvation. That is another gospel!

I am so sick and tired of professed Christians using oxymora (plural of oxymoron) to present the Gospel. An " oxymoron " is use of conflicting words or concepts. I like to use the plural of the word, " oxymorons. " A few moments later in the program, Bill calls his Mom from prison to tell her, " I turned my life over to Jesus! " That is disciple-ship, not the free gift of eternal life. PGM peddles Christianity as a life-changing experience, mandating reformation to be saved. That is where they go theologically astray. Certainly the Gospel is the answer to the world's problem, and becoming a Christian ought to transform a person as their mind is renewed by the Word of God (Romans 12:1-2).

Albeit, we absolutely need to keep these two things separate from one another, otherwise we are effectively requiring people to keep the law to be saved. Romans 3:20 says that no one can be justified by keeping the law (i.e., works). Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." God does not accept works for salvation. The Bible calls these "DEAD WORKS" (Hebrews 6:1). DEAD WORKS include both GOOD WORKS and BAD WORKS. We don't get saved by doing good works, nor by giving up bad works! Salvation is without works!!!

In the same program I just mentioned from 'Unshackled,' Bill's friend tells him: " Yes, I knew there was something different about you. Praise God! It will change your life. " This is the idea that Pacific Garden Mission pounds into people's minds, that giving your life to Jesus will change your life. This is the heresy of Lordship Salvation (aka„ Calvinism), and not the Gospel of free grace!

'Unshackled's Wacky Theology And Damnable False Gospel

The story is about a man named Doug Ehrhardt (Program #3613 - Aired in 2020). After going through drug rehab, Doug returns to his job and looks for "The Jesus People." He finds Barry, who advises him at 22:59 time in the program that he will someday stand before "The Great White Throne Of Judgment." That is not true. The Great White Throne Of Judgment is only for the unsaved (Revelation 20:12-15). PGM's theology is not very good at all.

Barry tells Doug that everyone will one day be divided between the sheep and the goats. Again, PGM horribly misinterprets the Bible. " The Judgment Of The Nations " (Matthew 25:32-33) will happen at the end of the 7-year Tribulation period, when Jesus Christ returns at His Second Coming. Only those people who have survived the Tribulation will be judged at this time, not everyone. This event has nothing to do with The Great White Throne Judgment, which happen 1,000 years later! Only the unsaved will appear at The Great White Throne Judgment, to be judged and sentenced to the eternal Lake of Fire. PGM is really off in their theology!!!

> "You see what happened here, right Doug. God has given you a second chance. And you better get this right, 'cause one day it's gonna be just you, stand before a Great White Throne in front of the Lord. And on that day, just like the Bible says, before Him shall be gathered all nations. And he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats. And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. The sheep (those are the ones who receive Jesus in their heart), they follow Him and they go right on into Heaven. The goats > live a life of sin, like you; they follow their own way, and you know where they go, Doug? They go to Hell? Now I'm telling it to you straight, no sugar coating. So you tell me, what's it gonna to be? You gonna be a sheep or a goat?

> " [emphasis added]

Dear reader, that is another gospel of self-righteousness! You don't go to Hell because you live in sin! You go to Hell because you reject the free gift of eternal life through faith alone in Jesus Christ. At [2]24:59 in the program, Doug heretically says:

> " I repented of all my sins, all my past! And I believed in Jesus, to be the leader of my life! " — Doug Ehrhardt (Program #3613 - Aired in 2020)

That is a counterfeit gospel! That is not what the inspired Word of God teaches. Sadly, religious reprobates have taken control over Pacific Garden Mission, who are not saved. Harry Saulnier NEVER would have allowed this garbage theology to be taught on 'Unshackled.' No one has ever repented of all their sins! You cannot show me anywhere in the Scriptures that requires a person to repent from their sins, or turn from their sins, to be saved. That is the garbage that Pastor Marty Herron and Dr. Steve Pettit teach, and the unsaved Dr. John MacArthur crowd teaches, not the inspired Holy Bible!!!

'Unshackled' is theologically confusing at best! I am saddened that all of their hard work at PGM and 'Unshackled,' literally tens of thousands of hours over recent decades, is mostly in vain. Galatians 5:4, " Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

" The dear folks at Pacific Garden Mission are fallen from grace, because they add reformation to the grace of God. They are not merely off a bit in the their doctrinal teachings, they are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! ...

> 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, " But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Who hath bewitched you Oh Pacific Garden Mission? (Galatians 3:1-3). Their 'Unshackled' programs are filled with junk theology, preaching the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. The idea that a person must turn away from their sinful behavior to be saved is human reformation, not the Gospel of free grace. Eternal life is the free gift of God, obtained by faith alone. Mark 7:9, " And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. " Satan has crept into most churches, missions, Bible colleges and religious institutions today, preaching a counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works!

Arthur Valder's False Gospel

In another 'Unshackled' program about Arthur Valder (program #3615 - aired in 2020), Arthur says at 17:18 time in the presentation that he needs Jesus in his life. In the conversation that follows with his friend Norm, we hear more junk theology. At 20:15 in the program, Arthur's friend Norm advises him: "When we come to Christ, we have to do our best to make a mends when we have wronged people!" That is another gospel. PGM horribly fails to make a clear distinction between discipleship and salvation. No, we don't have to do penitence (righting our wrongs) to be saved. Salvation is not penance (sorrow for sins). It is not reformation (turning for sins). Salvation is a new birth, by REGENERATION!!! Jesus said in John 3:7, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"!!!

Here are some excellent helpful quotes, showing the incompatibility between Lordship Salvation and the Gospel Of Free Grace:

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —Ryrie, Charles. Balancing the Christian Life. Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).
> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." Howard, William. "Is Faith Enough to Save?" —Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).
>
> "This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" —Hook, H. Phillip. "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith." Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).
>
> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).
> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).
> "For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament." —Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

> "There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Lindsey, Hal. The Liberation of Planet Earth. Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).
> "Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". —Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).
>
> "Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". —Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).
>
> "There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." —Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).
> "People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

Have you been deceived by Calvinism? It is commonly known today as "Lordship Salvation"! This is not the Gospel dear friend. You don't trust Jesus as your Lord or King to go to Heaven, you simply trust Him only as your personal Savior!!!

1.2.7 You Don't Have To "Ask" Jesus To Be Saved (2020-06-07 12:00)

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Did you know that you don't even have to "ask" Jesus to save you in order to go to Heaven? "What?" you say? Yes, you heard right, you don't have to "ask" for the Lord to save you to get to Heaven. The reason why is because God already told us what to do to be saved, and that is to simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. If you believe that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, and you believe that Christ resurrected from the dead (which means that God the Father accepted Christ's payment for our sins) you are saved. Jesus said in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Believe that Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, Who paid the price for your sins upon the cross. Jesus was buried and then raised-up from the dead three days later, which means that God the Father accepted the payment of His dear Son on the cross for our sins.

Certainly, you may call upon the name of the Lord in prayer to be saved, but it is your heart's trust in the Lord that causes God to work the supernatural miracle of salvation, and not our prayer or human will in any way. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Salvation is completely of God. Our part is simply to believe the Gospel. Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

The word "call" in Romans 10:13 does NOT mean "to pray" as most people think. Rather, it is the Greek word epikaleomai and means "to entitle," that is, "give the right to," (by implication, to invoke"). My friend, God wants to save you more than you could ever comprehend. 2nd Peter 3:9 says God is not willing for any to perish, but for all men to come to repentance. Your salvation has already been paid for by Jesus' precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot." Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

All you have to do is give God the right to save you. That's what the word "call" means in Romans 10:13. God's holiness cannot permit any sinner to enter into Heaven. So God in His wondrous love made provision for our redemption through the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. There are no exceptions to the rule. God is bound by His Word. God cannot save you unless you let Him. As strange as that may seem, it is 100 % Biblical. God has given to you a freewill to choose for yourself.

Although God can do anything (omnipotent), there are certain things that God simply WILL NOT do, because they would violate His holy character. So many people are foolish idiots, who believe that a loving God will let them slide and enter into Heaven without being born-again. Jesus exclaimed in John 3:5 that unless a person becomes born-again (anew) by the Holy Spirit of God, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. Jesus warned that the Scripture cannot be broken (John 10:35). Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort; whereas, Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His dear Son on the cross.

The holy Bible warns that you will go straight to the fires of Hell if you die in your sins (John 8:24; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9). Jesus literally took our truckload of sins upon Himself on the cross, paying our humongous sin debt that He did not owe, so that we would not have to spend an endless eternity burning in the fires of Hell to pay for our own sins. All you need to do is receive God's grace and mercy by receiving Christ's payment on the cross for your sins. It's all free for the taking.

It is not wrong to "ask" Christ to save you, but as I have painfully learned over the years, heresies are creeping into our Fundamental Baptist Churches by the hour. There are all sorts of unbiblical, dangerous and infectious false doctrines which have crept into most churches today. Salvation is easy, and anyone who comes along saying it is hard is a liar. [1]Billy Graham makes salvation hard, requiring lost sinners to COUNT THE COST and PAY THE PRICE to be saved. My friend, Jesus paid the price and there is no cost for us to count. Salvation is absolutely, freely and completely by faith alone in the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

You don't have to " ask " Jesus to save you, because God is already freely offering you eternal life. All you need to do is accept it by faith. Eternal life is a free gift! Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later for your justification. A gift is not earned, it is simply accepted.

1.2.8 Jesus Paid It All (2020-06-09 04:30)

1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: "

Jesus paid for our sins with His precious blood.

1st Corinthians 6:20, " For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." That price for our redemption is the blood of Jesus!!! Pastor John MacArthur heretically teaches that Jesus did not have God's blood flowing in Him. I am shocked that any preacher could be so naive and corrupted in his theology. Jesus was born of a virgin. Since the Lord did not have an earthly father, He absolutely had to have God's blood in Him. Acts 20:28 speaks of " the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

" The Church was purchased with God's blood. Jesus had God's blood flowing in His veins!

Jesus paid it all!

When a wayward Bible professor or preacher tells you that you must “be willing to

turn from your sins

” to be saved, he is preaching another gospel. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If I bought you a birthday present, and insisted it is still free while requiring you to wash my car next Saturday to get it, you’d be confused. You’d wonder what was wrong with me! I am wondering what is wrong with all these Lordship Salvation preachers today! They speak of salvation “by grace alone,

while requiring people to make an effort to turn away from lifelong sinful bad habits to receive the free gift of God. Clearly, salvation cannot be by both grace and human effort (works).

[1]Case in point, read what Bob Jones University teaches on their website. Something is very wrong with that picture folks!

I heard one corrupt preacher refuting Lordship Salvation, but he still insisted that you must “

turn from your sins

(which they errantly think means repentance) to be saved. He is utterly confused and corrupted, preaching another gospel. Repentance is a change of mind , not a change of lifestyle. We repent TO believe, not repent AND believe! Turning from sins is human reformation. You don’t have to turn from sins to be saved, because that is another gospel. We get saved by trusting what Jesus Christ has already DONE on the cross to pay for our sins, and not by repenting, but repentance facilitates believing. No one has ever been saved who didn’t repent, but repentance is simply the acknowledgment that you are a needy sinner in God’s sight (Romans 3:19-20).

You need a Savior, to escape God’s wrath in an eternal burning Hell (Romans 5:9; John 3:36; Revelation 20:15; Psalms 9:17; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9). If you miss Heaven, there is nowhere else to go except the Lake of Fire. No one ever goes to Hell except those who choose to go there, by rejecting God’s free gift of forgiveness through faith in Jesus Christ. All you need to do is BELIEVE the ’Good News’ that Christ died for your sins on the cross, was buried, and three days later resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If that is your only hope for Heaven, then you are saved my friend. Nothing else is required from you.

Jesus paid it all, so you wouldn't have, to by burning in the fires of Hell forever and ever. Hell is a literal place of torment (Revelation 14:11). Hell is a place of misery (Luke 16:19-31). God doesn't want anyone to go to Hell. The Lord made a way of escape, but you have to choose to receive it! Faith in Jesus Christ is the way of escape! Please run away from anyone who stands behind a pulpit, demanding that you surrender, sacrifice and pay the price to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift, because Jesus paid for it with His blood. God wants to save you so much that He died for your sins on the cross! The penalty has already been paid in full. All you need to do is accept that payment by faith, taking God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Scripture. It is that easy, free and simple to obtain eternal life.

1.2.9 Salvation Is Not An "Award" (2020-06-09 10:30)

Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

[1]Evangelist Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) made the following heretical statement, teaching a works-based false gospel. Dr. Pettit preached a sermon in Chapel on January 26, 2015 titled: "[2]What Does it Mean To Run The Race?" (MP3, 'The Daily Platform,' Dr. Steve Pettit). Evangelist Steve Pettit is the new president of Bob Jones University (since 2014). Dr. Pettit heretically teaches that "THE RACE" we run as Christians is necessary for salvation. That is exactly what Seventh-Day Adventist false prophetess' [3]Ellen G. White (1827-1915) taught! Steve Pettit teaches:

> "'The race' is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith." —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [4]4:26)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches over 2,600 BJU students that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [5]22:57)

Heaven itself? Oh my! What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 9:24-25, "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." As you just read, the "award" will be an "INCORRUPTIBLE CROWN"; but Steve Pettit says it will be HEAVEN ITSELF!!!

Salvation Is Not An Award, It Is A Free Gift

Mr. Pettit is literally saying that the AWARD for running 'The Race' is salvation!!! Folks, eternal life is not an "AWARD," it is a free gift! Are you getting this? What a demonic heretic!!! Salvation is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15), which does NOT require living a faithful life to secure!!! Steve Pettit is a reprobate in the pulpit, an unsaved heretic, a theological liar!!! He falsely says:

> "So not only does it have a start, but 'The Race' has to be run! It starts with faith, but it continues with faithfulness. You start the race with the purpose of finishing the race. Nobody starts the race, so that they can quit half-way through. When you start in faith, you need to run and finish in faith. However, let me also remind you, that this race is HARD. Is a race not hard? Is it not difficult to get out and run?" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]6:34)

Let me ask you a very important question dear reader—If I give you a gift, what does that mean? Here is what it means:

1. A gift will cost you NOTHING, because it cost me. I paid for it. Jesus paid for the gift of eternal life!
2. Receiving the gift does not obligate you in any way to do anything, or else it cannot be a gift. The dictionary defines "gift" as: "Something acquired without compensation." Eternal life is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15, 18).
3. I cannot take it away from you, otherwise it wasn't truly a gift, or else I am a thief for taking it back.
4. If it is an "award," then it cannot also be a "gift"! The dictionary definition of "award" is: "Something given for victory or superiority in a contest or competition." Folks, getting saved is a free gift, not a race or competition!
5. It is not "HARD" to receive a gift. Steve Pettit says running the race is "HARD," and he says you must run the race to get the "award" of Heaven. What a con man in the pulpit! Getting saved is easy, not an award; it is a free gift!

Dear friend, if you will simply always keep in mind that eternal life is a "free gift," it will steer you clear of mountains of heresy!!! Steve Pettit is a deadly false prophet, who corrupts the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I'm always shocked to hear when professed Christians trust in their own "righteousness" for salvation. Salvation is so simple a child can do it. Yet these highly educated people, many with doctorates, can't even get salvation right. I guess the apostle Paul was right when he said: "But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise."

1.2.10 The Reality Of Hell (2020-06-10 07:33)

"There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And IN HELL he lift up his eyes, being in TORMENTS, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and

COOL MY TONGUE; for I AM TORMENTED IN THIS FLAME. But

Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art TORMENTED.

And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of TORMENT. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto him, IF THEY HEAR NOT MOSES AND THE PROPHETS, NEITHER WILL THEY BE PERSUADED, THOUGH ONE ROSE FROM THE DEAD."

The subject of Hell needs to be addressed in this blog about salvation. One of the main reasons why so few people are saved today is because they do not see the need to get saved. Preachers have dropped the ball for God, refusing to preach about eternal judgment in the Lake of Fire. If preachers would preach the way they are supposed to against the awfulness of sin, and coming judgment from God, and the horrors of an eternal burning Hell, then many more people would repent of their unbelief and get saved. So with this truth in mind, I want to address the reality of eternal punishment for all unrepentant sinners, who die in their sins without Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. No one can go to Heaven who is not saved. That means the only other place to spend eternity is in the Lake of Fire (Hell).

Please notice in our text passage that Jesus did NOT say this was a parable in Luke 16:19-31; therefore, WE MUST ACCEPT IT AS LITERAL! Also, carefully notice that in all of Jesus' parables that He always referred used vague terms, not proper nouns. Jesus would say things like: "a certain man" went off into a "far off country." Jesus never used specific names in His parables. Albeit, Jesus used specific names in this account: Lazarus and Abraham. This is a factual story of something that happened. The word

"TORMENT" is found mentioned 3 times in verses 23, 25 and 28. Just as today, A MAN IS ONLY AS GOOD AS HIS WORD.

We must believe then that JESUS SAID WHAT HE MEANT AND MEANT

WHAT HE SAID!

The rich man was not a criminal; he was not a drug dealer; he was not a murderer; so what was it that kept the rich man from getting saved? The rich man lived for himself. He couldn't have cared less about the poor. Lazarus was very poor and diseased. The Bible says the dogs came and licked his wounds. Lazarus ate scraps from the garbage of the rich man. He was selfish and self-centered, but that's not what sent him to Hell. He went to Hell because he never put his FAITH in Jesus Christ as personal Savior. He was guilty of the worst sin of all—UNBELIEF. He never stopped long enough to consider God. He despised the local preacher and ignored the inspired Word of God. Unfortunately, Hell became his new eternal home when he died in his unbelief. The only sin that can send anyone to Hell is unbelief. No amount of sins can keep a person out of Heaven who trusts the Son of God.

Most People Will Be Eternally Damned In The Lake of Fire

The Holy Bible teaches that most people will die in their sins and go to Hell forever. Very few people ever find the truth of the Gospel. Matthew 7:13-14, "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. " Oh how many rich people are sadly in Hell right now? The Gospel is so simple. It is free. Getting saved is easy. That is why so many people pass right over it. The sinful nature wants something it can see and touch, which does not require faith.

That is why the Roman Catholic religion has over one billion members. From the cradle to the casket, Catholicism has a religious package for you. In Catholicism, you go into a confessional booth and confess your sins to a sinful priest, who sinfully claims to have the power to forgive your sins. The priest then lies to you, assuring you that you're forgiven, but you are just as much still in your sins as when you entered into the confessional booth. What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

" Only God can forgive sin, and He freely offers forgiveness through faith alone in His only begotten Son! No Lutheran minister or Catholic priest can forgive anyone's sins! The very idea is preposterous!!!

The Bible gives a special warning to rich people. James 5:1, "Go to now, YE RICH MEN, weep and howl for your MISERIES that shall come upon you." Luke 18:25, "For it is EASIER FOR A CAMEL TO GO THROUGH A NEEDLE'S EYE, than for a RICH MAN to enter into the kingdom of God." James 1:11, "For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall THE RICH MAN FADE AWAY IN HIS WAYS."

Do you take the Word of God SERIOUSLY, or do you take God's Word lightly? Hell is a literal place of torment. Jesus said that Hell has fire! Let's look at some more Bible verses about Hell. Jesus foretells of WEEPING and GNASHING OF TEETH, "...there shall be WEEPING and GNASHING OF TEETH" (Matthew 8:12). Matthew 22:13, "Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be WEEPING AND GNASHING OF TEETH." Matthew 24:51, "And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be WEEPING AND GNASHING OF TEETH."

Matthew 25:30, "And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites:

there shall be WEEPING AND GNASHING OF TEETH."

"There shall be WEEPING AND GNASHING OF TEETH, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out" (Luke 13:28). "And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the FIRE THAT NEVER SHALL BE QUENCHED: Where their worm dieth not, and the FIRE IS NOT QUENCHED. And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the FIRE THAT NEVER SHALL BE QUENCHED: Where their worm dieth not, and the FIRE IS NOT QUENCHED. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into HELL FIRE: Where their worm dieth not, and the FIRE IS NOT QUENCHED" (Mark 9:43-48). Hell has fire!

The Holy Bible has more to say about Hell than Heaven. If God allows suffering in this world, you'd be foolish to assume that there is no suffering in the afterlife for the wicked. Your only hope of escape is through Christ's sacrifice on the cross. Please don't take the risk of going to Hell forever. If you not sure, or still have doubts, that is okay, just act on what little faith you have and trust the Savior. This life will be over before we know it. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a very long time! God is offering you eternal life dear friend, completely free as a gift without obligation to you.

God Doesn't Want Anyone To Go To Hell

2nd Peter 3:9b says God is "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

All you have to do is believe what God has said in His inspired Word. Simply place your trust in the Son of God, who died on the cross to pay for all your sins. What a wonderful Savior!!! Come to Him as a needy sinner, believing that He resurrected from the dead after three days. Believe it Oh sinner and you are saved!!! God created Hell for the Devil and his angels, not for you! Matthew 25:41, " Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: " It has been said that the doors of Hell are locked from the inside, meaning that the people in Hell chose to be there. Is that your choice dear friend? It sure ain't mine! I chose to be in Heaven with my blessed Redeemer at age 13. The new birth is not a lifestyle to be lived, it is a gift to be received by faith.

1.2.11 There's Only One Mediator Between God And Men (2020-06-10 10:30)

1st Timothy 2:3-6, "For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time."

There is only ONE MEDIATOR between God and men, the man Christ Jesus. God is a Spirit, and man is a spirit, created in God's image. However, man is sinful and cannot fellowship with a holy God. Before he sinned, Adam walked with God is the Garden of Eden (Genesis 3:8). Sin brought separation between God and man (Isaiah 59:1-2). The Word of God became incarnate (flesh) and walked this earth in the person of Jesus Christ (John 1:1-3, 14). Mankind is sinful; God is holy. A mediator was needed to bridge the gap. Jesus is 100 % a man, and also 100 % God. As deity Jesus can communicate with God, because He is a part of the Godhead; as a man Jesus can communicate with humanity, because He is human as well. ...

> Hebrews 4:14-16, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
> Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need."

Jesus Christ is the ONE MEDIATOR between God and man. There is no other means of reconciling with our holy God. Jesus has the nail-scared hands and feet. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay! That is why Jesus is our only mediator. God is absolutely holy. God's holiness demanded justice, because humanity had committed crimes against God. The world is a mess! We've all seen the wickedness of mankind race throughout human civilization. The reality of war is horrifying. Quadrillions of crimes have been commit throughout history; neighbour against neighbour, brother against brother, family against family, nation against nation. God's holiness demands justice! Crimes must be paid for. Jesus Christ paid for all those offenses. ...

> Romans 5:6-8, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Christ did not die for the righteous (the saints), He died for the ungodly (everyone). The Calvinist heresy of "Limited Atonement" teaches that Jesus only died for Christians. We know that is a doctrine of devils. The Bible plainly teaches in 1st John 2:2, "And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world." Could the Bible be any plainer that Christ died FOR ALL MEN? I think not. Christ died for THE UNGODLY! That includes everyone!!! We are all ungodly sinners. Even if you are saved, you are still an ungodly sinner, but you have been cleansed by the precious blood of Jesus; so that when God sees you, He only sees the righteousness of His dear Sin imputed to you. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

Having said all that, you should realize by now that no Lutheran minister can forgiven your sins. If you [1]go look at their websites, Lutheran pastors claim to have the God-given power to forgive people's sins. They are theological liars! Who are you going to believe, the Lutheran minister who arrogantly claims he can forgive your sins, or 1st Timothy 2:5 that says Jesus Christ is the 'ONE MEDIATOR' between God and men? Likewise, the Catholic priest arrogantly claims to have the same power to forgive sins. Even the unsaved reprobate religious Pharisees understood that only God can forgive sins. Mark 2:7, "Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?"

So if you want to receive eternal life dear reader, you MUST come only to the blessed Savior. John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." If you desire to go to Heaven someday, then you have only one choice according to the Scripture, and that choice is through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

The Lutheran minister cannot make you right with God. The Catholic pope or priest cannot make you right with God. I have had a few web visitors want me to assure them that they are saved, but I cannot do that. Only God's written promises in His Word can give someone the sweet assurance that they are God's child. So I teach the Bible the best I can, and share as many books, sermons and resources as I can, and encourage them to do their own Bible study; they have to settle their doubts on their own. It is not good for someone to look to me, and put their confidence in me that I SAID THEY ARE SAVED. Who am I? Everyone needs to place their faith in God, and base that belief solely on the written inspired Word of God.

I think some people with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) have a faith problem. Since they refuse to go on faith alone, they opt instead for something they can see, a preacher they can trust, a wafer they can eat, a water baptism certificate they can frame on their wall, a person (priest) to tell them they are forgiven, et cetera. Salvation is strictly by faith in a Savior we cannot see (1st Peter 1:7-9). We get saved by ceasing from all dead works (good and bad works alike), and resting in Christ alone, as God rested on the seventh day from His creative labours in Genesis chapters 1-2.

Salvation is found ONLY in the precious name of Jesus. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." When a corrupt preachers lies to you, by saying that you must " turn from your sins " to be saved, he is trying to convince you to become your own mediator. Christ is the one and only mediator, not anyone else. Giving up your sins is a work of self-righteousness, and not the free gift of God. What is wrong with so many preachers today?

1.2.12 Ye Are Fallen From Grace (2020-06-12 03:30)

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; YE ARE FALLEN FROM GRACE" (Galatians 5:1-4).

Many sincere folks have misinterpreted this Scripture to conclude that a Believer can lose their salvation—this is a false teaching! "Falling from grace" does NOT mean falling away from God's salvation and God's promises. God made us a promise in the Bible, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Romans 10:13). My part is to "call", God's part is to "save." I cannot save myself, nor can you. Only God can save a person because only God can forgive sin. No priest or Pope can forgive (or absolve) anyone's sins. Penance is simply NOT a Bible doctrine. I must go to Jesus and Him alone!

Thanks be to God, I did this as a 13 year old youth and have been saved since that glorious day. Though I am still a sinner and often fall short of God's perfect standards, I am still a child of God—safe and secure in the everlasting arms of the Father. I CANNOT lose my salvation, there is no way! No amount of evil or wrongdoing can ever undo what God has eternally settled. I didn't deserve to be saved in the first place, so my actions have no affect on my eternal salvation.

Granted, this does not give us God's blessing or permission to live in sin, it just means that salvation starts and ends with God alone. The only thing God requires of us is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. What God starts He alone will finish. Thank God, Jesus washed my sins away and wrote my name in Heaven! God saved a vile, dirty, rotten, needy sinner like me from hellfire! God placed Jesus' righteousness on my account, and placed all my sins on Jesus account! The Father declared me J-U-ST-I-F-I-E-D, Just-If-I'd never sinned! Now that's a wonderful God!

Dangerous False Prophets Had Crept Into The Church At Galatia

What does the Apostle Paul mean here in Galatians 5:1-4? What is meant by the phrase "fallen from grace?" In order to fully understand what Paul meant, we must understand the purpose of the epistle of Galatians. The professed believers at Galatia had fallen victim to a false religion. And let me pause right here to say that there are MANY FALSE RELIGIONS in the world today, right in our own neighborhoods. These "deceitful workers" that appear as angels of light are two-fold the "children of Hell." Not only are they unsaved, but they subtly propagate damnable heresies to lead others into Hell with them (the blind leading the blind). They are dangerous and must be exposed for who they are—antichrists! They are wolves in sheep's clothing!

There were false religions in Paul's day. One false religion in particular had crept into the church at Galatia. This false religion wanted to merge with the true b elievers in order to promote their own false religion. This was a false religion that taught “works” was necessary to be saved. They believed that a man needed to be circumcised in order to be saved. This was known as Judaism (the keeping of the ceremonial laws, etc). Listen here to Paul’s warning to the church at Galatia, “As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, THAT THEY MAY GLORY IN YOUR FLESH” (Galatians 6:12,13). This false religion didn’t care about the Gospel, they only cared about promoting their own false teachings.

Jesus Is The ONLY Way To Heaven!

Having laid the groundwork, now let me explain what Paul meant when he said, “Ye are fallen from grace.” Paul was simply saying that Jesus is the only ticket to Heaven. If you miss Jesus, you will have missed your only bus ride to Heaven. If an unsaved person rejects Christ as Savior, then there is NO OTHER WAY to be saved. This is all that Paul was saying. Paul speaks strongly in Galatians 3:1-2, “O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so FOOLISH? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?”

Nobody likes to be called “foolish.” Paul’s strong words must have been a big surprise to these folks; nevertheless, they were much needed words. “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?” (Galatians 4:16). I find myself quoting this verse often because many people do not want to hear the truth. We must learn to accept the truth, seek the truth and love the truth because God is truth.

The Gospel Is Easily Perverted, Just Add or Subtract

The Galatians had heard the Gospel of Jesus Christ and yet we're being entangled into this works religion mess. Paul was starting to wonder if these folks had really been saved in the first place. "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that c alled you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would PERVERT THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST" (Galatians 1:6-7). The Gospel is easy to pervert, simply add something to it and it is corrupted.

For example: If you add baptism to the Gospel, then you have added a "work" to God's simple plan of salvation by grace through faith. No good deeds can save us and they absolutely cannot be added to salvation otherwise you will have perverted the truth of the Gospel. Baptismal regeneration perverts the Gospel of Christ. Some people have the false impression that they are saved, but they truly are NOT because of various misunderstandings concerning salvation. Adding or subtracting anything to simple Gospel of Christ is a sure road to Hell.

If You Reject Jesus As Savior, Then You Are 'Fallen From Grace'

If you have heard the Gospel of Jesus Christ, look no further. You must simply believe the Gospel, making the decision to trust Christ as Savior, asking Him to forgive you of all your sins. If you have heard the Gospel of Christ but it hasn't affected you, I feel sorry for you. If you refuse to call upon the name of the Lord, you are fallen from grace (you have rejected your only way to salvation). If you have called on the Lord, but are also trusting in good works to get you into Heaven, then you are not truly trusting Christ. I've actually met some people who have told me that they are trusting "faith and works" to get them into Heaven. No sir! You won't get into Heaven any other way than through the precious blood of Jesus Christ.

If You Add Works to Faith, then You are 'Fallen from Grace'

Notice again the Words which we just read in Galatians chapter three, "This only would learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the WORKS of the law, or by the hearing of FAITH?" Do you see? Salvation cannot be by works, only by faith. If the Galatians had fallen prey the false belief that circumcision was necessary for salvation, then it would have revealed beyond a shadow of a doubt that they were NOT saved. I often am concerned myself about the salvation of other professed believers. You'd be surprised just how many people think they're genuinely saved simply because they made a commitment to Christ at a crusade or turned over a new leaf at a revival meeting.

Let me tell you, your sins are the big issue my friend. Have your sins been dealt with? Have you gone to God as a dirty, rotten, hell-deserving sinner and BELIEVED the Good News of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily resurrected the third day for salvation? That is THE GOSPEL! That is the GOOD NEWS! Believe it friend and you have eternal life! John 6:47, "Verily, verily,

I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Jesus Christ alone can forgive and save you? The phrase "fallen from grace" simply means that you have refused the saving power of the Gospel. It means you have been deceived and given a phony life insurance policy! I don't know about you, but I have "all saints insurance" with Jesus Christ. It's a free policy paid-in-full by Jesus Christ Himself. God the Father is my agent! Amen! Anybody can have this eternal life insurance. There's no deductible, no premium and no hidden costs. Are you insured with the heavenly Father? Don't miss your only bus to Heaven, simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ now as your personal Savior. Please don't delay, because today could be the last day of your earthly life! Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time!

A Believer Can Never 'Fall From Grace'

Also, let me make clear that you only need to be saved once and can NEVER fall from grace. As I've mentioned before, we didn't deserve salvation in the first place and we never will deserve it. If we cannot do good works to earn Heaven in the first place, then we cannot do bad works to lose it! We are kept saved by God's power and promise. Our part is only to believe on Jesus Christ. Once saved always saved (OSAS)! That's the Gospel truth! The Holy Bible teaches that a person must be "born-again," NOT "born-again and again and again." We are born physically into this world one time and we can only be born of God one time. If you are born ONCE you die TWICE; but if you are born TWICE you die ONCE! We become a "new creature" in Christ when God's Holy Spirit unites with our spirit (which was once dead in trespasses and sins, but is now made alive unto God - Ephesians 2:1-2).

A Christian Believer Always Falls IN GRACE, Never FROM

Remember, a believer who sins (and we ALL do every day), only falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Romans 5:20, “Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.” The unsaved person is still under the curse of God’s LAW, condemned already. Ah, but the dear saint of God is under God’s free GRACE. All of the false prophets today, like Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, who require turning away from sinful behavior to receive the free gift of God, are not teaching GRACE! Anything other than grace alone is NOT grace!

Romans 11:6a, “And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace...” The moment that anyone adds the slightest addition to the Gospel of grace, it ceases to be grace. If you think that the life you are living on earth can affect your eternal life, then you don’t get grace!!! As Jonah rightly pondered in the belly of the whale in Jonah 2:9b, “SALVATION IS OF THE LORD.” No believer can ever fall from grace, it is impossible. When we sin (and we ALL still do because we are human), we fall IN GRACE! Once a person has eternal life, which is the free gift of God, you can NEVER lose it!!!

1.2.13 Believers Are Under GRACE, Not Under LAW (2020-06-12 19:02)

Romans 3:19, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.” ... Romans 6:14-15, “For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.”

The preceding Bible verses speak of being UNDER THE LAW, and of others being UNDER GRACE. What does that mean? It means that the unsaved person (i.e., the lost man) is still under the dominion and curse of the law of God. The LAW of God (about 720 Old Testament commandments total) makes all men guilty. Romans 3:19-20, “ Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. ” This is such a wonderful passage of Scripture, so rich in doctrinal meaning. The PURPOSE of God’s law in the Old Testament, is to be used as a measuring stick, by which when compared men fall short of the glory of God (which is absolute sinless perfection - Romans 3:23). I don’t measure up and neither do you friend! We are all guilty '[1]Sinners In The Hands Of An Angry God,' as Pastor Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) is so famous for preaching. (Interestingly, a small pox inoculation killed Mr. Edwards!)

In sharp contrast, the Christian believer is UNDER GOD'S GRACE, which means we are no longer under the LAW. The born-again believer is now and forever under GOD'S SAVING GRACE, which is only through faith in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:14-15, "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid." No Christian has God's blessing and permission to sin, just because the LAW no longer has the power to condemn us (Romans 3:31). Albeit, no amount of sinning could ever jeopardize our POSITION in Christ as His redeemed child. Our CONDITION is determined by the daily choices we make, and what befalls us in life according to time and chance (Ecclesiastes 9:11); but our POSITION in Christ was forever settled the moment we were born-again!

Beware of many false prophets today (Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John MacArthur, Kirk Cameron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, John Piper, et cetera) who all teach that MORE is required than faith alone in the Gospel to be saved. According to all these men and institutions, you must " be willing to turn from your sins " to receive God's free gift of eternal life! They are preaching another Gospel! The unsaved man is under LAW, but the saved man is under GRACE! There is no in between. There is no " race to run " faithfully to the finish to obtain the "award" of Heaven (as [2]Dr. Steve Pettit heretical teaches at BJU). Eternal life is a GIFT, not an AWARD!!! I love Dr. Pettit and the folks at Bob Jones University, but they have been deceived by the Devil concerning the Gospel, and the Bible! They promote dozens of corrupt Bible revisions from Hell! Right doctrine matters! Truth matters! The accuracy of the Gospel matters! The purity of God's inspired Word matters! I care, do you?

The unsaved person is still under GOD'S LAW, cursed to Hell for their sins; and they will die and go straight to Hell when they leave this life, unless they receive God's free gift of forgiveness and eternal life, through faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. John 3:18 warns that the unbeliever is CONDEMNED ALREADY. John 3:18, " He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

" John 3:36 warns that the wrath of God abideth upon you Oh unbeliever! Please [3]get saved while you still can.

1.2.14 Hebrews 6:4-6 Refers To The Unsaved (2020-06-14 03:30)

Hebrews 6:4-6, “For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.”

I have received numerous e-mails lately from worried web visitors, who are struggling to understand our text passage, which I'd like to clear up for you now.

These Scriptures are speaking about unbelievers, who have heard the Gospel, have experienced the convicting power of the Holy Spirit, and have had the opportunity to get saved; but have deliberately rejected Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Carefully notice that the Bible says they were once "enlightened" not saved. To be enlightened means that they saw the truth of the Gospel and comprehended it. They have "tasted" of the heavenly gift, but they did not consume it.

They have "tasted the good word of God," but they fell away from faith, that is, like the seeds that fell upon the stony ground in the parable of the seeds in Luke 8:11-15, they didn't get saved. Luke 8:11-12, "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved." Luke 8:11-12 explains Hebrews 6:4-6.

It is improper to claim that these Scriptures in Hebrews 6:4-6 apply to believers, because the Bible uses the word "impossible" in Hebrews 6:4. Is it " for believers to repent of their sins and get right with God? Certainly, yes, it IS POSSIBLE! Did not Peter repent after denying and cursing the name of Jesus? Yes, he did. Did not king David repent after impregnating Bathsheba in an adulterous affair, and then murdered her husband Uriah? Yes, he did. 1st John 1:9 promises that "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." So, clearly, Hebrews 6:4-6 is speaking about the unsaved. A person who rejects the Savior is hellbound, and there is no other hope for them apart from faith alone in Jesus Christ.

This is exactly what the Holy Bible means in Galatians 5:4, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." Carefully notice that the Bible doesn't say that a believer falls away from grace because of sin; but rather, a person is "fallen from grace" because they are trying to be justified by keeping the Old Testament LAW! That is very important to see. '[1]For By

[2]The LAW

[3] Is The Knowledge Of Sin.' Understanding LAW versus GRACE will help you greatly grasp the great doctrine of salvation.

A born-again believer falls IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE. Romans 5:20b teaches that whenever we sin as believers,

GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND.

" What a beautiful Bible passage!!! Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

The only way to "

FALL FROM GRACE

" is to miss it completely by trying to earn your way to Heaven, which was the [4]big mistake of the rich young ruler in Mark chapter ten. The young man boasted to Jesus that he had kept God's law perfectly since his youth. Mark 10:20, "And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth." When the Lord burst his bubble of pride, showing him that he was still covetous (by asking him to go sell everything he owned and give it to the poor), the young man went away very sad the Bible says, because he had much wealth. You see, Jesus was using the LAW the way it was intended to be used, as a measuring stick by which when compared, all men fall short of the glory of God (which is absolute 100 % perfection - Romans 3:23). The Old Testament LAW brings us to GRACE, which came through the cross upon which Christ became the sacrifice for our sins (Galatians 3:24-26). ' [5]REDEEMED FROM THE LAW ' (an MP3 sermon smorgasbord of sound Bible doctrine by Pastor Harry A. Ironside).

There can be no faith without hearing the Word of God. Romans 10:17, "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." It is the Holy Spirit who draws (convicts) all mankind to the Gospel to be saved. John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." This is what it means in Hebrews 6:4-6 when it speaks of those "who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame." It means you had better get saved when the Holy Spirit convicts your heart about doing so, because if you reject the Gospel, there is no other way to be saved (Acts 4:10-12).

If you reject Jesus Christ, you might as well be crucifying the Lord all over again, putting Him to open shame. Anyone who refuses to get saved by believing the Gospel is playing with hellfire. To say "no" to the Gospel (i.e., the 'Good News' of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and physically risen the third day) is the same thing as spitting on Jesus yourself and shouting to Pilate, "Crucify Him!"

> "Now you say, 'Brother Hyles, you make an issue.' You dead sure better know I'll make an issue!"

1.2.15 Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Contended For Salvation By Faith (2020-06-15 16:07)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) made the following unapologetic, uncompromising and fundamentalist defense of salvation by faith alone...

> “He [Jude] said, well it was ’needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.’
>
> Now wait a minute, you’ve got something worth contending for! Isn’t it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn’t leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you’d go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you’d fight to keep them from gettin’ it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay ’em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty’s earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!
> You know I’ve said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I’d ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I’d come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I’d blow it into smithereens! I’d rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we’ll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [1]YouTube | [2]MP4 | [3]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather destroy Bob Jones University, than to let modernists and religious liberals corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction [4]the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly [5]betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly neo-evangelicals. Consequently, they've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at BJU!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Rejected The Counterfeit Gospel Of Lordship Salvation

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. himself taught salvation is obtained only through simple faith in Jesus Christ, none of this "turn from your sins" crap that heretics' [6]Steve Pettit, [7]John MacArthur, [8]Bob Jones University and Calvinists are all teaching today! Dr. Jones rightly and beautifully says:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I have read the entire book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. titled: "THINGS I HAVE LEARNED," and there is nothing about "turning from sins" to be saved. The last chapter of the book is titled, "HOW ARE WE SAVED?" There is no mention of "repenting of your sins" or being "willing to turn from your sins" to receive the free gift of eternal life. The foolish Bob Jones University crowd have been [9]BEWITCHED!!! (Galatians 3:1-3). Oh foolish Bob Jonians, who hath bewitched you, that you should follow another gospel? Oh [10]foolish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I dearly love so much, who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

False Prophets Are Very Dangerous Because People Like Them So Much

How did this happen? Pastor Jack Hyles explains:

> We call him the neo-evangelical. ...These false teachers are usually likable people, and once we learn to like them, their doctrine will not be quite so bad. ...It is not believing right within the movement that makes one a fundamentalist; it is the withdrawal FROM the movement and returning to the original dogma, practices and convictions of the apostate group that gives one the title of fundamentalist. The basic difference is the degree of importance that one places on the doctrine of separation. [emphasis added] —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from my article titled, “[11]New Evangelicalism.”

John MacArthur is a very suave, dynamic and likable pastor. Likewise, [12]Dr. Steve Pettit is very likable and a really nice guy. That makes these men extremely dangerous spiritually, because they are both completely wrong on the Gospel, teaching Calvinism. [13]John MacArthur perverts the Gospel! These men pervert grace; therefore, they don’t get grace from God!!! Adding even the slightest amount of human effort to the free gift of God negates it! [14]When A Gift Is Not Really A Gift (Eternal life is an exchange, not a gift, at Bob Jones College). Dr. Bob Jones Sr. is brokenhearted, disgusted and angry up in Heaven, over the perversion of the Gospel at the college he started in 1927!!! Brother Jones is disgusted that the college he started [15]bids Godspeed to hundreds of English Bible revisions. The [16]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort Greek is corrupt!!!

The plan of salvation taught by Bob Jones University, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort and John Piper is a completely different mindset, than the Gospel of free grace taught in the Holy Scriptures. In the true Gospel, Jesus paid our sin debt with His precious blood, and we are saved solely by trusting what Christ did for us (Hebrews 4:10-11). In the heresy of Lordship Salvation, something is required of you; namely, that you make full surrender, be willing to turn from your sins, commit your life to Christ, run the race, persevere in holiness and ministry, deny yourself, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost. I am not kidding or exaggerating folks! [17]Read what Dr. Steve Pettit taught 2,700 BJU students in January of 2015. Steve Pettit preaches another gospel! [18]Read what John MacArthur teaches! Bob Jones Sr. would have a heart-attack if he were still alive today, after he blew his college to smithereens with dynamite!!!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. called them “crooked crooks” for corrupting the faith! Brother Jones is so right. Jesus called them “thieves and robbers” in John 10:1. If we had an expensive possession, we’d put it in a vault. We’d protect it. We’d guard it with all diligence! Yet, we sit back and let infidels come into our Bible colleges and churches, and WE PAY THEM, to steal the faith away from unsuspecting people! I’m talking about reprobate Pastor John MacArthur!!! Dr. Steve Pettit bids Godspeed to Mr. MacArthur and his sinister ministry! What is wrong with us today! Dr. Jones warned during his lifetime, that all across America infidels are infiltrating and corrupting our religious institutions. THEY SURE HAVE!!!

> “There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God’s will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2).”

Galatians 1:6-8, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed."

One of the most spiritually dangerous religious teachers of our time is Pastor John MacArthur of 'Grace To You' ministry in California. I have nothing personal against Mr. MacArthur, but he has done more than any other preacher, to lead preachers and layman away from the true Gospel of free grace. "

Lordship Salvation

" teaches that faith in the Gospel is not enough to be saved; but also, you must make full surrender to Christ as your "

Lord and Master,

committing to follow Him as His disciple.

The proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly teach that a person must be willing to turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. They errantly call this “repentance.” So if you profess faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, but still live in willful sin, they say you’ve never repented and are not saved. The Bible teaches that we repent TO believe, not repent AND believe. Repentance biblically as a noun (metanoia) simply means “a change of mind,” not a change of behavior. The verb form (metanoeo) means “to think differently.” Hence, repentance means to change your mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the ’Good News’ (Gospel) of Jesus Christ who died on the cross for your sins, was buried and resurrected three days later from the dead. That is ’The Gospel’ (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

John MacArthur’s Discipleship Gospel

In Defense of the Gospel

By Lou Martuneac -
October 7th, 2006

The following appeared at Pulpit Magazine on September 29th, 2006. This paragraph from Dr. MacArthur’s post titled True Faith and True Grace encapsulates the major elements in the Lordship controversy. Dr. MacArthur wrote:

> “Those who teach that repentance is extraneous to saving faith are forced to make a firm but unbiblical distinction between salvation and discipleship. This dichotomy, like that of the carnal/spiritual Christian, sets up two classes of Christians: believers only and true disciples. Most who hold this position discard the evangelistic intent of virtually every recorded invitation of Jesus, saying those apply to discipleship, not to salvation.”

One of the most significant errors with Lordship Salvation is the confusing of passages meant for the born again disciple of Christ (such as Luke 9:23-24, 14:25-33) and presenting them as though they are evangelistic appeals directed to the lost. It is from this error, where much of the Lordship interpretation of the gospel flows. This error leads to a faulty definition of faith, redefines the role of biblical repentance in salvation, both of which result in a gospel message that frustrates grace (Gal. 2:21). Following are three examples of how John MacArthur’s discipleship gospel redefines the faith that saves:

> “The gospel Jesus proclaimed was a call to discipleship, a call to follow Him in submissive obedience… Forsaking oneself for Christ’s sake is not an optional step of discipleship subsequent to conversion; it is the sine qua non of saving faith.” (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 27, 142)

"Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross... It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." (The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140)

"Let me say again unequivocally that Jesus' summons to deny self and follow him was an invitation to salvation, not... a second step of faith following salvation..." (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 221)

Lordship Salvation conditions the reception of salvation on a lost man's upfront commitment to what should be the results of salvation. A commitment to perform the "good works" (Eph. 2:10) expected of the disciple of Christ is Lordship's requirement FOR salvation. The lost man is expected to make a commitment toward what he will do, or become, in "exchange" for what Christ has done for him. John MacArthur states that position this way:

"That is the kind of response the Lord Jesus called for: wholehearted commitment. A desire for Him at any cost. Unconditional surrender. A full exchange > of self for the Savior. It is the only response that will open the gates of the kingdom." (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 148)

In one of the clearest expressions of portraying discipleship as though it is the key to salvation Dr. MacArthur wrote:

> "Anyone who wants to come after Jesus into the Kingdom of God, anyone who wants to be a Christian, has to face three commands: 1) deny himself, 2) take up his cross daily, and 3) follow him." (Hard to Believe, p. 6)

The faith that saves is more than simple acknowledgment. Faith is basically a trust or confidence in someone or something. For salvation Jesus must be the object of faith. Faith goes beyond acknowledgement when the lost man transfers his dependence on Christ to save him from the penalty of sin. Mere acknowledgement of what Jesus has done does not save. When biblically defined, faith does not include upfront promises of commitment and surrender.

Discipleship comes at a cost, salvation (justification) does not! It is clear that Lordship Salvation requires much more than a faith that acknowledges one's sin, a pending judgment for sin, and one's need of the Savior. The Lordship position does not depend solely on the finished work of Jesus Christ on the cross.

Lordship Salvation, according to John MacArthur above, is a barter system, an "exchange" of what man must offer Christ to receive His free gift of salvation. To imply that receiving the free gift of God requires that man "pay the ultimate price" is a gospel of faith plus works.

My book, In Defense of the Gospel, does not contain errors that are so common in the works of other men who have written in objection to Lordship Salvation. Many have been alarmed at the increasingly meaningless presentation of a gospel that seems to ignore the Person of Christ, the sinfulness of man, the finished work of Christ and the pending judgment of God. This gospel calls men to salvation when they have been given only a vague idea of just what they need to be saved from. There is, furthermore, a reductionist interpretation of the content of saving faith, with which I strongly disagree. The most extreme example of this reductionist view is known as the "Crossless" gospel. This is a relatively new interpretation of the Gospel originated by (the late) Zane Hodges and is almost exclusively perpetuated by the Grace Evangelical Society's membership.

My book does not minimize or reject the lordship of Jesus Christ. Jesus is Lord and Savior throughout all eternity. We all agree that Jesus is the Savior; the only hope mankind has for eternal salvation from sin, death and Hell (Acts 4:12). We all agree that Jesus is the Lord, the King of Kings, and all power belongs to Him (Rev. 19:16; Matt. 28:18). If He is not the Lord, He is not God. If He is not God, He is not the Savior. Christ's lordship, however, should not be used to create a message where the reception of salvation is conditioned on a lost man's upfront commitment to surrender and submission, which Lordship Salvation does.

Pastor George Zeller wrote an article titled, The Relationship Between God's Grace and Lordship Legalism, which appears in the appendix of my book.

Following is a brief excerpt.

“Don’t confuse saving faith with that which saving faith ought to produce. Don’t confuse repentance with the fruits of repentance. Behavior and fruit are the evidences of saving faith but they are not the essence of saving faith. Don’t confuse the fruit with the root. Before you can ‘come after’ Christ in discipleship (Luke 9:23; Matt. 11:29-30), you must ‘come unto’ Christ for salvation (Matthew 11:28). Discipleship is not a requirement for salvation; discipleship is the obligation of every saved person.”

When a man tries to carefully introduce verses about discipleship as part of God’s plan for salvation, remember that the Bible teaches we come to Christ for salvation and that we come after Christ in discipleship. It is wrong to present discipleship verses as salvation verses. We must not use verses intended to teach discipleship to try to lead a man to Christ. To do so creates confusion and frustration. It becomes a gospel of faith, plus works.

Lordship Salvation demands from a lost man a promise of what he will do, or become, to receive the gift of eternal life. Once man offers anything in addition to the finished work of Christ for salvation that message becomes false through the addition. A gospel that calls for man to do or offer anything in addition to what Christ has done is wrong!

Dr. MacArthur - I know you mean well, you believe you are being true to the Scriptures. Changing the terms of the gospel, however, to upfront demands for commitment and surrender in “exchange” for salvation, will not make the problems of loose living carnality found in some professing believers go away.

In Defense of the Gospel fully defines and biblically answers the doctrinal and practical problems with Lordship Salvation. I wrote my book to alert Christians, across the broad spectrum of evangelical Christianity, about Lordship’s works based, man-centered interpretation of the gospel that frustrates grace (Gal. 2:21).

> There are many areas where one must balance soul liberty and Christian charity and agree to respect different views. The gospel, however, is not an area in which we can agree to disagree. The doctrine of Lordship Salvation and the Lordship advocates must be vigorously debated, and its spread biblically resisted. END

Any plan of salvation that requires you to do more than simply trust Jesus Christ as your Savior is false! Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He resurrected from the dead for the justification of our faith. The moment you believe This “

Gospel

(Good News or Glad Tidings) when you hear it preached, you are saved and forever sealed with the Holy Spirit. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, trusting the risen Savior. You’re not preaching the Gospel if you’re not preaching eternal security. If you think you can lose salvation, you don’t understand it and are not saved. Remember, it is God’s salvation, not yours. We are saved by GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). You truly understand the Gospel when you know that you cannot lose it! If you are not preaching eternal security, you are not preaching the Gospel. Once saved, always saved!

1.2.17 John Calvin Taught Heresy Of Baptismal Regeneration (2020-06-17 10:00)

1st Corinthians 1:17, “ For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.”

John Calvin taught baptismal regeneration as the following quote shows:

> “So then we must ever come to this point, that the Sacraments are effectual and that they are not trifling signs that vanish away in the air, but that the truth is always matched with them, because God who is faithful shows that he has not ordained anything in vain. And that is the reason why in Baptism we truly receive the forgiveness of sins, we are washed and cleansed with the blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, we are renewed by the operation of his Holy Spirit.
> And how so? Does a little water have such power when it is cast upon the head of a child? No. But because it is the will of our Lord Jesus Christ that the water should be a visible sign of his blood and of the Holy Spirit. Therefore baptism has that power and whatsoever is there set forth to the eye is forthwith accomplished in very deed.”
> [John Calvin, ’Sermons on Deuteronomy,’ p. 1244]

I cannot warn everyone enough about John Calvin (1509-1564). Mr. Calvin was not a good man as a professed Christian. [1]Calvin murdered 58 people for disagreeing with him on “ Infant Baptism.

” Ironically, Calvinists (i.e., the Lordship Salvation crowd) teach the lie that you are not really saved if your life hasn’t changed. There’s not a bigger lie you’ll ever hear, than that your life must transform to prove you are God’s child. What a cruel thing to tell someone! Eternal life is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). [2]I am so sick and tired of this Lordship Salvation mess (MP3 sermon clip by Pastor Jack Hyles).

Our text Bible verse says that Christ did NOT send the apostle Paul to water baptize anyone. That is simply because baptism has absolutely nothing to do with receiving the free gift of God! Getting dunked into a big bathtub doesn't make you a Christian! Oh how religion destroys people's lives. Getting baptized no more makes you a Christian, than walking into a garage makes you a car! The Holy Bible teaches we are saved by faith alone in the dear Son of God. 1st Corinthians 1:21, " For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

In the Gospel of John, we find the word

mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of turning from sins, being water baptized, or living the Christian life. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " Where in the world does John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, John Piper, Paul Washer and other theological reprobates, get the heretical idea that salvation requires more than to simply BELIEVE the Gospel? Matthew 7:15, "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

1.2.18 The Plowing Of The Wicked, Is Sin (2020-06-18 10:30)

Proverbs 21:4, " An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin."

The Bible says even plowing a field is wicked for the unsaved person. What saith the Scripture? John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." Proverbs 7:11, "God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day. " If you are not saved, God's wrath is continually upon you. Romans 5:9 says that Jesus' blood is the only thing which can deliver us from the wrath of God. God is not impressed with your goodness. You need GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS (Romans 10:3-4; Philippines 3:9). You and I have no righteousness to offer God. Even our good is filth to God. Isaiah 64:6, " But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. "

Right down the street from me is the Harvest Baptist Church. When I attended their church in 2014 they helped orphans. I don't know if they still do, because I have been banned and ostracized by their church for being a friend to them. Harvest uses dozens of different Bible revisions, a house confused, divided among themselves. The church is really a religious cult, that preaches another gospel of Lordship Salvation. I felt led by God to help them, so I spent my own money to buy a bunch of fundamental Baptist books, and burned a bunch of fundamental Baptist sermons to CD, sharing them with the church pastors, staff and friends at church. I was wrongly accused by the pastors of causing "confusion" and "divisiveness." Go figure! Talk about calling the kettle black!

May I say, Harvest helping orphans is wicked filth to God, since they reject THE TRUTH of the Gospel of free grace. According to Harvest's ungodly pastors, you must "

repent of your sin

to be saved. This is what Harvest's former pastor, [1]Dr. Marty Herron, taught at Harvest for 19 years! This is what [2]Pastor John MacArthur and [3]Dr. Steve Pettit preach. Harvest bids Godspeed to these wicked men, by promoting them on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam. All of the good works of these theologically ungodly men are in vain! All of their goodness is wickedness to God.

Proverbs 21:4, " An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin." Their high look, proud heart, and self-righteous works are sin! You don't get to Heaven by turning from your sins,

you get to Heaven by getting out of the way, and trusting what Jesus has already DONE on the cross! There is nothing you can DO to merit Heaven.

Folks, [4]Dr. Steve Pettit has been the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014. Mr. Pettit told 2,700 students at BJU on January 26, 2020 that to be saved they must “persevere” to “run the race” in holiness, ministry and service to others until they get to Heaven. Mr. Pettit is preaching another gospel. God’s curse is upon him (Galatians 1:6-9). God’s curse is upon Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for promoting Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. Even helping orphans is a sin for Harvest Baptist Church, because they are not saved. Hey, God mad at God, I didn’t say it, He did! Isaiah 64:6a, “ But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; ”

Kindly said, God is not impressed with Harvest’s religious school at Harvest Baptist Academy. God doesn’t care about the many wonderful works

you are doing. God does care that you preach in Jesus’ name. God doesn’t care that you follow Jesus, saying

Matthew 7:22-23,

“Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

” Nothing that they are doing at Harvest Baptist Church impresses God, because they are [5]WRONG ON THE GOSPEL!!!

I sincerely love the people at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and [6]Bob Jones University (cult headquarters) in South Carolina, but they have been deceived by the Devil, and if they don’t repent of their counterfeit gospel they will split Hell wide open when they die.

1.2.19 Ezekiel 18:24 Doesn't Teach You Can Lose Salvation (2020-06-19 10:00)

Ezekiel 18:24, " But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die. "

Let me say right away that salvation CANNOT be lost, forfeited nor ever jeopardized in any way once you possess it. Eternal life is the free gift of God but faith alone. This passage of Scripture is often used by Arminians to claim that salvation can be lost. An "Arminian" is a person who follows the teachings of a man named Jacob Arminius (1560-1609). Jacob's popular counterpart in theology is John Calvin (1509-1564). I thank God that I follow neither of these theologically imperfect men. Both Arminius and Calvin had bugs in their theology. I disagree with all five tenets of Calvin's theology. I agree more with Arminius, but he was wrong to teach that salvation can be lost. The Bible teaches once saved always saved!

The best way to interpret the Bible is with the Bible! I've read so much heresy surrounding Ezekiel 18:24. As an example, the Congregational Holiness Church, the Wesleyan Holiness Movement, and the Charismatic Movement all misinterpret Ezekiel 18:24 to teach that a Christian can lose their salvation. Nothing could be further from the truth!

Oral Roberts and his family came from the Holiness Movement out of Oklahoma. He was a product that came from the Latter Rain Pentecostal Movement of the late 1940's, and was a well known demonic faith healer. Taken by itself out of context, Ezekiel 18:24 does appear to support the doctrine that a man can fall away from salvation. However, as you will see from other Scriptures in Ezekiel, this is NOT the case at all. The following passage of Scripture is critically important to understand the context of Ezekiel 18:24...

Ezekiel 33:12-13, "Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it."

Did you read that? The Bible says: "If he trust in his OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS." This is the heart of the matter here. God is simply condemning self-righteousness. Matthew 7:21-23 is the New Testament equivalent of this passage:

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Please don't miss those words, "LORD, LORD." There's your Lordship Salvation crowd in the Bible, who foolishly teach that to be saved a person must "turn from your sins." The New Testament states in Romans 10:3-4:

"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

This is what Ezekiel 18:24 means. To claim that a person who commits sin can lose their salvation is to totally ignore such powerful Scriptures as Genesis 15:6 concerning Abraham, "And he [Abraham] believed in the LORD; and He counted it to him for righteousness." The Apostle Paul plainly stated in Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on Him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." These Scriptures clearly eliminate "works" as a necessity to one's eternal salvation.

The damnable heresy which falsely teaches that a believer can lose salvation is nothing less than a form of Lordship Salvation. If you're not saved forever, you're not saved my friend.

The Gospel Defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4

The Gospel saves us, by faith. The Bible defines 'The Gospel' in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as the DEATH, BURIAL and RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ. If a person comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Jesus' death, burial and resurrection as payment for their sins, they are saved. Jesus paid it all! Simply receiving God's gift of eternal life by faith.

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

This does not give the believer God's permission to sin, which is clearly evident in Romans 3:28,31, "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law ... Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law." Just because we are saved by faith without works does not give us a license to sin.

A False Understanding Of Ezekiel 18:24

Bishop Tom Brown is a Charismatic false prophet who pastors in El Paso, Texas. Here is a quote from one of his writings, which will allow you to see firsthand how such sinister ministers misinterpret Ezekiel 18:24,

> God was the first to ask whether or not people could lose their salvation. We find God asking this question in Ezekiel 18:24, "'But if a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sins and does the same detestable things the wicked man does, will he live?'" God is asking, "Will he live, if he departs from his righteous ways?" And what was the answer? "'None of the righteous things he has done will be remembered. Because of the unfaithfulness he is guilty of and because of the sins he has committed, he will DIE.'"
> SOURCE: [1]Can Christians Lose Their Salvation?

In Lieu of Ezekiel 33:12-13, it is clear that Ezekiel's warnings were to the unsaved self-righteous, not true believers: "When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered..." Anyone who trusts in "his own righteousness" was never saved to begin with!!! Carefully notice that the Bible says a man's righteousness won't be remembered if he trusts in his OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS. This is why Romans 10:3 warns people about trying to establish their OWN righteousness.

In contrast, a man who trusts in the Lord for his salvation, even if he become backslidden—his good works will NOT be forgotten. Proof of this doctrine is in Hebrews 11:32 which lists king David as a great man of faith. Yet, it was David who impregnated Bathsheba in an adulterous affair and then murdered her husband, Uriah, in an attempt to hide his sin. David was a righteous man, not because of his own works; but because he trusted upon the Lord's imputed righteousness. Abraham BELIEVED GOD in Genesis 15:6, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

What a wonderful God, who has made salvation free and simple! Are you trusting in your own self-righteousness? If you believe that you can lose your salvation, then you are indeed self-righteous my friend. Salvation is of God; not man. Please read, The Simplicity of Salvation by Dr. Jack Hyles.

Mr. Brown is misguided and wrong to teach that believers can lose their salvation. In sharp contrast, the Word of God teaches that once a lost sinner is saved, they're always saved ... "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise ... And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption" (Ephesians 1:13, 4:30).

The moment a person trust Christ as Savior, that person is SEALED with the Holy Spirit (i.e., the Holy Spirit, God Almighty, comes to live inside that believer forever). The new birth in Christ is as irreversible as is our physical birth. 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." To claim that a believer can lose salvation is to say that one who is a new creature (i.e., born again) in Christ can become an old creature again. There is NO such teaching in the Scriptures. "Once saved, always saved" is biblically correct. The whole matter is put to rest by Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

1.2.20 Must We Confess Christ To Be Saved? (2020-06-20 17:23)

Romans 10:9-10, “

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus*, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Must a person confess the name of Jesus to be saved? Absolutely not! This particular difficult Bible text has often been lifted out of context to create a false pretext, which claims that a person must make public confession of their faith in Christ to be saved. That is totally unbiblical. The [1]Church of Christ religious cult requires public confession of one’s faith to be saved. If you follow the preceding link, you’ll see that the Church of Christ also requires water baptism, and turning from your sins, to be saved. This is not the Gospel, which makes the Church of Christ a damnable religious cult. Run from this false religion!!!

Here is Scriptural proof that you don’t have to publicly “confess” Christ to be saved...

> John 12:42-43, “Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
>
> For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

The Bible says “many” of the chief rulers believed on Jesus, but “

THEY DID NOT CONFESS HIM.

This plainly shows that believing without confessing does not hinder salvation. The only requirement to receive the free gift of eternal life is that you come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. In several dozens Bible passages we are taught to simply BELIEVE to be saved. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Please consider the following passages, which tell us simply to believe:

John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

John 6:47, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

Acts 16:30-31, “ And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. ”

1st Corinthians 1:21, “ For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. ”

Galatians 3:22, “ But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. ”

What tremendous Scripture passages! In the beautiful Gospel of John we find the word “believe” mentioned 85 times, with no mention of confessing, repenting or turning from your sins to be saved. Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! Oh how Satan blinds **“

the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

” Again and again and again throughout the Holy Bible, we read that needy sinners were saved by simply BELIEVING. Nothing else was required. How about the Old Testament? Here are a few wonderful passages...

Genesis 15:6, “ And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness. ”

Isaiah 45:22,

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

Psalms 13:5, “ But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.”

Habakkuk 2:4, “Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.”

The Bible teaches that “

ALL THE PROPHETS

(Moses, Elijah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Jonah, Micah, Joel, et cetera), testified of salvation that faith alone in the Messiah...

Acts 10:43, “ To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ”

Salvation has always been by faith alone. There has always been only one saving Gospel. We must never base a doctrine upon one passage of Scripture.

Romans 10:9-10, “

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Confession unto salvation simply means that a person confesses because they are already saved. Jesus said out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh

(Matthew 12:34). We are saved by believing the Gospel

the 'Good News' that Jesus died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). It is because a man believes the Gospel in his heart, that he confesses with his mouth that he is saved. However, the Bible does not mean here that you MUST confess to be saved. We know this is true because of all the hundreds of Bible passages that teach that salvation is by faith alone.

The reason why so many false doctrines exist in the churches today, is because well-meaning people base their doctrines on one Bible verse. What they need to do is cross-reference the Bible, comparing Scripture with Scripture. It's like solving a standard picture puzzle. You compare one piece to another, looking for the flat edges of the puzzle first, and then work your way toward the center. Any time that we interpret a particular Scripture passage, we need to make sure that our suggested interpretation is in agreement with the rest of the Bible. When everything agrees, we know that we have the correct meaning.

> "God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

On March 5th, 2020 (my birthday coincidentally), Dr. Steve Pettit invited former Planned parenthood director Abby Johnson to speak at BJU. I can understand that BJU might invite her because they are against abortion, but what happened at BJU was unbelievable! ...

> On January 23, 2020, BJU invited the public on campus to screen the movie ’Unplanned’ created by pro-life advocate Abby Johnson. Then on March 5, 2020, BJU hosted the Piedmont Women’s Center (PWC) for their fundraising event. The speaker for the evening was Abby Johnson. During the event, Johnson "preached the gospel". On stage, displayed on a banner, were the words of Isaiah 43:19. Johnson said, "We must give the gospel to these ladies, not the watered-down Jesus but the powerful Jesus...everyone here is a sinner and in the need of a savior". She used the words "cross, gospel, sinners, Jesus". —Machen White, ’[1]BJU... Then And Now’

Dear reader, Roman Catholicism is NOT the Gospel of free grace. Catholics believe that you must keep Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. That includes water baptism, confirmation, Holy Eucharist, confession, et cetera. The Bible does not teach these things. The Scriptures simply teach us to BELIEVE the 'Good News' that Jesus died on the cross in our place. He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead. That is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, is immediately and forever saved. That is how you freely receive the gift of God, which is eternal life (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Anyone who comes along claiming that you must "turn from your sins" to receive the free gift of God is preaching another gospel. Sadly, [2]Billy Graham went to Hell.

Instead of condemning Roman Catholicism as being of the Devil, Dr. Steve Pettit and Bob Jones University sinfully bid Godspeed to hellbound Catholics! In [3]an interview with Fox Carolina News in February of 2018, Dr. Steve Pettit shamefully said:

> "Billy Graham is a world renowned evangelist. Since my background is I'm an evangelist, I am thankful for his faithful preaching of the gospel, and his consistent lifestyle. ...I'm thankful for someone who has preached a clear gospel message... He's an evangelist, and he's spread the gospel throughout the world... My mother attended one of his crusades in Valdosta, Georgia, when she was a teenager girl, and she was able to hear the gospel at that time, for which I am thankful." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, [4]Interview with Fox Carolina News (February 2018)

That is so shameful. Folks, [5]Billy Graham preached another gospel of Lordship Salvation. In comparison (to show how much BJU has deteriorated), in March of 1966, Dr. Bob Jones Jr. (1911-1997) said Mr. Graham was "doing more harm to the cause of Jesus Christ than any living man," according to the archives of 'The Greenville News' and 'Time' magazine. How does that compare to Dr Pettit's statements in the interview with Fox Carolina shortly after Dr. Graham's death on February 21st, 2018? It is shameful. Pastor Jack Hyles was absolutely right when he said: "The wrong crowd's composed of nice guys!" (Dr. Hyles, a quote from the sermon titled: "[6]She Sojourned Seven Years").

Billy Graham didn't faithfully preach the Gospel, he perverted it with works! God's curse is upon anyone who changes the Gospel of free grace, through simple childlike faith in Jesus Christ...

Here is a beautiful quote from Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968):

“Young people, you can’t buy salvation. You can’t pay for it after you get it. But if you don’t already have it, you can have it. Somebody is giving it away around here. His name is Jesus and He wants to give you salvation.

Before I stop I will use an illustration I have used many times here at the college. Maybe those of you who have heard it have forgotten it.

Do you see this quarter? I want to give it to you. But I am a peculiar man. I just give away quarters one way. I put a quarter in a book, shut the book, and offer you the book. You don’t want the book? Well, all right, you can’t have my quarter, then. I have a right to put the quarter in any sort of package I wish. You, of course, have the privilege of rejecting the quarter.

God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn't anything about Him to be desired. And they didn't realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! That was so simply, beautiful and eloquently said. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. preached the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). It is tragic and shameful that reprobate neo-evangelicals have infiltrated, corrupted and taken over Bob Jones University today. They don't preach the true Gospel. Instead they preach a partial faith in Christ plus works type of counterfeit salvation, that demands for a person to "

turn from your sins

to be saved.

On March 30, 2020 Dr. Steve Pettit warned 2,700 BJU students in chapel, [7]that "perpetual liars" will go to Hel l. Mr. Pettit misquotes Revelation 21:8. In fact, the inspired King James Bible does not say "perpetual liars," it says "all liars" shall have their part in the Lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death. ALL LIARS!!! If you tell even one lie you are a LIAR! James 2:10 confirms this truth, teaching that violating even one of God's commandments, makes one guilty of breaking ALL. Even one sin is enough to keep a person out of the Kingdom of God. That is why we need a Savior! So in God's eyes, you are either a hellbound sinner for the least amount of sin; or else God sees the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ, no matter how many sins you commit (Romans 5:20).

The reason why Steve Pettit thinks "perpetual liars" go to Hell is because he has a corrupt understanding of the Gospel. In Mr. Pettit's mind (just like [8]Seventh-Day Adventist prophetess Ellen G. White), he thinks salvation requires forsaking your sinful ways, so if you are still living a lifestyle of perpetual sinning, he says you're not saved. That is the demonic mindset of the Calvinist (aka., Lordship Salvation). The Bible teaches that when someone BELIEVES on Jesus Christ, he is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS! Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. "

Sadly, from all that I have seen, over 95 % of professed Christians today are indifferent and couldn't care less about right doctrine. The majority of the Bob Jones camp couldn't care less about THE TRUTH! They make light of the inspiration of the Bible. As I showed you with Abby Johnson, they hobnob with unsaved Catholics, bidding them Godspeed. I believe it is because they love money. The Scripture warns us in 1st Timothy 6:10 that the LOVE OF MONEY is the ROOT OF ALL EVIL. Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Sam Horn... these apostates all get paid 6-digit annual salaries. Mr. MacArthur has a net worth of $14,000,000. [9]Is Your Church A Religious Cult? Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is part of the group I just mentioned. They are all BJU graduates, praising and bidding Godspeed to the aforementioned reprobates of the faith. Kindly said, they are all going to Hell in their counterfeit gospel (Matthew 7:21-23). [10]That is what the Bible teaches (Romans 3:19-20).

At one time long ago, Bob Jones University was considered the citadel of Christian fundamentalism in America, but today has deteriorated into a Calvinist cesspool of false doctrine, counterfeit Bible revisions, indifference, ecumenical compromise, and preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation. Woe unto the Bob Jones' camp! I love you all with God's unconditional love, but you have changed, pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

1.2.22 SDA's Works-Based Assurance Of Salvation (2020-06-21 20:40)

It is extremely difficult for most newer Christians to discern the doctrines of devils in the Seventh Day Adventist cult. It is impossible for unbelievers to detect them, which is why many unbelievers convert to SDA, as did the famous radio broadcaster Paul Harvey (1918-2009). This is sad and tragic, for Paul Harvey did not go to Heaven if he was a sincere follower of SDA (as it appears he certainly was). One of the simplest ways to expose SDA is to focus on their teaching and understanding of salvation itself.

The Bible teaches that salvation is a new BIRTH, which happens instantly and is irreversible. The very moment that an admitted sinner trusts upon the Lord Jesus Christ, receiving His death, burial and resurrection as payment for sins, he is saved instantly, completely and eternally. Assurance of salvation is based upon the promises of God (and not upon human effort nor performance). I KNOW I am saved because God PROMISED to save anyone who believes (trusts) upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Acts 10:43; 1st John 5:13).

In sharp contrast, the SDA teaching of salvation is very different, where being born-again is the beginning of a PROCESS. According to the official doctrinal statement of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "Abiding in Him we become partakers of the divine nature and have the assurance of salvation now and in the judgment. (2 Cor. 5:17-21; John 3:16; Gal. 1:4; 4:4-7; Titus 3:3-7; John 16:8; Gal. 3:13, 14; 1 Peter 2:21, 22; Rom. 10:17; Luke 17:5; Mark 9:23, 24; Eph. 2:5-10; Rom. 3:21-26; Col. 1:13, 14; Rom. 8:14-17; Gal. 3:26; John 3:3-8; 1 Peter 1:23; Rom. 12:2; Heb. 8:7-12; Eze. 36:25-27; 2 Peter 1:3, 4; Rom. 8:1-4; 5:6-10.)"

SOURCE: Adventist.org: The Official Site of the Seventh-day Adventist world church

Clearly, SDA's teach that to have assurance of one's salvation, he or she must abide in Christ. No where in the Scriptures are we required to continue abiding in Christ in order to have the assurance of God's salvation. David repeatedly calls eternal life "THY" salvation, because God does the saving, not man. Our part is only to believe upon (trust upon) Jesus as the Christ Who died for our sins, was buried and arose three days later. That is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Notice again the damnable heresy of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "The completion of this ministry of Christ will mark the close of human probation before the Second Advent. (Heb. 8:1-5; 4:14-16; 9:11-28; 10:19-22; 1:3; 2:16, 17; Dan. 7:9-27; 8:13, 14; 9:24-27; Num. 14:34; Eze. 4:6; Lev. 16; Rev. 14:6, 7; 20:12; 14:12; 22:12.)"

"The close of human probation?" This is solid evidence against the demonic cult of Seventh-day Adventism, who teach that salvation is never complete nor secured in this lifetime. There is no true assurance of salvation in SDA, because they view salvation as a process that can be lost if a person does not continue to abide in Christ.

SDA's teach that all believers are on "probation" after being born-again, and the life they live will determine whether or not Christ finds them worthy of salvation. SDA is a totally 100 % works-based false religion that wraps itself deceitfully in a fraudulent shell of claiming salvation by grace through faith. SDA is empty words without conviction. Their concealed core doctrines don't support their lofty public rhetoric. SDA are liars and deceivers, children of the Devil.

The truth is that once a person becomes a born-again child of God, the Holy Spirit comes in to indwell that believer, never to depart, and the Holy Spirit seals that believer for ever (2nd Corinthians 1:22; Ephesians 1:13; Ephesians 4:30). The Holy Spirit is our seal, God's downpayment on that which He has redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Amen! My sins were washed away by the blood of Jesus the day I was saved over 30-years ago. I was saved on the spot, irrevocably, irrefutably and irreversibly! Hallelujah!

The important thing to remember, that makes it easy to expose SDA or any other religious cult of Satan, is that salvation is a new birth, a second birth, a spiritual birth! Ye must be born again (John 3:7). The second birth is as irreversible as the first, physical, fleshly birth, when you were born into this world. Every false religion perverts the Gospel and turns salvation into a PROCESS instead of an instantaneous BIRTH. Eternal life is the gift of God (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). You receive eternal life to have it; you don't earn it to get it.

Eternal life is not a reward for good behaviour as SDA's teach. NO ONE is worthy of salvation. Salvation is receiving, not giving. Remember that eternal life is a free gift. All you do to have a gift is receive it. If you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God Who died, was buried and rose again for your sins, and you make that you're hope for Heaven, then you're saved. Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation!

Seventh-day Adventism is easy to pick apart if you focus on their bizarre and exclusive false doctrine of "Investigative Judgment." Back in the 19th century, a wayward minister named William Miller crunched some numbers and prophesied that the Lord would return in 1844. Over 10,000 Millerites (as they were called) quit their jobs and sold all their worldly possessions, including their homes. When Jesus didn't return, there was panic. Something had to be done quick. So someone came up with the notion that Miller had misinterpreted the prophecy, and that in actuality Christ had entered into the Holy of Holies in Heaven to begin His work of "Investigative Judgment."

SDA’s teach that every believer (those who they falsely profess to be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ) are on PROBATION, because Christ is now fulfilling His work of doing an “investigation” of all believers. Here once again is the official dogma of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists...

> "The investigative judgment reveals to heavenly intelligences who among the dead are asleep in Christ and therefore, in Him, are deemed worthy to have part in the first resurrection. It also makes manifest who among the living are abiding in Christ, keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, and in Him, therefore, are ready for translation into His everlasting kingdom."

Here you can plainly see that Adventists do indeed teach a works-based false plan of salvation. In order to be deemed “worthy” to partake in the first resurrection (Revelation 20:6), a believer is required to abide in Christ, keep God’s Commandments and maintain faith in Jesus. That’s not the Biblical Gospel. Keeping God’s Commandments is not part of the Gospel. The faith that bringeth salvation does not have to be maintained to keep salvation.

The purpose of the Law is to show us our sinfulness, that all the world may become guilty before God (Romans 3:19). The Law shows us the awfulness of our sins, our misery and inability to please God in our own self-righteousness, and points us to the wonderful Savior on Calvary’s tree (Galatians 3:24-25). No one is worthy of salvation.

Revelation 5:4 and 9, "And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. ... And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation."

Amen! no man is worthy, but the Lamb of God is worthy. Jesus Christ is worthy!!!

Those people who are genuinely saved (born again) will die IN THE LORD. Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." Notice that a believer's works "FOLLOW," they do not precede. We are not saved by self-righteous works.

Our works follow us to the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11). The Lord saves us by grace through faith. Salvation is instant, and we are born anew of the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9). We become a member of God's family—the kingdom of God—the moment we are saved. We are spiritually the children of Abraham, with God being our same heavenly Father (Galatians 3:26-29).

SDA's will be judged at The Great White Throne Of Judgment (Revelation 20:11-15, where Jesus will "profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:23).

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

And here is the will of the Father according to the Lord Jesus Himself:

> John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

The will of the Father is to believe on Christ, the Lamb of God. Notice that the Bible does not say to keep all God's Commandments and to abide in Christ throughout your life to be saved as SDA's foolishly teach. Adventists are unsaved heretics, on their way to the Lake of Fire. There's only one way, and that way is Jesus Christ.

Catholics say they love Jesus, while bowing to Mary and echoing vain repetitions to "Mary, Mary, Mary." They are in utter demonic denial of their sad and lost sinful state. Likewise, Seventh-day Adventists claim to trust upon the Lord Jesus, while also adding water baptism, keeping the Sabbath Day, tithing and all the Commandments of God to their so-called "faith." Faith in what? Seventh-day Adventism? That's exactly where SDA's have placed their faith... in a manmade religion that is going to take them all to the fires of Hell.

I say this kindly, but with a fervent desire that some Adventists will read this article and repent toward God, believing the Gospel to be saved.

1.2.23 Just Get On The Ark (2020-06-22 04:30)

Genesis 7:16, "And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and THE LORD SHUT HIM IN."

Why cannot men just leave God's salvation alone. Salvation is as easy as [1]getting on the ark.

The ark represents salvation. Getting on the ark is representative of one's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Notice in Genesis 7:16 that God closed and sealed the door to the ark, so that no one could either leave nor enter. Genesis 7:16, "And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and THE LORD SHUT HIM IN."

God shut Noah, his loved ones and the animals safely in the ark. This represents the biblical doctrine of Eternal Security. Salvation can never be lost. Salvation is completely 100 % of God. We have no part in [2]God's salvation , other than to get on the ark by faith, i.e., by believing on Jesus as the Son of God, the Christ. Jesus came into the world to save sinners (Luke 19:10).

Noah preached righteousness for 120 years, but not even one person cared enough to heed the Gospel warning. No one obeyed God! Jesus prophesied in Matthew 24:37-38 that it will return in the end times

AS THE DAYS OF NOAH.

Matthew 24:37-38: "But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark." So many people are busy enjoying life, and caring for the things of this life, that they are not concerned about preparing for eternity. It is a matter of faith. What saith the Scripture? Mark 11:22b,

"Have faith in God."

Noah and his family didn't get saved by doing good works, nor turning from their sins; but rather, they simply got onto the ark as the Lord commanded. Likewise, we cannot get to Heaven by doing good works, nor by turning form our sins, but only by resting completely in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ.

> “God has something He wants to give you. It is eternal life. He wrapped it in the most wonderful package you ever heard of. He put it in Jesus. People looked at Jesus. He had no form or comeliness; there wasn’t anything about Him to be desired. And they didn’t realize what was wrapped up in that package. They put Jesus on a cross. They nailed Him there. They killed Him. Then He rose from the dead, and He has been scarred ever since that time. If you could see Jesus today, the glorified, risen Son of God, you would find scars on His brow and scars in His hands. If you could look at His side you would find a wound there. His feet are scarred. But, say, He has wrapped in Himself a wonderful gift. God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” pages 222-223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

1.2.24 Except Ye Repent Ye Shall All Likewise Perish (2020-06-23 04:00)

Luke 13:1-5, “ There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

Death often comes suddenly, without warning, and life is over! This is what Jesus meant in Luke 13:5, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. ” I have heard some ignorant preachers errantly interpret this Bible verse to mean “

turn from your sins

” to be saved, but that is not what it means at all. Some people had shared negative news with Jesus. They asked if He had heard about Herod sacrificing the Galileans on an altar? Jesus replied by asking if they thought the Galileans were bigger sinners than they were?

The Lord asked if they had heard about the Wall of Siloam that fell, killing 18 people. We’re they worse sinners than you or me?

Let's apply this to today's time. Do you think people who get killed by tornadoes are worse sinners than you or me? No, we are all woeful sinners! Jesus was simply saying that we all deserve to suffer and go to Hell as sinners. Of course, the Lord Himself was without sin (Hebrews 4:15-16). The important thing is to make sure that we are all right with God individually. Don't look at the next guy and judge him. Just get on the ark yourself! Jesus Christ is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6). Noah and his family didn't save themselves. They simply got onto the ark! God saved them. Jesus Christ is our ark. If we simply rest in Christ, trusting what He did to pay for our sins on the cross, we have eternal life. DO GOODERS don't go to Heaven, DO TRUSTERS go to Heaven!

We all have an appointment with death. Hebrews 9:27-28, "

And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation. " Only God knows when that time is. I rejoice as a born-again Christian that my name is written in Heaven, recorded in the precious Lamb's Book of Life. I never wonder if I'm saved, I absolutely KNOW 100 % that I am saved, because I have God's written promise of it in the King James Bible. 1st Corinthians 1:21,

"For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

Again and again in the Scriptures we are taught simply to BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. There is nothing about turning from your sins to be saved. In Luke 13:5, Jesus did not mean to forsake one's sins when He warned, "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish." The Lord didn't mean that a big wall would fall on you if you don't turn from your sins! That is what Jack Chick taught! That is what Ray Comfort teaches. That is what John MacArthur errantly teaches. They all require turning from sins to be saved, which is another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Jesus simply meant that we are all sinners and need to prepare to meet God. I think Jesus perceived that the people telling him the bad news were not saved. If an unsaved person were to tell me about someone suddenly dying, I would use that as an opportunity to witness to them. That is exactly what Jesus was doing in Luke 13:1-5. The Lord was warning them that they could be next, and it was just a matter of time until they died too! The big $64,000 question friend is: ARE YOU PREPARED TO MEET YOUR MAKER? You're not unless you've been born-again (John 3:7).

If you've never been saved oh sinner, simply come to God now as a needy sinner. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, and you will be immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Remember, you don't go to Heaven because of your goodness, but because of God's goodness. You don't go to Heaven by establishing your OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS, but by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is through faith in Jesus Christ. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." I love that passage of Scripture.

Matthew 6:33,

"But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. " We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! The only difference between the vilest horrible criminal on this planet, and the sweetest saint of God, is the precious BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST that washes our sins away!!! You either have God's righteousness, or your own righteousness, which God says is as filthy rags to Him. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. "

Bible

is a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to trusting (relying) solely upon what Jesus Christ did to pay for your sins on the cross! If you understand this concept (truth), and it is your only hope for Heaven, then you are saved dear friend. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! The Gospel is not 'Good News' to be lived, it is 'Good News' to be believed!!! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again! God commands all men to repent (Acts 17:30), that is, change your mind toward God (Acts 20:21), by believing upon His only begotten Son who died for your sins in the cross (John 3:16). Oh how God loves you dear reader. It matters not who you are or how sinful you may be. Jesus died for THE UNGODLY (Romans 4:5; 5:6-8). That means you and me!

Micah 7:18, " Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy."

1.2.25 Hebrews 10:26-29 Explained (2020-06-24 05:00)

Hebrews 10:26-29, "For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"

This passage of Scripture clearly applies only to the Christ-rejecter, which is evident from observing several things.

Carefully notice that this passage is talking about the "KNOWLEDGE OF THE TRUTH" and not salvation itself. The knowledge of the truth is knowledge of "THE GOSPEL" my friend. If a lost person hears and rejects the truth of the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ, who became the sacrifice for everyone's sins on the cross, then they are trodding Him underfoot. They are esteeming the precious blood of Jesus as being meaningless, of no significance to them personally, in defiance of the Holy Spirit who has offered to them the free grace of God. All men must face the judgment of almighty God in eternity. Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Many Bible students make the mistake of reading too deep into a particular passage, looking for a more elaborate meaning than what is simply presented. Never lift a text out of context, lest you create a new pretext. The following passage is one such common case. The Word of God is simple telling us that we are saved BY FAITH alone in the Gospel. ...

> Hebrews 10:38-39, "Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul."

To "draw back" means to live the Christian life without ever being born-again. Many people start on a religious journey, going through all the motions at church, hearing the Gospel preached again and again, but as we plainly read in the preceding text, they never "BELIEVE TO THE SAVING OF THE SOUL." The Hebrews in the Wilderness heard Moses preach "the Gospel" for 40 long years, but by "not being mixed with faith in them that heard it," they died in their sins without the Lord and went to Hell forever. ...

> Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

This explains what the apostle Paul meant in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? " Paul had heard that a group of heretics infiltrated the church at Galatia (much like the Dr. John MacArthur cult has infiltrated thousands of churches and Bible colleges today with the perversion of Lordship Salvation). Paul only wanted to know one thing—How did you get indwelt with the Holy Spirit, that is, how did you get saved? Was it by keeping the works of the law (i.e., turning from your sins), or was it by simply putting your faith in the Gospel that you heard preached? It doesn't get any simpler than that dear reader! The Bible even calls 'The Gospel,' the "SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon, " [1]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay! "

The "Good News" of Jesus Christ is WORTHLESS if it falls upon the spiritual deaf ears of an unresponsive heart of unbelief. THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH!

1.2.26 To "Repent Of Your Sin" Seems So Harmless (2020-06-24 21:30)

Galatians 3:1-3, " O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

I don't care if every Baptist pastor, religious big shot, and Bible college professor in America detests me for my harsh preaching, I will expose them for teaching heresy! ...

> "I've stood for more sneers and scoffs and insults and had my life threatened from one end of the land to the other by this God-forsaken gang of thugs and cutthroats because I have come out uncompromisingly against them." —Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935)

The apostle Paul makes very clear in our text passage that the way to be saved is simply "BY THE HEARING OF FAITH." In Acts 10:1-43, we read the true story of a religious man named Cornelius, an Italian Centurion commander in the military. Cornelius was a good man, who feared God, gave alms to the poor, fasted and prayed, but he was not saved. God arranges for Cornelius and the apostle Peter to meet, and Peter preaches the Gospel to him. No mention is made of repenting of your sin. As Peter is preaching the Gospel, the audience simply BELIEVES what they hear and are saved. That is "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

2nd Corinthians 11:6, " But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things." I know Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the rest of the Bob Jones camp, are upset with me for criticizing their leaders; but I speak THE TRUTH! They are deceived by the Devil, bewitched. [1]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) preached the Gospel of free grace correctly, so what changed at Bob Jones University (BJU)? They let their guard down! In my humble opinion, the executive board at BJU made a horrible mistake when they hired [2]Evangelist Steve Pettit to be their president in 2014, who teaches the Devil's lie of Calvinism.

Acts 10:43, " To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. " Contrary to the heresy of Pastor Marty Herron, at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Iowa, who says you must "repent of your sin" to be saved; the Bible says in Acts 10:43 (which I just quoted) that our sins are remitted when we BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. There is quite a difference in theology between the two concepts! Whereas Pastor Herron says you must turn from your sin to be saved, the Bible says you must simply turn to Jesus. I heard Pastor Herron with my own two ears say at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, "It is not enough to admit you are a sinner, you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved." That is the heresy of Lordship Salvation! That is the [3]garbage taught by Dr. John MacArthur.

Pastor John MacArthur of 'Grace To You,' says Lordship's indispensable condition is that the lost man "must turn from sin" to receive the gift of eternal life and ultimately enter Heaven. This is the [4]same junk theology that Dr. Steve Pettit teaches as president of BJU. This is another gospel of damnation!!! This is what Dr. Marty Herron teaches too! This is what Dr. Sam Horn teaches! These men have been corrupted by Satan. They are tares among the wheat. They are religious men who have never been born-again, so they filter the Gospel through their own corrupt understand that one must

turn from your sins

to be saved. No, you must turn to Jesus!

I've heard corrupted Baptist preachers use the lame excuse,

"Well, to turn to Jesus you must turn from something!" If someone is turning to Jesus by faith as their Savior, WHO CARES what they are turning from! It doesn't matter whether it be idols, sinful ways or atheism, a person is saved by BELIEVING, not turning from something. The horrible error of the Lordship Salvation crowd is that they REQUIRE that a person turn from their sinful behavior, as an added extra step to getting saved. So instead of simply believing the Gospel, now the person is told they must first commit to turning away from a life of living in sin, and only then will God accept their faith. This is [5]exactly what Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches. Mr. Comfort made this horribly corrupt statement:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[6]I've never killed anyone" ([7]MP3 clip from video).

Oh my! Dear reader, God does not demand that you "

LIVE A LIFESTYLE

" to receive His free gift of eternal life. Right doctrine matters! This matter is so critically important. What Ray Comfort is talking about is human reformation. Penitence is sorrow for sins. Penance is amending one's sinful ways. Reformation is turning from your sins. However, none of these are required for salvation. God only requires repentance, which is simply a change of mind unto the Gospel itself. Mark 1:15b, "r epent ye, and believe the gospel.

" The object of repenting is believing, not forsaking your sins.

What saith the Scripture? Matthew 21:32, " For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." Here again we see that the object of repentance is not turning from your sins, nor changing your life; but rather, simply

THAT YE BELIEVE ON HIM

"! You don't turn from your sins to believe, you believe to be forgiven of your sins. Please read again

Acts 10:43, " To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

We don’t need the Greek to understand the King James Bible. Acts 20:21 plainly teaches repentance is “TOWARD GOD,” not from sin! Acts 20:21, “

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. ” Repentance is simply recognizing one’s self as a needy sinner in the sight of a holy God. To say that a person must repent of sin

to be saved is heresy, and another gospel of works. Kindly said, [8]I refute Pastor Marty Herron as a heretic for using the phrase “repent of your sin” when he witnesses to lost people, but if you understand what he means (as I have explained in this blog article), then you understand why I expose him as a false teacher.

I don’t like making enemies, but people’s eternal souls are at stake. Requiring a person to turn from their sins makes the gospel very complicated all of a sudden. There is nothing simple about forsaking your lifelong sinful bad habits, following Christ no matter what the cost, running the race, living a lifestyle of repentance, forsaking the world, et cetera. This is all junk theology, which nearly every popular preacher is promoting nowadays. Eternal life is a free gift, paid for by Jesus’ precious blood. You don’t have to count the cost and pay the price, you simply get out of the way and let God do the saving, by faith alone (Hebrews 4:1-2, 10-11). Look what John MacArthur heretically said:

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added] —Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

The theologically corrupt new president of BJU, Dr. Steve Pettit, [9]sinfully bids Godspeed to damnable false prophet John MacArthur. That is because these men both preach another gospel. Birds of a feather flock together! Sam Horn and Marty Herron are buddies with these theologically tainted men. Dr. Sam Horn is the new president of ’The Master’s University’ (originally founded in 1927 as ’The Los Angeles Baptist Theological Seminary’), which Mr. MacArthur was president of from 1984 to 2020. Sam Horn is the new president. BJU has turned to the darkside, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Whatever greatness BJU once had when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. and his son were still alive, they are a theologically destitute, failed and corrupt religious institution in 2020.

For taking a courageous Biblical stand against Lordship Salvation, I have lost my church family at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014. Despite my love for them, and repeated requests since 2017 to return to their church services, to simply be loved as part of their church family, they have sinfully rejected, shunned and ostracized me as an enemy, just like the church at Galatia horribly did to Paul. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? " But if my calamity can someday be their gain, if they'll come to their senses about the true Gospel of free grace, and reject the modern Devil's Bible revisions, then it will be worth it all for Jesus' sake.

2nd Corinthians 11:16 and 19, " I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. ... For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. " Right doctrine matters! The accuracy of the Gospel matters! The purity of the inspired Word of God matters! The Gospel has been embellished so much, that if you were to interview ten different church members, you'd get ten different gospels.

For the sake of learning by repetition, I will repeat 'THE GOSPEL' (which means 'GOOD NEWS' or 'GLAD TIDINGS'). The 'BAD NEWS' is that we are are sinners (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty for our sins, or wages if you please, which is death (Romans 6:23). The Bible teaches that there is also a " second death

" in a lake of fire and brimstone (Hell). We all deserve to suffer forever in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death" (Revelation 21:8b). The 'GOOD NEWS' is that God loved you and me so much, that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross for our sins (John 3:16-18). Jesus Christ paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21). JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! THE GOSPEL specifically is comprised of just three things: Jesus Christ DIED on the cross, HE was BURIED, and He physically RESURRECTED from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God by faith as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing (relying upon) that He died, was buried and is bodily risen from the dead, is immediately, irreversibly and forever born-again (forgiven and saved). It's that simple to receive God's free gift of eternal life!

Excellent defense of the free grace gospel Brother Dave!

1.2.27 You Should Turn From Sins, But Not To Be Saved (2020-06-25 03:30)

2nd Timothy 19-21, "Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work."

The inspired Holy Bible has much to say about God's children forsaking sin, and living a holy life for the Lord. I don't ever want to give the impression as a free grace preacher, that I am lackadaisical about sin. Psalms 97:10, "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked." Matthew 5:48, " Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect." Obviously we are incapable of being completely perfect, but God wants us to try with His help. This has absolutely nothing to do with the gift of eternal life. You could just as easily receive God's gift, and choose to continue living in sin, and still be safely secure in God's gift of salvation. However, the Lord will scourge and chastise you as His child (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent.

Proverbs 3:12, " For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth."

Galatians 5:13, " For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another." The moment we were born-again, we were set free from the captivity of Satan. The law's curse no longer has dominion over us as God's redeemed saints. A believer CAN live in sin and still know with certainty that they are going to Heaven! God will hold a disobedient child accountable (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11; 1st Thessalonians 4:6; Romans 12:19-21; 14:10-12). The truth is that we are all disobedient children sometimes. There is no such thing as turning away from one's sins. Even the most faithful saint still struggles with sin. The apostle Paul struggled with his flesh (Romans 7:14-25). No believer ever gets to the place spiritually, where they can slack off and relax, thinking they have attained a level of maturity that makes them less vulnerable to temptation and sin. As long as you are breathing and in the flesh, sin will be a struggle.

Every saint of God should try to live above reproach. NO ONE can live above sin. Living right is a matter of how much we love God. Many people disregard the Word of God, wilfully choosing to live in sin, but there is always a consequence. Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, "Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God."

Fear God And Keep His Commandments

My goal in life is not to avoid sin, but to fear God and keep His commandments. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

” We can only live life the way God gives it to us, one day at a time. We may not be alive tomorrow, so I don’t worry about the future. I am going to serve God right now, today, and do what I can to make an impact for Heaven!

Psalms 72:3, “The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.”

Proverbs 16:12, “It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.”

Daniel 4:27, “Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.”

I love that last Bible verse. The prophet Daniel exhorted king Nebuchadnezzar to get right with God, to break off his wickedness BY RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! The way you stop lying is to start telling the truth! The way you get a counterfeit gospel out of your church, is to start preaching the true Gospel of free grace! The way to overcome adultery is to be faithful to your own marriage. The way to stop stealing is to start working hard to be an honest person. I would rather die than cheat someone! All sin starts when we leave off doing right! The apostle Peter didn’t sink in doubt into the sea, until he removed his eyes from watching Jesus (Matthew 14:30).

Our worries, fears and doubts in the Christian life, all begin when we take our eyes off off the precious Savior! Complaining begins with a lack of gratitude toward God. Hatred begins with a lack of love for our neighbours. I prayed for all my neighbours today, because I love them very much. They are my neighbours. Proverbs 3:29, " Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee." So many people today are filled with anger, hatred, envy and all manner of wicked thinking. The reason why is that their mind has never been renewed by the precious Word of God. Romans 12:1-2,

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." That's the key right there folks!

You Don't 'Turn From Sins' To Get God's Free Gift

We hear a bunch of junk theology about being required to

turn from your sins

to be saved. That just shows how ignorant and foolish most of today's Bible professors, evangelists and pastors really are! Romans 12:1 teaches us that a person's mind needs to first be RENEWED before they can be TRANSFORMED. Getting saved is a free gift. Eternal life is free because Jesus paid the price for it with His blood! That is what the Holy Bible says (1st Peter 1:18-19).

I have been saddened as I listen to '[1]UNSHACKLED' by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. In an attempt to glamorize their ministry, they've sensationalized the Gospel, demanding that Skid Row drunkards, addicts, prostitutes and hardened sinners be willing to transform (turn from their sins) as a prerequisite to saving faith. I've listened to hundreds of their programs, many of which are ridiculous in their claims. PGM's 'Unshackled' is packed full of junk theology! Yet, most of it is very good. The stories are heartbreaking. Unfortunately, in many of the episodes, it is clear that [2]the new birth has not taken place, the person has merely found religion.

I will go to my grave preaching the free grace Gospel, which is without works of any sort. You simply trust Jesus as your Savior to go to Heaven, not as your Lord or King. What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. " I love that Bible verse! Jesus is the Savior of ALL MEN, especially of them that believe! This refutes the Calvinist false teaching of Limited Atonement (i.e., the false claim that Jesus only died for Christians on the cross). Since Jesus is the Savior of all men, He had to die for ALL MEN. Romans 5:6-8 says that Jesus died for THE UNGODLY!!! That includes you and me friend, and every other rotten sinner on the globe! Aren't we blessed and fortunate that our Creator is a loving God? I shudder to think if Satan were in charge of the universe! The Devil may be the god of this planet temporarily (2nd Corinthians 4:4), but God is in charge of the entire universe, including the earth (1st Corinthians 10:26).

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.”

John 3:16, “ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

I was saddened to read in the local news today about [1]an 18 year old young man who drowned four days ago, at the popular Marbo Cave on Guam. [2]His name was Ryo Eda, originally from Hawaii. He just graduated a couple weeks ago from Harvest Baptist Academy on Guam. My sympathies go out to the family. Just last week in southern Indiana, an [3]11 year old Girl Scout named Isabelle Meyer was killed when a 40 foot tree fell on her while hiking. It had been raining a lot in recent weeks, softening the soil, which caused the tree to topple over. That is tragic. These young people will never know the joy of parenting, or being a grandparent. It’s not fair! Life is not fair. Ecclesiastes 9:11, “I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all. ” Sometimes accidents just do happen.

My neck hurts all the time, from getting hit from the rear by a church bus in 1992. The only thing that kept my neck from breaking, was that my seat broke instead, but my neck was permanently misaligned and damaged, which led to Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease (stenosis and radiculopathy) years later in 2004. I also fell down a 15 foot slide at work in 2005, which complicated my injury. I underwent two major neck surgeries in 2009 and 2010, which made me worse. I survive in misery all the time, thankful for my pain medications which provide some relief.

Yet, when I think about those two unfortunate young people, who died so early in life, I praise God for the blessings that I have, and use their deaths to compel me to work even harder to preach the Gospel, to make a difference for Jesus Christ while I still can. My best friend while growing up committed suicide with his father's shotgun at only age 22. I wept much at his funeral, placing my soulwinning New Testament into his coffin. I am now 53. I can think back with some close brushes with death myself that I have had in life.

I had a car fall on me years ago, and if it weren't for a black man walking down the street at just the right time, who heard my cries for help trapped under a Ford Tornado, I wouldn't be here today.

That accident happened in the year 1993. I was laying on a creeper, changing a starter. I jacked the car up and placed jack stands under the car, but I didn't lower the car's weight onto the stands. My creeper caught a pebble under the wheel, and I couldn't roll, so like an idiot I pulled on the car to overcome the resistance so I could roll, and in so doing pulled the car down on me. The jack stands toppled over, and the jack. It was a front-wheel-drive, so the full weight of the heavy engine was upon me, and I was still laying on my creeper.

I was unable to breathe. I eerily screamed, "Help me, please help me, someone help me, I'm trapped!"

A black man came over, with his hands trembling, and with mere gasps of remaining air, I told him how to jack the car up. I went to the hospital. My entire chest was black, blue and yellow, but no ribs were broken. I wept over the days to follow from the intense pain, having to roll just to get out of bed. I barely escaped death that day! To this day I won't get under a car! I had nightmares for years to follow. I love that black man, but don't know who he is. I hope to meet him in Heaven. If he is there, all my rewards in Heaven are his too! He can have anything and everything in my home!

I owe my life and ministry to him. Yet, as saints we can say with the apostle Paul in Philippians 1:21,

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

” God looks at death differently than we do. In God’s sight, the death of a believer is a precious thing, even though we perceive it as a tragedy. Psalms 116:15, “ Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints. ” Whether you are young or old, bond or free, rich or poor, faithful or unfaithful, the sight of every saint is precious in God’s sight.

I could share several other near misses with death. I almost got hit by a speeding car once, as a teenager in Geneva, Illinois. I used to ride as fast as I could down hills, with no thought of cars at the intersection. That was pretty stupid. I once fell backwards from a 25 foot high hole in a roof being repaired. I didn’t watch where I was going and fell backwards. I would have fallen backward 25 feet down onto the concrete below, but a half-sawn 2 x 12 board saved my life. My point is that death can happen at any time, without warning! Are you ready to die dear reader? Have you been born-again?

I have some wonderful news dear friend—you can live forever! I was amazed when I researched [4]the strange subject of cryonics. I’ll let you read the article I just linked to, so I don’t need to explain how it works. Basically people pay a lot of money to have their bodies frozen in liquid nitrogen (at 320 degrees below zero Fahrenheit) when they die, in hope of one day being revived by manmade science, so they can live forever. That is ridiculous! I rejoiced in my heart after studying about cryonics, realizing that I already have eternal life promised to me by God, through faith in His only begotten Son! John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

That is awesome!

Titus 1:2, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; ” I am so glad to be a born-again Christian, I have God’s promise of eternal life:

Someday every believer will receive a new body from God, fashioned like unto the Lord's perfect body. I sometimes cannot believe that I am one of the few who have been saved. God didn't choose me to be saved, I chose to trust Jesus Christ, and on that basis alone God has chosen me as His elect. We don't believe because God chose us, God chose us because we believe. The world is filled with blinded religious people. They have been deceived by the Devil to live the Christian life without ever being born-again. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.

If you don't know for certain that you are saved, I will tell you now. The Holy Bible declares that you are a sinner (and so am I). We are guilty of violating God's commandments. Romans 3:10-23 describes the sinful condition of mankind. Because of our sins we deserve to be punished in Hell forever (Romans 6:23). The wages of sin is death the Bible says. Some people don't understand that, because we are not as perfect and holy as God. To get to Heaven, you must be absolutely perfect, not even one sin (James 2:10). That is why we cannot save ourselves! Jesus is perfect, so if we accept His sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, then God will impute (credit) Christ's righteousness to us by faith (Romans 4:5-6 - All quotes are only from the inspired King James Bible).

The 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) is that God loved us so much, that He sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, to die on the cross to pay for our sins. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Jesus DIED on the cross, was BURIED, and physically RESURRECTED after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is the Gospel, by which we are saved if we believe. Romans 1:16, " For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." 1st Corinthians 1:21, " For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe."

All that God requires is for you to acknowledge yourself as a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20; 1st John 1:8-10). You need the Savior! If you'd like to have eternal life, then simply by faith receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen from the dead, and you are saved. God can read your mind. The very moment that God sees you've placed your trust in His only begotten Son, He saves you forever! 1st John 5:20, " And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." If you have Jesus Christ as your Savior, you have eternal life. JESUS IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! Eternal life is eternal security!!! If you have Jesus as your Savior, you are saved forever and eternally secure. Once saved, always saved!!! Please trust Christ now as your personal Savior.

Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith."

There is a frightening heresy which has already crept into many Baptist churches today—which says that people were saved by WORKS during the Old Testament, but are saved by GRACE alone today, and will again be saved by WORKS during the future Tribulation period. This false teaching boldly contradicts the plain Words of God in Galatians 1:8-9, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." If it were true that the plan of salvation had changed, then the apostle Paul would have said so, but he didn't. Paul warned that anyone who teaches ANOTHER GOSPEL is accursed by God!

The main proponent and instigator of this heresy (respectfully) is Pastor Peter Ruckman (1921-2016). NO MAN HAS EVER BEEN JUSTIFIED BY WORKS! If the Old Testament saints were justified by works, then they had a reason to boast in their own righteousness. We read in Romans 4:2 that if Abraham had been saved by works, then he would have had a right to glory (boast), but not of God. Romans 4:2, "For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God." Dr. Ruckman teaches that Abraham was saved by GRACE, but then once Moses received the Ten Commandments from God, salvation became by WORKS. That is of the Devil! It would be silly and foolish to claim that people were saved differently under Moses, that is, after the law was given, because then they WOULD have "whereof to glory, but not of God"!!!

NO ONE has ever been able to keep the Mosaic law (Romans 3:10-23). [1]According to Dr. Ruckman, faith alone wasn't enough to save a sinner in the Old Testament. The very idea of mixing works with faith is satanic to the core!!! It blows my mind that Peter Ruckman and his follows teach this garbage! Robert Breaker also teaches this junk theology. Sadly, one of my former professors at Hyles-Anderson College, Dr. William P. Grady is also a big advocate of this Satanic heresy by Dr. Ruckman. It blows my mind! I am not a follower of Peter Ruckman, I simply take the good and leave the bad. I believe Peter Ruckman was saved, because he said salvation is only by grace in this Church Age today.

Yet, I seriously wonder about his salvation sometimes, since he was messed up enough to totally miss the simplicity of LAW and GRACE! Paul plainly says in Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Did you read that? THE LAW WAS A SCHOOLMASTER TO BRING US TO CHRIST! That "us" includes the Old Testament saints! How do I know that? Why, listen to what the prophet Habakkuk proclaimed in Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith." Habakkuk declared:

"...THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY HIS FAITH ."

We find Habakkuk 2:4 quoted in three different Scripture passages in the New Testament...

> Romans 1:17, "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith ."

> Galatians 3:11, "But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith ."

> Hebrews 10:38, "Now the just shall live by faith : but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him."

Habakkuk was under the Mosaic law. Don't miss that! Abraham lived before the law was given, but Habakkuk lived under the law! That disproves Peter Ruckman's claim that Old Testament saints were saved by WORKS! What saith Peter Ruckman? ...

> The original "plan of salvation" was pure WORKS (Gen. 2:16-17), and in the Millennium the last plan of salvation is again pure WORKS (Rev. 22:14), contrary to every immature, milksop, Baptist baby in your town or city. Genesis 3:22 corrects the kiddies. (Ruckman, Peter. Ruckman's Bible References: Personal Notes on Salient Verses in the Bible, p. 7)

For the Old Testament Dr. Ruckman has an erratic system, with the method of salvation switching back and forth, from faith to works and then back to faith, in an attempt to deal with some theological difficulties. Notice the following:

> In the Old Testament, you find salvation before the Law by grace through faith and under the Law by faith and works... (Ruckman, Peter. Body, Soul, and Spirit. 1986, 1997, p. 12)

That is preposterous! I cannot fathom the disturbing theological ignorance of this brilliant man! How could anyone buy into the Devil's lie that salvation was by faith before Moses, but then became by works under the Mosaic law, and then will revert back to faith in the New Testament? Dr. Ruckman is WRONG! Salvation has ALWAYS been by faith alone.

What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Here is a plain statement from the Scripture that salvation has ALWAYS been through faith alone in Christ—Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." So saith the Scripture!

1.2.30 How Could My Favorite Preacher Not Be Saved? (2020-06-26 17:05)

Acts 15:1, 24, “

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. …Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

We need to differentiate between great religious leaders, and actually being saved. Martin Luther King Jr. was an amazing man. He was a sinner, like all of us, but he said some amazing things, and was a man’s man kind of leader. Mr. King was a Baptist preacher his whole life, and African American Baptists everywhere loved and revered him. Yet, [1]Mr. King openly denied Jesus’ virgin birth, deity and [2]bodily resurrection. You couldn’t make that stuff up!

Martin Luther King Jr. was no Christian! Likewise, John Calvin and Martin Luther were famous religious leaders, who both taught Baptismal Regeneration. So it shouldn't be surprising that many amazing preachers (past and present) are not saved. In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about a group of religious people who gave all to follow Christ, calling Him "Lord, Lord," doing many wonderful works in Jesus name, but Jesus said "I never knew you." When I listen to Pastor John MacArthur preach, it is hard for me to imagine that he is not saved. MacArthur says some really great things. However, with Matthew 7:21-23 in mind, Jesus plainly taught that following Him does not produce the new birth. Judas followed Christ everywhere he went as His apostle. We get saved by trusting Jesus as our personal SAVIOR, not by following Him as our LORD; and not by trusting and following Him as LORD and SAVIOR.

It is hard to believe that something as small as adding a requirement to "turn from your sin" would keep a person from getting saved, but that is what the Bible teaches. In Acts 15:1 some false prophets added one thing, keeping the law according to the law of Moses (which effectively is the same as turning from your sins), but it was no longer the Gospel (which the disciples confirmed in Acts 15:24). I was recently horrified to learn what [3]Charles G. Finney taught, totally denying the imputed righteousness of God for the believer.

There is a fine line between the Gospel and living the Christian life. They are not the same thing. The people in Matthew 7:22-23 had lived the Christian life, like Seventh-Day Adventists so, but they had never been born-again by faith alone in the Son of God. A lot of people get into some church or religion, and outwardly learn to do all that a Christian does. They know the language. They know what is expected of them. They walk the walk and appear outwardly as Jesus' sheep, but they are tares, wolves in sheep's clothing, not saved at all. The difference is in what they are trusting in to get them to Heaven.

I cannot say who is or is not saved. I certainly have my opinion of who's saved or not saved. I don't think Ray Comfort or John MacArthur are saved. I don't think anybody is saved who thinks they must "turn from your sin" to be saved. that is human effort. They have the wrong mindset. My attitude as a born-again Christian is that JESUS PAID IT ALL. I owe Him nothing! It was a free gift. It is "reasonable" that I should serve Him (Romans 12:1). I have been bought with a price (Jesus' precious blood), so I SHOULD glorify God with my spirit, soul and body (1st Corinthians 6:20).

I think many people are saved who use the phrase "Lord and Savior." I see no harm in that phrase. Even the Bible uses it (2nd Peter 1:11). Jesus is every Christian's Lord and Savior, but you only need to trust Him as your Savior to get to Heaven. Jesus is Lord, we don't make Him LORD! Jesus automatically becomes our Lord at the time of salvation. He owns us from that point on! We belong to Him. God seals us with His Spirit of promise (Ephesians 1:13). If you've never read it, I encourage you to read Michael P. Bowen's excellent book titled: "[4]I Never Knew You."

Chapter 5 is about Pastor Rick Warren. Great stuff! Mr. Warren teaches that you have to live like Jesus to be saved. I love Michael's book, because it clearly shows how so many famous preachers teach salvation as a lifestyle that we must live, instead of a one time gift that we need simply to receive. Their thinking is very different from the Word of God. I got saved at age 13 and it is a done deal! My sins have been forever washed away, sins I haven't even committed yet. That is why when we sin as believers, God's grace "DID MUCH MORE ABOUND" (Romans 5:20). Acts 13:39 says we have been "JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS."

The goal of my articles is not to attack people who teach Lordship Salvation, but to warn everyone else about them. When the apostle Paul wrote to the corrupted church at Galatia, all he wanted to know is how they got saved (i.e., how did they get the indwelling Holy Spirit)—by keeping the law, or by the hearing of faith (Galatians 3:2). We are saved by placing our childlike faith in the Gospel when we hear it preached (or read it preached). That is very simple. Paul didn't ask them if they had been converted from their sinful ways. He didn't ask them if they had surrendered to Jesus as Lord. He simply wanted to know if they had faith.

Only God knows who is truly saved or lost.

I do think it is possible for someone to be confused, caught between grace and works, and still be saved, depending on the extent of the damage. Pastor Phil Kidd believes if you are saved, you will live a changed life. That borders on Calvinism, and I don't like it, but I think he is saved. The correct teaching is that a saved person SHOULD live a changed life; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). The Bible says Demas forsook Paul's side in the ministry, having loved this present world (2nd Timothy 4:10). Demas was saved, but worldly. Samson chased women (Judges 16:1). This was God's man. Samson lived in sin his whole life, and so does every Christian. We all sin in different ways. I once saw a church sign that read: "Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do!" I like that.

The whole idea of turning from sin is ludicrous, because no one can turn from their sins. We can take a pig and clean it up nice, with perfume and a bow-tie, but it is still a pig and will run for the mudhole as fast as it can when set free. Humans are sinners! We will run for the mudhole of sin every chance we get, until we get converted (born-again) and our nature changes. As a Christian, I want to live right as much as I can, in the Lord's strength, because I fear and love the Lord (John 14:15). I am still a sinner, but my nature changed at age 13. I didn't have to commit to be willing to change to get saved. That is the junk theology today taught at Bob Jones University (in their Statement of Faith no less)! I didn't "turn from my sins" to get saved.

I simply knew that I was a sinner, and I knew Jesus was the Savior who died for my sins on the cross, and I cried out in my soul in faith for the risen Savior to save me, and He wonderfully did. The Holy Spirit moved inside to indwell me. He began to work on me, convicting me about sins in my life. I started reading my Bible each night before I went to sleep. I was changing, because I had the Holy Spirit. That is how salvation works! You simply trust the blessed Savior, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes us through renewing our mind with the inspired Word of God. The reason why it is so hard for people to understand this truth, is simply because they are not saved, they are merely religious. Religious people always think in terms of turning away from sins. To be saved we simply need to turn away from RELIGION and trust the Savior!

1.2.31 Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong (2020-06-27 03:00)

Matthew 7:22-23, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

'Lordship Salvation' is simply where people believe that you have to do works to be saved, to commit your life to Christ, so where salvation is not only trusting Christ, but also includes serving Christ, and you don't get one without the other. This is what [1]Dr. Steve Pettit, president of Bob Jones University, errantly teaches. Calvinism teaches that you must make Jesus the "

of your life to be saved. Consequently, they claim you have to look at your life to know if you are saved. This is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9).

The Christian life is a warfare. We are battling the flesh, the Devil and the world. We are battling against heresy constantly creeping into the church. Jude 1:3b, “that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. ” Even little children should be able to understand the Gospel, if it is presented in its intended simplicity (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). We are at war ladies and gentleman over the Gospel today. Satan is more clever than you or me, and he has been trying to infiltrate, corrupt and destroy churches since the beginning of Christianity. Sadly, the Devil is winning many battles today! Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

1st Timothy 1:18-19, “This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare; Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: ” This speaks of how you live your life, not salvation. Salvation is by grace alone! You cannot discern the doctrine of devils, if you don’t know the doctrines of God. You have to be able to know truth in order to discern error! The best way to expose the darkness is to shine the light of God’s Word!

Lordship Salvation is a doctrine of devils. If you have to look at your life to prove that you’re saved, it proves that you’re not. No one lives above sin. You may manage to live above reproach, but NO ONE can live above sinning! We have all done wickedly. That is why Christ died on the cross, to pay our debt of sin that He did not owe, so we could be made the righteousness of God through faith alone in Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Philippians 3:9).

Ephesians 2:8-9, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. ” John

MacArthur

, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer, John Piper, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Jonathan Edwards, Charles Finney, and all other heretics, errantly teach that you must

turn from sin

” to be saved. You’ve heard of ’Black Lives Matter’? Well, to the Calvinist only ’Some Lives Matter.’ They teach that Jesus only died for SOME, and God only chooses SOME for salvation, and only SOME can be saved. In sharp contrast, the Holy Bible teaches that Christ DIED FOR ALL, and that ALL may be saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ! Jesus is precious!!!

Justification is where God declares you righteous by faith, instantaneously. Sanctification is the process of becoming Christlike, which takes a lifetime. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” If you add one work, you’ve mutilated the Gospel of grace! All these false prophets who teach that you must “

to be saved, are adding to the Gospel of free grace. You cannot show me one place in the Bible that teaches to

turn from your sins

to be saved. Jesus said in John 6:47 to simply

BELIEVE ON ME

”! There is no mention of forsaking sinful ways to receive the free gift of eternal. Salvation does not include a personal commitment or promise to serve the person of Christ. It sounds logical and good, but it is an accursed message. God does not and will not save anyone who adds works to the Gospel. You may not live like a saint, but because of your position in Christ in God’s eye, you are a saint!

Your lifestyle has nothing to do with how much God loves you, and whether He saved you or not. God saved you because you trusted His only begotten Son! John 3:16a says, “For God so LOVED THE WORLD.” God loves you dear friend! God wants to save you by faith alone in His son’s sacrifice on the cross for your sins. You works and performance is what YOU DID, not what HE DID! True salvation is the decision to TRUST, not a commitment to SERVE! Are you truly trusting Christ and Him alone, and not your performance and what you do? Saving faith is simply being convinced that what God said in His Word is true! The Gospel is 'Good News' to be BELIEVED, not a lifestyle to be LIVED.

My condition in Christ may change depending on my circumstances and personal choices, but my position in Christ as His redeemed child never changes. Calvinism teaches that real faith inevitably produces a changed life, but that is a false gospel. Are you looking at what Jesus did for you on the cross, or what you are doing for Him in your personal life? My confidence is solely in what Christ did for me on the cross, and not in what I do for Him. As believers we SHOULD walk in newness of life, but if we don't, we are still saved. Does your child have to obey you to be your child? No, they don't. We are the children of God by faith. Galatians 3:26, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

1.2.32 Evangelist Ravi Zacharias' Counterfeit Gospel (2020-06-27 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. "

I thank God for all THE TRUTH which He has shown unto me. 1st Corinthians 2:9-10, "But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God." Genesis 32:10, "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands." Thank you God!!!

One of the most subtle, wealthy, popular and dangerous FALSE PROPHETS today is Ravi Zacharias. His ministry rakes in about $25,000,000 each year. Spiritual crime pays! Ravi has been invited to speak in over 55 countries, and [1]Mormons love him! I have nothing personal against Mr. Zacharias, but he is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL, and I have a duty as a born-again child of God to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 1:3b).

In a YouTube video titled: "[2]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation?," Ravi says the following to have a relationship with Jesus...

> "In fact when Jesus comes into your life, he helps you cross the greatest bridge, from the head to the heart. I experienced that at the age 17. The fact that I could pray and invite Jesus Christ into my life—a simple prayer—asking Him to become my Savior, and the transformation He brought; how He changed not only my life, but years later my father's life. And I would like you, to bow your head and with me repeat a simple prayer, if you want this to happen in your life. Just pray with me one sentence at a time:
> Heavenly Father, I thank you for loving me. I need your forgiveness. I need your salvation. Lord Jesus, enter into my heart. Change me. Give me with your presence. Help me to follow you. I receive you, this moment, and commit my life to you. Thank you Father. In Jesus' name, Amen!"

SOURCE: YouTube - '[3]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation?'

Folks, that is not '[4]THE GOSPEL'! Let's break down Ravi's unbiblical plan of salvation and list his requirements to be saved:

1. Repeat a prayer
2. Invite Christ into your life
3. Ask Jesus to become your Savior
4. Thank God for loving you
5. Tell God you need forgiveness
6. Tell God you need His salvation
7. Ask Jesus to enter into your heart
8. Ask Jesus to change you
9. Ask Jesus to give you His presence
10. Ask Jesus to help you follow Him
11. Receive Jesus
12. Commit your life to Jesus

Wow! Ravi Zacharias gives 12 THINGS to do in his suggested prayer to be saved. Did you notice the BIGGEST MISTAKE Ravi made? He left out "THE GOSPEL" entirely! Ravi doesn't even mention Jesus dying on the cross to pay for our sins. Ravi doesn't mention Christ's DEATH, BURIAL nor RESURRECTION. I mean, that is "THE GOSPEL" after all, but he leaves it off completely!!! That is why I justly call Ravi "a devil dog preacher!"

And kindly, so are the shameful pastors of the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for inviting, promoting and honoring, and God forbid, BIDDING GODSPEED to this [5]wicked man who teaches doctrines of devils!!! 1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" I understand that there is something called "semantics," where different preachers each word the plan of salvation a little differently, but Ravi MISSES THE BALLPARK COMPLETELY!!! If they don't want to accept me as a part of their family for the sake of love at Harvest, then I will expose them for the sake of truth! When churchgoers are more loyal to ungodly pastors than to God, apostasy has overtaken the churches! The [6]Bob Jones University crowd wreak with the stench of favoritism, prejudice and carnality.

[7]Ravi Zacharias says to tell God that you need forgiveness and salvation. Folks, God already knows what you need! Ravi says to tell God that you love Him. That's sweet, but this is not a part of the Gospel to be saved. What in the world does asking Jesus to "change you" have to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life? Following Jesus is not a part of the Gospel. Judas followed Christ, but died in unbelief, and is now burning in Hell forever. Neither do you have to commit your life to Jesus to be saved. Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a free gift! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." If I give you a gift, all you need to do is freely receive it; you don't have to "ask" me for it, because I am offering it to you. The same is true with salvation, Jesus has already paid the price for your sins with His blood, and all you have to do is freely take it by faith. Ravi has wickedly ADDED a bunch of junk to embellish the Gospel.

My intent is not to criticize Ravi Zacharias, for I am the biggest sinner I know. I am sure he is a wonderful man to know in real life. He seems like a nice person. However, I am strictly refuting his unbiblical teachings that help the Devil BLIND "the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2nd Corinthians 4:4b).

The interviewer follows after Ravi's Satanic plan of salvation by saying: "I hope you will pray that prayer and mean it!" My friend, you can "PRAY THAT PRAYER" a thousand times and go straight to Hell to burn forever when you die!!! Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam invited, praised and honored this ungodly man in June of 2017. They invited Mr. Zacharias to speak to 1,000 local guests, church members and military who came to hear him preach.

> "The backslider likes the preaching that wouldn't hit the side of a house, while the real disciple is delighted when the truth brings him to his knees." —Evangelist Billy Sunday (1862-1935)

What is happening dear reader is that money-hungry Bible colleges are selling pieces of paper called "degrees" for the right price, to anybody who shows up to class and meets the minimum requirements; but when they graduate they cannot discern THE TRUTH, cannot preach their way out of a paper bag, and are mere parasites off Christendom!!! Dead spiritual leaders produce dead followers!!! Only preachers can reproduce preachers, which is why Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) put preachers instead of teachers into the classrooms at Hyles-Anderson College (while Brother Hyles was still alive on earth), which is why my website ministry is here—I am a Bible-preacher!!! Love me or hate me, "But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me" (1st Corinthians 15:10). God loves you dear reader and so do I.

We've got a bunch of spiritually dead churches and Bible Bible colleges today, who are more concerned about making money, training nurses, and teaching how to play musical instruments, than they are about trying to save a nation for God with Bible-preaching and soulwinning!!! I'm talking about apostate Bob Jones University, Pensacola Christian College, Ambassador Bible College, Crown Bible College, Dallas Theological Cemetery, Moody Bible SINstitute, and Hyles-Anderson College today (who no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired). My God, what the hell is going on in churches today? Has everybody lost their guts and backbone? Has everybody lost their spiritual discernment? I sure feel like the Lone Ranger these days! I am so grateful for modest ladies, caring Christians, and uncompromising Bible-preachers, and I truly thank God for BOTH OF YOU!!!

I Wish Churches Cared About The Truth

Kindly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam promotes Ravi Zacharias. Ravi is now in Hell in my humble opinion, because he followed Jesus, living the Christian life, but was never born-again. Harvest chooses to go to Hell with their pastors, for their Lordship Salvation lie, who despise me and won't have anything to do with me, simply because I told THE TRUTH as a friend to them. They really owe me a big apology for this whole ordeal since November of 2014, because I did the right thing from the start in November of 2013. They'll never do that though, because in my humble opinion they are sinfully proud men, fake ministers according to 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15. I was hoping to make peace with them for the 2019 holidays and come back to their church in 2020, because I have been hurting for a long time without a church family, but they couldn't care less. I am casting my pearl before the swine. I am faced with the harsh reality that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has become a mere religious business, where people don't really matter. This is the horrible world that we live in today! All I ever humbly requested (umpteen times) since 2017 is to simply attend church services. They have consistently refused me! God will be their only Judge (Romans 14:10).

They are ungodly pastors and I will expose them for what they are—apostates! I have a right to my opinion, just like they do. If we can't get along inside the church family, then so be it, I will express my opinions outside the family. All I have ever wanted since 2014 is to attend a local church, but the truth of the matter is that they are serving Satan, and I think God must be protecting me from them! I don't know how, where or when, but God is going to reckon Harvest for their wickedness, it is just a matter of time. No one can mock God and get away with it (Galatians 6:7). In fact, the context of that Scripture passage from Galatians 6:7 is that a works-based cult had infiltrated the church of Galatia (Galatians 3:1-11), just like John MacArthur and Steve Pettit have [9]infiltrated Bob Jones University with their damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Just like all the wicked people in America, who sin and snub their noses at God, so also have Harvest's pastors and complicit staff snubbed God with their arrogance, heresy, indifference, woeful lack of love for hurting people like me, and apostasy! Sadly, as long as their paychecks keep coming, they couldn't care less! It is a crying shame that Harvest bids Godspeed to evildoers. God curses Harvest according to Galatians 1:6-9. I love them all tremendously, God knows my heart, but they do not love God, truth nor me.

What Exactly Is The Gospel?

What saith the Scripture? The word “Gospel” means “Good News” or “Glad Tidings.” There is no need to guess what the “Gospel” is because the Bible plainly tells us. The “Gospel” is the Good News of Christ’s DEATH on the cross for our sins, His BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION three days later:

We are saved by BELIEVING “the Gospel,” which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.” John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” It is that simple to be saved. If you’ll simply come to God as a needy sinner, and receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins—believing that He died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead—then YOU’LL BE IMMEDIATELY, IRREVERSIBLY AND FOREVER SAVED!

I love you dear web visitor with God’s unconditional love. I have never felt so lonely in all my life as I do nowadays, in so many ways, but “I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:” (Job 19:25b). Job 13:15, “Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.” I always feel like no one wants to be around me, as Brother Hyles said he used to feel, because of his stand for truth and right. I feel like no woman would ever want to marry a guy like me, in pain and a devil-fighter (I guess that’s good practice for marriage...lol).

In a sermon, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) said his adult daughter, Cindy, used to ask him for a dinner date, so she could ask his advice. Brother Hyles said he knew she didn’t really need advice, she simply knew that he needed to FEEL NEEDED. I sure know that feeling. I think that is beautiful what his daughter did for her Dad. I especially know that lonely feeling, being alone without a wife for the past 14 years since 2006, but I thank God that He PROMISES In Hebrews 13:5 never to leave nor forsake me as His child. Jesus is precious!!!

1.2.33 Your POSITION Versus Your CONDITION In Christ (2020-06-28 02:30)

Romans 6:4, " Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

I typed this article while listening to Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold's awesome sermon titled: '[1]Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong!' There's a big difference between SHOULD, OUGHT and MUST and AUTOMATIC. The judicial aspect of salvation is JUSTIFICATION, at the moment we are saved by faith alone. We are adopted into God's heavenly family as His child. That is out guaranteed POSITION in Christ at the time of salvation, which is forever settled, just as if we never sinned. All sins (past, present and future) are forever washed away, and judicially we are declared as pure and holy as God Himself. This all happens the moment you trust Him as your saint.

Yes, we ought to serve the Lord. We SHOULD obey Him in our daily life. In this life, practical sanctification and growth in grace is an option, for each believer to make, which requires a separate act of choice. Romans 12:1, "

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. " It was a choice to trust Christ as your personal Savior. It requires a second choice to serve Him as your Lord and Master. You do not have to submit to live a certain type of lifestyle, guarantee or promise to do better, mend your ways, improve your behavior, or turn from sin, in order to be saved. Forget all of those things! Salvation is by faith. Growth in grace is a matter of discipleship, not sonship.

We are all sinners and we deserve to go to Hell. Jesus loved you and me, and paid our debt of sin with His precious blood. We are bought with a price, and that price is Jesus' blood (1st Corinthians 6:20). Thank God for the blood!!! I know I am going to Heaven, and I don't have to look at anything other than the Word of God. Jesus promised in John 6:37b, " him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

” The Word of God is the only PROOF I need that I;’m going to Heaven, because He promised not to cast away anyone who comes to Him.

Heretics call it “

Lordship Salvation

because they claim you must live a holy life to prove you have it, surrendering all to Christ as Lord and Master. You won’t find that theological garbage in the pages of God’s inspired Word

. We are saved simply by resting in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ!

Lordship Salvation is a big can of worms! Proponents of Lordship Salvation teach that you must “

” in the faith to get to Heaven. So what if a professed Christian dies in his sinful state, while not persevering? Do you see how confusing Lordship Salvation is? The truth of God’s Word is that no matter how much sin you may allow in your life, it does not jeopardize your position on Christ. Samson chased harlots (Judges 16:1). Demas forsook Paul’s side in the ministry, having loved this present world (2nd Timothy 4:10). David commit adultery and murder (2nd Samuel 11). When Jesus rose from the dead, Peter was completely naked in public when He found him (John 21:7). These are God’s saints! You and I are no better. We are all dirty sinners, deserving of Hell, but Jesus rescued us with His precious blood (Romans 5:9; 1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5; 7:14).

Calvinists (like Paul Washer) teach that you may live in sin for a short time, but you won’t continue living in sin. That is another gospel. The new corrupt Bible versions, like the English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University officially uses, sells and sanctions, corrupts 1st John 3:9 to say that you cannot be saved and continue committing in sin. The New International Version (NIV) says the same garbage. Those are the Devil’s Bibles!!!

The wise Bible student keeps salvation SEPARATE from DISCIPLESHIP. One has nothing to do with the other! Salvation is based solely upon Christ's sacrifice on the cross for our sins. Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23). You don't earn, merit or work your way toward obtaining everlasting life. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Jesus invited us to believe on Him to be saved. Nothing else is required. Anyone who tells you that you must "

" to be saved (like [2]Pastor Marty Herron) is adding to the Gospel, perverting it! No one will go to Heaven who thinks they must make an effort to turn from sinful living to be saved. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. [3]Like Ellen G. White of the Seventh-Day Adventists, so also do Dr. Steve Pettit and John MacArthur pervert the Gospel, requiring people to do more than place childlike faith in the Savior.

Your POSITION in Christ was forever settled the moment you received Jesus Christ as your personal SAVIOR. Your CONDITION in Christ is determined by the choices you make, the life you choose to live, and our circumstances. Don't ever forget that eternal life is a GIFT!!! Go look up every meaning of "

you can find, and it always means something freely given and freely received.

" I noticed one day that we rarely hear Calvinists talking about the "GIFT" of eternal life. That word doesn't set right with their corrupt reformation theology!

1.2.34 He That Doeth Truth Cometh To The Light (2020-06-29 01:04)

John 3:20-21, " For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. "

Getting saved is a matter of accepting the truth.

> 2nd Timothy 2:23-26,
> **"
> But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.
> **"

I love this next Bible verse:

> Colossians 1:5, " For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;"

People who love their sins won't come to Christ, lest their deeds should be reproved (or spoken evil of). Jesus said in John 5:40 that "YE WILL NOT COME" unto me to have life, He didn't say YE CANNOT COME. Repentance and faith are a matter of someone acknowledging that they are a needy sinner, and believing on Jesus Christ to be saved. So getting saved is very much a matter of accepting the truth. Jesus said in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth, and the life, no man cometh unto the father, but by me."

In John 8:32 Jesus said " the truth shall make you free,

" and then in verse 36 He says if the Son shall make you free, " ye shall be free indeed.

" Sin can only offer a lifetime of pleasure and temporary happiness, but since we all die, we can only be a servant in the house of sin for a short time; but since Jesus is alive forever, whosoever lives in Christ is alive forevermore. That is true freedom! That is what Jesus taught...

> John 8:31-36, " Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. "

That is beautiful. We already have eternal life, because Jesus is eternal life. 1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." The truth of the Gospel is what saves. The Bible has MUCH to say about THE TRUTH. Someone once asked me to sum up the Holy Bible in as few words as possible. I gave them just one word: "TRUTH"!

John 17:17, "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth."

In John 18:27, Jesus told Pilate that He came into the world to bear witness unto THE TRUTH. In John 16:13, the Holy Spirit is called: " the Spirit of truth.

In the New Testament we find the phrase “ THE TRUTH

” mentioned 62 times! In the Old Testament we find those words,

“ THE TRUTH,

” mentioned 20 times! John 8:45,

And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

” I don’t know about you dear friend, but I need THE TRUTH! I am a truth-seeker. The truth can be dealt with, but a lie cannot. I must have the truth! The Devil knows better than anyone, that if he can corrupt THE TRUTH of God’s Word, then he can mislead people into all manner of deceptions and falsehoods, taking them to the Lake of Fire with him forever!!!

We are living in a woeful generation of abominations, a terrible time of changing and tampering with the inspired Word of God, a wicked time of lies and deception like never before in human civilization. The Scripture foretold that evil men would do this:

Romans 1:20-25,

“For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.”

What an amazing set of words: “

THE TRUTH

”! Homosexuals and liberals have changed THE TRUTH, that God created all humans either male or female (Genesis 1:27), [1]into a lie . Wicked impostors in churches today have changed THE TRUTH, that salvation is simply by faith alone in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, into [2]the lie of Lordship Salvation. The Devil’s crowd have changed THE TRUTH of God’s inspired preserved Word, into a bunch of [3]counterfeit Bible revisions. Wicked Communists have changed THE TRUTH of God's Biblical creation, into the bogus blatant lies of manmade evolution.

The Devil's hands have been very busy!!! Satan has changed and perverted THE TRUTH of the Gospel, the Word of God, human gender, and the origin of man, all INTO BIG LIE!!! The Devil has done these dastardly deeds to DECEIVE as many people as possible, to steer you away from God your Creator!!! The core foundation of happiness in life is to establish a proper relationship with one's divine Maker. Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Please understand that the phrase " he that doeth truth " in John 3:21 does not mean "good works." Some proponents of the heresy of Lordship Salvation try to use this Scripture to justify their lies. The Bible doesn't say "he that doeth works." If God meant "works," He would have said "works"! God said what He meant, and meant what He said!!! God said, "HE THAT DOETH TRUTH"! Obviously truth is a thought and not a work. Wicked sinners refuse to acknowledge their sinnership before a holy God. In order to be saved, a person must come to their senses about sin, recognizing their need for redemption:

> 1st John 1:8-10, "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us."

It is popular in this gender-bending wicked generation, for liberals, kooks and sodomites to teach that homosexuality is not a sin. Instead they claim that they were " born that way, " and that God created them

gay.

” There was never a bigger lie told! Homosexuality is perverse, abnormal, against nature, confusing, offensive, filthy, disease-prone, disgusting and a very horrible sin in God’s sight (Genesis 19: Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1; Colossians 3:5-6; Jude 1:7). Homosexuals and the heathen world are in willful denial of THE TRUTH! This is what “he that doeth the truth” means. This is repentance my friend!

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) beautifully explains it this way:

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance .” (’ [4]Except Ye Repent ,’ p. 16) [emphasis added]

That is what Jesus meant in John 3:21, when he spoke these wonderful words of life to Nicodemus.

1.2.35 He That Commiteth Sin Is Of The Devil (2020-06-29 03:00)

1st John 3:6-10, “ Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God*. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother."

Taken by itself, who could argue that a Christian must dwell in righteousness, and avoid committing sin? The epistle of 1st John is one of the most misunderstood books of the Word of God. Verse 9 in particular, which says, "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin."

At a glance, these passage of Scripture seems to teach that you cannot go to Heaven of you continue living in willful sin. This is not what the Bible is saying, not at all. John was the disciple who walked closest to the Lord, called "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (John 21:20). If your life is the same as it has always been, you're not walking with God, and are deceived. Your life is a hoax! In John 15:5, "

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

" This is what John is talking about in 1st John, our walk with God.

I am listening to Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold preach a helpful sermon titled: '[1]1st John Made Simple: Milk Versus Meat,' as I type this article. What a wonderful sermon truth from the Bible!

The apostle John speaks about **"

the love of the Father

" in 1st John 2:15. John is trying to get us closer to God, " that your joy may be full.

" The subject of the epistle of 1st John is not how to get saved, but how to get the most out of God's salvation. 1st John 5:13,

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." A lot of things can go wrong in life, but God has never done you or me wrong! Our life can become filled with questions and doubts if we foolishly focus on this temporary life. Instead of griping and complaining, put a smile on your faith and praise God that your name is written in Heaven! Is the truth in your life? Have you obeyed the truth of the Gospel? Jesus tells us in John 16:33b, "BE OF GOOD CHEER," because He has overcome the world! What an awesome Savior!!!!!!!

John is writing to Christians. They are already saved. Please notice a key verse in 1st John 3:24, " And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." So if you have the indwelling Holy Spirit, you are saved. Romans 8:9,

"But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. " This is exactly what the apostle John is teaching in his epistle of 1st John. If we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have FELLOWSHIP WITH HIM (1st John 1:6-9). Fellowship is like two FELLOWS in a SHIP!

Amos 3:3, " Can two walk together, except they be agreed?" If we are not in agreement with God, choosing rather to live in sin in the flesh, then we cannot enjoy sweet fellowship walking with the Lord.

1st John 3:19-21, "And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. " If we don't walk with the Lord, our heart will condemn us. We're not foolish God. Confidence comes from knowing and trusting THE TRUTH (John 17:17). If there's anything you should learn in the days of your life, it is THE TRUTH! Man's wisdom is from below, but as God's children we receive the wisdom that comes from God.

The same apostle who wrote 1st John, also wrote the book of John. John 11:9, "

Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

We stumble when we don't walk in the Spirit. That is what John is talking about in the epistle of 1st John, our walk with God. Am I living in the Spirit according to light, or in the flesh according to darkness? It is possible for a born-again believer to live and think like the Devil. Matthew 16:23, "But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men."

So the determining factor of whether you are saved or not, is not if you've turned from your sins, but do you have the Holy Spirit? Strong Scriptural confirmation of what I just taught you is found in Paul's epistle to the Galatians:

> Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
>
> This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
>
> Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

Paul had received news that the church at Galatia had been horribly corrupted with a counterfeit gospel. So the apostle writes a heartfelt letter to them, asking them who bewitched them that they should not obey the truth of the Gospel. Paul doesn't ask them if they've " repented of their sins.

" Paul only wanted to know one thing—how did you get the Holy Spirit? Carefully notice the capital "S" in Galatians 3:2, meaning God's Holy Spirit, not our human spirit. Paul wanted to know if they got saved by the works of the law (which definitely includes Lordship Salvation), or the simplicity in Christ of believing the Gospel they heard preached unto them? So we learn that the evidence of being saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit, which is confirmed by our faith alone in the Gospel. People sometimes ask me how to know if they have the Holy Spirit? That is why God gave us the epistle of 1st John.

It is important to keep in mind that God wrote the Bible to the individual, not the group. 1st John is for YOU alone to determine if you are God's child, not for you to go around as a fruit inspector judging who is or is not saved. People who do so are foolish. I know I am saved because of God's written promise in the Bible. His indwelling Holy Spirit confirms my faith. For people to wonder if they have the Holy

If we take all of these Scriptures into consideration, we learn that the evidence of being saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit, and not a changed life. A changed life is the "

fruit

” of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25). Many unsaved religious people live an upright life. In Acts 10:1-4, we read about Cornelius, who was a devout man who feared God, gave alms to the poor, prayed and fasted, but he was as lost as a moose in a caboose in a snowstorm! That’s really lost! Let me tell you! Cornelius didn’t get saved until Acts 10:44. Trusting Christ by faith alone cannot cannot be revealed by works at all; salvation can only be revealed by works, if works are required to be saved! Are works required to be saved? No, absolutely not—no works of any kind at any time. I’m going to Heaven only because of the work Christ did for me!

The true story of Cornelius evidences the vanity of looking at someone’s life to determine if their faith is real. Only God can see into a person’s soul to see if they are saved. We can judge outwardly what we think (which is what James 2:17-21 means), but we cannot know for certain if a person is saved by examining their life. Some of the most moral, decent and loving people are lost sinners on their way to the Lake of Fire forever. The truth is still the truth, even if no one believes it; and a lie is still a lie, even if everyone believes it!

[2] Why Lordship Salvation Is Wrong (Pastor Yankee Arnold)

The proponents of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) teach that genuine believers may stumble and fall, but they will persevere in the faith, so they must get up. They claim they must get up before they die, when they fall, lest they lose everything! That is exactly what [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) heretically teaches. Dear reader, you DON’T get to Heaven by “running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others” (Dr. Pettit’s very words). Mr. Pettit says you “lose everything,” even “Heaven itself,” if you fail to persevere to run the race until the very end. Kindly, Steve Pettit is preaching another gospel of damnation. We must expose false prophets who subvert whole households of their faith (Titus 1:10-13; Ephesians 5:11).

1.2.36 What Do You Think ’Keeping The Law’ Means? (2020-06-30 02:30)

Dear reader, if the entire Lordship Salvation crowd truly understood the preceding Bible passage, they’d never tell someone to “turn from your sins” again to be saved. What does the Bible means by “the deeds of the law” in Romans 3:20? Everyone is familiar with the Ten Commandments: thou shalt not commit adultery, thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not take the Lord’s name in vain, thou shalt not covet, et cetera. The Word of God says you cannot get to Heaven by keeping those commandments!

So please logic with me here. When a proponent of Lordship Salvation tells a lost sinner that they must forsake a lifestyle of committing adultery, stealing, killing, taking the Lord’s name in vain, coveting, et cetera, how is that not “the deeds of the law”?

The religious Jews were [1]stuck on the law in the New Testament. That is what the Epistle of Galatians is all about. They totally missed the purpose of God’s law in the Old Testament. They thought God intended for them to keep the law to get to Heaven. That is what the advocates of Lordship Salvation are trying to do! Notice above in our text passage that Romans 3:20 says, “[2]FOR BY THE LAW IS THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN.” God gave mankind the law to be used as a measuring stick, by which when compared, men fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23; Galatians 3:24-26). The law brings a lost sinner to Jesus Christ, to be saved by grace (Galatians 3:24-26).

Dear friend, you cannot get to Heaven by the deeds of the law. Respectfully, when [3]Pastor Marty Herron tells lost sinners to "repent of your sin" to be saved, he is telling them to do "the deeds of the law" to get to Heaven. When [4]Dr. Steve Pettit and [5]Bob Jones University tell their 2,700 students to "be willing to turn from your sins" to get to Heaven, they are teaching them to do "the deeds of the law." The inspired King James Bible teaches that eternal life is a "free gift" from God (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus paid for it with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). What Marty Herron, [6]Steve Pettit, [7]John MacArthur, [8]Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper, Stephen Davey and countless [9]heretics are preaching today is not a free gift.

The apostle Paul loved people and desired for all men to be saved. Since the beginning of humanity, sinful human nature has compelled men to attempt to please God in the flesh, by keeping "the deeds of the law." Paul says that if you want to get to Heaven by "the deeds of the law," then you have to perfectly keep them. Romans 2:13, "(For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified." Paul continues his teaching in Romans chapter 3, by describing the depraved human nature (Romans 3:10-22), concluding in Romans 3:23 that no human being has ever perfectly kept the law, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;" Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

What do you think it means, when you tell a man that he must "turn from his sins" to be justified with God? You are telling him to do "the deeds of the law." This is so simple folks. You don't need a degree in theology to grasp the simplicity of the Holy Bible. So where in the world did John Calvin (1509-1564) come up with the heretical idea that people must persevere in holiness ("the deeds of the law") to get to Heaven? Why do millions of foolish preachers follow the heresy of an unsaved man who lived nearly 500 years ago? It is because they are not born-again themselves, and do not understand the grace of God, which comes only by saving faith. Our churches are absolutely filled with this type of junk theology today, that demands you "turn from your sins" to receive the grace of God. They say you cannot qualify to receive God's gift of eternal life unless you first are willing to "turn from your sins." Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick (1924-2016) taught that religious garbage. I still see [10]his perverted religious tracts in every Baptist church that I go to! Consequently, the Gospel has been embellished so much, especially in the [11]Devil's perverted Bible revisions, that professed Christians no longer see the dangers of Roman Catholicism, Calvinism and false religion.

Read this beautiful passage of Scripture. Romans 3:24-26, "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." Do you see anything in there about being willing to turn from your sins to be saved? No, you don't! The Bible speaks of GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is given to HIM WHICH BELIEVETH IN JESUS!!! We are saved by faith alone!

1.2.37 Jesus Is Our Sabbath Today (2020-06-30 12:00)

Hebrews 4:1-11, "

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it*.

For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works*, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief*.

I love this passage of Scripture, because it contains so much richness in doctrine. The Gospel is so simple dear reader. I marvel how anyone who professes the name of Christ, could believe that more is required to get to Heaven, than simple childlike faith in Jesus Christ. The Bible plainly teaches that we are saved by RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Christ. God the Father loved humanity so much, that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross for everyone's sins. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Literally, God loved you so much that He was willing to die for you. Repeatedly in the inspired Word of God we are taught simply to BELIEVE on the Son of God to receive eternal life. Eternal life is free, easy and simple to obtain, just take God at His Word as recorded in the Scripture!

Our text passage from Hebrews 4:1-11 teaches that God created the universe, and then rested on the seventh day. Genesis 2:2, "And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made."

Likewise, just as God ceased from His labors and rested, the Bible teaches us to cease from our own labors, and rest completely in the finished work of Jesus Christ. This is the way to Heaven. We are not saved by what WE DO, but by trusting what Jesus has ALREADY DONE.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The Old Testament Sabbath Day was a ceremonial law under Mosaic law, a shadow of things to come.

Hebrews 10:1, "

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. ” This is an important Bible verse to learn and understand, because it separates the foreshadowing law from the reality that it symbolized.

God established the Sabbath Day in Exodus chapter 16 to commemorate the seventh day on which God rested from his creative labors. God fed the Israelites in the Wilderness, giving them the bread of manna in the morning, and the meat of quail in the evening. Exodus 16:25-26, “And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field. Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.”

On the Sabbath Day a Jew was forbidden to work, gather sticks, light a fire, or do any thing other than rest. This symbolized the coming Lamb of God, the Messiah, in whom men rest for salvation. This is why we read about an Israelite who was stoned to death for picking up sticks on the Sabbath Day, because it represented adding works to faith to be saved, which is a perversion of grace. God thought it was important enough a matter to take a man’s life away from him for collecting sticks on the Sabbath Day.

Numbers 15:33 and 35, “And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. ... And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.” With that truth in mind, carefully consider the gross theological flagrancy and wickedness of religious leaders; namely, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, John Piper, Paul Washer, John Calvin, Martin Luther, Charles Finney and other reprobates, who corrupt the Gospel of free grace by adding human effort (works) to it.

We’ve all seen our own shadow, cast behind the light shown by the sun; but when the sun is directly overhead the shadow vanishes away. Likewise, when Jesus Christ died on the cross and raised up from the dead, He became our Sabbath Day in whom we rest for salvation. The ceremonial laws were no longer needed, because they had already served their purpose. This is why we read in Colossians 2:14-17, “Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.” Jesus is the divine fulfillment of what the Old Testament Sabbath Day represented and foreshadowed. Hallelujah, glory to God, great fluffy biscuits in the morning, what an awesome truth!!!

Dear friend, are you resting in the finished redemptive work of Jesus? Hebrews 1:11, “

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

” The word

in Hebrews 1:11 doesn’t mean to do works to be saved; but rather, to simply trust the Savior. The Lord Himself confirms this truth in John 6:28-29, “ Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” The only “work” that you can do to be saved is to get out of the way, by ceasing from your own labors, and resting completely in what Christ has already done for you on the cross.

The bad news is that you are a condemned sinner, and so was I before I was saved (Romans 3:10-23). You and I deserve to go to Hell and be punished for our own sins forever (Romans 6:23). But God in His unconditional love made a sacrifice for you, sending His only biological Son to be rejected, despised, shamed and crucified on a criminal’s cross, to pay our massive outstanding debt of sin (Romans 5:6-9). To be saved, simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died, was buried and after three days physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). This is the ’Good News’ (Gospel) that saves them that believe. Romans 1:16, “ For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

I read this beautiful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) about the Gospel:

> “Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. ’It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth.”’ —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Comments On Here And Hereafter,” chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Amen! Dr. Jones taught the simplicity that is in Christ. The Gospel is the “

that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (that is, that our faith in Him could be justified by a risen Savior). Anyone who receives the Gospel as their own is saved. Please make it your own dear friend! Claim it as your only way to Heaven!

1.3.1 Cornelius Was Saved Simply By Believing (2020-07-01 10:00)

Acts 10-43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

I was reading the Holy Bible today and a truth jumped out at me from Acts 10:30-45 concerning the simplicity of the plan of salvation. I'll share what I learned with you in a moment, but first let me share with you the story of Cornelius. We read in Acts 10:1-2 that Cornelius was a military leader, a centurion over an Italian squad of 100 soldiers. Cornelius was a good man, but lost. Acts 10:2, "A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway." This is amazing! Here's an important man in the community, well respected, who fears God, prays, and gives much money to the poor and needy. Yet, Cornelius was not a born-again Christian, on his way to Hell.

My friend, no amount of religious devotion, involvement in your church, sincerity, or personal human effort, can get you to Heaven. There are millions of people burning in Hell this very moment—who spent their lives doing good, helping others, praying, fearing God—yet they failed to do the will of God concerning salvation. What is the will of God? I'm glad you asked. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

This leads me to the heart of this article that I'm writing. In a vision God appeared to Cornelius and told him to go see the Apostle Peter, so that Peter could witness the Gospel to him. Here is the Biblical account of the matter . . .

> Acts 10:30-45, "And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost."

What I want you to notice, and this is my sermon, is the simple plan of salvation that the Apostle Peter gave to Cornelius. Remember, God sent Cornelius to go find Peter, so that he could learn how to be saved and go to Heaven.

Carefully notice that:

- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to follow Jesus.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to surrender all to God.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to get water baptized.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to make Jesus his Lord.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to join a church.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to get religion.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to publicly confess Christ as his Savior.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to invite Jesus into his heart.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to start a relationship with Jesus.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to change his life.

- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to turn away from his sins.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to forsake the world.

In fact, Peter DIDN'T TELL CORNELIUS TO DO ANYTHING!!! Peter simply told the story of Jesus of Nazareth, Who went about doing good and healing the sick, but the unbelieving Jews had Him crucified on a cross for our sins. Jesus bled and DIED on the cross. He was BURIED. And then Christ miraculously RESURRECTED bodily from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" [i.e., Good News] according to the Holy Scriptures:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures." [emphasis added]

In Acts 10:30-45 Peter said that anyone who believes on the name of Jesus, Who died on the cross for our sins and raised up the third day, shall receive a pardon for their sins. That was the simple Gospel message, which Cornelius simply and quietly BELIEVED and was immediately saved. Amen!!! Whew, that's good stuff! Peter never told Cornelius to do anything to be saved, he simply preached the Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection the third day. The very moment that Cornelius believed, he was forever born-again and saved. The hardest part about salvation for people to understand is that you get it by DOING NOTHING!!! You simply REST COMPLETELY in the finished work of Jesus Christ, and then God does the saving... ALL OF IT!!!

Every false religion in the world teaches a whole bunch of things that a person must DO to get to Heaven. But as we just saw for ourselves in the wonderful Scriptures in Acts 10:30-45, Peter simply preached the truth of the Gospel, and Cornelius BELIEVED and was instantly and forever born-again and saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. '[1]HE THAT BELIEVETH IS NOT CONDEMNED!!!' (a precious salvation sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles).

Dr. Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008):

- [2]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?
- [3]Wrong Repentance - No Salvation
- [4]Why Inviting Jesus Into Your Life Is A False Gospel
- [5]The Plan Of Salvation From The Bible

Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold:

- [6]Caught Between Grace And Works
- [7]Is Repentance Part Of Salvation?
- [8]Easy Believism
- [9]Must A Christian Live A Changed Life? -Part 1
- [10]Must A Christian Live A Changed Life? -Part 2

The Bible interprets itself. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to say that the best way to interpret the Bible is not to interpret the Bible. Where the Bible is silent, we should be silent. Don't put a question mark where God put a period. You'll find all sorts of additions and perversions to the simple plan of salvation in today's religious churches. Even most evangelical churches these days have been contaminated, because the Devil has crept into them unawares with a false GRACE PLUS WORKS plan of salvation. I love you in the Lord friend, whoever you may be, and I don't want you to miss Heaven and spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire.

I love this passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45, because it plainly teaches that salvation is obtained simply by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The Apostle Peter simply told the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and risen three days later. When Cornelius believed, he was immediately saved. This is the childlike faith which brings eternal life. The way to be saved is not to DO, but to BELIEVE! That is, make it your own. If you've made what Christ did on the cross, and His resurrection, your personal hope for Heaven, you are saved!

Christ's Redemption

Some time ago an evangelist traveling was singing to himself the song, "I'm Redeemed." A fellow passenger, hearing, joined him in the song. After singing, the evangelist put the question to the stranger, "Have you been redeemed?" "Yes, praise the Lord," was the answer. "May I ask how long ago?" "Nearly 2,000 years ago." The astonished evangelist echoed in surprise, "2,000 years ago?" "Yes, Sir," said his fellow passenger, "but I'm sorry to say it's not much more than a year that I have know it." So many people for whom Christ died are still unaware that the great redemptive act of our Lord was for them. While He died in behalf of all men, He only died instead of those who by faith have claimed it for themselves.

The Bible refers to the Gospel as "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST." 2nd Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." We find further evidence of "THE SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST" in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit [capital "S," for Holy Spirit] by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" When a person is saved, God's Holy Spirit comes to indwell their earthly body permanently (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24).

Hence, the apostle Paul wrote a letter to the church at Galatia, saying that he only wanted to know ONE THING: How did you become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? That is to say, How did you get saved, by works or faith? The correct answer is "BY THE HEARING OF FAITH"! That is, if you BELIEVE the Gospel when you hear it preached you are saved, end of story! This is exactly what happened to Cornelius and many who were with him—they heard the Gospel being preached, and they gladly received it, believing on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please don't allow anyone to mislead you into following a false plan of salvation, because you will go to the Lake of Fire (Hell) forever. Nearly every religion today, including many Baptist churches sad to say, are teaching the satanic lie that you cannot be saved unless you forsake sinful behavior and surrender your life to live for Jesus. This heresy is commonly called "Lordship Salvation." That is a false plan of salvation. That is human effort. That is not what the Bible teaches. As you read for yourself, Peter never asked Cornelius to do anything. That's right, nothing! God doesn't save those who are TRYING to be saved; but rather, those who are TRUSTING to be saved. Salvation is receiving, not achieving. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition!

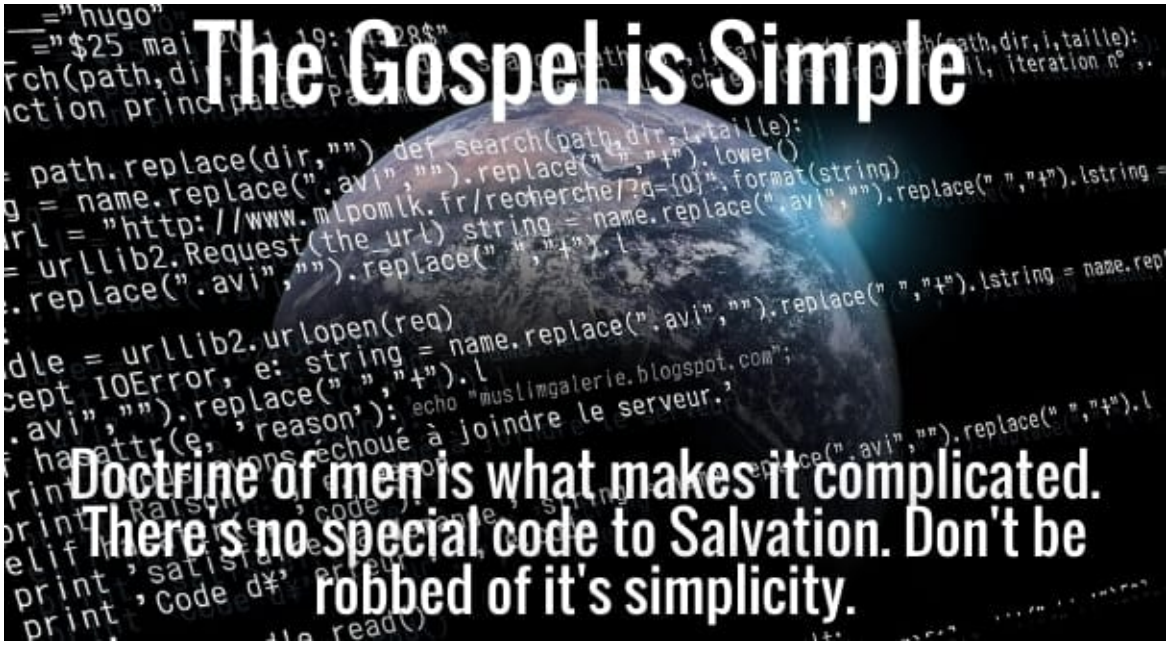
We are saved by completely resting in Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." The Bible is speaking about Jesus, Who is our Sabbath today. In the Old Testament, God had instituted temporary ceremonial laws, which taught the Hebrews spiritual truths. God's command for men to work 6-days a week represents man attempting to merit eternal life through human effort. On the Sabbath Day, which was a ceremonial law, no work was done, which taught that salvation is completely through God's righteousness. Salvation is pictured by men ceasing from their own works, and instead resting in God's righteousness on the Sabbath. The Sabbath was nailed to the cross (Colossians 2:14-16). Today, Jesus is the fulfillment of the Sabbath Day, because Jesus is our Sabbath in Whom we rest for salvation. Amen! This is what Hebrews 4:10-11 is talking about.

The only "work" that we can do to be saved is to run to Jesus as our Savior. We do this by believing that Jesus is who He claimed to be—THE CHRIST! John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Believe the 'Good News' of Christ crucified, buried and risen! John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." There is absolutely nothing that we can do to save ourselves, or even help save ourselves. We are all dirty, filthy, sinners, in need of the Savior. Jesus paid our debt of sin. Christ paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Praise God, JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If you receive the Gospel as full-payment for your sins, you are saved.

This is such a beautiful passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45. The Apostle Peter never told Cornelius to do one thing to be saved. Peter never told Cornelius to “turn from your sins” (a popular heresy taught in today’s apostate churches and [11]Bible colleges). In fact, Peter never mentioned the word “repent” to Cornelius. You won’t find even one mention of the words “repent” or “repentance” in Acts chapter 10. Could the Bible be any clearer that the man who believes has repented? I think not. Peter simply shared the ’Good News’ of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day! Cornelius believed that ’Good News’ and was immediately, irrevocably and forever saved. It’s that simple to receive God’s free gift of eternal life.

For many of you, this truth has no doubt opened your eyes to the level of demonic doctrinal corruption in today’s ecumenical churches. Anytime you hear a preacher saying that you must DO SOMETHING to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, they are preaching another gospel. Anyone who errantly says you must “repent of your sin” (e.g., Dr. Sam Horn, Pastor Marty Herron, Dr. Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pastor John MacArthur) is preaching a doctrine of devils. The price has already been paid on Calvary’s cross! Jesus shed His precious blood to pay your debt of sin and mine (1st Peter 1:18-19). The price has been paid in full.

You don’t have to “count the cost” to be saved (as Evangelist Billy Graham errantly preaches), because the price has already been paid in full. The only thing you need to do is BELIEVE! Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and after 72 hours physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Cornelius didn’t do anything to be saved, he just believed the Gospel when he heard it preached. What a beautiful precious Savior Jesus is!!!



"Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

It’s good to hear this truth because I’m a believer and I’ve been struggling with this issue for years worrying about if I’m going to Hell, doubting if I’m saved, having scrupulosity OCD and bad unwanted intrusive thoughts about God/Jesus. This whole lordship salvation heresy has ruined everything and has people living in constant terror and fear.

1.3.2 If You’re Not Saved Forever, You’re Not Saved (2020-07-02 09:51)

There is much religious debate over who is (or is not) saved. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. Certainly, I am not in the place of God to say for certain who goes to Heaven or Hell, but any Christian can speak on the authority of God’s inspired Word. What saith the Scripture? One of Jesus’ disciples asked Him the same question I would have asked Him: “Are there few people who are saved?” Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

Carefully notice in our text passage that the Bible says Christians “

ARE SAVED.

The Devil’s modern Bible revisions corrupt this passage, to say

“BEING SAVED.” Take for example the English Standard Version (ESV) which Bob Jones University sinfully sells, uses, promotes and sanctions, which changes 1st Corinthians 1:18 to say “For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God” [emphasis added]. Christians are not “BEING SAVED,” we “ARE SAVED.” This change may not seem like a big deal to you, but it is a VERY BIG DEAL!

Tragically, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) [1]heretically teaches that, “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it!” Oh how wrong

Dr. Pettit is! If you have been born-again by faith alone in the finished work of Jesus Christ, you sure can JUST SPEAK ABOUT GETTING SAVED! I got saved at age 13, by trusting Jesus Christ as my personal Savior, and it is a DONE DEAL!!! Nothing more is required of me. I could go out and live a lifestyle of the Prodigal Son if I wanted, and my eternal life would still be 100 % guaranteed!!! If you don't believe that dear friend, you are not saved!!!

The just shall live by faith! John 20:31 "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " We are made alive in Christ, born-again from above by the Holy Spirit of God, by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Anyone who takes God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Bible, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He died, was buried and is physically risen form the dead, is saved. It's that simple!!!

I have met countless Assemblies Of God, Pentecostals, Charismatics and advocates of Lordship Salvation, who didn't believe they could continue living in willful sin and get to Heaven. They are not saved! They have a wrong mindset. If you believe that there is something you must do in your human ability, to ensure that you make it to Heaven someday, you are not completely resting in the finished redemptive work of Christ. That is how I know [2]Dr. Steve Pettit is not truly a born-again believer, because he thinks MORE is required than simple childlike faith in Jesus to be saved. All that God requires for salvation is simple childlike faith in Jesus.

1.3.3 Make Sure You're Saved (2020-07-03 10:00)

Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

Oftentimes the Lord will lay a truth upon my heart, which prompts me to write an article, while the thought is still on my mind. Hence this very important article. I've known pastor's wives, who after 20-years of going along with their husband's ambitions to serve Christ in the ministry, realized that they had never been born-again. Religious workers, deacons, and even pastors themselves have realized after decades, that they were never saved at all. I care about you, whoever you may be, friend or foe, and I don't want you to miss the blessings of Heaven. And I certainly don't want you or anybody else to go to Hell forever.

The Holy Bible teaches that a person MUST be "born again" to enter into God's Kingdom. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." I am worried about a lot of professed Christians today, who think they are saved, but I am convinced are not. They are good people. They are sincere. They are religious. I'm talking about pastors, Bible college presidents, evangelists, deacons and pastor's wives. I'm talking about youth directors and Christian school teachers. I'm talking about Independent Baptist Churches and other groups as well. Our churches are filled with false converts. We see this horrifying reality evidenced in Matthew 7:13-14, Matthew 7:21-23 and Luke 13:23-24. The sad truth is that MOST religious people are still lost!

The reason why is that the clarity of the Gospel has been obscured by well-meaning, but ignorant, churchgoers and preachers. No doubt Satan is behind this theological confusion. It is critically important that soul-winners [1]clarify the Gospel, keeping it simple the way God intended it to be. It is tragic how the churches have embellished (added to) the Gospel over the past century, hiding the Gospel behind a bunch of step-by-step methods, asking Jesus into one's heart, inviting Christ into your life, surrendering all to Christ, following Jesus or repeating a 123-follow-me prayer. None of these are the Gospel.

'[2]What Is The Gospel?' (Pastor Harry Ironside, 1876-1951)

I had attended an Independent Baptist church down the street from me (Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) a couple years ago. It opened my eyes to a lot of things, mainly the deadness and apostasy in our churches today. Although I kindly tried to help them see the light, they are in their spiritual comfort zones, and don't care about the truth. Harvest teaches that it's not enough to admit you're a sinner to be saved; but also, they insist you MUST "turn from your sin" to be saved. That is [3]Bob Jones University's official doctrinal position. Sadly, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam employs a bunch of BJU graduates. The BJU camp are preaching another gospel of damnation. Are you saved dear reader?

Satanic Modern Bible Revisions Corrupt God's Simple Plan Of Salvation

This heresy doesn't come as a surprise when you consider that today's churches are using the Devil's Bible revisions. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam uses a parallel Bible, with the King James Bible (KJB) on the left, and the corrupt Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) on the right. The [4]Satanic ERV plainly teaches that you must CHANGE YOUR LIFE to be saved. By the way, that's why I've been hitting that false Bible version (i.e., the ERV) so much over the past year in my articles, because it is popular in many deceived Baptist churches today. By the way, I don't refer to the King James Bible as a "version," because it is God's inspired words and not merely another translation to pick from. God only wrote one book! It numbs the mind when one considers that [5]according to the American Bible Society, there are 900 English Bibles.

The Greek word for "repent" in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is metanoeo, which means, "to think differently." It is a change of mind. It DOESN'T mean to "change your hearts and lives," which is what the corrupt ERV says!!! Here is a comparison . . .

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” [emphasis added]

That is wrong, wrong, wrong! You don’t have to change your own life as a requirement to be saved. Rather, it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that comes into a person at the time of salvation that changes one’s heart and life, over time as they grow in grace by nurturing on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). Anyone who tells you that you must change your ways, habits or sinful lifestyle to be saved is a BIG LIAR! Eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift can simply be received, not achieved.

Because of the plethora of [6]modern counterfeit Bible versions, heresy has overtaken Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, Dallas Theological Seminary, Southern Baptist Convention, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Pacific Garden Mission’s ’[7]UNSHACKLED’ radio program, Grace To You (Dr. John MacArthur), and countless thousands of other apostate ecumenical ministries. Literally, our nation is going to Hell. The main problem is that pastor’s don’t study the Bible anymore. One of my favorite scholars, Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) rightly states:

> “We’re a nation of Biblical ignoramuses! We do not know the Word of God today in this land” (Dr. J. Vernon McGee, [8]commentary from Hosea 4:1-2). Ain’t it the truth brother!

Dr. John MacArthur and other false teachers claim that it is difficult to be saved, because they errantly think a changed life is mandatory to be saved. They [9]confuse Discipleship with Salvation. Make sure you are saved dear friend. It's not by what YOU CAN DO that saves you, it's by what CHRIST HAS DONE. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved.

Most Professed Christians Are Not Saved

Sadly, many people within the Bob Jones University camp are going to Hell. Devout members of the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who adhere to their unbiblical counterfeit gospel, are going to Hell. I say that with love and truth. [10]I read this intriguing article why people refuse to listen to FACTS, like Harvest refuses. No one is saved who thinks you must "turn from your sin" to be saved. That is the works of the law. Romans 3:20, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The Devil is so subtle, that he has succeeded in convincing church members that to be saved they must do the deeds of the law. It is called "

Lordship Salvation.

" The proponents of this heresy, like Pastor Marty Herron, teach that faith is not enough to be saved; but also, they say you must "

repent of your sin

to be saved. THE TRUTH is that you will not find that phrase anywhere in the Bible. Nowhere does that Bible teach to "turn from your sin" or "repent of your sin" or "be willing to repent and turn from your sin." These phrases sound religious. They are intriguing. To the natural (unsaved) man, it sounds logical that a person should have to forsake a life of sin to be pardoned by God; however, this is not what the inspired Word of God teaches. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Salvation is without works! You do not earn, merit or qualify for it! If you recognize yourself as a needy sinner, simply believe the '[11]Good News' and you are saved.

1.3.4 Have You Received The New Birth? (2020-07-04 09:30)

1st Peter 1:18-19 and 23, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: ... Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. "

I ask you now friend... ARE YOU SAVED? Have you been born-again by the Holy Spirit of God? Salvation is so simple that most people pass right over it in favor of a Satanic substitute. Human nature tells us that good people go to Heaven and bad people go to Hell. This type of wrong reasoning appeals to the human sin-nature. Man in his wicked pride tends to believe that he must be worthy of eternal life, that he must attain to higher standards of living to qualify for salvation. The hardest part about winning people to the Lord is first convincing them that THEY ARE LOST!

And so, Satan knows that if he can sell you on a substitute for God's plans of salvation, then you will have a false sense of security and go to Hell. This is why we read:

Luke 13:23-27, "

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity."

Have you been born-again? It's very simple to be saved. If you acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God's holy eyes for breaking His commandments, and you BELIEVE that Jesus Christ died on the cross for YOUR SINS, and was buried, and bodily resurrected from the dead three days later, then you are saved!!! John 11:25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?" Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Please DON'T ADD anything to believing the Gospel, or you will not go to Heaven. I've been hearing lots of theological garbage on religious radio about repenting from your sins to be saved, and then continuing repenting for the rest of your life or you're not really saved. This is a false plan of salvation rooted in human effort plus partial faith in Christ, which DOES NOT produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. The phrases "turn from sin" and "repent from sin" are not even found in the Bible. Biblically, repentance is the realization and admission that I am a dirty sinner in God's holy eyes. Without repentance, no man would ever come to Christ to be saved (John 3:20). Repentance is not optional for salvation, it is a change of mind that must happen, otherwise we would never come to Christ at all.

Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Please beware of the counterfeit plan of salvation being promoted in apostate Neo-evangelical churches today!

Any plan of salvation which places even the slightest responsibility, obligation or effort into man's hands is of the Devil. Either God does all of the saving, or you're not saved! Our text verses speak so clearly from Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The proper mindset of a genuinely born-again Christian is that we are saved solely by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Our part is simply to BELIEVE the Gospel and no more. How we live afterwards has no bearing on our eternal life, because eternal life is a free gift from God. God will chastise and scourge disobedient children (Hebrews 12:6-8), but they are still His children!

It is like getting on an airplane. Let's say I buy you a ticket to travel from Chicago to Los Angeles. It is my gift to you as your friend. You owe me nothing. All you have to do is accept the free ticket and get on the plane. That is the same with God's free gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, you simply receive it. How you behave on the airplane has nothing to do with arriving at your destination. You may insult the other passengers, give the stewardess a hard time, throw your meal on the floor, cause trouble and even land in handcuffs, but you will still arrive in Los Angeles. Likewise, you may choose to live in shameful sin as a child of God (1st Corinthians 3:11-15). You will not enjoy Heaven as much as others who faithfully served the Lord, but you will safely arrive at your destination in Heaven. Jesus paid for your free ticket! Simply receive it and you are good to go!!!

Please make sure you're saved! Ask yourself the question: "Why do I think I'm going to Heaven when I die?" The answer should be–It is because I realized one day from the Scripture, that I was a guilty and needy sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20), and I received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for my sins (John 3:16), believing that He died, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is my only hope!

The Word of God defines "the Gospel":

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

That is the Gospel—Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He RAISED UP the third day according to the Scriptures. All the theological garbage that we're hearing on religious radio today; such as, "trust Jesus" or "Invite Jesus into your heart" or "Commit your life to live for Christ," are NOT the Gospel. I fear, as did the apostle Paul in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, that many churchgoers have adopted one of these similar pseudo false plans of salvation. Thus, they have religion without truth, and churchianity without Christianity. Jesus said in John 3:3, "

Repetition is the key to learning. That is why I keep repeating The Gospel. The "Gospel" truth is that Christ DIED for our sins on the cross, and was BURIED, and bodily RESURRECTED 72 hours later for our justification. If that is your only hope for Heaven you are saved! You don't get saved by praying a sinner's prayer, you get saved by believing! It is certainly appropriate to pray a sinner's prayer to accompany one's believing heart, but it is not required. You need to know that, because praying never saved anybody! WE ARE SAVED BY FAITH IN THE GOSPEL OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!!

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! The [1]Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA) religion is a perfect example of what I am talking about. I have read much of their religious literature, which is interesting, but totally devoid of the saving Gospel of free grace. [2]SDA's errantly teach that you must obey ALL God's Commandments to get to Heaven. Are you going about to establish your own self-righteousness? Or have you, as the Holy Bible commands in Romans 10:3-4 and Philippians 3:9, submitted yourself unto God's imputed righteousness, which is solely by faith in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ?

Many Independent Baptists Have Been Deceived By The Devil

[3]Is your church a religious cult? Sadly, most Christians would never consider a once fundamental Bible college like [4]Bob Jones University (BJU), as being in the same boat as Seventh-Day Adventists, but they sure are! Dr. Steve Pettit (BJU president since 2014) [5]teaches the same errant view of Lordship Salvation as SDA kingpin Ellen G. White . It is tragic that BJU is considered headquarters for thousands of Baptist churches all across the world, including the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, where I attended for a year in 2014, but was [6]wrongly forced me out for sharing the truth that Lordship Salvation is [7]another gospel. Harvest's pastors and congregation are all guilty of bidding Godspeed to dangerous false prophets (2nd John 1:11); namely, [8]Dr. Steve Pettit and [9]Pastor John MacArthur, to name but a couple devil's in the pulpit today.

I read [10]a helpful article today, about why when presented with FACTS, people instead look for ways to prove their deceptions and errors. I presented facts to Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but they are loyal to Bob Jones University no matter what.

Psalms 118:6, "The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?"

Psalms 56:9, "...this I know; for God is for me."

Please read the excellent book: '[11]I NEVER KNEW YOU: THE COMING GREAT WHITE THRONE JUDGMENT AND HOW YOU CAN AVOID IT!'

"'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

Acts 15:1 and 24, "

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ... But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. ... Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

The Bible says in our text passage that certain men, false prophets, came down from Judaea teaching works for salvation. These same type heretics crept into the church at Galatia, teaching works for salvation (Galatians 3:1-3). This heresy is still being taught in churches all across the world, especially in America. It is called 'Lordship Salvation.' There are many variations of this theological error. I have even heard some preachers refute Lordship Salvation, but then teach the lie that you must turn from sin to be saved. What a mess! Dear reader, please do not be deceived by these LIARS!

I'm warning you about [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University), [2]Pastor John MacArthur, Dr. Sam Horn, [3]Dr. Marty Herron, and the bewitched [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who sinfully bid Godspeed to evil by promoting all these heretics! It sounds reasonable to "turn from sin" to be saved, doesn't it? It seems right. Proverbs 16:25, "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." These are arrogant men, all getting paid 6-digit salaries for parasiting off of Christianity. It is sickening! When did Christianity become a stinking business in America? John MacArthur was investigated in 2018, for [5]giving $7,610,399 to his son-in-law, from the Master's University Bible college that Mr. MacArthur founded. [6]These are not men of God!

The Bible warns every believer in 1st Timothy 6:8-10 about the LOVE OF MONEY, and the associated spiritual dangers and traps that it brings. These men will publicly say that very thing, downplaying the love of money, while they pay themselves over $100,000 a year, and in many cases MUCH more. Pastor MacArthur makes over $250,000 a year from 'Grace To You.' These are covetous men in my humble Christian opinion. Since 2002 when I began my online website ministry, I have never taken a single penny (and I never will). I am serving God, and in this money-hungry generation of religious con-men and parasites in the pulpit, I want everyone to know that there is at least one man of God who preaches from the heart for God.

Kindly said, I wouldn't give you a dime for Marty Herron's pompous, arrogant and misguided so-called " ministry

" in Iowa. The college that he now administers at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (cemetery) charge students about $30,000 a year for tuition, room and board. Spiritual crime pays well! I realize that in the disgusting great American college ripoff that $30,000 a year is typical. But I cannot help but wonder if anyone who professes the name of Christ, actually cares anymore about truly reaching this world for Christ. Why the expensive tuition? Pastor Jack Hyles was so right, that businessmen all across America are destroying churches! Businessmen think in terms of dollars and cents. I am sick of preachers emphasizing money in the Bible. All I see are these shysters making a lot of money!!!

I have a right to my opinion, and I am expressing it! I am absolutely disgusted what professed Christians have done to turn Christianity into a lucrative business! The one time in the Holy Bible when Jesus became enraged with justifiable, planned, anger, was when a group of men were making money off of the things of God. Jesus called them “a den of thieves

” (Matthew 21:13). Are you a thief in God’s eyes, like these horrible men I have mentioned?

One of my favorite preachers, with the guts to say it like it is, is Pastor Steven Anderson in Arizona. Pastor Anderson preached a great sermon called: “[7]The Bible College Scam,” which is highly thought provoking. Personally I am not against Bible college, but I have to agree with most of what Pastor Anderson says. I certainly lean toward not having Bible colleges. If churches were doing their job for God, we wouldn’t need Bible colleges! The purpose of this article is not to expose Bible colleges, but I wanted to mention them briefly, because Bible colleges today are destroying churches by the thousands!!! I am only for Bible colleges operated by churches, like Hyles-Anderson College. Unfortunately, since 2008 they’ve stopped teaching at HAC that the King James Bible is inspired, so I can no longer recommend them to anyone! Kindly said, the First Baptist Church of Hammond has changed for the worst! The King James Bible is 100 % verbally inspired by God!!!

But it gets much worse folks. Jesus called them “thieves” for turning the house of God (churches) into a business, but the worst thief is a man who corrupts the Gospel. John 10:1-2, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.” Dr. Marty Herron does not enter in by THE DOOR (which is faith in Jesus Christ alone); but instead, he tries to climb up

SOME OTHER WAY,

by teaching lost sinners that they must

TURN FROM YOUR SIN

to be saved. That is NOT the Gospel of free grace!!! It sounds religious. It sounds good. It sounds reasonable, that you should have to be willing to turn away from a lifestyle of sin

to be pardoned by God.

Bob Jones University (BJU) is a root of bitterness to the world. Hebrews 12:15, “

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; ” BJU is a root of bitterness, which has defiled thousands of Baptist churches that their alumni work in. Case in point is the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Harvest has their own radio station (KHMG 88.1 FM in the Micronesia islands). On their radio channel they promote “The Daily Platform” (chapel sermons at BJU). On [8]January 26, 2020 Dr. Steve Pettit errantly taught 2,700 BJU students that they cannot just get saved, and then that’s it. Instead, he horribly taught them that to be saved, they must “persevere” to faithfully “run the race” until they arrive at their destination in Heaven.

Dr. Steve Pettit heretically says:

> “For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [9]22:44)

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the > Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [10]11:34)

That is the Devil's lie and curse of Lordship Salvation. It is a false gospel of worry, fear and uncertainty, always wondering if you have been faithful enough to make it to Heaven. How is this the free gift of God? Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " In hundreds of Scripture passages we are simply taught to on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. [11]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got it 100 % right, but since he went to Heaven in 1968, the Bible college that he started in 1927 [12]has totally gone to Hell doctrinally! It is wickedness!!!

Never, never at any time, is turning away from your sins a requirement to be saved. Eternal life is the free gift of God, because Jesus paid for it with His precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ*, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

" Telling someone to "

repent of your sin

to be saved is effectively the same as requiring them to

KEEP THE LAW

" (Acts 15:5; Romans 3:19-20). To tell someone that they have to turn away from living in adultery, covetousness, stealing, murder, and other sins to be saved, is to require them to KEEP THE LAW!!!

Before you roast me over any Pharisaical theological fires, please understand that God does not approve, give permission nor have a lackadaisical attitude toward His children that commit any sin! Romans 3:30-31, "Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law." So whether whether we keep the law, or don't keep the law, we are justified only BY FAITH; yet, the apostle Paul says we should still keep the law, even though we are not saved by keeping the law. Dr. Steve Pettit is correct that salvation is more than being saved, in that it also includes sanctification (becoming Christlike), and glorification in Heaven one day with Christ. However, getting born-again is instant, irrevocable, eternal, and nothing more is necessary or allowed.

Dr. Pettit goes horribly astray and makes a grave theological error, when he mixes and combines discipleship with sonship. Salvation is instant, but sanctification takes a lifetime. One has nothing to do with the other! In Romans 12:1 the apostle Paul pleads with the Gentile believers at Rome to present their bodies a "LIVING SACRIFICE." Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

" Carefully notice that the Bible called it

YOUR REASONABLE SERVICE,

not YOUR MANDATORY SERVICE.

Evangelist Steve Pettit is a false teacher, who perverts the Gospel of free grace, and needs to be refuted and exposed as a wolf in sheep's clothing!!! The same is true of Bob Jones University, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Marty Herron and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Their gospel does not match the Gospel taught in the King James Bible. You cannot show me the phrases "

turn from your sin

" or "

repent of your sin

" or "be willing to turn from your sins"

anywhere in the Holy Bible. It may sounds religious, reasonable and right, but it is NOT what the Bible teaches.

The Gospel truth taught in the Bible is that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 6:23). You are also a needy sinner (Galatians 3:24-26). You need a Savior! You cannot save yourself, and neither can I (Titus 3:5). That is the bad news! The 'GOOD NEWS' (i.e., Gospel) is that God loved you so much, that he sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on the cross for your sins. Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because you and I owed a debt of sin we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Jesus died on the cross, was buried , and physically resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Romans 5:6-8 says Christ died for the ungodly (for you and me). All you need to do to be saved, is cease from your own self-righteous efforts (e.g., trying to turn from your sin), and completely REST in what Christ has already done for you on the cross! You get saved by not trying to be saved, but instead, trusting to be saved! If you think that you had to turn from your sin to be saved, YOU ARE NOT SAVED!

Oh dear reader, I so much want you to grasp what I am teaching. I have nothing personal against the men I have mentioned. I have [13]paid a price for my faithfulness to tell THE TRUTH. In 2015 I was driven out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam by Pastor Marty Herron. I pray for God to avenge me of his cruelty, indifference and lack of Christian compassion. Pastor Herron deeply hurt me and my family. Afterwards, his associate Jared Baldwin sinfully drove my daughter, grandson and son-in-law out of Harvest, to burn any bridge for me to return. Mr. Baldwin is working in Iowa with Dr Herron today. These are ungodly men who parasite off of churches to make money. Their shallow, arrogant, indifferent and ecumenical style of apostate Christianity is why America is going to Hell.

Jesus warned in John 10:1-2 that whosoever tries to enter into Heaven, by some other way than faith in Him alone, is a thief and a robber. We see a group of religious people in Matthew 7:21-23, who served Jesus faithful their entire lives. They did “many wonderful works” in Jesus’ name. They “ prophesied

” (preached) in Jesus’ name. They “ cast out devils

” in Jesus’ name. But they had never submitted to God’s righteousness, through faith alone in Christ. Romans 10:3-4, “

For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

” Philippians 3:9,

nd be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ”

Bob Jones University is pulling on the same rope as the Devil today. Thousands of churches are being infected with the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Does anybody care? Is anybody listening? Does the Gospel matter to you friend. Right doctrine matters!!! When someone tells you to "

repent of your sin

to receive the free gift of eternal life, they are preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. The Bob Jones' crowd don't care! I have lived on Guam since 2004. The biggest Baptist church on Guam is a religious cult! Harvest Baptist Churches preaches [14]another gospel of Lordship Salvation. They bid Godspeed to Evangelist Steve Pettit, Dr. Marty Herron and Pastor John MacArthur, all reprobates concerning the Christian faith. I plead with you dear friend to heed THE TRUTH, by searching the Scriptures for yourself (John 5:39), to verify if what I say is true or false.

1.3.6 Two Very Different Plans Of Salvation (2020-07-06 11:00)

There are TWO VERY DIFFERENT plans of salvation being taught in churches today, including independent Baptist churches:

1. LORDSHIP SALVATION (PARTIAL FAITH IN CHRIST + WORKS) — The false gospel of John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Kirk Cameron, Paul Washer, Jack Chick, Aiden Tozer, Billy Graham, Joel Osteen, Pat Robertson, Charles Lawson, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, William Lane Craig, Chip Ingram, Rick Warren, Paris Reidhead, C.S. Lewis, David Cloud and many others—errantly require a person to be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sin, to repent (turn) from sin, to have intent to reform, make a full surrender to Christ, declare "Jesus as Lord," count the cost, start a relationship with Jesus, invite Jesus into your heart, commit one's life to live for Christ, follow Jesus no matter what the cost,

run the race, persevere in holiness, change your ways and forsake the world, et cetera—AS A REQUIREMENT TO BE SAVED (as a prerequisite to saving-faith). This heresy is commonly known as "Lordship Salvation." [1]Jehovah's Witnesses, [2]Mormons, [3]Seventh-Day Adventists and [4]Roman Catholics all share this heretical misunderstanding of repentance as meaning "to turn away from sins."

2. FAITH IN CHRIST ALONE — The true Biblical Gospel teaches that we are saved solely by Christ's righteousness (Romans 10:3-4), and that no self-righteousness of any kind is required (Titus 3:5), because we have none to offer (Isaiah 64:6); neither does a person have to quit any sin to be saved (Romans 4:5-6; Acts 13:39). THERE ARE NO CONDITIONS OF SALVATION, EXCEPT TO BELIEVE! You are a sinner. Unless you accept Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and resurrected bodily from the dead three days later, you will spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. A desire to turn away from sinful living is not a requirement for salvation, anymore than such a request would be required to receive a birthday gift. Pastors' Harry Ironside, [5]Curtis Hutson, Bob Gray Sr., and Jack Hyles all get repentance correct! We are saved by faith alone without works!

The Old Testament law's PURPOSE is to be used as a measuring stick, by which when we are compared, we are silenced of any boasting of our own goodness (Ephesians 2:8-9). We all fall short of God's glory (Romans 3:23). Romans 3:19 teaches that God's law was given so that "ALL THE WORLD MAY BECOME GUILTY BEFORE GOD." The purpose of the law is NOT to compel us to turn away from sin and walk the narrow path of self reform, so that God will accept our faith.

Listen to what Pastor Harry Ironside correctly states in chapter 16 of his book, 'EXCEPT YE REPENT' . . .

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation."

SOURCE: Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, '[6]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE,' from his classic book, '[7]EXCEPT YE REPENT'

In other words, you don’t have to stop sinning to be saved! Nor do you have to make a full surrender to serve Christ to be saved. Nor do you have to recognize Jesus as absolute Lord of your life to be saved. These are NOT a part of God’s plan of salvation. God’s simple plan is that YOU ARE A SINNER! Christ paid your sin debt in full. Unless you accept the gospel as full payment for your sins, you will spend eternity in the fires of Hell after you hear the Lord’s horrifying words... ’I NEVER KNEW YOU!’ (Matthew 7:21-23).

A lot of Christians have brushed the issue aside as a matter of semantics, but the difference between these two very different plans of salvation is day and night. One plan of salvation includes a certain degree of self-righteousness (which is a false gospel), but the other is solely based upon God’s righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). Salvation is solely by the precious, literal, physical, liquid, blood sacrifice of Jesus Christ, which is sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12,22-24;12:24). JESUS IS PRECIOUS!!!

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoso-ever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." —John 3:16

To Me, the beautiful rainbow is a constant reminder that God keeps all His promises!

Titus 3:5, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;"

1.3.7 No Amount Of Sugar Can Fix A Ruined Meal (2020-07-07 10:30)

Matthew 9:16-17, “No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.”

When I was about 12 years old, I went to make a bowl of cereal one day. There’s nothing like a fresh bowl of Corn Flakes, whole milk, and the perfect amount of sugar to sweeten it! Yummy in my tummy! Praise the good Lord!!! I made my big bowl of cereal, greatly anticipating that first wonderful spoonful, but something went wrong! Yuk! What had I just shoved into my mouth? It tasted awful. I can still remember the horrible taste. I had mistakenly grabbed the salt off the shelf instead of the sugar! Oh boy, what a dingleberry!

So in my infinite wisdom, I just figured I’d keep adding more sugar until the saltiness went away. In my mind that seemed sensible. I added some sugar, and then more sugar, and even more sugar, determined to get rid of the saltiness in my Corn Flakes. Unfortunately, I learned the hard way that you cannot simply add more sugar to undo a pile of salt in your cereal. No amount of sugar can fix a ruined meal. What really upset me was that I had used so much sugar in an attempt to fix my ruined cereal, that there was no sugar left! Arrgghh! So I couldn’t have a nice bowl of cereal. No kid wants to eat Corn Flakes without sugar!!!

I think this is an excellent illustration of what is going on at Bob Jones University today. God knows that I love the people at Bob Jones! I very much love my neighbours who are Bob Jones graduates, who work at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I love everyone with God’s unconditional love. Yet, I love God and truth first and foremost. The new president of BJU since 2014 is Evangelist Steve Pettit. I had the opportunity of hearing Dr. Pettit when he visited Guam to preach at Harvest in 2014. On [1]January 26, 2020 Dr. Pettit sinfully told 2,700 BJU students that they couldn’t be saved in an instant. I was shocked! I didn’t realize how far gone the Bob Jones camp spiritually are today. Dr. Pettit heretically said:

"You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL . And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —[2]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]11:34)

[4]Satan has about as much hope as the Bob Jones camp!

If you take a look at '[5]The Daily Platform' (BJU's daily chapel services) over recent months, BJU's speakers have been preaching on the gift of eternal life, salvation by grace, and other sweet titles. They are foolishly trying to dump sugar into Steve Pettit's salty ruined cereal. Dr. Steve Pettit is a corrupted preacher. Although no doubt sincere, Mr. Pettit is helping Satan, by promoting a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. [6]I have even heard him refute the heresy of partial faith in Christ plus works, but then he bids Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur and [7]teaches Lordship Salvation himself. So that is a big problem!

Bob Jones University is going through theological denial right now. They are slowly transforming from a once free grace Gospel preaching institution, to preaching the Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. [8]Pastor MacArthur mixes discipleship with salvation, perverting the Gospel. One of the greatest sermons I have ever heard, setting this matter right is by Pastor Jack Hyles, called: "[9]Steps To Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy!"

Kindly said, Dr. Pettit teaches damnable heresy!!! God's curse is upon anyone who bids Godspeed to reprobates of the faith! [10]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) believed and taught a free grace view of the Gospel, and he said if he could, in 50 years when Bob Jones College went apostate with [11]infidels robbing the saints of our faith, he'd [12]blow the college to smithereens!

Psalms 125:4, “

Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

1.3.8 Don’t Get Stuck On the Law of God (2020-07-08 11:30)

Romans 3:19-20, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

Throughout history, people have become stuck on the LAW of God, never moving onto the GRACE of God. Many Bible students fail to comprehend this truth, which is why they get sucked into the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

The Jews in particular had a hard time breaking away from trying to keep the law to be saved. Why did God give the law? You see, you cannot have darkness without light. You cannot have beauty without ugliness, nor high without low, nor truth without heresy, nor life without death. You cannot swim upstream until you’ve been downstream. Every positive needs its correspondence negative, and vise versa. Without God’s LAW in the Old Testament, GRACE in the New Testament wouldn’t make any sense! We need the law of God, that is, the Mosaic law, to show us our sinnership. Our text passage above gives us the purpose of the law, which is to stop every mouth from boasting of self-righteousness, and that all the world may become guilty before God.

Both Jesus and the apostle Paul spent much of their time trying to get Jews unsaved, so they could get them saved! That is, the Jews were stuck on keeping the law, failing to understand the purpose for which God gave the law. Instead of realizing that salvation can only come through God's grace, by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, they were still trying to keep the law to enter into the Kingdom of God. Let's take a look at someone in the New Testament who boasted of his own goodness, whose mouth needed to be stopped. Jesus used the law in the following Scripture passage to silence this young rich man from his self-righteous boasting, and it worked! ...

> Luke 18:18-23, "And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up. [HE'S BOASTING] Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. [JESUS USED THE LAW TO SHOW THIS RICH YOUNG MAN THAT HE IS COVETOUS, AND THAT STOPPED HIS MOUTH FROM BOASTING."

So the Lord was using the law as it was intended to be used, which is, as a measuring stick by which when men are compared, they fall short of the glory of God (Romans 3:23); thus seeing their desperate condition as a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19), they are pointed to the Gospel of free grace, which is through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:24-26). Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped [STOPPED FROM BOASTING], and all the world may become guilty before God."

Corrupt Preachers Who Are Stuck On the Law

Let me list a few from the start: Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, Billy Graham and John MacArthur (and there are many more). There are some very dangerous false teachers today, who horribly misinterpret the interaction between Jesus and the rich young ruler.

One such false teacher is Dr. John MacArthur, who says that the rich young ruler only wanted eternal life as an add on to what he already possessed, but he wasn't willing to surrender fully to live for God. Read for yourself the satanic garbage that MacArthur teaches about the rich young ruler...

> "The bottom line is: He wanted eternal life, but he wasn't willing to give up his pride and his possessions. That's the bottom line! ... But there are very evident things here, that become crystal clear to us. Whatever Jesus was offering, was going to cost cost him his pride, and it was going to cost him his possessions, and the price was too high, even for eternal life. He wanted eternal life, only as an add-on to what he already possessed. He loved himself, not God. He loved earth, not Heaven. He loved the material, not the spiritual. The issue here is really salvation. It's about salvation!"

> SOURCE: Dr. John MacArthur, YouTube sermon titled: '[1]The Blasphemy of the Rich Young Ruler.'

BLASPHEMY!!! Folks, John MacArthur is not saved!!! He is the one who is blaspheming God! Mr. MacArthur is going straight to Hell when he dies if he doesn't repent of his works-based plan of salvation. Jesus was NOT giving the rich young ruler a plan of salvation; but rather, He was using the law to stop this young man from his self-righteous boasting. That is what the law does according to our text verse from Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God."

Ladies and gentleman, John MacArthur is a wolf in sheep's clothing! It breaks my heart to see countless multitudes of people being led them astray into the Lake of Fire by Mr. MacArthur. If you follow the teaching of John MacArthur, you are treading on thin ice. I admit that John MacArthur is brilliant in his deliverance, and in most of the subjects which he teaches, which makes him so dangerous. But if a man is wrong on repentance he is going to be wrong on everything else. If you get the first button wrong while getting dressed, all the other buttons are also going to be wrong. In other words, as good as Mr. MacArthur is in many of his teachings, you simply cannot trust him and should avoid him. Judas looked so convincing, that when Jesus told his disciples one of them was going to betray him, no one even suspected that it would be Judas. John 6:70 says that Judas had a devil in him, yet no one suspected him! I tell you, kindly, John MacArthur has a devil in him! Ray Comfort has a devil in him! Beware of Paul Washer, Billy Graham and other false teachers concerning salvation!

Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches the same exact damnable heresy as John MacArthur. In his horribly corrupt "The Evidence Bible," he comments on page 1321 concerning the account of the rich young ruler...

> "Jesus gave him five 'horizontal' Commandments having to do with his fellow man. When he said that he had kept them, Jesus then used the First of the Ten Commandments to show this man that his god was his money, and you cannot serve God and money." [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: Evangelist Ray Comfort, commentary for Luke 18:20, "The Evidence Bible," pg. 1321; © 2003.

Ray Comfort lied! Go read Luke 18:18-27 and you WON'T find any mention of the FIRST of the Ten Commandments. Ray made that up in a lame attempt to support his heresy! Jesus only mentioned the TENTH Commandment, against covetousness. Like John MacArthur, Ray Comfort gets it wrong! They claim that the rich young ruler didn't get saved because he wasn't willing to forsake his sin of covetousness. That is not what is happening here! Jesus is using the law as it was intended to be used, to show this young man that he is a guilty sinner in God's eyes! A person cannot get saved until they admit they are a sinner in God's sight (1st John 1:10).

Carefully notice that Ray Comfort associates not being able to serve God and mammon (money) with salvation. This is gross theological incompetence!!! The love of money (a sin) can certainly hinder a person from coming to Christ to be saved, but there is no biblical requirement to forsake the sin of covetousness to be saved. Serving mammon is a matter of discipleship, not sonship (salvation). Repentance is the admission of one's sinnership in the sight of a holy God, which facilitates placing one's trust in the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ to be saved. We don't get saved by repenting, we get saved by placing our trust in the [2]Gospel of Jesus Christ, but no one has ever believed who didn't [3]repent (i.e., change their mind).

Since Mr. Comfort cannot use the Bible to support his strawman argument of Lordship Salvation, he often attempts to use doctrinally-flawed men as a secondary authority. For example: [4]Ray Comfort quotes from George Whitfield (another heretic on salvation), to try to prove his heresy. Proverbs 16:5, "Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished." Some of the greatest preachers in history are now burning in Hell forever; Matthew 7:21-23 proves what I say! [5]Martin Luther is one of them! Anyone who believes that giving up the world or sinful ways is a requirement to be saved, IS NOT SAVED!!! Eternal life is a free gift, that you simply receive by faith alone in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 5:15, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

These modern-day prophets of Balaam are stuck on the law! The apostle Paul, just like Jesus, had a hard time convincing the Jews that they couldn't obtain salvation through keeping the law. Romans 2:13, "For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified." Paul saw that they were trying to merit salvation through keeping the Mosaic law. The problem is that no man can perfectly obey the law. So Paul tells them that not the HEARERS of the law will be justified, but the DOERS of the law! They weren't doing it! Paul tells them that they actually have to keep the law to obtain eternal life, which no man has ever done. Jesus Christ is the only sinless man, Who is the precious Lamb of God (John 1:29).

In Romans chapter 3, Paul teaches that “There is none righteous, no, not one” (Romans 3:10). Paul goes into detail in the verses to follow, describing the wickedness of mankind:

> Romans 3:11-24, “There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.”

Isn’t that last verse beautiful? Notice that after describing the rottenness of humanity, Paul upholds the wondrous truth that through the precious blood of Jesus Christ any man can find redemption! Any man can be freely justified by God’s GRACE through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus!!! That is the great lesson that Paul was teaching the Jews, not that by doing the law they could be justified (Dan Corner and other heretics teach the latter). The adherents of Lordship Salvation are stuck on Old Testament LAW! They have never moved on to GRACE. They are caught between the Old and New Testaments, caught between LAW and GRACE! If it’s not free, it’s not grace! If it’s not eternal, it’s not grace! If it’s not permanent, it’s not grace! If it’s not without works, it’s not grace! If you don’t trust in Christ alone, because of what He did through the cross to pay for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead the third day, you don’t get grace!

The Law Stops Self-Righteous People from Boasting!

The rich young ruler boasted to Jesus in Luke 18:21b,"All these have I kept from my youth up." When the young man first approached Jesus, he called Him "Good Master"! Jesus replied, "Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God." This was a question, not a statement. Jesus wasn't saying that He Himself wasn't good, he was asking the young man a question, to teach him something. The Lord was challenging the young man's wrong perception that some people are sinless. The Lord knew his heart. Jesus is trying to teach this young man that he is a sinner, and not "good" as he thinks he is. Jesus even says that no one is good, but God. And of course, Jesus is almighty God (John 10:33; John 8:52). The Lord pointed out the rich young ruler's sin of covetousness, his love for wealth, which was a violation of God's law.

Theoretically, if any man could keep the law 100 %, and never break it even one time, he could enter into the Kingdom of God; but the Bible plainly teaches in Romans 3:10b, "There is none righteous, no, not one." Only Jesus Christ is without sin (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Hebrews 4:15).

How about you my friend, are you hung-up on the LAW? If there were anything you could do to be saved, then Christ died in vain! The whole reason why God sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross for our sins, is because there is NOTHING we can do to save ourselves. Satan is a beautiful liar, who for millenniums has been deceiving people to add works to faith, which is no faith at all. This was the error of Galatianism in the New Testament, as exposed in the Epistle of Galatians. The church Paul had started had been contaminated, infiltrated and bewitched by a satanic cult who added circumcision to the Gospel to be saved (Galatians 3:1-4). Paul said anyone is "accursed" by God if they believe "another gospel" (Galatians 1:6-9).

Please don't get stuck on the LAW. You can only be saved by God's GRACE, which is solely through faith in the redemption provided through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

1.3.9 Where Dr. Steve Pettit Goes Wrong On The Gospel (2020-07-09 17:39)

1st Thessalonians 4:14, “

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

I love our text Bible verse. In this single Scripture we see the Gospel. We see the simplicity that is in Christ. In this single Bible passage we see all that God expects of someone to be saved. You simply need to trust the blessed Savior, believing that He died for your sins on the cross, was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). 1st Thessalonians 4:14 shows the simplicity of salvation.

In sharp contrast, Evangelist Steve Pettit (new president of Bob Jones University since 2014) perverts the Gospel, teaching the same Calvinist heresy as Dr. John MacArthur.

God knows that I am not trying to be critical of Dr. Steve Pettit. I am not just looking for something to criticize his teachings. The Lord knows I speak the truth. I heard a chapel sermon the other day called “[1]Understanding Galatians” (The Daily Platform #766), which is one of the best sermons I’ve ever heard. Steve Pettit is a brilliant man, but he has been caught between grace and works, and he doesn’t realize it. Dr. Pettit is a heretical Calvinist!

Our Baptist churches are in trouble nowadays. Satan is always trying to corrupt the Bible, corrupt the Gospel, corrupt the preacher, and corrupt the churches, so he can corrupt people and prevent them from being born-again. The chapel sermon I heard today was a completely different story, titled "[2]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741). At 18:15 time in the sermon Dr. Pettit makes these horrible statements on how to be justified:

> "So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that 'repentance.' And repentance is sort of saying a 'No' and a 'Yes.' It's a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I'm turning away from my own self-righteousness. I'm to turning away from depending on me, and all that's involved in me—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I'm to turning away from that way of thinking. And then finally what do I have to do? I'm to put my trust, or me confidence, in Jesus alone." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[3]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

What you just read is of the Devil. Jesus told the Apostle Peter, "Get thee behind me, Satan" (Matthew 16:23b). So I say to Steve Pettit, "Get thee behind me, Satan!" What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The Bible teaches something very different than what Dr. Steve Pettit is teaching! Steve Pettit says you must turn away from living your own life to be saved. That is a doctrine of devils! That is why I chose the devil dog picture for this article. Steve Pettit is a devil-dog preacher! My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me!!! Now that's the truth!

The folks at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are upset with me, because I am exposing their hero, Steve Pettit. Harvest broadcasts Bob Jones University's (BJU) 'The Daily Platform' program on their local KHMG 88.1 FM radio station. The people of Micronesia are being corrupted by Harvest Baptist Church, as I just showed you. This junk theology is being aired throughout the islands! This is another gospel, not the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). It is not enough to admit you are a sinner and believe the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen; but also, Mr. Pettit adds an additional step of surrendering your life to Christ! That is [4]the same garbage which Dr. John MacArthur teaches! Folks, God does not require you to turn away from "LIVING MY OWN LIFE" to be saved. What Dr. Pettit is doing is combining discipleship with salvation, front-loading the Gospel. It's like expecting a newborn baby to run a 26 mile marathon! [5]Here are some excellent quotes differentiating between discipleship and salvation.

The following helpful excellent quote is from Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

In the preceding truthful quote, we can see that Pastor DeHaan accurately differentiates between salvation versus discipleship. The woeful error that John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, John Piper, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Paul Washer, Calvinists and the Lordship crowd all make—is to COMBINE these two things into one, which is a counterfeit gospel.

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Ladies and gentlemen, there is absolutely nothing in the preceding Bible passage about "repenting of your sin" to be saved. Repentance facilitates (makes possible) believing the Gospel. We are not saved by repenting, we are saved by believing the Gospel. Albeit, no one has ever believed without repenting. To "repent" simply means that you have changed your mind (Greek noun metanoia) from WRONG THOUGHTS to believing the Gospel. You don't repent AND believe, you repent TO believe. There is much disagreement over what I just said in Baptist churches today. Sadly, at least half of all Baptist churches have adopted this Calvinist false teaching that repentance is a separate required step from faith to be saved.

This damnable heresy has crept into so many churches today, which is false religion. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. Religion always perverts the Gospel from God's free gift of eternal life, into some type of human reformation (where you are obligated to [1]commit to drastic changes in your life and behavior to be saved). Case in point is the following explanation of what it means to "

on the website, Wikipedia:

> "The doctrine of repentance as taught in the Bible is a call to persons to make a radical turn from one way of life to another. The repentance (metanoia) called for throughout the Bible is a summons to a personal, absolute and ultimate unconditional surrender to God as Sovereign."

SOURCE: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Repentance

What you just read is a lie of the Devil. That is not what the inspired King James Bible teaches! Some religious person, not a born-again Christian, wrote that junk theology on Wikipedia. Where does the Bible teach that repentance means “a summons to a personal, absolute and ultimate unconditional surrender to God as Sovereign”? What ever happened to eternal life being a free gift? (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23 and Ephesians 2:8-9) The Bible teaches that salvation is without works, a free gift, and that we simply receive it. So why do you have “to make a radical turn from one way of life to another”? Dear friend, that is the sin of Adam, who tried to cover his sins with fig leaves. That is the sin of Cain, who tried to impress God with the works of his hands.

You don’t have to turn from your sinful ways to be saved. You do have to recognize your need as a guilty sinner in God’s sight, so you’ll see your need for the blessed Savior. This is exactly what Galatians 3:24-26 teaches, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.” The purpose of God’s Old Testament LAW is to show us that we are guilty in God’s sight as a sinner, and bring us to CHRIST to be saved by GRACE!!! Turning away from your sinful behavior, or a willingness to do so, the Bible calls “DEAD WORKS” (Hebrews 6:1).

What do you think “ [2]the deeds of the law

” are? Romans 3:20,

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. ” Telling someone to repent of their sin is effectively expecting them to KEEP THE LAW to be saved. It sounds so reasonable that a person should have to commit to turn from their sinful lifestyle, if they want God to forgive them; but that is NOT the Gospel. The Gospel is that you are a needy sinner. There is a penalty for your sins, which is to spend eternity burning in Hell. But God loved you so much that He sent His only begotten Son into the world, to die on the cross in your place to pay your debt of sin (and mine). Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. Christ died on the cross, was buried, but 72 hours later He resurrected psychically from the dead (for our justification of our faith). That is the ’GOOD NEWS’ (Gospel) by which we are saved, if we believe (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

The churches of Galatia had received a religious cult that required keeping the deeds of the law to be saved (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3). That is effective the same exact evil when you tell someone they must “ repent (turn) of your sin

” to be saved. This is a serious matter. I cannot overemphasize the crucial importance of this matter. I have personally heard umpteen people tell me that they almost commit suicide because of fake preachers like John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Sam Horn and other heretics, who teach the Satanic curse of Lordship Salvation.

Tragically, I have seen that MOST Baptist pastors today, even those who don’t teach damnable heresy themselves, are woefully complicit to those who do, wanting to go along to get along with peers in the ministry. It is wickedness and the reason why the problem is getting much worse. Where are the Bible preachers who stand for the accuracy of the Gospel? Where are the men of God who proclaim that right doctrine matters? Sadly, less than 5 % of Baptist preachers today make a fuss over Calvinism in the churches. Calvinism is not the Gospel! John Calvin (1509-1564) taught that you cannot just get saved and that’s it. Calvin was a heretic who taught that WILL persevere in holiness throughout your entire life, otherwise you are not saved.

The [3]Salvation Army adopted this damnable heresy. Statement number 9 in their founding principles says: “We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ.” Folks, salvation is not a state that you enter into and out of, it is a one time irreversible new birth! 1st Peter 1:23 in the trustworthy King James Bible says that we are born-again of “ INCORRUPTIBLE SEED.

” These [4]modern corrupt Bible revisions are leading people into Hell. The Salvation Army’s founders, General William Booth and Catherine Booth, were very wrong that a believer must continue doing something to remain in a state of salvation. That is a works-based false plan of salvation. The new birth (or spiritual birth) is exactly like the first physical birth. When a baby is born, it is irreversible. There’s no going back! Likewise, once you trust Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, if you sincerely relied upon what He has done on the cross to pay for your sins, believing that He has risen from the dead, then you are now forever and irreversible saved!!! Praise God!!!

Satanic conmen and heretics have corrupted God’s Word, changing the word “

in the modern Bible revisions to mean to change your hearts and lives to be saved. [5]Take a look at Mark 1:15 in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). They have perverted the Gospel of free grace. All of the pseudo -Christian cults (Mormons, Jehovah’s Witness, Seventh-Day Adventists, Roman Catholics, et cetera) errantly define repentance as turning away from living a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

The average pastor today hasn’t paid close enough attention to the issue of the Gospel, and is therefore lackadaisical and indifferent about it. If you don’t see a problem with John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Ray Comfort, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Billy Graham and countless more reprobates of the faith, please read the Mormon view of repentance:

> “To repent we need to recognize and feel sorry for what we’ve done wrong, do whatever is possible to repair the damage it may have caused, and to leave our sinful behavior behind. Repentance can be difficult and requires a lot of honesty, but the joy and freedom we feel when we turn away from our sins are well worth the effort. Because Christ suffered for our sins, we can be forgiven when we repent. That’s why the Atonement is so important to all of us.”
> SOURCE: [6]Jesus Christ | Mormon.org

That is what the John MacArthur crowd ascribe to! It’s no different than what the unsaved Mormons teach! Are you getting this folks? It may sound trifle to you dear reader, but they mean business. If a person is not willing to turn away from their lifestyle of sin, they are told that God won’t save them until they do so. That is another gospel. I am wearied with all this. Guam is infested with heretics preaching this false gospel. Beware of anyone who teaches that faith is not enough to be saved, who says that your must be willing to forsake your willful sinning to be saved. That is demanding for people to reform as a prerequisite to saving-faith. Sorrow for sins in penitence, not repentance. Trying to amend your ways is penance, not repentance. Turning from your sins is reformation, not repentance. Repentance is simply a change of mind, from wrong thinking to believing on Christ alone, and that my friend produces REGENERATION (the new birth).

To sum up what I have said in this blog article. If you'll take the time, as I have done, and search through my ministry websites (use the search box at the top of each main website), to find what Roman Catholics, Mormons, SDA's and JW's believe about repentance—you'll be disturbed and shocked to find that, they ALL require for you to make a diligent effort to forsake the old way of life, and live a new righteous life for God. Wikipedia errantly says you must "make a radical turn from one way of life to another." You won't find that in the King James Bible. Folks, that is human reformation, not biblical repentance.

Please remember that the goal of real Bible repentance, is to get a person to think differently so they will get saved; whereas the goal of the proponents of Lordship Salvation is to get a person to turn away from their former sinful lifestyle, and commit to living a morally upright life from now on. They foolishly consider this to mean repentance, and teach that it is mandatory before a person's faith can be made valid with God for salvation. Dear reader, I prayerfully hope you can see how horrible, wrong, unbiblical, and unacceptable that this counterfeit gospel is!

Something as seemingly small and simple as adding "repent of your sin" to the Gospel message, totally corrupts its efficacy to produce the new birth. When someone comes to Jesus Christ, having the Satanic mindset that "

I am turning from my sins to get saved,

" they are in actuality trying to save themselves (at least in part)! Read what heretic Paul Washer says:

> "Sir, the evidence that you truly repented unto salvation on that day is that you're still repenting today..."

SOURCE: Paul Washer, '[7]How Do I Know If I'm Saved?'

Calvinist Paul Washer sinfully turns the new birth into a process. If I give you a birthday gift, you simply accept it, and nothing else is required, nor can be required if it was truly a free gift! This creates a counterfeit gospel of fear, uncertainty and worry, where you never can know assuredly that you are 100 % born-again and on your way safely to Heaven. This is not the Gospel of free grace, that promises peace with God (Romans 5:1). If you spiritually fall and choose to go into sin, then Calvinists say you may not make it to Heaven, that you were never saved at all; but that is all junk theology.

God saves you on the sole basis of God's goodness, and not your goodness!!! Everyone seems to forget this truth!!! We are saved by [8]God's imputed righteousness, so that you do not have to repent of your sins to be saved, you simply need to repent (change your mind) from whatever has been hindering you from coming to Christ. Again, you cannot find the phrase "repent of your sin" in the Bible. It sounds so harmless. It sounds so religious. It sounds so small and insignificant, but it alters the mindset of the Gospel completely, so that it cannot produce the new birth (regeneration).

1.3.11 What If I Am Not Saved? (2020-07-10 10:00)

Romans 8:16, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God."

I am going to share with you my personal testimony, and battle with the assurance of my salvation for seven miserable years.

I don't remember the exact age that I was saved, but I think I was 13. I remember a place, a sermon, my heart's conviction from the blessed Holy Spirit, I knew was a needy sinner, and I placed my faith in Jesus Christ as my personal Savior.

I didn't think at the time to write down the date, or take notice of how old I was. You don't think about stuff like that unless someone tells you to write it down. That's why I think it's a good idea to tell a new convert to write down the day they got saved, so years later they can reflect back with that knowledge. I was between 12 and 14, that's all I remember as far as my age. I tell everyone I was 13.

I had prayed a prayer years earlier when I was about 6-7 years old in kindergarten. I didn't really get saved at that early age, but I thought I had in my mind. I was water baptized following this superficial profession. I had been having learning difficulty in public school, so my parents enrolled me into a Christian school. Then I went back to public school for 2nd grade, Christian school for 3rd and 4th, public school for 5th and 6th, and then ultimately a Christian school from 7th grade through high school. I love my parents for enrolling me into the Christian school at a local Baptist church, without which this blog and my online ministry would not exist. I owe it all to my parents, my pastor who led me to the Lord, Pastor Jack Hyles, and most of all my wonderful God and Savior.

Being away from the evils of public school kept me out of a lot of trouble as a teenager in Chicago (despite all the trouble I still got into...lol). I strongly encourage all parents to get your kids into a Christian school.

Growing up I had attended several churches; including the Methodist Church, non-denominational, the Salvation Army and Baptist churches. It wasn't until in a fundamental soulwinning Baptist church that I first felt the conviction of the Holy Spirit, where the Gospel was presented. I remember it was on a Sunday morning. I'll never forget what the preacher said. He said if you don't have the Holy Spirit convicting you about sin in your life, then you're not saved. Boy I was scared. I knew God was talking to my heart that morning through the sermon. For the first time in my life I was convicted about my sins.

I had never felt conviction up until that day. I never even thought about the Bible, nor the things of God (and I attended Sunday School regularly). I was used to hearing Bible stories. There was something about that sermon which God intended for me. God convicted me and I got saved. I was too shy to walk an isle. The best I knew how I called upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ from my pew and asked Him to forgive my sins and save me. I remember my face being red and my hands griping the pew in front of me, as I was a bit overwhelmed with conviction, emotion and fear.

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) has a similar salvation testimony as I do. Brother Hutson was saved at age 11, but he couldn't remember the date that he was saved, and he went through years of uncertainty as I did. Here's an awesome sermon by Dr. Curtis Hutson titled, '[1]ASSURANCE.'

Seven Years Of Uncertainty And Fear As a Teenager

After church that morning, I had fear in my heart on the way home while riding the church bus. I had tears in my eyes. I was afraid of going to Hell. I went home and for the first time in my life began to read the Word of God. I started with a King James Bible (and I thank God I've learned the truth that the King James Bible is the true inspired Word of God). I'll die believing and preaching from the inspired King James Bible! I read Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and then got bored with the Mosaic Law (being your typical teen), so I jumped ahead to the more exciting New Testament. But I was hungry to learn the truth of the Bible. I was reading all the little commentary notes in my "

Open Bible

(it was a Nelson study Bible). I remember my mother saying: "You've changed." I'm fairly certain that I was about 13-years of age, being in 7th grade. I was saved, but I couldn't find any assurance!

The Holy Spirit had come into my body and soul to stay, because I was saved (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). I was a child of God by faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). However, I lacked the assurance of my salvation and wouldn't find peace for another seven miserable years. I used to cry in Christian school on Monday, after hearing a sermon on Sunday about Heaven or Hell. I'd hide my tears thinking, "What if?" "What if I go to Hell?" "What if I didn't have enough faith to be saved?" "What if I missed something and didn't pray right?" "What if, what if, what if?" I must have read at least 50 different religious tracts. After reading each one, I'd pray the sinner's prayer. At home I'd fall on my knees and beg God to show me if I was really saved or not. I'd go through the following mental steps time and time again, trying to settle the matter...

1. Do I know that I'm a sinner? ... Yes!
2. Do I believe that there is a penalty for sin in Hell fire forever? ... Yes!
3. Do I believe that Jesus is the Christ who died, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later? ... Yes!
4. Will I believe on the name of Lord, trusting His work of redemption as payment for my sins? ... Yes, yes, yes!

I'd mentally assure myself that God cannot lie and since I obeyed the Bible, I am saved, case closed. Yet, I couldn't deny what I felt in my heart, that is, fear, mental anguish, worry, uncertainty and misery. I was so sad and scared. It was a very lonely feeling! No matter what mental process I went through in an attempt to settle the matter, it wasn't settled!

It didn't help my fears, when I heard sincere preachers say things like:

- "Just take God at His Word!"
- "Don't insult God by questioning your salvation!"
- "Fear only comes from the Devil!"
- "If you don't know you're saved, you're not!"
- "If you worry, then that's not faith and something is wrong!"

I was terrified and all these statements from preachers only made it worse. Although some of those statements are true, they don't help a person obtain the assurance of their salvation. What I needed was knowledge of the truth! I was just ignorant of what God expected of me to be saved. I was saved, but didn't know if there was more required of me.

Eventually, at age 17 I finally couldn't take it anymore and went to my pastor for counseling. After four years of worry, fear, tears, mental anguish and sadness, I wanted help to find out if I was saved or not. It was one of the hardest things I've ever done. As you can imagine, I was very apprehensive, because everybody thought I was saved all those years in our Christian church and school. No one ever questioned my salvation. I was worried what people would think about me. What would my pastor think? What would my friends think? But alas, I decided that I didn't care what people though, I wanted to get the assurance of my salvation. I didn't want to worry anymore. I desperately desired to settle the matter once and for all.

When I explained the situation to my pastor, he made a classic mistake that so many preachers make by saying: "If you don't know if you're saved, then you must not be." That's simply not true. There are many doubting believers who are saved, but as babes in Christ they are ignorant of the Scripture. So my pastor sincerely led me in a sinner's prayer. The next week I was water baptized for the second time in my life, but I was terrified getting into the baptistery, because I still didn't know if I was saved or not. Now (I thought to myself) I'd really look stupid if I went to my pastor, after he thinks I just got saved. I figured if he couldn't help me the first time, then he wouldn't be able to help me the second time either, so I didn't go back.

As I stepped into the baptistery water, all I could think about was Mark 16:16, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Was I going to be damned for getting baptized, while still having doubts and fears in my mind and heart about being saved? Was my lack of assurance, in fact, unbelief that would get me damned to Hell? I was water baptized with a worrisome heart, having lingering doubts about my salvation, and I was terrified. What was I going to do? Not knowing that you're saved and on your way to Heaven is one of the most miserable feelings in the world.

I was already saved, but I didn't have peace about it. I had prayed a sinner's prayer at age 17 (but I had already been saved since I was age 13). When I was 13 I didn't pray audibly. I simply believed in my heart for Jesus to forgive my sins. From that moment until this day in 2020, I've felt the blessed presence of the Holy Spirit in my life. That is because the Holy Spirit came to live inside me, the very second that I got saved. Romans 8:9b teaches that every Christian is indwelt by " the Spirit of Christ.

" The moment you personally receive Jesus as your personal Savior, the Holy Spirit comes to live inside your body.

You, dear saint, are the temple of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24). This is why Christians ought not smoke, drink or abuse their health with junk food and drugs. You are the house of God! God doesn't dwell in a big church building with stained-glass windows, plush carpeting and padded pews; but rather, He lives in you as a true believer in Christ Jesus. Religion superficially worships God in vain in their church buildings and manmade traditions (Matthew 15:7-9; Mark 7:9-13), but Jesus said the Kingdom of God is within the breast of every believer (Luke 17:21).

Never Assume Someone's Unsaved Because They Have Doubts

It is cruel to tell someone that they must be lost, simply because they don't know for sure they're saved. My situation is a perfect example of why this assumption should never be made. By attempting to lead a person to the Lord who is having doubts, you still haven't addressed their underlying fears, concerns and worries. The worst thing you could ever do to someone having any kind of problem, is to offer them a false hope.

By telling someone that they need to get saved to remove their doubts, you're only slapping a temporary patch over a long-term problem, thus forcing them to suffer in continued fear , unanswered questions and endless worry.

I know the utter misery of not knowing whether or not I'm going to Heaven or Hell. It is a frightening thing to read Scripture passages; such as, Hebrews 10:31, "

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God,

" and not know for certain you are okay with God. I had already prayed the sinner's prayer at least 50 or more times. I had read through dozens upon dozens of religious tracts. I couldn't stop worrying and I felt bad about myself for having doubts.

One of the main reason why I couldn't settle my salvation was because of poorly written tracts. Every single tract that I read directed me to PRAY A PRAYER. That really confused me. I love something that I read recently by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968):

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service. Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

I so much love Brother Jones for saying that! I wish I had learned that truth as a teenager, back when I was struggling to find the assurance that I was saved.

What I needed as a teenager was some good (doctrinally sound) books on salvation, which I didn't know existed. This is why I am a firm believer, that every church ought to provide free books to help mentor God's flock. I recommend the '[2]Sword Of The Lord,' who publish numerous books and booklets available on the subject of SALVATION to help new believers.

Doubts are not evidence that a person is not saved. Although some Christian workers and pastors may feel that the safe approach is to lead the person to the Lord, doing so will not remedy the underlying fears, uncertainty and doubt caused by ignorance of the Scripture regarding salvation. We need to teach them Bible truths about eternal security, which is our assurance of salvation. This is why I have published this blog article, to help others who are struggling with the assurance of their salvation to find peace. By God's grace, I have also written a 42 chapter book about my experiences and all I learned, called: '[3]SALVATION.'

The Epistle of 1st John was written so we can KNOW that we are saved (1st John 5:13). The Bible teaches that a couple of the ways that we know we are saved is if we, love one another, and desire to keep God's Commandments with gladness. These are NOT requirements to be saved; but rather, evidences that we are saved. These are the FRUIT of genuine repentance. Faith is the ROOT (Genesis 15:6). A changed life is the FRUIT (result) of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and not a part of the ROOT of saving faith (Romans 4:5-6).

Please don't misunderstand the Epistle of 1st John. The key verse is 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " The evidence that we are saved is the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit. If you have Him, you know Him! I have met unsaved Roman Catholics who are sweet, honest and good people. So looking at someone's life is not a reliable way to determine if they are saved. The Epistle of 1st John is for YOU, the individual, to help determine if you have the Holy Spirit in you. I cannot look at you, or anyone else, and determine if someone is saved by the life they live. God is not saying in 1st John that you are not saved if you live in sin, He is saying you are not saved if you don'y have the Holy Spirit in you.

"Just Enough" Faith Is All You Need To Be Saved

God sent a dear man of God who used to preach week-long revivals at our church. I'll never forget something he taught us about Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." He asked, "How much faith does a person need to be saved?" Romans 10:13 answers this question... JUST ENOUGH! If you have "just enough" faith to call upon the name of the Lord, then you will be saved. All God requires is that we obey His Word. It matters not how many doubts you have, just so long as you act upon the faith. All the faith you need to be saved is "just enough" to call (appeal) upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

This truth greatly helped me, but I still had worries and doubts concerning all my other questions... WHAT IF? WHAT IF? WHAT IF?

The Promises Of God

One of the most important truths to bare in mind is that salvation is based upon the PROMISE of God. All of the false religious systems in this world are rooted in self-righteous works and uncertainty. Basically you do your best and hope it all works out okay! As Bible-believing Christians we don't have to live with fear, uncertainty or doubt. I've learned that salvation is a PROMISE from God, and that means I can KNOW (beyond any shadow of a doubt) that I am saved.

Eternal life is a PROMISE from God. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began." God wants us to have sweet assurance and peace that we are saved and secure. God made us a PROMISE.

But He went further, reminding us in Titus 1:2 that God cannot lie.

But He goes even went a step further and informs us that He made this promise of eternal life before the world began.

What precious truths! God PROMISED us eternal life in Christ Jesus, a promise that He made before the world was ever created, and God wants us to keep in mind that He never breaks a promise! Brother, that's eternal security!!!

If you have been struggling with the assurance of your salvation, I am confident that some of these truths will help you immensely to find the sweet peace and harmony of soul that God wants us all to have. Eternal life is not a reward for good behavior; but rather, it is a gift from God to ungodly sinners, paid for by Jesus' precious blood!

No matter how ungodly you may be, God will forgive you of every sin and declare you justified (Just-If-I'd) never sinned (Romans 4:5-6). All you have to do is cease from your own religious and self-righteous labors; and instead rest upon the PROMISE of eternal life by faith in Jesus, the Christ, Whom God the Father sent into the world to save men from their sins (Luke 19:10). Jesus DIED, He was BURIED, and He ROSE again three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you receive the gospel as payment for your sins, then you are saved eternally my friend. I trust that I will meet you in Heaven someday.

I haven't doubted my salvation in well over 20-years now. I fully understand the gospel and what God DOESN'T require of me for salvation. Most religions mislead people to think that God requires a bunch of things from them to get to Heaven. The truth is that the Bible says Jesus paid our sin debt because He loves us, and eternal life is a free gift at no cost, no obligation, nor burden to the recipient. Jesus paid it all! The burden of salvation rests upon Christ, Who bore our sins at Calvary on the cross.

I learned over time that it didn't matter what I could or couldn't remember from years past. Salvation is NOT an experience. Salvation is a new birth, a second birth, a spiritual birth; which is as irreversible as the first physical birth. What matters is that I have faith in my heart NOW, today. I am saved now this minute. I can say with total confidence that I am saved. Biblical salvation is instant and immediate. It is not a process. Eternal l life is a gift from God.

Although I had asked the Lord to save me at least 50 times during a 7-year period, I was saved the first time! At the very moment at which I believed on Jesus Christ to forgive my sins, I was saved eternally. All the other times I prayed a sinner's prayer out of ignorance. Although I was confused back then as a teenager, not being able to see the forest for the trees; in hindsight today I KNOW that I was saved as a young teen. It was like a light switch was flipped in my life. I've felt the strong presence of God's Holy Spirit in my life ever since that morning when I prayed in my heart for the Lord to save me.

I believed on Christ that Sunday morning. I knew that I was a guilty sinner. I knew that I wanted to go to Heaven. I knew that Jesus died, was buried and rose again three days later for my sins. I placed my trust in the Lord the best I new how, receiving the gospel as payment for my sins, and Jesus saved!!! Thank you Lord for dying for my sins and shedding your precious blood!

BEWARE of any false gospel which places the burden of salvation upon the sinner to change, amend his ways, make a commitment, fully surrender to Christ, stop sinful bad habits, forsake the world, or turn over a new leaf. These things are all appropriate in their own respective places; but when added to the gospel they constitute a perverted and corrupted FALSE GOSPEL of self-righteousness! In salvation, the total burden rests upon Jesus Christ!

Upon trusting Jesus Christ, anything other than instant and immediate eternal life is a false gospel of self-righteous works!

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, i.e., Christ's righteousness, and not our own self-righteousness. Matthew 6:33 says, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS; and all these things shall be added unto you."

> What a day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see;
> When I look upon His face, the one Who saved me by His grace;
> And when He takes me by the hand, and leads me through the Promised Land;
> What a day, glorious day, that will be!

Thank God for His precious gift of eternal life, through faith in the gift of His dear Son!

1.3.12 Salvation Is Either By Grace Or Works, But Not Both (2020-07-10 11:30)

Romans 11:1-6, "I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

I love that passage of Scripture. The apostle Paul is writings to the Gentile believer at Rome. He teaches them about Israel. God has not cast away His people. In 586 BC, God delivered Israel into the cruel hands of Nebuchadnezzar and the Babylonians. It was the third and final invasion of Jerusalem by the Babylonians.

War is a cruel thing! I have studied war much throughout history, crying often as I read about the atrocities inflicted by one human being against another. Most of the Jewish men were slaughtered by Babylon when Jerusalem was conquered. The people were tortured and killed by the sword. Many of the women and girls were gang raped by the soldiers. Their homes were burned to the ground. Several thousand surviving Jews were taken captive as slaves, marched 400 miles east to Babylon.

These type of brutalities exist in all wars.

During World War II, between 1945 and 1949, o ver 125,000 women were brutally raped, many of whom commit suicide. Some were forced by their own fathers to commit suicide, in disgrace and shame. Over [1]10,000 German women in Berlin died as a result of sexual abuse by soldiers . This is the ugly reality of the human race at its worst without God!

Since 586 BC, Israel has no longer existed as a sovereign nation. God divorced Israel because of her habitual adultery with false gods (Jeremiah 3:8). The apostle Paul teaches in Romans 11:1-6 that God has not abandoned His people, but has made a way to come back, but only through faith. Elijah was depressed and thought he was the only saint left in the land, but God told Elijah that He had 7,000 more saints, who had not bowed their knee a whoring after Baal. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” Jesus didn’t say you must be willing to

repent of your sin

” to have eternal life, he simply said to BELIEVE ON ME!!! Do you believe dear reader? Is all your hope in the finished redemptive work of Christ? Mine is! If I go to Hell it will be Jesus’ fault, because I am completely trusting Him, because He died on the cross for my sins, was buried, and physically resurrected 72 hours later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is “ the simplicity that is in Christ

(2nd Corinthians 11:3b). It is simple, easy and free to be saved. To be saved

” is synonymous in the Bible with being “ born again,

redeemed,

” “

converted

” or “a child of God.”

If you are saved, you are a redeemed saint of God. Amen!

We’re not saved by works, nor are we kept saved by works! God’s gift is salvation, not probation! The only kind of life God gives is eternal life, not temporary life or probationary life.

I am heartbroken as I hear popular and trusted preachers corrupt the Gospel. Case in point is [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), who denies the doctrine of eternal security. On January 26, 2020 at BJU, he told 2,700 students:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL . And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[3]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

Dr. Pettit is a false prophet, who teaches that you CANNOT KNOW you are 100 % saved, until you finish the race when you get to Heaven. There are no Biblical requirements or stipulations on how you have to live to get to Heaven, otherwise salvation cannot be by God's grace!

Mr. Pettit further heretically states:

> "So when we talk about 'The Race,' what are we talking about? We're talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—"I GOT SAVED ," but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven." —Dr. Steve Pettit ([4]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 10:27)

That is a corrupt plan of salvation, which superficially professes the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone, but then perverts the Gospel by requiring discipleship in order to be saved. Salvation must be by grace and by grace alone!!! God's grace is UNMERITED. If you cannot say, "I HAVE IT," then you don't understand or posses it! Anyone who clearly understands what Christ did on the cross will not have a problem with eternal security. When they understand THE GOSPEL, they will not have a problem with eternal security! Eternal security is not a separate doctrine from salvation, IT IS SALVATION!!! Those who do not know they are saved forever, usually do not know they were saved to start with! If you've ever been saved, you still are saved!!! No amount of fear, worry or doubt can nullify your eternal life!!! IF SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!!

Romans 11:1-6 teaches that God has reserved a remnant of Israel, all born-again Jews, saved by faith alone. No unsaved Jew will ever enter into Heaven, and no believing Gentile will ever enter into Hell. The Bible teaches that Jews and Gentiles alike are saved by faith. Gentiles are adopted into Abraham's seed. Literally, if you are saved as a Gentile, you are a spiritual Jew. ...

Galatians 3:26-29, "

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise*.

It matters not whether you are a Jew or a Gentile, the Messiah Himself said: "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"

(John 3:7). My mother was Swedish. My father was English.

Stewart

is an English name. As far as I know, I am fully a Gentile; yet the Bible says I am of the seed of Abraham, because we share God as our heavenly Father.

Romans 2:28-29, " For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

The Bible is so simple. God's promise of blessings ALWAYS followed a line of faith in the Bible, and so it is the same today. Many Jewish people think they are guaranteed eternal life merely because they are biologically, to some extent, Jewish. But the Bible says one is NOT a Jew, who is one OUTWARDLY, but INWARDLY, by faith in Jesus Christ. Do you have the only begotten Son of God dear friend? If you do, you have eternal life; if you don't, you don't have life, but the wrath of God abideth on you (John 3:36).

1st John 5:20, " And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life." I love that! JESUS IS THE TRUE GOD AND ETERNAL LIFE!!! Jesus is God and eternal life!!! You cannot accept Jesus Christ and not have eternal life, it is IMPOSSIBLE!!!

1.3.13 Salvation Doesn't Require Leaving All To Follow Jesus (2020-07-10 14:05)

Matthew 19:21-30, "Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

This is one of the most misunderstood passages in the Holy Bible. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. In the following quote from Evangelist Paul Washer, who is a heretical Calvinist (and so also is Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pacific Garden Mission's Unshackled, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur), he perverts the Gospel by applying Matthew 19:27 ("we have left everything and followed you" ) to redemption.

At first glance, Matthew 19:21-30 can seem frightening to a free grace believer, shaking our faith and making us question if perhaps we were wrong. It sure does seem like Jesus is teaching Lordship Salvation, doesn't it? Dear reader, nothing could be further from the truth. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." Carefully notice in Matthew 19:27 that the Apostle Peter is BOASTING of his own good works

Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

You must keep in mind that Jesus just rebuked the rich young ruler for trying to earn his way to Heaven. The Lord wasn't giving that young man a plan of salvation (as the Lordship Salvation crowd foolishly think), Jesus was using the law the way it was intended to be used, to show the young man that he was NOT GOOD ENOUGH to get to Heaven by his own merit. When the Lord told him to go sell everything he owned, and give it to the poor, the rich young ruler went away very sad. The Lord afterwards told his DISCIPLES that it would be easier to thread a needle with a camel, than for a rich men to go to Heaven. The disciples responded by asking in verse 25, “Who then can be saved?” Jesus replied by saying that it is IMPOSSIBLE with men, but with God all things are possible (John 1:12-13).

The context of this seemingly difficult passage is very clear—no one can keep the law to be saved, salvation is of the Lord, it is the free gift of God. We must remember that Peter is still ignorant of theology, and is asking ignorant questions. The Lord had just told the young man to go sell everything he owned, and give it to the poor, if he wanted to perfectly keep the law of Moses to be saved. So now Peter is thinking, “Hey, I’ve given up everything, so what am I going to get out of all this?” The Lord beautifully responds by assuring the disciples, that in addition to their salvation (which is by faith alone), they will inherit all things as God’s child, and also be rewarded by God for their sacrificial service for Him (Matthew 10:42; 1st Corinthians 3:6-9). Revelation 21:7, “ He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.” Romans 8:32b promises that in addition to His only begotten Son, God will give the saints **“

ALL THINGS

” in eternity. That is what Jesus was teaching His disciples in Matthew 19:21-20. It is sad that the advocates of Lordship Salvation pervert this passage, as they wrestle the whole Bible, to their own destruction:

> 2nd Peter 3:16-17,
> “As also in all his [Paul’s] epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.”

Please do not be led away with [1]the error of Bob Jones University, which has been infiltrated and [2]taken over by infidels. I hope by God’s grace dear friend that I have made Matthew 19:21-30 easy for you to understand. The very fact that Peter is boasting of following Christ, ought to tell us that this cannot be the way of salvation, because it would contradict Ephesians 2:8-9 that salvation is by grace through faith WITHOUT WORKS! The Lordship Salvation gang (i.e., Calvinists), all twist and pervert the Holy Scriptures. The Bob Jones’ camp are arrogant beyond belief today, stiffnecked and full of sinful pride. Their leaders all get paid lucrative 6-digit salaries (including Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron and John MacArthur). Dr. MacArthur’s net worth is $14,000,000. Spiritual crime pays well! Their arrogance will cease when they stand before God someday (Hebrews 9:27). Lordship Salvation is a perversion of grace, and is not the Gospel taught in the Gospel of John.

When Jesus spoke with the rich young ruler, He was talking with an unsaved person; but afterwards the Lord spoke with His disciples , who were already saved by faith. So we need to keep this in mind when interpreting such Scripture passages. To whom was the Lord speaking, to the saved or unsaved? In the case of Matthew 19:21-30, Jesus was speaking to the saved. It is gross theological incompetence for anyone, like Paul Washer, to apply this passage to the free gift of eternal life, which is received by faith alone in the dear Savior.

In closing, if you'll go back to view the photo and quote I shared with you earlier by Evangelist Paul Washer, you'll see that he says salvation requires following Jesus "

AT ALL COSTS.

" Dear reader, Jesus paid your debt of sin on the cross with His precious blood, because you owed a massive debt that you simply could not pay! THERE IS NO COST TO RECEIVE GOD'S FREE GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE!!! Paul Washer is a dingleberry for a theologian! If you and I were to pay for our own sins, to repay the wages of sin that we owe, we'd have to burn and suffer in the torments of Hell-fire forever and ever. If you don't understand that, it is only because you fail to grasp just how holy and righteous God is, and how much He absolutely cannot allow or tolerate sin (1st Corinthians 6:9-11; James 2:10).

The full payment for your sins has been made dear friend (1st Peter 1:18-19). Your gift of eternal life is waiting for you to come get it, which is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus Christ! With mere childlike faith, if you'll simply come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and three days later physically resurrected from the dead, you will be immediately and permanently saved! This is "The Gospel" (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), by which we are saved, to them that believe (Romans 1:16). You have God's Word on it! John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

1.3.14 Problem With Eternal Security Is Problem With Gospel (2020-07-11 12:00)

John 6:47-50, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life.

Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die."

If you have a problem with eternal security, you have a problem with the Gospel. I thank God that I am on the right side of truth. There is much debate in the churches today regarding how to be saved. As an independent fundamentalist Baptist preacher, and moreover a born-again Christian, I am particularly concerning about my own Baptist camp. Tragically, the Devil has crept many tares (unsaved people) into the churches, bringing in a counterfeit gospel of turning from sins and Lordship Salvation to receive God's free gift. Something is wrong with most of our churches; they are sick, they are compromised, they are complicit, they are indifferent and they are dying.

In our text passage Jesus said that He is the "

BREAD OF LIFE.

" Whosoever eats the bread come down from Heaven will never die. I love that! Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6). Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught that we must live a certain way to get to Heaven. When should a person KNOW that they have eternal life? At one point in your Christian life can a person KNOW that they are saved. Dear reader, you should KNOW IMMEDIATELY when you get saved, that you have eternal security. It is very important that you understand dear friend, that eternal security and eternal life are not two separate teachings in the Bible, they are one and the SAME doctrine! When you accept Christ you have eternal life. The moment you have the Son, you are saved forever! The Son and eternal life are THE SAME. You cannot have the Son without having eternal life!!! To have the Son is to have eternal life!!! You can and should KNOW that you have the guarantee (the PROMISE) of eternal life immediately upon accepting Jesus as your Savior!

I am heartbroken as I hear popular and trusted preachers corrupt the Gospel. Case in point is [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), who denies the doctrine of eternal security. On January 26, 2020 at BJU, he told 2,700 students:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL . And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[2]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Dr. Pettit is a false prophet, who teaches that you CANNOT KNOW you are 100 % saved, until you finish the race when you get to Heaven. There are no Biblical requirements or stipulations on how you have to live to get to Heaven, otherwise salvation cannot be by God's grace!

Mr. Pettit further heretically states:

> "So when we talk about 'The Race,' what are we talking about? We're talking about beginning and salvation, and then running the race through pursuing holiness and ministry, and service to others. But then let me say, that number three: This race HAS TO be faithfully run to the finish! You HAVE TO finish. Salvation is not just a past reality—"I GOT SAVED," but is a future destiny! The race is not completed until you cross the finish line at death. What is this race—it is the race as we are running as we are headed toward Heaven." —Dr. Steve Pettit ([3]"What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 10:27)

That is a corrupt plan of salvation, which superficially professes the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone, but then perverts the Gospel by requiring discipleship in order to be saved. Salvation must be by grace and by grace alone!!! God's grace is UNMERITED. If you cannot say, "I HAVE IT," then you don't understand or posses it! You and I do not understand that God does not see the way we see. It sounds logical that we should have to be willing to turn from our sins to be saved, but that is not how God sees it. We cannot save ourselves. Eternal life is the free gift of God, and there are no obligations, conditions or stipulations. Simply receive His gift by faith, by placing your childlike trust (reliance) in the risen Savior's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. It's that easy and simple!

Beware of anyone who questions or denies the Bible doctrine of eternal security.

1.3.15 The Story Of Cornelius Shows The Simplicity Of Salvation (2020-07-12 10:30)

Acts 10:1-4, "There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. "

I love the story of Cornelius in the Bible. Cornelius was a good man—a religious man—who feared God, prayed, fasted and gave alms to the poor; yet, he was a lost man without Jesus Christ. This is a very important lesson to learn. You can be a devout religious person all your life, yet still go to Hell to burn when you die, to suffer forever for your sins. Sin must be paid for (Romans 6:23; 5:12). Jesus warned that in the future, many religious people will not be allowed into Heaven. Matthew 7:22-23,

"Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. " They followed Jesus as their sovereign Master, even calling Him "

Lord, Lord.

" This is the error of the proponents of Lordship Salvation today, who believe that salvation requires full surrender to Christ's Lordship. Yet, Jesus will one day say to them the horrifying words, "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

In Matthew 7:20-21 we read what they did wrong to miss Heaven, "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

" The will of the Father is to submit to His righteousness, through faith in Jesus Christ. Romans 10:2-4,

"For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The Old Testament LAW shows humanity our sinfulness and need for redemption, and then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by God's grace (Galatians 3:24-26).

Let's read about Cornelius' conversion:

> Acts 10:39-44, " And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:
>
> Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;
>
> Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.
>
> And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.
>
> To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. ”

When a person gets saved, God’s Holy Spirit comes inside their body to indwell them (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). That is why we just read that the Holy Spirit fell upon them that heard the Gospel Peter preached, because they BELIEVED it! This is why the apostle Paul asked in Galatians 3:2, “

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? ” Paul had been informed that a religious cult infiltrated the church at Galatia, teaching another gospel of keeping the deeds of the law for salvation (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3). So Paul writes to them, asking them how they got the Holy Spirit. Was it by works, or by the hearing of faith? I love that phrase... THE HEARING OF FAITH. This shows the simplicity of salvation.

If you read the beautiful story of Cornelius, you’ll find that the apostle Peter never tells them to do anything to be saved, He simply told the GOOD NEWS of Jesus who died on the cross, was buried, and physically resurrected

Carefully notice that:

- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to follow Jesus.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to surrender all to God.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to get water baptized.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to make Jesus his Lord.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to join a church.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to get religion.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to publicly confess Christ as his Savior.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to invite Jesus into his heart.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to start a relationship with Jesus.
- Peter didn’t tell Cornelius to change his life.

- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to turn away from his sins.
- Peter didn't tell Cornelius to forsake the world.

In fact, Peter DIDN'T TELL CORNELIUS TO DO ANYTHING!!! Peter simply told the story of Jesus of Nazareth, Who went about doing good and healing the sick, but the unbelieving Jews had Him crucified on a cross for our sins. Jesus bled and DIED on the cross. He was BURIED. And then Christ miraculously RESURRECTED bodily from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel" [i.e., Good News] according to the Holy Scriptures:

In Acts 10:30-45 Peter said that anyone who believes on the name of Jesus, Who died on the cross for our sins and raised up the third day, shall receive a pardon for their sins. That was the simple Gospel message, which Cornelius simply and quietly BELIEVED and was immediately saved. Amen!!! Whew, that's good stuff! Peter never told Cornelius to do anything to be saved, he simply preached the Gospel of Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and bodily resurrection the third day. The very moment that Cornelius believed, he was forever born-again and saved. The hardest part about salvation for people to understand is that you get it by DOING NOTHING!!! You simply REST COMPLETELY in the finished work of Jesus Christ, and then God does the saving... ALL OF IT!!!

The only "work" that we can do to be saved is to run to Jesus as our Savior. We do this by believing that Jesus is Who He claimed to be... THE CHRIST! John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Believe the Good News of Christ crucified and risen! John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." There is absolutely nothing that we can do to save ourselves, or even help save ourselves. We are all dirty, filthy, sinners, in need of the Savior. Jesus paid our debt of sin. Christ paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt that we could not pay. Praise God, JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If you receive the Gospel as full-payment for your sins, you are saved.

This is such a beautiful passage of Scripture in Acts 10:30-45. The Apostle Peter never told Cornelius to do one thing to be saved. Peter never told Cornelius to “turn away from sins” (a popular heresy taught in today’s apostate churches). In fact, Peter never mentioned the word “repent” to Cornelius. You won’t find even one mention of the words “repent” or “repentance” in Acts chapter 10. Could the Bible be any clearer that the man who believes has repented? I think not. Peter just shared the ’Good News’ of Christ crucified and risen the third day; Cornelius believed and was saved. It’s that simple to be saved. For many of you, this truth has no doubt opened your eyes to the level of doctrinal corruption in today’s churches. Anytime you hear someone telling you all the different things you must do to be saved, you know they are deceived by Satan! Just believe and the work is done!

1.3.16 Does Acts 3:26 Teach Lordship Salvation? No! (2020-07-12 17:05)

Acts 3:25-26, “ Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.”

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

At a glance this passage may shake the faith of some free grace Gospel believers. Did we get the Gospel wrong? Is the Lordship Salvation crowd right after all? This passage from Acts 3:26 is one of their go-to Scripture passages, in the lame attempt to justify a false gospel. They do “wrest” (Greek: strebloo—to torture by the rack) the Scriptures to their own destruction. 2nd Peter 3:16, “As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which *they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.” It is not a light matter to God that John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Adrian Rogers, Paul Washer and countless other Calvinists, pervert the Holy Scriptures to complicate God’s grace into something He never intended for it to be—[1]hard and difficult!

So what does Acts 3:26 mean?

Again, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. It shows poor Bible study skills when someone bases a doctrine on one particular passage of Scripture, while ignoring the rest of the Bible. Please consider the following Scripture passages:

Matthew 1:21, " And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. "

Luke 1:76-77, " And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins," Ephesians 2:5-10, " Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast*. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

In hundreds of Bible references throughout the inspired Word of God, we are taught that salvation is simply by faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31). We trust Jesus because He died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried, and three days later He resurrected bodily from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The only requirement to be saved is to recognize your need as a guilty sinner for redemption (Romans 3:19-20), and that redemption is found only by faith in Jesus Christ our Savior (Galatians 3:24-26; 1st Timothy 4:10).

Acts 3:26 simply means that God sent His only begotten Son to SAVE US FROM OUR SINS. Matthew 1:21, "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins." The Bible is not teaching in Acts 3:26 that turning away from the act of sinning is required to be saved. That would be WORKS! That would be KEEPING THE DEEDS OF THE LAW for salvation. Romans 3:20,

"Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. " The LAW and the GOSPEL are two keys—the law is the key that shuteth up all men under condemnation, and the Gospel is the key which opens the door and lets them out. Acts 3:26 simply means that Jesus has the key to open the door, to free men from the condemnation that their sins bring upon them! Let's read our intriguing text passage again, shall we:

> Acts 3:25-26, "Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities."

Carefully notice WHO does the turning... JESUS! Contrary to the Lordship Salvation heresy which demands that YOU turn from your sins to be saved, the Bible teaches that JESUS came to save us from our sins. The man who repents "TOWARD GOD" (Acts 20:21), has turned his back against his sins. That doesn't mean he is going to forsake them, it simply means that he has recognized his sinnership, as a guilty sinner under the condemnation of God's law, and as a needy sinner he turns to Christ to be saved by faith alone. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

" It is very important to learn in the preceding Bible passage, that the purpose of the law is not to convince men to forsake living in sin; but rather, to BELIEVE the 'Good News' (Gospel) of the Lord Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen, to be forgiven of your sins.

In Acts 3:25, “thy seed” does not refer to the Jews (Israel), but to Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:16). Zionism is a doctrine of devils which has infected many churches today, removing the emphasis from THE GOSPEL, and instead placing it upon ISRAEL. God promised to bless all the nations of the earth in Jesus Christ, through the saving power of the Gospel. God sent Jesus to the Jews first with the Gospel (Romans 1:16). Jesus didn’t come to tell us to forsake our sins to be saved; but rather, He came to die on the cross to pay our debt of sin, to save us from our sins, so that we wouldn’t be enslaved to our sins anymore. ...

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved*.”

Over and over in the Word of God, we are taught that Jesus came to SAVE US, not to reform us! Turning from one’s sins is reformation, not regeneration! Let’s define a few terms:

- Penitence - sorrow for one’s sins
- Penance - making a mend for one’s sins
- Reformation - turning from one’s sins
- Repentance - a change of mind
- Regeneration - the new birth

Penitence, penance and reformation are NOT required for salvation, but may indeed accompany or follow one’s faith. Carefully notice in the next passage of Scripture that as believers “WE SHOULD” live for Christ, not MUST, not WILL, but “ SHOULD

” ...

Titus 2:11-13, " For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; "

Acts 3:26 seems like a doctrinally tricky passage, but if we compare Scripture with Scripture, and refuse to base a doctrine upon one single passage, then we can only logically conclude that this passage refers to the saving work of Jesus Christ. Acts 3:26b, "having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities."

It was God the Father who SENT JESUS TO BLESS YOU, in turning us from our sins!!! This is no way mandates forsaking sins to receive God's free gift of eternal life, it simply means that when God saves a sinner, He begins to sanctify that individual. No born-again believer can live in willful sin without God's hand of chastisement upon their life (Hebrews 12:6-8). God is not an absent parent, He will chastise His saints.

Proverbs 3:12, "

For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

God did not save us just to rescue us from the fires of Hell. God has a plan and a purpose for our life (Philippians 2:13). The Lord said "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly

" (John 10:10b). God wants every believer to forsake iniquity in their life.

2nd Timothy 2:19, "

Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity. " No saint can live above sin, but we can try to live above reproach, and SHOULD live for Christ. But we must never alter God's simple plan of salvation in a sinful attempt to coerce people to forsake their sinful ways. To do so guarantees a ticket to Hell! You're either 100 % trusting what Jesus did on the cross to pay for your sins, or else you're not saved at all.

Fake preachers who teach that you must trust Jesus, but you must also pay the “ cost

” of surrendering everything to Christ as “LORD,” are of the Devil. They say, “LORD, LORD,” but they do not the will of the Father, which is to believe on the Son of God and nothing else (John 6:40). [2]Evangelist Steve Pettit says it will cost you. Dr. Pettit is a false prophet!!! [3]Pastor Paul Washer says God’s free gift will cost you! He is a theological liar! [4]Pastor John MacArthur says God’s free gift will cost you! Dr. MacArthur has been inspired by demons! Did you know that these heretical men are all in agreement with the cult of the Jehovah’s Witnesses? It is true! The JW’s falsely teach:

> —[5]What Must We Do To Be Saved? - Watchtower

That is exactly what Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, R.C. Sproul, Ray Comfort, Adrian Rogers, Kirk Cameron, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University, and other hellbound Calvinists and heretics are teaching nowadays!!! YOU DON’T HAVE TO TURN FROM YOUR SINS TO BE SAVED, JESUS CAME TO TURN YOU FROM YOUR SINS, BY HIS SACRIFICE ON THE CROSS!!!

The ungodly proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy, need to stop perverting the Gospel of free grace in order to force people to try to forsake their sins, and allow God to raise His children! Eternal life is the free gift of God, which you simply receive by faith. Getting saved is free, easy, simple and instantaneous if you want it oh sinner!

John 11:25-26, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

” This verse simply means that we have eternal life abiding in us, because we are alive in Christ by believing in Him. Do you believe dear friend?

1.3.17 The Danger Of Adding To Saving Faith Alone (2020-07-13 10:00)

Galatians 3:24-26, " Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

The Gospel is so delicate that it is easily corrupted. We are all guilty and needy sinners (Romans 3:10-23). The "

Gospel

(or

) is simply that Jesus Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He physically RESURRECTED three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anybody who places childlike FAITH (reliance) in this is saved. Faith is all that God requires! Our text passage from Galatians 3:26 simply says,

" For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." In hundreds of Scripture passages we are taught that salvation is BY FAITH.

But along comes a spider, a thief, a liar, a false prophet, a [1]Bob Jones University Bible professor —who ADDS the unbiblical requirement to “REPENT OF YOUR SIN,”

TURN FROM YOUR SINS,

” or “BE WILLING TO TURN FROM YOUR SINS”

to be saved! These are all another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth (regeneration).

The [2]following helpful words are from The Middletown Bible Church in Middletown, Connecticut. I thank God for their faithful pastor and church for contending for the Christian faith. ...

> In recent years many Reformed men have been strongly promoting what has been called "Lordship Salvation." Essentially Lordship salvation teaches that simple faith in Jesus Christ is not enough for salvation. Something else is needed. A solid commitment to Christ is needed. A person needs to surrender to the Lordship of Christ. A willingness to obey Christ’s commands is a necessary condition. Also the sinner must fulfill the demands of discipleship or at least be willing to fulfill them in order to have eternal life.

> We must never forget that a person is saved because he throws himself upon the mercy of a loving Savior who died for him. It is not our COMMITMENT that saves us; it is our CHRIST who saves us! It is not our SURRENDER that saves us; it is our Savior who does! It is not what I do for God; it is what God has done for me.

We need to avoid the dangerous error of taking what should be the RESULT of salvation and making it the REQUIREMENT for salvation:

- It is because I am saved that I surrender to His Lordship.

- It is because I am saved that I follow Him in willing obedience.

- It is because I am saved that I agree to the terms of discipleship.

- It is because I am saved that I submit to His authority over every area of my life.

Behavior and fruit are the evidences of saving faith but they are not the essence of saving faith. Don't confuse the fruit with the root. Because we are justified freely by His grace we measure up to the full demands of God's righteousness in Christ (2 Cor. 5:21); because we are frail we often fail to measure up to the full demands of discipleship (Luke 14:25–33, etc.). The requirements of discipleship are many; the requirement for salvation is simple faith and trust in the Savior.

My commitment to Jesus Christ does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My surrender to His Lordship does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My obedience to His Word does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My love for the Savior does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My ability or lack of ability to fulfill all the demands of discipleship does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE. My behavior (conduct) does not save me. CHRIST SAVES ME BY HIS GRACE.

God’s saving grace is to be found in the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ. He alone can satisfy God’s holiness and righteousness! Eternal life is not something that we earn or achieve by our faithful living throughout our Christian life. Instead, it is a free gift that we receive at the moment we first believe in Christ. This LIFE is the present possession of every believer: "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life" (1 John 5:12; all verbs are in the present tense).

Have you been justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus? Is your hope built upon what you have done or is your hope based upon Jesus’ blood and righteousness? "I dare not trust the sweetest frame, but WHOLLY LEAN ON JESUS’ NAME!" May we be standing fully on Christ the solid Rock, not upon the sinking sand of our own fragile commitment.

Beware of the Devil’s lie that you must “ repent of your sin

” or

“turn from your sinful ways” to be saved. You get saved by believing the Gospel, not by turning from anything! I’ve heard some sincerely deceived Baptist pastors defend the wrong repentance crowd, saying that you have to turn FROM something in order to turn TO Christ. Well, if a person accepts Jesus as their personal Savior, who cares what they have turned from, because they are now saved (which shows that they have repented, i.e., changed their mind). Lordship Salvation and the Wrong Repentance are not always the same thing. I have met pastors who refute Lordship Salvation, but promote wrong repentance; however, both doctrines of devils promote the same evil of ADDING to faith alone.

The Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance crowd say you must “turn from your sin” as an ADDITIONAL step to saving faith. The Bible teaches that repentance and faith are simply two parts of ONE ACT OF BELIEVING (Acts 20:21). Repentance is simple the recognition of one’s self as a needy sinner, which compels us to place our faith in the Gospel. Repentance does not mean to forsake the world, turn from sinful bad habits, nor be willing to turn from one’s sins. To “repent” simply means

a change of mind

”—a change of mind from WRONG THINKING of what I want to do to get to Heaven, to what God says I must do to get to Heaven.

This is what Hebrews 6:1 means by repentance from “ DEAD WORKS.

” All works are dead works! Keeping the law (effectively the same as turning from your sins) is dead works!!! Good works and bad works are DEAD WORKS! You don’t get saved by doing good works, nor do you get saved by turning away from bad works, you get saved by RESTING in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

” How ironic it is then, that so many false teachers today require lost sinners to repent (turn) from their sin

to be saved. As we just read in Hebrews 4:10-11, salvation requires CEASING FROM OUR OWN WORKS!!! That means you DON’T have to turn from your sins to be saved, which would be self-righteousness (i.e., human reformation). Either God does the saving —ALL OF IT—or else we don’t go to Heaven

1.3.18 God Intended Salvation To Be Free, Easy And Simple (2020-07-14 09:30)

I grew up around Skid Row, tagging along with my preacher father to various rescue missions in downtown Chicago. How does Steve Petite's perverted plan of salvation relate to people on Skid Row? To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything starts looking like a nail sticking up! In Steve Pettit's cushy little religious world, making a 6-digit salary as executive president of BJU, a snob's life, it may seem rational that salvation means living the Christian life. However, to a poor man on Skid Row who has lost everything in his existence, and whose only companion is a booze bottle, it is absurd to even attempt to apply Steve Pettit's high-brow, rich man oriented, running the race bullcrap plan of salvation! What a sad farce!!! The true Gospel reaches down in humility to those broken men in the gutter, offering them eternal life as a free gift, in exchange for nothing more than their faith in the only begotten Son of God.

There is no nutty requirement for those men in the depths of sin to "faithfully run 'The Race'," nor that they "persevere" in holiness, ministry and in service to others! Mr. Pettit's bogus religious teachings are for the wealthy and snobby elite, not the common man. The Biblical Gospel is no more complicated than a father giving his son a bicycle for his birthday! It's a done deal. That son doesn't have to faithfully ride the bicycle for the rest of his life to obtain it! The Devil has blinded preachers by influencing them with religion. The problem is that preachers no longer "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES."

Instead they listen to corrupt preachers, and become indoctrinated with the poison of heretics like John MacArthur (which Moody Church in Chicago promotes), Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, R.C. Sproul and Steve Pettit! Calvinism, the "turn from sins" heresy to be saved, and Lordship Salvation, are far more deadly and contagious than the Coronavirus!!!

There is no fear, worry or uncertainty in the correct Gospel message—you simply come to God as a needy sinner, believing the 'Good News' of Jesus Christ' crucified, buried and risen—and you are immediately, irrevocably, safely, securely and eternally saved!!! Eternal life is the believer's eternal security! Once saved always saved!!! [1]Listen to the blatant heresy Evangelist Ray Comfort Tells these people , followed by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preaching the truth!

[2]Evangelist Ravi Zacharias (1946-2020) wins the prize for the most vague, boring and wishy-washy preacher in history! I can listen to him for an hour and have no clue what he is trying to say! I think Dr. Sam Horn comes in second, the Vice President of Bob Jones University. I'll take Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) any day! Tragically, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (a pseudo independent Baptist church) invited and honored Ravi Zacharias in June of 2017, bidding him Godspeed. Ravi's sinister ministry took in $47,353,235 in 2016! Not bad for an evil ecumenical ministry of sinful compromise, watered-down truth, and Satanic support of Mormonism. From listening to Ravi present his plan of salvation, it is very clear to me that he [3]doesn't really know how to be saved. To me it appears to be all about the money!

[4]The Psychological Effects And Trauma Caused By Lordship Salvation (it eliminates all hope!!)

Ravi suggests that his audience pray a prayer, giving 12 things for them to repeat, NONE OF WHICH include Jesus' death on the cross, burial or resurrection. Gospel preacher? You decide! I have nothing personal against Mr. Zacharias, God knows my heart, but why does a preacher need $47,353,235 a year? That is unethical at best, and utterly sinful for a professed man of God (1st Timothy 6:10-11). Ravi is pulling on the same rope as the Devil, which is why the heathen religious world loves him so much. Luke 6:26, "Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets." Everywhere that Ravi travels to speak, the apostate religious world loves him, because he preaches a vague message of acceptance by God through sincerely giving your heart to Jesus, which is NOT the Gospel. You can give your heart to Jesus like the people did in Matthew 7:21-23 and go straight to Hell when you die! You had better get BORN-AGAIN by faith alone as a guilty sinner in the 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)!

> “Repentance don’t save you. Calling on the Lord don’t save you. You know what saves you? Receiving what Christ done for you on the cross!” —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the needful MP3 sermon, "[5]WHY THERE’S A HELL!”

Amen! The Bible teaches that a person can be saved immediately, and know it immediately! You don’t have to wait to prove anything to yourself and anyone else. There is no probationary period to see how you live in order to determine if someone is saved. The Bible calls eternal life a “FREE GIFT” (Romans 5:15b). 1st John 5:20 says that JESUS IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! If you have Jesus as your Savior, then you have eternal life!

You don’t have to live in torment anymore dear friend. God wants you to KNOW, beyond any shadow of a doubt whatsoever, that you have been born-again and have eternal life dwelling in you. You have God’s solemn PROMISE, recorded in black and white in the inspired King James Bible. John 11:25, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:” Simply believe on the only begotten Son of God as your Savior! Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.”

The corrupted Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are upset with me for exposing their hero, [6]Dr. Steve Pettit, for the FALSE PROPHET that he truly is; but they will answer to God for bidding Godspeed to such a wicked man, who preaches another gospel of works!!! 2nd John 1:11, “For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.” Woe unto Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for promoting corruptible seed, bidding Godspeed to false prophets, preaching the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, and ostracizing me for telling THE TRUTH as a true friend does (Romans 14:10; Galatians 4:16). [7]Go read Bob Jones University’s website, where they openly require people to turn from sins to be saved. That is another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). I say that with God’s love, because I do love them all so much. The truth offends them! If anyone needs to repent of their sins, it is the corrupted, stick-necked, bewitched, Bob Jones’ crowd!

Beware of anyone who comes along saying that you must make full surrender, faithfully run the race, persevere in holiness, follow Jesus as "Lord," turn from sinful ways, or anything else that ADDS to the Gospel of free grace, for they are preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

[8]Listen to Evangelist Ray Comfort complicate the Gospel, adding forsaking personal sins as a requirement to be saved. I made a compilation of three YouTube video clips, and then followed it with Dr. Jack Hyles preaching the truth about salvation to refute Mr. Comfort. Ladies and gentleman, we are engaged in raging spiritual war today over the Gospel and the inspired Word of God (Ephesians 6:12-13). I encourage you if you are saved to start a [9]Google blog. You can write your own articles, or share the truth you learn from others. Blogs are completely free! I also encourage you to perhaps make and upload YouTube videos. At a minimum, you can download and re-upload helpful videos that aren't copyrighted to your own channel to preserve and promote. You can download videos as MP4 files with a free program called "

[10]4K Downloader.

" I use it all the time and like it a lot. Let's share the truth!

Anyone who fears, worries or has uncertainties about being saved, is either unlearned of the Holy Scriptures, or you've been horribly deceived by the Devil's sinister ministers! The truth of the Gospel gives perfect peace to those who believe it! As a final help, I'd like to share two of my favorite sermons with you by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) titled: '[11]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?'

1.3.19 Shall We Continue In Sin That Grace May Abound? (2020-07-15 11:00)

Romans 5:19-21 and 6:1-4, "For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

It is important to keep in mind that there were no chapter divisions in the original Word of God. The New Testament was written in all capital letters, in the Koine Greek language. Religious men later added the chapter divisions, to help organize the Scripture. In most cases this is fine and dandy, but if we're not careful we may miss out on the proper and full interpretation of a passage. Such is the case with our text passage of Scripture. To understand chapter 6, we need to go back and also include chapter 5 of Romans. In fact, if you read the above passage of Scripture, you'd never know that there was a chapter break in there somewhere. So keep this truth in mind, and it will greatly enhance your understanding of the Scripture, and make your Bible studies even more interesting!

The moment that a person gets saved, they become DEAD TO SIN! What does that mean? Well, before someone is saved, God's LAW condemns them, because we are all guilty of breaking God's law (Romans 3:19). Remember, God wrote His Ten Commandments in stone, because we can break them, but we cannot bend or change them! Moses was the only one who ever broke all of God's Commandments at once...lol. When a person receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, receiving the free gift of God, then we are forever UNDER GRACE, and no longer under the LAW. In that sense, we are dead to sin, because sin no longer has the power to condemn us!

That is why the dear Apostle Paul could proclaim in 1st Corinthians 15:55-56, "O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law." In other words, dying in one's sins brings the sting of eternal damnation in Hell! But Jesus paid our sin debt, and the child of God has been redeemed by Jesus' precious blood of the cross, so the stinger is gone!!! Death to the saint has NO STING! We have no fear of dying, because we are under God's saving grace! Boy this is great stuff!!!

Christ Is The End Of The Law For The Believer

That is what it means in Romans 3:4, "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." There were approximately 720 laws in the Old Testament (i.e., moral, ceremonial, civil) which a Jew was required to keep to get to Heaven. Since no one has ever perfectly kept the law of God, we all need a perfect Savior instead. That perfect Savior is Jesus Christ! 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe."

Romans 10:4 says that " CHRIST IS THE END OF THE LAW " (for righteousness for every one that believes). This simply means that faith in Jesus Christ is COUNTED in place of a lifetime of perfectly keeping the law. Once a person receives Jesus as their personal Savior, that is the end of the law, as far as trying to keep it to be saved. Faith in Christ fulfills the law 100 %! If a man fails to perfectly keep the law, God allows him to simply place His trust in the Messiah instead, and that person's faith is accepted in place of keeping the law. Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." This very same plan of salvation exists today, and this is how we get saved. This has always been, is now, and always will be God's only plan of salvation for humanity. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

God's Amazing Grace Abounds Over All Sin

Having explained these fundamental truths, now we can make heads and tails out of these beautiful statements in the Scripture:

Romans 5:20b, “But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:”

Romans 6:1b, “Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?”

I love those Bible verses! When a Christian believer sins, we always fall IN GRACE, never FROM GRACE! Only the Christ-rejecter can fall FROM GRACE. Galatians 5:4, “Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.” Who is fallen from grace? It is the person who foolishly attempts to be justified BY THE KEEPING OF THE LAW (Romans 3:20). The reason why is obvious, because NO ONE has ever successfully kept the law perfectly. We are all woeful sinners, both by nature and by choice! At salvation our POSITION in Christ is forever settled, solely dependent upon God’s faithfulness, as His redeemed child; but our CONDITION in Christ depends solely upon our faithfulness, as we obey God’s Commandments day-by-day.

The main reason I wrote this article is to emphasis the wonderful truth that WHEN WE DO SIN, God’s amazing GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND. Romans 6:1, “What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?” I love that! I love that! I love that! Paul is saying that the believers CANNOT LOSE SALVATION! When we sin (and we all do every day, whether in dead or thought, sins of commission or commission), God’s GRACE ABOUNDS! It is absolutely impossible that any born-again child of God, could ever sin greater than God’s grace abounds! This is a remarkable Bible passage teaching the Eternal Security of the believer.

Paul makes an appeal, that just because we are now UNDER GRACE, doesn’t make it okay to live a life of sin. But if we do, GRACE WILL ABOUND! Paul says that just as Christ died and was resurrected, even so should we raise up in newness of life. We are already dead to sin, meaning that sin no longer has any power of us under the law, because we are now under grace instead, and have been freed in Christ Jesus. If we choose to continue living in willful sin, the law has no power over us anymore. In this sense we are dead to sin! Death no longer has any sting! Yet, we are warned that we will still be held accountable by God at the Judgment Seat Of Christ, giving account for the good or bad done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:9-11).

Dear reader, the popular saying is true that: “

(OSAS). There are many critics today of this Bible truth. Anyone who denies OSAS is not saved, it is as simple as that, because they don’t understand ’The Gospel.’ I highly recommend that you listen to a helpful MP3 sermon by Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold titled: “ [1]Know You Have Eternal Life .

” We ought not live in willful sin as believers. Pastor Yankee Arnold preached a whole sermon on that topic called:

[2]Chastening And Rewards.

” Although we can never lose God’s salvation obtained by faith alone on the Gospel, we are expected as saints to live like saints, or suffer God’s hand of chastening upon our life (Hebrews 12:6-8). But if we do continue in sin (and we all do), GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND, so that we can never be lost again. Acts 13:39, “ And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.”

“True friendship needs no reciprocation.” —Dr. Jack Hyles

1.3.20 Being Justified By His Grace (2020-07-16 10:00)

Titus 3:3-7, “For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life."

Repeatedly in the Word of God we are plainly taught that salvation is simply BY FAITH. Titus 3:7 says that we are made heirs of the hope of eternal life BY FAITH... "being justified by his grace." Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." John 6:28-29, " Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

I could quote a hundred more Scripture passages to you dear reader, that teach we are saved BY FAITH. But not once are we taught to epent of your sin,

turn from your sins

be willing to turn from your sins

to be saved. We are saved by God's grace alone, through faith alone, in Jesus Christ alone; but forsaking your sins is not necessary, nor required, nor permitted by God to be saved. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. [1]Eternal life is a gift wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus!

I read this beautiful quote from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. this morning, about the Gospel:

> "Men are not saved by analyzing the truth of the Gospel. They are saved by accepting the truth of the Gospel. It is true, whether men believe it or not. It is as true as the multiplication table. Men use the multiplication table to do what the multiplication table is supposed to do. The Gospel will do what it is supposed to do. 'It is the power of God unto salvation unto every one that believeth."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Preaching, Evangelism, page 123; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942

The "Gospel" is the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (that is, that our faith in Him would be justified by a risen Savior). Anyone who comes to God by faith as a needy sinner, receiving the Gospel as their only hope for Heaven, is saved. God promises forgiveness of sins and eternal life "TO THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b). Please make it your own dear friend, claiming The Gospel as your only way to Heaven!

1.3.21 Saved By Faith Alone (2020-07-17 10:00)

Galatians 3:26, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

There are many people who will say, for whatever reason, that faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ is not enough to obtain the eternal free gift of salvation. Jesus Christ purchased this free gift with His blood on the cross of Calvary. Below are verses that clearly teach that salvation is received through faith alone. So we can say that salvation: is offered by grace (as a free gift), and received through faith (as the means), in the object of Jesus Christ (who He is, the Christ), because of The Gospel (what He did).

If anyone falsely says, well but…

1. You must do good works to obtain salvation.
2. You must be willing to stop sinning to be saved.
3. You must do good works after salvation.
4. You must do good works to keep salvation.
5. You must feel sorry and beg with contrition for salvation.
6. You must promise something for salvation.
7. Your must exchange something for your salvation.
8. You must follow Jesus to be saved.
9. You must count the cost and pay the price of full surrender to be saved.

…then please see the several dozen Bible verses below that proclaim otherwise. The Gospel is truly 'Good News' that we just need to BELIEVE to be saved:

John 1:7, "

The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

John 1:12

“

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

John 2:23

“

Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

John 3:15-18

“

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

“

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

“

And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

John 4:41-42

“

And many more believed because of his own word; And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

“

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

John 5:45-47

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

John 6:35

And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

John 6:40

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

John 7:38-39

“

He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

John 8:24

“

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

John 9:35-38

Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him? And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

“

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

John 20:29

Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

John 20:31

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

Acts 4:32

And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

Acts 10:45

And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

“

Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

“

And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

“

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

Acts 14:23

“

And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

Acts 14:27

“

And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

“

And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

“

And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

Acts 16:31

“

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

“

And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

“

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

“

And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.

Acts 18:27

And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:16

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

Romans 1:17

For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

Romans 3:25-28

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

Romans 3:30

Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

Romans 4:3

“

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Romans 4:5

“

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Romans 4:9

“

Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

Romans 4:11

“

And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

Romans 4:13

“

For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

Romans 4:16

“

Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

Romans 4:23-24

“

Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

Romans 5:1-2

“

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

Romans 9:30

“

What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

Romans 9:32-33

“

Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

“

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

2nd Corinthians 4:4

“

In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Galatians 2:16

“

Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

“

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Galatians 3:14

“

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Galatians 3:22

“

But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

Galatians 3:24

“

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Galatians 5:5

“

For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

“

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

Ephesians 2:8

“

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Philippians 3:9

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

2nd Thessalonians 2:12-13

That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

1st Timothy 1:16

Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

1st Timothy 4:10

For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

2nd Timothy 1:12

“

For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

“

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Hebrews 4:2-3

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.”

1.3.22 Every Christian Should Be A Soulwinner (2020-07-18 10:30)

Matthew 28:19-20, " Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

The preceding passage of Scripture from the intriguing book of Matthew is commonly refereed to as: "THE GREAT COMMISSION" in the Scripture. In this passage we see four commands:

1. Go ye (the labor of soulwinning)
2. Teach all nations (the Gospel)
3. Baptize converts with water after the get saved (their public profession)
4. Indoctrinate converts with the Word of God (so they'll perpetuate the Gospel)

May I say, kindly, if you are not obeying this passage of Scripture, you are not a good Christian. If you are attending a church that is not carrying out 'The Great Commission,' as our dear Lord commanded, then your church is dropping the ball for God. A church that does not go soulwinning is a mere social club. God did not save us to Sit On The Premises, but to Stand On The Promises. The great heart of God is to see souls saved. Luke 15:7, " I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance." Heaven rejoices every time a sinner repents to believe the Gospel.

We all have a responsibility to witness the Gospel to the lost around us. We are responsible to share the Gospel with our loved ones.

We are responsible to share the Gospel with our friends.

We are responsible to share the Gospel with the acquaintances in our life. I've witnessed to my doctor. I witnessed to my neighbour next door. I've witnessed to the attendant at the local gas station. I've witnessed to a family while walking. I've witnessed to people at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, some of whom (including staff members are not saved). That is because the church has been deceived by the Devil, replacing the Gospel of free grace with the lie of Lordship Salvation.

[1]Every Christian should be a soulwinner. There is something wrong with a believer who is not soul-conscious. If you believe that the Bible is God's inspired Word, then you ought to be concerned about the eternal destination of others. One of my favorite sermons is by Pastor Bob Gray Sr. called: "[2]Let's Go Soul Warning." Our first responsibility as Christians is soulwinning. Nobody sends anybody to Hell. People are already going to Hell.

I saw a shameful T-shirt today that read: "If I go to Hell, at least I'll be with my friends." If you do end up in Hell with your friends, you'll feel like the biggest fool who ever lived, for letting your friends go to Hell. What kind of "friend" wants to see their friends burn in Hell? I don't want you as my friend. No way! I want a friend who cares enough about me to warn me about Hell, so I won't go there when I die. I am the best friend you have right now! You can have eternal life for free dear friend.

We are all sinners (Romans 3:10-23). We have all broken God's Commandments. We've all broken all of the Ten Commandments. God never intended for us to keep the law to merit eternal life. God gave us the law to show humanity how sinful we are, so we would be silenced of any self-righteous boasting, and recognize our guilt as sinners. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. " The law shows us that we are needy sinners, in need of the blessed Savior. Galatians 3:24-26, " Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " That is so beautiful. We are all deserving of God's punishment.

Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " We all deserve to go to Hell forever, to pay for our own sins. Something is wrong with a professed Christian who doesn't believe in Hell. What do you need a Savior for if there is no eternal damnation in Hell? You had better believe that there is a place called Hell, where Christ-rejecters spend eternity suffering in torments, because the Bible says so! Revelation 20:14-15, " And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire." All Christ-rejecters will eventually be cast into the Lake of Fire for all eternity without end, tormented day and night without rest (Revelation 14:11). If you don't believe that, you are a stupid fool. I triple-dog dare you to disprove the Holy Bible! The King James Bible was here long before you were born, and it will be here long after you are gone.

Matthew 24:35, " Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away."

The "GOOD NEWS"

(or

GOSPEL

") is that God the Father has made a way of escape for you and me. Romans 5:9, "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him." That way of escape is through God's only begotten Son, Jesus. Philippians 3:9,

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

" You cannot save yourself! I cannot save myself! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again! You don't have to do anything to get to Heaven, except BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). If you don't believe, you will go to Hell forever (John 8:24).

Jesus died on the cross to pay our debt of sin. He was buried. After three days Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead.

This is the GOOD NEWS by which we are saved if we believe (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Romans 1:15-16, "So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Faith is not based on a feeling, but a fact! We are not saved by looking AT Jesus, nor AWAY from Jesus, but UNTO Jesus! Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He has bodily risen from the dead, and you will be saved immediately, irrevocably and eternally. You have the Lord's promise of it! John 11:25, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: " I believe, do you?

1.3.23 Don’t Change The Gospel If You Want To Go To Heaven (2020-07-19 10:00)

I marvel with the Apostle Paul, that professed Christians today have so easily been removed from the truth of the Gospel. I enjoy listening to Alexander Scourby read the Bible. As I lay down with my eyes closed, listening to the New Testament, the Gospel is so clear. There is no mention of forsaking your sins to be saved; but rather, because you are saved. Neither is turning from sins required as proof that one is saved. Titus 2:13, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

” Notice that we SHOULD live godly; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism).

What exactly is

The Gospel

? There is no need to guess, because the Bible tells us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that *Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:
> **”

There you have it—Christ DIED for our sins on the cross, He was BURIED, and He RESURRECTED three days later. That is The Gospel! So where did John MacArthur get all this garbage...

> “The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands: denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him, and follow Him no matter what the cost!” — Pastor John MacArthur, a quote from his sermon titled, “[1]Saved Or Self-Deceived, Part One” (time: 4:25 in YouTube sermon video)

Let’s list the SEVEN requirements for salvation which Mr. MacArthur just mentioned:

1. Denial of self
2. Denial of self-righteousness
3. Recognition of sin (This requirement is Biblical, you must see yourself as a needy sinner)
4. Full repentance
5. Submission to Christ
6. Commitment to obey Christ
7. Follow Jesus (no matter what the cost)

> SOURCE: [2]Saved Or Self-Deceived?

It blows my mind the [3]junk theology that is being preached at Bob Jones University today! The same is true of Moody Bible Institute. These apostate religious institutions are all followers of Pastor John MacArthur, and are not saved! They have CHANGED the Gospel of free grace into something different, an exchange of sorts, where you must forsake sins and follow Christ to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Be afraid dear reader, be very afraid, if you are okay with the garbage being taught at Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute nowadays. Be very afraid if you have surrendered fully to live for Christ to be saved. You don't get saved by living the Christian life, but by being born-again!

If you'd like to be saved, simply come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. You do this by faith. God can read your mind. The moment He sees that you have decided to trust Christ's as your Savior, He works the miracle of the new birth. Theologically we call that regeneration. Believe that Christ died, He was buried, and three days later He resurrected physically from the dead. If that is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, you are saved! Getting saved is that simple!

1.3.24 Following Jesus Is Not The Way Of Salvation (2020-07-20 10:30)

Matthew 7:21-23,

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven*; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

All across the world today, countless millions of people are following Jesus, as did Ravi Zacharias, devoutly so. But when you examine [1]What Ravi Zacharias taught, it is very disturbing and unbiblical.

In a YouTube video titled: " [2]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation? ," Ravi says the following to have a relationship with Jesus:

> "In fact when Jesus comes into your life, he helps you cross the greatest bridge, from the head to the heart. I experienced that at the age 17. The fact that I could pray and invite Jesus Christ into my life—a simple prayer—asking Him to become my Savior, and the transformation He brought; how He changed not only my life, but years later my father's life. And I would like you, to bow your head and with me repeat a simple prayer, if you want this to happen in your life. Just pray with me one sentence at a time:
>
>
> '[3]How Can Someone Receive Jesus' Gift Of Salvation?'

Folks, that is not THE GOSPEL! Let's break down Ravi's unbiblical plan of salvation and list his requirements to be saved:

1. Repeat a prayer
2. Invite Christ into your life
3. Ask Jesus to become your Savior
4. Thank God for loving you
5. Tell God you need forgiveness
6. Tell God you need His salvation
7. Ask Jesus to enter into your heart
8. Ask Jesus to change you
9. Ask Jesus to give you His presence
10. Ask Jesus to help you follow Him
11. Receive Jesus
12. Commit your life to Jesus

Wow! Ravi Zacharias gives 12 THINGS to do in his suggested prayer to be saved. Did you notice the BIGGEST MISTAKE Ravi made? He left out "[4]THE GOSPEL" entirely! Ravi doesn't even mention Jesus dying on the cross to pay for our sins. Ravi doesn't mention Christ's DEATH, BURIAL nor RESURRECTION. I mean, that is "THE GOSPEL" after all, but he leaves it off completely!!! That is why I justly call Ravi "a devil dog preacher!" [5]Look at the type of shallow garbage that Ravi's ministry promotes! You don't get to Heaven by starting "a relationship" with Jesus. Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but went to Hell. The Bible says in John 3:7, "YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN"!!!

I am saddened that in June of 2017, the shameful pastors of the apostate Harvest Baptist Church on Guam invited, promoted, honored, and BID GODSPEED to this [6]wicked man who teaches doctrines of devils!!!

1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" I understand that there is something called "semantics," where different preachers each word the plan of salvation a little differently, but Ravi MISSES THE BALLPARK COMPLETELY!!!

The way of salvation is through faith alone in the person of Jesus Christ. To be saved you need to know the WHO, WHAT and WHY...

- WHO - Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God
- WHAT - Jesus died on the cross for our sins, was buried and resurrected three days later for our justification.
- WHY - We are all hell-deserving sinners, but Christ paid our debt of sin with His blood.

If you believe these things, trusting the name of Jesus alone, you have eternal life. 1st John 5:20 says that JESUS IS GOD AND ETERNAL LIFE. So if you have accepted Jesus as your personal Savior, then you have eternal life abiding in you! Eternal security and assurance of salvation are not different doctrines than eternal life, they are all one and the same truth! It would be very easy to simply follow Jesus your entire life, having a false assurance that you are on your way to Heaven, like being in the calm eye of a hurricane.

A demon's favorite activity is to make lost religious people feel comfortable. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again. No one, regardless of how religious or how much they love God, can enter into the Kingdom Of God, unless they are born-again (John 3:1-7). The new birth is not optional, it is a commandment to all humanity. That is what is meant in Acts 17:30b by saying that God

"commandeth all men every where to repent:"

[7]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sinfully drove me out of their church in 2014 , and has since banned and ostracized me from returning, because I loved them enough to TELL THE TRUTH!!! They are my neighbours across the street! I love them unconditionally with God's love, but they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. If they don't want to accept me as a part of their family for the sake of love at Harvest, then I will expose them for the sake of truth! People just want to be loved. I sure do! When churchgoers are more loyal to ungodly ministers and tradition, than to God and truth, apostasy has overtaken that church! Christianity in America has sadly deteriorated into a mere stinking money-making business nowadays! The [8]Bob Jones University crowd wreak with the stench of falsehoods, heresy, favoritism, prejudice and carnality. Christian author Michael P. Bowen said it best:

> "You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will "dump" you."

1.3.25 The Old Account Was Settled Long Ago (2020-07-21 01:11)

Romans 4:1-5, "What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness*. ”

I love that well-known passage of Scripture. To no surprise, Evangelist Ray Comfort ignores this passage of Scripture entirely in his popular, “

The Evidence Bible.

” If I wrote a Bible commentary, this would be one of the most important passages to address, because it plainly teaches that salvation is by faith alone, without turning from sins, surrendering one’s life to Christ, making Jesus “

Lord,

” nor anything else that God doesn’t require to be saved. Proponents of the Lordship Salvation heresy don’t like this Bible passage, because it plainly refutes them! The Bible says a man’s “

FAITH IS COUNTED FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS

Bless God, the day I got saved as a 13 year old boy, my account in Heaven was forever settled! By faith I became a blood-washed, redeemed, child of God (Galatians 3:26). My sins (past, present and future) were all washed away by Jesus’ precious blood (1st John 1:7). The old account was settled long ago!!! I am saved. It is a done deal. Nothing else is required of me to get to Heaven, because it was a free gift from God (Romans 6:23). I simply took it by childlike faith in Jesus Christ.

We are secure in God’s salvation, because we are secure in Christ’s work, not our work!

1st John 5:4, “For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.” Faith in Jesus Christ is the way to have eternal life! John 10:9, “

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

” We are safe and secure in the Father’s hands. I hunger for wayward preachers to repent of their false teachings! I wish [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort would come to his senses and stop preaching another gospel. I wish [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) would come to his senses, and stop [3]preaching another gospel. Here is a wonderful truthful quote by the famous preacher John Bunyan

That is the exact opposite of [4]What Evangelist Steve Pettit heretically teaches at Bob Jones University today to their 2,700 students and faculty. Dr. Pettit heretical teaches:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[5]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

Dr. Steve Pettit says you must run and finish the race, or else you lose your soul. That is another gospel!!! I want to repeat what John Bunyan said, because it is exactly what is wrong with Dr. Pettit’s counterfeit gospel message:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and *sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

What a helpful quote! John Bunyan nailed it, explaining where John MacArthur and Steve Pettit go horribly wrong on the Gospel. These ungodly men make light of the truth of the Gospel, merging Free Grace Theology with Lordship Salvation, and in so doing they are not able to divide the Word of God aright!!! Instead, they CORRUPT the Word of God, and cast a stumbling block before the people. This is exactly what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) [6]warned would happen, and for which he said [7]he’d blow Bob Jones College to smithereens if he could! The Devil and his unsaved infidels have taken control of Bob Jones University today!!! You don’t have to surrender everything, nor turn from your sins, nor run the race faithfully until the end, to receive God’s free gift of eternal life! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! The price of sin has been paid. [8]Bob Jones University says you must be willing to turn (forsake) from your sins to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. The Bible calls BJU liars!

My mentor of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a beautiful sermon on this very topic, titled: “

[9]Steps In Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy.

” I encourage you to listen to the message, it will greatly help you understand what is wrong with the Lordship Salvation crowd. Every Bob Jones University faculty member and student needs to hear this positional sermon! But Dr. Hyles was just a man, and our only authority is the Holy Bible. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:6-8, “ Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.” Oh don’t miss that dear reader! BLESSED IS THE MAN TO WHOM THE LORD WILL NOT IMPUTE SIN! THAT IS ETERNAL SECURITY!!!

The moment you got saved (born-again), God declared you JUSTIFIED, Just-If-I’d never sinned! The old account was settled long ago! HALLELUJAH! You were sealed (indwelt) with the blessed Holy Spirit the very second you received Jesus as your Savior. Your name was forever preserved in the Lamb’s Book of Life in Heaven. You were, and are, now a member of God’s heavenly family permanently. Jesus promised in John 6:37 never to cast anyone away, not for any reason, “All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. ” You have the Lord’s PROMISE!

[10]The Old Account Was Settle Long Ago! | [11]Settled

What saith the Scripture? John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.” Jesus overcame the world by His sinless life, sacrificial death on the cross to pay for our sins, and His victorious bodily resurrection from the dead. Hallelujah! God is more than amazing!!! Praise God, the old account was settled long ago—not by what I did—but by what Jesus did 2,000 years ago on Calvary’s cross to save me from my sins, through the precious blood that He shed on the cross and sprinkled on the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). THANK YOU JESUS!!!

1.3.26 Rat Food Is Less Than 1% Deadly Poison (2020-07-21 10:00)

Psalms 140:3, " They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah."

When you go to Home Depot or a local hardware store, to buy rat food that will kill pesky mice and rats, the food is less than 1 % deadly poison. In fact, only about .001 % to .005 % (one thousandth to five thousandths of the food is actually deadly poison):

> Second generation agents are far more toxic than first generation. They are generally applied in lower concentrations in baits—usually on the order of 0.001 % to 0.005 %—are lethal after a single ingestion of bait and are also effective against strains of rodents that became resistant to first generation anticoagulants; thus, the second generation anticoagulants are sometimes referred to as "superwarfarins". —[1]Wikipedia

That means the manufacturer of the rat food, took one thousand pounds of wholesome healthy food, and mixed into it only one to five pounds of poison. Wow, that is some strong poison! I want you to see that even the smallest amount of poison contaminates the whole batch of food! When the pesky rat comes alone, he smells that good food. He doesn't detect the tiny bit of poison that will absolutely kill him! Let's make a spiritual application, shall we?

All across the world today, false preachers are deceiving the masses. Most of what they preach is good wholesome truth, which causes you not to detect their poison. Our text passage of Scripture is very fitting from Psalms 140:3, " They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah." An

is a snake.

I preach a lot against Neo-evangelicals with their deadly poison of Lordship Salvation. I preach against their deadly poison of the modern Bible revisions. Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaches BJU's 2,700 students that there's not much difference between the NIV and the King James Bible. Kindly said, Dr. Pettit speaks as a fool!

You can hear Dr. Pettit's preaching for yourself on '[2]The Daily Platform' (BJU chapel services). Nearly everything that Dr. Pettit says is good wholesome Bible teaching, just like the rat food that is mostly good food for the rat to eat and digest. Unfortunately, Steve Pettit is not saved, so he preaches the lies of Lordship Salvation (which makes sense to the unregenerate man). It makes sense to the unsaved man that you should have to forsake your sinful bad habits to be saved. But that is not what the inspired Word of God teaches!

Evangelist Ray Comfort is another unsaved religious man, [3]who requires that a man stop fornicating to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Mr. Comfort says God will only save you,

"if you'll let go of your sins." You won't find that teaching anywhere in the Holy Bible! Ray is adding to the Gospel, and in so doing perverting it! The biggest problem I am having as a fundamentalist Baptist Bible preacher, is trying to convince people that the spiritual food they are being fed is killing them, because of the 1 % poison in it.

Pastor John MacArthur is one of the most popular preachers in the world. Tragically, Mr. MacArthur has won the following of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, and Bob Jones University in South Carolina. Consequently, over 5,000 students accumulatively each year are being brainwashed with MacArthur's Calvinist heresies (aka, Lordship Salvation). MBI even admits on their college's website that they have become generally Calvinistic. [4]MBI are liars to claim that Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) changed in his later ministry to a mild Calvinist view. THEY ARE LIARS!!!

Dr. Ironside simply believed in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit, as I do, but not the perseverance of the saints (as John Calvin, 1509-1564, heretically taught). The heresy of the perseverance of the saints claims that a saint WILL persevere in holiness and a changed life.

The Bible says in Titus 2:13 that a saint "SHOULD" live godly in Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Calvinism). Presenting our body as a living sacrifice to the Lord is our "REASONABLE SERVICE" according to Romans 12:1-2, not our MANDATORY SERVICE according to John Calvin and Moody Bible Institute.

If you think I'm splitting hairs, you need to read Matthew 7:21-23:

Matthew 7:21-23,

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven*; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

This is one of the most enlightening, applicable and important passages concerning the issue of Lordship Salvation being taught in tens of thousands of churches today! Jesus even said you don’t get saved by following Him as “LORD.” How much clearer could the Bible be that Lordship Salvation is NOT THE WAY! These were devoutly religious people, who committed their lives to following and serving Christ, but Christ rejected them all!!!

> “You can live for Christ, you can love Christ, you can serve Him with all your might, time, talent and wealth. You can pray to Him, read your Bible, get water-baptized, join a church, witness to people, and do every wonderful work contained within the realm of Christianity, but if you fail to trust Jesus Christ alone for your salvation, He will “dump” you.”
> —’[5]I NEVER KNEW YOU’ (.pdf), by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 77

I have discussed numerous false teachers in this article. All of the men I have mentioned are excellent orators. They say mostly helpful and Biblically accurate things. But its that 1 % of rat poison that makes them deadly false prophets! All it takes is a tiny bit of poison to send you to Hell forever. John MacArthur says many brilliant things. Apart from his heresies on repentance, the blood and the Gospel, he is one of the greatest Bible teachers of our time. Unfortunately, it’s that tiny amount of rat poison that makes him so dangerous! This is a critically important matter dear friend. Satan is much smarter than me or you!

The most effective weapon of a false prophet is truth! That is a remarkable statement that I just made, if you understand it. If I wanted to deceive you, I would use truth as a weapon to earn your full trust, and then I would integrate my lies into those truths, to trick you. That is why the Devil only changes key passages in the modern Bible revisions, leaving 98 % of it alone. Literally, there is only a 2 % difference between the Alexandrian Bible manuscripts and the Textus Receptus (from which our beloved King James Bible was translated). The [6]2 % that was changed is the deadly rat poison that damns men's souls to Hell. The [7]Devil's Bible versions destroy theology! We need an old-fashioned revival in America of using only the King James Bible, and exposing and rejecting the Devil's new Bibles! We need a revival of simply caring! Religious people have become indifferent, complacent and foolish!

I don't care how good of on orator, interesting or how many doctrinally sound things a preacher may say, if he is wrong on repentance and the Gospel, HE CANNOT BE TRUSTED THEOLOGICALLY! False prophets are everywhere today, like Dr. Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University, and 99 % of what he says is doctrinally sound, but [8]he is wrong on the gospel. Steve Pettit [9]bids Godspeed to John MacArthur and his heretical ministry! Our churches are in trouble folks! Remember, rat food is less than 1 % poison! So before you accept a man as being okay and of God, make sure you check, you go find out, what he believes about the Gospel and the Word of God. Dr. Pettit endorses the Devil's modern Bible revisions, and he teaches Lordship Salvation! Please don't drink the Kool-Aid!

Romans 3:24-26, "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus."

We are justified (saved) by faith alone in the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ. When God saves us, the Holy Spirit sanctifies (sets us apart), sealing us with the Holy Spirit of promise (Ephesians 1:12-13). Getting saved is immediate, but sanctification is a lifetime process of being conformed into Christ's likeness. We are sanctified by the inspired Word of God. John 17:17, " Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." I love the following truthful statement from Evangelist John Bunyan:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Brother Bunyan is 100 % correct on justification versus sanctification. The errant proponents of the heresy of Lordship Salvation fail to make the distinction between the believer's justification, and the sanctification wrought by the indwelling Holy Spirit; therefore, they are unable to rightly discern God's Word. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wonderfully preaches the same truth as John Bunyan, in a classic needful sermon called: " [1]Steps In Sanctification Or, The Root Of All Heresy ." What an awesome sermon!!! If you are confused at all between Free Grace Theology and Lordship Salvation, I plead with you to listen to this helpful sermon.

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

1.3.28 Lordship Salvation Front-loads The Gospel (2020-07-22 10:30)

Galatians 2:21, “

I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

I marvel how so many professed Christians believe our text verse, while teaching Lordship Salvation at the same time! I appreciate the following helpful comment from the Christian author of “[1]In Defense Of The Gospel” by Lou Martuneac in Chicago:

> Lordship Salvation (LS) requires an upfront commitment to discipleship as an indispensable condition for the reception of eternal life. LS demands an upfront promise to perform the "good works" (Ephesians 2:10) expected of a genuinely born again Christian to become a Christian.

> It is this, and related LS teaching, that corrupts the simplicity that is in Christ (2 Corinthians 11:3) and frustrates the grace of God (Galatians 2:21).

> In answering MacArthur's original 'The Gospel According To Jesus', Dr. Ernest Pickering, commented on Mark 8:34. He wrote, "Salvation is free; discipleship is costly. Salvation comes by receiving the work of the cross; discipleship is evidenced by bearing the cross (daily submission to the will of God). Christ here is not giving instructions about how to go to heaven, but how those who know they are going to heaven should follow Him." —Lou Martuneac, " [2]John MacArthur's Discipleship Gospel " (I encourage you to read the entire article)

Amen and amen! Lou is a great writer for the Lord, a Bob Jones University graduate who has remained true to the colleges's original Gospel roots, and has seen the horrible changes at BJU, refuting and exposing them with the light of God's Word. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got the Gospel right. There was no junk theology back when Dr. Jones was in charge of the college. But times have adversely changed over the decades, and today BJU preaches full-blown Lordship Salvation, which is another gospel, that is, a perverted deadly gospel.

Lordship Salvation front-loads the Gospel, by expecting of a new convert things that you'd normally only expect of a Christian after 10 years of being saved. Can a newborn baby walk? Of course not. Can a newborn baby run? Don't be silly. Can a newborn baby run a 26 mile marathon? No way! It would be ridiculous to expect a tiny baby to perform like an athlete. Likewise, it is just as ridiculous for the proponents of Lordship Salvation to require sinners to forsake their sins, surrender all, commit their life to Christ, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost to be saved. None of that is necessary to get to Heaven, nor is it allowed in God's plan of redemption for man. We are saved exclusively BY FAITH. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. "

Pastor John MacArthur has authored over 200 books, and is arguably the most influential pastor in America today among New-evangelicals. Unfortunately, Dr. MacArthur front-loads the Gospel, requiring discipleship from people to be saved. The new president of Bob Jones University since 2014, Dr. Steve Pettit, sinfully bids Godspeed to Dr. MacArthur, [3]thanking God for his ministry! 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." There is nothing as evil as perverting the Gospel!

Many proponents of the heresy of Lordship Salvation, misapply Jesus' teachings in the Four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke and John). Jesus often spoke to His disciples, not to the lost. So when the Lord speaks of discipleship, it is wrong to apply those Bible passages to salvation. John MacArthur deceitfully preaches about grace, while at the same time requiring people to surrender all to be saved. Huh? Read his quotes for yourself:

> "The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands: denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him, and follow Him no matter what the cost!" —Pastor John MacArthur, a quote from his sermon titled, "Saved Or Self-Deceived, Part One" (time: 4:25 in YouTube sermon video)

> "The Greek word translated 'belief' is not referring merely to intellectual attainment or mental acquiescence but a wholehearted acceptance of everything that is implied in the claims of Christ. You need to believe that Jesus is God and that He died for your sins, committing your whole life to Him in sacrifice and serving Him as Lord." —Pastor John MacArthur, Assurance of Victory; 1 John 5, Moody Press, p. 12).

“The gospel Jesus proclaimed was a call to discipleship, a call to follow Him in submissive obedience. . . . Forsaking oneself for Christ’s sake is not an optional step of discipleship subsequent to conversion; it is the sine qua non of saving faith.” (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 27, 142.)

“Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith.” (The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140.)

“Let me say again unequivocally that Jesus’ summons to deny self and follow him was an invitation to salvation, not . . . a second step of faith following salvation….” (The Gospel According to Jesus [Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 221).

“Submission to the will of God, to Christ’s lordship, and to the guiding of the Spirit is an essential, not an optional, part of saving faith” —Pastor John MacArthur, Ephesians, p. 249).

> “Saving faith is a placing of oneself totally in submission to the Lord Jesus Christ” —Pastor John MacArthur, Romans, 1-8, p. 205).

The following appeared in ’Pulpit Magazine’ on September 29th, 2006. This paragraph is from Pastor MacArthur’s post titled: “True Faith And True Grace,” which sums up the Lordship Salvation controversy:

> “Those who teach that repentance is extraneous to saving faith are forced to make a firm but unbiblical distinction between salvation and discipleship. This dichotomy, like that of the carnal/spiritual Christian, sets up two classes of Christians: believers only and true disciples. Most who hold this position discard the evangelistic intent of virtually every recorded invitation of Jesus, saying those apply to discipleship, not to salvation.”

God gave us a specific book in the Bible to teach us all about how to have eternal life, the Gospel of John. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” Everything that a person needs to know to be saved is recorded in the Gospel of John. In this precious Gospel we find the word “believe” mentioned 85 times, but not once do we find the word “

or “turn from sin

or anything else that adds works to grace. You get saved simply by admitting that you are a needy sinner, and trusting what Christ has already done to pay for your sins on the cross.

Evangelist Miles J. Stanford (1914-1999) correctly teaches...

"Lordship salvation is not the childlike faith of John 3:16. It rightly insists upon repentance, but wrongly includes a change of behavior IN ORDER TO BE SAVED. No one questions that there must be a sincere change of mind, a turning from oneself to the Saviour, but Lordship advocates attempt to make behavior and fruit essential ingredients of, rather than evidence of, saving faith."

SOURCE: Miles Stanford, in his review of Dr. John MacArthur's book: 'The Gospel According to Jesus'

Beware of any preacher who front-loads the Gospel. All that God requires to be saved is childlike faith in Jesus Christ, because of the work HE DID on the cross to pay for our sins, that He died, was buried and bodily raised up from the dead three days later for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Believe oh sinner and you are saved!!!

1.3.29 He That Shall Endure Unto The End Shall Be Saved (2020-07-23 10:00)

Matthew 24:13-22, " But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house: Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes. And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day: For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened."

This passage of Scripture is often taken out of context by Calvinists in the Lordship Salvation crowd. They merely take Matthew 24:13,

" But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved

," attempting to use this passage to justify Lordship Salvation. I have heard this heresy again and again, and it makes me sick! If you listen to a lot of preaching like I do, then you know I am telling the truth. But the big mistake they all make is not to read the entire passage of Scripture. The true meaning of verse 13 is found in verse 22,

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." Ah, now that makes sense! Jesus is talking about your being saved, not your soul.

FLESH

Those saints who survive until the end of the Great Tribulation (Matthew 25:15), will bodily go into the 1,000 year millennium. They will have children and it will be a time of peace which the world had never known. This will be true for a couple reasons. First, Jesus will be in charge, reigning with an iron rod of righteousness over the whole earth from Jerusalem as King of kings, and Lord of lords. Second, Satan will be bound in chains in the Bottomless Pit for a thousand years, unable to do any harm. The reason why we see so much occultism (All Seeing Eye, The Great Pyramid, 666 hand signs, et cetera) is because Satan is unbound at this time, roaming about the earth seeking whom he may devour (1st Peter 5:8). Satan is the god of this evil world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Ah, but we as Christian believers have eternal life dwelling in us, because we have the Son of God in us (1st John 5:20).

But prior to all this must first come the Tribulation period for 7 years, a time of suffering which the world has never seen. Billions of people will die! An asteroid will strike the earth and poison the waters. Revelation chapter 9 says that the sun will scorch men upon the earth. Deadly creatures from the Bottomless Pit will be unleashed upon the earth, stinging people like scorpions, but won't be able to die (Revelation 9). Can you imagine? If you are a saint of God, you will be CAUGHT UP (1st Thessalonians 4:17) in the Rapture, so we won't be here for the Tribulation period.

By the way, I am a firm believer is a pretribulation Rapture. Titus 2:13 commands us as believers to look for "the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ," not the Antichrist! If the Rapture is the same event as the Second Coming, as Pastor Steven Anderson errantly teaches, then why should we look for Jesus? We should look for the appearing of the Antichrist, and then we will KNOW when Jesus Christ is coming. That violates several Scripture passages, which teach us that NO MAN, not even the angels, know the time of Christ's return (Mark 13:33-38).

He that shall endure to the end shall be saved. Again, this has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life. Matthew 24:22 plainly speaks of " flesh

" being saved, which is the proper context here. Lordship Salvation is a doctrine of devils, not taught in the Bible.

God gave us a specific book in the Bible to teach us all about how to have eternal life, the Gospel of John. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” Everything that a person needs to know to be saved is recorded in the Gospel of John. In this precious Gospel we find the word

1.3.30 The Task Of The Church Is Soulwinning (2020-07-24 10:00)

Matthew 28:19-20, " Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

My hero of the Christian faith is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I had the privilege of attending Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), for which I am eternally grateful. I his helpful book titled: '[1]THE CHURCH,' Dr. Hyles teaches from [2]chapter 28 concerning the job of the local church:

The Task Of The Church

by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

And Abraham was old, and well stricken in age: and the LORD had blessed Abraham in all things. And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh: And I will make thee swear by the LORD, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I dwell:

But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son Isaac. Genesis 24:1-4

And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the city of Nahor... And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water. And he said, O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham. Behold, I stand here by the well of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water: And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink; and I will give thy camels drink; also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master. And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder. And the damsel was very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher. And she said, Drink; my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink. And when she had done giving him drink; she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking. Genesis 24:10-19

Abraham told his servant to go to the far country of Mesopotamia to choose a wife for his son, Isaac... He had to go several hundred miles away and find the woman who was to be the bride of Isaac. Notice what the servant did...

The servant got on his knees and asked God to help him to find the one who was to be the wife of his master's son... In those days, ladies came down to get the water... They brought bottles made of skins, filled them with water, and carried them back on their heads. He was going to ask the women coming for water to give him a drink of water. If one offered water to his ten camels as well, she would be the one who was to be the bride of Isaac. A camel drinks an enormous amount of water, so the lady would have to go down to the well repeatedly in order to get enough water for all of his camels. That was to be the way God showed the servant the right bride for his master's son.

When the servant found her, he took out earrings and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave her two bracelets and talked her into coming back and marrying Isaac, sight unseen.

In this story, Abraham is a type of God the Father... The eldest servant is a type of the Holy Spirit. The wife is a type of all Christians. Isaac is a type of Jesus. The far country, Abraham's home land, is a type of the world.

The Heavenly Father told the Holy Spirit to go to the world and get a bride for His Son. Everything the Holy Spirit is commissioned to do in this age, is wrapped around getting a bride. The Holy Spirit gives us gifts, but the gifts are to help us get the bride... The Holy Spirit gives us the fruit of the Spirit, but the fruit of the Spirit is to help us get the bride. The Holy Spirit comforts us, so we can be comforted while we get people saved...

The Holy Spirit strengthens us, so we can get people saved...

The job of a Christian is soul winning. The consuming passion for God's people should be to get people saved. Jesus went to a great effort to get people saved. The Son of Man came to seek and save that which was lost.

Charismatic people often make a drastic mistake. They get more concerned about the comforting than they do about the purpose of the comforting. They get more concerned about getting the gifts than they are about getting the bride...

Every child of God is supposed to get people saved... That is the purpose of our existence. That is why we have the church... That is to be the purpose of every ministry of the church... Everything we do is to be wrapped up around getting the bride.

The servant gave her a bracelet and earrings. When the Holy Spirit chooses a bride for Jesus, the first thing is to tell them how to be saved. That is the earrings. The next thing is for them to reach out and accept it by faith. That is the bracelet. A person is saved by hearing and then taking.

In the Old Testament days, when priests were anointed, oil was placed on the lobe of the right ear, on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of the right foot. The progression goes from hearing the Gospel, to taking the Gospel, to spreading the Gospel...

The servant was nice, courteous, and friendly. We should do the same, but our master did not tell us to go to the far country and be friendly. He said to go to the far country and get a bride. Being friendly is a tool to get the bride. We must talk people into marrying somebody they have never seen...

In Bible, we have what we call the fruit of the Spirit. Here is where Charismatic people get confused. They get the fruit of the Spirit mixed up with the getting of the bride... They forget that the purpose of the fruit of the Spirit is to help us in getting the bride. They make the possession of these fruits an end in and of itself, rather than the means to the end of getting a bride. We are supposed to be kind in order to get the bride.

Some people like to talk about love, yet never or seldom win souls to Christ. They are unfaithful servants. God did not send them to the world to smile and be happy. God told them to be loving, kind, peaceful, gracious and gentle in order to win more souls. The fruit of the Spirit is simply a soul winning tool. It is a course on how to get the bride.

Every gift of the Spirit is given for that one purpose. If I talk in tongues and do not get the bride, I am an unfaithful servant. If I heal forty people from thyroid trouble, and cast out thirty tumors, but do not get the bride, I am an unfaithful servant. No matter how much we get the gifts of the Spirit, if we are not winning souls, we are unfaithful servants. The Holy Spirit came to this world to get a bride for Jesus. That bride is to be composed of all believers at the rapture who will be married to Him. The purpose of the fullness of the Holy Spirit is to get the bride...

The servant did not talk about himself.

The servant talked about the son. When you get the Holy Spirit, you love Jesus more... That is His purpose... The Holy Spirit's purpose is not to be magnified, but to magnify Jesus. The servant praised his master and praised the master's son.

When Rebekah agreed to go with the servant, it was a picture of people accepting Jesus Christ as their Saviour. They like her are agreeing to marry someone they have never seen. The purpose of every church in America is to get the bride for Jesus. I do not care how rich a church is, how many missionaries it sends out, or how much Bible the people know, if it is not getting people saved, it is not right with God, and is not doing what it is here to do. The one purpose for the servant going to the far country was to get the bride.

I have more respect for a hard-boiled fundamental soul-winner than I do for a sweet and kind compromiser. Being nice is important, but not as important as getting the bride. I would rather see a person do right wrongly, than wrong rightly. I would rather see a person have the right position and the wrong disposition, than to have the right disposition and the wrong position. The reason he sent the servant was to get the bride...

The Charismatic movement is popular because it is built around the gifts and the fruit of the Spirit, but not on the purpose of the Spirit. It is built around the tools to get the bride and not on the getting of the bride. The job of the servant is to get the bride. Without the servant, we are in trouble. The father sent the servant, just like the Holy Spirit was sent by the Heavenly Father, to find a bride for the son.

Rebekah had a long journey ahead... They were going to go through some pretty dangerous and lonely places. Rebekah did not know the way to the son, but the servant did. His job was to lead her safely to the bridegroom. He knew every spot between them and the son. The secret was for her to follow and obey him...

That is what we must do to be happy as Christians. Between the time that we receive Christ as Saviour, and the time when we meet Him face to face, we must allow the Holy Spirit to lead us and to tell us what we ought to do.

Imagine the journey Rebekah took in order to get to Isaac. Sometimes the journey went down into the valley and was foggy and dangerous... The secret was to follow the servant. Sometimes they had battles... Sometimes wild animals came. Often they could hear the hissing of serpents... Her only hope was to follow the servant. His job was to get the bride safely to the bridegroom. Sometimes the journey was crooked, and sometimes the journey was straight.

We do not know the journey to Heaven God wants us to take... We must simply follow the Holy Spirit.

One day, they got close... Isaac had come out to kneel and pray, and they got a glimpse of him. When they got close enough, the servant introduced her to Isaac, his master's son. The Bible says Isaac took her to his tent. What happened to the servant? He drifted away into the shadows because his job was done. It was his job to get the bride for the groom...

That is my job... The Holy Spirit lives and dwells in me, so it is my job to get the bride for the groom. For these many years, I have spent my life trying to get the bride to the groom. At the rapture, all the people I have won to Christ will get their first glimpse of Jesus, and I will get to see them meet the one I told them about.

It will be worth it all, when we see Jesus.

Life’s trials will seem so small, when we see Christ.

One glimpse of His dear face, all sorrow will erase.

So bravely run the race till we see Christ.

The tragedy is that many of the churches in America today have either forgotten the servant altogether or misinterpreted the purpose of the servant. Most Christians do not understand the purpose of the Holy Spirit. I believe in the fullness of the Holy Spirit, but the reason I believe in the fullness of the Holy Spirit is to get the bride for the Groom. I believe in the fruit of the Spirit, but all of those are simply tools to go soul winning. I believe in the gifts of the Spirit, but the gifts of the Spirit are simply ways to get the bride.

The earrings and bracelets were simply tools to get her... We ought to teach our children to be kind to one another. Why? Because the kinder they are, the more souls they can win. We should have love because the more love we have the more folks we can get to the Saviour.

> Ours is an impossible task, humanly speaking. How can I possibly convince somebody who has never seen Jesus to put his faith in Him! The servant does it with love and with the gifts. Many go to church to shout, not to see people saved. My Bible says they that sow in tears shall reap in joy. You do not sow in joy, you sow in tears... They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

> She goes to Isaac, and the servant steps back into the shadows.

> The joy of getting the groom and the bride together is all the servant needs. That is the job of the Holy Spirit, and that is the job of the church.

1.3.31 You Simply Need To Trust Jesus Christ To Be Saved (2020-07-25 09:30)

Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?"

Salvation is BY FAITH alone. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Evangelist Steve Pettit (new president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is subtle in his words, deceptively changing the Word of God into a lie. Read what he says:

> "...faith in Jesus is not just an intellectual conviction, it is a personal commitment. Paul says, we have believed in Jesus, and the word 'in' literally means 'into' ...I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

This is not true! So if you intellectually believe the Gospel you are not saved, he says, you must MAKE A PERSONAL COMMITMENT to Christ. How do you have faith intellectually, but not be saved? That makes no sense. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 1:12, "For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." Notice carefully that the Bible does not say Paul made a commitment to Christ; but rather, he committed the keeping of his soul into Christ's hands. The word "commitment" means "a deposit" (trust), which Dr. Pettit gets correct. We are depositing our trust in Christ for salvation. However, Dr. Pettit is perverting the Gospel when he says that we must deposit "everything" into Christ to be saved:

> "I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

That is not the Gospel of free grace! [1]I am so sick of this Lordship Salvation garbage!!! I love Dr. Pettit and his family, and all the family at Bob Jones University, and my former beloved church family at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (before they excommunicated me in 2014 for telling the truth, as I am still doing now in this article). Eternal life is the free gift of God. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got the Gospel right! Dr. Bob said, "[2]The gift of eternal life is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus." Boy, I love that! If you want God's gift of eternal life, then you must accept it in the package of Jesus Christ! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said in 1944 that he would [3]blow Bob Jones College to smithereens (MP4), if he could in 50 years, if they ever let [4]an infidel like Dr. Steve Pettit come in and rob the saints of their faith! Any man who preaches about faith and grace, but ADDS turning from "LIVING YOUR OWN LIFE" is preaching another gospel!!!

What saith the Scripture? Romans 12:1, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." The Apostle Paul didn't say it is our MANDATORY or REQUIRED SERVICE, but our "REASONABLE SERVICE"! If you are a Christian you SHOULD live godly in Christ Jesus. ...

> Titus 2:11-15, "For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee."

Carefully notice that the Bible says WE SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that would be works for salvation); not WILL (that would be the heresy of Calvinism). I realize that preachers and theologians have been wrangling over the subject of repentance for generations, but the Bible plainly defines the Gospel in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection from the dead. Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ('[5]Except Ye Repent,' p. 16) [emphasis added]

Amen! We don't give up our sins TO BE saved, we give up our sins because WE ARE saved, and that requires time to grow in God's grace (1st Peter 2:2). Ephesians 2:10b says that believers are "created in Christ Jesus unto good works," not by good works. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Beware of Dr. Steve Pettit! Beware of Pastor John MacArthur! Beware of Dr. Marty Herron! Beware of Dr. Sam Horn! Beware of Ray Comfort! Beware of anyone who talks about salvation by grace through faith, but then says it will COST you your sins, COST you your life, COST you your own will and desires. I'm not splitting hairs here folks, read what John MacArthur teaches:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..." [emphasis added]
> Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book 'Hard To Believe', page 93.

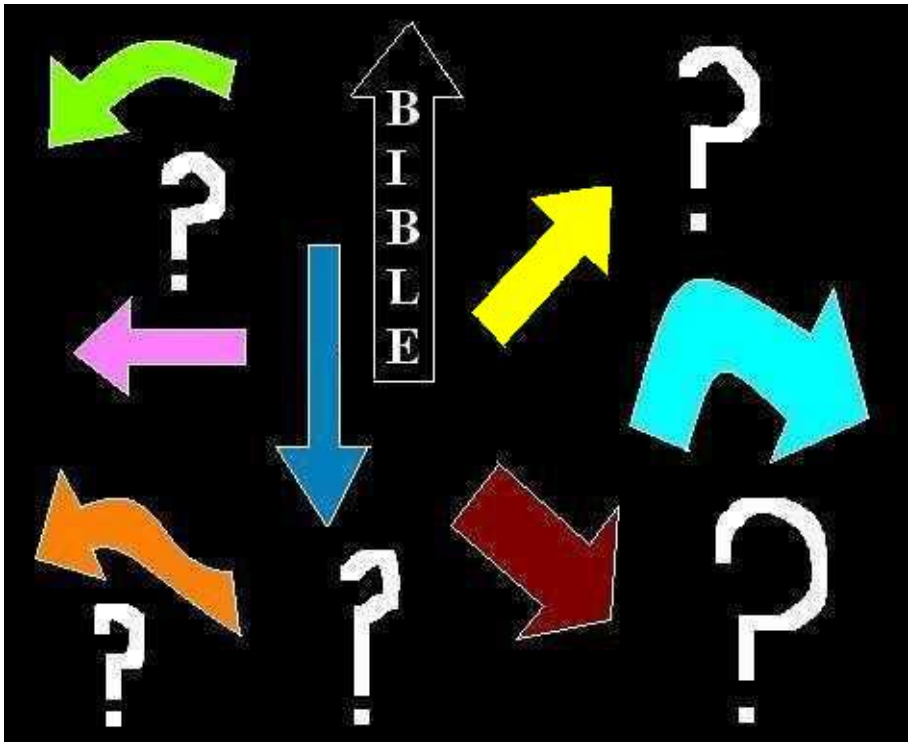
Folks, that is not "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3b). There is no "cost" to a sinner coming to Jesus Christ to receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. It cost Jesus His life on the cross! Acts 20:28 says that God " the Church with His own blood! The debt of our sins has already been paid in full! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Eternal life is a gift from God, which we RECEIVE by faith in the the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. There is no other way of salvation (Acts 4:10-12).

I thank God for faithful preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who saw through Mr. MacArthur's deception, exposing him for the Satanic false prophet that he is:

> "Who is John MacArthur? He is the one man in America doing more than anybody to destroy soul-winning churches!" —Dr. Jack Hyles (a needful quote from the MP3 sermon, "[6]I Sojourn In Mesech")

Pastor John MacArthur is in his 80's now and getting ready to go into eternity, but there is a Satanic army of replacements coming out of dunghills like Bob Jones University. Dr. Steve Pettit is John MacArthur's twin in preaching the deadly Calvinist heresy of Lordship Salvation!!! God help us as fundamentalists to expose these impostors in the churches today, who rob the saints of their faith, by preaching a works-based plan of salvation under the facade of grace and faith. They must be rooted out, marked and avoided. Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

The "simple" thing about receiving eternal life, is that all you have to do is BELIEVE the Gospel. If you gladly receive the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day, you are saved! Acts 2:43, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." By faith they were saved, by gladly receiving the 'Good News' of Jesus dying for their sins on the cross, being buried, and then miraculously He resurrected three days later from the dead. Believe it oh sinner and your eternal destiny is forever settled. JESUS CHRIST IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! 1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. " If you have Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you have eternal life. The only thing you have to commit (deposit) to Christ to have eternal life is your trust in His death, burial and resurrection as payment for your sins. It's that simple and easy to be saved.



If you follow the inspired King James Bible, you'll never go wrong doctrinally!

1.3.32 Taking Up Thy Cross Is Not Part Of The Gospel (2020-07-26 10:30)

Matthew 10:37-39, " He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it."

This is one of the most misinterpreted, misapplied and abused passages of Scripture! Notice that Jesus said whosoever refuses to take up his cross is “ not worthy of me.

” Jesus didn’t say he is not saved, He said he is not worthy of Him. The Apostle Paul in Romans 12:1-2 calls the believer’s discipleship our reasonable service,

not our required or mandatory service. 1st Corinthians 6:20,

“For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” Every believer is God’s exclusive property. We were purchased by God’s own blood (Acts 20:28; 1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5; 7:14). The day you were saved dear friend, you and everything you own became God’s. When you give to God, you are simply letting go of what is already His. Please remember that. We have a very good God!

Matthew 10:38-39 (and the entire chapter for that matter) is about the believer’s DISCIPLESHIP, not the free gift of ETERNAL LIFE. Notice to whom Jesus is speaking in Matthew chapter 10, His “ twelve disciples

” Matthew 10:1, “And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.” As an example of how preachers woefully corrupt, misinterpret and abuse this Scripture passage, consider the following heretical words by Pastor John MacArthur:

> To be saved calls for a sinner to deny self so as to “consider the members of [his] earthly body as dead to immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which amounts to idolatry” (Col. 3:5). It is to “lay aside the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit, and … be renewed in the spirit of [one’s] mind” (Eph. 4:22–23).

The second requirement of discipleship is to take up one's cross. This idea has profound meaning which must be understood. Taking up one's cross is not some mystical level of selfless "deeper spiritual life" that only the religious elite can hope to achieve. Nor is it the common trials and hardships that all persons experience sometime in life. A cross is not having an unsaved husband, nagging wife, or domineering mother-in-law. Nor is it having a physical handicap or suffering from an incurable disease. To take up one's cross is simply to be willing to pay any price for Christ's sake. It is the willingness to endure shame, embarrassment, reproach, rejection, persecution, and even martyrdom for His sake. ...

The third requirement of discipleship is loyal obedience. Only after a person denies himself and takes up his cross, Jesus said, is he prepared to follow Me. True discipleship is submission to the lordship of Christ that becomes a pattern of life. "The one who says he abides in Him ought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked" (1 John 2:6). "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven," Jesus declared; "but he who does the will of My Father who is in heaven" (Matt. 7:21). To continue in His Word is to be His true disciple (John 8:31).[emphasis added]

SOURCE: [1]How To Take Up Your Cross

Do you see how John MacArthur weaves in and out of the two subjects, speaking of them as if they are the same thing? They are not! Salvation is salvation, and discipleship is discipleship. No one ever got saved by discipleship! That is why the religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 weren't saved. Jesus called them workers on iniquity. Jesus said He never knew them! They followed Jesus their entire life. They made full surrender to Christ! They called Him, "LORD, LORD" (there's your heresy of Lordship Salvation in the Bible). Judas followed Christ. Matthew 27:3b says **"

Judas repented himself.

" Judas had

a relationship

with Jesus (we hear this false teaching a lot these days). Dear reader, you can follow Christ, have a relationship with Him, you can repent of all your sins, faithfully run the race, turn your life over to Him, and even trust Christ in addition to all that stuff, but YOU WILL SPLIT HELL WIDE OPEN WHEN YOU DIE!!! You are not truly trusting Jesus, unless you are COMPLETELY RESTING IN HIS DEATH, BURIAL AND RESURRECTION ALONE TO SAVE YOU!!!

Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit and Bob Jones University are of the Devil today, preaching the same junk theology as John MacArthur. Dr. Pettit (president of BJU) said this to 2,700 BJU students in June of 2020:

> “So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that ’repentance.’ And repentance is sort of saying a ’No’ and a ’Yes.’ It’s a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I’m turning away from my own self-righteousness. I’m to turning away from depending on me, and all that’s involved in me—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I’m to turning away from that way of thinking. And then finally what do I have to do? I’m to put my trust, or my confidence, in Jesus alone.” [emphasis added]
> —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from “[2]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?” (The Daily Platform #741)

What you just read is of the Devil. Jesus told the Apostle Peter, “Get thee behind me, Satan” (Matthew 16:23b). So I say to Steve Pettit, “Get thee behind me, Satan!” What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, “And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.” The Bible teaches something very different than what Dr. Steve Pettit is teaching! Steve Pettit says you must turn away from living your own life to be saved. That is a doctrine of devils! Steve Pettit is a devil-dog preacher! My destination is not based upon how I live my life, it’s on whom that I trust to save me!!! Now that’s the truth!

Pastor M.R. DeHaan accurately differentiates between faith in the Gospel of free grace that saves a sinner, versus the cost of discipleship for believers who choose to follow Christ:

> “There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness.” —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

The gift of eternal life is completely free, without any obligation to the recipient, available to any needy sinner who wants it. However, to take up thy cross and follow Christ is another matter entirely, which is based upon our faithfulness to God, and will cost us everything. We must never combine or confuse salvation (sonship) with discipleship (service). Here is another helpful quote by Presbyterian pastor, Everett Harrison (1902-1999):

> "Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship".
>
> —Pastor
>
> Everett F. Harrison, "Must Christ Be Lord To Be Savior?No!"; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

Those are great helpful quotes. I highly recommend a classic helpful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) called: “

1.3.33 The False Gospel Of Pastor Adrian Rogers (2020-07-27 09:30)

Again and again in the inspired Word of God we are taught that the simple way to be saved is by faith alone. Anyone who by faith comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). It is that simple.

There is a woeful darkness upon the land in America, called Lordship Salvation. It is totally unbiblical, but appeals to the carnal nature. Lordship Salvation is otherwise known theologically as Calvinism (i.e., the heretical doctrines of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). One of the most popular Calvinists of the past generation was Pastor Adrian Rogers (1931-2005), whose influence is still very strong today on the internet, Southern Baptist Convention, and in many churches worldwide. Dr. Rogers was elected to serve three terms as chairman of the apostate Southern Baptist Convention. You can still hear Adrian Rogers aired on many radio stations across the United States, which makes him still very dangerous, even after his death, and no doubt descent into the fires of Hell.

At his website, [1]Life Worth Finding, Adrian Rogers presents this counterfeit plan of salvation:

> How are we saved?

By believing in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 16:30-31

The word “believe” in this verse of Scripture literally means “trust.”

Jesus cannot be our Savior if we are not willing to make Him Lord.

Surrendering to Jesus’ Lordship means that He takes control of our lives.

Once we are saved, God begins to work in us, making us into the persons He wants us to be.

Philippians 1:6

Once we are saved, we are justified immediately in the spirit, sanctified progressively in the soul, and glorified ultimately in the body.

To be saved, we must invite Jesus into our lives; we must ask Him to come into our lives and take control of our lives.

Revelation 3:20 – God desires that we all invite Him in.

HOW DO WE KNOW THAT WE ARE SAVED?

John 5:24

When we trust Jesus, as the Bible states, then we are saved.

We do not trust our feelings to know whether or not we're saved; we trust what God's Word tells us.

We place our faith in God’s facts.

CONCLUSION

Do you know Jesus personally? If not, you can pray to Him today by asking Him to come into your life.

Call upon Jesus today. Repent (turn) from your sins, and turn to Jesus. Ask Him to forgive you of your sins, and acknowledge Him as Lord of your life.

Romans 10:9-10

Romans 10:13 [emphasis added]

Pastor Rogers also made these heretical damnable quotes (this page still works)...

"If Jesus is not the Lord of your life, then He is not your Savior. Salvation is not a cafeteria line where we say, 'Well, I believe I'll have a little Savior today, but no Lordship. Thank you.' No! Jesus is Lord." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [3]https://www.oneplace.com/ministries/love-worth-finding/read/articles/sim plicity-of-salvation-8518.html

Ladies and gentlemen, what you just read is totally of the Devil. Pastor Adrian Rodgers did not go to Heaven when he died. If that seems shocking to you, please read Matthew 7:21-23. You don't get to Heaven by calling Jesus, "LORD, LORD" (verse 21). Surrendering to Christ's Lordship is not the way of salvation. The Bible couldn't be any clearer! You must do the will of the Father. That is exactly what Jesus said in Matthew 7:21, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

" The will of the Father is found in John 6:40,

"And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." In the Gospel of John we find the word "

mentioned 85 times, without any mention of praying, repenting or surrendering to Christ as to be saved. Sadly, Adrian Rodgers was a wolf in sheep's clothing, now being tormented in Hell forever (Matthew 7:15).

I fully agree with what Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said...

"But we've so muddied the Gospel, that when men want to make a decision to trust Christ, we've made it so complicated that they can't make a simple decision to 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.' We'll say, 'If you don't do this' or 'You don't do that' or 'You haven't done that,' you're not saved'; but the truth of the matter is that when asked in the Bible, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?,' one clear simple answer was given to him — 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."' Pastor Curtis Hutson, "[4]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same" (preached at Southwide Baptist Fellowship on October 3, 1994)

Also, Dr. Hutson said this truth…

> "Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God." —Pastor Curtis Hutson

According to Adrian Rogers' false gospel, you must forsake your sins, invite Jesus into your life, surrender control of your life over to Him, and acknowledge Him as Lord, so that He has full control over your life from now on. Folks, none of that is THE GOSPEL! How is any of that the simple childlike faith of John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life"? I triple dog dare you to show me anywhere in the Bible where it says to surrender control of your life over to Jesus as Lord to be saved.

Dear friend, you don't make Jesus Savior or Lord, HE IS SAVIOR AND LORD! But you must receive Him as your Savior to be saved, and then afterwards as your Lord if you want to please the Lord as His child. These are two separate decisions, which is why the Apostle Paul said in Romans 12:1, "

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

" Romans 1:6-7 tell us that Paul wrote the book of Romans to the saints

of Rome.

Paul is urging them to present their bodies as a living sacrifice to serve God, which he calls their "reasonable service." Notice that Paul doesn't call it "mandatory service," nor their "required service," but their "reasonable service." If Lordship were necessary to be saved, then Paul would not have made this appeal to them, but he did.

I hope dear reader that you recognize the seriousness of this matter. Sadly, many churchgoers today are complacent, comfortable and indifferent toward these shocking embellishments of the Gospel, which have perverted grace. When a preacher adds surrendering one's life to Christ, being required to invite Christ as Lord to take control over your life, and to turn away from your sinful ways, he has perverted (altered and changed) the Gospel of free grace.

Eternal life then is no longer a free gift, but an exchange of sorts. This heresy has absolutely destroyed soulwinning churches today. [5]Bob Jones University has been infected. Pastor John MacArthur is [6]a primary carrier of this spiritual disease, and it is highly contagious. Have you been infected dear friend? If you have, then repent of your Lordship heresy, and instead believe on the 'GOOD NEWS' of Jesus Christ alone to save you!

1.3.34 The Lordship Salvationist's Unbiblical Mindset (2020-07-28 09:30)

Deuteronomy 32:31, "

For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.

The entire mindset of those who teach Lordship Salvation is flawed, bogus and rooted in self-righteousness. The purpose of the Old Testament law according to Romans 3:19 is to silence every mouth concerning men's own goodness, and to BECOME GUILTY in God's eyes. Romans 3:19, " Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

" The LAW and the GOSPEL are two keys—the law is the key that shuteth up all men under condemnation, and the Gospel is the key which opens the door and lets them out.

Once you recognize your self as a needy sinner, who cannot perfectly keep God's law to save yourself, then the law points you to Christ to be saved by grace (Galatians 3:24-26). That's the intent and purpose of the law, to show you that you cannot save yourself. We need a Savior! Romans 10:3-4 teaches that Christ is THE END of the ride (i.e., end of the law) for them that believe. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The Old Testament contains approximately 720 laws, all of which are fulfilled in God's sight the moment we place our trust in His only begotten Son.

It’s very important for you to understand all this, so you’ll clearly see what’s so evil, wrong and unbiblical about Lordship Salvation. Lordship Salvation is a false doctrine of devils which requires a person to receive “Jesus as Lord” to be saved, which means making full surrender to Christ’s will, forsaking the sinful world and all lifelong bad habits to be saved. You may do all these things and still never have been saved at all. Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel. Please read “[1]WHAT IS THE GOSPEL?” by Pastor Harry Ironside for an excellent explanation of what the Gospel really means Biblically.

I love Pastor Harry A. Ironside’s awesome book titled, “[2]ANOTHER GOSPEL,” Biblically exposing false prophets like Paris Reidhead. If you search YouTube for sermons, you’ll find that Paul Washer, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Kirk Cameron, Paris Reidhead and other Lordship Salvationists often appear together and are promoted as a group, trying to muster support anywhere they can find it to bolster up their straw-man false doctrines. They all teach the same false doctrine of Lordship Salvation. There is not a more damnable cult in the world today than Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute. What makes them so dangerous is that they used to be citadels of Christendom. Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951), former faithful pastor of Moody Church in Chicago from 1930 to 1948, vehemently hated Calvinism and exposed it:

> “When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him.” —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, “[3]Another Gospel”

Dr. Ironside further makes the Biblically correct and helpful statement...

> “Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.” —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: “[4]What Is The Gospel?”

Yes, Dr. Ironside is 100 % correct!!! Salvation is a gift, paid for by Jesus' literal, physical, precious blood (1st Peter 1:18,19; 1st John 1:7; Hebrews 9:12; Revelation 1:5). We are saved by '[5]HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS' (Matthew 6:33; Romans 10:3,4; 1st Corinthians 5:21); and not our own willingness to do better (Isaiah 64:6; Ephesians 2:8,9; Titus 3:5; Romans 4:5,6,22).

True salvation has always been "to him that worketh not" as taught in Romans 4:5-6. This Scripture is frequently AVOIDED by Lordshippers, such as in Ray Comfort's Bible commentary titled, '[6]THE EVIDENCE BIBLE.'

rue Bible salvation has always been "to him that worketh not" as taught in Romans 4:5-6. This is [7]God's IMPUTED righteousness which is by faith alone, completely unmerited, attributed to the ungodly by faith. That means there's no requirement to cease from a sinful lifestyle to get saved. Somehow, somewhere along the way, the message of the law got corrupted and it became widespread in our churches today like Bubonic Plague. Instead of showing us our need for God's grace through Christ, the proponents of Lordship Salvation add keeping the law to grace, perverting the Gospel. By telling someone that they must turn from sins to be saved, they have added keeping the law to faith in Christ, which is not the Gospel.

The Bible plainly teaches in Romans 4:5 that a man's FAITH is counted as being equivalent with a lifetime of perfect righteousness. Our faith is worth all the righteousness in the world to God, and He counts it for salvation. Our faith is rooted in the righteousness of God, which is by faith in Jesus Christ and not our own self-righteousness (Isaiah 64:6). We have no true righteousness to offer to God.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

Proponents of Lordship Salvation place the burden of sin upon the sinner's shoulder, demanding for them to make difficult and big personal life changes as a prerequisite to being saved. What a heavy burden, when you are told that God won't save a you as a drunkard, unless you intend to reform and clean up your life. It is a cruel hoax to ask that of an alcoholic, who is chemically addicted and needs medical help. The same can be said of nearly every addiction: drugs, money, power, sex, gambling, lying, stealing, prostitution, gangs, self abuse, et cetera. The Lord doesn't ask us to give up anything except our unbelief, which is the ONLY sin that can keep a person from going to Heaven. Think about that. If you think I am exaggerating, consider this horrifying quote from [8]Evangelist Ray Comfort, in which he says you must stop fornicating to be saved:

> "So man, think about that. this is your eternity, you don't know when you're going to die. You know, God offers you everlasting life as a free gift, if you'll let go of your sins. And we love to fornicate, we love pornography, we love our lust; but like a kid holding onto a stick of dynamite, not realizing that it will be the death of us! So think about that. Think how much you value your eyes, and think about how much you value your life. Jesus said, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." [emphasis added] —Evangelist Ray Comfort, YouTube video titled: "[9]Ray Comfort Doesn't Share the Gospel with Him..." (video posted on May 31, 2020)

That is a counterfeit gospel, which cannot produce the new birth in Christ! Ray Comfort epitomizes the unbiblical mindset that I am warning you about. This is also the corrupt unbiblical mindset of [10]Dr. Steve Pettit and [11]Bob Jones University today, who preach Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). It sounds so spiritual and religious, but Lordship Salvation is not Biblical. It is not the Gospel of free grace! Cults like the [12]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam preach Lordship Salvation, and bid Godspeed to evildoers like John MacArthur and Steve Pettit. Anyone who perverts the Gospel is an evildoer and the enemy of the cross of Christ!!!

1.3.35 Christ Died For Our Sins According To The Scriptures (2020-07-29 01:52)

1st Corinthians 15:3, "For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;"

I love what the Apostle Paul said—ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES! That is why I very often say, "What saith the Scripture?" It doesn't matter what I think, or what you think, or what anybody else thinks, all that matters is what God thinks! Romans 3:3-4, "For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect? God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." Just because someone refuses to believe God's Word, doesn't make it untrue! Just because a man refuses to accept the reality of Hell, doesn't make it a myth! The Bible says let God be true, but every man a liar. I don't know about you my friend, but I agree with God!

Our churches these days are absolutely overrun with the heresy that you must "

turn from your sins

to be saved, or

be willing to turn from your sins

" to be saved

. The Bible calls them all liars! The Apostle Paul made a big deal of the fact that he was quoting THE SCRIPTURES! What saith the Scripture? Paul said that Christ died for our sins,

"according to the Scriptures." That is the truth! CHRIST DIED FOR YOUR SINS AND MINE!!! That is the truth of the Gospel. Jesus died, was buried and resurrected three days later, "according to the Scriptures." Jesus DIED FOR OUR SINS, "according to the Scriptures." The Bible does not say anything about being required to TURN FROM YOUR SINS to receive God's free gift of eternal life. So why do ungodly religious men embellish the Gospel, and add this unbiblical requirement? Case in point is Bob Jones University. The following is a quote from their Statement of Faith:

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [1]BJU Statements of Faith

What you just read is not according to the Scriptures! Oh my, that is a perversion of grace! Bob Jones University has it WRONG! Oh what a heavy burden to lay upon sinner's shoulders! This is far from the Gospel. Lordship Salvation is an entirely different mindset than the free grace Gospel. In God's legitimate plan of salvation, you simply acknowledge that you are a needy sinner and receive the risen Savior's sacrifice upon the cross 2,000 years ago as payment for your sins. But in the Devil's plan of Lordship Salvation, you must commit to turning away from a life of sinful behavior from now on, or else you are told you cannot be saved! I just quoted the hellish teachings at BJU to you, showing that they demand for people to commit to forsake the old life of sin, as a condition of saving faith. That is a heavy burden for sinners to bear, knowing that they must be willing to stop boozing, fornicating, lying, stealing and sodomizing to qualify to receive GOD'S FREE GIFT! You don't turn from your sins to be saved, you turn to Jesus by faith to be saved from your sins, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit's begins the work of conversion (1st Peter 2:2). The whole idea of a free gift

” (Romans 5:15-18) is that it is A FREE GIFT!!!

We’ve got a bunch of lying deceivers standing behind college and church pulpits today, hoodwinking people that God won’t save them unless they exchange their sins for eternal life. How is that in any way a free gift? It certainly is not! Galatians 1:6, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.” The problem is that we’ve got a bunch of ignorant and unlearned preachers nowadays, who are trying to manipulate people to turn from sin, instead of allowing God to raise His own children as their heavenly Father (Hebrews 12:6-8).

The way salvation works is that you come freely, as a needy sinner, and receive God’s free gift of eternal life by faith; and then God’s Holy Spirit comes inside to indwell that person, and the Holy Spirit (not the recipient of grace) changes that believer’s life from within (we call this sanctification). This is what growth in grace is. 1st Peter 2:2-3, “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious. ” John 17:17, “

Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.” Justification is instantaneous, but sanctification takes a lifetime. Pastor Jack Hyles wrote a helpful book on the subject titled: “

[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved.

As you see, Bob Jones University are ’WOLVES IN SHEEP’S CLOTHING,’ who teach that God demands something in return from you for His free gift of eternal life. They say you must be willing to repent and turn from your sins!!! BJU falsely says that God requires an exchange, something in return, you must pay the price of repentance from your sins! Ladies and gentlemen, the Devil is running Bob Jones College today! I am so sick of BJU trying to downplay the issue, preaching on grace and faith to save face, while fully supporting Dr. John MacArthur (the godfather of Lordship Salvation). And as I just showed you, BJU openly teaches Lordship Salvation. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that we MUST be willing to forsake our sins to receive the free gift of God. We are by nature lawless people. When we get saved, grace teaches us that we should live righteously and godly in Romans 5:6-9, “For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

” Jesus didn’t come to save those who are willing to turn from their sins, but to save everyone who believes on Him from their sins! That’s the Gospel! I love you dear reader. I care about you and just want to guide you to THE TRUTH as taught in the inspired King James Bible.

Revelation 1:5, “And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. ”

1.3.36 Beware Of The "Living A Lifestyle" To Be Saved Fraud (2020-07-29 09:30)

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Corinthians 15:2, "By which also ye are saved , if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain."

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - 1st Corinthians 15:2, "Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, 2 and by which you are being saved , if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain."

GOOD NEWS TRANSLATION (GNT) - 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the message about Christ's death on the cross is nonsense to those who are being lost; but for us who are being saved it is God's power."

I intentionally quoted three different revisions of the Holy Bible, to show you why I hate the modern Bible revisions, and only use the inspired King James Bible. Notice that the ESV (which Bob Jones University uses, sells and endorses) reads, "ARE BEING SAVED," whereas the accurate King James Bible says, "ARE SAVED." Now there's a big difference between "ARE SAVED" and "BEING SAVED." Getting saved is instantaneous, not a process. Beware of the deadly Lordship Salvation crowd today who deceitfully preach about salvation by grace through faith, while simultaneously preaching that you must "surrender everything" to receive the free gift of eternal life. For example: President of Bob Jones University, Dr. Steve Pettit heretically says:

> "I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[1]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" ('The Daily Platform,' chapel sermon #741)

That is not the Gospel of free grace. Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition Salvation is received, not achieved! You don't have to give your life and EVERYTHING to Christ to be saved. That is complicated Lordship Salvation, not the simple childlike faith of John 3:16. There is a very deadly teaching which has become prevalent in many churches and Bible colleges nowadays, which teaches that you must LIVE A CERTAIN TYPE OF LIFESTYLE to be saved.

One of the most deadly false prophets today is Evangelist Ray Comfort, who actually uses the phrase "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" while witnessing to a woman. In the following YouTube video clip, look at the BIG LIE Evangelist Ray Comfort tells this poor deceived woman passenger on an airplane. Kindly, Ray says that "repentance" means "LIVING A LIFESTYLE THAT PROVES THE REALITY OF YOUR REPENTANCE!" And then he adds, "IT'S A CONTINUAL THING!" Read for yourself what Mr. Comfort horribly teaches this woman, in this transcript from the Living Waters video:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]
> Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[2]I've never killed anyone" ([3]MP3 clip from video).

What a heavy, heavy burden to place upon a sinner!!! Jesus came to save us from our sins (Luke 19:10), not we from ourselves. Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Ray Comfort is a theological liar! Now my friend, "a double-dog dare" is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don't want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort. Biblical repentance regarding salvation is a simple change of mind, nothing more or less.

The Gospel of John is God's Gospel track. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." PLEASE DON'T MISS THAT! God authored the Gospel of John specifically so "that believing ye might have life through his name." That means we don't need any other Scripture than what is found in the Gospel of John to be saved. Where in the Gospel of John are we taught that, "LIVING A LIFESTYLE," is necessary to receive eternal life? You cannot! Mr. Comfort is a bold-faced theological liar! Ray is ADDING to the Gospel, perverting it! This means Mr. Comfort is accursed by God. Galatians 1:9, "As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." I didn't say that, almighty God did!

Our Baptist churches are in big trouble nowadays. Heresy is flooding in by the hour!!! Satan is always trying to corrupt the Bible, corrupt the Gospel, corrupt the preacher, and corrupt the churches, so he can corrupt people and prevent them from being born-again. The chapel sermon I heard today was a completely different story than the other day, titled "What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741). At 18:15 time in the sermon Dr. Pettit makes these horrible statements on how to be justified:

> "So I want to ask you, have you come to a genuine acknowledgment before God almighty of your sinfulness? Secondly, you have to change the way you view yourself. We call that 'repentance.' And repentance is sort of saying a 'No' and a 'Yes.' It's a turning AWAY FROM and a turning TO. What am I turning away from? I'm turning away from my own self-righteousness. I'm to turning away from depending on me, and all that's involved in me—self-righteousness, self-will, self-assertion, living my own life—I'm to turning away from that way of thinking. And then finally what do I have to do? I'm to put my trust, or my confidence, in Jesus alone." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[4]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

What you just read is of the Devil. Jesus told the Apostle Peter, "Get thee behind me, Satan" (Matthew 16:23b). So I say to Steve Pettit, "Get thee behind me, Satan!" What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The Bible teaches something very different than what Dr. Steve Pettit is teaching! Steve Pettit says you must turn away from living your own life to be saved. That is a doctrine of devils! That is LIVING A LIFESTYLE to be saved!!! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a devil-dog preacher! My eternal destination is not based upon how I live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me!!! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

The folks at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are upset with me, because I am exposing their hero, Steve Pettit. Harvest broadcasts Bob Jones University's (BJU) 'The Daily Platform' program on their local KHMG 88.1 FM radio station. The people of Micronesia are being corrupted by Harvest Baptist Church, as I just showed you. This junk theology is being aired throughout the islands! This is another gospel, not " the simplicity that is in Christ

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

According to Dr. Steve Pettit, it is not enough to admit you're a sinner and believe the 'GOOD NEWS' of Christ crucified, buried and risen; but also, Mr. Pettit adds an additional step of surrendering your life to Christ! That is how he errantly redefines faith. That is the same garbage which Dr. John MacArthur teaches! Folks, God does not require you to turn away from "LIVING MY OWN LIFE" to be saved. What Dr. Pettit is doing is combining discipleship with salvation, front-loading the Gospel. It's like expecting a newborn baby to run a 26 mile marathon! [5]Here are some excellent quotes differentiating between discipleship and salvation.

I love you dear friend with God's unconditional love, and I don't want anyone to go to Hell forever. Our holy God demands justice, and you will spend eternity paying for your own sins in Hell, if you die in them (John 8:24). I'd much rather **"

die in the Lord

(Revelation 13:14). Anyone who comes along preaching that you must live a lifestyle of repentance (as does [6]Ray Comfort), or faithfully run the race to the finish (as does [7]Steve Pettit), or says you must follow Jesus no matter what the cost (as does [8]John MacArthur) is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL of the Devil.

1.3.37 The Gift Of Eternal Life Is Not A Trade Or Exchange (2020-07-29 10:00)

Ephesians 2:8-10, " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them."

Many false teachers are saying that getting saved requires you to give up your sins, and to surrender everything to Christ as your “

Lord,

which is another gospel. The Bible does not teach that nonsense. Here is a helpful quote from Pastor Jack Hyles, refuting the false doctrine of Lordship Salvation:

> “Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, ’You give Me something; I’ll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved.’ Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, ’For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”’ —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]Lordship Salvation” (chapter 11 from his book: “[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”)

In his popular 1988 book titled, “

The Gospel According to Jesus,

” Pastor John MacArthur even heretically uses the word exchange

concerning being saved:

> “Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith.” [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus , p. 140

Salvation is not an exchange! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade. John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved!

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Please beware of anyone who teaches that God requires something FROM YOU in return, or as a condition, of receiving His gift. I was disgusted the other day while listening to Pacific Garden Mission's popular radio program called 'UNSHACKLED.'

Pacific Garden Mission is troubling Chicago with their perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Don't take my word for it, read this sickening transcript from UNSHACKLED:

> [3]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade; she takes a stroll on the beach and meets a stranger, to whom she starts discussing her struggle with truth.) Here is some of their interaction....

> Cydanni Ade: "I know, you're going to tell me He [Jesus] loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior."

> Stranger On The Beach: "Yes and no!"

Cydanni Ade: “What?”

Stranger On The Beach: “He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior HAS CONDITIONS!”

Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”

Stranger On The Beach: “Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think.”

Cydanni Ade: “I know that’s not true!”

Stranger On The Beach: “Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which *He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!”

Cydanni Ade: “Huh.” [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [4]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade)

Dear reader, there are NO CONDITIONS of salvation, except to freely RECEIVE God’s free gift! You don’t even have to “ ask

” God to forgive you! That’s right, you don’t need to ask God to forgive your sins, because Jesus has already paid for them with His blood. That is why God is offering eternal life to everyone as a free gift! The debt has been paid in full. Your sins have been completely paid for, and all you have to do is receive God’s gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Just take it by faith! You don’t have to ask God to save you, because He is already asking you! He simply wants you to receive His gift, by taking Him at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures.

Kindly said, another big time heretic today is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014).

Dr. Pettit is subtle in his words, deceptively changing the Word of God into a lie. Read what he says:

> “...faith in Jesus is not just an intellectual conviction, it is a personal commitment. Paul says, we have believed in Jesus, and the word ’in’ literally means ’into’ ... I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ .” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from “[5]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?” (The Daily Platform #741)

This is not true! So if you intellectually believe the Gospel you are not saved? That is what he says, that you must MAKE A PERSONAL COMMITMENT to Christ to receive God's gift. How do you have faith intellectually, but not be saved? That makes no sense. What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 1:12, "For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." Notice carefully that the Bible does not say Paul made a commitment to Christ; but rather, he committed the keeping of his soul into Christ's hands. The word "commitment" means "a deposit" (trust), which Dr. Pettit gets correct. We are depositing our trust in Christ for salvation. However, Dr. Pettit is perverting the Gospel when he says that we must deposit "everything" into Christ to be saved:

> "I am taking my life, my eternity, my destiny, everything, and I am placing it into Christ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit, an excerpt from "[6]What Does It Mean To Be Justified?" (The Daily Platform #741)

That is not the Gospel of free grace! If I am required to place EVERYTHING in my life into Christ to receive His gift, then that is really a trade, because I am obligated to give Him something too! [7]I am so sick of this Lordship Salvation garbage!!! I love Dr. Pettit and his family, and all the family at Bob Jones University, and my former beloved church family at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (before they excommunicated me in 2014 for telling the truth, as I am still doing now in this article). Eternal life is the free gift of God. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) got the Gospel right! Dr. Bob said, " [8]The gift of eternal life is wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus ." Boy, I love that! If you want God's gift of eternal life, then you must accept it in the package of Jesus Christ! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said in 1944 that he would [9]blow Bob Jones College to smithereens ([10]MP4), if he could in 50 years, if they ever let [11]an infidel like Dr. Steve Pettit come in and rob the saints of their faith!

The Gospel means GOOD NEWS! It is the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for your sins. He was buried , and three days later He bodily resurrected by the miraculous power of God. Jesus is the sinless only begotten Son of God, the Christ (John 20:31), who paid your debt of sin, and mine (2nd Corinthians 5:21), so we could freely have eternal life as a gift (Romans 6:23). How awesome is that? You and I are guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20). As such, we are also needy sinners! We need redemption. We need a Savior! It is absolutely impossible for anyone to save them self. No human being has ever done so, because all have sinned against God (Romans 3:23).

We have a wonderful Savior, who has already laid down His life for every ungodly sinner (Romans 5:6-9). If you will receive Him this moment Oh sinner, receiving His sacrifice upon the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, and that is your only hope for Heaven and eternal life, then you are saved! SIMPLE BELIEVE ON THE PRECIOUS NAME OF JESUS!!! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Do you believe friend?

Here is an awesome quote from Dr. Jack Hyles, refuting the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation:

> "In conclusion, notice the vanity and pride involved in one testifying to his salvation who believes in Lordship salvation. He is saying, "I have made Jesus my Lord." That means that Jesus controls his life and he is totally yielded. My, what a statement for a person to make about himself! On the other hand, notice the humility in the person's testimony who says, "I am saved because I received Christ as my Saviour." He is talking about a salvation that he did not merit. He did nothing to receive it except receive it. It was a gift. Whereas, if we had to give something to God to get something in return, he and God made a trade and his salvation is earned."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[12]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[13]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are a gift from God. It is no different than a Christmas present resting under the Christmas tree on December 25th, with your name on it, just waiting for some lucky dog to open it. You lucky dog you!

1.3.38 When A Free Gift Is Not Really A Free Gift (2020-07-30 10:30)

Romans 5:17-18, "For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

A gift is not really a gift when Bob Jones University teaches about salvation. I have listened to dozens of sermons this week, preached to the students of Bob Jones University from '[1]The Daily Platform.' In my humble opinion, it is a disgrace what Evangelist Steve Pettit has done to destroy Bob Jones University spiritually. I was shocked the other day when I heard [2]Dr. Pettit teaching Lordship Salvation to 2,700 impressionable students. We've got a whole generation of devils coming up in America, who will corrupt the churches because of the Satanic influence of BJU!

I read an article this week by 'Psychology Today' titled: "The 5 Types Of Gift Givers." Bob Jones University's false gospel would describe the third type of false gift giver—"THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING"...

> "The Wolf likes gift-giving to be even-steven—especially in terms of money spent—so beware of possible posturing or pouting if he or she is disappointed."

SOURCE: [3]https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/tech-support/201312/the-5-type s-gift-givers

Here is a heretical quote from Bob's Jones Statement of Faith:

With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:

We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [4]BJU Statements of Faith

As you see, Bob Jones University are 'THE WOLF IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING,' who teach that God demands something in return from you for His free gift of eternal life. They say you must be willing to repent and turn from your sins!!! BJU falsely says that God requires an exchange, something in return, you must pay the price of repentance from your sins! Ladies and gentlemen, the Devil is running Bob Jones College today!

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself taught something very different than what the college teaches today! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. taught salvation through simple faith in Jesus Christ, none of this "turn from your sins" crap that heretics' Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Ray Comfort and Calvinists are all teaching! Dr. Jones rightly says:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

I have read the entire book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. titled: "THINGS I HAVE LEARNED," and there is nothing about "turning from sins" to be saved. The last chapter of the book is titled, "HOW ARE WE SAVED?" There is no mention of "repenting of your sins" or being "willing to turn from your sins" to receive the free gift of eternal life. The foolish Bob Jones University crowd have been [5]BEWITCHED!!! (Galatians 3:1-3). Oh foolish Bob Jonians, who hath bewitched you, that you should follow another gospel? Oh [6]foolish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I dearly love so much, who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

> "Salvation is not a bargain, it is a gift... Sin is not accepting the gift!"

> (Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, "[7]The Gifts Of God Are Everlasting Life And Eternal Life")

God Is A Genuine Gift Giver

Psychology Today lists, “The 5 Types Of Gift Givers.” The Lord is ’The Genuine Giver.’ Psychology Today says this about ’The Genuine Giver’...

> “If you are lucky enough to have one or two of these folks in your life, it’s time for rejoicing. The genuine giver has actually thought about you and what would give you pleasure.”

> SOURCE: [8]https://www.psychologytoday.com/us/blog/tech-support/201312/the-5-type s-gift-givers

What did Jesus say? John 10:10, “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” Bob Jones University is ’The Thief.’ Jesus warned us about ’The Thief’ in John 10:1, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.” God is ’The Genuine Gift Giver,’ who wants to give everyone eternal life, to give us pleasure. Bob Jones University is doing the work of Satan, falsely claiming that God is ’The Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing,’ who demands that you be willing to pay the price of forsaking your sinful behavior, in exchange for His gift. Do you really believe that God is a ’Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing?’ Do you believe that the gift of eternal life requires an exchange for your sinful bad habits?

Eternal life is a free gift, with no strings attached. There are no obligations. [9]Dr. Steve Pettit sinfully teaches that you “MUST PERSEVERE” (his exact words) in holiness, ministry and service to others to get the “award” of Heaven. That’s exactly what he calls Heaven, an “award.” What a false prophet! Heaven is not an award, it is a free gift! When corrupted BJU chapel speakers talk about “grace,” they don’t get grace!!! Nobody gets grace who teaches that Heaven in an “award” for those who faithfully “run the race” and “persevere” to finish it! BJU is preaching another gospel!!!

All that is required is that you come to God by faith as a needy sinner, to accept His free gift, by receiving the resurrected Savior’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. You don’t have to be willing to turn from your sins, which would be an exchange, and not really a gift! God is a genuine gift giver, and not a wolf in sheep’s clothing!

1.3.39 Ye Must Be Born Again (2020-07-31 09:30)

"There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him. Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again" (John 3:1-7).

An unsaved man once said to me, "That born again stuff makes no sense to me." Perhaps you feel the same. There are "How To Be Saved" articles all over the internet (and I am thankful for them all), but many people want a complete explanation of what it means to be "born-again." Why do we need to be born again? What does it mean? That is my intent in this article, to explain this great Biblical doctrine in layman's terms. Please give me a moment and I will make it as plain as you've ever heard. Most people have religion, but very few people have ever been Biblically born-again. Unless you are born again, you absolutely cannot go to Heaven (John 3:5).

Simply put, to be “born again” means to have He (Jesus) Who is the beginning born in you. In Revelation 1:8 Jesus said, “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.” Alpha and Omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, respectively. Man by birth is spiritually dead, which I will explain further in a moment. To be born again is a miracle of God, by which Jesus Christ comes into your body and soul to live, literally in the form of the Holy Spirit of God. The Bible calls the Holy Spirit the “Spirit of Christ.”

Romans 8:9, “But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.”

To understand what it means to be born-again, it is necessary to understand that there are TWO BIRTHS. The “first” birth is the PHYSICAL BIRTH when you are born into this world from your mother and father. When the Bible speaks of being “born of water,” it is speaking about the physical birth (not water baptism). The “second” birth is a SPIRITUAL BIRTH, which means to be born of the “Spirit” (that is, God’s Holy Spirit). Why does a person need to be born spiritually? What is a “spiritual” birth?

The Bible teaches that man is created in the image of God (Genesis 1:26-27). There is one God according to Deuteronomy 6:4, but He exists in the three Persons of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The Bible refers to this triune nature of God as the “

Godhead

” (Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20, Colossians 2:9 - King James Bible only). Colossians 2:2b refers to the Godhead as “the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ.” The Godhead wasn’t meant to be understood; but rather, believed as sound Biblical doctrine by God’s children. Anyone who denies the Trinity after being taught the Bible is not a Christian!

If you’re born once, then you die TWICE;

If you’re born twice, then you die ONCE.

Likewise, mankind is created in God's image in the form of a body, soul and spirit. Our earthly body is the tabernacle (2nd Corinthians 5:1-4) of the soul and spirit. The body is a temporary dwelling place of man's soul and spirit. Our soul is composed of the heart (to feel), the mind (to think), and the will (to decide). Hebrews 4:12 makes a distinction between man's soul and spirit, "For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart."

Animals have souls, but not a spirit. Man's spirit returns to God upon death. Ecclesiastes 12:7, "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." Animals have a mind to think, and a heart to feel and a will to decide; but animals do not have a spirit to discern spiritual matters. This is why humans have an inherent need for religion The group PETA are insane to lobby in Washington to give animals the same rights as humans. Animals are animals, and people are people! Sometimes people behave like animals, but they are still humans (1st Corinthians 15:39).

Man's spirit is dead in sin when we are born; that is, we are born void of God with an inherited sin nature from Adam (Romans 5:12). The only exception is the Lord Jesus Christ, who was virgin born as God in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16). Our spirit is dead in trespasses and sin the Bible says in Ephesians 2:1-2,

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience."

The unsaved person cannot understand God, nor His Words, because they are spiritually discerned. 1st Corinthians 2:14,

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." The reason why you need to be "spiritually" born is because you have never been spiritually born to begin with. So when the Bible speaks of being "born again," it actually means "born for the second time." You were born physically into this world, but you were born without the Spirit of God in your soul (i.e., you were spiritually dead). Yes, God created you, but He gave you a freewill to decide for yourself where you will spend eternity. The unregenerate man cannot fellowship with God, because **"

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth

” (John 4:24).

God never forces anyone to accept Jesus as their personal Savior. He simply offers a warm invitation to anyone who wants to have their sins forgiven and go to Heaven. Salvation is a “ free gift

” (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23), paid for by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 1:5). We must accept God’s gift of eternal life or it WILL be forever forfeited when we leave this world at death.

God commanded Adam and Eve not to eat of the forbidden fruit in the Garden of Eden. Genesis 2:17, “But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.” Please notice that God said they would die “the day that thou eatest thereof.” Interestingly, Adam and Eve DIDN’T die physically the day they ate the fruit and disobeyed God’s command. Why?

The reason is because they died SPIRITUALLY instead of physically.

When Adam sinned, sin and death entered the human race (Romans 5:12). The Bible teaches that from Adam until present time, mankind has been born spiritually dead, inherited down from Adam’s sin. This is why humanity MUST be born-again. This is only possible through the Holy Spirit of God, which makes us alive again (quickened the Bible says) by faith in Jesus Christ as our Savior. We are saved by believing the Gospel (Good news) that Jesus DIED, was BURIED and physically RAISED up three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

To be “spiritually” born means that God’s Holy Spirit “quickens” us (or makes us alive). When a sinner believes on the Lord Jesus as the Christ—trusting Him alone to forgive all sins—then God the Father and God the Son come into one’s heart in the form of God the Holy Spirit (John 14:23). The “Holy Spirit” is “God within us.” The old carnal man is the flesh. The old man cannot be tamed. There is nothing good about the flesh. When we get saved (born again), the old man doesn’t change. Rather, Jesus Christ comes to live within our body. 1st Corinthians 3:16, “Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?” The temple of God is not the local church building down the street, it is the believer. If you are saved, YOU dear reader are God’s temple. A church is a group of believers assembling together, called out to meet in Jesus’ name.

’[1]THE CHURCH’

I have God living in my body in the form of the Holy Spirit. I was born-again at age 13. Romans 8:9 tells us that the Spirit of Christ dwells within every believer. I am not God, but I have God’s Spirit living in my body. The Godhead indwells every believer. The Holy Spirit of God guides me, comforts me, teaches me, rebukes me, chastises me, convicts me, encourages me, empowers me, loves me, strengthens me, and so much more. We learn all those truths in the Gospel of John, chapters 14-16. The Holy Spirit uses the inspired Word of God to do these things.

This is why it is critically important for every believer to live in their Bible (and make sure you have a reliable Bible—I only use the faithful King James Bible).

A person cannot understand the Bible without the presence of the author, and God is the Author. When you become born-again (or born for the second time), God’s Holy Spirit comes into your body (1st Corinthians 3:16), never to leave (Hebrews 13:5), and you will begin to understand many new things for the first time in your life. 2nd Corinthians 5:17,

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

It is ONLY through the precious Word of God that anyone can be born-again. 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” No one can be physically born twice. There is no turning back the hands of time. Likewise, once a person is born again into God’s family, it is irreversible. Anyone who teaches that salvation can be lost does not understand the new birth. False teachers who believe eternal life can be lost, only think that way because they errantly view salvation as a process instead of a new birth. Getting saved is a supernatural miracle of God in response to one’s faith in the ’Good News’ of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

How To Be Born Again Biblically

The way we become “born again” is found in the Word of God. 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.”

We are born again by the Word of God. Jesus is the Word of God (John 1:1,14: Revelation 19:13). The following statement sums it up pretty good...

If you’re born once, then you die TWICE;

If you’re born twice, then you die ONCE.

If you don’t receive Jesus Christ and become a born again Christian, then you will sadly burn in hellfire for all eternity (John 3:18,36; Revelation 20:15; 21:8). Perhaps you say with the man I mentioned earlier, “That born again stuff makes no sense to me.” Well, most people can’t explain how a black cow can eat green grass, give white milk, and then it’s turned into yellow butter—but they still eat it! My friend, you don’t have to figure everything out to be saved, you just need to trust upon Jesus, the Christ, the only begotten Son of God.

Again, being born-again means having He Who is the Beginning (Jesus Christ) born in you.” Revelation 1:8, “I am Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the Ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.” Isn’t that beautiful. When a person is born-again, the Spirit of Christ comes to live in that person’s body. “Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His” (Romans 8:9b). This birth comes about only through faith in the Son of God.

The ’GOOD NEWS’ (THE GOSPEL) is that it is very EASY to have the second birth, i.e., a spiritual birth. God came down to this earth 2,000 years ago and took upon Himself the form of a man. That man was the Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:1,14; 1st Timothy 3:16). Literally, the GODHEAD became incarnate (Colossians 2:9—King James Bible).

Jesus was born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14). Jesus never sinned even once (2nd Corinthians 5:21; Hebrews 4:15). Jesus died, was buried and rose again after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus shed His precious blood to pay for all our sins (Colossians 1:14; 1st Peter 1:18,19), and applied that blood to the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 24-26). My friend, if you believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God Who died, was buried and rose again for your sins, and you've made that your hope for Heaven by believing on His name, then you are a born-again child of God.

Jesus is the Savior Who paid for our sins. If you realize that you're a guilty sinner, then you simply need to believe on the Gospel of Jesus Christ to have your sins forgiven. Believe that Christ died and was resurrected, shedding His precious blood to wash away your sins. All God the Father asks is that we come for salvation by way of the cross upon which His Son Jesus Christ died.

"It is impossible to enslave, mentally or socially, a bible-reading people. The principles of the bible are the groundwork of human freedom." —Horace Greeley

1.4.1 Keep Thy Heart With All Diligence (2020-08-01 10:30)

Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart* with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

My favorite Bible verse is Proverbs 4:23,

Keep thy heart* with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

” Everyday we hear of people becoming victims, creating victims, and all manner of evil. These evil things proceed out from the human heart Jesus said. Matthew 15:18-19, “ But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:” That is why Proverbs 4:23 says, KEEP THY HEART; and that is why it is my favorite Bible verse, because we must always be on guard as believers! How do you keep your heart as a believer? I’m glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend.

How To

Keep Thy Heart

As A Christian:

1. Maintain a Biblical mindset (John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." 1st Corinthians 2:16, "For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.")

2. Immediately bring every wrong thought into compliance with God's Word (2nd Corinthians 10:5, "Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;"

3. Think About Good Things, And Avoid The Bad (Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." Avoid negative and ungodly people.)

4. Choose Your Friends Wisely (Proverbs 1:10, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not." 2nd Samuel 13:3a, "But Amnon had a friend." That friend's name was Jonadab, who convinced Amnon to rape his own half sister.)

5. Be Very Careful About The Advice You Give And Take (Esther 5:14, "Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and tomorrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made." That bad advice backfired, and instead Haman and his 10 sons were all hanged on those gallows. Zeresh was an ungodly wife, whose ungodly advice to her ungodly husband caused the execution of her 10 sons! So be careful what advice you give and take, because it could destroy your life and get your loved ones killed!)

6. Maintain A Constant Spirit Of Thanksgiving Toward God (Colossians 1:3, "We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you," Being thankful to God leads men to obey the Gospel, and believers to live for Christ.

   Isaiah 17:10, "

   Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

   " We only forget God when we stop being thankful.

7. Always Keep Your Eyes On Jesus! (Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.")

I love that... LOOKING UNTO JESUS!!! The Lord Himself is the Author and Finisher of our faith. An author is someone who creates a book. The author is not always the writer! For example:

God authored the Holy Bible, but approximately 40 men penned it. Likewise, our Christian life is a book in progress, that we are writing, but God is the divine Author! Here's proof in Philippians 2:13, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

" Isn't that beautiful? God is the Author and Finisher of our faith, working in us both to will and to do of His will.

Psalms 90:9, "For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told."

Jesus is precious!!!

> "A test of a Christian's character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus. You will never know down here that Christ is all you need until Christ is all you have left."
> —Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982)

1.4.2 Who Are The Wicked Servants In Matthew 24:45-51? (2020-08-02 09:30)

Matthew 24:3-5, "And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many."

Matthew 24 is an intriguing passage. I will tell you what I think it means. The disciples met privately with Jesus and asked Him what will be signs of the end of the world, and of His Second Coming.

Don't miss verse 5, because it explains Matthew 24:51. Most people interpret verse 5 to mean that false prophets will come who claim to be Jesus Christ. I don't think that is what it means. The Bible is saying that many shall come, confessing that Jesus is Christ. They will come in Jesus' name. Dr. Steve Pettit comes to mind, the president of Bob Jones University. He says that Jesus is the Christ. Dr. Pettit preaches in Jesus' name. Yet, [1]Dr. Pettit teaches the false plan of Lordship Salvation, leading people astray into false doctrines of devils. The Lord said people like Steve Pettit would lead MANY astray, deceiving them!

So this is what Matthew 24:45-51 is referring to—false prophets. These are false servants! They look like ministers of righteousness, but they are really ministers of unrighteousness, preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). I consulted my commentary by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) for Matthew 25:45-51 and this is what he brilliantly says:

> Responsibility to live for God and witness for Christ while waiting and watching for His appearing is what is stressed in the closing verses of the chapter.

> "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.: Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." —Matthew 24:45-51

> It is a great responsibility to be put in trust with any measure of divine truth. What is given is not for our own information alone but to be passed on to others. "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful" (I Corinthians 4:2). Those to whom the Lord has made known His purpose and counsels are therefore called upon to act as good stewards of the manifold grace of God, sharing with the household of faith the spiritual food for their encouragement and edification. The servant who fulfills his responsibilities along this line will be duly rewarded in the day of manifestation. But if any attempt to trifle with the truth, putting far off the coming of the Master, and live selfishly, manifesting a haughty, over-bearing spirit, they will have to face the Judge at an unexpected hour, and will be given their portion with the hypocrites. Such a servant is of course not a true child of God at all, but he will be judged nevertheless according to the profession he has made. It is a very serious thing to use one's knowledge of the truth of God for selfish enrichment, with no real concern for those to whose needs one is called to minister.

All service is to be in view of the coming again of the King when His faithful servants will have their places appointed in the kingdom according to the measure of their devotedness during the day of testimony."

Bravo! So we see that everyone who claims that Jesus is Christ is accountable as so-called "servants" they profess to be. In Matthew 7:21-23 they said, "LORD, LORD" to Jesus, but they were false servants. They boasted of their many wonderful works. They boasted of even casting out devils. But Jesus called them "ye that work iniquity" and said "I never knew you, depart from me"! They went to Hell. These were wicked servants! I think this is a good explanation of Matthew 25:45-51 by Pastor Ironside, and I'm sure you will agree.

Our churches and Bible colleges are full of wicked servants, who mishandle the truth of God's Word. I'm talking about Moody Bible Institute and their Calvinist garbage theology! I'm talking about Bob Jones University and their Calvinist garbage of Lordship Salvation. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. *1883-1968) preached Free Grace Theology, not Lordship Salvation. In fact, Dr. Jones said if he could, he'd come back from Heaven in 50 years and blow his college to smithereens, if infidels ever came to rob the saints of their faith. That evil has happened! Dr. John MacArthur in California is the enemy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Bob Jones University crowd bid him Godspeed, making them partaker of his evil deeds. These are the unfaithful wicked servants of whom the Lord warned in Matthew 24:45-51.

1.4.3 100 Reasons For The Believer's Eternal Security (2020-08-03 10:30)

John 10:28-29, " And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

The only kind of life that God gives is eternal life. God does not give temporal life or probationary life. The doctrine of eternal life is not a separate doctrine from eternal security, they are one and the same teaching! The man who has eternal security also has eternal security. He is assured 100 % of God's salvation. God promises **"

(1st Corinthians 1:21b). Here are one hundred truths from the Bible proclaiming the eternal security of the born-again believer:

100 Reasons And 100 Scriptures Proving Eternal Security...

By Pastor M.L. Moser, Sr.

1. The believer has eternal life.

John 10:28, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."

2. The believer has everlasting life.

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

3. The believer cannot perish.

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

4. The believer is kept by the power of God.

1 Peter 1:5, "Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

5. The believer is born of God.

John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

6. The believer has been passed front death unto life.

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

7. The man who believes shall be saved.

Acts 16:31, "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

8. The believer has been saved.

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

9. The believer is hid by God in Christ.

Colossians 3:3, "For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Can the devil find that which God hides?

10. The believer will follow Christ.

John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." Following Christ can one be lost? Have we any right to add to God's word by inserting "if" to the passage?

11. The believer is God's sheep.

John 10:2-4, "But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice."

12. The believer will not follow a stranger.

John 10:5, "And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers." If the sheep follow Christ and will NOT follow a stranger, how can they become lost?

13. The believer will not listen to the voice of a stranger.

John 10:5, "And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers."

14. The believer will flee from a stranger.

John 10:5: "And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers." Who is the STRANGER in this passage? Is the STRANGER not SATAN?

15. The believer is known of God.

John 10:14, "I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine." Compare

"I never knew you" of Matthew 7:23 spoken to the lost. "And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." To the believer Christ says, "I know my sheep"; to the lost, "I never knew you."

16. The believer listens to the voice of the shepherd.

John 10:27, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me."

17. The believer is in Christ's hand.

John 10:28, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."

18. The believer cannot be plucked out of Christ’s hand.

John 10:28, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."

19. The believer is in the Father’s hand.

John 10:29, "My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand."

20. The believer cannot be plucked out of the Father’s hand.

John 10:29, "My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand."

21. The Father is greater than all.

John 10:29, "My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand." The reference here is certainly to the keeping power of the Father.

22. The shepherd is charged with the responsibility of the sheep.

John 10:11-14, "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scat-tereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine."

Some argue that no one can separate the believer (the sheep) from the shepherd, but that the sheep can wander away. What about the wandering lamb of Matthew 18:10-14, "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. For the Son of Man is come to save that which was lost. How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish." What kind of shepherd would let his sheep wander off? Is not the shepherd there for one purpose and one only—TO KEEP THE SHEEP?

23. The believer is not condemned.

John 3:18: "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

24. The believer shall not come into condemnation.

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

25. There is now therefore no condemnation for the believer.

Romans 8:1, "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

26. The believer is sealed by the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 1:13, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise."

27. The believer is sealed for a definite time.

The day of redemption, or the resurrection of the body. Ephesians 4:30, "And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption."

28. The believers continue with God.

I John 2:19, "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us." The proof of the believer is his continuance. False professors fall out by the way. Had they been true believers they would have continued.

29. The believer liveth and abideth forever.

I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever."

30. The believer is dead to sin.

Romans 6:2, "God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?"

31. 'The believer will appear with Christ in glory.

Colossians 3:4, "When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory."

32. The life of the believer is Christ's life.

Colossians 3:4, "When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory."

33. Since Christ cannot die again, the believer is eternally secure.

Romans 6:9-10, "Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God."

34. The believer shall never thirst.

John 4:14, "But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into ever-lasting life."

35. The believer Will keep Christ's commandments.

John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."

36. The believer saved by faith not works.

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

37. This faith is a gift from God.

Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

38. The believer is not saved by what he does, but by what Christ has done for him.

Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

39. Salvation is a gift, not a wage.

Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord ."

40. The believer’s hope is a living hope.

I Peter 1:3, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead."

41. The believer’s hope will not fade away. Will not grow dim.

I Peter 1:4-5, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

42. The believer’s hope is reserved, (set aside) in Heaven for him.

I Peter 1:4, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you."

43. The believer’s inheritance is incorruptible.

I Peter 1:4, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you."

44. The believer’s inheritance cannot be defiled.

I Peter 1:4, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you."

45. The believer is kept through faith.

I Peter 1:4-5, (See reasons number 36 & 37) "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

46. The believer to be revealed in the last time.

I Peter 1:5, "Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be r evealed in the last time."

47. The believer is secure because of Christ's prayer.

John 17:9-12, "I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine. And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world; and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled."

48. The believer shall never die.

John 11:26, "And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

49. The believer to be kept from the evil.

John 17:15, "I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil." Jesus prays that the believer may be kept from the Devil.

Was this prayer answered?

50. The believer to be with Christ in glory.

John 17:24, "Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world."

51. The believer shall never hunger.

John 6:35: "And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst."

52. The believer will in no wise be cast out. (Not under any circumstances:)

John 6:37, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

53. Christ will not lose a single believer.

John 6:39, "And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me

I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day."

54. The believer is more than a conqueror through Christ.

Romans 8:37, "Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

55. Christ will raise up the believer at the last day.

John 6:38-40, "For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father’s will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have ever-lasting life:

and I will raise him up at the last day."

56. Whosoever eats the bread of life shall never die.

John 6:51, "I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

57. The believer justified by faith, to be saved from wrath.

Romans 5:9, "Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

58. Nothing can separate the believer from Christ.

Romans 8:38-39, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." There is nothing in death that can. There is nothing in life that can. There is not an angel that can. Good angels would not, bad angels cannot. Principalities cannot. Satan is head of principalities of darkness. Powers cannot. Satan is Prince of the powers of the air. Things present cannot separate. Things to come cannot. Heights cannot. There is nothing above that can separate us. Depth cannot. There is nothing below that can separate us. Nor any other creature. NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US FROM THE LOVE OF GOD WHICH IS IN CHRIST JESUS OUR LORD.

59. Christ will complete salvation until the end.

Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ."

60. The believer to be preserved spirit, soul and body.

I Thessalonians 5:23, "And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

61. God cannot lie.

Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began."

62. Jesus is able to save unto the uttermost.

Hebrews 7:25: "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them."

63. The believer is born of incorruptible seed.

I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." Can the devil corrupt that which God says is incorruptible?

64. The believer to be like Christ.

I John 3:2, "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is."

65. The believer is perfected forever.

Hebrews 10:14, "For by one offering he hath perfected forever them that are sanctified."

66. The believer believes unto the saving of his soul.

Hebrews 10:38-39, "Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul."

67. The believer made righteous through Christ's obedience.

Romans 5:18-19, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous."

68. Because all things work together for good to the believer.

Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

69. Because the believer is so helpless that he cannot place his sins upon Christ.

God must do it for him. Therefore salvation is by grace.

Isaiah 53:6: "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all."

70. Because Christ did not come to help us, but to save.

Luke 19:10, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost."

71. Because the Holy Spirit abides in the believer forever.

John 14:16-17, "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you."

72. Because God, not being a man, cannot lie.

Numbers 23:19, "God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?"

73. Because His mercy endureth forever.

Psalm 136. Twenty-six times in this Psalm it is written "His mercy endureth for ever."

74. Because it is the Father's will that Christ should lose nothing.

John 6:39, "And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me

I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day."

75. Because the believer has not yet borne the image of the heavenly.

I Corinthians 15:49, "And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

76. Because the believer is preserved unto the heavenly kingdom.

II Timothy 4:18, "And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever."

77. Because the believer is the object of God's mercy, not His wrath.

Ephesians 2:4, "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us."

John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

I Thessalonians 5:9-10, "For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him."

78. Because a sealed and witnessed transaction is final.

Ephesians 1:13, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise." Sealed with the Spirit.

Hebrews 10:15, "Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us." Witness of the Spirit.

79. Salvation is obtained, not attained.

Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us."

80. Because the believer is a new creation. Created in Christ Jesus. Therefore eternal in righteousness. Ephesians 4:24: "And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness."

81. Because the Father reckons the sinner:

Dead with Christ,

Buried with Christ, Raised with Christ, Romans 6:3-5.

Seated with Christ, Ephesians 2:4-6.

Romans 6:3-5, "Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection."

Ephesians 2:4-6: "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved);

And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus."

82. Because all believers will be changed at Christ's coming.

I Corinthians 15:51,52: "Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed."

83. Because of the "MUST" of I Corinthians 15:53.

"For this corruptible MUST put on incorruption, and this mortal MUST put on immortality."

84. Because the power of God is not limited.

Matthew 28:18-19, "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

I Peter 1:5, "Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time."

85. Because one cannot be unborn.

John 3:5, "Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

86. Because the saints are preserved forever.

Psalms 37:28, "For the Lord loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off."

87. Because Christ will raise every believer up at the last day.

John 6:44-47, "No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and

I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

88. Because nothing can separate us from the love of Christ.

Romans 8:35, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?" (The answer "NO" is demanded by the passage to the question).

89. Because the believer overcomes the world.

I John 5:4, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

90. Because it is the believer's faith that overcomes the world.

I John 5:4, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

91. Because God will not forget the believer

Isaiah 49:15, "Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee."

92. Because the new covenant in His blood, is an everlasting covenant.

Jeremiah 32:40, "And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I wilt not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me."

93. Because the believer has ceased from his own works.

Hebrews 4:10, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his."

94. Because it is God that works in the believer.

Philippians 2:13, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure."

95. Because we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Christ once for all.

Hebrews 10:10, "By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all."

96. Because God's promise that through the offering of Christ He will put away the believer's sins, and will remember them no more.

Hebrews 10:17, "And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more."

97. Because the believer has already been redeemed. (Past tense.)

I Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."

98. Because of the record that God hath given.

I John 5:10-11, "He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself; he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son."

99. Because the believer's salvation is begun and finished by Christ.

Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

100. Because salvation is by grace, and not by any mixture of grace and works.

Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace.

But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."

101. Because salvation IS salvation.

1.4.4 Why The Devil Changes And Corrupts The Word Of God (2020-08-04 09:30)

Genesis 3:1, " Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

The serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) subtly came to Eve to trick her. It is very interesting that the very first thing the serpent did in his interaction with Eve, was to question what God said to her... "

YEA, HATH GOD SAID

"? The Devil was the first person to ever tamper with the Word of God, changing it into a lie! If you look back to the previous chapter, you'll see that God said something different than what the serpent said to Eve.

Genesis 2:16-17, "

And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

" What did the serpent say to Eve?

Genesis 3:1b, " Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?"

Wow, the serpent misquoted God and said the exact opposite! God said they could eat freely of every tree, but the Devil quoted God as saying they couldn't eat of every tree. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

The Devil is still up to his old subtle ways in the 20th century! Look at the following comparison between Philippians 2:6 in the King James Bible and Bon Jones University's English Standard Version of the Bible:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Philippians 2:6, "Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:"

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Philippians 2:6, "who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,"

Do you see how Satan has misquoted the inspired Word of God, saying the exact opposite? Why, oh why, does Bob Jones University, use, sell, promote, sanction and bid Godspeed to this evil work of darkness? 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." BJU has blood on their hands! They are leading impressionable people astray from the truth, confusing the churches, and Satan is incredibly subtle. That means the Devil is often difficult to detect or grasp by the human mind. He is sneaky and very smart. In fact, the Devil is so subtle that he deceive you into thinking you're serving God, but in reality you are headed for Hell. We see this truth bared out in Matthew 7:21-23. They called Jesus, "LORD, LORD," but they went to Hell forever, having failed to do the will of God, which is to believe on the Savior (John 6:40). The Devil can get you so turned around in your thinking as a Christian, that you think like him. That is why Jesus said to the Apostle Peter, **"

Get thee behind me, Satan

(Matthew 16:23). Jesus said that the Devil is so subtle that, if it were possible, he would deceive even God's children with a false gospel.

Matthew 24:24, "

For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

" The best way to expose the darkness is to shine the light of the truth! God's Word is truth; "t hy word is truth

(John 17:17b).

It is impossible for any human being to understand how important the inspired Word of God is. Revelation 22:18-19, "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

The serpent changed what God had said, saying the exact opposite. The serpent began to deceive Eve by asking a seemingly harmless question. The serpent planted a seed of doubt into Eve's mind. That was all it took, and then Eve started to rationalize. She said three things to justify her sin: 1) It will be good for food; 2) It is pleasant to the eyes; 3) It will make me wise. And then Eve sinned by eating the forbidden fruit. Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! Eve never would have looked for excuses to sin, had she not first been lied to by the Devil. This is how the Temper operates!

The Devil likewise came to Jesus in the New Testament, misquoting the Scriptures:

Matthew 4:6-7 "

And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Jesus said unto him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

This is very interesting! The Devil knows the Bible inside and out. I guarantee you that Satan has the Bible memorized, every word of it! This is the prophetic Old Testament passage that the Devil quoted to Jesus from Psalms 91:11-12, “ For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. ” Carefully notice that the Devil left out the phrase,

“to keep thee in all thy ways.” The angels were there to protect Jesus, not to save Him from tempting God! Jesus responded to Satan by quoting Deuteronomy

6:16a,

Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God...

” Jesus knew the Bible well! The Devil knew the Bible well! There are many lessons we can learn from this interaction between our Lord and Satan, but primarily we learn that the inspired Word of God is our weapon! But the Bible is only as effective as our knowledge of the Scriptures! That is why every believer should daily get into the King James Bible. Read it! [1]Listen to it! Study it! Share it! Love it!

In consideration of the truths I just shared with you, it becomes very obvious why the Devil would want to change the Holy Bible. The Devil change the Bible to deceive Eve, and it worked. The Devil changed the Bible in an attempt to deceive Jesus, but he failed. Eve could have quoted God’s Words from Genesis 2:16-17 to defeat the serpent, but she WENT ALONG with the deception! Eve went along with THE CHANGES the serpent made to God’s Word!!! That is what Bob Jones University and everyone using the Devil’s Bible revisions are doing today—hey are GOING ALONG WITH THE DEVIL’S CHANGES!!!

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) said it absolutely right:

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” — Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “The Tabernacle,” Pg. 101

The serpent is still tampering with the Word of God in the last days, for the same reason he did in the Garden of Eden, to DECEIVE his victims! James 4:6-7, “But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” The most important thing is to SUBMIT TO GOD! We submit to God by submitting to the Word of God. Proverbs 3:5-6, “ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

The Devil wants to get you to live independent of God. That was the raw deal he sold Eve, which didn’t work out so well in the end. Satan offered Jesus the kingdoms of this world, and everything that the world has to offer a man, but the Lord quoted the Scriptures to resist him, which is what we must also do. John 5:39, “ Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.” If the Devil can successfully corrupt the Word of God, and we go along with those changes (as Eve did), then he can shape our thinking, and lead us to destruction.

1.4.5 We Are More Than Conquerors Through Jesus Christ (2020-08-05 09:30)

Romans 8:33-37, "Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us."

The Bible says we are not just a "conqueror," but "MORE THAN CONQUERORS." It is impossible to lose that which Christ has forever conquered! Jesus' work of redemption was so profound, so magnificent, and so permanent, that it cannot be undone! That is why we are MORE THAN CONQUERORS, because Christ's work of redemption is forever settled! What Jesus did FOR US is how we conquer! We conquer THROUGH JESUS!!! We are more than conquerors THROUGH JESUS CHRIST!!! Jesus didn't almost die for us, HE DID DIE FOR US!!! Jesus could have dropped that cross and called twelve legions of angels to rescue Him (Matthew 26:53). But Jesus " for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12:2b). Jesus gladly paid the price for our sins with His precious blood. THANK YOU JESUS!!!

We are secure in God's salvation, because we are secure in Christ's work, not our work!

1st John 5:4, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." Faith in Jesus Christ is the way to have eternal life! John 10:9, "

I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

" We are safe and secure in the Father's hands.

[1]The Old Account Was Settle Long Ago! | [2]Forever Settled

What saith the Scripture? John 16:33, "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." Jesus overcame the world by His sinless life, sacrificial death on the cross to pay for our sins, and His victorious bodily resurrection from the dead. Hallelujah! God is more than amazing!!!

When Christ died for our sins, He did it perfect the first time, He doesn't need to do it again. When Jesus resurrected, He did it perfectly. Everything that God does is right! When Jesus saved us, He got it right the first time, so that we can NEVER lose God's salvation!!!

If you don't believe right, you cannot live right! You've got to think right.

Psalms 92:4-5, " For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep." If you want to study the DEEP THINGS of God, then simply study the Word of God. When you study the Bible, you are studying the wisdom of God that no man can duplicate or imitate.

Psalms 92:12-14, " The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon. Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

They shall still bring forth fruit in old age*; they shall be fat and flourishing; To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him." I love very 14, which says we shall still bear fruit (souls saved) in our old age! Amen and amen! I am reminded of Anna, an 84 year old woman in Luke who witnessed the Gospel to truth-seekers coming to Jerusalem, who inquired about Jesus. I love this faithful lady...

> Luke 2:36-38, "
>
> And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;
>
> And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day*.
>
> And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.
> **"

Notice that Anna served God night and day through fastings and prayers. Oh how she puts 99 % of believers to shame. How's your War Room doing? If you haven't seen the 2015 religious film: '[3]WAR ROOM,' it is definitely worth watching, to encourage you to pray. If the preceding YouTube link goes dead, just search for 'WAR ROOM' on YouTube for another link (you might get lucky). [4]I wrote an article about this movie. Luke 18:1, " And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;" I prayed for you today, did you pray for me? Well, what are you waiting for, I NEED YOUR PRAYERS! All we have is each other as Christians. We ought to pray incessantly about everything (Philippians 4:6), throughout the day, always seeking the Lord.

We are more than conquerors

THROUGH JESUS CHRIST who loves us!!! What a blessed Savior!!! Jesus is mine!!! He can be yours too if you don't have Him, just simply receive Him. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

1.4.6 Continuous Faith Is Not Required To Be Saved (2020-08-06 06:27)

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Acts 16:30-31, " And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

I found the following very interesting article written by a born-again man. I didn't see his name on the website, but [1]here is his personal Christian testimony. Here is a link to the article: [2]CONTINUOUS FAITH IS NOT IN VIEW IN JOHN 3:16 AND IS NOT REQUIRED TO BE SAVED. I have preserved the information below (same as the article), which contains an assortment of quotes from Bible scholars, dictionaries, Bible verses, et cetera, proving that believing is not an ongoing process required to be saved, it is a one time NEW BIRTH! Without further ado, to God be the glory:

I) "WHOEVER BELIEVES" IS A NOMINATIVE PRESENT PARTICIPLE PORTRAYING A SINGLE MOMENT OF BELIEVING AND NOT A CONTINUOUS ONE

A) "PAS HO PISTEUON" = "WHOEVER BELIEVES" IS A NOMINATIVE PRESENT PARTICIPLE = A NOUN WHICH ONLY REQUIRES AN INSTANT OF BELIEVING

The phrase "whoever believes" in John 3:16 = "pas ho pisteuon" = relative pronoun "pas" = "everyone who" with a definite article "the" = "ho" + the present participle verb functioning as a noun, lit. "everyone who is the believing one".

[The Language of the New Testament, Eugene Van Ness Goetchius, Chas. Scribner's Sons, N.Y., 1965, p. 173]:

> "Present participles may be used substantively [as a noun]... In the translation of such constructions into English one must usually resort to paraphrases of the types illustrated...
>
> 1) [Compare Romans 12:7]:
>
> "If it is serving, let him serve; if it is teaching, let him teach;"
>
> "o didaskon" = the teaching one, the one teaching, the one who is teaching, the one who teaches.

So "pas ho pisteuon" = "everyone who is the believing one", i.e, everyone who is the believer at the moment one begins believing.

["Syntax of New Testament Greek", Brooks & Winbery, 1979, University Press, Lanham, Md, pp. 144]:

"THE SUBSTANTIVAL PARTICIPLE

The participle, like an adjective, may be used in the place of a noun or other substantive. The participle itself then functions as a noun. Its case, gender, and number are determined by its use in the sentence. It may be used in most of the ways in which a noun is used, e.g. as a subject nominative, as a dative of indirect object, as an accusative of direct object, etc. It may be used with or without an article. It always stands in the attributive position [following the article]."

2) [Compare Mark 6:14]:

”’King Herod heard about this, for Jesus’ name had become well known. Some were saying, "John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him.”’

"John the Baptist" = "ioannes ho baptizon" =

"ho baptizon" = "the baptizing one" = present, active, participle as a noun = "the Baptist"

[Bob Wilkin states, Grace in Focus periodical, Jan/Feb 2006, Vol 21, Number 1, Grace Evangelical Society, Irving Texas, p. 2]:

"Herod had put John to death after imprisoning him for some time. John had not baptized anyone in a long time, yet Herod still called him "ho baptizon" We still call him that today, even though he hasn't baptized anyone for 2000 years! John was only the Baptist when he was in the water baptizing people. Each time he came out of the water after conducting baptisms, he would cease being ho baptizon. Of course, using that reasoning, since John stopped baptizing forever when he was imprisoned, his baptism was a false or spurious baptism all along!"

3) [Compare John 1:33]:

"I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'

[Notice that "ho baptizon" refers to Jesus, with the clear implication is that our Lord will not forever baptize people with the Holy Spirit. Once the church age ends, this ministry of Jesus will end forever]

Just as John the Baptist was still considered the Baptist even while he was in jail, (Matthew 14:8), and the one who baptizes, even after he was beheaded, (Mark 6:14);

so a believer is a believer from the moment he trusts in Christ for eternal life.

So "pas ho pisteuon" in John 3:16 = "everyone who is the believing one", i.e, everyone who is the believer at the moment one begins believing.

Thus a believer is legitimately referred to as a believer from the moment he trusts in Christ for eternal life, at which moment he receives possession - continuous and forever - of eternal life because possession of eternal life is forever.

The nominative present participle is thus referring more to the person than the act of believing, and therefore it is clear that the focus is on momentary action rather than continuity.

[Dr. Robert Wilkin states, The Grace Report, Monthly Report of the Grace Evangelical Society, Irving, Texas, March 1999; notes and Letters, p. 4]:

> ”’The articular participle (=the article "the" [=’ho’] plus a participle [ex. pisteuon = believing] functions as a verbal noun. Thus [’ho pisteuon’ =] ’the one who believes’ does not mean ”he who keeps on believing and believing and believing’ but means ’the believer.’ [i.e., one who at some time exercised a single moment of faith alone in Christ alone]. Anyone who comes to faith in Christ is from that moment forward ’the believer.’ ”’

In other words, the nominative present participle has in view one who at some moment in present time exercised a single moment of faith in whatever is specified, in this case, trusting that God gave His one and only Son for one as a believer.

B) "PAS HO PISTEUON" = "WHOEVER BELIEVES" IS NOT A SIMPLE CONTINUOUS PRESENT TENSE & THUS DOES NOT CONVEY CONTINUOUS ACTION

The phrase "whoever believes" in John 3:16 is not a simple continuous present tense as some contend in order to demand that one maintain a constant state of believing so that one will continue to possess eternal life otherwise lose it; rather, as previously indicated, it is the relative pronoun "whoever" with the definite article "ho" = "the" and the present, active nominative participle verb "pisteuon" = "pas ho pisteuon"= "everyone who is the believing one" = a noun.

Consider the individuals who are found guilty of various offenses before a magistrate in a court in the times of the ancient Roman Empire - New Testament times. The magistrate declares before the group of guilty people in Koine Greek, the language of the New Testament, in a statement that directly parallels the second half of John 3:16, ’Whoever pays his fine shall not perish in jail, but have freedom to go, with his life.’ Does the present tense of ’Whoever pays’ demand continuous - uninterrupted payment of the fine in order for an individual to "have freedom to go, with his life?" The answer is obvious, the present tense does not always demand continuous uninterrupted action in the present.

Just as the payment of the Magistrate’s fine was done once in present time such that it results in freedom - the payment not having to be continuous; so the believing in Christ as Savior, when it begins in present time, immediately results in the aorist tense completed action of never perishing and the present tense reception of eternal life such that the believing need not continue in order to keep the result of never perishing and possession of eternal life continuous because the never perishing is a completed action and the eternal life by its very nature once received is continuously eternal.

If I were to say, "In the morning I get on a bus, pay my fare with a bus pass, and get off where I work;" does the phrase ’pay my fare’ mean I continually pay the fare until the ride ends, or is it in a moment of present time until the end is achieved, i.e., about 1 second to swipe the pass through the slot on top of the fare box? Same with ’I get on the bus’ is not continual nor is ’get off’. Present tense is simply a present moment of action until the context determines when the action ceases. This is true in the Koine Greek also.

Furthermore, even if the simple present tense were the verb in the original Greek text - and it is not - a special context and/or additional words such as "diapantos" = continually, must be inserted into the text in order to convey the idea of continuous believing. The Greek present tense by itself does not convey such an idea - nor does its counterpart in English. Simple present tense action in the absence of qualifiers demands a singular action in the present moment without requiring that it continue into later moments in any language. No first century Greek reader or hearer was likely to get a meaning such as ’continue to believe’ without the necessary additional qualifiers to the simple present tense.

1) [Compare Hebrews 13:15]:

> "Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise–the fruit of lips that confess his name."

"anapheromen ... thusian ... aineseos diapantos"

"we should offer sacrifice of praise continually"

Notice that "anapheromen" = "we should offer" is present tense. Yet in order to emphasize continual action the word "diapantos" = "continually" must be inserted.

In addition to this, the appeal to force the simple present tense to mean continuous action would lead to havoc in many passages in the New Testament. For example, 1 John 1:8 reads, "If we [born again believers] say that we have no sin [="ouk echomen" = present tense] we deceive ourselves". If this verse is rendered in the continuous mode, it would be read, "If we say that we do not continuously have sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." This indicates that in spite of becoming born again believers there is no time in the believer's life that he can claim not to be living a lifestyle of continuous, unadulterated sin - no time for anything else!!!

Since eternal life is immediately received at the first instant of believing according to numerous salvation passages whereupon it is also established - often stipulated, that a believer has an absolute assurance of his eternal destiny in heaven, (ref. 1 John 5:9-13); and since eternal life once received by definition is continuous and everlasting for that individual believer without interruption or cessation from then on no matter what, then to insist that continuous believing is thereupon required in order to continue to have eternal life is nonsensical, contradicts normative rules of language and violates the doctrine of assurance, i.e., eternal security.

In the final analysis "whoever believes" = "pas ho pisteuon" in the Greek, the form of the verb to believe in John 3:16, is not a simple present tense form at all; but it is actually a nominative, singular, masculine, present active participle, i.e., a participle acting as a noun indicating "one who believes" [in Christ as Savior], i.e., a believer. The participle acting as a noun does not require a perfection of continuous action such as continuous believing in order for an individual to be qualified as a believer.

C) A CONTINUOUS STATE OF BELIEVING IN CHRIST IS NOT POSSIBLE WITH MAN

According to Scripture, a continuous and perfect state of believing in Christ is not possible with man which would necessitate sinless perfection. For any sin a believer commits reflects a degree of unbelief and no one can claim to be without sin, nor maintain a perfect state of continuous faith:

1) [Compare 1 John 1:8, 10]:

(v. 8) "If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.

(v. 10) If we claim we have not sinned, we make him out to be a liar and his word has no place in our lives."

No believer can claim to maintain a perfect, uninterrupted record of faith in Christ as he is bound to commit acts of unbelief throughout his life.

2) [Compare 1 John 4:7-12]:

(v. 7) "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God.

Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.

(v. 8) Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love."

[Notice that "whoever does not love does not know God" in the sense of being out of fellowship with Him for the moment, acting as one who does not know God, an unbeliever. Since sin is an act of not loving, and since all believers sin, then at those moments they do sin, they do 'not know God', i.e., their faith in Him is imperfect]

Can an individual express saving faith in Christ as Savior continuously - without any interruption all his life even during moments when he is asleep - completely in unconscious sleep?

Suppose while in a deep sleep with your active mind unconscious, you no longer are continuously maintaining faith in Christ as Savior, you die in your sleep and then because of this unconscious lapse, wake up in Hell - after a long life of faithful service to God!!!!

Can an individual maintain perfect, uninterrupted saving faith in Christ as Savior throughout his waking day? Consider an accountant who is in deep concentration, keying in figures on a spread sheet making sure of his accuracy. Can he also be maintaining a deep concentration on trusting in Christ as Savior without interruption?

Have you ever lost your salvation during the moment when you are considering what to have for lunch instead of continuing to believe in Christ to save you - as your thoughts are not for the moment on Jesus Christ but on the Tuna Melt sandwich on the menu?

What do you then need to do to get it back? Is it really eternal life if you keep losing it every time your mind wanders to some other subject? Wouldn't it be better to call it 'For the Moment Life' rather than eternal life? And how do you get eternal life back after your momentary lapse?

II) ETERNAL LIFE ONCE RECEIVED IS FOREVER

A) "ETERNAL LIFE" = "ZOEN AIONION" = LIT. LIFE FOREVER

When an individual expresses a moment of belief in the Son being given for him he receives possession of life with God forever.

Since eternal life has a unique quality about it of being everlasting in duration; then such a life will not cease once it has begun to be the possession of the individual at the beginning moment of faith when he became "ho pisteuon eis auton" = the believer in the Son of God being given up for him. Otherwise eternal life would not be called eternal life, it would be called 10 year life or 10 minute life as the case may be. So if the believer does not maintain a continuous state of believing in the Son after that first moment of faith, the duration of the believing will not have an effect on the duration of the eternal life since the latter has begun to be the forever possession of the believer.

B) ETERNAL LIFE ONCE RECEIVED IS AN INTRINSIC PART OF AN INDIVIDUAL WHICH CAN NEVER BE LOST

1) LIFE IS AN INTRINSIC PART OF AN INDIVIDUAL

[Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary [G & C Merriam Co., Springfield, Mass, 1980]:

Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary defines life as "a principle or force that is considered to underlie the distinctive quality of animate beings; an animating and shaping force or principle." Hence, this principle is inherent in the individual, an intrinsic part that animates every part of ones being.

2) ETERNAL LIFE CANNOT EXIST SEPARATELY FROM THE INDIVIDUAL - BEING ETERNAL, ONE THUS WILL NEVER LOSE IT

In the same way as one’s physical/mortal life, eternal life once received becomes an intrinsic part of one and it is for eternity. It cannot be for less than eternity because it could not then be called eternal life.

When mortal/physical life ceases it does not exist outside of one like a separate entity like a diamond can. It is an intrinsic part of one and once it is lost, it simply no longer exists. It is gone and ones existence has changed without it.

Furthermore, once one receives eternal life it becomes an intrinsic part of one but now it is for eternity by definition. It cannot be lost and exist outside of one any more than mortal/physical life can.

III) OTHER PASSAGES STIPULATE A MOMENT OF FAITH ALONE IN CHRIST ALONE UNTO ETERNAL LIFE FOREVER IN VERB FORMS THAT CORROBORATE A MOMENT OF FAITH IN JOHN 3:16

A) [Mark 16:16]:

> "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned."

"believes" = "ho pisteusas" = the one believing, nom, sg, m. aor. active participle. "whoever does not believe" = "ho de apistesas" = nom, sg, m. aor. active participle [Notice: aorist tense signifying a punctilear moment of faith in order to be saved]

B) [John 3:18]:

> "Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God’s one and only Son."

"Whoever believes" = "ho pisteuon" = nom. sing. m. pres. act. part.

"But whoever does not believe" = "ho de me pisteuon" = = nom. sing. m. pres. act. part.

"because he has not believed" = "oti me pepisteuken" = perfect tense, active, indicative, 3rd, sing. Notice that the perfect tense signifies a completed action moment of faith with ongoing results in the present in order to secure avoidance of condemnation forever. Thus the present participle, "whoever believes" = "ho pistueon" is paralleled to "because he has not believed", signifying that only a moment of faith is sufficient to secure eternal life.

C) [Acts 16:29-31]:

(v. 29) "The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas.

(v. 30) He then brought them out and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

(v. 31) They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household."

“ ETERNAL LIFE ” By John W. White

[3]http://www.gracebiblechurch.us/tracts/eternal.html

”’In Acts 16:30-31 is the only place in the Bible where saved is in the question and saved is in the answer.

"… Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

Paul used the aorist tense of the verb ’believe’ and not the present tense. The aorist tense is graphed by using a dot (.), an event. The present tense is graphed by using a line (-), which expresses continuous action. You believe one time and you are saved and you do not have to continue to believe to stay saved”’

IV) IF THE PHRASE "WHOEVER BELIEVES" WERE PRESENT TENSE, (AND IT IS NOT - IT IS A NOUN), THE CONTEXT WOULD DEMAND THAT IT BE IN THE AORISTIC PRESENT IN VIEW OF THE AORIST TENSES OF "GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD", "THAT HE GAVE HIS ONE AND ONLY SON", AND "SHOULD NOT PERISH"

The aoristic present tense presents the action as a simple event or as a present fact without any reference to its progress.

The phrase "should not perish" in John 3:16 is in the aorist tense providing a completed state of never perishing at the moment in the present one becomes the believer.

This is all as a result of the aoristic future tense in both verses of God having so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son. Since all of the above actions are completed action moments, the aoristic present "whoever believes" would be in view if "whoever believes" in John 3:16 were in the present tense.

V) COMPLETED ACTION OF NEVER PERISHING = POSSESSION OF ETERNAL LIFE

THE AORIST TENSE "SHOULD NOT PERISH" PROVIDES AN INDIVIDUAL WITH A STATE OF NEVER PERISHING AT THE MOMENT HE BECOMES A BELIEVER. IT IS NOT AFFECTED BY WHETHER OR NOT THE BELIEVING CONTINUES ON AFTER THAT

Notice that "should not perish" is in the aorist tense providing a completed state of never perishing at the moment one becomes the believer. A completed action of never perishing is thus not effected by whether or not the believing continues on after that. Furthermore, a completed action of never perishing is another way of saying one is in a state of having eternal life which immediately follows in parallel in John 3:16 after the connective word, "but" = "whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life". The two are inseparable, you are never perishing when you have eternal life.

One would then ask the question, 'Why would a continuous state of believing be necessary if a completed action of the aorist tense of 'never perishing' resulted at the moment one becomes a believer?' Answer: it is not necessary.

If continuous believing were necessary to provide one with a state of not perishing then John 3:16 must be changed to read "whoever continuously believes in Him will [future tense] not perish but will have [future tense] eternal life."

1.4.7 Lordship Salvation Versus Eternal Security (2020-08-06 10:00)

John 6:47, "

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

I hunger for wayward preachers to repent of their false teachings! I wish [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort would come to his senses and stop preaching another gospel. I wish [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) would come to his senses, and stop [3]preaching another gospel. Here is a wonderful truthful quote by famous Christian author John Bunyan (1628-1688):

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is the exact opposite of What Evangelist Steve Pettit heretically teaches at Bob Jones University today to their 2,700 students and faculty. Dr. Pettit heretical teaches:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[4]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

I want to repeat what John Bunyan said, because it is exactly what is wrong with Dr. Pettit's counterfeit gospel message:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and *sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

What a helpful quote! John Bunyan nailed it, explaining where John MacArthur and Steve Pettit go horribly wrong on the Gospel. These ungodly men make light of the truth of the Gospel, merging Free Grace Theology with Lordship Salvation, and in so doing they are not able to divide the Word of God aright!!! Instead, they CORRUPT the Word of God, and cast a stumbling block before the people. This is exactly what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) [5]warned would happen, and for which [6]he'd blow Bob Jones College to smithereens if he could! The Devil and his unsaved infidels have taken control of Bob Jones University today!!! You don't have to surrender everything, nor turn from your sins, nor run the race faithfully until the end, to receive God's free gift of eternal life! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

My mentor of the Christian faith, Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) preached a beautiful sermon on this very topic, titled: "

[7]Steps In Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy.

" I encourage you to listen to the message, it will greatly help you understand what is wrong with the Lordship Salvation crowd. Every Bob Jones University faculty member and student needs to hear this positional sermon! But Dr. Hyles was just a man, and our only authority is the Holy Bible. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:6-8, " Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin." Oh don't miss that dear reader! BLESSED IS THE MAN TO WHOM THE LORD WILL NOT IMPUTE SIN! THAT IS ETERNAL SECURITY!!!

The moment you got saved (born-again), God declared you JUSTIFIED, Just-If-I'd never sinned! The old account was settled long ago! HALLELUJAH! You were sealed (indwelt) with the blessed Holy Spirit the very second you received Jesus as your Savior. Your name was forever preserved in the Lamb's Book of Life in Heaven. You were, and are, now a member of God's heavenly family permanently. Jesus promised in John 6:37 never to cast anyone away, not for any reason, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. " You have the Lord's PROMISE!

1.4.8 A Warning About "UNSHACKLED" Radio Heresy! (2020-08-07 01:42)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

In [1]episode #3081, about James Blair (aired on January 31, 2010), the following false plan of salvation is awful. In this episode, there's a 3-way conversation beginning at 16:30 time in the audio. The mother, father and daughter are talking. They've just come from church. The daughter is now an adult, and she comments that when she was 13-years-old, she HAD PLANNED to wait until she was 40 years old to get saved, because she didn't want to deal with THE COMMITMENT THAT COMES WITH SALVATION.

> Daughter (as an adult thinking back in time to when she was 13 years old) — Because of the commitment that came with salvation, I had planned to wait until I was about 40 to get saved.

> SOURCE: Pacific Garden Mission, 'UNSHACKLED,' [2]Episode #3081 (at 16:30 time in audio).

Do you see how Satan messes up people's minds and leads them into the Lake of Fire? Ladies and gentleman, there is no "commitment" required to be saved!!! Eternal life is a free gift, paid for entirely by Christ's work of redemption. God does not require, nor expect, anything of (nor from) us to receive the free gift of eternal life. God is not a fraudster. God is not a liar. God made every human being a PROMISE “to save them that believe” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). God made a PROMISE! Titus 1:3, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.”

Now the conversation goes back in time to when the daughter was just 13 years old, the morning after she allegedly got saved at a church revival. This is just horrific material being aired on UNSHACKLED...

Mom — You were saved tonight, weren’t you?

Daughter — Yes, how did you know?

Mom — [laughs] I could tell by looking at you.

Daughter — That’s why we we’re late, I had a lot of sin to confess, and I sure feel clean.

Dad — I Couldn’t figure out why a 13-year-old girl would have so many sins to confess.

Daughter — I wanted to be sure I was really saved, Dad.

Mom — Now honey, live for the Lord, grow up to be a Sunday School teacher or something.

SOURCE: Pacific Garden Mission, 'UNSHACKLED,' [3]Episode #3081 (at 16:30 time in audio)

What in Hades is that? Is this a joke from Pacific Garden Mission or what? Since when does confessing all of one's sins have anything to do with getting saved. The daughter says she felt very clean from taking the extra time to confess all her sins. Folks, this is satanic Roman Catholicism!!! This is satanic religion, not the Gospel. Woe unto Chicago's Pacific Garden Mission!!!!!!! When the dad joked about his daughter having so many sins to confess, the daughter seriously replied that the reason she did so was to make sure she is saved. Huh? Since when does confessing all your sins, and doing it diligently and thoroughly, ensure that someone is saved? Where is THE GOSPEL? I cannot believe how corrupt UNSHACKLED has become!!!

The reason why the daughter confessed all her sins, errantly thinking that this is how to be saved, is because of some false prophet which poisoned her mind with Lordship Salvation. You can hear his poison message at 15:18 time in the audio. Again, repentance for salvation doesn't mean turning away from sinful behavior; but rather, it means turning away from your unbelief and trusting the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Repentance simply means admitting that I am a guilty sinner in God's holy eyes! You cannot show me even one Bible verse that teaches to "turn from sin" or " to be saved. Notice that repentance is not from sin, but toward God. Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." When a man repents toward a holy God, acknowledging that he is a needy sinner, and places his faith in the Gospel (Good news) of the Lord Jesus Christ, he is saved immediately and forever!!! It's that simple! Christ died on the cross for your sins and mine. He was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you accept this truth as your only hope for Heaven, you are saved.

repent of sin

Our churches, Bible colleges and rescue missions are absolutely infected with heresy today. Gospel preacher and author of the classic book Pilgrim Progress, John Bunyan, said it well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

You don't have to turn from your sins to be saved, Christ came to save you from your sins! God saves a man by faith alone, and then the work of conversion should begin. If you are a child of God, the Bible says you "ought" to to please Him. 1st Thessalonians 4:1, " Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more." A believer SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not

WILL (that is Calvinism). The Apostle Paul calls this the believer's "reasonable service" (Romans 12:2). Anyone who messes with grace is in trouble with God! Lordship Salvation is a doctrine of devils, that perverts God's grace by embellishing the Gospel with works. I encourage you to read '[4]Conversion And Salvation,' chapter three from Pastor Jack Hyles' book titled: 'Salvation Is More Than Being Saved.'

This teaching from UNSHACKLED in just awful. Perhaps they should rename their theologically-challenged-show to "SHACKLED." No doubt millions of souls have already been damned to Hell forever, because they refused to believe the Gospel, errantly thinking that they had to forsake sinful living, make a commitment to serve God, forsake all, turn from all their sinful ways, and a bunch of other nonsense that God does not require to be saved. IT IS SATANISM IN THE CHURCHES!!! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.4.9 Why Is Paul So Upset In The Epistle Of Galatians? (2020-08-07 10:30)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Why was the Apostle Paul so upset in the Epistle of Galatians? The apostle wrote Galatians to several churches in the the region of Galatia (located in the country of Turkey today). Paul was upset because someone was messing with the grace of God! I want to give you FOUR REASONS WHY PAUL WAS SO UPSET:

1. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GOD OF GRACE! Carefully notice in Galatians 1:6 that it is called "the grace of Christ." Amen! Every believer is saved by grace, called by grace, and commissioned *by grac*e. The Bible only backs-up salvation by grace! You cannot back-up a Lordship Gospel with the Bible. This is why false teachers like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit and Paul Washer all rely heavily upon quotes from Calvinist preachers from centuries past. They were heretics then and they are heretics now! Since they cannot use the Word of God to support their damnable heresy, they quote theologically corrupt men as a secondary authority, in a lame attempt to bolster up their Strawman argument.
2. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GIFT OF GRACE. When I got saved as a 13 year old boy, I didn't promise God anything! Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." We rest in Jesus Christ alone to be saved (Hebrews 4:10-11). It is not what we have done or must do, but what Jesus has already done for us through the cross of Calvary! JESUS PAID IT ALL! Christ died for the ungodly, paying our debt of sin in full with His blood (Romans 5:6-9). Eternal life is a free gift from God (Ephesians 2:8-9). You don't earn it. You don't deserve it. You don't merit it. You don't qualify for it. You simply ACCEPT IT BY FAITH!!! Grace is not what I do, it is everything that God did and does.
3. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GUARDIAN OF GRACE. The guardian of grace is the local New Testament church! 1st Thessalonians 2:4, "But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak;

not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts." What a lovely Bible verse! We have been entrusted by God in the local New Testament church with the Gospel. It is the greatest and most delicate treasure ever given to the world. The Apostle Paul was upset in Galatians because someone was messing with grace. Paul was upset that anyone "would pervert the gospel of Christ" (Galatians 1:7). If we don't guard the Gospel, then no one else will. Sadly, many false churches today have departed from the faith, preaching another gospel of making full surrender to Christ as "Lord," forsaking your deliberate sinful behavior, faithfully running the race until the end of life, and committing your life to live for Christ, to be saved. What saith the Scripture?

1st Timothy 4:1, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" The Apostle Paul warns in Galatians 1:6-9, that if any man preaches any other Gospel than what the Apostles preached, let him be accursed by God!

4. WHEN YOU ATTACK THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU ATTACK THE GOAL OF GRACE. The blessed goal of grace is soulwinning worldwide! God desires for all men to repent toward God and believe the truth of the Gospel (Acts 20:21). Why is Paul so upset in Galatians? It is because the Gospel is for everyone, and when a corrupt preacher like [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort says you must forsake a life of fornication to be saved, he has excluded you from God's grace! If sinners must forsake their sinful bad habits to be saved, then grace has been corrupted, and not everyone is welcomed to it. My inspired King James Bible says, "whosoever will*, let him take the water of life freely" (Revelation 22:17).* That is so clear and beautiful. The Bible does not place any stipulations, obligations, requirements or warnings to be saved, it simply saves WHOSOEVER WILL. Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Again we read WHO SO EVER. In the Greek that means, "YOU" and "ME." The proponents of Lordship Salvation add a bunch of junk to grace that is not found in the King James Bible. In so doing they ostracize tens of millions of people, who are not ready to "forsake all" to follow Jesus as their LORD, in order to be saved. God's goal is to witness to everyone, but you cannot do that if you place unbiblical demands upon sinners to clean-up their ways, and to commit to serving Christ, because that is not the Gospel. People cannot be born-again by religion.

In the Epistle of Galatians we learn about GRACE and the GOSPEL. 2nd Corinthians 12:9, " And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." What a beautiful passage of Scripture! What a precious truth! Jesus said,

"MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT FOR THEE"!!!

Let him be cursed who adds to grace! Tragically, [2]Bob Jones University (BJU) adds to grace. Sadly, [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU) adds to grace. Horrifyingly, [4]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam adds to grace. Harvest promotes John MacArthur, BJU and Steve Pettit. Their lies are their truth at BJU and Harvest. When you attack God's grace, you attack the God of grace! Paul was upset because someone was messing with grace. Paul called them "foolish" and "bewitched" in Galatians 3:1. Paul said they had "fallen" from grace, meaning they hadn't lost it, but they had gotten away from grace. You cannot be saved when you get away from grace.

The Apostle Paul said in Galatians 2:21, " I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." BJU frustrate's grace. Moody Bible Institute in Chicago frustrate's grace, teaching the lies of Calvinism instead.

What is grace? Someone has accurately stated G.R.A.C.E. as an acronym meaning: "

God's Riches At Christ

's Expense.

" Grace is God giving us what we do not deserve. Mercy is God withholding from us what we do deserve. As a sinner I deserve to die without Christ and burn in Hell forever as punishment, and so do you. Thankfully God made a way of escape through faith alone in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul clearly defines the "

Gospel

(Good News) in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4:

1. DEATH
2. BURIAL
3. RESURRECTION

That's grace! Anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He was buried and raised up three days later from the dead, is saved. We are saved solely by God's grace. When someone like Ray Comfort, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Adrian Rogers, Billy Graham, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University, David Jeremiah and John MacArthur teach that MORE is required than childlike faith, they have corrupted grace. Romans 11:6, " And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Could the Bible speak any plainer? I think not. Works and grace must not be intertwined, which is what Lordship Salvation is. Pilgrim's Progress preacher and author, John Bunyan, made this excellent quote:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton of Harvest Baptist Church, Bob Jones University, and Moody Bible Institute today, are all casting stumbling blocks before the people. Back in 1944 when BJU still taught Free Grace Theology, [5]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) had this to say about the matter (and I agree 100 %):

> "He [Jude] said, well it was 'needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.'

> Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

> You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [6]YouTube | [7]MP4 | [8]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather destroy Bob Jones College, than to let modernists and religious liberals ([9]like Dr. Steve Pettit) corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction the [10]Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly Neo-evangelicals. Consequently, they've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at BJU!

We are living in woeful times of apostasy, when professed Christians are not really saved at all. Anyone who believes that they don't have eternal security, does not have eternal life dwelling in them. They don' t have Jesus in them! 1st John 5:20 says that Jesus is eternal life,

And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

" I love that! JESUS IS ETERNAL LIFE!!! The Bible doesn't tell us to forsake our sinful ways to receive God's gift of eternal life, we are simply told to RECEIVE JESUS. The [11]gift of eternal life comes wrapped in the wonderful package of Jesus!!! And that is why the Apostle Paul was upset at the churches in Galatia, because they were messing with grace! DON'T MESS WITH GRACE!!!

1.4.10 Pacific Garden Mission Preaches Another Gospel (2020-08-08 09:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

I am horrified lately as I listen to 'UNSHACKLED' radio, which is produced by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. Tragically, neo-evangelicals with their demonic Lordship Salvation has infiltrated, infected and damned countless churches, missions, Bible colleges and religious institutions with a counterfeit gospel that intertwines works with grace! Dear reader, anytime you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace! The Apostle Paul was upset in the Epistle of Galatians because someone was messing with grace. ...

> Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

Pacific Garden Mission is troubling Chicago with their perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Don't take my word for it, read this sickening transcript from 'UNSHACKLED':

[1]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade; she takes a stroll on the beach and meets a stranger, to whom she starts discussing her struggle with truth.) Here is some of their interaction....

Cydanni Ade: “I know, you’re going to tell me He [Jesus] loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior.”

Stranger On The Beach: “Yes and no!”

Cydanni Ade: “What?”

Stranger On The Beach:

“He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior HAS CONDITIONS!”

Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”

Stranger On The Beach:

"Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think."

Cydanni Ade: "I know that's not true!"

Stranger On The Beach:

"Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!"

Cydanni Ade: "Huh."

Dear reader, what you just read is the Satanic lie of Lordship Salvation. It is Calvinism repackaged! There are multiple heresies taught:

FIRST, God loves everyone. The stranger on the beach is a fool. What saith the Scripture? John 3:16, "

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" It was God's unconditional love that sent Jesus to be nailed and crucified on a cross to pay for our sins.

SECOND, there are no conditions for Jesus to become your Savior, except to receive Him. What saith the Scripture? John 1:12-13, " But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

" You receive Jesus by believing (trusting) on His name!

THIRD, Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) is woeful confused between justification by faith, and sanctification by the Holy Spirit. What saith the Scripture? Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Romans 15:16, "

That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

" John Bunyan got it right:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) is pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They obviously aren't theologians, but are merely following the corrupt theology of dangerous men like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, and Steve Pettit at Bob Jones University (all heretical Calvinists in their doctrine).

FOURTH, nowhere in the Word of God are we commanded to "

repent of our sins

" to be saved. That phrase doesn't appear in the Holy Bible, corrupt and dishonest men added it! PGM cites a verse from Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: " A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have hundreds of clear Bible passages teaching that salvation is simply by believing. In fact, the Gospel of John mentions the word "

85 times, without ever mentioning the word

even since

. That speaks volumes! It simply tells us that the man who BELIEVES has automatically repented (which simply means, a change of mind). A man repents " toward God

" (Acts 20:31b), embracing THE TRUTH that he is a needy sinner, and believing

THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. Please notice Acts 17:34a,

" Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed..." Nowhere does the Bible indicate that they turned away from sinning.

In 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 the Apostle Paul mentions the phrase, " according to the Scriptures " twice. Everything that we believe as Christians must be ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES. Even false prophets know that, which is why PGM cited Acts 17:30 in an attempt to bolster up their Strawman heresy of Lordship Salvation. In fact, even the Devil himself knows that everything must be according to the Scriptures, ” which is why he subtly came to Eve and the first thing he said was, “Hath God said? ” (Genesis 3:1). When the Devil came to tempt Jesus, he quoted the Scriptures, taking them out of context (which is exactly what Pacific Garden Mission is doing). PGM are basing a false doctrine on a misinterpretation of Acts 17:30, ignoring the entire Gospel of John (John 20:31). Pastor Max D. Younce preaches a helpful sermon called: ’[2]TRY THE SPIRITS’ from 1st John 4:1.

Dear friend, I am just a redeemed sinner on social media. I’m just A VOICE, as was John the Baptist (after whom my middle name is named, “ ), crying in the Wilderness of cyberspace. I hope someone is listening

John

! I love you unconditionally with God’s love, whosoever you may be, and I only desire that you come to the knowledge of THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. Jesus warned us in Matthew 7:15, “

Beware of false prophets...”

1.4.11 There Are No Conditions To Receive God's Gift (2020-08-09 09:30)

1st Peter 1:23, "

Being born again*, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

The Apostle Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but John 6:70 says Judas was a devil. I never did like the term " relationship

because it is not found in the Bible. I think we ought to avoid using terminology that the Bible doesn't use. That is why I prefer to use the Bible word

Godhead

" (Romans 1:20; Acts 17:29; Colossians 2:9) instead of the theological term "

Trinity

when describing

God. I was disgusted earlier today [1]as I listened to UNSHACKLED, produced by Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago. They have really gone to the dogs spiritually, teaching junk theology. PGM preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works!

It is a heresy commonly known as

Lordship Salvation.

While still alive on earth, Jesus PROMISED to send the Holy Spirit when He raised up from the dead.

John 16:7, "

Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. " That is why the blessed Holy Spirit is often referred to as the "

Spirit of promise.

" Every Christian believer has the Holy Spirit of God indwelling (living inside) them (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24).

Jesus came to redeem us from the curse of the law and sin, by paying our legal debt owed. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. Anyone can have this legal pardon from God, simply by putting your faith (trust) in His name. The moment that someone receives Christ's payment on the cross for their sins, they are JUSTIFIED, declared innocent, JUST-IF-I'D never sinned at all. Salvation is not a plea agreement where a person accepts a lesser charge. Salvation is the complete erasure of all of our sins.

Micah 7:19, " He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea." I love this Bible verse! The Christian believer is justified from “ the Bible says. Acts 13:39, “And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.”

If you listen to the most popular preachers today, you will be confused, because they are confusing grace with works. [2]Please read this article that I wrote about grace.

At salvation, our POSITION in Christ is settled. We are now His child. That is the only relationship that matters. The Devil’s preachers often mean something entirely different when they use the term relationship.

They mean to live the Christian life, which is not the Gospel. Our POSITION in Christ was settled the moment we received Christ by faith as our Savior. Then as a child of God our CONDITION in Christ is determined by how we live. The latter is discipleship, not salvation. We must never intertwine works with grace!

By the way, I strongly recommend listening to one of my favorite preachers, [3]Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, because he is 100 % correct on the Gospel, and you can trust his theology. But as I always tell everyone, the inspired Scripture is our only authority in all matters of faith, life and morality. What saith the Scripture?

Every time we hear a sermon, we learn a little bit more. I like to think of it as little nuggets of gold, which I glean in every sermon that I hear. I am always looking for and collecting truth! I also highly recommend that you [4]listen to the Gospel of John 30 times. Just let it keep playing until it sinks in.

The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract.

The reason why so many people are messed up theologically and confused is because they are listening to these ignorant preachers today, who confuse justification by faith, and sanctification by the Holy Spirit. We are saved (justified) by faith alone. Then as a born-again believer, God’s Holy Spirit sanctifies (conforms us into Christ’s image) as we are renewed by the Word of God. John 17:17 says we are sanctified by God’s Word, which is the truth. John 17:17, “Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.”

Truth sanctifies us, but we are saved by God's grace through faith. We are saved by believing THE TRUTH, and then TRUTH sanctifies us. You can be saved without intending to change at all. Eternal life is a gift. You don't earn it! You don't deserve it! You don't have to make any promises to God to be saved. Just simply receive His gift by faith!

Paul mentions the phrase " according to the Scriptures " twice in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Everything that I believe is based upon the King James Bible, nothing else. It is very important that we emphasize Paul's confidence " according to the Scriptures." What saith the Scripture?

The Bible is inspired by God, men's words are inspired by men. Lordship Salvation cannot be backed-up with the Bible. Oh dear friend, please don't listen to these horrible corrupt preachers today, who teach that you must forsake sinful behavior to get to Heaven. That is not God's plan of redemption. Many preachers today say to start a relationship with Christ to be saved, but that is a false gospel. It is what Jesus did for you on the cross, and not what you can do for Him, that saves you!

Having a relationship with Christ will not save you. You don't have to surrender total control of your life to receive God's free gift. The power of sin is broken by the Gospel when you trust Christ as your Savior. You don't turn your life over to Jesus to be saved, as Pacific Garden Mission heretically teaches. You simply believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31), and then when He forgives and saves you, His Holy Spirit comes inside to live (Romans 8:9), as you grow in grace studying the Word of God.

We ought to think of getting saved as a new birth.

1st Peter 2:2, "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious." There is such a thing as growing in grace. This is one reason why Lordship Salvation is wrong, it eliminates growth in grace. Proponents of Lordship Salvation frontload the Gospel, requiring of someone characteristics of a mature believer. That is just as ridiculous as expecting a newborn infant to crawl, walk or run a 26 mile marathon!

I listened to 'UNSHACKLED' today, [5]program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade).

Pacific Garden Mission is pulling on the same rope as the Devil!

In this episode, the following ungodly heresy is taught...

Cydanni Ade: “I know, you’re going to tell me He loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior.”

Stranger on the beach: “Yes and no!”

Cydanni Ade: “What?”

Stranger on the beach: “He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior HAS CONDITIONS!”

Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”

Stranger on the beach: “Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think.”

Cydanni Ade: “I know that’s not true!”

Stranger on the beach: “Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!”

Cydanni Ade: “Huh.”

Dear reader, there are NO CONDITIONS to receive a gift! A gift must be free and without obligation, or else it is not truly a gift. The very definition of “a gift” is something acquired without compensation. Yet these foolish these days preach that the requirement to “turn from your sins” is not a form of compensation. PGM preaches another gospel! Nowhere in the Bible does God require or command anyone to “repent of our sins,” nor to “live for Him” to be saved.

Getting saved is not about having or maintaining a social relationship with the Lord. It is a judicial matter, just like a legal court case. We are all guilty sinners. God's law indicts and condemns humanity as sinners (Romans 3:19-23), putting us under a curse.

In UNSHACKLED [6]program #3553 - Aired in 2019 (the story of Paddy Wrench), a woman says to Paddy that the way to be saved is:

> "Talk to God. Admit you are a sinner. Repent of your sins. That means turn your back on the sinful life*. Then tell God that you accept Jesus as His free gift as payment for your sins." [emphasis added] —
> UNSHACKLED, [7]program #3553 - Aired in 2019 (the story of Paddy Wrench)

That is straight from Hell! You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible that says to turn your back on the old sinful life to receive God's gift. The addition to turn your back on the sinful life perverts grace, negates faith, and cannot produce the new birth. There is a specific mindset that you must have to be saved, which is to wholly trust in Jesus' name!!! Paddy alleges that she got saved in 1973, foolishly saying:

>
> This was not an emotional experience, like I've often had in my life, this was a real commitment to Jesus!
>
>
> UNSHACKLED, [8]program #3553 - Aired in 2019 (the story of Paddy Wrench)

Folks, you don't get saved by making

"a commitment to Jesus."

You don't pursue "a relationship" with the Lord to receive the gift of eternal life, which implies the need to walk in holiness and live for Christ. If we have to surrender everything to live for Christ, then it is a reward and not a gift. A gift can simply be taken, period. You don't have to turn from the old life. I am so sick and tired of the perverted gospel being preaching on UNSHACKLED .

UNSHACKLED is full of junk theology that is not Biblical. In another episode, [9]program #3532 - Aired in 2018 (the story of Dee Dove), they state:

> Sister: She [her mom in a nursing home] asked me if God would forgive her for all the evil she did.
>
> Dee: And I told her, 'Yes, if she asked Him to forgive her.'

That is totally unbiblical. You don't have to " ask

Jesus to save you, He is asking you. The Bible already promises that God will save anyone who BELIEVES! The Gospel of John tells us 85 times to believe on the Son of God to be saved. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " I am not trying to pick on Pacific Garden Mission, but when they confuse people by obscuring the Gospel, embellishing it by adding turning from sinful living, they are preaching another Gospel. At the end of the episode (#3532) I just shared with you, the UNSHACKLED narrator leads the listener to pray a sinner's prayer, including asking Jesus to: come into my life and change me.

" That is not Free Grace Theology, it is Lordship Garbage! Christ automatically comes into your body and soul to live when you get saved, you don't have to ask Him.

PGM's UNSHACKLED episodes are infected with Lordship Damnation, and it is not a trifle matter! Telling someone to turn from the old sinful life is REFORMATION, not REPENTANCE. Bible repentance is a simple change of mind. It means to think differently toward the truth (John 3:21; 2nd Timothy 2:25). Repentance is to agree with God that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption. Repentance and faith are inseparable. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. To separate these two things into two different activities is to cast stumbling blocks before the people. Here is the best quote that I've ever heard on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." —Pastor harry Ironside, 'Except Ye Repent,' p. 16)

The Gospel of John mentions the word "believe" or "believed" 85-times, without ever mentioning the word "repent" even once. This is clear evidence that faith and repentance are inseparable; and that by believing on Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, one has also repented. Repentance is acknowledging one's sinnership—admitting that I am as needy a sinner as God hath declared me to be in His Word. The Law of God was given "that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God" (Romans 3:19). Adding the requirement to "

turn from sins

totally changes the Gospel. So please remember dear friend that there are NO CONDITIONS of salvation, except to believe!

1.4.12 Dr. Steve Pettit Agrees With Joseph Smith (2020-08-10 02:52)

Galatians 1:6-8, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.” 2nd John 1:10-11, “

If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

Mormon founder Joseph Smith uttered these words on the occasion of the founding of The Church of Latter-Day Saints in April of 1830 (20. Revelation through Joseph Smith, April 1830; History of the Church 1:64-70):

> 20:29 - And we know that all men must repent and believe on the name of Jesus Christ, and worship the Father in his name, and endure in faith on his name to the end, or they cannot be saved in the kingdom of God.
>
> 20:30 - And we know that justification through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is just and true;
>
> 20:31 - And we know also, that sanctification through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is just and true, to all those who love and serve God with all their mights, minds, and strength. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: https://sacred-texts.com/mor/dc/dc020.htm

[1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) preaches the same garbage:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[2]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 11:34)

Both Steve Pettit and Mormons preach that a person must ENDURE unto the end to be saved. Sadly, [3]Bob Jones University has gone full-blown Lordship Salvation, preaching that in order to be saved, a person MUST forsake their sinful behavior. This is an entirely different mindset than what is taught in the inspired King James Bible! There is nowhere taught in the Bible, where it says a person cannot know they are saved, unless they must persevere in repentance and faith until they make it to Heaven. That would make getting saved a process, instead of a free gift and an instantaneous new birth! What a horrible perversion of grace! What a horrible burden to bear, never knowing if you are really safe in Jesus Christ, because you must continue having faith and turning from your sins. This is not a Biblical mindset.

I was born-again at age 13. The blessed Holy Spirit came inside me to live since I got saved. Theologically we call that being “

by the Holy Spirit. God's Holy Spirit sealed me when I got saved

(Ephesians 1:13-14).

The Bible promises in Hebrews 13:5 that He will never leave nor forsake me. Mormons and the Lordship Salvation crowd have it all backwards and wrong! Getting saved is not a matter of one's persevering in faith, it is a matter of believing on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31), and then God's Holy Spirit comes inside the believers to live. THE HOLY SPIRIT PERSEVERES IN EVERY BORN-AGAIN BELIEVER!!!

> Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

Clearly, when a needy sinner comes to God, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus is bodily risen, is immediately and forever saved. At the very moment of receiving God's free gift of eternal life, through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9), all that person's sins are instantly and forever forgiven (1st John 1:7), and they are safe in Jesus Christ (John 10:29). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

In a wicked attempt to legitimize the cult of Mormonism, a Mormon speaker told 7,000 Mormons in Salt lake City in 2004 (at a speaking conference featuring Dr. Ravi Zacharias), that [4]John Stackhouse at Regent College heretically said:

> "God cares about people more than He cares about truth in the abstract. Jesus didn't die on the cross to make a point, He died on the cross to save people whom He loves."

God does care about people, and Christ did die to save everyone, but Mormons are accursed by God for preaching another Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). God's love does not disregard truth! Mormons teach that to be saved a person must turn from their sins and be water baptized, both of which are untrue! Mormons preach another gospel. In [5]Meridian, a magazine for Latter-Day Saints Of Jesus Christ, they feature an excerpt from Robert Starling's new book "Really Inside Mormonism: Confessions of a Mere Latter-day Christian," in which he says:

Faith without Works?

In James 2:20 we read that "faith without works is dead". James also says "shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works" (2:18).

Admittedly this verse is unpopular with many Christians today (and unknown to many). In fact, Martin Luther wanted to kick the epistle of James out of the canon of the New Testament primarily because of this verse. He called it the "Epistle of straw" and felt that it should be deleted from the Bible. That was a bit presumptuous and arrogant on Luther's part when you think about it.

Martin Luther himself is said to have coined this phrase (and I've heard a number of evangelical pastors and teachers repeat it,) that "Faith alone saves, but the faith that saves is not alone" The contemporary Christian teacher RC Sproul says it this way:

> "if good works do not follow from our profession of faith, it is a clear indication that we do not possess justifying faith. The Reformed formula is, "We are justified by faith alone but not by a faith that is alone."[vi]

> I suppose it could be viewed as either a rhetorical cop-out and verbal gymnastics, or a sincere attempt to explain that true faith in Christ is never really "alone". I like the latter better. And that's what we Mormons believe.

Do you see dear reader that Dr. Steve Pettit and Bob Jones University are in sinful agreement with the Latter-Day Saints of Jesus Christ? Please notice the the author of the preceding heretical article quote praises R.C. Sproul and Martin Luther, for their heresy that a person must turn from sins to be saved! You cannot show me one verse in the Holy Bible that teaches to "

turn from sin

repent from sin

to receive God's free gift of eternal life.

We are saved by faith alone. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." In hundreds of places in the New Testament we are taught to simply "BELIEVE" to be saved, nothing more.

You must know you are a sinner to be saved. Jesus Christ came to save us from our sins! No one ever got saved who didn't admit to being a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit doesn't understand LAW and CHRIST (or respectively, OLD and NEW TESTAMENTS). Law shows us our sinnership, and Christ saves us by grace through faith! Getting saved is that simple. Turning from sins has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God's free gift. Beware of any preacher who heretically says you must "

repent of your sins

” to be saved!!!

Please, please, please listen dear reader! Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Calvinists, Pacific Garden Mission (Unshackled radio), Roman Catholics, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Steve Pettit. Moody Bible Institute, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and every pseudo-Christian cult, demand that you turn away from the old sinful ways or else you cannot be saved! That is works for salvation!!! What saith the Scripture? 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

The teaching that you must “ENDURE” in repentance and/or faith to be saved is of the Devil. The moment that you place your trust in Jesus Christ, you are born-again instantly. You immediately become a child of God. If you are truly saved, then the indwelling Holy Spirit will NEVER leave nor forsake you! If a person claims that they used to be a Christian, they were never saved at all! We don’t persevere as saints to be saved, Christ paid the full price for our sins on Calvary’s cross. We are saved solely BY GRACE!!! You can be saved in an instant, and KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that you ARE 100 % GOD’S REDEEMED CHILD! Beware of anyone who says that you cannot KNOW you are saved (1st John 5:13), falsely saying you have to continue repenting and believing until you get to Heaven. That is another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) which cannot produce the new birth in Jesus Christ, and is a sure road to Hell, fire and damnation.

1.4.13 What The Gospel Is Not (2020-08-10 10:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “ Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

The inspired King James Bible plainly defines “

for us as Christ’s:

1. DEATH
2. BURIAL
3. RESURRECTION

I am wanting to move back to the United States. My heart’s burden each day and night is that I am alone without a wife. It has not been easy for me to live alone for 14 years. Some people like to live alone, and that’s their decision, but I am 53 and don’t want to be alone anymore. I cannot find anybody on Guam, so I have been praying for God to give me wisdom what to do. I think moving is the only answer. I have been considering a few states, but my heart seems to be in North Carolina. So I was looking for the most affordable places to live and found Durham. The city has 275,000 residents. I am researching now. Lord willing, I really want to move. I want to share my life with someone. Please pray for me.

One of the most important things to me in moving is to find a good Baptist church to attend. So I was looking today at the [1]First Baptist Church in Durham, but was saddened when I read [2]their definition of the Gospel, which according to them includes “

repenting of your sins

to be saved

. Well, I won’t be going to that church cult! Folks, the Apostle Paul defines

“

as

Christ died for our sins,

not that we must

“

turn from our sins

to be saved. There’s a really drastic difference! Beware of perverse churches, like the First Baptist Church in Durham, and the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who mess with God’s grace! Beware of perverse Bible colleges, like Bob Jones University and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, who mess with grace!

You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that teaches to repent from your sins

” to be saved. Such wicked heresies originate in the Roman Catholic religion and man’s sinful pride. The Devil’s seat is in the church the Bible says, that is where Satan dwells (Revelation 2:13). The Devil already owns the casinos, taverns and nightclubs, so he works relentlessly to infiltrate, infect and destroy New Testament Bible-believing churches. One of the greatest evils in America today is corrupt Bible colleges, because their hundreds of theologically corrupted graduates corrupt and destroy thousands of churches! The Satanic lie that you must “

turn from your sins

is NOT a part of the saving Gospel taught by the apostles. Jesus came to SAVE US from our sins, and not WE OURSELVES from our sins!

1.4.14 The Sin Of Making Light Of The Gospel (2020-08-11 01:27)

Jeremiah 23:29-32, “

Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

There is not a better passage of Scripture to describe what is going on today in the world, especially in America, than our text passage from Jeremiah 23:29-32. The Lord was against THE PREACHERS (the prophets) because they had robbed the people of their faith! The preachers had stolen God’s Words from the people’s hearts. God was upset at the preachers because they made light of the truth (“by their lightness,” verse 32). It is a wicked sin to make light of the inspired Word of God and the Gospel. Bob Jones University (BJU) make light of the inspiration of God’s Word...

Bob Jones University make light of truth. They have robbed the people of their faith. Way back in 1944, [2]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) warned his students about infidels who would someday in the future creep into their institution, preaching another gospel and robbing the people of their faith. Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. made the following courageous, unapologetic, uncompromising and fundamentalist defense of salvation by faith alone:

Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [3]YouTube | [4]MP4 | [5]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather destroy Bob Jones University, than to let modernists and religious liberals corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly neo-evangelicals. Consequently, they've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship

Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at BJU!

Now read [6]what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) heretically says about being saved:

> “ *You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it ! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award , you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“ [7]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’? ” - 11:34)

Dr. Pettit says THAT REWARD is HEAVEN ITSELF:

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself .” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[8]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - 22:57)

Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit is a wolf in sheep’s clothing, who preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Dr. Pettit preaches the SAME damnable counterfeit plan of salvation as Dr. John MacArthur. Pastor Max D. Younce made this incredibly true observation about today;s apostate Bible colleges, with which I 100 % agree:

> “We don’t have the Bible colleges we used to have, so you’re not going to have the preachers you used to have!”—Pastor Max Younce; [9]Bible Prophecy #6

Today’s Bible colleges are spiritually corrupt. They are wrong on the Bible. BJU promotes multiple Bible perversions, pulling on the same rope as the Devil. BJU are preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, demanding that people “

[10]turn from sins

to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That is a false gospel!!! BJU, Dr. Steve Pettit, alumni, and their former students (like John MacArthur), are STEALING GOD’S WORDS FROM THE PEOPLE!!!

Jeremiah 23:29-30, “

Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?

Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.

” God’s Words are in the inspired King James Bible! All other modern Bible revisions are Devil’s Bibles!!!

God only authored ONE BOOK! The man with two watches never knows what time it is! God is not the God of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). Having more than one Bible is confusion.

Satan has always hated the Word of God. From the very beginning in the Garden of Eden Satan tried to cast doubt upon the inspired Word of God. The serpent said to Eve in Genesis 3:1a, “YEA, HATH GOD SAID?” The plethora of modern Bible versions has generated massive confusion in the churches. Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) wisely said:

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions , translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” [emphasis added] —Dr. M.R. DeHaan, from the excellent book, THE TABERNACLE, Pg. 101.

What is wrong with Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and thousands of other religious institutions today, who all promote MULTIPLE Bible versions? Some false prophets are so sweet, that sugar wouldn't even melt in their mouth!

Pastor DeHaan went to Heaven in 1965. That means he made the preceding quote before 1965. Wicked people were already messing with the Holy Bible back then. The Lord said in Jeremiah 23:30 that He was against the prophets for STEALING God's Words from the people!!! As I quoted to you, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. warned about infidels who would infiltrate Bob Jones College, and ROB THE SAINTS OF THEIR FAITH!!!

Woe unto thieves in the pulpit today! [11]Woe unto Hyles-Anderson College for denying the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008! [12]Pastor Jack Hyles was 100 % right about the King James Bible, [13]who proclaimed that it is 100 % verbally inspired by God!!! [14]BJU gets it very wrong, betraying God's Word! Oh how we need a revival in our churches today. Oh how we need to stop sending our young people to these dead, apostate, dried-up, deeper-life, entertainment oriented, neo-evangelical, yuppie, money-hungry Bible colleges, like Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary (Cemetery) in Iowa! I wouldn't give you a dime for Moody Bible Institute today, who profess that they are now Calvinists!

John Calvin (1509-1564) was an unsaved heretic, who is not in Heaven today, who preached a false gospel. By the way, I encourage all my blog readers to freely copy and paste my writings to your own blogs and websites. You don't need to get my permission, I am giving it to you now. I want you to use all my stuff, and I would be honored. You can even put your name on it instead. No credit needs to be given to me. God knows my humble labors for Jesus Christ. I just want THE TRUTH to get out to as many people as possible. I don't want to do like neo-evangelicals today, who steal God's Words from their neighbours, I want to PREACH THE WORD!!! I don't want to steal your faith, I want to strengthen your faith in the [15]Gospel of free grace! When anyone attacks the grace of God, [16]they are attacking the God of grace!!!

Dear friend, if you go to Hell, it will only be your fault. Jesus Christ has already paid for your sins in full on the cross. Jesus came from Heaven to earth to make that payment on the cross for you, so you you would never hear those terrifying words: “

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

” (Matthew 7:23). Christ says:

“I love you. I died on the cross to pay your debt of sin. I suffered so you wouldn’t have to in Hell forever!” And the blessed Savior then says: “If you’ll simply come as a needy sinner, and place your confidence in me alone, your sins will be immediately forgiven and erased forever, and I will give you the gift of eternal life!” It’s that simple to be saved. Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay. He died on the cross for your sins and mine, was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected in His glorified body (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

“If you go to Hell, you’ll go to Hell with all your sins paid for!”

—Pastor Max Younce (a quote from: [17]Bible Prophecy #5)

1.4.15 Conversion And Salvation (2020-08-11 09:30)

Isaiah 1:26, " And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. " Isaiah 6:9, " And He said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. " Luke 22:31, 32, " And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren. " James 5:19, 20, " Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him; let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins."

I wish every person who believes in Lordship Salvation, would please read the following beautiful truths from the Bible, taught by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I ask you to please send this blog to them. Share it with others, not for my sake, but for Jesus' sake, the truth's sake, and for other's sake. There is a grave misunderstanding in our Baptist churches today about what it means to repent, about the Gospel, about salvation itself. It is a dangerous thing for someone who is ignorant and unlearned of the Scriptures to attempt to teach the Bible (1st Peter 3:16-17). I think nearly all of these people are sincere, except for the ones who try to make money off it on YouTube and begging for donations on the internet. I think most false teachers of Lordship Salvation are sincerely deceived by the Devil. They want to be helpful. They desire to be a teacher of the Word of God. Unfortunately, most of them are unlearned, ignorant and dangerous!

Bob Jones University needs to read the following truths! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam needs to read the following truths! Moody Bible Institute needs to read the following truths! John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit and Marty Herron all need to read the following truths! Dr. Jack Hyles was only a man, capable of error like anyone else, but he sure got this salvation and conversion right! Without further ado...

The word "conversion" means "to turn around," "to change direction," "a change of purpose." In summary, it means "turning around the use of something. Conversion then would be "the outward manifestation of regeneration." Regeneration means "re-gening" or "being born of new genes." Conversion then would become the outward change brought about by regeneration. It is God Who places in us the new nature and re-genes or regenerates us. Just as the good Samaritan took the wounded man to the inn and commissioned the host to care for him, even so upon regeneration the newborn Christian is to place himself in a New Testament church so that church and the Christians therein can be used by the Holy Spirit for the converting of a life that was used for self to be used for others, that was lived in sin to be lived in righteousness, and that was producing works of the flesh to produce the fruit of the Spirit.

Conversion then is the work of the church and its members as they are led by the Holy Spirit to change the life and work of one who has been regenerated.

Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.

One block from the First Baptist Church of Hammond there is a building that was occupied for many years by a nightclub. It advertised all kinds of unrighteousness, even to that of nude dancing. For years our people would go to the sidewalk in front of this club witnessing and passing out Gospel tracts. After several years the nightclub closed. We never knew why it closed until one day I received a call from an eastern state. The caller was a gentleman who informed me that he had previously been the owner of the aforementioned nightclub. He told me how that for a number of years he had hated our people because they had bothered him so much with Gospel tracts and with their attempts to try to tell him about the Saviour. He then proceeded to tell me that one night he went home and told his wife that he felt like those people from First Baptist were getting to him. He then said, "Pastor Hyles, they did get to me. I gave my life to God, closed the nightclub, and I wanted to call you to tell you that I am now preaching the Gospel and will be licensed to preach in a few days. I wanted to thank you and your people for being consistent witnesses and for what they have meant to my life."

Shortly thereafter the First Baptist Church purchased the nightclub building. Upon purchase it was ours. The price was paid, the deal was consummated and the building changed ownership. However, the building had not yet been converted. It had the same bar, the same furnishings and the same decor. It was purchased. It was redeemed. It was owned by the church, but now it must be converted in order that it might be used for another purpose. As soon as it was redeemed, or purchased, and as soon as it changed ownership, work was begun by our people in order that it might be converted to use for God, Had we purchased it and left it as it was, it would not be converted. Neither could we go in and convert it before it was purchased. The converting of the building would not have made it ours. It would have made us guilty of criminal offense. The purchasing of the building did not convert it. First the price had to be paid, then the deal was consummated, the title then changed hands, and then the workmen entered to change its use and convert It to use for God.

Now there are many Christians who are saved but not converted. They have been redeemed by the precious blood of Christ but their feet do not walk in new ways; their tongues do not speak a new language; their minds do not dwell on spiritual things. They are saved,' but they are carnal. I Corinthians 3:1-3, "And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?"

So regeneration is not a result of conversion; conversion follows regeneration. Conversion does not bring salvation. At salvation, conversion is supposed to begin.

Notice James 5:19, "Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him," and especially take note of the words, "If any of you" and "convert him." Notice who gets converted–any of you. This is talking about God's people becoming converted and it is also God's people who do the converting. We often ask each other, "How many conversions did you have last Sunday morning?" What we mean is, "How many regenerations did you have last Sunday morning?" Now it would not be a serious mistake for one to use the word "conversion" in that manner, but in the strictest Bible sense, "conversion" happens to God's people after they are saved, and it is done by God's people.

In the aforementioned building used for a nightclub, the buyer didn't do the converting. When the buyer purchased the building, workers were sent in to take out the bar and other things that had been used for evil purposes. Conversion, then, is a gradual process as believers convert new and weak Christians. Please do not misunderstand. Salvation is not a gradual process! Salvation and conversion are not synonymous!

Luke 22:31, 32, "And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." Peter had been converted for a long time, but Jesus knew of his denial. He was saying, "Peter, your tongue is soon going to be used for evil. When it happens, it will be converted later and be used again at Pentecost for Me." He was saying, "Peter, your feet are soon to take you out of My will for the purpose of wrong use, but you will be converted, and your feet will walk again in My will and be used for Me." He was saying, "Peter, you will soon warm your body by the Devil's fire, but your body will be converted and be used again for My glory. When it is, strengthen the brethren." This is very interesting. Our Lord was saying, "Peter, as soon as you are converted, then start working at the task of converting others." Hence, the converted becomes a converter.

Now notice John 15:16, "Ye have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in My name, He may give it you." Especially note the words, "fruit should remain." The Saviour was simply telling us that we are to be soul winners and that as soon as we win someone to Christ, we are to convert them. They are the fruit, but the fruit should be cared for properly in order that it may be converted or remain.

In World War Two, I became a paratrooper. I was a member of the 82nd Airborne Division, Special Troops Battalion, Parachute Maintenance Company In jump school and in the early days of my jumping, we jumped from airplanes that were called C46's and C47's. Later on we jumped from C82's, which we called in those days, "the flying boxcar." Several years after my discharge from the Army, I was flying from Natchez, Mississippi, to Dallas, Texas, on a Delta Airlines commercial flight. The plane looked strangely familiar to me. so I inquired of the stewardess concerning the type of plane we were flying. She said, "This is a DC3." I told her that it reminded me very much of the old C46's and C47's from which I used to jump. She then informed me that that is exactly what we were flying. She told me that Delta Airlines had purchased some C46's and had converted them for commercial use and called them DC3's. Here was a plane that had been used for war. It had been purchased and converted that it might be used for peaceful purposes. The old uncomfortable seats had been taken out and nice plush ones had replaced them. The interior of the plane, as well as its exterior, had been completely changed in order that that which had been used for war might now be used for peace. The stewardess called this "conversion." Now 'If Delta Airlines had converted the plane before purchasing it, it would not have been lawful. Likewise, for the child of God to attempt to be saved by his good works is against the law of God. First comes the purchasing, the ownership, the redemption. Then comes the conversion. When the plane was purchased by Delta Airlines, was it converted'? Of course not. When it was declared officially the property of Delta Airlines, was it converted? Of course not. Conversion was done by a group of workmen who were commissioned to convert that which had been purchased. Human instruments went into the plane and carried out the will and obeyed the orders of the purchaser in changing the plane from destructive purposes to constructive ones.

So it is with salvation. We were purchased by the precious blood of Christ, regenerated by the Holy Spirit and Justified by a declaration from God the Father that we are now righteous in His sight, not because of our righteousness but by the righteousness of Christ which was imputed to us by our acceptance of Him. Romans 10:2-3, "For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God." Upon our acceptance of Christ, human instruments are commissioned to help us become converted. This is what Ananias did to Saul of Tarsus. This is what Nathan did to David. This is what church members are to do to each other, whether it be to a new convert or to a brother or sister overtaken by a fault.

This means there are degrees of conversion. It takes more to convert one who has been in the depths of sin than it does to convert a little child who is being reared in a Christian home and has just received Christ as Saviour. Once again, remember that we are talking about conversion, not salvation. There are no degrees of salvation, but there are degrees of conversion.

During the 26 years that I have been Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Hammond, we have purchased many businesses and dwellings to be used for the Lord's work. We purchased the building owned by the Estee Sleep Shop. It is now used for our Junior 1 Department. We purchased the Reliable Furniture Company. It is now used as a rescue mission. We purchased the Seifer Furniture Company. This five-story building is now being used for Sunday school departments and classes. We purchased the Berey Brothers Department Store and now use the building for our Spanish Department. We purchased the Style Furniture Store. The buildings were demolished and the property is now being used for parking. We purchased the Werth Furniture Store. It is now being used for our Pathfinder Department and our Sunbeam Department, which is the ministry with our educable slow. We purchased the Hammond Drapery Company, which is now a youth center and is also used for our Blind Department. We have recently purchased the Huisenga Fur and Gift Shop, and it is being converted at this time to be used for God's work. The same is true for the Elks Lodge building. We purchased the Stoltz Drug Store. It is now used as an auditorium for the preaching of the Gospel in the Spanish language. We purchased the Gene's Restaurant. It houses our Deaf Department. We purchased the Temple Diner and tore it down in order that we might enlarge our auditorium. We purchased the Minas Parking Garage and now use it for church parking. In addition to these buildings we have purchased a beauty shop, an optometrist's office, a tailor shop, a hatchery, a nightclub, a storage building, two apartment houses and several dwellings. All of these have been converted from secular use or even sinful use to spiritual use. It was much easier to convert the apartment house than it was to convert the nightclub. It was easier to convert a dwelling than it was a building owned by a lodge, but in every case, as soon as the building was purchased and the deed was transferred, we started the process of conversion.

Psalm 19:7, "The Law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple." Here we find that conversion is brought about as we use the Word of God. The new convert needs more than Christian fellowship. He needs more than class parties. He needs the Word of God' We must be reminded constantly that all God has ever done, He has done by His Word. Ten times in the early part of Genesis we find the words, "And God said," followed later by the words, "And it was so." The sun, the great light to rule the day, was created and placed in the heavens by the Word of God. The moon, the lesser light to rule the night, was placed by the Word of God. The stars that shine like heavenly chandeliers to make the evening to be a great cathedral were placed in their sockets by the Word of God. The redwood tree of northern California stands as a Samson of the forest because of the Word of God. God painted the deserts of Arizona by His Word and dropped the lakes of Minnesota like 10,000 teardrops of deity by the Word of God. He carved the gorges by the Word of God and raised the mountain peaks like Egyptian pyramids covered by whipped cream by the Word of God. He placed the pine trees standing tall and stately like the heavenly steeple rising above an earthly sanctuary by the Word of God. The rivers pour into the ocean at the command of the Word of God, and the ocean receives the waters from the higher elevation by the Word of God. The scent of the gardenia was sprayed by the Word of God. The loveliness of the rose was made by the Word of God. Everything that God has ever done has been done by His Word. When the Lord Jesus was tempted by the evil one, He resisted by the Word of God. When He comes again to put down the Anti-Christ, He will put him down by the Spirit of His mouth; that is, the Word of God. If parents are to convert children, If Sunday school teachers are to convert class members, if pastors are to convert parishioners, if churches are to convert new converts, it must be done by the Word of God.

Psalm 51:13, "Then will I teach transgressors Thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto Thee." David in this psalm is repenting of his sin following the rebuke he received from Nathan. David is praying in this psalm, which is called a penitential psalm. It is a psalm of repentance and confession of sin and of pleading with God for restoration. One of the arguments that he uses in asking God for forgiveness is that if he is forgiven, he can help convert people. There are so many of God's people who need David's help, his encouragement, his strength and his teaching, but first David must be converted. He is saved but not converted. For some time now he has been used as an instrument of evil. Now he must be used as an instrument of righteousness. He pleads with God to forgive him in order that he might be converted; in order that he might be used to convert others.

In summary, let us look at God's divine order. First, the unsaved man must have the facts of salvation as found in the Word of God. He needs the precious seed of the Word of God. Psalm 126:5-6, "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Following the facts comes faith. The unsaved man puts his faith in Christ. Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast." Then comes the redemption; the price of Calvary becomes valid and we are redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus. Then comes regeneration. Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." This is synonymous with the new birth. John 3:5-7, "Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." The Father then justifies us, declares us righteous because we are dressed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:1, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Now the purchase is completed. The sinner has become a saint. His name is written in Heaven. God then gives His Word to the New Testament church and says, "In the power of My Spirit, by the use of My Word, convert him so that lips that once were used to curse Me may be converted to praise Me, so that eyes which were once used for evil can now be used for the reading of the Word of God, so that ears that once heard that which was wrong may now hear that which is right, so that a heart that once was filled with unholy motives can be filled with holy ones, so that a mind that was once used for evil thoughts may be used for constructive thoughts and plans in the work of God, so that feet that were swift to shed blood may now be made beautiful because they transport us to places of usefulness in the will of God."

Oh, people of God, not only have we a message to proclaim concerning being born again, but there is a job to be done for those who are born again in order that they may be converted as well as regenerated, redeemed and Justified.

The story is told about an old man who lived in a run-down shack on a large piece of ground in a beautiful neighborhood. Not only was his house run-down and in obnoxious condition, but his lot was filled with weeds and debris. He lived in filth in a neighborhood that housed the affluent and wealthy Neighbors came to plead with him to clean up his yard and his shack. All of their efforts failed. The Health Department threatened to have him evicted, but he continued to live there in his little run-down shack on a piece of property that was grown over with weeds in a beautiful part of town.

One day one of the neighbors organized a campaign to raise enough money that the neighborhood might purchase his property. A large amount of money was raised and a committee was appointed to go to the old man and make him an unbelievable offer for his house and land. This offer was many times its worth. To their delight, the old man agreed to sell and a date of closing was set. On that date the committee came with their attorney to close the deal. They showed him where to sign, but before he signed he looked up at the buyers and said, "Have you noticed anything?"

They said, "No, what?"

He replied with disappointment, for he had fixed up the old place! He told them how he had cleaned and dusted. He had straightened the furniture and done some modest repairing. He told them how disappointed he was that they had not noticed and that he hoped that his improvements in the old shack would enable them to enjoy it more when they moved in. Of course, the neighbors pitifully replied that they did not intend to move into the house but rather to change it totally and transform it that it might be a credit to the neighborhood.

There are thousands of people who are trying to improve the property of their lives before redemption. The first thing to do is receive Christ as Saviour and then be > baptized and then unite with a New Testament church so that they might begin the process of being converted as the church in the power of the Holy Spirit and with the Word of God helps the new Christians or the fallen Christians to grow in grace so that their members might be used not as instruments of unrighteousness, but rather instruments of righteousness so that they may not only be saved but also converted!

Bravo for Brother Hyles! Gospel preacher and author of the classic novel Pilgrim's Progress, John Bunyan, would have been very proud of Pastor Hyles...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Dr. Hyles dedicated this writing, chapter 3 of his excellent book, '[1]SALVATION IS MORE THAN BEING SAVED,' to differentiating between justification and sanctification. Being converted is a matter of growing in grace and discipleship, and not of sonship (salvation by faith alone). The horrible error that nearly everyone is making today in neo-evangelical Bible colleges (e.g., Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary and Moody Bible Institute), and in corrupted churches, is that they mandate conversion as a requirement to be saved. That can only be viewed as keeping the works of the law! Look what Ray Comfort said:

> "So man, think about that. this is your eternity, you don't know when you're going to die. You know, God offers you everlasting life as a free gift, if you'll let go of your sins. And we love to fornicate, we love pornography, we love our lust; but like a kid holding onto a stick of dynamite, not realizing that it will be the death of us! So think about that. Think how much you value your eyes, and think about how much you value your life. Jesus said, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul." —Evangelist Ray Comfort, YouTube video titled: "[2]Ray Comfort Doesn't Share the Gospel with Him..." (video posted on May 31, 2020)

As you can see, Ray Comfort foolishly requires a commitment to convert in order to receive God's free gift, which is not salvation at all. Deciding to turn from one's sins does not produce regeneration, it merely gives a person a false hope of salvation! Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!

1.4.16 The Apostle Paul Doesn't Say Turn From Sins To Be Saved (2020-08-12 10:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

I just quoted to you the Bible's definition of "The Gospel." The apostle Paul specifically mentions the DEATH, BURIAL and bodily RESURRECTION of the Lord. I don't see anything about turning from sins to be saved! That is because turning from (forsaking) sins is not a part of the saving Gospel. Pastor Jack Hyles made this helpful statement:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

Along with the Apostle Paul, I marvel in astonishment that most professed Christians today, sadly including independent Baptists, have succumbed to the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to "

turn from sins

as a condition to receive God's free gift of eternal life!

1.4.17 Salvation Is A Gift, Not An Award (2020-08-13 10:30)

Acts 15:10-11, " Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they."

What a lovely and clear Bible passage! A group of false teachers, Judaizers, had come to the city of Antioch preaching Lordship Salvation. Acts 15:1 and 24-26, "

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ...

Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

" That is the same as Lordship Salvation, because effectively it requires the same thing —keeping the law (e.g., don't murder, don't steal, don't commit adultery, don't covet, et cetera). If a person must be willing to stop committing those sins (aka, "

turn from your sins

) to be saved, that is the same as trying to keep the law in addition to your faith in Jesus Christ.

Please notice in Acts 15:24, that through their letters the apostles themselves reassured the confused believers at Antioch, that they hadn't given any such commandment to "

turn from sins

(i.e., keep the law) to be saved.

Acts 15:10-11, " Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they."

That is exactly what Lordship Salvation does, it places an unnecessary yoke upon sinner's shoulders, which neither the patriarchs, nor the apostles, nor are we able to bear! No one can keep the law to please God (Romans 3:20). So what makes a proponent of Lordship Salvation (i.e., turning from your sins and making full surrender to Christ as

Lord

" to be saved), foolishly think that God expects us to turn away from committing sinful behavior as a condition of receiving His free gift of eternal life?

Dr. Steve Pettit Heretically Calls Heaven " An Award"

One of the most dangerous heretics of our time is Evangelist Steve Pettit, the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014. I am certain that many of the faculty and students at Bob Jones University in 2015 were very disturbed and uneasy, as Dr. Pettit made the following heretical statements, teaching a works-based false gospel.

The sermon was preached in chapel on January 26, 2015 and is titled: "[1]What Does it Mean To Run The Race?" (MP3, 'The Daily Platform,' Dr. Steve Pettit). Dr. Pettit heretically teaches that "THE RACE" we run as Christians is necessary for salvation. That is exactly what Seventh-Day Adventist [2]false prophetess' Ellen G. White (1827-1915) taught! Steve Pettit teaches:

> "'The race' is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith." —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[3]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 4:26)

That is some dangerous talk when you include the next quote from Dr. Pettit, in which he teaches over 2,600 BJU students that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself ." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[4]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57)

Heaven itself? Oh my! What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 9:24-25, "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." As you just read, the "award" will be an "INCORRUPTIBLE CROWN," but Steve Pettit says it will be HEAVEN ITSELF!!! Heaven is not "a reward" dear reader, a gift from God, a solemn promise "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21). Dr. Pettit is pulling on the same rope as the Devil by teaching that Heaven in "an award."

Mr. Pettit is literally saying that the AWARD for running 'The Race' is salvation!!! Folks, eternal life is not an "AWARD," it is a free gift! Are you getting this? What a demonic heretic!!! Salvation is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15), which does NOT require living a faithful life to secure!!! Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit is a reprobate in the pulpit, an unsaved heretic, and a theological liar!!! He falsely says:

> "So not only does it have a start, but 'The Race' has to be run! It starts with faith, but it continues with faithfulness. You start the race with the purpose of finishing the race. Nobody starts the race, so that they can quit half-way through. When you start in faith, you need to run and finish in faith. However, let me also remind you, that this race is HARD. Is a race not hard? Is it not difficult to get out and run?" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[5]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 6:34)

Let me ask you a very important question dear reader—If I give you a gift, what does that mean? Here is what it means:

1. A gift will cost you NOTHING, because it cost me. I paid for it. Jesus paid for the gift of eternal life!
2. Receiving the gift does not obligate you in any way to do anything, or else it cannot be a gift. The dictionary defines "gift" as: "Something acquired without compensation." Eternal life is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15, 18).
3. I cannot take it away from you, otherwise it wasn't truly a gift, or else I am a thief for taking it back.
4. If it is an "award," then it cannot also be a "gift"! The dictionary definition of "award" is: "Something given for victory or superiority in a contest or competition." Folks, getting saved is a free gift, not a race or competition!
5. It is not "HARD" to receive a gift. Steve Pettit says running the race is "HARD," and he says you must run the race to get the "award" of Heaven. What a con man in the pulpit! Getting saved is easy, not an award; it is a free gift!

Dear friend, if you will simply always keep in mind that eternal life is a "free gift," it will steer you clear of mountains of heresy!!! Steve Pettit is a deadly false prophet, who corrupts the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Romans 5:18, "Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life."

1.4.18 Pastor Phil Kidd's Heresy Of Denying Eternal Security (2020-08-14 00:10)

John 10:28-29, "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one." Ephesians 1:13-14, "In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

If there is one thing that the Bible teaches, it is that the born-again believer has eternal security. Our text verse in Ephesians 1:13-14 teaches that God seals each believer with His Holy Spirit at the moment of salvation. The Lord promised to give eternal life to those who believe. The truth is that there are not two separate doctrines of Eternal Security and Eternal Life, they are one and the same doctrine. So if you have been born-again, you have eternal life abiding in you, because 1st John 5:20 says Jesus is eternal life. So you are either saved or you're not, and if you are, you have assurance of salvation (or eternal security if you prefer), because you have eternal life by faith in Jesus Christ.

I was saddened today when I heard Pastor Phil Kidd preach a sermon called: '[1]THE HERESY OF ETERNAL SECURITY.' At best the sermon is utterly confusing. What a doctrinal mess! Sadly, tens of thousands of people around the world look up to Pastor Phil Kidd as a spiritual mentor, so what he preaches matters! 290 people on Facebook praised his heretical sermon denying Eternal Security! I was alarmed when I read his sermon title, and saddened as I heard him trash out the security of the believer. Dear reader, just because there are some unsaved phonies in the churches who claim to be Christians, does not mean that true believers don't have eternal security. They sure do!!! I think that is what Dr. Kidd meant to say, but I can only go by what he actually DID SAY!

Now, I respect Pastor Phil Kidd, but he is wrong to deny the believer's eternal security.

I agree with some things Dr. Kidd says in this sermon, but it is obvious to me that he is sincerely confused in his theology. I love the man, truly, but he got it wrong today. Let me begin by telling you what I DO agree with. Pastor Kidd says if all you ever did was pray a prayer you're not saved. I fully agree! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) rightly said:

> "'Pray to be saved. Ask the Lord to save you.' This is what I heard a minister say to a convicted sinner who came forward for prayer at the close of an evangelistic service.

> Nowhere in the Bible are men told to pray to be saved. There are examples where men did pray and were saved. Men are told to repent, to believe, to obey the Gospel, but the Bible never says to pray for salvation. It does say that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, but nowhere does the Bible command men to pray to be saved. I think I know why, God, who made the human heart, knew that it was not necessary to tell convicted sinners to pray. If a sinner can see Jesus Christ on the cross, it is as natural for him to pray as it is for birds to sing or flowers to bloom. 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved."' —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Comments On Here And Hereafter," chapter: Prayer And Praise, page 163; Bob Jones University Press, Inc., © 1942 Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to "pray" to receive eternal life. We are taught in the Gospel of John 85 times simply to "

BELIEVE

" on Jesus Christ to be saved. Romans 10:9b says if you "believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

" We are saved by faith alone! Galatians 3:26,

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

" So if I ask you how you were saved, and you tell me that you prayed, you're not saved! Your answer should be that you knew you were a sinner, and you received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He raised up from the dead. That is the **"

Gospel

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

I also agree with Dr. Phil Kidd that if a professed Christian can sin and have no conviction whatsoever from God's indwelling Holy Spirit, then you don't have the Holy Spirit and are not saved. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." As Evangelist Tom Ferrell rightly said: "If you can sin and win, you're not in!" The Bible agrees with that. 1st John 1:10, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

" The Bible teaches that God is not an absent parent, He disciplines His children when they disobey. Hebrews 12:6-8, "For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons*.

The truth is that the indwelling Holy Spirit is the believer’s eternal security. God promises in Hebrews 13:5 to NEVER leave nor forsake His own. There is no way that a truly born-again child of God can ever be removed from God’s family. You can never lose God’s salvation. We are saved by **“

HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

(Matthew 6:33). That is, we are saved by God’s imputed righteousness, through faith in Jesus Christ.

Pastor Kidd Misinterprets Jude 1:3-5

Jude 1:3-5, “

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness , and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ . I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not .

Now let’s examine where Dr. Kidd goes horribly wrong in his theology. I just quoted to you Dr. Kidd’s sermon text from Facebook. Pastor Kidd says if you claim to be saved, but you are living in all manner of sin in your life, and thinking that you have a LICENSE TO SIN (which he defines as LASCIVIOUSNESS), then he says you're not saved! Now, before we make some deductions here, let's carefully notice two easily overlooked Scripture statements:

1. "denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ"
2. "destroyed them that believed not."

Jude 1:3-5 is talking about unsaved people who creep into the church. They were never saved to begin with, they simply joined a social club, or to be with their biological family, or they were invited, et cetera. They never had the Holy Spirit at all, so they are not saved! This has nothing to do with the great Christian doctrine of Eternal Security. The Words Trinity, Bible and Rapture are not found in the Bible, but we see those doctrines taught, so these words are acceptable to use, in my humble opinion.

It is important to see in Jude 1:3-5 that such impostors, who superficially claim to be Christians, but use God's grace as an excuse to sin, do not believe what the Bible says. They are not God's children. We see this today in many fake churches. The churches who are accepting the LGBTQ agenda, and welcoming unrepentant homosexuals as church members in good standing, are turning God's grace into lasciviousness! I think this is what Dr. Kidd is trying to say. We've got a bunch of wicked people in our churches today, who think they are saved because they prayed some stupid prayer 15 years ago, or because some incompetent pastor told them they are going to Heaven, but they know not the Gospel and are as lost as a moose in a caboose!

God Did Promise Every Believer Eternal Security!

John 6:47, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ”

Now, as much as I am trying to give Pastor Phil Kidd credit, and am trying to see things from his point of view, I simply cannot defend him when he says garbage like this:

> “By the way, God never said He gave you eternal security—a license to sin—He gives eternal life, which means the eternal thing He puts in you affects your life, here and there!
>
> —Pastor Phil Kidd, ’[2]The Heresy Of Eternal Security’

That is blatant heresy! Dr. Kidd is preaching the heresy of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation)! He is rear-loading the Gospel, saying that if you are saved you WILL turn from your sins! The Bible disagrees with Phil Kidd. What saith the Scripture? Titus 2:13, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;” The Bible says we “ SHOULD ,” not WILL or MUST, but “SHOULD” live godly in this present world!!! Every believer SHOULD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that is Lordship Salvation). That is why the saved man in 1st Corinthians 3:15 had NO REWARDS at all, because he failed to turn from his sins, and failed to surrender to Christ’s Lordship, but he was still “SAVED; YET SO AS BY FIRE.”

By the way, [3]Dr. Phil Kidd is featured on Pacific Garden Mission's 'UNSHACKLED' (radio program #2119), so it is in his best interests to preach the [4]same Lordship Salvation junk theology that PGM propagates. Beware of Unshackled's corrupt gospel, and the corrupt preaching of Phil Kidd that denies the believer's eternal security. We know that we do have eternal security, because JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! It could be that you've never been saved at all, evidenced by the absence of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and lack of conviction over the sins in your life without Him, but this has NOTHING to do with the eternal security of those who are true believers!!! I think Dr. Kidd is sincere, but he is confused and wrong.

Dr. Kidd says he's sick and tired of preachers across the country trying to get people saved again, leading them to pray another sinner's prayer, so those pastors can brag about their numbers. It sounds like he is attacking soulwinning independent fundamental Baptists! Hey, on the Day of Pentecost 3,000 people were saved, in one sermon! No one interrogated the converts to see if they had been previously saved! I have no doubt that there are some naive pastors, who assume that everyone is not saved. When I was 17 years old, my own pastor mistakenly, but sincerely, concluded that I wasn't saved, because I went to him for help with the assurance of my salvation. I was in fact saved at age 13. I was just ignorant and confused. So there is a bit of truth in what Dr. Kidd says; however, for Dr. Kidd to use that problem in some churches to deny the believer's eternal security, is to compare apples with submarines!

Eternal Life And Eternal Security Are The Same Doctrine

Pastor Kidd rightly says that backslidden believers need to renew their FELLOWSHIP with the Lord, not their RELATIONSHIP as His redeemed child. Bravo for that! It behooves me then, how Pastor Kidd can deny the believer's eternal security? He clearly believes, as made clear in his sermon, that we do good works because we ARE saved, not to BE saved. And he clearly gets the Gospel right (Jesus' death, burial and resurrection). And he clearly believes that saints can become backslidden, but are still saved. So why does Pastor Kidd deny eternal security? It is a confusing sermon at best.

I had to listen to his sermon five times, because he goes back and forth, preaching free grace theology one minute, and Lordship Salvation damnable heresy the next. Kindly said, it is clear to me that Dr. Kidd is confused in his theology. If you listen to the sermon you'll see what I mean. He contradicts himself several times.

Dr. Kidd says if you're still drinking booze and living in sin, you didn't get the GRACE that he got when he was saved. That is a contradictory statement in itself, because GRACE has nothing to do with us! We are saved BY GRACE! That means it has absolutely NOTHING to do with you dear friend. Grace is God's unmerited favor.

Grace as an acronym stands for: G*od's* R*iches* A*t* C*hrist's* E*xpense!*

So Pastor Kidd says we're not saved by works, but if you don't have a changed life you're not saved. Huh? That is the forked-tongue doublespeak of every false prophet today who is

[5]CAUGHT BETWEEN WORKS AND GRACE

" (a tremendous sermon by Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold. Here's the [6]MP3). Kindly said, Pastor Phil Kidd is caught between works and grace!!! Every believer has eternal life in them, because Jesus is eternal life. 1st John 5:20, "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

” If you have Jesus you have eternal life, and if you have eternal life you have eternal security, because eternal life IS eternal security. There is no such thing as eternal security apart from eternal life, they are one and the same.

You don’t earn grace! You don’t maintain grace! You don’t have to forsake all your sins to qualify to keep grace! IT IS GOD’S GRACE!!! Ephesians 2:8-9, “ For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.” Kindly said, Pastor Kidd takes Jude 1:3-5 out of context. This passage is about unsaved people who’ve crept into the churches, which has absolutely nothing to do with the believer’s promise of Eternal Security!

Pastor Kidd Misinterprets Hebrews 6:4-6

Dr. Kidd also takes Hebrews chapter 6 out of context, applying it to Christians instead of Christ-rejecters. Pastor Kidd errantly states:

>
> By the way, if you’re going to believe the Bible, Sir, you’ve got to go to Hebrews chapter number six and you’ve got to believe this
> —if you believe a man can lose his salvation, then you must believe that he can never get it back again. There is no such thing as ’repeat redemption.’ ” —Pastor Phil Kidd, ’ [7]The Heresy Of Eternal Security ’

What a mess! That is so untrue! No Christian can lose eternal life! Hebrews chapter 6 is about people who have heard the Gospel, they've tasted the good Word of God, but did not get saved. They are fallen from grace, meaning they have passed up their only ticket to Heaven through faith in Christ! Pastor Kidd is in error to say that a believer can lose God's salvation, that is not what the following Scripture passage is saying:

> Hebrews 6:4-6, " For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame."

Carefully notice that they were "once enlightened," not saved. They tasted of the heavenly gift, but they didn't receive it. The Holy Ghost convicted them of their sins and lost condition, but they refused to come to Christ to be saved. We know this is the correct interpretation, because we have dozens of other passages teaching the eternal security of the believer! In 85 places in the Gospel of John we are taught to simply believe to be saved, with the attached PROMISE of eternal life. That is eternal security my friend! God made a promise "TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE" (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

It's as simple as this, Dr. Kidd thinks that you cannot have eternal security and continue in sin.

Pastor Kidd Is Wrong To Deny The Eternal Security Of The Believer

Respectfully, Dr. Kidd makes a lot of erroneous claims in his sermon. One false claim is that the proponents of easy-believism don't require sinners to have any conviction over sin to be saved. Pastor Kidd says:

Many people that cling to this heresy of eternal security. Let me tell you a few things they believe:

1. They believe salvation can come without a person being under conviction. We call it in modern-day terminology: 'Easy-Believism'
2. They believe God can move in you, and it doesn't necessary change you.
3. You're distorting the Scripture, if you think the grace of God is a license for you to live ungodly.

SOURCE: Dr. Phil Kidd, '[8]The Heresy Of Eternal Security' (10:55 time in video)

Let me respond below to Pastor Kidd's THREE assertions:

First, no one ever got saved who didn't know he is a needy sinner. A man must know what he is being saved from to receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins. The only conviction of sin that a man needs to be saved, is just enough to recognize that he is a guilty sinner in need of redemption. The law shows humanity our sinnership (Romans 3:19-20) and brings us to Christ to be saved by faith (Galatians 3:24-26). Dr. Kidd opens a can of worms by accusing soulwinners of "

easy-believism.

Buddy, the ONLY way to be saved is the easy route! You come as a needy sinner and simply rest in Christ. It's that easy!!!

Second, your salvation does not change you a bit. Dr. Kidd is wrong! Pastor Jack Hyles gets it right, explaining this truth in his writing: “

[9]Conversion And Salvation.

” Eternal life is a

“

(Romans 5:15-18), which Dr. Kidd fails to mention once in his sermon. Is a gift easy to take? Yes, it sure is. So what is hard about getting saved? Go ask Phil Kidd, because he is the one attacking easy-believism! God saves you by faith, and then the Holy Spirit comes to lives inside you, and He will change you over time. But the church has the duty of mentoring converts, which is a part of The Great Commission (Matthew 28:19-20). I hear a lot of preachers bragging about the number of people they led to Christ, but how many did you mentor with the Bible?

Third, I half agree with the third thing Dr. Kidd said. You are definitely distorting the Scriptures if you think being saved gives you a license to sin. But it all depends on what you mean by “license.” If you mean that you don’t have God’s blessing and permission to continue in willful sin, then I agree (Romans 3:31). But if you mean that you cannot be saved and continue living in willful sin, or else you are not really saved, then I fully disagree (Romans 5:20; Acts 13:39).

We are saved solely by God’s imputed righteousness, through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Eternal life is the gift of God (Romans 6:23). Dr. Kidd makes some strange statements in his sermon. I don’t know anyone who believes the following:

But I’m just saying to your brother, that I will never tell anybody, ’Live like you want to, it doesn’t matter, you’re going to Heaven anyhow.’

—Pastor Phil Kidd, ’ [10]The Heresy Of Eternal Security ’

Who teaches that today? I don't know anybody. Dr. Kidd is making such harsh statements to discredit the truth that a person can be saved, and still wilfully live in sin. The truth is that we all still commit sin. Everyone commits willful sin! Every time you go 60 mph in a 55 mph zone you're sinning (Romans 13:1). Every time you fail to pray for those in your life you're sinning (1st Samuel 12:23). Every time you mention future plans without saying "if the Lord will" you're sinning (James 4:15-16). We're all a bunch of woeful sinners!!!

I admire Dr. Kidd for his career, toughness, and his incredible life's testimony. Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to rightly say: "We need porcupine preachers, so people will get the point!" Well, [11]Pastor Kidd is the largest porcupine preacher that I know of! Dr. Kidd is more like a saber-tooth tiger in the pulpit! I really like the guy, but as a Baptist preacher myself, I am duty-bound to " earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints

" (Jude 1:3b). Ironically, the very text passage that Phil Kidd chose for his sermon, denying the eternal security of the Christian believer, exposes him at the same time!

When A Believer Sins Grace Abounds

Romans 5:20-21, "Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound: That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord."

Your eternal destination can NEVER depend upon what you do as a saint of God, neither before, during nor after you were saved. I mean, if a man can lose his salvation, don't you think there would be at least one story in the Bible like that? There's not. If a person could lose their salvation and get re-saved, show me a story like that in the Bible. And if a person can lose their salvation, and not get it back, show me where that happened to someone in the Bible? I'm waiting. Friend, you cannot show me any stories like that. Pastor Kidd says salvation is by grace, not by works. And he says we do good works because we are saved, not to get saved. And he says it is possible to stray away from the Lord, backslide, and still be saved. That is all true! So why does he teach that eternal security is a heresy, which is untrue? It is a counterfeit gospel of fear, uncertainty and worry! Dr. Kidd confused many people today in this horrible sermon. Preachers say the darnedest things!

Carefully notice in the following Scripture that if salvation is by grace, "THEN IS IT NO MORE OF WORKS"!!! That is what the Holy Bible teaches! Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Works have no part of salvation. False prophets' John MacArthur, John Piper, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Phil Kidd, Pacific Garden Mission, Bob Jones University, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. You don't HAVE TO serve Christ to be saved, but you "SHOULD" (Titus 2:11-13).

You must keep salvation and service separate or you will be confused, and confuse everyone else! Salvation is not me meaning business, it is God meaning business! My part is simply to freely receive God's gift of eternal life BY FAITH. I'm tired of preachers putting fear into people's hearts, telling them that if they didn't mean business and are still living in sin, they are not saved. The preachers want people to live right, so they put them into fear, telling them that if they don't live righteously they aren't really saved. Salvation is free, always remember that! Stand strong for the Gospel of free grace! Don't doubt the Gospel just because people live wrong. Scripture never contradicts itself, which tells us that Lordship Salvation is not true, because it contradicts Scripture! No man has to serve Jesus Christ because he is saved. If you don't understand that truth, the Scriptures will be confusing to you!

At the end of his sermon, Pastor Kidd says he wants everybody there to go out the door KNOWING that they are saved. You're kidding me right? You just spent an hour going overtime in your sermon, condemning the whole concept of a believer having Eternal Security, and now you want everyone to KNOW they are saved? I need to go take a long walk!

1.4.19 Lordship Salvation Is A Perversion Of The Gospel (2020-08-14 10:30)

Galatians 1:1-9,

“

Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

As we learn from our text passages, to tamper with and change the Gospel is a very serious offense with God. In fact, God’s curse is upon anyone who messes with grace! The following is a wonderful and helpful sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson, in which he defends the simplicity of grace for salvation. The sermon is titled: ’ [1]A Perversion Of The Gospel: Lordship Salvation .’ ...

Lordship salvation is an unscriptural teaching regarding the doctrine of salvation and is confusing to Christians. Those who teach it claim that one must make Jesus Lord of his life in order to be saved. They use such expressions as, "You cannot receive Jesus as Saviour without receiving Him as Lord," or, "If Jesus Christ is not the Lord of your life, then you are not saved."

The Bible teaches salvation by grace through faith. Ephesians 2:8, 9 says, "For by grace ye are saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." But those who teach Lordship salvation say that is is not enough to trust Jesus Christ; you must also make Him Lord of your life in order to be saved. This kind of teaching frustrates the grace of God and is called in the Bible "another gospel."

I. Another Gospel Which Is Not Another

In verse 6, Paul said, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into grace of Christ unto another gospel." Paul contrasts the Gospel of the grace of God with "another gospel" which he does not define. In verse 7 he said, "Which is not another...." That sounds like a contradiction, but the word "another" does not come from the same Greek word. In verse 6 it means "another—different from the one we preach." In verse 7 the Greek word means "another of the same kind." So we might paraphrase the verse, "I marvel that you are so soon r emoved from him who called you unto the grace of Christ unto a different gospel which is not like the one we preach."

He goes on to say, "There be some that trouble you" (vs. 7). The preaching of another gospel troubles people. He also calls it a perversion of the Gospel of the grace of God.

Then he says something very strong in verse 8: "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"].

Then he emphasizes it again in verse 9: "As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach another gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"].

Paul said, "I am startled; I marvel; I can't believe that you are so soon removed from the Gospel of the grace of Christ unto another gospel."

"Another gospel" is not defined, so I will define it based upon the implication of the text.

The Gospel of the grace of Christ is one thing. Another gospel would be anything that contradicts the teaching of salvation by grace through faith. If a man preaches that one is saved by the substitutionary death of Jesus, by trusting Christ, then adds some from of good works, he contradicts the Gospel of the grace of God. I could not put it any better than Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Salvation cannot be by grace and works. It has to be either grace or works.

Most people have a poor concept of grace. I used to work for a loan company. I would give what is called a "grace period." If you didn't pay your debt in time, you had five days "grace" before you got a notice and were tagged with a late charge.

That is not grace; that is a probation. Grace is the unmerited, undeserved favor of God toward Hell-deserving sinners.

There is so much confusion over the doctrine of salvation. If you ask the next ten people you see, "How does a person get to Heaven?" you will probably get ten different answers. And it is very likely that none would be correct.

In the final analysis, there are only two schemes of salvation that are taught by all religions. One is that man saves himself; the other is that God saves a man. They say that man saves himself by reforming or cleaning up his life before he is saved in order to merit salvation; or that man saves himself by promising to keep the Ten Commandments before he is saved; or man saves himself by obedience. Others teach that man saves himself by behaving. Those who teach Lordship salvation say that man saves himself by making Jesus Lord of his life. Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ: for it [the Gospel] is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that behaves..."? No, "...to every one that believeth."

The only thing you can do with the Gospel is believe it. The Gospel is the good news of how Jesus Christ came to this earth, how He died on a cross in our place for our sins, how he was buried and rose again the third day. That is the Gospel.

Don’t confuse the truth with the Gospel. The Gospel is the truth, but all truth is not the Gospel. It is the truth that I wear a necktie to church, but that is not the Gospel. It the truth that I brush my teeth every morning, but that is not the Gospel. All truth is not the Gospel, but the Gospel is the truth.

When I preach on Hell, I preach a Bible truth that ought to be preached and one that Jesus preached, but it is not the Gospel. hell is not good news; Hell is bad news. If I preach on judgment, I preach the truth but not the Gospel. But when I preach that Jesus loved sinners, that He died in the sinner's place to pay the sinner's debt, that He was buried and after three days God raised Him form the dead to show His satisfaction with the payment, then I preach the Gospel.

An old preacher spoke to a large crowd of young preachers. Before leaving the platform, one young pastor said to him, "Sir, before you leave, give us a word of advice."
The old preacher thought for a moment, then said, "My preacher brethren, make it plain to men how they are to saved."

Far too many preachers are muddying the Gospel. The waters of the grace of God must be kept crystal clear. It disturbs me when preachers scramble the grace of God with works. Paul said, "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you... LET HIM BE DAMNED!" Strong language, but that is how God feels about preachers who pervert the Gospel. Paul says that even an angel is to be damned for preaching another gospel.

Something about us religious humans make us want to add to the Gospel. We want to help God with our salvation. If we can't help Him save us, we want to help keep ourselves saved.

Adam and Eve gathered fig leaves and sewed them together to make aprons to cover their nakedness. They knew something was wrong and tried to right it before God came to visit. They were happy and well pleased with their fig-leaf religion until God came, then they were embarrassed with their fig-leaf covering and ran and hid themselves. God called them unto Himself, killed an innocent animal (a picture of the substitutionary death of Jesus), took the skin from the animal and made coats for Adam and Eve.
He didn't let them keep one single fig leaf of their own making. Salvation is of the Lord.

You may be satisfied to stand before men with you religion, but are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God Almighty? Remember, God put His Son on a cross, loaded Him down with your sin, and poured out His wrath on His own Son so He could save you from the penalty of sin, which is Hell!

Are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God with fig-leaf religion? There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ; one must trust Him alone and nothing else.

Those who teach Lordship salvation say, "If you do not give over the control of your life to Christ at the moment of salvation, you are not saved."

1.4.20 Proponents Of Lordship Salvation Use Obscure Verses (2020-08-15 09:30)

2nd Peter 3:16-17, “

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

I took a drive today to PostNet to get my packages. I ordered some King James Bibles to give away. As I drove something dawned on me. It occurred to me the proponents of the heresy of Lordship Salvation ALL use obscure passages of Scripture in an attempt to bolster up their Strawman doctrine. When studying the Word of God, we should NEVER base a doctrine on just a verse or two, without taking into consideration the whole of Scripture. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) fully understood this vital truth, who said: “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

For example: On their college website, [1]Bob Jones University (BJU) says that you have to turn from your sins to be saved, which is a false doctrine! I am saddened and utterly disgusted that BJU has drastically changed for the worst. Literally, BJU is now a Satanic cult! They have gone full-blown Lordship Salvation, bidding Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur!

Here is a heretical quote form BJU’s website...

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]BJU Statements of Faith

You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that says

“

turn from your sins

“

repent of your sins

to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. I triple-dog dare you to show me! You cannot show me even one Bible verse. So in a wicked attempt to justify their false teaching of Lordship Salvation, Bob Jones University cites obscure Scripture passages from Acts 3:19 and Acts 17:30 to deceive people. Here is the first passage:

Acts 3:19,
“

Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out*, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; ”

Let’s examine Acts 3:19 shall we? Taken by itself, this Bible verse is unclear, and we cannot discern exactly what is meant by “ converted.

” If we take into consideration the entirety of Scripture, it must mean to be born-again. But if we listen to religious deceivers like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) and Dr. John MacArthur (his buddy in California), then they will deceive you to think it means, “

turn from your sins.

” What saith the Scripture? Always look at the surrounding passage before interpreting any particular Bible verse, to discern the context. Take a look at Chapter four...

Acts 4:4, " Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand."

As is often the case, chapter divisions can mislead the Bible reader. There were no chapter divisions in the original Greek text. Scholarly men added the chapter divisions centuries later to organize the Bible. So always keep this in mind. Chapter four is a continuation of chapter three. Acts 4:4 says they "BELIEVED" to be saved. The Bible does NOT say that they forsook their sins, does it? No, it simply says that they " BELIEVED

" and five thousand men were saved.

This was in addition to the 3,000 souls saved in Acts 2:41, who **"

gladly received his word,

" and were saved. This is how Cornelius was saved in Acts 10:43-44,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

" They simply BELIEVED and were instantly saved. Please notice that their sins were remitted (pardoned) because they BELIEVED, and not because they were willing to forsake their sinful bad habits.

Now let's take a look at the other obscure Scripture cited by BJU, in a wicked attempt to bolster their Strawman heresy of turning from sins to be saved:

Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:"

BJU's corrupt leaders would have you to think that this verse teaches you must turn from your sins to receive God's free gift of eternal life. They are assuming (ass-you-me) that repent means to turn from sins, but they assume WRONG! The word simply means to think differently, a change of mind from wrong thinking to believing the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Taken by itself, Acts 17:30 is obscure, and can be wrestled to teach anything. What saith the rest of the Scripture passage? ...

> Acts 17:31-34, “ Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.
>
> So Paul departed from among them.
>
> Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed* : among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. ”

Notice again that the Bible doesn’t say they turned from their sins and believed. No, it says in Acts 17:34 that they simply **“

BELIEVED.

” Oh friend, again and again and again, throughout the Holy Bible, we are taught that the way to be saved is simply TO BELIEVE. John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

” Galatians 3:26, “ For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ” There is no mention of turning from your sins in these verses. There is no command to “

repent of your sins

to be born-again!!! Do you see friend, how the Devil has crept into our Bible colleges and churches today, perverting the Gospel?

John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ” The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract! The beloved Apostle John said, “THESE THINGS ARE WRITTEN,” that ye might “BELIEVE” and that by believing that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, you will have **“

LIFE THROUGH HIS NAME.

” Oh how beautiful! Oh how precious! If we were to exclude the other 65 books of the Holy Bible, all you need to be saved is written in the pages of John. **“

But these are written

” John said, to convince you that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that if you simply BELIEVE on His name you will be immediately and forever saved!!!

The Lordship Salvation crowd have it all backwards! They insist that you be willing to forsake the old life of sin first, as a requirement to receive God’s free gift of eternal life; but the Bible teaches the opposite, that you receive God’s free gift of forgiveness of sins first, and then God’s Holy Spirit comes inside you to live, and He begins to remodel. The former is religious reformation, but the latter is the new birth. Please don’t let Lordship Salvation damn your soul to Hell. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. The Devil’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again! Jesus said, “ YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN

(John 3:7b).

> “A man doesn’t get better to get saved; he gets saved to get better.” —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), “[3]Salvation Crystal Clear”

I love this helpful quote from Dr. Jack Hyles:

> “Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[4]Conversion And Salvation” (chapter 3) from his book: “[5]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”

In the beautiful simple pages of John we find the word

“BELIEVE” mentioned 85 times, but the word “REPENT” is not mentioned even once. That is because the man who believes has repented, and man who repents has believed. Repentance and faith are inseparable, you cannot have one without the other.

> “Being saved is not something that you perform, it is something that He performs.” —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, “Raised For Our Justification.”

In hundreds of Scripture passages we are taught to simply believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. Jesus died on the cross, was buried and physically resurrected three days later. He did all that to pay your outstanding debt of sin and mine! WHAT A SAVIOR!!!

It is the uttermost insult and injury for anyone—such as, Pastor’s John MacArthur and Marty Herron, Evangelists’ Ray Comfort and Ken Ham, or Dr. Steve Pettit—to preach that MORE is required than the simple childlike faith of John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ” The false teaching that one must repent from the old sinful life to be saved is of the Devil, and cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus!

Beware of these slick devil-dog preachers in the pulpit today, who have infected most churches with their Calvinistic Lordship Salvation garbage! These deceitful men preach another gospel of perverted grace! All of them misinterpret the Bible, taking obscure passages out of context, while ignoring hundreds of clear passages in the inspired Word of God! To complicate matters, most of these deceived religious men are using and promoting the Devil’s corrupted Bible revisions, which literally redefine what it means to repent and thus how to be saved, damning millions of souls to the Lake of Fire forever without hope!!! The modern Bible versions are dangerous, please stay away from all of them! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.”

1.4.21 The Bible Says It Is Very Easy To Be Saved (2020-08-15 20:10)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-4, " Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

Beware of anyone who says it is not easy to be saved! I am amazed and frustrated when I hear someone telling others that getting saved is " hard.

" I'm not just talking about some ignoramus who's in his first year of Bible college, I'm talking about Pastor John MacArthur, who is revered by tens of thousands of clergy and layman worldwide for his preaching and theology. Read for yourself what Dr. MacArthur says to complicate the Gospel:

> "Don't believe anyone who says it's easy to become a Christian. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God's Son His life, and it'll cost you the same thing..." [emphasis added] —Dr. John MacArthur, his book "HARD TO BELIEVE," p. 93

Oh how wrong John MacArthur is friend! The word " simplicity

in our text verse from 2nd Corinthians 11:3 is the Greek word haplotes , which means singleness.

That means there is only ONE THING you need to do to be saved, and that is to believe the 'GOOD NEWS' (GOSPEL) of the Lord Jesus Christ! Pastor Curtis Hutson gets it right, in this helpful sermon called:

[1]The One Thing That Determines Salvation.

" Do you believe my friend?

And then there is Pastor Phil Kidd, who woefully attacked the truth of "

Easy Believism

in his horrible recent sermon he titled: ' [2]The Heresy Of Eternal Security .' Kindly said, he's got a hole in his head the size of Kansas! What do you mean it's not easy to be saved? What do you mean there's no such thing as the eternal security of the believer? The Bible says in Ephesians 1:14-15 that every believer is

"sealed with that holy Spirit of promise"

as God's child,

"Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

" Whew, that's eternal security dear reader!!!

Who else is saying that it is not "EASY" to be saved? Well, tragically we hear this junk theology on UNSHACKLED radio aired by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. In UNSHACKLED [3]program #3589 (broadcast in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon. Here's is some of their dialogue:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy —believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD . When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! That is a very difficult, hard and complicated false gospel. Please let me remind you dear reader, that getting saved is the free gift of God, not a trade-off. Receiving eternal life is a free gift, not an exchange where you give up your sins as a trade to get God's gift of eternal life.

Who else says that getting saved is hard? [4]Look no further than Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), who heretically says: "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it!" (an exact quote from a sermon Pettit preached at BJU on January 26, 2015 titled: "[5]What Does It Mean To 'Run The Race'?"

). Dr. Pettit says

Heaven itself

is an

award,

which to win you MUST faithfully run

the race

to the end and finish. That is another gospel, turning God’s free gift of eternal life into a process instead of a new birth. That is the nightmare theology of Pastor John MacArthur and John Calvin (1509-1564). Calvinism is of the Devil.

Tragically, somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University, Ray Comfort, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Ken Ham and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of Pastor John MacArthur’s demonic [6]Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God’s curse is upon all of them...

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are troubling the island with their perverse gospel, which the Bible says is NOT ANOTHER GOSPEL! It is of the Devil. It is a fraud. It is a Satanic deception and will lead people into the fires of Hell beneath for all eternity!!!

We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful ways of sinful living is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God’s plan of salvation is simply for you come to God as a needy sinner, and receive His Son’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen. That’s it! PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches. PGM’s false gospel is that you must make a commitment to follow the Lord. Judas followed Jesus and went to Hell. Matthew 27:3b says Judas “repented” of his sins, but he wasn’t saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, but they will be in Hell. Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.”

I’ve already mentioned about a dozen names and organizations so far who pervert the Gospel of free grace, making it hard and difficult to be saved. Who else teaches that it is to be saved? Oh no, say it isn’t so like ’[7]Hall and Oates,’ please tell me I’m wrong! It’s sadly true, even the English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University shamefully uses, sells and promotes says it is to be saved:

“

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Matthew 7:13-14, “Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.” [emphasis added]

Even the New King James Version (NKJV) [8]says it is “difficult” to be saved . In fact, nearly all of the modern Alexandrian based Bible perversions corrupt this Scripture passage, to say it is hard to be saved. I wish I could say it isn’t so, but it sadly is so!!! Sorry Daryl Hall and John Oates, IT IS SO! The country is theologically going to Hell in a wheelbarrow! I often wonder if anybody really cares about THE TRUTH anymore! The inspired King James Bible says that the way unto life is “narrow,” not hard. If there is anything hard about salvation, it is only that it is so simple men pass right over and miss it! That is why God calls it narrow!

You know, there is something important to see. The Devil came to Eve in the form of a serpent, to deceive her. The Bible says in Genesis 3:1 that the first thing Satan did was question the Word of God, taking it out of context. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ." The Bible says that Satan, "BY ANY MEANS," will corrupt your mind if he can, from Easy Believism! It didn't say that, God did! The Bible warns against anybody who comes alone making salvation HARD or DIFFICULT! Dr. Jack Hyles gets it 100 % correct:

> "I want to make one thing clear at the start: You cannot do anything to get saved except come to the Lord Jesus Christ. Oh, how Satan has tried to complicate it! Satan has tried to make more to salvation than that. People have tried to add their own work to salvation." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[9]The Simplicity Of Salvation"

It is very simple to be saved! You are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19). There is a penalty for your sins, which is death (Romans 6:23). That includes dying a second death in the Lake of Fire (Revelation 21:8). But God loves you so much that He would rather die than live without out. So God became flesh, in the man Christ Jesus (John 1:1-3, 14; 1st Timothy 3:16). Jesus went to the cross and suffered your Hell, paying a debt that He did not owe, because you and I owed a massive debt if sin we could not pay. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He raised up from the dead the third day, is saved instantly, securely and forever! Once saved, always saved! You now have eternal life, which is the believer's eternal security!

And I am now going to say something that will harelip every dog in the county—you

CAN go live any way you want and still go to Heaven! Someone tell Pastor Phil Kidd to go read the Bible!!! I didn't say you have God's permission and blessing to live in sin. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:28-31,

"Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law."

Here is the truth of the matter. A believer is no longer under the curse of God's LAW. He that believeth is justified freely justified

FROM ALL THINGS.

Acts 13:39,

And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

" So if you dare, you can go live any way you want, but God will scourge and chastise you as His child (Hebrews 12:6-8). These preachers (like Dr. Phil Kidd), who get so upset at professed Christians still living in gross immorality (and all immorality is gross sin), that they corrupt the plan of salvation to say that there is no such thing as Eternal Security, are preaching another gospel.

Although the term

"eternal security" is not found in the Bible (just like the words Bible, Trinity and Rapture aren't), we know that every believer is 100 % safe in God's salvation because it is just that, GOD'S SALVATION!!! You have nothing to do with GRACE my friend. You deserve to go directly to Hell and burn forever for your sins, and so do I. God in His wondrous love and mercy and grace, sent His only begotten Son Jesus into the world, to be rejected, spit upon, beaten, stripped naked and crucified as a common criminal. He did that for you and me! Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9). If you believe that truth, and you have placed your trust in the blessed Savior, receiving God's gift of forgiveness of sins by faith, then you have it dear friend! LOOK TO JESUS!!!

Jesus said that getting saved is as EASY as drinking some water...

> John 4:13-14, " Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."

Jesus said that getting saved is as EASY as eating and drinking...

> John 6:54, " Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Jesus said that getting saved is as EASY as walking through a door...

> John 10:9, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

Jesus said that getting saved is as EASY as simply believing in Him...

John 11:25,
“

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

The way that you drink the water Christ offers, walk through the door of Christ, and eat His flesh and blood to have eternal life, is to simply BELIEVE on His name, because Jesus is the RESURRECTION and the LIFE! 1st John 5:20, “And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. ” Jesus is God and Eternal Life! So if you believe on Him, you have eternal life, which is the same as eternal security and assurance of salvation, no matter what!

[10]

[11]Getting Saved Is Free, Simple And Easy!

No believer can ever come under the curse of the LAW again, we have been freed, liberated in Jesus Christ. But we ought not use our liberty as an occasion to sin the Bible says. Galatians 5:1 and 13, “ Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

...For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. ” Humbly, I am giving you sound Bible doctrine. This is the truth that so many preachers fail to see today. We must keep salvation and serving separate, or it will cause all kinds of confusion. Salvation and discipleship are two entirely separate decisions and matters. I won't mention all their horrible names again, but I earlier mentioned about a dozen heretics (people and groups), who teach that salvation is hard and difficult. Now you know from the Bible that getting saved is very simple, free and easy; so easy in fact that even a little child can be saved, for such is the Kingdom of Heaven!

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —Evangelist John Bunyan

1.4.22 The Devil's Bibles Turn Salvation Into A Process (2020-08-16 21:46)

1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

The inspired Word of God plainly teaches that believers "

ARE SAVED.

” It is a done deal. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Just as you were born physically the first time into the terrestrial world; likewise, you are spiritually born the second time into God’s Kingdom by faith. Once you were born physically you began to grow; likewise, when a person is born-again into God’s family, they need to grow in the Lord. 1st Peter 2:2-3, “As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.”

You don’t have to continue to grow in order to have been born! That is very important to understand. The same holds true for both the physical birth (by the flesh) and the spiritual birth (by the Holy Spirit of God).

The King James Bible correctly says in our text verse that believers **“

ARE SAVED,

” but all of the following modern perversions (and these are just but a few) change it to incorrectly read

ARE BEING SAVED

”…

CSB - 1st Corinthians 1:18, “

For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but it is the power of God to us who are being saved. ”

CEB -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The message of the cross is foolishness to those who are being destroyed. But it is the power of God for those of us who are being saved. ”

CJB -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the message about the execution-stake is nonsense to those in the process of being destroyed, but to us in the process of being saved it is the power of God. ”

CEV -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The message about the cross doesn’t make any sense to lost people. But for those of us who are being saved, it is God’s power at work. ”

ERV -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The teaching about the cross seems foolish to those who are lost. But to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ”

EHV -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved, it is the power of God. ”

ESV -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ”

ESVUK -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ”

GW -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The message about the cross is nonsense to those who are being destroyed, but it is God’s power to us who are being saved. ”

HCSB -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but it is God’s power to us who are being saved. ”

ICB -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The teaching about the cross seems foolish to those who are lost. But to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ”

ISV -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

For the message about the cross is nonsense to those who are being destroyed, but it is God’s power to us who are being saved. ”

PHILLIPS -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

“

The preaching of the cross is, I know, nonsense to those who are involved in this dying world, but to us who are being saved from that death it is nothing less than the power of God. ”

LEB -

1st Corinthians 1:18,

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ”

As you can see, the Devil's Bibles (all based upon the corrupt Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort Greek text from Alexandrian, Egypt) are corrupt and turn salvation from an instant new birth, into a lifelong process of living the Christian life (i.e., religion). Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again!

> "I want to make one thing clear at the start: You cannot do anything to get saved except come to the Lord Jesus Christ. Oh, how Satan has tried to complicate it! Satan has tried to make more to salvation than that. People have tried to add their own work to salvation." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]The Simplicity of Salvation"

1.4.23 Amazing Facts About Repentance (2020-08-17 10:00)

Luke 13:5,
I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

The following very helpful excerpt is from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), from his awesome booklet titled: '[1]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?'...

> There is a vast difference between what men think the Bible says about repentance and what > the Bible actually says. Here are a few facts about "repent" as it is found in its various forms in > both the Old and New Testaments.

The word “repent” is found forty-five times in the King James Bible; “repentance” twenty-six times; “repented” thirty-two times; “repentest” one time; “repenteth” five times; “repenting” one time; and “repentings” one time - a total of 111 times in both the Old and New Testaments. The word in its various forms is found forty-six times in the Old Testament and sixty-five in the New.
Of the forty-six times the word appears in the Old Testament, twenty-eight times God does the repenting, not man.

For instance, in Exodus 32:14 the Bible says, “And the Lord repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.”

In addition to the twenty-eight times that God repents in the Old Testament, there are nine other passages that tell of things about which God does not or did not repent. Of the forty-six times a form of the word “repentance” appears in the Old Testament, only nine times is man doing the repenting. Thirty-seven times it has reference to God’s repenting or telling us of things about which God did not or will not repent.

Now, if “repent” means to turn from sin, we have a problem. We have God turning from sin, and that is certainly inconsistent with Bible teaching. God is sinless and has no sin to turn from.

But if “repentance” means a change of mind, then it is consistent. You have God changing His mind about some things, but you have at least nine things in the Old Testament about which God says He will not change His mind.

Now that makes sense. There are many things about which I would change my mind, but there are some things about which I will not change my mind. For instance, I will not “repent” or change my mind about the fact that the Bible is the Word of God. I will not “repent” or change my mind about the fact that Jesus is the virgin-born Son of God. I will not change my mind about the fact that salvation is by grace through faith. And there are other important matters about which I will not “repent” or change my mind.

On the other hand, there are some things about which I would “repent” or change my mind. I may plan a certain activity next week, but before the time arrives, I may change my mind and decide to do something else. As a matter of fact, my wife says I change my mind often; and she is probably right. I have said that I have a clean mind; I change it often. But there are some things about which I will not change my mind.

Now if I can change my mind about some things and not about others, then God can certainly do the same.
Sometimes in the Old Testament the word carries with it the idea of feeling sorry or regretful.

Sometimes where the word is used, one is said to repent from what is wrong toward what is right. Other times it speaks of repenting from what is right toward that which is wrong. It is sometimes used in connection with sin, but the Word itself does not mean turning from sin; it means a change of mind. Another time "repentance" in the Old Testament is related to one's going back on his word. Numbers 23:19 says, "God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?"

We mentioned earlier that "repentance" in its various forms is found sixty-five times in the New Testament. Fifty-eight of those times it is translated from the Greek words metanoia and metanoeo. According to a Greek dictionary of New Testament words, metanoia is the noun of metanoeo, and both words mean identically the same thing. The basic definition of the two words is "to change one's mind." The definition from the Strong's Concordance of metanoeo is, "to think differently, or afterwards, that is, reconsider."

It is these two Greek words that are always used to relate to salvation. No other Greek word translated "repent" or "repentance" is used in relation to salvation. The problem and confusion is not preaching repentance but attaching the wrong definition to the word. For instance, to say that repentance means to turn from sin, or to say that repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of action, is to give a wrong definition to the word. And to teach that man must turn from his sins to be saved, or change his actions to be saved, is in contradiction to the clear teaching of the Word of God that one is saved by grace through faith.

Though we often hear the expression, “Repent of your sins,” it is not found in the Bible. What the repentance or change of mind is about is always determined by the context.

For instance, in Acts 17:30 we read, “And the times of this ignorance God winked at [overlooked]; but now commandeth all men every where to repent.” What they were to repent or change their mind about is clear from verse 29. Here the Scripture says, “…we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold or silver or stone, graven by art and man’s device!” They needed to change their mind about God and see that He is not a graven image made of gold, silver, or stone but that He is a living God and is going to be their judge. Verse 31, “Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.”

In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”
The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their mind regarding punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or they will perish in their own self-righteousness.

One does not have to know the Greek language to see that “repent” in this passage does not mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin.

SOURCE: Pastor Curtis Hutson, an excerpt from his helpful booklet titled: ’[2]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?’

Amen and amen! I am so thankful for Dr. Hutson, that God used him to give us many insightful writings about the Bible. We are living in absolute times of woeful heresy creeping into the churches. I wish the folks at Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute would take heed to Dr. Hutson’s sound Bible doctrine, instead of following the corrupt teachings of Pastor John MacArthur in California, who has done more to corrupt Baptist churches than perhaps any other man in our generation. Please remember that repentance doesn’t mean “ to turn from sins,

which is the English definition, it means

“

a change of mind

” in the Greek language.

Repentance is simply a change of mind from WRONG THINKING, to resting completely in Jesus Christ alone, who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The only thing you need to repent of (i.e., change your mind about), is whatever it is that has been hindering you from coming to Jesus to be saved. Repentance is from unbelief, not from sinful behavior. Repentance is simply the realization that you are a needy sinner, as Pastor Hutson so beautifully explains about Luke 13:5, so you will see your need for redemption through God's grace, by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:24-26).

1.4.24 The Satanic Hebrew Roots Movement (2020-08-19 05:25)

Acts 4:10-12, "

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

Christians should NOT say Yeshua instead of Jesus! There are some false prophets today who claim that since Jews will never accept the name of "Jesus," we should use the Hebrew name of "

Yeshua.

" They claim Yeshua is Jesus' real name. This is a false religion. Jesus' real name is JESUS!!! The Hebrews Roots Movement reject the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ! If a Jewish person is too proud to humble them self, to believe upon the precious name above all other names, JESUS, then they will go to Hell when they die. Galatians 3:26, "

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

" It will be no one's fault but their own! The Bible doesn't say at the name of Yeshua, every knee shall bow, it says at the precious name of "

Jesus

! ...

Philippians 2:9-11, “Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.” Amen and amen! The Hebrew Roots Movement (HRM) is of the Devil, teaching the need to revive Old Testament Judaism. The Hebrew Roots Movement teach that Jews and Gentiles alike should keep the law to be saved. The Bible plainly warns against trying to get to Heaven by keeping the deeds of the law. It is impossible, because no human being except Jesus Christ has ever perfectly kept the law (Hebrews 4:15). What saith the Scripture? Please read this Scripture passage carefully:

> Romans 3:19-26, “Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
>
> Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin*.
>
> But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
>
> Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
>
> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
>
> Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus*:
>
> Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
>
> To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
> **”

The purpose of the law is to show humanity our guilty condition as sinners, so that we will see our need for redemption in Jesus Christ. The Bible plainly teaches in Acts 4:10-12, that salvation is obtained only through the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Messianic Judaism is a modern demonic religious movement that combines Christianity, most importantly, the belief that Jesus is the Jewish Messiah, with elements of Judaism and Jewish tradition. By combining the law with grace, they pervert God’s grace, preaching another gospel! The Apostle Paul sternly warns in Galatians 1:6-9 that God’s curse is upon anyone who preaches another gospel, as does the Hebrew Roots Movement.

When the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, the angel told Joseph to name the child “Jesus.” The angel didn’t say to name Him “Yeshua.” Matthew 1:20-21, “

But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. ” By the way, p lease notice that last sentence, “he shall save his people from their sins.”

Jesus doesn’t demand that we turn from our sins as a requirement to be saved, which is impossible! If we could turn from our sins, then Christ didn’t need to come. The Bible says that Jesus came to save us from our sins. Redemption is a matter of coming to God as a needy sinner, and resting entirely in Jesus Christ for salvation (Hebrews 4:10-11).

It’s bad enough that the Devil has removed Jesus, the name above every other name, from Christmas. Now it’s “x-mas” in most businesses during the holidays. That is very ungodly, please don’t ever say “x-mas.” And then instead of saying “Merry Christmas,” it is now politically correct to say, “Happy Holidays” instead. That is so ungrateful to the Lord! Then they remove Jesus and replace Him with Santa Claus (who has Christ’s power to see all, be everywhere and deliver presents to every home in just one night). Now the Devil is trying to remove the precious name of Jesus from our churches with Yeshua! You tell those Hebrew Roots Movement heretics to go back to Hell where they came from, and take Yeshua with them!!! If God wanted us to call His only begotten Son something else, then He would have said so, but God called Him, “Jesus”!

Beware of the Hebrews Roots Movement! Jesus is the only name by which a person can be saved! If a Jew is too arrogant and proud to humble himself to trust in the name of Jesus, then he is going to Hell forever. This is not about anti-Semitism, God forbid. I love Jewish people, which is why I wrote this blog article. Jesus witnessed to a Jewish Rabbi named Nicodemus, and said these critically important words in John 3:3-7, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

” The Satanic Hebrew Roots Movement does not teach that a person must be born-again, so they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

Kindly said, the Hebrew Roots Movement is nothing more than a Satanic substitute for Bible Christianity! It is an attempt to coddle and appease unbelieving Jews, perverting Christianity in a sinful attempt to reach stiffnecked Jews who reject the New Testament. The Bible plainly says that the Gospel is the power of God unto salvation, not a mixture of Christianity and Judaism! Romans 1:16, “

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. ” The Gospel is the only power of God to save, to them that BELIEVE it!

Some proponents of the Hebrew Roots Movement will try to downplay their heresy, claiming that they aren’t trying to promote keeping the law to be saved. However, upon closer examination, it becomes clear that the intent of the Hebrew Roots Movement is to merge New Testament Christianity with the Old Testament system of law, which corrupts God’s grace. Jews today refuse to accept the Gospel, which Jesus personally delivered to the Apostle Paul.

Galatians 1:11-12, “

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

” Lordship Salvation is a gospel fabricated by men. The idea of reaching Christ-rejecting Jews, by combining the Gospel of Paul with Old Testament religion is a gospel fabricated by men!

The Gospel means

“Good News.” It is the Good News that even though we failed to perfectly keep the law, Jesus DID perfectly keep the law. Jesus is the sinless Lamb of God, slain for the sins of the world (John 1:29). The Lord paid our debt of sin when He was crucified to the cross. He was taken down and buried, and three days later Christ bodily resurrected from the dead. All you need to do to be saved is to believe what I just shared with you about Jesus. Anyone who believes the Good News about Jesus Christ, making it your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, is saved. Please do not buy into this junk theology called the Hebrew Roots Movement!

1.4.25 Beware Of Gospel Corrupters (2020-08-20 07:03)

Galatians 2:1-5, " Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.”

Just like the corrupt Hebrew Roots Movement today, who subtly try to spy out our liberty in Christ and bring us again under the bondage of the law, so also did a group of false brethren. The Apostle Paul said they were brought in unawares. This seems to be a commonplace thing today, where assistant pastors and elders in the church turn out to deny the Trinity (Godhead), deny Jesus’ bodily resurrection, or don’t believe that Hell is a literal place with fire. You’d be surprised who you will find leading churches today!

I am disgusted every time I think about the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, with their dozens of Bible versions circulating in the congregation, and their damnable false gospel of Lordship Salvation. The church started in 1975, and was okay when they started, but they Pastor Marty Herron came in 1999 with his Lordship Salvation, unawares to the congregation, which destroyed the church spiritually! Today, Harvest along with Bob Jones University is a hotbed of heresy and deceit. I heard Dr. Herron say with my own two ears, at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, that it is not enough to admit you are a sinner to be saved. He said in addition, “You must turn away from a lifestyle of sin!” That is another gospel which cannot produce the new birth in Christ! Pastor Herron made that heretical statement on a Sunday morning during the invitation. You can

[1]hear him in this 2020 sermon clip made at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana , teaching that a person must “ repent of your sin

to be saved. [2]Pastor Herron preaches a counterfeit gospel! There is no such teaching in the Bible! I am not trying to be unkind, but false prophets who damn men’s souls to Hell with a false gospel must be exposed by name!

Tragically, Lordship Salvation [3]aligns with Mormon theology and that of Seventh-Day Adventist prophetess’ [4]Ellen G. White. I’m not kidding! If you check online, you will find that [5]Roman Catholics also teach that a person must repent of their sins to be saved, meaning, you must forsake them! That is not the Bible meaning of repentance! I’ve done the research for you, but I encourage you to do your own study if you are not convinced. Ladies and gentleman, we ought not tolerate these heretics for even one hour Paul said!!! The reason why is because if we do, in time the Gospel of free grace will be muddied and lost in the assortment of unbiblical mumbo-jumbo taught by neo-evangelicals today! There is no need to guess, wonder or debate the Gospel, the Scriptures are adamantly clear on it!

I have suffered much loneliness since 2014, victimized by the hateful selfish pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who play God with people's lives. What did I do wrong? Nothing. I did something right! I told THE TRUTH! I loved them enough to buy a bunch of books teaching the truth that Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation. I gave the pastors hard copies of Michael. P. Bowen's book, "

[6]I Never Knew You

" (an awesome book defending the Gospel of free grace). I also gave them hard copies of Pastor Al Lacy's excellent book, "

[7]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible!

" I cared enough about the truth to try to help those misled neo-evangelical pastors. Instead of thanking me, they berated me, counting me as their enemy (Galatians 4:16), because they are stiffnecked and wicked in their hearts (they are Joe Hanson, Jared Baldwin and Marty Herron). My crime was being a fundamentalist Bible-believing Christian! They actually called Pastor Jack Hyles a cult. No dear reader, Harvest's pastors (old and new, including Dr. Gary Walton since 2018) are [8]a part of the Alexandrian cult, of which [9]Bob Jones University has sadly become the headquarters. They are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil.

Christ died on the cross for our sins. he was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead to justify our faith (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Galatians 1:11-12, " But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ." The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation is rooted in the teachings of John Calvin (1509-1564). Calvin's heresies are commonly called

CALVINISM,

" none of which are Biblical. Satan is clever, determined and is a master of deceit! Lordship Salvation sounds goods. If I haven't made it clear, Lordship Salvation is the teaching that a person cannot simply place their faith in Jesus Christ to be saved. In addition, proponents of this heresy claim that a person must also turn away from their old sinful ways, and make full surrender of their life to Jesus as absolute "

Lord.

" That may sound great, religious and sensible, but it is totally unbiblical.

I have heard many internet trolls downplay the issue, like it doesn't really matter what someone believes, just so long as you commit your life to Jesus. Nothing could be further from the truth. In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a very dedicated group of people, who called Jesus "LORD, LORD," but they were not saved at all. They had spent their life doing "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name. They were committed to Christ. They had surrendered all to Jesus, and done their very best to turn away from their sinful ways. Yet, the Lord said these horrifying words: "I never knew you: depart from me all, ye that work iniquity!" You see, they had done everything else except get born again! They added a bunch of junk to faith that God didn't require, and in so doing they muddied the gospel, so that it because obscured and useless to help them. Very few people are saved nowadays because of all the junk theology infecting our churches. I used this illustration from Matthew 7:21-23, because it clearly shows that you can serve Christ with a sincere heart, and do much good throughout your lifetime to help others, and yet still end up in Hell someday without Christ.

Right doctrine matters! There are not two gospels (Galatians 1:6-7), and thus is exactly what the fight is over between me and the Bob Jones University crowd on Guam. They think you must repent of your sins, being willing to forsake and stop doing them in order to be saved. That is reformation, not repentance, and it a very false gospel.

Our churches, Bible colleges, missionaries and rescue missions are absolutely infected with this deadly virus. Lordship Salvation is a pandemic folks, a thousand times more contagious and deadly than the dreaded Cornelius. Whereas the Coronavirus will eat your lungs, Lordship Salvation will devour your soul and send you to the Lake of Fire forever and ever!!! I love this great quote from write and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan (1628-1688)...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is what Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Chip Ingram, Sam Horn, John Piper, Kirk Cameron, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pacific Garden Mission (Unshackled), Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Paul Washer, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, John Hagee, and so many other damnable heretics are doing today... CORRUPTING THE WORD OF GOD, AND CASTING STUMBLING BLOCKS BEFORE THE PEOPLE!!!

1.4.26 Evangelist Jack Chick Gets Luke 13:1-5 Wrong (2020-08-20 19:00)

Luke 13:1-5, “There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish*.

Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.”

On cartoonist Jack Chick’s website, there is a section titled “ [1]God’s Plan Of Salvation .” This same corrupt plan of salvation is printed on the last page of every Chick Tract published. At the top of the webpage is the slogan, “Chick Tracts GET READ!” They sure do (about 800,000,000 of them), which is the problem, and the reason why I am typing this article to warn fellow Christians (and unbelievers too), that Chick Tracts have a wrong view of the Gospel.

According to Mr. Chick, it is not enough to believe that Christ DIED on the cross for your sins, He was BURIED, and then bodily RESURRECTED three days later. This is “the Gospel” (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). In addition, Mr. Chick says that you must also be willing to turn away from your sinful behavior, as a prerequisite to believing the Gospel. Nowhere in the Scriptures are we taught to “turn from sins” to be saved. Am I wrong for telling THE TRUTH? Am I wrong for pointing out THE TRUTH that Jack Chick is perverting God’s plan of salvation? I THINK NOT!!! Galatians 4:16,“Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

Jack Chick (1924-2016) [2]quotes Luke 13:5 on his website, in a failed attempt to justify his Strawman heresy that you must “ be willing to turn from sin

(which he errantly considered to mean

“

) to be saved. Kindly said, Jack Chick took Luke 13:5 out of context to create his own pretext, to support his heresy. Pastor Curtis Hutson explains Luke 13:5 and gets it 100 % correct:

> In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their mind regarding punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or they will perish in their own self-righteousness.
>
> One does not have to know the Greek language to see that “repent” in this passage does not mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin.
>
> SOURCE: Dr. Curtis Hutson, ’[3]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?’

So we see that it is very easy to take a passage of Scripture out of context. Bible repentance is simply the owning of one’s sinnership—a change of mind—which facilitates believing the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and bodily resurrected the third day, so that we are immediately justified by faith alone.

Consider the following helpful quote by the mighty man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

"Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word."

SOURCE: '[4]Except Ye Repent,' by Dr. Harry Ironside, chapter 3

This is vastly different than actually attempting to cease from one's sinful behavior to be saved, which is a false gospel. Pastor Ironside is correct—repentance is simply realizing that one is a needy sinner in God's sight. This is why we need the blessed Saviour! Thankfully, Jesus paid the full price of our sins with His own precious blood (Romans 5:9; 1st Peter 1:18-19; Hebrews 9:12; Revelation 1:5). We are saved by the blood of the crucified One! Glory I'm saved!!!

1.4.27 Calvinism Is Not Salvation, Not The Gospel (2020-08-21 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

John Calvin (1509-1564) was a religious heretic who lived 500 years ago. Calvin taught the heresy of infant baptism. He also taught the deception that religious sacraments are equal with the Word of God. Martin Luther (1483-1546) was another religious reprobate, who lived during the same time as John Calvin. Both of these reprobate men taught sacramental salvation, which includes both water baptism and communion. Of course, the word "sacrament" is not found in the Holy Bible. Thus, Christians ought not observe sacraments at all.

In the New Testament Church, we only observe two ordinances: water baptism and the Lord's supper. These are not sacraments and do not bestow any special grace upon the participant. They are simply symbols. Water baptism symbolizes the Gospel, showing outwardly what has happened inwardly, that is, our faith in the death, burial and bodily resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ. Likewise, the Lord's supper symbolizes Christ's broken body and shed blood for our sins on the cross. We do this in remembrance of the Lamb of God Who gave Himself for us.

John Calvin's heretical teachings on salvation are commonly expressed and simplified with the acronym, [1]T-U-L-I-P:

1. TOTAL DEPRAVITY (man is too wicked and has no freewill to come to God, he must be enabled)
2. UNCONDITIONAL ELECTION (God chooses who will be saved)
3. LIMITED ATONEMENT (Christ only died for those whom God chose to be saved)
4. IRRESISTIBLE GRACE (God forces salvation upon those whom He has chosen)
5. PERSEVERANCE OF THE SAINTS (those who are saved will persevere in holy living, otherwise they are not saved)

There you have it, Calvinism in a nutshell. All five of these teachings are Satanic!!!

The Satanic Lie of Lordship Salvation is Rooted in Calvinism

It is Calvin's fifth principle of the Perseverance Of The Saints that is the basis for the Lordship Salvation heresy, which has infected at least 50 % of our Baptist churches in America. Lordship Salvation is the false plan of salvation which says it is not enough to acknowledge one's sinnership in God's holy eyes (repentance) and believe the Gospel to be saved. According to the fraud of Lordship Salvation (and there are many variations) a person MUST also receive Jesus as their Lord, fully surrendering their will to follow Christ, forsaking sinful bad habits and the world, purposing in one's heart not to live in willful sin anymore, and to confess Jesus Christ publicly before men.

This popular heresy is being propagated by false teachers; such as, John Piper, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, John MacArthur, Chip Ingram, Billy Graham, Rick Warren and countless more. It is a matter of Heaven and Hell, of salvation or damnation. There are not two plans of salvation. The Bible teaches something very different than what today's greats are teaching. In sharp contrast, the Word of God teaches that human effort has no place in God's simple plan of salvation. Anyone (like Pastor Rick Warren - [2]see his website) who uses doublespeak is an imposter. In one statement they say that eternal life is without works, but in another statement they say a person must change their own life (which they falsely understand to mean repentance) to be saved.

Contrary to what Pastor Rick Warren teaches, repentance doesn't mean "a change of life," which is exactly what Paul Washer errantly teaches. Biblical repentance is simply "a change of mind." At 18 minutes into the " [3]God's Plan " video, Rick Warren errantly says that repentance means:

turning from your plan to God's plan, turning from your own self contentedness, turning from despair to joy, from guilt to forgiveness, from meaninglessness to purpose, switching to His plan, following Jesus, and inviting Him into your heart!

Dear reader, none of what you just read from Pastor Warren is the Gospel. Pastor Rick Warren is an unsaved modernist, a wolf in sheep' s clothing (Matthew 7:15). He's an ungodly member of The Council On Foreign Relations, a shill for the New World Order gang! [4]Mr. Warren is supportive of LGBTQ rights! At the end of the 'God's Plan' video he invites you (the viewer) to write him to say:

Pastor Warren, I prayed the prayer!

My friend, if that's your hope for eternal life, you are going straight to burn in Hell the moment you die, along with Rick Warren! I say that kindly, but truthfully, because Jesus warned that to enter into God's Kingdom: **"

YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN " (John 3:7). That means having He (Jesus), Who is the Beginning, born in you (Revelation 1:8). Ye must be regenerated from above by the Holy Spirit! That is the supernatural miracle of the new birth, in response to a person's faith in Jesus Christ as their Savior. But according to Mr. Warren, the new birth means living a radically different lifestyle! It is so obvious that Rick Warren knows nothing about God, truth or salvation!!! Mr. Warren spews a bunch of religious rhetoric, that he picked up along life's way to con people, but he fails to grasp or teach THE TRUTH.

Also, you should know that apostate evangelist, Paul Washer, is a graduate of [5]Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, which is a hotbed of Calvinism.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. Has it Correct

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. at the Longview Baptist Temple church in Texas correctly preaches concerning repentance . . .

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight." —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, '[6]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church'

The Wicked Doctrines Of Calvinism Exposed

Pastor Steven Anderson preaches the following excellent sermons exposing the falsehood of Calvinism:

- [7]Limited Atonement Demolished
- [8]Why Man Chooses Not To Believe: Calvinism Exposed As Wicked False Doctrine (I love this sermon!)

One heresy always begets another. Since Calvinists don't believe that man can come to God by his own freewill, they must beget another heresy which says God forces people to be saved. And thus, then they must also beget another heresy that Jesus only died on the cross for those whom God chose. It wouldn't make sense for Christ to die for men whom God knowingly chose not to be saved. My friend, it should be very obvious to you by now just how messed-up John Calvin (1509-1564) was in his theology.

The Bible teaches in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." May I say, "WHOSOEVER" means anybody!!! The Bible doesn't say that God only loves Christians; but rather, it says God loves ([9]agapes) THE WORLD (and this includes everybody). It is ridiculous to say that Christ only died on the cross for certain people, when we plainly read in Romans 5:8, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

Calvinism is synonymous with works salvation, because it is based upon human performance. [10]Paul Washer plainly teaches that without works no man will ever go to Heaven. In sharp contrast the Holy Bible teaches in Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." What beautiful Scriptures!!! Please learn about the important Biblical doctrine of [11]IMPUTATION concerning salvation. Also, please read, [12]IMPUTATION AT SALVATION, by Pastor Jack Hyles.

Tragically, the new Satanic Bible versions are promoting Calvinism, by [13]changing the meaning of what it means to repent. Most of the modern [14]counterfeit Bible versions completely remove the world "impute," and in so doing the meaning and concept of this important theological word is lost. Please use only the trustworthy King James Bible!!!!!!!

"No, no, if you don't have works, you're going to Hell!"

SOURCE: Paul Washer: [15]'Paul Washer: "If You Don't Have Works, 'You Are Going To Hell" (Time, 1:24) | [16]Another Heretical Paul Washer Sermon MP3 clip

So beware my friend, because Calvinism is not the Gospel. Calvinism is manmade religion, not salvation. Any plan of salvation which places the burden of sin upon the sinner is of the Devil. Jesus bore the full weight of our sins upon the cross, so that we wouldn't have to pay for them in the eternal Lake of Fire. The Bible teaches that we are saved by completely RESTING in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Adding even the tiniest amount of human effort to the simplicity that is in Christ corrupts salvation into dead works which cannot save. Religion cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. Our churches are filled with religious people, going through the motions, who have never submitted themselves unto God's righteousness, through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Until you repent of all your religious additions to the Gospel, and trust only in the name of Jesus Christ alone, apart from all your " junk theology you've been brainwashed with (hello Bob Jones University), you won't be saved! Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." This my friend speaks of the imputed righteousness of God through faith in Christ. Christ is not the end of the law to those who try to turn from their sins to be saved, but **"

TO EVERY ONE THAT BELIEVETH

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." I have HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS by faith, do you friend? Calvinism is self-righteousness by keeping the deeds of the law. The only way to be saved is to get out of the way, and to let God do the saving through faith in His only begotten Son. Either God does all of the saving, or else you are not saved. God does not save those who are trying to be saved, He only saves those who are trusting to be saved.

“Is grace truly grace if it cannot be rejected?”

—Dr. Ralph “Yankee” Arnold, “[17]Calvinism And Grace Are Not Compatible” (MP3)

“Can a man who’s predestined to salvation really be lost before he is saved? If a man is predestined to salvation, why does he need to hear the Gospel? What would be the point?”

1.4.28 You Cannot Get Saved By Following Jesus (2020-08-22 05:42)

Matthew 8:1, “When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.” John 6:2, “

And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

” John 12:37-38, “ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed? ”

At the end of ’Unshackled’ program #3623, the life story of David Pearson, aired in 2020, the [1]PGM Program Director and Announcer Timothy Gregory makes this heretical statement. He states:

> “Listening friend, would you like to be adopted into the family of Jesus Christ? He is the Savior that will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. That’s a promise given to those who follow Him. He’ll be with us in the most difficult times of our lives. But’s it’s a promise to those who follow Him!”

HERESY! That is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation! I am not trying to be unkind. God knows that I have nothing personal against the Pacific Garden Mission, or the folks who produce Unshackled, truly. But the Apostle Paul exhorted Titus (and every believer) to “ rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith ”

who pervert the Gospel:

Titus 1:9-14, “Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

I have never made a penny for my online ministry since 2002. I do what I do for Jesus, because I love Him (Jesus 14:15), and I love people as God commands me to (Matthew 22:39), and I love the truth (2nd Thessalonians 2:10). [3]Unshackled is saturated with damnable heresy! They are preaching another gospel, which is accursed by God (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). If you [4]listen to the Unshackled clip again, you’ll hear that the announcer says the way to be “ adopted into the family of Jesus Christ

is to

follow Him.

Kindly said, that is a false plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth!!!

Judas followed Jesus, being one of His very own apostles. Yet, Judas died in his sins and went to Hell forever. John 6:70 says that the Devil entered into Judas. Afterwards, Judas felt sorry for his sins and even “ repented himself

” (Matthew 27:3b) . Judas was a reformed man, who turned from his sinful ways, even returning the 30 pieces of silver to the Pharisees! Wow! This is Pacific Garden Mission’s false plan of salvation—to be sorry for your sins, follow Jesus, and turn away from your sins! None of that is God’s plan of salvation.

God’s plan of salvation is that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). That includes a second death in the Lake of Fire, burning forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8).

That is the Bad News!

Therefore, you need a Savior! Jesus is the Christ—the only begotten Son of God—Who died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and three days later He resurrected from the dead. That is the Good News, which the Bible calls: “THE GOSPEL” (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is physically risen from the dead, is immediately, irrevocably and forever saved! It is that simple.

Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15-18; Ephesians 2:8-9). You don’t have to pay anything to receive it. You don’t have to follow Jesus. You don’t have to be water baptized. You don’t have to repent of your sins. You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible where it says to repent of your sins to be saved. You don’t turn away from your sins to be saved; but rather, Jesus came and died on the cross to save you from your sins. Matthew 1:21, “

And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. ” Jesus is the Savior! That is His job alone. You don’t play a part in God’s work of redemption, except to BELIEVE. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

” We are saved BY GRACE alone!!!

1.4.29 What Repentance Is Not (2020-08-22 10:30)

Matthew 27:3-4, “ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.”

The Bible says Judas

repented

” of his sins, but he went to Hell anyway. Judas even returned the 30 pieces of silver, he was a changed man! Yet he perished in his sins and went to Hell forever. Dear friend, you don’t get saved by turning from your sins, which is a very popular heresy today in many churches. This is largely because of today’s theologically corrupted Bible colleges, like Bob Jones University, which influenced thousands of churches through their graduates.

Bob Jones University is pulling on the same rope as the Devil! Here is a deceptive quote from their college’s website:

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]
>

Where does the Bible predicate getting saved on being willing to turn from sins? John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." The Bible doesn't say HE THAT IS WILLING TO FORSAKE SINS comes to the light; it says HE THAT DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light. Getting saved is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH of the Gospel, and not of turning away from sins. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;"

You cannot show me one verse from the inspired King James Bible that teaches for a person to "turn from sins" or "repent of sins" to be saved. I triple-dog dare you to find it if you disagree! You won't find it! Acts 20:21 teaches repentance "toward God." Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Carefully notice that repentance is not FROM SINS, but TOWARD GOD! You don't get saved by repenting, you get saved by believing; but repentance facilitates believing. Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) helps explains what repentance is in the Bible:

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation." —Harry A. Ironside; '[2]Except Ye Repent,' pg. 36

I love Brother Ironside! Consider further the following awesome quote by Harry Ironside (which John MacArthur would NEVER share with you)...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...

> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all." [emphasis added]—Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the awesome tract: '[3]What Is The Gospel?'

Hooray, Dr. Ironside gets it 100 % correct!!! Read how Pastor John MacArthur tries to put Dr. Ironside in his "turn from your sins" false repentance camp, but Mr. MacArthur is a theological liar!

Read what Dr. Ironside said in his Gospel tract, ANOTHER GOSPEL? ...

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those 'who make full surrender' of all that they have to God, and who 'pay the price of full salvation' he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary's cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him." —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract: '[4]Another Gospel'

Repentance is NOT a change of lifestyle.

I think Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) of the Moody Memorial Church said it very well...

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside; '[5]Except Ye Repent,' pg. 36

Clearly, Ironside taught Free Grace Theology.

Sadly, Moody Bible Institute today (72 years later after Dr. Ironside's pastorate) has become doctrinally corrupted by false prophets such as Dr. John MacArthur (they publish all of MacArthur's new books and have honored him at their Founder's Week for decades). [6]MacArthur plainly teaches a false plan of salvation.

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (that is, Christ's robe of righteousness), and not our own. I try to live upright because I love my Lord and don't want to grieve Him. I fail horribly sometimes, and it makes me mad at myself, and I get up and ask God to help me to do much better. That's how the Christian life is lived, "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23). Even the best Christians are still sinners who battle daily with the flesh.

The word "repent" (metanoeo, such as in Mark 1:15, "Repent ye, and believe the gospel"), simply means "a change of mind."

I think Michael P. Bowen, in his excellent defense of the Christian faith titled, I NEVER KNEW YOU, says it best:

> I am at eternal odds with the false, counterfeit messages of salvation-by-works that are taught from virtually every pulpit today, on every television channel, and on every Christian radio station; however, I am not at eternal odds with the individuals who preach these counterfeit messages. My heart literally goes out to all of them because they simply do not understand Christ's plan of salvation. They have been lied to by a crafty enemy named Satan, whose sole aim is to take as many people with him to the lake of fire as he can possibly manage to steal away from God using a counterfeit plan of salvation that appears so real, so genuine, and so holy that few ever realize they have been deceived by it. Oh reader, so many of today's professing > Christians who think they are going to heaven when they die are not going to make it to heaven as they had assumed because they've been lied to by today's error-filled gospel messages.

> SOURCE: Michael Patrick Bowen, '[7]I NEVER KNEW YOU,' pg. 17; © 2009.

A tree without fruit is still a tree with roots. This is evidenced by the parable of the sower and the seed in Luke 8:12-15. Of the four groups, only the first are unsaved, because the Devil removed the seed from their heart before it could sprout into new life. The second and third group represent believers who never mature to bear fruit (leading others to Christ). They never mature into fruit-bearing Christians because of shallow roots, or because they are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this life. Ah, but the fourth group mature, having an honest heart, keeping the Lord's Word, bearing much fruit unto Christ (John 15:1-7). Just because the second and third groups don't bear fruit doesn't mean that they are not saved, as Ray Comfort and David Cloud errantly teach.

Repentance is not turning from sins. Let's examine these terms, shall we:

- penitence = sorrow for sins
- penance = trying to make a mend for sins
- reformation = turning from sins
- repentance = a change of mind
- regeneration = the new birth

Penitence, penance and reformation are NOT repentance! To "

simply means that you have changed your mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the Gospel. A person is saved by BELIEVING, not by repenting; but no one has ever believed who didn't repent (i.e., think differently). Repentance is looking up to God and admitting that you are a needy sinner, and then faith is placing your confidence in Jesus Christ as your Savior. Repentance and faith are inseparable. Salvation is like electricity, which requires both voltage and current to exist. Current is the measure of the flow of electricity in a conductive material.

Put another way, picture a garden hose. The water pressure (usually about 30 psi in a home) is like the voltage. The flowing water is like the current. You couldn't water your garden without both water and water pressure. Likewise, salvation requires both repentance and faith; but repentance is not turning from your sins, nor being sorry for them, nor trying to live a better life to make up for them, it is admitting that you are a needy sinner, and what you need is Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Faith is believing on Him! No one ever got saved who didn't admit he is a dirty sinner.

You've got to know what you're being saved from. That is why God made two great divisions to His blessed Word: LAW and CHRIST! (or respectively, LAW and GRACE). The LAW shows a person their sinnership and guilty condition (Romans 3:19-20; 7:13), and then brings that person to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26). Brother Lester Roloff called them: Dr. Law and Dr. Grace. Dr. Law diagnoses you with the cancer of sin, which is terminal (Romans 6:23a, "For the wages of sin is death"). Then he sends you to go see Dr. Grace (Who is Jesus) and he is a miracle worker, let me tell you! This guy is such an amazing Doctor, that He can just speak the word and you are healed! Romans 6:23b, " but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

> "Yes, Jesus is Lord. He is Lord of the universe, and, of course, we believe that He is Lord. However, to believe that in order to be saved one must make Him the Lord of his life is just another form of salvation by works." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[8]Lordship Salvation - An Enemy of Soulwinning"

1.4.30 Dr. Law And Dr. Grace (2020-08-23 09:30)

Galatians 3:22-26, " But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith*.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

God made two great divisions to His blessed Word: LAW and CHRIST! (or respectively, LAW and GRACE). The LAW shows a person their sinnership and guilty condition (Romans 3:19-20; 7:13), and then brings that person to Jesus Christ to be saved by grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26). Brother Lester Roloff called them: Dr. Law and Dr. Grace. Dr. Law diagnoses you with the cancer of sin, which is terminal (Romans 6:23a, "For the wages of sin is death"). Then he sends you to go see Dr. Grace (Who is Jesus) and he is a miracle worker, let me tell you! This guy is such an amazing Doctor, that He can just speak the word and you are healed! Romans 6:23b, " but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. "

> “Yes, Jesus is Lord. He is Lord of the universe, and, of course, we believe that He is Lord. However, to believe that in order to be saved one must make Him the Lord of his life is just another form of salvation by works.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]Lordship Salvation - An Enemy of Soulwinning”

This is one of my favorite passages of Scripture. Oh how plain and simple the Scriptures are! In verse 26 we plainly read that the LAW brings us to Christ, “THAT WE MIGHT BE JUSTIFIED BY FAITH”!!! Could the Bible be any clearer? I think not. Where in the world do the Lordship Salvation crowd get their teachings? They sure don’t get their doctrine from the Holy Bible. You cannot show me one verse that says to surrender all to Christ, turn from your sins, or follow Christ as “ to be saved. The Bible simply teaches to believe.

>
> Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
>
> Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
>
> And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

Many people misunderstand the preceding Scripture passage. You don’t go to Hell because you won’t quit your sinning, you go to Hell because you reject Jesus as your Savior. Pastor Jack Hyles wrote a helpful book titled: ’[2]Enemies Of Soul Winning.’ One of my favorites is chapter 4, ’[3]Misunderstood Repentance.’ If you get repentance wrong, it’s like the buttons on a shirt while getting dressed—if you get the first button wrong, then all the others buttons will be wrong too!

We are living in apostate times today! I am shocked at the junk theology which has slowly crept into the churches. Many pastors have succumbed to the heretical teachings of [4]Pastor John MacArthur, who has done more than anyone to destroy soulwinning churches! Likewise, if you watch and listen to [5]Evangelist Ray Comfort, he never praises the Lord for the people he led to Christ. That is because in Ray's mind you cannot know for certain you are saved, not until your life is finished, conditional on whether you continue believing and repenting. Sadly, [6]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) has also succumbed to this doctrine of devils, befriending and bidding Godspeed to John MacArthur.

We've got a bunch of quack doctors in our churches, rescue missions, ministries and Bible colleges today! Instead of Dr. Law bringing sinners to Dr. Grace, they are being brought to Dr. John Calvin (1509-1564) to be experimented on in a theological lab called a seminary! There is no deadly curse like the false gospel of Lordship Salvation. I thank God for Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who was 100 % Free Grace Theology, and made this great statement:

> "Yes, Jesus is Lord. He is Lord of the universe, and, of course, we believe that He is Lord. However, to believe that in order to be saved one must make Him the Lord of his life is just another form of salvation by works." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[7]Lordship Salvation - An Enemy of Soulwinning"

Amen and amen! Dr. Law has diagnosed every human being with terminal cancer, as a result of the wages of sin (Romans 6:23). No one can escape death! We are all sinners by nature and by choice. Although some people manage to live above reproach, no one can live above sin! Romans 3:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Dr. Law has diagnosed you my friend, and the news is very bad. If you haven't been to Dr. Grace yet, you very much need to go see Him as soon as possible. His official name is Jesus. The faithful Old Testament prophet Isaiah foretold of His coming 700 years later:

> Isaiah 53:5-6, He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
>
> Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
>
> But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed*.
>
> All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

What a glorious Savior!!! If you haven’t been to these doctors yet dear friend, now is the time. You need to realize that you are a dying sinner, on your way to Hell. And then you need to heed Dr. Law’s advice and go see Jesus Christ, who is THE GREAT PHYSICIAN, to be healed of all your iniquities and receive God’s free gift of eternal life. ...

> Mark 2:15-17, “And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.
> And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

He is waiting for you oh wretched needy sinner! The blessed Savior, Who has the nail-scared hands and feet, is lovingly waiting to embrace you with His love and give you eternal life. All you need to do is trust in Him! John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

1.4.31 Does Colossians 1:23 Teach Lordship Salvation? (2020-08-24 10:00)

Colossians 1:20-23, “ And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight: If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;"

Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) said: "The great need of the hour is preaching preachers!"

The Apostle Paul said the same thing in 1st Corinthians 15:2 as he did in Colossians 1:23. 1 Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Paul said they would be saved by faith in the Gospel, "if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." Paul has preached the Gospel to the churches of Galatia, but later they were "bewitched" (Galatians 3:1) by a cult which had infiltrated the churches, teaching that keeping the deeds of the law is necessary to be saved. That effectively is exactly what Lordship Salvation does. Paul was simply warning them that one can only be saved by THE GOSPEL. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." I love that advice!

The proponents of Lordship Salvation always use obscure passages of Scripture to support their Strawman Lordship Gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Yet they ignore entire books of the Bible, like the Gospel of John. John has been rightly called "God's Gospel tract." John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The purpose for which John said his gospel was written is to convince the reader of these things (that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and that by believing we are saved). 85 times we find the word "believe" mentioned in the Gospel of John, yet not once doe we find the word "repent." [1]Continuous believing is not required to be saved, but a one time event. Receiving God's gift of eternal life is a new birth, not an ongoing process that requires your effort (that would be works).

Repentance is necessary for salvation, but it facilitates believing. We are saved by believing. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) said repentance and faith are two parts of one step to be saved. Lordship Salvationists teach that you must repent AND then second, believe. The Bible teaches that we repent TO believe. Repentance is simply a change of mind regarding THE TRUTH. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" So here we see that repentance is "acknowledgment of the truth," and not turning from sins. Repentance is a change of mind concerning the truth. The Old Testament LAW law shows us the truth that we are guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-20), and then brings us to CHRIST to be saved by grace through faith alone (Galatians 3:24-26). We are saved by believing the truth (Good News) of the Gospel.

So with the Gospel of John in view, Paul could only have meant that to be saved a person must believe the Gospel. False prophets are always creeping into the churches. I am shocked that Bob Jones University now preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) would [2]blow the college to smithereens if he could, because infidels are robbing people of their faith.

I think BJU today is a good illustration of the meaning of Colossians 1:23, they have moved away from the hope of the Gospel. As Dr. Hutson said earlier, we must never use an obscure passage of Scripture to contradict a clear one! The Gospel of John is 100 % clear that salvation is by faith alone. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Advocates of Lordship Salvation and the heresy of “

turn from your sins

to be saved, wrestle obscure passages to their own destruction, while ignoring hundreds of passages which plainly teach salvation is solely by faith.

Carefully notice in Colossians 1:23 that Paul didn’t say they were saved, he says "ye are saved IF." At the end of the verse Paul says, "which ye have HEARD." He didn’t say "that ye BELIEVED." That is important to see. They heard the Gospel, but they are only saved IF they BELIEVE it. Carefully notice that the following passage from Galatians explains Colossians 1:23...

Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.”

They were REMOVED (an exchange) from the hope (or expectation) of the Gospel (Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily risen). Colossians 1:23, " If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;" That is what Paul means in Colossians 1:23. Paul is warning the reader not to be led astray by another gospel.

1.4.32 The Right Path For The Christian Believer (2020-08-25 09:30)

2nd Timothy 3:12-17, "

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived. But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works."

I learned the truth I am about to share with you from my friend, Pastor Steven Barnes. This is good stuff! Here goes:

- Doctrine shows us what IS the right path.
- Reproof shows us when we're LEAVING the right path.
- Correction shows us how to RETURN TO the right path.
- Instruction shows us how to STAY ON the right path.

I never forgot that practical truth, which is very helpful to remember. The inspired Word of God is ALL WE NEED! One of the reasons why preachers are so messed up nowadays is because they listen to other preachers, like Dr. John MacArthur and Evangelist Ray Comfort, instead of SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39). I heard a Christian lady testify in church that she led three co-workers to the Lord earlier that week. The foolish pastor scolded her, saying: "Well, we don't really know if they got saved, we're going to have to watch their life and see if they change." Dear reader, that is the Devil talking! That is another Gospel. That is not what the Scriptures teach!!!

The Apostle Paul told Timothy that he had known the Holy Scripture from a child. This Bible passage evidences the simplicity that is in Christ. Getting saved is so simple that even a small child can be saved. I was saved at age 13, as was Pastor Curtis Hutson. Dr. Jack Hyles was saved at age 11. Pastor Steven Anderson was saved at only age 6. Praise the Lord! Any child who understands that he or she is a sinner, and understands that Jesus died on the cross to pay for those sins, can be saved. This is the childlike faith of John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

> "Yes, Jesus is Lord. He is Lord of the universe, and, of course, we believe that He is Lord. However, to believe that in order to be saved one must make Him the Lord of his life is just another form of salvation by works." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Lordship Salvation - An Enemy of Soulwinning"

1.4.33 The Simple Childlike Faith Of John 3:16 (2020-08-26 09:30)

John 3:14-18, " And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life*.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

John 3:16 is at the heart of every soulwinning preacher. I learned this Bible verse early on as a child. John 3:16 is the heart of the Word of God.

John 3:16, “

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ” There is no greater truth in all the universe than John 3:16. The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ” The purpose for which God authored the Gospel of John is to convince you, the reader, that Jesus is

“

THE CHRIST, THE SON OF GOD,

and that by simply believing with childlike faith, you will be instantly, irrevocably and forever saved.

There are some devils in our nation’s church pulpits today; such as, Dr. John MacArthur. On September 25, 1990 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson), Pastor MacArthur was involved in a question and answer session, which was publicly taped. During that session he said the following heresy about child salvation:

> “Now let me say this and I don’t want you to panic when I say it. Saving faith is an ADULT ISSUE. Saving faith is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Salvation is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Am I saying that a child cannot be saved? I’m saying that salvation is a conscious turning from sin to follow Jesus Christ with an understanding of something of the sinfulness of sin, its consequences and something of who Jesus Christ is, what He has provided and that I’m committing my life to Him. At what point can a child understand that?... I tell parents that salvation is an adult decision... There is no illustration in Scripture of childhood salvation. There is none. People want to throw the Philippian jailer and his household; well that’s talking about his servants so there is no reference there about his children. So there is no such thing as a childhood conversion*.” —Dr. John MacArthur

Pastor MacArthur does err, not knowing either the power of God or the Scriptures. Salvation is not an adult experience, it is offered to all. Jesus said in Mark 10:14b,

Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

” The Bible calls Mr. MacArthur a liar! Whereas John MacArthur says children cannot be saved, Jesus said such is the Kingdom of Heaven. Children CAN be saved.

Paul said that his friend Timothy was saved from childhood by the Scriptures. 2nd Timothy 3:15,

“And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

” In Mr. MacArthur’s complicated plan of salvation, a child cannot be saved (nor an adult for that matter). In God’s plan of salvation, anyone at any age can be saved by faith alone. You just need to see yourself as a needy sinner, and believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, Who died on the cross, was buried and physically resurrected three days later. That is the Gospel, or Good News (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

John 3:16 is very simple.

John 3:16, “

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ” If you believe oh sinner, you are saved!!!

1.4.34 A Common Mistake Made By Scholars On Repentance (2020-08-27 09:30)

Mark 1:14-15, “

Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

This passage of Scripture is often cited by the proponents of Lordship Salvation, who errantly claim that faith is not enough to be saved. They say in addition that a person must be willing to commit to “ [1]turn from their sins,

” as a prerequisite to receiving God’s free gift of eternal life. Nowhere in the Holy Bible are we taught that we must forsake our sinful ways to be saved. I hear that [2]shameful junk theology preached on Unshackled , a popular radio program produced by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. It is another gospel!

Here is a helpful quote from evangelist and author, Michael P. Bowen, from his excellent book titled: “

[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU!

” . . .

> In Mark 1:15, Jesus said, “...The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” That “repent” is translated as “change your mind” about Jesus being the Messiah, to trust upon Him alone, not upon the law of Moses or by any combination of faith plus good works. A very common mistake made by bible scholars today is to apply the English definition of repent, which is completely different from the Greek definition. The English definition means to turn from sins, to feel remorse or sorrow for sins, etc., whereas the Greek definition simply means to have a change of mind from one thing to a different thing. In context, Christ is saying to trust Him rather than to trust in self efforts or discipleship because these things, as wonderful as they are, will cancel out His grace according to Galatians 5:2, which states, “Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.”

In context, Paul equates circumcision with “keeping the law” which erroneously caused people to assume they could earn their way into heaven by doing good works and avoiding sin.
You can trust Christ with all of your might and do your best to turn from you sins and still end up in the lake of fire. That is shocking! You can do your best to trust that Jesus died for you, that He rose from the dead, and try your best to live a good, holy life and “still” end up dying in your sins because you have not placed your trust “alone” (apart from turning from your sins) in what He did for you. The sad thing about adding “self efforts” such as turning from your sins to Christ’s plan of “trust only” is that, while it sounds right, it sounds good, and it feels right, it is not the gospel message that Christ has so plainly given to us in His bible. Jesus said in John 3:16 that “whosoever believeth in Him” would be saved. He did not say “whosoever believeth” and turn from your sins. He did not say believe and be willing to turn from your sins. He did not say believe and follow Him in obedience “in order to” have everlasting life, nor did He ever imply such things when He spoke of salvation.

The Greek word for “repent” in Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible is [4]metanoeo, which means, “to think differently.” This is the verb form of the word. The noun form is metanoia (“a change of mind”). Repentance is a simple change of mind. It DOESN’T mean to “change your hearts and lives,” which is exactly what the corrupt Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) says!!! . . .

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." [emphasis added]

EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God's kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!" [emphasis added]

WICKEDNESS!!! That is wrong, wrong, wrong! Repentance is "a change of mind," not "a change of heart and life." You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible that says to "turn from sin" or "repent from sin" to be saved. Acts 20:21 speaks of "repentance toward God," not from sin. We are saved by BELIEVING, not repenting. Yes, repentance is necessary for salvation, but to "repent" simply means to change your mind so that you will believe the Gospel.

You don't have to change your own heart and life, as a requirement to be saved. That would constitute "works." Rather, it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that comes into a person at the time of salvation that changes one's heart and life, over time as they grow in grace, by nurturing on the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2).

The Bible warns men in 2nd Peter 3:16-17 about tampering with the Word of God if they are not qualified, not knowing what they are doing, lacking the proper skills for "rightly dividing the Word of truth" (2nd Timothy 2:15). Therefore, they commit "the err of the wicked" (2nd Peter 3:17). Every foolish pastor today who uses, tolerates and supports [5]the Alexandrian Bible revisions (i.e., all the modern Bible versions) will give account to God for gross theological incompetence one day, and receive no rewards for their counterproductive labors, if they make it to Heaven at all. This is a very serious matter folks!

As I have warned you before from the Holy Scriptures, so warn I you again (all you corrupt independent Baptist pastors, perverse Bob Jones University professors, puppet Pensacola Christian College puppets, non-denominational, et cetera), "beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness " (2nd Peter 3:17b). Sadly, I have found that often church congregations control the pastor. They hire a slackdog ecumenical pastor from the get-go, expecting apostasy from the very beginning, and that's what they get. We've got a bunch of sissy-britches, pantywaist, Caspar Milquetoast, neo-evangelical yuppie type pastors today, who stand for nothing, roll over for anything, and haven't a clue as to what is wrong with the modern Bible revisions! God help us to weed out these parasites and spray them with the inspired Word of God!

I have been preaching the King James Bible since I was a teenager! I was saved at age 13. I have never used any other Bible than the King James Bible, and I am SOOOO GLAD for that! I haven't been messed with by these modern Devil's Bibles! The very heart of my ministry for Christ is to proclaim the verbal inspiration of God's very pure Word! If the foundation is shaky, then the whole structure will be compromised! According to 1st Corinthians 3:11, the "foundation" of Christianity is "JESUS CHRIST," Who is "THE WORD OF GOD" (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13).

Proverbs 12:17, " He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit." I absolutely love that Bible verse. He that SPEAKETH TRUTH sheweth forth righteousness!!! We've got a bunch of unrighteous preachers today, speaking lies from the pulpit. Anyone who says that the King James Bible is not inspired

is a false prophet!

Anyone who says that you must be willing to

turn from your sins

to be saved is a false prophet! Anyone who says that there is more than one English Bible

is a false prophet! God's Words are exact. There are not paraphrases and different versions

” that best fit your perverse lifestyle! God wrote His Word and gave it to mankind—we either obey God’s Word, or we change it, pervert it and disobey it! I choose to obey the King James Bible! You can have all the Devil’s Bibles that have been tampered by pseudo-scholars!

Repentance in the Bible is a simple change of mind. The object of repenting is believing, which tells us what we need to change our mind about to be saved. Repentance is thinking differently about whatever has been hindering you from coming to Christ to be saved. John 3:20, “

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

” Carefully notice that the Bible doesn’t say:

“he that turns from his sins” comes to the light; but rather, it says: “HE THAT DOETH TRUTH” cometh to the light!

And again we read in 2nd Timothy 2:25, “ In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;” Please notice again that repentance is NOT FROM SINS, but it is

“TO THE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF THE TRUTH.” Boy I love that!!! The man who repents toward God (Acts 20:21) has changed his mind, acknowledging THE TRUTH that he is a needy sinner, and is then saved by believing THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL!!! It is that simple dear friend.

1.4.35 The Simple Plan Of Salvation That Jesus Offers To All (2020-08-28 09:30)

John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” 1st Corinthians 1:21, “For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.” Galatians 3:26, “ For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ

Jesus*. ” 1st Thessalonians 4:14, “For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. ”

Again and again in the precious Holy Scriptures we are simply taught to believe on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, believing that He died on Calvary’s cross to pay for our sins, was buried, and then bodily resurrected three days later for the justification of our faith. Nothing more is required. I just showed you numerous passages from the inspired Word of God. Yet, mankind is incurably religious! There are many false prophets today, who insist that faith alone is insufficient to save.

Men Complicate God’s Simple Plan Of Salvation

The eleventh Mormon president of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Harold B. Lee (1899-1973), offered this heretical admonition to Latter-day Saints:

> “In one sentence, repentance means turning from that which we have done wrong in the sight of the Lord and never repeating that mistake again. Then we can have the miracle of forgiveness.” (’Ye Are the Light of the World: Selected Sermons and Writings of [1]Harold B. Lee,’ 1974, p.321).

Oh my! What a big lie! Dear reader, what you have just read is another gospel, not the truth as taught in the inspired Holy Bible. Repentance does not mean never repeating the same wrongs and mistakes again! Sadly, Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago teaches this same perverse Mormon theology on their Unshackled radio program.

For example: In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy —believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD . When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

That is backwards heresy folks! God does not require you to give up the old sinful ways to receive His free gift of eternal life. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition. It is tragic that in an effort to market and create further interest in their Unshackled series, that Pacific Garden Mission has stooped to the theological level of MORMONS! Again, here is what Harold B. Lee falsely said:

> “In one sentence, repentance means turning from that which we have done wrong in the sight of the Lord and never repeating that mistake again. Then we can have the miracle of forgiveness.” (’Ye Are the Light of the World: Selected Sermons and Writings of [3]Harold B. Lee,’ 1974, p.321)

That is exactly what PGM heretically preaches:

>
> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it’s not easy —believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD . When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He’ll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.
>
>
> SOURCE: [4]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks

I am not trying to be unkind or rain on anyone’s parade, but the Bible clearly defines THE GOSPEL in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as three things: Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then after three days Jesus bodily RESURRECTED from the dead for our justification. There is no requirement to repent from the old sinful lifestyle, and commit to never commit those sins again. Such a requirement would cancel eternal life being a gift, and instead make it a trade, or an exchange of sorts. We are warned repeatedly in the Word of God about false prophets creeping into the church (Jude 1:4), bringing in a damnable heresies to deceive the simple:

> Romans 16:17-18, “ Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Nearly every heretic that I know, who preaches Lordship Salvation, is getting paid a 6-digit salary. Evangelists' Sam Horn, [5]Steve Pettit and [6]Marty Herron all get paid lucrative 6-digit salaries as the executives of Bible colleges. [7]Dr. John MacArthur has a net worth of $14 million. [8]Ray Comfort takes in 4 $ million each year. Ken Ham's Answers In Genesis takes in $37 million a year. This is disgusting! As we just read, they serve their bellies, not the Lord Jesus Christ. They do not speak THE TRUTH, because they are not righteous men. Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

The Simple Gospel

The following is a beautiful quote from Michael P. Bowen, shewing forth THE TRUTH of righteousness, by preaching the Gospel of free grace:

> Jesus Christ offers a very different plan of salvation. Jesus said that the will of the Father was for everyone to recognize Christ as the Messiah and to believe on Him alone for the gift of everlasting life. "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day" (John 6:40). To make it ever more succinct, Jesus then said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life" (John 6:47).
> The gospel message is the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ. When we believe that Jesus died for us and came back to life three days later, He knows it — He knows all of your thoughts — and He knows the very instant that you believe His gospel message.

The instant you believe His message, Jesus saves you. Time and time again we see in the bible that when people heard this message, they “believed.” When they believed, they were saved that very same instant. They did not pray prayers of salvation asking Jesus into their hearts. They did not commit their lives to the Lordship of Christ. They did not determine to follow Him all the days of their lives in obedience to His Lordship or to the practice of discipleship. They simply believed on Christ alone as their savior.

It doesn’t matter how successful a ministry is, or how beautiful and satisfying their particular plan of salvation may be. If what they say about salvation does not match with what Christ said about salvation, their plan is counterfeit and falls under the label of an “accursed message.” Galatians 1:8-9 says, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

If you were to have asked Paul how to be saved, he would have told you the same thing he told the Philippian jailer in Acts 16:31, “…Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved…” And if you were to ask Jesus Christ how to be saved, He would tell you the same thing that He told Nicodemus in John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

Jesus said “believe.” Believe means to “trust.” The object of this trust is His gospel message. Reader, please understand that you must be “as righteous as” Christ is righteous, that you must be cleansed of your sins in order to enter heaven, that you must “change your mind” about Christ and trust in Him alone to save you. It’s not about committing your life to Him. It’s not about doing anything for Him. It’s about what He did for you by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead. Christ alone paid for your sins, and the instant you believe His plan of salvation, He saves you, forever and forever. It is your choice. If you believe Jesus Christ ALONE as your savior, you will be saved. If you choose to believe a counterfeit version of the gospel message that includes any works or behavioral changes on your part, you will stand before Christ at the Great White Throne Judgement and this will be your fate:

> Revelation 20:11-15, “And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.
> And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, ’[9]I NEVER KNEW YOU,’ chapter 5, pp. 58-59

Amen! Michael is right, you have to be as holy and perfect as Jesus to enter into Heaven. Obviously that is impossible. I want to repeat that last portion, in larger font, because I really want you to understand these truths of the Gospel:

> Jesus said "believe." Believe means to "trust." The object of this trust is His gospel message. Reader, please understand that you must be "as righteous as" Christ is righteous, that you must be cleansed of your sins in order to enter heaven, that you must "change your mind" about Christ and trust in Him alone to save you. It's not about committing your life to Him. It's not about doing anything for Him. It's about what He did for you by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead. Christ alone paid for your sins, and the instant you believe His plan of salvation, He saves you, forever and forever. It is your choice. If you believe Jesus Christ ALONE as your savior, you will be saved.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting His only begotten Son to be saved. Salvation is not achieved, it is received by faith!

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. To God alone be the praise and glory. Jesus is precious!!!

1.4.36 Infant Baptism Is Unbiblical (2020-08-29 09:30)

Matthew 3:16-17, "And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Nowhere in the Holy Bible was an infant ever water baptized. When Jesus was water baptized, we read that He “WENT

UP STRAIGHTWAY OUT OF THE WATER.

” Jesus was baptized by total immersion under water, and then John the Baptist lifted Him up straightway out of the water. Baptism by sprinkling is unbiblical. Baptism is one’s public profession of faith, not a part of getting saved. Martin Luther (1483-1546) and John Calvin (1509-1564) were religious contemporaries, who both taught the heresy of infant baptism. Martin Luther was an unsaved heretic, who taught that a person could not be saved without being water baptized, [1]which you can read in his catechisms.

John Calvin did not teach Baptismal Regeneration, as did Mr. Luther, but Mr. Calvin was wrong on the Gospel, teaching Lordship Salvation. There are many heresies in churches today regarding water baptism. Biblically, we are commanded to be baptized, but only as a profession of one’s faith, and always AFTER a person is born-again (not as a part of saving faith). Pastor Max D. Younce provides the following helpful exegesis from the Bible concerning infants being baptized:

II. INFANT BAPTISM
A.

Origin of Infant Baptism:
Where did this damnable doctrine of baptizing infants ever come from? Your Catholic and Lutheran organizations, both, try to convince their parishioners that this is what God’s Word teaches. The problem is, nowhere in the Bible can you find one verse that even hints that babies are to be baptized; nor, find that one infant that Paul, the other apostles, or anyone ever baptized!

Should one desire to know the truth about who dreamed up this infant baptismal regeneration, which has deceived millions into eternal damnation; you might go to the Catholic organization for their answer. I would suggest you examine the Catechism of the Catholic Church, p. 319, Paragraph 1252, "Infant Baptism," which reads as follows:

"The practice of Infant Baptism is an immemorial TRADITION of the church. There is explicit testimony to this practice from the Second Century on, and it is quite possible, that from the beginning of the apostolic preaching, when whole "households" received baptism, infants may also have been baptized."

In reading their statement, it reveals that infant baptism is a TRADITION; therefore not found anywhere in the Word of God! The words "quite possible" and "may also" show they are grasping at straws to try to give some kind of authority to an unscriptural TRADITION!

"Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.*" - *Colossians 2:8

"Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." - Proverbs 30:6

SOURCE: Pastor Max Younce - '[2]A Biblical Examination Of Baptism,' p. 5

If you believe the Bible there is no controversy! Amen! As Dr. Younce teaches, there is nothing taught in the Bible about baptizing babies. A baby is not old enough to comprehend sin and the Savior, so they are much too young to be saved. Young children certainly can be saved, once they reach the age of enlightenment (which varies from one child to another). I encourage you to listen to these helpful MP3 sermons by Pastor Younce...

1.4.37 God's Imputed Righteousness By Faith (2020-08-30 09:30)

Romans 4:6, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God IMPUTETH righteousness without works."

What in the world does that big word mean . . . "IMPUTETH"? The word "impute" means "to pass to one's account, to count over." It means that God places His righteousness upon our record when we trust upon Christ for salvation. God placed all of our sins upon Christ on the cross. Romans chapter four speaks concerning Abraham, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was COUNTED UNTO HIM for righteousness" (Romans 4:3).

The word "counted" in Romans 4:5b comes from the Greek word logizomai, which means to "take an inventory." It is the same exact Greek word as is used for "imputeth" in Romans 4:6. Abram [Abraham] believed the Gospel and it was IMPUTED [COUNTED] UNTO HIM FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! If you took a piece of paper and drew a line down the middle, listing all your sins on one side and all of Jesus' righteousness on the other, you'd have an inventory. Imputation is God taking all of our sins and placing them upon Christ, and taking all of Jesus' righteousness and transferring it to us. This happens by faith alone.

What a beautiful truth! Abraham was not saved by good works; but rather, he believed God and was saved by Christ's righteousness. Christ's perfection was imputed (placed) on Abraham's record in Heaven. God the Father viewed Abraham thereafter as having the righteousness of Christ. What an awesome Savior!

Abraham believed God concerning the coming Messiah Who was to save His people from their sins . . . "And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness" (Genesis 15:6). Why was Abraham able to simply believe God in place of merit or good works? It's simply because Jesus paid the price for mankind's sins. You see, Abraham could NOT please God in his own self-righteousness, nor can we (Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 10:3-4; Titus 3:5). No matter how much good we may do here on earth, our sins are still recorded in Heaven. Our sins must be washed away, permanently removed!

This is why Jesus came to earth to paid the price for our sins with His own precious blood . . . "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot" (1st Peter 1:18-19). All mankind is corrupt and destitute of God. Even in our sincerest efforts, humanity is tarnished with the curse of sin and rebellion. We need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, i.e., the imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ. We are saved by Jesus' righteousness through faith in the Gospel. Romans 4:5, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

We read in Romans 4:8, "Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not IMPUTE sin." Not only was Christ's righteousness imputed (counted) to Abraham's record, but Abraham's sinful record was imputed to Christ. Literally, Jesus became as sin for us and died a sinner's death . . . "For HE HATH MADE HIM TO BE SIN FOR US, WHO KNEW NO SIN; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him" (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Amen!

We read concerning Abraham . . .

> "And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was IMPUTED to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be IMPUTED, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead" (Romans 4:22-24).

This is a beautiful passage of Scripture, teaching that God is willing to IMPUTE Christ's righteousness to us as well, just as He did to Abraham, if we'll simply believe on the Lord... "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

These Scriptures were written for us, that we might also have Christ's righteousness imputed to our record, and our sins imputed to Christ's record. He who knew no sin, became as sin, that we who knew no righteousness could be made the righteousness of God in Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:21). What a wonderful truth! To think that Jesus would actually bear our sins upon Himself and sacrifice His precious blood for our sins—we are not worthy. Thankfully, God looked beyond our faults through His love and saw our need . . . " But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

I cannot express in Words how much I thank the Lord for what He has done for a sinful worm like me. We're all wicked sinners in God's eyes. Do you realize all that you will miss if you reject Christ as your Savior? Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23), which anyone may have simply by acknowledging their guilt of sin and believing on the name of Jesus Christ for forgiveness . . . "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins" (Acts 10:43). It is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ that we are saved, so that God the Father may view us as having the righteousness of Christ which is imputed unto us at salvation . . .

Romans 4:6, "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God IMPUTETH righteousness without works."

"And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was IMPUTED unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God" (James 2:23). Would you like to be the friend of God? It all begins when you receive Jesus as your Savior. Jesus earnestly wants to impute your sin to His record and impute His righteousness to your record. All you must do to be saved is come to God as a needy sinner (Romans 3:19), and believe that Jesus died, was buried and rose again for your sins ('The Gospel' - 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Simply receive the GOOD NEWS!

Our best self-righteousness is filth to God (Isaiah 64:6). We need GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, that is, Christ's imputed righteousness (Matthew 6:33; 2nd Corinthians 5:21). Oh how foolish is the world today! Billions of unsaved religious people are headed for the Lake of Fire!

A demon's favorite activity is to make an unsaved person feel religious. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world, because Satan uses it to blind men (2nd Corinthians 4:4). Religion says that everything is okay while a person is headed for Hell forever. My friend, everything is wrong if you've never been born-again. You need He Who is the beginning, Jesus, born in you (Revelation 1:8). That's what it means to be "born again"... being born anew by the Holy Spirit of God, by the seed of the Word of God (1st Peter 1:23b).

No amount of personal effort can ever undo your sins. Isaiah 64:6 proclaims that even our BEST efforts are vile filth to God. We are sinful by nature, by behavior, by motive and even by virtue. James 2:10 teaches that to commit even one sin is to become guilty of all in God's sight, because even one sin makes us unfit for the kingdom of God. That's why God sent His only begotten Son into the world to pay for our sins by His death on the cross. If you'll simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, you are saved!!!

Christ's righteousness has been imputed to your record, and your sins have been imputed to Him by faith. That is salvation! Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay. The sinless Lamb of God was crucified for you and me, and His blood shed for our sins. It's all paid in full. Amen! Eternal life is a free gift based upon the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2), not a reward dependent upon the performance of man (Ephesians 2:8-9). You simply receive the gift of eternal life by faith in THE GOSPEL, you don't hope to merit eternal life by working for it.

There's only two religions in the world: DO and DONE. Most religions teach that to get to Heaven you must DO this and DO that, but the Gospel of Jesus Christ simply says that it's already DONE. Jesus has paid for our sins with His precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."

What precious assurance knowing that God has placed Christ's righteousness upon us, and has laid our sins upon His Son (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Romans 8:32, "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" 1st John 3:5, "And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin." What an awesome God!

1.4.38 Ye Might Well Bear With Him (2020-08-31 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-6, "

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things."

The Apostle Paul was learned in the Scriptures. Paul was no dummy! The apostle's credentials were impeccable and impressive to say the least. Paul said that he was jealous over the church at Corinth. The Epistle of 2nd Corinthians was written in 56 AD, eight years after the Epistle of Galatians in 48 AD. The Apostle Paul had seen corruption creep into the churches at Galatia and was understandably concerned about the church at Corinth. Paul said that if a false prophet came into their midst preaching ANOTHER JESUS, ANOTHER SPIRIT, ANOTHER GOSPEL, they might well bear with him. That is, there's a good chance that they would have accepted him and his false message, bidding him Godspeed.

The Devil is smarter than you and me. The Devil knows how to trick people! If I were the Devil, I would do everything in my power to undermine the believer's authority, which is the inspired Word of God. Satan has created a bunch of decoys to throw us off track. The Devil (in the form of a serpent) came to Eve and the first words out of his mouth were: "Hath God Said?" (Genesis 3:1a). Where God placed a period, the Devil placed a question mark! The wise Christian today understands that the Devil is behind the modern Bible publishing movement. A [1]secular English professor sees the danger of the Devil's Bibles. Communist [2]Cuba sees the danger of the Devil's Bibles. Tragically, America's shameful pastors and Bible professors fail to see the danger of the Devil's Bibles.

The Apostle Paul was concerned that the carnal church at Corinth (1st Corinthians 3:1), that they might actually go along with a damnable heretic if he came! Kindly said, that is what has happened at Bob Jones University. Somewhere along the way they changed from preaching a free grace Gospel, to the damnable heresy of John MacArthur's Lordship Salvation. I keep reading supporters of Mr. MacArthur, who insist that he teaches free grace theology, but they are in woeful denial. Heresy is creeping into our fundamental churches by the hour! I just [3]heard a horrifying sermon by Pastor Phil Kidd, denying the eternal security of the Christian believer! That is of the Devil!!!

The way to protect yourself dear reader, from being drawn away by another gospel, is to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES" as the Lord Himself commanded in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." I'll tell you, I've just about declared war on corrupt preachers!!! Anyone who messes with grace is messing with God. Anyone who attacks the grace of God is attacking the God of grace, and the gift of grace, and the guardian of grace (which is the local New Testament church), and the goal of grace (which is to preach the Gospel to the world). God's grace is not cheap, it is free! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!!

But thank God for heretics!

The Bible says we need them, so they who are approved as learned teachers can be manifest.

1st Corinthians 11:19, " For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you." So by Pastor Kidd teaching heresy that a believer cannot have eternal security, it gives me the opportunity to refute his damnable heresy and PREACH THE TRUTH! Every believer has eternal security, which is the same as eternal life! If you have eternal life, then you absolutely do have eternal security. You have God's promise on it! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

1.5.1 Take The NIV Bible Quiz (2020-09-01 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, " For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

INSTRUCTIONS: Using the New International Version Bible (NIV), answer the following questions. Do not rely on your memory. As the Bible is the final authority, you must take the answer from the NIV Bible verse (Not from footnotes but from the text. Footnotes are not the Bible.).

1. Fill in the missing words in Matthew 5:44. "Love your enemies, _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ them that curse you, _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ to them that hate you, and pray for them that _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ and persecute you."

2. According to Matthew 17:21, what two things are required to cast out this type of devil?

3. According to Matthew 18:11, why did Jesus come to earth?

4. According to Matthew 27:2, what was Pilate’s first name?

5. In Matthew 27:35, when the wicked soldiers parted His garments, they were fulfilling the words of the prophet. Copy what the prophet said in Matthew 27:35 from the NIV.

6. In Mark 3:15, Jesus gave the apostles power to cast out devils and to:

7. According to Mark 7:16, what does a man need to be able to hear?

8. According to Luke 7:28, what was John? (teacher, prophet, carpenter, etc.). What is his title or last name?

9. In Luke 9:55, what did the disciples not know?

10. In Luke 9:56, what did the Son of man not come to do? According to this verse, what did He come to do?

11. In Luke 22:14, how many apostles were with Jesus?

12. According to Luke 23:38, in what three languages was the superscription written?

13. In Luke 24:42, what did they give Jesus to eat with His fish?

14. John 3:13 is a very important verse, proving the deity of Christ. According to this verse (as Jesus spoke), where is the Son of man?

15. What happened each year as told in John 5:4?

16. In John 7:50, what time of day did Nicodemus come to Jesus?

17. In Acts 8:37, what is the one requirement for baptism?

18. What did Saul ask Jesus in Acts 9:6?

19. Write the name of the man mentioned in Acts 15:34.

20. Study Acts 24:6-8. What would the Jew have done with Paul? What was the chief captain's name? What did the chief captain command?

21. Copy Romans 16:24 word for word from the NIV.

22. First Timothy 3:16 is perhaps the greatest verse in the New Testament concerning the deity of Christ. In this verse, who was manifested in the flesh?

23. In the second part of First Peter 4:14, how do [they] speak of Christ? And, what do we Christians do?

24. Who are the three Persons of the Trinity in First John 5:7?

25. Revelation 1:11 is another very important verse that proves the deity of Christ. In the first part of this verse Jesus said, "I am the A _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ and O _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ , the _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ and the _ _ _ _ _ _ _:"

Conclusion: Little space is provided for your answers, but it’s much more than needed. If you followed the instructions above, you not only failed the test, you receive a big goose egg. So now what do you think of your "accurate, easy-to-understand, up-to-date Bible"? If these 25 questions haven’t served to show you that the NIV is a very inferior Bible, based on a very inferior Greek text, then you have been deceived by the Devil dear reader. If you would like to improve your score, and in fact score 100 %, you can take this test using the Authorized (King James) Bible.

NIV Reader: Do you have enough confidence in the NIV to tell God, OUT LOUD, that the NIV is correct in deleting these words and phrases?

If not, you need to get an inspired King James Bible so you can have some confidence. I love you friend, which is why I have been writing my heart out since 2002, never taking a single penny for my earnest labors. God is preparing my rewards in Heaven for me, but the greatest reward of all is seeing Jesus Christ formed in you! Please don’t use anything except the precious KING JAMES BIBLE.

1.5.2 Faulty Ideas About Repentance (2020-09-02 10:00)

Matthew 21:32,

“

For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

Please notice in our text Bible verse that the Bible doesn’t say they didn’t repent from their sins; but rather, they didn’t repent **“

THAT YE MIGHT BELIEVE HIM

! There is not one verse in the Bible that says to

“

repent of your sins

or to

turn from your sins

to be saved.

The following is brilliant Bible exegesis by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). This is an excerpt from Dr. Hutson’s booklet titled, ’[1]Repentance: What Does The Bible Say?’

> We suppose there are many faulty ideas about repentance, but we will deal here with the more popular ones. Perhaps the most popular false idea is that repentance is turning from sin.

> We have heard some well-known preachers say, “If you want to be saved, repent of your sins, turn from your sins.” If turning from your sins means to stop sinning, then people can only be saved if they stop sinning. And it is unlikely that anyone has ever been saved, since we don’t know anyone who has ever stopped sinning.

I recently asked a large congregation if there was anyone present who had not sinned in the last week to raise his hand, and not a single hand was lifted. I don't know of anyone who lives a single day without sinning. Now to be sure, you may not commit murder, adultery, or you may not rob a bank, but you sin nonetheless. Romans 14:23 says, "For whatsoever is not of faith is sin." That simply means that if we do anything without a conviction of God's approval, then it is sinful. And I suppose everyone is guilty of this every day of his life.

James 4:17 says, "Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin."

When I was a small boy, I recall hearing an old preacher pray, "Lord, forgive us of the sins of omission as well as the sins of commission." There is such a thing as a sin of omission. The Bible says to leave undone something we know is good is a sin. And who hasn't sinned in this respect?

The book of I John is written to believers. And I John 1:10 says, "If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." The pronoun "we" in this verse refers to Christians, believers. For any believer to claim that he has not sinned is to make God a liar.

Several years ago I read a book by a professor at a fundamental university. Under the chapter on salvation, he said, “Quit your sinning, and God will give you a new heart.” He presented repentance as turning from sin. I wrote this dear brother and expressed my concern, knowing that such teaching frustrates the unbeliever and makes him think that salvation is unattainable since he cannot live a sinless life. This professor wrote back that he had repented, that he had turned from his sins. When I wrote to ask if he had sinned after he was saved, he had to honestly answer the question and admit that he had. I explained that if he had sinned after he was saved, then he had not turned from his sins; he had only turned from part of them, that is, the ones he had not committed since he had been saved. He then agreed to change the statement in his book.

If repentance means turning from sin, and turning from sin means to stop sinning, then a person must live a sinless life in order to be saved. And if that is the case, then nobody could ever be saved, because there are no perfect people.

You don’t get better to get saved; you get saved to get better. You can’t get better until you do get saved. In reality, one can begin living better only after he is saved. When the individual trusts Christ as Saviour, he receives a new nature. Second Peter 1:4 says, “Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature.” With this new nature come new desires and new power to make the desires a reality.

We read in Philippians 2:13, “For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.” It is the presence of God in the believer that gives him both the desire and power to live a better life. And no man has the indwelling Christ in the person of the Holy Spirit until after he is saved.

The Christian life is not an imitation of the Christ life; it is Christ living His life over again in us as we yield ourselves to Him. That is what Paul meant in Galatians 2:20: “I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.”

Several years ago, after I finished preaching a Sunday morning service, several people trusted Christ as Saviour, including a lady and her five children. I noticed a man sitting on the same pew who did not respond. After the service, I spoke to him, while many of the members of the church were shaking hands with the lady, her children, and others who had trusted Christ that morning.

“Sir,” I said, “is this your wife and children?”

“Yes,” he replied.

I said, “Isn’t it wonderful that they have trusted Christ as Saviour!”

“Yes,” he replied.

Then I asked, “Have you trusted Christ as your Saviour?”

He dropped his head and said, “I’m afraid I haven’t.”

“May I ask why you haven’t trusted Christ as Saviour?”

“Well,” he said, “to be honest with you, I’m afraid I can’t live it.”

I suspected that this man had an idea that in order to be saved, he must promise God that he would never sin again, or he thought that repenting was turning from sin. So I pressed the issue.

“What do you mean, you can’t live it?”

“Well,” he said, “I know that I will probably sin again.”

I said, “Sir if getting saved is promising Jesus you will never sin again, then I would never get saved, because I know I cannot live a sinless life.” I explained that to be saved one simply had to trust Jesus as Saviour. I opened the Bible to John 3:36 and read, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life.” Then pointing to the verse, I asked, “Does the verse say ’He that believeth on the Son and lives it has everlasting life’?”

“Oh, no,” he replied.

“Then what does the verse say?”

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life.”

“Then must one believe on the Son and live it in order to be saved? Or must one simply believe on the Son, as the Bible says, to have everlasting life?”

“Well,” he said, “I suppose that one must do what the Bible says - believe on the Son.”

“Then will you trust Jesus Christ right now as your Saviour?”

With a smile on his face, he answered, “I certainly will.” In a moment he joined his wife and children as the church members came by and shook hands, rejoicing with them in their decision to trust Christ as Saviour.

A few weeks later I received a call from a pastor a few miles out of Atlanta, Georgia. He said that a man, his wife, and five children had joined the church for baptism and told him that they were saved at Forrest Hills Baptist Church in Decatur Georgia. “Dr. Hutson,” he said, “I thought you would like to know about it.”

Of course I was happy to hear they had united with the church near where they lived. That family went on to become faithful workers in the church. They even bought their own bus and began a bus ministry, bringing scores of children and adults in to hear the Gospel.

I think there are many who would like to be saved but have been presented the faulty idea that repentance is turning from sin and therefore they are convinced that they cannot be saved. Oh, if we would only make salvation plain and explain to men that we are not saved by doing anything; rather we are saved by trusting in what Jesus has already done. He died two thousand years ago for our sins. He fully paid the sin debt, and the Bible says, "that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

Now don't misunderstand me. We do not want to treat sin lightly, but then, we must not demand of an unbeliever that which is impossible for him to perform, and we must not make unbelievers feel that salvation is a hopeless, unattainable thing.

A second faulty idea is that repentance is sorrow for sin. The Bible says in II Corinthians 7:10,
"For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of...." Though godly sorrow may bring about repentance, it is not the same as repentance.

I’m afraid we have been guilty of building doctrines off our experience rather than the Bible.
We must remember that the Bible is the principle, not man’s experience.

We have heard well-meaning preachers tell of their experience of salvation and describe their weeping and sorrow and how miserable and low-down they felt before they were saved. In doing so, they suggest to the unbeliever that he must feel a certain amount of sorrow before he can be saved. If that is the case, then how much sorrow must a man feel and exactly how much must he weep and moan before God will save him? This kind of teaching suggests to us the false idea that God is basically unwilling to save sinners, and unless one softens the heart of God by his tears, then God will never accept him and grant forgiveness for sin.

The truth is, God is more willing and ready to save than we unbelievers are to simply trust Him to do it. As a matter of fact, God has done and is doing all He can to save men. Two thousand years ago He placed all our sins on His Son Jesus Christ and then punished Jesus in our place to pay the sin debt we owe so that when we die, we won’t have to pay it. That is exactly what the Bible means in John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” In the matter of salvation, no amount of weeping or sorrow will coax God into doing something that He has not already done.

Remember when Jesus was on the cross, He cried, “It is finished!” (John 19:30), which means that the price for our salvation was paid in full. Nothing can be added to it and nothing can be taken from it. We don’t need to weep, beg, or plead for God to do something He has already done. What we do is accept Him, trust Him.

The problem is not that God is adamant and unapproachable but that man will not respond.

The great evangelist D. L. Moody insisted that the inquirer was not to seek sorrow but the Saviour. The death of Jesus Christ on the cross and His shed blood is sufficient for the forgiveness of sins. Ephesians 1:7 says, “In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace.”

Notice that forgiveness of sins is through His blood. It is not the death of Christ-plus sorrow; the death of Christ-plus tears; the death of Christ-plus mourning; or even the death of Christ-plus pleading. No, no, no! It is the death of Christ-period. The Word of God makes it clear that salvation is based entirely upon the death of Christ and the believer’s faith or trust in Him. Acts 16:31 plainly says, “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved.” Believe. Not believe and weep, not believe and pray, not believe and mourn, not believe and feel sorrow for your sins, but believe, only believe.

I am glad when I see someone troubled over his sins, but we must be very careful in presenting the plan of salvation not to insist that a person have a certain degree of sorrow before he can be saved. That is not repentance, and such a requirement for salvation is not found in the Bible.

A third faulty idea about repentance is that it is reformation. Nearly all the religions of the world teach the idea that man must do something or be something in order to be saved. Some say you must join a particular church. If you don't belong to their particular group, then you cannot be saved. Others teach you must be baptized in water that the water actually washes away sin. Others teach you must be baptized in a certain way and by a certain preacher. Still others teach you must behave in a certain manner. They will often say, "If you don't straighten up, you are going to Hell!" Others teach that you must make certain resolutions or promises in order to be saved, and if you don't live up to those resolutions, then you are lost. If we could only understand the clear plan of salvation, it would surely help to clear up a lot of confusion.

Salvation is a gift and there is nothing we can do or be in order to earn it. All you can do with a gift is receive it. John 1:12 says, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name."

My beloved predecessor Dr. John R. Rice, used to say, “If you go to Hell, you pay your own way; but you go to Heaven on a free pass.” He was certainly right. Romans 6:23 says, “The wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Salvation is a gift.

Reformation is good in its place, but when you make reformation repentance and a prerequisite for salvation, then it is wicked and evil. Salvation is of God, not of man. John 1:13 says, “Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” The expression, “not of blood,” simply means that salvation is not inherited through the bloodline. No one is saved because his mother or father is a Christian. “…nor of the will of the flesh” means that there is nothing the flesh can do to earn salvation, including reformation.
“…nor of the will of man” means there is nothing man can do to save himself. “…but of God” means that nothing of man enters into salvation.

If that be true, then man’s behavior-good or bad-has nothing to do with obtaining salvation.
Titus 3:5 says, “Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us….” Ephesians 2:8, 9 tells us, “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.” It is impossible to mix grace and works. Salvation is either by grace or works; it cannot be a combination of the two.

Notice the words of Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Reformation as an instrument of salvation is absolutely futile, and repentance is not reformation.

Reformation is an effort on the part of the individual to establish his own righteousness, and the Bible clearly teaches that we are not saved by our own righteousness but by the imputed righteousness of God. Look at Romans 10:1-4:

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

If we could reform and establish our own righteousness, that would not be sufficient. Says Isaiah 64:6 regarding our righteousnesses, "All our righteousnesses are as filthy rags…." The best we can do is like filthy rags in the sight of a holy God. The only righteousness God accepts is His own, which is imputed to us the moment we trust Christ as Saviour.

What a blessed promise is Romans 4:5, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.”

My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus’ blood and righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus’ name.

Repentance is not reformation.

No one will ever go to Hell who has put his trust in Jesus Christ, but many will end up in torment who have trusted their own righteousness and reformation. Matthew 7:22, 23 says:

"Many will say to me in that day Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

The people referred to in these verses are trusting their own works, their own righteousness, for salvation, when they ought to be trusting Jesus Christ completely.

A fourth faulty idea about repentance is that it is penance. Dr. Harry Ironside said:

> "Penance is not repentance. Penance is the effort in some way to atone for wrong done. This man can never do, nor does God, in His Word, lay it down as a condition for salvation that one first seek to make up to either God or his fellows for evil committed.... On the contrary, the call was to repent, but between repentance and doing penance there is a vast difference."

Penance is a sacrament of the Roman Catholic Church involving the confession of sin and submission to penalties imposed, followed by absolution by the priest.

There is a penalty for sin, but God has only one such penalty and that is death. Ezekiel 18:4 reads, “The soul that sinneth, it shall die.” Romans 6:23 says, “The wages of sin is death!” And James 1:15 tells us, “Sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.”

God’s penalty for sin is death, and this death is described in the Bible as the second death, the lake of fire - Revelation 20:14 says, “Death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.” No amount of penance will pay for our sins.

The Bible teaches that Jesus Christ paid for our sins two thousand years ago. I Peter 3:18 says, “For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God.... “ The word “once” here does not mean once upon a time but once for all. The payment for sin was made once for all two thousand years ago when Jesus died on the cross for our sins. The Bible states in I Peter 2:24, “Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree....” God imposed the penalty for our sins before Adam and Eve committed the first sin in the garden. In Genesis 2:17 He said, “....in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.” And the penalty imposed by God before the fall was paid in full by Jesus Christ on the cross two thousand years ago. All that’s left for us to do is accept what Jesus has done and trust Him completely for salvation.

Oh, why must we complicate the matter and confuse unbelievers as to how to be saved!
"What must I do to be saved?" asked the Philippian jailor in Acts 16:30, and Paul replied in verse 31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."

Repentance is not penance.

There you have it. To summarize

, repentance is:

- NOT turning from sins
- NOT sorrow for sins
- NOT reformation from sins
- NOT penance for sins

I encourage you to [3]read the rest of the booklet! People are confused everywhere in churches today, because the Devil has crept his false prophets into them unawares!

1.5.3 Rebuke False Prophets Sharply The Bible Says (2020-09-02 22:30)

Titus 1:10-13, " For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;"

I have a Zero Tolerance policy for heresy. I have 17 social media accounts (7 websites, 3 blogs, 4 YouTube channels, Twitter, Tumblr and Facebook). Of those, Facebook causes me the most grief as a preacher of the truth. I had one man on Facebook who persistently kept posting articles that denied the Trinity. It is an unfortunately popular heresy which has crept into some churches today, called Modalism. That is, instead of a triune Godhead, they believe that God goes into different modes, but say that Jesus does not exist as a separate person from the Father. Modalists falsely believe that there is only God the Father in Heaven, but there is not God the Son in a separate body.

We know that is utter heresy from simply reading Colossians 3:1, "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

" When Jesus resurrected from the dead, it was in a physical body. The Lord was seen by over 500 believers in one appearance he made (1st Corinthians 15:6). Jesus was seen by Mary Magdalene, the 12 apostles, the two disciples on the road to Emmaus, and the Apostle Paul. So that's at least 516 witnesses of His bodily resurrection. Then Jesus ascended in a physical body into the clouds (Acts 1:9-11). The Lord physically went to Heaven, and still exists in a physical body today, seated on the right hand of the Father. Heaven is a physical place. The angels are physical beings, who eat food, just as they ate a feast which Lot prepared for them, when they visited him in Sodom (Genesis 19:3).

The Apostle Paul said he tried to talk sense to people TWICE. If they still persisted to disagree with him, after sharing the inspired Word of God with them at least on two occasions, Paul moved on to greener pastures. Paul in his wisdom and experience of talking with people, concluded that a person is subverted (corrupted) of them self if they still refuse to heed sound doctrine after two attempts. Titus 3:9-11, “

But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

I think that is a good rule for us as well.

As the webservant of several website ministries, I receive a lot of emails, as you can imagine. Most people who write to me are a bit reluctant to say much at first, treading lightly lest I turn out to be The Great Oz that seems so intimidating by the ominousness of my website and bold preaching. They are always pleasantly surprised to find that I am the humble man behind the curtain, and moreover, like Toto the dog. My bark is much worse than my bite. I am just a broken, humble, caring, redeemed sinner. I do truly want and try to be a blessing to others. People are people, as they say, and I have had my problems communicating with some web visitors. I always give God ALL the praise, credit and glory. Jesus said “for without me ye can do nothing

” (John 15:5b). The Lord even gives us our very life, and breath, and all things”

(Acts 17:25).

What an awesome God and Savior!!!

Some people like to argue theology. When I receive such emails, I always begin by responding with the Bible, and usually some sermons and articles to help show them the truth. If they seem interested, I’ll exchange hundreds of emails to teach and help them, gladly so. But if they start trying to convert me, berating me for my ignorance of the Bible, and I see that they are already set in their thinking, I kindly reply that I won’y debate with my web visitors. I am not here to debate with theologians or know-it-alls. I am here to help that 1 out of 100 lambs who’ve wandered astray, and need guidance to the truth and safety.

Jude 1:4, “For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." False prophets never boldly announce their entrance into a church, a blog, a Bible college, a rescue mission—any group of people. They creep in, like snakes! The Bible says false prophets are "CREPT IN UNAWARES." That means they are so subtle that you don't even detect them. Satan was subtle when tempting Eve. Satan was subtle when tempting Jesus. And false prophets are subtle. They are nice people. They use friendly words. They quote Bible verses. But they are corrupted of the Devil, always believing that they are sincere.

When someone teaches heresy, I am going to kindly teach them the Holy Bible. I am sincerely going to try to help them. But when they argue with me, and start telling me that I need to read the Bible, I am going to tell them to GET THE HELL AWAY FROM ME, SATAN! Calvinists are preaching doctrines of devils. 1st Timothy 4:1, " Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" I know some spiritual liberals with bleeding hearts will disagree with me. If so, there's the damn door, leave! Go! Jesus said the same thing to His disciples when He taught the truth, and most people walked away. John 6:67, "Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?" Calvinism is of the Devil, all five points! If you disagree, get the Hell away from me, Satan!

There are many professed Christian people today who have a very ecumenical mindset, tolerating sin and false doctrine, when they ought to be exposing and avoiding it! Ephesians 5:10-11, "Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts! There is no controversy if you believe the Bible!!! Calvinism is of the Devil. It is another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works!

We've got a bunch of overgrown babies in our churches today, spoiled rotten Americans with a chip on their shoulder, who are intolerant of bold, sin-fighting, truth-telling, name-calling, window-rattlin, shingle-pullin', barn-stormin', hellfire and damnation, fiery preachers like Pastor Jack Hyles, Danny Castle, Bob Gray Sr., Steven Anderson, Max Younce, Roger Jimenez, and humbly, myself. 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." A free grace Gospel is sound doctrine! Calvinism is a shabby foundation, which is sure to fail, building one's house upon the sand. I am saddened how many churchgoers have fallen victim to Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). The entire Gospel of John, and the Epistle of Galatians, plainly expose Calvinism as a fraud. We are saved by faith alone, and not by persevering until the end of the race.

The Devil comes along and says to be nice to false prophets, and coddle them, or they'll never get saved. The Bible says to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY!!! I've heard that lame excuse my whole life, that you'll never win lost sinners to Christ unless you lower yourself to their level. Paul said in 1st Corinthians 9:22, " To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some." Paul was not saying that he smoked marijuana to win hippies to Christ. Paul was not saying, [1]as does Pastor J.D. Greear (president of the apostate Southern Baptist Convention), that we should become advocates of the dignity of the LGBTQ community.

What an ungodly man to say such a wicked thing! Homosexuality is a vile, disgusting and perverse abominable sin in the sight of almighty God, and preachers everywhere must preach it so! The Apostle Paul made it very clear in 1st Corinthians 5:1-5 that open sin must not be allowed nor tolerated in any church! Sinners are welcomed at church, otherwise nobody could go! But church members found to be living in open adultery, fornication, homosexuality and other vile sins should be confronted by the church elders, asked to repent or leave. The Bible tells us why, because a little tolerated sin will corrupt the whole congregation. 1st Corinthians 5:6, " Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?" Sin must never be permitted to flourish in a Bible-believing, New Testament, church.

1st Timothy 5:20, " Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear."

Proponents of Lordship Salvation have corrupted the gospel in a sincere attempt to force people to forsake their sins and live a holy life. In so doing they have alienated sinners from the Gospel, and the new birth cannot be produced. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again. Jesus did not tell anyone in the Gospel of John to turn away from their sins to be saved. No, He simply said to BELIEVE on Him. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " I am going to continue to boldly refute anyone who perverts grace! I am going to continue to preach against the Bible-corrupting crowd, who pervert the Words of the Living God! I am going to expose the corrupters of grace! When someone attacks the grace of God, [2]they are attacking the God of grace!!!

1.5.4 Have You Believed In Vain? (2020-09-03 09:30)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, " Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

I immediately thought of the heretical Lordship Salvation crowd, who pervert the Gospel of grace. Paul is simply saying that some people think they believe right, but they have it wrong. Paul makes it easy for us, telling us exactly what we need to believe to be saved; namely, that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and He bodily resurrected three days later from the dead. Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, realizing their need for redemption, who places their confidence in Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection is saved.

There are three things that one must know to be saved: the WHO, WHAT and WHY about Jesus...

- WHO He is - Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31)
- WHAT He did - Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected for the justification of our faith.
- WHY He did it - We are all sinners and the penalty is death (Romans 6:23), including a second death (Revelation 21:8). Christ had to pay our sin debt.

John 20:31, "

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" John 20:31 says that

" these are written "

were written to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing we will be saved. So we could eliminate the other 65 books of the Bible, and just use the Gospel of John, to find out everything we need to know to be saved. The word "repent" is not mentioned even once. We find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times in John. In chapters 19-20 we read about Jesus' death on the cross, burial and physical resurrection. In John 3:20-21 we read that those who love sin will not come to Christ to be saved, but "he that doeth truth" will come. That is repentance, not turning from sins, but the acknowledgement of the truth that we are a sinner, and believing the truth of the Gospel to be saved.

Repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH that we are a needy sinner, and faith is believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel. Getting saved is strictly a matter of THE TRUTH, and has nothing to do with forsaking one's sins, which would be works. I can prove what I just said with 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;" Most people today are enjoying their life of sin, and refuse to acknowledge THE TRUTH that they are a sinner in need of a Savior. I like to capitalize those words "THE TRUTH" for emphasis, not to shout, but to bring out (no pun intended) THE TRUTH.

One of the deadliest things in the world today is "Lordship Salvation." What is this? Lordship Salvation is a false doctrine which says that you must surrender to Jesus as the absolute "Lord" of your life to be saved. Proponents of this damnable doctrine teach that a person must "repent of your sins" (turn away from your past sinful life) to receive God's free gift of eternal life. In so doing, the proponents of this heresy have moved away from the Gospel of grace, and made iron shackles for themselves! THEY HAVE BELIEVED IN VAIN!!!

> Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
> **"

In Matthew 7:21-23 you can bet that these people believed in something. They boasted in their own defense in Christ's presence as their Judge, that they had done "many wonderful works" in His name, and that they preached in Jesus' name everywhere they went, and had even cast out devils in Jesus' name. Yet, the Lord spoke these horrifying words to them: "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." They had believed in vain, because what they believed did not agree with what the Bible teaches. The road to Hell is paved with good intentions! Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

You don’t turn from your sins to be saved, Jesus came to save you from your sins, and turn you from them. Turning from sin is a matter of Christian growth, and not a matter of receiving God’s free gift of forgiveness of them. Salvation is a judicial matter. You are a guilty sinner. Sin must be punished. Christ took your place on the cross and paid your debt owed. Therefore, God the Father can declared you justified, on the basis of Jesus’ blood which was sacrificed for you! Pastor Jack Hyles said it this way:

> “Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]Conversion And Salvation” (chapter 3) from his book: “Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”

Amen, that is how salvation happens. God saves a man, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes him. But nobody can mandate those changes as a requirement to be saved, nor as a condition to prove that one is saved, which would be works. The Bible says we “SHOULD” live godly in Christ Jesus; not MUST (that is works); and not WILL (that would be Calvinism). Titus 2:11-12, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;” Living a faithful Christian life has nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift. You are born-again the very second that you trust Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, and it is a done deal Lucile!

Please listen to me dear reader, tens of millions of false Christians in neo-evangelical churches today are just as guilty in God’s sight, as are hellbound Roman Catholics and Mormons who have perverted the Gospel of grace. The damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation has infected Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pacific Garden Mission (Unshackled radio), Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and thousands of other apostate pseudo-Christian organizations today! They are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Have you believed in vain?

1.5.5 Maranatha Baptist University's Perverse Gospel (2020-09-03 20:36)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Our text passage of Scripture plainly proclaims the Gospel of free grace. The Apostle Paul said he received this Gospel, not from man, but by direct revelation from the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. Galatians 1:11-12, " But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ." There is no other gospel. The Gospel taught in the inspired King James Bible is very simple, plain and unchanged by humans.

Having said that as introduction, now let's examine the heresy set forth by the [1]Maranatha Baptist University in Wisconsin. In their official Statement of Faith, they state:

> Soteriology
> The Bible faculty are committed to teaching a biblically balanced soteriology. We believe in the divine source of salvation, that all of salvation flows from God's free and unmerited grace. We also affirm the *responsibility of all people to repent of their sins and believe the gospel. [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]Statement Of Faith

BLASPHEMY!!! You cannot show me even one Bible verse that teaches to “ repent of your sins

or

“turn away from your sins” to be saved. If you think this is splitting hairs, then you are oh so woefully ignorant of the Gospel of free grace! There is absolutely nothing in the Gospel which Paul received directly from the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, that requires repenting of one’s sins to be saved. This is a counterfeit gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! Romans 3:19-20 plainly teaches that the purpose of God’s law is to give men “ the knowledge of sin,

” not to persuade men to turn away from sins as a requirement to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Maranatha Baptist University are wolves in sheep’s clothing, caught up in the heresy of Lordship Salvation, [3]just another Bob Jones University clone!!!

You don’t have to repent of your sins to be saved. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Acts 20:21, “ Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.
> **”

2nd Timothy 2:25-26,

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.”

John 3:20-21, “For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.”

In the preceding passages of Scriptures, we learn that repentance is concerning THE TRUTH, not forsaking one’s sins. Repentance is TOWARD GOD, not FROM SINS. Repentance is a change of mind—a change of mind from WRONG THINKING to believing the Gospel. What must a man repent of? You must change your mind about whatever it is that has been hindering you from coming to Christ to be saved. Men who love their sins won’t come to Christ, **“

lest his deeds should be reproved

” (John 3:20b). So repentance is a man acknowledging that he is a guilty sinner in need of redemption. God’s law gives men the knowledge that they are needy sinners, and then the law brings them to Christ to be saved by God’s grace through faith (Galatians 3:24-26).

Now when these neo-evangelical theologians (aka, the Lordship Salvation crowd), speak of repenting of your sins, they mean something entirely different. Read what [4]Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches, that you must live a lifestyle of repentance to be saved. That is not the Gospel. [5]Look at the garbage theology taught on Pacific Garden Mission's 'Unshackled' radio program, requiring listeners to forsake the old life of sin to be saved. [6]This is a perversion of grace! When someone attacks the grace of God, they attack the God of grace!!! [7]Look at the junk theology taught by Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014).

[8]Pastor Marty Herron is another damnable heretic, corrupting the Gospel by adding turning from sins to faith alone. These are reprobates in the pulpit, damning men's souls with the same perverse Lordship Salvation heresy as we read about in Matthew 7:21-23. They cried out,

"LORD, LORD," and mentioned their " many wonderful works,

" but they had failed to obey the will of the Father, which is to rest completely in His only begotten Son (John 6:40; Hebrews 4:10-11). If you add turning from sins to grace, you don't get grace!!!

There is an entirely different mindset that the proponents of Lordship Salvation have, than does a genuine born-again believer. The truth is that a child of God CAN disobey, choose to live in willful sin like the Devil, and still go to Heaven! As much as that may harelip Pastor Marty Herron, Maranatha Baptist University, Bob Jones University, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, John Piper, Unshackled, Steve Pettit and John MacArthur—the proof that they are all liars in the pulpit is found in 1st Corinthians 3:15, "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. " Clearly, a man can enter into Heaven with no goodness whatsoever, having lived a selfish life of carnality in sin and shame.

> “Can a child of God be disobedient? The answer has to be ’Yes’ otherwise it is not faith alone in Christ alone.” —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, ’[9]Lordship Salvation - Part Two’

Pastor Jack Hyles gets it right, in this excellent writing titled: ’[10]Conversion And Salvation.’ Pilgrim’s Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), makes this excellent statement:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. If you must repent of your sins to be saved, then you have a part in saving yourself. This is human reformation, not repentance. Many dishonest preachers will preach that you must “ repent of sin,

but they don’t explain what they mean, confusing people and bidding Godspeed to the Lordship Salvation crowd

. They do this for the love of money, wanting to straddle the fence to avoid being labeled as controversial. The safe thing to do in these apostate times, is to say that you must “ repent of sin

to be saved. The safe thing is to in these apostate times, is to promote multiple Bible versions, lest you’re labeled as a King James Bible only nut.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) got it 100 % correct:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[11]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[12]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

God damns Maranatha Baptist University!

God damns Marty Herron!

God damns Steve Pettit!

God damns Bob Jones University!

God damns Pacific Garden Mission and their Unshackled nightmare theology!

God damns Rick Warren!

God damns Joel Osteen!

God damns Sam Horn and Master's University in California!

God damns all heretics who bid Godspeed to false prophets.

2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Galatians 1:8-9, "

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." This is a very serious matter. God curses anyone who perverts His Word or His Gospel!!!

Men by nature are cowards. I've noticed that everyone preaching the heresy of Lordship Salvation are making a living off it! Since they want as much money as possible, Bible colleges want to lure more students, so they go with what is popular. Luke 16:13, "

No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

It is not popular today to be King James Bible only. It is not popular today to believe a free grace Gospel, that does not require an additional step of repenting of your sins. The truth is that repentance is automatic, and is included in believing. A man wouldn’t believe unless he had repented, that is, changed his mind.

Woe unto the apostate Bible colleges! Woe unto Maranatha Baptist University and their damnable doctrine! Nothing is destroying churches today like Bible colleges. Shame on Hyles-Anderson College and the First Baptist Church of Hammond for denying the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008! Shame on Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary for preaching Lordship Salvation, and bidding Godspeed to Satan’s corrupted Bible revisions!!! Damn these fake religious institutions to Hell!!!

God knows that I don’t hate anyone.

I love everyone with God’s love, but I hate every false way, as I am supposed to, and so should you if you are saved.

Psalms 119:104, “

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

” These new corrupted Bible revisions water-down God’s Word, so people don’t hate sin any-more like they should. They don’t believe the Gospel anymore, because [13]the new Bibles pervert the Gospel, teaching that you must turn from living in sin to be saved. You cannot talk sense to neo-evangelicals, because they are more loyal to man, than to God.

John 12:43, “ For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.” To Hell with the Devil’s crowd! To Hell with Bob Jones University and their counterfeit Bibles, and their fake gospel of turning from sins to be saved. To Hell with Marty Herron and his false gospel of damnation! To Hell with Maranatha Baptist University and their

repent of your sins

heresy of Satan!

Tragically, neo-evangelicals are the rot of American society today! Their ecclesiastical tentacles are those of the Devil. Their stench reaches to Hell’s gates where they are headed. Philippians 2:20, “For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.” I thank God for the very small handful to truth-seeking believers today, who preach only the free grace Gospel, and use only the inspired King James Bible, and are zealous of THE TRUTH, earnestly contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). We are a small army, dedicated to strengthen the things that remain. Revelation 3:2, “ Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

1.5.6 Baptism And Repentance (2020-09-04 10:00)

Mark 1:4,

“John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.” Acts 11:16, “Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.”

Acts 11:21

“And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number*believed, and turned unto the Lord.*”

Carefully notice in our text passage in Acts 11:21 that they “TURNED UNTO THE LORD,” not FROM THEIR SINS! There are numerous great misunderstanding about “repentance” in the churches. Such verses as Mark 1:4 confuse many unlearned churchgoers, because they do not take into account the rest of the Bible. Mark 1:4 reads, “John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.” By itself, this verse seems like It is teaching [1]Baptismal Regeneration, but it certainly is NOT.

is referenced in Acts 11:16, “Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.”

And a few verses later we read in Acts 11:21, “And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.” This is Biblical repentance. It is acknowledging one’s self as a needy sinner, and turning to the Lord by faith in the Gospel to be saved. Jesus doesn’t forgive sin, Jesus paid for our sins on the cross! Therefore, forgiveness is a gift to them who BELIEVE THE GOSPEL.

Here’s a doctrinally sound excellent book on the baptisms of the Bible, titled: “[2]A Biblical Examination Of Baptism” (.pdf book by Pastor Max D. Younce). …

> The ONLY thing that you need to repent of to be saved is whatever it is that’s been keeping you from coming to Christ to be saved.

Please note that NO mention of baptism is found in Acts 11 other than the one reference to John the Baptist in verse 16. Clearly, water baptism was not required for their salvation in Acts 16, just is it has never been required. John preached the same Gospel of Jesus Christ, as we preach today, that is, salvation by grace through faith in Christ's sacrifice on the cross, His burial, and bodily resurrection the third day, plus or minus nothing (Ephesians 2:8-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Titus 3:5).

[3]The "Repent Of Your Sins" Heresy (Awesome! The Bible says that God "repented"—was it from His sins?)

[4]The "Repent Of Your Sins" Heresy

(by Pastor Steven L. Anderson)

[5]'Repentance From Sin' For Salvation Is Not Taught In The Bible (

Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

Dr. Jack Hyles 100 % correctly and Biblically states concerning repentance:

> “Repentance is not some little silly, ’I’m sorry.’ Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin’s consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe… Repentance is not being sorry for what I’ve done wrong. It is not confessing one’s sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah ’Woe is me, for I am unclean!”’ —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, ’[7]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!’

Baptism Of Repentance (or Repentance Unto Life)

Biblical repentance is simply TURNING UNTO THE LORD by faith to receive the gift of forgiveness for one's sins. Acts 20:21 speaks of "REPENTANCE TOWARD GOD." Acts 11:18 reads, "When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life." Repentance is a gift from God, a grace not of human works.

Notice that the Bible does NOT call this a repentance from sins. The "baptism of repentance" in Mark 1:4 is clearly not referring to water baptism, but to the "baptism of repentance." This is the repentance unto life which can only be found in Christ Jesus. The Word of God does NOT teach that we must give up our sins to be saved. Christ came to save us from our sins, not we ourselves from sin. Consider the following definitions:

- penitence = sorrow for sins
- penance = making amend for one's sins
- reformation = turning from one's sins
- repentance = a change of mind
- regeneration = the new birth

The Bible does not require penitence, penance or reformation to be saved. Only repentance (a change of mind) is necessary, which facilitates believing, which is salvation!

Not one verse in the Bible commands us to turn from sin to receive God's free gift of eternal life. You don't have to forsake your sinful ways to be saved.

If this were true, then no one could be saved because we are all sinners incapable of ceasing from sin. Even the best of Christians still commit sin! Believers shouldn't commit sin, but the fact of the matter is that we all do. So how can you tell an unsaved person to give up their sins to be saved? What percentage of sins must a person give up to be saved? The answer is none! Christ bore the weight of our sins upon the cross so that we wouldn't have to. Anyone who places the weight of sin upon the sinner's shoulder is preaching a false Gospel. Our part in salvation is simply to acknowledge that we are a needy sinner in God's eyes and BELIEVE THE GOSPEL (Romans 3:19). Jesus paid it all, nothing to Him I owe!!!

As I mentioned, there is a woeful misunderstanding about repentance circulating in our churches today. Acts 11:21, "And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord." Biblical repentance is TURNING to Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of our sins. The Bible doesn't say they turned from their sins, it says they turned to the Lord. Jesus doesn't forgive sin, He paid for our sins on the cross. 1st John 2:12, "I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake."

1st John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." God doesn't forgive you when you ask Him to forgive you, He forgiveness you when you place you trust in His only begotten Son.

Forgiveness of sins is a free gift, that you simply receive BY FAITH. 2nd Peter 2:1, " But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction." Jesus bought even false prophets!

Christ died for all humanity, because all have sinned...

Romans 5:6-9, "

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

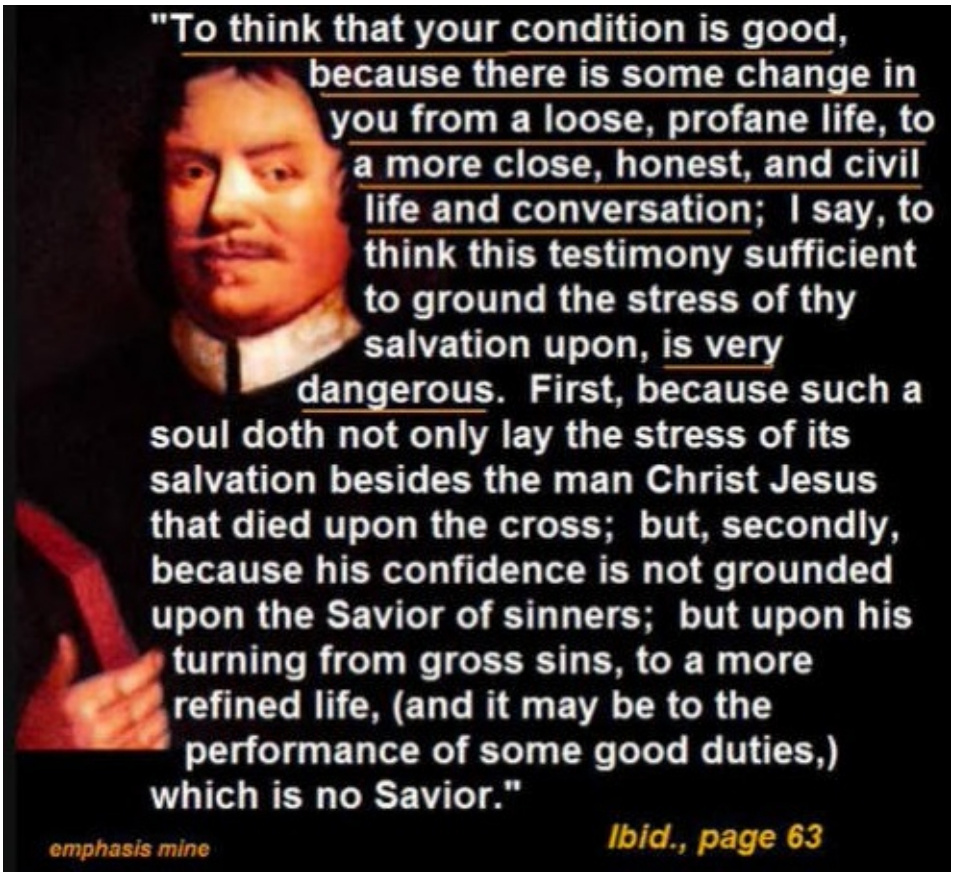
Bible repentance is a change of mind. Mark 1:15 proclaims, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." Notice here that repentance led to believing the Gospel. No mention is made about making a commitment to Christ, surrendering all to Him, nor of forsaking one's sinful bad habits to be saved. The object of repentance is not turning from sins (which would be reformation), it is believing the Gospel (which produces the miracle of regeneration. Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.

[8]



"To think that your condition is good, because there is some change in you from a loose, profane life, to a more close, honest, and civil life and conversation; I say, to think this testimony sufficient to ground the stress of thy salvation upon, is very dangerous. First, because such a soul doth not only lay the stress of its salvation besides the man Christ Jesus that died upon the cross; but, secondly, because his confidence is not grounded upon the Savior of sinners; but upon his turning from gross sins, to a more refined life, (and it may be to the performance of some good duties,) which is no Savior."

THE GOLDEN TICKET
BELIEVE THAT CHRIST DIED FOR OUR SINS
WAS BURIED AND ROSE AGAIN THE THIRD DAY ACCORDING TO THE SCRIPTURES
"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

1.5.7 Seek Ye First The Kingdom Of God And His Righteousness (2020-09-04 17:04)

This is one of my favorite Bible verses. I had memorized the verse and was familiar with it for many years, before I finally actually understood the beauty of this Scripture. Matthew 6:33 is referring to God's imputed righteousness. To seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness are one and the same. That is, the way you seek the Kingdom of God is to submit to God's righteousness, through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" Dear reader, do you see anything about turning from your sins mentioned here? I don't! I see that we enter into God's Kingdom BY FAITH!

Please consider Romans 10:2-4, " For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Christ Himself is the end of the law, to them that BELIEVE. Again, there is no mention of repenting of your sins to be saved. So why do most Baptist churches and Bible colleges today require people to epent of your sins

to be saved? Clearly, they have been deceived by the Devil.

I'm sadly talking about Maranatha Baptist University in Wisconsin. I'm talking about Bob Jones University in South Carolina. I'm talking about Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Iowa. I'm talking about Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago and their popular 'Unshackled' radio program. I'm talking about the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I'm talking about Ray Comfort, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, John Piper,

Paul Washer and thousands more demonic false prophets, who are accursed by God for perverting the grace of God (Galatians 1:6-9). These men and institutions are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil, by adding turning away from your sins to the Gospel, which is a counterfeit plan of salvation!

I love this Bible truth! Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." I love that phrase...

HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS

!!! We are saved by God's imputed righteousness. That means God literally credits Jesus' righteousness to you by faith:

> Romans 4:1-8, " What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
>
> For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin."

The beautiful passage I just quoted to you is so abundantly clear! We are saved by faith alone, which God counts for righteousness. That means I don't need any righteousness (i.e., I don't have to turn from my sins) to be saved, and a good thing, because no one has ever turned away from all their sins. How ludicrous, non-scriptural and silly it is to tell a man that he must " repent of his sins

to be saved, when the Bible simply says to believe.

It is a most unpleasant experience when contending with one of these Lordship Salvation people. When you confront them, they'll immediately try to defend themselves by saying:

"Well don't you believe a person needs to repent to be saved. The Bible says you must repent!" And they'll use that lame cover-up as justification for telling people that to be saved they must turn away from a lifestyle of sin, which is not what Bible repentance is at all, that is reformation! Penitence is feeling sorry for your sins. Penance is trying to amend for your sins. Reformation is turning from your sins.

Judas did all these things (Matthew 27:3-5), but he still went to Hell forever in his sins, unforgiven. That should be enough warning for anyone reading this, to forsake the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and instead embrace the Gospel of free grace, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ.

Yes, we must repent to be saved, but it is automatically included with one who believes—a simple change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21). Repentance is the acknowledgment of the truth that I am a guilty sinner in need of redemption (Romans 3:19-20), which facilitates believing the truth of the Gospel (2nd Timothy 2:25; Mark 1:15). Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." If you want to go to Heaven and have eternal life, then seek HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! You don't have to seek any further than John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

Pastor Curtis Hutson said: "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." What a helpful statement! That one truth dear friend would resolve the debate over Lordship Salvation overnight, if people would simply follow the clear teachings of God's Word, instead of fabricating strange doctrines based upon a small handful of wrestled Scripture passages, improperly interpreted. Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." You need [1]HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS!!! Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) had it 100 % right...

1.5.8 The Awesome Blessed Indwelling Holy Spirit (2020-09-05 09:30)

1st John 3:23-24, "And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us*.

Carefully notice two things above. First, the evidence that we are saved is the presence of God’s indwelling Holy Spirit. Second, the evidence that we are abiding in God is that we keep His Commandments. Don’t confuse the two! If you’re saved, God abides in you; if your right with God, you are abiding in Him. That explains the Epistle of 1st John in a nutshell. I do not believe in the Calvinist false doctrine of the perseverance of the saints. I believe in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit in every believer. That is, we may not faithfully abide in God, but if we are saved He will faithfully abide in us. That is the eternal security of eternal life!

I am so happy to write this article, because I love the Holy Spirit. I want to teach you about Him in this article. Who is the Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit is God with us. I don’t like when theologians call the Holy Spirit the “third” member of the Godhead. I don’t like when they call Jesus the “second” person of the Godhead (or Trinity). Those terms do not appear in the Bible. There is one God (Deuteronomy 6:4), Who exists in the three Persons of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit). Sometimes the Holy Spirit is called the Holy “Ghost,” which simply means Spirit. John 19:30, “ When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

The Holy Spirit is called our “Comforter.” The Lord promised that He would not leave us comfortless in life. Jesus promised that He would send The Comforter, which is the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit. John 14:16, “

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

” John 14:18, “

I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

” John 14:26, “

But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

” Cults are started by unsaved people who attempt to teach the Bible, who do not have the indwelling Holy Spirit of God in them. God is the divine Author of the Holy Bible, and if we are to correctly understand it, we need the presence of the Holy Spirit to teach us (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

God promises in Hebrews 13:5 to never leave nor forsake us. There are [1]5 double negatives in this single Bible verse from the Lord, assuring us that He will never abandon us. Our family may betray and forsake us, as mine did.

Our spouse may abandon and divorce us, as mine did.

Our friends at church may hurt us and forget about us, as mine did at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. But our blessed Redeemer promises to NEVER leave nor forsake us!!! Hebrews 13:5, “ Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.” The Holy Spirit is a Person, just like you or me.

> "Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Conversion And Salvation" (chapter 3) from his book: "[3]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved"

The Holy Spirit is our Teacher, Who guides us into all truth. John 16:13, "

Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

" The Holy Spirit convicts us of sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). The Holy Spirit sheds God's love abroad in our heart toward every living creature.

Romans 5:5, "

And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

" The evidence that a person is saved is not performing good works, because even an unregenerate person can do that; but rather, the evidence of God's salvation is the presence of His beautiful indwelling Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24b, "

And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

The Bible teaches that the moment a person believes the Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ and is saved, they are SEALED with the Holy Spirit. I love this passage...

> Ephesians 1:12-15, "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,
>
> Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.
>
> Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, "

Oh how I wish I could reach into every person's heart who believes the heresy of Lordship Salvation, and persuade them to consider this passage. Please notice that no mention is made of repenting of one's sins to be saved. We read the precious phrases: "trusted in Christ" and "whom ye also trusted" and "ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation" and "in whom also that after ye believed" and "your faith in the Lord Jesus." There is no mention whatsoever of repenting of your sins to be saved. No one has ever been saved, who made an effort to stop sinning as part of getting saved by faith in Jesus Christ! God does not accept partial faith in Christ plus works for salvation, pardoning us on the basis of extenuating circumstances (i.e., in one's sincere ignorance). We see this truth evidenced in Matthew 7:21-23, and in Luke 13:23-24. Many people will seek to enter into Heaven someday, but the Lord said they shall not be able (Luke 13:23-24).

Understanding The Epistle Of 1st John

Many Bible students get the Epistle of 1st John very wrong. A common mistake is concluding that we must forsake our sins to prove that we are saved. Tragically, the translators of many modern Bible revisions fail to understand the Word of God, so they butcher the Scriptures to say what God did NOT say. For example:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st John 3:8-9, “He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
>
> Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God**.
>
> **”
> [emphasis added]

> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - 1st John 3:8-9, “Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God’s seed abides in him; and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born of God.” [emphasis added]

The ESV is oh so wrong! The King James Bible doesn’t teach that a believer cannot continue living in sin. As we all know, many professed Christians are living shameful lives of open sinning, living in fornication, substance abuse and covetousness. Proponents of Lordship Salvation claim that such sinners never got saved, accusing them of never having repented (i.e., turning away from their sins). That is a false gospel, which cannot produce the new birth (regeneration) in Jesus Christ! To be “

means to be born-again,

re-gened from above with God’s genes by His precious Holy Spirit (John 1:12-13).

The truth is that a genuine born-again child of God certainly CAN keep on sinning! Look at Samson, who chased women all his sinful life. Look at king Solomon, who lived a horrible life of sin, even allowing his hundreds of heathen wives to build high places to worship false gods, and sacrifice their children to them. Consider Demas, who forsook Paul’s side in the minister, because he loved this present world. The truth is that every believer continues living in sin! Who can stop sinning? The very idea that making an effort to stop sinning is necessary to receive God’s free gift of eternal life is very, very wicked. ...

> “Can a child of God be disobedient? The answer has to be ’Yes’ otherwise it is not faith alone in Christ alone.” —Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold, “[4]Lordship Salvation - Part Two”

Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold (the pastor of Calvary Community Church in Tampa, Florida) further wisely preaches:

> "'You can't tell me you can trust Christ as Savior, and then go out here and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven!' Yes, I can tell you that! That's what the Bible says. If you don't come to the conclusion, that—Yes, you can trust Christ as your Savior and live like the Devil, and still go to Heaven when you die—you don't get grace, because that is the exact truth! That is the truth! I do not have to change my life! I don't have to stop one sin! You say, 'I've never heard a preacher say that.' You just heard one! And you listen to me—I want to live as holy and as godly as I possibly can. I am now 70 years old. I've been saved for 52 years. ... the only reason I'm going to Heaven is because, 52 years ago in a little living room, I accepted Christ as my Savior." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, "[5]Calvinism And Grace Are NOT Compatible | [6]MP3"

Tragically, Bob Jones University (and hundreds more apostate institutions today) use, sell and promote the English Standard Version (ESV), which perverts 1st John 3:9 to teach that turning from sins in necessary to be saved. The Devil is smarter than anyone on this earth! That is why we must trust the inspired Word of God, yielding in obedience to the Lord (1st John 4:4). The Devil has time on his side, but we don't! We'll be dead in 30-40 years in most cases, and everyone within 100 years, but the Devil will still be here. The Satanic conspiracy to corrupt the Word of God is generational. The New World Order is generational. The corrupt modern Bible revisions are all based on the perverted Greek text of [7]Brooke Westcott (1825-1901) and Fenton Hort (1828-1892), which they presented to the world in 1881.

[8]Meet The Holy Spirit (Pastor Jack Hyles)

Every believer has been entrusted with the Gospel, to pass it on to our generation, and the next.

2nd Corinthians 5:19, "

To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

" It is through faith in the Gospel that we reconcile men to God. Romans 5:1,

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

" Again we see that we are justified BY FAITH; and not by repenting of our sins, as so many false teachers are preaching nowadays! What saith the Scripture? ...

> 2nd Timothy 1:12-14, " For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.
>
> Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

Paul committed his trust to the Lord. That is what the Bible means in Romans 10:11, "For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

” You won’t be disappointed if you trust the dear Savior. The many chief rulers who believed on Jesus were ashamed of Him, afraid to confess Him (John 12:42-43). They were saved, but hadn’t surrendered to Jesus as yet. You don’t have to receive Jesus as your Lord to be saved, only your personal Savior! Thank God for the awesome blessed Holy Spirit, Who lives inside the spirit, soul and body of every child of God (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9).

Always remember that you are:

Braver than you believe stronger than you seem smarter than you think and more loved than you know.

1.5.9 If Any Man Will Serve Jesus, He Must Follow Him (2020-09-06 02:14)

Matthew 16:24-26, “ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?” John 12:26, “If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.”

The preceding popular Scripture passage is commonly misinterpreted. [1]Sadly, even Dr. Steve Pettit (the new president of Bob Jones University since 2014), applies this passage to salvation, [2]preaching a perverted gospel that requires surrendering all to Christ as “ to be saved. That is absolutely NOT what the Bible is teaching here. Kindly said, Mr. Pettit is a false prophet who desperately needs to get saved. Like [3]Pastor John MacArthur, Dr. Pettit has been deceived by religion, preaching partial faith in Christ plus works. These men are not born-again believers, they are cunning religious teachers who sincerely masquerade as saints, deceiving hundreds of thousands of people with their theological lies.

Please look again at one of our text Bible verses from

If any man will have eternal life.

” Here’s a helpful Scripture from John 12:26, “If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.” Did you see that friend? Jesus said if any man will “SERVE ME”; He didn’t mention getting saved here. The dear Lord told us how to be saved in John 6:47, “

Oh how simple are the Scriptures, if we don’t listen to nincompoop neo-evangelical preachers and corrupted Calvinists!!! Jesus said if you desire to “SERVE ME,” then you must FOLLOW HIM! That is what Matthew 16:24-26 is about dear friend, serving the Lord, which will cost us everything! But the gift of eternal life is free. I am so sick and tired, and grieved in my soul, that most Baptist preachers today have it wrong! If you stick to the inspired King James Bible, and avoid neo-evangelical preachers and Calvinists, you won’t be deceived. Everyone is rushing to purchase Dr. John MacArthur’s Bible commentaries, and buy Evangelist Ray Comfort’s evangelizing materials, but what saith the Scripture? SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!! John 5:39, “Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

We should be diligent and objectively minded, like the Bereans in the Bible. Acts 17:11, “These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.” I have been searching the Scriptures for years, and I still cannot find the garbage taught by John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Ken Ham, John Piper, Paul Washer and Billy Graham, about turning from your sins to be saved. They are teaching manmade traditions which are not found in the inspired Word of God!!! It ain’t there folks, there be no such animal!!!

I say this all with a humble spirit and a broken heart over heresy in the churches today, for if it weren’t for the wondrous grace of God we would all be deceived. If sincere preachers who are good men, are being deceived by the Devil concerning the Gospel in these times of peace, just think how awful it will be in the future. Matthew 24:24, "For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect." Only unsaved men are deceived about Lordship Salvation, remember that! The Lordship Gospel only makes sense and resonates with the unregenerate mind. Every blood-washed saint of God fully knows that JESUS PAID IT ALL, and my only part in the new birth is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). My only part is to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for my sins. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! I love you with God's unconditional love, whoever you may be. Thank you for reading this. Heaven is totally free if you want it, a gift.

If you David J. Stewart, know the Bible especially The KJV why then do you go all out on preaching against homosexuality if you know with all your biblical understanding that Jesus paid it all on the cross for all humanity including the sin of homosexuality? Maybe I'm wrong, maybe Christ only died for ht heterosexual? Are you a double standard man?

1.5.10 What Does "Ordained To Eternal Life" Mean? (2020-09-07 09:30)

Acts 13:46-48, " Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you [the Jews]: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed."

I found this commentary by F.B. Meyer (1847-1929), a famous Baptist pastor in England, who offers this helpful commentary on our passage from Acts 13:48...

> Acts 13:38-52
>
> JEWS REJECT, GENTILES ACCEPT, THE GOSPEL
>
> The doctrine of justification by faith, so closely associated with the work of Paul, is here stated for the first time. In Jesus there is forgiveness. For those who trust in Him, past sins are absolutely put away, never to be named again, never to be brought up at any future judgment day. Our record is as clear as the sand which has been swept smooth by the ocean waves. We are not only forgiven, but justified. We are treated as though we had never sinned, and are justified from all things. It is a present fact. You may not feel justified or forgiven, but if you are trusting in Jesus, you are at this moment as certainly and as fully justified as have been the saints in heaven.
>
> Pride, as well as jealousy of the Gentiles who were crowding into the fold, stirred the Jews to antagonism, but they could not eradicate the seed which had been so profusely scattered. Large numbers believed, and as they experienced salvation > in Christ, they discovered that they were in line with an eternal purpose. This is the meaning of ordained in Acts 13:48. If with such slight opportunities, the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit, Acts 13:52, should we not possess the same experience? [emphasis added] taught the Gentiles that the Jews were chosen by God to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles. The Bible says in our preceding text that the Gentiles were glad to hear this, and they glorified the Word of God, and as many as were "arranged in an orderly manner" to be saved, believed. I think that simply means that God already knows everyone who will be saved in advance.

Paul and Barnabas

Taken by itself, this verse can be wrestled to teach Calvinism, but if we look at other Scriptures, we see that the word "whosoever" is repeatedly used concerning salvation (e.g., John 3:16; Revelation 22:17). The word "whosoever" appears in the New Testament 93 times.

I found this article I wrote [1]refuting the heresy of predestination.

Pastor John MacArthur heretically teaches that God chooses who will be saved. It blows my mind that Dr. Steve Pettit and Bob Jones University bid Godspeed to Dr. MacArthur. Acts 13:48 simply means that God in His foreknowledge KNEW ahead of time, from the beginning of the world, who would be saved, but God did not choose them to be saved. I found this helpful page which shows the Greek meaning of ordained,

and shows other Scripture passages in which it is used, like Romans 13:1.

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) made this excellent statement: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” I’ve noticed that the entire world of Lordship Salvation and Calvinism is nothing more than a house of cards, built upon OBSCURE passages of Scripture taken out of context. Acts 13:48 is one of their go-to verses, which is obscure (i.e., we don’t know exactly what it means). But if we examine the rest of the Bible, then we see that God does not choose anyone to salvation. God knows in His foreknowledge who will believe, and He chooses them because they first chose Him. God predestinated them, not to salvation, but to be conformed into Christ’s image. Romans 8:29, “For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. ” The Bible is very clear, isn’t it. Men complicate things, not God.

> “If you believe only what the Devil believes, you have no more faith than the Devil!” —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, a quote from the sermon titled: “[2]The Damnable Doctrine Of The Devil”

I like something that Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold said:

Calvinism lie = They believe, because they were chosen;

The truth = We were chosen, because we believe!

1.5.11 We Should Submit To God Because We Are Saved (2020-09-08 09:30)

Romans 10:3, “For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.” James 4:7, “ Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” Amos 4:12, “ Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.”

As we see in our text passages, we are saved by submitting to God’s righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ. We don’t surrender to live for Jesus to be saved, we submit to God’s righteousness through faith in Christ. Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ” I was saddened the other day when I heard heresy on Unshackled, which is a radio program broadcast by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. The Unshackled announcer said that [1]to be saved you must " [2]follow Jesus." No Sir, that is not how you get to Heaven! You don't surrender to be saved, you surrender because you are saved.

When the Bible says to "Submit yourselves therefore to God" in James 4:7a, it is speaking to believers. One day at the Judgment Seat Of Christ, every saint will have to give account to God for our: TIME, our TALENTS, and our TREASURES. We will all be required to stand individually before the throne of judgment, and give account for the GOOD and the BAD done in the body. 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11, " For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences." Carefully notice that the Bible does not say we will be held accountable for our "sins"; but rather, for the bad and good done in the body. Jesus Christ bore the full weight of our sins upon the cross of Calvary.

Americans were horrified recently, having to relive the monstrous crimes of the Golden State Killer (Joseph James DeAngelo - born 1945), a career police officer who was sentenced in August of 2020 for committing 13 first-degree murders, 51 brutal merciless rapes and 100 home burglaries, over approximately a 12 year time span in the 1970's and 1980's. DeAngelo evaded capture for 42 years, but through DNA family genealogies on the internet, detectives were able to find him in 2018. Many people, especially victims, are frustrated that DeAngelo was able to avoid prosecution for 42 years. Many of his victims have already died.

DeAngelo will likely be dead within 10 years. The creep deserves 10,000 years in prison!

Thankfully, the Word of God assures us that justice will still be executed. No one ever gets away with sin. No one ever gets away with their crimes. The infamous Zodiac Killer has never been caught, who brutally murdered at least 7 known victims in California, bragging anonymously to police that he did it. Hebrews 4:13, "

Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do. " Hebrews 10:31, "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. "

All sin must be punished. Thankfully, Christ paid for everyone's sins on the cross. Therefore, eternal life is a free gift to anyone who wants it, but you MUST accept it by faith in Jesus. No one ever went to Heaven who knowingly rejected Jesus as their Savior. The Bible teaches that GOD's GRACE that brings salvation has appeared unto all men. ...

Titus 2:11-14, "

For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men*,

Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works."

I don't know exactly how, nor do I claim to understand it all, but I do know that everyone has some light from God. ...

Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:"

God's obligation is to give some light to every man, to draw him to the truth. John 12:32, "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

Man's obligation is to receive that truth. That is what Bible repentance is —acknowledging (changing your mind) concerning THE TRUTH!

John 3:21, " But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. " 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, " In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

Salvation is a matter of submitting to THE TRUTH—the truth that we are a guilty sinner in need of redemption (Romans 3:19-20), which compels us to believe the truth that Christ died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and physically resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation does not require turning from one's sins to be saved; but rather, turning to Jesus Christ by faith, so that He will save and cleanse us from our sins (Matthew 1:21). We are saved by being persuaded to trust in the facts of the Gospel. Anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is saved.

Every Christian is expected by God to live a righteous life. But we don't live the Christian life in our own strength. Galatians 2:19-21, "For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." We are not saved by works, but we were created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

" (Ephesians 2:10b).

1.5.12 The Non-Christian Harvest Baptist Church On Guam (2020-09-08 18:21)

Revelation 2:1-5,

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is not a true Biblical church, because they preach a perverted gospel of partial faith in Jesus Christ, plus turning from your sins, to be saved. That is not the Gospel delivered to the Apostle Paul by the Lord Jesus Christ Himself (Galatians 1:11; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The church at Ephesus had strayed away from their love for the Savior. They stopped going soulwinning. We see a lot of churches today like that, who are sitting on the premises instead of standing on the promises. Yet, the church at Ephesus couldn't stand false teachers!

The Bible says the church at Ephesus rooted out false teachers, and found them to be liars, showing them the door!!! So this was a good church that knew their doctrine well, and hated every false way, refusing to bid Godspeed to heretics! Yet, because they left off preaching the Gospel, the Lord threatened to remove their charter as a church. So many people foolishly think that a church is merely a place for believers to meet and worship, gathering around the Word and fellowshipping. That is the spiritually dead Harvest Baptist church cult on Guam! I call them a "

for good reason

—because they are following the damnable heresy of Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Sam Horn and Steve Pettit from Bob Jones University.

These wicked men are impostors in the pulpit, false teachers who masquerade as men of God. Like the church at Ephesus, we ought not tolerate their false teachings! Revelation 2:2, " I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:" Evil comes in many shapes and forms. Evil comes in the form of hundreds of English Bible revisions, which have been corrupted by the Devil. How can we know what is THE TRUTH, if we have hundreds of different Bible revisions, which all say something drastically different? I mean, is Jesus God or not in Philippians 2:6? Did Mary Magdalene not touch Jesus, or did she hold onto Him, in John 20:17? Does the Bible teach the Godhead in Romans 1:20, or the Divine Nature? Is repentance simply a change of mind in Mark 1:15 and Hebrews 6:1, or do we have to change our lives to be saved? Is it impossible for the new nature to sin in 1st John 3:9, or does it mean a Christian cannot continue living in sin? Did the Apostle Paul wish in Galatians 5:12 that false prophets would be removed from the churches of Galatia, or for them to go castrate themselves? These are just a handful of the major contradictions found in the modern Bible revisions.

Kindly said, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a hellhole of apostasy. For being their friend in 2014, and since, I have been sinfully rejected, shunned, ostracized, despised and ignored by this ungodly group on the island of Guam. Like the Apostle Paul, I wish they would go out of business, and stop polluting Micronesia with their theological filth! Like the church at Ephesus found them to be, THEY ARE LIARS!!! I am the sworn enemy of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because they are a cult that needs to be exposed and their members are deceived victims, and their ungodly pastors are arrogant fools who refuse to heed wisdom, and God's judgment is upon them all. I speak THE TRUTH!

I will never shut up! I tried to be friends with the multiple times over the years, but they are in darkness and I am in the light. God has damned their church, because it is not a true church! Harvest lost their charter a long, long time ago.

That is why Pastor Marty Herron quit, and abandoned a sinking ship, which he steered into an iceberg of Lordship Salvation in the sea of fake Bible versions. [1]Marty Herron is going straight to Hell when he dies! These are bastards of the faith. [2]Steve Pettit is going straight to Hell when he dies! Sadly, extremely few pastors care anymore. Everywhere we look nowadays, the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation has crept into the churches. That is why I say with all Biblical authority—GOD DAMN THE HARVEST BAPTIST CHURCH ON GUAM!!! If that offends you, you need to get saved. Galatians 1:6-9 calls any man “ accursed

” (damned) by God, if he perverts God’s grace. The heresy of repenting of one’s sins to be saved is damnable heresy! Harvest is preaching damnable heresy! [3]Bob Jones University is preaching damnable heresy!

If ever there was a group of fudrucking asswholes, it is the pastors and staff at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

(HBC)

Forgive me for being so blunt, but that is what they are!

Pastor Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin and Joe Hanson played God with my life in 2017. Marty Herron is a coward! They have no right to play God with people’s lives. All I begged was for a second chance to attend church, but they threw me under the bus. I liked their nurse, and she liked me, but their asswhole pastor coerced her to write a mean letter to me in 2017. I wish I had the power to put Pastor Herron into prison for a long time. Pastor Gary Walton is no better, a coward and grudge holder. I pray for God to curse those wicked men, devil’s in the pulpit! Harvest are a bunch of yuppie brats who look down on truth-tellers, like me. Their worship is neo-evangelical—a joke they call church. It’s all about making money at Harvest.

They will be held accountable to God for what they did to my family, and for their cruelty toward me all these years since 2014. God will be their judge. I love them in the Lord, but they make me sick! The one time in the Holy Bible when Jesus was angry and threw over the tables, and expressed His righteous anger, was when a group of wicked men exploited God’s work for money, like they are doing at HBC on Guam. I believe every person is important, but unless you have money and are accepted by their damn cult, you’re a nobody to them at Harvest. Shame on the Bob Jones University crowd on Guam, and their damned cult at Harvest Baptist Academy and church. They idolize [4]Dr. Steve Pettit—a devil in the pulpit.

How did these men and institutions become corrupted? The answer is simple—they use the [5]Devil’s perverted Bible versions! Corruptible seed produces false converts. Corruptible seed produces [6]a perverted plan of salvation . God damn the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam! God damn Bob Jones University! I am not taking the Lord’s name in vain, not at all, I am using the word appropriately, which God Himself uses in Galatians 1:6-9. Cursed be anyone who teaches the Devil’s lie that you must repent (turn from) your sins to be saved. God damns anybody who messes with grace! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

1.5.13 America’s Shameful Bible Colleges (2020-09-10 10:00)

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

The greatest evil of all in these woeful “perilous times” is the departure from THE TRUTH in our religious institutions. From our nation’s churches to our Bible colleges, and from our rescue missions to the very Bible revisions that we use, truth has been corrupted, forsaken and betrayed. At one time in America in 1944, Bob Jones University was the citadel of Christian fundamentalism, but today it is a cesspool of heresy, worldliness and a haven for [1]yuppie neo-evangelicals. Sadly, BJU and many of their graduates have [2]moved away from the hope of the Gospel. BJU is the biggest promoter of the Devil’s corrupt [3]English Standard Version (ESV), a bastard Bible version if ever there was one!

> “I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever.” —Thomas Jefferson, U.S. President (1801-1809).

Neo-evangelicals simply don’t care about THE TRUTH! They don’t care about morality either, following the low morals of the heathen world, allowing their female students to wear halter tops, dress pants to church, and [4]men’s shorts during sporting events to compete with the world. I mean, why even have a so-called Christian college if you’re going to pattern yourself after the world? I get sick that these Bible college presidents and vice-presidents get paid outrageous 6-digit salaries. I think it is very unethical, based in greed and not Christian principles. Bob Jones University affiliated college executives like John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Sam Horn and Steve Pettit all get paid 6-digits lucrative salaries. I think that is utterly disgusting, and worse, they all teach the Devil’s damnable lie of Lordship Salvation! Spiritual crime pays well!

Perhaps BJU should [6]seriously consider hiring Jerry Falwell's son, Jerry Falwell Jr., the now terminated president of Liberty University, who uploaded this very shameful [7]photo of himself recently with his pant's zipper down, with his arm around this Jezebel with her pant's zipper down too, who is not his wife. There is no shame anymore! We are all sinners, but carelessly displaying our sins for the world to see is even worse! The fact that these people are not married makes it utterly disgusting! This is the Executive President of one of the top Bible colleges in the United States in 2020! It is shameful. I am the biggest sinner that I know, so I am not condemning these people, God forbid. I am just showing how phony today's Bible colleges are, and that they are all about making money, and not really about serving God. They just want your money boys and girls!!!

Falwell's son will receive a whopping $10,500,000 from Liberty University for his resignation as a severance package. That is disgusting! Now he can spend all his time on rich men's yachts with bimbo whores! Falwell's son said it was only a prop? Right, and I'm Captain Kangaroo! What a stupid thing he did, shaming his father's legacy and [8]revealing what a phony Christian he really is! I am not judging, I am preaching against the Bible college hoax in America! Does anybody care? Social media is getting a lot of preachers and Bible college executives into big trouble!

Please understand that I am not condemning anyone, I am simply preaching against the disgusting apostate condition of Bible colleges in America today! Please don't waste God's money. The day you got saved, everything that you own became God's, including all your money. So when you give anything to God, you are simply letting go of what is already His. Amen!

I checked their [9]statement of faith, and Liberty University teaches the same [10]junk theology as Bob Jones University, requiring people to "repent of their sins" to be saved. You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that says to "turn from sins" or "repent of sins" to receive God's free gift. The Coronavirus pales in comparison to the infectious pandemic of Lordship Salvation, which has destroyed tens of thousands of churches! I am sick and tired of seeing Bob Jones' female students clothed just like the heathen world, wearing tight shorts while playing ball. Modesty means nothing anymore! The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is just as shameful, where the staff's daughters all wear pants. Little things matter, but modesty is no little thing!

The number one threat to churches today is Bible colleges! You heard me right. The biggest deadly threat to churches today are hiring graduates from today's apostate Bible colleges, who deny the inspiration of the King James Bible. I'm warning you about Hyles-Anderson College! [11]Since 2008 they don't teach that the King James Bible is verbally inspired anymore! I'm not kidding! You couldn't make this stuff up! Neither does Pensacola Christian College, Crown College, Faithful Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Bob Jones University or Liberty University, believe that we have an inspired King James Bible today in 2020!!! WE DO HAVE AN INSPIRED KING JAMES BIBLE!!!!!!! Satan is a master deceiver, and [12]he will always try to sneak fake Bibles, a false gospel, and false prophets into a local, Bible-believing, soulwinning, New Testament church.

Today's shallow Bible colleges are public enemy number one, whose incompetent graduates (in almost every case) preach the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. They teach that you must "[13]turn from your sins" to be saved. These ungodly pastors say that people who are still living in sin never repented, so they are not really saved. Liar, liar, pants on fire!!! The life that a believer chooses to live has absolutely NOTHING to do with the free gift of eternal life. If a professed Christian is still living in open sin, then they are no different than the Christian who hides his sins better! Don't judge others because they sin differently than you do! There is no such thing as a Christian who doesn't live in sin anymore. All we can do is try to live above reproach with Christ's strength (Galatians 2:20), but even the best Christians struggle with sin (Romans 7:14-25).

We need a revival in our churches—to break away from today's horrible apostate Bible colleges, which are producing incompetent pastors who don't preach, don't believe that the King James Bible is inspired, don't preach free grace theology, don't really care about people, and will destroy your church if you let them!!! It used to be that being a church pastor was a calling, not merely a profession. That is no longer the case sadly. That is why we see ungodly churches hiring women, homosexuals, and even atheists to be their pastors. Go search the internet if you don't believe me! Folks, right doctrine matters! Just because a fella spends a lot of money, and attends some alleged "institution of higher learning" for a few years, and has a piece of paper called a "

in his hand, doesn't mean that he is qualified to lead God's flock! It very likely means that he has been messed with theologically and cannot be trusted to teach pigs the Bible, let alone people!

I tell young people when they ask me where to attend Bible college, not to look at the college itself. I tell them to find a man of God, who is zealous about preaching the truth. I tell them to find a man of God who uses only the inspired King James Bible. And you definitely need to ask him if the King James Bible is 100 % verbally inspired by God. That means it is Word-for-Word inspired by God. Not just the thoughts, but the actual Words themselves (Psalms 119:140). I mean every Word!!! I mean the whole Word of God (we call this in theology, plenary inspiration). I believe in the verbal plenary inspiration of the King James Bible!!! That means there CANNOT be two different Bibles in any particular language! That means that the literally hundreds of modern English Bible revisions today are all corrupt and of the Devil. That means we have a perfect, infallible, inerrant, incorruptible, preserved and inspired King James Bible. Hallelujah!

1.5.14 More Damnable Heresy From Bob Jones' Graduates (2020-09-10 18:57)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

There is a website called [1]pursuingthepursuer.org, promoting the heretical articles of four Bob Jones University graduates: Caleb Phelps, Aaron Berry, Ben Hicks and Michael Conn. On their joint website, they pervert the Gospel, adding the unbiblical requirement to "

repent of our sins

to be saved. Ladies and gentleman, there is not one verse in the King James Bible that says you must repent of your sins to be saved.

The Bible simply says in Mark 1:15b to "repent ye, and believe the gospel," that is, change your mind and believe. The Bible does not say to "repent of our sins," anywhere, does it. It doesn't! What must you change your mind about? Simply, whatever has been hindering you from believing the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. That is 'the Gospel' (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

We know for a fact that repentance does not mean

"repent of our sins,

because in the entire Gospel of John the word

is not mentioned even once. The purpose for the writing of John is to get people saved. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " So wherever repentance is, it must already be included in believing, otherwise John would have written to repent AND believe. Jesus said in John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " We must not take one obscure passage of Scripture from Mark 1:15, to contradict hundreds of clear passages of Scripture.

Totally contrary to Bob Jones University and their shameful graduates today, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself was 100 % correct on the Gospel. Read carefully what Dr. Jones said in 1944, and please notice that no mention is made of repenting of your sins:

> “God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. ’He that hath the Son hath life.’ There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. ’By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast.” —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. rejected the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Where did Bob Jones College go astray? When did they move away from the hope of the Gospel? It was sometime during the presidency of Bob Jones II. [2]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. himself rightly taught that salvation is obtained only through simple faith in Jesus Christ, none of this “turn from your sins” crap that heretics’ [3]Steve Pettit, [4]John MacArthur, [5]Marty Herron, [6]Bob Jones University and Calvinists are all teaching today! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said that if he could, [7]he’d come back from Heaven and blow the college to smithereens when infidels crept in, which they certainly have!!!

I have read the entire book by Dr. Bob Jones Sr. titled: “THINGS I HAVE LEARNED” (authored in 1945), and there is nothing about “turning from sins” to be saved. The last chapter of the book is titled, “HOW ARE WE SAVED?” There is no mention of “repenting of your sins” or being “willing to turn from your sins” to receive the free gift of eternal life. The foolish Bob Jones University crowd have been [8]BEWITCHED!!! (Galatians 3:1-3). Oh foolish Bob Jonians, who hath bewitched you, that you should follow another gospel? Oh [9]foolish Harvest Baptist Church on Guam , whom I dearly love so much, who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

Yes, that is exactly why we are enemies today. I have kindly offered to make peace with them every step of the way, since 2014, but they have thrown me under the bus every time, holding onto their wicked pride and damnable heresy. I will be 100 % vindicated in eternity (Romans 3:4).

Sadly, Caleb Phelps, Aaron Berry, Ben Hicks and Michael Conn are more victims of Bob Jones University’s departure from “the faith which was once delivered unto the saints” (Jude 1:3b). Again, there is absolutely nothing in the Holy Bible that teaches to “repent of our sins” to be saved, unless you are using one of the Devil’s modern revisions! In Luke 13:5b Jesus said: “except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” This is one of the go-to verses used by BJU, Jack Chick, Ray Comfort and other proponents of Lordship Salvation. Carefully notice that Jesus didn’t say to “repent of our sins,” did He. You see, corrupted religious men have ADDED something to God’s grace, thus perverting grace.

Telling someone that they must “repent of our sins” to be saved sounds religious. It makes sense to the unregenerate mind. It effectively motivates people to try not to sin. But it sends people to Hell, because this is not the new birth, it is human reformation. May I remind you that Judas experienced penitence (sorrow for sins), penance (he returned the 30 pieces of silver), and reformation (he was a changed man), but he went to Hell forever without Jesus Christ. Kindly said, Caleb Phelps, Aaron Berry, Ben Hicks and Michael Conn don't know what they are doing theologically, wrestling the Scriptures to their own destruction, and those who follow them (2nd Peter 3:16-17). It may seem like a subtle addition to the Gospel, but even the tiniest addition of human effort totally negates God's grace, perverting the Gospel. The requirement to "repent of our sins" presents an entirely different mindset in the adherent, than does the free grace Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Caleb Phelps, Aaron Berry, Ben Hicks and Michael Conn need to repent themselves of their false plan of salvation, or else they will spend eternity burning in the Lake of Fire. If you do the research, you will find that every pseudo-Christian cult defines repentance as turning away from your sins. But that is not the Biblical Greek meaning. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) gets repentance 100 % correct:

> In Luke 13:5 Jesus said, "I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." The context of this verse shows that they needed to repent or change their mind regarding punishment and sin. In this passage, Christ was talking to good people who believed that people suffered only because of their sins, and they concluded that those in Galilee whose blood Pilate mingled with sacrifices and those on whom the tower of Siloam fell were greater sinners because they died such horrible deaths. Jesus contradicts the thinking of these self-righteous people and tells them that they need to repent or change their mind and see themselves as sinners, too, or they will perish in their own self-righteousness. One does not have to know the Greek language to see that "repent" in this passage does not mean feeling sorry for or turning from sin.
> SOURCE: Pastor Curtis Hutson, an excerpt from his helpful booklet titled: '[10]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?'

The reason why America is going to Hell is because churches have been trained to hire graduates of Bible colleges. These damned Bible colleges cannot even get the Gospel right, because they cannot get the Bible right, because their hearts are not right with God. Bob Jones University in 2020 is a cesspool of iniquity—who promote multiple corrupt Bible revisions, and bid Godspeed to infidels like Dr. Steve Pettit and Pastor John MacArthur, and preach a perverse false gospel of Lordship Salvation. SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY AND THEIR HERETICAL GRADUATES!!! Like cockroaches, infidels have crept into the college. Steve Pettit is nothing but a slick used car religious salesman in the pulpit, [11]teaching the same damnable heresy as Seventh-Day Adventist prophetess' Ellen G. White!

Tragically, Bob Jones University is doing incalculable damage today to the churches. BJU is training thousands of impressionable students, to go out and preach a false gospel of Lordship Salvation. This is not Bible Christianity! No one sings as well, and dresses as nice, and talks as religious, as the unsaved Churches of Christ, who are not saved. Seventh-Day Adventists are nice people too, and prominent on good health, but are as lost as can be. Unsaved Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics and Mormons all teach that you must turn from your sins to be saved, just like John MacArthur, Dr. Steve Pettit, Ray Comfort and Marty Herron. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil.

Our churches are filled with tares today, many of them from Bob Jones University, because they have changed the Gospel of free grace into a nightmare, telling people that they cannot have God's free gift of eternal life unless they are willing to turn from their sins. Even if they try to gentle the blow with the less clear statement, "repent of your sins," it is still not found in the Bible. It is a perversion of grace.

1.5.15 The Lying Deception Of Lordship Salvation (2020-09-11 13:59)

Romans 11:5-6, “

Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

We live in a nation of liars and deceivers. A common deception is so-called “free” dating websites. Many dating websites lure you in by advertising “open a free account,” but then require you to pay with a credit card to actually email someone you like. That is a horribly deceptive lie! Another common scam is so-called software online. Companies advertise a “free download,” but then when you actually go to open the program (after going through the trouble to install it on your computer), then they require you to pay money with a credit card to actually use the software. That is a horrible lying deception! Something that is truly free must absolutely be and remain free in every way, or it is not free at all.

“free”

And sadly, one of the biggest scams today is Lordship Salvation. Teachers of this damnable heresy advertise upfront that salvation is only by God’s grace, which cannot be merited or earned. They say that eternal life is a gift, and that it is only received by God’s grace. But then, just like the dishonest dating websites and dishonest software sellers, they change the terms of the agreement and require payment from you! This is how the Devil operates! This is Satan’s M.O. (his method of operation). John 8:44-45, “Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.” The Devil is a beautiful liar!

The Devil came to Eve in the form of a serpent in the Garden of Eden. He advertised that she could become equal with God for free, just by disobeying Him. Eve signed up for Satan’s deal, just like millions of victims sign up for a “free” dating profile, or download some advertised “free” software. But then payment became due, and Eve found out that the serpent’s “free” deal ended up costing her everything! She lost paradise and eternal life! Oh how the Devil is a beautiful liar! Satan shows us the bright neon lights of Sin City, but he doesn’t take us to the cemeteries, morgues, courts, hospitals, collection agencies and rehabilitation centers. Sin fascinates and then it assassinates! Sin thrills and then it kills!

The proponents of Lordship Salvation are lying deceivers—just like the lying Devil, the shady dating companies, and the unethical software schemers. Teachers of Lordship Salvation advertise that God’s grace is “ free,

but then by the time they end their pitch, you’re required to forsake your sins, surrender all to Christ, and turn your life over to follow Him. They lied to you! That is exactly why God put Romans 11:6 into the Bible.

Romans 11:6, “

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

” Salvation absolutely CANNOT be by grace if it requires works.

A common lie told today is that telling someone to “repent of sin is not a work. But it sure is a work! If you must be willing to turn away from your past sinful ways to be saved, then eternal life cannot be free, can it? No it cannot, because you have to use your payment card! Romans 11:6 makes this adamantly clear. You don’t change your life to get saved, you let God save you by faith, and then He gives you His indwelling Holy Spirit, Who begins to work within you. The purpose of God’s law is to show humanity our sins, but not to convince us to attempt to turn from them to be saved (Romans 3:19-20). The unbiblical requirement to “repent of your sins,

is effectively trying to keep the law to get saved. This heresy has absolutely infected our [1]Bible colleges , [2]churches and [3]rescue missions today .

1.5.16 There Is No Condemnation For Any Christian (2020-09-12 09:30)

Romans 8:33-37, “

Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God’s elect? It is God that justifieth.

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

This is one of my favorite passages of Scripture! There is no condemnation for any Christian believer. Romans 8:34 is a powerful Scripture, which is packed full of doctrine. In this one verse we see Christ’s death, burial and resurrection, and His ascension into Heaven, where He is seated on the Father’s right hand, interceding on behalf of every saint as our High Priest. Hebrews 4:14, “Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. ” Amen, Jesus is our High Priest, Who ever liveth to make intercession for the saints.

Hebrews 7:25, “ Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.” We come to Christ for salvation, and we follow after Christ for service. When you’re talking about salvation, you’re talking about receiving, not giving. Eternal life is a free gift!

"Can a child of God be disobedient? The answer has to be 'Yes' otherwise it is not faith alone in Christ alone." —Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold

I hear corrupt preachers saying that if a professed Christian is still living in sin, that they didn't get the same grace they got. Such horrible preachers pervert grace, requiring people to live above reproach to prove they are really saved. The truth is that even the best Christians still commit sin every day. You may succeed at living above reproach, but no one can succeed at living above sin (Romans 7:14-25). Romans 8:34, " Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? " This is a rhetorical question? The implied answer is clearly, "No," because Jesus Christ died for our sins on the cross, paying the price with His precious blood. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." Jesus paid a debt that He did not owe, because we owed a debt of sin we could not pay.

Jesus is the Author of eternal salvation. It could not be eternal if it was not perfect. Only that which is perfect is eternal!!! Hebrews 5:8-9, " Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;" You can be justified because Jesus paid for your sins on the cross. When you make the Jesus of your life to be saved, you are attempting to pay for your own sins. You cannot get to Heaven that way, because it is a counterfeit gospel. Either Jesus paid it all, or you don't go!

Lord

Salvation is a matter of you completely RESTING in Christ's finished work of redemption, and not you exerting effort to clean up your life of sin. What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 4:10-11,

"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. ” I am astonished when I hear deceived preachers saying that adding turning away from sins

to be saved is not considered

works.

” Are you kidding me? I heard [1]Pastor Charles Lawson say that garbage. I heard [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) say that garbage. These are unsaved reprobates in the pulpit, who sow tares among the wheat, preaching a false gospel of Lordship Salvation.

Turning away from sinful behavior is absolutely a WORK! God offers His free gift of eternal life only to those who cease from all their works, as God ceased from His labors on the seventh day of creation. That is exactly what is meant in Hebrews 6:1-2, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.” A man repents

from his DEAD WORKS, placing his faith in God to do His will to be saved

. John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

” Dead works include both good and bad works alike. We are not saved by works! Salvation is not me meaning business, it is God meaning business. God promises **“

to save them that believe

(1st Corinthians 1:21b).

The entire purpose of the Old Testament Sabbath Day was to picture salvation in Christ alone by faith. That is so simple! On the seventh day God completely rested. God did no work at all on the Sabbath. His work was DONE! Yet these wicked preachers today—like Rick Warren, [3]Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, R.C. Sproul, Charles Lawson, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, Beth Moore, Paul Washer, John Piper, [4]Marty Herron, [5]Ray Comfort and [6]John MacArthur, to name but a few—errantly teach that to be saved you MUST "repent of your sin," meaning that you MUST " turn from your sinful behavior.

" How is that resting in Christ? Jesus died on the cross to pay our debt, so that we wouldn't have to in Hell burning forever.

For these corrupters of grace to say that turning from sin is not a work, would be equally as ridiculous if I told you that the birthday gift I just gave you is indeed free, but to keep it you must make an effort to keep your room clean from now on. Would that genuinely be a gift? No, it would then become a reward for keeping your room clean. Using their faulty reasoning, we could contend that a person who is blessed to receive a free gift, if they are truly sincere, will show their gratitude by making an effort to please you, the giver. Likewise, these corrupters of grace say that if a person is really saved, then we will see a change in their life and behavior. Somewhere along the way these dear folks lost sight of the truth that eternal life is a gift. In fact, the Bible even uses the phrase " free gift

" multiple times in Romans 5:15-18.

1.5.17 I Feel Like I'll Never Be Right With God (2020-09-12 09:30)

Romans 4:3-7,

“

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Many people feel like living right as a Christian is hopeless. They struggle with condemning thoughts. They feel that no matter how hard they try, they cannot please God enough, because they fail again and again to live above sin. The truth is that every Christian feels that way sometimes. I feel like I’m a horrible Christian all the time. That is how we should feel. Since God is perfectly holy, it is normal that we (who are sinners by nature and by choice) should feel unholy in His presence. The Apostle Paul felt like a bad Christian, calling himself "wretched" (Romans 7:14-25). We are all wretched sinners. The difference is that we’re all either saved or unsaved. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful sermon called: "[1]HOW TO BE RIGHT WITH GOD."

When we got saved, we were made right with God by the blood of Jesus. That is being right with God POSITIONALLY. Our position in God’s family as His redeemed child was forever settled the day we got saved. That is very important to understand. So no matter how bad of a Christian we may be, or feel, we KNOW that in God’s sight we are just as holy, perfect and sinless as Jesus Himself, because our sins were forgiven and cleansed away judicially at the moment of salvation. I love the Word “imputed,” which means that God credits Jesus’ righteousness to us by faith the second we are saved.

Romans 4:3-7 (our text passage above) is one of my favorite Scripture passages, which you should mark in your Bible and commit to memory, so it will always be with you everywhere you go. This is the truth that the Lordship Salvation crowd do not understand, for if they did they’d never teach that someone must “ repent of their sins

to be saved. The Bible says that a person’s FAITH is counted (imputed) for righteousness, so that we don’t need to perform any righteous acts, nor to turn away from sins, to be saved.

These are self-righteous works, which cancel grace. We are saved by God’s grace and mercy through faith in Jesus’ death on the cross, burial, and bodily resurrection three days later. That is the

Gospel,

or the

“

Good News,

by which we are saved if we simply believe it with childlike faith (1st Corinthians 15:1-6; Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

Another one of my favorite passages of Scripture is:

> Philippians 3:7-9, "But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

That is so beautiful of a truth. We are not saved by our own righteousness, but by God’s righteousness. The Bible says to BE FOUND IN HIM, CHRIST! This proves that repenting (turning away) from sins is not part of God’s plan of salvation. Repentance is simple "a change of mind," realizing that we are guilty for breaking God’s commandments in the Bible, and in need of redemption (Romans 3:19-20).

Galatians 3:24-26 teaches that the LAW in the Old Testament is our teacher, showing us our sinnership. And then the law brings us to CHRIST in the New Testament, to be saved by God’s free grace, which Jesus made possible through His shed blood on the cross.

Colossians 1:20, "And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven." God divided His Word into two parts: LAW and CHRIST, or respectively, LAW and GRACE. That is God's plan of salvation. Dr. Law shows us that we have terminal cancer, called sin; but then sends us to Dr. Grace (Jesus) to be healed, cleansed of all our sins by faith in His blood that He shed on the cross (1st John 1:7). Some people wrangle over whether we should trust the name of Jesus, or actually trust in His death, burial and resurrection, or should we trust in His blood. They are all one and the same. We trust the name of Jesus because of what He did on the cross to pay for our sins.

We trust in the Good News of Christ's death, burial and resurrection, because Jesus did these things for us. So there is no way to separate all these things, they all go together.

No matter how much of a failure you may feel like as a Christian, remember that God's imputed righteousness to you (salvation), has absolutely NOTHING to do with how you choose to live here on earth (service). Our righteousness is based upon God's imputed righteousness, which is by faith alone, which we saw in Philippians 3:9. Also, Romans 10:3-4 teaches this great truth! So that is your POSITION in Christ, not your CONDITION.

Jesus said except a man receives the Kingdom of God, as a little child, he shall in no wise enter in. Children are humble, trusting and innocent. Adults are all messed up. Luke 18:17, "Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein."

Getting saved is a matter of humility, humbling ourselves at Jesus' feet to rely only upon Him to save us. Kindly said, many Jews and rich people are sinfully proud, so they refuse to humble themselves to trust Jesus. I have received some emails from people, saying that Jews will never accept the name of Jesus, so we have to use instead to get them saved (which is an Old Testament term). That is a Devil's lie. Acts 4:10-12 says that salvation is NOT found in any other name, than the precious name of Jesus of Nazareth. I will never call the blessed Savior

Yeshua

Yeshua,

" because the angel announced to Joseph in a dream that the only begotten Son of God's name is "JESUS" (Matthew 1:21). If Jews are too proud to trust in the name of a humble carpenter from Nazareth, then they don't get God's grace! 1st Peter 2:5-7 says to those who believe, the name of "

Jesus

is precious! That’s why I made my website called: JESUS IS PRECIOUS.ORG!!! I like that name.

I have battled depression for the past 14 years, since my wife divorced me in 2006. I have lived alone, not by choice, but simply because I’ve not been able to find a woman to date and hopefully marry. Guam is a small island, with few activities, and it’s difficult to meet people here, especially for a fundamentalist Bible-believing Christian. I tried to move away in 2013, but it turned into a big disaster, and I came back broken and worn out in body and soul. It is a big burden for me to live each day alone, getting older each year, and seeing my life feeling so empty. My website ministry is the silver lining that keeps me going. We each suffer in different ways, and this is my burden.

The Harvest Baptist Church has cruelly turned me away, in 2014, 2017 and since, ostracizing and rejecting me because as a true friend I tried to help them, showing them THE TRUTH. They are using Devil’s Bibles! Harvest is of the Devil. Bob Jones University is of the Devil. They are preaching the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. I tried to help them, but they are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. God will punish them in Hell, as He did the religious phonies in Matthew 7:21-23, who said, “LORD, LORD” (there’s your Lordship Salvation right there, which the Bible condemns) and Gary Walton, who are wolves in sheep’s clothing in the pulpit today. I am preaching THE TRUTH! If you don’t have a King James Bible, you don’t have an inspired Holy Bible! If you think that anything more is required to be saved than simple childlike faith, then you are not a child of God.

. And those wicked people include ungodly ministers’ Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hanson

Plus I suffer with constant chronic neck pain, which I’ve had since 2004 and get disability. The disability is a blessing, God willing. One day at a time. I am now 53. If I live to see it, I’ll be 70 in a skip and a heartbeat. I have so much pain in my past, and in my soul, but if God can use all that to help others in Christ, then I am glad to suffer and be of use to my great Savior. I am so unworthy. I feel like Jacob who said in Genesis 32:10, "I am not worthy of the least of all the mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands." God is always good.

Here’s another sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles, which is helpful, called: “ [2]GETTING HALF RIGHT WITH GOD .

Falling down is a part of the Christian life. Proverbs 24:16, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief." The unsaved person wilfully lives in sins and doesn’t even try to please God, but the child of God struggles, desiring to please God, but we get our priorities wrong and serve the flesh instead. Proverbs 14:14 says that "the backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways." We all try and fail, try and fail, and try and fail, as born-again Christians. There is no such thing as a Christian who has achieved sinlessness. We may attain living above reproach (so that others do not see our sins), but NO ONE has ever attained living above sin, except the sinless Lamb of God, Jesus (John 1:29; Hebrews 4:15).

This is our CONDITION in Christ. Our POSITION was forever settled the moment we got saved, and nothing can change that, thankfully.

No one can condemn a believer, even if they are rotting in prison behind bars the rest of their life for a crime (Romans 8:34). The believer’s sins are gone. The Bible says God separates our sins from us as far as the east is from the west. Psalms 103:12, "As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us." That is because you can get on an airplane and fly east forever, but there will never come a time when you find west. Likewise, you can go east forever, and you’ll never find west. But you can only go to the north pole, and then you’ll be going south again. That is eternal security!!! These false teachers, like Pastor Phil Kidd, who say that if you’re still living in sin you’re not saved, are grace corrupters! Once saved, always saved, our POSITION in Christ is settled permanently. Now we need to focus on our CONDITION in Christ, which is up to us to submit to the Word of God and the indwelling Holy Spirit. This is discipleship.

Salvation is 100 % dependent on God’s faithfulness to keep His promise to save them that believe (Titus 1:2; 1st Corinthians 1:21; John 6:47); but discipleship is based 100 % upon our faithfulness to obey God (Romans 12:1-2). Titus 2:12 says we "SHOULD" live godly in Christ Jesus, not must or will. God wants us to live right, but we will fail, fall and sin wilfully at times. All God expects of us is what Jesus told the adulterous woman in John chapter 8... "Go and sin no more!" He didn’t mean that she would never sin again, but that she should try not to. This has nothing to do with salvation, which is solely of God.

One of my favorite Bible passages is found in Hebrews 4:10-11, which teaches that we get saved by RESTING in Jesus. Just as God ceased from His creative works on the seventh day, so also must we cease from our own self-righteousness, and rest completely in what Jesus did on the cross to pay for our sins. Salvation is so free, easy and simple when we accept these precious passages of Scripture at face value, not reading into them what the Bible does not teach. People who teach Lordship Salvation are guilty of reading into the Scriptures when God did not say.

1.5.18 Search The Scriptures For Assurance Of Salvation (2020-09-13 10:00)

John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. "

Our assurance of salvation is not based upon feelings, appearances or what men say; our assurance that we have eternal life comes solely from the written Word of God. Eternal security is the believer's eternal life! They are one and the same. Assurance of Salvation is having the confidence that you have eternal life. So they are not the same thing. Many believers have eternal security (eternal life), but they wallow in fear, uncertainty and fear, not knowing that they are saved. I got saved at age 13. I had eternal security. Yet, I worried for the next seven years. I couldn't find the assurance that I was saved.

I later wrote this book about it to help others, titled: "[1]SALVATION." Something that bothers me is web visitors who continually ask me questions about assurance of salvation, but they won't read my book. I run into this problem all the time with people, and it frustrates me. I recently sent Pastor Jack Hyles' awesome book, "[2]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved," to a man with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD), but he refused to read it for some reason. I think it is because some people refuse to take God at His Word. What they want is for me, a man, to give them the assurance that they are saved. So every time they have a doubt and worry, they look to me with their questions.

When I realized that some people were doing that to me, I started confronting them about it, simply because I had been enabling them. I am not God. I cannot save anyone. My words are only that of a mere mortal man, a sinner saved by God's grace. I tell them that they need to do as the Lord commanded in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. ” I am always willing to answer people’s questions, but for their sake I try to encourage them to get into the Word of God, and to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES when they have fears, doubts and worries. That is the only way anyone will ever obtain the assurance of God’s salvation.

Praise God, I know that I am saved at age 53, and I haven’t doubted in over 30 years, because I SOLELY LOOK TO THE SCRIPTURES!!! So many people today are utterly confused about salvation, because they listen to these false prophets like Dr. John MacArthur and Joel Osteen, who lead them astray with Lordship Salvation. It is okay to listen to preachers and read books authored by men, but when it comes down to the final and only authority, you must base your assurance of eternal life upon God’s inspired Words. I cannot assure you that you are going to Heaven someday. I can teach you what the inspired Word of God says, but you have to take God at His Word. SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!

It is a matter of faith. Jesus said in Mark 11:22b, “Have faith in God.” That is why the Roman Catholic church is so popular, because it doesn’t require any faith, everything is touch, taste and visible to the human eye. Hebrews 11:6, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

1.5.19 “Soulwinning” Is A Biblical Term, And We Ought To Do It! (2020-09-14 02:01)

Proverbs 11:30, “

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

I have been in numerous Baptist churches where the word “soulwinning” is shunned as a bad word. In one church on Guam, an older lady scolded a younger woman in the church for saying: “I’d like to go soulwinning with the church.” The older woman rebuked her, saying: “Only God can save souls. We don’t go soulwinning, we just go witnessing.” That woman is wrong! Although it is true that only God can save souls (1st Corinthians 3:8), when we go witnessing we are winning souls. There is nothing wrong with the term “soulwinning,” nothing at all. Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”

I get frustrated when critical people micro-analyze everything. They split hairs to the point that it causes confusion. It is good to be objective in our thinking, testing everything against the Word of God (1st John 4:1). I encourage believers to think objectively. However, you can become a nuisance in the Body of Christ, if you attempt to micro-analyze everything, and you don’t know what you are doing. We calls them “ on the internet. For example: A woman emailed me a few years ago, rebuking me for teaching that we should

trolls

Jesus as our personal Savior. She said that the Bible doesn’t teach this. She is very wrong. What saith the Scripture? John 1:12, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

” I have learned to always make sure that I have a Scripture passage to back up what I teach. Let them argue with God.

Kindly, when I attended the now spiritually defunct Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, for a year in 2014, I learned quickly that the term “

soulwinning

is not used in their church. There was no soulwinning program. For that reason it didn’t surprise me that a church of 500 members only water baptized four people every 6 months. What a shame! There’s nothing worse than a lifeless church.

Jeremiah 12:10, “ Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.” It is sad when pastors, who are supposed to preserve the vineyard, destroy it! You’d think that that abortionists, drunkards and homosexuals would be the one’s destroying the vineyard, but the Bible says the pastors were the vineyard killers!

A godly soulwinning pastor ought to make a church a vineyard.

John 15:5, “ I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.” Woe unto destructive neo-evangelical pastors! Extremely few pastors nowadays are soulwinners. Pastor Jack Hyles preaches a wonderful sermon titled:

[1]MANY PASTORS HAVE DESTROYED MY VINEYARD

” (MP3). I encourage you to listen to Dr. Hyles. A soulwinning church is a vineyard that brings forth fruit, but to neo-evangelicals it is a forest preserve or flower garden.

The church’s job is to bring forth fruit, not be a place where saints gather to worship God on Sunday morning. Not one verse in the Bible speaks of a public worship service. I triple-dog dare you to show it to me. Worship is supposed to be between you and your God on a personal basis. The church is a vineyard. If anybody ought to be making a church into a vineyard, it is the pastor. The average church has deteriorated because the pulpit let it do so, because today’s Bible colleges are apostate! I’m talking about Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (cemetery)! We’ve got a bunch of lifeless flower garden churches today, instead of soulwinning vineyards, because of lifeless Bible colleges who train the pastors. Is anybody listening? Does anybody care? The Bible teaches SOULWINNING!!! Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.”

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980)

All around the world people are dying for soulwinning churches. The biggest enemy of soulwinning is formalism! I am not against expository type preaching, but sometimes a pastor needs to PREACH a topical sermon!!! The average Baptist church pastor today doesn't preach on the topic of Hell once in a year!!! Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) rightly said that the great need of the hour is preaching preachers!!! Someone needs to destroy worship services all across America! The pastors, not the deacons or members, destroyed the vineyards! Woe unto the pastors!!!

1.5.20 The Gospel Is Not A Journey, It Is A New Birth (2020-09-15 00:13)

1st Peter 1:23, "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever*.

There is a false teaching going around in many neo-evangelical churches today, calling the Gospel "a journey." The shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam promotes this garbage on their website. They advertise: "

Join us on a Gospel journey!

" You won't find that terminology anywhere in the Word of God. The Gospel is not a journey dear friend, it is a new birth in Christ Jesus. Our text passage from 1st Peter 1:23b says,

Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. " The new birth is instantaneous and does not require continued repentance, nor faithfully running the race, nor enduring to the end, nor turning from your sins, nor anything else! It is a free gift!!! Getting saved is a spiritual birth, not a journey.

Also dear reader, you cannot be born-again from corruptible seed, as you just read. Harvest Baptist Church is saturated with the Devil's modern corrupt Bible versions. They are a house divided, which the Lord said cannot stand (Matthew 12:25). There is not a more shameful institution in America today than Bob Jones University. I am shocked that the owners of the college brought in a [1]damnable heretic like Evangelist Steve Pettit, who is hardcore Lordship Salvation and a big fan of Pastor John MacArthur. The Devil didn't have to creep into BJU, they invited him right through the front door with honors. This is exactly what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. warned would happen in 1944:

> "He [Jude] said, well it was 'needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.'
> Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!

You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [2]YouTube | [3]MP4 | [4]MP3

BJU is paying a 6-digit lucrative salary to Steve Pettit, so he can [5]promote the heresy that the Gospel is a journey. Dr. Pettit does not understand the new birth. He is naive of the Gospel. Any man who preaches that childlike faith in Jesus Christ is insufficient to save someone is a liar!!! Steve Pettit doesn't believe in an instantaneous new birth! Read what he said:

"You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added[—Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 11:34)

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would have shown Steve Pettit the door! Get out you infidel and don't come back!

We are at war ladies and gentleman with neo-evangelicals today. We are at war over the inspiration of the Bible. We are at war over the meaning of the Gospel. We are at war over the meaning of repentance. We are at war over Biblical separation. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows I am 100 % sincere in my ministry. I am a loving, generous and kind person, despite my lack of patience. I thank God that I know THE TRUTH! [6]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather see his college reduced to a pile of rubbish, than to see some infidel get paid to stand behind the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, sending people to Hell.

The Satanic English Standard Version (ESV) that Bob Jones University promotes (and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam as well) is corruptible seed . For example: The ESV teaches in 1st John 3:9 that you cannot be saved and continue living in sin. Only a fool believes such nonsense.

What Christian is there who does not continue in sin? That's right, all of us (1st John 1:10). If you are saved, you still sin! The only difference is that now you have God's Holy Spirit living inside your body and soul, and He chastises you when you sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). There are Christians in prison serving life sentences for horrible crimes they've committed. Obviously they didn't turn from their sins as [7]neo-evangelicals say you must if you're saved.

The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are wrong to teach that the Gospel is a journey! Receiving God's free gift of eternal life is a new birth, not "a Gospel journey

" (which implies that you have to run the race , [8]which is exactly the garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit teaches at BJU, and Harvest promotes on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam). This is not what the Bible teaches! The Gospel is not a journey which you must begin by faith, and then continue faithfully running in order to get the reward of Heaven. That is exactly verbatim what Steve Pettit teaches! Harvest Baptist Church is Bob Jones University on Guam. Dr. Jack Hyles is so right:

> "The pastors have destroyed the churches, and they've been trained by people that have never built churches, and they have no compassion." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[9]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard"

When I heard Brother Hyles make that statement last night, while listening to him preach, I immediately thought about the [10]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (HBC) and their woeful lack of compassion toward me since 2014. Oh how I needed their love and acceptance as a human being between 2014-2018, but Pastor Marty Herron was cold-hearted and couldn't have cared less about me or my family. Pastor Herron literally shunned me away, telling me to "Go elsewhere." What saith the Scripture?

Romans 14:10, "

But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. " Then he quit as pastor and moved to greener pastures at the Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Seminary in Iowa, sucking a 6-digit salary as Executive Vice President, taking his secretary and assistant pastor with him, abandoning a sinking ship that he crashed into an iceberg of Lordship Salvation, on the treacherous sea of the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. All I ever pleaded was to please let me attend the church services. Where dwelleth the love of God?

Ironically, Harvest's website today has a bunch of Bible verses about hating one's brother. Well, they sure hated me during 2014-2018, and evidently still do, because I am still not welcomed at their church. I f anybody hates their brother, it is the pastors of Harvest.

1st John 2:11, "

But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes. " For the record, I love everyone with God's unconditional love. I have NEVER one time failed to wave with love at all my Harvest neighbours. I love everyone. THEY (not me) are the one's who have refused to reconcile all these years. I have poured out my heart time and time again to them, and they have read my articles, but they won't have anything to do with me. I don't think they hate me, but I think they HATE THE TRUTH! The truth is only HATE to them that HATE THE TRUTH!!!

And now their new pastor

is steering the church in the same neo-evangelical direction, just with different scenery, church decor, new ugly removable seats and an unimpressive website. They still use and bid Godspeed to corruptible seed. They still bid Godspeed to Devil preachers like Dr. John MacArthur and Dr. Steve Pettit. They still support the Lordship Salvation preached by [11]Unshackled , [12]Moody Bible Institute and [13]Bob Jones University . I didn't choose this fight with Harvest Baptist Church and the Bob Jones' crowd, they chose this fight with me, by driving me out of HBC in 2014 and ostracizing me since (and that includes Pastor Gary Walton, who is no better).

When a female student said she was raped at BJU, she was expelled to silence her. That is what HBC has done to me. I am not being hateful against them for exposing their wickedness, I hate every false way (Psalm 119:104). There's a very big difference. That raped girl wasn't being hateful to complain afterwards about what BJU did to her, the college was being hateful to blame her instead. If there is any hatred, Harvest needs to look in the mirror.

Pastor Hyles was attacked maliciously in 1989 by neo-evangelicals. They have been relentless to destroy his name and legacy since. Here are Brother Hyles' own words:

> "This isn't over Jack Hyles, this is over fundamentalism! These are evangelicals fighting fundamentalists—that's what it's all about; and their effort is to destroy Hyles-Anderson College. Over my dead body they'll destroy Hyles-Anderson College; and their effort is to destroy the First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana; and I'll go to the finish before I'll let it happen! That's what's going on!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a truthful quote from the needful sermon, "Weathering The Storm!"

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is following the same garbage theology of Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University).

As is typical with neo-evangelicals, they have redefined Christianity to mean something different than what the Bible teaches. The new birth is not a journey. The Christian life is a journey, but we mustn't call the Gospel a journey, lest we confuse people to think they must live the Christian life to be saved.

1.5.21 Repentance And Faith Are Inseparable (2020-09-16 09:30)

2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.”

There is a false doctrine, called “Lordship Salvation,” which Satan has crept into many churches today, which errantly teaches that a person must repent of sins first, and then have faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Advocates of the Lordship Salvation heresy errantly teach that “repentance” means to “turn away from sins, to intent to reform, amend one’s ways, and to cease from lifelong sinful bad habits.

And then second, the person is led to place their faith in Jesus as their Savior. Such a false plan of salvation cannot produce the new birth. Biblically, repentance and faith happen at the same time.

Repentance and faith are two parts of one act of getting saved. You cannot have one without the other! If a man turns from sins, that is merely reformation, not repentance. Sorrow for sins in penitence, not repentance. Making a mend for one’s sins is penance, not repentance. Repentance is

a change of mind

” from wrong thinking to believing the Gospel. To “ repent

is to acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20)

, and then you are saved by believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:16).

Getting saved is solely a matter of embracing and believing THE TRUTH.

2nd Timothy 2:25, " In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; " Colossians 1:5, " For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel; " Galatians 2:5, " To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you." Paul is saying here that he didn't tolerate heretics for even one hour, to ensure that the truth of the Gospel remained, otherwise people cannot be saved from a false gospel. Bob Jones University (BJU) needs to fire Dr. Steve Pettit, instead of letting him [1]move them away from the hope of the Gospel. BJU is now a cesspool of iniquity, [2]preaching Lordship Salvation instead of the Gospel of free grace.

Look at our text Bible verse above. Isn't it beautiful? In 2nd Timothy 3:15 we see the "SIMPLICITY THAT IS IN CHRIST" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), which is "[3]THE GOSPEL"! The Gospel is simply the "GOOD NEWS" of the Lord Jesus Christ Who DIED on the cross to pay our debt of sin, and then He was BURIED, and miraculously Jesus RESURRECTED bodily three days later for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Simply believe the 'GOOD NEWS' dear reader and you are eternally saved!!! 2nd Timothy 3:15b, "...salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus." I marvel that thousands of preachers today ignore such plain, blatant and inspired Scriptures, adding instead a bunch of requirements that God does not, perverting the plan of salvation. If turning away from sins were required to be saved, then the Bible would have mentioned it here in 2nd Timothy 3:15, but it does not! We are simply taught to HAVE FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST!

So does a person need to REPENT to be saved? Yes, of course, absolutely! But repentance does not mean "to turn from sins," it means "to think differently" (the Greek verb metanoeo). We see this verb form used in Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel." A literal interpretation of the verse would be—"THINK DIFFERENTLY AND BELIEVE THE 'GOOD NEWS' THAT CHRIST DIED ON THE CROSS FOR YOUR SINS, WAS BURIED, AND BODILY RESURRECTED THREE DAYS LATER!" Repentance is unto the Gospel itself. We don't repent AND believe as false teachers claim, we repent TO believe. We are not saved by repenting from anything, we are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL!!!

What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of > all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

We are saved by BELIEVING "the Gospel," which is the power of God unto salvation. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." It is that simple to be saved. If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, in need of redemption, and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as full payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later, and that is your only hope for eternal life, then YOU ARE IMMEDIATELY, SECURELY AND FOREVER SAVED!!!

The Bible teaches that repentance and faith are inseparable and happen at the SAME time. Repentance is an automatic thing, so that it need not even be mentioned when presenting THE GOSPEL to a lost sinner. If someone desires to be saved because they understand that they are a sinner, they are saved the very second they trust (rely) upon the crucified, buried and risen Savior!!! Being born-again is that simple. God only saves ungodly sinners!

> "You know the greatest difficulty and hindrance today, is not that people are not good enough. The great hindrance is they're not bad enough, to be saved!" — Pastor J. Vernon McGee, a truthful quote the MP3 sermon, "[4]Why The Gospel Is Not Preached Today"

You don't repent of your sins and then secondarily place your faith in Christ. Salvation doesn't work that way. Biblically, the man who has repented has believed, and the man who believes has repented. This truth is evidenced by the fact that the Gospel of John mentions the words "believe" 85 times, but the word "repent" is never mentioned once. The only requirement to believing the Gospel is to realize that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God. You've got to know what you are being saved from! ...

> "The purpose of the law was never to save; the law has to make us speechless before God, before grace can even begin with us! ...My friend, God is only saving GUILTY SINNERS, those whose mouths are stopped, those who say 'I have nothing to offer God!' I come, just as I AM!" —Pastor J. Vernon McGee, a truthful quote the MP3 sermon, "[5]Why The Gospel Is Not Preached Today"

I absolutely love the following passage of Scripture quoted below from Romans. ...

> Romans 3:19-24, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus."

Oh, notice my dear friend that "THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GOD IS BY FAITH OF JESUS CHRIST" !!! And don't miss who gets saved... "ALL THEM THAT BELIEVE"!!! What further saith the Scripture? ..."BEING JUSTIFIED FREELY BY HIS GRACE THROUGH THE REDEMPTION THAT IS IN CHRIST

!!! Wow, it doesn't get any plainer than that!!! Amen, hallelujah!!!

Now I ask you dear reader, where in the preceding passage of Holy Scripture are we taught to turn away from sinful ways? Where are we instructed to be willing to turn from our sins to be saved? Where are we told to surrender to Christ's Lordship as Master of our life, willing to follow and obey Him? Where are we instructed to forsake the world or have a negative attitude toward the pet sins in our life? You cannot show me any of that! Do you see friend what the Devil is doing nowadays? Satan has corrupted the Gospel, getting people to listen to Tv and internet preachers instead of "SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES" as Jesus commanded in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." I hear people who are utterly confused about their salvation, citing quotes which they've heard from John MacArthur, Paul Washer, John Goetsch, Chip Ingram, Jon Piper, Stephen Davies, and Ray Comfort, instead of quoting Bible verses. That tells me right away that they are listening to flawed men instead of God's inspired Word.

I challenge you friend to listen only to the Word of God (i.e., the inspired King James Bible) for a few months, and you will see that salvation is by FAITH ALONE WITHOUT WORKS. The biggest lie that I hear in pseudo-Christendom today is that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone, but they say you still have to do works by turning from sin. It is a contradictory false Gospel, a forked tongue plan of salvation, based upon a double-standard of hypocrisy. What saith the Scripture? Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Could the Bible be any plainer? I think not. Salvation is either by works or by grace, but it absolutely cannot be both.

Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" The apostle Paul didn't ark them if they had turned away from their sins. Paul wasn't concerned whether or not they had submitted to Jesus as their Lord and Master. Paul didn't inquire if they had been water baptized. Paul didn't ask them if they forsook the world. Paul only wanted to know one thing—How did you get saved?—"BY THE WORKS OF THE LAW" or "BY THE HEARING OF FAITH." When the apostle Peter presented the Gospel to Cornelius and others in Acts chapter 10, Peter never instructed them to do anything, he simply told them THE STORY OF JESUS, and when they believed they were immediately and forever saved! Whew that's good stuff!!!

1.5.22 Jews Don't Need A Different Plan Of Salvation (2020-09-17 09:30)

Romans 1:16, " For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. " 1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. "

One of my web visitors recently said to me:

>
> I think you should do some more articles for Jews. They denied Jesus for 2000 years, so normal evangelizing won’t really work. I suggest you use Isaiah 52-53 as proof that Jesus is their Messiah.

Although sincere in his intent, the Gospel is the only way to be saved. The Bible is very clear that Jews don’t get their own plan of salvation. As Romans 1:16 says, "the Gospel" is the power of God unto salvation, to them that believe.

> Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
>
> For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. There is no other way to be saved.”

The Bible says the Gospel was given to the Jewish people first in time, but then to the Gentiles. If a Jew is too proud to humble them self to come to Jesus Christ, then they will go to Hell, and it will be only their fault.

I just had a man try to promote the Hebrew Roots Movement on my Facebook page, and I had to refute that heresy and remove his comment. [1]I wrote this article in response.

The Hebrew Roots Movement is Satanic! Jews don't need a different method of witnessing to get them saved. The Bible does not say that at all. Nicodemus was a religious ruler of the Jews, and Jesus plainly warned Nicodemus that unless a man is born again, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God (John 1:1-7). So Jews, just like Gentiles, must be born anew from above by faith alone in Jesus Christ. Acts 4:10-12 says that salvation is not found in any other name, than that of the Lord Jesus Christ. Some people are trying to replace Jesus with Yeshua, but that is unbiblical. God has exalted ONLY the name of Jesus, and no other name is to be compared in greatness (Philippians 2:9-11).

Judaism is a false religion, which rejects the New Testament, seeking to re-establish the Old Testament religion of salvation by keeping the deeds of the law. God never intended for anyone to get to Heaven by keeping the law. Romans 3:19-20 teaches that the purpose of God's law is to silence all humanity of their self-righteousness boasting. That is why Jesus used the law to silence the rich young ruler, who boasted that he had kept the law from his youth. Clearly he hadn't, because he was covetous, and a dirty sinner still.

So if unsaved Jews refuse to come to the cross to be saved by faith, they have fallen from grace and there is no hope for them. If the Gospel has to be corrupted, to include the works of the law, and replace the name of Jesus, then it is another Jesus, another Spirit, and another gospel, which cannot produce the new birth (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). There is only ONE GOSPEL according to the Word of God. So the people saying, that unbelieving Jews need to be evangelized in a different way, don't know what they are talking about Scripturally...

> Galatians 1:6-9,
>
> I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto *another gospel:
>
> Which is not another*; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
>
> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
>
> As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.
>
> **"

1.5.23 Men Want To Buy Salvation (2020-09-17 19:22)

Acts 15:1, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved." Ephesians 2:8-9, "

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast*.

I would like to read a wonderful quote to you from Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) ...

> "Men want to buy salvation. That is what is the matter with the world now. It is trying to find the means by which it can earn something that the Lord Jesus Christ wants to give away. The average man has an idea something like this: The angels are keeping the books up in Heaven. If he does a good deed it goes in one column. If he does a bad deed if goes in another column. When he dies the angels will add up the columns. If the good outweighs the bad he will go to Heaven. If the bad outweighs the good, he will go to hell. That is the idea the average man has. But that isn't so. You don't go to Heaven for doing good deeds and you don't go to hell just because you do something bad.
>
> As a matter of fact, if you are a sinner you can't do good deeds. The Bible says that "all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags." The Bible says that though I give my body to be burned and do many other things and have not love, it profiteth me nothing. It may do somebody else some good. You might give this college a million dollars and be a sinner and die and go to hell. It wouldn't do you one bit of good as far as your salvation is concerned to give this college a million dollars. It might do somebody else some good. It profits me nothing to do good deeds if I am not righteous. The verse doesn't say it won't profit anybody else. It profits me nothing, even if I give all I have and then let my body be burned."
>
> ...all this is talk about a man's earning salvation. You can't earn it. You can't pay for it after you get it! You can't buy it. Nobody could buy salvation except Jesus, and He paid for it with His blood. You can't buy it; and it is a cinch you can't steal it! Now, if you ever get it, you must get somebody to give it to you. And I can tell you Who can do it. I found Him when I was eleven years old and He gave me eternal life. There are millions on earth to whom Jesus has given eternal life.
>
> ...If you think you can buy it, you don't have it.
>
> "In my hand no price I bring," is the testimony of every saved person.

> “All my righteousness is as filthy rags,” is the language of a man who knows God. You can’t earn it. You can’t pay for it. Nobody has it for sale. If you could pay for it you couldn’t buy it. God is the only One who has it, and He has never sold it.
>
> “The wages of sin is death.” The devil pays the wages. You can buy death.
>
> “The soul that sinneth, it shall die,” but
>
> “The gift of God is eternal life.”
>
> —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., “Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks,” page 217-220; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

Amen and amen! I love the simplicity in which Dr. Bob Jones Sr. writes. He doesn’t mention anywhere in his entire book that you must “

turn from your sins

to be saved. This heresy of

“

repent of your sins

to be saved is foreign to the Scriptures. I heard the audio sermon of [1]Pastor Marty Herron shamefully preaching this very heresy, at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana on November 17, 2019. Ladies and gentleman, you don’t have to

repent of your sins

” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That is exactly what the Bible teaches in Ephesians 2:8,

“

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast.

” If a person must repent (turn away from) of their sins to be saved, then it cannot be a gift.

I heard Pastor Herron in person, while attending the now spiritually defunct Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2014, say from the pulpit to several hundred people on a Sunday morning:

“It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.” Pastor Herron is not saved! You just heard Dr. Bob Jones Sr. say it himself: “

...If you think you can buy it, you don’t have it.

I love something that Pilgrim’s progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), said:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

The increasingly popular fallacy of Lordship Salvation combines, confuses and confounds sanctification with justification, casting stumbling blocks before the people, so that they cannot be born-again. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again. This is what [2]Seventh-Day Adventism is all about. Tragically, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) [3]teaches the same Lordship Salvation garbage as does Miss Ellen G. White. They are both hellbound heretics!

Folks, Jesus said that He spit the church of Laodicea out of His mouth. The Lord didn't even want to mention their name, because it disgusted Him so much! Revelation 3:15-16, "

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth. " I can't think of anything more lukewarm than these neo-evangelical churches today, like the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who straddle the fence between a free grace Gospel and Lordship Salvation.

On their website Harvest superficial claims to believe in a free grace Gospel, but on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station they promote Pacific Garden Mission's [4]Unshackled, Bob Jones University's [5]The Daily Platform, and Moody Bible Institute (who publish Dr. John MacArthur's Calvinist books). All of the ministries I just mentioned teach hardcore Lordship Salvation, which is not the Gospel of free grace! The Lord absolutely rejected the lukewarm compromising of the Laodicean church. If the Lord made a big fuss over their lukewarm attitude toward works, how much more then does God make a fuss over the Gospel?

Men want to buy salvation. That is the title of my article. That is what Dr. Bob Jones Sr. rightly said in the intriguing quote I shared with you. Men want to buy salvation! And if they don't outright frontload the Gospel, by requiring some form of payment (works) to obtain salvation; then they'll rearload the Gospel, by requiring some form of payment (works) to prove that you really have it. This is a false plan of salvation, which cannot produce the new birth.

I [6]heard Charles Lawson, pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, criticizing Pastor Jack Hyles, accusing him of leaving off repentance. Kindly said, Pastor Lawson speaks as a fool, and has no idea what he is doing theologically. Charles Lawson is a stinking Calvinist! Here is what Brother Hyles actually believes:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[7]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[8]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

Dr. Jack Hyles 100 % correctly and Biblically states concerning repentance:

> "Repentance is not some little silly, 'I'm sorry.' Repentance is not simply a fear of God. Repentance is not a monk fasting and afflicting his body in a monastery. Repentance is not remorse because of sin's consequences. Repentance is not penance performed before the pope as you kiss his toe… Repentance is not being sorry for what I've done > wrong. It is not confessing one's sins to a priest. It is not just conviction of sin. It is not the signing of a pledge of abstinence. Repentance is that thing when you come before God and see yourself as you are, and see Him as he is, and say with Isaiah 'Woe is me, for I am unclean!"' —Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), a quote from the timeless MP3 sermon, '[9]THE GOODNESS OF GOD LEADETH TO REPENTANCE!'

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) offers these excellent helpful words on repentance:

>
> There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ. The promise is to those who believe on Him. We cannot trust Jesus 90 % and something else 10 %; we must fully trust Him, Him alone and nothing else, for salvation.
>
> Since Jesus did not use the word 'repent' in telling Nicodemus how to be born again, then we must reach one of three conclusions. First, repentance is not necessary to salvation; second, repentance is necessary for salvation and Jesus didn't tell Nicodemus how to be saved; third, repentance is necessary to salvation and is included in the word 'believe' which Jesus did use time and time again in this chapter. The correct conclusion, of course, is that repentance is necessary to salvation and is included in 'believe.' A man cannot trust Christ without repenting.
>
> —Pastor Curtis Hutson, ' [10]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach? '

May that finally lay to rest the debate over repentance and Lordship Salvation. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil, a counterfeit gospel. Repenting of one's sins to be saved is not taught in the Bible. You simply come to God as a needy sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but three days later raised up from the dead! Men want to buy salvation, but you cannot, because Jesus is giving eternal life away for free " TO THEM THAT BELIEVE

1.5.24 Ozzy, "The Prince Of Darkness," Soon To Meet His Maker (2020-09-19 09:30)

1st Peter 4:17,

“

For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

According to [1]Wikipedia, John Michael “

Ozzy

Osbourne (born 3 December 1948) is an English singer, songwriter and television personality. He rose to prominence during the 1970’s as the lead vocalist of the heavy metal band Black Sabbath, during which period he adopted the nickname

Prince of Darkness.

” Although Mr. Osbourne has long been accused of being a Satanist, it was reported by The New York Times in 1992 that he was a [2]practicing member of the Church of England and prayed before each show. What blasphemy against a holy God! We see this a lot today—entertainers mixing heathendom and religion. For example: All the members of the band Black Sabbath wear crosses during concert. It confuses people, which is what the Devil wants to do. That is why Satan has published literally hundreds of English Bible revisions, to confuse everyone and diminish the authoritativeness of God’s Word.

The ritualistic Church of England is apostate...

> “Being a Christian means responding to Jesus’ invitation to enjoy a relationship with God here on earth and for eternity.” — [3]Church Of England - What We Believe

They are [4]Anglicans who practice baptismal regeneration. Judas had a relationship with Jesus, but went to Hell forever. Ozzy is no more a born-again Christian than Elmer Fudd in the Warner Brothers Looney Tunes series

. [5]Ozzy Osbourne has faithfully served Satan throughout his rock music career, whether he realizes or wants to admit it or not. You don’t have to worship the Devil to be a Satanist. The Australian band AC/DC is infamous for songs like

Highway To Hell

and

“

Hell Ain’t A Bad Place To Be,

” which they glibly dismiss as a mere marketing strategy. Ozzy says the same thing. I believe them! I don’t think Ozzy lights candles in a pentagram in his basement, while bowing down to a statue of Baphomet.

Yet, in his very concerts he is as he calls himself, the ’Prince Of Darkness,’ preaching a Satanic message to his audience! Band after band, as worldly as can be, deny worshipping the Devil, [6]while producing music and album art that glorifies the Devil. Don Henley of The Eagles has said a hundred times that Hotel California was just some clever lyrics that he thought up, not intended to be Satanic. Yet he sings: “they stab it with their steely knives, but they just can’t kill the Beast

” and also

“

you can check-in anytime you like, but you can never leave, which strongly suggests an occult secret society. Anyone who has done their research fully knows that Hollywood and the [7]American music industry are controlled by Satanists. I am not saying that Don Henley is a Satanist, but he is clearly a part of an industry controlled by Satanists. They have proven that over the decades by their creative occult artwork on the album covers. We are headed into a demonic New World Order!

When I was 10 years old in 1977, my friend and me used to hang out in his basement, listening to his older brother’s 8-track collection. We loved the song “

Iron Man

by Black Sabbath, but I didn’t learn until I was older that the singer was Ozzy Osbourne. We listened to Boston, Foreigner, The Who, Led Zeppelin, Thin Lizzy and Journey on 8-tracks.

We were just normal kids, not knowing any better, that it was the Devil’s music. I got saved at age 13. The indwelling Holy Spirit taught me that even though I still liked rock music, it was indeed the Devil’s music.

I didn’t smash all my worldly music as Pacific Garden Mission foolishly teaches. I have been listening to junk theology on Unshackled for the past couple years with heightened interest, alarmed by the garbage they are preaching. According to umpteen Unshackled episodes, when you get saved, your desire for sinful addictions immediately vanish. [8]For example :

> “I got up from my knees and I was free. I was new. That day God delivered me from my addictions! Within minutes of my spiritual salvation, he took away my impulse to use [drugs].”
> SOURCE:[9] ’UNSHACKLED’ program #3590 (aired in 2019).

Within minutes? Drug addiction gone? Are you serious? This is the health, wealth and prosperity junk taught by the demonic Charismatic movement! PGM bases this errant teaching on a single Bible verse from 2nd Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” Folks, all that verse means is that when you get saved, God’s Holy Spirit now lives inside you. Your spiritual eyes have been opened (1st Corinthians 2:14-16). God DOES NOT take away your desire to sin when you get saved. PGM is teaching false doctrine. Being a new creature in Christ doesn’t mean that your desires have changed, it means ownership has changed. You are no longer a child of the Devil, you are now a redeemed child of God, washed in the blood of the Lamb (1st Peter 1:18-19; 1st John 1:29).

As I have grown older, now 53, I have curiously followed the lives of my childhood musical mentors. In February of 2020 Ozzy announced to the world that he has Parkinson's Disease, and that 2019 was the most painful and miserable year of his life. The self-proclaimed " is now the man ready to die in his sins. It makes me sad, because they are people for whom Jesus Christ died on the cross of Calvary. This earthly life is so short. It's hard to believe that the strong, vibrant, healthy, Ozzy Osbourne that I remember Barking At The Moon (the name of one of his songs) in the 1980's, is now ready to die with Parkinson's Disease in 2020. Oh how the words of the Holy Bible rings true...

Prince Of Darkness

> James 4:13-14, "Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:
>
> Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. "

It won't be long before John Michael

Ozzy

Osbourne is gone. I prayed for Ozzy today, that he would come to Jesus Christ before it is too late. Just because he prayed in a church 30 years ago isn't enough to get to Heaven. Only through submitting to God's righteousness, which is through faith alone in Jesus Christ, can anyone be saved. Philippians 3:9,

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

" I hope Ozzy comes to Jesus Christ before it is too late, when he stands before his Creator and has to give account for going through life as the self-proclaimed:

Prince Of Darkness.

1.5.25 A Christian Believer Can Never Be Lost Again (2020-09-20 14:40)

Romans 8:34-35, “Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

I read these beautiful words today by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

Can A Believer Ever Be Lost?

It has been announced that I will speak to you on a subject which has occasioned a good deal of controversy among the people of God. I want to take as a starting point—not exactly as a text, because we shall be looking at a good many Scriptures—Romans 8:38-39: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor power, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." This is the inspired answer to the question of verse 35: "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" That is, once we have been justified by faith, who is there, what power is there, that can separate from the love of Christ? And the answer, how full, how clear, not a shadow, not a doubt, not a question left, when the apostle says that neither death nor life shall separate! Can you think of anything which is neither included in death nor in life? Neither death nor life shall separate!

> No unseen powers can separate the believer from Christ, "neither angels, nor principalities, nor powers." These terms are used again and again in the New Testament, particularly in the Epistles, for angelic hosts, good and evil. When our Savior rose from the dead He spoiled principalities and powers, that is, He defeated all the hosts of evil led by Satan; and so we may take it that the angels referred to here are good angels, and the principalities and powers are possible evil angels. But there is nothing that good angels would do and nothing that evil angels can do which will result in the separation of the believer from Christ. And then further he says, "neither things present nor things to come."
> Again let me put the question, Can you think of any experience through which a believer might ever go which is neither a thing present nor a thing to come? And the Holy Ghost says that neither things present nor things to come shall be able to separate us from the love of Christ. As though that were not enough, He speaks in a more general way when He says that neither "Height nor depth (nothing in heaven, nothing in hell), nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." It looks to me as though we are safe if we are believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

I couldn't agree more with Pastor Ironside. The Bible is very clear that once a person is born-again, they are forever a part of God's family. Beware of anyone who teaches that you must "repent of your sins

" to be saved, because it is a works-based false gospel. The popular false teaching today is that if someone claims to be a Christians, but is still living in willful open sin, they have never repented of their sins and are not really saved. That is Lordship Salvation! That is the junk theology taught by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Bob Jones University, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Charles Lawson, Sam Horn, Maranatha Baptist University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Masters University, Moody Bible Institute, Unshackled radio, John MacArthur and other Calvinists. Please avoid these Devil's servants! We are not kept saved by our faithfulness, we are kept saved by God's faithfulness!

1.5.26 Nothing As Hateful As Banning Someone From Church (2020-09-21 05:50)

Romans 14:10, " But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ."

In 2013-2014 I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I was very happy, but then I made the mistake of loving them enough to tell THE TRUTH. My life was a total broken mess when I started attending their church in 2013, and at first I was a man in spiritual critical care, absorbing what love they gave me, and the truths I heard from the pulpit. I loved Pastor Herron, and I thought he loved me, but it was a farce. I saw over time that the church used dozens of Bible revisions, and Lordship Salvation was their official doctrinal position. So I took my own money and bought hundreds of dollars in books. I bought a thousand dollars worth of Alexander Scourby King James Bible DVD's and gave them all away freely to people with whom I met at church. I had no ill intent. Since the church was obviously ecumenical, I figured they'd let me be me, just as I accepted them. They cruelly showed me the door!

The church pastors called Pastor Jack Hyles and me " a cult

" because of being King James Bible only. Assistant pastor Joe Hanson belittled me, boasting that he was a Greek professor, and that I didn't know what I was talking about. Assistant pastor Jared Baldwin sarcastically asked me in mockery: "How's your beliefs working out for your social life?" I have had no church family from 2014 to 2020. That blood is on Harvest's hands! Pastor Herron called me the church's " enemy,

" because I exposed their modern Bible revisions as of the Devil (and they are), and their Lordship Salvation as an attack on God's grace (and it is). And their new pastor, Gary Walton, is a coward who won't have anything to do with me.

All I have ever humbly requested is their love, to let me come back to church and be a part of a family. But they are full of hatred. Ironically, they have a bunch of Bible verses on their church website in 2020 about not hating your Christian brother. So why are they being hateful? So why do they persist to reject, shun, ostracize, ignore and hate me? If there is any hatred, it is on the part of the ungodly pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I am just a hurting dog who is barking. The blood is on their hands. They are the perpetrators, not me.

I was a gentleman about the whole matter, but they took the defensive, making a major deal of the matter. That is why I make such a big fuss over all this, because these ungodly neo-evangelical reprobates of the faith are liars, deceivers and wolves in sheep's clothing. Don't take my word for it. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a major supporter of [1]Bob Jones University, who have been hardcore Lordship Salvation for many years now. Harvest promotes BJU's 'The Daily Platform," featuring the demonic Lordship Salvation garbage of Dr. Steve Pettit. Harvest's KHMG 88.1 FM radio station broadcasts the junk theology of Pacific Garden Mission's [2]Unshackled.

You see dear reader, I am a true Christian fundamentalist. That means I take the Bible literally. I believe that every word of the King James Bible is inspired by God. They are God's Words, not the "

best

" that flawed sinful men could give us. I am so sick and tired of hearing that the King James Bible is the "best" Bible. No Sir, it is the ONLY Bible we have in English today. All others are inferior! I am amazed that most Christians believe God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible! I believe that salvation is by grace alone, without works. Harvest will deceitfully say the same thing on their website, as does Evangelist Ray Comfort on his website, [3]but look at the crap Ray teaches! This is also what the Bob Jones' camp preach these days, that [4]the Gospel is a journey you must live faithfully to the end , please do not let them deceive you!!! I do very much love the folks at Harvest, but I am tired and fed up with their apostasy, and that they wholeheartedly bid Godspeed to false prophets like [5]John MacArthur, [6]Stephen Davey, [7]Paris Reidhead, [8]Paul Washer and [9]Dr. Steve Pettit (to name but a few). [10]Bob Jones University is no longer a fundamentalist institution, it is a cesspool of iniquity.

I have been abused by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, forced out of church for telling THE TRUTH. I have been shunned, ostracized, mistreated, ignored, mocked and hated for earnestly contending for the Christian faith as the Bible commands me to do.

Jude 1:3, "

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. " Shame on Dr. Steve Pettit for trying to legitimize John MacArthur's damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation! Shame on the folks at BJU for going along with this Satanic garbage!

Kindly said, I cannot think of anything as hateful for a professed New Testament church, than to telling someone that they cannot come to church. I was told to "

Go elsewhere

" by Harvest's ungodly pastors. Is that how you treat a hurting brother?

Romans 14:10, " But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ." Perhaps they are not saved at all, which seems to be the case, since they adhere to the damnable lies of Lordship Salvation at Harvest and BJU. The fact that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam refuses to allow me to attend their church services, evidences that they are wrong on the Bible and the Gospel. That is why they don't want me back, because I am a sin-detector. I am correct on the Gospel of free grace. Harvest lies to people! They claim salvation is by grace, but like the lying serpent in the Garden of Eden, they don't tell you the whole story! Harvest's website doesn't tell visitors that they support the [11]devil's at Bob Jones University who corrupt the Gospel.

Go read the garbage that [12]Unshackled preaches to radio listeners. Folks, right doctrine matters! For the year of 2014 at Harvest, their church theme was: "God Meant It For Good," which really helped me (because of my broken life).

For the year of 2015 at Harvest Baptist Church their theme was:

"Study To Shew Thyself Approved." What hypocrites! Right doctrine matters! The problem is that Harvest's neo-evangelical pastors are theologically incompetent! That is why I believe Pastor Marty Herron quit at Harvest in 2018 and headed for Iowa, now raking in a disgusting 6-digit salary as Executive Vice President of some dead, deeper-life, neo-evangelical, multiple-Bible using, Lordship Salvation preaching, hellhole, apostate Bible seminary! Satan is pleased with Marty Herron! Pastor Herron threw me under the bus in 2014-2018! And now Pastor Gary Walton is backing the bus up over me, again! I will never shut up!

If Harvest Baptist Church wants to talk about hating one's Christian brother, then let's talk about what they have all done to me since 2014, denying my humble requests to simply sit in church to hear the sermons. Only a religious cult tells someone that they cannot attend church services!!! Harvest is selective. And just to set the record straight, lest they lie some more, I offered to remove all my criticisms against their church if they gave me a second chance. So they have no excuses! Harvest can go to Hell with their dozen Bible revisions, which all corrupt the meaning of repentance, and thus the Gospel. Harvest can go to Hell with their counterfeit fraud of Lordship Salvation, which demands that a person repent of their sins to be saved, and surrender all to live for Christ, and faithfully run the race until the end to get to Heaven. That is Calvinism, and it is [13]of the Devil, just like Moody Bible Institute today.

All I ever humbly wanted was to come back to church. Can you imagine? Can you imagine a Baptist church telling someone to go away? Can you imagine wicked pastors, who are so cowardly and selfish, that they don't care about everyone? Can you imagine professed men of God who only selectively decided who matters to their ministry, and who doesn't? That is the Devil folks. They are just here on Guam to make a stinking living, ruining people's lives with a partial faith in Christ plus turning from your sins false gospel. That is what the Bob Jones University crowd officially teach and preach!!! Beware of these devils! Remember, all I ever apologetically requested was to please let me come back to church. They said no!

For anyone who attends Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who reads this, please don't believe the LIES on Harvest's website about hating one's brother, because they are THE HATERS! Proverbs 26:24-26, " He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation. " One truth stands out, and that is that they have not lifted one finger to make peace with me. I contacted them three times in 2017, literally begging like a dog to come back to church, because I needed their help and love. They kicked me in the head and left me for dead. Marty Herron is as phony a Christian as they come!

Kindly, [14]I have written hundreds (284 to be exact) of internet articles on my ministry since 2014 in protest against Harvest Baptist Church (and there's many more to come I assure you, God willing), with desperate pleas for their change of heart and compassion; but they are hardened, hardhearted, arrogant, stiffnecked, money-oriented, hypocritical, spiritually dangerous, wicked false prophets, who don't care about anybody except their damned cult. They can make peace with me any time they decide to get right with God.

They are my neighbours. They can see my place from their front door, so they know where I live. [15]Here is my email contact. They are the one's who have kept this battle going, by refusing to let me attend church. So the blood is on their hands. I am not mainly upset with Harvest for the past, but for what they are doing right now—ostracizing me! They are the haters, not me. Please don't let them paint any other picture, because they are liars! Psalms 109:4-5, "

For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

1.5.27 The Rich Man In Hell (Luke 16:19-31) (2020-09-22 09:30)

Luke 16:19-23, " There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

This is not a Parable, but a true, historical account of two actual men that Christ spoke about in a message to a Jewish audience in Israel. Christ used parables as a teaching method quite often, but they never contained a proper name. This lesson on the afterlife contains three proper names: Abraham, Lazarus, and Moses.

Some deny the fact that if you die without trusting Christ as the One who paid for your sins on the Cross, your end will be everlasting punishment in the flames of Hell. They insist this is only a Parable. How wrong they are! Luke 16:19-31 is definitely NOT a Parable.

Pastor

Max Younce provides some excellent Bible exegesis on this passage, in his classic book titled:

"[1]A

[2] Biblical Examination Of Hell,

pages 17 to 20:

“…We learn from Luke 16, there are two compartments separated by a tremendous gulf. Prior to Christ’s Ascension back to Heaven in Acts 1:11, both saved and lost went to one of the two compartments in Hades. The gulf separated the two places; which are called a place of torment (for the lost), and "Abraham’s Bosom," or, Paradise for the saved.

Now in Luke 16 we find a Christian by the name of Lazarus who was very poor, financially; but when he died he went to the Paradise side of Hades. Here is the record in Verse 22,

"And it came to pass, that the beggar died and was carried by the angels into Abraham’s bosom..."

This is also the compartment where Christ went for three days and nights before His Resurrection. Notice in Luke 23:43 when Christ was speaking to the thief on the cross, who had trusted Him as Savior.

"And Jesus said unto him (the thief), Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Remember, no saved person in the Old Testament ever went to Heaven; but, rather, to the Paradise side of Sheol and Hades.

Further, in Luke 16 we are told of a lost man who was very rich, but lost, and who went to the Torment side of Hades. Here is the record in verses 22b - 24.

"And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; (22) And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. (23) And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame." (24)

What a sad condition of the reality a lost person has to face when they die! Their joking about the Bible, their mocking of Christ, their evolutionary trash they have propagated, their taking of the Lord's name in vain, and their exalted opinion of themselves that they are their own god, will all come to an end. At death, they will be cast into this awful place of torment. Truly, they have played the fool as God has said in Psalm 14:1,

"The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God."

Little realizing, until it is too late that,

"The wicked shall be turned into Hell ("Sheol"), and all the nations that forget God." (Psalms 9:17)

We are now told that, within Hades, between Paradise and Torment, that there is a tremendous gulf separating the two places; so, that no one can go from one place to the other. Here is the record in Verse 26:

"And beside all this, between us (Abraham and Lazarus) and you (lost men), there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence."

When the lost man realized there was no hope now for him, as his eternal destiny was sealed in this place of torment, he then interceded for his five brothers that were still alive. In Verses 27 and 28 we have the account,

"Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldst send him to my father's house: (27) For I have five brethren: that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment." (28)

This man was now a believer; but, it was too late for himself, so he prays that someone would tell his brothers. The Hebrew word for "pray" in Verse 27 brings out the strength of this man's feelings. The usual Greek word for "pray" when used in worship to God is "proseuchomai." But here a different word is used for pray, which is "erotao." This word means "interrogate, desire and entreat." In police work, interrogate means you keep asking in various, different, ways until you get what you want; which is the truth. You are persistent with a strong desire.

The Greek word for "pray" lets us know that this man was more than just casually asking Abraham; but had a strong desire, persistently asking in various different ways to persuade Abraham to send someone to warn his five brothers. His persistence is recorded in Verse 30 after Abraham had just said to him,

"...They (his brothers) have Moses and the prophets: let them hear them."

Here is his reply,

"and he said, Nay, Father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent (change their mind)."

No doubt he was still trying; but to no avail, for Abraham closed the conversation when he told him,

"If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead."

This is a true and literal account of the conversation between a lost man in the Torment of Hades, and Abraham in the Paradise side of Hades. A true account of where they were, and what they said. Now let us briefly analyze some important facts from Luke 16:19-31:

1. Hades has two compartments: one is Paradise, and the other is Torment.
2. They are separated by a large gulf.
3. No one can pass from Torment to Paradise.
4. The lost and saved went immediately to their respective places.
5. They were taken there by the angels of God.
6. In Torment this man had a tongue, could feel the flames of Torment, could talk, could think and reason. He had all the attributes in Hades that he had on Earth.
7. He possessed a spiritual or soulish body which had sensitivity and reasoning; but could not be annihilated by the flames of Torment. We might point out that this is not his resurrected body unto damnation, which he will have when he is later cast into the Lake of Fire. This will be illustrated on Diagram Six.
8. No one will go back from Paradise to talk with those still alive on the Earth, as this lost man had requested.
9. Moses and the prophets did record the death, burial and Resurrection of Christ in the Bible. Since Christ did come back from the dead, there are those who will not believe it; neither would they if someone also came back today.
10. A doctrinal consideration—many claim this is a parable, but one will find that no parable ever uses a proper name. There are no exceptions. Hypothetically, if this were a parable then the reality of Hell would be much worse, for parables are given to illustrate a Biblical truth.

We can only thank God for telling us of this awful place that we have been delivered from by trusting Jesus Christ as our personal Savior. He gave His life to save ours—what a Savior!

1.5.28 Pacific Garden Mission Preaches Another Gospel (2020-09-22 18:50)

Galatians 1:6-12,

“

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ*.

The following passage of Scripture plainly exposes anyone who would embellish the Gospel. To “embellish” means: “ to add details to; to m ake more attractive by adding ornament.

” This is a horrible sin to do! As you just read, God curses anyone who perverts His Gospel. God doesn’t need our help to coerce people to forsake their sins, by adding turning from your sins to the free grace Gospel. On Pacific Garden Mission’s Unshackled radio program, they pervert the Gospel, embellishing it.

Bryan Lee Venckus gives his testimony

> “God, I keep messing up, and I have no idea what’s ahead of me now. But I know this, I’m done going full-throttle for the Devil. I want to go full-throttle for You now. Jesus, I repent of all my sins. I’m through being my own boss. It’s Your turn to be Lord, I give it all to You. I’m looking to You. And You know, I’m also looking to You for a new dream, the one You have for me to do. Whatever it is God, I surrender.” —Bryan Lee Venckus ([1]Program #3631 - Aired in 2020 - 22:10 time in audio) Folks, that is not the Gospel! Everything that I made bold is additions to the Gospel. Nowhere does the Bible teach anyone to “ repent of sins

to be saved. Nowhere does the Bible say that you have to transfer control of your life from you to Him, to be saved. Nowhere are we taught to “surrender” to Jesus to be saved. Nowhere are we taught to make Jesus “ to be saved. PGM are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They sinfully embellish the Gospel with all sorts of additions that teach Lordship Salvation.

Lord

Please notice that

Bryan Lee Venckus doesn’t even mention Jesus’ death, burial or bodily resurrection. Unshackled is a mess doctrinally! At best, they present bits and pieces of the Gospel here and there, but always embellish it with a bunch of theological junk that God does not require to receive His gift of eternal life. The dire consequence is that many people are experiencing a changed religious life (reformation), but have never been born-again by faith alone. This is the problem with the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church in Guam in Micronesia. They lie to people, claiming to believe in salvation by grace alone, while embellishing the Gospel with the things I just mentioned.

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam promotes Unshackled on their KHMG 88.1 FM radio station on Guam, deceiving people with the Devil's lie that you must

"repent of your sins" to be saved

. Anyone who tells you this has been inspired by the Devil. I'm talking about heretics' Pastor Marty Herron, Pastor Gary Walton, Dr. Steve Pettit, Pastor John MacArthur and Evangelist Ray Comfort. These men are theologically corrupted. When they speak of saving faith,

they mean that you must live a life of obedience to God. That is a perversion of grace! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam promotes Unshackled and Bob Jones University, both of which preach hardcore Lordship Salvation.

I am supportive of the work that Pacific Garden Mission does. We need rescue missions. But that doesn't give them a right to pervert God's grace, by changing the Gospel in an attempt to force people to turn away from their sins.

Bob Jones University alumni, Lou Martuneac, has turned against his college, exposing them for preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. For that I commend him. Likewise, I have turned against Hyles-Anderson College, where I graduated in 1993, because since 2008 they have denied the inspiration of the King James Bible. What is wrong with Christians today? [2]Lou makes this helpful true statement , defining Lordship Salvation:

> Defined briefly: Lordship Salvation is a position on the gospel in which "saving faith" is considered reliance upon the finished work of Jesus Christ. Lordship views "saving faith" as incomplete without an accompanying resolve to "forsake sin" and to "start obeying." Lordship's "sine qua non" (indispensable condition) that must be met to fully define "saving faith," for salvation, is a commitment to deny self, take up the cross, and follow Christ in submissive obedience. (In Defense of the Gospel: Revised & Expanded Edition, p. 48.)

Do you see the lying deception of Lordship Salvation? It is a half-truth. The Bob Jones' crowd will claim to believe that salvation is wholly of grace, as does the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but then they subtly add the unbiblical requirement to live the Christian life, which to them saving faith encompasses. Do you realize that Bob Jones University and Unshackled are preaching the SAME heresy of Lordship Salvation as Ellen G. White?

The Devil is very sneaky, so subtle that he has even deceived many preachers today concerning the Gospel. I have a book in front of me by Miss Ellen G. White (1827-1915) titled: "The Great Hope." Sadly, it has been published by Thomas Nelson (the same company who publishes the Bible). Right doctrine matters folks! Miss White teaches a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation.

She writes on pages 48-49 of her book 'The Great Hope':

> The sanctification now gaining notice in the religious world carries a spirit of self-exaltation and a disregard for the law of God that identify it as foreign to the Bible. Those who teach it claim that sanctification happens instantly, and by this means, through "faith alone" they reach perfect holiness. "Only believe" they say, "and the blessing is yours." No further effort is supposed to be required from the receiver. At the same time they deny the authority of God's law, claiming that they are released from any obligation to keep the commandments. But is it possible to be holy without coming into harmony with the principles that express God's nature and will?
> The Word of God testifies against this traplike doctrine of faith without works. It is not faith that claims God's favor without complying with the conditions on which He grants mercy. It is presumption. (See James 2:14-24.) [emphasis added] —Ellen G. White, 'The Great Hope,' pp. 48-49; ©1979, Thomas Nelson, Inc.

Oh my, what ungodly heresy! According to Ellen White's demonic teaching, a person cannot be saved by "faith alone," there must also be a turning from sin, she says, otherwise you have not met the conditions of holiness which God demands to validate your faith! That is of the Devil. You see friend, she is basing her false plan of salvation on one's holiness. The inspired Holy Bible teaches something very different. The Bible says our salvation is based upon GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS!

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:"

This Bible verse exposes Ellen White as a liar, and the Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA) religion that idolizes her as a fraudulent false religion.

And sadly, these truths also expose Bob Jones University, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and Pacific Garden Mission as corrupters of the free grace Gospel. This is not a mere matter of theological semantics! Lordship Salvation does not fall within the acceptable realm of orthodox Christianity, it is a perversion of God's grace!!! Remember, salvation is 100 % free from God. So if you must turn from sin, leave the old life behind, run the race, and surrender to Christ as your Boss (Lord), it cannot truly be considered a free gift (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

1.5.29 How Proponents Of Lordship Salvation Deceive Everyone (2020-09-23 06:00)

Acts 15:1 and 24, “

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. ...Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

Ladies and gentlemen, the proponents of Lordship Salvation are just as guilty as the Judaizer cult, who told the Jews that except they be circumcised and keep the law, they cannot be saved. Anyone who adds anything, to faith alone to be saved, has corrupted God’s grace! All of these false teachers today, who add that you must “

repent of your sins

to be saved, are preaching another gospel.

The way that Lordship Salvationists deceive people is by redefining theological terms. The Greek meaning of

in the Bible is simply

a change of mind.

” The Lordship Salvation crowd pervert the meaning of repentance to mean “

turn from your sins

to be saved. When a preacher tells people to

“

repent of your sin,

he is adding and corrupting the meaning of repentance. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to repent of our sin to be saved. We are taught to repent toward God in Acts 20:21. We are taught to repent to acknowledge the truth in 2nd Timothy 2:25. But we are never taught to repent of our sin to be saved! To teach that someone must

repent of your sin

to be saved, is just as horrible as what the false teachers taught in Acts 15:1. What saith the Scripture?

Acts 15:24b, “...

to whom we gave no such commandment:

” The Apostle Paul said Jesus Himself gave the Gospel directly to him (Galatians 1:12). Paul didn’t receive the Gospel from man. Paul never mentions anything about turning away from your sins to be saved.

Yet, thousands of churches, Bible colleges, rescue missions and missionaries on the field are preaching that to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, you must first be willing to turn away from your sinful ways. They are all preaching another gospel—a counterfeit gospel that compels people to live the Christian life without ever being born-again. Look at the junk theology being preached by Pacific Garden Mission’s radio program, ’ [1]Unshackled .’

For example: In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.

DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.

SHARON: Oh Debbie, it's not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He'll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it. [emphasis added]

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! How can eternal life be a free gift, if you are required to have the courage to give up all your old sinful ways permanently? That would make eternal life a trade. Pastor Jack Hyles offers these helpful words of refutation against Lordship Salvation:

> Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, "You give Me something; I'll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved." Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."
> —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[3]Lordship Salvation" (chapter 11 from his book: "[4]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved")

Do you see how Pacific Garden Mission has been misled by the Devil? They are preaching another gospel. To embellish the Gospel with additional requirements is to attack the grace of God, and to attack the God of grace! The main reason this false doctrine has crept into our churches and Bible colleges is because of the [5]corrupt modern Bible revisions. For example: [6]Look at what Mark 1:15 does to corrupt the meaning of repentance in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). Mark 1:15 in the ERV perverts "

repent

" to mean to change your life! [7]They do the same for Hebrews 6:1 . All of the translations that came from the Greek of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort are utterly corrupted. The [8]Jehovah's Witnesses love Westcott and Hort . Did you know that? Do you know why? It is because [9]Westcott and Hort attacked Jesus' deity . All of the modern perversions [10]attack Christ's deity . You couldn't make this stuff up!

Did you know that the Communist Cuban government admirably [11]rejected a free shipment of 17,000 New International Version (NIV) Bibles? It is true! I commend the Cuban government, for having more horse-sense than most of America's stupid pastors and churches who embrace the Devil's Bible versions!!! It is human nature to go along with whatever our leaders tell us. That is the problem. So if the Bible colleges are corrupt, and they are training the pastors, then the churches will be corrupted also (and they sure are!). It is a domino effect. Bob Jones University today is the citadel of Lordship Salvation in America! Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) would [12]blown the college to smithereens today if he could, and he said so himself in 1944. [13]Dr. Steve Pettit is an infidel at BJU.

Dr. Kevin T. Bauder is a so-called Baptist theologian. Unfortunately, he doesn't know what he is talking about. Professor Bauder was president of Central Baptist Theological Seminary of Minneapolis. Since 2011, he has been Research Professor of Systematic Theology at the seminary.

Bauder received a Bachelor of Arts from Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Iowa, where[14] shameful false teacher Marty Herron now works. [15]Dr. Bauder foolishly says that Fundamentalists and Evangelicals, "believe, preach and defend the [same] gospel." Kevin Bauder is a false teacher! We do NOT believe and preach the SAME Gospel. One of the biggest false teachers today, considered the godfather of the modern-day Lordship Salvation cult, is Pastor John MacArthur in California. Mr. MacArthur heretically states:

> "The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full of repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him and follow Him no matter what the cost! It's hard to find that truth and hearing it, it's hard to act upon it, because of the love self and the love of sin, which is natural for the sinner! The true way to Heaven is hard to find."
>
> (MacArthur, YouTube:
>
> "Are You Saved Or Self-Deceived?")
>
> "Let me say again unequivocally that Jesus' summons to deny self and follow him was an invitation to salvation, not . . . a second step of faith following salvation." (Dr. John MacArthur,
>
>
> The Gospel According to Jesus: What is Authentic Faith?,
>
>
> p. 219.)
>
> "That is the kind of response the Lord Jesus called for: wholehearted commitment. A desire for him at any cost. Unconditional surrender. A full exchange of self for the Savior." (Pastor John MacArthur, Ibid, p. 150.)
>
> "Salvation is for those who are willing to forsake everything." (Dr. John MacArthur,
>
>
> The Gospel According to Jesus,
>
>
>
> "This is what Jesus meant when He spoke of taking up one's own cross to follow Him. And that is why he demanded that we count the cost carefully. He was calling for an exchange of all that we are for all that He is. He was demanding implicit obedience—unconditional surrender to His lordship." (Dr. John MacArthur,
>
>
> Hard to Believe,
>
> p. 6.)

Upon reading these bold statements from Dr. MacArthur, there is absolutely no way that anyone can justly claim that advocates of Lordship Salvation believe and preach the SAME Gospel as Fundamentalists. I am a Fundamentalist! I believe anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, can be saved simply by believing the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God Who died on the cross for their sins, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later. That's it! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." I love that Bible verse, because it shows the simplicity of the Gospel.

[16]

I could go on and on and mention many things, exposing the extent by which Lordship Salvation has infiltrated, corrupted and destroyed thousands of churches. The modern Bible revisions are deadly, and I mean DEADLY!!! Please only use the inspired King James Bible! Beware of mainstream evangelicalism in America, which has descended into a neo-evangelical nightmare of heresy, worldliness, apostasy, hypocrisy and utter confusion. ...

> “Be on guard against any tampering with the Word, whether disguised as a search for truth, or a scholarly attempt at apparently hidden meanings; and beware of the confusion created by the senseless rash of new versions, translations, editions, and improvements upon the tried and tested Bible of our fathers and grandfathers.” — Pastor M.R. DeHaan, “The Tabernacle,” Pg. 101

Lastly for this article, I want to show you how proponents of Lordship Salvation have also redefined what “

saving faith

” means. Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) and Miss Ellen G. White (Seventh-Day Adventist false prophetess), [17]both errantly redefine ’saving faith’ to mean yielding full surrender to Christ as Lord, being faithful to obey God and run the Christian race until the end. This is works, not the gift of God. So when you hear Dr. Steve Pettit, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and the Bob Jones’ crowd talking about saving faith by God’s grace, they mean something very different than what the Bible teaches. They understand saving faith to include obedience, surrender and turning from your sins. [18]Their gospel is not [19]our Gospel. Thank you for reading my blog. God bless you!

1.5.30 What Must I Do To Be Saved? (2020-09-24 04:13)

What Must I Do to Be Saved?: The Plan of Salvation Made Plain to Sinners from the Word of God by John R. Rice (1895-1980)

What must I do to be saved? Here in the simplest, shortest form is put the question to which every man must learn the answer, or spend eternity lost, away from God, suffering the torments of the damned!

Thank God, this question is asked and answered in the Word of God so simply that every soul can understand it. There are other questions in God's Word which affect the soul's welfare, and many places in the Bible is the plan of salvation made plain, but only one place is this question given word for word, and there, too, we find the answer.

Paul and Silas were in jail in the city of Philippi, and at midnight they sang and prayed until God broke down all the doors and broke the stocks which held their feet, with a mighty earthquake. The poor jailer, frightened and convicted of his sins, came to these two preachers and asked this question. Read it in Acts 16:29-31:

"Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

"What must I do to be saved?" "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved"! There is God's plan of salvation, the only plan He has for every man, woman and child who was ever born into the whole world.

What Must I Do?

Sinner, there is something you must do if you would be saved. There was hope for this jailer because he saw himself a lost sinner and came trembling to inquire, "What must I do?"

Reader, you are a sinner. The Word of God from beginning to end emphasizes that fact. In Isaiah 53:6 we learn:

> "ALL we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned EVERY ONE to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us ALL."

We have all gone astray! The Lord is not content for sinners to be left believing themselves good. In Romans the third chapter, how positive, how certain is the Word of God that every man, woman and child is a sinner!

> "What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are ALL under sin; As it is written, There is NONE righteous, NO, NOT ONE: There is NONE that understandeth, there is NONE that seeketh after God. They are ALL gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is NONE that doeth good, NO, NOT ONE."—Romans 3:9-12.

In verses 22 and 23 it is stated again that "there is no difference: For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." That is the reason Jesus said to Nicodemus in the third chapter of John, "Marvel not that I said unto thee, YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN." And a little later in the same chapter, verse 18, He said that the man who has not believed in Jesus is already condemned.

Certainly these Scriptures must make it clear to every man who believes the Word of God that he is a sinner, and until he has believed in Christ and has been saved, he is a lost sinner and needs saving. The heart is wrong, and only God can make that right. Then if you want to be saved, you must admit in your own heart, "I am a sinner. I am lost and need to be saved." No one ever was saved without coming for salvation as a sinner.

Christ Died To Save Sinners, Not Good Men

Oh, I beg you, see it today! You are a poor, lost sinner, a Hell-bound sinner! Your heart is black. You have hardened your heart, you have resisted the call of God, you have rejected Christ. However good you are in man's sight, you are a terrible sinner, and unless you turn to Christ you must spend eternity in Hell. A SINNER! That is what you are. Admit it in your own heart, confess it to God. You are a sinner and you need saving worse than you need anything else in the world.

If you have settled in your heart that matter, then you are ready to learn God's answer to your question, "What must I do to be saved?"

Believe On The Lord Jesus Christ

Here is God's simple way to be saved. You are a sinner, your heart is wrong, you cannot save yourself, you are already condemned. The thing you are to do then, to be saved, is to simply trust the Lord Jesus with that matter. When you do trust Him, then you have God's promise, "Thou shalt be saved."

I do not mean that you are simply to believe that there is a God or that there is a Saviour. Devils believe that and tremble (James 2:19).

You can believe that a certain physician is a good doctor [without calling him to be your doctor] when you are sick. You can believe that a certain man is a good lawyer without taking him as your lawyer to defend your case. You are not just to believe the truth about Jesus; you are to believe on Him, that is, depend upon Him, risk Him, trust Him; and when you do, you are saved.

Not Saved By Good Works

Of course, you do not deserve salvation. There is nothing you can do that will make you worthy of it. You cannot be saved by keeping the Ten Commandments, for the Scripture clearly shows that you have not kept them. Romans 3:20 says:

> "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

The same thing is told in Galatians 3:11 which says:

> "But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith."

Many, many Scriptures repeat again and again that there is no salvation through human goodness.

> "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."—Titus 3:5.

> "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."—Eph. 2:8,9.

We had as well admit, then, that no man deserves saving and no man can save himself. Salvation must be free or the sinner could never get it. In fact, it takes blood to pay for sin, for the Scripture says:

> "Without shedding of blood is no remission."—Hebrews 9:22.

> "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly."—Romans 5:6.

> "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all."—Isaiah 53:6.

Peter tells us that all of us are bought by the blood of Christ:

> "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."—I Peter 1:18,19.

Every lamb, bullock, heifer, goat, turtle dove and pigeon offered in the Old Testament times on the altar pictured this: that man, a guilty sinner, must have some innocent one to shed his blood to pay for one man's sins. Jesus died for our sins, and, thank God, salvation is bought for every man in the world, if he will have it, as the free gift of God.

> "For the wages of sin is death; but the GIFT of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."—Rom. 6:23.

Dear sinner, remember that church membership will not save you. If you have been baptized, that cannot save you. Baptism does not save, does not keep anybody saved. It is only an act of duty for those who have already found Christ as their Saviour.

A moral life or lodge membership or good citizenship—these must all fail to bring salvation, for it is "not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us" (Titus 3:5). Don't depend, then, on what you do, but on what Jesus did and promises to do for you.

What About Repentance?

Does not the Bible say that we must repent? Yes, the Bible plainly says that "God ... commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30), and again, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish" (Luke 13:3,5).

This was the preaching of John the Baptist, of Jesus, of Peter and of Paul, that men should repent. And certainly repentance is in God's plan of salvation. The trouble here, however, is that men misunderstand what repentance means, and there has grown up an idea that repentance means a period of weeping and mourning over sin, or sorrow for sins. This idea comes from the Douay Version of the Bible which instead of "repent" says "do penance."

So the place of inquiry, where people should be taught the plan of salvation from the Bible, in revival meetings, became "the mourner's bench" and thousands of people have been taught that God would not hear their prayer nor forgive their sins until they went through a process of sorrow and mourning over their sins!

Do not misunderstand me. God is anxious for you to have a penitent, broken heart over your sins. You have gone away from God. You have trampled under foot the blood of Jesus Christ, wasted years of your life which you can never live over again. You have served your father, the Devil.

There is plenty for you to weep over, and I am not surprised if you feel deep shame and sorrow in your heart that you have so mistreated the God who made you and the Saviour who died for you. I am not surprised if you cannot keep back the tears! But what I want you to know is that tears or no tears, however much sorrow you may have in your heart, or not have, those things do not save you.

You ought to be sorry for your sins and ashamed of them. "Godly sorrow worketh repentance" (II Cor. 7:10)—the right kind of sorrow leads to immediate repentance, but mourning is not itself repentance.

> "Could my tears forever flow,
> Could my zeal no respite know,
> These for sin could not atone;
> Thou must save, and Thou alone."
>
> To repent literally means to have a change of mind or spirit toward God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you. You can see, then, how the man who believes in Christ repents and the man who repents believes in Christ. The jailer repented when he turned from sin to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Instant Salvation!

The jailer did not go through a period of mourning. He was told to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; he did just that and was saved, and his whole family was saved the same way, immediately, the same hour of the night.

Everywhere you look through the New Testament you find that people were saved all at once without any process, without any period of mourning.

Zacchaeus, up a tree, trusted Jesus and made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully (Luke 19:6-9). Jesus said, "This day is salvation come to this house."

When Peter told Cornelius and his assembled household that they could be saved by believing, immediately "while Peter yet spake these words," the Scripture says, the Holy Spirit came on them and they were happily saved (Acts 10:44-48).

The thief on the cross, wicked sinner that he was, who a few minutes before had been railing at Jesus, was saved immediately when he inquired of Jesus (Luke 23:42,43).

In the first chapter of John, verses 35 to 49, we see where Andrew, Simon Peter, Philip and Nathanael were all converted, one by one, immediately by faith in Christ. There is no record of any person in Bible times who was ever told to wait, or mourn, or weep over his sins before trusting Jesus and being saved! One who believes in Christ has repented. Repentance and faith are the same thing put in different words, and neither requires a long period of time, nor a process of mourning and sorrow.

Salvation is instantaneous. All that keeps you today from being saved is the wickedness of your heart that holds on to sin and will not run to Jesus to trust in Him for salvation. I beg you, turn in shame and sorrow from your sins this minute, and trust in Christ and be saved!

Can One Be Saved Without Prayer?

In the Bible there are many cases of sinners who prayed like the thief on the cross or the publican in the Temple. In fact, Romans 10:13 says:

> "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Many people believe that a sinner cannot be saved without a period of prayer, without consciously calling on God. However, the Bible does not say that a sinner must pray in order to be saved. In fact, immediately following the verse in Romans 10:13 is an explanation which shows that calling on God is an evidence of faith in the heart and that it is really faith which settles the matter. Read it again.

> "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?"—Romans 10:13,14.

The Lord encourages the sinner to pray, and the Lord hears and answers the sinner’s prayer if that sinner trusts in Jesus Christ for salvation when he prays. He heard the prayer of the thief on the cross, of the publican in the Temple, of blind Bartimaeus. But the Scripture says, "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?"

Certainly every one who is to be saved must believe. Prayer is evidence of faith. No matter how long one prays, if he does not trust in Christ, he can never be saved. If he trusts in Christ without conscious prayer, then he is saved already. There is just one plan of salvation and just one step a sinner must take to secure it. That step is to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ!

Some way we preachers have left the impression on this poor world of sinners that God is hardhearted and that it takes many tears and loud cries and long periods of sorrow before He will hear and save the sinner. We have left the impression that God does not care whether sinners are saved or not, and that sinners must some way touch the heart of God and get Him ready to forgive. What a slander on a good and holy God who "so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that WHOSOEVER BELIEVETH in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Man’s sins are already paid for, God’s wrath is already turned away from any sinner who wants to be saved. Both the Father and the Son are a million times more anxious to save every sinner than the sinner can be to get saved! Thank God, I do not have to beg God to forgive my sins. He will do it the minute I am willing to trust it with Him.

How To Get The Change Of Heart

This simple way of being saved by faith seems so easy, and it is. Some sinner may say, "But I thought one must have a change of heart." So you must, dear sinner, but that is God’s part. Jesus was talking to Nicodemus when He said, "Ye must be born again," and in the same chapter He tells Nicodemus how to get the new birth.

> "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:16.

The change in your heart, sinner, is God’s part and you may be sure He will attend to that. Your part is to simply believe in Him. Whatever else is necessary in your eternal salvation, the Lord attends to when you trust in Him, or believe in Him.

How Should I Feel?

Some people have an idea that the change of heart is a matter of feeling. Some do not want to claim Christ as Saviour until they have the mysterious feeling that they want.

Do not let the Devil deceive you here. I believe in heartfelt religion, and thank God for the joy which He gives to me day by day. But the Bible nowhere tells how one must feel before he is saved, nor does it anywhere say how you feel after you are saved. In fact, people do not feel the same.

Feeling varies with the person saved. Some cry when they are saved, some laugh, and a few shout aloud the praises of God. One is no more saved than the other. What you want, dear sinner, is salvation, and you should be satisfied to feel any way that will please the Lord, just so He forgives your sins.

Be sure you notice another fact, too, and that is that you cannot feel right until you get right. Rejoicing does not come before you trust the Lord. One does not feel the result of medicine before he takes it. The Children of Israel in the wilderness, bitten by fiery serpents and at the point of death, were not healed and did not feel healed until they looked to the brass serpent on the pole (Numbers 21:6-9).

People are not saved by feeling; they are saved by trusting in Christ.

The prodigal son, away from home in the hog pen, decided to arise and go to his father, but he did not feel good. He was without shoes, clothed in rags, without the ring of sonship, without any evidence of his father's forgiveness, perishing with hunger! Yet he arose and came to his father, not by feeling, but by faith in his father. Thank God, his father received him, like God receives every sinner who will come. And when the prodigal boy sat down at his father's table, with shoes of the Gospel of peace, clothed in the garments of righteousness of Christ, with the ring of sonship on his finger, eating the fatted calf at the right hand of the father, happy in his love, then he has plenty of feeling.

Feeling comes after salvation. Leave the feeling with the Lord and come to the Saviour by faith today.

After you are saved, you will get peace and joy out of following the Lord in baptism, reading His Word, winning souls and otherwise pleasing Him. You need to go to the Lord again and again day by day for the joy of a Christian life. But, thank God, that salvation is settled once and for all when you simply depend upon Christ as your Saviour.

What About Public Confession?

Every person who is saved ought to publicly confess Christ. Matthew 10:32 and Romans 10:9 plainly teach that God will claim as His child any of us who will claim Christ as our Saviour, but we simply confess with the mouth what we have already trusted in our hearts. Concerning that very matter Romans 10:10 says:

> "For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

To claim Christ as your Saviour simply proves that you trust Him in the heart. Likewise with all other promises in the Bible about how to be saved. "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out," says John 6:37; and salvation is promised in John 1:12 to as many as receive Jesus. But you could not come to Christ without trusting Him, and John 1:12 shows that receiving Jesus is the same as believing on His name.

Dear sinner, do not make this a difficult matter. There is one simple step between you and Jesus. When you trust Him, everything else is settled, and you have repented, you have come to Christ, you have received Him, you have done everything necessary to be saved. Take the answer in Acts 16:31 at face value: "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED"!

In dozens of Scriptures all through the Bible salvation is promised to those that believe. Read carefully the following Scriptures and see that again and again, many, many times, God has promised all any poor sinner would ever need when he believes on the Lord Jesus Christ.

> "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that BELIEVE on his name."—John 1:12.
>
> "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever BELIEVETH in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever BELIEVETH in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."—John 3:14-16.
>
> "He that BELIEVETH on him is not condemned: but he that BELIEVETH not is condemned already, because he hath not BELIEVED in the name of the only begotten Son of God."—John 3:18.
>
> "He that BELIEVETH on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that BELIEVETH not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."—John 3:36.
>
> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and BELIEVETH on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."—John 5:24.
>
> "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and BELIEVETH on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."—John 6:40.
>
> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that BELIEVETH on me hath everlasting life."—John 6:47.
>
> "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever BELIEVETH in him shall receive remission of sins."—Acts 10:43.
>
> "And by him all that BELIEVE are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses."—Acts 13:39.

Read again the Scripture we started with:

> "What must I do to be saved?"
>
> "BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."—Acts 16:30, 31.

Trust Jesus, The Great Physician

If you were sick and about to die, and there was some good doctor whom you could trust, would you not risk him to take your case, give you the necessary treatment and, with God's help, get you well? Then just like that, trust in Christ, depend on Him for your salvation, and turn it over to Him today.

With the same kind of faith that will call in a doctor and risk him for your body, you can call in the Lord Jesus Christ and risk Him to forgive your sins and save your poor lost soul! He said, "They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick" (Luke 5:31). He is the Great Physician and will heal your soul instantly if you will trust Him. As you would trust a doctor, submit to his treatment, depend on him for results, so trust Jesus today about your soul.

To be sure, human doctors fail many times. Their results at best are gradual, and so no doctor is a perfect picture of Jesus. The doctor can work no miracles, but Jesus can, and the change that is needed in that poor, wicked heart, He will make immediately, instantly, without any further effort on your part, when you trust Him!

Jesus Is Our Lawyer

If you had committed a crime and were thrown in jail, probably the first thing you would do would be to send for some lawyer in whom you had confidence and trust him with the entire matter of your defense. In God's sight you are a criminal, condemned already and with the wrath of God upon you day by day. But God has provided somebody to take the part of us poor sinners, criminals before the bar of God's justice, and Jesus is that lawyer, for the Scripture says:

> "If any man sin, we have an advocate [or lawyer] with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world."—I John 2:1,2.

Jesus will not only be your lawyer to defend your case; He has already paid the penalty and you may safely trust Him to have you immediately pardoned and justified! Why not simply risk Jesus as you would risk a good lawyer? Jesus is better than any lawyer, of course, and you do not have to pay Him a fee, and He never fails.

A Wedding

A young man and young woman stand together, side by side, before the preacher. The preacher says, "You will join right hands." Then to the young man he says, "Do you take this young woman to be your lawfully wedded wife, to love her and cherish her until death do you part?" He answers, "I do." To the young woman the preacher says: "Do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband until death do you part?" She answers, "I do." Then the preacher says: "I pronounce you man and wife," and they are married in the sight of God and man.

What a simple picture of salvation! Jesus is the Bridegroom and we who trust Him are to be His bride. Already Jesus has loved you and has long urged you to accept His love. Jesus invites you to accept His love. Jesus invites you to believe in Him right now and be saved and so become a part of His bride.

Will you not right now with the same simple faith of that young woman who takes a husband, accept Jesus as your Saviour and say to Him, "I do."?

Make It Sure—Claim Him Today!

The way is plain and you can be saved this moment if you will.

Surely it has become plain, dear lost sinner, that it is your own fault if you are lost! Do you hate Jesus Christ? Will you hold on to your sins and go to Hell for your stubbornness? Nothing in the world could show your wickedness like postponing this matter. You can be saved right now, this minute. I beg you, do it now. Turn your whole heart from sin to trust in Christ. Choose for Heaven against Hell, choose for Christ against Satan. Do not let Satan deceive you any longer. If you delay, it may result in a hardened heart, a wasted life and a tortured soul in Hell! And if you are not saved, when God has made the way so plain and paid the price for your sins, then you have no one to blame but yourself. Will you trust Jesus Christ today and be saved?

> "Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth."—Proverbs 27:1.
>
> "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."—II Cor. 6:2.
> "To day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your hearts."—Hebrews 3:7,8.

God has given you this heartbeat, this breath, this moment in order to trust Christ, but there is no promise of another. I beg you do it right now, and then claim Him as your Saviour. You are saved when you trust Christ.

One who trusts Christ should then publicly claim Christ before men. It is God’s plan that after trusting Him you should be baptized and join in with His people. I hope you will join a Bible-believing church and let yourself be known publicly from this time forth as a child of God.

1.5.31 More Junk Theology From PGM Shackling Men's Souls (2020-09-25 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. "

I woke up at 2:30 am and couldn't sleep, so I listened to Unshackled—the radio drama program that is supposed to make me face myself and think. Their corrupt theology makes my brain hurt! I heard some more junk theology this morning from Pacific Garden Mission's popular radio program, Unshackled . This is so sad and tragic. The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation has crept into thousands of churches, Bible colleges and religious institutions today, including rescue missions like the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. That is not the same Gospel which Director Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) preached decades ago. My father often preached at PGM in the 1970's and 1980's, with me tagging along as a boy. I know what they taught back then, and it wasn't the garbage they're preaching today! They use to preach free grace theology—that faith alone in Jesus Christ was enough to be saved.

In the following heretical episode of Unshackled, you'll hear a horrible false gospel. [1]Program #3632 - The Story Of George Gray - Aired in 2020 (here is the transcript beginning at 19:06 time in the program):

Pastor Anderson: “But I do think there’s a difference between knowing about God, and knowing God.”

George Gray: “Sure, Sure, what would you say is the difference?”

Pastor Anderson

: “We begin a relationship with God, when we receive the great gift of His love, and we commit to following Him.”

George Gray: “And so, how do you, how would one, do that?”

Pastor Anderson

: “Well, it begins by just admitting that you’re a sinner, like we all are, but you believe that Jesus died to save us from those sins, and you choose to follow Him and live for Him for the rest of your life.”

George Gray: “Huh, well, that’s good to know, for people who are ready to take that step.”

music plays...

George Gray: “People like me. Later that night in my living room, I repented of my sinful life, and trusted Jesus to save me.” [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]Unshackled Program #3632 - George Gray

Dear reader, what you’ve just read is not the Gospel, it is a gross perversion of grace. You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible that says we get saved by “ beginning a relationship with God,

nor by

receiving the great gift of His love.

” What does that even mean? This is liberal theology, rightly termed: “

JUNK THEOLOGY

”!!! Even the demons have a relationship with God as their Creator (James 2:19). All men have a relationship with God as their Creator (Romans 1:20b, “ when they knew God

”).

Judas had a very close relationship with Jesus, one of His very apostles. Judas went to Hell forever!

You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible that says a person must commit their life to follow Christ to be saved. Judas followed Christ, but still died in his sins and went to Hell. Matthew 8:1, “

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

” As we can see, following Jesus Christ is NOT the way of salvation. Judas followed Him. Multitudes followed Him. Yet none of them were saved because they followed Christ.

Pacific Garden Mission says in this Unshackled radio program, that you must “ choose to follow Him and live for Him for the rest of your life.”

I triple dog dare you to show me that garbage in the King James Bible! You cannot my friend. Eternal life is a free gift, that you instantaneously accept, and nothing further is required of you (Romans 6:23). What Pacific Garden Mission is horribly doing is turning the new birth into a process, so that a person can never truly KNOW they are saved, unless they commit to continue living a lifestyle of repenting from sin. This is the [3]same Satanic garbage that Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches!

You don’t have to live a certain way, turning away from a lifestyle of sin, to be saved. [4]Pastor Marty Herron tragically preaches this damnable heresy! When I confronted him in 2014 about his teaching this doctrine of devils, he wickedly drove me out of [5]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. When I needed a church to attend and begged for Harvest’s love and help in 2017, they cruelly told me to go away. This is a fake church, a religious cult, and not a Biblical New Testament church. In my humble opinion, because of the conflict in the church caused by the pastors’ departure from the Christian faith, they resigned and fled the chicken coupe. I know that I did the right thing to contend for the faith (Jude 1:3), but those men (Marty Herron, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and others, are cursed by God for preaching another gospel). God will be their Judge for the blood on their hands (Romans 3:4). This is a serious matter. Men’s souls are at stake.

Ironically, at the beginning of the excerpt I’ve provided, they condemn themselves (beginning at 18:18 in the audio program):

George Gray: “I love how you said, what was it—you held up the Bible and said: If I tell you something that differs from this book, then believe the Book!”

Pastor Anderson: “Very good, you were listening!”

Yeah, I was listening too, and I believe the Book, not the junk being preached by Pacific Garden Mission!!! Sadly, they’ve been infiltrated by yuppie neo-evangelicals. I was disgusted a few weeks ago to hear [6]Pastor Phil Kidd deny the believer’s Eternal Security. It doesn’t surprise me, because Dr. Phil Kidd is featured on [7]’Unshackled’, program #2119, so he has a vested interest in defending their ungodly heresy on salvation by partial faith in Christ plus works. This was the entire purpose for the Apostle Paul writing to the churches at Galatia—someone was messing with grace!!! Unshackled says to be saved you MUST, choose to follow Him and live for Him for the rest of your life.” That is works!

If I have to live for Christ for the rest of my life, then that is not a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9), it then becomes an award, and is no more grace (Romans 11:6). As shocking as what I just said is, you won’t believe that [8]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) preaches. Dr. Pettit says you must faithfully run the race

to earn the

award

of Heaven (and he literally calls it that)...

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[9]What Does it mean To Run 'The Race'? - 11:34)

BLASPHEMY! What you just read is the Devil talking! Dear reader, you don't have to qualify for the award. Eternal life is not an award, it is a free gift, paid for by Jesus' precious blood through the cross of Calvary. Getting saved is not a race you must win. There is no competition! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Dr. Pettit heretically teaches:

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself*." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[10]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - 22:57)

Dr. Pettit is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures, failing to make a distinction between justification and sanctification. Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan (1628-1688) made this beautiful helpful quote:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

That is Dr. Steve Pettit's problem theologically! He has been duped by Pastor John MacArthur's Calvinist teachings. They are buddies, bidding Godspeed to each other's corrupt ministries of darkness. Salvation begins with a new birth. That is justification, when God judicially declares a man completely justified from all things (Acts 13:39). Once justified, a person is forever cleansed in God's sight of their sins (past, present and future). That believe now has eternal life (which is 100 % eternal security). Once saved, always saved. No saint of God, not for any reason whatsoever, can lose God's imputed righteousness, which is solely by faith (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4).

In this particular corrupt episode of Unshackled, program #3632, George Gray says: "I repented of my sinful life," and trusted Jesus to save me." That is a lie! Nowhere in the Bible are we commanded to repent of our sinful life to be saved. Anyone who teaches that you must "repent of your sins" to be saved is a FALSE PROPHET!!! Acts 20:21b teaches "repentance toward God," not from sins. 2nd Timothy 2:25b teaches "repentance to the acknowledgement of THE TRUTH," not from sins. Bible "repentance" regarding salvation is changing one's mind (Greek noun: metanoia; Greek verb: metanoeo) concerning THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption (Romans 3:19). And then we are saved by believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Getting saved never goes beyond the realm of THE TRUTH. You acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner, and you get saved by believing THE TRUTH that Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later.

Repentance and faith are inseparable, and they happen simultaneously. That is how you get saved, by faith alone! Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " When you tell people that they have to repent AND believe, you confuse them. A person doesn't need to repent AND believe, they just need to believe, which is automatically facilitated by repentance. If you know that you are a guilty sinner, and believe the Gospel, you are saved. You simply need to know what you are being saved from, the penalty of your sins, which is death in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8; Psalm 9:17). Repentance is simply the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH that you are as guilty a sinner as God hath declared you to be in His Word, which compels you to believe THE TRUTH of the Gospel, and that produces the supernatural miracle of the new birth (John 1:12-13). This is regeneration by the Holy Spirit of God, giving birth to the seed of God's incorruptible Word in you, in response to your faith (1st Peter 1:23).

1.5.32 Proponents Of Lordship Salvation Use Obscure Passages (2020-09-26 10:00)

2nd Peter 3:16-17, “

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

I took a drive today to PostNet to get my packages. I ordered some King James Bibles to give away. As I drove something dawned on me. It occurred to me that the proponents of the heresy of Lordship Salvation ALL use obscure passages of Scripture in an attempt to bolster up their Strawman doctrine. When studying the Word of God, we should NEVER base a doctrine on just a verse or two, without taking into consideration the whole of Scripture. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) fully understood this vital truth, who said: “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

For example: On their college website, [1]Bob Jones University (BJU) says that you have to turn from your sins to be saved, which is a false doctrine! I am saddened and utterly disgusted that BJU has drastically changed for the worst. Literally, BJU is now a Satanic cult! They have gone full-blown Lordship Salvation, bidding Godspeed to Dr. John MacArthur!

Here is a heretical quote form BJU’s website...

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]BJU Statements of Faith

You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that says
“
turn from your sins
or
“
repent of your sins
to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. I triple-dog dare you to show me! You cannot show me even one Bible verse. So in a wicked attempt to justify there false teaching of Lordship Salvation, Bob Jones University cites obscure Scripture passages from Acts 3:19 and Acts 17:30 to deceive people. Here is the first passage:

Acts 3:19,
“
Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out*, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord; ”

Let’s examine Acts 3:19 shall we? Taken by itself, this Bible verse is unclear, and we cannot discern exactly what is meant by “ converted.
” If we take into consideration the entirety of Scripture, it must mean to be born-again. But if we listen to religious deceivers like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) and Dr. John MacArthur (his buddy in California), then they will deceive you to think it means, “
turn from your sins.
” What saith the Scripture? Always look at the surrounding passage before interpreting any particular Bible verse, to discern the context. Take a look at Chapter four...

Acts 4:4, “ Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.”

As is often the case, chapter divisions can mislead the Bible reader. There were no chapter divisions in the original Greek text. Scholarly men added the chapter divisions centuries later to organize the Bible. So always keep this in mind. Chapter four is a continuation of chapter three. Acts 4:4 says they "BELIEVED" to be saved. The Bible does NOT say that they forsook their sins, does it? No, it simply says that they " BELIEVED

" and five thousand men were saved.

This was in addition to the 3,000 souls saved in Acts 2:41, who **"

gladly received his word,

" and were saved. This is how Cornelius was saved in Acts 10:43-44,

"To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

" They simply BELIEVED and were instantly saved. Please notice that their sins were remitted (pardoned) because they BELIEVED, and not because they were willing to forsake their sinful bad habits.

Now let's take a look at the other obscure Scripture cited by BJU, in a wicked attempt to bolster their Strawman heresy of turning from sins to be saved:

> Acts 17:30, "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:"

BJU's corrupt leaders would have you to think that this verse teaches you must turn from your sins to receive God's free gift of eternal life. They are assuming (ass-you-me) that repent means to turn from sins, but they assume WRONG! The word

simply means to think differently, a change of mind from wrong thinking to believing the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Taken by itself, Acts 17:30 is obscure, and can be wrestled to teach anything. What saith the rest of the Scripture passage?:

Acts 17:31-34, " Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

So Paul departed from among them.

Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed* : among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. "

Notice again that the Bible doesn't say they turned from their sins and believed. No, it says in Acts 17:34 that they simply **"

BELIEVED.

" Oh friend, again and again and again, throughout the Holy Bible, we are taught that the way to be saved is simply TO BELIEVE. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" Galatians 3:26, " For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " There is no mention of turning from your sins in these verses. There is no command to "

repent of your sins

to be born-again!!! Do you see friend, how the Devil has crept into our Bible colleges and churches today, perverting the Gospel?

John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract! The beloved Apostle John said, "THESE THINGS ARE WRITTEN," that ye might "BELIEVE" and that by believing that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, you will have **"

LIFE THROUGH HIS NAME.

" Oh how beautiful! Oh how precious! If we were to exclude the other 65 books of the Holy Bible, all you need to be saved is written in the pages of John. **"

But these are written

" John said, to convince you that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that if you simply BELIEVE on His name you will be immediately and forever saved!!!

The Lordship Salvation crowd have it all backwards! They insist that you be willing to forsake the old life of sin first, as a requirement to receive God's free gift of eternal life; but the Bible teaches the opposite, that you receive God's free gift of forgiveness of sins first, and then God's Holy Spirit comes inside you to live, and He begins to remodel. The former is religious reformation, but the latter is the new birth. Please don't let Lordship Salvation damn your soul to Hell. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again! Jesus said, " YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN "

(John 3:7b).

> "A man doesn't get better to get saved; he gets saved to get better." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), "[3]Salvation Crystal Clear"

I love this helpful quote from Dr. Jack Hyles:

> "Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life." —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[4]Conversion And Salvation" (chapter 3) from his book: "[5]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved"

In the beautiful simple pages of John we find the word

"BELIEVE" mentioned 85 times, but the word "REPENT" is not mentioned even once. That is because the man who believes has repented, and man who repents has believed. Repentance and faith are inseparable, you cannot have one without the other.

> "Being saved is not something that you perform, it is something that He performs." —[6]Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold, a great quote from the awesome sermon, "[7]Raised For Our Justification."

In hundreds of Scripture passages we are taught to simply believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. Jesus died on the cross, was buried and physically resurrected three days later. He did all that to pay your outstanding debt of sin and mine! WHAT A SAVIOR!!!

It is the uttermost insult and injury for anyone—such as, Pastor's John MacArthur and Marty Herron, Evangelists' Ray Comfort and Ken Ham, or Dr. Steve Pettit—to preach that MORE is required than the simple childlike faith of John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. " The false teaching that one must repent from the old sinful life to be saved, is of the Devil, and cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus!

Beware of these slick devil-dog preachers in the pulpit today, who have infected most churches with their Calvinistic Lordship Salvation garbage! These deceitful men preach another gospel of perverted grace! All of them misinterpret the Bible, taking obscure passages out of context, while ignoring hundreds of clear passages in the inspired Word of God! To complicate matters, most of these deceived religious men are using and promoting the Devil's corrupted Bible revisions, which literally redefine what it means to repent and thus how to be saved, damning millions of souls to the Lake of Fire forever without hope!!! The modern Bible versions are dangerous, please stay away from all of them! 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

1.5.33 The Bible Doesn't Teach To Keep The Sabbath Day Today (2020-09-26 19:47)

Colossians 2:14-17, "

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ*.

Anyone who teaches that Christians are obligated to observe the Sabbath Day in these modern times is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures. They are a false teacher! What saith the Scripture? Look at our text passage again from Colossians 2:14-17. Verse 17 plainly says that the Sabbath Day was a "SHADOW" of things to come. Your shadow is only visible when the sun is off in a distance, but when it is directly overhead your shadow is gone. Likewise, when Jesus died on the cross, He became the fulfillment of what the Old Testament Sabbath Day represented, which is salvation by resting completely in Christ. Jesus is our Sabbath today!

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Please don't be thrown off by the word "labour." The Bible is simply saying that faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Jesus confirms this truth in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The people asked Jesus what "

WORK

" they needed to do to please God. What labor must we do?, they asked. Jesus told them simply to "

BELIEVE

" on Him. Did the Lord tell them to repent of their sins? No, He did not.

Yet, when I heard [1]Pastor Marty Herron telling a dying man to "

repent of your sin

" to be saved last year, my heart broke, I got angry at the Devil, and I pitied the woeful ignorance of Mr. Herron. Why do religious men foolishly add to the Gospel what God has not added? It is because they are following the influence of their apostate peers in the ministry, instead of obeying the Lord to **"

(John 5:39a). There is nothing in the Holy Bible about turning from sins to be saved. There is nothing in the Holy Bible that teaches us to keep the Sabbath Day in the New Testament. Jesus is our Sabbath in Whom we rest for salvation. That means you don’t have to repent and turn from your sins to be saved, because that would not be resting, it would be laboring.

The Bible says that Jesus came to save us from our sins, not require us to be willing to save ourselves.

Matthew 1:21, “ And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.” Jesus is the Savior, not you or me! Luke 19:10,

“For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.” Repeatedly we are taught in the Bible that Christ came to SAVE US, and not we ourselves (Ephesians 2:8-9). Turning from one’s sins is foreign to the Gospel. Certainly God wants every believer to depart from iniquity (2nd Timothy 2:19), but that is a fruit of the Holy Spirit, and not a requirement of saving-faith.

I am so sick of Pacific Garden Mission’s (PGM) ’UNSHACKLED’ radio using 2nd Corinthians 5:17 as their Go-To verse to bolster their heresy of Lordship Salvation. 2nd Corinthians 5:17, “Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.” Notice that the Bible says if any man “ BE IN CHRIST.

” That means he is already saved. This has nothing to do with the Gospel by which we are saved (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). [2]PGM perverts the Gospel , adding the requirement to repent and turn away from your sins to be saved. That is a false plan of salvation, which absolutely cannot produce regeneration (i.e., the new birth).

The changes wrought by the indwelling Holy Spirit come later on, after a person is saved. The Bible calls this the “ fruit

” of the Spirit (

Galatians

5:22-25). But a believer must CHOOSE to walk in the Spirit, otherwise they will walk in the flesh, and you would never know they are saved by watching their life. That is why it is false doctrine to say that we must watch someone’s life after they profess faith in Jesus Christ, to determine if they really got saved. You cannot know how much fuel is in a car’s fuel tank by the sound of the horn!

Getting back to our main subject, please look again at what the Apostle Paul said in

Colossians 2:14-17, “

Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

” What does

lotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us means? It simply means that the Old Testament ceremonial laws were nailed to the cross.

Romans 10:4, “ For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.” The man who believes (trusts) Jesus Christ is justified from all things

(Acts 13:39). A saved person is totally freed from the power (curse) of the law.

There are approximately 720 moral, civil and ceremonial laws for the Jew in the Old Testament under Mosaic law. To get to Heaven by works, a Jew was required to perfectly keep ALL of these laws. Romans 2:7, “(For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

” Many Bible students grossly misunderstand this passage of Scripture. The Apostle Paul is not giving a plan of salvation here, as Evangelist Dan Corner heretically claims. Paul is doing the same thing that Jesus did in Mark 10:17-21 with the Rich Young Ruler, using the law as a measuring stick, to show them that they are needy sinners who haven’t perfectly keep God’s law.

In Romans chapter three Paul turns around 180 degrees, explaining that NO ONE can be justified by the works of the law.

Romans 3:19-20, “

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin. ” Since no one can perfectly keep God’s law, no one has ever been justified by the law. That is why Jesus Christ came to die on the cross, to pay our debt of sin, so that God could freely offer all humanity forgiveness of sins and eternal life as a gift. All we have to do is believe.

Satan’s two main tactics has been, and always will be, imitation and infiltration of everything that God does. God gives the Comforter to believers (Romans 8:9); Satan gives unbelievers his false spirit (Ephesians 2:2). God gives salvation to man (John 1:12-13); Satan offers a religious experience as a substitute for the Gospel (Acts 15:1). That is what Kabbalah is. That is what Roman Catholicism is. That is what Lordship Salvation is! God gives man a Savior (John 3:16); Satan will send the false messiah (2nd Thessalonians 2:4).

One of the most deadly religious cults today is [3]Seventh-Day Adventism (SDA). SDA’s believe and preach Lordship Salvation—[4]the same as the heretical Jehovah Witnesses, Pacific Garden Mission (Unshackled), and the apostate Bob Jones University crowd today.

Colossians 2:16-17, "Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." There is no Sabbath Day today. It was a ceremonial law for a specific group of people (Jews), who lived in a specific place (Israel), during a specific time period (the Old Testament). Jesus is our Sabbath today, in Whom we completely REST to receive God's gift of eternal life (Romans 6:23). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

The Bible teaches that we meet on the first day of the week, Sunday, for church. 1st Corinthians 16:2, " Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come." The first day of the week is Sunday. The Sabbath was the seventh day, or Saturday. SDA's teach that Baptists who attend church on Sunday are part of the Antichrist system of the world. SDA's have some really strange beliefs.

Hebrews 13:9, " Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein." [5]SDA's deny that Hell is a place of fire, torment and eternal punishment. [6]Oh how wrong they are!

The SDA religion worships the Sabbath Day instead of what the Sabbath symbolized—salvation by faith alone in the Lord Jesus Christ. That is why God [7]ordered Moses to kill a man who picked up sticks on the Sabbath Day, because doing so symbolized adding human effort to God's grace! To subtract or add to the Gospel is to be cursed by God almighty (Galatians 1:6-9). Run from the Seventh-Day Adventist religion dear reader! Run from Dr. Steve Pettit, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, and Bob Jones University, [8]who all preach the same deadly heresy of Lordship Salvation as does Ellen G. White! Jesus Christ is our Sabbath today, in Whom alone we rest by faith for the gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life!!!

1.5.34 The Bible Teaches Every Believer Has Eternal Security (2020-09-27 09:30)

John 5:24, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

Carefully notice three things in our text passage of Scripture concerning the person who hears God's Word and BELIEVES ON JESUS CHRIST:

1. he hath everlasting life
2. he shall not come into condemnation

3. he is passed from death unto life

That is eternal security my friend! Look carefully at these wonderful compelling phrases in John 5:24. The believer is “ passed from death unto life.

” That is the second birth. Dr. Steve Pettit errantly teaches at Bob Jones University that salvation begins with the new birth, but then he says you MUST faithfully endure to run the race until the end, or else you won’t go to Heaven. That is the Devil’s lie of Calvinism! As I just read to you, he that BELIEVES has already passed from death unto life. It is a done deal, case closed, you’re freely justified from all things forever. Acts 13:39, “And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

” That is eternal security!!!

Another compelling phrase that we read in John 5:24 is “shall not come into condemnation.” Boy I love that! Romans 8:34, “Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us. ” The sinful flesh has a tendency to want to justify itself by works. Adam sewed fig leaves together, in a futile attempt to cover his nakedness. Cain likewise made a futile attempt to impress God with the best crops his fields could produce. God rejected Adam’s fig-leaf religion. God rejected Cain’s offering of works. You can be assured dear reader, that God will reject anyone’s human efforts to save them self.

In Matthew 7:21-23 we read a horrifying true story, about a group of religious people who died in their sins. They had spent their lives serving Jesus, calling Him “LORD, LORD.” They had surrendered all to Christ, but we’re not saved at all. Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” I am amazed that anyone could still believe in the heresy of Lordship Salvation after reading this clear passage!

Matthew 7:21a, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven. ”

You don’t get saved by receiving Jesus as your “

Lord.

” Nor do you get saved by receiving Jesus as your

“Lord”

and

“Savior.” You get saved by receiving Jesus as your personal Savior! Heresy has flooded into our churches today. We must keep in mind that Judas was sorry for his sins (penitence). Judas knew that he had betrayed innocent blood. Judas tried to make a mend for his sins, by returning the 30 pieces of silver (penance). Judas was a changed man (reformation). The Bible says in Matthew 27:3b that Judas "repented himself." He turned from his sins! Yet, Judas went to Hell to be tormented day and night in fire forever.

I shudder in my soul when I think of the end of all these misled pastors and churchgoers today. Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel. Calvinism is not the Gospel. Turning from one's sinful ways to be saved is not the Gospel. The junk theology being preached by Pacific Garden Mission's [1]Unshackled radio program is not the Gospel of free grace! I was saddened and angered recently, when I heard [2]Pastor Phil Kidd denying the believer's eternal security. Evangelist Kidd preaches one of the best sermons I've ever heard called: "[3]Nobody's Laughing In Hell." I love Dr. Kidd and believe that he is saved, just confused. Many preachers today are unfortunately " [4] Caught

Between Grace And Works

(an awesome sermon by Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold).

If you BELIEVE, you already have everlasting life! We don't get eternal life when we die someday, we already have it! If my body died right now, my spirit is already alive forever! That is because when I got saved at age 13, the Holy Spirit came inside me to live, uniting with my human spirit. This is what it means to be "

born-again,

re-gened with God's genes. There will be no break in consciousness when a believer's body perishes. There is no such thing as soul sleep

(a common heresy taught by Jehovah's Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists). Soul sleep is the false idea that when a person dies, their spirit stays unconscious in the grave until God raises them up at some future time.

I believe that when we die, our spirit for the first time will see our body from the outside, as we are escorted by angels to be with the Lord in Heaven (Luke 16:22).

Your eternal destination can NEVER depend upon what you do as a saint of God, neither before, during nor after you were saved. I mean, if a man can lose his salvation, don't you think there would be at least one story in the Bible like that? There's not. If a person could lose their salvation and get re-saved, show me a story like that in the Bible. And if a person can lose their salvation, and not get it back, show me where that happened to someone in the Bible? I'm waiting. Friend, you cannot show me any stories like that.

Carefully notice in the following Scripture that if salvation is by grace, "THEN IS IT NO MORE OF WORKS"!!! That is what the Holy Bible teaches! Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Works have no part of salvation. False prophets' John MacArthur, John Piper, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Pacific Garden Mission, Bob Jones University, and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. You don't HAVE TO serve Christ to be saved, but you "SHOULD" (Titus 2:11-13).

You must keep salvation and service separate or you will be confused, and confuse everyone else! Salvation is not me meaning business, it is God meaning business! My part is simply to freely receive God's gift of eternal life BY FAITH. I'm tired of preachers putting fear into people's hearts, telling them that if they didn't mean business and are still living in sin, they are not saved. The preachers want people to live right, so they put them into fear, telling them that if they don't live righteously they aren't really saved. Salvation is free, always remember that! Stand strong for the Gospel of free grace! Don't doubt the Gospel just because people live wrong. Scripture never contradicts itself, which tells us that Lordship Salvation is not true, because it contradicts Scripture! No man has to serve Jesus Christ because he is saved. If you don't understand that truth, the Scriptures will be confusing to you!

1.5.35 How Permanent Is Your Salvation? (2020-09-27 12:13)

Ephesians 1:12-14,

“ That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.”

On page 16 of Michael’s book, “[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU,” he says that it was Pastor Hank Lindstrom’s (1940-2008) sermon titled:

“

How Permanent Is Your Salvation?,

that showed him Christ’s plan of salvation and led him to Jesus Christ, when he saw in the Bible for himself what Christ had said about it. Michael writes on page 16:

> “One night, in late 2005, I found some articles written by Dr. Hank Lindstrom that freed me from so much of the bondage of counterfeit salvation. I then listened to Dr. Lindstrom’s sermon “How Permanent Is Your Salvation?” After hearing him preach Christ’s plan of salvation and after seeing in the bible for myself what Christ had said about it, I trusted Jesus alone, as my only hope of heaven.” SOURCE: “ [2]I NEVER KNEW YOU ,” by Michael P. Here is that precious sermon:

“

HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?

MP3: [4]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION?

Here’s a great quote from chapter 12, “The Plan Of Salvation According To Franklin Graham.” Michael P. Bowen writes:

> ’For three whole years I had been going about trying to establish my own righteousness before God through my own efforts, when in actuality Christ had, by His own righteousness, paid for all of my sins by His death, burial and resurrection from the dead 2,000 years earlier. When I learned the bible said I could have the free gift of everlasting life by believing solely upon what Christ had done for me by His death and subsequent resurrection from the dead, I believed His message immediately, hungrily, and to the exclusion of all the other counterfeit plans of salvation that I had been led to believe by today’s biggest hitters in Christianity. I was finally “free.” I was finally born again, and I knew it beyond any doubts at all. God put an end to my pamphleteering of false gospels. Now, I preach His plan of salvation via my personal Internet page, by face-to-face discussions with people, by tract, by CD, by DVD, as well as through the use of email. Today, I am now proclaiming Christ’s free gift via this book you are holding in your hands now which shall eventually go all around the world.’

SOURCE: “[5]I NEVER KNEW YOU,” by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 125

Brother Bowen further states, exposing the heresy of Lordship Salvation:

...Nowhere does the bible state or imply that a person must turn from their sins and follow Christ in obedience “in order to” be saved. People can twist the bible to make it say virtually anything they want it to say, but when you see the words of Christ and understand what He says about salvation, no one can refute or debate what He says. For example, Jesus says “Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me hath everlasting life” (John 6:47). Who can argue with that statement made by Christ Himself? Who can interpret this verse as anything other than eternal life being a gift from God made available to anyone the instant they “believe” on Christ as their savior? To say otherwise is to call Him a liar. To add man’s efforts, such as turning from sins, making a public profession, forsaking sins, giving tithes and money, joining a church, etc., or any other “thing of self” is to call Christ a liar; after all, according to the bible, heaven is a free gift that is given to the individual who places his or her faith in the finished work of Christ and has nothing to do whatsoever with what we do for God. “For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

SOURCE: “ [6]I NEVER KNEW YOU ,” by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 126-127

On pages 140-141 we learn that the Christian believer by faith alone in Jesus Christ is “JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS”! Michael Bowen Biblically (and gentlemanly) refutes Evangelist Billy Graham’s perverted plan of salvation (I highly [7]recommend that you read chapter 13, which refutes Billy Graham’s false gospel message) . . .

And one of the most potent verses of all time that refutes Billy’s turn-from-sin requirement is this one: "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts 13:39). What the Bible is telling us through these verses is that turning from sins cannot save us and that God does not require a lost person to turn from sins in order to be saved.

SOURCE: “ [8]I NEVER KNEW YOU ,” by Michael P. Bowen; by Barbour Books, © 2009; page 140-141

Michael Bowen does an excellent job explaining the simplicity of the Gospel, defending the Biblical plan of salvation:

Friend, anyone who thumbs their nose at Christ’s way of salvation and instead puts their trust in a plan of salvation other than the one Christ said for us to trust, that person will stand before Christ at the Great White Throne Judgement where he or she will stand “in their own righteousness” which will not be enough to gain entrance into heaven. Isaiah 64:6 states that our best deeds, the absolute best that we can come up with in this lifetime, will be seen as "filthy rags" when compared to Christ's supreme sacrifice of His body on the cross. The lost person's partial faith in Christ and partial faith in his or her works and discipleship will not be "enough" to get them into His eternal dwelling place.

I urge you, reader, to understand that Christ has but one way into His heaven, and that way is through trusting in Him alone as your only hope of heaven. To trust Christ as your only means of entering heaven you must first realize the penalty for sin, which is eternal death and separation from Him in the lake of fire. Once you realize you are under this eternal "death penalty," you then trust that Christ paid for your sins by His death on the cross and that He arose from the grave three days later. Because Christ knows every single thought you are thinking at this very moment. He "knows" whether or not you have trusted in Him alone, or if you are only placing partial trust in Him and the rest of your trust in living the "Christian Lifestyle" as your hope of entering into His heaven. The latter won't save you, but the former will save you. You either trust Christ alone or you trust partially in Christ plus your "filthy rags." To do the latter, you will not make it to heaven; however, if you choose the former, you, at this very moment, have a home in heaven waiting for you! God immediately grants you the gift of everlasting life in heaven the very same instant that you trust Christ alone to save you.

For those who still believe today's counterfeit plans of salvation, those who are counting on their faith in Christ "plus" their discipleship to Christ to get them into heaven, Jesus says that they will experience the following horrors:

> "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:21-23).

These are persons who were trusting in their works alone, or in partial faith in Christ plus their good works, to get them into heaven. Look at the various areas of service in which they brag. They acknowledge Him as "Lord" and then they brag about preaching in His name, about healing in His name, and about the myriad of inexhaustible works of goodness they have done in His name; yet, because they did not trust in Him alone, the way He so clearly tells us to in His bible, He tells them to depart from Him because He sees their good works in His name as "sin."

As if that were not bad enough, this is the fate of everyone who appears at the Great White Throne Judgement, where they stand not in Christ's righteousness, but in the filthy rags of their own inadequate righteousness. This is their fate:

> "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" (Revelation 20:11-15).

Reader, this chapter presents to you two plans of salvation: 1) the plan of salvation according to Franklin Graham, and 2) the plan of salvation according to Jesus Christ. Of these two plans, which one will you choose?

1.5.36 Lordship Salvation Flips The Truth To Say The Opposite (2020-09-29 09:30)

John 8:8-11,

And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

One of my web visitors wrote this excellent article this week, Ben Vogt:

> People often flip the order of Jesus' saying to the woman caught in adultery,
>
>
> Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more,
>
>
> and interpret it as something like this, "Sin no more and I won't condemn you." First off, sin is the transgression of God's law (1 John 3:4), which demands PERFECT obedience (Matthew 5:48, James 2:10), and condemns those who fall short of it as guilty transgressors (Romans 3:23, Galatians 3:10). Therefore, no amount of cessation from sin and keeping of the law will EVER be enough to atone for the selfsame law we have already broken (Romans 3:20, Galatians 2:16). The woman caught in adultery deserved to be stoned to death for her sin, but Jesus showed mercy when he told her accusers, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her."
>
> After the accusers left, Jesus asked the woman, "Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?"
>
> The woman expressed faith in Jesus as her Savior when she responded, "No man, Lord."
>
> It is after that woman got saved when Jesus told her, "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."
>
> We don't stop sinning to get saved, cause we are already guilty and condemned under God's holy law, and there is NOTHING we can do to atone for our sins (Isaiah 64:6). That is why the Bible says we are saved by grace and not by works (Ephesians 2:8-9). It was Jesus who shed his perfectly sinless blood to pay for our sins on Calvary's cross, was buried, and rose again on the third day (1 Corinthians 15:3-4). His blood payment for sin can be put to your account, and you can thereby be forgiven of all your past, present, and future sins and enter into Heaven, if you will simply believe (John 3:16, Acts 16:31, Romans 4:5). Then, AFTER we are saved, that is when Jesus wants us to "go and sin no more." Not cause we'll lose our salvation and go to Hell if we don't (you CAN'T lose your salvation - John 10:28-30), but because sin is destructive and God hates seeing what sin does to us. That's why Jesus tells those of us who are saved, "go and sin no more."

I thought this was an article worthy of sharing with others. Ben is absolutely right—proponents of a Lordship Gospel flip the truth.

Instead of Jesus saying to the woman caught in adultery:

Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more, they interpret it as something like this: "Sin no more and I won't condemn you." That is the junk theology we are hearing in so many churches today, [1]Bible colleges, and on Pacific Garden Mission's [2]Unshackled radio. Sadly, [3]Bob Jones University is a sinking ship, because they have departed from their fundamentalist Christian roots. Now they've got [4]homosexuals singing at BJU! Oh, you didn't know that? Well you do now my friend. [5]Jerry Falwell Jr. may be applying for a job at BJU.

1.5.37 Getting Saved Is As Simple As Looking Unto Jesus (2020-09-30 09:30)

Isaiah 45:22, “

Look unto me*, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” John 3:14-16,

“

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

In these two passage of Scripture we see the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ. The prophet Isaiah said seven centuries before Christ, that the way of salvation is to LOOK AND LIVE! The Savior Himself said in

Isaiah 45:22, “

Look unto me*, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.”

Salvation is of the Lord. In the belly of the whale the prophet Jonah was thinking about soulwinning! Jonah 2:9,

“

But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

” It was upon thinking of these things, that God told the whale to drop the prophet off at the nearest whale stop! Notice that Jonah offered up a sacrifice of thanksgiving. What does that mean? Hebrews 13:15,

“

By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

” It means this. Anybody can praise and thank God when things are going good. But who wants to thank God when you’re trapped in the stomach of a whale? That is why Jonah said he would offer a “ sacrifice

” unto God, with the voice of thanksgiving.

Jonah must have thought he was about to die. Things appeared absolutely hopeless. Jonah didn’t have a nightlight inside the whale, it was completely dark. Yet the wearied man of God decided that he would thank God anyway, and obey the Lord if God gave Him a second chance. Oh how wonderful is our God, Who DOES give second chances! Jonah 2:9-3:1-2, “And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land. And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

John 3:14-16,

“

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

” That is such a simple and clear truth. Just as Moses lifted up the brass beaten into the shape of a serpent, which pictured Jesus Who became as sin for us, so also was Jesus lifted up on the cross. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, “For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.”

Just as the dying Israelites who looked up to the serpent were healed, so also are we saved by LOOKING UP TO JESUS on the cross!!! That is the simple plan of salvation. Look to the Lamb of God! Believe that He died in your place on the cross at Calvary, Christ died for your sins! Believe that He was buried and after three days He bodily resurrected. That is the Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Jesus died, was buried and resurrected the third day. Anyone who receives Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is saved. Simply believe.

1.5.38 Is God Unfair To The Heathen? (2020-09-30 20:19)

Titus 2:11-14, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.”

The following helpful writing is by Pastor Max D. Younce of the Heritage Baptist Bible Church in Walnut Grove, Minnesota. The intriguing article is titled: “Is God Unfair to the Heathen?” People often wonder and ask how can people who have never heard the Gospel be saved. Dr. Younce answers this important question using the Word of God. Dr. Younce now answers the question:

Is God Unfair To The Heathen?

By Dr. Max D. Younce, Pastor

Thank you for your questions and your concerns. I will attempt to condense this to the basics.

Step One: First, we need to keep in mind that God is omniscient, man is not! In John 2:25 we are told concerning Christ, "And needed not that any should testify of man: FOR HE (Christ) KNEW WHAT WAS IN MAN." In Job 42:2 we read, "...that no thought can be withholden from thee." Ezekiel 11:5 states, "...for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them." Hebrews 4:13 agrees as, "All things are naked and opened unto the eyes of Him with whom we have to do." Keep this in mind as we proceed to Step Two.

Step Two: When God created man, man was created with an inborn knowledge of the God of Creation. Romans 1:19, "Because that which may be known of God IS MANIFEST IN THEM; for God hath showed it unto them." In other words, when God created man, He created him with a mind with which to think and to reason. By visually observing all the wonders of Creation: stars, moon, sun, planets, trees, clouds, rain, animal life, plant life; and even himself, man could know that Someone much superior to himself was responsible. Romans 1:20 makes this perfectly clear, "For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made (His creation), even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." This leads us to step Three.

Step Three: Man's Responsibility. All that any person needs to have is a DESIRE to know the truth about the God of Creation. Only the infinite, Omniscient God can know the desire of a person–not finite beings such as you and I! Remember, very few people want to know the truth about God. Matthew 7:14 tells us that, "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." The Greek word for "find" is heurea and can be translated; "get, obtain, perceive, or see." The reason only a few perceive, see, or obtain eternal life is because of their self-righteousness. Read on in Matthew 7:22, "Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works?" God answers in Verse 24, "And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Christ, addressing the Pharisees in Luke 16:15, exposing their true thinking, "And he (Christ) said unto them, Ye are they which JUSTIFY YOURSELVES before men; BUT GOD KNOWETH YOUR HEARTS..." Many times we have been fooled by people's actions, unaware of what they are really thinking, but not so the Lord! 1st Samuel 16:7b makes this clear, "...for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, BUT THE LORD looketh on the heart." Again, in Luke 18:9, we see the Omniscient Christ exposing the pride and self-righteousness of the Pharisees, "And he (Christ) spake this parable unto certain WHICH TRUSTED IN THEMSELVES that they were righteous, and despised others." These, like others, had no desire to know the truth; but, were gods unto themselves, seeking to be justified by their own righteousness. This leads us to Step Four, where we examine God's responsibility.

Step Four: God's Responsibility. God loved and created mankind so that He could have fellowship with thinking beings. He loved mankind or He wouldn't have created them and He wanted mankind to love Him. He created male and female capable of reproducing, thus populating the earth with people who would love Him and He them. As we know, sin entered and separated His creation from Him. Some have asked why God allowed this to happen. God wanted people to love Him of their own freewill, knowing that He loved them or He wouldn't have created them. Who would want a mechanical, programmed robot to say, "I love you," with no meaning, feelings, or free will? The reason God gave man a free choice and allowed him to sin was, "That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus" (Ephesians 2:7). This He proved, as we know from John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Peter also reveals God's will in 2nd Peter 3:9, "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, NOT WILLING THAT ANY SHOULD PERISH, BUT THAT ALL SHOULD COME TO REPENTANCE (In the Greek, "A change of mind"). Now that we know God's will, we realize it becomes His responsibility to keep alive, and get the truth to, anyone who has a desire to know the true and living God of Creation.

An example of God's longsuffering can be seen clear back in Genesis 15 in the account of His dealings with the heathen nations then in the Lan of Canaan, which Israel was eventually to conquer. Seven great nations are given by name in Deuteronomy 7:1. God waited over 400 more years for these people to have a desire to know the true and living God, which shows God's longsuffering. The record is in Genesis 15:13, 16, "...and they (Egypt) shall afflict them (Israel) four hundred years;" "But in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: FOR THE INIQUITY OF THE AMORITES IS NOT YET FULL." God extended His grace and long-suffering 400 more years to see if these nations (including the Amorites) has a DESIRE to know the true God of Creation. They did not. Of the hundreds of thousands of people living there, we know there was one exception. Rahab and her family (Joshua 2) were spared during the taking of Jericho for her faith in God.

Deuteronomy 7 records God's instructions for Israel to destroy all these nations occupying the land of Canaan. May I pause and answer the question: "Why would God be so 'mean' as to have the little babies and children killed along with the parents?" The answer is very simple and logical. Should children under the age of accountability die, they would go to be with the Lord (2nd Samuel 12:22,23 cf. Psalm 16:9,10). These little babies and children, if left to their parents to raise; would, no doubt, become as heathen as their parents and destined for Hell. Because of God's grace and wisdom, you and I will see these little ones in Heaven which God took prematurely to raise Himself.

Should a person desire to know the truth, it then becomes God's responsibilities to get the truth to them. This can be seen in Acts 10, and 11 where the account is given of Cornelius who was "A devout man and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayer to God alway" (Acts 10:2). God told Cornelius to "...call for Simon, whose surname is Peter: Who shall tell thee words whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved" (Acts 11:13b, 14). Cornelius was religious, but lost. However, he had a desire to know the truth (John 14:6); therefore, God fulfilled His responsibility by sending Peter with the message of the Gospel.

We should mention one more example, the Ethiopian eunuch. He was in charge of all the treasure belonging to the queen of the Ethiopians. More importantly, he was a religious man as he had come to Jerusalem to worship (Acts 8:27). On the way back, he had stopped and was reading the Book of Isaiah (Acts 8:30). Like Cornelius, this man was religious but lost. Nevertheless, God knew he had a desire to know the truth. Philip had been preaching in many villages of the Samaritans when the Lord spoke to him, instructing him to go down where the eunuch was (Acts 8:25,26). Again, we find God fulfilled His responsibility, predicated upon the eunuch's desire to know the truth. Philip led him to Christ and then baptized him. This leads us to Step Five.

Step Five: Many have a mistaken idea that if all the "heathen" were given the Gospel, most of the "heathen" would abandon their idols, their false Gods, and be gloriously saved! This kind of reasoning leads one to blame God for their eternal destiny in Hell. The idea that all, or the majority of, those who have not heard the truth would be saved, if they had the truth, is just not true! The Word of God repudiates this philosophy from man's reasoning. Remember, God knows man—a thousand times better!–than man knows man. No man knows what another person will or will not do; but, God does, because He is omniscient.

Recall the Words of Christ, Himself, in Matthew 7:14, "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, AND FEW THERE BE THAT FIND IT" (i.e., perceive or obtain it). Why is this so? The answer lies in man's pride and self-righteousness; therefore, they willfully reject the truth. Notice Christ's Words in Matthew 13:15, "For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed..." (i.e., to the truth). Compared to the multitudes who have ever lived, only a few have been saved from the time of creation until now.

At the time of the flood mankind had lived upon the earth 1656 years, and there were hundreds of thousands of people living on the earth at the time of the flood. How many were saved at the time of the flood? Only eight. Those who decided not to board the ark had heard the truth, as Noah preached for 120 years prior to the flood judgment. The Bible says, "He (Noah) was a preacher of righteousness" (2nd Peter 2:5).

What about Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah, Zeboiim, and Zoar (Genesis 14:2), which were all destroyed by God? (Genesis 19:24,25). There were hundreds of thousands of people in these cities, yet God could not even find ten that were saved.

Look at Pentecost, just 50 days after Christ was crucified and resurrected. We have the record of the first 40 of these 50 days after His resurrection in Acts 1:3, "To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:" "And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep" (1st Corinthians 15:4-6). He then ascended back to Heaven ten days before Pentecost (Acts 1:11).

Read 1st Corinthians 15:3-8. We learn, from Acts 2:8-11, of the tremendous populace from all sects and areas that had come to Jerusalem to worship at the feast of Pentecost. It is estimated that there could have been over 300,000 in and around Jerusalem. Remember, all Jewish males were required by the Law to come to this feast (Deuteronomy 16:16; Exodus 23:17). In Acts 2:41 we are told that only 3,000 out of approximately 300,000 believed and were saved. That is only one out of 100. One must remember that many of these had seen Christ crucified, with their own eyes, and then observed Him alive after the resurrection for a month and ten days (Acts 1:13). Yet, only one out of every hundred would believe and be saved. On to Step 6.

Step 6: Consider America today...as compared to the heathen. First, let me re-emphasize a popular misconception. "If all people hear the Gospel; that Christ died, was buried and rose again to pay for their sins; they will believe and receive His promise of everlasting life" (John 3:16). If that were true, then why do Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Christian Scientists, Catholicism, Hinduism, Buddhism, etc. totally reject salvation as a free gift without their own self-righteousness of good works included? All these have access to the truth, through radio, television, and print, that a person is only saved one way. "For by grace are ye saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift (eternal life) of God, NOT OF WORKS, lest any man should boast" (Ephesians 2:8,9). Yet, they totally reject the truth!

Just because people living in the jungles and bush country have not advanced in the technology of agriculture, medicine, sciences, etc., does not qualify them as "heathen," as we think. Many of these tribes have a higher value on life, marriage and the family than America does. It is estimated that 4,000 babies, daily, are slaughtered by abortion in America. Lesbians and homosexuals have brainwashed America to the point, most of the schools are teaching our young people to accept this as an "alternative" lifestyle instead of what God calls it, "Plain, old perverted sin." Of all the missionary books I have read, I do not recall any of the missionaries encountering the problem of homosexuality in the bush tribes. Many of the so-called "heathen" execute the death penalty for adultery because of their values concerning the home and family.

Look at America! We even have our pulpits being saturated with homosexual and lesbian so-called preachers, with a Bible ON the pulpit in which they do not believe. Some of the peoples and tribes we call "heathen" are more civilized than our so-called educated people in America, including our Supreme Court! Look at the educated fools (Psalm 14:1) who saturate our grade schools, and colleges with their agnostic and atheistic ideologies of false science (evolution–1st Timothy 6:20). All of these are born with a knowledge there is a God Who created them. All have access to God's Word, the Bible. All can observe the evidences of God, their Creator, in Astronomy, Botany, true Science, the wonder of living creatures–yet, deny the truth. The leads us to Step 7, the conclusion.

Step 7: In conclusion, I want to address those of you who seem so concerned about those who have never heard the Gospel and are going to spend eternity in Hell. Consider the following:

You are not God, therefore you do not possess the attributes God possesses. You and I do not possess foreknowledge; i.e., God knows everything. He knows what you are going to think before you ever think it. Foreknowledge contains only one element–God knows everything that is going to happen before it happens. He knows the things that would have happened, if the things that did happen, hadn't happened! Since you are not God and do not know all things as God does, then I would suggest that you quit trying to play God, second-guessing God, and questioning God's love for His creation.

One must remember that unsaved parents and religion are opposed to the Gospel. This is why generation after generation will spend eternity in Hell. The children believe their unsaved parents instead of opening the Bible for the truth. Remember, the children grow up and as teen-agers, then adults, they have the same enlightenment from God as everyone else. Recall Romans 1:20, "For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse." This is the external cosmology and that of nature, also. The internal evidence is stated in Verse 19, "Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them."

When God created man with a mind to think and reason with, it contained the knowledge that God was the Creator of everything, including themselves as mankind. The God of Creation had His Word written in the Bible, which will always point us to Jesus Christ for salvation (Acts 4:12). This is Christianity. Christ dying and being resurrected in payment for the sins of the world; therefore, eternal life is available to anyone as a free gift only (Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:8,9).

Religion, whether Catholicism, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormonism, Islam, World-Wide Church of God (Armstrongism), Unitarianism, Scientology, and on and on, is always characterized by man, through his own achievement, trying to reach up to God or become his own god. How often, when witnessing, have you had a Roman Catholic tell you, "I was raised a Catholic and I will die a Catholic!" Their children were taught the same as they were taught; and, on it goes, from generation to generation. You have the same process in tribal peoples, whether in Africa, New Guinea, Ecuador, etc. I have witnessed to an innumerable amount of Lutherans and Catholics and found families going back to a great-great-great-grandmother, all united in believing that infant baptism provides salvation for their children. This philosophy, or heresy, was passed down to great-grandmother, grandmother, mother, then son or daughter. I cannot recall how many times I have had a Lutheran or Catholic tell me that his or her mother had them baptized as a baby, and they were "all right"! How sad; but, this is religion and not Christianity. I have related to them that nowhere does the Bible say that babies are to be baptized. Rather, when you reach the age of understanding right from wrong, you must trust Jesus Christ as your own personal Savior. They wanted nothing to do with it at all.

Now, the good news! Once in a while, you will find a person who does not bow to family peer pressure and exercises his own thinking. I have led Catholics, Lutherans, Jehovah's Witnesses and others to Jesus Christ because they had a desire to know the truth. Remember this, the same truth (John 14:6) that one member of a family accepted, is available to every member of that family, going back hundreds of years. Why only one or two who has accepted Jesus Christ as their Savior, out of hundreds in their family tree over myriads of years? The answer lies in a person's free will and personal responsibility. May I call your attention again to God's disclosure of the case in Matthew 13:15, "For this peoples heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed..." Personally, I would rather deal with someone who has never been to church, than a person raised in a religion which has "brainwashed" them with their philosophical ideologies and traditions rather than the Word of God.

Taking into consideration God's attributes of foreknowledge, omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence, you can rest assured of these two things:

God knows who will accept Jesus Christ as their Savior when they hear the truth, because of His foreknowledge and omniscience.

With His attributes of omnisapience and omnipotence, God is able to get the message to the person who has a desire to know the truth, and will accept it when they receive it.

There are many generation of people, for hundreds of years, whom God knew would reject Jesus Christ as their Savior–if they had the truth. They have already rejected the knowledge of God they were born with, along with the external evidence of creation and cosmology (Romans 1:19-23; Isaiah 45:6). This is evidenced by the Amorites in Canaan who, as God describes in Romans 1:22,23, "Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image (Deuteronomy 4:15-19) made like unto corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts and creeping things." Yet, God waited 400 years and not one, except Rahab, had a desire to know the true and living God!

Man's unbelief. I have found that many of those who seem so concerned about people thousands of miles away, do not witness for Christ in their own town. Why? If you are a Christian, explain to me why you are so interested in someone going to Hell ten thousand miles away from you, and not interested in someone going to Hell ten blocks away from you in your own town.

Consider this. You may not be a Christian, just a skeptic trying to blame God out of your own ignorance for something to justify your own unbelief. Those that blame God for the so-called heathen going to Hell, evidently know nothing of the God and the Christ of the Bible. If you are in this category, this what you do not believe about God and why your mind is in the dilemma it is in.

God is Love - John 3:16-18; 2nd Peter 3:9; Romans 5:8,9

God is Omniscient (all-knowing) - 1st John 3:20; Psalm 94:11; 1st Kings 8:39; Hebrews 4:13

God is Omnisapient (all-wisdom) - Romans 11:33; 1st Corinthians 2:4

God is Omnipotent (all-powerful) - Revelation 19:6; Matthew 19:26; Genesis 18:14a

God is Longsuffering -2nd Peter 3:9; Exodus 34:6; 1st Peter 3:20

God is Just - Deuteronomy 32:4; Isaiah 45:21

God is Righteous - He will never allow the unbeliever to enter Heaven; nor will He permit the believer to enter Hell - John 3:36; John 5:24

The problem with skeptics and their view of the so-called heathen is, they attempt to reduce the Infinite God to their own finite thinking. Man cannot look into the mind of another man and know what he is thinking now, or what his mind will accept or reject in the future. Only God knows this.

Skeptics need to believe God when He said He loved the world (John 3:16) and is longsuffering and not willing any should perish (2nd Peter 3:9). Believe God, that He knows who will believe; and will act upon their desire to know; and get them the truth. Remember the Ethiopian eunuch and Cornelius. Remember, there are hundreds of thousands of people in false religions who will not accept Jesus Christ as their Savior. I am now talking about America! Go into a small town with one Catholic church, two Lutheran churches, and a Methodist churches and start witnessing. I did this one day and, after talking with about 120 persons, could not find one that knew they had eternal life because of trusting Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. Not one! When you that doubt God, start believing God; then, you will have "the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:7).

I was talking to a man, some time back, and he had the same question we have been discussing here. My question to him was, "Since he was so concerned about tribes in New Guinea, why didn't he go to a Bible college, learn the Word of God, learn their language, and go there as a missionary?" His mouth dropped down to about his knees!

May I say this in closing? Never doubt God's love as He loves His creation more than any human being loves another. It only angers God when someone, because of their own ignorance, accuses Him of being unjust. God warns such persons in Isaiah 45:9, "Woe unto him that striveth with his maker..." Maybe you have doubts because you are not saved and cannot see things through the eyes of God, as revealed in His Word. 1st Corinthians 2:14 lets us know, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned." "Except a man be born again, he cannot see..." (John 3:3).

If you are not absolutely sure you are going to Heaven when you die–you probably are not! Right now...put your trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior and have the peace of knowing you have eternal life.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36). Also read 1st John 5:13.

1.6.1 Ray Comfort's Wrong Understanding Of 'Born Again' (2020-10-02 09:30)

1st Timothy 6-7, "From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm."

There is a disturbing trend among evangelicals to explain being "born again" as an "EXPERIENCE," instead of as a supernatural miracle of God in response to a man's faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I have a copy of Ray Comfort's "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE" in front of me. I bought it a few years ago. On page 1529, under the commentary section, "How Can You Know That You Are Saved?," The Evidence Bible states:

> Christians believed in God's existence before their conversion, however, when they obeyed the Word of God, turned from their sins, and embraced Jesus Christ, they stopped merely believing. The moment they reached out and touched the heater bar of God's mercy, they moved out of belief into the realm of experience. This > experience is so radical, Jesus referred to it as being born again. [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: The Way of the Master Evidence Bible, by Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron, page 1529; ©2003 by Bridge-Logos Publishers.

May I say, being born again is NOT an "experience." Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron wrongly understand being "born-again" as an EXPERIENCE that involves forsaking one's sinful lifestyle and "EMBRACING" Jesus Christ. Ray Comfort gets this idea from an errant understanding of James 2:19, "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." Many foolish Bible teachers misinterpret James 2:19 to mean that simple BELIEF on Christ is insufficient to be saved. This is not what the Bible is saying here. It simply means that no one is going to Heaven just because they believe there is a God.

This is why Jesus told His disciples in Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." You can believe in God all you want—you can serve Him, go to church, tithe, sacrifice and do good all your life, and then go straight to the Lake of Fire forever to burn!!! Jesus said, "Ye must be born again" (John 3:7).

What did Jesus mean by "born again?" The question is answered in John 3:6, "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit." When you were born the first time into the world, that was of the flesh; but the new birth (or second birth) is when the Holy Spirit of God comes inside your body to indwell you (upon your faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ). Being "born again?" means that you have been born into God's family! Whereas all men are born spiritually DEAD from birth (Romans 5:15), in order to enter into the Kingdom of God a person must be born for the second time, spiritually (John 3:6-7). The first birth is PHYSICAL, earthly; The second birth is SPIRITUAL, by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-14).

Biblically, mere childlike BELIEVING is all that God requires to be saved. This is what Jesus said in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

In Mr. Comfort's thinking, being born again means moving from the realm of merely believing in God, to the realm of leaving one's sinful ways and clinging to Christ. Mr. Comfort recognizes this as an EXPERIENCE, which to him means being born-again.

The Word of God teaches something entirely different. A person is "born again" by the Holy Spirit of God, which is initiated by mere childlike belief in Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial and resurrection three days later. The Bible defines this as the "Gospel" in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Whereas The Evidence Bible teaches that a transforming "radical experience" is what it means to be born-again; the Holy Bible teaches that it is the transforming power of God's Holy Spirit that produces the new birth:

> John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

It is a false plan of salvation to explain the new birth as a mere transforming experience. Any radical transformation is wrought solely by the Holy Spirit of God. It is heresy to require an experience, a radical change, or some transformation from a person in order to be saved. This is because eternal life is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). Salvation is a TAKE proposition, not a GIVE proposition. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. It is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit that changes a person, and not our own human effort.

Ray Comfort understands salvation backwards. He requires a person to commit to leave their sinful lifestyle, and embrace Christ, which is the radical experience he requires from people to be saved. Biblically, you don't have to embrace Christ to be saved, you simply need to believe on Him. That's what the Bible teaches. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Although a person may or may not express emotions at the time of salvation, emotions are not required for salvation. Neither tears, nor any outward manifestation of inner changes, nor a desire to serve God, nor forsake sins, nor any radical experience is necessary to receive the free gift of eternal life. IT IS A GIFT, and a "gift" is free in every sense. For a wonderful presentation of the simple plan of salvation by Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), please see [1]Get God's Gift.

Furthermore, forsaking one's sinful lifestyle is NOT what it means Biblically to "repent." Repentance is "changing one's mind," that is, realizing and acknowledging one's guilt of sin for breaking a holy God's commandments (Romans 3:19). The only thing you need to repent of to be saved is whatever has been hindering you from coming to Christ to be saved (Hebrews 6:1). The man who BELIEVES the Gospel has repented, otherwise he never would have come to Jesus Christ to be saved (John 3:20). Our part in salvation is simply to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, and whatever else is a part of our salvation is solely God's department, and you can be assured He will attend to that.

The term "born again" does not refer to having a "radical experience"

I have nothing personal against Ray Comfort nor Kirk Cameron. I am a born-again Christian and a Baptist preacher. As such I am simply contending for the Christian faith as Jude 1:3 commands us all to do as believers. It concerns me when I hear Bible teachers who don't truly understand the Bible, teaching that the new birth is merely a radical transformation caused by turning away from sinful living and embracing Jesus Christ. That's not the Gospel. That's not salvation. That's not the new birth. That's reformation!!! I am 100 % convinced that Ray Comfort is not a genuine Christian.

The Way of the Master Evidence Bible has much good information in it, but if they are wrong on salvation, they are wrong on everything. It's like buttoning a shirt, if you get the first button wrong, then all the buttons will be wrong. Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron have a wrong grasp on what it means to be saved. According to the quote I provided to you from The Evidence Bible earlier, they understand the new birth to be a descriptive term used by our Lord to describe the "radical experience" of forsaking sinful bad habits and embracing Christ. May I kindly say, the term "born again" does not refer to having a "radical experience." That's not why Jesus used the term.

To be "born again" means to have He (Christ), Who is the beginning (Revelation 1:8), born in us. Jesus taught Nicodemus (a Jewish religious leader) that to enter into the Kingdom of God, a man must be born of both water (the physical birth) and of the Spirit (the spiritual birth). Jesus said, "Ye must be born again" (John 3:1-7). Ray Comfort places the emphasis upon AN EXPERIENCE, which is produced by forsaking sinful living and embracing Christ; but the Bible places the emphasis upon THE GIFT OF ETERNAL LIFE, which is produced by believing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The great spiritual danger of teaching the new birth as "AN EXPERIENCE" (let along a "radical" experience) is that people will think they must have "an experience" to get saved, and that's not true. When you believe (fully trust) the Gospel (Good News) of Christ's death on the cross, His burial and bodily resurrection three days later, you are saved. When you get saved you won't feel any different inside. When I got saved I didn't see stars, angels or hear heavenly voices. The presence of the Holy Spirit is that still, small, quiet, voice of God:

> 1st Kings 19:11-12, "And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And, behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and brake in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake: And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice."

I love that! The prophet Elijah looked for God in the wind, the earthquake and in the fire, but God came to Elijah in A STILL SMALL VOICE. That is always where you will find God my friend. Turn off the TV. Turn off the radio. Put down the electronic toys. Pick up the Holy Bible and let God's Holy Spirit speak to your heart in that precious STILL SMALL VOICE.

I could never recommend [2]The Evidence Bible to anyone, because it is misleading concerning the plan of salvation. Mr. Comfort also [3]butchers Matthew 7:21-23. I admire Ray Comfort in many ways as an aggressive street evangelist, and he has so much potential to become a great preacher, but he needs to forsake Lordship Salvation and proclaim the gift of God instead. A gift is a gift is a gift! It's not that hard to figure out.

Ray Comfort Says Sinful Believers are Not “Safe” in Jesus

One thing I notice is that Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron avoid the topic of The Eternal Security of the Believer entirely. On page 1513 of THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, under the section “Questions & Objections,” Ray Comfort addresses the statement: “Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin.”

Here’s Ray Comfort’s disturbing reply to this statement:

> “The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon ‘repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ’ (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6.” [Emphasis added]
> SOURCE: THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Those are some very dangerous words at the end, “…assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross.” Are not all believers “safe” in Jesus Christ? Yes, they certainly are safe (Ephesians 1:13; Isaiah 28:16; Romans 10:11); but Ray Comfort teaches they are not. Ray Comfort does not fully understand the Biblical doctrine of the [4]IMPUTED righteousness of God (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4). Ray Comfort is teaching heresy to say that believers who fail to forsake their sinful living are not safe in their salvation. Such reasoning places a heavy burden upon the sinner, requiring one to depart from sinful bad habits as a prerequisite to be saved. This is human effort added to God’s simple plan of salvation. First of all, no one can repent of all their sins. Even the best Christians still commit sin every day, both in deed and thought. It is a sin even when we fail to pray as we ought (1st Samuel 12:23).

Check what I say and you’ll discover that it is true, that... [5]Mormons, [6]Seventh-Day Adventists, [7]Jehovah’s Witness, John MacArthur, [8]Paul Washer and [9]Ray Comfort all define repentance THE SAME wrong way. They all mistakenly define repentance as ceasing from a sinful lifestyle and surrendering one’s entire will to Christ’s Lordship as a requirement to be saved. If a person professes faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, but still hangs onto their sinful bad habits, they are wrongly accused of never having repented and are said to still be unsaved. Thus, salvation requires some degree of human effort with all these aforementioned religious cults and false prophets.

Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron totally fail to grasp the reality that eternal life is a FREE GIFT (Romans 5:15,18). Ray Comfort teaches a performance-based plan of salvation; whereas, the Bible teaches that eternal life is a GIFT. Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Being born-again is not an experience; but rather, it is a supernatural miracle of God in response to a person’s faith in the Gospel message. The Holy Spirit of God comes to indwell (live inside) the body of every believer the moment they receive Jesus as their Savior (John 1:12; Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17). The “new birth” refers to the Spirit of Christ which comes to indwell the believer (Romans 8:9). If you’re born once, you die twice; but if your born twice, you die once. Although we must all die a physical death, the second death is only for Christ-rejecters who die in their sins (Revelation 21:8).

Anyone who realizes they are a sinner in God's eyes, and believes the Good News of Christ's death on the cross for their sins, and that He was buried and raised up bodily after three days, is immediately saved and has eternal life. Salvation is received, not achieved. Eternal life is a gift, and a gift need only be taken. To receive a gift there can be no obligations, requirements, prerequisites nor strings attached. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

1.6.2 Trying Not To Offend People Is Unbiblical (2020-10-02 21:51)

Matthew 3:7,

“

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Matthew 23:33,

“

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

Titus 1:13-14, “This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.”

2nd Corinthians 11:6,

“

But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge*; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) was known for having a sharp tongue. I love brother Rice and thank God for him. As a man of God he spoke his mind! Dr. Rice would offend people with his bold truthfulness and voice against sin, but then just minutes later speak with the sweetest words of kindness. Once a person came to know Dr. Rice, they realized that he was a genuine man of God, and that is just the way he was. I learned that fact from Pastor Jack Hyles, who also admits that in his younger days, Brother Hyles was sharp in his words and offended some people. These Fundamentalist preachers were quick and bold to speak the truth, which is what a Bible preacher ought to do.

In sharp contrast, the Neo-evangelical crowd today are full of smiles, kind and friendly, while the world perishes into Hell. The Bob Jones University crowd in 2020 are as the Titanic ship sinking into an icy ocean of modern Bible perversions, after striking an iceberg of Lordship Salvation. I am speaking the truth! I am calling them out for [1]having moved away from the hope of the Gospel. Something is very wrong when our Bible colleges are [2]training tomorrow's preachers to follow Mormon theology! Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation, not the Gospel of free grace. False prophets will always claim to still believe in salvation by free grace, but then corrupt the Gospel by adding " to it. Anyone who says that you must

turn from sins

repent of your sins

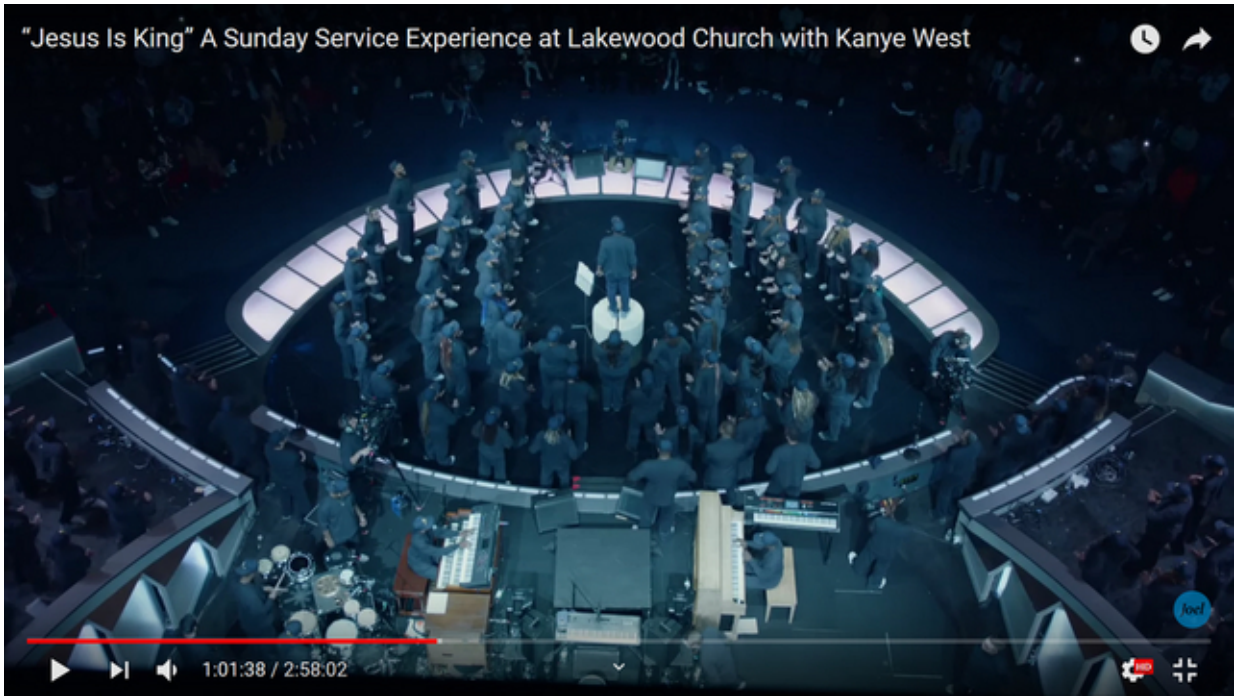
to be saved is inspired by demons! Eternal life is a free gift. You repent toward God (Acts 20:21). You repent by acknowledging the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25).

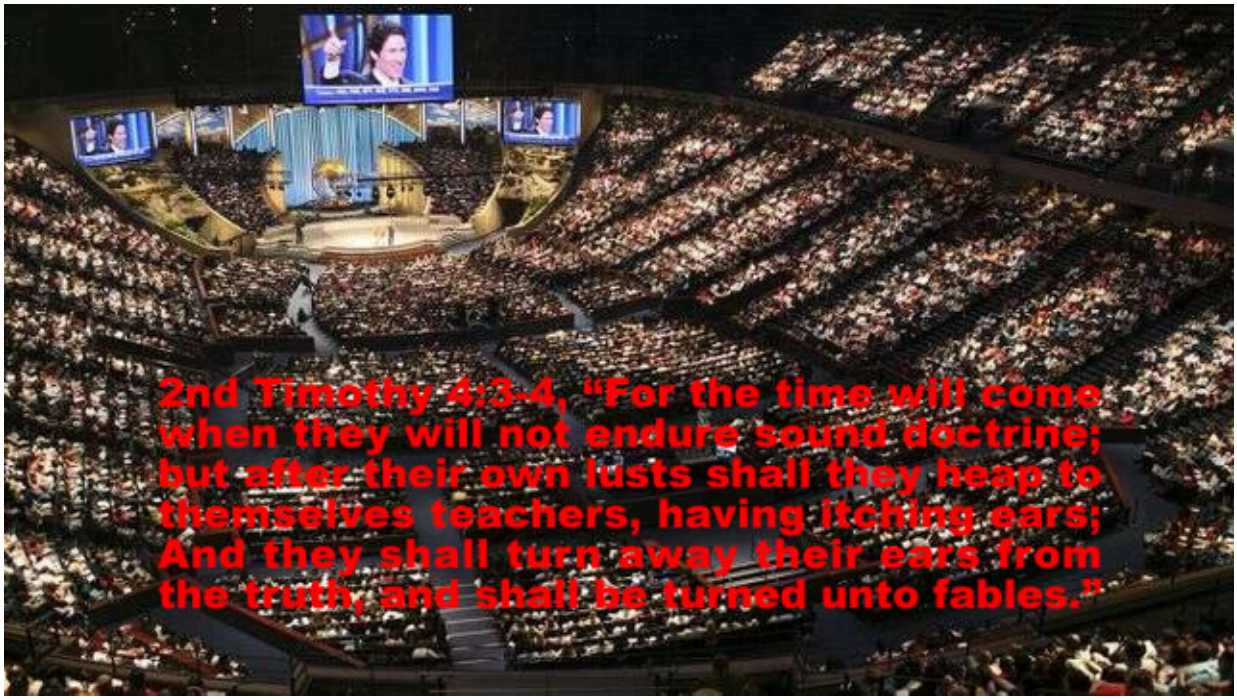
While I'm at it, let me speak my mind some more. [3]Pastor Joel Osteen is no friend to the cause of Jesus Christ! Look at this disgusting 2019 screen capture of singer Kanye West rap dancing at 'Lakewood Church' in Houston, Texas, where Joel Osteen is the apostate minister. . . .

[4]



ABOVE: Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas, where Joel Osteen is the ungodly pastor. Carefully notice the big All Seeing Eye (the occult symbol for Lucifer, the god of this world).

[5]



ABOVE: Lakewood Church in Houston is Americans largest church, with an average weekly attendance of 75,000 apostates! They come with itching ears, ready to be entertained by religious phonies, worldly singers and [6]even had a surprise visit from new age diva Oprah Winfrey. Woe unto America!

As a Fundamentalist

Baptist

Bible preacher, I am not trying to avoid offending people. If the shoe fits, wear it! It may be Godzilla's shoe, but if it fits then wear it! I am a big sinner like anybody else. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but I want to be. I don't have any patience with false doctrines, false teachers, false gospels, false Bibles and false Christs, and neither should you.

Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

Psalms 19:7, " The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." Did you read that? The law of the Lord is perfect, not the man could translated, but

perfect

! I am tired of hearing preachers correct the King James Bible, calling people like me

for believing that we have a perfect and inspired King James Bible! Well then I'm proud to be stupid for believing that our omnipotent God can do anything, including give us a perfect Bible! I believe that the King James Bible is inerrant, infallible, holy, perfect, very pure, preserved and verbally and plenary inspired!!!

A popular wrong attitude has always been that we cannot win lost people, or help theologically corrupt people, unless we are kind, sweet, friendly and understanding toward their errant opinions. If that is your sentiment, please get right with God! What saith the Scripture? Galatians 2:4-5, "And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you." The Apostle Paul, Barnabas and Titus went to Jerusalem together to preach the Gospel. There they were pressured by unsaved Judaizers, false brethren who had crept into the churches, to be circumcised to get to Heaven. Paul said they didn't tolerate that doctrinal garbage for even one hour!

I recently had a cantankerous religious woman come to my Facebook page. She was a former disgruntled member of a Baptist church in Tennessee. She left the church when her pastor refuted the heresy of Calvinism from the pulpit. She posted some comments on Facebook that she disagreed with my preaching against Calvinism, and she criticized her former pastors. I responded with a comment that referred to Calvinists as “ reprobates.

She accused me of

stooping low.

I told her to take her

“

Calvinist garbage

and get out! So she went and got her henpecked husband to defend her. I threw him out too, blocking them! I have zero tolerance for false teachers! I am patient with curious deceived people, until I see that they are already indoctrinated and want to argue and defend their position. I won’t debate the truth!

Say what you will, I call a spade a spade! If you are wrong doctrinally, and I know it, I won’t entertain your effort to convert me or my web visitors to your corrupt position. Go to Hell if you want, but I am not going to allow you to take my web visitors with you! Trying not to offend people is totally unbiblical. I say offend them!!! If you think I’m bad, look at what Jesus said in

Matthew 23:33,

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

” Jesus didn’t try to hobnob, kiss up to people, hide his true intentions, and go along to get along, in an effort to win over people to His views. No, Jesus was brutally honest, and it offended many people. John 6:65-66, “ And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.” The Lord didn’t babysit, burp and coddle His disciples! Jesus preached the truth, come what may!

I am not saying to be intentionally mean, rude or offensive; but we ought not trim our message, lower our sails, sinfully compromise or hobnob with Neo-evangelists, Calvinists or any other heretics to avoid offending someone. All across the United States (and the world) you’ve got churches with ungodly pulpit committees, controlling what a pastor can or cannot preach. It will be a cold day in Hell, as long as I am free and sane, before anyone ever dictates what I can or cannot preach! Only God tells me what to preach! I am as narrow-minded as the King James Bible!

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." – Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

1.6.3 The Perseverance Of The Holy Spirit, Not The Saints (2020-10-04 10:00)

Ephesians 1:12-14,

That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

I love this passage of Scripture. The moment that a person receives Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, by faith alone, God seals them with His Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is God with us. This is the best eternal security you can get. Once saved, always saved is Biblical.

One of my favorite Bible teachers is Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1950). Dr. Ironside was only a man, fully capable of doctrinal error. I love his book on ’[1]The Eternal Security Of The Believer.’ Moody Bible Institute today is hardcore Calvinist in their teachings. I was upset when I read on their college’s website that Dr. Harry Ironside changed his views, moving toward “ a mild Calvinist position

during his latter ministry. I totally disagree. Moody bases their errant conclusion on the following words from Pastor Ironside:

> ## The Spirit’s Perseverance
>
> In the second place, we base the doctrine of the eternal security of the believer upon the perseverance and omnipotent power of the Holy Spirit of God. Look at Philippians 1:6. Writing to these saints, the apostle says, when he thanked them for their fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now, "Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Do you see that? Who began the good work in you if you are a believer in the Lord Jesus? The Holy Spirit of God did. It was He who convicted you of sin; it was He who led you to put your trust in Christ; it was He who through the Word gave you the witness that you were saved; it is He who has been conforming you to Christ since you first trusted the Lord Jesus. Having thus taken you up in grace, the Holy Spirit has a definite purpose in view. He is eventually going to conform you fully to the image of the Lord Jesus Christ, and He never begins a work that He does not intend to finish. "Being confident of this very thing, that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." If when you were a poor sinner the Holy Spirit had power sufficient to break down your opposition to God and to bring to an end your unbelief and rebellion, do you think for one moment that He does not have power enough to subdue your will as a believer and to carry on to completion the work that He began?
>
> People say, "I see you believe in that old Baptist doctrine of ’once in grace, always in grace.’" Or another says, "I understand you hold that old Presbyterian idea of ’the final perseverance of the saints.’" I do not know why this should be called either Baptist or Presbyterian, only to the extent that Baptists and Presbyterians agree with the Book, and the Word of God clearly shows that once God takes us up in grace nothing can separate us from the love of Christ so that evidently the expression, "once in grace, always in grace," is a perfectly correct one.
> But, on the other hand, I am not so enthusiastic about the other expression, "the perseverance of the saints." I believe in it; I believe that all saints—all really belonging to God—will persevere to the end, for the Book tells me, "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved" (Matthew 24:13), and if a man starts out and makes a profession but gives it all up, he will never be saved, because he was never born again to begin with, he was never truly changed by grace divine. On the other hand, the reason he endures to the end is not because of any particular perseverance of his own. What I believe in, and what the Word of God clearly teaches, is the perseverance of the Holy Spirit. When He begins a work, He never gives up until it is completed. That is our confidence.

SOURCE: [2]The Eternal Security Of The Believer

Taken at a glance, one could cherry-pick Dr. Ironside's statement that he "believes" in the Calvinist doctrine of the perseverance of the saints, which would be a misrepresentation of what he actually believed and taught. He clearly said that he was "not so enthusiastic" about this teaching. But if you read that statement within the full context, Dr. Ironside makes it very clear that He believes it is the indwelling Holy Spirit Who perseveres inside the saint of God. This is Biblical. Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:" That "good work" is the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit in every believer, through the Word of God. John 17:17, "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." John 14:26, "But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." Jesus commanded us to " SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES "

(John 5:39b).

This does not mean a believer will persevere in holiness, but that the indwelling Holy Spirit will scourge and chastise every child of God (Hebrews 12:6-8). Put another way, our eternal security is based upon God's faithfulness, not our faithfulness. Carefully notice that the Bible says it is " a good work in you, " not a good work that you perform. I love the clarity of the King James Bible, unlike the corrupt modern Bible revisions that change and render the Scriptures ineffective. When you get saved, God gives you His Holy Spirit, Who seals you. It is the Word of God that sanctifies a man, as we yield to the Spirit's leading (John 17:17).

The Holy Spirit ALWAYS works in coordination with the Word of God. That is an absolute rule to remember. Anytime someone speaks about spirituality (as new agers often do), without mentioning the inspired Word of God, you know they have been inspired by demons!!! Any spirit that is not the Holy Spirit is a familiar spirit. We hear much nowadays from the heathen world about spiritual things, but there is no mention of the Word of God, except perhaps some vague references to the life and teachings of Jesus. The Holy Spirit will ALWAYS lead you through the knowledge of the Scriptures.

Notice carefully that Pastor Ironside is talking about one's "profession" of faith, and not a changed life (as Calvinists do). Pastor Ironside said:

if a man starts out and makes a profession but gives it all up, he will never be saved, because he was never born again to begin with, he was never truly changed by grace divine.

” Dr. Ironside is not saying that salvation can be lost; but rather, you never had it to begin with if you deny Christ at some future point. Many religious people join a Christian organization, or partake of a Christian business, or ascribe top some basic Christian principles, without ever actually being born-again.

There are literally preachers who teach the Gospel, but don’t believe a word of what they are preaching. Benny Hinn is one of them. I know because I have heard him change his message when he speaks to different religious groups, exploiting the audience. Anybody can recite the Gospel to make money off naive people. Christ died, that’s history; Christ died for me, that’s salvation! You must personally embrace the Gospel yourself, making it your only hope for Heaven. We are not saved by having knowledge of the Gospel, but by BELIEVING the Gospel.

Please let me clarify. I am NOT talking about believing with your heart instead of your head. Pastor J. Vernon McGee (1904-1988) teaches that junk and I hate it. Pastor McGee was saved and went to Heaven in 1988. But he was wrong that a person can believe in their head, but not in their heart. In fact, your “ heart

is your subconsciousness, part of your mind. Dr. McGee’s tract is called:

“Missing Heaven By 18 Inches.” That’s the measurement between your brain and your heart muscle that pumps blood. Such teachings are confusing at best, and spiritually deadly at worst. It is possible to have knowledge of the Gospel without believing, but if you believe it in your mind, that automatically includes your heart. There is no such thing as believing with the mind but not the heart. If you believe you believe!!!

Also, faith is not optimism, hoping for the best. Faith is trusting (relying) upon the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, in spite of our doubts. Doubt does not negate faith. Even if you have 99 % doubt, 1 % trust it is no less than 100 % faith if you wholly trust the Savior. John 3:16 teaches that we are saved by childlike faith. I agree fully with Dr. Ironside that the Holy Spirit will persevere in each believer. God promises in Hebrews 13:5 to never leave nor forsake His own, those who are redeemed by faith in Jesus Christ.

One note that I have to mention is that Pastor Ironside is 100 % wrong in his interpretation of Matthew 24:13, “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.” This Bible passage is commonly misused to teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. However, if the Bible student would simply read the entire passage, they would notice the true meaning of verse 13 in Matthew 24:22, “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” The subject at hand is the saving of the flesh during the 7-year Tribulation period, and not the saving of the soul. Those saints who are fortunate enough to survive the Tribulation, will go into the Millennial Kingdom of Jesus Christ in their human body. Matthew 24:13 has nothing to do with going to Heaven. Respectfully, Pastor Ironside got this passage wrong.

I have never met a preacher who was 100 % correct on everything, including myself. I have had to hone my beliefs over the years, to bring them fully in line with the Scriptures. One example is that I used to say that “ a changed life is not a part of saving faith, but is a fruit of genuine repentance.

” I was wrong! A changed life is the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Ephesians 5:22-25). True repentance does not change one’s life, it simply facilitates believing the Gospel to be saved.

Repentance unto salvation has nothing to do with changing one's life. [3]Here is a helpful video that I found, with which I fully agree doctrinally.

So we have learned that the perseverance of the saints is unbiblical. Rather, the Bible teaches the perseverance of the indwelling Holy Spirit. We are saved and kept saved by God's faithfulness, and not our faithfulness to the least degree. That is the ultimate promise of eternal life, which is our eternal security. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

1.6.4 The Often Misunderstood Parable Of The Sower And Seed (2020-10-05 09:30)

Mark 4:14-20, "The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred."

The parable of 'The Sower And The Seed' is often misunderstood. There are four groups of seeds. Only the first group is unsaved. The same parable is told in Luke 8:11-15. The Word of God is the seed. The first group doesn't get saved, because the Devil captures the seed away.The other three groups got saved, because the Bible says the seed began to grow. 1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." The seed in the parable is the Word of God. Mark 4:14, "The sower soweth the word."

The goal of the parable is not salvation, but soulwinning. The second group never matures because they have shallow roots. The third group never mature to bear fruit because they are choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this world. But the fourth group gladly receive the Word, and obey God's commandments, bringing forth some 30, others 60, and some 100 souls saved. Mark 4:20, "And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred."

Evangelist [1]Ray Comfort interprets this passage wrong on his website. Here is Ray's unbiblical answer to the question:

> Is Repentance Necessary for Salvation?

... We are dead in our trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1) and until we forsake them through repentance, we cannot be made alive in Christ ...

If belief is all that is necessary for salvation, then the logical conclusion is that one need never repent. However, the Bible tells us that a false convert "believes" and yet is not saved (Luke 8:13); he remains a "worker of iniquity." Look at the warning of Scripture: "If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth" (1 John 1:6). The Scriptures also say, "He that covers his sins shall not prosper, but whoso confesses and forsakes them [repentance] shall have mercy" (Proverbs 28:13). Jesus said that there was joy in heaven over one sinner who "repents" (Luke 15:10). If there is no repentance, there is no joy because there is no salvation.

SOURCE: [2]http://www.livingwaters.com/witnessingtool/browse.shtml

Ray is wrong! He teaches that a person can believe, but still not be saved, if they continue living in sin. That is of the Devil. A person who believes is saved, period. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." As we read in Ray's previous quote, he says Luke 8:13 refers to a person who believes, but is not really saved because of sin in their life. That is junk theology of the worst sort!

Also, notice that Ray cites 1st John 1:6 to support his heresy. But carefully notice that the subject is "fellowship," not sonship (salvation). No Christian can live in willful open sin and have a close fellowship with God, but that has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life by faith alone (Galatians 3:26). Mr. Comfort is woefully ignorant of the Bible, wrestling the Scriptures to his own destruction, and those who follow his theological lies. Pastor Curtis Hutson gets repentance 100 % correct in this helpful written sermon titled, "[3]Repentance: What Does The Bible Teach?"

1.6.5 Saints Already Possess Eternal Life Now (2020-10-06 09:30)

1st John 3:24,

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us." Ephesians 1:13-14,

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory."

The best evidence of eternal security is the indwelling Holy Spirit. Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) had these helpful words to say:

Eternal Life Possessed Now

...I am a Christian now if I believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; believing on Him I have eternal life, but I have it in a dying body. I am now waiting for the redemption of the body, and when the Lord Jesus comes the second time He shall change this body of my humiliation and make it like unto the body of His glory. Then I shall have received eternal life in all its fullness, spirit, soul, and body, entirely conformed to Christ. In that sense I am hoping for eternal life. But over and over and over again, Scripture rings the changes on the fact that every believer is at the present time in possession of eternal life.

As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have eternal life" (John 3:14-15). Adam's life was forfeitable life; he lost his life because of sin. Eternal life is nonforfeitable life, otherwise it would not be eternal. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16). Everlasting life is life that lasts forever, and we have it now. "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" (John 3:36). "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him that sent Me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life" (John 5:24).

SOURCE: [1]Eternal Security Of The Believer, Part 1

If you are saved you already have eternal life. As believers we don't HOPE that one day we will have eternal life; but rather, we HAVE A HOPE because we are already possess eternal life. If you have Jesus in you, then you have eternal life abiding in you, because Jesus is the life, the truth, and the way (John 14:6). Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

" I don't HOPE, I HAVE A HOPE! Amen!!!

1.6.6 The False Gospel Of 'Patch The Pirate' (2020-10-06 23:03)

Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar*.

The Holy Bible warns about ADDING unto God's Words. Anyone who ADDS to what the Bible teaches is a liar. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." I love that last portion of the preceding verse, "That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged." That means we all have to give account to God someday for the words we speak. Matthew 12:36,

"But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. " As you clearly see, our words are being monitored and recorded by God. Psalms 139:4, " For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether."

Nowhere in the King James Bible are we taught that someone must

TURN FROM YOUR SIN

to be saved, yet these are the lying words that 'Patch The Pirate' have ungodly ADDED to the Scriptures:

>
> If by faith you'll turn from your sin and trust Jesus Christ as your Savior, He becomes your refuge from the wrath to come.
>
> " [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [1]Ocean Commotion Live – Patch the Pirate and Crew

Dear reader, [2]God's curse is upon the Bob Jones University crowd, of which Singer Ron Hamilton (born 1950) is a 1973 graduate. Galatians 1:8, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." It is a horrible sin to ADD what God did not say in His inspired Word. The [3]Seventh-Day Adventists also require that you "turn from sin" to be saved. So also do the [4]Mormons require that you " [5] turn from sin

[6] to be saved. This is NOT the Gospel of free grace. These wicked devils have ADDED to God's Word, perverting the Gospel with ADDED words. May I remind you that Church of Church, Seventh-Day Adventist, Roman Catholic, Jehovah's Witness and most other pseudo-Christian cults, have added the same ungodly words, requiring people to "turn from sin" to be saved.

In so doing that have corrupted the Gospel.

It is sad and tragic that all across America Bible colleges and churches, don't think twice about ADDING to the Gospel what God does not require! The word "

repent

in the Bible simply means

a change of mind,

not to turn away from your sins. It is a Satanic deception that has infiltrated tens of thousands of churches and mission fields worldwide. I don’t recommend ’Patch The Pirate’ to anyone, because if they are wrong on repentance, you cannot trust anything that they produce. The strange thing is that [7] Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself didn’t agree with the Lordship Salvation garbage being taught by the college today. [8]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would blow his college to smithereens, if infidels like [9]Dr. Steve Pettit ever infiltrated the school. Right doctrine matters! Not one verse in the King James Bible teaches to turn from sin to be saved. [10]Only in the Devil’s modern Bibles will you find such perversion!

1.6.7 Jehovah’s Witnesses Teach Same Lie Of Lordship Salvation (2020-10-07 09:30)

Romans 4:5-6,

“But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,”

Repeatedly in the Scriptures we are clearly taught that a person is justified solely BY FAITH.

O n that basis alone God justifies a man.

That is why I make such a big fuss over the popular heresy of Lordship Salvation. This Devil’s lie is preached in pseudo (false) Christian churches today, which says that you must “repent of (turn from) your sins” to be saved. Proponents of Lordship Salvation require people to follow Christ as Lord to be saved, and to surrender to live for Him. [1]Yet these deceivers still claim to believe that salvation is wholly by God’s grace.

May I please point out that the advocates of Lordship Salvation are teaching the same Satanic false gospel, as the Jehovah’s Witnesses:

> “Jehovah’s Witnesses teach that salvation is possible only through Christ’s ransom sacrifice[[2]1] and that individuals cannot be saved until they repent of their sins and call on the name of Jehovah.[[3]2] Salvation is described as a free gift from God, but is said to be unattainable without good works that are prompted by faith.” — [4]Jehovah’s Witnesses And Salvation

Ladies and gentleman, that is EXACTLY what [5]Dr. Steve Pettit and [6]Bob Jones University are preaching today! They have sinfully [7]moved away from the hope of the Gospel. Sadly, the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam deceitfully claims to believe in their Statement of Faith, that salvation is wholly by God's grace. Yet, Jehovah's Witnesses claim the same thing!

> "The Bible shows that you must have works, or acts of obedience, to prove that your faith is alive. (James 2:24, 26) However, this does not mean that you can earn salvation. It is "God's gift" based on his 'undeserved kindness,' or 'grace."' —'[8]What Is Salvation?'; Ephesians 2:8-9 ; King James Version.

Dear reader, that is exactly what the Lordship Salvation gang teach and preach!!! I am so sick and tired of hearing the Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd claim that we are saved by grace alone, but then they sinfully redefine grace to included

[9]repenting of your sins, following [10]Jesus as [11] "

Lord,

and faithfully [12]running the race until the end. None of these are part of the Gospel.

I hope you understood what I just showed you dear friend. BJU on their website, in their Statement of Faith, teach that you must repent of your sins to be saved, which is EXACTLY what Jehovah's Witnesses teach. In case you don't know, JW's are a demonic religious cult! You cannot show me one verse in the Bible that teaches to repent of sin to be saved. Repentance is toward God (Acts 20:21). Repentance is acknowledging the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25).

You are a needy sinner dear reader. That is the truth you must first realize to be saved (Romans 3:23). Christ died on the cross in your place, to pay for your sins and mind (Romans 5:6-9). If you will simply embrace the truth that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, believing that He died on the cross, was buried and resurrected three days later, you will be immediately and forever saved (John 20:32; John 19-20; 1st Corinthians 15:1-5). By faith, simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. That is all God requires of you to be saved, your truth in His dear Son. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) explains it this way:

> "Dear sinner, do not make this a difficult matter. There is one simple step between you and Jesus. When you trust Him, everything else is settled, and you have repented, you have come to Christ, you have received Him, you have done everything necessary to be saved." —Evangelist John R. Rice, a great quote from his tract titled: "[13]What Must I Do To Be Saved?"

I love that.

Dr. John R. Rice has it right!

There is no need to mention repentance when witnessing to someone. God Himself didn't mention the word "

repent

even once in the Gospel of John, the purpose of which book is to get men saved. John 20:31,

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ” We are saved by believing, not by repenting. Repentance simply facilitates (makes possible) believing. Repentance is a change of mind. I don’t have to tell you to change your mind to be saved—you do that when you hear the truth of the Gospel and believe it to be saved. Pastor Jack Hyles exposes the falsehood of Lordship Salvation and Calvinism with these helpful words:

> “Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, ’You give Me something; I’ll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved.’ Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, ’For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”’ —Pastor Jack Hyles, “Lordship Salvation” (chapter 11 from his book: “[14]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”)

Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold has these helpful words to add in defense of the Gospel of free grace:

> “Many people are finding the broad way, because they listen to the wrong message. There is few that find the truth. And what’s the difference between true Christianity, and all the religions of the world? If it’s by Christ alone, it’s GRACE. If you have anything to do with it, it’s WORKS. And God says, ’For by Grace (Christ) are ye saved, and that not of yourselves (that would be works), it is the gift of God (not of works), lest any man should boast. So any person who depends upon themselves, can always lose their salvation. Check it out! Anybody who teaches you can lose it, it’s because their salvation depends their works. That’s them! That’s works! If I depend upon Him, that’s grace! I’m saved by grace, Christ. You don’t earn it! You don’t work for it. ’For by grace are ye saved through faith, that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest any man should boast.’ Salvation is the gift of God!” —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, a quote from the sermon titled: “[15]The Damnable Doctrine Of The Devil”

Beware of [16]Pacific Garden Mission’s poisonous ’[17]UNSHACKLED’ radio series. Sadly, PGM is now preaching hardcore Lordship Salvation. Bob Jones University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Maranatha Baptist University, Liberty University, Moody Bible Institute, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit—these men and institutions are all in agreement with the Satanic Jehovah’s Witness’ cult!!! I shared their quotes with you. Just like [18]Pastor Marty Herron and Mormons, JW’s preach that to be saved you must “

repent of your sins.

The Bible condemns these wicked false teachers!!!

If this seems like a trifle matter to you dear reader, I am afraid you are not saved. Anyone who thinks that the Jehovah's Witnesses are saved is lost. Marty Herron tells unsaved people to repent of their sin to be saved, which is exactly what JW's tell people. This is NOT the Gospel which the Apostle Paul received from Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:12; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). We've got a bunch of grace-corrupters in our church pulpits today. The deadly Lordship Gospel has infected tens of thousands of churches. In essence, the heresy of repenting of sins to be saved is a bridge between true salvation and works for salvation, which is a hybrid false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!

As a closing thought, I'd also like to point out that [19]JW's love the poisonous Greek translation of Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort. The JW New World Translation (NWT) is based upon the 1881 Greek text of Westcott and Hort. That does not come as a surprise, because [20]Westcott and Hort were unsaved Anglican (Catholic affiliated) ministers, who both denied Jesus' deity. Despite much debate on the matter, it is clear that [21]Westcott and Hort were liberal theologians who butchered the Word of God. The Devil's modern Bible revisions are mainly responsible for perverting theology, corrupting the meaning of repentance, and corrupting the Gospel. This is why the Jehovah's Witnesses love the corrupt Greek text set forth by Westcott and Hort in 1881, because it attacks the deity of the Lord Jesus Christ (which JW's deny).

So anyone who embraces, preaches or bids Godspeed to those that teach Lordship Salvation, you are in league with the Devil and his Jehovah's Witness' cult. Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), wrote these awesome words:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. The heresy of "repent from sin" to be saved is of the Devil. The Bible simply tells us to BELIEVE. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, *He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." 2nd Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." The Gospel is so free, easy and simple. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

So please don't let the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam trick you with their rhetoric. Like JW's, they'll superficially say they believe in salvation by grace through faith alone, but then subtly bid Godspeed to Unshackled, Bob Jones University and John MacArthur (all hardcore Lordship Salvationists). Harvest preaches the [22]same "repent of your sin" junk theology as Bob Jones University, from which all their staff at Harvest are graduates. God's curse is on BJU and churches like Harvest Baptist Church Guam. They are deceived of the Devil. They are lukewarm (Revelation 3:15-16). Jesus called them naked and blind. The Lord said they are poor and wretched, yet they foolishly think they are rich and increased with goods. What fools! Anyone who bids Godspeed to Lordship Salvation is a damned fool. Anyone who supports the heresy of "repent of sin" to be saved is not saved!!! Grace is corrupted the second anyone messes with it. To attack the grace of God, is to attack the God of grace. Amen and amen!

I wrote this blog just to show everybody how evil Lordship Salvation is. Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Tom Ferrell, Sam Horn, Gary Walton, Ray Comfort, Kevin Bauder, John Piper, Paul

Washer and John MacArthur are all aligned doctrinally with the ungodly Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Church of Christ, Seventh-Day Adventists and Roman Catholics on the meaning of repentance! [23]The inspired King James Bible teaches something very different, and much simpler. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it. More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much. I love the Gospel hymn: "[24]My Hope Is Built On Nothing Less." Those old hymns of the faith are more doctrinally sound, than most of [25]today's corrupt modern Bible revisions. Go figure! ...

> My hope is built on nothing less
>
> Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
>
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

1.6.8 The Gospel Is Deadly In Careless Hands (2020-10-08 10:00)

2nd Peter 3:16-17,

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

I have always loved fireworks! Unfortunately, you cannot but them on Guam. In the United States you can still shop at big fireworks warehouses, which I wish I could do. I have seen them throughout Tennessee, while driving between Knoxville, Nashville and Chattanooga; and also while driving between Pensacola, Florida and Mobile, Alabama. Fireworks make the world a better place! Well, sort of, depending on who is lighting them. Sadly, people are often careless, even reckless, not paying attention to safety rules while igniting their favorite explosives up in smoke!

When I was a teenager I worked all year long to earn money to but Atari video games and tons of fireworks. That and a million Big Gulps from 711 store! It was great being a teenager in the late 1970’s and early 1980’s! I was blessed to be there in history right when console video games were popular (Space Invaders, Pacman, Mrs. Pacman, Galaxian, Asteroids, et cetera). Teenagers today are losing out. They have no idea how fun it was back then. I also grew up during the time of pinball machines in the 1970’s. I remember that the song Pinball Wizard was a really big thing by the band, ’The Who.’ I loved the 1970’s and early 1980’s. I grew up on cheeseburgers, pizza, french fries, beef sandwiches and pizza-puffs in Chicago! Hallelujah!

The fourth of July was my favorite day of the year, and going door-to-door in different costumes for candy 5 times to the same houses on Halloween. I had a fairly normal childhood and loved it! One year I’ll never forget. We were watching all the fireworks going off at our local park in Chicago. You wouldn’t believe all the literally, tons, of fireworks that the community hauled out on the evening of the fourth of July. Everybody had a box of fireworks. I had to make a dozen trips back-and-forth to the house, because I had such a big arsenal. I used to carry strips of 50,000 firecrackers over my shoulder, looking like Rambo. It looked like the Battle of Gettysburg, and I loved it!

But one fourth of July a little girl got seriously hurt. As you know, Americans love their booze! I thank God. I thank God. I thank God, that my lips have never tasted a drop of booze! I hate beer, which Billy Sunday rightly called: “ Liquid Devil.

” When I was a kid, you could get M-80’s, M-100’s and Silver Salutes (a quarter stick of dynamite) fairly easy, by simply asking around. I bought a half gross of M-80’s for $36 one year. It was Heaven for me! But across the park on the baseball bleachers some men had been drinking booze, throwing M-80’s onto the ballfield. An M-80 will literally take your hand off! I put an M-80 under a 55 gallon garbage drum (we didn’t have the big black plastic garbage containers in the 1970’s and 1980’s). Everyone still had 55 gallon steel cans. I lit one M-80 under a can and watched it blow 15 feet in the air!

(72 of them)

Some stupid drunk threw a lit M-80 and it flipped the wrong way, going off in a little girls face. I saw her faced drenched in blood, as she screamed and cried in shock, horror and pain. I'm sure she lost an eye, but I don't know what happened to her. The ambulance came and took her to the hospital. Oh how alcohol destroys lives! My friend lit an M-100 in the front street of his home, 50 feet away, and it blew out his windows! I can't even imagine what that little girl felt. Her eardrums were definitely blown out. She may have gone deaf, or partially deaf. Explosives and booze are not good bedfellows! I clearly understood after that why such 'B class' fireworks are outlawed in all 50 states. Smoke bombs, snakes and firecrackers are 'C class' fireworks, which are legal in some states, usually outside of major cities. I think most fireworks are illegal in all major American cities. The reason why is because too many people are irresponsible!

Likewise, the Gospel is deadly if it is mishandled. If you are reckless with an M-80 you may blow a little girl's face off, but if you are reckless with the Gospel you may send someone to burn in Hell for all eternity. I am so sick of this "turn from your sins

to be saved garbage being preached in Bible colleges, churches, rescue missions and on the mission field today. No Sir, you don't have to turn from your sins

to receive God's free gift, Jesus came to pay for your sins on the cross! Jesus came to save YOU from your sins, not that you turn from your sins to please Him to be saved. Matthew 1:21, "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

Do you know what these false teachers (e.g., Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, Unshackled, Bob Jones University, Maranatha Baptist University, Jack Chick, Ray Comfort, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) are really doing? They are leaving off the new birth! By teaching lost sinners that they must

repent of your sin

to be saved, they are effectively telling them to live the Christian life to be saved. That is not the new birth! That is the junk theology taught by [1]Seventh-Day Adventist prophetess' Ellen G White. To receive God's free gift of eternal life, you simply come as a needy sinner and BELIEVE the Gospel (the Good News) of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later).

I watched a man's lifeless body get pulled from Lake Michigan at Olive Park. It was about the year 1990. He had been drinking with his friends, and jumped off the perch overhang at Olive Park. Since he was drunk he couldn't swim, and drowned. I watch police Scuba divers pull his dead body from the water. Young people standing around were laughing. I couldn't believe how insensitive and selfish some people were. That man's life was over, and people were cutting up with jokes and holding cups of beer, laughing as they beheld a dead man! That is the world

dear friend. That is the world then and now! The world is no worse today than it was 5,000 years ago, there's just a bunch more people, and massive advancements in technology (that allow men to travel further down the road they were already on). The world has always been a wicked place (1st John 5:19).

That man was careless with his alcohol consumption, and died as a result. I don't see any way for a person to be " responsible

drinking booze. That's like saying someone should be responsible while playing a deadly game of Russian Roulette. I couldn't believe reading in the news that some insane police officers in St. Louis were playing Russian Roulette with their side arms. [2]The woman was killed by her partner! How stupid can you get? Cops? Unreal. An idle mind is the Devil;'s workshop. I am 100 % against married males and females working together in any job. Married woman belong at home (1st Timothy 5:14-15). These career women are damning themselves to a life of misery. They get what they deserve, nothing!

Fireworks are pretty and joyful to watch, but put into the wrong hands they can cause uncontrollable fires, serious injury and death. Likewise, the Gospel is beautiful and able to save the worst sinner, but put into the wrong hands (who distort it) it can cause multitudes of people to go to Hell forever! [3]Bob Jones University mishandles the Gospel, perverting grace, by teaching that you must turn from your sins to be saved. I wouldn't trust them to light off fireworks, let along handle the delicate Gospel of free grace.

1.6.9 Bob Jones University Agree With Mormons On Repentance (2020-10-09 10:00)

John 11:25-26,

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this? "

In our text passage above, Jesus gives the simple way to be saved, by simply believing on Him. Jesus asked Martha, "Believest thou this?" Jesus didn't ask her if she was willing to turn from her sins, did He. Jesus didn't ask her if she was willing to make full surrender to Him as Lord. No, He did not. Jesus didn't ask Martha is she was willing to do full repentance, forsake self, commit to follow Him and make public confession. No, Jesus simply told her the truth that He alone is the resurrection and the life, and whosoever believes in Him shall never die!

Believest thou this? John 20:31, "

But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

I so much wish that I could preach some sense into professed Christians today, who have bought into the Devil’s lie that you must “ repent of your sin ” to be saved. Sincere men like [1]Pastor Marty Herron (former longtime pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) have bought into this Devil’s lie, alienating themselves from the grace of God. No one is saved who believes that you must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to go to Heaven! That is what Pastor Herron preaches, which I heard with my own two ears, while listening to him preach in 2014 at Harvest. As a true friend, I gave hardcopies of the helpful book: “[2]I NEVER KNEW YOU” (.PDF) by Michael P. Bowen to Pastor Herron, and his assistant pastors, for which I was [3]thrown under the bus, forced out of the church, and have been [4]cruelly ostracized since. The new pastor Gary Walton is no better, who still ostracizes me, and is 100 % in full sinful support of Bob Jones University today! 2nd John 1:11, “ For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.”

Bob Jones University (BJU) today is very different than when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was at the helm. “

Dr. Bob

” as he was known was [5]100 % right on the Gospel, teaching that we simply “

to be saved. [6]BJU teaches something very different today, requiring that you also repent and turn from your sins to be saved, which is exactly what the Mormons teach! First here is what BJU teaches in their official statement of faith.

Bob Jones University is [7]pulling on the same rope as the Devil! Here is a deceptive quote from their college’s website:

> ## With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). God offers this salvation freely to all men *who are willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30) and place their full faith and trust in the atonement Christ made by His finished work on the Cross (Luke 24:46–48, Heb. 9:11–15, 10:10–14). [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [8]BJU Statements of Faith

[9]

Now look at what the Mormon’s teach on their official website:

> “Repentance is one of the first principles of the gospel and is essential to our temporal and eternal happiness. It is much more than just acknowledging wrongdoings. It is a change of mind and heart that gives us a fresh view about God, about ourselves, and about the world. It includes turning away from sin and turning to God for forgiveness. It is motivated by love for God and the sincere desire to obey His commandments.” [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [10]The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-Day Saints - Repentance

That is 100 % Lordship Salvation! That is exactly what Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University are sinfully preaching these days, for which God's curse is upon them! Galatians 1:8, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. " Pastor Marty Herron is cursed! Pastor Gary Walton is cursed! BJU is cursed! [11]Pacific Garden Mission and their '[12]UNSHACKLED' are cursed! [13]Pastor John MacArthur is cursed, to whom Moody Bible Institute, BJU and the Bob Jones' crowd all bid Godspeed, making them partaker of his [14]Calvinist counterfeit gospel! These men are devils in the pulpit today!!!

The Mormon website further heretically states concerning repentance:

> "Through the Atonement of Jesus Christ, our Father in Heaven has provided the only way for us to be forgiven of our sins. Jesus Christ suffered the penalty for our sins so we can be forgiven if we sincerely repent. As we repent and rely on His saving grace, we will be cleansed from sin*." [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [15]The Church Of Jesus Christ Of Latter-Day Saints - Repentance

I couldn't show you a clearer example of the heresy of partial faith in Christ, plus works. Nowhere does the Bible teach that we must repent of our sins, and continuing repenting of our sins as a lifestyle, to be saved. [16]Evangelist Ray Comfort teaches this nightmare theology, that you must continuing repenting of your sins your whole life to be saved. Getting saved is not a process, it is a new birth! You don't get cleansed of sin as you make an effort to turn from them, and rely on Jesus' saving grace while you are doing it. This is a counterfeit gospel based upon works, and not faith alone. Do you see friend how evil Lordship Salvation is? It is a false Gospel that adds to faith. Whereas the Bible simply teaches to "believe" to be saved, proponents of Lordship Salvation require that you make an effort to turn from your sins, and then secondly trust Christ. That is NOT the Gospel which the King James Bible teaches!

All of the pseudo-Christian cults (Jehovah's Witness, Seventh-Day Adventist, Church of Christ, Roman Catholic, Mormon, et cetera) errantly teach repentance as meaning: " to turn away from your sins,

" to be saved. That is why [17]Brigham Young University actually requires their students to read Dr. John MacArthur's book called: "

The Gospel According To Jesus

(which is a blasphemous

piece of filth and a roadmap to the Lake of Fire). Read for yourself some of the ungodly Satanic lies set forth in Dr. MacArthur's horrible book:

> "Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith." (
>
>
> The Gospel According to Jesus,

p. 140.)

“The gospel Jesus proclaimed was a call to discipleship, a call to follow Him in submissive obedience. . . . Forsaking oneself for Christ’s sake is not an optional step of discipleship subsequent to conversion; it is the sine qua non of saving faith.” (

“

The Gospel According to Jesus,

[Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 27, 142.)

“That is the kind of response the Lord Jesus called for: wholehearted commitment. A desire for Him at any cost. Unconditional surrender. A full exchange of self for the Savior. It is the only response that will open the gates of the kingdom.” (

“

The Gospel According to Jesus,

[Revised & Expanded Edition], p. 148.)

Pastor MacArthur was inspired by demons when he wrote those heretical statements! Sadly, [18]Dr. Steve Petit (shameful president of Bob Jones University since 2014) fully endorses and bids Godspeed to John MacArthur. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) exposes these men as dangerous wolves in sheep’s clothing:

“Lordship salvation would make salvation a trade or a deal or maybe even a bribe. It would take away the simple reception of Christ for eternal life and would become God giving us something if we give Him something. God would say to us, ’You give Me something; I’ll give you something. We will trade, and you will be saved.’ Salvation is not my giving God something and God giving me something; salvation is God giving me something and my receiving it. Romans 6:23, ’For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.’” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “Lordship Salvation” (chapter 11 from his book: “[19]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved”)

Dr. Hyles is absolutely right—salvation is not an exchange or a trade, it is a gift that we simply receive by faith. Read again what Dr. MacArthur foolishly writes:

“Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is . And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith.” [emphasis added] —Dr. John MacArthur, “The Gospel According to Jesus,” p. 140

Dr. MacArthur is an unsaved reprobate in the pulpit. I say that kindly, but truthfully. Pastor MacArthur is a theological liar! Eternal life is a free gift, not a deal or a trade where we must pay a price, nor exchange all that we are to receive it! Why does Bob Jones University bid Godspeed to this theological madman in the pulpit? Why does the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sell their souls, stooping low, embracing this perversion of God's grace? What does that say about the church members of Harvest Baptist Church? It says they don't care about the truth! Jeremiah 5:31, "The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?"

Mormonism is a demonic perverted cult! They are wrong on repentance. They are wrong on the Gospel. They are wrong on Jesus' deity. They are wrong on a bunch of things doctrinally, morally and socially. It disturbs me that the Bob Jones' crowd today are preaching the SAME Lordship Salvation junk theology as the religious cults! What is wrong with professed Christians today? This is a serious matter folks, because there is only one Gospel, and it does not include turning from your sins to be saved. Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ." Bob Jones University is troubling our churches today, perverting the Gospel of Christ!

Woe unto John MacArthur! Woe unto Bob Jones University! Woe unto Harvest Baptist Church on Guam! Woe unto Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Charles Phelps, Kevin Bauder, and other corrupters of God's grace, who are deadly wolves in the pulpit today! Ladies and gentleman, I have just proven to you that the ungodly Bob Jones University crowd are in doctrinal agreement with the hellbound Mormons on repentance. I didn't pick this fight. I simply shared some Fundamentalist Baptist Christian books and sermons with the theologically incompetent pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, to which they showed me the door and drew first blood. They started this bloody spiritual war and I'm finishing it, to God be the glory!

What saith the Scripture? Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you [20]that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

" Dr. Bob Jones Sr. is right, who said in 1944, that the Gospel is worth contending for! The Gospel is still worth contending for in 2020! Dr. Jones was a living lion, and I am only a living dog, but the Bible says a living dog is better than a dead lion " (Ecclesiastes 9:4b). To God be the glory, for Jesus said without Him we can do nothing (John 15:5). I am going to preach a free grace Gospel, simply by believing to be saved, until the Lord calls me home to Heaven!

John 3:14-16,

“

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

1.6.10 God's Ultimate Goal For Every Believer Is Soulwinning (2020-10-10 09:30)

Mark 16:15, "And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Luke 8:15, "

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

John 15:5-8,

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

John

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples*.

God didn't save us to merely eat, drink and be merry because someday we die. Hebrews 12:1-2, "

Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

" This passage helps to explain Luke 8:14b, which mentions being "choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

" The parable of The Sower And The Seed is often misunderstood, errantly being applied to salvation. But the passage is about soulwinning, which is evidenced by the word

fruit

” in Luke 8:14 and 15. God’s ultimate goal for every Christian is to mature so that we bear much fruit.

Granted, only God can save a soul. 1st Corinthians 3:6-7, “

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

” Our Christian duty is to preach the Gospel to “every creature” (Mark 16:15b). Some human beings resemble a creature more than a man, but the Bible teaches that Jesus Christ was willing to die for each and every one of them

(John 3:16)

. God loves all humanity unconditionally (Romans 5:6-9). There are no ugly humans in God’s sight. God doesn’t make junk! The vilest criminal will no doubt be viewed upon by society as being a monster, but God still commands us to preach the Gospel to “every creature.”

John 15:5-8, “

I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. ” If you are saved, Christ’s Spirit abides in you (Romans 8:9). But unless we abide in Him, by keeping His commandments, we won’t bear fruit. It is important that you learn as a believer the difference between Christ abiding in you (i.e., salvation), versus you abiding in Christ (discipleship).

1st John 3:5-8, “

And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

Little children*, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

Carefully notice that these Bible verses speak of “ abiding in him, ” not Christ abiding in us. This Bible passage does not deal with salvation, but our fellowship with the Lord. If we choose to live in willful sin, then we are of the Devil. The church at Corinth was **“

carnal

(1st Corinthians 3:1). God wants His children to fulfill the law (Romans 3:31). We don’t keep the law to BE saved, but because we ARE saved. Titus 2:12 says that saints “should” live godly. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 5:25, “If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit. ” Here we see that it is possible for a child of God to LIVE in the Holy Spirit (i.e., He lives in us), but fail to WALK (obey) the indwelling Holy Spirit in accordance with the written Word of God (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). This proves that discipleship is an entirely separate matter from salvation. Evangelist John Bunyan writes these helpful words:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I love that quote! This one truthful quote exposes what is so wrong with Lordship Salvation, which mixes and confuses service (discipleship) with salvation. We must always keep these two things separate!

God’s desire is for every believer to share the Gospel with others. Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.” Daniel 12:3, “And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever. ” The Bible speaks here of [1]God’s imputed righteousness, which is by faith in Jesus Christ, and not our own self-righteousness (Isaiah 64:6). Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

” Matthew 6:33, “ But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” We are saved by trusting Jesus Christ, which God counts for righteousness (Romans 4:5-6).

If you know how you got saved, then you know what to share with others. If you don’t know how you were saved, then something is wrong. I have [2]many excellent helpful resources on my [3]ministry websites to help you [4]become an effective soulwinner. But always remember that it is THE GOSPEL, and not our cunning wisdom or eloquent words, that is the power of God unto salvation unto them that BELIEVE. Romans 1:16, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

” We hear about a lot of religious activity in the world today, and talk of spiritual things, but there is no mention of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. This is what the Bible warns us about in

2nd Timothy 3:5, “

Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

” That

power

is the Gospel, by which men are saved. [5]We saw this apostasy in a recent global prayer event.

The world is dying for Christians who are real, who care, who speak the truth. People can spot a phony Christian very quickly. The evidence of a real Christian is that they care, that they are willing to suffer for their convictions, that they refuse to compromise. 2nd Timothy 3:12, “Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. ” I share the same attitude of the Apostle Paul in 1st Corinthians 9:16, “

For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! ” Most Bible colleges (and the unfortunate corrupted churches they influence) are not preaching the Gospel anymore. Instead they are preaching another gospel of Lordship Salvation, which [6]Mormons and [7]Jehovah's Witnesses also preach. Woe unto me if I preach not THE GOSPEL! Are you a soulwinner dear Christian? Time is running out.

1.6.11 God Will Not Forget Any Of Our Labors For Him (2020-10-11 20:52)

Hebrews 6:10,

For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

What a beautiful Bible verse! I am so thankful to God that He put these little encouraging verses in the Bible. I cannot think of a more precious promise from God to encourage me in my relentless labors for Him. God knows that I work night and day on my website ministry to reach others for Christ, to preach the truth, and feed the saints of God. Pastor Jack Hyles said when you find some work that you are passionate about, you know you have found God's ministry for you! Since 2002 I have been passionate about preaching on the internet for Christ! It is my life and passion to feed God's sheep (John 21:17), to preach the Gospel to the lost and dying world (Mark 16:15), and to earnestly contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). I am not worthy (Genesis 32:10), but Jesus is worthy (Revelation 5:12).

God is an ethical God! Jesus said that even the smallest, most seemingly insignificant works done for Him, will not go unrewarded. Mark 9:41, "

For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

This wonderful promise only applies to God's redeemed children. The unsaved person has no expectation, [1]except that of spending eternity in the fires of Hell (Revelation 20:15). Please do not be a fool dear reader. Hebrews 12:31,

"It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." Matthew 10:28, " And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." If you are not sure that Hell is real, why take the risk? [2]Please make sure that you have been born-again. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! The Bible teaches ALL or NOTHING! Either God won't give you even one drop of water in Hell (Luke 16:24-31), or else as His child God will give you all things (Romans 8:32).

Here is a lengthy quote from 1st Corinthians, concerning earning rewards in Heaven:

> 1st Corinthians 3:4-17, "For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?
>
> Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?
>
> I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.
>
> So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.
>
> Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.
>
> For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.
>
> According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.
>
> For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
>
> Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
>
> Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
>
> If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.
>
> If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

I love that passage of Scripture. People tend to think that preachers behind the pulpit will receive most of the rewards, but that is not what we just read. The Apostle Paul said the Christian who labors to sow the seed of the Gospel, and the other Christian who waters that sown seed, and the other Christian who reaps the harvest (leading that soul to the Lord), all receive the SAME reward from God. It is God that giveth the increase the Bible teaches! My goal has never been to earn rewards in Heaven; but rather, to help other people get saved and live for God, to the best of my ability in the Lord's strength (John 15:5). I just want to help people for Jesus. God knows my heart. I don't want any money. I just want to be a blessing to as many people I can, wherever I can, as much as I can, in any way that I can, for as long as I can, by the grace of God.

As we just read in 1st Corinthians 3:11, Jesus Christ is the only foundation. As believers we build upon faith in Jesus Christ, the Rock of our salvation! 1st Peter 2:5, " Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ." Many foolish churchgoers nowadays are building upon a foundation of sand, called

Lordship Salvation.

This is a false gospel, which is also [3]what the hellbound Mormon cult teach.

If you are saved, you should be a soulwinner. Granted, you cannot save anybody. You might share the Gospel for years and not lead anyone to Christ. It all depends on how receptive the people are in that geographical area. If you witness in Salt Lake City, Utah, which is predominantly Mormon, it will be more difficult to win people to Christ, than if you carried the Gospel to poorer places throughout Africa. I have heard missionaries to staunch Roman Catholic areas, testify that they had few converts. Our duty is not to seek results, but to be obedient to go soulwinning (which is a Biblical term). Proverb 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

Pastor Jack Hyles is right, who said that we’re supposed to go soulwinning as believers, whether our churches grow in attendance or shrink. Soulwinning is not an option, it is a command from God. The church that does not go soulwinning is a blind, poor, naked and wretched church (Revelation 3:15-16). ’The Great Commission’ in Matthew 28:19-20 has sadly become ’The Great Omission’ in most so-called “ churches

” today. Soulwinning is the primary work of the local New Testament church! All across America we’ve got lifeless churches who gather around the Word, but never lift a finger for God to win the local community to Jesus Christ with the Gospel. They are Sitting On The Premises instead of Standing On The Promises. The Christian’s greatest duty is preaching the Gospel.

Everything that we do to help the local soulwinning pastor and church will be rewarded by God. If you volunteer to mow the church lawn, God will reward you, if you do it to help further the preaching of the Gospel. All of these shameful Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) artists today, who impress millions of music fans with their talent, but never preach the Gospel, will one day be reckoned with God. 1st Corinthians 9:16, “For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; *yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!” I think most CCM performers are not really saved. Many of them are hellbound Roman Catholics. Others merely say they “follow Jesus,” but have never been born-again (John 3:3-7).

CCM diva [4]Amy Grant is a member of the hellbound Church of Christ (COC), who believe in the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration (i.e., they say you must be water baptized to go to Heaven). COC also require that you turn away from your sins, and make public confession of Jesus to be saved. None of these three things are required by God to be saved. Jesus simply said in John 6:47, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” God only requires one step between you and eternal life dear friend, which is simply to BELIEVE on the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31).

1.6.12 If You Are Saved, You Can Murder And Still Go To Heaven (2020-10-12 09:30)

Acts 13:38-39, “

Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

There is a simple way to test if a professed Christian is really saved. I once witnessed to a man who is a Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA). Ironically, I was more knowledgeable of his religion’s beliefs than he was. This is often the case when I witness to Roman Catholics, Jehovah’s Witnesses, SDA’s and other religious faiths. When I shared the Gospel with the SDA man, he agreed that Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ. He believed that Christ died for his sins, was buried and resurrected three days later. At a glance, it would appear that he was saved to an unlearned Christian.

However, I knew better, having a thorough understanding of SDA dogma. So I mentioned that salvation is a gift, and that even if a Christian murders someone, they could never lose God’s salvation. He then unwittingly confirmed to me that he in fact was not saved, by disagreeing. He said that even though eternal life is a gift, we can give that gift back to God by willful disobedience and sin. Dear reader, no one is saved who believes that God’s gift of eternal life can be forfeited by sinning. You see, if you think you can lose it by sinning, then you also think that you must maintain a certain level of self-righteousness to keep it! That is not the Gospel mindset that a truly born-again believer has.

If you were to ask me, if I could murder someone and still go to Heaven, my answer would quickly be: “Yes, absolutely, because my salvation has nothing to do with the life I live. It was paid for on the cross by Jesus’ precious blood. I am saved because of what Jesus did to pay for my sins on Calvary’s cross, and not by any works of righteousness which I have done!”

My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus’ name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;

All other ground is sinking sand,

All other ground is sinking sand.

If you are saved, Acts 13:39 says that God has justified you from ALL THINGS. Acts 13:39, “And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.” Once saved, always saved! It is not your righteousness

dear friend that saves you, it is God's righteousness, through faith in Christ. Philippians 3:9, " And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: "

A very popular heresy in tens of thousands of corrupt churches today is Calvinism. Calvinism teaches that if you are still living in open sin in your life, it is because you have never repented and turned from your sins, so your faith in Jesus Christ is invalid. These false teachers say that to be saved you must repent believe, requiring two steps to be saved. The Bible simply teaches that there is only one step of believing, which automatically includes repentance. Biblically, we repent believe, and they happen at the same time. That is why we find the word
believe
mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but the word
is not mentioned even once. The man who believes has also repented. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) got it exactly right, who writes:

> "Dear sinner, do not make this a difficult matter. There is one simple step between you and Jesus. When you trust Him, everything else is settled, and you have repented, you have come to Christ, you have received Him, you have done everything necessary to be saved." —Dr. John R. Rice, a quote from his tract titled: "[1]What Must I Do To Be Saved?"

Having said that, God does not give any of His children permission to sin. Romans3:31, "Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law." When a man gets saved, his relationship with Jesus Christ has changed. Jesus has gone from not only being that man's Creator, but now is also his personal Savior. And as such, that man's relationship with sin has also changed, in the sense that he now is made spiritually aware of his sinfulness by the indwelling Holy Spirit (Hebrews 12:6-8).

1st John 3:15,

"Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

” That simply means that if you are truly saved, you have God’s Holy Spirit living inside you. 1st John 3:24,

“

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

” A genuine Christian will be convicted by the indwelling Holy Spirit when we sin, rebuking and exhorting us to depart from iniquity, love others and live a holy life.

The gift of eternal life is free. There are no strings attached nor obligations to live a certain way. A person who believes the Gospel, but lives a life of willful sin, is still saved. They are simply not right with God as a child of God (1st John 1:6). Their POSITION is right with God, but their CONDITION is wrong with God. The truth is that every believer lives a life of sin (Romans 7:14-25).

“If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you’re not!” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold; an excellent quote from the awesome YouTube sermon titled, “[2]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!”

1.6.13 Can A Christian Believer Ever Be Lost? (2020-10-13 09:30)

John 3:5-7, “Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

There is a popular heresy that has infected most Baptist churches today, and it is far more deadly than the Coronavirus pandemic or the Bubonic plague! Such diseases may kill your body, but Lordship Salvation is a false gospel which will damn your soul to Hell forever! Jesus said to Nicodemus (and all humanity) in our text passage, that YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN! The whole concept of Lordship Salvation (of turning from one’s sins, and running the race faithfully, and surrendering all to Christ as “

Lord,

” on an ongoing basis to be saved ) goes contrary to the reality of the SECOND BIRTH. Please think about that!

Now that you have been born physically into the world, do you have to continually be reminded to breathe? Do you have to surrender your life to live in a certain manner to live? Of course not, because you have already been born, and you are alive. It’s a done deal! Just as you can only be born once physically, and never be unborn; likewise you can only be born again once, and you can never lose the new birth, no matter what. Anyone who believes that you can lose the new birth, doesn’t have it, they have religion. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life, without ever being born-again!

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) penned the following helpful words about the believer’s eternal security:

> ## Can A Believer Ever Be Lost?
>
> It has been announced that I will speak to you on a subject which has occasioned a good deal of controversy among the people of God. I want to take as a starting point—not exactly as a text, because we shall be looking at a good many Scriptures—Romans 8:38-39, "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor power, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." This is the inspired answer to the question of verse 35: "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" That is, once we have been justified by faith, who is there, what power is there, that can separate from the love of Christ? And the answer, how full, how clear, not a shadow, not a doubt, not a question left, when the apostle says that neither death nor life shall separate! Can you think of anything which is neither included in death nor in life? Neither death nor life shall separate!
>
> No unseen powers can separate the believer from Christ, neither angels, nor principalities, nor powers. ” These terms are used again and again in the New Testament, particularly in the Epistles, for angelic hosts, good and evil. When our Savior rose from the dead He spoiled principalities and powers, that is, He defeated all the hosts of evil led by Satan; and so we may take it that the angels referred to here are good angels, and the principalities and powers are possible evil angels. But there is nothing that good angels would do and nothing that evil angels can do which will result in the separation of the believer from Christ. And then further he says, neither things present nor things to come. ”
> **“

Again let me put the question, Can you think of any experience through which a believer might ever go which is neither a thing present nor a thing to come? And the Holy Ghost says that neither things present nor things to come shall be able to separate us from the love of Christ. As though that were not enough, He speaks in a more general way when He says that neither “ Height nor depth (nothing in heaven, nothing in hell), nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. ” It looks to me as though we are safe if we are believers in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Eternal Security: Its Meaning

When we speak of the eternal security of the believer, what do we mean? We mean that once a poor sinner has been regenerated by the Word and the Spirit of God, once he has received a new life and a new nature and has been made partaker of the divine nature, once he has been justified from every charge before the throne of God, it is absolutely impossible that that man should ever again be a lost soul. Having said that, let me say what we do not mean when we speak of the eternal security of the believer. We do not mean that it necessarily follows that if one professes to be saved, if he comes out to the front in a meeting, shakes the preacher’s hand, and says he accepts the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior, that that person is eternally safe. It does not mean that if one joins a church or makes a profession of faith, is baptized, becomes a communicant, and takes an interest in Christian work, that that person is forever secure. It does not mean that because one manifests certain gifts and exercises these gifts in Christian testimony, that that person is necessarily eternally secure.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said to the people of His day, as recorded in Matthew 7:21-23: "Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven. Many will say to Me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Thy name? And in Thy name have cast out devils? And in Thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from Me, ye that work iniquity." Such people then may have been very active in what is called Christian work—they have preached, they have cast out demons, that is, their influence has been such that men and women have found deliverance from satanic power through their ministrations in the name of Jesus, they have professed with their lips, they have accomplished many wonderful works, but they are found in that day among the lost, and when they plead their great activity and their earnestness in Christian testimony, the Lord says to them, "I never knew you." Notice, He does not say to them, "I used to know you, but you have forfeited My favor and I do not know you any longer." He says, "I never knew you."

1.6.14 Real Versus Counterfeit Bibles (2020-10-13 14:52)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

The Devil has been trying to corrupt the inspired Word of God since the Garden of Eden. Genesis 3:1, “Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?” The Devil is so subtle that he has even deceived preachers into thinking that God wrote hundreds of Bible versions. Men are often blinded by religion. My father (1933-2010) was right when he used to say that religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world. My Dad was so right!

Did you know dear reader that the communist government of [1]Cuba rejected a free shipment of 17,000 New International Versions (NIV) to their country? So what is wrong with America’s pastors and churches? What is wrong with our Bible colleges? Why do most preachers today accept the Devil’s so-called “ new

and “improved” Bible versions that attack Jesus’ deity, redefine what it means to repent, secularize the Bible, pervert the Gospel, obliterate theology and confuse everyone?

The modern Bible versions completely remove the word “ impute

from God’s Word. Here is a comparison between the King James Bible and the English Standard Version (ESV):

> KJV - Romans 4:6, “
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works*,
>
> **”
> ESV - Romans 4:6, “just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works*:”

Do you see how the modern Bibles sinfully obliterate theology? The ESV bypasses Jesus! The word imputed is all about what Christ did through the cross to pay for our sins. There is a big difference projected in the reader's mind between these two Bible renderings:

> Imputation communicates that believers are made right with God (or justified) on the basis of the obedience of Christ (both active and passive—again, key theological terms). By Jesus's active obedience he meets the demands of perfect righteousness God has always required of humanity. By Jesus's passive obedience, he pays the penalty due to humanity on account of sin. Additionally, beyond the imputation of Christ's full obedience to believers, imputation may also refer to the counting of believers' sins to Christ as the sin-bearing substitute.
> SOURCE: [2]What Is Imputation?

Proof of what I say is evidenced by the woeful lack of preaching about imputation in Neo-evangelical churches today, who use the Devil's modern theologically deficient Bibles. By removing the term "imputed" the reader is deprived of the curiosity of what the word means, and won't go research it's beautiful rich meaning, as I have just shared with you. Jesus paid it all! Anyone who teaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation, does not understand the Bible doctrine of the imputed righteousness of God. The only difference between a redeemed saint, and the vilest lost sinner in this world, is the precious blood of Jesus that makes us completely righteous in God's sight. Jesus is precious!!!!!!!

Bless God, if you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible!

1.6.15 Calling Upon The Name Of The Lord In Romans 10:13 (2020-10-15 09:30)

Romans 10:12-14, "

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Pastor Max D. Younce of the heritage Baptist Bible Church in Walnut Grove, Minnesota has written a helpful commentary on Romans 10:12-14 which is tremendous...

V. Interpretation – Romans 10:12-14.

“For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.” (Romans 10:12)

“For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (Romans 10:13)

“How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?” (Romans 10:14)

The word “call” in these verses is not to obtain salvation, as those invited to call are already saved as Verse 14 states.

“How then shall they call on him (Christ) in whom they have not believed?... (Romans 10:14a)

May I also point out concerning the word “saved” in Verse 13? A lost person never has to call, or ask the Lord to save them. Their salvation is already completely paid for. You never have to ask the Lord to do something He has already done for our salvation. The Lord is asking you to come to Him by faith and receive the peace of knowing you have eternal life, and to rest in His promise that you will never experience the flames of Hell. Two verses of Scripture will substantiate this briefly.

“Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28)

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:” (Romans 5:1)

Now that one is a Christian, they are invited to receive an additional rest and peace in their life. This invitation is given in using your life for Christ. The invitation is given in Matthew 11:29,30.

“Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. (29) For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” (Matthew 11:29-30)

In Romans 5:1, we have received salvation and the peace with God. Now in Philippians 4:4-7 one can have the peace of God in serving Him.

“Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. (4)

Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand. (5)

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (6)

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:4-7)

1. “Save, Saved, Call, and Ask” – Have Different Applications According to Context.

Now, after taking a brief venture down a tributary, we will return to our main concern in Verses 12 to 14. The words “save, saved, call, and ask” are used with different applications according to the context of the verse.

a. Save From Drowning.

Here is one of the many examples where the disciples woke up the Lord and asked Him to save them from drowning in the storm.

“And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep. (24) And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.” (Matthew 8:24-25)

b. God is Rich to Give Wisdom. – James 1:5, 6.

“If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. (5) But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.” (James 1:5-6)

c. “Let Your Requests Be Made Known.” – Philippians 4:6,7.

“Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. (6) And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:6-7)

d. “Whatsoever We Ask…” – 1 John 3:21,22.

“Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God. (21) And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.” (1 John 3:21-22)

e. “Ask Anything According to His Will.” – 1 John 5:14,15.

“And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: (14) And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.” (1 John 5:14-15)

f. “Come Boldly to the Lord in Time of Need.” – Hebrews 4:15, 16.

"For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. (15) Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” (Hebrews 4:15-16)

Note: “Saved” in Verse 13 is the Greek “sozo” and may also be translated as “deliverance” from DANGER, persecution, suffering and etc. as the context warrants.

The foregoing are only a handful of the riches that are extended to all Christians in Verse 12. It all begins with His first “rich” gift of salvation to anyone who will receive it by faith.

“But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, (4) Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) (5) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: (6) That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. (7) For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: (8) Not of works, lest any man should boast." (Ephesians 2:4-9)

Most every Christian has sung a very familiar song found in our Hymnals, "Count your blessings, Name them one by one, Count your many blessings, See what God hath done."

Should each Christian practice this, it would eliminate a lot of discouragement, hopelessness, frustration, and heartache. Our previous blessings do not have to stop, unless we stop serving the Lord. Let us keep the Lord's blessings coming.

"Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." (1 Cor. 4:2)

"That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:" (1 Peter 1:7)

1.6.16 Leading Somebody In A Salvation Prayer Confuses Them (2020-10-16 10:00)

Romans 10:9-13, "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed?* and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

Kindly said, anytime that you lead someone to prayer a sinners prayer to get saved, you are confusing them of what is the true Gospel. I am not splitting hairs friend, I know from painful experience what I am saying. I was 13 years old when I first truly understood that I was a sinner. I had heard the Gospel for the first time. The preacher said if you don't have the Holy Spirit convicting you about sin in your life, you're not saved. I knew that I wasn't saved. I was afraid for the first time in my life of going to Hell. That day from my pew I quietly received Jesus as my personal Savior. But I was too timid to walk down to the front of the church. Oh how I wish the preacher that day would have told me how to be saved in my pew He didn't.

So for the next seven painful years I struggled day-by-day in worry and misery, not knowing for sure if I was saved. I read every religious tract that I could get my hands on. They all said to pray at the very end. I listened on the edge of my seat when I heard preachers speak. They all said if you want to be saved, walk down to the front of the church to learn how. I wish they had simply told people how to be saved right there in their pew seat. But they didn't!

For years as a teenager I had prayed and prayed the sinner's prayer again and again, doing exactly what the church tracts told me to do, asking God to please save me. I must have prayed at least 50 times over the years! My eyes each time were filled with tears, and my heart with fear and worry. What if I missed Heaven? What if I went to Hell forever? Oh the agony of soul of not knowing! Little did I know that I was already saved, simply because I BELIEVED at age 13. At age 17 I couldn't take it anymore, so I decided to go talk with my pastor in his church office, and I did. He errantly concluded that since I didn't know I was saved, it must mean that I'm not. He then did the worst thing that he possibly could have done—he led me in another sinner's prayer! Oh boy!

Now I was really in a world of hurt! Now I couldn't dare tell anybody that I still didn't know I was saved, because my pastor just announced to the whole church that he led me to the Lord at age 17. The truth is that he had led me to the Lord at age 13, under his preaching, but because he required everyone to walk down an isle to learn about salvation, I never found out what had happened back in my pew. One of the worst injustices a preacher will ever commit is to require someone to walk down an isle to be saved.

My friend, Pastor Max Younce, had these important words to say about an observation he made at a preaching meeting he attended, to hear Dr. John R. Rice and Pastor Jack Hyles in the 1970's:

> Years ago I witnessed a situation at the Life Gate Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. I had heard that Dr. John R. Rice, Founder of Sword of the Lord, along with Dr. Jack Hyles of Hammond, Indiana, was speaking. I had never met Dr. Rice; but, had read many of his writings and considered him a great Bible teacher. Dr. Rice spoke in the morning service and after the service he had a long table with all of his books available. A young lady came to the table to ask Dr. Rice if there was any time he would have to give her some advice concerning a very serious problem she was facing. Right then he motioned a young man over to his seat and left with the young lady in seconds. That left an immense impression on me that people are more important than selling books! It was my privilege to meet him.
>
> Sunday night Dr. Jack Hyles spoke. Half-way through his message, about five or six "hippies" came in and sat about three rows up from the back. I was in the back taping the message. At the end, the invitation was given to come forward and receive Christ and salvation. After a minute or so, Dr. Hyles pointed to the "hippies" and stated they needed "to do the most manly thing they had ever done and come and receive Christ as their personal Savior."
>
> They looked at each other; got up and left the church. I could not believe what I was hearing. I got up and went outside and apologized to them for what Hyles did. They were completely turned off and did not want to hear anything about the Lord. Honestly, if had been in their shoes, I would have done the same thing. This wasn't their fault. It was the preacher's fault.
>
> What was overlooked was that these "hippies" had a desire to come into the church and sit down and listen. Wouldn't it have been nice if the preacher had presented salvation as a free gift, bought and paid for by the Crucifixion and Resurrection of Jesus Christ? At least they would have had an opportunity to trust Christ as their Savior; instead of being attacked and made to walk to the front of the church to be saved.
> SOURCE: [1]ROMANS 10:9,10; MATTHEW 10:32,33: DOES REFUSAL TO COME FORWARD CONDEMN ME TO HELL?

I have to humbly agree with Pastor Younce. I knew Brother Hyles, and that does sound like him at moments. At times he was rude and offended people, but I wouldn't trade Brother Hyles for the world! Pastor Jack Hyles was only a sinner, just like all of us; but that is not the point here, the point is that a preacher should always tell sinners in the pew how to be saved right where they sit, and not require them to come forward to learn how to be saved. Respectfully, Dr. Rice was 31 years older than Pastor Hyles, which I think made him more wiser and gentle with people. One of the most helpful books I have ever read (which finally solidified my salvation beliefs) is a book by Pastor Max Younce titled: '[2]SALVATION AND THE PUBLIC INVITATION.' If you are struggling with the assurance of your salvation, this book is for you!

I stopped leading people in a sinner's prayer many years ago. I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). I had the Roman's Road and the Sinner's Prayer engrained into my brain and habit. Pastor Hyles has often made it very clear that prayer does not save anybody. You can hear him say this at 15:10 and 18:40 time in the following sermon titled: '[3]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY.' I don't know why Dr. Hyles chose to continue with the sinner's prayer, but he did. I don't like it or use it, because it runs the risk of confusing people. Dr. Younce doesn't use it, and I fully agree with him, and commend him for it. Pastor Steven Anderson uses the sinner's prayer, but I've heard him say that you CAN be saved simply by believing.

Now, I disagree with the [4]Melbourne Hard Preaching Fellowship on YouTube that "the sinner's prayer is a work,

" and you are not saved if you use it! That all depends on whether or not you are relying upon a prayer to save you! If so, yes, it is a work, and you are not saved. If you prayed a sinner's prayer as an expression of your heart's faith in Christ, then no, it is not a work. Still, I am very much against using the Sinner's Prayer to lead people to Christ, because of the very situation that I was in, confused and not sure what God expected of me to be saved. I did believe, so I know now that I was saved, but back then I kept wondering if I prayed right! I wondered if perhaps I had forgot to say something. I mean, every religious tract told me to pray at the end. Every Baptist preacher that I heard told me to come down an isle, and the way to be saved was to repeat a prayer after me: "

123 follow me.

" What confusion! What an injustice!

If you simply believe the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) of Jesus Christ

—the Good News

that He died on the cross for your sins, was buried and resurrected bodily the third day, you are saved. If what Christ did on the cross is your only hope for Heaven, y ou are born-again and saved eternally

. Eternal life is a gift from God. The question is —have you received the gift?

Amen. I believed on everything you said. We don't get saved by praying a sinner's prayer,unless we're conscious and very much aware of the meaning of that prayer. If I may add, nowhere in the Bible, Jesus led anyone to pray a sinner's prayer to be saved, even God the Father didn't require us to utter a sinner's prayer. We're only simply required to believe in Jesus. Beautiful and very helpful article!

1.6.17 Add Thou Not Unto His Words, Lest You Be A Liar (2020-10-17 09:30)

Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words*, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

One of the most horrible sins anyone can commit is to corrupt God's inspired Words by ADDING to them what God did not say. I cannot think of a more obvious example than the popular heresy today, that says a person must "

turn from your sins

to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Since it is a gift, nothing can be required to obtain it, otherwise it would merely be a trade or an exchange of sorts. You cannot show me one verse in the Holy Bible that says to repent of your sins

turn from your sins

to be saved.

That is, if you have a reliable Bible. The King James Bible is the verbally inspired Word of God. Satan's tactics have always been infiltration and imitation. The Devil during the twentieth century has infiltrated the churches, imitating the Word of God with literally hundreds of English Bible revisions. If the Devil had introduced all these new Bible versions at once, the churches would have quickly rejected all of them. But Satan is subtle, knowing that while one generation passes away from the scene, the next younger generation will embrace what the previous generation sinfully tolerated. It was a famous author

Mark Twain who rightly said:

"What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace." So true! That is why I make such a big fuss over the King James Bible. If we tolerate these corrupted modern perversions, the next generation will embrace them like spiritual cyanide!

For example: Here again is Hebrews 6:1 in the beloved, correct, King James Bible:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Hebrews 6:1, “Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God.” [emphasis added]

Now carefully read what the horribly corrupt Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) says, and please notice what the translators ADDED to God’s Word:

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — “So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God.” [emphasis added]

The word “

in the Bible doesn’t mean to

“

turning away from the evil we did in the past, it is [1]the Greek word metanoia, which means [2] “

a change of mind

,”

nothing more. There is nothing in the word metanoia that means to forsake one’s old ways.

Again, here is a comparison of Mark 1:15 in the King James Bible and the ERV. As you can clearly see, wicked men have ADDED to God’s Words what He didn’t say:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Mark 1:15, “And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.” [emphasis added]
>
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Mark 1:15, “He said, “The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!” [emphasis added]

Really? I have to change my life to be saved? Doesn’t that constitute works? You better believe it does! The Bible teaches that Jesus came to save us from our sins, and not we from ourselves! Matthew 1:21, “ And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.” That is why Jesus is justly called

“the Saviour of all men.”

1st Timothy 4:10, “

For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

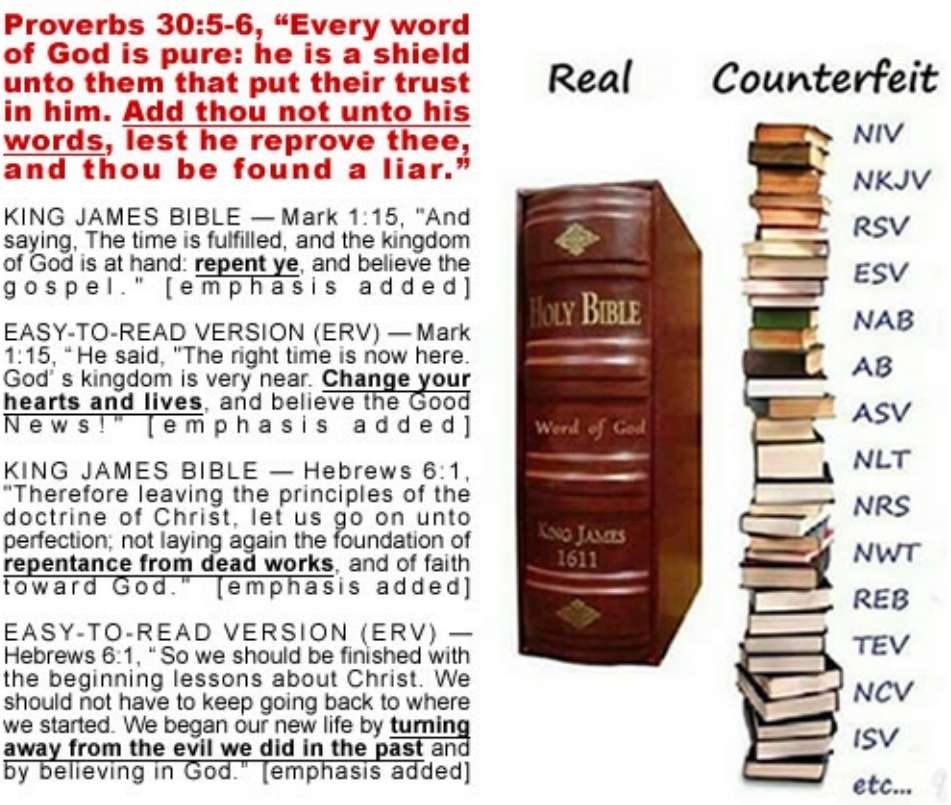
” I love that Scripture! Jesus is the Savior of all men, but ESPECIALLY of them that believe! Oh dear friend, if you perish in your sins and spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell, it will only be because you wilfully rejected the blessed Savior’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Jesus paid it all! Christ died for the ungodly (Romans 5:6-9).

[3]



It is a horrible sin to ADD to God’s Word!

1.6.18 We Have A Perfect, Infallible & Inspired King James Bible (2020-10-18 02:14)

Proverbs 22:28, “Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.” Matthew 4:4, “But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” Revelation 3:2, “Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.”

The following excellent article was written by [1]Evangelist Will Kinney on the perfection, infallibility and inspiration of the King James Bible:

“

The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God ” —

Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)

“ If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man’s belief in the Bible. ”

Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)

Most Christians today do NOT believe The Bible IS the inerrant word of God.
This statement may seem shocking at first, and many pastors and Christians will give the kneejerk reaction saying that they do believe the Bible IS the infallible and inerrant word of God. However, upon further examination, it will soon be discovered that when they speak of an inerrant Bible, they are not referring to something that actually exists anywhere on this earth.
They are talking about a mystical Bible that exists only in their imaginations; and each person’s particular version differs from all the others.

As one liberal theologian pointed out in his review of Harold Lindsell’s, The Battle For The Bible, the only real difference between the conservative and liberal positions on the Bible is that the conservatives say the Bible USED TO BE inspired and inerrant, whereas the liberal says it NEVER WAS inspired or inerrant. BOTH positions agree that the Bible IS NOT NOW inspired or inerrant.

As brother Daryl Coats so aptly says in his article The Two Lies:

> "If the Bible was inspired only > in the original manuscripts, no one in the entire history of the world has ever had an inspired > Bible. The original autographs of Job and the books of Moses had disappeared more than a > thousand years before the first book of the New Testament was written, so no one has ever > owned a complete Bible made up of the ’divine originals.’
> Nor, has anyone ever owned a > complete New Testament made up of ’inspired originals,’ because the originals were distributed > among more than a dozen individuals and local churches."

God said:

“ Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD” (Amos 8:11).
The Lord Jesus Christ also stated in Luke 18:8, “ Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? ” The apostle Paul wrote concerning the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together unto Him: “ Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, EXCEPT THERE COME A FALLING AWAY FIRST... ” (II Thessalonians 2:3).

The number of professing Christians who do not believe in a "hold it in your hands and read" type of inspired Bible has steadily increased over the years since the flood of multiple-choice, conflicting and contradictory modern bible versions began to appear about 100 years ago.
The following testimonies about the character of Evangelicalism today were made by key Evangelical leaders. The irony is that these same men are part of the problem they lament. Each of these men has been guilty of endorsing modern bible versions:

> "MORE AND MORE ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS HISTORICALLY COMMITTED TO AN INFALLIBLE SCRIPTURE HAVE BEEN EMBRACING AND PROPAGATING THE VIEW THAT THE BIBLE HAS ERRORS IN IT. This movement away from the historic standpoint has been most noticeable among those often labeled Neo-evangelicals. This change of position with respect to the infallibility of the Bible is widespread and has occurred in evangelical denominations, Christian colleges, theological seminaries, publishing houses and learned societies" (Dr. Harold Lindsell, former vice-president and professor at Fuller Theological Seminary and Editor Emeritus of Christianity Today; The Battle For The Bible, 1976, p. 20).

> "WITHIN EVANGELICALISM THERE ARE A GROWING NUMBER WHO ARE MODIFYING THEIR VIEWS ON THE INERRANCY OF THE BIBLE SO THAT THE FULL > AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE IS COMPLETELY UNDERCUT. But is happening in very > subtle ways. Like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views on Biblical authority > often seem at first glance not to be very far from what evangelicals, until just recently, have > always believed. But also, like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views when > followed consistently end up a thousand miles apart. What may seem like a minor difference at > first, in the end makes all the difference in the world ... compromising the full authority of > Scripture eventually affects what it means to be a Christian theologically and how we live in the > full spectrum of human life" (Francis Schaeffer, The Great Evangelical Disaster, 1983, p. 44).

The neutral method of Bible study leads to skepticism concerning the New Testament text. This was true long before the days of Westcott and Hort. As early is 1771 Griesbach wrote:

> "The New > Testament abounds in more losses, additions, and interpolations, purposely introduced then any > other book."

Griesbach's outlook was shared by J.L. Hug, who in 1808 advanced the theory that in the second century the New Testament text had become deeply degenerate and corrupt and that all extant New Testament texts were but editorial revisions of this corrupted text.
As early as 1908 Rendel Harris declared that the New Testament text had not at all been settled but was "more than ever, and perhaps finally, unsettled." Two years later Conybeare gave it as his opinion that "the ultimate (New Testament) text, if there ever was one that deserves to be so called, is for ever irrecoverable."
H. Greeven (1960) also has acknowledged the uncertainty of the neutral method of New Testament textual criticism.

"In general," he says, "the whole thing is limited to probability judgments; the original text of the New Testament, according to its nature, must be and remains a hypothesis."
Robert M. Grant (1963) adopts a still more despairing attitude. "The primary goal of New Testament textual study," he tells us, "remains the recovery of what the New Testament writers wrote. We have already suggested that to achieve this goal is well-nigh impossible." Grant also says: "It is generally recognized that the original text of the Bible cannot be recovered."

> "...every textual critic knows that this similarity of text indicates, rather, that we have made little > progress in textual theory since Westcott-Hort; that WE SIMPLY DO NOT KNOW HOW TO MAKE A DEFINITIVE DETERMINATION AS TO WHAT THE BEST TEXT IS; that we do not have a clear picture of the transmission and alteration of the text in the first few centuries; and, accordingly, that the Westcott-Hort kind of text has maintained its dominant position largely by default" (Eldon Epp, "The Twentieth-Century Interlude in NT Textual Criticism," Studies In The Theory And Method Of New Testament Textual Criticism, p. 87).

"As New Testament textual criticism moves into the twenty-first century, it must shed whatever remains of its innocence, for nothing is simple anymore. Modernity may have led many to assume that a straightforward goal of reaching a single original text of the New Testament—or even a text as close as possible to that original—was achievable. Now, however, REALITY AND MATURITY REQUIRE THAT TEXTUAL CRITICISM FACE UNSETTLING FACTS, CHIEF AMONG THEM THAT THE TERM 'ORIGINAL' HAS EXPLODED INTO A COMPLEX AND HIGHLY UNMANAGEABLE MULTIVALENT ENTITY. Whatever tidy boundaries textual criticism may have presumed in the past have now been shattered, and its parameters have moved markedly not only to the rear and toward the front, but also sideways, as fresh dimensions of originality emerge from behind the variant readings and from other manuscript phenomena" (E. Jay Epps, "The Multivalence of the Term 'Original Text' In New Testament Textual Criticism"; Harvard Theological Review, 1999, Vol. 92, No. 3, pp. 245-281; this article is based on a paper presented at the New Testament Textual Criticism Section, Society of Biblical Literature Annual Meeting, Orlando, Florida, November 1998).

Bart Ehrman, who was trained in Textual Criticism by Bruce Metzger, one of the chief editors of the UBS critical text (the one used to make up such modern versions as the RSV, ESV, NIV, NASB et cetera) writes in the conclusion of the book: "Jesus, Interrupted"...

"Doctrines such as the divinity of Jesus and Heaven and Hell are not based on anything Jesus or his earlier followers said. At least 19 of the 27 books in the New Testament are forgeries. Believing the Bible is infallible is not a condition for being a Christian. I think God has a sense of > humor in that these 'No Bible is inerrant' folks refer to their own ever changing 'No reading is sure, every thing is questionable' Greek texts as the 'Critical' text. It very definitely is in critical condition. I like to call it the Textus Corruptus as opposed to the traditional Textus Receptus that formed the basis of all Reformation Bibles."

> Bart Ehrman,
> Jesus, Interrupted

In his well written article, The Two Lies,

Bible believer Daryl R. Coats says:

> "If the Bible were inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one today really knows for sure what is in 'the Bible' because no one today has ever seen the original manuscripts."

Not surprisingly, this is the attitude behind every English 'Bible' published since 1611. "We can only follow the best judgment of competent scholars as to the most probable reconstruction of the original text," says the preface to the RSV, too deceitful to define just what a "competent scholar" is and to cut through the double-talk and admit, "This is what we think the Bible might be."

"Scholarly uncertainty" is more clearly evident in the third edition of the UBS (United Bible Societies) "Greek New Testament," the introduction to which states, "The letter A [next to a passage] signifies that the text is virtually certain, while B indicates there is some degree of doubt. The letter C means that there is a considerable degree of doubt whether the text or the apparatus contains the superior reading [note: "the superior reading" is not the same as "the correct reading"!], while D shows there is a very high degree of doubt concerning the reading selected for the text." Apparently the scholars change their mind from year to year as to which "readings" are genuine; how else do we explain the "more than five hundred changes" between the second and third editions of the "UBS Greek New Testament"?

George Barna, president of Barna Research Group, reported that a study exploring the religious beliefs of the 12 largest denominations in America highlights the downward theological drift that has taken place in Christian churches in recent years. The study found that an alarmingly high number of church members have beliefs that fall far short of orthodox Christianity. ONLY 41 PERCENT OF ALL ADULTS SURVEYED BELIEVED IN THE TOTAL ACCURACY OF THE BIBLE. Only 40 percent believed Christ was sinless, and only 27 percent believed Satan to be real.

Of the Baptists surveyed 57 percent said they believed that works are necessary in order to be saved, 45 percent believed Jesus was not sinless, 44 percent did not believe that the Bible is totally accurate, and 66 percent did not believe Satan to be a real being. Barna said, "The Christian body in America is immersed in a crisis of Biblical illiteracy."

Pastor Michael Youseff's Message on His "Leading The Way" program. The title of todays message was "The Bible: The World's Most Relevant Book - Part 2." In his message he gave statistics of a poll that was conducted. Here is what the poll revealed:
85 % of students at America's largest Evangelical Seminary don't believe in the inerrancy of Scripture.
74 % of the Clergy in America no longer believe in the inerrancy of Scripture.

What Christians really believe is revealed in a book by George A. Marsden called, "Reforming Fundamentalism," which includes a survey of student beliefs at one of the largest evangelical seminaries in the United States. The poll indicated that 85 % of the students "do not believe in the inerrancy of Scripture."
This book also lists the results of a poll conducted by Jeffery Hadden in 1987 of 10,000 American clergy. They were asked whether they believed that the Scriptures are the inspired and inerrant Word of God in faith, history and secular matters:
95 % of Episcopalians,
87 % of Methodists,
82 % of Presbyterians,
77 % of American Lutherans, and
67 % of American Baptists said "No."

The Barna Research Group reported in 1996 that among American adults generally: 58 % believe that the Bible is "totally accurate in all its teachings"; 45 % believe that the Bible is "absolutely accurate and everything in it can be taken literally."
"Support dropped between that poll and another taken in 2001. Barna reported in 2001 that: 41 % of adults strongly agrees that the Bible is totally accurate in all that it teaches."

"Seminary students, future pastors and leaders in the church, show very little support for the inerrancy of the Bible position. What does that foretell about the future of the church?
Undoubtedly, just as the poll results show in the 1996 - 2001 time frame, THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE BELIEVING THE BIBLE IS INERRANT WILL DROP." (Barna Research Group)

Actually I believe the percentage of Christians who do not believe that The Bible (any Bible in any language) IS the inerrant words of God is much higher. Some Evangelicals have come out with one of the lamest confessions of faith in the inerrancy of Scripture imaginable. It is called: The Chicago Statement On Biblical Inerrancy. It is just more pious sounding mumbo jumbo signifying NOTHING. See this "[2]confession of faith" here and my response to it.

No Absolute Truth

The explosion of modern versions has encouraged the student to pick and choose his own preferred readings and has created a tendency to treat every Bible lightly and to look upon none
as the final words of God.
Sam Kobia, Secretary, World Council Of Churches, ENI 1-23-04:

> "Having a variety of > translations available encourages the Bible to be read in a plural and ecumenical way. HAVING > A VARIETY OF TRANSLATIONS AVAILABLE IS A PRECIOUS TOOL IN THE > STRUGLE AGAINST RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM." (Caps are mine)

A popular New Age religious site that endorses all religions of the world is called: [3]ReligiousTolerance.org. This website has some interesting comments regarding the doctrine of the inerrancy of the Bible.
They ask: Does inerrancy really matter?

> "From one standpoint, this doctrine is of great importance, because it determines, at a very > fundamental level, how Christians approach Scripture."
> "To most conservative theologians Biblical inerrancy and inspiration are fundamental doctrines.
> Unless the entire Bible is considered to be the authoritative word of God, then the whole > foundation of their religious belief crumbles. If the Bible contains some errors, then conservative > Christians feel that they would have no firm basis on which to base their doctrines, beliefs, > morality and practices. The books of the Bible must be either inerrant, or be devoid of authority."

They continue:

> "To most liberal theologians, the Bible is not inerrant. They believe that its books > were obviously written and edited by human authors: with limited scientific knowledge, who > promoted their own specific belief systems, who attributed statements to God that are immoral > by today's standards, who freely incorporated material from neighboring Pagan cultures, who > freely disagreed with other Biblical authors." (Religious Tolerance.org)

What I personally found of great interest is the following comment in the same article. The people at Religious Tolerance noted:

> "Some Fundamentalist and other Evangelical Christians > CONSIDER A PARTICULAR ENGLISH TRANSLATION TO BE INERRANT. THIS IS PARTICULARLY TRUE AMONG LAY MEMBERS IN THEIR BELIEFS ABOUT THE KING JAMES VERSION. But most conservatives believe that inerrancy only applies to the > original, autograph copies of the various books of the Bible. None of the latter have survived to > the present day. We only have access to a variety of manuscripts which are copies of copies of > copies... An unknown number of errors are induced due to accidental copying errors by ancient > scribes or intentional changes and insertions into the text, made in order to match developing > theology." (Religious Tolerance.org)

Most Christians who do not believe that the King James Bible (or any other version) are now the inerrant, infallible, complete and pure words of God—define "inerrancy" in the following manner:

> "When all the facts become known, they will demonstrate that the Bible IN ITS ORIGINAL > AUTOGRAPHS and correctly interpreted is entirely true and never false in all it affirms, > whether relative to doctrine or ethics or the social, physical or life sciences." (P.D. Feinberg, s.v.
> "inerrancy, Evangelical Dictionary Of Theology Inerrancy & The Autographa.)

The usual tap dance performed by those who deny any Bible or any text in any language is now the inerrant, complete and infallible words of God is typified by the following quote:

"Inerrancy applies to the autographa, not to copies or translations of Scripture. This qualification is made because we realize that errors have crept into the text during the transmission process. It is not an appeal to a 'Bible which no one has ever seen or can see.' Such a charge fails to take into account the nature of textual criticism and the very high degree of certainty we possess concerning the original text of Scripture."

Well, this may sound very pious and good, but the undeniable fact is that this Christian scholar is talking about "a Bible no one has seen or can see." As for this gentleman's "nature of textual criticism" is concerned, this so called "science" is a giant fraud and a pathetic joke played on the unsuspecting saints who might think these men actually know what they are doing. I have posted a series on the "science of textual criticism" that reveals the true nature of this hocus-pocus methodology of determining what God really said. You can see all parts of this study, starting with:
[4]http://brandplucked.webs.com/scienceoftextcrit.htm.

Here are some facts taken directly from the Holy Bible. You do not need to be a scholar or seminary student to get a grasp of what the Bible says about itself. You either believe God or you don't.
The Bible believer first looks to God and His word to determine what the Book says about itself.
The Bible cannot be clearer concerning it's preservation:

Psalm 19:7, "The law of the LORD is PERFECT, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is SURE, making wise the simple. " The "law and testimony of the LORD" = His words.

Isaiah 40:8, "The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever. "

Psalm 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. "

Psalm 138:2, “I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

Psalm 100:5, “For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Psalm 33:11, “The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

Psalm 119:152, 160, “Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that Thou hast founded them for ever. ... thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

Isaiah 59:21, “... My Spirit that is upon thee [Isaiah], and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed’s seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

Matthew 5:17-18, “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. ”

Matthew 24:35, “Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

John 10:35, “... the Scripture cannot be broken.”

God has promised to preserve His words IN A BOOK here on this earth till heaven and earth pass away. He either did this and we can know where they are found today, or He lied and He lost some of them, and we can never be sure if what we are reading are the true words of God or not.

God's words are in a BOOK. Consider the following verses: " Now go, write it before them in a table, and NOTE IT IN A BOOK, that it may be for the time to come FOR EVER AND EVER" (Isaiah 30:8). " Seek ye out of THE BOOK of the LORD, and READ: no one of these shall fail...for my mouth it hath commanded..." (Isaiah 34:16). " Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of THE BOOK it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart" (Psalm 40:7-8). " And if any man shall take away from THE WORDS OF THE BOOK of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are WRITTEN IN THIS BOOK" (Revelation 22:19).

I believe the King James Bible is the inspired, inerrant and complete words of God for the following reasons:

#1 The Old Testament is based solely on the Hebrew Masoretic texts, in contrast to the NASB, NIV, ESV, Holman CSB and other modern versions that frequently reject the Hebrew readings.

The Old Testament oracles of God were committed to the Jews and not to the Syrians, the Greeks or the Latins. " What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God " (Romans 3:1-2). The Lord Jesus Christ said: " Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. " (Matthew 5:18). Therefore any bible version like the NASB, RSV, ESV, NIV, NET, Holman Standard et cetera that rejects these Hebrew texts automatically disqualifies itself from being the true words of the living God.

These conflicting versions give completely different numbers and names for the same historical events in the same places. Take a close look at the list found at the beginning of the first article here. Then ask yourself this question: If the Bible is not historically true and infallible, then at what point does God start to tell us the truth? God's "book of the LORD" is either 100 % true or it is all suspect and open to doubt. Guess who wants us to question the truth of God's words? The same spiritual entity who posed the first question recorded in the Holy Bible in Genesis 3 - "Yea, hath God said...?" Please see my two articles on how the modern versions all reject the Hebrew texts:

[8]

#2 The King James Bible alone is without proven error, and this in spite of intense opposition and criticism from the Bible correctors and modern scholarship.

“ Seek ye out of THE BOOK of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail... ” (Isaiah 34:16).

#3 I believe in the Sovereignty and Providence of Almighty God.

God knew beforehand how He would mightily use the King James Bible to become THE Bible of the English speaking people who would carry the gospel to the ends of the earth during the great modern missionary outreach from the late 1700’s to the 1950’s. The King James Bible was used as the basis for hundreds of foreign language translations, and English has become the first truly global language in history.
The indebtedness of the King James Bible translators to their predecessors is recognized most clearly in the Preface to the reader where they state in no uncertain terms:

> "Truly, good Christian > reader, we never thought, from the beginning, that we should need to make a new translation, nor

The King James Translators also wrote:

> "Nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and > the later thoughts are the thoughts to be the wiser:
> so if we build upon their foundation that went

See article: [9]Can a Translation Be Inspired?

#4 The King James Bible is always a true witness and never lies or perverts sound doctrine.

This is in contrast to all modern English versions that do pervert sound doctrine in numerous verses and prove themselves to be false witnesses to the truth of God:

> “ Thy word is true from the beginning, and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for > ever
> ” (Psalm 119:160).
> **“
> A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies ” (Proverbs 14:5).

In contrast, all the modern versions like the NASB, NIV, NKJV, ESV contain provable

and serious doctrinal errors. See my article on: [10]No Doctrines Are Changed?

#5 At every opportunity the King James Bible exalts the Person of the Lord Jesus Christ to His rightful place as the sinless, eternally only begotten Son of God who is to be worshipped as being equal with God the Father.

All modern versions debase and lower the Person of Christ in various ways.
"GOD was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory" (1 Timothy 3:16).
(c.f., this verse in the NIV, NASB, ESV, and Holman) See also John 3:13; Luke 23:42, and 1st Corinthians 15:47. Please see my article on: [11]The Only Begotten Son.

#6 The explosion of modern versions has encouraged the student to pick and choose his own preferred readings and has created a tendency to treat every Bible lightly and to look upon none
as the final words of God.

The Bible itself prophesies that in the last days many shall turn away their ears from hearing the truth and the falling away from the faith will occur. The Lord Jesus asks: "Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?" (Luke 18:8). "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD" (Amos 8:11). "Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein" (Jeremiah 6:16).

The new versions like the NIV, NASB, ESV, and Holman Standard all reject the Traditional Greek Text, and instead rely primarily on two very corrupt Greek manuscripts called Sinaiticus and Vaticanus. These so called "oldest and best" manuscripts also form the basis of all Catholic versions as well as the Jehovah Witness version.
See my article that shows what these two false witnesses actually say:[12]http://brandplucked.webs.com/oldestandbestmss.htm

And this article I put together gives "Undeniable Proof the ESV, NIV, NASB et cetera are "Catholic" Bibles. [13]The clear evidence is indisputable. And check out this one about what is commonly called: The Lord's Prayer in Matthew 6:13 and Luke 11:2-4. There is no getting around that fact that versions like [14]the ESV, NIV, NASB are Catholic Bible versions. You will be amazed. If you mistakenly think that all Bibles are basically the same, I recommend you take a look at this website. It is in two parts, but very easy to read. [15]It shows what is missing in most modern New Testaments.

For [16]an article showing that the true Historic Confessional position about the inerrancy of the Bible supports the King James Bible view, rather than the recent position of "the originals only".

Bravo my friend! This is one of the best articles I've read defending the inspiration of our beloved King James Bible. As Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) used to rightly say, God said in Matthew 4:4 that man shall not live by bread alone, but by "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. That means for me to live I need an EVERY WORD translation of the Holy Bible. I believe we have that perfect inspired translation in the King James Bible!!!

I am so tired of hearing preachers correct the blessed Book! [18]Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) was [19]absolutely right: "There can only be one real Bible in any language!"

(a quote from Pastor Lacy's awesome MP3 sermon titled: ' [20]The Blood Sprinkled Book! '). Most Christians believe God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible!

Psalms 119:140, “

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

” I believe the writer of Psalm 119 to be David (although some scholars think perhaps Daniel or Ezra). I clearly think that it was David, because of the writer’s passion for God’s Word.

That is why I think David was a man after God’s own heart (1st Samuel 13:14), because he loved the Lord’s thoughts!

Psalms 139:17, “ How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!” Ironically, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has a big sign posted at the entrance to their church property which reads:

“

Helping People Develop A Heart For God.

” Yet, their church uses dozens of Bible revisions. Dear reader, no one can develop a heart for God who uses corrupt Bible revisions! The psalmist loved God’s Word because it is “ VERY PURE.

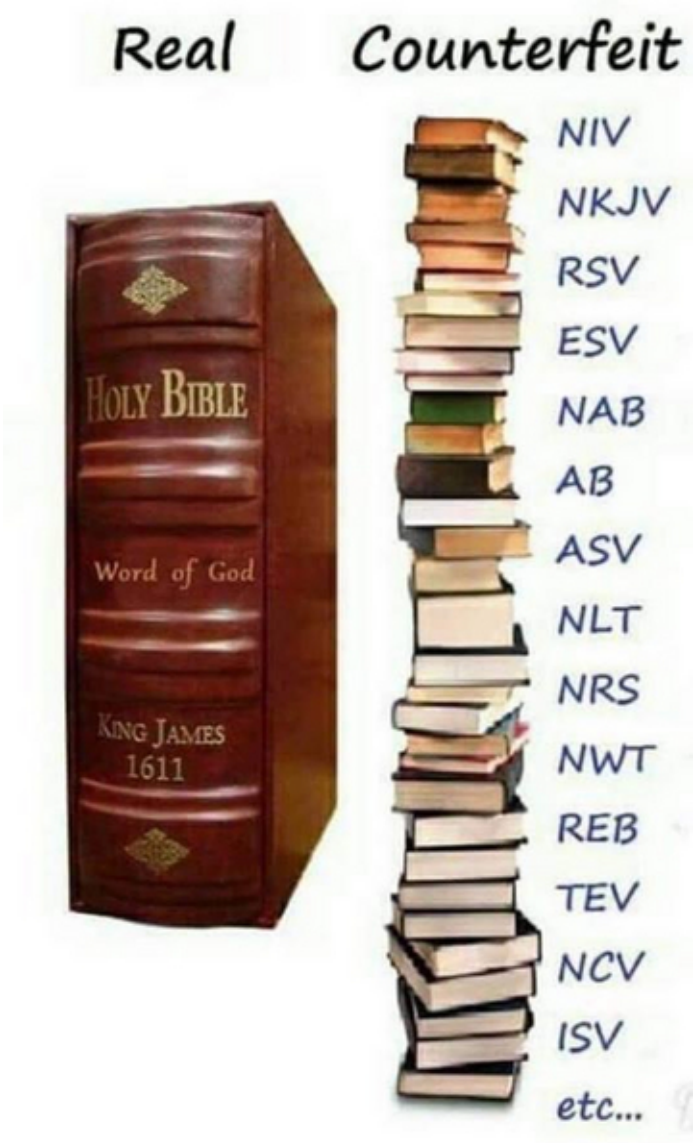
Psalms 119:140, “

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

” David didn’t say that he loved the Bible because it was how he was raised. David didn’t say that he loved the Bible because it was what everyone else was doing in his church. David said he loved God’s Word because IT IS VERY PURE!!! David would have hated all these hundreds of English Bible revisions today, [21]all of which corrupt the truth!



At the time I attended for a year in 2014 they officially used TWO different Bible versions: the King James Bible, and the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) to interpret it. Harvest is cesspool of Bob Jones University graduates. I say that kindly. Harvest has their own radio channel in Micronesia (88.1 FM, KHMG). On their radio program they broadcast BJU's 'The Daily Platform.' BJU officially sells, uses and promotes the English Standard Version ESV). The [23]ESV is shockingly Catholic, as you just read from Will Kinney. Why does BJU promote this ungodly deception? Kindly, the dear folks at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are not helping people develop a heart for God; but rather, they are leading their congregation into the Devil's New World Order with counterfeit Bible versions, which pervert theology. The modern Bibles are extremely dangerous, because they ARE changing the churches, [24]corrupting the free grace Gospel into the heresy of Lordship Salvation:

> "WITHIN EVANGELICALISM THERE ARE A GROWING NUMBER WHO ARE MODIFYING THEIR VIEWS ON THE INERRANCY OF THE BIBLE SO THAT THE FULL AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE IS COMPLETELY UNDERCUT. But is happening in very subtle ways. Like > the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views on Biblical authority often seem at first glance not to be very far from what evangelicals, until just recently, have always believed. But also, like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views when followed consistently end up a thousand miles apart. What may seem like a minor difference at first, in the end makes all the difference in the world ... compromising the full authority of Scripture eventually affects what it means to be a Christian theologically and how we live in the full spectrum of human life" (Francis Schaeffer, The Great Evangelical Disaster, 1983, p. 44).

Dearly beloved, we have a perfect inspired Bible today in the King James Bible!!!

1.6.19 Evildoers Cannot Escape Judgment, Damnation And Hell (2020-10-18 09:30)

Matthew 23:33, “

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

” Hebrews 10:31, “ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.”

I was thinking today about how people are natural cowards. All my life I have heard of scandals and cover-ups, where a group of people make every effort to protect themselves from getting into trouble. Churches do it. Police departments do it. Hospitals do it. The military does it. Professional sports teams do it. Colleges do it (secular and Christian alike). Realtors do it. Courts do it. Governments do it. Lawyers do it. Companies do it. When something goes wrong, people are notorious to try to cover it all up. People will lie, falsify records, delete files, blackmail victims and witnesses, use all types of legal protections, and stood lower than many people can imagine, all to cover-up evil and liability. That is the depraved human nature!

Thankfully, no one can escape the sight and judgment of almighty God. Judges and lawyers are notorious for using all types of shady legal documents to protect themselves, but they cannot hide their evil deeds from God. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." That Bible verse should terrify the Golden State Killer and every monster like him. That Bible verse should strike fear into every evildoer! That verse should strike terror and fear into every lying lawyer, biased judge and merciless prosecutor.

No one ever gets away with evil. Most criminals never get caught. Only 50 % of indicted murderers are ever convicted for their crimes. Most murders remain unsolved. But God sees everything and will punish all men for their evil deeds (Revelation 20:12-15). Ecclesiastes 5:8, "If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they." When Pol Pot was mercilessly murdering millions of innocent Cambodians in the early 1970's, the victims felt hopeless, that there would never be any justice. Oh dear friend, there WILL BE justice! The Bible promises it so!

German Chancellor Adolf Hitler didn't get away with anything. Monsters' George H. and George W. Bush didn't get away with anything. The Bible guarantees it! Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil." The ungodly thieves who control Wall Street, stealing billions of dollars from naïve Americans, aren't getting away with anything. All things are naked and open unto the eyes of God, with Whom we have to do. It matters not if you believe in God, you will be held accountable to Him!

The U.S. government, and the ungodly state governments, who so often afflict citizens and families, will be held liable in eternity. [1]The ungodly state of Illinois, who hurt my family in 2002, falsely accusing us as parents, because they wanted to make a guinea pig out of our daughter, have our blood on their hands. The judge was an ungodly thug! Our thug lawyer bilked us for over $20,000. The state of Illinois has deep pockets with unlimited funds to destroy families, but we had to sell our home to pay for the damages caused by the wicked state of Illinois. God will punish them for their evil deeds! God doesn't miss a thing! Proverbs 5:21, " For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

Do you think the very God, your Maker, who knows the number of hairs upon your head, didn't see those thugs who stole your car long ago? Matthew 10:30, " But the very hairs of your head are all numbered." My car was stolen in 2004 in the Logan Square area of Chicago. The police found it a week later totaled, smashed into a telephone pole. The criminals popped the trunk, stealing all my possessions, likely to sell for drug money. The police told me which city pound my car was towed to. The massive sized lot was a sea of cars. There must have been 25,000 vehicles. I walked through the muddy ground, navigating around puddles of oil. I walked for miles. When I found what was left of my car, I wept much. I felt victimized.

When I got back to the front gate, the lot attendant (a black man) saw my tears and said: "It's only a car." I replied: "You don't understand. My family and I went places together in that car for the past 5 years. I went to the Wisconsin State Fair in that car with my family. We went out to eat in that car. We went to church in that car. I walked with God and prayed in that car. A lot of living and memories happened in that car. It is a part of my life!" You better believe that I cried. That car had cost me $4,800, and now it was [2]FUBR (Fu* Up Beyond Recognition). That is a popular military term that every soldier is familiar with. Kind of like Bob Jones University today... FUBR!

Proverbs 15:3, "

The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

" Nothing escapes the eyes of the Lord. One of the secrets to the Christian life is to learn quickly that God sees everything, even the very thoughts that you think. Proverbs 24:12,

"If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? " Both saved and unsaved alike will be judged according to their works. The difference is that the saved will be judged as God's redeemed children, safe from any criminal prosecution by God for their sins (John 3:18; Romans 8:1; 2nd Corinthians 5:10); but the unsaved will be prosecuted as criminals for their sins and be punished in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:12-15). Acts 13:39 declares every believer JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS!

All across America good parents are having their children taken away from them by [3]incompetent thug social workers (MP3)—many of whom are welfare types, Marxist liberals, feminists, kooks, lesbians and reformed gang members—[4]human trash with a badge. Social workers are oftentimes like children who have found their father's loaded gun, having power to hurt families but lacking the sense how to properly use it to help people. Oh listen friend, no one shall escape God's judgment.

Matthew 23:33, "

Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

" Thankfully, anyone can escape the wrath of God, through faith in the blood of Jesus. Romans 5:9,

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, [5]we shall be saved from wrath through him.

1.6.20 Hear Ye Him! (2020-10-19 09:30)

Matthew 17:5, "While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him."

When Moses and Elijah appeared with the Lord in the presence of Peter, James and John on the mount (Matthew 17:1-5), the Apostles offered to build 3 tabernacles for them. This displeased God the Father, because only Jesus is to be glorified; not Moses or Elijah. A cloud overshadowed Elijah, Moses and Jesus and God the Father said: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; HEAR YE HIM." My heart's desire is for all my web visitors to HEAR YE HIM. Hear the Words of Jesus Christ in the Word of God.

One of the main reasons why so many people nowadays are confused and having difficulty settling their theological beliefs, is because they are being blown about by every wind of doctrine on television and the internet. Ephesians 4:14-16, "

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love."

Please notice

Ephesians 4:14b-15, "

by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

But speaking the truth in love..

." The Greek word for

sleight

is kubeia, which refers to a die used for gambling. That is, when you listen to men teach and preach about religion, you are taking a gamble with your life and eternal destiny! You had better do as Jesus commanded my friend and

“

SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES

”!!! Don’t gamble dear reader with you soul. John 5:39,

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. ” HEAR YE HIM!!!

I am just a voice crying in cyberspace, pointing people to the precious Lord. I don’t want you to believe anything I say. I want you to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES to see if what I am preaching agrees with God’s Word. Don’t follow me, HEAR HE HIM! Follow me if I follow God’s Word, but don’t you dare take my word for it, because I could be wrong sometimes.

In the book of Acts, the Bereans were more noble the Apostle Paul said, than they at Thessalonica, because the Bereans didn’t just believe what he preached to them. The Bereans went to check their Bibles at home, to verify Paul’s teachings to see if he was accurate. Acts 17:11,
“

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

” I am going to do just like the Bereans!

I am disgusted with most so-called “

Bible colleges

today! All across America today young people are being indoctrinated with the Devil’s lie that you must turn from your sin

“

to be saved, which is not even found in the Bible. If those impressionable young people would simply SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES, they would see that [1]Bob Jones University is lying to them! I say that kindly, but speaking THE TRUTH in love as we just read in Ephesians 4:15.

Hear ye Him!

1.6.21 The Simple Plan Of Salvation In Acts 15 (2020-10-20 06:33)

Acts 15:1, 7-11 and 24, "And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

...

And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith*.

Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. ...

Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

The Bible says a group of false witnesses came down from the [1]mountainous region of Judaea to [likely] Antioch, teaching that to be saved a person must keep the law. They taught that the men must be circumcised according to the law of Moses. This caused a lot of debate and heated arguments. So the church sent messengers to Jerusalem to ask the apostles the truth. (They didn't have phones or the internet back then.) So the Apostle Peter rose up to clear the matter for all to hear. Peter said that it was God's will to send him to preach the Gospel to the Gentiles, and that whosoever heard and believed it was saved by faith alone. Peter said that God can see into their hearts, and knows when a person believes, and when they do He saves and seals them with the blessed Holy Spirit.

My heart was warmed today as I [2]heard this passage of Scripture read by Alexander Scourby. Please notice the simplicity of the plan of salvation. A person simply hears the Gospel as a needy sinner, believes it, and they are saved by faith alone. That is all that God requires. Acts 15:7b, "that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe." Acts 15:9b, " purifying their hearts by faith. " We are saved by God's grace through faith alone in the Gospel (i.e., the Good News) of Jesus Christ.

How does this compare to the complicated plans of salvation taught by [3]Pastor John MacArthur, [4]Evangelist Billy Graham and [5]Dr. Steve Pettit? Pastor MacArthur often uses the word when preaching his complicated version of how to be saved. In fact, MacArthur's plan of salvation is so hard and complicated that he says, quote:

"COST"

" [6]There is no such thing as a childhood conversion .

That is exactly what he said! What do you mean children cannot be saved?

Mark 10:13-14, "

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

" Who are you going to believe, Jesus or MacArthur? Yes, little children can be saved. Getting saved is that easy!

I marvel, as did the Apostle Paul, at how gullible professed Christian people are. Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

” Those are my exactly sentiments toward Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (all BJU alumni). I marvel how they were so soon removed from [7]the free grace Gospel which Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) preached unto them, to descend to follow the damnable Lordship Salvation heresy of Pastor John MacArthur. Dear friend, do you have any idea what Dr. MacArthur teaches? Take a look at his plan of salvation...

> “The narrow gate is hard to find and hard to go through, because it demands: denial of self, denial of self-righteousness, recognition of sin, full repentance, submission to Christ, commitment to obey Him, and follow Him no matter what the cost!”
>
> —Pastor John MacArthur, a quote from his sermon titled, “[8]Saved Or Self-Deceived, Part One” (time: 4:25 in YouTube sermon video)

Is that what the Apostle Peter told everyone?

Acts 15:7b, “that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.” Acts 15:9b, “ purifying their hearts by faith. ” That’s all Peter said! Peter simply said to BELIEVE the Gospel when you hear it. So how does John MacArthur get all that extra junk? Where does the Bible say you must follow Christ to be saved? Where are we told to make a commitment to obey Him? Where are we taught to make full repentance of all our sins?

In his popular 1988 book titled, “The Gospel According to Jesus,” Pastor John MacArthur even heretically uses the word “exchange” concerning being saved:

> “Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith.” [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140

Salvation is not an exchange! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade. It is a gift from God (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do! The only thing that you contribute to your salvation is the sin that made it necessary.

The really tragic thing is that Bob Jones University today has abandoned the free grace theology of it’s Fundamentalist founder, allowing a theological madman like Dr. Steve Pettit to destroy the college, and he certainly has since 2014. They even [9]allow homosexuals to perform at BJU now! Tares have entered in among the wheat. Please heed my warning dear reader. We all must expose the apostasy at places like Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church, who are preaching another gospel. I am simply telling THE TRUTH. Take a look at how [10]Dr. Steve Pettit’s theology aligns with Ellen G. White’s theology (Seventh-Day Adventism’s evil false prophetess). They both teach the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation.

What exactly is the Gospel? It is the

“

GOOD NEWS

” of Jesus Christ—the only begotten Son of God Who was crucified on a cross—

Who died, was buried and physically resurrected the third day. What saith the Scripture? ...

1st Corinthians 15:1-4,

“ Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

It doesn't get any plainer than that folks. God knows my heart, that I am not trying to be mean or unkind. I love God's Word. Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I absolutely hate all these modern English Bible revisions, hundreds of them, that each change what God said a little bit, so that no one really has any confidence in the infallibility and inspiration of God's Word anymore! One of the greatest sins of our generation is indifference in the Bible colleges and churches. They have sold out to peer pressure from intellectuals, who tell us that we don't have a perfect Bible today. They say that no one has ever seen God's Word, because only the original autographs were inspired. Do you really believe that garbage?

I find no fault in the King James Bible. I believe I hold the inspired, perfect and infallible Word of God in my hand. Of all the preachers today who continually correct the King James Bible, I have never failed to be able to properly interpret the Bible by simply comparing Scripture with Scripture. It also helps to use a good [12]Hebrew and Greek concordance, Bible [13]dictionary, and [14]Lexicon to "

as we are commanded in 2nd Timothy 2:15. God has given us these tools so that we can study. If you listen to different preachers who correct the Bible, they are all in disagreement as to how the Bible should have been properly written. They don't agree!

Proverbs 24:6, "For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellers there is safety." I trust those 54 scholars who labored diligently for 8 years to give us the 1611 King James Bible. Some of those men spoke fluent Hebrew at age 6. Who am I, or you, to sit in judgment on God's Word, to correct those 54 men? I couldn't even order a pizza in Greece if I went there, and neither can all these preachers today who sit in judgment on God's Word, regardless of how educated they may think they are. Think about that dear friend. I agree with Pastor Bob Gray Sr., who wisely said: "

The Bible doesn't need to be rewritten, it needs to be reread!

In our text Scripture passages from Acts 15:1, 7-11 and 24 we see the simplicity that is in Christ. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

until the finish to get to Heaven. That is a reward, not a gift! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a tare among the wheat at Bob Jones University, and he needs to get born-again before it is too late. The fact that he bids Godspeed to John MacArthur evidences further that he is not saved. I love the simple truths taught in Acts 15 concerning salvation.

1.6.22 Where Was The Perfect & Inerrant Bible Before 1611? (2020-10-21 01:33)

Psalms 12:6-7,

“

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

Psalms 119:140,

“Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

This is a common argument that King James Bible critics use—Where was the perfect and inerrant Bible before the year 1611? I believe that God has kept His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His inspired “pure words” forever, by giving us the King James Bible translation in English. Since critics maintain that there was no perfect and infallible Bible before the King James Bible, then the King James Bible itself cannot be the perfect inspired Words of God, any more than their multi-choice and contradictory Bible versions.

Keep in mind that King James Bible critics don’t believe that there ever was a perfect, infallible and inspired Bible. They don’t defend their ASV, RSV, NASV, NIV, ERV, ESV, NET, HCSB or the Daffy Duck version as being the 100 % true innerant words of God in comparison to the other versions. Most of them don’t claim to have an infallible Bible, but they taker offense that we do!

There are FOUR different positions that exist today on Bible infallibility:

1. THE ORIGINALS ONLY POSITION

   Such adherents confess that they believe in something that doesn't exist! If you take a look at their website, most Bible colleges and churches say that only the "original autographs" were inspired. This includes Pensacola Christian College, and The Crown College (Powel, Tennessee). The problem is that no one alive today has ever seen the original manuscripts. There is a woeful hypocrisy among King James Bible critics, who say that there are no perfect and infallible Bible translations, because that is in itself a form of "onlyism." To deny that we have a perfect, inspired and infallible Bible today is much worse than to believe God has given us an incorruptible Book of the Lord.

2. ALL RELIABLE BIBLE VERSIONS ARE INSPIRED AND INFALLIBLE.

   This is what Bob Jones University believes. Adherents of this faulty position say all reliable Bible versions are inspired and infallible Words of God. This obviously cannot be right, because all of the modern revisions contradict each other constantly. This is intellectual suicide, which requires giving new meaning to old words. The modern versions change the meaning of hundreds of ancient word meanings.

3. THE WORDS OF GOD ARE PRESERVED IN THE REMAING ANCIENT MANUSCRIPTS.

   This is the position of Dr. James White and Missionary David Cloud. These are Bible agnostics. Their position is on the same level as saying that God's Words are preserved in Webster's unabridged dictionary. That is, "They're in their someplace!" The truth is that among the literally thousands of remaining manuscripts (partial books, scraps, sections and pieces of the Bible), there are literally thousands upon thousands of very real and serious variant readings. And nobody is really sure of which one's are God's words or not. The fact is that the modern Bible versions are based on the constantly changing theory of what is called, "the science of textual criticism." They have no fixed and settled text. What they do have, can and does change, on a slightest whim, and no two modern scholars are agreed on what the New Testament should look like.

4. THERE DOES EXIST A COMPLETE, INSPIRED & INERRANT AND 100 % TRUE HOLY BOOK

   This is the Christian Fundamentalist position, which I believe. History evidences the King James Bible as being man's final written authority—the true Words of the Living God. You only have these four options regarding the Bible. There are no other alternatives for you to go with.

Here are FIVE popular views about the Bible:

1. THE ROMAN CATHOLIC VIEW - They believe the holy mother church and tradition define what is in the Scripture.

2. THE LIBERAL VIEW - The Bible is fill of myths and legends.

3. THE NEO-ORTHODOX VIEW - The real issue is what the Bible teaches nd not its historic accuracy.

4. THE NEO-FUNDAMENTALIST VIEW - All of the fundamentals are in the Bible despite all its mistakes and errors. This is the view held by most Christians today.

   All of these four preceding views share a common denominator—You don't actually have the Word of God in your hands, the Bible merely contains the Word of God.

5. THE FUNDAMENTALIST BIBLE BELIEVER'S VIEW - We do have the inspired words of God in our hands. This is the historical position of Christians, that God's Word is inspired today. God's Book of the Lord—the authorized King James Holy Bible—accept no substitutes!

History evidences very obviously that God's hand is upon the King James Bible. No other translation can even compare! If God has given us an inspired Book, it is the King James Bible, and no other translation comes even close! The King James Bible is THE BOOK! Isaiah 55:8-9, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." There's a huge difference between the wisdom of God and the wisdom of men. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 1:18-21, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? *hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?"

Admittedly, the Book of the Lord was in a rather lengthy process of being perfected and brought to full maturity into the English language. We believe that the King James Bible was and is the completely product.

In general terms, the Bible versions that existed before the perfection of the King James Bible, followed the same Hebrew text and traditional Greek text.

For example: The most powerful and clear passage of Scripture regarding the Trinity (Godhead) is 1st John 5:7, " For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one." This vital passage proclaiming the deity of Jesus Christ has been sinfully removed from all of the modern Bible revisions, but it existed in The Wycliffe Bible (1395), The Tyndale Bible (1525), The Coverdale Bible (1535), The Great Bible (1539), The Matthew Bible (1537), The Geneva Bible (1560), The Bishops Bible (1568), even the Catholic Douay-Rheims Bible (1582) contained the full words of 1st John 5:7. Only these modern Devil's Bible removed this precious passage of Scripture. The older Bible translations before the 1611 King James Bible were much more closer to the truth, than all of these modern Bible perversions!

King James Bible only critics claim that if there was no perfect Bible before the 1611 King James Bible, then our positions blows up or falls to the ground. However, their thinking is flawed. They are guilty of using the wisdom of men rather than the wisdom of God. Their thinking is decided unbiblical. Was there a perfect Bible consisting of the present 66 book canon in the year 90AD? No, not all of the Bible had even been written yet!

Why didn't god allow the printing press to be invented until 1455 AD? Most Christians weren't blessed to have a fully printed copy of the Bible until the year 1550 AD. Why did God wait so long? He's God, He's in control of history (HIS-STORY). There wasn't any formal church agreement, on the present-day Protestant Bible consisting of 66 Books, until1563 AD. In the wisdom of God, something can be in the process or even non-existent, and yet God calls it "done." This is the wisdom of God, which is totally contrary to the wisdom and ways of men.

Bible prophecy is history written in advance! God refers to the book of the Lord before it was even completed. Isaiah 34:16, " Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them." What exactly was this " book of the Lord

" at Isaiah's time in history? Was it all the books of the Bible written up until the time of Isaiah? Was it just the book of Isaiah? In either case, the Bible as we know it today was not a completed book. The New Testament hadn't even been written, yet God calls it " the Book of the Lord

" and commands us to read it! God sees the end from the beginning, referring to a future event (from our point of view) as a present reality. God can and does refer to the Book of the Lord as being a real object, even though it is still in the process of being written and perfected.

I love the next Bible verse. Daniel 10:21 and 11:2a,

"But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

... And now will I shew thee the truth.

John 17:17,

"Sanctify them through thy truth: *thy word is truth." Here the angel refers to a Book of Scripture that is already written in Heaven, and that is progressively revealed to man.

Psalms 119:88-89, " Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth. For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven." This Scripture of truth has already recorded coming events before they happen in time. Nothing takes God by surprise, He sees the end from the beginning. There is a completely Book in Heaven, that God progressively reveals to His people in time and history.

Satan's goal is to undermine and change the truth of God into a lie (Romans 1:25). That is why the Devil in his subtilty has inspired sincerely misguided men to publish hundreds of English Bible versions. Eve was sincere when she ate the forbidden fruit, which ruined her life (Genesis 3:1-5). Proverbs 16:25, "

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

" The road to Hell is paved with good intentions (Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 13:23-24)

In the Bible, many times God speaks of future events in past tense, as if they had already happened. God lives in eternity whereas man lives in the created element of time (Revelation 10:6). For example: Genesis 17:5, "Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee." God speaks here of future events in past tense, as if they had already accomplished. This promise to Abraham would not be fulfilled for thousands of years. Romans 4:17, " (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were."

Psalms 12:6-7, " The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD,thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." I believe these verses have a double fulfilment. That is, at the time David penned these words, the Bible was incomplete. It wouldn't be until over 1,000 years later that the Bible would be completed in 96 AD with the completion of the book of Revelation. Many of the Messianic prophecies were not understood in the Old Testament until after they had happened. I like the saying: The Old Testament is the New Testament concealed; the New Testament is the Old Testament revealed. That is a helpful way of looking at the Bible.

It is important for you dear reader to understand these truths, to answer the $64,000 question: Where was the perfect and inerrant Bible before the year 1611? If God was going to keep His promise to keep His "

pure words

" from this generation forever, then He must have included, what He knew would be written in the future, as a present reality—the Words of the Lord. Please don't miss this truth dear friend...

> If God was going to keep His promise to keep His "
>
> pure words
> " from this generation forever, then He must have included what He knew would be written in the future, as a present reality—the Words of the Lord.

Obviously, God's Words over the centuries have become corrupted through false readings, omissions and additions. That is true of the whole manuscript tradition. If God did not purify His Word, there never would have been a perfect Holy Bible. Please read, '[1]The Blood Sprinkled Book.' I was compelled with joy to write this article, after hearing an incredible MP3 sermon by Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) titled: '[2]THE BLOOD SPRINKLEDD BOOK!' Pastor Lacy explains that THE BOOK of the Lord must be purified with the blood of the Lamb. Our beloved and inspired King James Bible is very pure, the fulfillment of God's promise. By the way, [3]take a look at what the Devil's bibles have done to corrupt Psalms 12:6-7, removing the Lord's solemn promise to keep and preserve His pure words forever.

The following is another example of future Bible prophecy (events which have not yet happened), in past tense, as if they have already completed. ...

> Ephesians 2:4-7, "But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
>
> Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
>
> And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus*:
>
> That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

God speaks of this glorious redemption and new life from the dead, as being a present reality that has already been accomplished. Yet, multiplied millions of us (believers) hadn't even been born yet when these Scriptures were penned. In the same way, the King James Bible believer does not need to someone trace all the way back in history, to find any perfect and inerrant Bible that existed before God brought the finished product of the King James Bible on the scene in 1611. The sovereign God of history sees the end from the beginning. And He can refer to the true Book of the Lord, even when from our point of view, it wasn't yet complete or perfected. As the King James translators themselves wrote in their [4]preface:

> "Truly good Christian reader, we never thought from the beginning that we should need to make a new translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one, ... but to make a good one better, or out of many good ones, one principal good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavour, that our mark."

The King James translators also wrote in their preface to the King James Bible:

> "nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the later thoughts are thought to be the wiser; so, if we building upon their foundation that went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavor to make that better which they left so good, no man, we are sure, hath cause to mislike us; they, we persuade ourselves, if they were alive, would thank us. ...the same will shine as gold more brightly being rubbed and polished."

I don't hold the King James Bible translators as my final authority. They were good and godly men, just like the imperfect men who gave us the original autographs. God took sinful men and made them holy to pen the Bible. It is God alone Who knows the end from the beginning.

Isaiah 46:9-10, "

Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

" I love that! God declared from ancient times things that are not yet done. That's my awesome and omnipotent God. Dear reader, you don't have to know what will happen tomorrow, simply trust God Who does!

The Lord promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to give us a perfect Bible. We read in Matthew 4:4,

" But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." If we are to live by EVERY WORD that proceeded out of the mouth of God, then we must have an EVERY WORD Bible!!! Either God has given us a perfect, inspired and infallible Bible, or He hasn't. God made us a promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His pure words from this generation forever. The fact that all of the Devil's modern revisions change and remove this promise, saying that God protects the saints instead of preserving His Words, plainly evidences foul play and wickedness!

1st Corinthians 1:19-21, " For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?" It is the barren (no soulwinning) intellectual bunch, deeper-life theologians, who insist that we don't have a complete, innerant, perfect, infallible and inspired Bible. Only the King James Bible believer consistently, historically and logically stands for the doctrinal truths that God has kept His promises to preserve His inspired Words; and that there really exists such a thing as a complete, inerrant and 100 % true and accurate Holy Bible!!!

Remember God says:

“ I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?” Even God Who calleth those things that be not, as though they were.

Romans 4:17b, “ even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.” I want to thank [5]Evangelist Will J. Kinney for his website ministry, from which I obtained most of this [6]information to write this blog article. God bless you my dear brother!

John 14:1-6, “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

1.6.23 We Are Saved By The Precious Blood of Jesus (2020-10-22 09:30)

1st Peter 1:18-21, " Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God."

The Holy Bible teaches in 1st Corinthians 6:20, "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." That is the precious blood of Jesus Christ! The place is the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24).

We are not saved by sacraments in the Roman Catholic church. We are not saved by turning from our sins. We are not saved by doing good deeds. We are not saved by joining a religious organization like Seventh-Day Adventism. We are not saved by our own human effort. We are saved solely by the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus! 1st John 1:7, "But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." Revelation 1:5, "

And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, "

A commonly misunderstood passage of Scripture is 1st Corinthians 6:9-11,

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

" Carefully notice verse 11... BUT YE ARE WASHED!!! The Bible says: AND SUCH WERE SOME OF YOU!!! We are all guilty sinners. You are either saved by the blood, or you are still lost in your sins.

I knew Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) was unsaved, when I [1]heard him preach in BJU chapel on January 26, 2015. Dr. Pettit teaches that faith in Jesus is not enough to be saved. In addition he says that you must faithfully “run the race” until the end to earn the “reward” of “ Heaven itself.

” A born-again believer doesn’t talk like that. I was saved at 13 years of age by the blood of Jesus, and I don’t have to live the Christian life to get to Heaven. I’ve been saved by the blood of the crucified One!

1.6.24 The Two Sincere Men That God Killed (2020-10-23 09:30)

Numbers 15:32-35, "And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath day. And they that found him gathering sticks brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation. And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him. And the LORD said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp. And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died; as the LORD commanded Moses." 2nd Samuel 6:5-7, "

And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and on timbrels, and on cornets, and on cymbals.

And when they came to Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah put forth his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen shook it.

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.

This is one of the most important articles I have ever written Proverbs 16:25, "

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. " All across the world, sincere men are defiling the inspired Word of God, and are perverting the simplicity of the Gospel.

I have quoted to you two separate

Scripture passages. The first is about a Hebrew man who picked up sticks on the Sabbath Day. Since the Sabbath pictured salvation by faith alone in Jesus Christ, picking up sticks on the Sabbath Day symbolized adding works to God's grace. It was for this reason that God commanded Moses to kill the sincere man, to send a message to everyone in all generations not to mess with the Gospel.

The second Scripture passage is about Uzzah, who sincerely reached forth his hand to steady the Ark of God as it wobbled, but God killed him. The Word of God was contained inside the Ark of God, along with the golden pot of manna, and Aaron's rod that budded (Hebrews 9:4). Please don't miss this truth! Uzzah was very sincere. He had only the best of intentions. God had warned the Jews that if any man touched anything holy, he would surely be put to death (Numbers 4:15). Uzzah reminds me of so many foolish, but sincere people in modern times, who with good intentions change, butcher and corrupt the Word of God.

Millions of Bible translators, publishers, theologians and preachers have blood on their hands! Apostate Bible colleges—such as Moody Bible Institute, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and Bob Jones University—who bid Godspeed to the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions—are just as guilty as Uzzah!!! The infamous 'Golden State Killer' (who was convicted of hundreds of atrocious crimes in 2020) is no more of a monster than theologians' [1]Brooke Westcott And Fenton Hort, who brutally raped the Word of God, binding the truth, and spiritually murdering men's souls. They're all monsters!!!

It is a serious offense to tamper with the Gospel or the Word of God. God swiftly killed these two men, as a warning to future generations not to mess with God's grace, not to mess with God's inspired Words! Many of the modern [2]Bible perversions corrupt the meaning of " [3] repentance, thus perverting the Gospel, damning men's souls to Hell by hindering them from seeing the light of THE TRUTH of the Gospel. 2nd Corinthians 4:3,

"But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Jesus Is Our Sabbath In Whom We Rest For Salvation

We are warned to enter into God's rest in the New Testament in Hebrews 11:1-11. Don't miss the following Scripture. Carefully notice what the first sentence tells us:

> Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Did you read that? Those who have truly entered into God's rest (The Gospel of Jesus Christ) have also CEASED FROM HIS OWN WORKS. Boy that's good! Are you listening all you Lordship Salvationists (like Ray Comfort and Paul Washer) who teach that faith alone is not sufficient to be saved? Are you listening John MacArthur, Seventh-day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses who teach that HUMAN EFFORT is also required to be saved? The Bible calls all of these false prophets LIARS! No human effort is required for salvation. Repentance is not a change of life; but rather, a change of mind, which means ceasing from one's OWN WORKS (Hebrews 4:1). Biblical repentance is ceasing from your own human effort, and instead believing THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST. Let me quote this wonderful Scripture again from Hebrews 4:10, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works..."

What example of unbelief is Hebrews 4:11 speaking of? Look back to verses 1-2...

> Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

The Israelites in the Wilderness heard Moses preach the Gospel again and again, but they didn't believe. The reason why the Jews were always complaining is because most of them never got saved. They literally didn't believe in the coming Messiah. Many of them didn't care, but only wanted to party:

> 1st Corinthians 10:5-7, "But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."

Men are saved when they cease from their own self-righteousness (pictured by the 6-days of work) and instead trust (or rest) completely in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. JESUS PAID IT ALL! From the passages of Scripture I've just shared with you, it is clear that many of the Jews in the Wilderness perished in their sins without Christ and went to Hell. Carefully pay attention to Hebrews 4:1-2 again:

> Hebrews 4:1-2, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it."

God promises to give eternal life to whosoever RESTS in the Gospel of Jesus Christ. As you just read, the preaching of the Gospel didn't profit them because they didn't believe. They had no faith. They heard the Gospel, but it was not mixed with faith in them that heard it. My friend, the Gospel means nothing if you don't believe it. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 defines the Gospel as the DEATH, BURIAL and RESURRECTION of Jesus Christ. If you REST upon the Gospel, receiving the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross as payment for YOUR SINS, believing that He is physically risen from the dead, you are instantly and eternally saved.

Right Doctrine Matters!

God thought it was an important enough matter to end the lives of two sincere men, who made light of God's Word and the Gospel. A web visitor recently told me that the Jews won't believe on the name of Jesus, so we must evangelize them with a different method, [5]using the name of Yeshua instead. I kindly rebuked them with the inspired Word of God, explaining that there is no salvation apart from the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth (Acts 4:10-12). If an arrogant Jew refuses to submit to the righteousness of God, which is solely through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 10:3-4; Philippians 3:9), then he cannot go to Heaven.

Likewise, just as my sincere web visitor who foolishly wanted to reach Jews without the Gospel, even so are Bible translators today foolish who change the Word of God to satisfy the whims of skeptics, unbelievers and false religions. The New International Version (NIV) is one of the most corrupt Bible revisions. Another horrible corrupt perversion is the [6]English Standard Version (ESV) which Bob Jones University uses, sells and bids Godspeed to. The modern Bible revisions [7]brutally attack Jesus' deity, remove the Godhead, secularize the Bible by removing theological words, add false teachings, and confuse churchgoers by the presence of literally hundreds of English Bible versions. God only authored one Book!

We need to reread the Bible, not rewrite it!

1.6.25 Why I'm So Happy In My Precious Lord, God And Savior (2020-10-24 02:08)

1st Peter 1:7-9, " That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls." Psalms 119:165, " Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them." Hebrews 12:2a, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith..."

I am so happy in the Lord today! I just had to write this article to share my feelings with everyone. It is Saturday, October 24, 2020 and I am abundantly happy in the Lord. God is so awesome, good and precious! Praise ye the Lord O ye saints! Why am I so happy? I am going to share several reason in this blog post why I am so happy in Jesus. Please lend me your heart dear weary traveler.

Why am I so happy in the Lord today? Well, I started off my day [1]listening to the Gospel of Luke. That's a great way to start off each day, by listening to the inspired King James Bible. As I do each day, I began with a prayer before working on my website ministry, asking God to please give me the divine wisdom to help others. Proverbs 4:7, " Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

I have had many happy moments lately, simply relishing in the promises of God, earnestly pondering how great my dear Savior truly is! Oh how I know that God My Savior dearly loves me! We cannot love others, until we first allow God to love us! Do you know that God loves you my friend? The Lord truly does! If you are close to God, nothing in this world can bring you low! Psalms 119:165, "Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them." We are living in a society of miserable people everywhere we turn these days!

Do you know why people (including professed Christians) are so miserable? Hebrews 12:2a, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith..." It is that simple to be happy dear reader—LOOK UNTO JESUS! I am happy because of where I am looking. I am looking to Jesus! I got saved by looking to Jesus as a 13 year old teenager. I have lived my life by looking to Jesus, and when I have sinned and failed along life's journey, it is only because I took my eyes off of the dear Lord (Proverbs 14:14). I am 53 years old, and the time is going faster and faster as I grow closer to my blessed homecoming! Proverbs 4:18, "But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

I Am Happy To Have One Inspired King James Bible

Boy that makes me happy! M ay I truthfully say—You are as close to God as you are to His inspired Word. That is why I make such a big fuss over the infallibility, perfection and inspiration of the Holy Bible. How can a man walk with God, if he has five different Bible versions? Amos 3:3,

Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

" I truly feel sorry for deceived churchgoers, who think that some Bible versions get a certain passage right, but other revisions get it wrong; so they continually consult multiple Bible revisions in an attempt to find the "best" translation (according to their own human wisdom).

What a sad way to live the Christian life!

I have heard umpteen Baptist preachers do this very thing—referring to multiple Bible versions at different times in their preaching, citing their favorite Bible version for any particular passage of Scripture they are exegeting. That is confusing to the listener. I thank God, and am bubbling over with happiness today, that I have only one inspired Holy Bible. Thank God for the precious King James Bible!!! I am so happy to know that I have a perfect, infallible, preserved and inspired King James Bible!!! It burns my heart with joy that I have EVERY WORD that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. ” I have an EVERY WORD Bible, and it rejoices my heart 24/7! Whew, hallelujah, amen, praise God, I am so happy to have God’s complete and perfect Word!!!

I Am Happy Trusting God To Find Me A Prudent Wife

My web visitors know that I have been infatuated with a young woman across the street from me. I have poured out my heart to her online in numerous articles I have written, especially late last year before Christmas. I cried much in prayer, wanting for God to put it in her heart to love me back, but it didn’t happen. She was giving me little signals over the years, when I saw her coming and going across the street, which kept me on the path CHASING RABBITS! My pastor at the [2]Bethel Baptist Church on Guam preached Wednesday night about chasing rabbits.

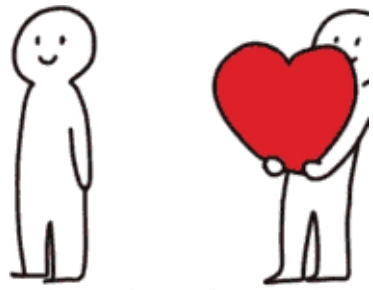
” I needed to hear that truth, because it occurred to me that I’ve been foolishly chasing rabbits. I’ve been CHASING RABBITS concerning both wanting to return to Harvest Baptist Church, and wanting to marry this young uninterested woman who attends Harvest. I have been barking up an empty tree, wasting my time. Harvest is a lost cause! I’ve been chasing rabbits in wonderland.

I am reminded of a song by singer Garth Brooks from 1995: “[3]Thank God for unanswered prayer!” The Lord impressed upon my heart: “Do you really want to marry a woman who only acknowledges you if her pastors give her permission?” [4]Here’s some of the song’s meaningful lyrics:

> She was the one that I’d wanted for all times
>
> And each night I’d spend prayin’ that God would make her mine
>
> And if he’d only grant me this wish I wished back then
>
> I’d never ask for anything again
> Sometimes I thank God for unanswered prayers
>
> Remember when you’re talkin’ to the man upstairs
>
> And just because he doesn’t answer doesn’t mean he don’t care
>
> [5]Some of God’s greatest gifts are unanswered prayers



[6]

Kris (the former nurse at Harvest) didn't want me. Abby didn't want me. I feel peace in this matter, because it was their decisions, not mine. I believe God's hand is in this (Philippians 2:13). I was so hurt last year when Abby waved like I was her best friend one day, but then abandoned me the next (at the whim of her ungodly pastors). Kindly said, I make my own decisions based upon what God alone thinks. I am thankful that I don't let other people control whom I accept or reject. That is why I have a ministry website like I do—standing alone among deadbeat Neo-evangelicals (like Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) who don't care about God, truth or people. Everyone should be welcome at a church! That's not the case at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam—they're a social club and only select people are welcomed!

They have horribly mistreated me at Harvest since 2014, refusing to even speak with me about coming back to church. I humbly went to them three times in 2017, but their pastors literally told me to: "

Go elsewhere!

" That is what a religious cult does! Our dear Lord ate with publicans and sinners. Jesus didn't turn away the demon-possessed man in Mark 5:1-15, He befriended and helped the man. It was the hypocritical religious crowd whom the Lord sharply rebuked. Luke 7:39, "Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner."

That is what Pharisees do—they sinfully judge people, condemning and ostracizing them, like Harvest's pastors have wrongly done to me. The Pharisee in his wicked heart thought Jesus should reject the woman, because she was a sinner. It is hard for me to grasp the fact that the Lord received a demon-possessed broken man, but the local Baptist church won't even allow a broken Bible preacher like me to attend church. Go figure! [7]Some of God's greatest gifts are unanswered prayers!

As a preacher, I have seen people go from loving a pastor, to hating him overnight. That is not what happened at Harvest Baptist Church. I have repeatedly begged them to come back, showing a spirit of reconciliation and love, but they have turned me away in their coldness and heresy. So I have preached against them, taking a stand against their apostasy! I love them at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but I hate every false way. Psalms 119:104, "

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

" The Devil's bibles must be exposed. The Devil's heresy of Lordship Salvation must be exposed. The Devil's ministers like Steve Pettit and John MacArthur must be exposed. To God be the glory!!!

Sadly, when their employment contracts eventually expire in the future at Harvest Baptist Academy on Guam, the Bob Jones Graduates whom Abby thinks are her "friends" at Harvest Baptist Church will move back to the United States, and she'll never hear from them again. That's what the serpent did to Eve in Genesis. Bob Jones University is a hellhole in my humble opinion, "snakes" Jesus called them. Matthew 12:34,

O generation of vipers*, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

" Now you know why ungodly people hated Jesus so much! The Lord called the respected religious leaders in His community " snakes,

just like I am calling Harvest’s pastors snakes! They are sly like a serpent, tricking their victims. They speak of “

while [8]promoting umpteen Bible versions. They speak of “grace” while [9]demanding works (i.e., requiring that you turn from your sins) to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. [10]That is an exchange, not a gift!

The Lord impressed upon my heart as I drove home from church this past Wednesday night, that I now am blessed to have a Fundamentalist Baptist pastor, who cares about me and my family. The pastor gave my grandson a small bag of candy after church Wednesday. Little things like that says: “

I care.

You can tell when someone cares. It is the little things that they do. I am like a sponge, noticing everything. That is only because I am starving to be loved. God even knows the number of hairs upon our head (Matthew 10:30). I love this faithful preacher and his family. I love Bible preachers, because I is one!

I sincerely believe that God has thwarted my efforts to go back to Harvest, because [11]they are the equivalent of the apostate lukewarm church of Laodicea (Revelation 3:15-22). Kindly said, their pastors at Harvest are indifferent toward truth. [12]Harvest bids Godspeed to Dr. Steve Pettit , who preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation. [13]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. is ashamed up in Heaven at the cesspool of iniquity his college has become at Bob Jones University. I am so happy to contend for the Christian faith!!!

There is nothing wrong in America today that couldn’t be remedied by a generation of Bible-preaching PREACHERS!!! Instead, we’ve got a bunch of pretty-boy, wimpy, yuppie type, ministers, who are more concerned about growing a ministry than preaching THE TRUTH!

I have peace in my soul that Kris and Abby didn’t want me, because I did all I could to reach out to them in love and respect as a gentleman. I am so happy that God is working this all out, so I don’t have to make the decisions. That means the Lord has a different woman for me! The Lord is guiding me as He so promised. Proverbs 3:5-6, “ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” By the way, I’m not making any promises, but my daughter has been encouraging me to make some YouTube videos of me preaching. I was thinking today of giving a Bible study on the entire book of Proverbs. It would be 31 videos, about 45 minutes long. I am thinking of ideas for videos. Also, Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is inspiring me to make some videos, because he just started doing the same. [14]Here’s his new YouTube channel.

It is too early to tell, but I have another Christian young lady on my mind. I first met her in 2017 at Lighthouse Baptist Baptist church on Guam, and she caught my eye back then. I remember when she asked my name and I replied: “Humkafiddlehopper”…lol. I still remember the serious face she had. I didn’t pursue her then, because our paths didn’t cross, but now they do. I tremendously admire her. One day at a time. I maybe be chasing rabbits again, but time will tell, I have to be patient and prayerful, one day at a time. I didn't think I was worthy of her, but the Lord works in mysterious ways! My mother often said: "T he Lord works in mysterious ways, and Mom is always right!

I Am Happy About The Free Grace Gospel

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. is 100 % correct that most independent Baptist churches today are PATHETIC!

God's curse is upon any church that perverts God's grace, adhering to [15]a counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Harvest is the biggest independent Baptist church on Guam in name only. In reality, the small church I am attending is the biggest independent Baptist church on Guam, because the pastor is 100 % correct on the free grace Gospel, door-to-door soulwinning, and the infallible inspired King James Bible. That is why I love the pastor most of all, because he is preaching correctly!

My favorite sermon by Pastor Barnes is titled:

"[16]Why Is Paul So Upset In The Epistle Of Galatians?" There was no video for that sermon, but I sat on the edge of my seat taking notes. My favorite statement from that sermon is: "Anyone who attacks the grace of God, is attacking the God of grace!"

I fully agree with what one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Bob Gray Sr. said:

> "Pathetic comes to mind when considering the condition of so many of our independent Baptist churches across this nation. I don't know, maybe that seems a little strong. Nope, I am sticking with it. PATHETIC!" —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., "[17]Why Isn't It Working For You?"

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Remember this, if you're depending upon your own good works to get you to Heaven, you're lost! Your salvation had to be purchased with something that was incorruptible, with the precious blood of Jesus Christ!

I Am Happy That I Will Be Given A New Body In Eternity

I am thankful that I can walk and take care of myself. I like walking. Some days I can go walking, but on other days my radiating pain (stenosis and radiculitis) is bad in my arms and legs and I stay home. It all relates to a severe neck injury from 1992 when I was rear-ended by a church bus, and a steep fall at work in 2004 down a mailslide.

Albeit, I am thankful that I can still walk, but I have constant pain 24/7 in the bony area of the back of my neck. The prescription pain medications help tremendously. As you can imagine, one of my favorite Bible passages is:

Philippians 3:20-21, “ For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body*, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

I am happy knowing that the Lord will give me a new, perfect and immortal body at the Rapture (1st Corinthians 15:51-58). What a glorious day that will be!

By God’s grace [18]I recorded a dozen pedal steel guitar songs earlier this year. The steel guitar is my life’s passion, as a hobby. I love music and thank God for it. God put seven notes in a musical scale. There are seven colors in a rainbow. There are seven days in a week. The number seven is God’s favorite number. I indent all of my articles beginning with seven spaces. I love the number seven!

I Am Happy Being Outside The Gate With Jesus

Since 2017, I have been begging like a starving dog for Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to please let me come back to church services. They have consistently refused. I have pleaded for their compassion and love, but they have kicked me in the head, leaving me for dead. Psalms 109:4-5, “For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer. And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.”

I have been casting my pearl before the swine, begging to be loved back, from Harvest and the young women that I mentioned earlier. Love is getting harder and harder to come by nowadays! I mean, if churches won’t love unloved people, then who’s going to do it?

Matthew 7:6, “ Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. ” I have been chasing rabbits at Harvest Baptist Church in more ways than one.

Ironically, the great need of our generation is for churches to repent!

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, “In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.” I love this Bible verse, which clearly shows what repentance is, and is not. Repentance is NOT turning from one’s sins. This is the popular heresy of Lordship Salvation. No where does the Bible teach to “turn away from your sins” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life.

2nd Timothy 2:25 teaches that repentance is unto THE TRUTH. Repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH! Repentance is a man admitting that he is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19), which facilitates (makes possible) believing to be saved. We are saved by believing, not by repenting, but repentance is necessary to be saved. Repentance is automatic, included in believing. The man who believes the Gospel has also repented. Salvation is very simple.

Most Christians, Bible professors and pastors today are shallow, who refuse to suffer reproach for the name of Jesus. They don’t want to be put outside the gate with Jesus! Bless God, if I perish, I perish!!! Count me in with Esther and the persecuted Jews! Count me in with Elijah being a troublemaker in Israel! Count me in with Jesus being rejected and despised by the phony religious crowd!

I Am So Happy To Be God's Redeemed Child

Oh it is wonderful to be a Christian! It is wonderful to be God's child. ...

> Psalms 33:1, "

I am so happy to be a part of God's family (Ephesians 3:14-15). My name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20). Jesus is preparing for me a home up in Heaven (John 14:1-3). When Jesus returns, He promises that no man will ever take away my joy again (John 16:22). God is going to give me all things (Romans 8:32). What a beautiful Savior! What an awesome God!!!

1.6.26 The Neglected Doctrine of Imputation (2020-10-24 09:30)

Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

Ask most church members today what "imputation" means and they have no idea what you're talking about. Look through Evangelist Ray Comfort's "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE" from cover-to-cover and you'll never find where he comments on the vital doctrine of "[1]imputation." Look at the listing of words in the index at the back of Ray Comfort's best-selling book, "THE EVIDENCE BIBLE." There are over 1,000 words listed, but no mention of "impute" or "imputation." It is quite interesting, considering that Mr. Comfort teaches the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Modern theology is virtually devoid of the doctrine of imputation. In the following passage of Scripture, the Satanic Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) butchers Romans 4:5-6. Notice carefully that the important theological term "IMPUTETH" in Romans 4:6 of the faithful KJB, has been completely removed from the ERV. The KJB is correct below, but the second quote is from the ERV, which is awful, heretical and wicked:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) — Romans 4:5-6, "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." [emphasis added]
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) — Romans 4:5-6, "But people cannot do any work that will make them right with God. So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him. He is the one who makes even evil people right. David said the same thing when he was talking about the blessing people have when God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done." [emphasis added]

They've horribly corrupted this Scripture passage! Do you see what they've sinfully done? Whereas the King James Bibles teaches that God imputes the righteousness of Christ to the believer, the ERV foolishly says God accepts a person as good by faith, which means something different entirely. God doesn't accept someone as "good" by faith; but rather, God attributes His righteousness to us by faith. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith."

God told us to “study” the Bible in 2nd Timothy 2:15. What is so hard about looking up the meaning of “imputeth?” By removing this important theological word from the KJB and replacing it with some religious nonsense, the doctrine of imputation has effectively been stricken from the ERV (which is a typical corruption in all modern Bible versions). Satan is changing the Bible into a spiritual book instead of a theological book.

The basis of obtaining justification is through God’s righteousness being IMPUTED to the sinner through faith in Christ, Who paid our sin debt on the cross. Jesus took our sins upon Himself on the cross, paying a debt that He did not owe. Jesus is our sin payment! When we BELIEVE the Gospel, God takes Jesus’ righteousness, and places it upon us. God imputes our sins to Jesus, and then He imputes Jesus’ righteousness to us. Isn’t that beautiful!!! This is why we don’t need any works to be saved, because Christ paid it all by His sacrifice of on the cross, and the sprinkling of His shed blood upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven (Hebrews 9:12, 24; 12:24).

The corrupt ERV says in Romans 4:5, “So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him.” This is wrong! It is not our faith that makes us right with God. It is Christ’s sacrifice on the cross and His applied blood in Heaven that makes us right with God, in response to our faith in the Gospel. The ERV obliterates the entire doctrine of imputation. Christ died on the cross as our LAMB (John 1:29), and He raised up bodily three days later and ascended into Heaven as our HIGH PRIEST (Romans 8:34; Hebrews 4:14-16).

The Easy-To-Read Version (ERV) butchers the Bible in Romans 4:5-6. Instead of saying that “God imputeth righteousness without works,” the ERV says, “God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done.” Imputation DOESN’T mean that AT ALL!!! The ERV totally removes the doctrine of imputation from their corrupt Bible version. The Holy Bible never teaches that God accepts us as good. We are sinful, all of us are rotten (Romans 3:23). There is NONE GOOD (Romans 3:10). God doesn’t look the other way, accepting us as good while overlooking our bad. This is nonsensical religious garbage. You can check other perverted Alexandrian Bible revisions, which are all basically the same. The New International Version (NIV) removes the word “imputes” too. The Voice (VOICE) is of the Devil. Beware of the [2]Alexandrian, Egypt, Bible versions.

Imputation is not God accepting a person as good and not looking at their bad, because this completely fails to mention the righteousness of Christ which makes it all possible. The very word “imputation” means that God transfers Christ’s righteousness to us, and transfers our sins to Christ. In John 3:15 we are told that as Moses lifted up the serpent, even so must Jesus Christ be lifted up. That serpent pictured Christ, who became as sin for us (2nd Corinthians 5:21). Jesus, Who knew no sin, became as sin; so that we who knew no righteousness, could be made the righteousness of God in Him. Amen. This is imputation.

It is a major theological blunder to remove the word “impute” from the Bible. The translators of the ERV got it VERY WRONG. If you understanding the [3]occult roots of the modern versions, then you know why. It is difficult to translate the word “impute” because it is a concept, not able to be replaced with a word or two. This is why I would never remove this critically important word from the Bible. Let the people study as God commanded!!! It is time for arrogant pastors to stop playing God. The word “IMPUTETH” in Romans 4:6 means something very different than what the ERV reads.

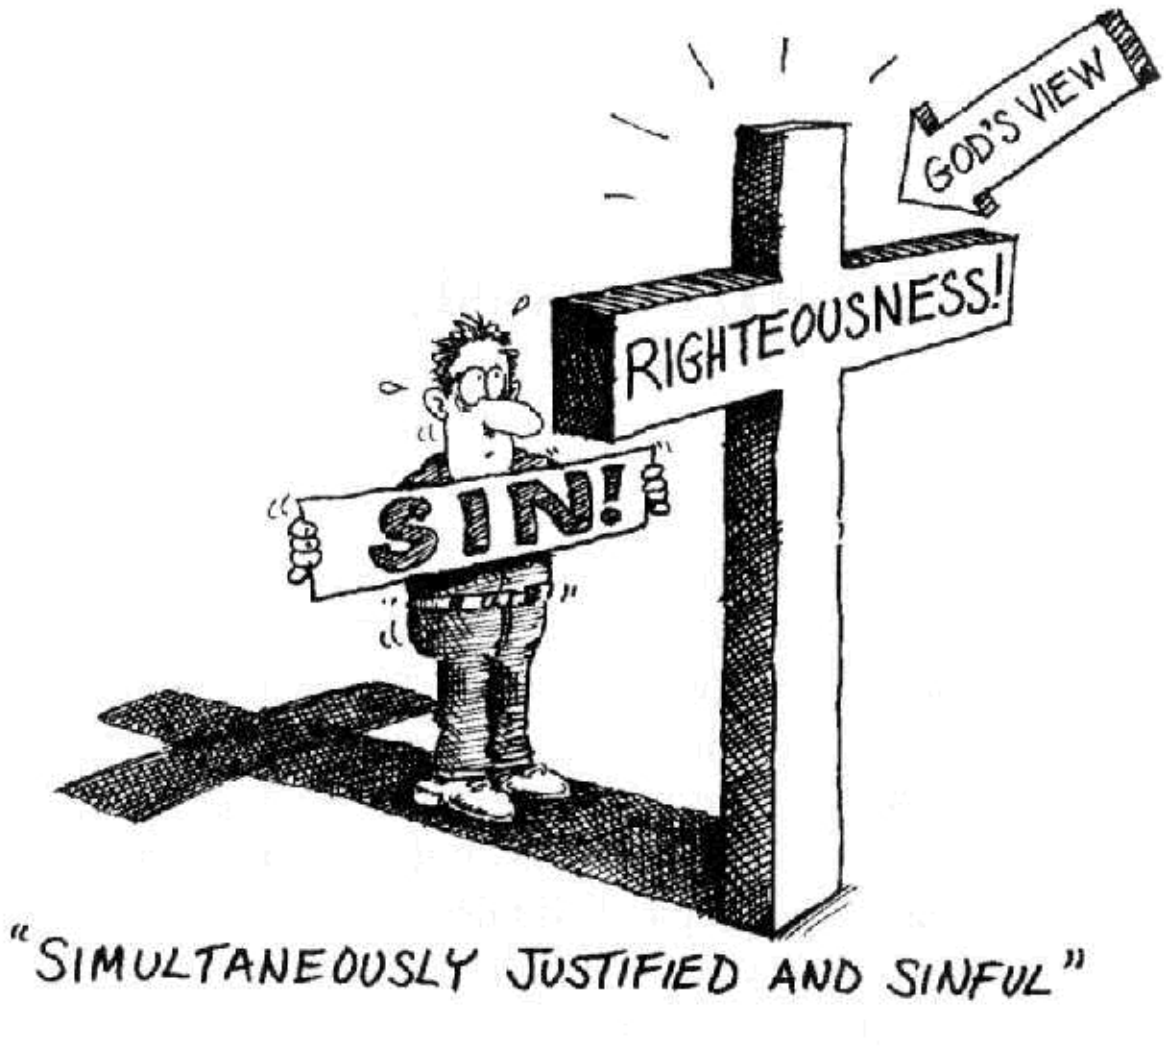
The truth is that by faith God credits a man with Christ’s righteousness. That is what is missing from the ERV... CHRIST’S RIGHTEOUSNESS (or HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, Matthew 6:33). The ERV merely says that God accepts a man as good. That is not imputation. In the divine act of imputation, Christ’s righteousness is passed (transferred) by God the Father to our account, by which God declares us good. This only happens by faith. Imputation happens at the moment of salvation, and never has to be repeated. Once we are declared righteous in God’s eyes through faith in Christ Jesus, we are eternally secure and forever saved.

The Neglected Doctrine of Imputation

The words “counted” and “imputeth” are the same Greek word, so they mean the same thing in these two verses (Romans 4:5-6). The KJB says that a man’s faith is counted for righteousness. We are told that God imputeth righteousness to a man without works (labor to earn Heaven). Since we all have NO self-righteousness of our own to offer or impress God (Isaiah 64:6), the only way we can be saved is by obtaining Christ’s righteousness. This is possible only through faith in the Gospel.

The Bible-butchers should have left the word IMPUTETH alone. It is a beautiful word. How lazy can people get? Entire books have been written about this one important theological term. In Romans 4:6, the ERV has rendered the word “IMPUTETH” as “God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done,” which utterly fails to inform the reader why God accepts them as good. It is only because of Christ’s suffering on the cross that we are able by faith to be declared righteous. It is not that God accepts us as good; but rather, He accepts us on the basis of Christ’s righteousness which has been credited (imputed) to us by faith.

The ERV caters to false religions which require doing good works to be saved. Whereas the KJB says that God substitutes a man’s faith in place of righteousness, so that works are not necessary; the ERV changes this passage to mean that by faith we are right with God. That says something totally different. The ERV has eliminated the truth that WORKS ARE NOT NEEDED for salvation! Thus, the ERV also caters to the heretics who teach the Lordship Salvation, who require forsaking bad works to be saved, and stay saved. Whether we are required to do good works, or avoid doing bad works, either way it constitutes human effort for salvation. Jesus taught in John 6:28-29 that the only “work” accepted by God for salvation is to BELIEVE ON JESUS CHRIST.



Most false religions and all Lordship Salvationists avoid the Biblical doctrine of imputation. In their "Way Of The Master Evidence Bible," Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron comment on thousands of Scripture passages, but have nothing to say about Romans 4:5-6 on imputation. In the nearly 1,000 word index in the back section of the book, the word "impute" is not mentioned at all. Any Bible teacher worth a dime is very familiar with the vital doctrine of imputation. But since this doctrine doesn't fit [4]Mr. Comfort's satanic plan of Lordship Salvation to be saved. The awesome doctrine of imputation that God put in the Holy Bible exposes all false prophets. You see, we are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS. Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Notice that we are to seek HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, and not OUR own self-righteousness.

Romans 4:5-6 in the KJB teaches that God imputes (credits) Christ's righteousness to us, without works of self-righteousness, because we don't have any to offer (Isaiah 64:6). However, the ERV says God accepts us as good without looking at what we have done wrong. This is not imputation. The KJB doesn't say that God doesn't look at our wrong; but rather, it says that our salvation is WITHOUT WORKS!!! When the KJB mentions that God imputes righteousness to a man WITHOUT WORKS, it refers to the DEAD WORKS of trying to merit and earn Heaven.

Since eternal life is a totally free gift from God, we don't need any works of our own to be saved, neither doing good or forsaking bad. You cannot do GOOD WORKS to be saved. Nor are you required to stop doing BAD WORKS to be saved. This is false religion. These are all DEAD WORKS. Since Jesus Christ has provided all that is necessary for our salvation, all we need to do to be saved is BELIEVE ON HIM (John 6:28-29).

We are saved by God's imputed righteousness, not our own efforts. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." If you understand this, then you fully realize that salvation cannot be lost for any reason. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). We need a revival of the fundamental Biblical doctrine of [5]IMPUTATION in our churches.

1.6.27 How Churches Condemn Next Generation To Go Liberal (2020-10-25 09:30)

Proverbs 22:28, "Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set." Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

Kindly said, God's curse is upon Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. It should be cemetery!

God's curse is upon Bob Jones University.

God's curse is upon is upon the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

God's curse is upon Moody Bible Institute. All of these pseudo-Christian organizations promote multiple Bible revisions, which is a disgrace, and proves just how theologically incompetent they all are. Look what Voltaire the infamous atheist said:

> **"
>
> The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God " —
>
> Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)
>
> " If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man's belief in the Bible. "
>
> **—
>
> Voltaire (French philosopher and atheist, 1694-1778)

When you hear a preacher or Bible professor claim that Bible translations are no longer inspired today, and that only the original autographs were inspired, remember that they are in agreement with Voltaire! Folks, we don't have any originals anymore!!!

In his well written article, The Two Lies, Bible believer Daryl R. Coats rightly says:

> "If the Bible were inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one today really knows for sure what is in 'the Bible' because no one today has ever seen the original manuscripts."

[1]Sam Kobia, Secretary, World Council Of Churches, ENI 1-23-04:

"Having a variety of translations available encourages the Bible to be read in a plural and ecumenical way. HAVING A VARIETY OF TRANSLATIONS AVAILABLE IS A PRECIOUS TOOL IN THE STRUGLE AGAINST RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM." (Caps are mine)

Did you understand that? In other words, the Devil intentionally published a bunch of English Bible revisions to destroy people's Christian faith! All these Neo-evangelicals today, like the shameful Bob Jones University camp, are destroying churches! We've got a bunch of incompetent, cold-hearted, academics today who woefully lack compassion, because they've been trained by people in Bible colleges who've never built churches!!! [2]Pastor Jack Hyles said that truth, and he was so right!!!

The explosion of modern versions has encouraged the student to pick and choose his own preferred readings and has created a tendency to treat every Bible lightly and to look upon none as the final words of God. This is the great danger of using, and the incalculable harm done by, the modern Bible revisions! [3]Occultist Alice Bailey (1880-1949) said the goal of Theosophists (Luciferians) is to infiltrate the churches, and to lead young people into a superficial form of spirituality without organized religion or dogma (sound doctrine). The goal of Luciferians is to prepare the world to receive the coming Antichrist, who "shall honour the God of forces" (new age), according to Daniel 11:38b. Evangelist Will Kinney states:

Not surprisingly, this is the attitude behind every English 'Bible' published since 1611. "We can only follow the best judgment of competent scholars as to the most probable reconstruction of the original text," says the preface to the RSV, too deceitful to define just what a "competent scholar" is and to cut through the double-talk and admit, "This is what we think the Bible might be."

The number of professing Christians who do not believe in a "hold it in your hands and read" type of inspired Bible has steadily increased over the years since the flood of multiple-choice, conflicting and contradictory modern bible versions began to appear about 100 years ago. The following testimonies about the character of Evangelicalism today were made by key Evangelical leaders. The irony is that these same men are part of the problem they lament. Each of these men has been guilty of endorsing modern bible versions:

"MORE AND MORE ORGANIZATIONS AND INDIVIDUALS HISTORICALLY COMMITTED TO AN INFALLIBLE SCRIPTURE HAVE BEEN EMBRACING AND PROPAGATING THE VIEW THAT THE BIBLE HAS ERRORS IN IT. This movement away from the historic standpoint has been most noticeable among those often labeled Neo-evangelicals. This change of position with respect to the infallibility of the Bible is widespread and has occurred in evangelical denominations, Christian colleges, theological seminaries, publishing houses and learned societies" (Dr. Harold Lindsell, former vice-president and professor at Fuller Theological Seminary and Editor Emeritus of Christianity Today; The Battle For The Bible, 1976, p. 20).

"WITHIN EVANGELICALISM THERE ARE A GROWING NUMBER WHO ARE MODIFYING THEIR VIEWS ON THE INERRANCY OF THE BIBLE SO THAT THE FULL > AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE IS COMPLETELY UNDERCUT. But is happening in very subtle ways. Like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views on Biblical authority often seem at first glance not to be very far from what evangelicals, until just recently, have always believed. But also, like the snow lying side-by-side on the ridge, the new views when followed consistently end up a thousand miles apart. What may seem like a minor difference at first, in the end makes all the difference in the world ... compromising the full authority of Scripture eventually affects what it means to be a Christian theologically and how we live in the full spectrum of human life" (Francis Schaeffer, The Great Evangelical Disaster, 1983, p. 44).

The surest way to ruin the faith of the next generation is to deny the inspiration of the King James Bible in this generation. Mark Twain wisely said: “What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace.” The First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana (FBCH) has denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008. They are trying to compensate by focusing on soulwinning. Although I am excited about the soulwinning, I also know that by removing the ancient landmark (Proverbs 22:28), the FBCH and Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) will change down the road.

This generation has sinfully chosen to embrace the ungodly doctrine of Voltaire, claiming that we do not have an inspired Bible today. The next natural progression is to accept multiple Bible versions, like Bob Jones University has been shamefully doing for decades now. When the new Bible revisions are accepted, the heresy of Lordship Salvation comes with the new Bibles, and then I-chabod will be written over the church! That means: “The glory of the Lord has departed”! FBCH today are condemning the next generation to go liberal, by denying the inspiration of the Holy Bible. Already FBCH and HAC are silent about the evils and dangers of the Devil’s Bibles. If Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) were alive today, they’d never invite him to speak at FBCH and HAC, but Brother Jack Hyles did in 1995, and I was there!!! The very core of Christian Fundamentalism is the belief in a perfect, infallible and inspired Holy Bible!!!

In case you missed his quote earlier, [5]Sam Kobia, Secretary, World Council Of Churches , said on January 23, 2004:

> "Having a variety of translations available encourages the Bible to be read in a plural and ecumenical way. HAVING A VARIETY OF TRANSLATIONS AVAILABLE IS A PRECIOUS TOOL IN THE STRUGLE AGAINST RELIGIOUS FUNDAMENTALISM." (Caps are mine)

The Neo-evangelical Bob Jones University crowd are drilling holes in the bottom of the boat, while we Fundamentalists are trying to keep the ship from sinking!

1.6.28 Pastor Jack Hyles On The Importance Of Bible Infallibility (2020-10-26 00:30)

Deuteronomy 4:2, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you." Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

We are living in a wicked and confused generation of translations, abominations and perversions of the Word of God! Pastor Jack Hyles had this to say about the infallibility of God's Word:

> John 12:47-48, "And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day."
>
> John 14:23, "Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."
>
> Folks, I'm going to go to seed [to become worn] before I die on defending this Book—I'm going to go to seed on it! I'm a little tired—by the way, every preacher in America, before he met a theologian, believed exactly what I'm preaching tonight! Theologians messed us all up—they messed me up for a while, I'll be honest with you—messed us all up! When I went off to college, I thought I had the words of God in this Book right here. When I was in college for awhile I found out I didn't. Not only that, I found out nobody did! Not only that, I found out you couldn't have them! Not only that, I found out there was no such thing as any book in all the world that had the words of God in 'em!
>
> But my Bible said that we're supposed to keep His "WORDS"; not His truths, not just His doctrine, but His "WORDS"! ...
>
> Mark 8:38, "Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."
>
> Folks, here's what's happening in America. The old-time preachers that built this country believed that this Book right here had the words of God in it! Your grandpa and grandma, that built this country, shed their tears on this Book, thinking they had the very words of God in their hands. And fundamentalists ALL believed what I'm preaching tonight, until we got our own Bible colleges, and seminaries, and sent our professors off to train at the feet of Karl Barth, and Reinhold Neuber, Emil Brunner, and others, who said that the Bible does not have the "words" of God, it is the Word of God, and that all the Bible is not inspired word-for-word. So we did not want to be considered "unintellectual" by the intellectual community; we're not willing to be called "nuts" and "fools"—just chalk me up as a nut! Chalk me up as a fool! Yea! Chalk me up as an uneducated illiterate if you want to, but I guarantee Ya—I'd rather study my A-B-C's in Heaven, then Greek and Hebrew in Hell!
>
> Whosoever shall be ashamed of "ME AND MY WORDS"; it didn't say His "WORD," it says His "WORDS"!
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Jack Hyles, a beautiful quote from the sermon, "[1]There Are Too Many Smiths In The Land."

Amen and amen! No one ever questioned that infallibility and inspiration of God's Word before 1881. That was the year that Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their corrupt work titled: "The New Testament In The Original Greek." Their work was based upon allegedly "older" and “more reliable” ancient manuscripts of God’s Word. It just so happens that these so-called better texts brutally attacked the deity of Jesus Christ on all fronts. As one would expect, the [2]Jehovah’s Witness’ religious cult quickly accepted this new Greek work, since they deny Jesus’ deity.

Even the [3]communist country of Cuba had enough sense to reject the Devil’s Bible revisions. They said they’ll only accept King James Bibles! Way to go Cuba! So what is wrong with stupid American pastors and Bible professors? Go figure! I’ll tell you exactly what is wrong—the love of money! Luke 16:13, “No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” In an effort to lure new students, today’s disgraceful Bible colleges have lowered their standards, changed their doctrine, and gone to the dogs! Neo-evangelicalism is the enemy of Christianity! God hasn’t changed (Malachi 3:6; Hebrews 13:8).

The following is an awesome needful defense of the inspiration and infallibility of the King James Bible. I fully agree with Dr. David Otis Fuller...

Possessing An Infallible Bible

The Dean Burgon Society’s 1994 Annual Meeting

[4]Introduction

[5]I. His Infallibly Inspired Bible will be preserved to all generations
[6]II. Canonicity Confirms our faith that we possess an infallible Bible
[7]III. Continuity Confirms the Received Text as our infallible Bible
[8]IV. Coherence in interpretation requires faith in the entire body of God’s infallibly inspired truth

Introduction

Just days before his Lord called him home, our beloved, Dr. David Otis Fuller in his last letter to me, dated February 5, l988, sealed his life testimony with these words of conviction: "I am convinced beyond all doubt or question, THE MAIN AND MOST IMPORTANT ISSUE BY FAR, FACING FUNDAMENTALISTS TODAY IS SUMMED UP IN TWO QUESTIONS:

1. "Do we have NOW (NOT in the originals which have been lost for centuries and in my book is one of the worst cop-outs anyone ever uttered). I repeat, do we have NOW the true, pure, inerrant, inspired, Word of God as found in the King James Version?

2. "What kind of a God do we worship? If He cannot or will not KEEP HIS WORD pure and true down through the ages right up to l988, then we have one option left. "let us eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we die and go to hell."

How do we define infallibility? Infallible:

1. not fallible; not capable of error; never wrong.
2. not liable to fail, go wrong, make a mistake etc.; dependable; reliable.
3. in the Roman Catholic Church, incapable of error in setting forth doctrine on faith and morals; said especially of the Pope speaking ex cathedra (i.e., in his official capacity).

-Webster's New Twentieth Century Dictionary, Unabridged, Second Edition.

There are but two tangible claims of God's infallible authority to the English speaking world today. There is the authorized King James Bible interpreted by the Holy Spirit of Truth, contrasted by the Roman Catholic Church with the Pope speaking ex cathedra.

Sadly, over 95 % of professing Christians today deny that we have a perfect, infallible and inspired Holy Bible today. The common consensus (e.g., [10]Bob Jones University's official position) is that God has imperfectly preserved His Words in the total extant of existing manuscript evidence. Only a complete fool believes such nonsense for several reasons:

1. God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to "keep" and "preserve" His PURE WORDS from that generation forever. [11]Look in any modern Bible revision and you'll find that the ungodly translators have deceitfully removed God's promise from verse 7, changing it to protect the saints instead of preserve His PURE WORDS. Satan is a beautiful liar!

2. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). Having more than one Bible is confusing, let along hundreds of existing English Bible versions.

3. The plethora of existing English Bible revisions all say something different. By law, the [12]U.S. Copyright Office says to receive a copyright, a new work must contain substantial and significant changes. This legal requirement forces translators of new Bible revisions to make substantial changes, whether they are needed or scholarly. Such intentional tampering with God's Word is evil beyond comprehension or description!

4. The modern Bible revisions all attack the deity of Jesus Christ! It baffles my mind how Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Liberty University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and thousands of religious institutions and churches today, embrace the Devil's Bible revisions, which brutally assault Jesus' deity. Every mention of [13]people "worshipping" Jesus has been changed to a mere "knelt" or "bowed." Every mention of Jesus being the only "begotten" Son of God has been removed. The entire latter part of 1st John 5:7 has been removed. [14]Acts 8:37 has been removed. It blows my mind that Christian who profess to love Jesus Christ, tolerate and accept this blatant attack against our blessed God and Savior! Only the inspired and infallible King James Bible honors and uplifts our blessed God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

5. Matthew 4:4 commands man to live by "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. If I am to live by every Word from God's mouth, that means I need an EVERY WORD Bible translation. Clearly, these modern Bible revisions which [15]remove entire portions of Scripture are NOT God's Word! Who would remove all the verses uplifting Jesus' deity? [16]Go look at what the modern versions do to corrupt Philippians 2:6, saying the opposite of what the King James Bible says. The King James Bible says Jesus: "thought it not robbery to be equal with God"; but the demonic English Standard Version (ESV), which Bob Jones University loves so much, perverts the Scripture to say Jesus: "did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped." God's curse is upon BJU!

6. By introducing a second authority, a third authority is necessary to determine which of the first two are correct. This is what the serpent did to Eve. God had already commanded Eve what to do (Genesis 2:16-17). But then the serpent came along and said something different, literally changing God's Word to say the exact opposite of what He had said (Genesis 3:1). God told Adam and Eve they could freely eat of all the trees, except one. The serpent misquoted God as saying that they couldn't eat of all the trees! Satan is a subtle liar! I don't agree with all of the teachings of Pastor Peter S. Ruckman, but he does an excellent job defending the King James Bible and exposing Bob Jones University and the Devil's bibles, in this series of articles called: '[17]The Alexandrian Cult Series.' Dr. Ruckman teaches about these three authorities. I learned it from him. That third authority is manmade scholarship! By contradicting God's Word, the serpent had introduced a second authority, which put Eve in the position of being a third authority (requiring her to choose between the first two authorities). That is what happened in the year 1881. When Westcott and Hort introduced a new Greek text, the world had to choose between it and the Textus Receptus from which our King James Bible was translated. So by having [18]TWO ancient Bible texts to choose from, we are at the mercy of college INTELLECTUALS. Get thee behind me Satan! I'll stick with the King James Bible that mama read to me!!!

7. God would not give us multiple Bibles to choose from, which would weaken and diminish the authority of God's Word. If I were to accurately write down directions to drive from location A to location B, you would understand those directions. But if I gave you multiple written directions, which contradicted each other, you would be confused and frustrated. You would lose confidence in my ability to give directions! Yes you would! What if I gave you a dozen sets of written instructions? You'd think I'd lost my mind! Yet, this is exactly the spiritual condition of our churches today. Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

I have given you seven godly reasons why we simply cannot have multiple Bible's today. Most Christians believe that God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible! Not me buddy. I KNOW that I have God's pure, preserved, infallible, perfect and inspired Words in the beautiful King James Bible!!!!!!!

1.6.29 Bible Doctrine Corrupters Serving Their Own Belly (2020-10-26 18:54)

Romans 16:17-18,

"Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

Wow! This passage of Scripture practically gives us the address of Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. When the Bible says they "serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly," that means they are in it for the money! By God's grace, I have never received a penny for my labors for Him. God takes care of me. I don't parasite off of Christianity to pay my bills. Now, there's nothing wrong with making a living preaching the Gospel, but most ministers today AREN'T preaching the Gospel, yet they're making money from the garbage they are preaching.

Kindly said, Pastor John MacArthur is a bad apple. [1]His plan of salvation is so hard and unbiblical that Mr. MacArthur says, quote: " [2]There is no such thing as a childhood conversion ." What kind of man of God says children cannot come to Christ? When the Lord's disciples chased the children away, the Bible says Jesus got upset. Mark 10:13-14, "And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God." I guess John MacArthur never read this passage of Scripture.

Some of John MacArthur's biggest supporters are Pastor Marty Herron (Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary), Dr. Steve Pettit (Bob Jones University) and the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (religious phonies who have refused to allow me attend their church since 2014). Thank God too! The Lord evidently doesn't want me to be corrupted by the belly-serving Bob Jones' crowd. It's all about money with them! Harvest Baptist Academy generates millions of dollars each year in revenue, to employ dozens of yuppie type alumni from BJU. The Word of God says to "

(i.e., identify them), which cause offences contrary to the doctrine we have received in the King James Bible. We are to AVOID THEM!

Jude 1:3-4, "

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ. "

[3]Dr. Steve Pettit preaches another gospel, by teaching that faith alone is NOT enough to get to Heaven. Mr. Pettit states:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [4]11:34)

Roman Catholics superficially claim to believe in Jesus, but they actually deny Him, by claiming that you must keep the Seven Sacraments of their church to get to Heaven. The religious people in Matthew 7:21-23 spent their lives serving Jesus, doing many wonderful works in His name, yet the Lord said He did not know them. I NEVER KNEW YOU!

We've got literally millions of religious workers today all around the world, who are merely SERVING THEIR OWN BELLY, and not the Lord Jesus Christ. If they were truly serving the Lord at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, then they wouldn't just cast me aside like garbage and refuse to associate with me. I have been loving, humble and kind, but they have refused to let me attend their church every step of the way. So now I just preach against them with the Bible, without apology, because they need to hear THE TRUTH! They're avoiding me at Harvest, but they are the reprobate heretics! They are the evil people promoting Dr. John MacArthur and Steve Pettit (who both complicate the Gospel).

The pastors and staff at Harvest Baptist Church (and Harvest Baptist Academy) on Guam are serving their own bellies, collecting a lousy paycheck. The church itself is a mere place of entertainment, socialization and a way to ease their conscience in their apostate condition (Revelation 3:15-16). It didn't surprise me that they removed all the old-fashioned looking pews after Pastor Herron left, which looked so nice; replacing them with ugly blue chairs. The church now looks like a convention center for a political rally. What a dreary place! I am sad for the congregation, and the youth being misled. They might as well be going to the Kingdom Hall, Seventh-Day Adventist cult, Mormons or the Roman Catholic church down the street!

Harvest Baptist Church preaches[5] another Gospel of partial faith in Christ plus turning from your sins to be saved. That is NOT the simplicity that is in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Romans 10:3-4 teaches that Christ Himself is THE END OF THE LAW! You get saved by resting completely in Jesus (Hebrews 4:10-11), because of what He did through the cross of Calvary to pay for your sin. Jesus died on the cross. He was buried. Three days later Christ raised up physically from the dead. This is the Gospel (or, 'GOOD NEWS' - 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John 19-20). John 4:47, "

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" Simply believe dear friend, and you are saved!

I love the Bob Jones' crowd, but they have been deceived by the Devil. Lordship Salvation is nothing less than Calvinism repackaged. BJU and their damnable Lordship Salvation falsehood is of the Devil. Faithful believers must expose BJU. We must

as the Bible teaches, because of the doctrinal division which they are causing. BJU has [6]moved away from the hope of the Gospel. People beware! When Bob Jones University invited the Devil's modern Bible revisions into their college, they invited the Devil right into their midst! These new corrupt Bibles bring with them another gospel, which is corrupt, teaching Lordship Salvation. Take for example Hebrews 6:1 in the [7]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV).

Marty Herron is a wolf in sheep's clothing! So also is his wimpy, pipsqueak, butt-buddy, Jared Baldwin. These apostates ought not be allowed to stand behind any pulpit, lest they take more people to Hell. These are tares crept in among the wheat! ...

[8]

The [9]Pathetic Harvest Baptist Church on Guam

Pastor Gary Walton is nothing more than another salary-sucker at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2018, another phony helping to run the church into the ground spiritually. They don't care about hurting people. They have ignored me in my pain. All I am is a hurting dog, and a hurting dog barks! Neo-evangelicals don't care, because they are serving their own belly, using fair speeches to deceive the simple (the people of Guam). If you love Jesus Christ dear reader, RUN from anything having to do with Bob Jones University today!!! They are [10]wrong on the Holy Bible. They are [11]wrong on the Gospel. They are [12]wrong on repentance. They have [13]a wrong attitude, woefully [14]lacking any compassion for hurting people. They are [15]wrong in whom they follow and bid Godspeed to! They are wrong, wrong, wrong!

1.6.30 Salvation Is Only Hard For A Child If You're Not Saved (2020-10-27 09:30)

2nd Timothy 3:12-17, "

Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus*.

All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

Do you see the simplicity of salvation dear friend? Please notice what the Apostle Paul said to Timothy—" that from a child

" he had known the Holy Scriptures, which teach salvation by

"turning away from your sins and having faith." Is that what Paul said? No, he simply told Timothy that salvation is THROUGH FAITH WHICH IS IN CHRIST JESUS. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " Again and again, in hundreds of Scripture passages, we are simply taught to BELIEVE.

So where did today's perverse preachers (like [1]Pastor Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Sam Horn, John MacArthur and Steve Pettit) get the false idea that a person must "

[2]repent and turn away from your sins

to be saved? You won't find that teaching anywhere in the Bible, unless you wrest the Scriptures

> 2nd Peter 3:16-17, " As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.
> Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness. "

A web visitor recently wrote to me about Evangelist Dan Corner of the Evangelistic Outreach ministry online. [3]Dan preaches hardcore works for salvation! It doesn't surprise me that so many religious people, especially preachers, fail to grasp the truth of the simplicity that is in Christ, because the Bible says the natural (or unregenerate) man cannot understand truth:

1st Corinthians 2:14-16, “

But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Until a person humbles them self by faith in the presence of God, to embrace the simple Bible truth that you contribute nothing to your salvation except the sin that made it necessary, you will never understand God’s grace. Romans 10:3-4, “For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.”

The very concept of turning from one’s sins to be saved is rooted in self-righteousness! They fail to grasp the simplicity that is in Christ.

Paul very simply reminded Timothy that the Scriptures from his childhood had made him wise unto salvation, which is simply by faith in Jesus Christ. 1st Thessalonians 4:14,

“ For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.” I love that Bible verse!

That is so simple that even a little child can be saved, as was Timothy.

On September 25, 1990 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Brewer, Maine (Pastor Larry Pawson), Dr. John MacArthur was involved in a question and answer session which was publicly taped. During that session [4]MacArthur said the following about child salvation:

> "Now let me say this and I don’t want you to panic when I say it. Saving faith is an ADULT ISSUE. Saving faith is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Salvation is an ADULT EXPERIENCE. Am I saying that a child cannot be saved? I’m saying that salvation is a conscious turning from sin to follow Jesus Christ with an understanding of something of the sinfulness of sin, its consequences and something of who Jesus Christ is, what He has provided and that I’m committing my life to Him. At what point can a child understand that?... I tell parents that salvation is an adult decision... There is no illustration in Scripture of childhood salvation. There is none. People want to throw the Philippian jailer and his household; well that’s talking about his servants so there is no reference there about his children. So there is no such thing as a childhood conversion."

Dr. MacArthur is saying that if a child is to be saved he must understand as an adult, make an adult decision, and have an adult experience. The Lord Jesus taught the exact opposite, that to be saved adults must become as little children (Matthew 18:3). MacArthur teaches that to be saved children must become as adults. That is gross theological incompetence! Mr. MacArthur fails to mention Samuel in the Old Testament, a child prophet. He fails to mention king Josiah, a godly child who began to reign at only age 7. MacArthur fails to mention the humble shepherd boy David, who as a lad feared and worshipped his God under the stars at night in the fields. The Bible is full of godly children. Samson from birth was raised up to serve the Lord. Likewise, John the Baptist. Jesus Himself at age 12 astounded His listeners, as He taught in the temple, being about His Father's business (Luke 2:46-52).

How does this relate to Dr. MacArthur's teachings on Lordship? If salvation is by simple childlike faith in the Savior, then child salvation is no problem. On the other hand, if salvation involves obedience to Christ's commands, surrendering to Christ's Lordship, fulfilling the demands of discipleship, turning away from one's sinful behavior, committal of one's life to the Savior, running the race and enduring faithfully to the end, et cetera; then salvation has become a very involved and complicated thing that would not at all be simple for a child to do.

If we complicate the Gospel with all kinds of Lordship requirements, then we have indeed made it very, very, difficult for children (and for adults)! If we proclaim the Gospel message that salvation is SIMPLY BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH (based solely upon Christ's sacrifice on the cross), then this is a message that can be gladly received by people of all ages. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God only saves those who are trusting to be saved, not those who are trying to be saved. Eternal life is received, not achieved. There is much wicked arrogant and pride in today's corrupted churches and Bible colleges, who pollute the world with their Calvinist doctrinal filth. John Calvin (1509-1564) was a mass-murdering theological madman! Calvin murdered 58 people, including women and children, for merely disagreeing with his beliefs.

Dear reader, if you think salvation is too hard for a child to understand and partake of, it is only because you are not saved yourself. How can you be, since you think more is required than simple childlike faith in Jesus? If you admit that you're a hell-deserving sinner, and believe Jesus died on the cross to pay for your sins, was buried, and that He resurrected physically three days later, and that is what you are relying upon to get you to Heaven, you are saved. John 11:25-26, "

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

" Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!

I was gloriously saved by faith at age 13 in the year 1980. I didn't know that Jesus was God. I didn't know about the virgin birth. I didn't know about Jesus' blood being sprinkled on the heavenly Mercy Seat. I believed that there is a Hell, and I deserve to go there, but I vaguely didn't know what Hell was like (and neither do any adults). I just knew that I was a sinner and Jesus paid for my sins on the cross. I trusted Him personally, and He saved me because I put my trust in Him. I wasn't a theologian. That is all God requires to be saved. John 1:12-13, "

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

In recent years, I've read some articles online by religious people, who attempt to present the plan of salvation, which are extremely boggled down with information and utterly complicated. That is not the Gospel. The religious garbage that Bob Jones University preaches today is NOT the Gospel. The theological trash promoted by [5]Unshackled (by Pacific Garden Mission) is NOT the Gospel. Woe unto the false prophets! God warns in Proverbs 30:5-6, "

Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Kindly said, the Bob Jones University crowd are LIARS! They have added to what God said in the Scriptures.

Also, BJU sinfully sells, uses and promotes Devil’s Bible versions! They promote the [6]English Standard Version (ESV), which is a theological nightmare. Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) was absolutely right:

These are Devils Bibles!

” Bob Jones University are doing major damage to the cause of Jesus Christ today (they all belong in prison)...

> It is neo-fundamentalism’s tragic compromise with modernistic, rationalistic, and ecumenical textual critics and their modern perversions of the Bible that is causing the confusion and the schism within Biblical Fundamentalism today. Biblical fundamentalists loyal to their Lord and His Word have no choice but to separate from these neo-fundamentalists, and expose them for their hypocrisy.

> No man is perfect save the Lord Jesus Christ, and no book is perfect save the Holy Bible.
>
> Biblical fundamentalists believe that the Holy Scriptures, infallible and inerrant, are the final and supreme authority of Christian faith and practice.
>
> It is unfortunate that BJU and company, despite their “conservative and God fearing” profession, do not practise what they preach. In their vain attempt to bolster their untenable position on Biblical preservation, instead of simply believing what Scripture explicitly teaches about its own preservation, and applying that truth in their ministry, they cite a list of fundamentalists who had likewise thought and taught wrongly concerning the preservation of Scripture. They quote James Brookes, B H Carroll, C I Scofield, James Gray, R A Torrey, John Straton, William Erdman, A T Robertson, W B Riley, Richard Clearwaters, Noel Smith, John R Rice, and speak as though they are the only rightful representatives of fundamentalism, and there is consensus among fundamentalists over the text and translation issue.11

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him." Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL. Mr. Pettit is cursed by God. He is a follower of Pastor John MacArthur, the modern-day godfather of Lordship Salvation (i.e., repackaged Calvinism).

I wouldn't want to be in the shoes of Bob Jones University's leaders and graduates one day, when they are held accountable for spreading corruptible seed, propagating another gospel, and bidding Godspeed to devil-preachers. Moody Bible Institute is just as bad! Liberty University is a hellhole of apostasy today! The Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary is a disgrace to the cause of Christ, and in big trouble with the Lord. These horrible religious frauds are corrupting the churches—corrupting God's Word, perverting the Gospel, spreading indifference like cancer, and destroying Christianity in America!

There is no greater form of evil than theological indifference toward THE TRUTH!!! Yet[8] for telling the truth I was kicked out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, and forbidden to return in 2017 (when I [9]pleaded for their love and help). Heavy, heavy, hang God's judgment over their heads at Harvest Baptist Church in Guam in Micronesia, and former disgraced Pastor Marty Herron (who fled to Iowa in pursuit of money, now raking in a 6-digit lucrative salary destroying young people's lives with his dog and pony show, preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, from his assortment of Devil's Bible versions that he uses).

May God strike me dead, if in all of this battle since 2014 with the Bob Jones' crowd, I have done anything wrong! I am the victim. I told THE TRUTH as a true friend does, and for it I was counted their enemy by the Bob Jones University camp! The Apostle Paul was mistreated the same horrible way. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" Yes, that is exactly so Paul. The ungodly institutions of Harvest Baptist Church and Bob Jones University sinfully count me their enemy, because I told them THE TRUTH! I did the righteous thing. Proverbs 12:17, "He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit."

1.6.31 Modern Bible Versions Destroy Bible Infallibility (2020-10-28 09:30)

Psalms 12:6-7, “

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

” Psalms 119:140, “Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

” Matthew 4:4, “ But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.”

Ladies and gentlemen, we have an every word Bible in the precious King James Bible. I love reading the articles written by Evangelist Will J. Kinney. Will is a blessing and I am thankful that he has graciously allowed others to share his work online freely.

[1]I encourage you to visit his website.

I couldn’t agree more, nor have said it any better than the following article titled: “No Doctrines Are Changed?” ...

> I often hear those who criticize the King James Bible and defend the multiple modern versions say: "Well, no doctrines are changed in the different versions." But is this true? Not at all, as we shall soon see. The Number One Doctrine that has been destroyed by today’s Bible Babble Buffet versions is the belief in the Infallibility of the Bible! Recent polls show that the majority of professing Christians no longer believe in the Infallibility of the Bible and among seminarians and professional clergy the percentages are in the 90’s of those who do not believe that any Bible in any language is the complete and inerrant words of God. If you do not think this is a major doctrine then it is probably already too late for you to be persuaded otherwise. Don’t just take my word for it. Here are the polls that show this widespread and ever growing unbelief in the Inerrancy of the Bible - ANY Bible.
>
> The Basic Doctrine of the Infallibility of the Bible -
>
> I have been engaged in the Bible version issue for several years now and have been quite active in several Bible clubs on the internet. Over the years I have posted countless articles and examples of the literally hundreds of very real and significant textual differences, contradictions and totally changed meanings found in hundreds of verses among the Bible Babble Buffet versions out there today that NOBODY seriously believes IS the complete, inspired and infallible words of God. What I have found to be almost universally true is the typical response of those I refer to as "Bible agnostics" always come up with is shown by this recent post at our Facebook club called the King James Bible Debate.
>
> After I posted one more in an almost endless series of very real textual differences that changes the meaning of a verse of Scripture and where not even the modern versions agree among themselves, a man who does not believe that any Bible in any language is the infallible words of God posted the following:

> "Let me see - what doctrine exactly is impacted here? Other than the pre-supposed doctrine of KJV onlyism? Indeed, redemption as we know it rests on this verse!"

My Response:

Hi folks. This is the standard mantra every confirmed bible agnostic and unbeliever in the Infallibility of the Scriptures always repeats when faced with the FACT that he has no infallible TEXT of any Bible on this earth to give someone or to believe in himself - "What doctrine is impacted here?"

How about the simple and basic doctrine of the Infallibility of the Bible? Is this a doctrine any of these bible relativists are concerned about or thinks is at all important to the Christian faith?

The bible agnostics like James White and John Piper and a multitude of other big name Christians and countless hoards of lesser lights like our Bible agnostic friend here all want to give you the impression that they are "Bible" believers, but the simple and obvious fact is this - Not one of them REALLY believes God has preserved His infallible words in any "book of the LORD". They do not believe the Book. Oh, they may believe selected portions, and some parts of many, but there is not a single Bible on this earth they believe EVERY word is the infallible words of the living God.

THAT is the doctrine that is most assuredly impacted - It's the whole foundation of everything God has revealed to us about Himself and what we believe about our Redeemer and Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. He either told us the truth when He said that heaven and earth shall pass away but His words would not pass away, or He lied to us and cannot be trusted. You pick which option you are going to believe.

"He that hath ears to hear, let him hear." Luke 8:8

See "The Bible is NOT the inspired and Infallible word of God"

[2] http://brandplucked.webs.com/thebiblenotinspired.htm

There are presently well over 100 different English bible versions available to the general public and none of them agrees with the others in both text and meaning in hundreds of verses. This is easily proved and well noted by many atheist, Muslim and Bible basher sites on the internet.

Which of these different bibles is really the inspired, inerrant words of God? Or have the complete, pure, inerrant words of God been lost in the shuffle and God has failed to preserve His words as He promised? Is it true that "no doctrines are changed" in the various conflicting versions?

Some Christians say, "Well, only the originals were inspired." Since we don't have any of the originals and nobody knows what they really said, how can we then say the Bible is the inspired word of God? Shouldn't we say the bible WAS the inspired word of God?

I and thousands of other Christians believe God has kept His promises to preserve His words and He has done so in the King James Holy Bible. In general terms the overall state of textual evidence and ancient versions is overwhelmingly on the side of the King James Bible readings as opposed to such versions as the NASB, NIV, RSV, ESV, and ISV.

However, one can argue back and forth over the textual evidence till you are either red or blue in the face, and prove nothing. For me and many other Bible believers, we clearly see the Providential hand of God placing His divine approval upon the King James Bible that has been universally recognized as THE BIBLE of the English speaking world for almost 400 years.

See the hand of God in history in this article called The Absolute Standard of Written Truth = the King James Bible

[3]http://brandplucked.webs.com/absolutestandard.htm

One of the clear and convincing proofs that the King James Bible is the complete, inerrant, and pure words of God is the purity and truth of its Christ exalting doctrines. Proverbs 14:5 tells us: "A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies." There are many lies found in the new bible versions and it is the accumulation of such lies that reveal them to be false witnesses to the whole truth of God.

Modern versionists say they are examining the evidence to come up with the best text to restore the words of God. The problem with this is, the new versions continue to disagree with each other in both texts and meaning in a multitude of places. I believe God has already gone through this process using the men He chose to bring forth the King James Bible. If God has already done this in order to preserve His words and carry out the great modern missionary movement from the late 1700's to the mid 1900's, there is no need to do it again, unless He decides to put His complete words into a language other than English.

Some speak of the same General Message being found in all "reliable" versions. True, the simple gospel can be found in them all. Yet in all of them we also find contradictions concerning the basic truths of the character of God and we find corruptions of other sound doctrines.

The "Any Bible Will Do" position leads to uncertainty, doubt and unbelief. There are a multitude of contradictory versions, with several whole verses being found in some that are not in others. Seventeen entire verses, and about half of another 50 are omitted from the New Testament in the NIV, NASB, and even more in the RSV, which omits some 45 entire verses from its text, and the ESV (omits 18 entire verses), when compared to the King James Bible, Tyndale, Bishop's, Geneva, Webster's, the NKJV, and the Third Millennium Bible.

The examples in the following list, except Luke 2:22, and John 7:8, are not the result of different Greek and Hebrew texts being used, as is often the case, but rather of different ways the same underlying texts have been translated into English.

Does the true Lord Jesus Christ have an "ORIGIN from ancient times" as taught in Micah 5:2 by the NIV, RSV, ESV, Holman Standard, Jehovah Witness New World Translation, St. Joseph New American bible 1970 and Catholic New Jerusalem bible 1985, or were His "goings forth from everlasting" as the King James Bible, NKJV, NASB have it? One reading teaches His eternality, while the other says He has an origin or a beginning.

For a further discussion of Micah 5:2 and the heretical reading found in the NIV, RSV, ESV please see the following article I have put together on this.

Is the Jesus Christ in your Bible the one who lied in John 7:8 as the NASB, ESV, St. Joseph NAB, New Jerusalem bible read?

John 7:8-10

- Here we read of Jesus telling his brethren to go up unto a feast and He says:

"I go NOT up YET unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret."

He did in fact go up to the feast.

Vaticanus, as well as P66, 75, and the majority of all texts read as does the KJB with: "I go not up YET unto this feast", and so do the Revised Version 1881, Geneva, Tyndale, Bishops', Coverdale, the NIV, Holman Standard, the 2005 ISV (International Standard Version), Young, Weymouth, Rotherham's Emphasized Bible 1902.

However Sinaiticus says: "I DO NOT GO to this feast", and so do the NASB, ASV, RSV, ESV , Catholic St. Joseph NAB, New Jerusalem bible 1985, and Wallace's NET version thus making our Lord a liar. The fickle nature of this so called "science" is also seen in that Westcott and Hort originally read "NOT YET" and so did the previous Nestle-Aland critical texts up until a few years ago. But the more recent ones have "scientifically" changed to now read "I do NOT go to this feast."

Daniel Wallace's NET version has the Lord saying He is NOT going to the feast, and then going. But the thinking of such "scholars" is revealed in his own footnotes where he says: " Most mss (Ì66,75 B L T W 070 0105 0250 Ë1,13 Ï sa), including most of the better witnesses, have "not yet" here. Those with the reading "not" (ouk) are not as impressive (D K 1241 al lat), but "ouk" is the more difficult reading here, especially because it stands in tension with v. 10."

So, in other words, because it absurdly makes our Lord Jesus a liar, it must be right!

Wilbur Pickering, who himself is not even a KJB onlyist, comments on this blunder: Serious Anomalies/Aberrations - John 7:8 oupw - P66, 75, B, E, F, G, H, L, N, T, W, X, D, Q, Y, 070, 0105, 0141, 0250, f1, 13, Byz, Lect, Syriac Peshitta, Palestinian, Harkelian, Coptic Sahidic, "NOT YET" ; ouk —À, D, K, P, lat, Syriac Sinaitic, Coptic Boharic "NOT" Problem: Since Jesus did in fact go to the feast (and doubtless knew what He was going to do), the UBS text has the effect of ascribing a falsehood to Him.

Discussion:

Since the UBS editors usually attach the highest value to P75 and B, isn't it strange that they reject them in this case? Here is Metzger's explanation: "The reading ["not yet"] was introduced at an early date (it is attested by P66,75) in order to alleviate the inconsistency between ver. 8 and ver. 10" (p. 216). So, they rejected P66, 75 and B (as well as 99 % of the MSS) because they preferred the "inconsistency". NASB, RSV, NEB and TEV stay with the eclectic text here. (end of comments by Dr. Pickering.)

Also in just these three verses we see that the word "this" of THIS FEAST is omitted by Vaticanus but found in Sinaiticus, but the NASB and NIV both omit the word, while "UNTO THEM" is in the NASB and Vaticanus, but not in the NIV or Sinaiticus. and "AS IT WERE" is in Vaticanus and the NASB, but not in Sinaiticus and the NIV. This is the character of these two manuscripts and bible versions in a nutshell.

Did the Lord Jesus Christ need a blood sacrifice to be cleansed from sin in Luke 2:22 as the NASB, ESV, Holman, St. Joseph NAB, Catholic New Jerusalem bible and NIV teach? These versions read: "when the days for THEIR purification according to the law of Moses were completed...to offer a sacrifice", as opposed to the King James Bible, the NKJV, Bishop's Bible 1568, the Geneva Bible 1599, Webster's 1833 translation, and the Third Millennium Bible which have "when the days of HER purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished...to offer a sacrifice". Wycliffe's 1395 translation says "the days of the purification of Mary". The only Old Testament reference for this sin offering to make an atonement is found in Leviticus 12:6-8 where the woman alone offered a sin offering for her purification.

Can God be deceived as the NASB and Holman teach in Ps. 78:36? The NASB and the Holman Standard say the children of Israel DECEIVED GOD with their mouths, but the NKJV, KJB, NIV, RV, ASV, ESV all say they "flattered" God with their mouths and lied unto Him. You can flatter God by saying nice things about Him but not obeying Him, but you certainly cannot deceive God.

For a much fuller discussion of this NASB blunder, and how one modern versionist tries to defend it, please see my article on this here. It is found in the second part of the article. The first part is interesting too. : -)

[5]http://brandplucked.webs.com/eze149ps7836deceive.htm

Is the Lord Jesus Christ the ONLY BEGOTTEN SON of God BEFORE His incarnation? The NIV never refers to Christ as "the only begotten Son." Christ was the only begotten Son from all eternity, but not in the NIV.

The NIV, ISV, and Holman Standard pervert true doctrine in Acts 13:33 where the Bible speaks of the resurrection of Christ. He was quickened from the dead and raised again to life to become "the first begotten of the dead" (Revelation 1:5), and "the firstborn from the dead (Colossians 1:18).

In Psalm 2 and Acts 13:33 God says and ALL GREEK TEXTS read: "God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus AGAIN: as it is also written in the second Psalm, Thou art my Son, THIS DAY HAVE I BEGOTTEN THEE". This is the reading found in the RV, ASV, RSV, NRSV, ESV, NASB, NKJV. The specific Day that Christ was begotten from the dead was that first Easter morning. However the NIV, and now the new ISV (International Standard Version) and the Holman Christian Standard Version actually say "Today I HAVE BECOME YOUR FATHER"!!! The Catholic New Jerusalem bible of 1985 says: "today I HAVE FATHERED YOU."

The NIV, ISV, Catholic New Jerusalem and Holman version here teach that there was a time when God was not the Father of Christ. This is also the reading of the Jehovah witness version, the New World translation, and they use this verse and Micah 5:2, which also reads the same in their version as does the NIV, ESV, St. Joseph, New Jerusalem bible to prove that Jesus Christ is a created being and not from everlasting.

Please see my article about the Only Begotten Son for more detail:

Another doctrinal error is found in the NKJV, NIV, NASB, ESV, Holman and others in 2 Samuel 14:14.

The context is Absalom had slain Amnon because he raped his sister Tamar. Absalom fled to Geshur and was there for three years, yet the soul of king David longed for his son Absalom. Joab decides to put words in the mouth of a wise woman from Tekoah and he sends her to speak to the king.

In the course of their conversation the woman tells king David:

the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; NEITHER DOTH GOD RESPECT ANY PERSON: yet doth he devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him."

The meaning is pretty straightforward. We all must die and God does not respect any person or show partiality to one more than another in this regard.

Other Bible versions that read as the King James Bible are the Geneva Bible of 1599, the Jewish Publication Society of America's 1917 translation, Young's "literal" translation, Daniel Webster's 1833 translation, the Spanish Sagradas Escrituras, the KJV 21st Century version and the Third Millennium Bible.

However when we get to the New KJV, ESV, the NIV, Holman, and the NASB instead of "neither doth God respect any person" they read "YET GOD DOES NOT TAKE AWAY LIFE". This is untrue and a contradiction.

Just two chapters before this event we read of the child born to David in his adulterous affair with Bathsheba that

"the LORD struck the child, and it was very sick" and on the seventh day it died.

(2nd Samuel 12:15)

. In Deuteronomy 32:39 God Himself says:

"I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand."

In

Genesis 38:7

10

we read of two wicked sons of Judah, Er and Onan

"and the LORD SLEW him,"

and

"wherefore he slew him also."

1st Samuel 2:6

tells us:

"The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up."

And

2nd Samuel 6:7

says:

"And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah. and God smote him there for his error: and there he died by the ark of God."

God obviously does take away life, and the NKJV, NIV, Holman, and NASB are all in error in 2 Samuel 14:14 where they say that He doesn't take away life.

In 2 Peter 3:12 the King James Bible, Tyndale, Geneva and others correctly say we are "looking for and HASTING UNTO the coming of the day of God". The date is already fixed in God's timetable and nothing we can do will make it come any faster. It is we who in our fleeting lives are fast moving towards that day. However the NKJV, NIV, NASB, ESV, St. Joseph NAB, Catholic New Jerusalem bible all teach that we can "speed" or "hasten" the coming of the day of God. This contradicts numerous other Scriptures and is a false doctrine.

See my article dealing with this verse in much more detail at:

Who rules or is in control of this world, God or Satan?

In I John 5:19 the King James Bible along with the Tyndale 1525, Bishop's Bible 1568, the Geneva Bible 1599, Young's, the Spanish Reina Valera of 1602, and 1909 (y todo el mundo está puesto en maldad), Lamsa's translation of the Peshitta, Webster's 1833 translation, the Douay-Rheims 1950, the KJV 21st Century version, Green's literal translation and Green's Modern KJV, and the Third Millennium Bible all say: "And we know that we are of God, and THE WHOLE WORLD LIETH IN WICKEDNESS."

Miles Coverdale's 1535 translation says: "We know that we are of God, and the whole world is set altogether in wickedness."

We live in a fallen world; it lies in sin and wickedness, just as the text says. But God is still in control and ruling over all His creation. "He worketh all things after the counsel of his own will" Ephesians 1:11. Daniel 4:17, 25-26 tell us three times that "the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will."

Even though it may appear that wickedness is winning, the eye of faith sees His sovereignty and rejoices in this confidence.

However, believe it or not, many new versions change the truth of God's sovereign rule and would have us believe that Satan is the ruler of this world and is in control. In fact, they come right out and say it in these exact words.

The NIV says: "The whole world is UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE EVIL ONE."

NASB - "the whole world lies in the power of the evil one."

Today's English Version - "the whole world is under the rule of the Evil One."

ESV (English Standard Version) - "the whole world lies in the power of the evil one."

Living Bible 1981 - "the world around us is under Satan's power and control."

ISV (International Standard Version) - "the whole world lies under the control of the evil one."

Catholic St. Joseph New American Bible 1970 - "the whole world is under the evil one."

Catholic New Jerusalem bible 1985 - "the whole world is in the power of the Evil One."

The NKJV, and the Holman Christian Standard Bible try to strike a medium with: "the whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one," but the NKJV as well as the NASB are also wrong when three times they refer to Satan as the "ruler of this world" in John 12:31; 14:30 and 16:11. Satan is NOT the ruler of this world. He is the spiritual "prince of this world", as the KJB, RV, ASV, Tyndale, Geneva, and even the NIV correctly say, but there are also other spiritual "princes" or beings working among the nations, and all of them are under the control of God and not Satan.

What is the fine linen, clean and white?

Our only hope of righteousness before God is to be clothed with the imputed righteousness of Christ. Revelation 19:8 speaks of the church of God, the wife of the Lamb being arrayed in fine linen, clean and white. "for the FINE LINEN IS THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF SAINTS."

Versions that read like the King James Bible are Tyndale's New Testament of 1534, Miles Coverdale 1535, Bishop's Bible 1568, the Geneva Bible of 1599, John Wesley's 1755 translation, Green's interlinear, Webster's translation of 1833, the Spanish Reina Valera of 1909, the Bible in Basic English 1970, Lamsa's translation of the Syriac Peshitta, the Third Millennium Bible, the 21st Century KJV, and even the modern paraphrase called The Message.

But the NKJV, NASB, ESV, ISV, Holman Christian Standard Bible, the NIV , the Catholic St. Joseph NAB and the Catholic New Jerusalem have, "the fine linen is the RIGHTEOUS ACTS of the saints." (or "the righteous deeds of God's people") If our righteous acts are going to make up our wedding dress, it will be pretty soiled and tattered. At the very least, you have to admit that not all these versions teach the same thing here. So, which one is true?

Matthew Henry

notes: "You have here a description of the bride, how she appeared in fine linen, clean and white, which is the righteousness of saints; in the robes of Christ's righteousness... She had washed her robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb; and these her nuptial ornaments she did not purchase by any price of her own, but received them as the gift and grant of her blessed Lord."

John Gill

comments: "for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints, not good works, or their own righteousness;... these are not comparable to fine linen, clean and white, but are like filthy rags, and cannot justify in the sight of God; but the righteousness of Christ is meant, and justification by that; for that is the only justifying righteousness of the saints.

Christ's righteousness may be compared to fine linen, clean and white… all the Lord's people will be righteous, they will have on the best robe, and wedding garment, and their being arrayed with it will be owing to the grace of Christ, who grants it. Not only the garment is a gift of grace, but the putting of it on is a grant from Christ, and what he himself does (Isaiah 61:10; Zechariah 3:4)."

(To see more on "the fine linen is the righteousness of saints" in Revelation 19:8 please see the article here:

1st Corinthians 8:4, "we know that an idol is nothing in the world"—this is the meaning found in the Geneva Bible, Holman Christian Standard, Darby, NIV, NKJV, and even the Douay version too. However the NASB says: "there is no such thing as an idol in the world." No idols in the world, huh?

Hosea 11:12 KJB "But Judah yet RULETH WITH GOD, AND IS FAITHFUL WITH THE SAINTS." The Bible versions that agree with the King James Bible in that Judah IS YET FAITHFUL are the Bishops' Bible, the Geneva Bible, the RV, ASV, RSV, NRSV, ESV, Darby, Young, Spanish Reina Valera, Green's interlinear, the Hebrew - English 1936, and the Third Millennium Bible.

But the NKJV puts a new twist here saying: "But Judah still walks with God, even with the Holy One, who is faithful."

This time Daniel Wallace's NET version agrees in the main with the KJB saying: "But Judah still roams about with God; he remains faithful to the Holy One."

The NASB, NIV, TNIV, Catholic St. Joseph NAB completely spin this verse around to mean the opposite with: "And Judah is UNRULY AGAINST God, even against the faithful Holy One." The St. Joseph NAB says: "Judah is STILL REBELLIOUS AGAINST God." But the other Catholic bible—the New Jerusalem—confuses things with "But Judah still is on God's side." Guess we need a "priest" or scholar to sort this out for us, huh?

The Holman Standard has come up with a different rendering, saying: "Judah STILL WANDERS WITH EL, AND IS FAITHFUL TO HOLY ONES." Say what?!? Then it tells us in a footnote that the Hebrew is obscure. If you think the Hebrew is obscure, then the English translations are downright mind-boggling. So which, if any, of the multiple-choice bible versions is the true word of God?

Daniel 9:26, "shall Messiah cut off, but NOT FOR HIMSELF"

An extremely important Messianic prophecy about the significance of the death of Christ has been drastically changed in a multitude of conflicting modern versions.

"And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, BUT NOT FOR HIMSELF."

The Messiah, the Lord Jesus Christ, was killed not for Himself but for His people. He laid down His life as a ransom for many. He gave Himself for the church, laid down His life for the sheep, and purchased the church of God with His own blood.

There is no verb in the Hebrew text here. It reads "but not for himself". This is also the reading of the Bishop's Bible 1568, the NKJV 1982, Spanish Reina Valera 1960 (se quitará la vida al Mesías, mas no por sí), Webster's 1833 translation, the Third Millennium Bible and the KJV 21. Even the NIV footnote gives the reading of the King James Bible "or, cut off, but not for Himself," but the text of the NIV reads quite differently.

Christ was to make reconciliation for iniquity and bring in everlasting righteousness, as verse Daniel 9:24 tells us. Matthew Henry comments: "In order to all this the Messiah must be cut off, must die a violent death, and so be cut off from the land of the living, as was foretold in

Isaiah 53:8, "for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken."

He must be cut off, but not for himself—not for any sin of his own, but, as Caiaphas prophesied, he must die for the people, in our stead and for our good, it was to atone for our sins, and to purchase life for us, that he was cut off."

John Wesley

tersely remarks: "Not for himself - But for our sakes, and for our salvation."

Matthew Poole

writes in his commentary - "

our English translation seems to hit the truest sense, i. e.

not for himself.

He was innocent and guiltless, he died for others, not for himself, but for our sakes and for our salvation."

David Guzik's

Commentary says simply: "The Messiah will be cut off for the sake of others, not for Himself."

John Gill

offers this explanation first: "when Jesus the true Messiah was cut off in a judicial way; not for any sins of his own, but for the sins of his people, to make satisfaction for them, and to obtain their redemption and salvation."

However, the NIV, RSV, NRSV, ESV, Holman, and NASB read: "Messiah shall be cut off AND HAVE NOTHING." Messiah shall have nothing?!? He purchased His people and bought His bride with His own blood! He certainly did not "have nothing".

[10]

Here are some other "bible versions" and their readings for comparison. See if this clears things up for us and verifies the statement made by some that "There are no conflicting bibles".

Coverdale 1535 - "Christ shall be slain AND THEY SHALL HAVE NO PLEASURE IN HIM."

The Message 2002 - "After the sixty-two sevens, the Anointed Leader will be killed—THE END OF HIM."

New English bible 1970 - "one who is anointed shall be removed WITH NO ONE TO TAKE HIS PART."

Young's - "cut off is Messiah AND THE CITY AND THE HOLY PLACE ARE NOT."

1917 Jewish Publication Society translation - "shall an anointed one be cut off AND BE NO MORE." (again not true)

St. Joseph New American Bible 1970 - "an anointed one shall be cut off WHEN HE DOES NOT POSSESS THE CITY."

Douay 1950 - "Christ shall be slain AND THE PEOPLE WHO DENY HIM SHALL NOT BE HIS."

Lamsa's 1933 - "Messiah shall be slain AND THE CITY SHALL BE WITHOUT A RULER."

Catholic New Jerusalem bible 1985

- "An Anointed One put to death without his...city and sanctuary ruined by a prince who is to come." That is actually how it reads!

The Septuagint (LXX) - "the anointed one shall be destroyed AND THERE IS NO JUDGMENT IN HIM."

Men like James White tell us that by comparing all the bible versions we get a much better idea of what God really said. Do you think all these bibles have the same general message and clarify the true meaning for us?

This is the type of foolishness being promoted by those who tell us there are no conflicting bible versions and that they all have the same ideas but with different words. This one example from Daniel 9:26 can easily be repeated a hundred times over with many individual verses.

These are just a few of the problems you have if you think God is the one directing the modern versionists. This God seems more than a little confused and muddled in his thinking. He can't seem to make up his mind as to what he said or meant.

If you think all these modern versions are from God, you have no sure words and your case is getting worse all the time as new versions continue to roll off the presses which in turn contradict the previous ones.

Isn't there something written in the Bible that tells us of the falling away from the faith in the last days? Has Satan changed his hateful opposition and corrupting influence toward the words of God? Has man "evolved" to a higher state in these latter days to where he can now think more clearly?

If the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ is found only in the Bible, and this "bible" contains contradictions, false information, completely different meanings in hundreds of places, verses found in some but not in others, then how do we know the gospel of which it speaks is true?

If God hasn't kept His promises to preserve His words, then how do you know God will keep His promise to preserve your soul? When does God start telling the truth?

> Do you still think that "no doctrines are changed" in the various versions? Is the Bible the inspired, inerrant words of God? If so, what exactly are you referring to when you say this? Some mystical bible that exists in your own mind, or a solid Book we can hold in our hands, read, believe and preach to a lost world?

Amen and amen! Good job my brother! If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible. Beware of any preacher who says we don't have a perfect, infallible and inspired King James Bible!!! I've been listening to preachers all my life corrupt the King James Bible, and I've yet to find even one correction that was justified. That dog don't hunt. God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His PURE WORDS forever. Matthew 4:4 says I need EVERY WORD of God to live. So I must have EVERY WORD!

Thus, it is not surprising that [11]every modern Bible perversion changes and corrupts Psalms 12:6-7, completely removing God's promise, as if He didn't really mean what He said. I find great peace in knowing that the King James Bible that I hold in my hand, and sleep with next to my heart, is 100 % perfect, infallible, incorruptible, holy, preserved and inspired word for word, the entire canon of Scripture. Sadly, most believers think God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible! Thank God for the infallible and inspired King James Bible!!!!!!!

1.6.32 Be Soul Conscious! (2020-10-29 09:30)

Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." 1st Corinthians 9:16, " For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"

The following excellent excerpt is taken from Dr. Jack Hyles' tremendous booklet: "

Let's Go Soulwinning.

" This section of his booklet is called:

Be Soul Conscious

"...

What does it mean to be soul-conscious? Talk to anyone any time or, better still, talk to everyone every time. Realize that everybody has a soul. The drugstore clerk, the barber, the shoeshine boy, the beautician, the grocery clerk, the milkman, bread man, service station attendant needs the Lord and we should witness to them.

Nobody is going to do it every time. It never gets easy to ask, "Are you a Christian?" I practice it. In front of the mirror I say, "Are you a Christian? Are y-o-u a Christian? Have you ever been converted? Are you saved?" I get in the habit of it. I don't care who you are; I don't care where you are, it is never easy.

For example, you go to buy a medicine from the druggist. Well, you preachers are pretty nice-looking fellows– you could be mistaken for lawyers. You say, "Hello. How are you today?" The druggist thinks, "Isn't that a fine fellow." You know that if you ask, "Are you a Christian?" his opinion of you will change and he will think you are a nut, and nobody wants to be a nut. So you just don't say anything.

Now you had better get in the habit of asking, "Are you a Christian?" You will win more if you just start witnessing everywhere you go. You will win as many on the side as you do on purpose, and you will have the most wonderful experiences. If you preachers would start winning souls everywhere you go, you wouldn't have to get a book of illustrations to preach from next Sunday. Instead of saying, "In a distant city many years ago a certain man down a certain street..." you could say, "Last Friday morning out on the field I won somebody to Jesus. Let me tell you about it." It will liven up your sermons. That way you won't repeat anybody's illustrations. They will all be yours.

So, be soul-conscious. I mean by being soul-conscious, make it a habit of asking people everywhere you go, "Are you a Christian?" Ask the bread man, the school teacher, the milkman, the fellow who works in the yard, the telephone man, the fellow who reads the meter for the gas and electricity. Just ask everyone you see, "Are you a Christian? Have you been saved?" Be soul-conscious.

Let me give you this illustration. I was out mowing the yard one day while pastoring in Texas. Our church was the largest church in our city. One out of seven people in town belonged to our church. I saw my members quite often. Now, when I mow the yard, I'm not quite a beauty queen! That day I had on a tee shirt with a hole in the shoulder, and one right under the arm; I had on a pair of old tennis shoes with holes in them, and a pair of trousers with patches in the knee, and I think I had on either a golf cap or a fishing hat. I was a tragic-looking thing, a sight to behold!

My wife came out in the yard and said, "Honey, would you go get some sugar from the neighbor down the street?" I said, "All right, I'll do it." So I got the cup and marched down there with my tennis shoes on, and a hole in my breeches and tee shirt, and a fishing cap on. We were very close friends to the folks, so we never knocked. They would come in our house and we would go in theirs– just real close neighbors.

So I walked in and said, "Hey! Anybody home?" And there was– thirteen people at home– company all dressed up in suits and fine clothes. There I was. Imagine, Rev. Hyles, a cup in his hand, fishing hat on, split tee shirt, patch in his breeches, and a pair of tennis shoes on his feet! And I said, "Hello." The lady looked at me, she looked at her company, then announced, "This is my pastor." I was horrified! I was humiliated! I wanted to evaporate but couldn't.

Finally I said, "Excuse me; I'm sorry." Then I got to thinking. Shoot! Just take over the conversation. Just act like you have good sense. So in I walked. "How do you do!

How are you? Are you a Christian?" I went around the entire room asking the same question. Then THEY got embarrassed.

(I found out long ago that when a preacher goes to a hospital or gets some place where he feels like a fifth wheel, he should just bluff them and take over the conversation. That will help you, too. It really will. You go to the hospital. Here is the doctor, the nurse, the family. And everybody says, "That's the preacher." You know how you feel, pastors. It's a terrible feeling. So I walk in, "Hello Doc. How are you?" Make HIM feel bad. Make HIM feel like he's a fifth wheel.)

So I walked in and asked each person if he or she were a Christian. The last man, a young man, said, "No, I'm not, but I've been thinking about it." Well, I said, "I can help you think about it right here." We knelt there in that home and opened the Bible. He got converted. He lived at Irving, Texas, forty miles from Garland. I said, "Now, J.D., you need to walk the aisle in the church in Irving tomorrow." He said, "If you don't mind, Preacher, I'll just stay over tonight and come to your church and walk the aisle." He did, and that night he got baptized in my church. Later he joined the First Baptist Church of Irving, Texas.

You don't realize how many places you will bump into people. I saw a lady while on vacation just recently. She said, "Hello, Brother Jack. Remember when you won me to the Lord?" I said, "I certainly do." It happened while I was looking for a Mrs. Marsh. I knocked on Mrs. Marsh's door– I thought. She came to the door. I said, "Mrs. Marsh?"

"No, I'm Mrs. Tillet."

I said, "Mrs. Tillet, I thought Mrs. Marsh lived here."

"No, she lives five houses down the street."

"Thank you, Mrs. Tillet." I walked off. Then I said, "Wait a minute, Mrs. Tillet. Are you a Christian?" She began to cry. I led her to Christ right there.

I have won shoeshine boys and fellows on airplanes. I was going to Phoenix to a conference last year. I sat down beside a man seventy-two years old, a wealthy rancher. "Where do you live?" I asked.

He said, "On a ranch between Phoenix and Tucson."

I said, "Do you and your wife live alone?"

"My wife died a few months ago."

I asked, "Do you ever think about having anybody else come and live with you?"

"Oh," he said, "If I could find somebody who would come and live with me, a friend to keep me company, I'd give anything in the world." He had chauffeurs, servants. He owned a big ranch with hundreds of acres, but was as lonely as he could be.

I said, "I know Somebody who would come and live with you."

"You do? Does He live in Phoenix?"

I said, "He sure does. He lives everywhere."

He said, "Who is it?"

"Jesus will come." In fifteen minutes that man had Somebody to go home with him to live.

Oh, if we will just take time to witness. The trouble is, we are ashamed of Jesus. We don't mind saying, "Isn't it hot today?" or, "I wonder how the Berlin situation is." We don’t mind talking about Khrushchev. We’re more eager to talk about him than about Jesus. Isn’t that a shame! Here we are redeemed. He died for us on the cross. We have been made heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. He is building a home in Heaven for us. We’re God’s children and we won’t even tell a stranger that we belong to the Lord Jesus. Be soul-conscious.

1.6.33 The Legitimate Argument Against Quick Prayerism (2020-10-29 23:02)

Romans 10:13-17, “ For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

” Proverbs 14:25, “

A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

I found this video online. This is a very common practice in Baptist churches, leading people to pray a “ type of prayer to be saved. [1]At 17:30 minutes into the video, the teacher leads the children to pray a sinner’s prayer to be saved...

123, follow me

I do believe some of these people get saved, but this is not the Bible way to lead people to the Lord. The Gospel of John is God’s Gospel tract. John 20:31,

“But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” In the Gospel of John we find the word “

believe

mentioned 85 times, without any mention of the word

“r epent

or

“

prayer

to be saved. Jesus said in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.” Jesus never told anyone to pray to be saved.

I love something that Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” I hear many preachers citing Romans 10:13 as a reference to justify praying to be saved. But let’s read the following verses too! Romans 10:13-15, “

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

” Notice that calling upon the Lord is the natural result of believing to be saved. We are saved by believing, and then we call because we believe.

That is what Romans 10:9-10 means,

“That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.” Again, I have heard many preachers cite this Scripture passage in an attempt to teach that a person must publicly confess Christ to be saved. The Church of Christ is a big culprit in this area, requiring confession to be saved.

We know this is NOT true, because the Bible says “ many

of the chief rulers

“

on Jesus in John 12:42-43, but they DID NOT CONFESS HIM. They didn’t confess Him because they were afraid of persecution by the unbelieving Pharisees. The Bible says in John 12:43 that they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God, which is a sin. This passage disproves the heresy of Lordship Salvation. Clearly, they were not mature enough yet as believers to follow the Lord. They were saved, but ashamed to be associated with Him.

The preceding video is not really bad. It is all doctrinally accurate. I am thankful that the young man is zealous to preach the Gospel and lead children to Jesus Christ. Kids need to hear the truth of the Gospel. However, leading people to “ pray

to be saved is not the way to be saved, it is the result of being saved. In fairness to the speaker, he does make it clear to the children that we are saved by believing the Gospel.

Albeit, he doesn’t tell them that prayer does NOT save them.

Perhaps you think I am splitting hairs, being picky. You need to know that I was saved at age 13, but for the next 7 years I lived in worry, fear and misery wondering if I was really saved, because of the faulty type of quick prayerism. Now, I do believe in quick believism to be saved. I am not a Calvinist at all. In fact, I vehemently hate all 5 points of Calvinism. There is no such thing as a Christian 5 point Calvinist. Charles Spurgeon was a mild Calvinist. Spurgeon believed in the heresy of Limited Atonement (i.e., the false teaching that Jesus only died for the saints). Bless God, Jesus died for the aint's too! I love Pastor Spurgeon, but he was not as great a theologian as he was an intelligent man and orator. Still, I love the man as a Baptist preacher, including his flaws, as we all have.

I am not saying that none of those children got saved in the preceding video, but prayer is not necessary to be saved. Believing in all that is required. A believing heart may desire to walk a church isle, pray a prayer, or invite Jesus into one's life, but these are NOT necessary to be saved. In my humble opinion, and from my own painful experience for 7 years, adding a prayer to the Gospel is a risky thing to do. I do believe that many people misunderstand the Gospel because of this unbiblical practice, causing them to miss salvation.

Again, to clarify, I do believe in instantaneous salvation, simply by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS of Jesus crucified, buried and risen from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). I disagree with those who say that you cannot merely claim to be saved and that's it. [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) teaches this junk theology. You can be saved immediately, and that's it! Eternal life is a free gift from God, paid for in full by Jesus' precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Since Jesus paid it all, there is NO COST to anyone for salvation. I am [3]sick and tired of hearing Steve Pettit and Dr. John MacArthur say that salvation costs us. There is no cost, because Jesus paid it all.

I do not like the term "quick prayerism," because it implies that you cannot be saved quickly. Some people use disparaging terms; such as, "cheap grace" and "greasy grace" and "easy believism." Grace is not "cheap" dear reader, it is completely FREE! It cost God His only begotten Son, and it cost Jesus' His earthly life; but it is FREE to you and me. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is bodily risen from the dead, and you are saved. It is a gift. Salvation is free, easy and simple.

Albeit, I have to agree to an extent with the criticism against leading someone to pray a "123, follow me" type of prayer to be saved. That is not what the Bible teaches. Only by taking obscure passages of Scripture out of context can you come up with such a teaching. The Apostle Paul didn't ask the Corinthians if they had prayed. 1st Corinthians 2:2,

For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

1.6.34 Bumblebee Clam Chowder Photo On Can Is A Fraud (2020-10-31 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-7, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another*; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

I love clams. We don't have New York style baked clams on Guam, as they do in the states in many places. I sure love them, but haven't had any since I visited West Hollywood in 2009 for my first neck surgery. I found an Italian restaurant that served them, and they were so good. I love the breading that they put over the clams, and squeezing lemon onto them.

So I was shopping in the grocery store the other day and saw a can of clam chowder soup. The photo on the can looked so appetizing, showing clam in every bite. The soup in the photo looked thick and creamy. In the photo there was at least a full cup of fresh cooked diced clams in the bowl, but when I opened the can at home there was at most about a single teaspoon of clams, and the broth was watery. It was a big disappointment. The company lied. The folks at Bumblebee are liars! Their product is fraudulently advertised.

I know this is a strange title for an article, but I thought it appropriate to use an an illustration of today's fake Bible versions, which fall way short of what they advertise. Counterfeit versions, like the English Standard Version (ESV), falsely claim to be a literal translation. A literal translation of what? The ESV literally translates the perverse Greek of Westcott and Hort! Just like the crooked and dishonest Bumblebee company, who tricked me with false advertising to purchase their inferior product, so also do the publishers of the ESV trick people so that they'll buy their inferior Bible version.

The serpent (i.e., the Devil according to Revelation 20:2) did the very same thing to Eve in the Garden of Eden. The serpent told Eve that God lied to her. The serpent assured her that if she ate the forbidden fruit, her eyes (singular, " eye,

in the Hebrew) would be opened. Satan assured Eve that God didn't want her to know this inside information, lest she become as God herself, knowing good from evil. When Eve got what the serpent promised, it wasn't what she expected. Not at all. The serpent was the world's first con artist, and Eve the first sucker!

That reminds me of something horrible that a shady seller did to someone on e-bay years ago. The seller showed a photo of a Nintendo 64 video game system with the controllers and power adapter. Someone bought it. When the buyer received what he paid hundreds of dollars to receive, it was merely a photo of what he had bid on and purchased. Thankfully e-bay returned his money and terminated the shady seller. But that is what the serpent did to Eve. She was horrified when she realized that her new reality didn't match her prior fantasy! In her sinful discontentment, in an effort to have more than she already had (Paradise), she lost everything! From that day forward both Adam and Eve would experience pain, toil, sweat, loss, suffering, regret and ultimately death. Oh how Satan is a beautiful liar!

Whether it be the liars at Bumblebee foods, or the liars who publish the corrupt modern Bible revisions, a liar is a liar! John 8:44, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." We live in a society of liars in America! Lawyers are notorious liars. Realtors are shady. Software companies horribly lie to people all the time, advertising a free download of their program, but then after you install it they won't let you use it unless you pay money for it!

I am perplexed that there are still ignorant Bible professors out there who defend the modern Bible revisions. One such man is Daniel B. Wallace, a professor at Dallas Theological Seminary.

[1]Daniel wrote this off base article, defending the corrupt modern versions. Wallace completely ignores the fact that [2]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort were occultists, total heathen [3]reprobates concerning the faith. Just like drug addicts, [4]occultists cannot be trusted!

Wallace also downplays the homosexual influence on the New International Version (NIV), whitewashing Virginia Mollenkott, a lesbian literary critic on the translating committee. But Wallace totally fails to mention [5]Marten Woudstra, the openly homosexual chairman of the Old Testament committee!!!

Unbelievably, in his misleading article, Wallace denies that there is a social agenda driving the gender-inclusive translations today. Daniel is very wrong! [6]We are entering into a dark new age! Only a person in total denial, would claim that today's new perverse Bible revisions (that are gender-inclusive) are not following an ungodly social agenda. Is Wallace serious? Even a blind man can see that Satan's fingerprints are all over the modern Bible revisions!

Wallace doesn't think that the King James Bible is perfect. Yet God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve His very pure Words forever (Psalms 119:140). If we don't have God's perfect Words somewhere in this world today, then God is also a liar! I don't think God lied. Most Christians believe that God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible! To no surprise, [7]all of the Devil's Bible revisions change and corrupt God's promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to give us a preserved perfect Bible, which evidences that they know they're corrupting God's Word.

I am sick of liars—whether it be the dishonest executives at Bumblebee, the ungodly people behind the Devil's Bibles, the shady crooks who sell allegedly "free" software, or the leaders at Bob Jones University today who pervert the Gospel to say that you must "turn from your sins" to be saved. A liar is a liar is a liar!

1.7.1 Neo-Evangelicals Don't Go Soulwinning (2020-11-01 09:30)

Mark 7:9-13, "And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition*, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

The face of America’s churches are drastically changing. I don’t even recognize churches today compared to what they once were back in the 1970’s. The pews are gone. They’ve been replace with ugly chairs. Overhead projection screens overhang the audience center, left and right. Pastors preach with blue jeans with the knees ripped out. If you haven’t watched [1]Pastor Steven Furtick of the ’Elevation Church’ in Charlotte, North Carolina, he is a disgrace to the name of Jesus Christ, and a false witness. Furtick jams on his electric guitar to Joan Jett’s 1982 hit song, I Love Rock N’ Roll at his church services. These are Antichrist pastors, who at key times will be called upon to lead their massive apostate congregations to follow the LGBTQ agenda, submit to tyrannical government, and ultimately join the Man of Sin himself.

A church that doesn’t go soulwinning is not fulfilling their divine purpose! Matthew 28:19-20, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” That is The Great Commission. Sadly, in most churches today is has become The Great Omission. How many soulwinning churches do you know of? Every Christian should be soul conscious!

I have met numerous Neo-evangelicals who even express contempt and scorn for the Biblical term soulwinning. Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

” Are you wise? God ultimate goal for every mature believer is to bear fruit as a soulwinner. Luke 8:15,

“But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.” That is what the parable of The Sower And The Seed is about, soulwinning, not salvation, as false teachers like Ray Comfort claim in his popular work: [2]The Evidence Bible.

All of these new Bible revisions today are intentionally being corrupted by Satan. In 1881 when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their The New Testament In The Original Greek to the world, it was the Devil’s foot in the door to infiltrate the churches with imitations of the Word of God, to incrementally weaken and destroy Christianity. That is why Bob Jones University (the once citadel of Fundamentalism in America 75 years ago) is today the head-quarters of the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. BJU today has become a cesspool of iniquity, the [3]fountainhead of the heretical Westcott and Hort Greek.

I thank God for the old-time religion, which is sadly dying nowadays. Revelation 3:2, “

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. ” I recently took a look at the website for the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I was sad to see that they gutted the church of the old-fashioned church pews they had back then, replacing them with ugly blue chairs. The church today looks like a convention center at a political rally. When I visited their church for the year of 2013- 2014, there was a special spirit in their church. But it wasn’t the Holy Spirit among their pastors. I am not bragging, God knows, but it was the Holy Spirit in me. I believe God was giving them one last chance to repent of their apostasy at Harvest. I came into Harvest with the sincerest of intentions, bearing gifts of truth, the free grace Gospel and King James Bibles.

Tragically, Harvest’s pastors sinfully rejected that knowledge (Hosea 4:6) and drove me out of the church as their enemy (Galatians 4:16). I-chabod was soon thereafter written over the doors of their church. Multiple families began leaving. Staff resigned and left in disgust, seeing the handwriting on the wall. The money from tithes plummeted. Pastor Herron (for the coward and opportunist that he is) abandoned ship and fled to greener pastures elsewhere, finding another ministry to parasite of off in Iowa, which is typical of Neo-evangelicals pastors. Neo-evangelical pastors don't build churches, they steal them and run them into the ground!

To no surprise, Harvest uses and bids Godspeed to the Devil's bible versions! Consequently, they have adopted the Devil's counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation, which [4]the Devil's bibles teach. Bob Jones University today is the enemy of the Lord Jesus Christ, bidding Godspeed to false witnesses like John MacArthur, who (as I mentioned) makes the Gospel so complicated that he says children cannot even be saved. That is not the simplicity that is in Christ, which is the true Gospel of free grace without works.

These BJU liars still insist that salvation is solely by God's grace, while simultaneously insisting that you must "

repent and turn away from your sins to have it. That is an utter contradiction! BJU are no better than the lying software companies who advertise a free download

" of their program, but then once you install it on your computer, they hold you ransom, demanding that you pay money to use the program. They deceived you! That is exactly what Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are doing to people. They shadily offer you a free salvation that will COST you!

[5]Dr. Tom Ferrell errantly says you must repent AND believe (two steps) to be saved. That is the junk theology that [6]Pastor Charles Lawson in Knoxville (at the Temple Baptist Church) teaches. Lawson says if you are still living you sin, you never repented, and your faith in not legitimate. Folks, that is the Devil's lie of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). The life you choose to live has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life. All of these preachers are utterly confused. Preachers and theologians have debated the issue of repentance for centuries.

The $64,000 question is this—How wrong can you be on the Gospel and still be saved? I contend that if you place even 1 % of your trust on anything other than Christ's sacrifice for your sins through the cross, and His subsequent burial and bodily resurrection, you cannot get saved that way. You must wholly lean on Jesus' name, and trust no other frame.

> Mark 7:9-13, "And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
>
> For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

Neo-evangelicalism is an enemy of soulwinning. Their counterfeit Bible revisions are the enemy of soulwinning. Their Lordship Salvation false gospel is the enemy of soulwinning. Their dead churches, lifeless worship services, empty altars, and barren lack of outreach soulwinning ministries are all enemies of soulwinning. Is it nothing to you all yet that pass by? That is what Jeremiah the prophet asked the people passing by, as he lamented in tears the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 BC by Babylon, at the hand of God because of their sins.

1.7.2 Why I Relentlessly Preach Against Harvest Baptist Church (2020-11-01 19:40)

1st Corinthians 11:17-19, "Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse. For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you."

[1]Harvest Baptist Church on Guam will never know the pain I have felt, since [2]being cruelly rejected and ostracized by them since 2014. When [3]I attended Harvest for a year, I felt like I was part of a family, but it was a mirage. The Bob Jones University crowd is a mess today! [4]I just wrote an article refuting the English Standard Version (ESV) that BJU sells, promotes and uses, for corrupting 1st Kings 14:24. The King James Bible says there were "sodomites" in the land, who did according to the abominations of the heathens; but the ESV changes it to "male cult prostitutes." I have never seen a male cult prostitute, and I don't think anyone else has either, which is why the ESV was changed, to avoid condemning homosexuality. All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupt! This man wrote a great article on the subject titled: "[5]Should They Be Changing The Holy Bible."

Our text Scripture from 1st Corinthians 11:17-19 says that there needs to be heresies! Wow! I was amazed when I first found this passage of Scripture. As I pondered this intriguing passage, it became obvious that a painter needs a blank canvas in order to paint a scene. Could an artist paint a picture if the only color he had to work with is yellow? No, the artist could not. The artist needs different colors to provide contrast. What makes the red clouds of a sunset so beautifully striking, is the bright yellow sun, and the clear blue sky that provides contrast.

The same is true of so many things in life. It is not reasonable to expect to be happy all the time. I need my sadness! Did you ever think about that friend? You need to be sad sometimes, so that you can become happy again. No one is happy all the time. You need some depression in your life, so that you can fully know the meaning of true joy when it finally comes! Too much of anything is a bad thing. Too much water will drown you! Too much depression will devour your soul and life. I know, because I have battled much depression since my former wife divorced me in 2006. I have been depressed since, because I cannot find a Christian wife. I have tried, but the Neo-evangelical women I reached out to didn't want a Fundamentalist preacher. Albeit, I rejoice in the Lord, and again I rejoice (re-joy), as the Bible commands in Philippians 4:4. I have the sweet joy and fellowship of Jesus Christ's presence in my life, having experienced the depths of sorrow and inexplicable pain of soul over the years as God's child.

Thus, I intentionally won't let go of the Harvest issue, because I think it gives me the perfect canvas (opportunity) as a Bible preacher to draw attention to lots of serious problems in our churches today; namely:

1. corrupt Bibles
2. corrupt theology promoted by corrupt Bibles
3. corrupt Bible colleges (that use corrupt Bibles to teach a corrupted theology to send out corrupt pastors)
4. blatant indifference toward heresy
5. a woeful lack of compassion and love for hurting people (the letter of the law killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. A church right with God will love the hell out of everybody! Academic religious leaders lack compassion. Bob Jones University is the worst!)
6. the love of money (Jesus warned in Luke 16:13 that no man can serve God and mammon, i.e., a career)

Those are my humble observations. Somebody needs to stand up for God (Psalms 94:16). Somebody needs to care! Lordship Salvation is not an acceptable alternative to Free Grace Theology, it is wicked and very wrong and of the Devil. I'd guess that 60-70 % of all Baptist churches today are caught between grace and works, corrupted on the Gospel. Moody Bible Institute, Master's University, Liberty University, Maranatha Baptist Seminary, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute—these are all Devil's institutions today, who require people to " repent and turn from their sins

" to receive the free gift of God, which is eternal life (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 3:8-9).

Sadly, there is a demonic spirit of indifference which has infected today's Bible colleges and churches. There is a spirit of dullness, mediocrity and tolerance for heresy. Matthew 13:14-15, "

And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

*For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them." As difficult as it is for some readers to embrace, this passage most definitely includes the Neo-evangelical religious crowd today!

I am talking about the apostate Bob Jones University crowd! I am talking about the shallow Moody Bible Institute camp! I am talking about Pastor Marty Herron, Dr. Steve Pettit, Evangelist

Ray Comfort, Evangelist Ken Ham and Pastor John MacArthur (to name but a few hardened souls who are deaf to THE TRUTH). The churches today are in CODE BLUE! Modern corrupt Bible revisions and lame shameful Neo-evangelical preaching have inoculated Neo-Evangelicals and Neo-Fundamentalists from THE TRUTH of the inspired King James Bible!!! Heresy has crept into over 95 % of our Baptist churches today, infecting them with the heresies of manmade Zionism, Lordship Salvation, Young Earth Creation (YEC), denying Bible inspiration and infallibility, et cetera. Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) was so right: "These are Devil's Bibles!"

The Bible simply says whosoever BELIEVES the Good News of Jesus crucified, buried and risen has eternal life. 1st Corinthians 1:23, "But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;" 1st Corinthians 2:2, "For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." The Apostle Paul didn't want to know if they repented of their sins, he simply wanted to know if they believed. That is what the Bible teaches. I love the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They became my church in 2014, where I faithfully attended for a year. Just because they drove me out, banned and ostracized me doesn't get rid of me, it just makes them God's enemies for going against THE TRUTH. By counting me their enemy, Harvest has chosen sides against God, because I kindly told them THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

I kindly told them THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit plan of salvation, and of the Devil. I kindly told them THE TRUTH that salvation is simply by God's free grace, through faith alone in Jesus Christ, which does not require turning away from a lifestyle of sin. For eternal life to remain a free gift (Romans 5:15, 17-18; 6:23), nothing can be asked in exchange for it! I kindly told THE TRUTH that [6]Martin Luther (1483-1546) was not a saved man, because he taught the heresy of Baptismal Regeneration all his life. I told THE TRUTH that only the King James Bible is trustworthy, and that the [7]modern Bible revisions based upon Westcott and Hort are corrupt and of the Devil.

Humbly, if I am wrong in these theological and personal matters, then Harvest has nothing to worry about; but if I am right, then heavy, heavy, hang the judgment which shall come upon them in eternity, for the emotional pain and loss of social life that I have suffered (because of their hatred against me and THE TRUTH) since 2014, still unto this day in November of 2020. I pray for God to avenge me of Marty Herron, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hanson, Gary Walton, all the pastors and staff, and the people of Harvest Baptist Church, for bidding Godspeed to the aforementioned evils. It is a big deal to me, very big, and I believe it is an even bigger deal to God, and I long for the day of reckoning when God avenges my fight as a soldier of Jesus Christ for His cause, which is the THE TRUTH (John 18:37).

1.7.3 It Is A Christlike Spirit To Have An Attitude Against Heresy (2020-11-02 09:30)

Matthew 3:7,

“

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Matthew 12:34,

“

O generation of vipers*, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

In the preceding two passages of Scripture, we see that both John the Baptist and Jesus called the religious leaders of the day “ vipers.

” Jesus didn’t coddle false prophets, trying to find common ecumenical ground with them. The Lord exposed them! As we see with the beautiful interaction between Jesus and Nicodemus in John chapter three, the Lord had an open and tender heart toward honest truth-seekers. I feel the same. It was the hard-hearted religious crowd, who nipped at the Lord’s heals, rejecting THE TRUTH, that angered Him the most. John 8:26, “ I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.”

I would never dare compare myself to the Lord, but the Lord Himself DID compare us to Himself.

John 15:20, “

Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also. ” By rejecting THE TRUTH, the stubborn Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University have also rejected the Lord’s truth, because I am in agreement with the inspired Word of God (the King James Bible). There is not one verse in the Bible that teaches that you must “

[1]repent and turn away from sins to be saved. Repentance is a simple change of mind unto the Gospel itself

, which is automatic

. The man who believes has also repented. The Bible simply commands a person to

“

to be saved. John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ”

Like me, the Apostle Paul had a big mouth too!

Titus 1:10-14, “

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

” The Apostle Paul here agrees with another preacher, that the Cretians are a bunch of evil beasts,

slow bellies

“

always liars.

I can here some Pharisee at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam telling the Apostle Paul that he shouldn’t be saying these things!

Like it or not dear reader, the great men of God in the Bible, and even our own precious Savior, spoke harsh things against false prophets! That is why I call Dr. Steve Pettit, Pastor Marty Herron and Evangelist Ray Comfort devil-dog preachers! They all preach another gospel that is not “ the simplicity that is in Christ

” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Shame on them! These are wicked men, because they have all been warned by Fundamentalist Bible preachers like me and Pastor Ralph

“

Yankee

Arnold, but they don’t care! I say that kindly.

Some pathetic preacher, former Pastor Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam (I’m glad he quit soon thereafter), foolishly said to me in 2018:

“You’re not an apostle!” What a stupid thing to say! He was berating me for my Biblical stand against Harvest Baptist Church. To Hell with Harvest! Mr. Quinlan called Harvest their “ sister church.

I was disgusted hearing him say that. I told him that Harvest promotes corruptible seed, and promotes the Devil’s lie of Calvinism. He couldn’t have cared less. Preachers are pathetic today! I told him in front of his church members (that he rebuked me in front of first), the same thing I’ll tell any preacher who pulls the garbage that he did:

“

SHAME ON YOU!!!

” You don’t have to be an apostle to take a stand for THE TRUTH! Paul told Titus (not an apostle) to “ rebuke them sharply, that they might be sound in the faith

” (Titus 1:13).

My regular web visitors know that I have been harsh at times in my preaching, even referring to false prophets as “ bastards in the pulpit.

” I only use the word “b astard

” in the sense of illegitimacy. No preacher is a legitimate man of God who promotes dozens of different Bible revisions, and the Devil’s heresy of Lordship Salvation, and bids Godspeed to false prophets! A man of God declares the inspired Word of God, not manmade teachings! God pity the preacher that bad preachers don’t hate.

If you’re looking for a big sinner, you found him right here! I don’t claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I am trying by His grace, and you won’t find a more sincere, caring or loving man. Why do you think I make such a big fuss? Right doctrine matters! Truth matters! Using the right Bible matters! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam doesn’t care, but I DO CARE!!! Please forgive me for becoming the villain to be the hero. A “ hero

is somebody who rescues others, whether it be physically or doctrinally. Humbly, I am a hero at Harvest, but they ostracize me as their enemy. All I ever wanted was to humbly attend their churches services, and hopefully find a wife, but they refused my kind request three times. A hurting dog barks! Galatians 4:16,

“ Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

1.7.4 You Cannot Love Jesus Without Hating The Modern Bibles (2020-11-04 09:30)

Psalms 19:7, “The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.” Psalms 12:6, “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.”

Psalms 119:140,

“

Thy word is very pure*: therefore thy servant loveth it.

I cannot speak for others, but I love my God and Savior Jesus Christ! I am far from perfect. I made my share of foolish decisions in life. I am a sinner just like anybody else. However, I do walk with God, and abide in the Scriptures day and night, thinking about them continually. Psalms 119:104, “Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.” I have spent my Christian life, since age 13 when I was born-again, hinging upon every inspired Word in the King James Bible, interpreting it’s precious meaning by paying attention to all the subtleties and nuances contained therein.

But then the new Bible revisions came along, like an army of ungodly soldiers intent of doing harm! Since I have only used the King James Bible for the past 40 years as a believer, I immediately see the problems with these modern perversions. In thousands of ways, the new Devil’s Bibles corrupt the Word of God, secularizing it, diminishing it, changing it to mean something entirely different. It is the most hideous form of evil.

I heard

Bob Jones University

president Dr. Steve Pettit say, in one of BJU’s chapel sermons (on ’The Daily Platform’ radio program broadcast by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam), that there is only a very small difference between the Vaticanus Sinaiticus (i.e., the Greek text introduced by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort) and the Textus Receptus (from which our beloved King James Bible was translated). In fact, there is approximately a 2 % textual variance between ancient manuscripts. Yet, from that 2 % the modern Bible revisions have managed to change the Holy Bible by 100 % from one another. This has caused utter confusion in the churches!

Dear reader, don’t believe liars like Steve Pettit, who defend the Devil’s Bibles! Dr. Pettit downplays the problem, sanctioning the Devil’s modern revisions. Pettit alleges that the differences are very minute, yet please consider that the New International Version (NIV) alone has [1]changed by a whopping 38.8 % in comparison of the 2011 NIV from the 1984 NIV. Do you see how Steve Pettit deceives 2,700 students at BJU? The changes in the modern Bible revisions are MASSIVE. The reason why is simply because once you open that door of changing the Holy Bible, you have opened a Pandora’s Box! In 1881, Westcott and Hort introduced a SECOND AUTHORITY to the world, just like the subtle serpent did to Eve in Genesis 3:1, “Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?” HATH GOD SAID? This second authority of the Word of God consequently necessitated the need for a THIRD AUTHORITY (to determine which of the first two authorities are correct). This third authority is man himself!

Since 1881, Greek scholars have been elevating themselves above God’s Word, telling us what the Bible really says! Consequently, most people today have lost confidence in the infallibility, accuracy and inspiration of God’s Word. Sadly, this includes most so-called fundamental Bible colleges and independent Baptist churches today, who are pathetic. I wouldn’t give a dime to any institution that denies the infallibility and inspiration of the King James Bible!!!

Here is a helpful book titled: “ [2]Which Bible Is God’s Word?” In the book, the unknown author points out that the modern revisions change “My father” to “the father,” removing the deity of Jesus.

The ESV, NIV and other modern perversions cast doubt on the fact that GOD, not Joseph, is the biological Father of Jesus Christ. In the following four verses "my Father" is [3]wickedly changed to "the Father":

> John 8:28, " Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. "
>
> John 10:32, "Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?"
>
> John 14:28, "Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I."
>
> John 16:10, "Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more."

Bob Jones University and their ungodly graduates support, use, sell and bid Godspeed to this woeful evil. Folks, do you love Jesus? If so, then you ought to be upset like I am? It makes my blood boil what these Devil's Bibles have done to assault our Savior's deity. The modern versions remove every mention of anyone "worshipping" Jesus. Instead they change it to a mere " knelt

bowed.

Well, you can kneel before a king in honor, without worshipping him. So you see how the Devil is still trying to rid the world of Jesus? It was 2,000 years ago that Satan tried to murder the Savior, when Herod ordered every child under 2 years of age throughout the region to be killed. The Devil has removed Christ from x-mas.

" And worst of all are the ungodly Bible colleges and churches today, who sanction this ungodly filth.

I challenge you dear reader, if you are still in doubt, to read the book [4]I shared with you earlier. I don't agree with everything that Dr. Peter S. Ruckman taught, but he was a brilliant man on the King James Bible. I strongly recommend that you read his book titled: " [5]The Alexander Cult Series .

" In the modern Bibles, the Trinity (i.e., Godhead) is attacked and removed. You can compare Romans 1:20, Acts 17:29, Colossians 2:9 and 1st John 5:7 to see what I mean. All of the modern Bibles remove most of 1st John 5:7, which is the most clear evidence of the Triune nature of God in the Bible.

I have to show you what the ungodly English Standard Version (ESV) does to Philippians 2:6. First I'll quote to you the King James Bible, and then the ESV:

KING JAMES BIBLE - Philippians 2:6, “Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:”

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION - Philippians 2:6, “who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped,”

All my life when I read this Bible verse, I thought about Jesus being Almighty God. But newer younger readers of the ESV, NIV and other modern trash, are misled to think something different entirely. Oh dear friend, do you see what the Devil is doing? Why are professed Christians so indifferent toward this woeful evil? Why don’t preachers care? What kind of Bible professor goes along with this injustice against our precious Lord? Is it nothing to you?

If that weren’t bad enough, look what the ESV has done to assault Acts 8:37. Again, I will first quote the verse in the King James Bible, and then from the ESV:

KING JAMES BIBLE - Acts 8:37, “ And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION - Acts 8:37, “”

I didn’t make a mistake dear reader, Acts 8:37 has been completely REMOVED from the modern Bible versions. SHAME ON BOB JONES UNIVERSITY! Please notice that the Devil removed the SON OF GOD from this passage! If you are okay with this, don’t you dare tell me that you love Jesus!!! I hate these modern Devil’s Bibles, because I do love Jesus! Jesus is called “ THE WORD OF GOD

” in Revelation 19:13. Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to call them twins.

” No sane Christian would ever entertain the possibility of having two different Jesuses; yet we accept the insane idea that God has given us hundreds of English Bible versions to choose from! Really?

I ask you friend—How much do you love Jesus?

1.7.5 Somebody Needs To Contend For The Christian Faith (2020-11-05 09:30)

Jude 1:3-4, “

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints*. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." Titus 1:10-13,

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

God knows that I love the folks at Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, which is why I incessantly preach against their multiple bible versions, heresy of Lordship Salvation, lack of compassion for hurting people like me, and that they bid Godspeed to false teachers like Dr. John MacArthur.

Evangelist Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) made the following unapologetic, uncompromising and fundamentalist defense of salvation by faith alone:

> "He [Jude] said, well it was 'needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which once for all [was] delivered unto the saints.'
>
> Now wait a minute, you've got something worth contending for! Isn't it strange that something so valuable and so wonderful as saving faith is something we that have to be exhorted to contend for? Why, if you had a diamond worth $5,000 you wouldn't leave it just lying around anywhere. If you had $1,000,000 in gold, you'd go put it in a vault. [If] Anybody tried to get it, you'd fight to keep them from gettin' it. And we just sit down and just let people steal the faith that Christians have, and never bother about it. Some of us pay 'em to do that! Some of us pay preachers to stand in the pulpit and steal the faith of the saints of God, and send our children to Hell. The most crooked crook on God Almighty's earth is a preacher who stands in a Trinitarian pulpit, and steals the faith of people!
>
> You know I've said it many a time; if I was up in Heaven, fifty years from now (and the Lord tarried), and any religious liberal ever sat in a classroom in this institution, and tried to disseminate his infidelity, I'd ask God Almighty to excuse me for a little while, and I'd come back down to this school and get a stick of dynamite, and I'd blow it into smithereens! I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [1]YouTube | [2]MP4 | [3]MP3

As you just read, Dr. Bob Jones Sr. said he would rather destroy Bob Jones University, than to let modernists and religious liberals corrupt one student with infidelity that robs them of their faith! Professed Christians nowadays are so deceived by the Devil, that they even pay infidels to destroy the faith of young people in the Word of God and the Gospel of free grace! Bob Jones University sells, sanctions and uses multiple Bible revisions! They sanction [4]the Devil's corrupt Alexandrian manuscripts! BJU horribly [5]betrays the inspired Word of God. Sadly, Bob Jones University has been going downhill in spiritual deterioration for decades, hobnobbing with ungodly neo-evangelicals. Consequently, they've been infected with ecumenism, Lordship Salvation, Calvinism, John MacArthur and corruptible seed at BJU!

One of the biggest problems today is that 99 % of pastors and Bible colleges are indifferent toward multiple Bible versions, multiple plans of salvation, and heretics in the pulpit. It seems that anything goes these days! The Bible disagrees with these apostate Neo-evangelicals, who are as rotting fruit on a corrupt tree. Their churches are barren, lifeless and corrupt! Many churches despise the term "

soulwinning,

" because they don't go soulwinning. I see my neighbours skipping out early from church all the time, to come home 30 minutes after church starts. They hate attending Harvest that much! No thanks to them, I don't have a local church to attend, so I have to drive to the other side of the island. Harvest is a perfect example of everything that a church shouldn't be—a lesson in how to fail at serving God!

I fully agree with Dr. Bob Jones Sr., who rightly said:

> "I'd rather see this school a heap of rubbish, just a little rubbish here and a little rubbish yonder, than see the time ever come we could be such softies, we'll sit down and let the Devil put his modernists and religious liberals in here to rob them of the faith. And yet that things going on in America, from one end of this country to the other!" —Dr. Bob Jones Sr.; [6]YouTube | [7]MP4 | [8]MP3

Bob Jones University has gone soft! They are just sitting idle while [9]Dr. Steve Pettit destroys their Fundamentalist roots. Right doctrine matters! Truth matters! The purity of the Bible matters! The accuracy of the Gospel matters! Somebody needs to contend for the Christian faith. If that makes me the bad guy, hated by Neo-evangelical apostates (Galatians 4:16), then so be it! To God be the glory, great things He hath done!!!

1.7.6 Does 2nd Thessalonians 2:13 Teach Calvinism? (2020-11-06 18:44)

2nd Thessalonians 2:12-14, "That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Does 2nd Thessalonians 2:13 teach Calvinism? At a glance it sure seems like it. But the answer is a bold, “

No, absolutely not!

Pastor Max Younce offers these helpful words of exegesis in his excellent book titled:

“

Not Chosen To Salvation

> II Thessalonians 2:13,14 - Called By The Gospel = Drawn By The Cross
>
> > "But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: (13) Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ." - 2 Thessalonians 2:13,14
>
> You see, predestinationalists are as excited over the words "chosen" and "election" as the Church of Christ are over water! They will swim through rivers, lakes and oceans of grace, faith and free will to stop at a rill of baptism and election for salvation. One would have to throw out the last half of Verse 13 and all of Verse 14 in order to "squeeze out" the doctrine of "election to salvation." On page 33 of Mr. Nettleton’s book, Chosen To Salvation, he comments upon these verses by saying:
>
> > "God decides to have spiritual children and chooses from among the sons of men certain individuals and saves them. This is election. It is a mystery, but a fact to be believed."
>
> "A fact to be believed" only if you disregard the Bible. Now notice that the believer is chosen to salvation on the basis of two things:

1. One of them is God's part: "...through sanctification of the spirit."

2. The other is man's responsibility. "...belief of the truth."

Verse 14 tells us how we are called,

> "Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ."

The Gospel is the death, burial and resurrection of Christ and it is by this that He calls all to be saved. Notice again in John 12:32:

> "And I (Christ), if I be lifted up (crucified on the cross) from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

In John 4:42 it is made clear that His will is to see everyone saved:

> "...for we have heard him (Christ) ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world."

If we would read all of 2 Thessalonians 2, we would find that this is speaking of the 7-year Tribulation Period when after the 3 1/2 years the Anti-Christ exalts himself in the Jewish Temple and declares himself to be God (Verse 4). Then in Verse 10, those that perish do so because of a decision they make. Verse 10:

> "And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not (i.e., they would not believe) the love of the truth, that they might be saved."

Then in Verse 11 and 12 God states He will send "The lie." This is the Anti-Christ whom they will believe since they willfully rejected the truth. Notice Verses 11 and 12:

> "And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: (11) That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness." (12)

Remember, Christ died for the sins of the world, therefore everyone is invited to come and believe in Christ. John made it perfectly clear that "whosoever" may come. Notice in John 11:25 and 26:

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

1.7.7 We Live In A Dirty World Of Liars! (2020-11-07 09:30)

Genesis 3:1, “Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made.” And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?” Proverbs 20:14, “ It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.” Acts 15:1, “ And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.”

In our text passages above I have given you three examples of liars in the Bible (and there are many more). The first example was the serpent, who lied to Eve. The serpent (Satan - Revelation 20:2) told Eve that God said she couldn’t eat of any of the trees. But that is not what God said. In Genesis 2:16-17, “

And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

” The serpent told Eve the exact opposite of what God had said to Eve!

In the second example above, an unnamed buyer downplays the value of something he is bartering to buy. He knows it is actually worth much more, but he is lying to get a deal. When the seller sells the item to him at a lower price, the buyer later boasts of the great deal he got, knowing that the item is worth far more than he paid. That is dishonesty!

In the third example, a group of unsaved false teachers came down from the hilly high region of Judaea to Jerusalem teaching that unless you keep the law of Moses, and be circumcised if you’re a man, you cannot be saved. I love the following passage of Scripture:

> Acts 15:7-11, “And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should *hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us*;

And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

The Apostle Paul is giving the simple plan of salvation. When we hear the Gospel preached, and we BELIEVE IT, God sees our heart and saves us, sealing us with His Holy Spirit. To add anything more to the Gospel is to place an unbearable yoke upon people!

Now having said all that, let me mention a few of the liars in today’s modern would that I see. One of the biggest lies I’ve seen are bank advertisements. They say if you open a new account they’ll give you a gift. They just lied. If something is truly a gift, you could simply walk in the bank and take it with you. That is a gift! What the bank is actually advertising in a reward, because you have to open a new account to get it.

Another example of modern-day lying are software companies who advertise a “free download.” But after you go through the trouble of downloading their “

free

” program, and then install it on your computer, the company won’t allow you to actually use the program unless you give them money. You have to buy it! The company lied. They dishonestly tricked you, thinking that after going through the hassle to download and install their program, that you would be compelled to buy their software. They knew if they were honest, telling you upfront that you’d have to pay money, there is a much higher likelihood that you never would have wanted it. So they lied to you to deceive you! God takes our words seriously (Matthew 12:36). Woe unto liars (Revelation 21:8).

One of the biggest examples of a liar are people who file for divorced. I thank God that I have never filed for divorce in my life. Hell will freeze over before I do! My former wife divorced me, but that was 100 % her decision in 2006, which I made the lawyers put in writing, so she could never come back years later and blame me. She was the plaintiff; I was the defendant. I have it in writing with her signature on it, that she refused to reconcile with me. So be it! My consciousness is clear in the matter. When a person gets married, they repeat the marriage “vows.

” Part of the marriage vows is: “for better, for worse, until death do us part.” When anyone files for divorce they are lying, breaking their vows to their spouse before God.

Lawyers are notorious liars. In fact, their very profession in the United States is based on lying. I won’t get into it here, because I don’t want to ruin your day with manure, but there’s not a lower form of human being in existence than lawyers! That is why lawyers are buried 10 feet deep instead of 6 feet deep, because deep down under their really not that bad...lol. I admit that I detest lawyers! I love when the tyrannosaurus eats the lawyer in Jurassic Park! There's not a more rotten, corrupt, ungodly, insulting and shady group of people than attorneys.

That is why it is common to hear retired lawyers say things like: "I'm a recovering lawyer." They fully know that they spent their career screwing people. Judgment day is coming (Hebrews 4:13; 9:27; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14). By the way, that includes the horrible lawyers at the Christian Law Association (CLA), who treated me like garbage when I asked for their help on two occasions. I responded to their abuse by giving them $1,000 out of the kindness of my heart. I did that because Pastor Jack Hyles taught me to take the high road, when the CLA took the low road. Shame on them! They lie at the Christian Law Association. They claim to help individual Christians with religious persecution, but when I needed their help in 2013 with my Jesus-is-Savior.com website under attack, they totally withdrew in Ohio and ignored me. God will woefully deal with them, as they have dealt with me. I say that kindly.

Another popular group of liars are the food companies. I bought a can of Bumblebee clam chowder the other day at the grocery store, because on the can's picture they show a full cup of clams in the creamy soup. But when I actually opened the can, it was watery and contained about one teaspoon of clams. They lie so that people will buy their inferior product. If they took a picture of what is actually in the can, no one would buy it. What rotten people! I'll never but their product again. We live in a world of liars, especially in the United States of America. Thieves are everywhere around us in society!

Sadly, one of the [1]biggest group of liars today are the Bob Jones University (BJU) camp. I learned all about the apostate BJU crowd at the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I attended the church for a year in 2014. The church preaches the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, bidding Godspeed to John MacArthur and Steve Pettit (president of BJU). While they deceitfully claim to believe in salvation by grace alone, they simultaneously teach that you must "

[2]turn from your sins

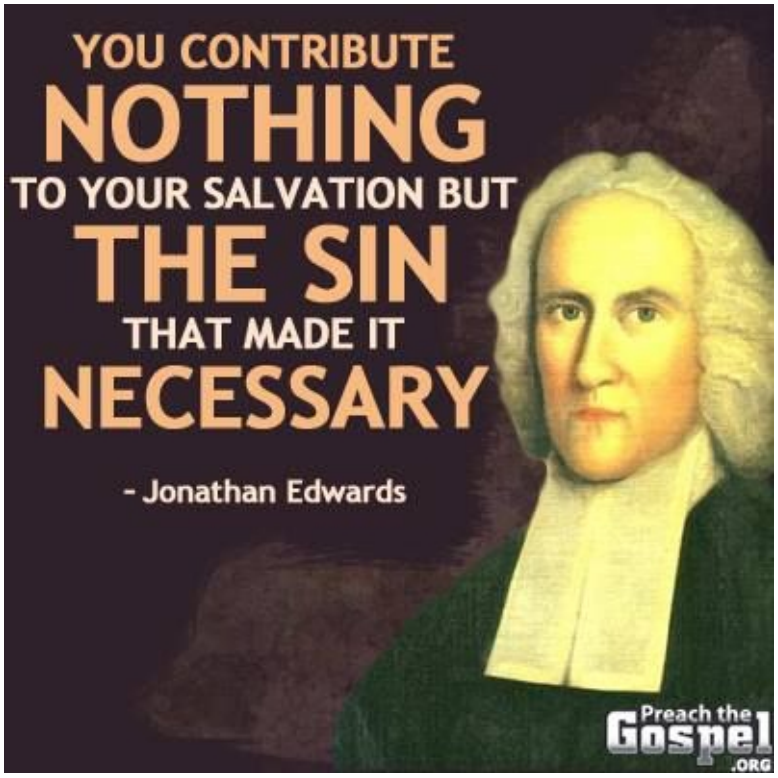
to be saved. That is theological fraud! The pastors of Harvest are wicked and arrogant. The horrible staff are complicit to the evil. No one cares about truth there. The BJU crowd today are of the Devil. They are attacking the grace of God, but adding an unbearable yoke that neither our fathers, nor we, can bear. NO ONE can turn from their sins! All you can do is admit you are a guilty sinner and cast yourself at the foot of the cross, trusting upon the crucified and risen Lamb of God to be saved.

[3]



The former shameful pastor of Harvest Baptist Church is Marty Herron, a theological liar and deceiver, who goes around corrupting the Gospel. Marty tells people that if they want to receive God's free gift, they are first required to "

[4]repent of their sins.

" These [5]ungodly deceivers are all preaching Mormon theology! You cannot show me even one place in the Holy Bible (if you have an inspired King James Bible) that says to "repent of your sins" to be saved. Mary Herron is adding to the Gospel, placing an unbearable yoke on people. Who can turn from their sins? I sure can't. And neither can you. I have news for you, Mr. Herron still sins!

The very idea that a person must "turn from your sins" to be saved is wacky. What does it even mean to turn from your sins? I heard Pastor Herron with my own two ears, while listening to him give a sermonette on Guam in 2014. In the invitation at the end, on a Sunday morning, he sinfully said: "It's not enough to admit that you're a sinner, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin!" Kindly said, Marty Herron needs to get saved. Sadly, he has the blood of hundreds of church members on his hands as well.

[6]Dr. Steve Pettit is another theological liar. It is tragic that 2,700 students at BJU are being subject to the heresy of infidels. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said publicly in 1944, that if he could, he'd come back from Heaven 50 years later and blow his college to smithereens, if infidels ever stepped foot behind the college pulpit! Amen and amen! [7]You won't find a worse infidel than Steve Pettit. BJU ought to fire him! They need a man of God in their at the helm like Dr. Jack Hyles, someone who preaches a free grace Gospel, not the [8]Satanic Lordship Salvation garbage of Dr. John MacArthur! Brother, I cannot wait until the Lord Jesus Christ returns and cleans house, and He's going to begin at cesspools of iniquity like Bob Jones University! That is where I'd start. These wicked people claim to be doing God service, while perverting grace, corrupting the Word of God, and bidding Godspeed to false prophets!

1.7.8 Your Greatest Mistake Will Be To Trust A Lying Preacher (2020-11-08 22:19)

1st Kings 13:1-10, "And, behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD unto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar to burn incense.

And he cried against the altar in the word of the LORD, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the LORD; Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones shall be burnt upon thee.

And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign which the LORD hath spoken; Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

And it came to pass, when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand, which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD.

And the king answered and said unto the man of God, Intreat now the face of the LORD thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God besought the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

And the king said unto the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will give thee a reward.

And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this place:

For so was it charged me by the word of the LORD, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest. So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel."

The young man of God, without hesitation, rightly rejected king Jeroboam's offer for a reward and refreshments at his home. The Lord forbade the young preacher from turning aside from his mission. In the following disturbing passage, you will learn that an older preacher deliberately lied to the young man of God, claiming that God said to turn aside, which cost the young man his life when he did. ...

1st Kings 13:11-24, "Now there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

And their father said unto them, What way went he? For his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass: and he rode thereon,

And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak: and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

And he said, I may not return with thee, nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place:

For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou camest.

He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD*, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.

So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

And it came to pass, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came unto the prophet that brought him back:

And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD, and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee,

But camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place, of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled for him the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back*. And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcase was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcase."

The Bible does not tell us why the elderly prophet intentionally lied to the young man of God. Verse 18 is the key verse in my humble opinion: "He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him." Here we see elements of deception. This elder prophet was a liar! He deceived the young man of God. I see three spiritual lessons here to remember:

1. The young preacher trusted the older preacher.
2. The older preacher falsely claimed that an angel spoke unto him.
3. The older preacher falsely claimed to be speaking God's Word.
4. The older preacher in fact was a false prophet.
5. The older preacher was a bold-faced liar!

There is a very important lesson to be learned here. The young man of God didn't trust king Jeroboam, because he knew he was wicked; but he trusted another preacher who was older than him. Satan is a beautiful liar! Dear reader, all across the world today younger people are blindly trusting preachers, merely because they are pastors, older and allegedly wiser. Job 32:9, "Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment." Dr. Steve Pettit comes to mind (president of Bob Jones University since 2014). Thousands of students look up to him at BJU, trusting his flawed theology, [1]while he indoctrinates them with the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, praising John MacArthur's demonic ministry.

By the way, [2]here are some different Bible commentaries on this passage from 1st Kings 18:1-24 .

The young preacher in our text passage of Scripture was a godly man. He was not a bad guy! He was very sincere. But he made the fatal mistake of trusting another preacher! God had directly told that young preacher exactly what to do. Yet, he listened to a man instead.

Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man." Acts 5:29, "

Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

" Billions of human beings in this world are deceived today. They are foolishly following the teachings of some religious man! There are 1,200,000,000 Roman Catholics worldwide, who sinfully listen to the Pope ex-cathedra (i.e., as if God Himself is speaking). That is so wrong! What fools! Steve Pettit is as the Pope at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They idolize, follow and pattern their ministry after his reprobate teachings. Woe unto Harvest!

I encourage you dear reader to be as the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11, "

And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

" The Bob Jones' crowd don't SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! They merely follow the flawed teachings of Dr. Steve Pettit and Pastor John MacArthur, taking their word for it, afraid to go against the herd mentality at BJU. I wouldn't give you a dime for the hen-pecked pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who merely follow their Neo-evangelical masters at Bob Jones University in South Carolina.

I love you dear reader! I care! God cares! Right doctrine matters! It is not okay to preach another Gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). Read the Scriptures from cover to cover, and you won't be able to show me even one verse that teaches us to

[3]turn from your sins

to be saved. The Gospel has been perverted in the corrupt modern Bible revisions! Is it nothing to you oh Christian? I am alarmed! I care enough to make a fuss and expose every false way!

Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way."

1.7.9 Hell Is Forever, Please Make Sure You're Saved (2020-11-09 20:10)

Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Luke 13:23-24,

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

I shudder when I think of what Bob Jones University has become. Perhaps you wonder why I relentlessly preach against them. Dear reader, it is because I care. I really do! Nearly all of my teachers at Hyles-Anderson College were BJU graduates, including the beloved former longtime president of HAC, Dr. Wendell Evans (whom I admire tremendously still today). I still can still hear him singing in chapel, "It Is Well With My Soul" (his favorite song to sing in chapel). I have never once regretted attending eight years of HAC. It is the best decision I ever made!

Sadly, since 2008 they no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired, which is a very big problem, because it opens a Pandora's box to the corrupt modern revisions! In a generation or two, HAC (like BJU) will be selling corruptible seed in their bookstore (if not already). I had better not find out about it, or I'll make them enemy #1! I just checked HAC's bookstore and they are okay still. Amen for that! I wanted to order seven of their [1]Classic Soulwinner's New Testaments , but they don't ship to Guam. But you can order them, and I recommend these. Brother Stancil was one of my teachers at HAC, of whom I am grateful.

Only the King James Bible upholds a free grace Gospel. If you are using the Devil's corruptible seed (i.e., the modern Bible versions), [2]then you have a corrupt gospel. Anyway, I am writing this article because I fear most professed Christians today are not really born-again believers. I am talking about the [3]messed-up Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who promote Dr. Steve Pettit and Pastor John MacArthur. Harvest broadcasts '[4]The Daily Platform' (BJU's ungodly chapel messages), which teach Lordship Salvation and promote the Devil's Bible revisions. I know some people must think I am being unethical to be so harsh in my preaching, but you would understand and agree if you truly believed in a burning eternal Hell. [5]Dr. Steve Pettit's own words condemn him! I guess I'm like Elijah, a troublemaker! 1st Kings 18:17, " And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" You bet I am!

One of the most disturbing passages of Scripture in the Holy Bible is Matthew 7:21-23. These people were religious. They served Jesus. They did not a few, but " MANY " wonderful works, and they did them in Jesus' name. They even cast out devils in Jesus' name. They preached (prophesied) in Jesus' name. Yet, the Lord Himself denied ever knowing them! John 10:27-28, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. "

Calvinists (aka, Lordship Salvation) attempt to use this Scripture to justify their false doctrine.

Calvinists errantly say, if you are saved YOU WILL FOLLOW JESUS!

But that is not what this passage means in John 10:27! What saith the Scripture? Romans 8:14,

“

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

” John 10:27 simply means that every child of God has the indwelling Holy Spirit, and we are led by that Spirit. Some believers choose to walk in the flesh, disobeying the Spirit, but that doesn’t mean they are not saved (1st Corinthians 5:5). It means they are carnally-minded, immature in the Lord (1st Corinthians 3:1; Luke 8:11-15). That is why we see a saved man with no rewards in 1st Corinthians 3:15b, saved; yet so as by fire.

” Salvation is by faith alone; serving Christ is by faith and works.

Please heed my warning dear friend. Dr. Steve Pettit is a spiritually dangerous man! He says, and I quote:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [6]11:34)

Kindly said, Steve Pettit is NOT a born-again Christian! He is a devout follower of Dr. John MacArthur. No one is saved who thinks that more is required than simple childlike faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, in a moment of time. Steve Pettit makes the gross theological error of combining service with salvation. He is mixing discipleship with sonship! Here are some helpful accurate quotes by other preacher concerning the free grace Gospel:

> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is ’justified freely by his grace’ (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also ’justified by works’ (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God’s workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." Hodges, Zane C. The Hungry Inherit. Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

"For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." Post, Roger. "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament." Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).

"There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Hal Lindsey, 'The Liberation of Planet Earth,' Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian." —Pentecost, J. Dwight, 'Design for Discipleship'; Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship." —Everett F. Harrison, 'Must Christ Be Lord To Be Savior? No!'; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1-2)." —Dr. Merrill F. Unger, 'God is Waiting To Meet You'; Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —Lewis Sperry Chafer, 'Salvation'; Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

Lordship salvation is where someone teaches that there must be a total commitment to Christ as

” of one’s life in order to be saved. Recently there has been a modification of this position, saying that a willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation is all that is necessary, in addition to faith to be saved. That is a false gospel! The message of faith only, and the message of faith plus commitment of life, can’t BOTH be the Gospel. One of these plans of salvation must be a counterfeit! One of them is a FALSE GOSPEL, and comes under the divine curse of perverting the Gospel...

> Galatians 1:8-9, “But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you, than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that you have received, let him be accursed.”

If only committed people are saved people, then where is there room for carnal Christians? What kind of dedication must be preached to people, if in order to be saved, they have already dedicated their lives to the Lord? Where do you stop if you start adding something else to this which is the gospel revealed in the Bible? Look at what God says about adding to the revelation of Jesus Christ (gospel), “ For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book ” (Revelation 22:18). The Bible plainly declares that we are saved by faith, and not by works. Where does it say this? Ephesians 2:8-9, “ For by grace are ye saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God. Not of works, lest any man should boast. ”

What are you trusting in to get you to heaven?

Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time! Please think about it friend. If you think Mormons, Roman Catholics, Calvinists, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, and Jehovah’s Witnesses are Christians, you need to get saved. These are eternally damned false religions. Dr. Steve Pettit’s plan of salvation is anything but simple! He foolishly and heretically says: “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it!” No child of God would talk that way! What do you mean I cannot profess that I’m saved and that’s it? Of course I can say that, because eternal life is a free gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Beloved reader, this man is a religious fraud! The Harvest Baptist Church on Guam sinfully idolize this wicked false teacher! They sinfully promote him! They sinfully bid Godspeed to him! I am telling THE TRUTH, earnestly contending for the faith (Jude 1:3; Romans 3:4). Yet, Harvest won’t even allow me to attend church services! To Hell with them and their cult! God will deal harshly with them, just as they have dealt harshly with me. I am telling THE TRUTH!

I am listening to the Old Testament book of 1st Kings today. The story I just heard was perfect timing for this article. A young preacher was commanded by God not to turn aside from his mission, lest he die. 1st Kings 13:18, “ He said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spake unto me by the word of the LORD, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread and drink water. But he lied unto him.” [7]Here are some different Bible commentaries on this passage if you’re curious. From this passage we learn that even if a preacher lies to us, we are still going to be held accountable by God. The road to Hell is paved with sincerity and good intentions. So what do we do? Jesus told us in John 5:39,

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

" If you'll search the King James Bible, meditating therein day and night as David did (Psalms 1:1-3), then you'll never go astray! Psalms 119:140, "

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

Dear friend, are you born-again? It is a one time new birth, not a lifestyle that you must live as Steve Pettit and John MacArthur falsely teach. The very moment that you believe, you are born anew by the seed of the Word of God (1st Peter 1:23), quickened (made alive) by the indwelling Holy Spirit of God (Ephesians 2:1-2; 1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9). You are a guilty sinner friend (Romans 3:19-20). Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. He died on the cross to pay for your sins. He was buried. Three days later Jesus bodily resurrected miraculously and triumphantly by the power of God. This is the GOOD NEWS (Gospel - 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you will simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He has risen from the dead the third day, you will be instantly, irrevocably and forever saved. You have God's promise of it! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

1.7.10 What Does Hebrews 10:26-27 Mean? (2020-11-10 15:24)

Hebrews 10:26-27, "For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries."

Can a Christian lose salvation? No! It is God's salvation (Philippians 3:9).

> "For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries."
>
> —Hebrews 10:26
>
> **-
>
> 27

Admittedly, Hebrews 10:26 - 27 seems to teach losing one's salvation is possible at a glance, i.e., if we take just those two Scriptures by themselves. However, consider verse 29:

> Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

What genuine believer would consider the blood of Jesus an "unholy thing"? Clearly, to me, the context of these Scriptures is speaking about an unsaved person who treads under foot the precious blood of Jesus. Also, notice verse 26:

> "For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins."

The Bible speaks about "receiving the knowledge of the truth"; but this is not the same as receiving Jesus Christ as one's Savior. Rocker, Ozzy Osbourne, has the knowledge of the truth; but he spits on it and deliberately rejects it...

[1]http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/Basics/men _who _rejected _jesus _christ.htm

I think Hebrews 10:25 can best be interpreted by shedding the Light of 1st John 2:19 upon it:

> Hebrews 10:25, "
> They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

So, I think, clearly, these Scriptures are warning the unsaved, many whom attended church for a while, that their day of reckoning is coming. To evidence my teachings here as truth, please consider that these Scriptures MUST be reconciled with the rest of the Bible, with such Scriptures as:

> Ephesians 2:8 - 9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

Here we see the term "the gift of God." If living in sin could cause a person to lose their salvation, then where does the term "gift" become meaningful? It could not. By every definition the word

gift

” means that there are no strings attached; you simply take God’s gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life by trusting Jesus Christ:

> John 11:25, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live. ”

Salvation is a free gift (Romans 5:15, 17-18), which is obtained by simply receiving it...

> John 1:12, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.”

> John 3:16, “For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

There is nothing in John 3:16 about living a consecrated life to get to Heaven. I could go on and on with examples. I have written many articles on my “[2]F

[3]alse Doctrines

page exposing the ridiculous foolishness and self-righteous hypocrisy of the Lordship Salvation heresy.

The writer of Hebrews (which I think was the Apostle Paul) addresses Israel. The writer addresses his Jewish brethren, warning them to make sure of their salvation in chapter 10, as did Paul to the churchgoers at Corinth, which the following verse confirms:

> 2nd Corinthians 13:5, “Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobate.”

The Jews are God’s chosen people; but tragically, very few of them are God’s children, i.e., saved and on their way to Heaven. As believers WE SHOUD live for Christ; not MUST (that is works); not WILL (that would be Calvinism). Titus 2:12, “ Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; ” Do Christians always obey God’s Word? No, we sure don’t! That is because we are still trapped in the body of this death. That is why Paul said in Romans 7:24, “O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?” In the next verse Paul lifts himself up and proclaims: “ I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin” (Romans 7:25). So remember, WE SHOULD live a sanctified life for God, as we allow the indwelling Holy Spirit to live through us (Romans 8:9; Galatians 5:22-25).

Also, carefully consider the word “ adversaries

” (enemy) in Hebrews 10:27. Again, the context of this Scripture passage is speaking about the unsaved—those who tread under foot the blood of Jesus. The plainest teachings in the Bible proclaim that eternal life is a

(Romans 5:15; 6:23), which cannot be merited in any way (Romans 10:3-4). Salvation is obtained only by the IMPUTED righteousness of Jesus Christ, i.e., we need HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS to enter into God’s Kingdom:

> Romans 4:5, 22-25, “ But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him [Jesus] that justifieth the ungodly [you and me] , his faith is counted for righteousness... And therefore it was imputed to him [Abraham] for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. ”

Conclusion

There is absolutely nothing in the Bible which teaches that a Christian can ever lose salvation. Eternal life is a free gift, which Jesus paid for, and is ours to keep simply by believing on Christ with a childlike faith. A person who claims that they “ used to believe

on Christ, but no longer does, is a liar. That’s the same lie as someone who says, “I used to love you.”

No you didn’t! Love never fails. The world’s synthetic type of love may fail, but God’s love never fails. One who genuinely believes on Jesus, as the Christ, will never stop believing on Christ. Oh sure, they may go through a time of depression like John the Baptist did (John had heard a rumor that Jesus wasn’t the Christ, which made him doubt, Luke 7:17), or curse the name of Jesus like Peter, but their salvation will never be in jeopardy and cannot be lost. How can we lose by bad works what we didn’t earn by good works? It is impossible.

Please don’t misunderstand, I am not promoting Calvinism. [4]I adamantly believe that all five tenets of Calvinism are of the Devil. Calvinism is another gospel. In fact, Lordship Salvation is nothing more than Calvinism repackaged. I believe what Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) believed —in the perseverance of the Holy Spirit, not the perseverance of the saints. Calvinism teaches that if a person is saved, they WILL persevere in works, holiness and growth in grace until the race is finished. Professed believers who indulge in adultery and other horrible sins are accused of never having repented of their sins, and assumed lost. This Calvinist heresy of “The Perseverance Of The Saints” is absolute junk theology!

What saith the Scripture? Acts 13:39, “And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.” Romans 5:20,

“Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:”

The spiritual birth is as irreversible as the physical birth. You don’t just get “ unborn.

People may turn away from the philosophy of Christ, or from religion or church membership, or even from living for God; but a truly born-again individual cannot lose the gift of God, which was given to them by faith alone, thus counting their faith for righteousness (Romans 4:5). Christ’s righteousness was imputed to their record in Heaven the moment they were saved (2nd Corinthians 5:21), so that they don’t need any self-righteousness to get into Heaven. No amount of personal sin can undo the righteousness of Jesus Christ which is imputed to every believer by faith at the time of salvation.

Does this give us a “ license to sin

? Yes,

in a sense, because we are saved permanently;

but it doesn’t give us God’s permission to sin

> Romans 3:31, “Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.”

Every believer will be judged at the Judgment Seat of Christ for the good and bad done in the flesh (Romans 14:12; 2nd Corinthians 5:10). But a consecrated life of holy living has absolutely nothing to do with the gift of eternal life which is by faith alone in Christ Jesus. Salvation is by faith only; but service is by faith plus works. That is what James is teaching in James chapter 2, faith without works is dead.

James is speaking about Christian service to the Lord. In Romans, the Apostle Paul is speaking about salvation, and makes it very clear that we are saved “ without works

” (Romans 4:5-6). This is salvation, by faith alone.

1.7.11 NIV: The Antichrist's Bible! (2020-11-13 09:30)

Psalms 12:6-7, " The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.” Psalms 119:140, “Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.”

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “ For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. ”

The following needful excerpts are taken from Pastor Al Lacy’s (1933-2016) excellent book called, “

[1]NIV: The Antichrist’s Bible

” (hard [2]copies are available)

The NIV’s Attack on Jesus Christ

I have a New International Version bible. It is a paperback because I did not want to pay any more than I had to. I am going to show you what the NIV says compared to the King James Bible. You are going to see that the NIV is Antichrist’s bible. A lot of people are shocked to find this out because some of their favorite televangelists and radio ministers use the NIV.

Take your Bible now and turn to I John 2:18.

Under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, John writes:

> Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

Now, check your dictionaries. The prefix anti means “against.” So, we could say that there are many antichrists in the fact that there are so many people against Jesus Christ. If John thought there were a NIV Antichrist Bible.

NIV The Antichrist’s Bible
large number in his day, he should see the world today. There are many antichrists, people against Christ; but there is one man that we read of up there first, ...as ye have heard that antichrist shall come. One man is going to control this world during the Tribulation period. He is going to slaughter people who get saved through the King James Bible. He is going to kill them because they will not take the mark of the beast. He is a murderer. Antichrist shall come.

I personally believe that Antichrist is already an adult.

He is already on this earth. He is already in political power in some country. God has him clouded so that we cannot know who he is. II Thessalonians 2 tells us that nobody will know who the Antichrist is until you and I are raptured out of here. Then, if you want to know who it is, you are going to have to look back over your shoulder while you are going up in the clouds. Antichrist shall come soon. I am just as sure that we are very close to the coming of our precious Lord Jesus Christ.

Look in I John 4:3,

> And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist,...

Antichrist is against Christ. His NIV bible is against Christ.
NIV Antichrist Bible. The NIV's Attack on Jesus Christ

> ...whereof ye have heard that it should come; (that is the spirit of antichrist) and even now already is it in the world.

The spirit was in the world in John's day. I am going to show you how closely related the spirit of Antichrist is to Satan.

The spirit of Antichrist, as you can see, was already there in John's day.

In the book of Daniel, Antichrist is called the ten horned beast and he is called the king. In II Thessalonians, he is called the man of sin. In Revelation, many times Antichrist is called the beast.

> II Thessalonians 2:3,4: Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day...

> (speaks of the day of Christ in the verses ahead of that. That is when He comes back and all these things happen.) ...for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin... (who is that? Antichrist) …be revealed, the son of perdition;

Do not forget that Antichrist is called the son of perdition. The next verse goes on to say,

> Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

These are Devil's Bibles in the churches today. If you are using anything other than an inspired King James Bible, you are using the Devil's bible!

1.7.12 Faith Alone = Salvation; Faith + Works = Service (2020-11-16 09:30)

James 2:10-14, "

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? "

James 1:25,

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

Carefully notice in James 2:14 the words "my brethren." The Apostle James is speaking to born-again believers here. "The perfect law of liberty" is the inspired Word of God according to James 1:25. In this life we want the blessings of God, and in Heaven we want the rewards. Salvation is simply accepting God's gift of eternal life. But we're not there yet, and it's not over, so we have to serve Him faithfully until we get there, if we want God's blessings in this life and to receive rewards in Heaven. This has nothing to do with salvation, which is the gift of eternal life. It is so important dear reader that you understand the following truths from the Bible:

FAITH ALONE = SALVATION (ROMANS 4)

FAITH + WORKS = SERVICE (JAMES 2)

Romans chapter 4 is about salvation. James chapter 2 is about service. God doesn't make us serve Him. He may make you wish you had. You may be sick in prison or even die prematurely because of sin. As a child of God we cannot live as we please and get away with it. God is not an absent parent. Hebrews 12:6, " For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth." Unfaithfulness always costs. A lack of discipline in your life is always paying a price. It's costing you from something that you could have been rewarded for, but you'll lose out in eternity! James chapter 2 speaks of rewards that are earned by works. Romans chapter 4 speaks of salvation that is obtained solely by faith.

There's a God in Heaven Who sees everything, and you're not getting away with anything (Proverbs 24:12; Matthew 12:36). The way we live is seen by others (Matthew 5:16). Romans 4 speaks of God's righteousness received as a gift. James 2 speaks of rewards earned by works. Our attitude determines our altitude as a Christian in life. Your whole life revolves around profit and loss as a believer. Your faith cannot save you from loss of rewards at the Judgment Seat of Christ, but your faith alone can save you from Hell. Oh how most believers will suffer great loss in eternity for a wasted life on earth (1st Corinthians 3:11-15). As believers we are not settlers here on earth, we are pilgrims passing through.

Matthew 4:19, " And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. "

If you are not fishing for men, you are not following Christ! God is going to reward you for your faithfulness to Him. You alone decide how faithful you are going to be to Him, and He will reward you accordingly (1st Corinthians 3:5-9). Remember that you are saved by God's grace, and not by works. We are saved by what Jesus did through the cross to pay for our sins. PAID IN FULL! We don't serve Him to go to Heaven, we go to Heaven solely on the merit of WHAT JESUS DID to pay for our sins with His precious blood!

In James 2, the apostle speaks about Abraham being justified in the eyes of men by works, when he offered up his only son Isaac, whom God promised would be the heir of a great nation. Abraham believed if he obeyed God by killing Isaac, that God could and would raise him up from the dead, because God had made a solemn promise to Abraham concerning Isaac, that he would be heir of a great nation someday (Israel). We're not talking about salvation in James 2, we're talking about service. This is what Jesus meant in Mark 8:35, " For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

" Everyone has assets and liabilities

. We all have something to offer God. We all have things about us that is no good. The more that you get to know people, the more you'll realize they're not so great after all. People may seem like angels at first, but there's about 9 inches between a halo and a noose!

James 2 is speaking to believers about what we say and do, now that we are saved. We are all going to be judge someday by God for everything that we have said and done in the body (2nd Corinthians 5:10-11; Romans 14:10-12). Most of these notes in my article were taken from a beautiful sermon, by one of my favorite preachers Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold, called: " [1]Faith Without Works .

" Just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works dead. A man is justified by his works for service, but by faith for salvation.

1.7.13 Jesus Paid It All (2020-11-19 09:30)

1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."

I went walking along the ocean one morning at 5:30, and saw a window sticker on the pickup truck in front of me, that read, "JESUS PAID IT ALL!" What a beautiful thought—JESUS PAID IT ALL!

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must "turn away from sinful ways" as a requirement to receive the free gift of God, which is forgiveness of sins and eternal life.

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must be sorry for their sins and turn over a new leaf to receive the free gift of God.

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must receive Jesus as their "LORD" to receive the free gift of God.

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must commit their life to live for Jesus Christ to receive the free gift of God.

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must follow Jesus as His disciple to receive the free gift of God.

This one statement—JESUS PAID IT ALL—condemns the false teaching that a person must publicly confess the name of Jesus to receive the free gift of God.

To all you reprobate preachers I say—JESUS PAID IT ALL! To Pastor John MacArthur and his Calvinist doctrine of Lordship Salvation I say—JESUS PAID IT ALL! To Evangelist Ray Comfort and his heresy that a person must turn from sinful living to be saved I say—JESUS PAID IT ALL! To Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and their Lordship Salvation heresy I say—JESUS PAID IT ALL!

The price for sin has been paid. Thus, forgiveness of sins is a "free gift" (Romans 5:15b) that you simply receive by faith in the Gospel. Eternal life is a free gift, that you simply receive by faith in the Gospel. JESUS PAID IT ALL! JESUS PAID IT ALL! JESUS PAID IT ALL!

Salvation is the free gift of God. You don't earn it. You don't merit it. You simply receive it by faith, by believing 'THE GOSPEL' ('THE GOOD NEWS') of Jesus Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection the third day.

> “But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies...” —2nd Peter 2:1

1.7.14 Sin Is Crime Against God, Which Must Be Paid For! (2020-11-22 09:30)

Romans 6:23,

“

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

One of my faithful web visitors authored the following thoughts about repentance:

> “Why Repentance of Sins Will Not Save You”
>
> People today don’t seem to understand why repenting of sins will not save them, and why it is not a part of anything that will eternally save them.
>
> It is good that you’re sorry for doing wrong, for sinning.
>
> It is good that you stop sinning in one area.
>
> But stopping sinning and being sorry that you sin could be compared to a criminal before a judge.
>
> The fact that you’re sorry for doing your crime and the fact you stop doing your crime will not stop you from being punished for the crime you’ve already done.
>
> Only believing in the shed blood and death for sins of Jesus, that He died for your sins and rose again, will save you from eternal punishment for sin.
>
> This is also why “committing your life to Christ” will not save you.
>
> The man who commits himself to doing good things does not pay for his crime.
>
> No good work such as water baptism, confession of sin, confession of faith, church membership, Lord’s Supper, discipleship, love, charity, or anything else, have anything to do with salvation from Hell.
>
> Our good works are tainted by sin and selfishness and disconnection from God, pride and ego.
>
> Salvation is entirely and only accomplished by Jesus.
>
> His righteous life, His death on the cross for our sins, and His resurrection.
>
> Believing in or adding anything to Jesus destroys the Gospel of God’s free grace.
>
> Jesus forgives my sins and Jesus is my righteousness.
>
> In Him, I have new life, a new self, indwelled by God’s Spirit.
> Hallelujah.

Bravo my Brother in Christ! I fully agree. Many religious people today are foolishly trying to merit their way to Heaven—by doing many wonderful works, supporting their local church, living the Christian life, and preaching superficially about Jesus. However, the issue is that we are ALL guilty criminals in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20). Sin must be paid for! Your goodness, no matter how honorable and mentionable, cannot compensate for the crimes against God you've already committed.

When you sin against a fellow human being, you have also sinned against God. A person may forgive you for doing them wrong, but now you must also make things right with God! That is why the Ten Commandments can be divided in half. The first five deal with man's relationship to God; the last five deal with man's relationship to man. There is man's system of justice, and then there is God's system of justice. You can be sentenced to life in prison by man's justice system, yet be freely justified from all things in God's justice system by faith in the blood of Jesus (Acts 13:39; 1st Peter 1:18-19). So it is one thing to be right with man, and another thing entirely to be right with God.

Sin is crime in God's eyes. All humanity are guilty sinners (Romans 3:23)! The $64,000 question is: Have you received Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your crimes?

1.7.15 I Made Bob Jones University Change 'Statement Of Faith' (2020-11-23 21:37)

Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

Bob Jones University (BJU) define religious hypocrisy. I say that in love (Ephesians 4:15). Please read the following hypocritical BJU Statement of Faith from 2017 regarding the Bible:

> "Although Bob Jones University does not hold to a King James Only position, we continue to hold the widely-used King James Version (KJV) as the campus standard in the classroom and in the chapel pulpit. The position of the University on the translation issue has not changed since the founding of the school in 1927.
> We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts, and we believe that God has supernaturally preserved every one of His inspired words for us today. However, from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language." [emphasis added]

What a blatant contradiction! BJU are claiming that God has kept His solemn promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to supernaturally PRESERVE "EVERY ONE" OF HIS INSPIRED WORDS FOREVER. And I fully agree with that statement—that God has preserved "EVERY ONE" of His inspired Words for today. But BJU horribly and utterly contradict themselves when they bid Godspeed to having MULTIPLE Bible versions! In fact, BJU uses, sells, sanctions and promotes multiple different Bible revisions, which contradict each other in thousands of places. Take a look at how corrupt the [2]English Standard Version (ESV) is that BJU relentlessly uses, sells and promotes. How can we have "EVERY ONE" of God's preserved inspired Words today, if we have multiple Bible versions in any particular language?

For this obvious reason, [3]I caused Bob Jones University to change their Statement of Faith on the Bible, which in 2020 now instead reads:

> "Bob Jones University holds to the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts and that God has supernaturally preserved His inspired words in the totality of extant manuscript evidence.
>
> The position of the University on biblical translations has not changed since the founding of the school in 1927. Although Bob Jones University does not hold to a King James Only position, and from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language, we continue to use the King James Version (KJV) as the campus standard in the undergraduate classroom and chapel pulpit. " [emphasis added]

[5]

Do you see what BJU changed? They remove the phrase "EVERY ONE." Gotcha! By changing their Statement of Faith, BJU clearly evidences that THEY KNOW they're in error on the Holy Bible. How can we have "

EVERY ONE

of God's inspired Words preserved for us today, unless we have an EVERY WORD Bible? BJU just told on themselves!

What saith the Scripture? Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Do you see how hypocritical BJU are to deny that we have EVERY WORD of God today? They had to change their story, because saying that we have "EVERY WORD" inspired by God today means that we can only have ONE BIBLE!!! Since BJU sells, uses and supports multiple Bible versions, they had to correct an obvious problem in their Statement of Faith, which revealed their utter hypocrisy. I am not trying to be cute or mean, I am obeying God to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

(Jude 1:3).

In case I wasn't clear enough, here is a comparison of BJU's doctrinal position on the Bible between 2017 and now in 2020. Please notice that they have removed the phrase

"EVERY ONE" from their Statement of Faith:

2017 BJU Statement of Faith...

> We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts, and we believe that God has supernaturally preserved every one of His inspired words for us today. However, from the founder to the present administration, we have never taken the position that there can be only one good translation in the English language." [emphasis added]

2020 BJU Statement of Faith...

> "Bob Jones University holds to the verbal, plenary inspiration of the Bible in the original manuscripts and that God has supernaturally preserved His inspired words in the totality of extant manuscript evidence.
>
> [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [7]BJU Position Statements

They deceitfully removed the phrase "EVERY ONE." Why did BJU remove those words from their Statement of Faith? The reason is obvious—because they are in error. The reason is because BJU in fact do not believe that we have EVERY WORD inspired by God today. It is gross theological incompetence and hypocrisy to claim that we have " of God's preserved inspired Words today, while supporting umpteen different English Bible revisions (which all disagree with each other in thousands of places). That is why BJU changed their Statement of Faith (which I am humbly glad to say I made them change through my unapologetic Bible preaching, to God alone be the praise and glory).

Every police detective knows that if someone is lying, all you have to do to expose them is to keep asking questions. If someone is lying, at some point they will have to CHANGE THEIR STORY. But if someone is telling THE TRUTH, you can ask them questions for months and their story will NEVER CHANGE. BJU changed their story on the Bible, to cover their theological lies! My preaching has never changed. Why has BJU's Statement of Faith changed? It is because they had to change their story to cover-up their theological lies about the Bible.

BJU deceitfully claims that their position on the Bible has never changed since 1927, which is horribly untrue. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) only used the inspired King James Bible!!! That is all he faithfully preached from—the inspired King James Bible. I dare you to show me otherwise! Good luck trying! BJU has sat sinfully idle, going along with the apostate Devil's crowd who [8]keep changing the Holy Bible. There is no honor in going along with those who corrupt the Holy Bible. In other words, by not changing BJU has changed.

For example: If you are close friends with someone, but then one day they start committing a crime (let's say using and selling illegal drugs), you have to make a decision to either dissociate with them, or become complicit to their evil deeds. When the police come to arrest your friend for selling drugs, and you are sitting in their living room surrounded by piles of illegal drugs, you won't be able to say that you've never changed from being an honest person. You will be arrested as an accomplice! That may be a crude illustration, but it makes a good valid point. I think it is a good illustration. 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." A true Bible Fundamentalist has to continually change, by separating from those who change! So, by not separating from the deteriorating religious scene in America, [9]BJU has changed big time!

1.7.16 Why Does God Punish The Wicked Forever? (2020-11-29 09:30)

2nd Thessalonians 1:7-10, "And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day."

This passage of Scripture teaches that the punishment for not obeying the Gospel is "everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord." In our human thinking, we associate a particular crime with a certain predetermined punishment, decided by legislators. Likewise, God has already predetermined that the punishment for rejecting God's free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Christ, is eternal damnation. That is the penalty!

I used to wonder why even after one trillion years of burning in Hell, shouldn't Hitler and other evil madmen of history be given some relief and cessation of punishment? But that is according to our human understanding of justice. The Lord's ways and thoughts are above man's ways and thoughts. God has decided that the just penalty for rejecting His only begotten Son as Savior, is to be punished in the Lake of Fire forever, absent from the Lord's presence. I feel that is unfair. I think the punishment is too great.

I humbly protest against such a cruel God! Yet, I am told in Isaiah 55:8-9 that God thinks higher than I do. God is more righteous and holier than any human being could ever comprehend. So despite my respectful protest, I choose to trust my God's judgment and wisdom, knowing that God is faithful. 1st Corinthians 1:9, "God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 2:13, "If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." If we refuse to receive God's free gift of eternal life, by faith alone in His only begotten Son, then we have no one to blame except our self for going to Hell.

The magnitude of eternal damnation as punishment, is only fitting for the magnitude of such an injurious insult to God, as to wilfully reject His sacrificed only begotten Son on the cross for one's crimes against God and humanity.

1.8.1 Godly Men Fail If They Lose Sight Of Bible Infallibility (2020-12-01 09:30)

Psalms 12:1-2, "Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth;for the faithful fail from among the children of men. They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak."

I noticed an amazing correlation today in the Scripture from Psalms chapter 12. It is sad but true, that the world's pulpits have filled up with apostates instead of genuine men of God. The word "faithful" here means: "to go to the right hand," that is, to take the right path. The Bible says that faithful men are failing (disappearing). Verse 2 tells us that these unfaithful men have become LIARS, speaking vanity with his neighbour ! The Amazing correlation which I spoke of, is the connection between what I just said in Psalms 12:1-2 and the Lord's solemn promise to preserve His "PURE WORDS" unto every generation and forever. Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever."

Hence, the Bible says that faithful men are failing (disappearing). Verse 2 tells us that these unfaithful men have become LIARS, speaking vanity (e.g., junk theology and false Bible revisions) with his neighbour (e.g., church congregation)! Lordship Salvation is junk theology! What is Lordship Salvation? It is the decidedly unbiblical mindset that in order to get to Heaven, faith in Jesus Christ is not enough; but in ADDITION, they say you must make a full surrender to Jesus as Lord, forsake the world, turn away from a lifestyle of sin, commit your life to Him, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost. Some say you must also confess the name of Jesus before men to be saved. Whew, men sure do complicate and make salvation hard, don't they! There are many variations of this damnable heresy, but anything other than simple childlike faith in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ is '[1]ANOTHER GOSPEL' (a tract by Pastor Harry A. Ironside).

It's becoming very hard in the 21st century to find a godly man, who genuinely cares about the inspiration and accuracy of the Word of God. The ministry is not a mere profession, but a divine calling; yet most pastors today sinfully approach the pastorate merely as an occupation. The world is dying for faithful men of God to accurately and uncompromisingly preach THE TRUTH! I find it more than a mere coincidence, that in the same Bible passage which speaks of a famine of godly men, who have all turned to the left instead of the right, that we would also read about God's promise to preserve His "PURE WORDS" unto every generation.

The implication is clear dear reader—there is a direct correlation between godly men and the pure Words of God! When churches and their pastors start embracing false Bibles, false prophets and false Gospels, speaking lies in vanity instead of THE TRUTH, the godly man has disappeared. In my humble opinion, there are [2]no godly men in charge of the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, where I was abused! They excommunicated me for doing what a true friend does—I told them THE TRUTH. The Apostle Paul did the same thing, telling THE TRUTH to the corrupted churches of Galatia, for which they counted Paul their "enemy" (Galatians 4:16).

These wicked men sanction and help spread Satan's corruptible seed, pulling on the same rope as the Devil, which is what Evangelist Billy Sunday said a century ago! Help Lord, for the godly man ceaseth!

I tell you truthfully with all confidence, that if you don't have a KING JAMES BIBLE in the English-speaking language, you don't have a Holy Bible!!! Well what about other languages? If you don't speak other languages, what do you care? I speak English, and I have God's holy, perfect, preserved, infallible, inerrant, reliable, accurate, and verbally-inspired "very pure" (Psalm 119:140b). Words in front of me in the blessed KING JAMES BIBLE!!! I am sick and tired of internet trolls, who need to go get a life, arguing about every little thing they can find to attack the King James Bible. Hey, I'm going to spend my time preaching the Gospel of the King James Bible, while you waste your time and confuse people with your woeful ignorance! I say that kindly, because I love you with God's love!

There is a whole new corrupt mindset that is being introduced into the world's churches via the Devil's so-called hundreds of "new" and "improved" Bible revisions. Here is an excellent documentary exposing the "[3]New World Order Bible Versions!" (1:46 hour video). The biggest heresy that I see in the modern PERversions is the removal of the deity of Christ, and the addition of Lordship Salvation. Literally, they've [4]REMOVED key passages teaching the Trinity, and they've [5]ADDED new passages about turning from sins to be saved. Shockingly, corrupt institutions like Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Liberty University, and hundreds of other religious colleges in the United States sanction, use and sell these Satanic Bible revisions! It just evidences the incredibly subtle and effective power of Satan to infiltrate, steal, kill and destroy all that which is good (John 10:10; Revelation 12:9).

The Devil is a beautiful liar! Lucifer is no fool, he knows exactly how to deceive gullible humans. The serpent knew how to deceive Eve in the Garden of Eden, which caused her to destroy her own life, and that of her entire family. The serpent was so bold, that he even tried to destroy Jesus in Matthew 4:1-10, but the Lord quoted the Holy Scriptures to defeat him. If Jesus needed to wield the Sword of the Word of God to fight the Devil off, then so do we, which is our only defense. For that reason, it should be obvious to you dear reader why Satan would want to corrupt the Bible, to deprive men of their only effective defense against sin, self and Satan.

Here below is one of thousands of shocking examples of Satanic corruption, that I could show you in the modern Bible revisions. For exposing these Satanic deceptions, I was [6]wrongfully driven out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, and have been banned in writing from returning, by their ungodly pastors. This is a comparison between the accurate King James Bible (KJB), and the corrupt Common English Bible (CEB)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."
>
> COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) - Acts 20:21, "You know I have testified to both Jews and Greeks that they must change their hearts and lives as they turn to God and have faith in our Lord Jesus."

The translators of the CEB are bold-faced, demonic, LIARS!!! Where are we told in the Word of God that we MUST CHANGE OUR HEART AND LIFE AS WE TURN TO GOD, to be saved? In sharp contrast, the inspired King James Bible says to repent toward God, not change our life AS we turn toward God. What frauds! What con artists! What devils!!!

Dear friend, what will it take to remove the blinders from apostate religious leaders today, who support the Satanic fraud of the modern Bible versions? I am so wearied in my frustrated soul with Baptist Bible colleges and church pastors today, who couldn't care less and are indifferent toward the Satanic deception of the Alexandrian Bible revisions. THEY ARE ALL CORRUPT, the Bibles and the pastors and the churches and the Bible colleges!!! Satan has successfully deceived all of them with intellectualism, formalism and ecumenicalism!

So there you have it! To the same degree that the inspired Word of God is being tampered with and corrupted by intellectual devils, the godly men of the past have disappeared! The world's churches in 2020 are rife with apostasy—Hillsong churches worldwide (1,100 and counting), Elevation Church in North Carolina, Rick Warren's Saddleback Church in California, Joel Osteen's Lakewood Church in Texas—all counterfeit churches of the Devil! Take a look at [7]Hillsong's website and you'll quickly notice that there is no Gospel message taught! New Testament church? I think not.

False teachers lead people to live the Christian life without ever being born-again! Those are Satan's ministers (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). In this theologically depraved generation, young people are as waves of the sea being tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine, lost in the raging storm of life! Friend, Jesus is the lighthouse, and you MUST BE BORN AGAIN TO ENTER INTO GOD'S KINGDOM! (John 3:3-7). [8]Here is how you can have GOD'S FREE GIFT right here and right now, for free!

1.8.2 7 Reasons Why There Cannot Be More Than One Bible (2020-12-06 09:30)

Psalms 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." Psalms 119:139-142, "My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it. I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth."

Sadly, over 95 % of professing Christians today deny that we have a perfect, infallible and inspired Holy Bible today. The common consensus (e.g., [1]Bob Jones University's official position) is that God has imperfectly preserved His Words in the total extant of existing manuscript evidence. Only a complete fool believes such nonsense for several reasons:

1. God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to "keep" and "preserve" His PURE WORDS from that generation forever. [2]Look in any modern Bible revision and you'll find that the ungodly translators have deceitfully removed God's promise from verse 7, changing it to protect the saints instead of preserve His PURE WORDS. Satan is a beautiful liar!

2. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). Having more than one Bible is confusing, let along hundreds of existing English Bible versions.

3. The plethora of existing English Bible revisions all say something different. By law, the [3]U.S. Copyright Office says to receive a copyright, a new work must contain substantial and significant changes. This legal requirement forces translators of new Bible revisions to make substantial changes, whether they are needed or scholarly. Such intentional tampering with God's Word is evil beyond comprehension or description!

4. The modern Bible revisions all attack the deity of Jesus Christ! It baffles my mind how Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Liberty University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and thousands of religious institutions and churches today, embrace the Devil's Bible revisions, which brutally assault Jesus' deity. Every mention of [4]people "worshipping" Jesus has been changed to a mere "knelt" or "bowed." Every mention of Jesus being the only "begotten" Son of God has been removed. The entire latter part of 1st John 5:7 has been removed. [5]Acts 8:37 has been removed. It blows my mind that Christian who profess to love Jesus Christ, tolerate and accept this blatant attack against our blessed God and Savior! Only the inspired and infallible King James Bible honors and uplifts our blessed God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

5. Matthew 4:4 commands man to live by "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. If I am to live by every Word from God's mouth, that means I need an EVERY WORD Bible translation. Clearly, these modern Bible revisions which [6]remove entire portions of Scripture are NOT God's Word! Who would remove all the verses uplifting Jesus' deity? [7]Go look at what the modern versions do to corrupt Philippians 2:6, saying the opposite of what the King James Bible says. The King James Bible says Jesus: "thought it not robbery to be equal with God"; but the demonic English Standard Version (ESV), which Bob Jones University loves so much, perverts the Scripture to say Jesus: "did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped." God's curse is upon BJU!

6. By introducing a second authority, a third authority is necessary to determine which of the first two are correct. This is what the serpent did to Eve. God had already commanded Eve what to do (Genesis 2:16-17). But then the serpent came along and said something different, literally changing God's Word to say the exact opposite of what He had said (Genesis 3:1). God told Adam and Eve they could freely eat of all the trees, except one. The serpent misquoted God as saying that they couldn't eat of all the trees! Satan is a subtle liar! I don't agree with all of the teachings of Pastor Peter S. Ruckman, but he does an excellent job defending the King James Bible and exposing Bob Jones University and the Devil's bibles, in this series of articles called: '[8]The Alexandrian Cult Series.' Dr. Ruckman teaches about these three authorities. I learned it from him. That third authority is manmade scholarship! By contradicting God's Word, the serpent had introduced a second authority, which put Eve in the position of being a third authority (requiring her to choose between the first two authorities). That is what happened in the year 1881. When Westcott and Hort introduced a new Greek text, the world had to choose between it and the Textus Receptus from which our King James Bible was translated. So by having [9]TWO ancient Bible texts to choose from, we are at the mercy of college INTELLECTUALS. Get thee behind me Satan! I'll stick with the King James Bible that mama read to me!!!

7. God would not give us multiple Bibles to choose from, which would weaken and diminish the authority of God's Word. If I were to accurately write down directions to drive from location A to location B, you would understand those directions. But if I gave you multiple written directions, which contradicted each other, you would be confused and frustrated. You would lose confidence in my ability to give directions! Yes you would! What if I gave you a dozen sets of written instructions? You'd think I'd lost my mind! Yet, this is exactly the spiritual condition of our churches today. Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

I have given you seven godly reasons why we simply cannot have multiple Bible's today. Most Christians believe that God can do anything, except give us a perfect Bible! Not me buddy. I KNOW that I have God's pure, preserved, infallible, perfect and inspired Words in the beautiful King James Bible!!!!!!!

1.8.3 Revenging All Disobedience (2020-12-09 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 10:3-6, " For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled."

I think about this helpful text passage of Scripture often. Verse 5 teaches us how to live right, by bringing our thought into subjection to the inspired Word of God. This obviously means you must have some desire to live right for God. If a sinful thought enters into my mind (e.g., hate, lust or bitterness), I am commanded by God to immediately seize that thought, casting down every imagination that exalts itself against the Word of God. The Bible is always right folks! I have only been around on earth since 1967, but God has always been here! God has always existed, and always will. Who am I to go against a holy, omnipotent, omniscient, omnisapient, omnipresent and omnibenevolent God? Not me buddy! I am going to trust Him in all my ways. Proverbs 3:5-7, "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

Since we are flawed human beings, possessing an inherent sin nature passed down to each of us from Adam (Romans 5:12), we are not always going to obey God. As Christians, we are said to LIVE in the Spirit (Galatians 5:25a), that is to say, the Holy Spirit lives (indwells) inside all of us as God's children (Romans 8:9). The Apostle Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 11:3 that though we have to live in our human body (being in the flesh), yet Paul reminds us that our weapons are not carnal after the flesh, but MIGHTY THROUGH GOD. I love that! Humbly to me, this Bible passage from 2nd Corinthians 10:3-6 simply means two main things:

1. As God's children, we are commanded by our heavenly Father to cast down any and all thoughts that are in conflict with the inspired King James Bible.
2. When we fail, and we will sometimes, we must take revenge against all disobedience.

Expressed another way, I am to force my thinking to be aligned with God's thinking in His Word. I choose to be as narrow-minded as the King James Bible. I truly feel sorry for the person who has multiple Bible versions, all contradicting each other. I actually heard Pastor Marty Herron, saying to his church congregation in 2014 (at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) that he was surfing though different versions of the Bible online to prepare his sermon. Folks, that's like searching through a junk yard to find the best parts to piece your new car (or in Marty's case a sermonette) together. Please use only one Bible friend.
