A pastor friend of mine recently said something that I really liked. He said that when a Bible gets corrupted, it's like a stream of water, and everything downstream also gets polluted. I think that is a great illustration! So if the Devil can corrupt the inspired and infallible Holy Bible, then he can corrupt the Bible colleges, corrupt the pastors coming our of those institutions, corrupt the church they pastor, corrupt the congregations, corrupt the families, and corrupt the next generation (who are today's impressionable children and youth). Right doctrine matters; therefore, having the right Bible matters!

The average Christian would blow a gasket when presented the notion that there could be two different Jesuses. That would be preposterous. Yet, why do tens of millions of professed Christians worldwide accept the notion that God has written 39 different Bible versions? Actually, as hard as this may be to grasp for some readers, according to the American Bible Society there are approximately [1]900 English Bibles in whole or part. Whoa! And if that's not bad enough, ChristianityToday published an article titled: " [2]We Really Do Need Another Bible Translation

" Uh, no we don't! There is nothing wrong with the King James Bible.

I am so glad that God put Genesis chapter 3 in the Bible. In this passage we find the first Devil's Bible revision in Genesis 3:1. The subtle serpent uttered three words to Eve: "

HATH GOD SAID?

In so doing, a SECOND AUTHORITY was raised up. God had commanded Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16-17 that they could freely eat of all the trees, except one (Genesis 2:16-17). But in Genesis 3:1-5 the serpent changed it all around and told Eve that God said they couldn't eat of any of the trees. Satan turned the truth into lie, in such a subtle way that Eve didn't even notice what had been changed, and she bought into the deception!

We are living in perilous times in the world (2nd Timothy 3:1-7), and it will get much worse I assure you. How do I know that? Simply because the Bible prophecies that in the Last Days, things will return to the level of wickedness that preceded the flood of Noah's time (Matthew 24:37-39). Even so, come, Lord Jesus! I am so tired of this sinful world. As redeemed saint, I have learned to revenge all disobedience to the Word of God (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). I don't want to drop the ball for God, anymore than I already have (and so have you dear friend - 1st John 1:10). But if I do fail, I am going to make a big deal out of it in my soul, and vow to myself never to make the same mistake, sin or failure again. That is what a Christian does! A person who doesn't learn from their sins, failures and mistakes is doomed to repeat them as a fool. Proverbs 26:11, " As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly."

Proverbs 24:16, " For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: b*ut the wicked shall fall into mischief*." I once looked up the Hebrew meaning of the words in this Bible verse. The word

"fall" in the latter part of the verse is a completely different word and meaning, than the word "falleth" at the beginning of the passage. The former simply means to stumble; but the latter means to walk in an unstable manner. In other words, a righteous man tries to live for God, but sometimes fails, so he gets back up, taking revenge against all disobedience in his soul, determined not to repeat those mistakes and sins. However, the ungodly person is spiritually unstable, desiring to commit sin, and they have no intention of getting back up to please God by obeying Him (Ecclesiastes 12:13-14).

1.8.4 Let’s Go Soulwinning! (2020-12-12 22:25)

Proverbs 11:30, “The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.” 1st Corinthians 9:16, “ For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!”

The following excellent writing is by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). Dr. Hyles was (in my humble opinion) the greatest soulwinning preacher, and personal soulwinner, of the 20th century! In the following booklet Pastor Hyles teaches every Christian how to be an effective soulwinner. ...

Let’s Go Soul Winning

Step-By-Step Lessons on How To Win A Soul To Christ

Here are simple step-by-step lessons in exactly how to lead a soul to Christ. They have been given in great soul-winning conferences all over America and have made many average Christians into amazingly effective soul winners. The lessons are re-produced here exactly as given in one of these conferences.

Dr. Jack Hyles, the author, has been the pastor of the First Baptist Church, Hammond, Indiana, since August, 1959. The church has a membership of well over 100,000 and averages over 8,000 baptisms per year. For many years the church has been acclaimed to have the "World's Largest Sunday School."

Since the printed publication of this book in 1962, First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana has seen tremendous growth under the leadership of Dr. Hyles. The church now averages well over 20,000 in attendance every Sunday. This church has seen more people saved than any church in the nation. Several Sundays they have seen over 3,000 walk the aisle accepting Jesus Christ as Saviour.

Dr. Hyles is the founder and chancellor of Hyles-Anderson College, dedicated to preparing local church pastors and workers. The College has over 500 graduates now pastoring churches all over the world, and more than 2,000 graduates serving God full time. His annual Pastor's School attracts several thousand preachers and Christian workers from all over the nation. His annual Youth Conference attracts over 7,000 teenagers from almost every state.

Dr. Hyles has authored over 40 books which have sold in excess of 14 million copies. He travels over 200,000 miles a year preaching in various conferences, and has preached over 50,000 sermons throughout his ministry.

LET'S GO SOUL WINNING

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations [Mark's version says, "...preach the gospel to every creature"], baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." -Matt. 28:19,20.

Notice the simplicity of the Great Commission. I'm satisfied that this is not all it teaches, but this is the basic teaching, as I see it, of the Great Commission. There are several verbs in this verse. The first one is, "Go." We are to go. That means to go where they are. It doesn't mean to put up a shingle in your office and say, "If anybody wants to get saved, inquire within." It means you are to look them up, track them down. You are to go where they are.

The second verb is, "Teach" (Mark says, "Preach"). Actually it means to win them. Go out and tell them how to be saved. The first thing you do is to go; then get them saved.

The next verb is, "Baptize."

And then, "...Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you."

Notice there are four basic verbs: (1) GO. (2) PREACH (or teach, get them saved). (3) BAPTIZE. (4) TEACH them again. You teach them something after you get them saved and baptized. What do you teach them? To "...observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you." It did not say to teach "whatsoever I have written you." But teach them "whatsoever I have COMMANDED you."

Now what did He command us to do? Go, preach, baptize, then teach them what He commanded us to do. So, we teach them to go and preach and baptize, that they may teach their converts to go, preach and baptize, that they may teach their converts to go and preach and baptize. If I understand the Great Commission properly, the first thing to teach somebody you win to Christ is how to win somebody else to Christ. Don't you think so? It says 'to teach them to do what I have told you to do, what I have commanded you to do.'

Here is what I think the Great Commission basically teaches. I come to this brother here on the front. First, I go. I go to your house; I go to your store, then I tell you how to get converted. I get you baptized. Then I must teach you how to go and get the next man converted and get him baptized, that he may teach another how to go and get still another converted and baptized, that he may go, etc.

Dr. Rice, you don't quit there. You teach him how to get this man converted and baptize him. It is a long circle when you get somebody converted. We have the idea that the Great Commission is wrapped up in going, preaching, and baptizing, and that that is all it says. No, it says you teach them how to go. You teach them how to get folks saved. You teach them how to get folks baptized. That is also a part of the Great Commission and the first command to us after we win a soul to Jesus Christ.

So, this is the Great Commission, this matter of what I'm doing today. I'm teaching you how to have pretty feet. The Bible says, "How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!" So, I'm a chiropodist, a foot specialist. I'm going to make you have pretty feet. A secret of success is good feet. An athlete will tell you the first things that will go bad are legs and feet. No matter how hard you can bat, how good you can catch and pitch, when your legs are gone, the athlete is gone.

The most important thing about an army is its feet. When I was in the service they had a foot inspection at midnight. We would be sound asleep and then... "Attention!!!" Here comes the Captain. We would stand up and look, and here was that big old boy coming down the hall. They would say, "Get on your foot lockers." We got on our foot lockers. Great big old feet sticking out, and they say, "O.K. Hold up your trousers." We held up our trousers while they examined our feet. Why? Because the most important thing about the army was the feet.

Now the first thing to get cold about you is your feet—physically or spiritually. I was in Phoenix in a conference. I got cold at night and I didn't know I was cold. I wasn't awake enough to know where I was cold, but I was awake enough to know I was cold somewhere. Invariably it is your feet that get cold, but you don't realize it. You start pulling the cover up around your shoulders while your feet are sticking out completely. Your feet get colder and you feel colder, but you don't know where you are cold. You pull the covers a little further. Finally, you are freezing to death. It is your feet that are cold but you don't know it.

And that is the first thing that will get cold spiritually. You start tithing and giving more money. But it is not your pocketbook that is cold; it is your feet. You promise God you will start coming to prayer meeting, but your feet get cold first. And a lot of Christians are as cold as a wedge and don't know where it started. It started with their feet.

The same is true about being dirty. How many of you men (now you ladies wouldn't dare do this, but we men do it quite a bit); you don't want to take a bath. You are not quite dirty enough to take a bath, but your feet are dirty, so you take your shoes off, put your big feet up in the lavatory and wash them. Why? Because the feet get dirty first.

The same is true with a Christian. When the feet get dirty—they are the first things that lead you toward backsliding. The first thing you leave off when you get away from God is not the Sunday School on Sunday morning; it is not the Sunday evening service. The first thing is visitation, calling, witnessing. If you can keep your feet warm, you will be warm all over. If you can keep your feet clean, you will be clean all over. If you can keep your feet right, you will be right all over. So, today we will discuss how to keep your feet pretty.

Soul winning is the basic secret of every other problem in the church. For example, here a church is having cold services. There is no warmth there. The Lord does not meet with them. Now how do you overcome it? Get to winning souls. If somebody walks down the aisle every Sunday and professes their faith in Christ, that will warm the service up a great deal.

Here is a church having trouble with its business. It doesn't have enough folks who know business. It is having trouble handling it legal affairs. It doesn't have enough wisdom. The Bible says, "He that winneth souls is wise." So God gives extra wisdom to those who win souls. I would rather have a soul-winning ignoramus run the business of my church than a group of big shots who won't come to prayer meeting on Wednesday night. In the First Baptist Church in Hammond our deacons and leaders are men not necessarily who are business wise, but men who are spiritual and soul winners because God gives them wisdom that no one else has.

The same is true about your finances. If you have trouble raising your money, just get some sinners converted. When Jesus wanted some money, what did He do? He caught a fish with money in its mouth. The same is true if you will get busy about soul winning. Now if you have a little trouble in the church, go soul winning.

Suppose Dr. Rice and I have a fuss. The best thing for us to do is to go soul winning together. If we can win somebody to Jesus together, we will make it all right. We will love each other again.

When I was in Texas a deacon there had a fuss with me. Of course I thought it was his fault. So, one night he came to visitation. We went visiting together. He said, "Preacher, that Bible study you brought last night was the most ridiculous thing I have ever heard."

I said, "J. B., if you had an ounce of sense, if God gave you a brain the size of a flea's brain, you would know I taught the truth last night."

Now, he said, "Preacher, if I didn't love you, I would quit coming to this church."

I said, "J. B., the truth is, I ought not to even go with you." Boy, we really had it.

About that time we came to the first house. A fellow came to the door in his bathrobe and house slippers. He had gone to bed. We got him converted, and J. B. got happy and we started rejoicing. The fellow woke his wife and she came and got converted. We walked out the door on the way home and J. B. looked at me and said, "Preacher, I've been thinking about that sermon at prayer meeting and that was one of the best sermons I have ever heard."

I said, "J. B., no, you're wrong. I was wrong last night and you were right." So we got in a fuss over who was right last night! I'm just saying, we got back together. Why? Because we were winning souls together.

Jesus said in John 15, "Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you." Sometimes folks ask me about predestination. Yes, I believe I was chosen before the foundation of the world—TO GET SOMEBODY SAVED. That is what it says. It says, "I have chosen you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: and that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you." Then it says, "These things I command you, that ye love one another." What? Going and bringing forth fruit. Why? That will make you love one another. So soul winning is the crux of it all.

I tell my preacher boys in my church, "If you go to a church where they are about to vote you out, kick you out, go out and win enough folks to carry the vote right quick." I was called to a church one time—in fact, the first full-time church I ever had. I carried the vote about 25 to 17. When I got there the first Sunday, a lot of my folks were gone. Usually the first Sunday at the church you present yourself for membership, but I didn't have enough folks there to vote me in and I was already pastor. So I didn't join. I went out winning souls and won eighteen or twenty the first few weeks, then I joined the church. I had enough then to vote me in. So it will take care of your problems.

This matter of soul winning is consuming to me. To me it is just the biggest thing. It consumes me with the bigness, and that anybody can do it. I wish I could tell you about some experiences of folks who do it.

I know a fellow in Texas who, when he got converted, couldn't even spell Jesus. The first year he won 169 to Jesus. He picked up a hitchhiker and tried to witness to him. The hitchhiker shook his head. He then talked real loud, but the hitchhiker pointed to his ears and shook his head. So this new convert started writing the Gospel out and the hitchhiker pointed down and shook his head. He couldn't read, he couldn't hear, he couldn't talk. So this soul winner, who went to the third grade and couldn't even spell Jesus, stopped the car and got out, took his Bible, pointed to the Bible, pointed to his heart, pointed to Heaven, made a motion to open your heart and let Him come in, got on his knees and began to pray. The deaf and dumb fellow got on his knees and mumbled a bit, got up with a smile of Heaven on his face, pointed to the Bible, pointed to Heaven and pointed to his heart.

I'm just saying, anybody can do it. This is a chance for you. As Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., says, God doesn't have many today. This is a chance for you. God is hard up and He will even use you.

1. HAVE A DEFINITE TIME TO GO.

This is one of the most important things in soul winning. If you are to be a soul winner, you have to do it on purpose. You must plan to do it. You must try to do it.

Let me encourage you a bit. I'm sure I speak for others; I know I speak for myself. There never is a day when I want to go soul winning. We're all made of the same clay and have the same weaknesses. Soul winning is a spiritual matter and the flesh will fight against it. In the summer it is too hot to go. Besides, folks are taking naps and it will make them mad if we wake them up. In a few months it is going to start snowing and we don't want to go out in the snow because we will catch cold talking through the door, and they would catch cold, too. There is never a good time to go.

Let me say this, though. I never want to quit once I start. In soul winning you have to have a self-starter. You have to start against the grain. You must start because you are supposed to start. I get tired of folks saying, "Dear Lord, give me a burden to win souls." While you wait on the burden, go out and win a few. The Lord didn't tell you to win souls if you have a burden; He said to win them anyway. If you don't want to, win them; if you feel like it, win them. If we went soul winning every time we felt like it, not a one of us would ever go, because Satan will try to keep us from it. He will keep you at your desk. You may become a great theologian studying things that are good to know, but the Devil will use them to substitute for soul winning.

So have a schedule. The trouble with most preachers—and I'm guilty of it myself—is that we don't live a disciplined life. Every preacher should have a schedule and try to live by it. Every preacher, every Christian should have a set time in the week or several times in the week when he does soul winning.

Personally, I try to go every Thursday afternoon, every Friday afternoon, and sometimes on Saturday. If I cannot go or do not go one of those times, I substitute another time. I suggest the layman should go when the church has visitation, if possible, and maybe one other time in the week. If you cannot go on visitation night, go another time, but set aside a time and say, "This is my time to win souls." If you do not, you will probably be a failure.

2. BE SOUL-CONSCIOUS.

What does it mean to be soul-conscious? Talk to anyone any time or, better still, talk to everyone every time. Realize that everybody has a soul. The drugstore clerk, the barber, the shoeshine boy, the beautician, the grocery clerk, the milkman, bread man, service station attendant needs the Lord and we should witness to them.

Nobody is going to do it every time. It never gets easy to ask, "Are you a Christian?" I practice it. In front of the mirror I say, "Are you a Christian? Are y-o-u a Christian? Have you ever been converted? Are you saved?" I get in the habit of it. I don't care who you are; I don't care where you are, it is never easy.

For example, you go to buy a medicine from the druggist. Well, you preachers are pretty nice-looking fellows—you could be mistaken for lawyers. You say, "Hello. How are you today?" The druggist thinks, "Isn't that a fine fellow." You know that if you ask, "Are you a Christian?" his opinion of you will change and he will think you are a nut, and nobody wants to be a nut. So you just don't say anything.

Now you had better get in the habit of asking, "Are you a Christian?" You will win more if you just start witnessing everywhere you go. You will win as many on the side as you do on purpose, and you will have the most wonderful experiences. If you preachers would start winning souls everywhere you go, you wouldn't have to get a book of illustrations to preach from next Sunday. Instead of saying, "In a distant city many years ago a certain man down a certain street..." you could say, "Last Friday morning out on the field I won somebody to Jesus. Let me tell you about it." It will liven up your sermons. That way you won't repeat anybody's illustrations. They will all be yours.

So, be soul-conscious. I mean by being soul-conscious, make it a habit of asking people everywhere you go, "Are you a Christian?" Ask the bread man, the school teacher, the milkman, the fellow who works in the yard, the telephone man, the fellow who reads the meter for the gas and electricity. Just ask everyone you see, "Are you a Christian? Have you been saved?" Be soul-conscious.

Let me give you this illustration. I was out mowing the yard one day while pastoring in Texas. Our church was the largest church in our city. One out of seven people in town belonged to our church. I saw my members quite often. Now, when I mow the yard, I'm not quite a beauty queen! That day I had on a tee shirt with a hole in the shoulder, and one right under the arm; I had on a pair of old tennis shoes with holes in them, and a pair of trousers with patches in the knee, and I think I had on either a golf cap or a fishing hat. I was a tragic-looking thing, a sight to behold!

My wife came out in the yard and said, "Honey, would you go get some sugar from the neighbor down the street?" I said, "All right, I'll do it." So I got the cup and marched down there with my tennis shoes on, and a hole in my breeches and tee shirt, and a fishing cap on. We were very close friends to the folks, so we never knocked. They would come in our house and we would go in theirs—just real close neighbors.

So I walked in and said, "Hey! Anybody home?" And there was—thirteen people at home—company all dressed up in suits and fine clothes. There I was. Imagine, Rev. Hyles, a cup in his hand, fishing hat on, split tee shirt, patch in his breeches, and a pair of tennis shoes on his feet! And I said, "Hello." The lady looked at me, she looked at her company, then announced, "This is my pastor." I was horrified! I was humiliated! I wanted to evaporate but couldn't.

Finally I said, "Excuse me; I'm sorry." Then I got to thinking. Shoot! Just take over the conversation. Just act like you have good sense. So in I walked. "How do you do! How are you? Are you a Christian?" I went around the entire room asking the same question. Then THEY got embarrassed.

(I found out long ago that when a preacher goes to a hospital or gets some place where he feels like a fifth wheel, he should just bluff them and take over the conversation. That will help you, too. It really will. You go to the hospital. Here is the doctor, the nurse, the family. And everybody says, "That's the preacher." You know how you feel, pastors. It's a terrible feeling. So I walk in, "Hello Doc. How are you?" Make HIM feel bad. Make HIM feel like he's a fifth wheel.)

So I walked in and asked each person if he or she were a Christian. The last man, a young man, said, "No, I'm not, but I've been thinking about it." Well, I said, "I can help you think about it right here." We knelt there in that home and opened the Bible. He got converted. He lived at Irving, Texas, forty miles from Garland. I said, "Now, J.D., you need to walk the aisle in the church in Irving tomorrow." He said, "If you don't mind, Preacher, I'll just stay over tonight and come to your church and walk the aisle." He did, and that night he got baptized in my church. Later he joined the First Baptist Church of Irving, Texas.

You don't realize how many places you will bump into people. I saw a lady while on vacation just recently. She said, "Hello, Brother Jack. Remember when you won me to the Lord?" I said, "I certainly do." It happened while I was looking for a Mrs. Marsh. I knocked on Mrs. Marsh's door—I thought. She came to the door. I said, "Mrs. Marsh?"

"No, I'm Mrs. Tillet."

I said, "Mrs. Tillet, I thought Mrs. Marsh lived here."

"No, she lives five houses down the street."

"Thank you, Mrs. Tillet." I walked off. Then I said, "Wait a minute, Mrs. Tillet. Are you a Christian?" She began to cry. I led her to Christ right there.

I have won shoeshine boys and fellows on airplanes. I was going to Phoenix to a conference last year. I sat down beside a man seventy-two years old, a wealthy rancher. "Where do you live?" I asked.

He said, "On a ranch between Phoenix and Tucson."

I said, "Do you and your wife live alone?"

"My wife died a few months ago."

I asked, "Do you ever think about having anybody else come and live with you?"

"Oh," he said, "If I could find somebody who would come and live with me, a friend to keep me company, I'd give anything in the world." He had chauffeurs, servants. He owned a big ranch with hundreds of acres, but was as lonely as he could be.

I said, "I know Somebody who would come and live with you."

"You do? Does He live in Phoenix?"

I said, "He sure does. He lives everywhere."

He said, "Who is it?"

"Jesus will come." In fifteen minutes that man had Somebody to go home with him to live.

Oh, if we will just take time to witness. The trouble is, we are ashamed of Jesus. We don't mind saying, "Isn't it hot today?" or, "I wonder how the Berlin situation is." We don't mind talking about Khrushchev. We're more eager to talk about him than about Jesus. Isn't that a shame! Here we are redeemed. He died for us on the cross. We have been made heirs of God and joint heirs with Jesus Christ. He is building a home in Heaven for us. We're God's children and we won't even tell a stranger that we belong to the Lord Jesus. Be soul-conscious.

3. BE CLEAN AND NEAT.

There are two or three things a soul winner ought to watch. A soul winner ought to always watch his odor. That is tremendously important. Not only watch about your body odor, but you ought to be careful about your breath. One thing that will hurt more than most anything else in soul winning is bad breath. I would suggest that you carry mints with you. We men have a little pocket on the inside of our pocket. Put some mints in there. I always put one in my mouth before I conduct the invitation on Sunday and meet folks at the altar. So keep some mints handy.

There are other ways you can help your breath. Gum is good if you can chew it when no one sees you. Someone said the only difference between a gum-chewing flapper and a cud-chewing cow is the intelligent look on the face of the cow! You can also use Sen-Sen. I used to get a bottle of Listerine to keep in my car and between each visit I gargled.

A soul winner should also be neat. Too often the world's conception of a soul winner is some fellow on a street corner, in a suit that doesn't fit; his tie is turned around; he has a funny look in his eye; his collar is turned up; and he is looking at you saying, "You'd better get borned agin or you're going to Hell." Don't you think God could use some folks who know how to dress neatly? Don't you think God could use somebody with a clean white shirt as well as a dirty shirt? Don't you think God could use somebody who knows how to comb his hair as well as somebody with messed-up hair? Don't you think God could use somebody who knows how to brush his teeth as well as somebody who doesn't?

Now I thank God for everybody who witnesses. I appreciate the sign on the back of a car. I admire every fellow who stands up and says, "You'd better get borned agin or you're going to Hell." I am grateful for every sign on a rock that says, "Jesus Saves." But I will say this: We need more people with some intelligence and a nice appearance, a nice personality, a good approach, to go into homes and tell people about Jesus Christ.

One should dress just as nice to go soul winning as he would to go to church. Men should at least wear a white shirt and a tie. I suggest you ladies wear high heel and hose. Dress as nicely as possible when you represent Jesus. When you go soul winning, you should give the best appearance. Someone has said, "I want to look so no one will ever accuse me of being a preacher, but they won't be surprised if they find out I am." So dress the part. Be clean and neat.

4. CARRY A TESTAMENT WITH YOU.

Personally I think it much better to carry a Testament than a Bible. Now do not be ashamed of the Bible, but if you plan to shoot a fellow, don't carry your gun out in the open up to his house. The best thing to do is to conceal your weapon. If I were going to shoot you, Dr. Rice, I wouldn't say, "Dr. Rice, here I come. Here's my gun. Here you are. Bang! Bang!" Dr. Rice would be out of the way by the time I got there. Now when some folks see you walking up the sidewalk with a big Bible, they will be hiding in the closet by the time you get there. If you have done much soul winning, you know what I'm talking about. Simply get out of the car and walk up to the door with a concealed Bible or Testament. Walk up the sidewalk with a big Bible and people will say, "Here comes the preacher." Mama says, "Tell him I'm not home." So the little fellow comes to the door and says, "Mama told me to tell you she wasn't home!" Now the reason is, they have you spotted.

But I get out of the car with a little Testament tucked away in my pocket, walk up to the door and since they don't know who it is, I have an inroad. When you do to win souls, the best thing is to keep your weapon concealed until you get into the house.

Carrying two Testaments is good also. I don't do this as religiously as I used to, but I did for years. You can buy inexpensive ones for about 25 cents. Let the lost person read from one and you read one. After you win him to Christ, give it to him as a souvenir. You can write on the inside that it was given to So and So on such and such a date (the date of the conversion), with a "God bless you" and a Scripture verse. Give him a Testament and keep one yourself. On occasion you might use his Bible if you see it around.

I don't sit beside the person when I win him. I used to. Now I sit across the room. Two or three reasons why. One, it is always best to sit across the room if you are dealing with the opposite sex. Then it is best to look in the person's eyes when talking to him.

5. GO TWO BY TWO.

There are many reasons why we go two by two. It is scriptural. Jesus sent the apostles out two by two. One can encourage the other. There is something about strength in unity. If you don't believe it, eat at a restaurant by yourself tonight and try to witness to the waitress. Then tomorrow night go with Dr. Rice and me and see how much easier it is.

Another reason of primary importance. Jim Lyons and I were visiting in a home the other day (I'm the pastor and he is my assistant). The fellow took a liking to Jim. I don't know why but he wouldn't talk to me. He looked at Jim all the time. I moved around a little closer but still he looked at Jim. I said, "Yes, that's right"; still he wouldn't look at me. I wanted to say, "Hey, I'm the pastor; he's second in command." He still looked at Jim. That fellow wouldn't know me if he saw me on the street.

Now, Jim had to talk to him. What am I supposed to do? The one who seemingly has the best inroad should carry the conversation and the partner should keep the road clear for the conversation. That is basically why two ought to go together.

I believe in being spiritual. It is wonderful to praise God, but you have to start where they are instead of where you are. I was out visiting one day with a wonderful Christian fellow. We knocked on the door. He said, "How do you do. My name is Jones (I'll call him that). Praise the Lord! This is Brother Hyles. Bless His holy name! We are here to tell you about Jesus. Glory to God! Are you saved? Hallelujah!" The man we went to see slammed the door in our faces. You must make them realize if they get what you have, it won't be so bad. So one makes the inroad while the other keeps the road clear.

What do we mean by keeping the road clear? We mean when the baby starts crying, you should change his diaper; when the beans start boiling, you put some water in them or turn the fire off; when the doorbell rings, you answer it; when the children start screaming for water, you get them a drink.

If you are not doing the talking, you be quiet until your partner is finished. The one doing the talking should do all the talking. Every now and then somebody says, "Well, that means then one runs out of something to say, the other can say something." Don't you go if you are going to run out of something to say. If you can't present the entire Gospel to a lost soul, you are not ready to go yet.

The fellow not doing the talking should keep the way clear. I have played every kind of game there is to play. I have done everything. I have changed many a diaper while out visiting. I have looked in every drawer in the bedroom hunting diapers so I could change a baby. That's right. I go to a house where there is a baby; the baby starts to cry while my partner is talking to the lost one. "Now, Mrs. Jones, never mind; I have had four little children at my house. I have had babies at my house for ten years and I've changed hundreds of diapers. Let me take care of that." She says, "Oh! Brother Hyles..." "Now, Mrs. Jones, you sit right there and I'll take care of it." And I do. I have played soccer. I have played dolls. So many kids have been on my back at one time playing "piggy back" and "ride the horsie" that if my partner hadn't gotten the soul saved soon, I would have dropped over!

One day I went soul winning with Bob Keyes, who was then my assistant pastor, but who is now pastor of the church Dr. Rice founded in Dallas. Bob was an excellent soul winner and still is. We were out soul winning. I was doing the talking and the lady had a little baby who was acting ugly. About the time the lady was ready to get down to pray, the little boy said, "I want my bottle." Mama stuck the bottle in his mouth. "I don't want my bottle." She took it out. "I wanna bottle." She stuck it in. "I don't want my bottle." Then I prayed, "Lord, do something about this little rascal or he is going to mess up the whole thing." Do you know, he stopped and looked spellbound, as if he were in a trance. I said to myself, "Well, glory to God!" For about fifteen minutes that little baby didn't move. He didn't move his eyes; he just looked. The lady got converted and became one of the greatest Christians in our church.

When we left I said to Bob Keyes, "Bob, praise the Lord!"

He said, "Amen! Why?"

"Did you see what God did to that baby?"

He said, "What?"

I said, "All of a sudden, at the crucial time, that baby froze."

Bob said, "Well, I'm sure the Lord had something to do with it, but I may have helped a little because I had a ballpoint pen behind the coffee table going up and down, up and down, up and down. Preacher, I did that fifteen minutes and I'm worn out!"

Now, don't you think Bob had a part in that soul? Sure he did. Some of you spiritual giants need to know how to change diapers and handle ballpoint pens! You would get more people converted.

One time I was out with a fellow who got to praying for this lady, "Lord, save her! Lord, save her!" while I was trying to witness to her. He was talking louder than I was. Pretty soon he got on his knees and prayed, "Lord, save her!" Then he got on the floor and started beating the floor and saying, "Lord, save her!" I had to say, "Now, friend, I'm sorry but she can't hear what I'm trying to say. Would you mind going into the other room?" He did and we got her converted. If we are going to beat on the floor, let's do it at midnight, alone. If we are going to agonize, let's cry all night alone but not make a public demonstration or show. Do things that are necessary to do.

One night Bob Keyes was witnessing to a fellow and the doorbell rang. I said, "Dear friend, you stay right here. I'll answer the door." I went to the door. The fellow at the door said, "How do you do. Are you the man of the house?"

I said, "I'm a man of the house." (I was a man and I was of the house!)

He said, "I have an appointment with you to show you a vacuum cleaner." Obviously he had called and had an appointment.

I said, "I will be delighted to look at it. Come and we'll look at it on the front porch."

I didn't want the fellow to leave and I didn't want him to stay, so I saw all of the vacuum cleaner and its parts. We tested the thing out. Finally Bob Keyes said, "Hey, Jack! Come on. I've got him saved now."

I said, "Mr. vacuum cleaner man, my name is Hyles. I'm pastor of Miller Road Baptist Church and we just got this man converted. By the way, have you ever become a Christian?" We turned on him and tried to get him converted. Now, if I hadn't kept that vacuum cleaner salesman occupied, this fellow would never have gotten converted. Keep your eyes open if you are the second party. Keep the way clear. Pave the roads in order for the person doing the witnessing to do the job. That's the reason basically for going two by two.

By the way, Dr. Rice told this morning how you can pray without ceasing. I imagine a fellow can pray and change the baby at the same time, don't you? We can pray and water the beans or play ball with the kids at the same time.

6. GO WITH DIFFERENT PEOPLE.

Occasionally, somebody will ask me, "Brother Hyles, if you started a new church or if you went to a new church, what is the first thing you would do in training the people to win souls?" The first thing would be to have different folks go with me to win a soul. The best way to train a soul winner is for him to watch someone else win a soul. The wonderful thing about soul winning is when you win a soul to Christ in the home, you are training a soul winner at the same time.

For example, let us suppose one brother gets converted in a church during preaching. That is wonderful. He is saved, but he has never seen a soul won in the home. Let's suppose another brother is won in his home. He has already seen me win him, so he knows exactly how to win someone else.

So, soul winning in the home reproduces itself. You train them and teach them how to become soul winners before they ever get converted. Now they can witness, and they can say, "At least I can do what Brother Hyles did to me." They already know basically what to do. So, go with different people so that others may watch you and learn.

7. CLAIM THE SPIRIT'S FULLNESS BEFORE GOING.

Now I think basically that when a person goes to win souls, he should spend his time winning souls. I had a secretary once who came to work about nine o'clock every morning, then she wanted to spend the first two hours praying. I think prayer is wonderful, but from nine to eleven in the morning is not the time for a secretary with a job to pray. From six to eight might be all right, or from 1 a.m. to 2 a.m., or from seven to nine at night. But she wanted to pray from nine to eleven in the morning. She thought I was unspiritual because I wanted her to type letters and get the work done. I said, "I don't mind you praying, but I'm not going to pay you for praying. Don't you pray on company time; you pray on your own time."

Now, soul-winning time should be time set aside for soul winning. We ought to set aside times for seasons of prayer, but not to borrow it from scheduled soul-winning time. When you go, say a simple prayer. I always pray basically this prayer, "Dear Lord, I claim in faith the fullness of the Holy Spirit before I go. I pray that You will help me to be a blessing to somebody and help me to win somebody today." Claim the Spirit's fullness—a simple prayer of faith asking God to help and give power. I make it brief.

Suppose you are going soul winning at one o'clock on Friday afternoon and you are going to pray for thirty minutes; pray from 12:30 to 1:00, not from 1:00 to 1:30. Do not steal soul-winning time. If you plan to go soul winning at one o'clock and you want to pray for four hours, start praying at nine o'clock in the morning and go soul winning at one. Stay on schedule about your soul winning and claim the Spirit's fullness before you go.

8. GO BELIEVING.

This one thing changed my soul-winning ministry. For example, people often take this little course, then call me on the phone to say, "Brother Hyles, it worked! It worked!" Sure it worked. Expect it to work. Isn't that what faith is? Believe that God is going to save somebody. Expect to win them. Go believing. God said He would save sinners if you would go. That is His promise. "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Don't be surprised when God keeps His promise. Go believing.

9. BE NICE.

Be nice, courteous, kind and gentle. One thing so difficult for preachers is to change our behavior from the pulpit to the living room. You can't act the same in the living room as you act in the pulpit. It is quite different, because you were not invited. You are infringing upon their privacy. When in the home be courteous and kind.

Many seem to think that the Lord said, "Go into all the world and teach all ladies to quit smoking cigarettes." Now I don't believe in smoking. We don't allow any deacons to smoke in our church. I don't believe in smoking, and especially in ladies smoking. However, God didn't send us out house to house to talk to ladies into quitting smoking. God sent us out to get people converted. I've heard of preachers walking up to a door and addressing the lady thusly: "If you will throw that wicked weed away, I'll talk to you." This certainly is the wrong approach. Get her converted first; then perhaps she will throw her cigarettes away. In other words, don't get off the subject.

One day I was talking to a lady who said, "Brother Hyles, I can't be saved because I smoke. Do you think a person can be saved who smokes?"

I said, "That's a good question. Let's wait awhile and I'll discuss that with you." I said, "Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

"Oh, yes," she said, "but I'm not going to get saved because I'm not going to quit smoking."

I said, "All right, that's a fine question. We will wait awhile and I'll discuss that with you." So I told her how to be saved. I prayed and eventually she prayed and gave her heart to Jesus and was converted.

After she got converted I said, "By the way, you asked something awhile ago about smoking."

She said, "We took care of that when we prayed."

You will do a whole lot more good if you will keep on salvation, stay right on the line, and be nice and kind.

When you go to a home, be as courteous as a vacuum cleaner salesman or an insurance man. Be personable. I always say this: The first thing you have to do is win them to yourself. I don't mean you ought to selfishly try to make friends, then get them converted as a by-product. You have to first make them think you are all right. For example, you have to have a Christianity that they feel will fit them if they put it on. If you walk up saying, "Hello. Glory to God! How are you? Praise the Lord! Glad to see you. Hallelujah!" They say, "Oh, no! If I get what he's got, I'll probably be like he is; no thank you, I don't want it." A pleasant "How do you do. How are you?" is always in order. The first thought they should have is, "He is a nice fellow," or "She is a pleasant lady."

10. BE COMPLIMENTARY.

Every time you go to a home, brag on something. We live in a selfish world. It is good to say, "You sure have a nice suit," or "Isn't that a precious child?" Make it a habit. Develop it inwardly. It should be part of your nature. One of the sins of the ministry is professional gratitude. Did you ever hear it? We often say, "Mrs. Jones, that was a good meal," but we don't mean a word of it. Stop and think. Mrs. Jones started cooking two days ago. She made her husband put his shoes outside the door when he came in and walk in barefoot to keep the floor nice. Those poor little ones couldn't even come in the house. They couldn't even use a towel. They had to use paper towels for two days to keep the towels clean for the preacher. The poor little things ate boloney for three days before you came to save so the lady could buy the nicest center-cut roast. She got the finest of everything, put out her best china, her best silver, her best crystal. She is as nervous as a cat. The preacher is coming! Now listen, stop and think about that; then look at her when you finish the meal and with a heart full of appreciation, say, "Mrs. Jones, I know what you've done for this meal, and I appreciate, personally, the work you've done to make this possible." Take the professionalism out of it and make it a part of yourself to want to be grateful and expressive of gratitude to people in the home.

The best thing to brag on is children. Be able to compliment little children. Man, listen. I can come in your home and say a few things about your young'uns and I'm a great fellow, regardless of what I've done wrong.

We had an insurance man in Texas who used to bother me to no end. He would say, "If you loved your family, you'd have more insurance." I would answer, "If I loved my family, I would sell what I've got now and spend the money to buy food for them." I hated to see him coming.

One day I was out in the yard and I saw him coming. I walked out to the curb and waited for him. When he stopped, I leaned against the door on his side, grinned at him and said, "Hello." He didn't even look at me. He look at my little five-year-old girl and said, "Hello, sweetheart. You're the prettiest little girl I ever saw."

I said, "Isn't she though."

My little boy came toddling out (he was three at the time) and the salesman said, "Hello there, son. You're a fine-looking fellow. Have some chewing gum."

I said, "Won't you get out and come in?"

Sure, he knew how to get in. He bragged on the children. I think a man who has that good judgment about children deserves to come in! So he came in.

You do the same thing. Brag on the children. Compliment the home. If there is a new piece of furniture in the house, a beautiful carpet, a nice sofa or a dresser, brag on it. Be on the lookout for things to compliment.

11. BE CAREFUL ABOUT GOING IN.

Now this I think is important. I do not try usually to go into the home unless the people are unsaved. If the people are saved, normally I do not go in. I don't chit-chat much with the saints. When I do out to visit I usually make twenty visits in one afternoon. That is four hours' work. The way I do that is to find out quickly if they are saved, pass the time of day very briefly, invite them to church and say goodbye. To many of us go out to visit and when we find a good Baptist fellow who tithes, makes a big salary, and one whom we want in our church, we go in and spend the afternoon, drink coffee, eat cake and let the world go to Hell. I do not personally spend a great deal of time visiting with saints. I just keep going and keep going until I find the lost ones and spend my time with them.

Also, if it isn't the opportune time, don't go in. I would especially be careful about going in if the opposite sex is alone. Now a word to you men who find a lady alone. Be very careful about going in. Sometimes if the person is busy, it is good to ask her if you could make an appointment to come back later at her convenience. But be careful about going in.

12. BE A GOOD LISTENER.

Talk about jobs wanted and positions open. There is lots of room in the world for some good listeners: there are many available positions open for good listeners. Did you ever hear a person say, "He sure is a fine fellow. Just a quiet, fine fellow. He is such a good listener"?

So often this happens—you preachers know this is true. A lady comes into my office. "Brother Hyles, I need some advice. I just don't know what to do. I felt like you could tell me what to do."

"All right; present your problem."

She talks and talks for an hour or so. I say nothing but, "God bless you. Uh huh. Well, yes."

That is all I say for an hour. She gets up and says after an hour, "Brother Hyles, you always have the best advice. You always know just what to do."

Well, I didn't advise anybody about anything. She just wanted somebody to unload on. That is one of the basic jobs of the pastor. Day after day they come through my office, as they do yours, wanting somebody to hear about their problems and burdens.

Go to a home and say, "Where do you work, Mr. Jones?"

"Down there at the steel company."

"What do you do down there?"

"Well, I make steel."

"How long have you been down there?"

"I've been there six months," Mr. Jones says.

"Where are you from?" I ask.

"I'm from Tennessee."

"Tennessee? That's a beautiful state. I've been down in the Cumberland Mountains in Tennessee."

Talk to him about his interests, and let him talk to you. Ask him about his family, where he is from. Ask him where he works. Let him talk to you for a while. Personally, I'm not an advocate of quick witnessing. Some of the best soul winners I know are, but I differ with them here. I think it best to chit-chat for awhile and be folksy. Listen to them. Let them present their problems, then after awhile talk to them.

Not long ago my wife and I were going to Colorado where I was preaching in a conference near Pueblo. We were on a jet going to Denver. The wife was sitting next to the window, I was sitting in the middle, and a businessman was sitting by me. I started a conversation with him. "What kind of business are you in?" He talked to me for thirty minutes. I have never heard so much talking in my life. I didn't have any idea what he was talking about. I just tried to act intelligent. There are a lot of basic answers, you know. He would say, "What do you thing about the geophysical problem in the United States?"

I would answer, "It's really a problem, isn't it?"

He would say, "How do you feel we are economically?"

"Oh, I feel like we've seen better days, but we've seen worse days too, you know." Just a few basic questions and answers!

Finally after he unloaded for about thirty minutes, I got to talk to him. My wife punched me and grinned. She knew what I was doing. After we got off the plane she said, "You rascal! I knew the whole time you didn't understand a thing he was saying but you were waiting for the time when he would do the listening for awhile." If he talked to me for thirty minutes, then wouldn't let me talk to him for five minutes, he wouldn't have been very kind, would he? You listen to them for awhile and you will get them to listen to you easier. Be a good listener.

13. ONLY ONE DO THE TALKING

I wish I could stress this more. When two go together and both want to talk, it is often because of trying to argue people into becoming Christians. You can't do that. The best thing to do is ask the dear Lord to help and lead and open doors, then with a kindly, gracious, Christian spirit, go into the homes and present the plan of God to the people, giving them a chance to accept or reject.

Only one do the talking. The one who has the inroad should do the talking. Suppose Dr. Rice, that you and I are going soul winning and we meet a fellow who is mowing his yard. I walk up and start talking to him. "Hey, neighbor! You've got you yard looking mighty nice."

He says, "Well, thank you."

I say, "What kind of mower is that?"

"Oh, it's a Jacobson," he replies.

"This is a good lawn mower," I say.

He says to himself, "This is a nice fellow."

Suppose we meet a man who is working on his car. "Hello, how are you?" I ask, putting forth my hand.

"Oh, my hand is greasy," he says.

"I don't care. I have shaken greasy hands before."

He thinks, "That sure is a nice fellow."

Be folksy and get his attention. Then the person who has the inroad can do the talking.

For example, Dr. Rice has written some books. If the fellow says he is an author, then I say, "Dr. Rice here has written scores of books." Immediately he becomes interested in Dr. Rice. Then I had better go water the beans; Dr. Rice is going to talk to him. So, I'm going to keep my mouth shut. The best thing for me to do is to be quiet, prayerful and helpful, then if he fails, I may try. Again I say, only one do the talking.

I went soul winning with a man one time, a wonderful Christian and a great fellow, but he didn't know a thing about soul winning. We went to a lady's house. She came to the door. I said, "How do you do. How are you today? Nice baby. Beautiful day. You have a nice home," etc. We talked awhile, then I asked, "Lady, have you ever become a Christian?"

"Well, I was baptized down in Henderson, Texas."

"Oh," he interrupted, "Henderson, Texas? I had a meeting down there. Do you know Zeb Peabody who runs the feed store there?"

I said, "Now lady, have you ever received the Lord and been converted?"

She said, "Well, one time I thought I did down in Jacksonville."

"Jacksonville?" he interrupted, "I had four meetings in Jacksonville. Well, I'll declare! Jacksonville!"

Well, I had to send him home. He just couldn't be quiet. You just let one person do the talking. The one who gets the inroad should follow right on through and present the plan while the other on keeps the way clear.

14. STAY ON THE SUBJECT.

Now, the place the Devil will ruin more soul winners than most any other place is here. I sometimes think that knowing too much hurts soul winners. If we could just keep it simple and stay on the simple plan of salvation, we would do a lot better. I spent many days in school learning to handle a Mormon; I haven't seen but two since I got out of college. I memorized Scripture after Scripture on how to handle special cases. A Mormon will often handle just like a Jehovah's Witness. A Catholic will often handle just like a Seventh-Day Adventist. To learn how to win an unbeliever in the big thing. And the simple plan of salvation is the answer. Just stay on the subject.

Suppose the old question is asked—"Where did Cain get his wife?" What should I do? I would say, "That's a good question, and I will tell you what we will do. I'll make a note of it and we will discuss it when we get through. Now, down here in Romans 3:10..."

Just stay right on the subject. You say, "Brother Hyles, what if he asks you a question about Heaven or Hell?" You are going to tell them about Heaven and Hell in a minute anyway. Tell them the same thing: "That's a good question." You plan the speech, and don't let anything he says get you off the main line. Don't spend your time answering his questions or he will be governing the conversation. You govern the conversation. You carry the ball. Stay on the subject.

15. FIND SOMEWAY TO GET THEM LOST.

Let me explain. Often I've gone out to win souls and asked, "Are you a Christian?" If he said, "Yes, I am," I would let it go at that. But some people will answer yes to "Are you a Christian?" who are not really Christians and you need to get the Gospel to them. To do this, we must get to a verse like Romans 3:10. I've got to figure some way to get to Romans 3:10 and get them to let me tell them how to be saved. Do you see what I mean?

Let me illustrate. A family comes to talk to me and I know they are lost. "Brother Hyles, we have a home problem. Do you know any Bible verses that would help our home?"

"Ah, yes. There is a verse in the Bible that will help anybody's home. Turn to Romans 3:10."

Somebody comes in, "Brother Hyles, my business is going bankrupt. What does the Bible say about business?"

"Ah, it says a great deal about business. The best Scriptures about business in the Bible begin at Romans 3:10." Then tell them about Jesus. He will solve any problem.

Now, let me give you an illustration that will prove what I am trying to say. This is the only time that it has ever happened but it is a most vivid illustration to explain this point.

I went to visit a family. Let's call the name Hill. It was up on the second floor of an apartment building. They had three lovely children. I walked in and said, "How do you do, Mr. Hill. Are you a Christian?"

"Oh, yes," he said. "I was saved when I was three years old."

Well, I didn't know what to say. Then I asked Mrs. Hill, "Are you a Christian?"

"Oh, yes," she said. "I was saved when I was a baby."

Well, now I didn't think they were saved. If they had said they weren't Christians, I could have showed them Romans 3:10 but I couldn't when they said they were Christians. So I asked, "Have you been born again?"

Oh, yes; both of them were born again. He was born again when he was three; she was born again when she was a baby.

"Have you been converted, saved?"

That's right; they had been saved.

"If you died, do you know if you would go to Heaven?"

Yes, yes; they knew if they died they would go to Heaven.

Well, I didn't know what to do. I wanted to get to Romans 3:10. So I said, "Well, let me ask you this: Do you ever wish you knew how to pray? If I could show you some Scriptures on prayer, would you be willing to learn how to pray better?"

I was going to show them a good Scripture about prayer—Romans 3:10—but she said, "Oh, we have family altar and private devotions; we took a correspondence course on prayer recently."

"Well," I said, "did you ever wish you had a Bible study, some Scriptures to show you how to study the Bible?"

If they had said, "No, we don't study the Bible much," I was going to say, "Listen, there are some Scriptures that will unlock the entire Bible and the first one is Romans 3:10."

But she said, "Oh, yes; we are taking a Bible course right now, a correspondence course."

I tried every way I could to get to Romans 3:10, but I couldn't do it. I said, "Well, is your home what it ought to be? Would you love to have some Scriptures on the home—how to have a better home and a good Christian home?" I was going to show them Romans 3:10—how it would lead you to have a better home, etc. I couldn't do it, so I prayed, "Lord, help me." Finally I said, "This is a good home. You have been born again; you are converted; you have been saved; you pray and you are taking Bible study courses. You know, there is one thing that a home like this ought to have."

They asked what.

I said, "A formal dedication service."

Now that sounded good to them, and Mr. Hill said, "Honey, that sounds real good. When could we schedule that?"

I said, "It so happens that I have one of the services with me right now."

He said, "Could we do it here?"

I said, "We can do it right here."

Listen, she went in and changed clothes, combed her hair, put clean little dresses and shirts on the children. They came in like a group going to Sunday School. I said, "Now, then, we're going to read some Scriptures on home dedication. It says in Romans 3:10, "As it is written, there is 'no home' righteous, no, not one." In Romans 5:12 it says that sin came into the first home and it was the first home that brought the first curse upon man. I went through the same old Scriptures, Romans 3:10, 5:12, 6:23, 5:8, and I said, "Those are Scriptures about the dedication of the home. Now would you like to pray a prayer of home dedication?"

They said that would be real nice. So we all got on our knees. I prayed and then said, "Mr. Hill, you want to pray a prayer of dedication for you home, don't you?"

"Yes, sir," he said.

I said, "Mr. Hill, this is the prayer to say: 'Dear Lord, be merciful to me a sinner and forgive my sins and save my soul. I do now repent of my sins and trust Jesus to save me.'"

He prayed the prayer. She prayed the same prayer.

We got off our knees and they were both crying. I said, "That's wonderful! Now you said you were saved when you were three, didn't you?"

Mr. Hill looked at me and said, "No, I just got saved a minute ago."

That is a long way around to get the Gospel to them without them wanting it if you don't think they are saved.

Let me say this also. If you can't get it to them, I have what I call a long plan and a short plan. In the long plan I read the Scriptures; in the short plan I quote them. For example, I say, "Would you like to be a Christian?"

He says, "No, I don't think I would."

I say, "If I were to show you in the Bible, would you be willing to look at it?"

"No," he says.

"Well, let me ask you this question." (Now that is the secret. Every soul winner ought to learn that little sentence, "Let me ask you THIS question.") I was previously going to take the Bible and show him these Scriptures, but he says he doesn't want to see them. So I say, "If you don't want to know the plan, let me ask you THIS question: Do you realize that Romans 3:10 says that there is none righteous, no, not one?" I'm doing the same thing that I was going to do. He thinks, "Boy, I sure got him off the subject; he is not going to show me how to get saved." He thinks you are off the subject.

So if you can't use the long method, use the short method. Just back up and take another path and go at him from another direction, but get the plan to him. Then you can go to him with the short method where you quote the same Scriptures but do not read them.

16. STAY IN THE SAME BOOK OF THE BIBLE.

This is important. Use the same book all the way through. Some books in the Bible you could use for the plan of salvation are: Romans, John, First John, Isaiah, Psalms, Acts, Ephesians, etc. Definitely it is best to stay in the same book in the Bible and not to jump around too much.

Here is the way I do it and I think this is a good suggestion. When I start talking to a person I say, "Now, Mr. Jones, the Bible is composed of 66 books and each book has a different immediate purpose. For example, the book of Genesis explains the creation of man. The book of Revelation explains the end time. There is one book in the Bible that is given especially to tell about the power of the Gospel of Christ and how to go to Heaven. That is the book of Romans. This book clearly explains how to go to Heaven."

What you are doing is this: You are saying to him, "Now, I'm taking you to that part of the book that specializes in telling you how to go to Heaven." It makes him feel you are an expert.

One thing I always try to do in a town where I pastor; I always try to make folks think of me as a specialist. All pastors should be specialists on soul winning, but I try to make folks think of me as a specialist. Folks call me all the time and say, "Brother Hyles, would you go to the hospital and see my lost loved one or send your assistant pastor to see him?"

"Well, yes," I say. "Do you belong to a church in town?"

They answer, "Yes, I belong to a certain church."

"Oh, is your pastor out of the city?"

"No, but he doesn't specialize in getting folks saved," they say.

I don't say a word about it. I just want to create the attitude in town that my church is primarily a place to get folks converted. It is important to build that kind of atmosphere. You would be surprised how many people who maybe wouldn't like you personally and wouldn't want to join your church, but they know you try to get folks converted.

For example, here is a lady who has an unsaved husband. He is a drunkard and won't go to church with her. One night he says to her, "Honey, I think I'll go to church with you tonight."

So she says, "Well, wonderful."

He says, "Let's go to your church."

She says, "Let's don't go to my church tonight; let's go somewhere new. Let's go to First Baptist and hear Brother Hyles. Would you like to do that?"

She knows we will try to get him saved. They might be having a special activity at her church, but she knows at our church we will try to get him converted. I'm saying that if you will build that reputation, you will get a lot of folks converted who may not stay in your church, but you will develop the reputation as the evangelistic headquarters in town.

So, I would suggest you try to lead the folks to know that you know what you are talking about and that you have found the book. Only use the one book.

17. DRAW A MAP IN YOUR NEW TESTAMENT.

I contend that you can be a soul winner if you don't know a single verse of Scripture, if you can draw a map in your Bible to tell yourself where to go. All you need do is find Romans 3:10 and you won't have to know a single verse of Scripture. Right beside Romans 3:10, write the next verse to tell you where to go in your Bible. Actually what you do is draw yourself a little road map in your Bible to explain where to go next.

First, turn to Romans 3:10. That is all you have to remember. Underline the verse. Beside it write 3:23. After you have read Romans 3:10, it tells you where to go next. Now turn to Romans 3:23. Underline that verse and beside that write 5:12. Turn to 5:12 and underline 5:12 and write beside it 6:23. Underline 6:23 and beside it write 5:8. Underline 5:8 and write beside it 10:9-13.

Now that is a map for you. You don't have to know a single verse of Scripture to be a soul winner if you draw a map in your Bible. You follow the map until you learn the Scriptures. Of course, as you go along, you will learn many other Scriptures that will help, but these are the basic ones.

18. ASK THEM, "IF YOU DIED NOW, DO YOU KNOW THAT YOU WOULD GO TO HEAVEN?"

I think that is the best question that I have ever used. Some use, "Do you know Jesus? Are you born again? Are you saved? Are you a child of God?" I try to avoid terminology that will be too religious for them. Many don't know that kind of terminology.

Basically there are only two religions in the world. One is the belief that salvation is all of God, and Jesus did it all on the cross; the other is that we have to do something to get converted. In this second you have combined all of the false religions. That is the old mystery of Babylon, mother of harlots in Revelation 17. Many religions are wrapped up in this one thing—that you have to do something to go to Heaven. Anybody who says you have to do something to go to Heaven, doesn't know if he is going or not. He usually says he thinks so or has a good chance or may go to purgatory. The only person who will tell you he knows that if he dies he will go to Heaven is the fellow who has trusted Jesus completely to save him. That is why I ask, "Do you know if you died you would go to Heaven? Do you know it?" Some ask, "Are you a Christian?" Almost anybody will say yes to this. I think that the best question is, "Do you know that if you died you would go to Heaven?" Now ask,

19. "WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW?"

Now ask,

20. "IF I SHOWED YOU HOW YOU COULD KNOW, WOULD YOU DO WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS?"

It may be done thusly. "Now, Mr. Doe, let me ask you a question: Do you know that if you died this minute you would go to heaven?"

"No, I don't believe I do."

"Let me ask you this: Would you like to know? Don't you think it would be fine if you could know that if you died you would go to Heaven?"

"Yes."

"Well, let me ask you this: If I could take this Bible and explain to you how you could know beyond any shadow of a doubt, that you could know right now, and you could see it and you could understand it, would you believe it? Would you do what the Bible says?"

Do you see what I'm trying to say? It is good to get him committed that he will do it; then you have gone a long way toward getting him saved before you ever present the plan. So these three questions: (1) "Do you know that if you died today you would go to Heaven?" (2) "Would you like to know?" and (3) "If I could show you how you could know, would you do it?"

21. SHOW HIM THAT HE IS A SINNER.

For this, use Romans 3:10 and 3:23.

22. SHOW HIM THE PRICE ON SIN.

Show him this in Romans 5:12 and 6:23.

23. SHOW HIM THAT JESUS PAID THE PRICE.

Use Romans 5:8.

24. REVIEW THE MAIN POINTS TO BE SURE HE UNDERSTANDS.

I always use the following: "Now, Mr. Doe, there are only four things you must know to be saved. First, you must know that you are a sinner. For example, Romans 3:10 says, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' Let me illustrate. If there is none righteous, that means I'm not righteous, doesn't it? (Notice, I didn't get him unrighteous first; I got me unrighteous. Never put the sinner below you. You always let him know that but for the grace of God you would be in the fix he is in. You get yourself lost first.) So if there is none righteous, I'm not righteous. If there is none righteous, then Mr. Doe, you are not righteous. Also, it says, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' Now if all have sinned, that means I've sinned—right? That means your wife has sinned, and that means you have sinned."

If he still acts like he is not a sinner, you just list a few sins and you will catch him. A lot of times I say this: "You do realize that you are a sinner? For example, the Bible mentions some sins such as evil thinking, bad literature, ugly disposition, etc." Some where along that line there will be something that he does. Show him that he is a sinner.

Second, show him the price on sin. Romans 5:12: "Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin..." What kind of death? All death, both spiritual and physical death, the sum total of death. "...and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned." And Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death..." So there is a price on sin. What is that price? Death. What kind of death? That includes the second death of Revelation 20:14, and that second death is the Lake of Fire. So ultimately a person who is a sinner must pay for it by going to Hell. That is the basic price on sin.

Third, the next thing we must do is show that Jesus paid the price. So I say this: "Mr. Doe, God looked down from Heaven and saw that you were a sinner. He saw that you were in debt. He saw that you and I deserved to go to Hell. He wanted to save us and made a plan to do it. He came to the world Himself. His name was Jesus. He was God in a human body. For thirty-three years He lived here in this world. He did not commit one single sin. This is important. Mr. Doe, suppose that Jesus Christ had sinned one time only. The price on sin being death or Hell, where would Jesus have had to go when He died? The answer is Hell, but He did not sin. He did not commit one sin, but He went to the cross, and on the cross He suffered spiritual death when He said, 'My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?' He suffered the same thing that a lost person will have to suffer in Hell. I'll go farther than that. I believe that He suffered as much in that moment on Calvary as the sum total eternal suffering of all the lost people who will ever go to Hell to stay forever. Actually He was paying our price for our sins. He was becoming our substitute."

Fourth, "If we will receive that price as our hope for Heaven and receive Him as our Saviour from sin, He will make us His children and take us to Heaven when we die."

That's the review. You explain it to them first, then you review. Let me review it with you now. "Let me ask you a question, Mr. Doe. Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do you realize that people who die in their sins must go to Hell?" (Now be severe with that as you can. If a sinner knows he is going to Hell, say, "Do you realize that if you died right now, you would go to Hell?" If he is a little sensitive about it, then you can say, "Do you realize that a man who dies in his sins goes to Hell?" Be as severe as you can but don't make your patient so sick you will kill him before you heal him. You have to stay with him.) "Do you realize that Jesus Christ has suffered your Hell already for you? If we knelt here together and had prayer and you sincerely received Christ as your Saviour, do you believe God would make you His child?"

That is the review. I have explained to him how to get saved, then I have reviewed and asked these questions.

25. ASK IF YOU MAY PRAY.

There are several ways to do this, but you must try to get them to pray. If he is really ready, say, "Could I pray for you, and while I pray, would you pray and ask God to save you today?" Maybe he is not quite that ready. Maybe you don't know. You could say, "Could I pray that you will get saved?" Maybe you don't think he will let you pray for him to get saved. Then you say, "Could I have a word of prayer with you before I go?" Anyway, to get your head bowed is good. If you are talking to him, he might interrupt, but if you are talking to the Lord, he won't. You can preach him a little sermon in the prayer. If you can't win a fellow to Christ, and if he won't let you present the plan to him, the best way to tell him how to be saved is to tell the Lord and let the sinner hear you.

I go into a home and say, "Sir, would you like to know how to be saved?"

"No, Don't have time for it. The wife's sick and I'm busy."

"Could I have a prayer for your wife before we go, that she will get well?"

With his wife lying there sick, a man would be a fool not to let the preacher pray for her. He says, "Well, O.K."

I pray, "Dear Lord, bless this wife and make her well, and help this man to know that Romans 3:10 says, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' And if people die in their sins, according to Romans 6:23 'the wages of sin is death.' O dear Lord, show him that Romans 5:8 is true when it says that 'God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners...'"

Pray him the plan. He won't interrupt you. You can get by with a lot of things talking to the Lord that you wouldn't talking to him.

After you review, get to pray some way or another. If he will consider getting saved, good. If you can't get by with that, just get him to let you pray.

26. ASK HIM TO PRAY.

I stop abruptly in my prayer. I pray a simple prayer. Never pray a big prayer. You must pray a prayer so simple that he won't mind his prayer following yours. If you pray, "Jesus, Thou God of Jacob; oh, Thou God of Rehoboam and Jeroboam and Jehoshaphat; oh, Thou great God of the universe, the omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient God, would you save this man?" After that, he won't pray. But you can pray this, "Dear Lord, here is a fellow who needs to get converted. I pray You will help him get saved. May he receive Christ. You love him, dear Lord..." "Now fellow, will you pray?" You pray like that, and he can pray his little prayer in a minute.

I always stop in the middle of my prayer. I say, "Dear Lord, lead this man to be saved. You led me here and I pray that he will be saved today. May his wife have a Christian husband and the little children a Christian daddy. Make this be the day of his salvation. Now while our heads are bowed in prayer, Mr. Doe, would you be willing today to ask God to forgive you and tell Him you want to get saved?"

See, you stop in the middle of your prayer and lead him to pray. Let me say this: Fifty per cent of the time when you get this far the lost person is going to pray. Now, I would suggest you tell him what to pray but not the words. Like this: "Would you ask God to forgive you and tell Him you want to receive Jesus today?" Fifty per cent of the time he will make up a prayer. I've heard some of the sweetest prayers. A lot of times he won’t pray. He does not know how to pray. He says, "I have never prayed before." In that case I say, "Mr. Doe, would you just say these words and mean them in your heart, ’Lord, be merciful to me a sinner... forgive my sins and save my soul... I now receive Jesus as my Saviour’?"

Let me say this: By the time you get there, the forces of Hell will be fighting you. By the time you get this far talking to a sinner, you will feel like everything you own depends on what you do right now. Realize the seriousness of it all.

27. ASK HIM TO TAKE YOUR HAND.

He has just prayed and asked the Lord to save him. "Now Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, if Jesus Christ came in the room, He would extend His hand, no doubt, and ask you to take His hand if you would receive Him. Mr. Doe, if you will make this day the day of your salvation and this moment receive Christ as your Saviour, just like my hand were His hand, would you put your hand in mine?" Now, he takes your hand.

28. YOU PRAY AGAIN.

"Our Father, help this man to see in his heart that salvation is by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and what He did on Calvary. Give him peace in his heart and the assurance of salvation. In Jesus’ name. Amen."

Before you pray that last prayer, you may do several things. For example, if the wife is in the room, have her come over and take his hand, too. Then ask little Johnny to come and place his hand on Mommy’s and Daddy’s. Then you can have your closing prayer.

29. ASK HIM "WHERE, ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE, WOULD YOU GO IF YOU DIED NOW?"

This is important. Many people, after they win a soul to Christ, ask, "How do you feel?" It doesn’t matter how he feels. How he feels has nothing in the world to do with it. The average soul winner says, "Feel any better?" That doesn’t make any difference. You will stand there and argue with a fellow and he will say, "I believe you have to feel it to get saved."

You say, "No, you don’t. You don’t have to feel it—it is by faith." Then the first thing you ask him after you pray is, "How do you feel?" Salvation doesn’t depend on how you feel; it depends on if you are believing the Book. The minute you do what God says in His Book, you believe God will do what He says He will do in His Book, you are converted. It is by faith in what God says.

The question is, "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died now?"

The answer, "I’d go to Heaven."

The sweetest thing happened in our altar recently. A little lady came down to the front. She said she wanted to be saved. I prayed with her myself. I asked, "Now where would you go if you died?"

She said, "Well, the Bible says I would go to Heaven."

"Where do you think you would go?"

"I think I would go to Hell," she said.

I said, "But the Bible says you would go to Heaven."

"That’s right; it does say that," she said.

"Let me ask you a question," I said. "Did you ever tell a lie?"

"Oh, yes, I have told a lie."

"Does God ever lie?"

"No."

"All right, you say you are going to Hell, but God says you are going to Heaven. Whose word do you think I ought to take?"

"She said, "I guess you'd better take God's."

"Now where do you think you would go?"

"I think I'd go to Heaven."

It is because God said it. Ask them, "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died now?"

30. LEAD HIM TO A PUBLIC PROFESSION.

31. GO BY AND GET HIM ON SUNDAY MORNING.

32. SIT WITH HIM IN THE SERVICE.

But you say, "I sing in the choir." Well, you had either quit the choir that Sunday or let him sing with you. Sit with him in the service.

33. GO DOWN THE AISLE WITH HIM.

34. WITHIN A WEEK HAVE HIM OVER FOR A MEAL OR COFFEE AND CAKE OR SOMETHING.

He just got converted. "According to the Bible, where would you go if you died?"

"Heaven."

Use that as an excuse to call somebody. Call a loved one; call a friend. Tell your wife about it.

Randall F. was a pretty mean rascal, a drunkard, mean to his wife and everything. Kenneth, his brother, was a good Christian. We went to see Randall about one o'clock in the morning. Kenneth go so burdened about him. Randall got saved. He really got saved. And he has been a good Christian. He got his wife out of bed and rejoiced in the Lord and they praised the Lord together. We just lived it up.

Some of us preachers—a fellow comes down the aisle on Sunday and what do we do? We say, "Do you want to be saved?" "Yeh." The people never know what happened. It seems to me that if a person gets born again in your church, you ought to let folks know about it. Live it up. I had them come down Sunday and kiss each other. A man gets converted and his wife is already saved. "Come on down here with him. Bless the Lord. Give a word of testimony." "Oh, thank God! My husband got saved today!" Kiss him. The Bible says to greet one another with a holy kiss, so she kisses him. All the young'uns come down and stand with Daddy. Daddy kisses his little young'uns. Bless God, they have got a Christian daddy now. Some preachers make it sound like it was the Statue of Liberty being dedicated. Live it up. Somebody got out of Hell! They're going to Heaven! Somebody got regenerated. Angels are singing. Folks are redeemed and going to Heaven, and not going to burn forever.

You in your ministerial cloak and croak, you get up there and the poor people don't even get one tear or one laugh before they go home. Isn't that a shame! I can't understand this dignified pomp and put-on when people are getting converted. We have more to shout about than anyone.

Here is a fellow—he is going to Heaven. Jesus has taken him... salvation by grace... can't fall... can't lose it... preserved, and we say, "Amen."

And here is a fellow—he is hanging on... holding out... hoping he won't slip and fall and slide, and he shouts all the way to Heaven. Isn't that something! It doesn't add up, does it?

Every once in a while folks will say that I preach like a Pentecostal. I wished they would say I preach like a Baptist. When I was a kid they did that. Nowadays they say "like a Pentecostal," because we have changed a great deal.

"All right, you have been saved now; you know you are converted; that if you died tonight you would go to Heaven. The next thing God wants you to do is to let people know that you have been saved. Read Romans 10:11, 'For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.' You believe on Him, don't you? You are not ashamed of Him, are you? The next thing God wants you to do is to make public your decision."

I always say something like this: "Mr. Doe, we could get a loudspeaker, drive down Main Street on Saturday afternoon and announce it to everybody, or we could have it printed up on circulars. But the usual way, Mr. Doe, is to come to church and when the preacher finishes preaching, come down the aisle to the front, have a seat on the front and let the preacher tell the people that you have been saved. Now, would you do that at some Bible-believing church this Sunday morning? If you would promise God, not me, but God, would you take my hand? Wonderful. Now, Mr. Doe, it just so happens that the wife and I come very close to here Sunday and we would love to have you as our guest Sunday morning. I'll be happy to come down the aisle with you to make it easy for you, and you can go with us and we can introduce you to some people, show you around. How about, say 9:15 Sunday morning? Wonderful."

I get them and take them with me to church. Before the Sunday School starts, I take them into the auditorium (especially if I think they don't know) and I stand back and say, "Now, Mr. Doe, this is the auditorium and there is the pulpit where I preach. I'm going to ask you to sit in the service about right over here. When I finish preaching, we're going to stand and sing a song. When we stand and sing that song, you will leave your seat, come down this aisle to the front and over to the center and I will take your hand. I will ask you to have a seat on the front. I will explain to the people what happened in your home this past week."

I tell him everything he is going to do. I do that in every invitation at my church.

On vacation recently I was in a church where I heard a marvelous message. When the pastor finished preaching, he said, "All right, we are going to stand and anybody who wants to be saved, come." We all stood but we didn't know where to come—whether to come to town, to the front, or to a party. If a fellow hadn't known what to do, he wouldn't have known where to come.

I say, "Now if you want to be saved this morning, leave your seat, come to the nearest aisle, down the aisle to the front, give me your hand if you will give Christ your heart." Break it down in little pieces for them. So, before the service I tell them exactly how to make their public profession of faith.

Notice that up to this point I haven't mentioned joining the church. I often say nothing about joining the church until they are down the aisle. They will appreciate that, too. You will get the reputation of not being primarily interested in getting church members, but in getting people saved. Too many spend time telling you that the nursery is air-conditioned; they have a new educational building; and the young people have a good program, etc. I often do not talk to them about joining the church until after they make their profession. As soon as they make it public, my assistant pastor goes by and talks to everybody in the line. (By the way, we have them stand up in front and we shake their hands after we dismiss the service.) My assistant pastor talks to each one about getting baptized. My secretary has a letter in her hands and comes behind him. The letter explains what to bring at night and invites them to come to the baptism class at 6:30 on Sunday.

Now very briefly I am going to win Mr. Doe to Christ. He is at home and I am going to knock on the door. He is reading the newspaper and has his house shoes on. I knock on the door. "How do you do, sir. Mr. Doe, my name is Jack Hyles. How are you today? I'm glad to see you. Say, that's a cute child you have there. She's a doll. Would you like to have some candy, honey? Give me some sugar... Well, Mr. Doe, I hope you aren't too busy. I'd like to talk to you just a minute. I can come back later if it isn't convenient."

"No, I'm not busy; come in."

"Thank you."

"Have a seat," Mr. Doe says.

"Thank you."

We chit-chat a while and I ask him where he works and talk about his home town. (Let me say this: this is where a general education comes in. Every soul winner ought to know as much about every subject as he can and about every state and every job, etc. General knowledge will come in handy as you can talk intelligently about most any subject.) We talk about the weather, his job, etc.

I listen to him for a while, then I say, "Let me ask you this, Mr. Doe: Do you know that if you died today, you would go to Heaven?"

"No, sir."

"Let me tell you, it is a wonderful thing to know. Did you ever think you would like to know that if you died you would go to Heaven?"

"Yes, sir."

"Let me ask you this question: Do you feel that if I could show you in the Bible exactly how you could know that if you died you would go to Heaven, and if you could see it and understand it, would you be willing to do it?"

"Yes, sir."

"I'm glad you said that. I'm going to show you what the Bible says about becoming a Christian. Now, Mr. Doe, there are only four things basically that you have to know to be saved. The first thing is, you must know that you are a sinner. I want you to look there at chapter 3 and verse 10 if you would please, where it says..."

(By the way, I hardly ever QUOTE a lot of Scriptures myself. Act like you're reading it yourself. Don't ask him to read the Scripture if you think he might have trouble or that it might embarrass him. You are not there to show off; you are there to help him. A lot of times they might think, "Man, doesn't he know the Bible!" But that isn't what you are there for.)

"So, notice in verse 10, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' If there are none righteous, Mr. Doe, that means I'm not righteous, doesn't it? That means that you're not righteous, doesn't it?"

"Yes."

"Notice in verse 23, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' If all have sinned, that means I have sinned and that you have sinned. Is that right?"

"Yes, sir."

"Now, that is the first thing you must know—that you are a sinner.

"The second thing that you must know to be saved is that there is a price on sin. Look here if you will please, to Romans 5:12 where it says, 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' Here is the story. God made a man, and his name was Adam. He made a woman, and her name was Eve. He put them in the Garden of Eden. He said that they could eat of every tree in the garden except one, and that was the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. He said that if they ate of that tree, they were going to die. They ate of that tree. Now every man is born in sin, is a sinner, and the Bible says that the price on sin is death. Look at verse 23 of chapter 6, and it explains the same thing, 'For the wages of sin is death...' Here's what it means. When man sinned, he died spiritually. Now, if he is dead spiritually and he dies physically while he is dead spiritually, he will have to suffer the second death, and that is called the lake of fire."

(Now usually on this matter of Hell, I say, "Of course you believe in Hell. Some folks don't believe in Hell." If you say, "Of course you believe in Hell" he will hate to say he doesn't.)

"So that means a person who is a sinner must pay for it by suffering Hell. Do you understand this? That's the price on sin.

"The third thing that you have to know is that Jesus paid that price. Look at chapter 5, verse 8, if you will please, 'But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.' Now, what is the price on sin? Death. What did Jesus do for us? He died for us. That means He was paying our price for us. He was suffering our Hell. He came to earth from Heaven and became a man, never sinned one time. He did not owe the debt. He paid a debt that He didn't owe. You owe a debt that you have not paid. He has a plus one; you have a minus one. He says that He would like to take His plus one and put it against your minus one, and balance the equation.

"Now the question is, How can you get His plus over here on your side? That's the fourth thing. The first thing you must know is that you are a sinner. The second thing, that sinners go to Hell when they die. The third thing, that Jesus has paid the price for sinners. The fourth thing, if you would be willing by faith to receive this plan as your hope for Heaven and Christ as your Saviour, He will take your sins and place them on His account and take His payment and place it against your sins and you would not owe for your sins anymore. Jesus paid the price for you.

"Let me illustrate. (This is one of the sweetest things usually that we do when we win souls. This is one of the most effective plans I have ever used.) Let's just say now that this is your record in Heaven, and your record is written in Heaven. Let's just list a few of your sins. Did you ever take anything that wasn't yours? Did you ever say a bad word? All right, let's list—bad word. Did you ever have an evil thought? All right, let's write it down—evil thought. We'll list some more.

"Now, what is the price on these things? The price tag is H-e-l-l, Hell. You're a sinner; here are your sins. That is Romans 3:10 and 3:23. Here is the price—Romans 5:12 and 6:23. Jesus went to the bank of Heaven and paid your debt for you. He sent me today to tell you about it. He has paid this price for you.

"Now, you have one of two choices. You can say, 'Preacher, I know He did but I don't want to do anything about it,' and you will still be in debt. Or you could say, 'Jesus, I know You died for me, You paid my Hell and I'm willing to receive You as my Saviour and trust You as my hope for Heaven.' That minute He will write P-a-i-d on your record and your record will be taken and thrown behind the back of God and will be as clean as that paper. Isn't that wonderful? That is the way your record will look.

"Now, let me ask you this: You realize you are a sinner; you realize that if you died today you would go to Hell; you realize that Jesus suffered Hell for you. Do you believe that if we knelt here right now and asked God's forgiveness and you put your faith in Christ, God would save you?"

"Yes, sir."

"Our Father, here is a man who needs to be saved. Jesus died for him. Lord, You have led me here today, and I thank You for it. Now may this be the greatest day in his life as he receives Jesus as Saviour...

"Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, I'm going to ask you to do the finest thing you have ever done, and that is to just ask God to have mercy on you and save you. Would you do it in your own words? Just like you talk to me, go ahead and talk to Him."

"Lord, I've sinned and I want You to forgive me. I want You to save me from my sins and I'll take You as my Saviour."

"Mr. Doe, while our heads are bowed, if you meant what you just said and you are willing today to give your life to Christ and trust Him as your hope for Heaven and you will make this the day of your acceptance of God's plan of salvation, would you take my hand as a token of it?" (That is one of the sweetest things. Their eyes are closed and lot of times they miss and they feel for your hand.)

Then you say, "Dear Lord, thank You that this man has trusted Jesus. And if the Bible is true and he has been sincere, he is Your child. Help him to see it now. In Jesus' name. Amen.

"God bless you, brother. Let me ask you this question now: According to this Book, where would you go if you died right now?"

"To Heaven."

"Do you believe this Book? When you get to the judgment seat, are you willing to trust your eternity on what this Book says?"

"Yes, sir."

"That means you are God's child. Now, suppose somebody asks you tomorrow, Mr. Doe, 'Are you a Christian?—what are you going to tell them?"

"I'll tell them yes."

"If somebody says, 'When did you become a Christian?'—what are you going to tell them?"

"Yesterday."

May God use this simple plan to help make you a soul winner.

1.8.5 There Will Be A Famine Of God's Word In The Last Days (2020-12-16 09:30)

Amos 8:11-12, "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it."

God is sending a famine of His Word, just as He said He would. Why would God do that? Simply because Americans stopped listening to God a long time ago, so He is removing the truth from our land as judgment upon our nation. ...

> WASHINGTON, D.C. —Fewer than one in four Americans (24 %) now believe the Bible is "the actual word of God, and is to be taken literally, word for word," similar to the 26 % who view it as "a book of fables, legends, history and moral precepts recorded by man." This is the first time in Gallup's four-decade trend that biblical literalism has not surpassed biblical skepticism. Meanwhile, about half of Americans—a proportion largely unchanged over the years—fall in the middle, saying the Bible is the inspired word of God but that not all of it should be taken literally.
> SOURCE: [1]Record Few Americans Believe Bible Is Literal Word of God

As our churches stray further away from belief in an infallible, inspired and perfect Holy Bible, the farther our nation descends down a reckless spiral of sin, despair and destruction! Our text prophetic Scripture passage from Amos 8:11-12 foretells of a coming famine of God's Word.

> Isaiah 6:10, "Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed."

Here is the full Old Testament passage from which which helps shed some light on the meaning of verse 6:

> Isaiah 6:8-12, "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed. Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land."

Put another way, the same sun that melts the wax hardens the clay! Why is it that two men hear the same exact Bible truth preached, but one man receives it and the other rejects it? I cannot tell you why. I am not a Calvinist! All 5-points of Calvinism are falsehoods. God doesn't choose who gets saved or who doesn't. God simply chose us because we chose Jesus Christ.

Calvinism lie = They believe, because they were chosen.
The truth = We were chosen, because we believe!

Here below is one of thousands of shocking examples of Satanic corruption, that I could show you in the modern Bible revisions. For exposing these Satanic deceptions, I was [2]wrongfully driven out of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014, and have been banned in writing from returning, by their ungodly pastors. This is a comparison between the accurate King James Bible (KJB), and the corrupt Common English Bible (CEB)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."
> COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) - Acts 20:21, "You know I have testified to both Jews and Greeks that they must change their hearts and lives as they turn to God and have faith in our Lord Jesus."

The translators of the CEB are bold-faced, demonic, LIARS!!! Where are we told in the Word of God that we MUST CHANGE OUR HEART AND LIFE AS WE TURN TO GOD, to be saved? In sharp contrast, the inspired King James Bible says to repent toward God, not change our life AS we turn toward God. What frauds! What con artists! What devils!!! Apostate Bible colleges have ruined tens of thousands of youth, robbing them of the infallibility and inspiration of God's Word. Today's horrible Neo-evangelical and Neo-fundamental [3]Bible colleges have robbed the saints of their faith.

> “Listen if you’re politically correct, you’re Biblically perverted (and vise versa). It cannot be both! ... You know why we don’t accept change? ’Cause we believe in something! We’ve got something to believe in.” —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the sermon titled: “[4]THE HARVEST IS PAST, THE SUMMER IS ENDED, AND WE ARE NOT SAVED!!!”

Here below is one of thousands of shocking examples of Satanic corruption, that I could show you in the modern Bible revisions. In sharp contrast, the inspired King James Bible says to repent toward God, not change our life AS we turn toward God. What frauds! What con artists! What devils!!! I say that kindly in love, but with all Biblical authority.

We find the first Devil’s Bible revision in Genesis 3:1b, where the serpent said: “HATH GOD SAID?” Whereas the King James Bible proclaims “THUS SAITH THE LORD,” the Devil’s Bibles say: “HATH GOD SAID?” All of these conflicting modern Bible revisions (literally about [6]900 English versions so far) have utterly confused and frustrated tens of millions of people. The new versions cause anxiety in people’s minds, not knowing what is the truth anymore. Consequently, people have lost confidence in the infallibility of God’s Word. This has resulted in a lot of spirituality without theology in the churches, and psychology as a substitute for sound doctrine, and entertainment as a substitute for the power of the Holy Spirit. We are experiencing a famine of God’s Word in the churches today!

Dear friend, I cannot encourage you enough to use only the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE! If it is more difficult for you to understand, get you a good Bible dictionary, lexicon and concordance. [7]You can find these tools for FREE on the internet. We are at war spiritually today more than every before! I encourage the saints to run to the King James Bible like a starving man running to some food!!! Psalms 27:1,

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

“So, let’s pray. Be faithful. Get your joy back! Read your Bible and pray until you get the joy of the Lord back in your heart! We ought to have the joy of the Lord. Keep your head above the water. Don’t drown in the cares of this life, like the Bible talks about. Get you some victory. Get the victory through the Lord Jesus!” —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the sermon titled: “[9]The Lost Generation”

1.8.6 If Salvation Were Ever By Works, Then God Owed It (2020-12-19 04:14)

Romans 4:1-4 “

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt."

The very fact that a preacher could entertain the false idea of people being saved "SOME OTHER WAY" is cause for great alarm! John 10:1, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." Since the beginning of human civilization, salvation has always been promised by God to those who place their trust in the Savior.

Please let me repeat our text passage, because it is so important. The following passage of Scripture 100 % unequivocally PROVES, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that no one has ever been saved by the works of the law:

> Romans 4:1-4 "
> What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt."

What Peter Ruckman, Gene Kim, Robert Breaker, [1]Chett Hensley, William Grady and Bryan Denlinger are literally teaching, by saying that people were saved BY WORKS in the Old Testament, is that GOD OWED THEM SALVATION!!! I didn't say that, God did! Please read Romans 4:1-4 again if you missed it. The Bible says if Abraham had been saved by works, then salvation wouldn't have been by grace, but of debt. Dear friend, do you really think God owes anyone eternal life? Do you think God owed everyone salvation in the time of Moses, who attempted to obey the Mosaic laws but utterly failed? It blows my mind that any preacher could even think of following such a disastrous, heretical, unbiblical, and theologically irresponsible notion—to teach that anyone has ever been redeemed by keeping God's law.

Romans 4:2-4 " For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God ."

Please don't miss that! If Abraham had been saved by works, then he would have had justifiable grounds to brag of his own self-righteousness. No human being has that right! These heretics, like Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, claim that Abraham was saved by faith, but then salvation became by works under the Mosaic law. That is utter nonsense and heresy!

Chett Hensley falsely teaches that people were saved by works plus faith in the Old Testament, during the future Tribulation period, and during the future Millennium! That is absurd! Acts 10:43 plainly teaches that ALL THE PROPHETS preached remission of sins through faith in the name of Christ. Kindly said, Chett Hensley is very wrong!!! I am sick and tired of heretical dispensational teaching, which corrupts Bible student's minds! If you were to eliminate dispensational junk theology, the heresies of Zionism and salvation by works in the Old Testament would disappear overnight! Please stay away from dispensationalism, because it is NOT taught in the Holy Bible!!! And run like hell from the Peter Ruckman crowd when they start teaching this dispensational garbage! Just give me the simple inspired King James Bible.

The same argument made by the Apostle Paul in Romans 4:1-4 regarding Abraham, absolutely applies to every human being! No one, not at any time in human civilization, has ever been owed salvation by God. As we just plainly read in Romans 4:1-4, if salvation were by works, then it would be of debt and not of God's grace. That eternal truth didn't change under the Mosaic law. Salvation has ALWAYS been solely by God's undeserved grace, provided through the blood sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross (1st Peter 1:18-19).

Galatians 1:6-9, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

God's curse is upon Bob Jones University, and their graduates who have not separated from associating with BJU today. In numerous ways BJU has succumbed to apostasy. First and foremost, the college has succumbed to the evils of Lordship Salvation.

What is Lordship Salvation? It is the heretical theological teaching that childlike faith (reliance) upon the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus' death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection is not enough to be saved. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation say that a person must repent of all their sins (to turn away from them), and have a sincere desire not to continue living in a lifestyle of sin. Lordship Salvation requires not only trusting Jesus as one's personal Savior, but also receiving Him as one's "

Lord

(Master), so that you surrender all to Christ and will follow Him from now on, wherever He leads you, and whatever He wants you to do. As you can see, Lordship Salvation is something completely different than simple childlike faith.

As our text Scripture passage says, God's curse is upon anyone who perverts the Gospel of free grace. ...

on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. " John 11:25, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?" The word is not mentioned even one time throughout the Gospel of John.

The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." That means we could eliminate the other 65 books of the Bible, and still be able to find how to have eternal life, just from the Gospel of John. That is why John was written—to convince the reader that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and to persuade the reader to believe on Jesus to be saved.

Evangelist Steve Pettit is a damnable false prophet, who has been the shameful Executive President of Bob Jones College since 2014. Read what Dr. Pettit teaches...

> "For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]22:44)

[4]According to Mr. Pettit, you are not really saved if you're not living a sanctified life.

Read this heretical quote by Steve Pettit...

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [5]11:34)

Steve Pettit is ADDING to the Gospel, teaching that you have to MAINTAIN your state of salvation by living a certain way. He plainly preaches that if you don't finish the race, you lose everything, including your soul. Pettit clearly says that he thinks the reward we get for faithfully running and finishing the race is heaven itself. If that be true, that we are required to run and finish a race, then salvation is indeed a REWARD, and cannot be a free GIFT. ...

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven*. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]22:57) BLASPHEMY!!! I am shell-shocked in disbelief that Harvest Baptist Church on Guam openly bids Godspeed to BJU and Steve Pettit still today. What will it take before professed Christians say, "

ENOUGH!

” How much does the Gospel have to be corrupted before BJU’s alumni decide to break off association with the college?

Sadly, Steve Pettit’s buddy, and former pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Marty Herron, is now the Executive Vice President of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery in Iowa. Dr. Herron also teaches that you must turn from a lifestyle of sin to be saved, which I heard him teach with my own two ears at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014. I went home and cried, realizing that Satan was infiltrating a local church. In 2017 Pastor Herron called me the church’s “enemy,” but I assure you with all Biblical authority (Romans 3:4) that it is Marty Herron who is the church’s injurious enemy, and not me. I am the only one telling THE TRUTH, and am hated for it, just as was the Apostle Paul. Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?”

Please notice that Paul only wanted to know one thing in 1st Corinthians 2:2, “ For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.” Paul didn’t ask them if they had turned from their sins. In fact, the church at Corinth was full of sin. Paul didn’t ask them if they spoke in tongues. Paul didn’t ask them if they had repented. Paul didn’t ask them if they were spiritual. Paul didn’t ask them anything except JESUS CHRIST, AND HIM CRUCIFIED!!! Do you believe that Jesus is the risen Christ, Who died on the cross in your place, to pay for your sins? Anyone who receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross, as payment for their sins, is saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is all Paul wanted to know.

I found this Greensboro, South Carolina, [7]news article about a threatening letter that BJU’s administration sent to one of their graduates, who after pastoring a church for decades came out to the world that he is a homosexual. BJU’s letter expressed open disdain for his lifestyle, threatening him that he would be arrested if he ever stepped foot on BJU’s campus again. Perhaps BJU should send a letter to itself, expressing dire concern over the apostate direction of the college since Dr. Bob Jones Sr. went to Heaven in 1968. Dr. Jones NEVER would have allowed Lordship Salvation to be taught at the college. In fact, Dr. Jones said if he could, in 50 years [8]he’d come back to blow the college to smithereens, if they ever allowed an infidel like Dr. Steve Pettit to rob the saints of their faith. It is truly sad that BJU has [9]moved away from the hope of the Gospel.

This is so sad and tragic, to see this kind of junk theology being taught at Bob Jones University today. My God, what has happened to BJU? Ladies and gentlemen, this is what happens when you dip your sails. Kindly, that is why I criticize the [10]First Baptist Church of Hammond (FBCH) so much for changing their position on the inspiration of the King James Bible. [11]Since 2008 the church has denied the inspiration of the King James Bible, falsely claiming that ONLY the “original autographs” were inspired (which we no longer have).

That was BJU’s downfall! The next thing you know, they start tolerating the Devil’s modern Alexandrian Bible revisions. John Wesley (1703-1791) was absolutely right: “What one generation tolerates, the next generation will embrace!” Mark my words: Hyles-Anderson College will go down the same apostate spiral as Bob Jones University has! It is inevitable once change starts. Change itself is the enemy! [12]Pastor Bob Gray Sr. wonderfully explains this truth in his classic sermon titled: ’[13]TRUTH VERSUS CHANGE!’

Both Sides May Be Wrong, But Everyone Cannot Be Right

President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) wisely said:

> “In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

I fully realize that the big issue today is over disagreement on WHAT IS the Gospel? WHAT IS Bible repentance for salvation? Pastor John MacArthur is at the heart of the issue, since he is an honored former BJU student. [14]Dr. Pettit is personal friends with Mr. MacArthur, congratulating and bidding Godspeed to MacArthur’s heretical ’Grace To You’ ministry and church in California. Dr. MacArthur’s net worth is over $14,000,000. [15]Here’s something John MacArthur doesn’t want you to read.

Nothing has destroyed the credibility of churches today as has money-hungry Bible colleges, pastors getting paid 6-digit salaries, and the never-ending begging for more money from churches. Christianity began as a new birth in the Bible. When it went to Greece, it became a philosophy. When it went to Rome, it became an organization. When it spread throughout Europe, it became a culture. And sadly, when Christianity came to America, it became a business!

Folks, either John MacArthur is right on salvation, or the Bible is right, but it cannot be both. Mr. MacArthur errantly preaches that salvation is [16]an exchange, a trade, for all that you are for all that Christ is. That sounds good and theological, but it is totally unbiblical. Salvation is you doing NOTHING, and Jesus doing EVERYTHING! That is why the Bible calls it a “ from God. Receiving eternal life cannot be an exchange, because then payment would be involved, and [17]it would actually COST you something .

Sadly, John MacArthur even uses the word “COST”...

> “Don’t believe anyone who says it’s easy to become a Christian*. Salvation for sinners cost God His own Son; it cost God’s Son His life, and it’ll cost you the same thing...” [emphasis added] —[18]Dr. John MacArthur, Grace To You, an updated quote from his book ’Hard To Believe’, page 93.

No, that is WRONG! Getting saved won’t cost you anything! It cost Jesus! MacArthur is right that salvation cost God His only begotten Son. And he is right that it cost Jesus His life. But salvation DOESN’T cost you or me anything, because Jesus Himself became the payment on the cross for our sins. Jesus shed His precious blood. 1st Peter 1:18-19, “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:” 1st Corinthians 6:20, “ For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s.” Dear friend—YOU WERE BOUGHT! The price for your purchase was Jesus!

All this nonsense about salvation costing someone, and of it being an exchange, a trade, is of the Devil. There is no such language used in the inspired King James Bible. Jesus paid it all! RUN, and I mean RUN AWAY as fast as you can, from Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Billy Graham, Unshackled, and anyone who says that eternal life will COST YOU!!! God’s curse is on the Bob Jones University camp. Moody Radio in Chicago promotes Ray Comfort and John MacArthur, bidding Godspeed to these damnable false teachers! 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

God dedicated an entire book of the Bible to teach us how to have eternal life—the Gospel of John. God dedicated an entire book of the Bible to warn us about false teachers who pervert the Gospel by requiring MORE than simple childlike faith—the Epistle of Galatians. God dedicated an entire book of the Bible to help believers know that we are saved—the Epistle of 1st John. If we rightly divide the Word of God, then there is no controversy. Lordship Salvation is not found in the Bible.

I love everyone with God's unconditional love. I truly do. I am not out to get anyone. I am a grateful born-again Christian, since age 13, who is faithfully contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). By God's grace, I'll turn 54 years old on March 5th, 2021. Where have the years gone? If I'm going to find a wife, I had better hurry up, because there ain't much time left, God willing. My heart breaks to see that another gospel has crept into Bob Jones University, since from the days [19]when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. was still in charge. It breaks my heart to see that another gospel has crept into Moody Bible Institute, since from the days [20]when Pastor Harry A. Ironside was in charge. There is only ONE GOSPEL.

There is only ONE BIBLE. The never ending rash of so-called "new" and "improved" Bible versions is the reason why Lordship Salvation has crept into the churches, because that is [21]what the new versions teach! The translators are [22]following social and [23]theological agendas instead of THE TRUTH. Wicked men are changing the Holy Bible. Sadly, Bob Jones and Moody have [24]bit hook, line and sinker into the Devil's Bibles. Anybody with an ounce of spiritual discernment, who loves Jesus Christ and has some honest integrity, must acknowledge that Satan is behind the modern Bible-corrupting movement!

I am speaking THE TRUTH in love (Ephesians 4:15). The Bible says that LOVE rejoices in the truth (1st Corinthians 13:6). I humbly wish more people would listen. I am just a broken and redeemed sinner. I love Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, who whether they like it or not have been my family since 2014. They are the only church family I have right now, even though they continue to ostracize and avoid me. A hurting dog barks! The Gospel is not a trifle matter. The Gospel is so important that Paul said God's curse is upon anyone, whether he be man or angel, who changes and perverts it!

I don't know what is going on with Google. But first, I love Blogspot and highly recommend it to everyone who loves to write. I am very impressed with their software. Having said that, I am very dissatisfied with their search engine, because many of my articles don't appear. For example: Go type "John MacArthur another gospel" on [25]Google, and then on [26]Bing. What a difference! My article came up first on Bing, but not on the first few pages of Google. On page four one of my articles appeared. I am likely the biggest opponent that Dr. MacArthur has! Still, I am grateful for whatever exposure the truth gets. I just want to be helpful. I have never made a penny and never will. I do what I do for the Lord's sake, the truth, and you dear reader.

1.8.8 Beware Of Dispensational Junk Theology (2020-12-21 09:30)

Romans 4:1-7, “

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

I don’t like to write articles to refute people whom I also support. For example: I fully support Pastor Steven Anderson and his ministry in Arizona. I love the guy! Yet I have written several articles refuting some of the doctrines he teaches, with which I disagree (e.g., I disagree with the [1]Reprobate Doctrine as he teaches it, and his [2]denial of Paradise in the Old Testament, and that he says Jesus burned in Hell for three days). Granted, I thank God for Pastor Anderson, who is a fervent faithful soulwinner.

Refuting Chett Hensley On Old Testament Salvation By Faith Plus Works

Having said that, I also support Chett Hensley’s YouTube ministry. Hensley is a hard working guy, and someone whom I admire tremendously. He may dislike me after this, or perhaps he already did or didn’t, but I love him anyway as my Christian brother. [3]Here’s his picture and some great photos that he uploaded to Pinterest. I am not Hensley’s enemy, nor do I consider him anything other than my friend. But I am loyal to THE TRUTH, and not any man. I even rebuke my hero, [4]Pastor Jack Hyles for teaching the heresy of the Shekinah Glory.

Albeit, I 100 % disagree with Hensley's dispensational teaching. Pastor Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) was a legendary preacher in his time, and I believe a genuine man of God. I think we all owe Dr. Ruckman a debt of gratitude for [5]his awesome work exposing the modern Bible perversions. However, Dr. Ruckman had some bugs in his theology. I believe [6]he was a saved man. Unfortunately, [7]Dr. Ruckman taught that abortion is okay. But much worse is Ruckman's false teaching that people were saved by works in the Old Testament under the Mosaic covenant. Sadly, because of his popular influence, Ruckman has led thousands of preachers to follow his unbiblical heresy of salvation by works under the law. This is a serious matter!

Kindly said, NO ONE was ever saved by works, nor by partial faith plus works! Our text passage from Romans 4:1-7 plainly teaches that God doesn't OWE anybody salvation! The Bible says if Abraham had been justified by works, then salvation would be by debt instead of by grace. There is not one verse in the Old or New Testament that says, nor even indicates, that people were ever saved by works. I am not a respecter of persons. It doesn't matter if it is Jack Hyles, Steven Anderson or Chett Hensley that teaches heresy, I am going to expose them, just as they should me. It is not okay to believe whatever you want! Right doctrine matters. Peter Ruckman did a lot of damage with his Old Testament (and future Tribulation period) salvation by works dispensational junk theology!

By the way, religious Zionism is another heresy that has been spawned by dispensational junk theology. I know some faithful pastors who adhere to dispensational teaching, and I love and support them. But when anyone starts using dispensational teaching to idolize manmade Israel today (aka, Zionism), or to teach that people have ever been saved by works (or faith plus works) at any time, I am going to nip that garbage in the bud quickly! I don't want to hear any garbage from dispensationalists, about being saved differently during some previous dispensation. Pastor Jack Hyles was right—there has never been a so-called "dispensation of grace," lost sinners have always been saved by grace through faith in Christ. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

In a heretical video titled, "

[8]Salvation Throughout The Bible (Rightly Dividing Dispensations),

" Hensley teaches that people were saved by faith plus works in the Old Testament. He says people will be saved by faith plus works during the future Tribulation. And he says people will be saved by faith plus works during the 1,000 year future Millennium. Yet he believes we are somehow still saved by faith alone in the New Testament Church Age. Folks, this is one big reason why I reject dispensational teaching!!! It is not found in the Bible, despite what dispensaltisliats may claim, by wrestling the Scriptures. The FACT of the matter is that dispensational teaching DID NOT EXIST prior to the latter 19th century!

In response to the preceding heretical video, this YouTube view rebuke Hensley, with which I fully agree:

> Sam Andeli
>
> The devil is a Liar always. Salvation has always been of grace, because it's a super-natural birth/saving, look at Noah. Also, read James, show me your works...
> Throw out all this dispensational teachings, they are bogus. Go back to the simple reading of the KJV, we need no other book or interpretation.
> Bless you.

In response, Hensley rebukes him back with this response:

> Hensley
> Not denying that. God's grace was always involved. Without grace everyone would have went to hell but how God dispensed the grace was different. The "new birth" wasn't until the church age. That is why Nicodemus didn't know what Jesus was referring to in John 3. No one in the old testament was "born again."

What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 4:2-5, "
>
> For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
>
> For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
>
> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*.
>
> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Kindly said, Hensley is in denial. He still insists that people were saved by God's grace in the Old Testament, but like Noah, they had to work to get saved. Hensley says in the preceding video that Noah wasn't saved by faith, but by doing the work of getting on the ark. That is preposterous! Hebrews 11:7, "

By faith* Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. " So it was BY FAITH that everything else followed. Noah was saved by faith alone, and not by any works whatsoever. Hensley has been deceived by Peter S. Ruckman, as has Bryan Denlinger, William P. Grady, Gene Kim and others.

Beware Of Dispensational Junk Theology

The only way to "rightly divide" dispensational teaching is to REJECT IT! 2nd Timothy 2:15-18, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;

Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

" Right after exhorting the reader to rightly divide the Word of Truth, the Bible says to shun (avoid, distance yourself) any profane (heathen) and vain babblings. The Bible says such babblings will spread like canker (gangrene).

I know some people will disagree with me, but I think anything that is too complicated for a sweet grandmother saint, who is sitting on her front porch in a rocking chair, reading her King James Bible, is something I am not interested in! If I get much older I'll be looking to marry one of those elderly saints! God willing I'll turn 54 on March 5th, 2021. Those older gals are starting to look pretty good! Good night I'm getting old! Seriously, I triple dog dare you sometime to find a sweet elderly godly lady, a seasoned saint, and start talking to her about dispensationalism. Try that and see how far you get, before she either starts laughing so hard she begins to cry, or shakes her head in disbelief at your woeful ignorance, or perhaps just offers you a cold glass of sweet lemonade to cool your wild imagination down!

My beef is not with Hensley, but with the damnable heresy that says people were ever saved by works. [9]If salvation were ever by works, then God owed them salvation! God doesn't owe anybody anything except Hell forever! Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " How could doing works repay the debt that we owe for our sins? Obviously they couldn't. Jesus had to pay the price, for every human being who ever lived. Dear friend, Romans 4:1-7 is so very clear! Romans 4:1-5 speaks concerning Abraham (before the time of Moses), but verse 6 speaks concerning David (who lived during the Mosaic covenant). Clearly, it didn't matter whether someone lived before or after Moses, they were still SAVED BY FAITH ALONE!

Salvation Has Always Been Through Faith In The Blood Of The Lamb

Dear reader, please read Hebrews chapters 9-12, and you will find that Old Testament saints were saved through the blood! Hebrews 9:19-22, "Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood. For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

Each year the Jews celebrate the Passover, in remembrance of THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB that saved them! Exodus 12:13, " And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt." Oh dear friend, people have always been saved BY THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB OF GOD. 1st Peter 1:18-19-20,

"Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

" People are saved today, and were saved throughout the Old Testament, through FAITH IN THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB!!!

Bible Truth Versus Deeper Life Theology

I am utterly disgusted with deeper life theology. [10]Someone asked me what I thought about Molinism. I said, molinwhat? I avoid deeper life theologians like the Coronavirus!

Kindly said, Chett Hensley argues that since Nicodemus didn't understand what it means to be born-again, that somehow proves people were saved differently in the Old Testament. But please notice that Jesus expected Nicodemus to already know these things, and was surprised that he didn't. John 3:9-10, " Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? " People were saved in the Old Testament by faith. That is what the prophet Habakkuk said.

Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but *the just shall live by his faith." That is what the prophet Isaiah said. Isaiah 45:22, "

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

Abraham's faith was counted (imputed) for righteousness (Romans 4:1-5).

When Jesus walked alongside the two curious men on the road to Emmaus, the Lord expounded them beginning with Genesis, and working His way through the Old Testament.

Luke 24:27, "

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

" Christ dying on the cross didn't bring about a new plan of salvation, but fulfilled all that the Old Testament had led up to. Romans 10:4 teaches that Christ was the ultimate embodiment of all that the law shadowed in advance.

Romans 10:4, "

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

" Through faith in Christ we are made complete! No one has ever been saved by keeping the law, nor did God ever intend for anyone to be saved by trying to keep the law. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin*.

Everything from the Old Testament that Jesus taught those two men on the road to Emmaus, all led up to His death, burial and resurrection. The Lord didn't give them a new plan of salvation, He simply explained the only one which has ever existed, remission of sins through faith in Christ.

Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

People Have Always Been Saved Through Faith In The Blood Of The Lamb

It is important to understand that all of the Old Testament rituals were CEREMONIAL LAWS intended only for the Jews. These temporary written laws were only for Old Testament Jews, who lived in Israel. Colossians 2:14-16 teaches these laws were done away with, nailed to the cross. God never intended for anyone to be saved by keeping these law. Nor did God intended for anyone to be saved by keeping MORAL LAWS (aka, the Ten Commandments). And a good thing, because the Jews broke all ten of them before Moses even came down off the mountain where he received them from God. What utter hogwash it is for anyone to teach that people in the Old Testament were saved by faith plus works! No, they were saved through faith in the blood of the Lamb, just like we are today. That is why the Jewish high priest once a year had to enter into the holy place with the blood of a spotless lamb, and sprinkle that slain lamb's blood upon the mercy seat in the holy of holies, in the presence of God.

Kindly said, David calls Peter Ruckman, Bryan Denlinger, Bill Grady, Gene Kim and Chett Hensley a liar!

Romans 4:6, “

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

” Wait a minute! Did you read that dear reader... WITHOUT WORKS!!! God imputed righteousness to David WITHOUT WORKS!!! Great fluffy biscuits in the morning! Let the arrogant wannabe theologians criticize and moan, I just showed you the plain and simple WORD OF GOD!!! But you say, do you think you're a theologian? No, and I don't want to be one either!

> “The Lord is not compelled to use theologians. He can take snakes, sticks or anything else, and use them for the advancement of his cause.” —Billy Sunday

Beware of the bloodless theology that says people were saved by works in the Old Testament. Again and again in the Word of God, we are taught that people were saved through faith in the blood of the lamb!

1.8.9 Does 1st Corinthians 9:26 Teach Losing Salvation? (2020-12-22 16:58)

1st Corinthians 9:22-27, “To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel’s sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.”

Proponents of losing salvation and Lordship Salvation use OBSCURE passages of Scripture, like 1st Corinthians 9:27 to justify their false teachings. There is absolutely nothing in this passage to suggest that "castaway" refers to losing salvation. 1st Corinthians 9:27, "But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway." The Gospel of John was written to tell us how to be saved (John 20:31). John doesn’t mention one thing about running a race, keeping our body under subjection, persevering, repenting, nor anything else besides faith alone to receive eternal life.

I can show the same evidence to ten different people. Five of those people will see one thing, but the other five may see something else entirely. What is the Gospel truth to one crowd of people is a foolish fairytale to others (1st Corinthians 1:18). People only see what they want to see. That is human nature. To the man with a hammer in his hand, everything looks like a nail sticking up. Honestly, as incompetent as all these internet wannabe Bible scholars are today, I would have to comment on the entire Bible to refute them, because they can literally corrupt any passage to mean whatever they want it to mean. That is not truth!

I receive many emails from doctrinally confused people, because they are reading what false teachers say online. I am glad to answer questions, to feed Jesus’ sheep from the inspired Word of God. Dear reader, if that is you of whom I speak, you will continue to go in circles as long as you let the heretics lead you into their false teachings. Instead, I would listen (or read) the Gospel of John 25 times, and use that as a benchmark, since John wrote it to tell us how to be saved. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

The "race" in 1st Corinthians 9:26 simply refers to living the Christian life. We have a duty as believers to run the race that is set before us. God did not save us just to eat, drink and be merry until we die (although God does want us to enjoy life too). God saved us so that we would follow Him as our Lord (Romans 14:9). I am not speaking about the gift of eternal life here, which is by faith alone. Hebrews 12:1, "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us," This is sanctification, not salvation.

God saves a man, and then the indwelling Holy Spirit uses the inspired Word of God to sanctify him (John 17:17). But if that believer chooses to walk in the flesh and not the Spirit, they will languish in immaturity and not grow (Luke 8:11-15). That is why Paul called the believers at Corinth "babes" in 1st Corinthians 3:1. They were immature in the Lord, but they were saved. They were not following Christ as "Lord."

In 1st Corinthians 9:24-25, Paul plainly states that the "prize" for running the race faithfully is an incorruptible crown, not salvation. It is a sin to add to the Scriptures what it doesn't say. There is nothing in this passage teaching that we must run a race to be saved. In fact, living the Christian life is the fastest way to go to Hell, if a person substitutes that instead of faith alone in Jesus Christ. This is what happened in Matthew 7:21-23. They boasted of their "many wonderful works" done in Jesus' name, but they had never wholly leaned on Jesus' name. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

I kindly recommend friend (if you are unlearned doctrinally) that you read more of what accurate preachers like Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) preach, rather than listen to the heretics which abound on the internet. Here are some great articles on salvation...

[1]http://www.jesusisprecious.org/sermons/printed/curtis _hutson/simple _salvation.htm

[2]https://www.jesus-is-savior.com/BTP/Dr _Curtis _Hutson/salvation _crystal _clear.htm

Also, here is a great chapter from Pastor A. Ray Stanford's (1916-2012) book: "Handbook Of Personal Evangelism." The chapter is called: "Eternal Security"...

[3]http://www.freegraceresources.org/pe02.html

[4]http://www.freegraceresources.org/pebook.html

[5]Dr. Steve Pettit is an accursed false teacher today, president of Bob Jones University, who teaches that the "reward" for "running the race" is eternal life itself. Pettit is a devil-dog preacher! I say that kindly, but truthfully.

If salvation could be lost, then the Bible would have come right out and directly told us, not leave it to assumption. The Lord would be a bold-faced liar, if "everlasting life" meant anything other than life that lasts forever. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." The Holy Bible doesn't say temporary life, nor probationary life, but eternal life. If saved, always saved!

1.8.10 Every False Prophet Says Salvation Is By God's Grace (2020-12-23 04:59)

Galatians 1:6-9, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel*:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

If you go examine the plan of salvation of Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ, Calvinists, proponents of Lordship Salvation, and Roman Catholics, you'll find that they all deceitfully claim salvation in by "

God's grace.

For example: I went to the Roman Catholic Vatican's website, and here is a quote:

> 1996 - Our justification comes from the grace of God. Grace is favor, the free and undeserved help that God gives us to respond to his call to become children of God, adoptive sons, partakers of the divine nature and of eternal life.

Yet, upon further inspection, [3]Catholics are required to observe Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, the first of which is water baptism. Clearly, this is not the Gospel taught in the Bible. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

There is nothing in THE GOSPEL about getting water baptized, repenting or turning from sins, nor about keeping Seven Sacraments to be saved. Therefore, Roman Catholics are cursed by God for adhering to another Gospel of faith plus works.

Sadly, this is the SAME sin of the [4]Lordship Salvation crowd today, adding works to faith.

This is the sin of the Moody Bible Institute crowd. This is the sin of Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago and their '[5]UNSHACKLED' radio series.

This is the sin of the ungodly [6]Bob Jones University crowd. This is the sin of the [7]Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. On their church's website, Harvest says that they believe salvation is by "

God's grace.

Yeah, and so does the Catholic Vatican, as I just showed you! It doesn't mean anything anymore for someone to profess to believe in salvation because if the truth be told, they are trusting in MORE! Adding anything to faith cancels grace!

BY GRACE,

I wrote this article to point out that Satan has crept into most of our Baptist churches today, including independent fundamental Baptist churches, propagating a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works (aka, the "

turn from your sin

to be saved garbage theology). This heresy is spreading like cancer. The Bible says in 2nd Timothy 2:17 that their word is like "canker" (i.e., gangrene). Harvest Baptist Church is like gangrene on Guam, eating away at healthy tissue, killing it with their heresy of Lordship Salvation. Harvest broadcasts Dr. Steve Pettit's daily chapel sermons at BJU throughout Micronesia, on KHMG 88.1 FM radio, poisoning people's minds with [8]deadly Calvinism. God's curse is on them all (Galatians 1:8).

On January 26, 2015, Dr. Steve Pettit preach this damnable teaching to 2,700 Bob Jones University students and faculty...

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [9]11:34)

Dr. Steve Pettit is a false prophet! What he is preaching is NOT God's grace dear reader! [10]Dr. Pettit plainly says you MUST run to the end to be saved. Galatians 1:6-7 pronounces God's CURSE upon Bob Jones University today, for perverting the Gospel of grace. When you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace. The attack the gift of grace, which is eternal life! You attack the guardian of grace, which is the local New Testament church. You attack the goal of grace, which is to preach the Gospel (not false doctrine) throughout all the world. It is no light thing to God to add to faith, which is to corrupt grace.

Kindly said, Dr. Steve Pettit is an incompetent preacher! [11]So also is Dr. Marty Herron at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. These men sinfully ADD to faith—requiring people to run the race, turn from their sins, and forsake a sinful lifestyle—which is a gross perversion of God's grace and the true Gospel. Here are some helpful quotes from various preachers, refuting the Bob Jones' crowd on their heresy of Lordship Salvation:

> "It is an inexcusable error to confront sinners with problems that concern the Christian life and call upon them to make promises regarding them. An unsaved person is never called upon to surrender himself to God. The saving act is in no instance represented as our 'giving ourselves to God'; it is, on the contrary, taking His Son as our Savior." —Pastor Charles Ryrie, "Balancing the Christian Life"; Moody Press, Inc., 1969 (p. 170).
> "The second approach finds faith in the gospel alone an 'easy Believism' and seeks to add something to faith in order to accomplish salvation. To repent is to 'change one's mind,' and to believe is to remove one's trust from that in which it has rested and place it in Christ." —William Howard, "Is Faith Enough to Save?" Bibliotheca Sacra. January-March, 1942 (p.99).
> "This kind of faith is not 'easy believism'. It is not easy to say, 'I can't save myself, I must recognize that there is something wrong with me, and I must seek help from someone else.'" —Dr. H. Phillip Hook, "A Biblical Definition of Saving Faith"; Bibliotheca Sacra. April-June, 1964 (p. 133, 138).
> "Eternal life is free. Discipleship is immeasurably hard. The former is attained by faith alone, the latter by a faith that works... the former brings with it the righteousness of God so that a man is 'justified freely by his grace' (Romans 3:24). The latter develops a personal righteousness, based on good deeds, so that a man was also 'justified by works' (James 2:24). The former constituted the believer God's workmanship, the latter fulfilled the wonderful purpose for which he had been created. The former cost man nothing, the latter could cost him everything, including life itself." —Dr. Zane C. Hodges, "The Hungry Inherit"; Moody Press, Inc., 1972 (p. 114, 115).
> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Dr. M. R. DeHaan, "Hebrews"; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).
>
> "For the unregenerate man, repentance is the change of mind whereby he turns from unbelief to faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ." —Roger Post, "The Meanings of the Words Translated 'Repent' and 'Repentance' in the New Testament"; Master's Thesis, Wheaton College, June 1972 (p. 80).
> "There are those who, in their zeal to get people to turn from their sinful ways and receive the Lord, almost put repentance on a par with believing... Repentance, as it relates to Christ, means to change our minds about Him, who He is and what He's done to provide forgiveness and deliverance from our sins. When we place faith in Jesus as having taken our place personally on the cross and borne the penalty due our sins, then we're automatically repenting, because we couldn't accept Him in this way without having had to change our minds in some way concerning Him." —Hal Lindsey, "The Liberation of Planet Earth," Zondervan Publishing House, 1974 (p. 136, 137).

"Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". —J. Dwight Pentecost, "Design for Discipleship," Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).

"Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship". —Everett F. Harrison, "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?—No."; Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." —Dr. Merrill F. Unger, "God is Waiting to Meet You," Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." —Lewis Sperry Chafer, "Salvation," Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

The Bible says eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9), that you simply receive BY FAITH (Galatians 3:26). You certainly CAN speak about "GETTING SAVED, AND YOU ACCEPTED CHRIST, AND THEN

"!!! That is why it is by grace alone, and not by works. It is a free gift! A gift is a receive proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trusting to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Dear reader, if someone proclaims to believe that salvation is by God's grace, you put them to the test like the Bible says. 1st John 4:1, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

" Salvation by grace can only mean salvation BY FAITH ALONE, and nothing else. This faith automatically includes repentance (which Biblically is a simple

). No one has ever come to Christ by faith, who hasn’t also repented toward God. Repentance does NOT mean to turn from your sins, and anyone who says it does is perverting grace. They are corrupting the Gospel. If turning from sins were required to be saved, then the Apostle Paul would have mentioned it when he DECLARED THE GOSPEL in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. But Paul DIDN’T declare any such thing!!! Simply believe the Gospel and you are saved.

I am much hated, despised, criticized and ostracized by churches, especially the popular Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, whom I love with God’s unconditional love enough to “REBUKE THEM SHARPLY” as the Bible commands. ...

> Titus 1:10-14, “For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
>
> Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not*, for filthy lucre’s sake.
>
> One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
>
> This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith ;
> Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. ”

The Bob Jones’ crowd hate me and count me as their enemy because I told THE TRUTH. They are the one’s who are saying things they shouldn’t be saying, not me. They are the one’s who need to be rebuked in love, not me. It is Dr. Sam Horn who needs to be rebuked. It is [13]Pastor Marty Herron who needs to be rebuked. It is [14]Dr. Steve Pettit who needs to be rebuked. It is [15]Pastor John MacArthur who needs to be rebuked. It is [16]Bob Jones University that needs to be rebuked. These religious leaders and groups [17]all preach the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. I am in agreement with the King James Bible (Romans 3:4).

It is the ungodly Lordship Salvation camp who must to be rebuked sharply.

Eternal life is a free gift, which you simply receive with childlike faith in Jesus as your personal Savior. That’s it! We are the sinners, and Jesus is the Savior!

The reason why Bon Jones University, Master’s University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and Moody Bible Institute have become so theologically corrupt and sinfully indifferent is because of the Devil’s Bible revisions. They use, sell and promote umpteen Bible versions, confusing everybody. God only authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 256, not 900. The King James Bible is God’s unbroken Scripture, as Jesus promised in John 10:35. As long as these reprobate religious leaders and apostate institutions continue to teach their damnable heresy, by God’s grace I will continue to faithfully REBUKE THEM SHARPLY!!! Oh, dear reader, I love you enough to tell you THE TRUTH. I hope you love Jesus and care enough to take heed to it.

1.8.11 Everyone Needs And Wants To Be Loved (2020-12-24 20:40)

Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." 1st John 3:10-14, "In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

1st John 2:5,

"But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

People just want to be loved, just love the hell out of them. I [1]heard Pastor John K. Jenkins Sr. say that, and I never forgot it, because it is so true! Sadly, most churches today are ran like social clubs. If you are not part of their accepted clique, you are not welcomed. In fact, many churches will ostracize you! I have visited churches where I felt like they couldn't have cared less if I came back or not. That is a very bad testimony for any church to have. People ought to be made to feel loved. I have heard unreasonable pastors place the burden upon visitors, telling them that they should go talk to the pastors and church members. That is ridiculous! Why would a stranger take the initiative to act like they are church members before being invited to join?

I remember when I visited the Bayview Baptist Church on Guam in 2009. Mike Albin was the senior pastor then, who has since relocated to Washington in the United States. I was going through a difficult time in my life and recovering from a divorce. I sat and cried in church, emotionally hurting. No one approached me in church to ask me to join. No one cared if I was there. I couldn't believe what Mike Albin said, after I had attended the church for 3 months. He said from the pulpit: "Some of you are like big teenagers—you want us to come up and talk to you, but you need to come over and talk to us!"

Respectfully, Pastor Albin not only has a degree from the Dallas Theological Seminary, but also has an earned degree in Psychology. Go figure! You'd think that a guy with all that training would have enough courage and wisdom to know how to deal with people. For the 3 months I attended the Bayview Baptist Church, with my life afflicted like the [2]Poseidon ship upside down, their pastors couldn't have cared less at Bayview. I was there and in need of their help and love. They were cowards! They were afraid to reach out to me. So I left and never went back again, feeling unwanted, and that is on them. No one wants to be where they are not wanted! Kindly, it doesn't require a degree in psychology to figure that out.

I am not saying these things in bitterness. I forgive them! Pastor Albin taught me some helpful things in his preaching. I'll never forget one particular sermon. He showed a photo of an island man with a cart loaded ten feet high. The wheel broke and the cart wasn't going anywhere! Pastor Albin said the picture illustrated many people's lives. He said that many people center their life around their spouse, but then their spouse is gone one day. Then they center their life around their children, but then their children grow up and are gone one day. Then they have nothing left! What we should all do is center our life around Jesus Christ, Who will never leave nor forsake us. I cried as I listened to Pastor Albin. Tears ran down my cheeks. I had made the very mistake he mentioned. My wife and children were all gone, and I had no one in 2009. I bought two small barbecues and charcoal to commit suicide. It is only by God's grace, because of my FAITH in Jesus Christ, that I didn't kill myself.

My point is that there are millions of people who feel just like me. When they visit a church, they feel intimidated and unsure of what to expect. The hardest thing in the world is to attend a new church for the first time. It is very difficult for someone to walk into an unfamiliar building, in the midst of a big group of strangers, unsure of how they worship and believe, wondering if they will accept you. I didn't feel like I belonged at Bayview. My spiritual compass was broken and I needed some guidance. I needed their love and help, but didn't know how to go about it. They use the Devil's modern Bibles at Bayview. They have no soulwinning ministries. I like music, so I didn't mind the electric guitars and drums. I loved that actually. I wish I had been strong enough to take the initiative, but I was too weak. I hope someone reading this will remember what I am sharing with you. If you attend a church, look for new visitors and reach out to them. Tell them: "We are glad you are here! We hope you will come back again. Everybody is loved and welcome!" People are dying to be loved and wanted!!!

I have been ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014, because I am a Fundamentalist Christian, and they are apostate Neo-evangelicals. Even though I sincerely and kindly offered to set aside our doctrinal differences, just so I could have a church family—they have vehemently rejected me, shunned me, ignored me, been unfriendly toward me, and ostracized me as their enemy. Like the Apostle Paul, I have been wrongly persecuted for telling THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? " The churches of Galatia counted Paul as their enemy, because he exposed their Lordship Salvation as being a false gospel (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3).

I am intrigued with the following Bible verse. 1st John 2:5,

"But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him*.

" The Bible is teaching us how to how to become loving toward God and people—by keeping God's Word. If we obey the Bible, God's love will be perfected (matured) in us. That explains why there is a woeful lack of love in most churches today, because they are using the Devil's counterfeit Bibles! These modern Bibles are very corrupt. Human beings have a horrible tendency to defend error, even if it means dying for their wrong cause! Of course, they think they are right.

I remember an incident at the bank many years ago, while my father (1933-2010) was still alive. My father was a pastor (of a rescue mission in Chicago) and regularly needed to go to the bank to deposit donations. I was with my father one day when he went to deposit money into the mission bank account. The young Caucasian man (bank teller) helping my father, falsely accused my father of not giving him $2,000, but my father insisted that he just did. The bank teller called over his Caucasian female supervisor. For the next 10 minutes that ungodly woman argued with my father, insisting that her employee could not have made an error. She threatened to call security to have my father removed from the bank. She exclaimed:

“Sir, our employees are highly trained, required to follow a very specific procedure so that mistakes like you allege cannot happen. You didn’t give him the $2,000 Sir! You need to leave or I will call security to remove you!”

Then in the heat of the argument, the bank teller’s face turned red, and he hung his head, saying: “I see where I made an error!” That wicked fool for a supervisor turned her head hard to the right, looking at her employee in disgust. I wish to God. I wish to God, that I could have fired that wicked and unreasonable supervisor right there on the spot! In fact, I would have sentenced her to time in prison to teach her a lesson about falsely accusing others! That idiotic woman typifies sinful human nature—when we are willing to have somebody manhandled by police to prove our ignorance, error and foolishness!!! You know I am right. There are some very wicked and unreasonable people in this world, and many of them are religious people!!! There’s not a more wicked and unreasonable group today than Bob Jones University and their alumni, who promote the Devil’s Bibles and preach another Gospel of Lordship Salvation! You cannot reason with them.

I have learned that professed Christians who don’t care about the purity of God’s Word, and don’t care about the accuracy of the Gospel, and don’t care about right doctrine—those same indifferent religious tares don’t genuinely care about people either! Everyone needs and wants to be loved. If the churches aren’t loving hurting and needy people, then who is going to do it?

> “Look if you just learn to love people, can’t that make you a little sensitive? You can’t take a person who hates somebody and then teach them sensitivity training. It just don’t work that way. You see when you care about people and you love people, and you want the best for people, that makes you more sensitive; but when you don’t care about people, all the sensitive training in the world ain’t going to help.”

1.8.12 Eternal Life Was Promised Before The World Began (2020-12-25 09:30)

Galatians 3:6-14, "Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham*.

And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham*.

For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

This passage is so beautiful and simple dear reader. It begins in verse 6 with a declarative statement—Abraham BELIEVED GOD and it was accounted to him for righteousness! That is the only way anyone has ever been saved, which is exactly what the next verse says—“Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.” God made a wonderful PROMISE of eternal life by faith alone, even before the world was created. Titus 1:2-4, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour; To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.” This PROMISE of salvation by faith was preached to Abraham and to “Christ” (Galatians 3:16).

This PROMISE was made before the world began, and it was preached to Abraham. The Bible was already settled permanently in Heaven before God ever dictated a single Word to Moses. Galatians 3:8-9, “And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.” The GOOD NEWS (Gospel) was preached to Abraham. This PROMISE guaranteed that all the Jews and Gentiles alike could be saved by simple childlike faith in Christ.

The Old Testament Jews were under the curse of the law, because Christ hadn’t come to die on the cross yet.

Galatians 3:10-14, “For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

To understand the Old Testament system, and salvation back then, you need to understand what the ceremonial law was. Carefully notice that “

was more than just the

Ten Commandments, but the entire priestly system of sacrifices and atonement for sin itself. Since Christ hadn’t come yet, the blood and bulls and goats could only temporarily atone (cover) for the sins of the people. The rituals were symbolic, object lessons, shadowing God’s sole responsibility to deal with the matter when Christ would someday come, and not something that the people were required to do to be saved. The ceremonial laws were NOT required for salvation. This is evidenced by the fact that the Jews failed to keep the Sabbath Day for 490 years. God later punished them by sending the Jews into Babylonian captivity, one year for every seven they hadn’t kept the Sabbath (70 years). The law made nothing perfect...

> Hebrews 7:18-25, “
>
> For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.
>
> For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did*; by the which we draw nigh unto God.
>
> And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
>
> (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)
>
> By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.
>
> And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
>
> But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.
> Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them*.”

The Old Testament sacrifices each year were temporal. The high priests were temporal. They all eventually died. The Old Testament ceremonial laws were a SHADOW of good things coming in the future. Hebrews 10:1, “

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

” Since Jesus is eternal, and the perfect sacrifice for sin, He CAN forever forgive and wash away our sins with His blood (Revelation 1:5).

So now you can understand

Galatians 3:19, “

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

The ceremonial rituals were symbolic of Christ Who would one day come, as our eternal High Priest, forever taking away our sins (Hebrews 4:15-16).

They were still saved by faith alone, but God required the Jews to keep ceremonial laws to avoid judgment (Deuteronomy 28). Old Testament Jews were required to keep the law, not to be saved, but to please God as His people. Obviously they didn't please Him, which led to the eventual fall of both the northern kingdom of Samaria in 722 BC, and the southern kingdom of Judah in 586 BC. Israel failed as God's ambassadors to the Gentile world. It was the Lord's initial plan and hope that Israel would be a beacon of shining light in the world, a peculiar people zealous of good works (Exodus 19:5-6). This didn't make Jews better than Gentiles, it just meant God had chosen them for a certain job.

Please consider that when the Jews were conquered and enslaved by Babylon in 586 BC, the work of the high priest ceased. Solomon's magnificent temple, which cost billions of dollars to build, was totally destroyed. So did all the Jews go to Hell? Obviously they were NOT saved by works. There were many times in the Old Testament when there was no priest or sacrifices; such as, during the time of the Judges, and the 400 years between the Old Testament and New Testament. They were saved by believing God, as did Abraham in Genesis 15:6. How did the Old Testament saints get saved in the 2,500 years prior to Moses? It is theological ignorance for any preacher to teach that anyone was ever (or ever will be) saved by faith plus works.

Old Testaments Saints Were Only Saved By Faith

Acts 10:43,

“

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

The following very helpful truths are being quoted from Dr. John R. Rice's invaluable verse-by-verse Bible commentary titled, “

Acts: Filled With The Spirit,

pages 250-252:

> All Prophets Preach the Same Savior, the Same Plan of Salvation
>
> Not only are the Apostles witnesses of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, and above five hundred other witnesses who saw Him after His resurrection, but “all the prophets,” that is, every prophet in the Old Testament as well as the new Testament times, bears witness to the same Saviour and the same plan of salvation!
> There are some who think that the Old Testament saints were saved by animal sacrifices and the ceremonies of the law. They are utterly mistaken. The sacrifices and ceremonies of the Old Testament were simply object lessons pointing to Christ and salvation by faith in Him. Baptism now pictures that one is buried in the likeness of Christ's death and raised in the likeness of His resurrection (Rom. 6:4, 5), and those that take the Lord's Supper in the bread and cup "do shew the Lord's death till he come" (I Cor. 11:26). So Old Testament sacrifices taught the same thing, that salvation is only through Christ. Every prophet in the Old Testament pictures Christ. So Jesus could preach to Nicodemus the Gospel from Numbers 21:5-9, about the serpents in the Wilderness. So Philip could preach to the Ethiopian eunuch from Isaiah 53:4-6, preaching the same Saviour and the same Gospel. It was this Saviour whom Abraham saw and believed in (John 8:56; Rom, 4:3). It was by faith in this Jesus that "Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain," the firstling of his flock which pictured an atoning Saviour. It is Christ and salvation by faith in His shed blood that is pictured in the passover.

There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.

There are those who think that Peter in Acts 2:38 and 39 preached that baptism was essential to salvation when he said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." But the phrase "for the remission of sins" could well be translated "referring to the remission of sins" for the indefinite preposition of reference and so used many, many times in the Bible. People are not baptized in order to be saved, but baptized with reference to the salvation they had when they repented. So it has always been among Bible-believing Christians who follow the Scriptures.

So here in Acts 10:43 we have the statement by Peter, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Get this great doctrinal matter settled: God has only one plan of salvation and that is all He ever had! He has only one Saviour, and that is Jesus Christ. Every Old and New Testament prophet agrees in this that "whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins."

Boy I love that! The Old Testament ceremonial laws, just like the Lord's Supper and water baptism today, were object lessons. These were NOT necessary to be saved. Salvation was always by faith, as we read in Habakkuk 2:4b, "the just shall live by his faith."

In Number 21:9, all God expected of the Israelites was to LOOK AND LIVE. Jesus used this passage to teach the Gospel to Nicodemus in John 3:14-16. Isaiah 45:22 teaches to LOOK AND LIVE! Isaiah 45:22,

Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

” Salvation has always been by grace through faith in Christ.

The Gospel Is An Eternal Promise!

God’s PROMISE of eternal life existed before the world was created. It is a promise! The Gospel (Good News) is a promise. God revealed the GOOD NEWS of that promise to the patriarchs. God shared this GOOD NEWS with Adam and Eve.

Genesis 3:15, “

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

” Eve’s “seed” in this passage refers to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Galatians 3:29, “

And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise.

” Throughout the Old Testament, people looked forward to the coming Messiah. We see this truth evidenced in John 4:25, “ The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. ” The Samaritan women didn’t understand the Gospel, but she BELIEVED that Christ, when He came, would TELL US ALL THINGS. She had faith in the blessed Savior!

I keep hearing wacky dispensational preachers saying that the Apostle Paul revealed a NEW Gospel. Dear reader, please read the following words of Jesus from Matthew 16:21, “

From that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

Jesus was preaching this same GOSPEL long before Paul was!

Galatians 1:11-12, “But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

” Jesus revealed the SAME Gospel to Paul, which He had been preaching to others. Some people were questioning and criticizing the apostle. You know how people can get. So Paul asserts his qualifications, letting everyone know that the Lord Himself delivered this Gospel truth to him to preach.

After Jesus had bodily risen from the dead, He came across two men walking upon the road to Emmaus. The Lord asked them if they had heard about a man named Jesus (I love how the Lord messed with people’s minds...lol.). They were naïve and skeptical. They didn’t believe yet. Take a look at what the Lord said to them in Luke 24:24-27, “

And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

Our blessed Lord didn’t just rebuke them, He took the time to expound them in all the Scriptures. Please notice that Jesus rebuked them for not QUICKLY BELIEVING all that THE PROPHETS had spoken concerning Christ (Acts 10:43). Thus, Paul did not reveal a new Gospel, he simply reiterated the promise of eternal life which existed before the world began. The Lord Himself charged Paul to preach the revelation of the Gospel given to Him.

Anna was a 84 year old seasoned Christian women, who preached the Gospel to visitors who came to Jerusalem inquiring about the Messiah...

> Luke 2:36-38, “
>
> And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;
>
> And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.
>
> And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

The wise men came from Babylon in the east, looking for the Christ child. Word had gotten out that the Christ was here. Anna was a soulwinner. So we see that the knowledge of the coming Savior was big news, known by the masses for thousands of years. We are so blessed today to have the privilege to look back with hindsight and a clear understanding of history. We are not worthy! Throughout the entire Old Testament, all of humanity was awaiting the coming the the Messiah. That was their great hope and salvation. Psalms 27:1,

The LORD is my light and my salvation*; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

” David said that the Lord Himself was his salvation, not his works. It is tragic how preachers are always finding ways to attribute salvation to man, instead of God’s grace.

Eternal life was PROMISED by God before the world even began (Titus 1:2). That precious PROMISE continued through the entire Old Testament by faith. The ceremonial laws were later established as a means (a TOOL), to ultimately bring lost sinners to Christ so they could then be saved by grace through faith. LAW and CHRIST. It is marvellous how God did all this, giving us a living illustration, spanning thousands of years of history, to demonstrate LAW and CHRIST.

> “God Himself became a Man, to give mankind a concrete, definite, tangible idea of what kind of Person to think of when we think of God. God is like Jesus. Jesus was God incarnate in human form. His appearance on earth is the Central Event of all history. The Old Testament sets the stage for it. The New Testament describes it. As a man, He lived the most strangely Beautiful Life ever known. He was the Kindest, Tenderest, Gentlest, most Patient, most Sympathetic man that ever lived. He Loved people. He hated to see people in trouble. He loved to Forgive. He loved to Help. He wrought marvelous miracles to feed hungry people. For relieving the suffering He forgot to take food for Himself. Multitudes, weary, pain-ridden, and heart-sick, came to Him, and found healing and relief. It is said of Him, and of no other, that if all the deeds of Kindness that He did were written, the world would not contain the books. That is the kind of man Jesus was. That is the kind of Person God is. Then: He Died, on the Cross, to take away the Sin of the world, to become the Redeemer and Saviour of man. Then: He Rose from the Dead: is Alive Now: not merely an historical character, but a Living Person: the Most Important Fact of History, and Most Vital Force in the world today.” —Theologian Henry H. Halley (1874-1965)

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) had these helpful words to say:

> “The simple truth is that there has never been but one kind of salvation. Peter said, in preaching to Cornelius in Acts 10:43, that "To Him (Christ) give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Wait! Read that again! Every prophet in the Old Testament, as well as New Testament apostles, agree, says this Scripture, that all who trust in Christ are instantly saved! Animal sacrifices, baptism, the Lord’s Supper, good deeds, never were essential to salvation. Salvation is by faith in Christ alone. It always was the same.”

Amen and amen! People, then and now, have always been saved BY FAITH in the name of Christ (Acts 10:43).

pages 250-252:

All Prophets Preach the Same Savior, the Same Plan of Salvation

Not only are the Apostles witnesses of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, and above five hundred other witnesses who saw Him after His resurrection, but "all the prophets," that is, every prophet in the Old Testament as well as the New Testament times, bears witness to the same Saviour and the same plan of salvation!

There are some who think that the Old Testament saints were saved by animal sacrifices and the ceremonies of the law. They are utterly mistaken. The sacrifices and ceremonies of the Old Testament were simply object lessons pointing to Christ and salvation by faith in Him. Baptism now pictures that one is buried in the likeness of Christ's death and raised in the likeness of His resurrection (Rom. 6:4, 5), and those that take the Lord's Supper in the bread and cup "do shew the Lord's death till he come" (I Cor. 11:26). For emphasis, I want to repeat a paragraph of what you just read, because it is so crucial. I am going to highlight some portions, which I want you to see clearly...

There are some who think that the Old Testament saints were saved by animal sacrifices and the ceremonies of the law. They are utterly mistaken. The sacrifices and ceremonies of the Old Testament were simply object lessons pointing to Christ and salvation by faith in Him. There is a growing number of false teachers on the internet, especially YouTube. They are; namely, Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, Pastor Gene Kim, Bryan Denlinger, Chett Hensley, Dr. William P. Grady and Robert Breaker. These men all falsely teach that people were saved by faith PLUS WORKS in the Old Testament. They also claim that people will again in the future be saved by faith PLUS WORKS during the Tribulation and Millennial periods. Bryan Denlinger preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation today as well. I 100 % agree with Dr. John R. Rice in that “They are utterly mistaken.”

The Old Testament ceremonials laws were OBJECT LESSONS, just like the Lord’s Supper and water baptism today, which have no special grace nor saving power. No one was ever saved by faith PLUS WORKS at any time in human civilization, nor ever will be. Galatians 3:9-11, “ So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.” Not one verse, neither in the Old or New Testaments, teach that salvation has ever been by anything other than faith. The prophet Habakkuk bears witness in Habakkuk 2:4b that “the just shall live by his faith.

Jesus Taught Nicodemus The Gospel From Numbers

This is amazing. To teach Nicodemus the Gospel (Good News), Jesus used the book of Numbers...

> Numbers 21:5-9, “
>
> And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loatheth this light bread.
>
> And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died.
>
> Therefore the people came to Moses, and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for the people.
>
> And the LORD said unto Moses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live*.
>
> And Moses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole, and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

the Scriptures - Romans 15:4), through Moses’ preaching (Hebrews 4:2), and the ceremonial laws (Hebrews 10:1), that “whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins” (Acts 10:43b). Read here what Jesus said to Nicodemus, and see how the Lord used the book of Numbers to expound him concerning Himself. John 3:14-16, “And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.” God intentionally instructed Moses to pound some brass metal into the shape of a serpent, and to raise that serpent high on a pole, so that whoever looked to the serpent lived. That is so beautiful. What does it mean?

We find the answer in 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

“For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” The sinless only begotten Son of God, became as sin Himself; so that we sinful humans, who knew no righteousness, could be made the righteousness of God through faith in Christ. Philippians 3:9,

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

” That brass snake which Moses raised up on a pole symbolized our dear Savior, Who became as sin on the cross, bearing the reproach and shame of our sins. The sinless Lamb of God suffered vicariously (as our substitute) on the cross; paying a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay! John 1:29, “

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

The very notion that people were saved under the Mosaic law by faith plus works violates umpteen Scripture passages, including the ones we just read from Numbers and John. All God wanted the Israelites to was: LOOK AND LIVE! What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

” The way of salvation has always been to LOOK TO THE SAVIOR!!!

1.8.14 The Inspired Holy Bible Promotes Good Mental Health (2020-12-27 21:49)

Proverbs 4:14-23, “Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life*.

Dear reader, if you want God to comb the kinks out of your head, give Him your heart. Proverbs 23:26, “My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.” Many people have mental health issues because of what is called “ religious scrupulosity.

This term describes mental conflicts caused by religious beliefs (e.g., worry of going to Hell, anxiety caused by lack of assurance of salvation, feelings of guilt over sins, uncertainty about doctrinal matters, confusion due to having multiple Bible versions, religious peer pressure, feeling trapped in a religious group, et cetera. The world’s mind is broken! As believers we have the mind of Christ, which is why we SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES (John 5:39). 1st Corinthians 2:16,

For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Psalms 1:1-4, “

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

” The Bible teaches that the man who continually delights in the Word of God, that is, in the inspired and infallible King James Bible, will be like a strong tree with deep roots that grows alongside a flowing river.

According to the [1]National Library Of Medicine:

> “Scrupulosity is a psychological disorder primarily characterized by pathological guilt or obsession associated with moral or religious issues that is often accompanied by compulsive moral or religious observance and is highly distressing and maladaptive.

The preceding definition is an extreme one. There are many lesser forms of mental conflict caused by not living righteously. When we don’t live according to how we believe the Holy Bible teaches we should, there will be mental problems.

I receive many emails from people, sharing their personal problems with me (which I always keep confidential by the way). Something important that I have concluded, after 18 years of dealing with hurting web visitors, is that the reason people have so many worries, concerns and mental instability is that they are looking at the wrong things in life. What saith the Scripture? Carefully notice verse 3, which even tells us that we will be wearied and want to quit in our mind, of we fail to keep our thoughts focused on the Lord...

> Hebrews 12:1-3, “Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.”

Wow! LOOKING UNTO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith! There it is folks. There is life’s answer. This is the key to living the Christian life—staying focused upon the Lord Jesus Christ and His many promises in the Holy Bible. Remember, Jesus and the Bible are twins. The Holy Bible is the inspired Written Word (2nd Timothy 3:16-17); Jesus is the incarnate Living Word (John 1:1-3, 14). That is one reason why I make such a big fuss that there cannot be more than one accurate Bible in any particular language—because just as there cannot be more than one Living Word, there cannot be more than one Written Word.

There are not various different versions of the only begotten Son of God! Likewise, God only Authored ONE BOOK!!! So how did we end up with [2]900 English Bible versions? Communist [3]Cuba sees the Devil’s hands at work. A secular [4]English professor see the Devil’s hands at work. [5]Paul Benson has authored some helpful articles defending the inspired King James Bible, and he sees the Devil’s hands at work in the new perversions. Anyone with a working brain, and a half an ounce of common sense, can see the Devil’s hands at work in the endless rash of so-called “

Bible revisions. So what is wrong with America's spiritually blind pastors and churches today? Why cannot pastors and churches see that these new corruptions are the Devil's Bibles? Oh foolish Americans! The Devil is a beautiful liar.

One of the reasons for much needless confusion is today's Bible colleges, who promote the corrupt Devil's Bibles.

I cannot emphasize enough that we all purposely resolve to meditate in the Scriptures day and night. By "

I simply mean to think about the Bible continually, its meaning, and how we can apply it to our daily lives...

> Psalms 1:1-4, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
> And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away."

I love these Bible passages. God's children are commanded not to walk in the counsel of the ungodly. There is so much ungodly advice everywhere we look these days. We hear ungodly advice on television. We read ungodly advice on the internet. We see ungodly advice and philosophies in magazines. Men and women alike are bombarded with ungodly suggestions, ideas, philosophies and advice at work, public, stores and even at church. Children especially are susceptible to ungodly influences around them. We live in a fallen world. I am glad that God gave us the Holy Bible. I cannot even imagine what life would be like without the Bible. Thank God for the precious King James Bible.

I simply wanted to write this brief article, about the importance of always abiding in the Scriptures, specifically in the PROMISES of God. The [6]Bible contains 7,487 promises from God to man. I wrote this article because so many people write to me, telling me how miserable they are. They aren't LOOKING UNTO JESUS. Instead, they are looking at their problems. Unfortunately, Jesus is nothing more than a religious figure to many people. Jesus is my God and Savior, my Lord and Friend. I wouldn't have made it this far in life if I hadn't kept my eyes on Jesus Christ. I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God knows that I am 100 % sincere. I am sincere in my preaching. I don't try to make enemies. I want to love others and be loved back. Unfortunately, I have painfully learned with the Apostle Paul that " the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved

2nd Corinthians 12:15b). But I would rather love and not be loved back, than to be loved and not love others. I must love everyone, because God is love, and I am His redeemed child. God is so good!

I encourage you dear reader to dwell in the Scriptures. **"

(John 5:39). All the temporary things of this world will be gone someday, but eternity is forever! I don’t know about you, but I want to live for eternal things. A healthy mind is a Biblically focused mind.

2nd Timothy 1:7, “ For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.” If you are having mental issues, then your mind is not sound. Get into the Scriptures! As we just read, God gives us a SOUND MIND. To the same degree that we agree with God and live accordingly, we will have mental soundness and peace in our soul. Philippians 4:6-7 teaches us to commit our worries and problems unto prayer, and then claim the perfect peace of God (which passes all understanding). Once we pray, God is on the job and we can rest by faith:

> Philippians 4:4-8, “
> Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.
>
> Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
>
> Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
>
> And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus*.

Amen! We just read how to have the PEACE OF GOD. It is a matter of faith. Many believers want an answer that excludes the Holy Bible. They want an answer that doesn’t involve prayer. Dear friend, it is not prayer that gives us peace; but rather, having faith in God. Mark 11:22b, “Have faith in God.”

The preceding passage of Scripture from Philippians 4:6-8 doesn’t teach that the peace of God comes from answered prayer. No! The Bible says that prayer itself gives us peace, because we are committing our problems to God. This requires enough faith to believe that when we pray, God hears and answers prayer if it is His will. 1st John 5:14-15, “

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

The next verse in Philippians 4:8 teaches us to control our thought life, to think on only things that are true, good, honest, virtuous and edifying as God’s children. The coronavirus has made things more difficult for everyone, but God is still on His throne! I heard in the news recently that 55,000,000 Americans are now struggling in financial poverty. Millions of Americans are waiting 12 hours or more, standing in a line extending a half mile long, simply for a free box of food. God is ultimately in control dear friend. John 16:33,

“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” We serve a risen Savior!

The heathen world thinks wrong! They always have. The world lives by the sinful philosophy that only the strong survive, but the Christians says with the Apostle Paul 2nd Corinthians 12:10, "Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong." Whereas the world thinks weakness is a bad thing, which compels them to pursue ways to become stronger; the Bible teaches that weakness is a good thing, because Christ' strength is made perfect in weakness. Thus, the Christian realizes that: We I am weak, I am strong!

1.8.15 Does James Chapter Two Teach Salvation By Works? (2020-12-28 09:30)

James 2:14-21, "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?"

James chapter 2 is a commonly misunderstood passage. Please c arefully notice that James said that he would "SHEW THEE" his faith by works, and by works you can "SHEW ME" your faith. Clearly, James is speaking about being justified "BY WORKS" in the SIGHT OF MAN. 1st Samuel 16:7, "But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the heart." God looks at a man's heart, but since we cannot see into a person's soul, we can only judge by their works (or absence thereof). In sharp contrast to James, the Apostle Paul in Romans speaks about being justified "BY FAITH" in the SIGHT OF GOD. ...

> Romans 4:1-7, "What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

Here we see the exact opposite of what James teaches. Paul shows that Abraham was saved by faith alone, and not by works in any way. If Abraham had been saved by works, then God would have OWED him salvation, and not of grace. Some preachers today foolishly claim that Old testament saints were saved by works. That is unbiblical. People were saved by faith alone in the Old Testament. So says Romans 4:6 concerning David. So says Habakkuk 2:4, Genesis 15:6, Jonah 2:9 and Acts 10:43.

So in Romans Paul is teaching about the ROOT of the believer's salvation, which is FAITH. But James is teaching about the FRUIT of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), which is FAITH PLUS WORKS. We must always separate SERVICE from SALVATION. We are saved by faith alone; but then God wants us to serve Him with faith and works for the rest of our life, which is a matter of rewards and obedience, not the free gift of eternal life. [1]Here are some helpful theological quotes showing the big difference between discipleship (service), and salvation (sonship).

A Christian does NOT have to follow Christ as a disciple to be saved, nor to stay saved. Eternal life is a free gift. But God wants us to depart from sin and allow Christ to live through us. Galatians 2:20-21, "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." So we see here that Jesus lives the Christian life through us, if we will humble our self to search the Scriptures and live in them daily (John 5:39; 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6). Lordship Salvation is a false plan of salvation, which is caused by MIXING service with salvation. I use the words "service" and "discipleship" interchangeable. True salvation is by faith alone, which does not require service.

So remember, Paul in Romans is speaking about being justified in the sight of God BY FAITH. But James in the Epistle of James is speaking about being justified in the sight of men BY WORKS. One more thing. James 2:21 says that Abraham was justified when he offered up Isaac. That event happened in Genesis chapter 22. But the Bible says Abram (Abraham) was saved in Genesis 15:6, when he believed on the Lord. Genesis 15:6, "And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness." This is the Old Testament passage that Romans 4:1-5 is referring to. Isaac wasn't even conceived at the time Abraham was saved. Abraham was justified in God's sight by faith, but man's sight by works.

Romans 4:6-7, "

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works

, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

Paul said that the patriarchs, like Abraham and David, were

to have their sins forgiven and covered. That sure sounds like eternal security to me! If, as some false teachers like Dr. Peter S. Ruckman and Pastor Gene Kim claim, people were saved by works in the Old Testament, then no one could have known for certain they were saved. How could they have been

to know that their sins were forgiven

and covered. There are problems on many levels with the whole concept of people being saved by faith plus works at any time in history.

James chapter two is very simple friend. The apostle was speaking about being justified in the eyes of our fellow man. Proof of this is read in James 2:15-16, “If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?” Our faith as professed Christians is evidenced by the way we treat others. This has nothing to do with the gift of salvation, but being justified in the eyes of other people.

I once saw a man in San Diego searching in the garbage for food. So I walked over and handed him $20 and a Gospel of John. I’ll never forget what he said to me: “Thank you for being a doer of the Word and not just a hearer!” That is what James is teaching. Our faith is dead without works. What saith the Scripture? Ephesians 2:10, “For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.” We are not saved by good works; but rather, we were saved unto good works. We are not expected by God to do good works to seal, validate, prove, maintain, nor keep His gift of eternal life; but rather, to lay hold (capitalize) on the eternal life which God has freely given to us by faith alone.

1.8.16 We Don't Owe God Anything For Salvation (2020-12-29 09:30)

Romans 10:1-4, "

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth*."

Romans 12:1-2,

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

" Ephesians 2:8-9,

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Many of the lyrics in the beloved hymns that we sing at church are unbiblical…

Jesus paid it all,

All to Him I owe;

Sin had left a crimson stain,

He washed it white as snow.

Do we really “

Jesus anything? No where in the Scriptures are we told that we owe the Lord anything for the gift of eternal life. I say that humbly, because I feel like I owe Him everything, and then some, and then some more. How could I ever repay all that the blessed Savior has done for me, to shed His precious holy blood for a worm such as I? But that is the whole point dear reader

—I CANNOT REPAY JESUS!!! And neither can you. And neither does He expect us to! You and I don’t OWE God anything! I don’t say that glibly, with a spirit of ingratitude or of being unthankful, God forbid. But rather, I say all this because “SALVATION IS OF THE LORD”

(Jonah 2:9b). By the way, Jonah 2:9 further evidences that people were NOT saved by works in the Old Testament. God pity the messed up preacher, like Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), who teaches such junk theology, saying that people were saved by faith PLUS WORKS in the Old Testament! No! Dr. Ruckman is utterly mistaken. SALVATION IS OF THE LORD!!!

What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 6:20, “For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God’s. ” The Bible teaches that salvation came at a great cost. 1st Peter 1:18-19, “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:” The PRICE for salvation was Jesus’ precious blood. And the PLACE where payment was made is on the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12-22-24; 12:24). JESUS PAID IT ALL, I owe Him nothing!

But since I have been bought at such a great price, the Bible says it is our

REASONABLE SERVICE

to serve Christ.

Romans 12:1-2,

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

” Please notice that it is not our COMPULSORY nor MANDATORY SERVICE, but our REASONABLE SERVICE. It is the proper thing to do, but judicially, we owe Christ NOTHING for His wonderful free gift. That is why eternal life is called a

in Ephesians 2:8-9 and Romans 6:23.

Please notice that the following Scripture is still in the Old Testament. John 4:10, “Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

Hebrews 9:17, “ For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.” The New Testament did not go into force until after Jesus died on the cross. Yet, here we clearly see that Jesus told the Samaritan woman eternal life is “ the gift of God. ”

Kindly said, it is not okay that Bryan Denlinger, Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, Dr. William P. Grady, Chett Hensley and Pastor Gene Kim are teaching the Satanic lie that people were saved by faith plus works in the Old Testament. They were ALL saved by faith, and faith alone (Habakkuk 2:4; Isaiah 45:22; Romans 4:1-6; Genesis 15:6). The Jews were required to observe strict ceremonial laws, which foreshadowed future events (Hebrews 10:1), but salvation was still by grace through faith in Christ (Acts 10:43). Kindly said, Pastor Ruckman created this mess. He has a diehard group of cult followers who believe whatever he believed and taught. Just because Dr. Ruckman was right on many things, doesn’t make Him right on everything.

My friend, you and I don’t owe Christ anything for His gift of eternal life. Why did I write this article? I wrote it simply to emphasize the freeness of the wondrous gift of eternal life. I wrote this article because of dangerous false teachers like [1]Pastor John MacArthur, [2]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University), and [3]Evangelist Ray Comfort, who falsely teach that you must live a lifestyle to get to Heaven. They’ve perverted God’s grace into something else. All the while they are in denial, still insisting that salvation is by grace. It is common to hear the heretical Lordship Salvation crowd use such terms as “ trade,

[4]exchange

” and “turn from your sin,” when talking about salvation. JESUS PAID IT ALL, NOTHING TO HIM I OWE!

1.8.17 Just One Sin Is Enough To Send You To Hell (2020-12-30 09:30)

Revelation 20:15, “And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.” John 3:5, “Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

Many people foolishly think that a God of love wouldn't put somebody into Hell forever; but dear friend, God has no other choice if He is to maintain His holiness. Just as an earthly judge who is honest would not let somebody " who has committed a horrible crime, neither can a holy God just let us

" for our sins. In 1950, one of the biggest names in show business was actor Jackie Gleason (1916-1987). In 1946, only 6,000 wealthy U.S. households owned a television. But by 1952, an astonishing 22,000,000 American households owned a television. In a 60-Minutes interview in 1984, Jackie Gleason (known as to millions of Americans) made this disturbing comment on national TV when asked about God:

The Great One

> "I'm sure that if you've committed a sin He's not going to send you to Hell for eternity."
> SOURCE: Jackie Gleason, 60-Minutes interview, 1984

Unfortunately, Jackie Gleason was very wrong. God does send people to Hell for eternity if they die in their sins without Jesus Christ, even for JUST ONE SIN! This is clearly stated in our text Scripture from 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9 (Please note that all Scripture quotes are only from the inspired King James Bible.) No one can go to Heaven without being born-again by the Holy Spirit of God, Who indwells every true believer (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). You must be born from above by the Spirit of God to have eternal life (John 1:12-13). I say this all very kindly. I did not write this article to make Jackie Gleason look bad; but rather, to refute the wrong thinking that one sin cannot send someone to Hell.

The Bible teaches that committing even ONE SIN makes a person "

GUILTY OF ALL.

Humbly said, Jackie Gleason didn't understand that Biblical truth. James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." The reason why one sin makes a man "guilty of all" is because even one sin is enough to keep a person out of Heaven, and send them to the Lake of Fire forever. God is a holy God, and His holiness demands justice. Sin must be paid for, which is why Christ came into the world as the Lamb of God (John 1:29), and died on the cross for everyone's sins. Jesus Christ is "the Saviour of all men" (1st Timothy 4:10) , but you must personally receive Him by faith in order to be saved (John 1:12-13).

Some false teachers in the pulpit say you must

turn from your sins

to get to Heaven. Dear friend, you don't have to turn from your sins to be saved, you have to be 100 % absolutely perfect in every way!!! You cannot have even one sin on your record to enter into Heaven. Obviously that is utterly IMPOSSIBLE! No human being has ever achieved such perfection, except Jesus (1st Peter 2:22; Hebrews 4:15). This is what [1]1st Corinthians 6:9-10 teaches. Many people misunderstand this Scripture passage, thinking that God won't save them unless they attempt to forsake their sinning. That is NOT what the Bible means!

We All Need God's Righteousness Through Faith In Jesus Christ

So how then can anyone go to Heaven? The answer is simple —you need GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS! The Bible calls this God's "

[2]IMPUTED RIGHEOUSNESS.

" We don't have enough righteousness to please God. In fact, even our goodness is filth to God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

" Your best dear sinner is utter filth to God. The reason why is because God is totally holy, perfect, pure, good, truth, love and light. Our best pales in comparison to God. Only a perfect human being can enter into Heaven. What saith the Scripture? Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: " I love that! God offers us His perfection through faith in Christ. Matthew 6:33, "

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

We are saved by believing the Gospel. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Most people have bought into one of the Devil's deceptions, accepting a substitute in place the the Gospel. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Most religious people are trusting in partial faith in Christ plus some degree of human effort. This is a false plan of salvation which does not produce the new birth. Anything less than 100 % faith in Jesus Christ is no saving faith at all. You may have 99 % doubt, which is okay, just so long as that 1 % of faith is wholly placed in Jesus' name.

I like to use the chair illustration. Let's say you have a defective light bulb out on your ceiling. You only have an old wooden chair to stand on to reach it. So you grab a new bulb and stand upon that old chair to replace the old bulb. Now, you may have 90 % doubt in that old chair. It may have the paint scraped off and look shabby. It may creek back and forth when you wobble it with your hand to see how sturdy it is. Yet you have enough confidence is that old chair to stand upon it. So you place all your weight upon it, completely trusting that old shabby chair to support all your weight. That is faith my friend!

Even though you have a bunch of insecurity and doubts, questions about the strength of that chair, you are nevertheless 100 % trusting it to support your weight. What a beautiful illustration of saving faith!!!

Hebrews 11:1, "

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

" Faith is not saying:

"I believe! I believe!" That is optimism. Faith is actually relying upon Christ to save you. I mean, if I ever go to Hell it will be Jesus' fault, because I am relying upon Him completely to save me. I am resting in Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11).

A Good God Puts Christ Rejecting Sinners In Hell

Perhaps you ask what kind of God would put somebody in a horrible place of suffering like Hell? A good God, that's Who! Look at all the horrible pain and suffering in this earthly life. If God allows suffering here in this temporal world, then what makes you think He won't allow suffering in eternity? A good and holy God, as a Judge, must demand justice! Getting saved is a judicial matter. Jesus paid for your sins and mine, by dying upon the cross, to balance the scales of justice. The statue of Lady Liberty in New York wears a blindfold, signifying that the law is supposed to be blind to prejudice. That is often not the case in America's corrupt courts!

God never sent anybody to Hell who didn't choose to go there by rejecting the truth of the Gospel. God is a good God. He has made a way of escape through faith in Christ. Romans 5:6-9, "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him*.

" The abundant freeness of the gift of salvation, can only be equaled by eternal damnation for those who willfully reject such a splendid gift.

Oh dear friend, Mr. Gleason was so very wrong! James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. " The Bible teaches that even one sin WILL send a person to Hell forever. Kindly said, Jackie Gleason made the fatal spiritual error of comparing himself to other human beans, instead of to a holy God. We can all feel good about ourselves if we compare ourselves to worse human beings. But if we will only compare our self to the inspired Holy Bible, then we will humbly say with the prophet in Isaiah 6:5, "

Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

" I am just a needy sinner, and so are you friend.

Our only hope is trusting in a righteous Savior! Only Jesus Christ is without sin (Hebrews 4:15). That is why Jesus was acceptable to the Father as the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world

” (John 1:29). There is no other way to Heaven, than through the name of Jesus. John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

1.8.18 What If All A Person Had Was A Corrupt Bible or Nothing? (2020-12-31 09:30)

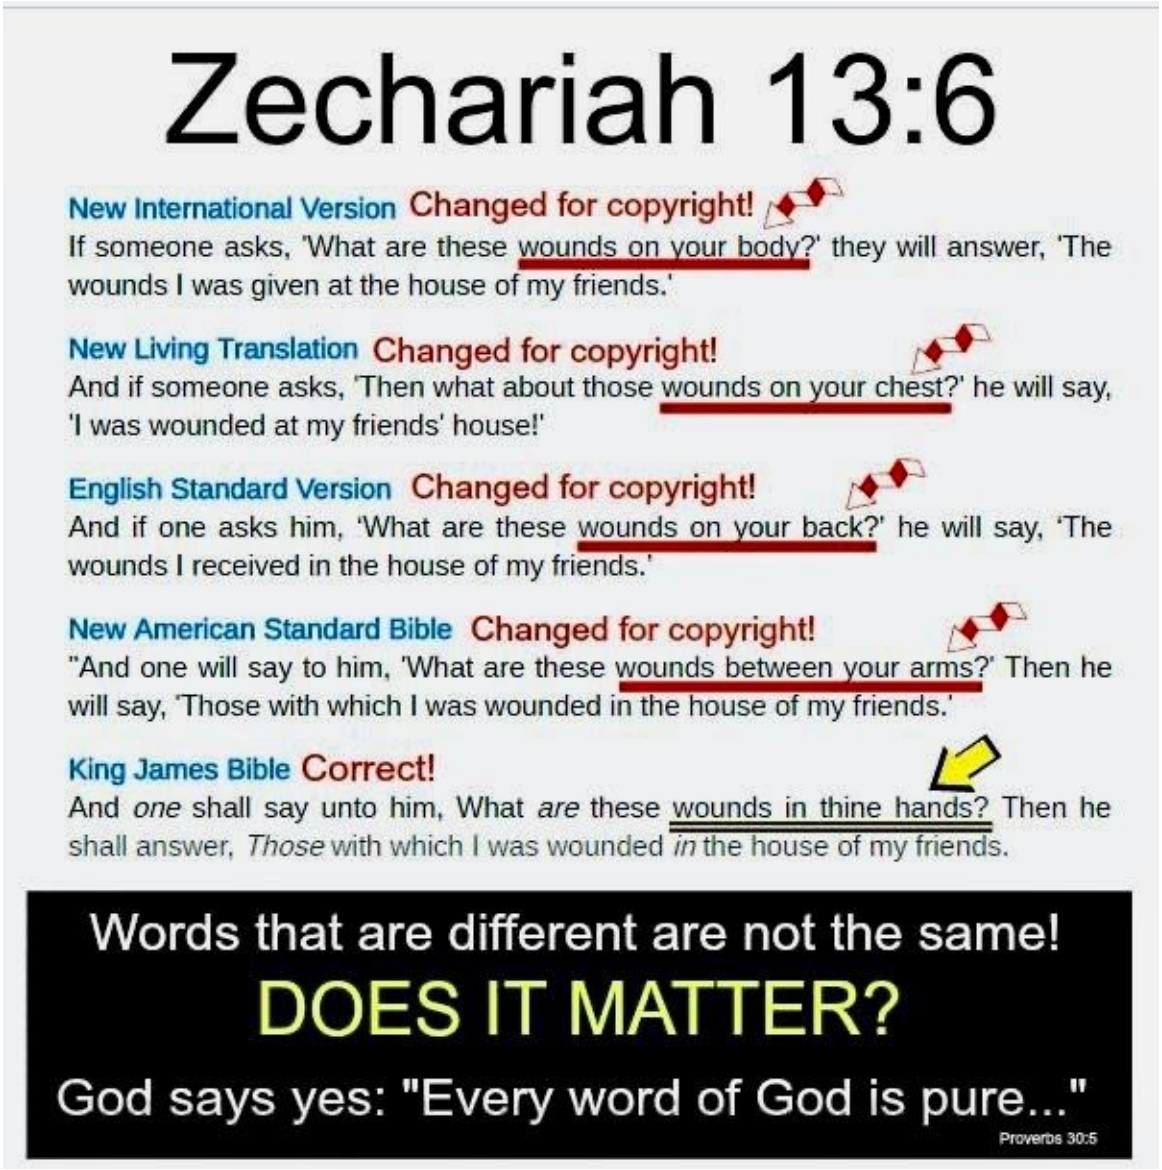
2nd Corinthians 2:14-17, " Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

Someone recently attempted to defend the Devil's modern Bible revisions, by asking me a hypothetical question. They asked me if it would be better to give a New International Version (NIV) to someone who is serving life in prison, than to give them nothing?

Thankfully I am not aware of any such occurrences. Kindly, the preceding illustration is like asking if it would be better to eat food laced with rat poison than to have no food at all. Depending on how much rat poison is contained in the food, a person might be able to survive but be sickly. Some of the modern Bible versions are more corrupt than others. In 1881 when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced their A New Translation In The Original Greek to the world, it set a wicked precedent for scholars to constantly change the inspired Word of God (Romans 1:25). The newer versions keep getting worse and worse, drifting farther and farther from the truth.

There can be no justification for tampering with the Holy Bible.



“There is a spirit of discouragement on churches like I’ve never seen before!” —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the sermon titled: “[2]The Lost Generation”

1.8.19 Bring Forth Fruits Meet For Repentance (2020-12-31 22:24)

Matthew 3:1-12, “

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,

And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham*.

And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire:

Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

There is much misunderstanding about this passage of Scripture. What exactly did John the Baptist mean when he said: "Bring forth fruits therefore meet for repentance"? The Devil is a beautiful liar! Since the beginning of human civilization, the Devil has subtly done all he can to corrupt the Gospel (i.e., the way of salvation), by embellishing (obscuring) it with adding or subtracting from what God requires to be saved. I recently did [1]a very fruitful Bible study about the PROMISE of eternal life, which God made before the world began (Titus 1:2).

It saddens me how preachers will cherry-pick the Scriptures, lifting texts out of context to create a new pretext, corrupting the Word of God. The key to understanding Matthew 3:8 is to simply examine the surrounding verses. The word "therefore" is always THERE FOR a reason! Therefore is an adverb that means "as a consequence," "as a result," or "hence." So we must look at verse 7 carefully. The religious leaders came to be baptized by John, but he refused them. John calls the Sadducees and Pharisees vipers (snakes), asking who has warned them of the wrath to come. Clearly John is referring to Hell, which he implies in verse 10 as well. The wages of sin is death, which includes the second death in Hell (Romans 6:23; Revelation 20:12-15; 21:8).

John was showing the people the way of salvation. So here comes the unsaved religious crowd, who are self-righteous (and John fully knew it). John knew well the false doctrine of the Sadducees and Pharisees. John was essentially saying to them the same thing that Jesus said in Matthew 5:20, " For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven." Just like Roman Catholics, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses and the Lordship Salvation (Calvinist) crowd today, they were all self-righteous! To some extent, they all pervert the grace of God, requiring something different than what God does to be redeemed. Whereas God requires faith alone, the Jewish religious leaders required keeping the law of Moses (Acts 15:1). Romans 3:20 teaches that no one can be saved by keeping the Old Testament law.

Also, please notice Matthew 3:9, in which John the Baptist rebukes the religious Jews, for thinking that they were automatically going to Heaven because they were Jews. John tells them that God could raise up literal stones as descendants of Abraham if He wanted to. Why should that be surprising, considering that every human is made of the dust of the earth (Genesis 2:7). God created mankind from dirt. So God could certainly make some rocks into Jews. Is there anything too hard for the Lord? No! God can do anything that doesn't violate His holy character!

John the Baptist was exposing the [2]fallacy that Jews are somehow a superior Master Race, as some wayward theologians like Dr. William P. Grady errantly teach. It is bizarre! I love Jewish people and Gentiles alike. So it is not a criticism of the Jews to refute the heresy that they are somehow the Master Race! It is simply not true. God initially chose the Jewish people as His ambassadors to the Gentile world (Exodus 19:5-6), but they refused, so God turned to the Gentiles to preach the Gospel instead (Romans 11), which the Gentiles have done. God chose the nation of Israel for a specific task, but that doesn't make them the Master Race. The Bible plainly teaches in Acts 17:26a that God "hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth..." There is only one human race! Jews are no better than anyone else, nor do they have their own unique plan of salvation. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

So in Matthew 5:7, John emphasizes that the Jewish religious leaders are guilty sinners on their way to burn in Hell, suffering God's coming wrath. John even calls them "vipers" (snakes). Snakes are subtle creatures, both venomous and sly. A snake's movements are subtle and harder to detect by their prey. Luke 11:44, " Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them." False religion is like a false floor in [3]a Mexican mineshaft which descends 550 feet into the darkness.

And then in Matthew 5:9, John tells the Jewish religious leaders THE TRUTH that their ethnicity cannot save them! Folks, I have heard some bizarre things taught by Zionist pastors over the years. Case in point is [4]Pastor James Modlish , who [5]said he wanted to hire a Jewish man , to go out into New York City and witness only to Jewish people, so that God would bless his church. That sounds more like like a strange episode of The Outer Limits! Or perhaps [6]The Twilight Zone . I am not trying to be unkind nor disrespectful of anyone. I am simply showing you dear reader that Gentiles are just as important to God as are Jews. Kindly said, it is absurd for Pastor Modlish to think that God would bless his ministry more, for witnessing to Jews, than to Gentiles. The Bible plainly teaches again and again that God is no respecter of persons (Acts 10:34; Romans 2:11; James 2:1), and that there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek (Romans 10:12). Christian believers (regardless of who they are or where they came from) are all one in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:29).

Having said all that as introduction, to properly exegete the true meaning of Matthew 3:8, we can only soundly conclude that John the Baptist was not teaching that a person must turn from sinful behavior to be saved, nor to prove they are saved. Sadly, many preachers misinterpret Matthew 3:8 to teach the heresy of Lordship Salvation. They claim that someone is not saved unless they have " turned away from their sins.

This is a false gospel. Not one verse in the Holy Bible (if you have an inspired King James Bible), teaches to repent of your sin

turn away from your sin

Since the Bible does not teach such things, incompetent ministers “wrest” (Greek: strebloo, “to torture” - 2nd Peter 3:16-17) the Scripture to their own destruction. The proponents of Lordship Salvation torture obscure passages of Scripture, which blatantly contradict clear ones which teach salvation by faith alone. This is theological incompetence! Kindly said, [7]I am talking about the Bob Jones University crowd, who pervert the grace of God, requiring people to turn from their sins to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. How then is it a gift?

So what did John the Baptist mean in Matthew 3:8. I have painfully exegeted the verses before and after verse 8, to show you clearly what John really meant. The religious leaders were self-righteous. Mark 2:16-17, “And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. ” This is what John meant. The religious leaders needed to repent of their self-righteousness! That is as clear as day my friend.

You don’t have to stop shacking up with your girlfriend in fornication to be saved, nor do you have stop abusing yourself with drugs and alcohol to be saved, nor do you have to stop stealing from your employer to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. These are horrible sins according to the Bible (1st Corinthians 6:9-10). We “SHOULD” live godly in Christ Jesus (Titus 2:12). We ought to depart from iniquity because we are saved, not to be saved (2nd Timothy 2:19; Ephesians 2:10; Romans 3:31). It is very important to notice that John didn’t say to bring forth “ works,

but **“

fruit

” meet (or as a result) of repentance. That fruit would have been faith alone in Jesus Christ.

The religious leaders hadn’t repented yet, which is why they were still in darkness, blinded by their false religion of keeping the law. Repentance is acknowledging the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25). It is a change of mind. 2nd Timothy 2:25-26,

“ In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." That is all repentance is, and has ever been —acknowledging THE TRUTH!!! When a man acknowledges THE TRUTH, he gets saved. That is how you get saved, by embracing the TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL. Colossians 1:5, " For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;"

By God's wondrous grace I have been saved now for 40 years. I got saved at 13 years of age, at the Northland Baptist Church on Chicago's northside in 1980. The preacher was a Hyles-Anderson College graduate. I don't recall the name of the sermon, or even the topic. All I remember is that the pastor said if you don't have the Holy Spirit living inside you, convicting you about the sin in your life, you are not saved. I knew immediately that I didn't have the Holy Spirit living in me, and I had no conviction about my sins up until then. So I quietly got saved in my pew at the end of the service, receiving Jesus Christ as my personal Savior.

The thought of turning away from my sins never crossed my mind. No such thought was involved in my salvation. I simply knew that I was a needy sinner, deserving of hellfire, and that Jesus is the One Who could save me. I believed that Christ died on the cross for my sins, and knew that I was calling out from my soul to a risen and living Savior to save me (and He did). Getting saved is a simple matter of childlike faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26).

I am done with explaining Matthew 3:8. I am 100 % confident that what I have just taught you is solid fundamental Bible doctrine. I would stake my life on it! Nowhere does the Bible tell anyone to "

turn from sin

to be saved. We must not only reject such nonsense, but expose it wherever Lordship Salvation rears its ugly head. The Sadducees and Pharisees came to be baptized by John, but he refused. Why? It is because they weren't sick, just like Jesus said in Mark 2:16-17. They were self-righteous. They failed to see their need for Christ, because they refused to see themselves as guilty sinners.

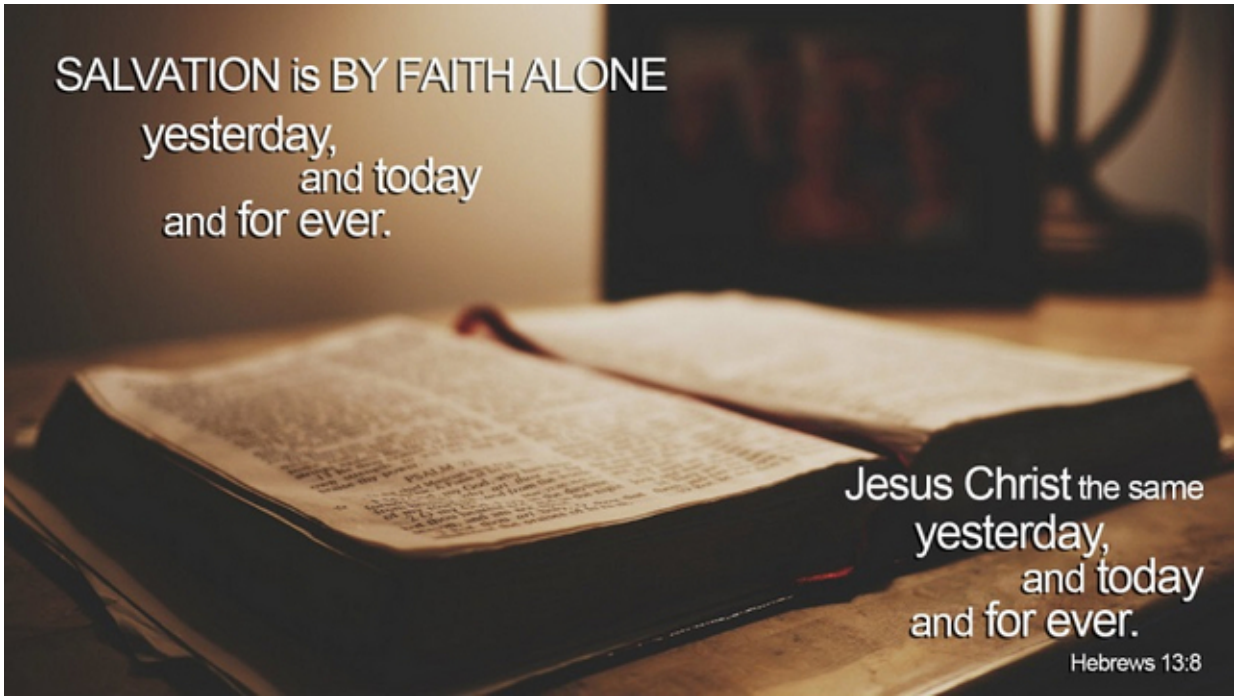
That is why John called them vipers, and spoke of God's wrath to come. John was wisely addressing them as woeful sinners, because that is what they desperately needed to hear. Whereas the common people came confessing their sins " (verse 5) , the religious leaders did not. Repentance is necessary for salvation, but repentance means a change of mind. Repentance is the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19), so they will put their faith in the wonderful Savior (Galatians 3:26).



“He [God] did everything, so that you would have to do nothing, except receive it as a free gift! And God says, ’I love you so much that I gave My Son to pay for your sins. Will you believe it? And if you will (believe/ trust, used interchangeably in the Bible), will you simply believe that Jesus Christ died for you? And God says, ’If you’ll do that, I’ll promise you on the authority of My Word, that you’ll never perish, but you’ll have everlasting life!”’ —Pastor Max D. Younce, an excellent quote from the intriguing Bible study titled: “ [9]SO GREAT SALVATION ,” [10]Part 7 | [11]MP3’s

2nd Corinthians 2:17,

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

A new Devil's Bible was published in 2020 called: " [1]LITERAL STANDARD VERSION " (LSV).

> Readers will experience a translation that is even further along the formal equivalence spectrum than Young's—in fact, the most literal English translation ever made—yet is much easier to read, given that the LSV translation is written in modern English. For students of the Bible searching for a faithful translation like the King James that is literal, à la Young's or the NASB, but is written in the common tongue, they may have finally found what they've been looking for. [3]

I am going to show you several blatant corruptions and problems found in the Literal Standard Version (LSV). Nearly all of these corruptions are the SAME problems found in the Westcott and Hort translations. That is because they all came from the same garbage pail!

Exodus 12:13 In LSV Changes Future Tense To Past Tense

The Lord said, as translated accurately in the King James Bible: "WHEN I SEE THE BLOOD, I WILL PASS OVER YOU"!!! But the Satanic LSV changes it to: "I HAVE SEEN THE BLOOD, AND HAVE PASSED OVER YOU." Huh? The Lord announced to Moses what He was going to do, not what He had already done. Even the LSV speaks in present tense for the first 11 verses of Exodus chapter 12, but then in verse 12 it bizarrely switches to past tense, which makes no sense at all. I know exactly why they did that.

[4]By U.S. law, in order to obtain a legal copyright, translators MUST butcher God's Word to ensure that

"[5]changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes." The LSV drastically changes Exodus 12:13 from present to past tense, which is as deceitful and evil as can be!

Here is verse 3 to compare, which shows that God is speaking in present tense...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Exodus 12:13, "Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:"
> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - Exodus 12:13, "speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth of this month they take to themselves, each man, a lamb for the house of the fathers, a lamb for a house."

Moses was commanded to instruct the Hebrews to kill a spotless lamb (which symbolizes the sinless Son of God), and then to apply that lamb's blood to the doorposts of the home, so the firstborn would live. But the LSV changes it to past tense. Why would Moses tell the people what has already happened? It makes no sense! ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Exodus 12:13,
>
> **"
>
> And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. "
> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - Exodus 12:13,
>
> **"
> And the blood has become a sign for you on the houses where you [are], and I have seen the blood, and have passed over you, and a plague is not on you for destruction in My striking in the land of Egypt. "

Do you see how stupid the LSV is dear reader? The King James Bible makes perfect sense. Again we see how the LSV translators had no choice but to torture the Bible (which is what the word "wrest" means in 2nd Peter 3:16), because in order to come up with something new, due to the hundreds of English Bibles already in existence, they had to get wildly creative. It is insane theology!

NLV Changes The Word 'Sodomites' To 'Whoremongers'

The Old Testament Bible word "

has become highly offensive to perverse American culture today, because of the legalization of homosexual unions since 2015. Hence, the demonic LGBTQ agenda is putting much pressure on churches, Bible publishers, Bible colleges, preachers seminaries and the religious world, to go along with this sinful social trend to avoid harsh persecution from peers, the cruel media, LGBTQ support groups, and the government itself regarding maintaining 501C3 tax exemption status. Hence, it ought not be surprising that the

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Kings 14:24, “

And there were also sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - 1st Kings 14:24, “

and a whoremonger has also been in the land; they have done according to all the abominations of the nations that YHWH dispossessed from the presence of the sons of Israel.

” KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Kings 15:12, “

And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - 1st Kings 15:12, “

and removes the whoremongers out of the land, and turns aside all the idols that his fathers made;

Dear reader, there is a world of difference between a whoremonger (a male who mongers lewd women) versus a sodomite (a male who has carnal knowledge with another male).

Psalms 12:6-7 Corrupted

Here we see that the

has corrupted this passage, which ALL of the modern Westcott and Hort based perversions also do. There is a massive difference between “ words

(i.e., a very specific meaning) and sayings

” (i.e., a more general meaning)

...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them*, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - Psalms 12:6-7, "Sayings of YHWH [are] pure sayings—Silver tried in a furnace of earth, refined sevenfold.

You, O YHWH, preserve them, || You keep us from this generation for all time.

And worst of all, please notice that the

Literal Standard Version (LSV)

deceitfully changes God's promise to protect "THEM" (i.e., His pure WORDS), to protecting "US" (i.e., the SAINTS). The LSV is advertised as a new more literal revision of the Textus Receptus, but it is clear to see that the LSV follows the same damnable corruptions found in the Westcott and Hort translations. God promised to preserve and keep His pure Word forever, not keep the saints. This passage of Scripture has NOTHING to do with the saints; This passage is all about God preserving and keeping His PURE WORDS, which means there can only be ONE accurate Bible in English today. If there were two English versions (let's say for the sake of argument), then one absolutely MUST be inferior to the other! They cannot BOTH be 100 % accurate, when they drastically differ in word meaning.

What Does "

Compressed

" Mean?

The following perverse translation from the

Literal Standard Version (LSV)

is a good example of what U.S. copyright laws do to publishers, to compel them to do weird and unscholarly things with the Bible. ...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Matthew 7:14,

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. "

LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - Matthew 7:14, "how narrow [is] the gate and compressed the way that is leading to life, and few are those finding it! "

What a sad joke! Dear reader, I cannot even believe that some translator chose the ridiculous word: “compressed.” The dictionary defines “compress” as: “To make more compact by or as if by pressing; to squeeze or press together.” That is not the same as something being “narrow.” The way of salvation is so simple (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4) that most people pass right over it, missing it (Luke 13:23-24; Matthew 7:21-23). Some false preachers (like Ray Comfort and Paul Washer) errantly teach that “narrow” refers to “turning from your sinful living” to be saved. But that cannot be true, which would utterly conflict with numerous Scripture passages that teach salvation is not of works (Romans 3:19-20; Ephesians 2:8-9; Romans 4:5-1-6; Galatians 3:1-26). The word “compressed” makes no sense, sounds weird and confuses the reader.

Proverbs 30:5-6 Removes Mention Of The ’PURITY’ Of God’s Words

Again we see how the Literal Standard Version (LSV) says something completely different than the Bible. For God to “reprove” a man is very different than to reason

” with him. There are changing the Bible just to change it, so they can obtain a legal copyright. Whether the Word of God needs changing is irrelevant, they still MUST change it (using substantial and creative changes) in order to qualify for a new copyright. The translators of the LSV are LIARS! ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Proverbs 30:5-6, “
> Every word of God is pure* : he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.
>
> Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.
>

> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) - Proverbs 30:5-6, “
>
> Every saying of God [is] tried*, || He [is] a shield to those trusting in Him.
>
> Do not add to His words, lest He reason with you, || And you have been found false.
> **”

Look and I’ll prove it to you my friend...

> Psalms 119:140, “Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.”
> Psalms 119:140, “Your saying [is] tried exceedingly, || And Your servant has loved it.”

The Literal Standard Version (LSV) keeps referring to God’s “SAYINGS” instead of God’s “WORDS”; and they keep referring to God’s sayings as “tried” instead of being “pure.” Dear friend, there is a BIG DIFFERENCE in meaning between pure and tried, and I know you can see it. The inspired King James Bible faithfully upholds the purity of God’s WORDS!!! Psalms 119:140a, “Thy word is very pure...” (King James Bible). Psalms 119:140a, “Your saying [is] tried exceedingly..." (Literal Standard Version). Please listen carefully—God's Words are pure because God gave them to man pure, not because they were tried, tested and proven. The Word of God is settled in Heaven forever (Psalms 119:89). What the LSV gang are doing is very wrong—torturing the Bible to make money (2nd Peter 3:16-17). I am not trying to nitpick on the modern revisions, but there is a world of difference between the LSV versus the King James Bible (KJB). I'll stick with the inspired King James Bible!!!

Uh, folks there is a giant difference between pure and tried. Since they keep printing more Bible versions, year after year after year, how can they be PURE? That is why these wicked people behind the keep removing references to God's PURE WORDS!!!

John 1:3 - Says ALL THINGS Created 'THROUGH' Instead Of 'BY' Jesus

Jesus is the divine Creator. The Bible says ALL THINGS were made BY Jesus Christ. In His pre-incarnate form, Jesus Christ created the universe and all the works therein. To say that all things were created "

THROUGH

Him attacks Jesus' deity as God almighty. The King James Bible correctly says that all things were made

Jesus. If Jesus didn't create it, then it wasn't created (John 1:3).

> all things happened through Him, and without Him not even one thing happened that has happened.

Also, please notice that the Literal Standard Version (LSV) is even WORSE than the Devil's Bibles which came before it. The previous Devil's Bible say that all things were made or created through Him. Now they won't even address Jesus as the Creator anymore. Now the LSV merely says all things HAPPENED through Him. What an ungodly translation! What utter blasphemy against the Lord. Folks, the King James Bible rightly proclaims that ALL THINGS WERE MADE BY HIM [JESUS]!!!

The inspired and trustworthy King James Bible repeatedly says that all things were created "BY" Jesus, not "THROUGH" Him. The Jehovah's Witness' New World Translation (NWT) follows the corrupt Greek of Westcott and Hort. The LSV translators claim to have used the Textus Receptus, so why does their new and improved LSV version agree with Westcott's and Hort's corrupt text?

Kindly said, it is gross theological incompetence. To substitute the word "made" with "happening" shows so blatantly how desperate the translators were to find new substantial and creative changes to obtain a U.S. copyright. I am familiar with their copyright law, and they want don't just want a clone of somebody's else work. That explains why they use strange words like compressed in Matthew 7:14 and happening in John 1:3.

Look what they did the John 3:16...

> for God so loved the world that He gave the only begotten Son, that everyone who is believing in Him may not perish, but may have continuous life.

So now instead of "HIS" (the heavenly Father's) only begotten Son, Jesus is called: "THE" only begotten Son. Really?

And what is this below—Ebonics? "

Do not be touching me?

" (LSV - John 20:17b).

Who talks like that? "Yo dude! Bro, she bin dat about what her homey boyz be doin.

Dun't be touching me.

These modern Bible revisions are laughable to say the least!

> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) -
>
> John 20:17, "
> Jesus says to her, "Do not be touching Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; and be going on to My brothers, and say to them, I ascend to My Father and your Father, and [to] My God and your God."

You confess the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved—by simply agreeing with God that you are a guilty needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and then receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins (John 20:31), believing that He raised up from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is THE GOSPEL that saves, to them that believe it (Romans 1:16; Galatians 3:26; Philippians 3:9).

> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) -
>
> Romans 10:9-10, "
>
> that if you may confess with your mouth that Jesus [is] LORD, and may believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved, > for with the heart [one] believes to righteousness, and with the mouth is confession made to salvation;"

The following is a common perversion of the Scriptures. The King James Bible says we who “ ARE SAVED,

” but the Devil’s revisions all say those,

BEING SAVED.

” Salvation is not a process, it is a new and instant birth. Slight changes in Bible verses can have a serious impact on sentence meaning, and totally change the mindset of the reader.

>
> 1st Corinthians 1:18, “
>
> for the word of the Cross to those indeed perishing is foolishness, and to us—those being saved—it is the power of God,
> **”

The LSV changed the word “ corrupt

adulterating.

That doesn’t sound any easier to understand, does it? This will definitely confuse readers...

> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) -
>
>
> For we are not as the many, adulterating the word of God, but as of sincerity—but as of God; in the presence of God, in Christ we speak.

Here they foolishly replaced the words “repent” and “repentance” with the words “convert” and “conversion.” These two words carry very different theological meanings.

> LITERAL STANDARD VERSION (LSV) -
>
> Mar 1:15 “
> and saying, ’The time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God has come near, convert and believe in the good news.’

I could give you hundreds more good examples of how the Literal Standard Version (LSV) is as corrupt as can be, and why you should reject, avoid and warn others NOT to have anything to do with it, because the LSV is religious poison! You'll be driving all over the road if you use umpteen modern Bible versions. I use only the inspired and infallible King James Bible. I humbly recommend that you do the same friend, lest you be confused and misled like so many millions of churchgoers today. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

2.1.2 A Poem I Made For Abby Who I Love (2021-01-02 10:09)

Song Of Solomon 4:7,

Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

Song Of Solomon 5-8-9,

I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love. What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

I have been in love with a young Christian woman since 2017, who visits across the street from me. She used to live across the street in 2017, but then moved away last year to my sadness. Now she visits, sometimes a few times in a week; or sometimes I don’t see her for a couple weeks, and my heart aches in loneliness to see her again. She is my happy thought.

I lay thinking of her today, tears upon my pillow, hurting to be near her and part of her life. I wrote this poem for her, about her, which I hope she will read from my heart.

> Abby is her name.
> Abby, ’tis such a pretty name, to match your dainty and charm, I pray and wish our hearts could be one, holding each by the arm; You bring me happy thoughts, thinking of you throughout the day, always praying that perhaps one day, you’ll feel the same way.
>
> You captured my heart four years ago, on a sunny spring day, as I watched you cut the grass, and my heart was mowed away; I think you are an amazing creature, spectacular by far, I wouldn’t change anything about you, I love you as you are.
> Painting on the roof, working in the yard, I see Abby work so hard, She’s special to me, for all to see, earning my highest regard; I pray one day she would be my wife, the happiest thought of my life, but if it’s not meant to be, only God can set my heart’s love for her free.
> Abby is her lovely name.

2.1.3 Can A Lost Person Be Saved Without A Christian? (2021-01-04 14:42)

John 20:29-31, "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. "

Someone asked me this week if only a Christian can lead an unsaved person to the Lord. It is my humble opinion, based upon my understanding of the Holy Scriptures, that a lost person CAN be saved on their own, from reading the Bible or reading a well written Gospel tract.

The idea that someone cannot be saved on their own comes from the following passage:

> Acts 8:26-31 "And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.

And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him."

Even today in 2020 the average person, believers included, couldn't understand this passage from Isaiah, that the eunuch was trying to understand. Thank God for Google...lol! Also, we read in 1st Corinthians 2:14-16, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

" And we read in

Romans 1:17, "

For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

" I believe

"faith to faith" refers to God giving a person more understanding, as they by faith take each step in obedience to God. It is clear from reading John 20:31 that the Gospel of John was written to convince the lost person that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, so that they will believe and be saved.

What more evidence do we need that someone lost CAN be saved without a soulwinner? Since we are born again of the "seed" of God's Word, nothing more is needed than the seed. However, a Christian can plant that seed, and water that seed, as we read in 1st Corinthians 3:5-9, " Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

Humbly said, I think this one passage alone from John 20:31 evidences that, yes, a lost person can be saved without a Christian to guide them, just from reading the Gospel of John. That is why it was written.

Just because the eunuch couldn't understand the book of Isaiah, doesn't mean that a person in 2020 cannot understand the Gospel of John. Clearly they can, which is why this particular book of the Bible was written in the first place—to convince lost sinners to come to Jesus Christ to receive forgiveness of sins and eternal life. As a Christian I had great difficulty for most of my Christian life understanding umpteen passages of Scripture. That is why we are commanded to “study” in 2nd Timothy 2:15.

What saith the Scripture? 2nd Timothy 3:15, “And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

” John 5:39, “ *Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. ” I don’t find any place in the Scripture where it says to go find a saved person if someone wants to understand salvation. Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! Read it for yourself friend. Our Savior Himself said to go SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES! For in them ye think ye have eternal life. That is, we learn about God’s wonderful promise of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;” You see, the Gospel is manifest (made known to lost men) through preaching. If we didn’t have preachers and Christians who are soulwinners, hardly anyone would be saved.

2nd Corinthians 5:20-21 “Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.” I love that. Paul said we as believers are ambassadors to the lost world, as if God Himself were pleading with them to be saved. God desires for all men to repent (i.e., get saved), which great truth we read in 2nd Peter 3:9. That is why I have my website ministry, which I started by God’s leading in 2002, to preach the Gospel to get men saved. I am one of God’s ambassadors, sharing the truth with lost sinners so they can also receive eternal life by faith.

John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Here we have a direct answer from the Scripture to your question. The Gospel of John was written TO THE LOST PERSON, to convince them. If the Ethiopian eunuch had been reading the Gospel of John (which hadn’t been penned yet), he could have been saved. The Gospel of John is very easy to understand compared to the Old Testament.

1st Timothy 2:5 says "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Christ Himself is the only Mediator between God the Father and sinful men. As believers we have been given the ministry of reconciliation, reconciling lost sinners to God with the Gospel, through faith in Christ (Romans 5:1). Since we do have the complete Bible today, it is my humble opinion that people CAN be saved on their own, by simply searching the Scriptures to learn about the Good News of Jesus crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (John 19-20; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The Apostle Paul reminded young Timothy that the Scriptures would make him wise unto salvation (1st Timothy 3:15-17). Timothy only had the Old Testament to read. Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES to think we have eternal life (John 5:39). I do not find even one Scripture passage, where the reader is directed to go ask a Christian how to have eternal life. The Bible tells us directly in the Gospel of John, and many other passages. By simply searching the Scriptures, a person will learn about Jesus, and CAN be saved by believing on Christ. If a person cannot be saved without a Christian to guide them, then there would be TWO mediators. John 12:32, " And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me." It is Christ Who draws all men to Himself, through the blessed Holy Spirit, Who is called the

Spirit of Christ

(Romans 8:9). We are called to be ambassadors for Christ, but Jesus alone is the one and only Mediator. So, no, a person does not need a Christian to be saved.

Not too long ago I wrote an interesting article about [1]visions in the last days, spoken of by Joel. God sent Cornelius a vision in Acts 10. The purpose of that vision was soulwinning. God was helping Cornelius get to the Apostle Peter, so he could hear the Gospel and be saved, and he did get saved (Acts 10:43-44). But, in my humble opinion, this story does not mean no one can understand the Gospel without help. The Bible says we learn from FAITH TO FAITH (Romans 1:17). I believe that means when we accept by faith the truth God has given us, then God sends more, and takes us to the next step. If a man rejects what light God has given him, then God is not bound to give more. Man's obligation is to receive the truth; God's obligation is to provide the truth. I believe this is what Titus 2:11 means, " For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

" I do not think that refers to the Gospel; but rather, God provides some enlightenment to a person, to see if they will accept it.

prayed, fasted, gave alms, and feared God; but he wasn't saved yet. So God sent him more light, which led to his conversion. God would NEVER send anyone to Hell, who wanted to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). Many people have gone to Hell, who put off being saved until a later time. God is a just God (1st John 1:9). No one ever went to Hell who didn't choose to go there, by knowingly rejecting God's free gift of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ.

Humbly, I think this one passage of Scripture from John 20:31 is sufficient enough to theologically prove that a lost person CAN be saved just from reading the Bible. John 20:31,

" But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The person who wrote to me this week to ask a question, whether a person who is lost can be saved without a Christian or not, was concerned about their own salvation. They had heard a preacher teach that no one can be saved without a Christian, but he had been saved by reading the Bible directly.

Again, Jesus said in John 5:37-40,

"And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. " God's plan of salvation is learned through knowledge of the Scriptures (2nd Timothy 3:15). Whether a person obtains that knowledge directly from searching the Scriptures, or from a soulwinner who preaches the Gospel to them, it is still the same truth. We know from 1st Corinthians 2:14 that the natural (unsaved) man cannot understand spiritual things, but I do not think it means that a lost person cannot even grasp the plan of salvation. If that were true—that a lost person cannot understand anything in the Bible—then why did John write the Gospel of John to convince the lost person (John 20:31) why they should believe on Christ? Clearly a lost person can understand the Gospel of John, because it was written to the lost person.

2.1.4 Assurance of Salvation (2021-01-05 09:30)

Assurance Of Salvation

by Evangelist John R. Rice

“They that gladly received his word. . . . ” — Acts 2:41

Here are some lessons in the Christian life. Every Christian starts out as a baby Christian. One has to learn after one is saved. One has to grow in grace after being saved. A good example is in the book of Acts, after Pentecost, when they had three thousand people saved. The Lord tells us how they did after they were saved - these new converts. My, how happy and fruitful they were!

In Acts 2 we begin to read with verse 41:

"Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers."

Today I want you to see that "they that gladly received his word were baptized." Who was baptized? That is, who publicly took on himself the name of Christian? Who was it that counted themselves committed, branded, lined up with God’s people? Those who gladly received His word.

Let us imagine that here a great number of people come. They say, "Peter, I have been saved. I have trusted the Lord." Peter says, "Are you taking God’s word for it? Are you believing that He died for your sins? Are you relying on His death, that He paid for your sins? Are you relying on His promises, that He gave you everlasting life when you trusted Him?"

"Yes."

"All right. then you may be baptized."

Those that gladly received His Word were baptized. I am talking about assurance of salvation.

One Can Know He Is Saved
When I was a boy back at Gainesville, Texas, I remember that Dr. Talley was the pastor. At prayer meeting a woman said, "Dr. Talley, a neighbor of mine says she knows she is saved. Now isn’t it presumptuous for anybody to say she knows she is going to Heaven?"

Dr Talley very wisely answered, "No. If she is relying on the Word of God, she has a right to know that she is saved."

Can you know you are forgiven, and know that you are going to Heaven? Yes, you can. In II Timothy 1:12 Paul says, "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." "I know whom I have believed." It is already done. I have already believed. Not "I am believing," but by an act of faith I committed myself to Christ, I relied on Christ. "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded (or convinced) that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him." Now Paul committed himself and the saving of his soul to the Lord. He said. "And I know He will keep what I have already committed to Him." Paul knew he was saved.

Paul could say in Romans, chapter 8, in the triumphant closing of that great passage, "Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us." That settles that Jesus is taking up for me. I have been saved.

I read on in Romans, chapter 8, beginning with verse 35:

"Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long: we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature (No, Paul says not any other created thing), shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

One Can Know by Plain Statements of Scripture

Oh, Paul said, "I know whom I have believed. I know He is keeping that which I have committed to Him." Can one know he is saved? Oh, yes. I read in I John 5:11-13: "And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life." That is interesting. God gave it. It is not bought. You are not earning it. You are not working it in. But "God hath given to us eternal life." What kind of life? Eternal life. He not only gave me life but He gave me eternal, everlasting life. Oh, how often He said, "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you (in the Bible) that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God." John says. I have written these things so you can know you have eternal life.

Now, how am I going to know? By the record in the Bible. God loves me. Jesus died for me. My sins are all paid for. He said they would be blotted out and not held against me any more if I would come to Jesus and rely on Him. The Bible says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life" (John 3:36). The Bible says in John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life." The believer already has it! He is not going to have it some day, but he has it now." ... HATH everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." So He said, "I have written these things that you may know that you have eternal life when you believe on Jesus." Thank God, one can know!

After Years of Ignorant Doubt, I Learned I Had Everlasting Life

Why don't people know? For three sad years after I was converted I did not know for sure I was saved. When I was a boy about nine years old, in the First Baptist Church of Gainesville, Texas, the pastor, dear Brother Ingram, preached on the prodigal son. He told how when he was a boy he ran away from home and got a job in a print shop, and how he made a botch of it when he spilled a whole font of type, making pie out of it when every letter, every period and comma had to be set by hand. He spilled that and the fellow fired him and didn't pay him. He was hungry and went home and his father loved him and forgave him and took him back home when he had run away.

This preacher said, "As that prodigal son came home to his father and the father ran to meet him and fell on his neck and kissed him, so you can come to Christ now, and He will take you."

When the invitation was given, I walked down the aisle and told the preacher, "All right, I have come to trust Jesus." But nobody then took the Bible and showed me how Christ had promised to us everlasting life. Nobody showed me any Scripture. They just said, "Now, John, you ought to join the church."

Well, I went home that day and said, "Dad, what about me joining the church? (I didn't know how to tell him what had happened.) He said: "Well, Son, when you are really old enough to repent of your sins and be regenerated, then will be time enough to join the church." Well, I didn't know what those big words meant, but if my dad didn't think I was saved, I guessed I wasn't, since he was the smartest man in the world. So sadly I put it aside. I supposed I was too young. Dad seemed to think so, and I supposed I was not saved.

The next morning as I went to school, I stopped down at the creek bottom and knelt on the sand bar under a willow tree and prayed, "Now, Lord, I guess I am too young to be saved," - and I mentioned this one and that one and others I knew. I said, "Lord, they are not too young, they can be saved, Lord, save them."

Isn't it a strange thing that I had a burden for people to be saved when I didn't know for sure I was saved myself? Well, I went on a time wondering. A boy that day had come who was twelve and he was crying. I wondered if I would have been saved had I cried more. I didn't know what it took to be saved.

I went on doubting for three sad years. Then I decided to leave this thing with Jesus. I remember I asked a preacher to pray for me and I didn't say, "Tell me how to be sure." He didn't know how to tell me, I suppose. All he said was, "All right, John, I'll pray for you and you pray for yourself."

So I went home and knelt down by my bed that night and prayed, but I didn't feel any better. I went to bed and I didn't feel good and I said, "I had better get this settled." So I got up and knelt down and prayed again. Well, I decided I would join the church and try to live for Christ the best I could.

But after I had been saved for three years I started reading the bible. I read the Scripture which says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life" (John 3:36). I read where "he that believeth on him is not condemned" (John 3:18). I read John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." I read John 1:12, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." I said, "Here it is. When I believed in Jesus, when I trusted Jesus, I got everlasting life! That is what the Bible says." And, God is my witness, as far as I know, I have never had a second of doubt about my salvation since then.

People Doubt Because They Partly Depend on Good Life

Now why do people doubt their salvation? Well, it is a natural thing to do. In the first place, we don't like to admit we are wicked old sinners who can do nothing to earn salvation. We like to feel respectable.

Lynn Tompkins who worked for us and who is now at Dr. Tom Malone's school, one night at 10:00 had not won anybody that particular day. He said, "I must get somebody saved before I sleep." (He usually won somebody every day.) So he went downtown and found a store which had not yet closed. A line of people were waiting at the check-out counter. A boy with long hair was in the line. He walked up to this fellow and said, "If you died right now, would you go to Heaven?"

The young fellow said, "I think I would."

Lynn Tompkins said, "What makes you think so?"

"Well, I'm a pretty good boy."

Lynn said to him (this is a little brash), "No, sir, you would split Hell wide open. You would go straight to Hell!"

Well, the fellow became a little indignant at that and said, "Who said so?"

Lynn said, "Jesus did. Look here in John 3. He said you must be born again and if you don't get born again, you will never see the kingdom."

It wasn't long until he had the fellow on his knees there in the check out line while everybody waited patiently as the young fellow prayed and trusted the Lord and was saved!

What I am saying is, aren't you glad you know you are saved? I know I am and I thank God I know it.

Everybody likes to feel he is a pretty good fellow. You don't like to admit you are an old sinner who deserves to go to Hell. I don't deserve God's mercy. Neither do you. But we don't like to admit our sinful condition. Everybody likes to think he can earn part of it. An old song says:

Jesus paid it all,

All to Him I owe;

Sin had left a crimson stain,

He washed it white as snow.

Well, the old carnal nature would like to change it to:

Jesus paid a part,

And I a part, you know;

Sin had Left a little stain,

And we washed it white as snow.

That is not the way. The Lord has to do it all. You say, "But I ... don't think I deserve it." You don't get salvation by deserving it; you get it by the grace of God: "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." This trying to work it, trying to earn it, is part of the reason for dissatisfaction. As sure as you live you are going to know you are not worthy, and your conscience will hurt you. You say, "Oh, what will I do, then?"

Some Depend on Feeling for Assurance of Salvation

Here is another reason people doubt. We do something wrong and our conscience condemns us and we feel so bad about it and we say, "I guess I am not saved. I did feel good hut I have lost it now; so I guess I am not saved."

Sometimes the discouragement is a matter of health. I remember a woman was in the change of life and she was upset and nervous and not normal in her feelings. With her it was mainly a matter of health and nerves. But she got so upset and decided she was not saved. Her husband, a pastor, brought her from down in Alabama, up to Clarksburg, West Virginia, where I was in a citywide campaign - to talk to me. She thought either she had never been saved or that she had committed the unpardonable sin.

What is your trouble? Maybe it is because of ill health and some natural depression that comes from ill health. But more likely it is because your conscience tells you you haven't done all you ought to do, and you feel guilty and are afraid that you are lost. But put this down, when you come to Jesus, you can know He saves you.

Now how can you know for sure? Take what God has written in the Bible, such as Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." Isn't that a good, solid Scripture you can rest your soul upon? "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." You mean if you just come and ask God for forgiveness? Absolutely. If your heart turns to Jesus for mercy, you get it right then. He wants you to trust Him about it.

How long does it take you to make a deposit in your bank? Well, it doesn't take that long to turn your soul over to Jesus and rely on Him to keep it for you.

The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose

He will not, He will not desert to his foes.

That soul, though all Hell should endeavor to shake,

I'll never, no never, no never forsake.

Throw Away Your Doubts: Rely on Jesus Christ

> Then, how are you going to be sure? You say, "I'm going to believe what God said. I'm not going to make God out to be a liar. I'm not going to doubt what He said."

I believe it was J. Wilbur Chapman who said that when he was a young fellow, he was in Moody's meeting. He was already converted but he didn't have the assurance he wanted. He said, "I don't believe I have faith enough."

D. L. Moody said, "Who is it you don't have faith in? Are you doubting Jesus Christ?"

"Oh, no! Oh, no! I'm doubting myself."

"Well, you are not the one who does the saving. If you don't doubt Jesus, then leave it with Him."

That is the only way. Let Jesus do the saving. He does it free. You can love Him and te1l Him so and try to live for Him. But assurance of salvation will only come as you say, "I rely on Jesus and He said He will take me. I know He will. He said He would never forsake me. He said He would give me everlasting life." You can rely on the Word of God.

"These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life." Ah, you can know it, too. Like I knew it when I saw that God said, "He that believeth on the Son (or trusts in the Son) hath everlasting life." Not just believe something about it, but did you rely on Him? All right, you have everlasting life if you have.

And if you don't have it, you can have it now. Oh, unsaved soul, remember that today Jesus loves you and He promises you everlasting life. You can rely on Him and have it settled now forever. Will you do that? Won't you write today and say, "I am casting away my doubts. I am going to believe in Jesus Christ and leave it with Him." I hope you will.

Mark 1:15, "

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

The Bible simply teaches to "R epent ye, and believe the Gospel.

" That is, we repent TO believe, not repent AND believe. Repentance and believing are simply two different ways of looking at salvation. That is why in the Gospel of John the word "believe" is mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of the word "repent" even once. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

The word

"repent" here in Mark 1:15 is the Greek verb metanoeo, which simply means to think differently.

” The noun form of “repent” is metanoia , meaning

a change of mind.

” The preacher who attempts to tell us what to think about is adding to the Scriptures. God intentionally chose this open-ended word, not telling us what we must think differently about, deliberately to make it all-inclusive. That is, the object of repenting is always to “

BELIEVE.

We know from verses like John 3:20 and Romans 3:19 that repentance must involve some realization of one’s guilt as a sinner. John 3:20, “For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. ” Romans 3:19,

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. ” No one has ever been saved who didn’t admit to being a sinner in God’s sight.

Where false preachers go very wrong on the Gospel is when they add the requirement to

to be saved. Nothing in the preceding verses, nor anywhere else in the Bible, teaches that a person must forsake their sinful ways to receive God’s gift. Being a “new creature” in 2nd Corinthians 5:17 simply means that every believer has the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). This does not guarantee that someone’s lifestyle will immediately transform. It does mean that a new believer is a spiritual baby, and needs the milk of the Word to grow (1st Peter 2:2). Just as a little baby cannot crawl or walk yet, so also a new Christian is weak and immature.

The Bible simply teaches to change one’s mind (repent) and believe the Gospel. Since God Himself didn’t tell us what to change our mind about, it would be wrong for us to fill in the blanks. All we KNOW is that a person must come as a guilty sinner. That is the purpose of the Old Testament law according to Galatians 3:24-26, “Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

” So we see that the only requirement to be saved is to realize what we are being saved from. We are sinners (Romans 3:10-23). There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). The Bible warns of a second death in a lake which burns with fire and brimstone (Revelation 21:8). I agree with Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) that repentance is the admission I am as guilty a sinner as God has declared me to be in His holy Word.

But again, it must be emphasized that the word “

repent

” is an open-ended, all-inclusive, term. In other words, you must change your mind about anything and everything that is hindering you from BELIEVING the Gospel to be saved. Please don’t miss that. We are saved by believing, not by repenting. Repentance facilitates (makes possible) believing. Repentance is necessary for salvation, because if you didn’t change your mind, you wouldn’t put your trust in Jesus as your personal Savior. Preachers love to get hung up on what it means to “

repent.

” The Bible already tells us. It is a change of mind. That is all it means. So the person who believes has most definitely also repented. If you hadn’t repented, you couldn’t have believed.

The person who claims to believe, but refuses to admit being a sinner, is a liar. 1st John 1:10, “

If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

” John the Baptist came preaching repentance, preparing the people to receive the Messiah. After all, that is what John was created to do —prepare the way for the coming Lord (Malachi 3:1). John simply showed them that they were needy sinners, so that they would believe on the Messiah to be saved.

That is what John meant when he said that he baptized them with water, but Jesus would baptize them with the fire of the Holy Spirit (salvation). Water baptism never saved anybody. Today, water baptism is one’s public profession of faith. Many people have gone to Heaven without being water baptized. Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899) didn’t baptize people in his church. I don’t judge him, but that is unbiblical. Converts should be baptized immediately, but it has absolutely nothing to do with actually receiving the free gift of God, which is by faith. I was saved at age 13, but not water baptized until I was 17 years old.

The free gift of eternal life, which God freely offers, is freely available through the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19). Our only part in salvation is to get out of the way, and let God do the saving, all of it. Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” If forsaking a sinful life were required to be saved, then we would have to WORK for it! But Jesus did all the work through Calvary’s cross. Everything that’s hard and complicated about salvation is God’s side of it! My part is to simply believe God at His Word, as recorded in the Scriptures.

2.1.6 Who Exactly Are “The Elect” Of God? (2021-01-07 02:09)

Galatians 3:28-29, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ’s, then are ye Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to the promise."

God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved. That is what "elect" means.

The "elect" refers to the saved, Jews and Gentiles alike.

God in the Old Testament chose the nation of Israel to be ambassadors of the Gospel to the world...

> Isaiah 45:4, "For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me."

The promise was conditional upon their obedience to God...

> Exodus 19:5-6, "Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine: And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel."

The Jews rebelled against God, so He divorced Israel...

> Jeremiah 3:8, "And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also."

God turned to the Gentiles instead to preach the Gospel to the world, to provoke Israel to jealousy. Israel was destroyed in 722 BC (Samaria - northern kingdom), and 586 BC (Judaea - southern kingdom). The PROMISE to Israel was always a line of faith, as we read in Exodus 19:5-6. Also, Deuteronomy chapter 28. At no time did any unsaved Jew ever go to Heaven. The Bible teaches that unsaved Jews are not heirs of the promise...

> Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God."

So a biological Jew (ethnically) is NOT a Jew the Bible says. A saved Jew is a true Jew in God's sight! The promise of salvation by faith was given to the Jews first, but was afterwards also extended to the Gentiles (all non Jews)...

> Galatians 3:14-16, "That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ."

The church does NOT replace Israel. Even though God divorced the Jews (cut them off), the Bible says that Jews can still obtain the promise BY FAITH. ...

> Romans 11:23-24, "And they also [THE JEWS], if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?"

Jews today can still have the blessings God made to them in the Old Testament, but only BY FAITH in Jesus Christ. That same promise is given to any Gentile who believes in Jesus. The Apostle Peter wrote the following to the Jews, which is a quote from the Old Testament, but it 100 % also applies to the Gentiles, to all who BELIEVE in Jesus...

> 1st Peter 2:7-10, "Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy."

The unsaved Jews in the Old Testament were NOT God's children...

> Romans 9:8, "That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed."

Only those Jews who HAD FAITH were counted for the seed. The promise was never made to the Jews, but to CHRIST. The promise was to the seed (singular), not to seeds (plural). ...

> Galatians 3:16, "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ."

That great promise is salvation through faith in Christ. ...

> Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved! That is what "elect" means. Physical Jews have never been the elect of God, only those who had faith. And the Bible says in Galatians 3:28-29 that whether Jew or Gentile, we are all of the seed and promise of Abraham through faith in Christ. There has always been only one plan of salvation, by faith alone.

Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold preached a helpful sermon called: "[1]Understanding The Elect Of God." God has chosen to save all those who choose to be saved! That is what "elect" means.

2.1.7 BAPTISM DOES NOT SAVE - DOES NOT HELP SAVE (2021-01-07 09:30)

BAPTISM DOES NOT SAVE - DOES NOT HELP SAVE

by Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980)

A favorite device of the Devil is to have men look to their works for their salvation instead of looking to Christ. He leads some to trust in their morality, some to depend upon lodge membership, some to depend upon confessions to priests; some he leads to trust in baptism. That is a fatal mistake. The unanimous voice of all the Scriptures is that people are saved by simple faith in Christ, without any act of righteousness, and baptism is never mentioned as a part of the plan of salvation. Baptism is an act of righteousness, for Jesus said in Matthew 3:15, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness." Titus 3:5 says that such acts of righteousness do not save us:

> "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost."

Baptism is certainly a good work, but Ephesians 2:8,9 likewise says plainly that salvation is altogether a matter of God's mercy and not of our works :

> "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: NOT OF WORKS, lest any man should boast."

Salvation is a gift of God which is not deserved, is not bought, and cannot be paid for. No church nor preacher nor the individual saved has any right to claim credit when a soul is saved.

In fact, we are told again and again in the Bible that the man who trusts in Christ has everlasting life immediately. John 3:36 says:

> "He that believeth on the Son HATH everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

"Hath" means has, present tense, in modern English. Likewise, John 5:24 says:

> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, HATH everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but IS PASSED from death unto life."

The same teaching is given in John 6:47:

> "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me HATH everlasting life."

In the Bible, we find it clear that people believed first and then were baptized. According to these statements from God's Word, they were already saved before they were baptized and any other man who trusts in Christ is saved that second, before he could possibly get to the baptismal waters. It does not take baptism to save one.

WHAT DOES "BAPTIZED FOR REMISSION OF SINS" MEAN?
In Acts 2:38, the term "for the remission of sins" is used as follows :

"Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Some people think that this passage contradicts the dozens of other plain statements in the Bible that a man is saved by faith and saved immediately when he believes. But when you use the word for in this passage just as it is used so many times in every-day conversation, you will see what Peter said. A man is arrested for stealing; one is grateful for a favor; one is blamed for carelessness; one is commended for bravery. The word for here does not mean in order to or to secure remission of sins, and it is not rendered that way in any translation of the Bible we know of anywhere. The Greek word eis here translated for is sometimes translated in the Bible against, among, at, unto, upon, etc. It might properly be translated here "baptized upon the remission of your sins" or "baptized referring to, or pointing toward the remission of your sins," or "baptized in the remission of your sins." When one repents, he receives the remission of his sins. Then the obedient heart, following Christ in baptism, is promised the gift of the Holy Ghost, an entirely separate mutter from salvation. What Peter said was that people ought to repent and then, after their sins are forgiven, they should be baptized as evidence of that. That is exactly what people ought to be baptized for, that is, to show the remission of their sins. That Scripture, then, does not mean that people ought to be baptized in order to be saved.

"HE THAT BELIEVETH AND IS BAPTIZED"

In Mark 16:16, believing and baptized are used together:

"He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

Christians are supposed to be baptized as soon as possible after they are saved. In Bible times they were usually baptized the same day, oftentimes the same hour of their conversion, even if it were midnight as in the case of the Philippian jailer in Acts 16:33. In fact, baptism is a public profession of faith. One can see baptism; one cannot see faith in the heart. It is natural to think of baptism following salvation, and Jesus said that those who believed and were baptized should be saved. He did not mean to contradict the rest of the Bible though, as you will see from the following words in the same verse, for He added. "But he that believeth not shall be damned." That makes it clear that the matter which settles it is believing just the same as is taught in John 3:18:

"He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

The above verse, John 3:18, settles it that the man who believes in Christ is not condemned, whether or not he has been baptized. It also settles that the reason a man is condemned is "because he hath not believed." Salvation is settled by belief in Christ, and only by that.

BELIEVING DOES NOT INCLUDE BAPTISM

There are so many Scriptures which plainly state again and again that the man who believes in Christ is saved, that those who teach baptism is essential to salvation cannot deny that. They try to get around these many Scriptures, however, by saying that faith includes baptism, that is, if one believes in Christ, he will be baptized, and that faith is not complete until one is baptized. However, in Mark 16:16 Jesus said, "He that believeth and is baptized," showing that believing and being baptized are two different things. If believing includes baptism, then Jesus would not have added the word about baptism. If repenting includes baptism, Peter would not have said in Acts 2:38. "Repent and be baptized." No, they are not the same and are nowhere spoken of as the same in the Bible, nor is it ever stated in the Bible that believing includes baptism, nor that if one trusts Christ, he will be baptized. "He that believeth on the Son bath everlasting life" before he is baptized. Baptism does not save.

"BORN OF WATER" DOES NOT MEAN BAPTISM

"Born of water and of the Spirit" in John 3:5 is often quoted as if it referred to baptism. It most certainly does NOT, however. That passage says nothing about baptism, and in the same conversation with Nicodemus, Jesus repeatedly told just what it took to get this new birth. Read verses 14 to 18 and you will see that it is simply believing in Christ. "Born of water and of the Spirit" in John 3:5, is the same as "the washing of regeneration and the renewing of the Holy Ghost" in Titus 3:5. That verse plainly says that this is "not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us," by this birth of water and the Spirit, or cleansing of regeneration and being made alive by the Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 5:26 tells us how Christ gave Himself for the church "that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word." But this washing takes place inside. James 1:18 tells us that "of his own will begat he us with the word ... ," and I Peter 1:23 says that we are "born again ... by the word of God." These Scriptures seem to mean that when one is saved, he is inwardly washed, cleansed, led to repentance and faith, by the Word of God, and made alive, spiritually, by the Holy Spirit. That, I believe, is the plain meaning of John 3:5, "born of water and the Spirit."

All of that happens on the inside of every sinner who is born of God. It is not on the outside, and is not baptism.

Notice the words again in John 3:5, "born of water and of the Spirit." The second "of" is in italics, which shows that it was not in the original Greek. Jesus said one must be "born of water and the Spirit," one birth. Jesus was only talking about one new birth, which happens on the inside. He did not say one needed to be born of the Spirit inside and of baptism outside, and did not mean so. John 3:5 does not refer to baptism.

"BAPTISM DOTH ALSO NOW SAVE US"

I Peter 3:21 is used as an argument that baptism saves people. Speaking of the ark "wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water," that passage continues:

"The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ."

All difficulty about this passage disappears when you take the first plain statement in the verse that this is a "figure." The ark was a figure and picture of salvation, and the ark was certainly a type of Christ. Baptism is a "like figure" and Roman 6:5 states that it is a "likeness" of the death, and a "likeness" of the resurrection of Christ. Peter then continues that baptism does not put away the filth of the flesh, and says that it is "the answer of a good conscience toward God." Baptism, then, is only a picture, or figure, of salvation, and the man who is baptized should already have a "good conscience." In Hebrews 9:14 we are told how the conscience is to be purged by the blood of Christ. Then, after that conscience is purged "from dead works to serve the living God" and one has a "good conscience," he has a right to be baptized.

One who is baptized professes to have a good conscience toward God, with his sins forgiven. If that is not true, he has no right to be baptized and baptism is a lie and an empty pretense. Baptism is only for saved people, the answer of a conscience cleansed and forgiven.

"BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST"

Some people have been troubled by the phrase "baptized into Christ" in Galatians 3:27, which reads:

"For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ."

However, that is very clear if you read the verse before it and the rest of the context. Verse 26 says plainly, "For ye are all the children of God BY FAITH in Christ Jesus." The whole book of Galatians is written to prove that people are saved not by works, but by faith.

"Baptized into Christ" should read "baptized unto Christ" and is often so translated. The same Greek word, eis, translated in our King James Version into in this particular verse, is translated in verses 23 and 24 of the same chapter, unto. It is translated unto in scores of cases, to in many others, and for in many cases.

Compare "baptized into Christ" in Galatians 3:27 and "baptized into Jesus Christ" in Romans 6:3 with a phrase just like them in I Corinthians 10:2, "baptized unto Moses." The word unto is a translation of the same Greek word eis as into in the other passages. If the covering of Israel in the cloud and Red Sea did not put Israel into Moses, then baptism does not, of course, put one into Christ. Rather baptism points "unto" Christ, of course.

What the Lord says here is that as many as have been baptized for Christ, or pointing toward Christ, or picturing Christ, have publicly claimed Him before the world as their Saviour. I Peter 3:21 plainly states that baptism is a figure or picture. Romans 6:5 says twice that baptism is a "likeness" of the death and resurrection of Christ and also pictures the new life which the Christians plan to live. Colossians 2:12 tells us the same thing. A person then should be baptized unto Christ, that is, for Christ and to picture the change of heart which he already has by faith in Christ. This Scripture simply bears out the many, many plain statements of the Scripture that one is saved by faith, and puts on in figure and likeness, before the world, what already God has put in the heart. God puts the light in us, we should let it shine. God works in us our salvation, and we are commanded to work it out. (Philippians 2:12,13).

"ARISE AND BE BAPTIZED AND WASH AWAY THY SINS"

Our friends who claim that baptism saves, or that one cannot be saved without baptism, sometimes quote Acts 22:16 as evidence that baptism saves:

> "And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord."

Compare this with the Lord's account of what happened, as given in Acts 9:17. Ananias said:

> "Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost."

Remember that baptism is a figure, or picture, according to I Peter 3:21 and Romans 6:5. When Paul quoted, "Wash away thy sins," he certainly meant to use figurative language. Baptism is a figure as the Lord has told us. Compare this language with Matthew 26:26, 28 where Jesus said, "This is my body" ... and "This is my blood." Jesus certainly meant, "This represents my body and my blood." "Be baptized, and wash away thy sins," certainly means, be baptized to picture the washing away of your sins. That is what baptism always does picture. Paul did not mean in Acts 22:16 to teach a different plan of salvation from that one he gave the jailer in Acts 16:31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." Nor did he mean Acts 22:16 to contradict Acts 13:39 where he told the people at Antioch, "And by him all that BELIEVE are justified from all things." (Already saved without baptism!)

The man who depends on baptism to save him will go down in the water a dry sinner and will come up a wet sinner, but he need expect no change of heart in that water. Baptism is to picture a change of heart which happens when one trusts in Christ.

OLD TESTAMENT SAINTS SAVED BY FAITH, WITHOUT BAPTISM

We have the record of many people in the Bible who were saved without baptism. I remind you that God has never had but one plan of salvation. In the Old Testament it was "not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins" (Hebrews 10:4). In fact, the eleventh chapter of Hebrews tells us of case after case of people in the Old Testament times who were saved by faith. Acts 10:43 makes clear that the only plan of salvation taught in the Old Testament was by faith in Christ, just as it was preached in the New Testament. There, Peter said:

> "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins."

Remember, there never was any plan of salvation but by faith. Every Old Testament sacrifice and ceremony was a picture and shadow and type of the Lord Jesus Christ, "the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world!"

Now, all of these Old Testament saints were saved without baptism, for there is not a word in the Old Testament about baptism and no record of a single person's ever being baptized before John the Baptist began it. Baptism, then, is not a part of God's plan of salvation.

PEOPLE SAVED WITHOUT BAPTISM IN NEW TESTAMENT

Since the same plan of salvation was preached in the Old Testament and in the New Testament, and people were saved in the Old Testament without baptism, you would expect them to be saved in the New Testament without baptism, and they were. In Luke 7:37-50 is the story of a woman, a notorious sinner. Verses 47 to 50 in that seventh chapter of Luke tell us plainly that her sins were forgiven her and that her faith had saved her. Read carefully these Scriptures:

> "Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, ARE FORGIVEN; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little."

> "And he said unto her, THY SINS ARE FORGIVEN"

> "And he said to the woman, THY FAITH HATH SAVED THEE; go in peace."

Jesus plainly stated that the woman was already forgiven and was already saved by faith. She knelt at the feet of Jesus, trusted Him, and went away a saved woman. She was saved without baptism.

In Luke 18:35-43 we are told about the healing and conversion of a blind man. Verse 42 tells plainly, in the words of Jesus Himself, just how he was saved:

"And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: THY FAITH HATH SAVED THEE."

Notice that salvation was received right there before he was baptized.

That is the same plan of salvation given throughout the book of John; in John 1:12, John 3:14-18, John 3:36, John 5:24, John 6:37, and many other places. It is the same plan taught by Peter after Pentecost (Acts 10:43). It was the same plan taught by Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles, (Acts 13:38,39; Acts 16:30,31; Ephesians 2:8,9; Romans 3:28 and Romans 4:5-8). People were saved in the Old Testament by faith without baptism, were saved during the life of Jesus by faith without baptism, and were saved after Pentecost by faith without baptism.

That publican, about whom the Saviour has told us in Luke 18:13,14 was saved without baptism. Standing there in the temple, he prayed, saying. "God be merciful to me a sinner." Jesus tells us about him then, that, "I tell you, this man went down to his house justified"! He was saved, then, without baptism.

THIEF ON THE CROSS SAVED WITHOUT BAPTISM

The most remarkable case of this kind is the thief converted on the cross as told in Luke 23:39-43. When that poor man turned to the Lord Jesus and asked to be in His kingdom, the Lord Jesus replied, "Verily I say unto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in paradise"! He died that day on the cross as we are told in the Scriptures and so could not have been baptized. But that day, according to the express statement of the Saviour, he went with Jesus to paradise. And some happy day, all who trust in Christ will see him there.

No, baptism is not essential to salvation.

TRUST JESUS FOR SALVATION

God has just one plan of salvation. It is not a process. It is not a series of steps. People are saved by faith in Christ, that way and no other way. Everything else that God asks of a sinner in order to be saved: repentance, prayer, coming to Christ, et cetera, is summed up and settled when one depends upon Christ for the forgiveness of his sins. One could not turn his mind or heart toward God (repentance), without faith in Christ. You cannot come to Christ without believing on Him. "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard?" (Romans 10:14).

Confession by the mouth simply proves faith in the heart which has already secured salvation. God has no other plan of salvation except that promised in John 3:16,18,36; John 5:24; John 6:47; Acts 16:30-31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." Baptism follows, should follow immediately, but is not a part of God's plan of salvation. When you are baptized, be sure that fact is made clear to those who look on. If you have this salvation, this change of heart by faith in Jesus Christ, then I beg you, follow Jesus in baptism as soon as possible

1st Kings 3:16-27, "

Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house. And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it. And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king. Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other. Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof."

This is an amazing true story. Two women both made claim to one baby. King Solomon was given the responsibility to determine who the real mother was. Who was lying? Who was telling the truth? The fake mother, the one who was lying, wanted the child divided and killed. But the real mother pleaded with Solomon to let the other woman have the child, to spare its life. She begged the king not to dissect her baby. That clearly evidenced to Solomon who the genuine mother was—the one who didn't want the child divided.

I think this is a perfect illustration of the Bible version debate today. According to the American Bible Society, there are approximately [1]900 English Bible revisions (in part or whole) in existence. The Devil's crowd of reprobates keep crying: "Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it!" They claim we don't have an infallible Bible today that is without error. They say that neither you, nor I, can have it. They say a perfect Bible doesn't exist anymore, and that only the ancient "

" were perfect. The problem is that there are no originals anymore. Those Hebrew, Chaldean and Greek manuscripts are not here today! So if the Neo-evangelical crowd are right that we don't have an infallible Bible today, then we absolutely cannot claim to have God's Word.

Honestly, if you'll just take a few moments to think about it dear friend—it is utterly foolish and an insult to the Lord—to even entertain the thought that our great, omniscient (all knowing), omnipotent (all powerful), omnibenevolent (all loving), omnisapient (all wise) and omnipresent (all present) God wasn't even able to give us a perfect Bible today. The very thought that we don't have an infallible Bible anymore is totally inconsistent with God's character and promise. The Lord solemnly promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve and keep His PURE WORDS forever. Yet, [2]every modern Devil's Bible version removes this promise, changing it to God protects His saints instead of His pure Words.

God Is Not The Author Of Confusion

The following Bible verse distances God from the whole Bible publishing craze. 1st Corinthians 14:33, “

For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

” With literally HUNDREDS of English Bible versions available—something to fit every occasion imaginable under the sun—God would never author such utter confusion, leaving humanity at the mercy of greedy and unscrupulous men. There are all sorts of categories of Bible versions available for purchase today, but God only authored ONE BOOK!

Some Bibles are paraphrases of men’s opinion of what God said. Others claim to adhere to strict literal interpretation (which they certainly do not, except for the trustworthy King James Bible).

Something is very wrong with America’s pastors, clergy and Bible professors. One of the most fascinating and astounding facts of human civilization is how easily deceived humans are. Humans are so predictably predictable! Perhaps there is no greater example of this deception, than the relationship between the American newsmedia and public. The [3]U.S. mainstream newsmedia are infamous liars and deceivers! The following video kept getting removed from YouTube, so [4]I saved it to my own ministry website (40 MB MP4 video).

The preceding video so clearly shows how the American people are continually deceived by the controlled media. There is one source of news, and they all repeat the talking points like parrots. There is no real honest news reporting in America, only carefully fabricated manipulative propaganda intended to shape public opinion. Fox News is anything but honest news; they are controlled opposition. By controlling both the perceived left and right paradigms, the Luciferian elite keep America a house divided.

The King James Bible Was Honestly Translated

There are no English words available to express much of the Greek language. That is because the Greek is so exact. God knew what He was doing. In computer science, it would be like writing a C++ computer language, which is less expressive than binary (all 1’s and 0’s). Binary is machine code, pure computer programming. C++ is a mid level language, commonly used for writing video games. I used to mess with C++ for fun on my computer many years ago. I don’t have the patience for computer programming, but I do have the patience for anything relating to my website ministry, knowing it is for the Lord. And then you have computer languages like Visual Basic, which is a higher level language for writing apps.

So English is not as expressive as the KOINE Greek. For example: We only have one English word to describe “Hell.

” But in the Greek language in the Bible, you have numerous different words: Hades, Gehenna and Tartarus. When the 54 King James Bible translators were translating, they oftentimes couldn’t convey the Greek into English without adding some words to clarify the meaning. This shows how honest these 54 men were in translating God’s Word. In comparison, there is not even one modern Bible revision that does this. Instead, one or two Bozos will sit down and torture the Word of God, taking it upon themselves to add to the Bible, which is a serious sin (Deuteronomy 4:2; Proverbs 30:5-6). You simply cannot trust the modern Bible revisions! A more expensive King James Bible will contain the italicized words. The italics simply let you, the reader, know that those words were not in the original manuscript, but were added necessarily for clarity.

The Dishonesty Of The Devil's Modern Bible Revisions

In sharp contrast, consider the Easy-To Read Version (ERV), which adds to the Word of God in Mark 1:15b. Whereas the King James Bible simply says, **"

Repent ye, and believe the Gospel

"; the corrupt ERV changes it to:

"Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!

" The translators ASS-U-ME that

repent

" (verb: metanoeo) here means to change your heart and life. In fact, [5]this Greek verb simply means: "to think differently." The ERV adds to what God said. We are commanded to think differently and believe the Gospel, not change our life and believe the Gospel. Do you see the drastic difference in meaning? I sure do! To change one's life would be works instead of faith.

Tragically, Bible translators have taken it upon themselves to play God. They claim that God merely gave us His ideas (thought inspiration), and that a Bible translation is okay just so long as men convey the general idea which God had in mind. That is some dangerous thinking! The Bible makes a big deal of obeying

"EVERY WORD" of God.

Matthew 4:4, "

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

" This is a quote from the Old Testament passage of Deuteronomy 8:3.

Sadly, a new Bible version just came out in 2020 called the:

Literal Standard Version

(LSV), in which they corrupt Deuteronomy 8:3. Whereas the King James Bible reads that man shall live:

" by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live "

; the LSV changes it to read:

"but man lives by everything proceeding [from] the mouth of YHWH." The emphasis on EVERY WORD is lost. Everything emphasis the thoughts of God, not the exact details of EVERY WORD. If we are to live by EVERY WORD of God, then we most definitely need an EVERY WORD Bible today!

The Churches Are Pathetic Today

It is tragic what is happening to churches today! Pastor John MacArthur is one of the most popular and beloved leaders in America today. Unfortunately, he is an unsaved liberal, who despite his gift of being an orator, [6]denies that Jesus had God's blood flowing in His veins.

Effectively Dr. MacArthur is denying Jesus' deity, saying that he was a mere man. Jesus was born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23), meaning that He DIDN'T have an earthly father. So how could Jesus not have God's blood, since God Himself is Jesus Father? Jesus was 100 % a man and 100 % God—the God-man, humanity's one and only Mediator (1st Timothy 2:5).

Likewise, churches everywhere are denying that we have an inspired and infallible Bible today.

It is tragic what is happening to churches today! Pastors are teaching that Jesus didn't have God's blood in Him. Pastors are teaching that we don't have an infallible and inspired Bible today. Pastors are teaching that Jesus didn't apply His liquid blood to the Mercy Seat in Heaven.

Can you believe this? I kindly asked one Baptist pastor—a Pensacola Christian College alumni—if he believed Jesus' blood was in Heaven today. He replied that he didn't know. Well get a Bible man! Hebrews 9:12, "Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us." Jesus is our heavenly High Priest (Hebrews 4:14-16; Romans 8:34).

I don't pick on the Bob Jones' crowd because I hate them, God forbid. I rattle their cage because I love them! I jump on their case because at one time long ago, Bob Jones University was the citadel of Christian Fundamentalism in America. Sadly, BJU has changed, and is now a hotbed of Neo-evangelical sinful compromise and utter deceit. I am a thankful and humble graduate of Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). That is one of the best decisions I ever made in my life. Albeit, I so much regret that I didn't find a wife there. That was a major blunder, which I will pay for for the rest of my earthly life. Granted, I humbly count my blessings.

Please Don't Divide The Word Of God

The real mother cried out:

" give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. " Every born-again believer knows who our mother is. We have all been born again by the "seed" of THE WORD OF GOD (1st Peter 1:23; Luke 8:11). Hebrews 4:12,

For the word of God is quick, and powerful*, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. " The word

"quick" here means living. The Word of God is not just a mere book, it is THE BOOK!!! John 6:63, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life." The Words of God are living words, which is why the King James Bible absolutely MUST be inspired by God. They are inspired (IN-SPIRIT) words, meaning they are ALIVE!!!

The false mother in Solomon's court wanted the baby dead. She said: "Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it!" Since she had rolled over in her sleep, accidently smothering her own child to death, she wanted the other woman to share her pain and loss. That is so wicked. The true mother wanted her child to live, even of it meant letting the other woman raise the child.

The same holds true concerning the Holy Bible. God-fearing Christians don't want the living Word killed. The Devil's unsaved crowd merely want to make money, willing to murder the Bible again and again, dividing it so that it is no longer alive. What saith the Scripture? Jeremiah 23:36, "And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God." Only the King James Bible only crowd are pleading for the life of the Holy Bible, crying out: "Please don't change it! Please don't corrupt it! Please don't subtract and add to it! Please leave the Bible alone and let it live!" But the Devil's religious crowd savagely cry out, saying: "

Cut it, change it, corrupt it, and take the life from it!

Just as king Solomon instantly knew in God's wisdom, that the real mother sought to protect the life of the living child; even so is it clear today that true born-again Christians desire to protect the living Word of God from the hands of corrupt men.

2.1.9 Evangelist Steve Pettit Denies The New Birth (2021-01-08 22:49)

John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born*, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” John 5:24, “

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

1st Corinthians 6:11, “

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

1st Corinthians 1:18, “

For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

These are but a few of umpteen Scripture passages which plainly teach an instantaneous new birth by the power of God. You don’t get born again and again and again. Just as the earthly physical birth is a one time event, so also is the second spiritual birth into the Kingdom of God. It would be impossible for a child physically born into the world to go back into its mother’s womb and be unborn. Likewise, a child of God cannot lose the new birth, not for any reason. Those false teachers who claim that salvation can be lost due to negligent sinning, and straying too far from God, are denying the new birth. You certainly can lose your religion. You can lose your membership in a manmade organization. You can fall out of favor with a group of humans. But dear friend, you cannot lose the salvation which God alone gives by faith.

I personally heard [1]Dr. Steve Pettit preach at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam in 2014, before he was inaugurated as the new president of Bob Jones University later that year. Steve Pettit labored as a traveling evangelist for 35 years, living out of a recreational vehicle. I love Dr. Pettit as a human being. He is a friendly, cordial and kind man from my recollection of him. I wept as he spoke on the topic of “Wisdom” at Harvest Baptist Church on a Sunday morning. But unfortunately Dr. Pettit is a reprobate concerning the faith; meaning he is a tare instead of wheat, not a true born-again believer.

Please consider the following heretical statement made by Dr. Pettit at Bob Jones University on January 26, 2015 to 2,700 students and faculty...

> lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [2]11:34)

Instead of a new instantaneous birth, Dr. Pettit errantly views salvation as being a progressive race that we must all run to "qualify." This is Satanic folks! Respectfully, this is how I KNOW Dr. Pettit is a reprobate concerning the Christian faith. Any man who denies the immediate new birth, and instead views receiving eternal life as a process, which requires living the Christian life, cannot be a true child of God. Dr. Pettit states:

> "'The race' is a description of the whole of the Christian life of faith." —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]4:26)

Although it is true that Paul was referring to the Christian life in Hebrews 12:1 when he spoke of "THE RACE," he absolutely was not talking about the gift of eternal life. Dr. Pettit plainly says that Heaven is an " award,

which we must QUALIFY FOR by faithfully living the Christian life. ...

> "We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what's the > prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don't believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself." [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [4]22:57)

The heretical quotes I just shared with you by Dr. Pettit, are from a disturbing chapel sermon he preached on January 26, 2015 titled: " [5]What Does it Mean To Run The Race? " (MP3, 'The Daily Platform,' Dr. Steve Pettit). Evangelist Pettit heretically teaches that "THE RACE" we run as Christians is necessary for salvation, to prove the authenticity of our faith. [6]That is exactly what Seventh-Day Adventist false prophetess' [7]Ellen G. White (1827-1915) taught!

that the "AWARD" for running 'The Race' is "Heaven itself"!!!

Heaven itself? Oh my! What saith the Scripture? 1st Corinthians 9:24-25, "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." As you just read, the "award" will be an "INCORRUPTIBLE CROWN"; but Steve Pettit says it will be HEAVEN ITSELF!!!

Mr. Pettit further heretically states:

> "God's people HAVE TO continue in the faith! They MUST PERSEVERE, because perseverance is the testimony of the reality of your faith!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [9]25:13)

> "For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [10]22:44)

The preceding statements may sound good to someone naïve, but they are 100 % unbiblical. Steve Pettit has perverted the grace of God, changing the instant new birth into a probationary type thing, whereby you are required to prove yourself by your performance for the rest of your life. Matthew 23:4, "For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers." This is the same Satanic plan of damnation taught by Evangelist Ray Comfort, who heretically states:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

SOURCE: Ray Comfort, "[11]I've never killed anyone" ([12]MP3 clip from video).

Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me even one verse from the Holy Bible that teaches that "LIVING A LIFESTYLE" is required as part of being saved. You cannot! Now my friend, "a double-dog dare" is serious business, but a triple-dog dare is something you don't want to mess around with! I triple-dog dare you to show me even one Bible verse that agrees with these false statements by Ray Comfort and Steve Pettit. These men are sincere, of that I have no doubt; but as unsaved religious men, they have a corrupt mindset about how to be saved.

You Can Know Instantly That You Have Been Born-Again

Dear reader, YOU CAN speak about getting saved, and you just accepted Christ, and that's that! That is why the Bible calls it a new birth! 1st Peter 2:2-3, " As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious." 1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. "

What Steve Pettit is effectively preaching is that no one can have assurance of salvation, because it is conditional upon your living a faithful Christian life to PROVE the genuineness of the reality of your faith. Well how can we do that without laboring each day, year after year, making sure to prove that your faith is genuine? Oh, this is so awful and sickening folks! Steve Pettit is a false prophet, he truly is! I say that with love and a humble heart. Jude 1:3b exhorts every Christian believer " that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

" Salvation is by faith alone, and nothing else is required. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

I feel so sorry for all the students at BJU, who will go through life wondering if they are living faithful enough to "qualify" to obtain the "

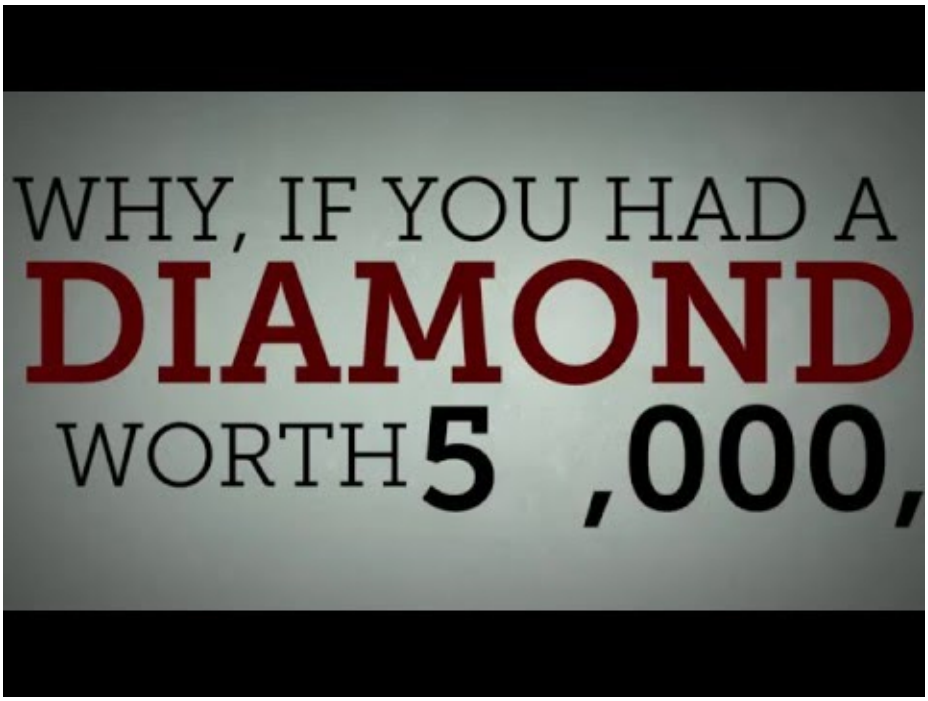
of Heaven. That is what Dr. Pettit sinfully preaches! How could anyone ever have the sweet assurance of God's gift of eternal life, with that type of horrible mindset? Dear friend, Bob Jones University has gone to the dogs! Dr. Steve Pettit is an infidel, and so are the [13]Harvest Baptist Church of Guam who bid him Godspeed. I speak THE TRUTH in love (Ephesians 4:15a). God pity the foolish parents who pay for their child to go to such a wicked place, to have the faith of the saints robbed away from them. If you don't believe me, please listen to the godly wisdom of Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself...



Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Warns Of Infidels Creeping Into The College

When I was 13 years old I got gloriously born-again. Before that moment in time, I have no recollection of anything in mind concerning God except a blank—just empty darkness. But since the moment I got saved until today, I have felt the blessed presence of God's indwelling Holy Spirit living in me. 1st John 3:24, "And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. "

There is a lot of junk theology being preached in Bible colleges and churches today, which are dangerous doctrines of devils.

1st Timothy 4:1, "

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

" We are warned in the Bible that many people have a false assurance of Heaven. Luke 13:23-24

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able

" In Matthew 7:21-23, a group of religious people labored for Christ. They preached in Jesus' name. They did many wonderful works in Jesus' name. They constantly referred to Jesus as their

Lord

” (there’s your Lordship Salvation crowd right there). But they all went to Hell the Bible says! Jesus said He never knew any of them! The reason why is simply because, like Steve Pettit and many others in the Bob Jones’ camp today, they are adding to the Gospel, perverting the grace of God (Matthew 7:21; John 6:40; Galatians 1:6-9; Acts 15:1, 24; Romans 4:4; Ephesians 2:8-9).

The Bible teaches that at the time of salvation, God SEALS every believer with His Holy Spirit. Ephesians 1:12-14, “That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.” There’s that beautiful word “TRUTH” again. You get saved by embracing THE TRUTH that you are a SINNER (repentance) and Jesus is the SAVIOR (faith). Once you are saved and sealed, you are forever secure in the everlasting arms of the heavenly Father. When we sin as believers, GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND (Romans 5:20). The Christian believer is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS (Acts 13:39). We’ve PASSED FROM DEATH UNTO LIFE (John 5:24).

I’m Saved By The Blood Of The Crucified One

When the child of God looks at the Bible, they see it in a very different light than does the unsaved (or natural) man. Kindly said, since Dr. Steve Pettit is religious but not saved, he views the Bible very differently than I do as a child of God. I see God’s wonderful free gift of eternal life (Romans 6:23), paid in full by the precious blood of the Lamb (1st Peter 1:18-19). It is a one time free gift, that once received is a done deal (Romans 10:13). I am saved solely on the merit of what Jesus did through the cross, to redeem me from sin and Hell; and not in any way am I saved by my own goodness, merit, works, performance, attitude, perseverance, holiness, nor any other human effort. Jesus paid it all!

What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” I love that! We get saved by getting out of the way, ceasing from our own works, and resting in Christ alone. That doesn’t require a lifetime probationary period as Steve Pettit teaches. That doesn’t require living a devoted religious life to prove the genuineness of the reality of my faith.

The reality of my faith is that I am wholly trusting the Lamb of God. The genuineness of my faith is faith itself! If we must live a certain way to prove that we are saved, then we can never truly know that we are saved! How is that a gift? How is that something we can rejoice over, if we cannot KNOW that our name is written down in Heaven? In order to “ rejoice, because your names are written in heaven

” (Luke 10:20b) then I must be able to 100 % KNOW that my name is written in Heaven; and the only way I can KNOW that is to have the absolute assurance that I am redeemed. In Steve Pettit’s nightmare plan of salvation, you can never truly KNOW that you are saved, because your continued faithfulness is required to “QUALIFY” for the “AWARD” of “HEAVEN ITSELF.” Those are Steve Pettit’s exact words!!! GET THEE BEHIND ME, SATAN!!!

What ungodly false teachers—Pastor John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Paul Washer, John Piper and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam—preach is not compatible with grace. They have perverted God's instant new birth into an oppressive lifelong process that requires YOUR faithfulness instead of GOD'S faithfulness.

2.1.10 John The Baptist Didn't Preach A Different Gospel (2021-01-10 09:30)

Matthew 3:1, "

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea,

And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

And the same John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about Jordan,

And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance*:

And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

Mark 1:4,

John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

Many Bible students misinterpret this passage of Scripture, particularly dispensationalists. Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) offers this helpful explanation:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
>
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.
> There are those who think that Peter in Acts 2:38 and 39 preached that baptism was essential to salvation when he said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." But the phrase "for the remission of sins" could well be translated "referring to the remission of sins" for the indefinite preposition of reference and so used many, > many times in the Bible. People are not baptized in order to be saved, but baptized with reference to the salvation they had when they repented. So it has always been among Bible-believing Christians who follow the Scriptures.

> So here in Acts 10:43 we have the statement by Peter, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Get this great doctrinal matter settled: God has only one plan of salvation and that is all He ever had! He has only one Saviour, and that is Jesus Christ. Every Old and New Testament prophet agrees in this that "whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins." [emphasis added]

I don't like the phrase "

turn from sin,

simply because it is nowhere found in the Bible. Although Brother Rice uses the phrase here, he also CLEARLY explains that he does not think it means to forsake one's sinful behavior as a requirement to be saved. Dr. Rice is correct that repentance is a change of mind.

God was so careful with the use of this word, that he intentionally chose to use the open-ended, all-inclusive, Greek word: [1]metanoia. When any preacher says that means

[2]to turn away from your sinful ways,

" he has errantly added to God's Words, which is a horrible evil (Proverbs 30:5-6). That man is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (Galatians 1:6-9).

I am shocked that so many professed Christians today (independent fundamental Baptists in particular) are extremely lackadaisical and indifferent in this important doctrinal matter. [3]I agree 100 % with Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold in this sermon, who exposes the sinful indifferent attitudes among professed Christians today, over the counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Right doctrine matters! All the Devil needs in order to creep his lies into a church, is for that church to stop contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). Revelation 3:2, "

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God. " At some apostate point in American history, our churches started prioritizing socializing and growing their attendance, over truth and righteousness!

John the Baptist preached the SAME Gospel as did Jesus and Paul. Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith—it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation.

2.1.11 Eternal Life Is A Gift, Not An Award Or Exchange (2021-01-10 17:23)

Romans 5:15-18,

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification. For if by one man’s offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.” Romans 6:23, “

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

” Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast.”

Repeatedly in the Bible we are taught that eternal life is a “gift” from God. Lest anyone should cast any doubt, the Bible clarifies in Romans 5:15, 16 and 18 three times that eternal life is a “

FREE GIFT.

” If you always keep this beautiful truth in mind dear reader, you will never be led astray by the myriad of false teachings concerning salvation that abound in churches today.

I don’t like refuting other preachers, but I do love contending for the faith (Jude 1:3). Interestingly, the Bible says that we actually need false prophets, so those who preach THE TRUTH can be made known. 1st Corinthians 11:19, “

For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

” Having said that, I want to expose a couple popular false teachers of our generation, who pervert the grace of God.

Evangelist Steve Pettit Is A Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing

The first false teacher is Evangelist Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014).

In a heretical sermon preached on January 26, 2015 at BJU chapel, titled:

“ [1]What Does it Mean To Run The Race?, ”

Dr. Steve Pettit

heretically refers to Heaven as an

and a

prize

...

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [2]22:57)

Dear reader, Heaven is not an “award,” it is a gift. The very moment that a person becomes born-again, by faith alone in Jesus Christ, they are 100 % guaranteed going to Heaven. Nothing more is required from God than faith. Sadly, Dr. Pettit errantly teaches that in order to obtain the “prize,” the “award,” of Heaven, [3]he says you must “QUALIFY” for it by faithfully running the race all your life. This is NOT sound Bible teaching! Kindly said, Steve Pettit has corrupted God’s grace—by misrepresenting the Gospel—turning it into a “prize” and an “award” that depends upon OUR faithfulness, instead of a “

” that depends upon GOD’S faithfulness.

Pastor John MacArthur Is A Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing

Second is Pastor John MacArthur of Grace To You ministry in California.

In his popular 1988 book titled, “The Gospel According to Jesus,” Pastor John MacArthur even heretically uses the word “exchange” concerning being saved:

> “Thus in a sense we pay the ultimate price for salvation when our sinful self is nailed to a cross. . . . It is an exchange of all that we are for all that Christ is. And it denotes implicit obedience, full surrender to the lordship of Christ. Nothing less can qualify as saving faith.” [emphasis added] —Pastor John MacArthur; The Gospel According to Jesus, p. 140

Dear friend, salvation is not an exchange, it is a free gift! Receiving the free gift of eternal life is not a trade, not an exchange. John MacArthur is preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! MacArthur is teaching doctrines of Devils. Not surprisingly, the preceding heretical book by Dr. John MacArthur is [4]required reading at the demonic Mormon ’Brigham Young University’ in Utah. When hellbound Mormons are promoting a preacher’s plan of salvation, you know something is very wrong!

Mr. MacArthur is not a born-again Christian, he is a tare in the churches. A true believer is wheat. Matthew 13:38, “The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;” The Bible calls anyone “accursed” who preaches another gospel (Galatians 1:8). Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Salvation is received, not achieved!

Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. It is not your faithfulness that gets you to Heaven, it is God’s faithfulness. What saith the Scripture? Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:”

PGM’s ’UNSHACKLED’ Is A Wolf In Sheep’s Clothing

I was disgusted the other day while listening to Pacific Garden Mission’s popular radio program called ’UNSHACKLED.’ Pacific Garden Mission is troubling Chicago with their perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Don’t take my word for it, read this sickening transcript from UNSHACKLED:

[5]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade; she takes a stroll on the beach and meets a stranger, to whom she starts discussing her struggle with truth.) Here is some of their heretical interaction...

> Cydanni Ade: “I know, you’re going to tell me He [Jesus] loves me unconditionally, and wants to be my Savior.”
>
> Stranger On The Beach: “Yes and no!”
>
> Cydanni Ade: “What?”
>
> Stranger On The Beach: “He does love people, but Him becoming your Savior *HAS CONDITIONS!”
>
> Cydanni Ade: “I’ve always heard He loves everyone unconditionally.”
>
> Stranger On The Beach: “Then, why does He call us to repent? If God loves everybody unconditionally, then you can do whatever you want, and believe whatever you think.”
>
> Cydanni Ade: “I know that’s not true!”
>
> Stranger On The Beach: “Right! So, God placed an absolute condition, by which *He requires, commands all people everywhere, to repent of their sins and believe in Jesus Christ, and live for Him!”
>
> Cydanni Ade: “Huh.” [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [6]Program #3625 - Aired in 2020 (the story of Cydanni Ade)

Dear reader, there are NO CONDITIONS of salvation, except to freely RECEIVE God’s free gift! No where does the Bible teach to “ turn from your sins

(false repentance) to be saved. That would be a trade, an exchange, giving up your sins in exchange for eternal life. That could not be a free gift! No where does the Bible require a person to live for God

to be saved. Pacific Garden Mission is guilty of perverting the Gospel of free grace. They have sinfully added forsaking your sins, and living for God, as requirements to receive God’s free gift. That is NOT what the Bible teaches!

Salvation Is Receiving, Not Giving

Please beware of anyone who teaches that God requires something FROM YOU in return, or as a condition, of receiving His free gift of eternal life.

God is offering eternal life to everyone as a free gift! The debt has been paid in full. Your sins have been completely paid for, and all you have to do is receive God’s gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Just take it by faith! You don’t have to ask God to save you, because He is already asking you! He simply wants you to receive His gift, by taking Him at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures.

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Ephesians 5:25:-27, "

Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

" John 17:17, " Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth."

The famous preacher John Bunyan (1628-1688) made the following profound theological statement, which plainly refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

I sometimes make a typo when typing and spell it Lordship SLAVATION instead of Lordship SALVATION. But there was a typo more befitting then SLAVTION, because that is exactly what the Devil's life of Lordship Salvation does... it ENSLAVES people!!!

The following quote by Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is disturbing, in which he says the opposite of John Bunyan. Whereas John Bunyan rightly says we must PUT A DIFFERENCE between Justification without and sanctification within, Steve Pettit errantly says they are A PACKAGE DEAL...

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [1]11:34)

Kindly said, Steve Pettit is preaching another gospel. He is corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Dr. Pettit says if you don't run and faithfully finish the race, you lose everything, you don't get the award of Heaven. Pettit teaches that to qualify for the award of Heaven, you must persevere to run the race. If you don't, then he says you go to Hell. You didn't finish the race, he says, proving that you were never saved at all.

Dear reader, you can see two very drastic viewpoints on salvation taught between John Bunyan versus Steve Pettit. John Bunyan in 100 % correct; Steve Pettit is 100 % wrong! I say that kindly with love, but on the authority of the infallible and inspired King James Bible. Dr. Pettit is casting stumbling blocks before the 2,700 students and faculty at Bob Jones University. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) said himself in 1944, that if an infidel like Steve Pettit ever stood in the pulpit at Bob Jones College—robbing the saints of their faith—he'd come back from Heaven with a stick of dynamite and blow the college to smithereens. ...

Dr. Bob Jones Sr. Would Blow His College Up Today!

Respectfully said, Dr. Steve Pettit is an infidel in the pulpit! He mixes sanctification with justification. Dr. Pettit combines and confuses discipleship (service) with sonship (salvation). Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) gets it 100 % right...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." [emphasis added] —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Pastor DeHaan rightly PUTS A DIFFERENCE between the justification by the man Christ without, versus the sanctifying work of the Spirit of Christ within.

2.1.13 The Prophet Habakkuk Calls Dr. Peter Ruckman A Liar (2021-01-13 09:30)

Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith."

There is a frightening heresy which has already crept into many Baptist churches today—which says that people were saved by WORKS during the Old Testament, but are saved by GRACE alone today, and will again be saved by WORKS during the future Tribulation period. This false teaching boldly contradicts the plain Words of God in Galatians 1:8-9, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." If it were true that the plan of salvation had changed, then the apostle Paul would have said so, but he didn't. Paul warned that anyone who teaches ANOTHER GOSPEL is accursed by God!

The main proponent and instigator of this heresy (respectfully) is Pastor Peter Ruckman (1921-2016). NO MAN HAS EVER BEEN JUSTIFIED BY WORKS! If the Old Testament saints were justified by works, then they had a reason to boast in their own righteousness. We read in Romans 4:2 that if Abraham had been saved by works, then he would have had a right to glory (boast), but not of God. Romans 4:2, "For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God." Dr. Ruckman teaches that Abraham was saved by GRACE, but then once Moses received the Ten Commandments from God, salvation became by WORKS. That is of the Devil! It would be silly and foolish to claim that people were saved differently under Moses, that is, after the law was given, because then they WOULD have "whereof to glory, but not of God"!!!

NO ONE has ever been able to keep the Mosaic law (Romans 3:10-23). [1]According to Dr. Ruckman, faith alone wasn't enough to save a sinner in the Old Testament. The very idea of mixing works with faith is satanic to the core!!! It blows my mind that Peter Ruckman and his follows teach this garbage! Robert Breaker also teaches this junk theology. Sadly, one of my former professors at Hyles-Anderson College, Dr. William P. Grady is also a big advocate of this Satanic heresy by Dr. Ruckman. It blows my mind! I am not a follower of Peter Ruckman, I simply take the good and leave the bad. I believe Peter Ruckman was saved, because he said salvation is only by grace in this Church Age today.

Yet, I seriously wonder about his salvation sometimes, since he was messed up enough to totally miss the simplicity of LAW and GRACE! Paul plainly says in Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Did you read that? THE LAW WAS A SCHOOLMASTER TO BRING US TO CHRIST! That "us" includes the Old Testament saints! How do I know that? Why, listen to what the prophet Habakkuk proclaimed in Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith." Habakkuk declared:

"...THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY HIS FAITH."

We find Habakkuk 2:4 quoted in three different Scripture passages in the New Testament:

> Romans 1:17, "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."
>
> Galatians 3:11, "But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith."
> Hebrews 10:38, "Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him."

Habakkuk was under the Mosaic law. Don't miss that! Abraham lived before the law was given, but Habakkuk lived under the law! That disproves Peter Ruckman's claim that Old Testament saints were saved by WORKS! What saith Peter Ruckman? ...

> The original "plan of salvation" was pure WORKS (Gen. 2:16-17), and in the Millennium the last plan of salvation is again pure WORKS (Rev. 22:14), contrary to every immature, milksop, Baptist baby in your town or city. Genesis 3:22 corrects the kiddies. (Ruckman, Peter. Ruckman's Bible References: Personal Notes on Salient Verses in the Bible, p. 7)

For the Old Testament Dr. Ruckman has an erratic system, with the method of salvation switching back and forth, from faith to works and then back to faith, in an attempt to deal with some theological difficulties. Notice the following:

> In the Old Testament, you find salvation before the Law by grace through faith and under the Law by faith and works… (Ruckman, Peter. Body, Soul, and Spirit. 1986, 1997, p. 12)

That is preposterous! I cannot fathom the disturbing theological ignorance of this brilliant man! How could anyone buy into the Devil's lie that salvation was by faith before Moses, but then became by works under the Mosaic law, and then will revert back to faith in the New Testament? Dr. Ruckman is WRONG! Salvation has ALWAYS been by faith alone.

What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Here is a plain statement from the Scripture that salvation has ALWAYS been through faith alone in Christ—Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." So saith the Scripture!

” could be reminded of his human mortality by a mere tiny little furry creature with fangs. You’ve probably seen the TV show “

[2]1001 Ways To Die.

” The popular TV program ran for four seasons between 2008 to 2012. I encourage you to watch some of these (there are 74 episodes total). They are intriguing to say the least! I am amazed at many of the bizarre ways in which people have inadvertently killed themselves.

One man in his thirties was tired after a long day, and a few beers, so late at night he decided to take a nap under his pickup truck at the beach. His truck was parked in the sand about 15 feet from the ocean. While he was sound asleep, the tide began to rise. As the warm Gulf of Mexico water rose, the truck tires began to sink into the wet sand. By the time the man awoke, he was trapped under his own truck. The beach was empty in the early morning hours, so no one could hear his desperate screams for help. As the water continued to rise he drowned. When the police came they called a tow-truck. When the driver towed away the vehicle, he saw a lifeless man buried in the sand. That is so sad. We never know when death might come. Proverbs 27:1, “Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth. ”

Jeff Hanneman had been slowly recovering from his infected spider bite in February 2011, that reportedly nearly cost him his arm. Jeff died of liver failure because of alcoholism in May of 2013. So sad. The band “Slayer” is infamous for Satanism. In 1987,

Jeff Hanneman [3]said in an NME magazine interview:

"We read a lot from The Satanic Bible!" Kindly said, what a fool! In 2001 Slayer produced an album titled: " [4]God Hates Us All! " The first song on the album was titled: "Darkness Of Christ." In the song part of the lyrics are: "God Hates Us All!" I truly feel sorry for Jeff Hanneman, who no doubt didn't go to Heaven, when he entered into eternity in 2013. Booze is liquid Devil, as Jeff learned the hard way! Sin thrills and then it kills. The Bible teaches that alcoholism is a foolish sin (1st Corinthians 6:9-10; Proverbs 20:1). I am not condemning Jeff or anyone else, I am just telling the truth plain and simple.

Jeff Hanneman was idolized by millions of Slayer fans around the world. They called him a "rock guitar God." But just like Alice Cooper, Dave Mustaine, Michael Sweet and countless other phonies, they are all slaves to the love of money, and the occult controlled music industry. They cannot back out now, lest they lose everything. The band Korn honored infamous Satanist, Ronnie James Dio, last year in 2019 in concert. The band Korn is of the Devil. Brian Welch is not following the Lord Jesus Christ at all, for if he truly did, Brian would utterly forsake Korn and everything that has anything to do with that hellbound group.

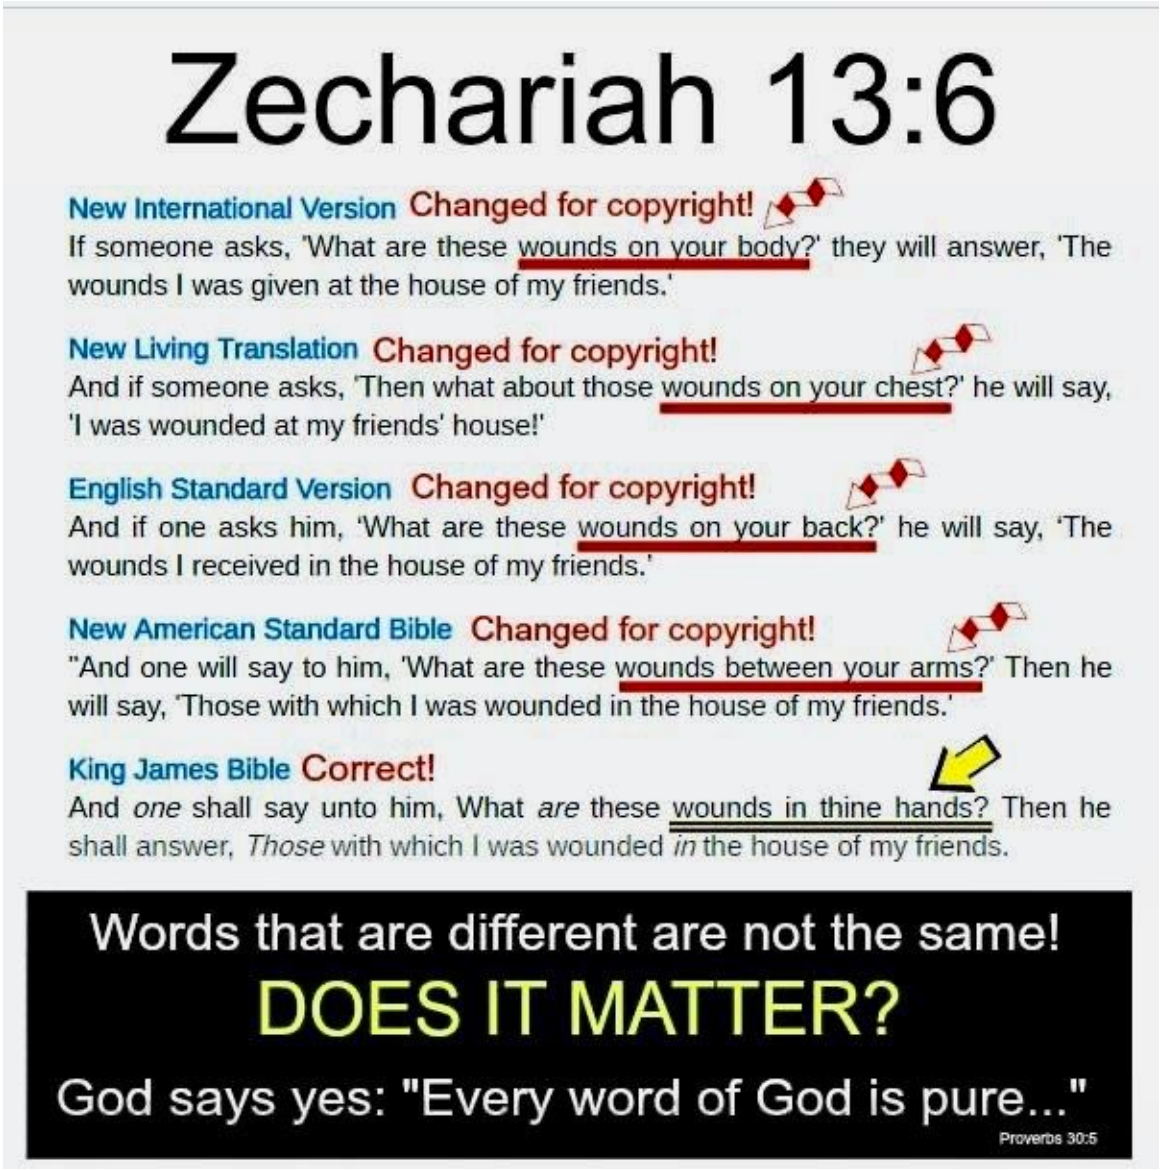
2.1.15 Jesus Never Changes And Neither Do God's Pure Words (2021-01-15 09:30)

Psalms 12:6-7, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever." Malachi 3:6, "For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed." Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever."

Our great God never changes. Our precious Lord and Savior never changes. The blessed Holy Spirit never changes. The inspired Word of God never changes. A sign of the apostasy in these last days is that churches are following the Devil's manmade corrupt Bible revisions. Anyone with even a little bit of spiritual discernment, who genuinely loves the truth, can see that Satan is behind the movement to relentlessly rewrite the Bible. The following picture is just one example of how rotten, evil and unscholarly the Bible corrupting racket is...



As you can see above, ungodly translators and publishers are changing the infallible Word of God so that they can obtain a legal copyright. They are not changing the Holy Bible because scholars sincerely believe it is accurate, but merely so that they can obtain their own legal copyright. Read t he following quote taken from the [2]United States Copyright Office :

> How much do I have to change in my own work to make a new claim of copyright?
>
> You may make a new claim in your work if the changes are substantial and creative, something more than just editorial changes or minor changes. This would qualify as a new derivative work. For instance, simply making spelling corrections throughout a work does not warrant a new registration, but adding an additional chapter would. See Circular 14, Copyright Registration in Derivative Works and Compilations, for further information. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [3]Registering A Work

In other words, if you want to publish your own new Bible version, in order to receive legal copyright status, you would have to "SUBSTANTIALLY" change your work from the original. And they must be "CREATIVE" unique changes. May I say, God's Word is not open game for anyone who wants to get creative and change it. Even worse, they're doing it for money.

Pastor Max D. Younce taught [4]a brilliant study on the King James Bible years ago. [5]In part 4b of that series, Dr. Younce made some startling statements revealing just how wicked and deficient the Devil's modern Bibles are. Dr. Younce explains in part 4b how in many cases, the modern Bible revisions are not based upon any ancient manuscript, but in fact, they are merely rendered at the whim of the translator.

Jesus came to earth as the Word of God incarnate (made flesh). John 1:1-3, 14, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God. ...

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Revelation 19:13, "

And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

" Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. This is why we read in John 5:39,

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

" We learn about Jesus by SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES, because Jesus is the living Word of God.

Hebrews 13:8 proclaims that Jesus Christ is THE SAME yesterday, today and tomorrow. The Lord never changes. Our American culture has drastically been transformed in just 50 years. In 1962 homosexuality was a punishable crime in all 50 states, but as of June 2015 same-sex marriages is permitted in all 50 states by federal law. Likewise, since 1972 federal law has permitted abortion in all 50 states. In the 1950's most Americans were skinny, at their proper weight, but today in the 21st century 42 % of Americans are obese. Women are covered in tattoos today, but in the 1970's tattoos on women were unheard of. There were no women combat soldiers in the U.S. back then. Feminism has ruined American homes!

But despite all these DRASTIC changes for the worst in our country, God and His inspired infallible Words have not changed. Wicked men keep changing the truth of God into a lie (Romans 1:25), but that doesn't change THE TRUTH! Men can change the Bible all they want, but the infallible unchanging King James Bible still stands! The churches have changed, and they're becoming deader and more unrecognizable every year. The power of the Holy Spirit is absent in 99 % of churches today. Instead you'll find a place of entertainment. You'll find psychology instead of theology in the pulpit. You'll find unity by compromise instead of division over truth. The average pastor and church are far more concerned about avoiding a church split, than they are about pleasing God by contending for the faith (Jude 1:3).

The Word of God hasn't changed at all. Yet, according to the American Bible Society (ABS), there are approximately 900 different English Bible versions:

> I am afraid no one can give you an exact number for the English translations and paraphrases of the Bible printed since Tyndale's New Testament of 1526. In part this > is due to the difficulty of determining what should be defined as a new translation as opposed to a correction or a revision of an existing translation. There is the additional question of how we should count translations that include not a complete Bible or Testament, but just a group of books or even a single book. And then, of course, there is the difficulty of sheer numbers. With all these caveats in mind, the number of printed English translations and paraphrases of the Bible, whether complete or not, is about 900. [emphasis added]

> SOURCE: [6]Number Of English Translations Of The Bible; BIBLE Q & A; December 2, 2009.

I cannot even grasp how we ended up having 900 English Bible revisions! It all started back in the year 1881 with Brooke Westcott's and Fenton Hort's: "The New Testament In The Original Greek." It took them 28 years to complete. Westcott and Hort claimed that "older" and "more accurate" ancient Greek manuscripts of the Bible had been unearthed. All of the Devil's modern revisions of the Bible, including the Jehovah's Witness' New World Translation (NWT), have been translated from this corrupt ancient Greek manuscript.

I know Independent Baptist churches where multiple plans of salvation are permitted and taught. 1st Corinthians 14:11, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." Here's [7]THE UGLY TRUTH ABOUT THE DIFFERENT BIBLE VERSIONS TODAY , WHICH ARE ANYTHING BUT HONEST SCHOLARSHIP. Please don't become the Devil's fool. Get you a King James Bible and love it, defend it, cherish it, read it, mediate on it, memorize it, proclaim it, study it, obey it and abide (live) therein!!!!!!!

Our blessed risen and living Savior never changes, and neither does the printed Word of God. Since there is only one Savior, there can only be one Holy Bible. That is common sense! The Devil is so cunning, subtle and shrewd, that he has succeeded at deceiving pastors and churches, to accept the false idea that God has preserved His pure Words among hundreds of English Bible versions. Why would a God Who is not the author of confusion DO THAT? 1st Corinthians 14:33, "

For God is not the author of confusion*, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
" The King James Bible is the infallible inspired Word of God.

2.1.16 God Rested From His Works, He Didn't Turn From Sin (2021-01-16 17:21)

Hebrews 4:1-2, 10-11, "Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. ... For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

I was so happy when the Holy Spirit showed me this truth last night. Hebrews 4:10-11 uses the 6 days of creation in Genesis as an illustration, to help us understand repentance unto salvation. God worked during those 6 days. God's works were not sinful. God did not turn from His sins to rest on the 7th day. I sure hope you are getting this truth friend, because this is GOOD STUFF!

God ceased from His "works" the Bible says. Did God have to turn away from His sins? No, God is incapable of sinning (James 1:13). God ceased from His efforts. He ceased from doing anything. God rested. Dear friend, that is the best illustration of salvation you'll ever hear, and it came directly from God Himself in Hebrews 4:10-11. Just as God ceased from his works, that is exactly how to get saved. You simply cease from doing anything, and you rest completely in the Lord Jesus Christ.

That is why the Apostle Paul could simply say in 1st Corinthians 2:2, "For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified." That is why Paul could simply say in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" Paul didn't ask them if they had repented and turned away from their sins, nor if they had made a commitment to Christ as "Lord," nor if they were willing to follow Jesus no matter what the cost. [1]Pastor John MacArthur heretically requires all of these unbiblical requirements to be saved.

My dear non-feathered friend, I care about you. I don't get paid a penny to labor night and day online, preaching the truth. My reward is laid up in Heaven (Matthew 6:19-20). You are my greatest reward, those of you who are my spiritual children, whom I've had the privilege of leading to Christ with the Gospel. I've been having the time of my life since 2002, for almost 20 years, contending for the Christian faith. It brings me joy to preach THE TRUTH. One of the great joys of the Christian life is contending for the faith (Jude 1:3).

Kindly said, anybody who tells you that you are required by God to "

turn away from your sin

" to be saved, doesn't understand God's plan of salvation. They are woefully ignorant of the Gospel, theologically incompetent, and are not saved. I'm talking about the [2]pathetic Bob Jones University crowd . I'm talking about former Harvest Baptist Church on Guam pastor, [3]Dr. Marty Herron. I'm talking about [4]Evangelist Steve Pettit, president of BJU since 2014. I'm talking about '[5]UNSHACKLED' which is produced by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago. All of these religious characters and groups preach " ANOTHER GOSPEL

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), which is not another (Galatians 1:6-9).

Dear friend, you get saved by getting out of the way, and letting God do the saving, all of it!

Romans 10:3-4, "

For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth. " The only part you and I have in salvation is to REST completely in Jesus.

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[6]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He miraculously resurrected physically from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is " the Gospel " (the Good News), by which men are saved, if they will REST in the finished redemptive WORK OF CHRIST. You see, it's not YOUR WORKS that saves you, it is JESUS WORKS! The Bible teaches in Hebrews 4:10-11 that just as God ceased from His works, even so must we cease from our works, resting completely in Jesus Christ to be saved. God didn't turn from His sins, He ceased from His labors.

2.1.17 'UNSHACKLED' Preaches Another Gospel (2021-01-17 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

I am utterly disgusted lately as I listen to '[1]UNSHACKLED,' produced by the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago [2]since 1950. They embellish the Gospel so much that it is no longer God's plan of salvation. I was listening today to their latest episode, the life's story of Christopher Replogle. I used to visit Pacific Garden Mission in the 1970's and early 1980's, a hundred times as a boy, tagging along with my father who preached there regularly to Skid Row. I used to sit in the Prayer Room as my father witnessed to men, kneeling on the floor, praying with them. Then the men would go to eat. Harry Saulnier (1902-1990) was the director of PGM for 46 years. He was in charge when I visited the mission as a lad, back when the mission still preached the Gospel correctly. These yuppie-type Neo-evangelicals today are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, perverting the Gospel of free grace.

The narrator (Timothy Gregory) of the UNSHACKLED series is not a saved man in my humble opinion. That is very clear to me, by his constant use of corrupt theological teachings that are nowhere found in the Word of God. It is truly sad that with the massive influence which UNSHACKLED has worldwide in dozens of languages, that they don't have a doctrinally sound man in charge of the ministry.

For example: Here are some heretical statements Timothy Gregory made today in the story of Christopher Replogle:

> "If you don't remember anything else, remember this, you can either invite Jesus into your life as your Lord and Savior, or you can shut Him out. But friend, I implore you to invite Him inside. Don't delay it another day. Call upon Him as your 'Lord.' For when you do, you are choosing to live life abundantly. To the full, for all of eternity."
> SOURCE: UNSHACKLED, [3]Program #3651 - Aired in 2021; Christopher Replogle Pt 1

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to call upon Jesus as our "Lord" (Master, Boss). Pastor Jack Hyles gets it 100 % correct, [4]refuting the Lordship Salvation heresy mess! You don't have to take Jesus as your "Lord and Savior" to be saved, you just need to take Him as your SAVIOR!!! What saith the Scripture? 1st Timothy 4:10, "For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach." Jesus is the Savior of ALL men, even those who reject Him. That is what the Bible says. Jesus is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe on Him.

Timothy Gregory in part 2 heretically says:

> "If you have ever doubted where you will go when you leave this earth, know this: Once Jesus is your 'Lord,' and you live for Him, there is no doubt. You will be with Him."

What gross theological incompetence! Dear friend, that is a whacky form of Calvinism at best, where you are required to persevere in holy living all your life to get to Heaven. That is the [6]damnable junk theology taught at Bob Jones University today. Have they never read Jesus' warning in Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Please read again what Mr. Gregory heretically says:

> "If you have ever doubted where you will go when you leave this earth, know this: Once Jesus is your 'Lord,' and you live for Him, there is no doubt. You will be with Him."

That is the horrific blunder that the foolish people made in Matthew 7:21-23. They were flabbergasted that Jesus said He didn't know them. They boasted of their "many wonderful works," which were all done in "thy name." They did it all in Jesus' name! They boasted that they had "cast out devils" in Jesus' name. They desperately tried to defend themselves, saying they had "prophesied" (preached) in Jesus' name. They called Him: "LORD, LORD." Yet, Jesus said He didn't even know them, and they were all cast into the horrifying Lake of Fire forever! What did they do wrong? Jesus tells us in Matthew 7:21. They failed to do the will of God the Father. God's will is found in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." There you have it. The Father's will is that you BELIEVE on His only begotten Son.

Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He miraculously resurrected physically from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). This is "the Gospel" (the Good News), by which men are saved, if they will REST in the finished redemptive WORK OF CHRIST. You see, it's not YOUR WORKS that saves you, it is JESUS WORKS! The Bible teaches in Hebrews 4:10-11 that just as God ceased from His works, even so must we cease from our works, resting completely in Jesus Christ to be saved. God didn't turn from His sins, He ceased from His labors.

> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[8]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Dear friend, you get saved by getting out of the way, and letting God do the saving, all of it! Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." The only part you and I have in salvation is to REST completely in Jesus.

I am so sick and tired of Pacific Garden Mission perverting the Word of God. They need to have a revival of letting the Bible speak for itself! PGM has foolishly adopted a bunch of religious jargon and theological ideas that are totally unbiblical. Their go-to verse at UNSHACKLED is 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Notice that the man is already in Christ. This verse has nothing to do with getting saved. It simply means that when a man gets saved, the Holy Spirit of God comes to live inside him. In theology we call this the "indwelling" of the Holy Spirit.

When I got saved at age 13 in Chicago, there was a change in me. I started desiring the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2). For the first time in my life I wanted to read the Bible. I didn't turn from my sins to get saved, but for the first time I had the Holy Spirit convicting me about the sins in my life (Proverbs 3:12; Romans 8:9; Hebrews 12:6-8; 1st John 3:24). I still did bad things as a teenager, but I felt God's abiding Holy Spirit presence in me. I worried for 7 miserable years that I wasn't saved, simply because I had been misled (just like PGM is horribly misleading people). I was taught that praying is part of getting saved. My faith was in Jesus alone, but I thought the way you trust Jesus is to pray for Him to save you. So I keep worrying what I had prayed, and if I had missed something. I was saved, but I couldn't nail it down, because I had never been taught properly. It wasn't until many years later that I learned you don't have to pray to be saved. The Bible simply says to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, AND THOU SHALT BE SAVED (Acts 16:30-31).

Once again, here are the errant words of Timothy Gregory:

> "If you have ever doubted where you will go when you leave this earth, know this: Once Jesus is your 'Lord,' and you live for Him, there is no doubt. You will be with Him."

Jesus was their "Lord" in Matthew 7:21-23, but the Lord said He didn't know them. Kindly said, Mr. Gregory is wrong, you can go straight to Hell with Jesus as your "Lord." You had better trust Him alone as your SAVIOR!!! Lordship means YOU are being faithful to serve God; but in true salvation, GOD is the One being faithful, to keep His promise of eternal life by faith alone. Gregory even says that above that you must "LIVE FOR HIM," to have the solid assurance that you are going to Heaven. That is not Biblical at all. Serving Jesus as "Lord" is a sure way to burn in Hell someday. Living for the Lord is a matter of SERVICE, not of SALVATION.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Judas followed Christ. Judas was one of Jesus' very apostles. The Bible says in Matthew 27:3 that Judas "repented" (the word for repented here means reformation; Judas turned from his sins). He brought the 30 pieces of silver back (penance). Judas was sorry and said he betrayed innocent blood (penitence). But none of this is repentance unto salvation. Judas commit suicide and is burning in Hell forever, because He died in His sins, never having believed on Jesus as His Savior. We are saved because of GOD'S faithfulness, not by OUR faithfulness. Jesus paid the price for our sins with His precious blood.

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." God ceased from His "works" the Bible says. Did God have to turn away from His sins? No, God is incapable of sinning (James 1:13). God ceased from His efforts. He ceased from doing anything. God rested. Dear friend, that is the best illustration of salvation you'll ever hear, and it came directly from God Himself in Hebrews 4:10-11. Just as God ceased from his works, that is exactly how to get saved. You simply cease from doing anything, and you rest completely in the Lord Jesus Christ by faith. Simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen, taking God at His Word as recorded in the Holy Scriptures.

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

2.1.18 Dr. John Rice Explains Bible Teaching On Water Baptism (2021-01-18 09:30)

BAPTISM IS CHRISTIAN, NOT JEWISH; NEW TESTAMENT, NOT OLD TESTAMENT; GRACE, NOT LAW

by Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980)

Down through the centuries till modern times all Bible students and theologians agreed that baptism was a New Testament practice exclusively, that it went with the gospel of salvation through faith in Christ, and was not a part of the Old Testament ceremonial law. However, those who sprinkled unconverted babies tried to find some excuse for family baptizings, and so sought to show a similarity, at least, between circumcision and baptism as an argument for the sprinkling of babies which they got from Rome. That was the first time anyone used Old Testament texts as if they applied to baptism, or in any way connected baptism with the Old Testament.

Then in recent years a new cult of ultra-dispensationalists appeared taking up that argument and expanding it as an excuse for omitting baptism and breaking the command of Christ that converts were to be baptized "even unto the end of the world." Such faddists say that baptism was simply ceremonial law, that John the Baptist was preaching and baptizing on legal ground, that that was in a Jewish dispensation, like circumcision, that now Christians should not be baptized. That is simply one of the false isms of these last days, of which Christians should beware.

BAPTISM NOT LIKE CIRCUMCISION

However, the Bible is as plain as daylight on this matter. Baptism is never mentioned as connected with ceremonial law or as applying to Jews any more than to others. In fact, baptism is not even mentioned in the Old Testament. Any man who puts baptism on a basis with circumcision surely never studied the matter with an unbiased mind. Circumcision was given to Abraham in the book of Genesis, (Gen. 17:9-14), separating him and his descendants from the rest of the race. It was incorporated in the Mosaic law for Israel only (Lev. 12:3). In the New Testament then we are plainly told that Gentile Christians are not subject to this law, (Acts 15:1-20, Cal. 5:2,6, and Gal. 6:15.) On the contrary, baptism was not in the Mosaic law, not commanded to Jews as a race anywhere, but commanded to Christians, whether Jews or Gentiles, after conversion. Baptism began with John the Baptist, and as given in the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20, goes on to "the end of the world" or the end of this church age. Baptism began when circumcision ended. The Bible plainly tells when baptism began and when circumcision ended. The Bible plainly tells that circumcision now avails nothing and is not to be required of converts. The Bible says nothing like that about baptism. If the Lord had planned for baptism to stop, He would have plainly said so, but He did not say so. Christians who take the Bible, then, cannot throw away baptism.

THE GOSPEL OF JOHN THE BAPTIST EXACTLY THE SAME AS THAT OF CHRIST AND APOSTLES

Laboring to find an excuse for omitting baptism and doing away with this blessed reminder of Christ’s death and burial, some people insist that John the Baptist preached a different gospel than Christ and Paul preached, and that Jews were baptized by John the Baptist because they were saved in a different way. How wrong that is! It grows out of a lack of understanding of the Bible doctrine on salvation throughout the Bible. One good man was first a Roman Catholic and believed that people were saved by baptism, and then a Presbyterian and believed that little babies were put under covenant by baptism and that baptism took the place of circumcision, and then joined the Disciples of Christ, a group who teach that people are saved only in baptism, and who often hold that the baptism must be performed by one of their own members or it is not effective. Now he is an ultra-dispensationalist; and out of that muddled background, with no sound theological training, and no broad understanding of the Bible, he teaches that baptism is now done away with entirely, that John the Baptist baptized Jews because they could not be saved without baptism, but that now an added revelation has come of "church truth," that John's baptism was only a part of the Law, that it was for Jews only, that it was once essential to salvation, and is now out of date! That sounds too silly to deserve attention, but some good people who do not know their Bibles and have not been well founded in the great doctrines of salvation, have been misled by it.

The simple truth is that there has never been but one kind of salvation. Peter said, in preaching to Cornelius in Acts 10:43, that "To Him (Christ) give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Wait! Read that again! Every prophet in the Old Testament, as well as New Testament apostles, agree, says this Scripture, that all who trust in Christ are instantly saved! Animal sacrifices, baptism, the Lord's Supper, good deeds, never were essential to salvation. Salvation is by faith in Christ alone. It always was the same.

But the doctrine of John the Baptist was exactly the same as that of Christ Himself and of the apostles. It is true that John the Baptist preached, "Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. 3:2). He refused to baptize the Pharisees and Sadducees without evidence of repentance. But Jesus preached exactly the same thing, "Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matt. 4:17). And even when Jews were rejecting their King, and when the kingdom offered was no longer imminent, that is, at hand, still Jesus continued to preach the same doctrine, "Repent!" In Luke 13:1-5 we are told:

"There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

Repentance was Christ's plan of salvation. And when He gave the disciples the Great Commission, as reported in Luke, He said unto them, "That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem" (Luke 24:47). It was just another way of stating His plan of salvation "among all nations." All who honestly repent - that is all who turn, in the heart, from sin to God - certainly trust in Christ. So repentance and faith are inseparable.

And Paul preached the same thing, namely that God "commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30). It is silly, then, to say that repentance is only for Jews. Actually, repentance means a change of mind, a heart's turning from sin toward God. And of course every person who was ever saved in the Old Testament or the New turned his heart from sin toward God, that is, he repented, as he trusted.

It is true that the Gospel of John stresses faith, trusting in Christ for salvation, but so too did John the Baptist! We are accustomed to quoting John 3:16 and John 3:18, saying that one who trusted in Christ should never perish but have everlasting life and is not condemned. But often people forget that in the same chapter, from verse 27 on, John the Baptist is talking, and he says in John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life, and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." So then John the Baptist taught that the only way to be saved was by faith in Christ, personal dependence and trust in Him. Repentance and faith are simply different ways of referring to the heart's turning to God, the surrender to and trust in Christ as Saviour. John the Baptist preached exactly the same gospel as did Christ and as did Peter and as did Paul, and exactly the same gospel as we must preach today.

When John the Baptist said, in Matthew 3:11, "I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance," the word unto is a translation of the Greek word eis, a preposition of reference, and actually John the Baptist simply meant that he baptized people with reference to or in remembrance of, or pointing to, their repentance. He expressly refused to baptize anybody until they had already repented, that is, had already turned to Christ, trusting Him and being saved (Matt. 3:7-8). The gospel preached by John the Baptist was exactly the same gospel as preached by the Saviour and by the apostles and taught throughout the New Testament. To say that John the Baptist was in a different dispensation, or that baptism, as administered by John, had a different meaning from that which baptism has today, shows a lack of understanding of the doctrine of salvation as taught throughout the Bible.

THE BAPTISM OF JOHN THE BAPTIST WAS ALL THAT JESUS HAD OR THE TWELVE APOSTLES; WAS CHRISTIAN BAPTISM.

The baptism administered by John the Baptist was not distinctly Jewish, was not a part of ceremonial law, and did not belong to an Old Testament dispensation at all. In fact, the word baptism or baptizing is not even mentioned in the Old Testament. Nor is there a single reference in the Old Testament to any ceremony like the baptism of John.

It is true, as these ultra-dispensationalists point out, that the washings mentioned in Hebrews 9:10, referring to the Old Testament worship, is a translation of baptismos, a Greek word with the same root as baptism, simply a form of the same word. But the context shows that it was not the immersion of new converts who have just been saved which is referred to, but the washing or dipping of the priests' hands, and of cups and pots and brazen vessels in the big laver in connection with the bloody sacrifices of the Old Testament period. And exactly the same word in the Greek, baptismos, is used in Mark 7:4. There the Pharisees were complaining at Christ and the disciples because they ate with unwashen hands. Verses 3 and 4 say, "For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables." In that passage the washing of Mark 7:4 is baptismos. When the Scripture says in that verse, "Except they wash, they eat not," the word wash is the very word for baptize, baptizo. So the only kind of baptism known in the Old Testament was the ceremonial dipping and washing of hands, or pots and cups and vessels of brass. Again I say there was nothing like John's baptism in Old Testament times. In Old Testament times there was the washing of pots and pans, ceremonial washings and dippings of the hands every day before eating. There was never, in the ceremonial law, the immersion of the whole body following repentance, picturing regeneration, a death to sin and a resurrection to new life, as New Testament baptism pictured.

In the Old Testament there is not a single case of immersion of a person as a rite similar either in form or purpose to the baptism preached and administered, according to the New Testament, by John, Jesus, and the apostles.

Anyone who says, therefore, that John's baptism was legal, or part of the ceremonial law which was for Jews only, shows that he has been getting his theology from some other book besides the Bible, and out of his ignorance misleads others who are ignorant. Again I say, baptism, in the sense that John the Baptist, Christ, and the apostles baptized, is not in the Old Testament at all. The word is not even mentioned in the Old Testament, as any one who has a good concordance can verify for himself. Baptism is entirely a New Testament doctrine and practice is connected altogether with the gospel of grace, and never with ceremonial law. In the Bible it was never administered nor commanded to any but those who publicly professed that they repented of their sins and were born again when they came in penitent faith in Christ, "the lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world," as John preached.

It is significant that the Gospel of Mark starts out with these words, "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the son of God; as it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee." And then follows the story of John the Baptist and his preaching and his baptizing of converts! The gospel of Jesus Christ began with John the Baptist, say 's this plain Scripture! So the baptism of John the Baptist was the baptism that always should go with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

In Acts 19:1-7 is a passage which has been used by the ultra-dispensationalists to discredit John's baptism. And I am sorry to say that the Scofield Bible does the same hurtful and foolish thing. But such people "do err, not knowing the Scriptures," for the very passage itself does not reflect at all upon the baptism administered by John the Baptist and by his disciples.

Apollos had been preaching at Ephesus. The Scripture says that he was "an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures" . . . "instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John" (Acts 18 :24,25). That Apollos "knew only the baptism of John" does not indicate that Apollos was wrong in doctrine, for the Scriptures had already plainly said that he was "mighty in the Scriptures" and was "instructed in the way of the Lord" and that he was "fervent in the spirit" that is, that he had the fervor of the Holy Spirit. It simply means that Apollos had been at Alexandria and elsewhere and had not been at Jerusalem when the mighty events of Pentecost transpired. Aquila and Priscilla "took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly" (literally, more completely) (Acts 18:26). That is, they told him the marvelous teaching of the fullness of the Holy Spirit which Jesus had given after His resurrection, and the wonderful experiences which the disciples had had through being empowered by the Spirit. Then in Acts 18:27, 28 we are told that Apollos was greatly commended by the disciples, and that when he came to Achaia he "helped them much which had believed through grace: For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the Scriptures that Jesus was Christ."

Then comes the passage in question, Acts 19:1-7, which says:

> "And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And all the men were about twelve."

We simply find above that Paul, coming to Ephesus, found some saved people who did not have upon them the power of the Holy Spirit which New Testament Christians had to win souls and which we ought to have.

Note that at Ephesus these men, about twelve, were "disciples" (Acts 19:1). They had "believed" (verse 2). And we know that all who have believed in Christ have everlasting life. On profession of their faith, they had been baptized (verse 3). To call such people, instructed by Apollos, unsaved, is foolish. If they were disciples who had believed and had confessed Christ openly in baptism, under the teaching of Apollos a man "mighty in the Scriptures" and "instructed in the way of the Lord" and fervent with the power of the Holy Spirit, then these people were saved. But they did not understand that they, too, could have the power of the Holy Spirit! Apollos had not taught them, just as many preachers do not teach today, that Christians can have the abundant power of the Holy Spirit coming on them for soul winning.

Paul told them that they should have received this power when they were baptized. Jesus received the power of the Holy Spirit when he was baptized. And believers at Pentecost and following were taught that they should receive the power of the Holy Spirit when they were baptized (Acts 2:38). And it was expressly stated that this promise was to all that are afar off, all that God should ever call (Acts 2:39). So, these new converts at Ephesus should have had the power of the Holy Spirit upon them, too, but they did not. They had not understood fully the meaning of baptism. And so Paul baptized them again, baptizing them exactly the way that Apollos (we suppose it was Apollos) had baptized them before. Only this time they understood the sweet meaning of baptism, that the old man was dead to sin and that now they reckoned themselves dead and were raised up to live new lives in the power of the Holy Spirit. And then Paul laid his hands upon them and "the Holy Ghost came on them."

And if Paul were to come in our churches today, he could find as many as twelve men in every church of any size who do not know anything about the power of the Holy Spirit, though they may have been baptized scripturally.

I am simply saying that John's baptism was Christian baptism.

Consider that John's baptizing was all that Jesus ever had. Consider that all the disciples were baptized the same way by John the Baptist. In fact, this was the very requirement one must fulfill to be an apostle, he must be selected "of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, Beginning from the baptism of John" said Peter in Acts 1:21,22. When Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist He said, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness" (Matt. 3:15), and so set an example for all Christians throughout the whole age.

John’s kind of baptizing is not out of date, but is to last like the gospel he preached. Wherever John’s gospel that "behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world" is preached, and wherever it is preached that "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" as John preached it (John 3:36), there new converts should be baptized the Bible way, as John the Baptist baptized them, as Jesus was baptized, as all the apostles were baptized by John, as Paul baptized his converts, and as we are commanded to baptize converts, "even unto the end of the world."

Acts 10:36-44, “The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.”

Acts 10:43 is very clear that “ gave witness, that salvation has always been through faith alone in Jesus Christ! They didn’t know the name of Jesus throughout the Old Testament, but they plainly knew about the coming promised Messiah.

John 4:25, “

The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things. ” The Bible teaches that ALL OF THE PROPHETS preached salvation through believing in Christ. That means Enoch, Noah, Moses, Samuel, Isaiah, Elijah, Ezekiel, Daniel, Elisha, Jonah, Joel, Amos, Zephaniah and Habakkuk (to name but a few), all preached salvation by faith. Habakkuk 2:4, “Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

There are many false teachers today, who falsely preach that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. They also claim that salvation during the future Tribulation period will again be by works. But they claim salvation today is by faith alone. So these false prophets literally are claiming that there are two different plans of salvation, applicable during different times of history. Some of these false teachers include Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016), [1]Bryan Denlinger, [2]Robert Breaker, William P. Grady and [3]Pastor Gene Kim.

In the preceding YouTube sermon by Dr. Gene Kim, he errantly attempts to use The Golden Rule in Matthew 7:12 to support his heresy of salvation by works in the Old Testament. Matthew 7:12, "Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets." Kim is horribly taking the Bible out of context. Dr. Kim harshly refers to Free Grace Christians (such as myself) as "[4]anti-dispensational salvation losers." The truth is that Dr. Kim is a false prophet who espouses damnable heresy!

I do not agree with dispensationalism. It is simply not found in the Holy Bible. Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) is one of my favorite Bible teachers. Dr. Ironside did teach dispensationalism at Moody Church and Moody Bible Institute. Dr. Ironside said that dispensationalism is not doctrine; but rather, a helpful overlay of the Scriptures to help the student learn the Bible. Although I don't have a problem with that per se, I wouldn't use it, simply because I have seen too many Bible students go wacky as a result. Dr. Gene Kim is a classic example, using dispensationalism to justify having a different plan of salvation under Mosaic law. Another example are Zionists, who place the emphasis upon Israel instead of the Gospel. My humble advice to you dear reader is to avoid dispensationalism, and anything else which is not clearly taught in the Bible.

In the preceding YouTube video, Dr. Kim makes a lot of insulting and bold claims that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. He repeatedly calls his critics in this doctrinal matter "losers." Kim cites the following Scripture passage in an attempt to justify his heresy. This is the famous passage about the two men, who unknowingly walked with the risen Savior, on the road to Emmaus. Luke 24:13, 24-26, "And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. ... And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. Then he [Jesus] said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself." I don't know where in the world Dr. Kim gets works for salvation out of this Scripture passage! The Bible plainly says that Jesus expounded the two men concerning Himself. That is exactly what Acts 10:43 says, To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

Jesus called the two men fools for not quickly believing all that THE PROPHETS had prophesied concerning Him. Our wonderful Savior helped them to see clearly, expounding them by beginning in Genesis and working His way through the Old Testament concerning Himself. Oh what a wonderful Savior!!! But according to Dr. Gene Kim, Jesus explained to these two men that salvation was by works in the Old Testament. Dear reader, Dr. Kim is very wrong, incompetent as a theologian, and you should avoid all of his religious teachings. I say that kindly, but with Biblical authority! What saith the Scripture? Romans 16:17, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them." Right doctrine matters!

Jesus' very own apostles didn't believe the ladies when they reported what they had seen. Mary Magdalene and other Christian women saw the empty tomb. Mary personally spoke with the Lord in His resurrected body. Yet the apostles didn't believe their report. Luke 24:11, "

And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

Wow! May we always be quick to believe the truth, but skeptical about anything that cannot be backed up soundly by the Scriptures.

The Just Shall Live By Faith

Galatians 5:13-14, “For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.” If Dr. Gene Kim is correct in his theory that people were saved by works in the Old Testament, then a person can be saved by fulfilling The Golden Rule. The obvious inherent problem with this theory is that no human being (except Jesus - Hebrews 4:15) has ever been able to perfectly keep the law. That is why we need a Savior!

Habakkuk 2:4, “Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

The Apostle Paul quotes from

Habakkuk

2:4 in the following passage:

> Galatians 3:9-14, “
>
> So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
>
> For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
>
> But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith*.
> And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. ”

There is absolutely no way for Dr. Kim, Robert Breaker or anyone else, to weasel their way out of this Scripture passage to teach salvation by works in the Old Testament. Paul quotes Habakkuk 2:4 to reiterate the truth that salvation is by faith alone. Paul even states that no man is justified by the law in God’s sight. It would be absurd for Paul to quote the Old Testament, if they had followed a different works-based plan of salvation in Habakkuk’s time.

I beseech you dear reader to be very cautious listening to Bryan Denlinger, Robert Breaker, Gene Kim, or anybody else who is wrong on the plan of salvation in the Old Testament. Bryan Denlinger preaches hardcore Lordship Salvation, wrong on salvation then and now! I am tired of hearing well-meaning Christians attempt to whitewash these heretics, by emphasizing that they believe New Testament saints are justified by faith. Listen, something is wrong with their theology! These men have bugs in their thinking.

If Salvation Were Ever By Works, Then God Would Owe Someone It

The very fact that a preacher could entertain the false idea of people being saved "SOME OTHER WAY" is cause for great alarm! John 10:1, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." Since the beginning of human civilization, salvation has always been promised by God to those who place their trust in the Savior.

The following passage of Scripture 100 % unequivocally PROVES, beyond any shadow of a doubt, that no one has ever been saved by the works of the law:

> What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt."

What Peter Ruckman, Gene Kim, Robert Breaker, William Grady and Bryan Denlinger are literally teaching, by saying that people were saved BY WORKS in the Old Testament, is that GOD OWED THEM SALVATION!!! I didn't say that, God did! Please read Romans 4:1-4 again if you missed it. The Bible says if Abraham had been saved by works, then salvation wouldn't have been by grace, but of debt. Dear friend, do you really think God owes anyone eternal life? Do you think God owed everyone salvation in the time of Moses, who attempted to obey the Mosaic laws but utterly failed? It blows my mind that any preacher could even think of following such a disastrous, heretical, unbiblical, and theologically irresponsible notion—to teach that anyone has ever been redeemed by keeping God's law.

Romans 4:2-4 " For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God ."

Please don't miss that! If Abraham had been saved by works, then he would have had justifiable grounds to brag of his own self-righteousness. No human being has that right! These heretics, like Dr. Peter S. Ruckman, claim that Abraham was saved by faith, but then salvation became by works under the Mosaic law. That is utter nonsense and heresy!

The same argument made by the Apostle Paul in Romans 4:1-4 regarding Abraham, absolutely applies to every human being! No one, not at any time in human civilization, has ever been owed salvation by God. As we just plainly read in Romans 4:1-4, if salvation were by works, then it would be of debt and not of God's grace. That eternal truth didn't change under the Mosaic law. Salvation has ALWAYS been solely by God's undeserved grace, provided through the blood sacrifice on His only begotten Son on the cross (1st Peter 1:18-19).

2.1.20 They Called Him “LORD,” But Jesus Didn’t Know Them (2021-01-19 10:56)

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord*, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity*.

This is one of the most intriguing and disturbing passages of Scripture. This group of people called Jesus, “LORD, LORD,” but He knew them not. They were not born-again. That is, they were not saved, and they went to Hell to burn forever in their sins. How did this happen? What did they do wrong? Dear friend, they made the fatal mistake that millions of churchgoers are making in America and the world today—they are serving Christ instead of wholly trusting Christ to get to Heaven! The heresy is commonly known as “ Lordship Salvation.

Evangelist Steve Pettit is in this accursed religious group. Dr. Pettit has been the president of Bob Jones University since 2014. Read what Dr. Pettit foolish says:

> “For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [1]22:44)

That is not the Gospel of Free Grace dear friend. You don’t have to run a race of holiness and serving Christ to prove that you are saved. If that were true, then you could never really know with full confidence that you have been saved. Dr. Pettit further heretically elaborates:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [2]11:34)

Dear friend, eternal life is a free gift. It is an instantaneous new birth, not a race or a process. Steve Pettit has perverted the new birth into a Marathon Race that must be finished to know for sure that you’ve qualified for the award. None of that terminology applies to the Gospel.

Eternal life is God's free gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9), not an award which you must qualify to obtain as Pettit teaches.

Kindly said, Dr. Pettit is making the same fatal mistake that the people in Matthew 7:21-23 made. They did "many wonderful works" (like run a Bible college) in Jesus' name. They "prophesied" (like Steve Pettit preaches in BJU chapel) in Jesus' name. They called Jesus "LORD, LORD," but the Savior firmly stated with these horrifying words: "I NEVER KNEW YOU." Jesus calls them "ye that work iniquity." Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!

Listen, you don't get saved by running the race friend. You get saved by getting out of the race, and resting wholly in Jesus' name! Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." After six days of creating, God rested on the seventh day. God didn't cease from His sins, God stopped working. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." The way you labour (or work) to enter into God's rest is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." That is the only thing we are told to DO to be saved in the Bible —" Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31b).

I could give you umpteen more examples of Calvinist false prophets today (Ray Comfort, Sam Horn, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer, Chip Ingram, William Lane Craig, Stephen Davey; Kevin Bauder, et cetera). Repeatedly in the Holy Bible we are simply taught to BELIEVE to have eternal life. In fact, God authored an entire specific book of the Bible as a Gospel tract, which is the Gospel of John. We read in John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." So if all we had was the Gospel of John, we have enough to be saved. Everything that we need to know to obtain eternal life is contained within the pages of John's Gospel. Not even once does John mention the word "

repent.

" That is because repentance is automatic when one believes. Repentance and faith are simply two sides of one coin. Repentance is a change of mind. The man who changes his mind has done so by believing on Christ.

Salvation is so simple. The Bible even calls it **"

the simplicity that is in Christ

" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). God saves a man solely by faith (Galatians 3:26); and then we are sanctified by the Word of God as we walk by faith (John 17:17; 1st Peter 2:2). Becoming a Christian is instantaneous; but becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. The former is salvation (or sonship); the latter is service (or discipleship). Dr. Pettit errantly teaches that sanctification is a package deal with justification, and that you cannot separate the two. So if you aren't being sanctified, Dr. Pettit teaches you've never been justified either. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation! Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688) got it 100 % correct, who said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

John Bunyan was a wise man concerning the Gospel. Folks, this is a big deal. There are pastors, Bible colleges and churches everywhere today who are taking this doctrinal matter lightly, as if it doesn't really matter; but it DOES MATTER! Right doctrine matters! The horrified people in Matthew 7:21-23 found out just how much doctrine does matter!!! They called Him "LORD, LORD," but Christ denied knowing them. The $64,000 question then, dear reader, is not whether or not you know Jesus, but does Jesus know you? Are you one of His redeemed sheep, or are you a tare like the Bob Jones crowd today?

You had better stop trying to be saved, and you had better start trusting to be saved. You had better stop trying to faithfully "

run the race

as Steve Pettit heretically teaches, and stop trying to commit your life to serving Christ as John MacArthur foolishly teaches, and stop trying to "turn away from you sin" as Marty Herron errantly teaches, and instead just

" Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31b). If you are ever saved at all, it will be solely because of GOD'S faithfulness, and not in the least part by YOUR faithfulness. Eternal life is a free gift. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved. To be saved, you simply cease from your own works, as God did from His on the seventh day, and you REST completely in the finished redemptive work of Christ—Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and bodily resurrected three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). That is how you get saved Oh needy sinner!

"To think that your condition is good, because there is some change in you from a loose, profane life, to a more close, honest, and civil life and conversation; I say, to think this testimony sufficient to ground the stress of thy salvation upon, is very dangerous. First, because such a soul doth not only lay the stress of its salvation besides the man Christ Jesus that died upon the cross; but, secondly, because his confidence is not grounded upon the Savior of sinners; but upon his turning from gross sins, to a more refined life, (and it may be to the performance of some good duties,) which is no Savior."

2.1.21 You Need To Say That The King James Bible Is Inspired (2021-01-20 02:30)

2nd Timothy 3:16-17,

All scripture is given by inspiration of God*, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

Those words “given by inspiration of God” are translated from just one Greek word, theopneustos. “Theo” means God.

(like pneumatic) means air. The Holy Bible is God’s breath. It was breathed out by the Holy Spirit of God upon the approximately 40 writers. There is absolutely nothing in the Greek word theopneustos that limits it only to the originals. I am saddened as I read church and Bible college statements of faith, seeing that they deny that the King James Bible is inspired. I mean, is it so hard to believe that we have an inspired Bible today?

I went to look at [1]Crown College’s website today , and Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee, where Pastor Clarence Sexton is their preacher. I like Brother Sexton. I have been listening to his sermons on YouTube. He’s a great guy. Albeit, the college doesn’t believe that the King James Bible is inspired. I was looking because I am planning to move a.s.a.p., Lord willing. I need to leave Guam and go back to the United States, so I can be part of a church family. I like the work at Temple Baptist Church in Powell, Tennessee, but it bothers me that they refuse to say that the King James Bible is inspired. The same is sadly true of Hyles-Anderson College today and First Baptist Church of Indiana. Since 2008 they have denied the inspiration of the King James Bible.

I am considering moving to Pastor Jeff Fugate's ministry in Lexington, Kentucky at the [2]Clay Mills Baptist Church, where they boldly proclaim the inspiration of the Scriptures. They don't mention the King James Bible being inspired, but since they don't talk about the "originals" they don't need to. They proclaim to believe that the Scriptures are inspired, so that includes the King James in their statement of faith. I give them a thumbs up, humbly said.

I am also considering the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Longview, Texas.

I love their church's statement of faith.

Pastor Bob Gray II is their preacher.

They [3]boldly proclaim the inspiration of the King James Bible. I am humbly proud of them, and I know God is too. They are not lukewarm, they are hot for the Lord, preaching THE TRUTH from an inspired Holy Bible! Get mad at me if some of you want, there is something wrong with a Bible preacher who denies that we have an inspired Bible today. Please consider the following thought provoking truthful statements...

> "The Bible is not the inspired, inerrant and 100 % historically true words of God. ... If we would destroy the Christian religion, we must first of all destroy man's belief in the Bible." —Voltaire (French philosopher and former unbeliever 1694-1778 - He now knows better [in Hell])
>
> As one liberal theologian pointed out in his review of Harold Lindsell's, The Battle for the Bible, the only real difference between the conservative and liberal positions on the Bible is that the conservatives say the Bible USED TO BE inspired and inerrant, whereas the liberal says it NEVER WAS inspired or inerrant. BOTH positions agree that the Bible IS NOT NOW inspired or inerrant.
> As brother Daryl Coats so aptly says in his article The Two Lies: "If the Bible was inspired only in the original manuscripts, no one in the entire history of the world has ever had an inspired Bible. The original autographs of Job and the books of Moses had disappeared more than a thousand years before the first book of the New Testament was written, so no one has ever owned a complete Bible made up of the 'divine originals.' Nor, has anyone ever owned a complete New Testament made up of 'inspired originals,' because the originals were distributed among more than a dozen individuals and local churches."

Lord willing, I am also considering moving to Tucson, Arizona and Chattanooga, Tennessee. My mind is all over the country right now. There are so many great churches and places to move, but I haven't found peace about any of them yet. I am praying for God to give me peace about a place to move. Lord willing, I want to find a wife. I have been alone too long, and it affects me. God is good. One day at a time. Please pray for me my friends.

Now back to my main point. Why won't they say it? Why won't today's preachers and Bible colleges say that the King James Bible is inspired? Why do they say the originals are inspired, and those words have been preserved, but somehow that means those words are no longer inspired? Pastor Jack Hyles is right, [4]who reasoned : "What good is inspiration without preservation?" In other words, what would have been the point of God giving mankind His very pure inspired words, and then preserving those words if they were no longer inspired?

If the King James Bible is not inspired, then there can be MORE THAN ONE BIBLE today, which is very bad. Having two authorities requires a third authority—manmade scholarship—to decide which of the first two authorities are correct. That elevates flawed sinful men in charge over the eternal Words of almighty God. That is exactly why they won't say that the King James Bible is inspired, because if they do, then they are saying that none on the other Bible versions can be inspired. There absolutely cannot be TWO inspired Bibles, when those two Bible disagree in places. Look at this picture to see what I mean...

A Picture Is Worth 1,000 Words!

You show me a church or Bible college that refuses to say that the King James Bible is "inspired," and I'll guarantee you that they never criticize the modern Bible versions either. Hyles-Anderson College and Crown College do not expose the Devil's Bible versions. If they do, please show me. Bob Jones University is even worse, they use, sell and promote the Devil's Bible versions.

I am very concerned about the direction of Baptist churches in America. Crown College plays intercollegiate sports with BJU. They have several BJU alumni on staff at Crown College. Now,

I am not against that, because in the old days BJU was great. But these institutions are eerily silent about the Lordship Salvation being preached at BJU today. I see all this moving toward apostasy! Doesn't anyone take a stand against Lordship Salvation anymore? Doesn't anyone take a stand against counterfeit Bible versions anymore? I rebuked one assistant pastor at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. He tried to weasel his way out of my question. I asked him why he supports corrupt Bible versions. He tried to defend himself by replying that he doesn't agree or support all of the modern Bibles. I put him on the spot by asking him to name just one, which he couldn't. You see, these are neo-fundamentalists. That is someone who thinks they are a Fundamentalist, but in reality they are a Neo-evangelical.

It is a big deal. Listen folks, there is a direct correlation between pastors who are corrupt on the Gospel and the Devil's modern Bibles. It is no coincidence that one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold is [6]100 % King James Bible only, and he is also [7]100 % correct on a Free Grace Gospel. You see, doctrine follows one's attitude toward the Holy Bible. That is why I make such a big fuss and criticize Hyles-Anderson College and Crown College, and especially Bob Jones University, for hobnobbing with the Devil's Bible of the month club! This Bible, that Bible, more and more all the time, they never stop coming!!!

Dear friend, you need to say that the King James Bible is inspired. I don't care if you're a pastor, a missionary, a Bible professor, or a layman in the church—we all need to speak up as God's children and let the world know that WE HAVE AN INSPIRED BIBLE TODAY!!! Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) [8]boldly proclaimed the inspiration of the King James Bible. For those of you who don't want to say the King James Bible is inspired, it is only because you don't really think we have an inspired Bible today. Therefore, you are pulling on the same rope as the Devil, preparing the next generation to ditch the King James Bible and embrace the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. The preacher John Wesley wisely said: "What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace." Why are preachers tolerating evil.

There is a subtle demonic spirit at work in our churches and Bible colleges today, which says all manner of positive things about the King James Bible, but THEY WON'T SAY IT IS INSPIRED. I tell you THE TRUTH dear reader—the King James Bible is infallible, pure, innerant and INSPIRED by God. They are living Words (John 6:63), which is what inspired means (IN-SPIRIT). They are God's Words, not men's words. That is what inspired means. The Bible are God's breathed out words.

It is ridiculous to say that inspiration only refers to the process of God giving His Words to man. If only the originals were inspired, then we don't have a perfect Bible today. And if we don't have a perfect Bible today, then God lied in Psalms 12:6-7. That is why every [9]modern Bible version changes and removes this promise completely. It is wickedness!!! The fact that ONLY the King James Bible retains this promise from God in Psalms 12:6-7, to preserve and keep His pure Words forever, should be enough to convince you that the King James Bible is the One! We only have ONE Bible today in the English language, and it is the King James!!!

2.1.22 You're Not Going To Heaven Just Because You Love God (2021-01-20 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, "

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

What an indictment against manmade religion! There are billions of religious people in the world, who sincerely think they love God. An estimated 1.6 billion Muslims reject Jesus as the Messiah, worshipping instead a false god called "Allah." According to the Koran, Allah has no biological son. But the Christian Holy Bible teaches that God has a biological Son, whose name is Jesus. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" Galatians 3:22,

"But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. " Before the world began, God promised eternal life through faith in Christ. Titus 1:2, "

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

There are an estimated 1.2 billion Roman Catholics who are infatuated with the Blessed Virgin Mary. Of course, we know from the Bible itself that Mary did not remain a virgin. Matthew 13:55-56, "Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

" In this passage of Scripture we learn that Jesus had at least four biological half-brothers and two half-sisters. Joseph was NOT Jesus' biological father, God Himself is. Jesus was conceived of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23). Please note that all Scripture references are only to the inspired King James Bible, because all of the modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by the Devil.

So just between Muslims and Roman Catholics, and another 200 million Orthodox Catholics and Europe and Russia, this amounts to 3 billion people who have religion without salvation. There is no salvation apart from faith in the name of Jesus (Acts 4:10-12). Bible salvation excludes the 1.6 billion Muslims who are trusting in Allah to save them, based upon their works. According to the Bible not one of them will ever enter into the Kingdom of God. John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

" There is no true salvation in Islam.

And then there are 1.4 billion Roman and Orthodox Catholics, who elevate the traditions of men above the inspired Word of God, keeping their own commandments, “ teaching for doctrines the commandments of men

Matthew 15:9b). I say that with love, and a kind heart, upon the authority of God’s Word.

Galatians 1:6-8,

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

The Apostle Paul defines “THE GOSPEL” in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:” The Word of God defines “THE GOSPEL” as Christ’s death on the cross, burial, and bodily resurrection three days later. This is the GOOD NEWS (which is what the word “Gospel” means), that you must BELIEVE to be saved (i.e., to receive eternal life).

What saith the Scripture? Mark 1:15, “

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

” The word

in this verse simply means

to change one’s mind,

but not to turn away from sinful living (which many heretical preachers teach today, like Ken Ham, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort and Bob Jones University).

Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) offers this helpful explanation...

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
>
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.
>
> There are those who think that Peter in Acts 2:38 and 39 preached that baptism was essential to salvation when he said, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." But the phrase "for the remission of sins" could well be translated "referring to the remission of sins" for the indefinite preposition of reference and so used many, many times in the Bible. People are not baptized in order to be saved, but baptized with reference to the salvation they had when they repented. So it has always been among Bible-believing Christians who follow the Scriptures.
> So here in Acts 10:43 we have the statement by Peter, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Get this great doctrinal matter settled: God has only one plan of salvation and that is all He ever had! He has only one Saviour, and that is Jesus Christ. Every Old and New Testament prophet agrees in this that "whosoever believeth in him shall have remission of sins." [emphasis added]

Amen and amen! John the Baptist didn't preach a different plan of salvation than Jesus or Paul, but one and the same Gospel.

Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith—it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather, repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. This is so important to see dear reader! One repents toward God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

A person does not have to forsake sinful behavior to be saved; but rather, they must see them self as a needy sinner.

What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." The purpose of the law is to show humanity our need for Christ (Galatians 3:24-26). We are all guilty sinners (Romans 3:23). Galatians 3:19, "Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator." Jesus Christ is the "seed," unto Whom God the Father promised that all men could be saved through faith in Him. The law was given because of man's sins, to show us our need for salvation through Christ. This is all part of God's sovereign plan for the human race—eternal life through faith alone in Christ—which was promised before the world began (Titus 1:2). The law was never given as a way of salvation; but rather, as a means to facilitate salvation by grace through faith.

Dear reader, you are not going to Heaven just because you love God. A man named Cornelius loved God in Acts 10:1-2, but he was not saved. You are not going to Heaven just because you are devoutly religious (as evidenced by the religious Pharisees in Jesus' time). Matthew 5:20, "For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven." Dear friend, you must be BORN AGAIN to get to Heaven! You are not going to Heaven because of your own goodness, charity, love, kindness, dedication, hard work, nor anything else that you can do. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9b).

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

2.1.23 But Whom Say Ye That I Am? (2021-01-21 09:30)

Matthew 16:13-17, "When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven."

Jesus was testing His disciples in our text passage of Scripture. The Lord asked them whom the people say that He is. The disciples responded by saying that some of the people think he is Elijah the prophet. Others said that He is Jeremiah the prophet. Still other said He is John the Baptist. But the Lord asked them the $64,000 question: " BUT WHOM SAY YE THAT I AM?

" I love how impetuous Peter was, speaking right up to say:

"THOU ART THE CHRIST, THE SON OF THE LIVING GOD"! Boy, I love that! And I 100 % agree with Peter. Jesus is the promised Christ that should come, to save us from our sins. Jesus is the only begotten Son of the living God. Jesus "is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe

(1st Timothy 4:10).

Oh dear friend, do you believe? John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" Carefully notice that Jesus didn't ask the disciples in Matthew 16:13-17 if they had repented and turned away from their sins.

" This is a popular damnable heresy which has crept into most Baptist churches today, called Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). The Gospel set forth in the Scriptures is intentionally kept very easy, simple and free, so that even a small child can be saved, simply by believing upon the name of the Lord. Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel (or Good News) according to John 19-20 and 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Believe it oh sinner and you have eternal life!

The inspired Word of God is so simple. Men complicate everything, don't they? Yes, men make salvation hard. If you don't believe it, read what Pastor John MacArthur teaches, [1]even using the word

[3] concerning salvation. No my friend, getting saved is not hard at all, it is very simple according to the Bible. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, " But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him. "

So I ask you friend, whom do you say that Jesus is? If you think Jesus was a mere historical figure—a man who once existed, but died like any other man, then you are not saved. If you merely think that Jesus was a prophet, as did George Harrison of The Beatles, then you are not saved. If you think Jesus was a remarkable man, who spoke some great enlightening words, but was elevated by men to the status of deity, then you are not saved. Ah, but if you accept what the Holy Bible teaches—that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16), the crucified, buried and risen Christ (John 20:31), and you receive His sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins—you have eternal life. Whom say ye that Jesus is?

2.1.24 Bob Jones University Speaks With A Forked Tongue (2021-01-22 19:57)

Galatians 1:6-8, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ*.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

Bob Jones University is the most dangerous theological institution in America today! I am going to show you how they say one thing, but then teach another. Here is BJU’s statement of faith concerning salvation:

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: [1]https://www.bju.edu/about/positions.php

Now read what the Roman Catholic Vatican similarly says:

> For there is no distinction: since all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, they are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as an expiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins; it was to prove at the present time that he himself is righteous and that he justifies him who has faith in Jesus.
> [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [2]https://www.vatican.va/archive/ccc_css/archive/catechism/p3s1c3a2.htm

That is from the Vatican’s website!!! God night, what deceivers! Now look what the Vatican says elsewhere:

> 1129 - The Church affirms that for believers the sacraments of the New Covenant are necessary for salvation. (Cf. Council of Trent (1547): DS 1604.)
>
> [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [3]https://www.vatican.va/archive/ENG0015/ _ _P33.HTM

Huh? So much for being justified by God's grace! According to the headquarters of the biggest religious cult in the world, Roman Catholicism, you must keep the Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. That cancels grace! Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work." Could the Bible be any plainer? I think not. Either salvation is completely free, as God's gift by grace through faith alone, or else you have to do something else to have it! I have plainly showed you the hypocrisy of the Catholic church, and how they preach " ANOTHER GOSPEL

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9).

Likewise, Bob Jones University are deceivers, preaching

" ANOTHER GOSPEL.

> With regard to the doctrine of Soteriology:
>
> We believe Scripture teaches that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone (Eph. 2:4–10; Rom. 3:21–26; Titus 3:5) and apart from any human work of righteousness (Phil. 3:9). [emphasis added]
>

[5]

Now look what BJU says elsewhere that negates grace:

> God offers this salvation freely to all men who are *willing to repent and turn from their sins (Acts 3:19, 17:30)
>
> [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [6]https://www.bju.edu/about/positions.php

What lying deceivers! The heretics at Bob Jones University are just as guilty as the Roman Catholics, adding something to the Gospel which God does not require. When I got saved at age 13, I knew I was a sinner, but I wasn't willing to start turning from my sins until after I was saved, because the Holy Spirit started convicting me. The process of sanctification began as a result of salvation, NOT as a requirement of salvation. That is where BJU goes horribly wrong!

The former is sound Bible doctrine, but the latter is damnable heresy. Bob Jones University is teaching damnable heresy! Dr. Steve Pettit is an unsaved false teacher, [7]propagating the same damnable heresy as Pastor John MacArthur .

Let me make clear that after I got saved, the Holy Spirit started convicting me about my sins, but I never gave up all my sins. Nor did I try to give up my sins to prove that I was saved, which would be adding works to grace. That thought never even crossed my mind. Sanctification has absolutely NOTHING to do with getting saved. The Bible is full of sinful saints. Anyone who attempts to connect the way you choose to live with getting saved is a false teacher. The famous preacher John Bunyan (1628-1688) got it 100 % correct...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

I love that beautiful quote! You cannot show me anywhere in the Bible where it says to repent of your sins

to be saved. Quite the contrary, we read in Acts 20:21,

"Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Carefully notice that repentance is "TOWARD GOD," and not turning away from anything. But don't you have to turn from something to turn to something. Yes, you are turning from your unbelief.

What saith the Scripture?

Matthew 21:32, "

For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

" You see, repentance is turning to Christ by faith to be saved, not committing yourself to clean up your life as a requirement to be saved. God the Father asks nothing from us to receive His gift of eternal life, but our faith in His only begotten Son! John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" We are saved simply by believing.

Kindly said, Bob Jones University, and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam who support them, are wrong on the Gospel. They are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract according to John 20:31, which I just quoted to you. The word "believe" is mentioned 85 times in John, but the word "repent" is not mention even once. That is because repentance is automatic. It would be like me asking you to get up out of your seat, and then please walk 50 feet, to go get something out of my car for me. Do I really need to say all that? No, I could just ask you to please go get something out of my car, and hand you the keys. That is how repentance works. No one has ever believed on Christ who didn't repent, but repentance is simply a change of mind. The man who repents has done so by believing on Christ

A lot of preachers who are ignorant get mad at the thought that repentance is merely a change of mind. That is what the Greek noun for "repent," metanoia, means in the Bible. It is simply "a change of mind." The verb form is metanoeo which means "to think differently." Repentance does NOT mean "to turn from your sins," which would be works added to faith. In their woeful ignorance, these fake preachers cannot understand how a person can be saved and continue living in willful sin. Dear friend, every Christian still lives in willful sin! If you don't pray without ceasing for everyone in your life, you are sinning (1st Samuel 12:23). We are all wretched sinners, even the best Christian among us (Romans 7:14-25).

When you get saved, God indwells you with His Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17). That is the beginning of sanctification, and it takes a lifetime. The Holy Spirit sanctifies us (i.e., makes us more like Jesus) with the inspired and infallible Word of God (John 17:17). We have an inspired and infallible Bible today in the King James Bible. All modern Bible revisions have been corrupted by Satan. [8]You cannot trust the new versions!!! BJU and their alumni (which includes HBC on Guam) have been corrupted by the Devil's perverted Bible revisions. Sadly, they don't care. As a true friend, I have warned Marty Herron, Gary Walton and the other pastors of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, but they are sinfully indifferent and arrogant in their doctrinal error.

In typical false prophet fashion they insist that salvation is solely by grace, while at the same time unbiblically telling people that God won't save them unless they are willing to turn away from their sinful bad habits. Dear friend, you don't have to be willing to stop getting high on illegal drugs to get saved. You don't have to stop shacking-up with your girlfriend in fornication to receive God's free gift. You don't have to stop lying, cheating or lusting to have eternal life. It is a free gift! A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition. You simply take it and you give nothing in return. Salvation is not a trade, it is not an [9]exchange of sorts as John MacArthur sinfully calls it; salvation is a gift (Romans 5:15-18, 23; Ephesians 2:8-9). If you have to try to give up your sinning to be saved, then it is a reward, not a gift.

Bob Jones University talks out of both sides of their mouth, as do the [10]Mormons, [11]Jehovah's Witnesses, [12]Seventh-Day Adventists, Church of Christ and Roman Catholics. bidding Godspeed to heretic John MacArthur. Dear reader, DO NOT TRUST any pastor, church or Bible college that bids Godspeed to damnable false prophet John MacArthur. Moody Bible Institute in Chicago is of the Devil today, because they invite, honor and publish Dr. MacArthur's books. [13]MacArthur's false plan of salvation is so complicated that he teaches little children cannot be saved. It is apostasy when pastors support this kind of Satanic teaching in church's today.

Kindly said with Christ's love, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Pacific Garden Mission ([14]UNSHACKLED), and anyone else [15]who sanctions Lordship Salvation has BLOOD ON THEIR HANDS! And they sure do have a lot of blood on their hands (Galatians 1:8).

The man who repents has done so by believing on Christ (Acts 16:30-31). If you think you are going to Heaven because you are following Jesus as the

of your life, you are not saved (Matthew 7:21-23).

We've got a bunch of liars in the church pulpit today. Romans 3:4 plainly teaches that if what I say, or what you say, agrees with The Holy Bible, then our sayings (or writings) will be justified on judgment day when we stand before God almighty. Hebrews 4:13, "Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do." I don't care who you are, one day in eternity you will stand before your Creator and be held accountable for your thoughts (Proverbs 24:12), deeds (Ecclesiastes 12:14) and words (Matthew 12:36). Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: "

We've got a bunch of lying Bible professors today. When a Bible professor from Hyles-Anderson College says that the King James Bible is not inspired, he is a liar. When a Bible professor from Bob Jones University says that you must turn away from your sin to be saved, he is a liar. The Bible does not agree with either of those liars. We have an inspired Bible according to Psalms 12:6-7 and 2nd Timothy 3:16-17. I am so sick and tired of hearing 97 % of Bible colleges today say that God inspired only the original texts, and then He preserved those sacred texts for today; but they clearly DON'T believe that God's Word are inspired anymore. They have to believe that way in order to justify having more than one Bible version today, because the different revisions disagree, [1]sometimes drastically.

Dear reader, it doesn't require being a learned theologian to see that God promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His PURE WORDS. The whole point of keeping and preserving God's Words is to maintain their PURITY. Psalms 119:139-140,

"My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

David said he loved God's Words because they were VERY PURE! How do you think David would have felt about the hundreds of English Bible revisions available today on the market to purchase? I'll tell you, because I feel the same way, David would have hated and rejected all of them except the King James Bible. Only the King James Bible says that people "worshipped" Jesus. All of the Devil's revisions change it to a mere "knelt" or "bowed."

Psalms 12:6, "

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever. " Clearly, the whole purpose for God keeping and preserving His words is to ensure that they stay VERY PURE. It would be ridiculous to say that God gave His PERFECT inspired Words to mankind, but then preserved them in an IMPERFECT non-inspired manner. Does that make any sense to you friend? If you don't think we have a perfect, inerrant and inspired Bible today, then I say to you: "O ye of little faith!"

But it gets much worse dear friend, ALL of the Devil's modern Bible revisions [2]completely remove God's promise from Psalms 12:6-7, changing it to God protects the saints instead of His Word. What liars!!! Why would they change this passage? The reason is obvious, because if God has indeed kept His solemn promise to preserve His very pure Words forever, then there can only be ONE accurate translation in any particular language. Think about that! If you think that God has preserved His very pure words in hundreds of English Bible revisions, then you are very foolish, ignorant, deceived and far from the truth friend. God only authored ONE BOOK, and I believe we have it in the inspired, inerrant and infallible King James Bible today.

It would be ludicrous to say that God gave men His absolutely accurate words, but then only preserved those words in hundreds of less than perfect, flawed Bible translations. It not only makes no sense, it blatantly contradicts God's promise. God didn't promise to preserve His Words, He promised to preserve His

PURE WORDS.

The fact that modern Bible publishers have corrupted Psalms 12:6-7 proves that they are deceivers and liars, who lack the faith that God can give us a perfect Bible for today.

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Take a look at what the corrupt Literal Standard Version (LSV), which was published in 2020, does to change Proverbs 30:5,

Every saying of God [is] tried, || He [is] a shield to those trusting in Him.

" Every saying of God is tried? That is not what the King James Bible says. The Bible says EVERY WORD OF GOD IS PURE!!! They have no right to change "words" to "sayings," corrupting the Scripture.

" [3]Things That Are Different Are Not The Same "

(a wonderful MP3 sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson, 1934-1995).

Having said that, some of the most ungodly pastors I have known are the shameful men who lead the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. [4]Dr. Marty Herron is a servant of Satan. I say that kindly. Pastor's Jared Baldwin and Joe Hanson have no business working in any ministry, because the truth means nothing to them. The Apostle Paul called heretics by name, as I am doing.

1st Timothy 1:19-20, "

Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

" Paul mentioned the names of these men who were corrupt. Likewise, the Bob Jones crowd have [5]moved away from the hope of the Gospel.

Pastor Gary Walton of the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (HBC) and the aforementioned men, are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil. These men masquerade as pastors, but they are ministers of unrighteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). They are apostates, Neo-evangelicals, uncaring and indifferent toward truth. The Bob Jones University (BJU) alumni which I have met on Guam are indifferent, shallow, uncaring and don't stand for anything. Consequently, they sanction the Devil's Bibles. This Bible, that Bible, it doesn't matter to them! HBC and BJU sanction Dr. John MacArthur and his [6]damnable Lordship Salvation heresy.

Sadly, there is a growing trend in independent Baptist churches today to accept the heresies of John Calvin (aka, "Calvinism"). Calvinism teaches the Devil's lie that you must "

turn away from sin

" to be saved. They merge sanctification with justification, so that if you aren't living the Christian life they consider you still unsaved. That is "another Gospel" accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-8). The competent preacher absolutely MUST put a clear separation between outward justification wrought by faith alone in the Savior Jesus Christ, versus the inward sanctification wrought by the indwelling Holy Spirit of Christ. To combine sanctification with justification is the heresy of Lordship Salvation, which does not produce the new birth.

Anyone who professes faith in Christ but lives in open willful sin is said to still be lost. That is not the free grace Gospel. The whole Bob Jones' crowd is on their way to Hell with the deceived people in Matthew 7:21-23. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord," but they were not saved at all. Like the Bob Jones crowd, they performed "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name, but they weren't wholly trusting Him. They prophesied (preached) in Jesus' name, but Jesus said He did not know them.

If you are trying to prove you are saved by the way you live, you are not saved at all. Dear friend, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

Please beware of the Bob Jones University crowd. Don't let them take you to Hell with their faith plus turning from your sin heresy. Evangelist Michael P. Bowen wrote an excellent book called: "[7]I NEVER KNEW YOU," which greatly offended the pastors at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. The book exposes some of the biggest names in mainstream evangelicalism today; namely, Ray Comfort, Charles Stanley, Joel Osteen, Pat Roberson, John Hagee, James Dobson, Rick Warren, Billy Graham, Beth Moore, Franklin Graham and Jimmy Swaggart. The pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam bid Godspeed to many of these men, and preach the same phony Lordship Salvation trash. Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

It is no small matter to add to God's Word. To be saved, there's nothing in the Bible about turning from sin, committing your life to Christ, surrendering to Christ as "Lord," nor following Jesus no matter what the cost. These are all proper in their place, but none of these comprise the Gospel. You may do all these things, plus faith, and never have been saved at all. The only way to get to Heaven is by FAITH ALONE.

2.1.26 Did Old Testament Saints Have Assurance Of Salvation? (2021-01-24 17:42)

Genesis 15:6,

And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

Deuteronomy 33:27,

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Job 19:25,

“

For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

Jonah 2:9,

But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

Habakkuk 2:4,

“Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

Did the Old Testament saints have assurance of salvation? Yes, absolutely! The Bible clearly evidences that the Old Testament saints were fully confident of their redemption, not lingering in doubt and fear. God’s promises stand sure! Titus 1:2, “

In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began; ” There has always been only ONE plan of salvation, which is by faith alone in Christ. Acts 10:43,

“To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” People in the Old Testament were saved by looking to Christ. Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” Please notice that this promise was not just for the Jews, but was extended to “all the ends of the earth.” Jews and Gentiles alike have always been saved by [1]LOOKING TO CHRIST.

I am tired of hearing woefully ignorant preachers say that there were multiple plans of salvation in the Bible. [2]Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016) comes to mind. Sadly, Dr. Ruckman has a cult following of ignorant men, who teach that people were saved by faith plus works in the Old Testament. Some of these men are; namely, Robert Breaker, Gene Kim,

Chett Hensley

, Bryan

and William P. Grady. These are but a few of Ruckman’s deceived followers. The very notion that anyone has ever been saved by anything more than faith alone in the Messiah directly contradicts the plainest teachings of the Holy Bible. Romans 4:4,

“Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.”

The Bible says that Abram (later changed to Abraham) was saved by faith alone:

Genesis 15:6,

And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

Romans 4:1-5, “

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Peter Ruckman and his deceived followers claim that God changed His plan of salvation under Mosaic law. What saith the Scripture? I just quoted to you Acts 10:43 which says “ gave witness to salvation through faith alone in Christ, but Moses himself preached THE GOSPEL (i.e., THE GOOD NEWS) to the Jews...

Hebrews 4:1-2, “

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.” ...

Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

I do not think the Bible could be any plainer. Hebrews 4:10 clearly teaches that we are saved by ceasing from works, as God did from His works after 6 days of creating, and resting completely in Jesus Christ as our personal Savior. There is not one mentioned anywhere in the Bible about a different plan of salvation for Old Testament Jews under the Mosaic law. If it had been so, then the Bible surely would have made this clear, but it doesn’t even hint to it. We have plain Bible verses in Acts 10:43 and Romans 4:4 which teach that salvation has always been by faith, not by works.

The Old Testament saints had the sweet assurance of salvation, just as believers do today. If you don't have that sweet assurance as a believer, it is only because you lack Scriptural knowledge dear friend. To help those struggling, I wrote this helpful 42 chapter book to help titled: " [3]SALVATION .

" You CAN know 100 % that you are saved beyond any shadow of a doubt, because eternal life is a PROMISE, not a trade, exchange or process. Titus 1:2 says God made the PROMISE of eternal life before the world began.

Moses understood that eternal life was secure. Deuteronomy 33:27,

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Job said that He KNOWS His Redeemer liveth. Job spoke with absolute assurance in

Job 19:25,

For I know* that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:

That is assurance of salvation dear reader! The prophet Jonah proclaimed in the dark belly of a whale that he knew SALVATION IS OF THE LORD, not by works.

Jonah 2:9,

But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

" The prophet Habakkuk confidently proclaimed that THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY HIS FAITH.

Habakkuk 2:4,

"Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

" Clearly, all these saints had the full sweet assurance of God's salvation, otherwise they never could have made these bold statements of faith.

2.1.27 You Cannot Prove You're Saved By Doing Good Works (2021-01-25 09:30)

Romans 4:1-5, "

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not*, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

I visited the website for 'The Church At Rockypeak' in Chatsworth, California today. When I look at a church, the first thing I always do is head for their Statement of Faith, particularly their view of salvation. Here is what I sadly found...

Salvation

> Believers are eternally safe and secure in Jesus and give evidence of genuine faith by a life of good works. (John 3:16, John 10:27-29, Romans 8:38-39, James 2:14-17) [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [1]https://www.rockypeak.org/about/what-we-believe/

I have a big problem with the preceding statement. I think the preacher John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it best...

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Kindly said, the pastors and people of 'The Church At Rockypeak' in Chatsworth, California are corrupting the Word of God, and casting stumbling blocks before the people. They are preaching another Gospel which is rooted in the errors of Calvinism. As I just quoted to you, '

The Church At Rockypeak' heretically says:

Believers are eternally safe and secure in Jesus and give evidence of genuine faith by a life of good works

" [emphasis added]. The first part of the statement is okay, but the last part corrupts the Gospel. To help you better understand where I am going, please read what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) also heretical says, which is the same junk theology:

> "For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!" —[2]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]22:44)

No, the reality of the genuineness of my faith is MY FAITH ITSELF! Dr. Steve Pettit teaches the same Lordship Salvation trash that 'The Church At Rockypeak' teaches, which is NOT the Gospel of free grace! They are teaching the deadly falsehood of Lordship Salvation. The idea that you must prove the genuineness of your faith by living the Christian life is a false gospel.

The proponents of Lordship Salvation are hypocritical to say you are not saved by works, but then say that if you don't have works you're not saved! That is a manipulative backdoor approach to Lordship Salvation!!! Front-loading the Gospel is when you require meritorious works of a person BEFORE they are saved. Rear-loading the Gospel is when you require meritorious works of a person AFTER they are saved. Either way, preachers are perverting the Gospel when they ADD to it! Galatians 1:6-7, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ."

It is not necessary for believers to " give evidence of genuine faith by a life of good works

" to know that they are saved. But didn't the Apostle James say works without faith is dead? James chapter 2 is one of the most misunderstood passages in the Bible. ...

James 2:14-20, “What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?”

Where so many people go horribly wrong is that they assume “

here means doing good deeds and turning away from sin, but please notice what

Jesus said you have to do to go to Heaven...

John 6:28-29, “

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

Dear friend, the only “works” that you must do to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! Listen, if you have to look at your life to prove that you’re saved, it proves that you’re not! That is the fatal mistake that the people made in Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

They looked at their life in an attempt to prove that they were saved. They boasted of doing “many wonderful works” in Jesus’ name. They also boasted of having “prophesied” (peached) in Jesus’ name. They even bragged that they had “cast our devils” in Jesus’ name. And here is the granddaddy fatal error of all, they followed Jesus as their “

instead of trusting Him as their personal Savior. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. They said, “Lord, Lord,” but Jesus replied with these horrifying words: “I NEVER KNEW YOU: DEPART FROM ME, YE THAT WORK INIQUITY.”
Dear reader, you don’t get to Heaven by surrendering to Jesus as “ Lord
of your life. Nor do you get saved by faithfully running the race,
“
enduring unto the end. Nor do you get to Heaven by living a lifestyle that proves the reality of your repentance
“
(as [4]Ray Comfort’s falsely teaches). You don’t receive the new birth by giving evidence of genuine faith by a life of good works
“
” (as the
’The Church At Rockypeak’ foolishly teaches ). Nor do you have to
“
(as [5]Bob Jones University errantly teaches). You get saved by ceasing from your own self-righteous works, and simply resting in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 4:10-11, “
For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works*, as God did from his.
Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
These damnable heretics that I’ve mentioned by name, all pervert God’s grace. When you attack the grace of God, you attack the God of grace! These wicked false prophets tell you that you cannot merely say you accepted Christ as your personal Savior, and that’s it, you’re on your way to Heaven! They add to the Gospel, teaching that you must persevere in living the Christian life, to prove the genuineness of your faith. The big problem with their warped teachings is that you can never have the sweet assurance that you are 100 % saved.

Read again what they teach at 'The Church At Rockypeak' in Chatsworth, California...

> Salvation

> Believers are eternally safe and secure in Jesus and give evidence of genuine faith by a life of good works. (John 3:16, John 10:27-29, Romans 8:38-39, James 2:14-17) [emphasis added]

How can you be safe and secure in Jesus if you don't live a life of good works, since they say it is the EVIDENCE that your faith is genuine? Clearly you cannot! They are heretically teaching that if you're still living a lifestyle of willful sinning, your faith is not genuine, and you were never saved to begin with. That is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. They teach that if you are not fully surrendered to Jesus as the absolute Lord of your life, your faith is not real. So effectively, you have to do GOOD WORKS for your faith to be valid. Folks, that is blatant works-based plan of salvation. This is the garbage that the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam teaches. This is the [7]junk theology taught by Dr. Marty Herron at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. Read what Dr. Steve Pettit false teaches:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award*, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added]—[8]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [9]11:34)

Do you see how they corrupt the Gospel of free grace? The new birth is a free gift. It is instantaneous and permanent. Once you are born-again by the Word of God (1st Peter 1:23), a miracle wrought by the Holy Spirit of God in response to one's faith (John 1:12-13), there ain't no turning back partner! You be saved, saved, saved!!!

I truly feel sorry for the Paul Washer crowd. I feel sorry for the followers of Ray Comfort. I feel sorry for the John MacArthur cult. I feel sorry for the Bob Jones University cult. I feel sorry for the Pacific Garden Mission 'UNSHACKLED' radio crowd. I feel sorry for the followers of R.C. Sproul. I feel sorry for anyone who adheres to the Satanic deception of [10]Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism), because these people can never have the sweet blessed assurance that they are guaranteed, 100 %, no shadow of a doubt, SAVED!!! If you are required to live the Christian life as evidence that your faith in Christ is real, then the only way you can KNOW you are saved is by continued works.

The King James Bible teaches something very different. You simply come to God as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-23). You simply put your trust (reliance) in Jesus' death on the cross for your sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is saved. Nothing else is required. You can 100 % KNOW that you are saved right now this moment. Yes, you certainly CAN speak about salvation and confidently say, "I just accepted Christ."

2.1.28 The Tragic Life And Death Of Gangster Al Capone (2021-01-26 09:30)

Psalms 7:11,

God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

Psalms 9:17 ,

“

The wicked shall be turned into hell*, and all the nations that forget God. Psalms 10:4

The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts. ” Psalms 11:5: The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth. ” Psalms 11:6

Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup. ” Psalms 28:4

Give them according to their deeds*, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. ” Psalms 32:10

Many sorrows shall be to the wicked*: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about. ” Psalms 34:21

Evil shall slay the wicked*: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate. ” Psalms 36:1

“

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. ” Psalms 37:10

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.”

Those are some powerful Scripture passages. Arguably, the most infamous gangster in history is [1]Alphonse Gabriel Capone (January 17, 1899 – January 25, 1947), sometimes known by the nickname "Scarface." Al Capone was an American Italian gangster and corrupt businessman, who attained notoriety during the Prohibition era (1920-1933) as the co-founder and boss of the Chicago Outfit. His seven-year reign as a crime boss ended when he went to prison at the age of 33.

Something about Al Capone's criminal life drew my curiosity right away

—he was so young!

Al Capone was born in 1899, the same year that Pastor Dwight L. Moody went to Heaven. Both of these men lived and made their mark on the world in the city of Chicago. That is very interesting! I remember as a boy watching [2]The Saint Valentine's Day Massacre (full movie), which is a Hollywood enactment of one of the most brutal mass-assassinations in history in 1929. I watched the film each year, and never got tired of seeing it, because like so many people in the world I was intrigued by the gangs of the 1920's. Today in Chicago, literally, you'll see giant pictures of Al Capone painted on the side of tall buildings, and all kinds of tributes to Chicago's infamous gangsters of history. It is quite interesting.

St. Valentine's Day Massacre Movie (1967)

In the 1967 film, actor Jason Robards (1922-2000) starred as Al Capone, making him about age 45 at the time the movie was made. But in real life, in 1929 at the time of the massacre in Chicago, Capone was only 30 years old. So Al Capone was much younger in real life than the movie portrays him to be, as an older mob boss. In real life, Capone died in Florida at age 47. One thing that amazes me is the loyalty of Al Capone's wife Mae. She was an Irish Catholic. She stayed married to Al Capone despite his infamous life as a mob boss! Women and men back then in America still believed once married, always married, the way it should be!!! Today in 2020, 69 % of American women initiate divorce, and 90 % for college women. Shame!

Contrary to what many people think, Al Capone wasn't a senseless murderer, he almost always killed thugs who were hired to come kill him first. In a few cases he killed people who owed him a lot of money, or became informants for the police. Even though murder is murder, it is obvious that gangster killings were part of doing business. It is still wicked and brings the judgment of God, but I can understand why a gangster would want to knock someone off who is coming to do the same to him! Still, if Mr. Capone had not become a criminal in the first place, shaming his family, then he wouldn't have put himself into such a dire situation.

I am intrigued that Al Capone was so young during his reign as the mob boss of Chicago. He was only in his late 20's. That is remarkable! Jesus is the most famous figure in human history, Who only lived to be 33 years old. And yet look at all the wonderful things Jesus did during His short time on earth. I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) point out that most of our freedoms were paid for with teenage blood. That thought had never occurred to me before. Most of the tens of millions of soldiers who were killed by each other during World Wars I and II, were teenagers. That is a startling fact. My heart breaks when I stop and think that most of those 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19 year olds never had a girlfriend, never knew the pleasure of marriage, never had the privilege of becoming a father, or the pride of being a grandpa. It is not fair! Life is not fair. Old men start wars, young men fight wars, and everybody in the middle loses! Truly Satan is the god of this world.

Al Capone was only 33 years old when he went to prison in 1932. When he arrived at the prison, medical doctors diagnosed him with gonorrhoea and syphilis, two deadly venereal diseases.

> Capone was sent to Atlanta U.S. Penitentiary in May 1932, aged 33. Upon his arrival at Atlanta, the 250-pound (110 kg) Capone was officially diagnosed with syphilis > and gonorrhoea. He was also suffering from withdrawal symptoms from cocaine addiction, the use of which had perforated his nasal septum. Capone was competent at his prison job of stitching soles on shoes for eight hours a day, but his letters were barely coherent.

> SOURCE: [3]Al Capone

Al Capone was diseased from all the adultery he committed. Capone attempted to justify his evil business by saying that he simply gave people what they wanted. Ungodly people wanted booze! They wanted fornication and adultery! They wanted gambling! Capone gave it to them, and it made him filthy rich, with the emphasis on FILTHY! Think about how short his parade of wickedness was! Al Capone went to prison at age 33, and only served 6 of an 11 year sentence due to his failing health. At the time he was released from prison at just age 39, Capone's doctor documented that he had the mind of a 12 year old. Penicillin wasn't invented until 1942, but by then the damage to Capone's brain had been done. The diseases of syphilis ate him alive!

Venereal diseases were rampant throughout the ancient world. Most theologians agree that king David suffered in his old age from venereal disease, from all his wives...

> Psalms 38:3-7, "
>
> There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.
>
> For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
>
> My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.
>
> I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.
>
> For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

There is no doubt that Solomon likely suffered this tragic ordeal too, considering that he had 700 wives and 300 concubines. The Roman empire was infected was much venereal disease. During the American Civil War, a shocking 25 % of the Confederate Army has STD's, which compelled the state of Tennessee (and other states) to legalize prostitution during the war. Oh how sin thrills and then it kills! Oh how sin fascinates and then it assassinates! Al Capone died a diseased, broken and wearied man, at only age 47. A life of sin never wins! There's a high price for low living!!! Capone's reign of crime over the Chicago underworld only pasted 7 years! Just 7 years of wine, women and song.

My father was a Skid Row preacher in Chicago. He directed the Chicago United Mission at 34 S. Displaines Ave. I grew up tagging along with my father to the various rescue missions, helping to feed, cloth and house the poor and homeless. I remember that right next to the mission there was still standing The Legion Hotel, with a big fancy outdoor balcony overhanging the front of the hotel. This is where Al Capone lived high during his sinful years! I watched years later when the wrecking crews came to tear down the hotel. They left the north wall standing, for concern that tearing down the wall would also destroy the mission's north wall. My father and I found an old soda pop machine in the abandoned Legion Hotel, which we brought over to the mission. Coke bottles were only 25 cents. My father ordered sodas regularly, and we enjoyed cold Coca-Colas. That was pretty cool.

I just wrote this blog to emphasize the worthlessness of living in sin. It's just not worth it dear friend. This earthly life is so short. Look at Eddie Van Halen's miserable life of sin. All that horrible noise, called rock music. They ran with the Devil, as their song titled boasted, but now where is Eddie? He died in 2020? Catholics don't go to Heaven according to the Bible (Mark 7:6-13; Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The Bible does not teach keeping Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven. It is a counterfeit plan of salvation. I also read today that Al Capone was a devout Roman Catholic in his youth, but strayed from his roots. Kindly said, Catholicism is a prisonhouse of religion! There is no salvation in the Catholic religion, only rituals, phony priests, pedophiles and manmade traditions which cannot produce the new birth. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world!

Al Capone was only in his 20's when he murdered 30 people (and that's just the killings that authorities are aware of). And then there were 3 more murders in his early 30's. When the Prohibition era ended in 1933, so did Capone!

Al Capone's motive for all the evil things he did was the love of money. Money is the same motive for Hollywood's filth, Netflix's filth, street gangs selling drugs across America, Mexican drug cartels, and a thousand other evils! They that live by the sword die by the sword. Chicago has a notorious history, even still today, of having a strong criminal underground.

Galatians 6:7, "

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. **"

> "Listen if you're politically correct, you're Biblically perverted (and vise versa). It cannot be both! ...You know why we don't accept change? 'Cause we believe in something! We've got something to believe in." —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the sermon titled: "THE HARVEST IS PAST, THE SUMMER IS ENDED, AND WE ARE NOT SAVED!!!"

2.1.29 The Corrupt First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville (2021-01-26 20:00)

Galatians 1:6-7, " I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Dear friend, I see churches across the United States swelling with rot. They are not growing! They are like dead corpses swelling with rot. As an example: The shameful hip-hop First Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida is one of the largest and most influential churches in the country, yet they are Gospel perverts! If you go [1]look at their Statement of Faith, they require FIVE THINGS to be saved! One of these things is to "Stop practicing the sin that is separating you from God." What blasphemy! Dear friend, nowhere does the Bible require sinners to "Stop practicing the sin" to be saved.

While it is true that our sins have separated us from God (Isaiah 59:1-2), it is the blood of Jesus Christ alone that brings us nigh to God. Ephesians 2:13, "But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." The First Baptist Church Jacksonville is of the Devil, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works, playing church without truth. Galatians 1:6-9 teaches that GOD'S CURSE is upon them. They sing their 7-11

sycophantic worship that nauseates God. I don't care how popular a church may be, or how loving the people may be, they are FAR AWAY FROM GOD when they talk about stopping your sins to be saved.

Here is their corrupt Statement of Faith on how to go to Heaven...

> HOW CAN YOU BELIEVE?
> CONFESS
>
> Acknowledge your sin. But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness. 1 JOHN 1:9, NLT
>
>
> God is able to make you holy through Jesus. And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. 1 JOHN 3:23, NLT

TURN

Stop practicing the sin that is separating you from God. Therefore, I will judge each of you, O people of Israel, according to your actions, says the Sovereign Lord. Repent, and turn from your sins. Don't let them destroy you! EZEKIEL 18:30, NLT

ASK

Express to God your desire to be forgiven and made sinless by Him. For "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved." ROMANS 10:13, NLT

TRUST

God has given you eternal life. And this is what God has testified: He has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have God's Son does not have life. 1 JOHN 5:11–12, NLT [emphasis added]

That is junk theology. Nowhere does the Bible command us to " love one another

to be saved. Nowhere does the Bible command us to

God to save us. The Bible simply teaches to believe. Nowhere does the Bible make a distinction between believing and trusting. The plan of salvation presented by the First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville is utterly confusing. You don't have to trust in addition to believing. That makes no sense at all. Ezekiel 18:30 deals with Israel's sin as a nation, and not God's free gift of salvation. Whoever wrote this plan of salvation for the First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures.

One of the main reasons why so many churches have been corrupted today are all the new Devil's corrupt Bible revisions...

KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye , and believe the gospel."

NEW LIVING TRANSLATION (NLT) - Mark 1:15, "The time promised by God has come at last!" he announced. "The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!"

Things that are different are not the same! Do you see what the wicked translators of the New Living Translation (NLT) did to corrupt the Word of God? They ADDED the words "of your sins" after the word repent. In so doing they have corrupted the true meaning of "repent," which is a Greek verb here (metanoeo) meaning “to think differently.” Obviously thinking differently has nothing to do with the act of making an effort to stop from your sinning.

It makes me sad to see such a big church, with so many happy people, being led astray concerning the Gospel. Dear friend, I don’t care how successful your church may be in this world, you are an enemy of the cross of Christ when you pervert the grace of God. All across America we’ve got a bunch of false teachers today proclaiming that salvation is still by God’s grace, while at the same time insisting that you must [2]exchange all that you are for all that Christ is (Dr. John MacArthur), [3]turn away from your sins (Bob Jones University), [4]faithfully run the race (Dr. Steve Pettit), and persevere until the end to receive eternal life (Evangelist Paul Washer). That is a false Gospel, which does not produce the new birth in Christ Jesus!!!

As I just showed you from their own website, the ungodly First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville teaches that the way you “

believe

” is to stop practicing sin. I am saddened and shocked that thousands of people are accepting this garbage as truth, and merely go along for the sake of fitting in with a group of knuckleheads. I can handle the electric guitars and drums in church. I can handle the women wearing pants in church. I can handle the worldliness in church, although I don’t like or approve of it. But I cannot handle a false gospel. But as we see with the

First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville

, with corrupt doctrine comes corrupt living!

2.1.30 Helps For Anyone Still Confused About Repentance (2021-01-27 13:27)

When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

In Mark 2:17 there is no indication that repentance means to turn from sin. Acts 20:21 teaches "repentance toward God." Jesus said in Matthew 21:32, "For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him." As we clearly see here, the sinners who repented, did so, by believing on the only begotten Son of God. This is what John 20:31 teaches as well, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." The Gospel of John was written specifically to show humanity the way of salvation. The Gospel of John never mentions the word "repent" even once, because the man who believes (which is mentioned 85 times) has also repented.

Here are some helpful resources explaining Biblical repentance:

All of those resources should prove very helpful my friend. It is important to understand that the English meaning of the word "repent" is NOT the same as the Biblical meaning of the word. Roman Catholics, Jehovah's Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Mormons and Lordship Salvationists all use the English meaning of "turning from sin." The Greek meaning is simple " a change of mind." The Gospel (Good News) is that Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead by a miracle of God. That is all you have to believe to be saved. If you acknowledge your sinnership, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for those sins, you are eternally saved.

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." You see, repentance has nothing to do with making an effort to stop your sinning. No one can stop their sinning! You may clean up your life, making great improvements to your character, like a pig all cleaned up from wallowing in the mud, but you are still a dirty sinner. That pig is still a pig. At best we can strive as saints to walk in the Spirit Who lives inside us, but the flesh is still with us until we get to Heaven (Romans 7:14-25).

The Bible never says to "turn from your sins" and believe the Gospel. No, it says in Mark 1:15 to "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel." Repentance is a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25) that one is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20) and THE TRUTH of the Gospel. Salvation is a matter of embracing THE TRUTH, not of committing to improve one's character. I only emphasize those words "THE TRUTH" for emphasis, not to shout. The guilty sinner who earnestly "repents" has done so by putting his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. Nothing more is required to receive the gift of eternal life. You have God's Word on it. John 6:47,

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

2.1.31 If You Believe On Jesus You Already Possess Eternal Life (2021-01-28 03:58)

John 6:54, “

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

1206

John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

” John 11:25-26,

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

Dear reader, Eternal Life and Eternal Security are not two separate doctrines in the Bible. They are one and the dame teaching. The man who has Eternal Life has Eternal Security. The only type of life which God gives is eternal life. God does not give temporal life or probationary life, He only gives eternal life.

John 6:54, “

Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

” Jesus said that the person who believes on His name eternal life. The Lord didn’t say we “SHALL” have eternal life; but rather, He promised that the one who believes **“

eternal life. I love that!

According to Jesus’ Words in John 11:25-26, no saint will ever die spiritually. The moment that we got born-again, we possessed eternal life. That means we cannot die. Matthew 22:32, “I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. ” This is why we know there is no such thing as “Soul Sleep.” Jehovah’s Witnesses and Seventh-Day Adventists believe in Soul Sleep. That is, they believe that when the human body dies, we lie dormant in the grave until some future time when God will resurrect us. It is true that out physical body will remain in the earth until it is resurrected, but our soul and spirit immediately return to God at death. Ecclesiastes 12:7, “Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it. ”

If you’re born once, you die twice; if you’re born twice, you die once! In other words, **“

Ye must be born again

” (John 3:3b). Once you are born anew from above, God seals you with His blessed Holy Spirit. Ephesians 1:12-14,

“That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.” The indwelling Holy Spirit bears witness with our spirit that we are born of God. 1st John 3:24,

If you are saved, you have eternal life, which is eternal security. How could a saint not be secure in his eternal life? I was saved at age 13. My security is that God PROMISES to give eternal life to anyone who trusts in His only begotten Son. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ”

As believers we are not sinless, but we ought to sin less. Amen! God is good. But if we do sin, GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND (Romans 5:20). Friend, you don’t have to turn away from your sins to enter into Heaven, you have to be 100 % sinless!!! Even one sin is enough to keep you out of Heaven (James 2:10). All God asks for you to do to go to Heaven, is to believe that HE DID IT FOR YOU! Christ paid for your sins. Jesus already did it for you! All God wants you to do is accept Jesus as your personal Savior. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins.

[2]Pastor A. Ray Stanford (1916-2012), “[3]Master Soul-Winner”

If you’ll simply take God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures, He will save you this very moment forever!!! God will give you the everlasting gift of eternal life. Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” I love that phrase,

“

AND BE FOUND IN HIM.

Revelation 14:13,

“And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.” My mother died in the Lord in 2001. My father died in the Lord in 2010. My youngest sister died in the Lord in 2016. I will die in the Lord at some future time. Only God knows WHEN our time is up on earth (Hebrews 9:27).

The important thing is to make sure that you are ready Freddie! I am ready. I 100 % KNOW that I have eternal life, because my faith is solely in Jesus Christ, because of what He did through the cross to pay for my sins with His precious blood. Jesus died on the cross. He was buried. Jesus miraculously raised up bodily three days later as my intercessory High Priest (Hebrews 4:14-16; Romans 8:34). My faith is only in Jesus. I am wholly resting in Jesus’ sweet name!!!

My hope is built on nothing less, t han Jesus Christ, my righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame, b ut wholly lean on Jesus’ name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;

All other ground is sinking sand,

All other ground is sinking sand.

My hope is built on nothing less, than Jesus’ blood and His righteousness. Amen and amen! I don’t hope I have eternal life, I have a hope of God’s promise of eternal life (Titus 1:2).

That is why read read in

1st Timothy 6:12, “

Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

” To LAY HOLD ON ETERNAL LIFE simply means that every saint already has it! So God says make the best of it! Good night, if you are a born-again believer, you already have eternal life. Your name is written in the Book of Life in Heaven. So we ought to get busy preaching the Gospel, trying to win lost sinners to Christ by faith.

Jesus exhorted believers to LAY UP FOR YOURSELVES TREASURES IN HEAVEN (Matthew 6:19-20). That is why I am sitting here right now typing earnestly to reach others for Christ with THE TRUTH. I labor by faith on my website ministry day and night. I usually go to bed early, by 9 pm. I couldn’t sleep last night. I was up working at 3 am until late morning. I stay busy for the Lord, redeeming the time.

Colossians 4:5, "Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time." Ephesians 5:16, " Redeeming the time, because the days are evil." Kindly said, how do you make use of your time? Time is so precious.

[4]I encourage other believers to write blogs to share the Gospel. [5]It's free . I encourage believers to [6]get actively involved in a soulwinning church . If you have a pulse, God has a plan and purpose for your life dear reader. I don't care if you are 70 years old and just got saved, God has something for you to do, but you have to get involved with other believers in a local Bible-believing [7]New Testament church .

2.1.32 Does Mark 2:17 Teach Turning From Sins To Be Saved? (2021-01-28 09:30)

And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

I am humbly proud to be one of the biggest voices on the internet in defense of a Free Grace Gospel. I give God all the credit, praise and glory. I am just A VOICE! I am just a humble broken sinner, very happy and grateful to be used of God in some capacity. I must decrease, but Jesus must increase! That is my heart’s attitude in all that Christ does through me as His humble servant. I pray for God’s Holy Spirit to work in your heart, as my words speak to your mind. I am just clay, and so are you dear friend, God is the Potter.

Having said that, I get trolls writing to me frequently, trying to straighten me out doctrinally. I received an email today from a man, who defended Evangelist James R. White. Kindly said, James White is [1]a misled Calvinist theological fool. In the preceding video titled:

“James R. White On Lordship Salvation,” White critiques “

Easy Believism,

calling it

The False Gospel.

” No, James White is preaching an accursed false Gospel of Lordship Salvation. Please read the helpful article exposing Mr. White called: “ [2]James White’s Embarrassing Ignorance Of Free Grace .

[3]White ignorantly accuses Free Grace proponents of teaching that a person can be saved without being changed by the Holy Spirit, and without repentance, and without growth in grace. Well, a person who is saved is indwelt by the blessed Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). But whether or not that person grows is a matter of inward sanctification, and not outward justification. John Bunyan (1628-1688) said it very well:

James White is woefully ignorant of theology. He blindly tries to defend John MacArthur and the Lordship Salvation crowd, but he cannot do so by using the inspired King James Bible.

Growth in grace has nothing to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life. What James White is teaching is deadly Calvinism (i.e., the heretical teachings of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). Calvinism falsely teaches that if you are truly saved, you will persevere in holiness and Christian service all your life. Calvinism combines and confuses discipleship (service) with salvation (sonship). The Free Grace Gospel makes a clear and definite distinction between these two things, and for good reason, because salvation if it is truly by grace through faith alone, cannot require faithfully living the Christian life (which is works).

Getting back to the man I mentioned earlier, who wrote to me today. He quoted Mark 2:17 in an effort to defend James White and condemn me for believing a Free Grace Theology

, **“

They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

It would be ridiculous to interpret this passage as meaning that “sinners to repentance” refers to turning away from one’s sins, because if that were true, then “the righteous” would refer to people who have already turned away from their sins. Would Jesus say that He didn’t come to save those who had already turned away from their sins? Does that make any sense? I mean, at all?

Clearly the Lord is speaking here about self-righteousness, that is, works. Jesus said that He didn’t come to save the self-righteousness, who think they have no need of the blessed Savior. Jesus came to save sinners, who know that they are guilty, and have desperate need of a Savior! So when the Bible says that Jesus came to call “sinners to repentance,” it simply means that He came to save whoever would let Him be their Savior.

John 5:40, “And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.”

John 6:37, “ All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. ” Jesus eagerly wants to save everyone who wants to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). That is what “t he elect

” means in Mark 13:22 and other passages. The elect are the saints of God. God has chosen to save everyone who chooses to be saved! We are “ the elect

” as believers!!!

Rebuke Them Sharply

I never rebuke someone sharply for being ignorant. I only rebuke ignorant people sharply when they call me ignorant. I mean, if you’re unlearned that is one thing, but if your stubborn in your ignorance, unwilling to learn, then someone needs to put you in your place. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible! There is no ongoing debate over repentance unless you are ignorant of the Scriptures. The Bible is very clear on this matter of repentance and the Gospel. We don’t have to theorize, guess nor make deductions about how to be saved. God gave us an entire book, the Gospel of John, to teach us how to have eternal life. The word “ believe ” appears in John 85 times! The Bible says to simply **“

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved

(Acts 16:31b).

Despite my attempt to help teach the man who wrote to me today, he didn’t want to learn. [4]Here is the page of resources that I sent him. Literally, I just copied and pasted this information from my email to share with everyone. I wanted to share these helpful resources with others, because they are invaluable to anyone who wants to understand Bible repentance (and you should). Please don’t believe whatever some pastor tells you, SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES for yourself (John 5:39).

So after I sent this information to him, the man replied by saying: “you are closer to understanding.” I wrote back and told him that I am not “ close to understanding

James White’s corrupt theology. I told him that I don’t debate with people who have agendas. That is, they have already made up their minds what they believe, and merely want to debate and argue.

Titus 3:9, “ But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.” Debating Lordship Salvation is indeed debating the law.

“The law” equals works, period!

I am tired of well-meaning arrogant religious people trying to convert me over the their heretical beliefs. I tend to deal harshly with false teachers, which is 100 % Biblical. Titus 1:13-14, “This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

” I kindly wrote the man back and called him my enemy, because he is accusing me of being ignorant of the Gospel, when in fact I am telling THE TRUTH. We’ll, let me show you exactly what I wrote to him, and I quote:

> *******,
>
> Titus 3:10-11, "A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject; Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself."
> You are deceived my friend. I just prayed for you, for God to open your eyes. There is no agreement between truth and heresy. Anyone who adds "turn from your sins" to the Gospel is going to Hell. There is no "misunderstanding" as you erroneously call it. James White is just as strong in his critique of free grace proponents, as I am of them. You are foolish to attempt to bring doctrinal harmony where there can be no harmony. You didn’t even bother to read the dozens of resources that I sent you. I seriously doubt if you examined 20 hours of material in 3 minutes! That tells me you have an agenda and don’t really care about the truth, for if you viewed the material you would have seen that James White is a heretic.

Your sinful spirit of ecumenism is destroying the churches. We need to stand firm against heresy, not try to coddle them and win them over, which simply won't happen. They aren't going to change their Lordship Salvation views, because like you they are indoctrinated, but accuse others of the very same thing. You are wrong that I am "closer to understanding." I understand just fine, it is you my enemy who are deceived and need to get saved. If you are saying that I am closer to understanding James White's idiotic theology, then you are a bigger fool than you realize...

James White's Embarrassing Ignorance Of Free Grace...

[5]http://freeindeed123188.blogspot.com/2015/11/james-whites-embarrassing-ignorance-of.html

In Jesus' precious name,

Titus 1:13-14, "This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

" I pull no punches, suffer no fools, make no apologies, and don't hold back when arrogant false teachers get in my face. If you come at me with your garbage, prepare for a spiritual battle. If you come at me with the Devil's Lordship Salvation (which is nothing less than Calvinism repackaged), prepare for a spiritual battle! The war has already been won at Calvary! We are more than conquerors through Christ Who loved us (Romans 8:37).

I once heard Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) say something profound (of the thousands of profound things he said...lol). Dr. Hyles said—Do you know what Hyles-Anderson College needs? It needs a mean old man walking around the perimeter like a junk yard dog, on-guard against the enemy creeping in!—to that I say Amen! Folks, that is what I am doing as a Christian, as a custodian of one! [6]In this sermon clip, Pastor Hyles talks about the future of First Baptist Church of Hammond, in which he exhorts every church member to become A CUSTODIAN OF ONE!!! I love that. In other words, if no one else does the right thing, then you as an INDIVIDUAL take a stand, walk out the door, and stand against the apostasy!!!

I am walking around on the internet like a mean Pitbull dog, exposing heresy wherever I find it. If that makes me unpopular, so be it! If rebuking the heretics at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (who preach Satan's lie of Lordship Salvation) compels them to count me as their enemy, then so be it! I am obeying Titus 1:13-14. God is pleased with me for telling THE TRUTH (Romans 3:4). Harvest's incompetent pastors have blood on their hands. The truth does not matter to them, keeping the money coming in matters to them. So they dip their sails in sinful compromise, going along with the heresy at Bob Jones University.

I'm talking a stand against their apostasy at FBCH from Guam, 9,000 miles away! Since 2008 the church and Hyles-Anderson College no longer believe that the King James Bible is inspired. Ladies and gentlemen, if the Bible is not inspired by God, then it can only be inspired by men! It cannot be without inspiration. Every book written by a man is inspired by that author. Likewise, how can we have a Bible that is not inspired by its Author. Pastor Jack Hyles recognized "

2.1.33 Let God Be True But Every Man A Liar (2021-01-29 09:30)

Romans 3:4, “

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

We need a revival in our churches today about letting the Holy Bible speak for itself. Men are notorious for adding to what God has already plainly stated in the Scriptures. For example: Please consider the following quote from Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980), in which he adds the word “ penitent

before faith, which is nothing you’ll find in the Bible...

> It would be a serious mistake to make verse 13 refer to the great plan of salvation for the soul, for thus it would contradict many other plain statements in the Bible showing that salvation is not by works, not by man’s goodness or faithfulness or endurance, but by virtue of the blood of Jesus Christ. That salvation is received by penitent faith. [emphasis added]

Here are some passages of Scripture which teach salvation BY FAITH, but you won’t find the word “

in any of them. Penitence is feeling sorrow for sins, expressing remorse for misdeeds. This is not a condition of salvation dear friend.

Ephesians 2:9, " For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. "

Galatians 3:26, "

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:9, "

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

[1]Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) provides this excellent helpful explanation of repentance versus sorrow for sins concerning salvation. This information is taken from a little Gospel tract titled, "God's Way Of Salvation," authored in the 1920's by Brother Marshall...

"I HAVE NOT REPENTED ENOUGH"

What do you mean? "I am not sorry enough for my sins."

And if you were very sorry, would God be more willing to save you than He is now? "I think so."

Then you are completely mistaken.

"But does it not say, unless we repent we shall perish?"

Yes; but what do you think is the Scriptural significance of "repentance"? If you say "sorrow for sin" you are wrong. It does not mean sorrow for sin: it means a CHANGE OF MIND (Matt. 21:29). This change will doubtless produce sorrow; but sorrow and repentance are two very different things (Heb. 12:17. margin, and II Cor. 7:9). When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel," He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you. Formerly you may have imagined that you were required to feel very sorry before being saved. Change your mind. You may have supposed you must first "feel" some great change in order to know you were saved. Change your mind. First believe in God's great love to you, as revealed in His gospel, and you will KNOW that you have eternal life (John 5:24). [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [2]Evangelist Alexander Marshall, "God's Way Of Salvation"

Yes, that is excellent. Mr. Marshall is 100 % correct!

When God calls on you to "repent, and believe the Gospel," He wishes you to lay aside your wrong thoughts, and believe the glad tidings that He proclaims to you.

Brother Marshall plainly says that sinners are saved by BELIEVING THE GOSPEL, that is, he says, "to lay aside your wrong thoughts [repentance], and believe the glad tidings [Gospel] that He proclaims to you." Respectfully said, Dr. Rice is wrongly adding to the Gospel by mandating sorrow for sins, which the Bible does not.

Romans 3:4 says to let God be true, but every man a liar. Don't you dare believe whatever I say, you go check and verify it with the Scriptures. I know of numerous Christians today who blindly follow Dr. Peter S. Ruckman (1921-2016). They admire him so much for his stand upon the infallible King James Bible, that they dare not oppose him on anything else. Kindly said, Dr. Ruckman was a heretic concerning salvation in the Old Testament. [3]The prophet Habakkuk calls Dr. Ruckman a liar! People have always been saved BY FAITH alone (Acts 10:43).

God knows that I do not enjoy refuting other preachers, but I do find joy in contending for the Christian faith (Jude 1:3). We must always remember that men are flawed, mortal, finite, sinful and incapable of understanding all there is to know. No preacher has ever had it all right doctrinally. As I grow older I am continually honing my own beliefs, trying to articulate my words better to explain the truth to God's sheep. But I would be doing you a great injustice friend, if I didn't make sure to let you know that my words are not infallible. Only God's Words in the King James Bible are inspired and infallible. Men's words are fallible and merely inspired by mankind. Hebrews 4:12, " For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

One of the main reasons why so many people are having doctrinal difficulties these days, is because they are tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine from different preachers. Ephesians 4:14, "That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;" There is no deception any more deadly than that of Lordship Salvation (which is rooted in heretical Calvinism). The false doctrine of Lordship Salvation teaches that faith in Jesus as one's personal Savior is not enough to be saved. Believing the Gospel, they say, is not enough to receive eternal life. In addition, proponents of Lordship Salvation say you MUST repent (turn) from all your sins, make a commitment to live for Christ, unconditionally surrender to Christ as one's "Lord," and follow Jesus no matter what the cost, or else they say you are not ready to be saved.

One of the most popular and beloved pastors in America over the past couple decades is Dr. John MacArthur. Unfortunately, Mr. MacArthur is the most significant teachers of the Lordship Salvation heresy. In fact, [4]Dr. MacArthur even heretically calls salvation an " exchange"

[5] of sorts. But dear reader, the Bible teaches that eternal life is a "free gift" from God (Romans 5:15, 17, 18), which cannot be merited with human effort. I am tired of hearing Bible college professors and pastors, who are in utter denial, speaking of salvation by God's grace while at the same time calling it an exchange. That is impossible! Romans 11:6,

" And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. "

May we all be extremely careful not to add or subtract from the Word of God. If we accept the King James Bible at face value, then we clearly see that salvation is by simply by

2.1.34 What Does It Mean To "Play Church"? (2021-01-30 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, " Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

John 4:24,

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. "

Revelation 3:15-16, " I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth."

We've all heard the saying "playing church," but what does it mean? Playing church is when religious people merely go through the motions of attending church and living the Christian life outwardly, but they have become indifferent toward the truth and people—apathetic toward the purity of God's Word, unconcerned about the accuracy of the Gospel, woefully lacking genuine compassion for others; all the while maintaining the masquerade of loving God and being a good Christian. Jesus calls them HYPOCRITES!!! To the same degree that you are active in church, but don't care about the purity, integrity and soundness of THE TRUTH, you are merely playing church. Right doctrine matters!!!

Our text passages of Scripture are very fitting for this topic. Jesus quotes Isaiah the prophet, who called the people "

hypocrites

" because they were superficial. Here is the passage from the Old Testament that Jesus quoted. ...

> Isaiah 29:13-14, " Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men: Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid."

Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well in John 4:24 that God can only be worshiped in "truth" and in " spirit.

" God cannot be worshipped in rituals, ceremonies or traditions. Likewise, Jesus said that God can only be worshiped in TRUTH.

Let me also quote to you this passage from the book of Mark, which elaborates a bit more...

> Mark 7:6-13, "
>
> He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
>
> Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
>
> For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
>
> And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.
>
> For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:
>
> But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.
>
> And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;
>
> Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye*.
> **"

Jesus plainly said that the Word of God is no longer effective when people replace it with traditions and the commandments of men. And may I say, the Word of God also becomes ineffective when replaced by the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions. For example:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - 1st Corinthians 1:18,
>
> "For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."

Someone ADDED the word

being,

which is not found in the King James Bible. Born-again believers

ARE SAVED,

we are not

BEING SAVED.

Receiving eternal life is a new birth, not an ongoing process. Contrary to theological false prophets like Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit and John MacArthur—you don't have to run the race,

live a lifestyle of repentance, nor surrender all to Christ as to be saved. To be saved you simply trust Jesus as your Savior. Christ died on the cross for your sins, He was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is **"

the Gospel

" (or Good News) according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

"Playing church" refers to people who have become so shallow, that nothing matters to them anymore. These are today's churches that use more than one Bible version, confusing everybody. The Bible says in 1st Corinthians 14:33b that **"

God is NOT the author of confusion.

” Yet, over 90 % of your churches today use multiple Bible versions. What is wrong with today’s pastors and churches that they don’t care? They are merely playing church.

“Playing church” refers to people who go along with embellishments of the Gospel. There is only one Gospel, which I just mentioned to you. Turning away from one’s sin is not part of the Gospel. Surrendering all to Christ as “Lord” is not part of the Gospel. Following Jesus no matter what the cost is not a part of the Gospel. The preceding teachings are popular in today’s apostate churches, but none of these things comprise the Gospel of free grace. Far too many congregations and pastors today are merely “playing church.” They draw nigh unto God with their mouths, singing sycophantic praises unto Him, but their hearts are far from Him. Instead of loving the truth as they ought, they love the praise of men and tolerate heresy. Our churches are full of lies and heresies today, but people couldn’t care less!

Bob Jones University (BJU) and their alumni are a perfect example. Somewhere along the way BJU changed their doctrine from that of a free grace Gospel, to that of the [1]Devil’s heresy of Lordship Salvation. BJU today says you must turn away from your sin to be saved, which is a work, and nowhere taught in the Word of God. Hebrews 4:10-11 says to cease from your works to have God’s rest (salvation), but BJU says you have to “

” (i.e., live a righteous life) to be saved. Kindly said, BJU are theological liars and deceivers!!! They are playing church. Truth doesn’t matter to them. The accuracy of the Gospel doesn’t matter to them. The purity of God’s Word doesn’t matter to them.

Instead of upholding the inspired and infallible Word of God, the Bob Jones crowd follow the doctrines of men, using the manmade Bible revisions of greedy men, which are corrupt. Instead of preaching the pure unadulterated Gospel of free grace, the BJU crowd preach another gospel of turning from sins, surrendering all to Christ, following Jesus no matter what the cost, faithfully running the race, persevering unto the end, and [2]exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is! I’m not kidding, that is the[3] junk theology that they all teach!

Hardly anyone cares anymore. It is sadly the direction which America has gone. It doesn’t matter where you go these days, people just don’t care. Cops don’t care. Politicians don’t care. Pastors don’t care. People at the front desk at car rentals, hotels and restaurants don’t care. Go look online at complaints against any business you can think of, and you’ll likely find thousands of complaints, but no one cares! I just searched Google for “PayPal complaints” and at the Better Business Bureau found 14,476 complaints filed against them! Who cares, right? So what, people filed 14,476 complaints against PayPal. Does anybody care? PayPal is booming in business! What are all those complaints going to accomplish? Those people are all angry. They were mistreated. But there is no consequence anymore for bad service. Companies can treat you like total crap and get away with it! That is one main reason why I don’t like living in America anymore, people just don’t care.

Likewise, I have [4]written over 300 articles since 2014 exposing the shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam for their indifference, using multiple Bible versions, preaching Lordship Salvation, bidding Godspeed to false teacher Dr. John MacArthur, and ostracizing me when I have pleaded for their love and help repeatedly over the past several years. They just don’t care, which proves they are merely PLAYING CHURCH and not serving God. You cannot be right with God and wrong with your neighbor. Besides praying for God to open their eyes at Harvest, I have been cursing Harvest Baptist Church of God and Bob Jones University since 2014, for their apostasy, and all the damage they are doing to the cause of Christ by not caring. Attitudes are contagious, and the BJU crowd projects a horrible spirit of indifference.

The Lord said in Revelation 3:15-16 that He rejects and vomits lukewarm churches out of His mouth. How can any church be right with God when they promote, [5]sanction and go along with this type of insanity?

There are so many bad attitudes in churches today. People just don't care anymore. Proverbs 14:15, "The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going." Most churches are installing overhead projectors, investing in fancy music programs, doing all they can to draw in more crowds; but they don't care about which Bible they use, which gospel they preach, or hurting people who are difficult. They just don't care. They are academic types who lack compassion.

Churches want the easy cases, and people with money. They don't want to suffer persecution for the name of Jesus, so they avoid anything controversial. They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus. So they dip their sails in sinful compromise, going along with the herd. If a pastor denies the inspiration of the King James Bible, then his church congregation will follow him over the same cliff. If a pastor preaches a corrupted gospel message, then most of the people will follow his perverse teachings. Jesus told the Samaritan woman that God CANNOT be worshipped in error. [6]Pastor John MacArthur worships God in vain, and so does everyone who follows his false teachings!

Dear friend, I see churches across the United States swelling with rot. They are not growing! As an example: The First Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida is one of the largest and most influential churches in the country, yet they are Gospel perverts! If you go [7]look at their Statement of Faith, they require FIVE THINGS to be saved! One of these things is to "Stop practicing the sin that is separating you from God." What blasphemy! Dear friend, nowhere does the Bible require sinners to "Stop practicing the sin" to be saved.

While it is true that our sins have separated us from God (Isaiah 59:1-2), it is the blood of Jesus Christ alone that brings us nigh to God. Ephesians 2:13, "But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ." The First Baptist Church Jacksonville is of the Devil, preaching another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works, playing church without truth. Galatians 1:6-9 teaches that GOD'S CURSE is upon them. They sing their 7-11

sycophantic worship that nauseates God. I don't care how popular a church may be, or how loving the people may be, they are FAR AWAY FROM GOD when they talk about stopping your sins to be saved.

Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar."

KJB - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

ERV - Mark 1:15, "He said, "The right time is now here. God' s kingdom is very near. Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!"

GNT - Mark 1:15, "The right time has come," he said, "and the Kingdom of God is near! Turn away from your sins and believe the Good News!"

MSG - Mark 1:15, "Time' s up! God' s kingdom is here. Change your life and believe the Message."

TLB - Mark 1:15, "At last the time has come!" he announced. "God' s Kingdom is near! Turn from your sins and act on this glorious news!"

NLV - Mark 1:15, "He said, "The time has come. The holy nation of God is near. Be sorry for your sins, turn from them, and believe the Good News."

2.1.35 The Utter Theological Stupidity Of Lordship Salvation (2021-01-31 09:30)

Ephesians 2:13,

“

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

1st John 1:7, “ But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and *the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

Revelation 1:5, “ And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and *washed us from our sins in his own blood,

These precious passages of Scripture teach that every believer has been redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus.

Whether one Christian has more or less sin than another doesn’t matter, because the only thing that separates the best Christian from the vilest unsaved sinner, is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that washes our sins away.

That is why [1]Lordship Salvation is so stupid. False preachers like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, James White, Marty Herron, Paul Washer, R.C. Sproul, Franklin Graham, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren and Steve Pettit all claim that they are proving the genuineness of their faith by their manner of life, which is works for salvation, not God’s saving grace. They are trying to live above sin to prove they are saved, which is not faith at all. Evangelist Steve Pettit heretically says:

> “For the real reality of the genuineness of your faith is that you are faithful to run the race!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [2]22:44)

That is a false plan of salvation! If we have to live in such a way as to prove that we are saved, then how can we ever have the sweet assurance of salvation? The people in Matthew 7:21-23 did **“

many wonderful works

” in Jesus’ name.

They **“

prophesied

” (preached) in Jesus’ name. They **“

cast out devils

” in Jesus’ name. They called Him

“Lord, Lord.”

Yet they were not saved at all. They were faithful to run the race as Dr. Steve Pettit teaches, but Jesus said He never knew them! Dear reader, you don’t get born-again by a false faith that requires for you to prove it is real by living the Christian life. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

Lordship Salvation is the unbiblical teaching that you cannot just say you accepted Christ, and you've been born-again by faith alone in the Gospel, and that's it. According to the proponents of Lordship Salvation, in addition to faith you must also surrender all to Jesus as "

Lord,

turn away from all your deliberate sinning, faithfully

(live the Christian life) until the end, commit your life to serve God, prove the reality of your faith by living a lifestyle of turning away from sin, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost to receive eternal life. Dear reader, none of that comprises the Gospel of free grace. We are saved only by faith.

Lordship Salvation is stupid, because it is based on the idea that a saved person WILL make an effort to turn away from a lifestyle of sin. But every believer still lives a lifestyle of sin. You may sin less than the next guy, but James 2:10 says, **"

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

" In other words, it doesn't matter how big or little of a sinner you are, because the ONLY way to get to Heaven is on the merit of GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is by faith in Jesus. Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" I love that Bible verse so much!!!

Do you see my friend, you and I have no righteousness to offer God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." Those religious people who believe in Lordship Salvation are Calvinists. That is, they adhere to the [3]teachings of a man named John Calvin (1509-1564). Calvinism says if you are saved you WILL do good works. Roman Catholicism says you MUST do good works. The Bible says you SHOULD do good works.

By teaching that the saints WILL persevere in holiness and service to Christ, Calvinists corrupt the Gospel and cast stumbling blocks before the people. John Bunyan (1628-1688) beautifully said that:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Lordship Salvation is stupid, because no one can stop sinning. If you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, it proves that you're not! We are not saved because WE are faithful, but because GOD is faithful. 2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. " The people in Matthew 7:21-23 spent their lives living the Christian life. They called Jesus "Lord, Lord." They "prophesied" (preached) in Jesus' name. They did " many wonderful works

" in Jesus' name. They **"

cast out devils

" in Jesus' name. Yet, Jesus said He never knew them!!! They failed to rest wholly in Christ alone. Like the proponents of Lordship Salvation (Calvinism) today, they foolishly thought that they could get to Heaven by partial faith plus turning away from their sins, persevering in good works, and following Jesus as their "Lord, Lord." And may I say, partial faith is no faith at all.

2.2 February

2.2.1 Nothing Matters If You Don't Have Love For People (2021-02-01 09:30)

1st Corinthians 13:1-3, "

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing*.

" Matthew 16:24-26,

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me*.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

I love people. I care! The Lord invited His disciples to follow Him. This is not a plan of salvation, but discipleship for the believer. We are saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 4:5-6; Galatians 3:26). Anytime that someone combines discipleship with saving faith, they have perverted the Gospel of free grace (Acts 15:1; Galatians 1:6-9). This heresy is called: “

[1]Lordship Salvation.

” Anyone who attacks the grace of God, attacks the God of grace!

I couldn’t help but notice the words “THE TRUTH” in 1st Corinthians 13:6, “Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;” The Bible says that a person who has genuine love rejoices in THE TRUTH! All of these phony Christians today who promote the Devil’s Bible revisions, don’t have genuine love for Jesus or people. How can someone truly love the precious Lord Jesus Christ, while bidding Godspeed to [2]modern Bible revisions that attack His deity? Something is wrong with a person’s profession of love for the dear Savior, when they are okay with all these modern versions that remove [3]every mention of people “worshipping” Jesus. We’ve got a bunch of religious people today, who merely believe everything they hear, and have been deceived by the Devil concerning which Bible they should use. Proverbs 14:15, “

The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

” I am telling you truthfully, that if you don’t have a King James Bible, you don’t have an inspired Holy Bible!

All of these new corrupt Bibles are changing the theology taught in the churches. Anyone who is learned in the matter recognizes Satan’s hand in the [4]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort based translations (basically all modern revisions). I can understand someone being ignorant, who doesn’t know any better. But when a knowledgeable Christian such as myself (or [5]Pastor Bob Gray Sr., or [6]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, or [7]Pastor Danny Castle) educates someone about the Devil’s Bible revisions, and that person or group doesn’t listen or care, then it evidences that they truly DON’T love Jesus Christ!!!

The Bible says all of our faith, religion, good works, and generosity are meaningless if we lack love. 1st Corinthians 13:6 says that love REJOICES IN THE TRUTH!!! So when I show the Bob Jones University crowd that the [8]English Standard Version (ESV) that they use, sell and promote is a perverted Devil’s Bible, but they couldn’t care less and refuse to listen, it proves that they don’t genuinely love the Lord Jesus Christ! Love rejoices in THE TRUTH!!! When you truly love God and people, you absolutely must love truth, because truth frees people from bondage (John 8:32, 36). Love is synonymous with THE TRUTH.

2.2.2 Understanding Surrender And Salvation (2021-02-01 20:20)

Romans 4:1-5, "What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness."

Dear reader, the Devil has always been a dirty liar (John 8:44). The Devil is a beautiful liar! The Devil came in the form of a serpent to tempt Eve, deceiving her with his beautiful lies. The Devil came to tempt our Lord in Matthew 4:1-10, but Jesus knew His Scriptures too well to be deceived by the Devil. The saint who is learned in the Scriptures cannot be deceived.

Having said that, there is an epidemic which has infected thousands of Baptist churches today called "Lordship Salvation," which is the lie that faith is not enough to be saved. In addition, the advocates of Lordship Salvation say you must turn away from your sins, surrender all to Christ as "Lord" (Master), run the race faithfully until the end to prove the genuineness of your faith, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost to have the gift of eternal life. Yet, none of these things comprise the Gospel. They are perversions of God's free grace.

> Question #44: In regard to salvation, what must be surrendered? Would it be accurate to say that one must only surrender his soul to be saved by Jesus? And that surrendering anything else would be a works-based salvation? Isn't this what lordship salvation teaches? You must be willing to surrender and be willing to turn from individual sins, pride, etc.? What is involved in "surrendering" to salvation? Would it be correct to say that the ONLY sin one must surrender would be the sin of unbelief (not trusting in Christ)? I have heard if one isn't willing to publicly confess Christ, then they haven't totally surrendered. But if that is the case, wouldn't this be works based?
> John Van Gelderen Answers:
>
> Insightful questions! There is much misunderstanding in this area. Several questions have been submitted along these lines revealing the confusion that is prevalent. See also Question #14 and Question #18 among others.
>
> The issue is not between soul and body. Soul-focus can be off-based too. The issue is the object of faith and the condition of salvation. The lordship salvation debate is not a debate on whether Jesus is Lord, but on what constitutes the condition of receiving salvation.
>
> If surrender is made to be anything more than the flip-side of faith, it becomes works. The Holy Spirit convicts of sin as the problem, judgment as the consequence, and the righteousness of Jesus as the answer. [John 16:8-11] Being convinced of these three truths, when someone surrenders to them, they are trusting in Christ as the righteousness needed to be saved from sin and judgment. This is faith. Yet this is surrender in the correct sense. The only sin that cannot be forgiven is not believing in Jesus. Therefore, the core issue of surrender is believing on Jesus Christ.
>
> When surrender is defined as turning from your sins or being willing to turn from your sins (your commitment to do right), grace is violated. This definition unwittingly places your dependence on yourself—your commitment to do right, your willingness to turn from your sins, instead of on Christ (the object of faith) to save you from yours sins. The focus of surrender must be on Christ, or the surrender becomes works-oriented.
>
> Regarding the public profession of faith, what is stated above applies. Joseph of Arimathea was a secret disciple. This means he was in fact a believer, and his being labeled by the inspired text as a disciple was contingent on his faith in Christ, not his public confession.
>

I love that. The issue is not over whether Jesus is Lord; but rather, what is required to receive God's gift of eternal life?

The Statement of Faith of the First Baptist Church of El Paso, Texas caught my attention recently. Sadly, they preach another gospel that is totally perverted...

SALVATION

Salvation is God's free gift to us, but we must accept it. We can never make up for our sin by self-improvement or good works*. Only by trusting in Jesus Christ as God's offer of forgiveness can anyone be saved from sin's penalty. When we turn from our self-ruled life and turn to Jesus in faith we are saved* . Eternal life begins the moment one receives Jesus Christ into his life by faith. [emphasis added]

[3]

Do you see the woeful contradiction? In one statement they say that you cannot be saved by works, but then they follow two sentences later by saying that without works you cannot be saved! That is theologically absurd! Clearly they are ADDING works to faith, corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Nowhere does the Holy Bible teach that a person must "turn from our self-willed life" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. It is a perversion of grace.

Again, Dr. Van Gelderen rightly states in defense of the Gospel:

When surrender is defined as turning from your sins or being willing to turn from your sins (your commitment to do right), grace is violated. This definition unwittingly places your dependence on yourself—your commitment to do right, your willingness to turn from your sins, instead of on Christ (the object of faith) to save you from yours sins. The focus of surrender must be on Christ, or the surrender becomes works-oriented. [emphasis added]

Evangelist John Bunyan (1628-1688) also said it well:

"If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —John Bunyan

Salvation is by faith alone (Acts 10:43). Many of today's apostate Bible colleges (e.g., Bob Jones University and Moody Bible Institute) and corrupt churches (e.g., First Baptist Church of Jacksonville, Florida and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam) are in utter denial, insisting that salvation is still by grace, while requiring people to turn away from their willful sinning to be saved. That is 100 % partial faith in Christ plus works, which is no faith at all.

The focus of surrender for salvation must be on Christ, or the surrender becomes works-oriented. A man surrenders by believing on Christ. A man repents by believing on Christ. Nothing else is necessary for salvation except that a sinner believe on the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31).

What is the Gospel (i.e., Good News)? Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Believe it Oh sinner and you will be instantly and eternally saved (Acts 16:30-31). You will be able to confidently say: “

I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior and I know I have eternal life.

You have the Lord’s promise of it in John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

2.2.3 Evangelist Ray Comfort Errs, Not Knowing The Scriptures (2021-02-03 09:30)

Matthew 22:29, “Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.” 2nd Peter 3:16-17, “

As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness..”

Ray Comfort is an extremely popular evangelist in California. His YouTube videos on average receive over 60,000 views each. That is quite impressive. Unfortunately, Mr. Comfort preaches a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Here is some helpful information from Michael P. Bowen, refuting Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron on their deadly counterfeit plan of salvation:

> The plan of salvation according to Ray Comfort and his cohort Kirk Cameron defines repentance incorrectly. In the most elemental sense possible, their plan of salvation is based upon an academic flaw. Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you. Neither of these gentlemen use the original Greek meaning of the word for repent which is metanoia. As defined in the Greek language, metanoia is “meta”(change) and “noia”(mind). Metanoia is simply a “change of mind.” That is all it means. Nothing else is added to it. If someone says it means a change of mind about bananas, they would be wrong. If a crafty pastor who claims salvation is by faith “plus” works and deeds of the law (under the clever guise of “committing your life to Christ”) says that metanoia means a change of mind about sin, he would be wrong. Metanoia, by itself, simply means a “change of mind.” When Christ used the word “repent” He was always referring to “a change of mind.” In proper context, Christ used “a change of mind” to refer to what people were trusting in to get them to heaven. Jesus would tell people to “change their minds” from keeping all the established laws of righteousness to instead trust upon Him alone in terms of Him being the sin-bearer, that He would “solve” the problem of sin once and for all by His > death and subsequent resurrection from the dead. You see, Christ took care of the sin problem. When we, in any way whatsoever, attempt to remedy the problem of sin by turning our backs on it, forsaking it, or promising God that we will quit certain things that we know bring Him grief, we are essentially telling Christ that our faith in His death and resurrection from the grave is "not enough" to save us. If there was any way at all we could save ourselves by our works and behavioral changes, Christ may not have had to die on that cross; however, we know that God says in Romans 6:23 that the "wages of sin is death."

> SOURCE: Michael P. Bowen, "[1]I NEVER KNEW YOU"; chapter 11, pp. 114, 115

No man has ever lived good enough to go to Heaven, that is why you must be saved by grace. If going to Heaven were the result of your good life, then salvation would be of debt, not grace. Romans 4:4, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. " Ray Comfort is the most dangerous kind of false prophet, because he employs the HALF-TRUTH. Satan knows that most people will reject an outright lie. But the Devil is much smarter than you or me, knowing exactly how to deceive the simple. So Satan uses the HALF-TRUTH, because the part of the deception that is true can be defended with incontestable logic. A common example of this is that false teachers will claim salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone. That sounds good, and it is so far. But then they will add something else to that faith, negating it. Here's an example:

> Jehovah's Witnesses:
>
> "Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part."
> SOURCE: [2]https://wol.jw.org/en/wol/d/r1/lp-e/1996081

Do you see the blatant HALF-TRUTH? Indeed, salvation is the free gift of God. The lie is that it requires effort on our part. How can salvation be a free gift if we have to do anything? Obviously it can't. You simply receive a gift. Now take a look at how Ray Comfort employs the same type of deceitful half-truth...

> "You need to repent of sin and trust alone in Jesus, and ask God to create a clean heart in you, so you'll love righteousness; because a Christian doesn't walk around high, he doesn't lie or steal or fornicate or look at indecency, he lives in holiness; not to earn Heaven, but out of gratitude to God for His mercy." —Ray Comfort, "[3]Christian, This Is Why You Aren't Conquering Sin"

Where does the Bible say you have to repent "of sin" to be saved? It doesn't. That is the lie in Ray Comfort's damnable counterfeit gospel. Where does the Bible say that you have to ask God to create a clean heart in you to receive His free gift of eternal life? It doesn't. Ray has added these unbiblical requirements to God's simple plan of salvation. Where does the Bible say that you have to love righteousness to be saved? It doesn't.

Ray says that a Christian doesn't walk around high? I take prescription drugs and I am high all day long...lol. Ray says a Christian doesn't lie, but Sarah lied (Genesis 18:15). Ray says that a Christian doesn't steal, but Jacob stole from his uncle Laban (Genesis 31:20). Ray says that a Christian doesn't fornicate, but Samson fornicated (Judges 16:1). Kindly said, Ray Comfort is a false teacher, who wrests (tortures) the Scriptures to his own destruction.

Please keep in mind in the preceding quote from Ray Comfort, that he is witnessing to a lost man. Ray tells this guy that he must repent of his sins, and ask God to create a clean heart in him, so that he'll love righteousness. Do you see what Ray is horribly doing? He is emphasizing a changed life, not emphasizing Christ's sacrifice on the cross to pay our debt of sin. Ray is focusing on sin, pressuring lost people to turn away from their sinful bad habits, as a requirement to receive God's free gift. Dear reader, this is NOT the Gospel which is taught in the inspired Word of God:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that *Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
>
> And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:
>

As you just read for yourself, Paul's definition of " the gospel

" (Good News) doesn't include repenting of sins or asking God to create a clean heart in you! Like most heretics, Ray Comfort is trying to force human reformation upon people, as a requirement to get to Heaven. Ray is saying that if you want to go to Heaven, then you must stop deliberately committing sin, and you must commit to changing your life with God's help, or you cannot be saved. This is all based upon YOUR faithfulness, and not GOD'S righteousness. Ray uses a lot of forked-tongue doublespeak. Here again are the helpful words of Michael P. Bowen, refuting Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron's counterfeit gospel:

> Our government has invested millions of dollars into equipment capable of identifying counterfeit money. The problem with counterfeit currency is that it looks "so real" that nobody can tell the difference. It takes special machines to be able to spot fake money, today, because crooks are becoming better and better with each passing day at being able to fool the government with counterfeit money. Similarly, today's false plans of salvation are becoming more and more harder to detect. Today's false plans of salvation are very beautiful, they have great appeal to a lonely person's innermost needs, and they do satisfy to some degree one's deepest longings for a relationship with Jesus Christ. But because they differ from the plan of salvation that Christ provides, they are wrong, because there is only one gospel message according to the bible. Reader, if you trust the plan of salvation offered to you by anyone other than Christ Himself, you will not make it to heaven. If you instead trust what Christ has said about salvation, He will save you eternally the same instant that you trust in Him alone. For those who place their trust in a counterfeit plan of salvation, such as the counterfeit plan I have presented to you in this chapter, you can expect to meet Christ as your "judge" rather than as your "savior" at the Great White Throne

> Judgement. Look at what Jesus has to say to all of those who placed only partial faith in Him and the rest of their faith in living the "Christian Lifestyle" as their means to gain entrance into heaven: "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity" (Matthew 7:21-23). From there, all who have trusted in counterfeit forms of the gospel will be sent to the lake of fire. "And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire" (Revelation 20:11-15). Who will you choose to believe, reader, when it comes to where you will spend your eternal destiny? Will you choose the words of men, or will you choose the words of Jesus Christ? This, of course, is up to you.

I once spoke with Jared Baldwin, a former associate pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I was talking to a fool. Jared insisted that Ray Comfort is a man of God, as I wasted my time trying to tell him THE TRUTH, that Ray Comfort is a damnable false prophet! Jared is indoctrinated with Lordship Salvation, following his mentor Marty Herron into Hell. Since 2018„ these incompetent ministers are now residing at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery in Ankeny, Iowa, ruining lives elsewhere with their false gospel of Lordship Salvation.

Dear friend, please reason with me for a moment. If the proponents of Lordship Salvation are saved, and Free Grace Gospel proponents are also saved, then we've got a dilemma. One group says you can be saved by faith alone in the Gospel, but the other group says you cannot, teaching that you must also continue to live the Christian life, surrender all to Christ as Lord of your life, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost. They cannot both be the Gospel.

I watched a very interesting 12 hour documentary by historian film producer, Ken Burns, on '[5]The American Civil War.' It is heartbreaking history! I heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) that caught my attention:

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Either you have to turn away from a lifestyle of sinning to be saved, or you do not, but it cannot be both. Either you have to follow Jesus in obedient Christian service to be saved, or you don't. Either you have to faithfully run the race to get saved, or you don't. Either you have to receive Jesus as your "

Savior and Lord,

or just your

Savior,

but it cannot be both. Serving the Lord is strictly a matter of showing how much you love Jesus (John 14:15), but this has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God's free gift of eternal life, which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. There is no other option. Without the new birth you don't go to Heaven. Jesus exclaimed in John 3:3b, "

Ye must be born again.

There cannot be TWO plans of salvation. I heard Dr. Kevin Bauder foolishly teach that Free Grace and Lordship Salvation both fall within the realm of orthodox theology. He's got a hole in his theology! Lordship Salvation advocates typically try to keep the discussion of salvation focused on sanctification, to the near exclusion of justification. Lordship Salvation's false repentance confuses sanctification (growth of a believer) with justification (God declaring a sinner righteous). I love this quote from John Bunyan:

We are made a child of God by yielding to the truth of the Gospel. Salvation is of the LORD! Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." God alone can SAVE you in response to your yielding, and God alone can SANCTIFY you in response to your yielding. We live the Christian life the SAME way we get saved—BY YIELDING TO GOD, WHICH IS FAITH!

All that God requires to be saved is that by faith you BELIEVE His record in the Bible. Christ died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later Jesus miraculously resurrected from the dead. If you acknowledge THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19), and you embrace THE TRUTH that Christ died on the cross as the sacrifice for your sins, was buried and is risen, and that is your only hope for eternal life (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)—you are saved! Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

2.2.4 And Others (2021-02-04 09:30)

And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.”

This is such an amazing passage of Scripture. We have all heard sermons about bad things that will happen to us, if we run away from God and disobey Him. We are all familiar with the Old Testament true story of Jonah, who ran from God. The Lord prepared a great fish (a whale according to Matthew 12:40), who swallowed Jonah. When Jonah repented and offered up a voice of thanksgiving to God in his dire circumstances, the whale dropped off Jonah on dry ground at the next whale stop!

Hebrews chapter 11 is often referred to as: “

The Hall Of Faith.

” In Hebrews 11 we read about dozens of Old Testament saints who, through whom God accomplished great things

BY FAITH.

But then we get to Hebrews 11:36 and read the words:

“AND OTHERS.” Not everyone does great things by faith. In fact, some believers suffer

BY FAITH.

” The Bible says some believers were sawn asunder, slain by the Sword, tortured, wandered homeless, and hid in caves

BY FAITH.

Literally, you might be crippled in a wheelchair

BY FAITH.

” It doesn’t mean you’ve done something sinful because you are suffering, disabled, afflicted or surviving in poverty and homelessness.

Sometimes a person’s sins DO cause their physical disability...

> John 5:5-8 and 14, “And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole? The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: ...Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.”

But most of the time a person’s physical disability wasn’t caused by their sins...

John 9:1-3, “

And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

The Holy Bible teaches that God often creates disabled people. Exodus 4:11, “And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man’s mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

” So if you were born with a disability, the Bible calls it an ability. God made you that way for His purpose and glory. Such was the case with the man born blind in John 9:1-3.

Remember that Adam and Eve had never sinned prior to being tempted in the Garden of Eden. It was a paradise, literally. God created Adam and Eve perfectly upright in all their ways. Even within the perfect will of God, the Lord planted the Tree Of Knowledge. God gave them their only opportunity to sin! Think about that. There was only one potential sin for Adam and Eve, which was to eat of the forbidden fruit (Genesis 2:16-17). This teaches us that even while in God’s perfect will, the Lord Himself will test our faith, giving us an opportunity to disobey Him. The Bible is clear on this, not just for Adam and Eve, but for every Christian. A faith must be tested! What saith the Scripture? ...

Deuteronomy 8:1-3, “All the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers. And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.”

God literally led the Hebrews out of bondage in Egypt, to cause them to suffer in the hot barren desert. The Jews were so excited and happy to be delivered out of slavery in Egypt. They expected everything to become easier from now on. But life didn’t get easier. The desert had no water, and the water that they did find was toxic to drink. The desert was filled with draught, tumbleweeds, intolerable heat, snakes, scorpions, lack of food and hardships.

God wanted to test their faith, to see if they would continue obeying Him in poverty, hardships and unending tough times. There was no relief point! Make sure you get that truth. Things never got better. God provided for their basic needs, giving them manna (angel’s food) and quail. The Jews complained relentlessly, accusing Moses of leading them from the frying pan into the fire.

Hebrews 11:36 says:

“AND OTHERS.” It could very well be God’s perfect will for you to be stuck in a wheelchair for the rest of your life. Suffering may be God’s perfect will for your life.

So don’t evaluate whether God loves you, or is blessing you, based on circumstances. Don’t ever do that. The Bible is filled with true stories of saints who suffered; such as Daniel, Joseph, Phillip, James and many others, who suffered for doing right. We should always base whether God loves us or not upon the written inspired Word of God, and never upon life’s circumstances. Some Christians are used by God to accomplish great things BY FAITH, but there are OTHERS who are equally used by God who suffer BY FAITH.

Psalms 138:2, “

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

In 2006, Pastor William P. Grady dropped a theological nuclear bomb on Temple Baptist Church and The Crown College in Powell, Tennessee. Dr. Grady knew it was likely a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to either caress the audience and likely be invited back, or preach THE TRUTH at the likely risk of never being invited back again. Grady was history, because he chose the latter!!! I commend Brother Grady for standing for THE TRUTH of the inspiration of the King James Bible. The classic sermon (which I recommend you [1]download to save) is titled: “[2]Shibboleth-Seven Signs Of Pseudo-King James Onlyism.”

Admittedly it seems like a strange title at first, but after hearing the entire sermon it is perfectly fitting. The basic gist of the sermon is that most Bible colleges today have turned apostate! They will superficially claim to use only the King James Bible, but in actuality they don’t really believe that we have an infallible, inerrant, inspired and perfect Holy Bible today. In particular, Pastor Grady’s mentions Pensacola Christian College (PCC) in Pensacola, Florida. I had the unpleasant opportunity to meet one of the shameful alumni in 2018 at the Light House Baptist Church on Guam. His name is Sean Quinlan. I had visited the church frequently for several months, bringing in several hundred dollars of Kentucky Fried Chickens trays for the church members at church events, because I love to give and especially to my brothers and sisters in Christ. I thought perhaps I had found a new church family. But...

For the several months I had visited the church I couldn’t help but be me. I love God’s Word. I love the King James Bible. I know it is inspired. I know it is infallible. I hate the Devil’s hundreds of corrupt English Bible revisions, which are everywhere in churches today. To make a long story short, Pastor Quinlan got really mad at me for continually warning people in private conversations about the modern Bible versions. One Sunday evening after church, he was eavesdropping on my private conversation in the parking lot, where the church entrance is. He had me say that Bob Jones University sells corruptible seed. That pissed him off. So he confronted me. At first I was very kind and even apologized. But then he said I had no class and I tore him up and down with the Word of God. I told him that he had no business bidding Godspeed to Calvinists at Harvest Baptist Church. I told him that he was wrong to support corrupt Bible versions. My last words to him were: “

I make no apologies and am glad that he quit soon thereafter as pastor. I make no apologies for refuting Baptist heretics in our churches today. Pensacola Christian College has blood on their hands! They don’t teach their students to stand. Sadly, PCC doesn’t think the inspiration and infallibility of God’s Word is something worth fighting over. Quinlan falsely accused me of bringing a “

into HIS CHURCH. Well, it must be his church, because it sure isn’t the Lord’s. Sean Quinlan is a fool for bidding Godspeed to Calvinists and Bible-corrupters, plain and simple. I am going to call names from now on of bad pastors. I’ve had it damn it! God only authored ONE BOOK, not two. So I have witnessed firsthand the pathetic PCC attitude nowadays, which couldn’t care less about the Devil tampering with the Word of God. They just want to make money, play church, and let someone else do the fighting against the Devil creeping into the churches. Bible colleges are dangerous!!!

So why won’t PCC stand? Why are their graduates so lame, shallow, incompetent, wimpy, unconcerned, defensive and indifferent about the Devil tampering with our Sword? Psalms 11:3, “If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?” What a great Bible verse! If the foundation of the Word of God becomes corrupted, then what will we do? I mean, after all, Jesus is called THE WORD OF GOD (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13). I don’t know if you’ve been to a popular book store lately, to their religious section (I always go there), but you’ll be hard pressed to find a King James Bible anymore. What is going on? I’ll tell you, the Devil has crept into the churches with his corruptible seed, changing the Word of God.

For example: The phrase repent “OF YOUR SINS” is not found in the King James Bible. That is because repentance doesn’t mean to turn from your sins, it is simply “ a change of mind

toward THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25), that compels a man to believe the Good News of Jesus Christ to be saved. Yet, if you look in the New Living Translation (NLT), they have corrupted the Word of God by adding the words in Mark 1:15 to repent

“OF YOUR SINS.” Wicked men are rewriting the Bible to fit their changing doctrine, which is not the Gospel.

Lord willing I am planning on moving soon from Guam back to the United States, after living here for 16 years. My body is in much pain, and I have burning nerves which I cannot even explain in words how much it afflicts me 24/7. I have been looking for a city to move and reading many church websites. I have been so disgusted, wanting to close my computer, and need to go take a walk, as I read the bullcrap in church Statement’s of Faith. I am shocked how many pastors foolishly believe that you have to turn away from your sins to be saved. Nowhere does the Bible teach that! You turn from your self-righteousness, nothing else (Hebrews 4:10-11).

Getting back to Brother Grady’s excellent and needful sermon, about the inspiration of the King James Bible, it really pissed off Pastor Clarence Sexton. It greatly saddens me that Pastor Sexton dismisses the issue as a mere ongoing feud between a couple Bible colleges. The battle over INSPIRATION is oh so much more than that! (see the sermon end at 1:02:57) to hear Brother Sexton make a fool of himself. ...

Dear reader, right doctrine matters! Having, using, selling and promoting the right Bible matters! Pastor Sexton gets up at the end of the service, scolds Dr. Grady, and then plainly says that he wants no part in the battle. Why not man? Why not? Kindly said, it is because of A.W.O.L. pastors from the battle of the ages, just like Clarence Sexton, that is sending America to Hell. Bigger churches aren't going to help anyone if the next generation embraces the Devil's Bible versions. John Wesley (1703-1791) was right:

"What one generation tolerates the next generation will embrace."

2.2.6 Simple Salvation (2021-02-06 09:30)

Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

The following beautiful Gospel tract was written by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). God's plan of salvation for humanity is so very simple. Humans have a horrible tendency to complicate everything, which is why the world is in such a mess. The theological world is not exempt from man's insanity. What God intended to be so simple (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4)—receiving eternal life as a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-9)—men have turned into a complicated insolvable puzzle (2nd Peter 3:16-17; Galatians 1:6-9). I thank God for godly preachers like Curtis Hutson, who preach the simplicity that is in Christ...

> In the book, Life and Works of Spurgeon, published in 1890, Mr. Spurgeon gives the following account of his conversion:

It pleased God in my childhood to convince me of sin.... My heart was broken in pieces. Six months did I pray—prayed agonizingly with all my heart, and never had an answer. I resolved that, in the town where I lived, I would visit every place of worship in order to find out the way of salvation. I felt I was willing to do anything and be anything if God would only forgive me.

I set off, determined to go round to all the chapels; and I went to all the places of worship; and though I dearly venerate the men that occupy those pulpits now, and did so then, I am bound to say that I never heard them once fully preach the Gospel. I mean by that, they preached truth, great truths, many good truths that were fitting to many of their congregation—spiritually-minded people; but what I wanted to know was, How can I get my sins forgiven? And they never once told me that. I wanted to hear how a poor sinner, under a sense of sin, might find peace with God; and when I went I heard a sermon on "Be not deceived: God is not mocked," which cut me up worse, but did not say how I might escape. I went again another day, and the text was something about the glories of the righteous: nothing for poor me....

At last, one snowy day—it snowed so much I could not go to the place I had determined to go to, and I was obliged to stop on the road, and it was a blessed stop to me—I found rather an obscure street, and turned down a court, and there was a little chapel....I wanted to know how I might be saved....At last a very thin-looking man came into the pulpit and opened his Bible and read these words: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth." Just setting his eyes upon me, as if he knew me all by heart, he said, "Young man, you are in trouble." Well, I was, sure enough. Says he, "You will never get out of it unless you look to Christ."

And then, lifting up his hands, he cried out..., "Look, look, look! It is only look!" I saw at once the way of salvation. Oh, how I did leap for joy at that moment! I know not what else he said; I did not take much notice of it—I was so possessed with that one thought. Like as when the brazen serpent was lifted up, they only looked and were healed. I had been waiting to do fifty things, but when I heard this word "Look!" what a charming word it seemed to me! Oh, I looked until I could almost have looked my eyes away! And in Heaven I will look on still in my joy unutterable.

That was Spurgeon's experience of salvation—the man who became one of the greatest preachers of all times. In fact, he may have been the greatest preacher since the Apostle Paul or since New Testament preachers.

He preached when just a teenager at Park Street Church. A thousand came to hear him, then twelve hundred. He made a move to Exeter Hall, and ten thousand came. Later when that place burned, they moved to Surrey Gardens. Thirty thousand came to hear him there.

The people said, "He's a teenager, a novelty. When he gets older, this will wear off, and such crowds will not come." But they kept coming. Finally the Metropolitan Baptist Tabernacle was built which seated five thousand. You had to have a ticket in order to get into the Metropolitan Tabernacle to hear Spurgeon preach, and these had to be gotten two to three weeks in advance. On many occasions Spurgeon would ask the church members to stay at home to make space for all the visitors. And these visitors would pack the five-thousand-seat building to hear Spurgeon preach.

When I read his salvation experience, I knew my experience was not too much unlike Charles Spurgeon's. I went to church. A preacher said, "Ye must be born again," but I had no idea what he meant. I even heard him say, "You ought to be saved. If you are not saved, you are going to Hell." I knew Hell was a lake of fire—an awful place—but I didn’t know what "saved" meant. And no matter how much I wanted to be saved, I couldn’t have been because I didn’t know how to be saved. I prayed, I did everything else I knew to do, but I didn’t know I had to trust Jesus Christ as my Saviour. Nobody had ever explained it to me.

Multiplied thousands of religious people go to church Sunday after Sunday, week after week, month after month, year after year; many know about Jesus and know something about the Scriptures, but they don’t know how to obtain forgiveness of their sins. So they face death still unsaved.

I think many preachers take for granted that people know how to be saved, and so they never bother to explain it. They think it sounds too simple.

At the risk of sounding too simple, I take the text Spurgeon heard and give you a simple salvation sermon so no one listening to my voice can ever say, "I went to church, heard what he said, but didn’t know what he meant. I didn’t know how to be saved, nor did I know how to obtain forgiveness of my sins."

"Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." —Isaiah 45:22.

Looking at the text, I call your attention to four things:

I. THE SOURCE OF SALVATION

You have the Source of salvation in the text: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." Doesn’t it seem strange that we have to emphasize "me"? Salvation is not in a church, not in any denomination, not in sacraments, not in ceremonies, not in rituals, not in works, not in reformation; salvation is in a Person—the Lord Jesus Christ. "Look unto me, and be ye saved."

My most difficult job as an evangelist is getting people to look to Christ alone for salvation. Some very sincere people look to Jesus and the baptistry. "It is not enough to look to Jesus," they say; "you must also be baptized."

Now everybody who gets saved ought to be baptized by immersion in a local church, but no one gets baptized to be saved. It is not looking to the baptistry; it is looking to Jesus.

I have been baptized, and I try to live right. But if I had to die right now and stand at Heaven’s gate and were asked, "Curtis, why should we let you in?" I would not say, "Because I lived right." I believe I would stand tall and say:

> My hope was built on nothing less > Than Jesus’ blood and righteousness;
> I dared not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly leaned on Jesus’ name.
> And that angel would say, "Come in, Curtis. You have the magic word that gets one into Heaven!"

Jesus will not share saving people with any church, with any denomination, with any individual—not the pope, not the Baptist preacher, no sacrament—nothing else. He only is the Saviour, not one of the saviours.

In Acts 4:12 Peter said, "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved."

A missionary visiting on a mission field led a little boy to Christ. He already had religion and knew about Jesus, but he had added many other things for salvation.

A few days later when she saw the little fellow, his countenance had changed. She asked, "Son, something has happened to you. You don't look the same. What happened?"

He answered, "Miss Missionary, I always knew Jesus was necessary, but I didn't know until the other day that He was enough."

I am here to tell you and the whole world that Jesus Christ is not only necessary, He is enough.

It is not what a man does that saves him; it is not what a man promises to do that saves him; it is not what a man quits doing that saves him; it is what a man has that makes him a Christian.

If a man must have a million dollars to be a millionaire, what must a man have to be a Christian? CHRIST! In I John 5:12 we read, "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." That is it!

I'm not going to Heaven because I'm a Baptist, or because I've been baptized, or because I have tried to live good. I'm going to Heaven because I'm trusting Christ and Him alone for salvation.

There is no promise to those who partially believe on Jesus. The promise is to those who wholly believe on Him, the Source of salvation.

I belong to a church, I tithe to a local church in Murfreesboro, not in order to be saved, but because I am saved and want to help propagate the Gospel throughout the world through my local church program. But I did only one thing for salvation: I looked to Christ alone.

If there were any other way to be saved, why would God let His Son die on the cross? Yet this religion and this religion and this religion are trying to go to Heaven through baptism, through keeping the Commandments, through sacraments, through ceremonies, through lighting and burning candles and every other way. But Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."

II. THE SCOPE OF SALVATION

We have the Source of salvation, but we have also the scope of salvation: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth." Who can be saved? Everybody!

I get a little impatient with those who teach hyper-Calvinism and say that some are elected to be saved, some are elected to be lost, and some couldn't get saved no matter what because they weren't elected.

I have never met a non-elected Calvinist. They are all elected. It is the others who are not.

Ask any little first-grader what "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth" means, and he will tell you, "Everybody in the world."

John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world…." Ask any third-grader what that means, and he'll tell you, "God loves everybody in the world."

Hebrews 2:9 says He tasted "death for every man." Ask any third-grader what "every man" means, and he'll say, "Nobody is excluded: it means everybody."

But once you get to college and seminary, you learn that "every man" doesn't really mean every man; that the whole world doesn't really mean the whole world, but the whole elected world. Hogwash! Why don't you take it for what it says, "Look unto me, and be ye saved"?

What is the scope? "All the ends of the earth." Salvation is for everybody.

If I sell automobiles, I have to find a prospect because everybody is not a prospect. If I am selling real estate, I have to find a prospect because everybody is not a prospect. But when I am preaching the Gospel, everybody I meet—rich or poor, educated, uneducated, dumb, handsome, good-looking or ugly—is a prospect for salvation. "Jesus died for the whole world" is the scope of salvation.

Nobody in Hell will ever look up to Heaven and say, "Jesus, I wanted to be saved, but You didn't die for me." He will be in Hell because he would not trust Jesus Christ as his Saviour.

III. THE SIMPLICITY OF SALVATION

We not only have the Source of salvation and the scope of salvation, but we have the simplicity of salvation in our text.

Dr. Bob Jones, Sr., once said, "Truth's most becoming garment is simplicity." People are not confused because preachers have been too simple, but they are confused because preachers have been too complicated. Good preaching is not complicating a simple matter, but simplifying a complicated matter. Billy Sunday used to say, "Put the cookies on the lower shelf so everybody can reach them."

Whether this is true, I do not know, but I have been told that Charles Finney really didn't start out to preach. But he went to hear other preachers preach, and they used such words that the average man couldn't understand. Being a lawyer and an educated man, he could understand them. I am told that Charles Finney would gather people together and explain what the preacher had said from the pulpit. And he drew larger crowds explaining what the preacher had said than the preacher drew when he preached the sermon! Make your message so simple that anybody can understand it.

Salvation is so simple that we stumble over it. We can't believe it is that easy. Does our text say, "Look unto me, and be baptized and join the church"? No. Does it say, "Look unto me, and live right"? No. Does it read, "Look unto me, turn over a new leaf, and promise never to sin again"? Oh no! We do one thing to get saved: we look to Christ.

When Moses raised that brazen serpent in the wilderness, he said to those who were bitten and doomed to die, 'Look and live.' He didn't say, "All you who have 20/20 vision, look and you will live, but you who are blind in one eye don't have a chance." He just said, "Look." You could have been blind in one eye and hardly have had sight in the other, but with what sight you had, if you looked at that brazen serpent, you lived.

People say to me, "I don't think I have enough faith to be saved." It is not the measure of faith but the object of faith who saves. You can have a little bitty faith and a great big Saviour. If, with what little, quivering faith you have, you will look to Jesus, then you will be saved.

Not a man in this room put his breakfast through a chemical analysis before he ate it. You just sat down and started eating. You don't know that your spouse wouldn't put rat poison in that food! Blind faith. You trusted her.

When you eat in a restaurant, you eat by faith. I have sat down in a restaurant and noticed bread left on plates and nice pieces of meat. I wonder: Do they throw out that good, uneaten stuff? That seems like such a waste. Everyone has faith.

The simplicity of salvation—"Look unto me" is all He is saying. With the little faith you have, even if it be just the least bit, say, "I cannot save myself. I believe Jesus died for me, and I'm looking to Him, trusting Him to take me to Heaven," and you will be saved.

The word look means "to depend on, to rely on." That same expression is found in Hebrews 12:2, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith." Martin Luther translated that, "Oft looking unto Jesus," which has the idea of looking away from everything else and looking only to Jesus—looking away from our baptism, our works, our good life, our promises to do better, our reformation—looking only to Jesus.

Do I make myself clear? I'm struggling. I don't want you to trust anything but Jesus. I want you to live right, go to church, get baptized, tithe. But when it comes to salvation, I want you to say, "My hope is built on nothing less, than Jesus' blood and righteousness. I am trusting Him and Him alone to get me to Heaven."

The Source of salvation—Jesus.
The scope of salvation—"all the ends of the earth."
The simplicity of salvation—just look.

Isn't that simple? Jesus made it that easy for us. He did the hard part two thousand years ago when He suffered Hell at Calvary for the whole world. I won't get into trying to explain that, except to say that He was infinite. He could suffer infinitely. And He did it in those few hours when He was suspended between Heaven and earth, as if rejected by both.

We have seen the Source of salvation, the scope of salvation, the simplicity of salvation. One is saved by simply trusting, simply believing, simply depending on Jesus.

IV. THE SURETY OF SALVATION

Now, the surety of salvation. "Look unto me, and be ye saved." We use that word all the time. Sometimes an unsaved world doesn't understand our terminology, especially those who don't go to church. If you say, "So-and-so got saved," they think he was in a house on fire and was pulled out of the back bedroom window. Or he was drowning, and somebody threw him a lifeline and dragged him in. To the world, saved means saved from something. If you save a man from a burning building, you save him from burning to death. If you save a man from drowning, you drag him out of the lake before he goes under for the last time. And when a man is saved in the Bible sense, he is saved from the penalty of sin, which is Hell.

To be saved means I am saved from Hell, the lake of fire. And when I get to Heaven, I'll be saved from the very practice and presence of sin. But right now, I am saved from the penalty of sin, for Jesus paid the penalty at Calvary.

"Look unto me, and be ye saved."

The Bible tells us that, but most religions teach that you are not saved when you look to Jesus. They say you are put in a position to be saved, provided you don't mess up again, or provided you endure to the end, or provided you keep the Ten Commandments. You have looked to Jesus and are trusting Him, but if you mess up, too bad. But all of us know we are going to mess up.

We are not saved by not messing up; we are saved by looking to Him. "Look unto me, and be ye saved"—not put into a position to be saved provided you do this and do that; but look unto Him, and be saved.

Do you know that if you are in danger of being lost, you are not saved? You were just put into a position to be saved, provided something doesn't happen. If I swim out into the middle of the lake to rescue you, then drag you ninety yards and leave you ten yards from shore, then brag after I get back to shore that I have saved you—I didn't save you. I put you in a position to be saved provided you could swim ten yards.

And if you look to Jesus and He says, "You will go to Heaven if you don't do this, or if you do that," He doesn't save you; He puts you in a position to be saved if you can do this or if you can refrain from doing the other.

No, when you looked to Jesus, you were saved right then and there. And you couldn't go to Hell if you tried. Justification is an act that cannot be reversed nor followed by condemnation.

The Source of salvation—Jesus.
The scope of salvation—"the ends of the earth."
The simplicity of salvation—just looking, just trusting.
The surety—and be saved.

I am saved. I am going to Heaven. Why? Because I'm looking to Jesus. I'm trusting Jesus. And if you will look to Him, you too will be saved. Trust Him alone and nothing else.

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

2.2.7 Pastor J.D. Farag Preaches Another Gospel (2021-02-07 00:32)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures*:

" Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? "

The inspired Word of God plainly defines "the Gospel" (i.e., the Good News) as Jesus' death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and His physical resurrection three days later. The only requirement to be saved is that a man acknowledge his sinful guilty condition, so he will come to the light of the truth of the Gospel to trust Jesus as His personal Savior. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

In sharp contrast, read how Pastor J.D. Farag sinfully embellishes the Gospel, requiring more than God does to be saved...

> ADMIT THAT YOU'RE A SINNER. This is where that godly sorrow leads to genuine repentance for sinning against the righteous god and there is a change of heart, we change our mind and God changes our hearts and regenerates us from the inside out.
>
> BELIEVE IN YOUR HEART THAT JESUS CHRIST DIED FOR YOUR SINS, WAS BURIED, AND THAT GOD RAISED JESUS FROM THE DEAD. Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ died for your sins, was buried, and that God raised Jesus from the dead. This is trusting with all of your heart that Jesus Christ is who he said he was.
>
> CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD. This is trusting with all of your heart that Jesus Christ is who he said he was. Every single person who ever lived since Adam will bend their knee and confess with their mouth that Jesus Christ is Lord, the Lord of Lords and the King of Kings.

The first big theological error that Pastor Farag makes is to teach that repentance involves a change of behavior, which he makes clear implications to by his wording. The famous preacher John Bunyan (1628-1688) made this astoundingly truthful and helpful statement:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Secondly, Pastor Farag makes another theological error by associating Christ's Lordship with salvation. Not one verse in the Bible teaches that a person must declare or receive Jesus as "Lord" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Jesus never one time said to receive Him as your "Lord" to be saved, He simply said to believe "ON ME."

As an illustration of how absurd Pastor Farag's corrupt plan of salvation is, let me use the following example. The way Pastor Farag presents the Gospel would be like me buying my son a birthday gift. It is fully paid for already because I bought it with my own money. I offer it to him as a gift, but then I say these words:

> "Here is a free gift that I bought for you son. I want you to have it, but with the understanding that I am the head of this household. I am your boss and you need to recognize and honor that if you take this gift. And if you are genuine in your appreciation to accept this gift, I will see your room clean, chores done, and the yard needs to be moved each weekend for the next year. Now it's a free gift son, and I paid for it, but you must always remember that I am in charge around here, and I expect to see your chores done, and the grass mowed, otherwise that will show me you really didn't accept this gift."

Would that be a gift? Absolutely not! It would in fact be a reward that is earned, and not a free gift that is simply received. Yet that is the very same type of theological garbage preached at Bob Jones University, Master's University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Cemetery, Moody Bible Institute, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, and Calvinist churches all across America and the world.

The Apostle Paul was really upset with the churches of Galatia, because they had embraced a religious cult that zealously affected them, but not according to the truth of the Gospel. ...

> Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

Paul simply wanted to know if they were saved by works or by the hearing of faith. That is, when you hear the Gospel preached and you believe it, you are saved.

In Acts 10:34-43 the Apostle Peter simply preached the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen to Cornelius and his friends. Peter never told them to do one thing, he just preached the Gospel. And as Peter preached, the Bible says the people who heard him believed and were indwelt with the Holy Spirit. That is, they were saved! Amen! This beautiful true story so beautifully demonstrates the simplicity of salvation. Peter didn't require them to repent or turn away from their sinning. Peter didn't require them to exchange all that they are for all that Christ is (which is [3]the junk theology Dr. John MacArthur preaches). No, Peter simply told them the wonderful story of Jesus. Believe it oh sinner and you'll be saved too!

2.2.8 Abraham's Seed Were All Saved By Faith Alone (2021-02-08 09:30)

Galatians 3:7-14, "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith."

The people in the Old Testament were saved by grace, just as we are today. People today in the New Testament who are not saved are still under the law. Every unsaved person, whether living during the Old or New Testament is under the curse of the law. Romans 10:3-4 teaches that Jesus is the fulfillment of the law, to all that believe. The Old Testament law showed people they were sinners (Romans 3:19-20), but atonement was through the blood of the Lamb (Exodus 12:13). They were saved by faith, and removed from the curse of the law, just as we are today. There has always been only one plan of salvation, and that is through faith in Christ (Acts 10:43). What saith the Scripture?

If people in the Old Testament had been saved by faith plus works (essentially works), then there would have been no need for Christ to die on the cross...

> Galatians 2:21, "
>
> I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

The Bible is adamantly clear that people of all time have been saved only through faith in Christ...

> Romans 3:23-31, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law."

Romans 3:30 plainly teaches that whether a Jew who is circumcized (ceremonial law), or a Gentile who is uncircumcizied (not under ceremonial law), they are BOTH saved BY FAITH!!! There was not a separate plan of salvation just for Jews, nor for Old Testament saints. In our text passage from Galatians 3:7-14, the Bible plainly teaches that salvation has always been through faith in Jesus Christ. If people in the Old Testament had been saved by works, or faith plus works, then the Bible would have plainly stated it so. But that is NOT what the Bible says at all. What saith the Scripture? The following Scripture passage plainly calls Peter S. Ruckman, Chett Hensley, Gene Kim, Bryan Denlinger and William P. Grady theological liars...

> Galatians 3:21-26, "Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

You just read it yourself—if there had been given a law which could have given life, then salvation would have been by the law. But it never has been, nor ever will be, by the law. Righteousness comes only by God's grace through childlike faith in Jesus Christ!!! The law, then and now, is a schoolmaster to bring us TO CHRIST, to be justified by faith.

This intriguing passage of Scriptures clearly teaches that salvation has always been by faith alone. No man has ever been justified by keeping the law. Peter Ruckman, Chett Hensley, Gene Kim, Bryan Denlinger and Bill Grady are all heretics to say that Old Testament saints were saved by works. Kindly said, they are theological ignoramuses. God preached the GOOD NEWS to Abraham, and that GOSPEL is that all sinners can be saved through faith in the Messiah. In John 4:21-25, the Samaritan woman told Jesus that they were looking and waiting for the Messiah, Who would save them. She was looking to Christ, not trying to keep a bunch of commandments in the law.

I am tired of wacky dispensational teachers wrestling the Scripture to say what it doesn't say. Only by reading into the Bible what it doesn't say, can anyone teach that people were saved by works in the Old Testament. Most of these false prophets also claim salvation will be by works during the future Tribulation and Millennial period. Clearly, they are wrong! Salvation has always been, and always will be, by the grace of God. Romans 4:1-5 is very clear that if salvation were ever by works, then it would be of debt, meaning God OWES them salvation. God has never owed anyone eternal life.

We are sinners, so we owe the debt. Jesus came to die on the cross, and shed His precious blood, to pay our sin debt. Therefore, everyone who was saved during the Old Testament was saved by Jesus' payment on the cross, and not by their own human effort to keep the law. This is what Romans 4:1-4,

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

" Abraham was justified by faith, as have been all saints since. Galatians 3:26, "

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

2.2.9 Turning From Sins Verses Coming To Christ As A Sinner (2021-02-09 16:21)

Romans 3:19-20, “

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.”

Galatians 3:18-19,

For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions*, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25, “

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

This will be one of the most important blog articles you will ever read dear friend. There is so much confusion in churches today over God’s plan of salvation. It is not man’s plan of salvation, it is God’s. Titus 1:2, “In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

” God promises eternal life to whosoever wants it (1st Corinthians 1:21). All you need to do is come to God as a needy sinner and receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior. Simply accept Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He died and was buried, physically resurrecting from the dead three days later. This Good News is called (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The Gospel is Good News to be believed, not a religious life to be lived. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

It is not okay to merely believe whatever you want. Right doctrine matters! There has been ongoing theological debate over the meaning of “ repentance

for centuries. The Greek word for “r

in the New Testament is metanoia, which simply means

a change of mind.

That is all it means. God deliberately chose this word because it is an open-ended, all-inclusive, term.

What do you need to change your mind about to be saved? The answer is whatever is hindering you from BELIEVING the Gospel. We get saved by BELIEVING, not by REPENTING!

Faith and repentance are simply two parts of one act of obedience to God. You don’t repent first and then believe. Repentance and faith are simply two different ways of looking at salvation. They are as two sides of the same coin.

The following helpful information is quoted from Dr. John R. Rice’s invaluable verse-by-verse Bible commentary titled, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pages 250-252:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. [emphasis added]

With those truths in mind, now it makes perfect sense what we read in Acts 20:21, “Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.” Please notice that repentance is “ toward God

from sin.

” Dr. Rice just said: “One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ.” Please don’t miss what he said. Dr. Rice is NOT teaching that you must turn from your sin to be saved. Brother Rice is teaching that by trusting in Jesus Christ, you have turned from sin. In other words, we are saved by believing, not by turning from anything. In other words, we repent TO believe, we don't repent AND believe. Repentance and faith are one and the same step of obedience to receive eternal life.

Many False Prophets Are Gone Out Into The World

I am making a big fuss over this, because many false preachers today are saying that you didn't really get saved if you're still living in willful open sin. [1]Pastor Charles Lawson is one of them, who heretically states:

> "The Bible colleges around the country will stand at the Judgment Seat of Christ, and give an account for removing repentance from salvation and conversion. How can you be saved if you're not willing to repent*. Salvation is not believing a bunch of stuff about Christ. You can change your mind what you believe about Him. And where you said before, 'I don't believe all this,' now you say, 'I believe all this.' Does that make you born again? 'For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness.'
> SOURCE: Pastor Charles Lawson, "[2]True Repentance"

Yes, believing sure does make you born-again! Pastor Lawson is perverting the Gospel, adding the requirement to be willing to change your behavior to be saved. That is not what it means in the Bible to "

[3]repent.

" Dr. Lawson has a wrong mindset. He views repentance as meaning a willingness to turn away from committing sins. But that is not how you get saved. You get saved by putting your trust in Jesus Christ. So whatever is hindering you from believing is all that you need to change your mind about. Let's examine John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." Carefully notice that TRUTH is the issue of repentance, and not turning away from one's sinful ways. He that DOETH TRUTH cometh to the light. That light of the truth is the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

May I point out that repentance is not a part of the Gospel. That is correct. The Apostle Paul defines in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection . There is no mention of repenting of your sins! Likewise, in the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but the word "repent" is not mentioned even once! And again in Galatians 3:1-2, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

The Gospel

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

” Please notice those word which keep appearing

THE TRUTH.

” A person gets saved by obeying THE TRUTH, which is to believe the truth of the Gospel. Notice that the Apostle Paul asks the Galatians how they got saved (i.e., indwelt by the Holy Spirit)—was it by the works of the law, or was it by the hearing of faith? I love that phrase—the hearing of faith. When you hear the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ preached and you believe it, you are immediately and forever saved!

Repentance Is Simply Coming To God As A Needy Sinner

There is a world of difference between telling someone that they must turn from their sins to be saved, which implies that they must forsake sinful bad habits; versus coming to God as a needy sinner and trusting in Jesus Christ to save you. Respectfully said, Pastor Charles Lawson of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee is wrong! Pastor Lawson is a Calvinist in his corrupt theology. Mr. Lawson is a good man and means well, of that I have no doubt, but he is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures concerning repentance. Dr. Lawson errantly views repentance as something that the sinner must do, but salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). The reason why the Gospel of John never mentions repentance is simply because the man who believes has also repented. Repentance is automatic.

Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you’ll see your need, and come to Christ to be saved by faith alone (Galatians 3:26). What saith the Scripture?

2nd Timothy 2:25, “

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will. ” What a beautiful Bible verse!

I have kindly shown you from Acts 20:21 that repentance is toward God. I have shown you from 2nd Timothy 2:25 that repentance is simply acknowledging the truth. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to “repent of sin

or

turn from sin

to be saved. These are manmade concepts not found in God’s Word. Turning from sin to receive God’s free gift of eternal life is a manmade idea. Well-meaning but corrupt preachers have sinfully ADDED to the Scriptures, wrestling (torturing)

God’s inspired Word to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

[4]Evangelist Lou Martuneac rightly defines Lordship Salvation as:

> Defined briefly: Lordship Salvation is a position on the gospel in which “saving faith” is considered reliance upon the finished work of Jesus Christ. Lordship views “saving faith” as incomplete without an accompanying resolve to “forsake sin” and to “start obeying.” Lordship’s “sine qua non” (indispensable condition) that must be met to fully define “saving faith,” for salvation, is a commitment to deny self, take up the cross, and follow Christ in submissive obedience. (In Defense of the Gospel: Revised & Expanded Edition, p. 48.)

Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Whereas the Holy Bible simply requires the least amount of childlike faith to be saved, proponents of Lordship Salvation woefully complicate the Gospel. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness. There is a fine line between grace and works. But it is a very well defined line, so unmistakable that there is no controversy if you allow the Bible speak for itself, and don’t add to what God said. It is importance to understand what repentance is, and is not...

- Repentance is not penitence (feeling sorry for sins).
- Repentance is not penance (trying to remedy your sins).
- Repentance is not reformation (turning from your sins).
- Repentance is a change of mind (from wrong thinking to believing the Gospel).

Salvation has [5]always been by faith alone. A changed life is the result of the fruit of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

2.2.10 John 3:20 And Repentance (2021-02-10 09:30)

John 3:20,

“For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.”

I was thinking yesterday about what repentance means. It is quite simple my friend.

An unsaved person who loves their deliberate sinning (which is what evil is), won’t come to the light of a Christian (Matthew 5:14), the light of the Bible (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4), nor the light of Christ Himself (John 9:5). A person who loves sinning doesn’t want to have their sins spoken evil of (i.e., “ reproved,

John 3:20), which is why they WON’T COME to Christ to be saved. John 5:40, “And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.”

Repentance is “a change of mind.” What is it a change of mind about? The Bible doesn’t tell us. But whatever it is, it is the opposite of John 3:20, compelling a man to come to the light of the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25). The Bible teaches that sin is the problem, judgment (eternal damnation) is the consequence, and the imputed righteousness of Christ is the solution. Therefore, we can deduce that repentance is a man acknowledging these three truths—that he has sinned against a holy God and is deserving of punishment in Hell fire forever for his sins. When a man comes to this realization, having changed his mind, he will come to Jesus Christ to be saved.

But regardless of the focus of repentance (for those who want to debate), we know that the man who believes has repented. The way a man repents is by believing on the Son of God. Nothing more is required to be saved than to believe. Repentance is automatic. That is why the Gospel of John mentions the word “ believe

” 85 times, but no mention is made of the word

repent.

” The unsaved man doeth evil (willful premeditated sin); such as, abortion.

John 3:20,

“For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.” When a sinner changes his or her mind toward God (Acts 20:21), they will come to Christ for salvation.

Please understand that nowhere does the Bible define repentance as turning away from a lifestyle of sinning. To teach such nonsense is a false gospel. Tragically, that is what Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute and Master’s University errantly teach today to their students. These institutions are all followers of Pastor John MacArthur, who preaches the Devil’s falsehood of Lordship Salvation.

What I am about to say is very crucial. It is very important that every person take the inspired Word of God seriously, and not embellish what God said. God plainly commanded Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16-17 exactly what they could and couldn’t do in the Garden of Eden. God said they could freely eat of all the trees except one, which was the Tree of Knowledge. But the serpent came along in Genesis 3:1 to deceive Eve, and he twisted the Scriptures, lying to Eve, saying that God said they couldn’t eat from any of the trees. If Eve had gone exactly by what God said, she would have been okay, and not succumbed to temptation.

Likewise, if tens of thousands of John MacArthur’s deceived followers today, would simply compare what Mr. MacArthur teaches to the Word of God, they would reject his demonic heresy of Lordship Salvation. Right doctrine matters! Dr. MacArthur is a wolf in sheep’s clothing, who has a net worth of $14,000,000 from quote on quote, “serving God.” What saith the Scripture?

Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

" You just read it yourself, they are serving their OWN BELLY, not the Lord Jesus Christ. How do we know that? It is because they are teaching doctrine contrary to the Word of God.

Corrupt Modern Bible Revisions Pervert Meaning Of Repentance

Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace. I was absolutely disgusted the other day when I visited the website of the First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville, Florida. Their corrupt Statement of Faith gives 5 things that you must do to be saved, including this heretical step:

>
> Stop practicing the sin that is separating you from God. Therefore, I will judge each of you, O people of Israel, according to your actions, says the Sovereign Lord. Repent, and turn from your sins. Don't let them destroy you! EZEKIEL 18:30, NLT
> SOURCE: [1]https://giftofeternallife.blogspot.com/2021/01/the-corrupt-first-baptist-church-of.html

Nowhere does the Bible say to repent and turn from your sins to be saved. Nowhere does the Bible say to stop practicing sin to be saved. Although it is true that our sin has separated us from God, the only remedy is the precious blood of Jesus Christ that He shed on the cross of Calvary (1st Peter 1:18-19; Romans 5:9; 1st John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Turning from one's sins cannot atone for past sins. James 2:10 teaches that violating even one of God's Commandments makes us guilty of violating ALL of them!

One of the main reasons why so many churches have been corrupted today are all the new Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. If you'll notice in the preceding heretical quote I gave you from the corrupted First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville, they used the corrupted vile New Living Translation (NLT)...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 1:15, "And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."
> NEW LIVING TRANSLATION (NLT) - Mark 1:15, "The time promised by God has come at last!" he announced. "The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!"

Things that are different are not the same! Do you see what the wicked translators of the New Living Translation (NLT) did to corrupt the Word of God? They ADDED the words "of your sins" after the word repent. In so doing they have corrupted the true meaning of "repent," which is a Greek verb here (metanoeo) meaning "to think differently." Obviously thinking differently has nothing to do with the act of making an effort to stop from your sinning.

Turning From Sins Not Part Of The Gospel

> Question #44: In regard to salvation, what must be surrendered? Would it be accurate to say that one must only surrender his soul to be saved by Jesus? And that surrendering anything else would be a works-based salvation? Isn't this what lordship salvation teaches? You must be willing to surrender and be willing to turn from individual sins, pride, etc.? What is involved in "surrendering" to salvation? Would it be correct to say that the ONLY sin one must surrender would be the sin of unbelief (not trusting in Christ)? I have heard if one isn't willing to publicly confess Christ, then they haven't totally surrendered. But if that is the case, wouldn't this be works based?
> John Van Gelderen Answers:
>
> Insightful questions! There is much misunderstanding in this area. Several questions have been submitted along these lines revealing the confusion that is prevalent. See also Question #14 and Question #18 among others.
>
> The issue is not between soul and body. Soul-focus can be off-based too. The issue is the object of faith and the condition of salvation. The lordship salvation debate is not a debate on whether Jesus is Lord, but on what constitutes the condition of receiving salvation.
>
> If surrender is made to be anything more than the flip-side of faith, it becomes works. The Holy Spirit convicts of sin as the problem, judgment as the consequence, and the righteousness of Jesus as the answer. [John 16:8-11] Being convinced of these three truths, when someone surrenders to them, they are trusting in Christ as the righteousness needed to be saved from sin and judgment. This is faith. Yet this is surrender in the correct sense. The only sin that cannot be forgiven is not believing in Jesus. Therefore, the core issue of surrender is believing on Jesus Christ.
>
> When surrender is defined as turning from your sins or being willing to turn from your sins (your commitment to do right), grace is violated. This definition unwittingly places your dependence on yourself—your commitment to do right, your willingness to turn from your sins, instead of on Christ (the object of faith) to save you from yours sins. The focus of surrender must be on Christ, or the surrender becomes works-oriented.
> Regarding the public profession of faith, what is stated above applies. Joseph of Arimathea was a secret disciple. This means he was in fact a believer, and his being labeled by the inspired text as a disciple was contingent on his faith in Christ, not his public confession.

We are at war today in the churches over the accuracy of the Gospel. We are at war today in the churches over the purity of God's Word. Wicked people are recklessly torturing the Word of God, translating it haphazardly without any scholarly integrity whatsoever. Wicked people have taken over the Bible colleges, “ teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake

” (Titus 1:11).

Going back to what I said earlier about Eve. The serpent changed the Word of God in Genesis 3:1. The serpent changed God’s Word to say the direct opposite of what God had said. The Lord said they could eat all the fruit (except one), the serpent quoted God as saying they couldn’t any of the fruit. Things that are different are not the same. When the New Living Translation (NLT) changes Mark 1:15 to say you must repent “ of your sins,

that is Satan telling you to do the exact opposite of what God actually told you to do.

What saith the Scripture? Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” There you have it! To receive God’s free gift of eternal life, you absolutely must CEASE from any and all works! The corrupt First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville, quotes from the corrupted NLT version, requiring you do “

Stop practicing sin

(which is works). Repenting (turning away from) your sins is a work. Foolish pastors all across America have succumbed to this theological trap, leading their congregations into the false-hood of Lordship Salvation, which brings eternal damnation.

2.2.11 The Bob Jones Crowd Are Sinfully Indifferent (2021-02-11 09:30)

1st Kings 16:31, "And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him." Matthew 5:18, "For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." Matthew 10:30, "But the very hairs of your head are all numbered." 1st Peter 5:7, "Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:"

I chose these various Bible verses about caring, and not caring. King Ahab made light of committing sin. Ahab married an ungodly woman named Jezebel, who stirred up his heart to do evil (1st Kings 21:25). That is the same wickedness of Bob Jones University and many of their graduates today—making light of the Devil's corrupt Bibles, making light of the Devil's corrupt teaching of Lordship Salvation, making light of bidding Godspeed to false prophets like John MacArthur, and stirring up their followers to commit the same sins. [1]Dr. MacArthur is a 5-point Calvinist! Dear reader, Calvinists are NOT saved. John Calvin (1509-1564) was a mass-murdering thug (he murdered 58 people, including women and children). Mr. Calvin was a heretic, who corrupted the Scriptures, leading multitudes of followers into Hell, fire and eternal damnation. How tragic it is, that 600 years later, Bob Jones University follows this man. John MacArthur is a modern-day John Calvin in his theology, adhering to all 5-points of Calvinism.

Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) simplifies the issue, [2]refuting all 5-points of Calvinism with the inspired King James Bible. Right doctrine matters! Since the beginning of human civilization, indifference toward truth and doing the right thing have always been a struggle. Human nature is to be selfish, to go along with the crowd, to avoid confrontations, to be a coward. I meet so many professed Christians from the Bob Jones' camp who are cowards!

We live in a generation of cowardly preachers today! I'm talking about the big cowards at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

God knows that I don't hate anybody. I just can't stand a religious coward who stands behind a pulpit! Why don't they be real men and go get a secular job, instead of parasiting off of Christianity, pretending that they care? They don't care, which is why I am writing like this! I wouldn't give you a dime for the coward Dr. Steve Pettit! Mr. Pettit is a wicked man, who [3]bids Godspeed to John MacArthur, [4]endorses corruptible seed , and [5]preaches another gospel . These men that I have mentioned get paid lucrative salaries. Marty Herron is the Executive Vice President (since 2018) of the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. Marty gets paid an exorbitant 6-digit salary. They should fire him and and hire a chimpanzee, [6]which would understand the Gospel better than he does!

Dr. Steve Pettit gets paid even more, likely upwards of $200,000 a year as President of Bob Jones Hellhole University in South Carolina! These are religious phonies—indifferent men who straddle the fence, Neo-evangelicals, who play both sides of the game to lure more students for money, refusing to suffer reproach for the name of Christ, refusing to be put outside the gate with Jesus (as I am as a fighting Fundamentalist). The Bob Jones' crowd choose the easy path, the comfortable way, the apostate direction! I often pray for God to curse the Harvest Baptist Church Cult on Guam, but then I find solace in Galatians 1:6-9 which says they ARE ALREADY CURSED BY GOD, for preaching [7]another gospel of " [8] turn from your sins

I care dear reader! That is my great crime, for which I have been excommunicated and ostracized by Harvest Baptist Church on Guam since 2014, I simply cared enough in love to tell THE TRUTH. I will NEVER shut up! When a godly man (admittedly broken and sinful as I am) tells THE TRUTH in love at a so-called New Testament Baptist church, but is rebuked and driven out for it, you know the Devil has taken control over that fake church! God's curse is upon the Bob Jones' crowd. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself was correct on the Gospel, and said that if he could 50 years later, [10]he'd blow Bob Jones College to smithereens if they ever allowed an infidel like [11]Dr. Steve Pettit to rob the saints of their faith, which he has!!! Kindly said, Steve Pettit is a devil-dog preacher and he is [12]NOT saved!

I just wrote an article the other day. exposing the wickedness of [13]BJU promoting the ungodly English Standard Version (ESV), which removes God's condemnation of the homosexual deathstyle. These new modern revisions are PERVERSIONS! Sadly, BJU's leaders couldn't care less, because Dr. Steve Pettit and the rest of their group are sinfully INDIFFERENT toward sin, corruption, heresy and apostasy in the churches. They just want to make money, evidenced by BJU's middle of the road attitude on everything. Christian parents, the worst thing you can do is finance your child to attend some dead theological institution like Moody Bible Institute, Liberty University, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Master's University or Bob Jones University. Hey, [14]take a look at the shady financial things going on at Master's University. I rest my case! [15]These people serve their bellies, and NOT the Lord Jesus Christ. I am not trying to be unkind, God knows my heart.

[16]Please listen to these wonderful words from one of my favorite Bible preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, exposing the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, and preaching against those ungodly pastors today who are indifferent toward such wickedness (or worse, teach it, like the apostate Bob Jones' camp). The Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation makes me upset! Forgive my rudeness at times in my preaching. I truly don't like making enemies, but telling THE TRUTH is the fastest way to make enemies in a church today! Genesis 3:1 says that the serpent (the Devil) was more subtle than any other creature. The Devil is so crafty that he has even deceived pastors and churches to accept counterfeit Bibles and a false plan of salvation.

I love the Bob Jones' camp, but they don't love Jesus! I love Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, but they don't want me either. I am a misfit, but I love Jesus (Who is the way, the truth and the life)! The ungodly Bob Jones University crowd preach Lordship Salvation; " But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

" (1st Corinthians 1:23). The Bob Jones' crowd have much blood on their hands. Their day of reckoning is coming with God (Hebrews 4:13; Romans 14:10).

Sadly, the Bob Jones' crowd are as arrogant, blind and foolish as Roman Catholics, Mormons and Seventh-Day Adventists, who all errantly teach that you must turn away from your sins to be saved. If I had my way, all of BJU's leaders would be fired, and Harvest's pastors fired, and Dr. Marty Herron would work at MacDonald's where he belongs. These ungodly men have profaned the pulpit with their theological lies, corrupting the Word of God and perverting God's grace. They couldn't care less about truth or people outside their snobby clique. They have haughty sinful attitudes and a spirit of contempt toward me and other caring Fundamentalists.

2.2.12 'Saved By The Bell' Star Dustin Diamond Dies At Age 44 (2021-02-12 09:30)

James 4:13-14, "Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

I was saddened to read in the [1]news today about Dustin Diamond. The popular actor was only 44 years old. He learned on January 15th 2021 that he had stage 4 cancer, and three weeks later he passed away. I didn't know cancer could go from first being detected to death in just three weeks. I am sad for Dustin's family. Life is so short and unpredictable. I am still processing that Eddie Van Halen died last year. Life goes so fast, especially as we grow older. Looking back, I don't know where the past 20 years have gone so fast.

Dear friend, are you ready to meet your Maker? Isaiah 51:12-13, "

I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

" God is our Creator.

Life is so short! Lord willing I will turn 54 on March 5th, 2021. My life is almost over. My Mom lived to be 65. My Dad lived to be 76. How much time can I have left? I could die of a heart attack and be in eternity by sundown today. We just don't know. James 4:13-14, "Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

I beseech you dear reader to make sure you are saved. You don't have to live a certain way to prove that you're saved. In fact, if you have to prove you're saved by looking at your life, it just proves that you're not! Salvation is the gift of God.

Jesus paid it all. The way to be saved is to come as a guilty sinner to God, and wholly rest in Jesus' name, believing that He died on the cross to pay for your sins, was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). We are all guilty and needy sinners. Jesus is the blessed Savior. Any needy sinner who comes to the Lord by faith, receiving His sacrifice upon the cross as payment for your sins, is saved (Romans 10:9-13). I don't know where Dustin Diamond went in eternity. I couldn't find anything online about what or who he trusted in for Heaven, or if he even believed in Heaven. I do not know. I sure hope he was a born-again Christian, but I don't know. I wrote this article friend so that [2]YOU CAN KNOW!

Matthew 24:11-13, "And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved*.

This is one of the most controversial passages in the Bible, the phrase: “He that shall endure unto the end shall be saved.” Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely once said: “

A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” I couldn’t agree more! Having said that, I want to share the following helpful quote from Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) explaining the meaning of Matthew 24:13...

> “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved”
>
> (vs. 13). What does it mean? Arminians have often insisted that it meant people would be saved or kept saved by their own enduring, by their holy living. But that interpretation would contradict some of the plainest statements in the Bible like,
>
>
> For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast
>
>
> (Eph. 2:8, 9). Again it is promised,
>
> “
>
> Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life
>
>
> (John 5:24). Clearly one who trusts in Jesus Christ is saved. not by works, but by God’s grace.
>
> The Scripture makes clear that our salvation is solely on the merits of Jesus Christ and His atonement. “Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot” (I Pet. 1:18, 19). How could I ne saved by enduring to the end, and at the same time be saved by the precious blood of Christ? How could I be saved by enduring, yet be saved by grace and without works?
> No, the word saved here has a different context. Here in Matthew 24:13 Jesus is not speaking of the redemption of a soul. He speaks rather of the rescue of Jews in the midst of the tribulation. That tribulation is plainly described in verses 15 to 21, and verse 22 says, “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved.” So the word “saved” in verse 13 and the word “saved” in verse 22 refer to the same thing: the salvation or rescue of the flesh of Jewish people during the tribulation. In mercy God will cut short the tribulation time and will rescue Jews out of the tribulation. Surely some Jew, greatly tempted and threatened with death in the tribulation time, will read this promise of Jesus with joy and faith. He will hold on to his faith, will not renounce the Saviour, and the time will be cut short and he will be rescued.

> It would be a serious mistake to make verse 13 refer to the great plan of salvation for the soul, for thus it would contradict many other plain statements in the Bible showing that salvation is not by works, not by man's goodness or faithfulness or endurance, but by virtue of the blood of Jesus Christ. That salvation is received by penitent faith.

I have three comments to make regarding what Dr. Rice just taught:

1. I agree 100 % on his interpretation of Matthew 24:13, that "saved" refers to the saving of human flesh during the Tribulation period, and not the saving of the soul.
2. I totally disagree that this passage refers to the Jews. What saith the Scripture? Matthew 24:22, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." The elect (or chosen) refer to born-again believers, not Jews. God does not choose anyone to salvation, but for those who choose Jesus Christ, they are the chosen of God. Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." This passage plainly teaches that Physical Jews are not the recipient of God's promises, but saved Jews, which promises have also been extended to the Gentiles by faith. Galatians 3:7, "Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham."
3. Nowhere does the Bible require "penitent faith" to receive the free gift of salvation. Respectfully, Dr. Rice is adding to the Scriptures! I don't like when preachers use language that are not found in the Bible. I triple-dog dare you to show me where the Bible speaks of "penitent faith." It does not! But I can show you hundreds of passages which plainly teach salvation by "faith" (Ephesians 2:8-9; Galatians 3:26; Romans 4:5-6). There is no mention of having a certain remorseful attitude toward sin. [1]Evangelist Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) gets it 100 % correct!!! Sorrow for sins may accompany repentance, but sorrow itself is not repentance. Judas felt sorrow for his sins, but it was a false repentance which did not lead to salvation (Matthew 27:3). Repentance is a change of mind unto the Gospel itself, so that the man who believes has repented, and the man who repents (i.e., changes his mind) has believed. Preachers must be extremely careful not to require what God does not require. The only "change of mind" which God requires to be saved is the acknowledgment of THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25), that one is a guilty sinner in the sight of God (Romans 3:19-20), in need of the Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). Dr. Rice further states:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns > from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

>

I am far from done dear friend. Matthew 24:13 is a highly tortured Scripture! That is what the word “ wrest

means in 2nd Peter 3:16,

to torture

the Scripture! 2nd Peter 3:16,

“As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. ” One of my favorite Bible teachers is Pastor Harry Ironside (1875-1951), but he utterly made a grave error in his commentary on Matthew 24:13, applying it to the great plan of salvation...

> People say, "I see you believe in that old Baptist doctrine of ’once in grace, always in grace.’" Or another says, "I understand you hold that old Presbyterian idea of ’the final perseverance of the saints.’" I do not know why this should be called either Baptist or Presbyterian, only to the extent that Baptists and Presbyterians agree with the Book, and the Word of God clearly shows that once God takes us up in grace nothing can separate us from the love of Christ so that evidently the expression, "once in grace, always in grace," is a perfectly correct one. But, on the other hand, I am not so enthusiastic about the other expression, "the perseverance of the saints." I believe in it; I believe that all saints—all really belonging to God—will persevere to the end, for the Book tells me, "He that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved" (Matthew 24:13), and if a man starts out and makes a profession but gives it all up, he will never be saved, because he was never born again to begin with, he was never truly changed by grace divine. On the other hand, the reason he endures to the end is not because of any particular perseverance of his own. What I believe in, and what the Word of God clearly teaches, is the perseverance of the Holy Spirit. When He begins a work, He never gives up until it is completed. That is our confidence. I have two things to say about Dr. Ironside’s teachings above:

1. He is very mistaken to even cite Matthew 24:13 as pertaining to the great plan of salvation, which is obtained solely on the merit of Jesus’ precious blood and not human endurance to the end. No preacher ought ever even mention Matthew 24:13 when teaching salvation, unless you are exposing Calvinism.

2. I fully agree with Dr. Ironside that if a person who once professed Christianity, now denies Christianity altogether, they never experienced the new birth in the first place. There is no such thing as: "I used to be a Christian." You either are one now and always will be; or else you are not a Christian today and never have been. Christianity is not a philosophy, organization, culture or business, it is a NEW BIRTH! Just as the physical birth is irreversible, so also is the spiritual birth (John 1:12-13; 1st Peter 1:23). Albeit, Moody Bible Institute today falsely claims that Dr. Ironside moved toward "[4]a position of moderate Calvinism" toward his latter ministry, based on nothing more than the preceding comment I shared with you from his book. Dr. Ironside plainly stated that he does not believe in the Perseverance Of The Saints heresy, except that he believes the Holy Spirit will persevere in every believer, if one is truly born-again. I fully agree! This has absolutely nothing to do with the believer's dedication, faithfulness or holiness; but rather, God's faithfulness to never leave nor forsake any believer (Hebrews 13:5).

By foolishly citing Matthew 24:13 in reference to the great plan of salvation, Dr. Ironside gave reprobate Calvinists an inch, so they took a foot! Although wrong in his application of Matthew 24:13, it is clear from Pastor Ironside's own words that he did not like nor teach the heresy that any believer must " in holiness and service to Christ to be saved. This is a very big deal dear reader, because wicked false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) are preaching that... well, read his heretical words for yourself:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end*; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —[5]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]11:34)

Ephesians 1:13-15 teaches that every believer is sealed with God's Holy Spirit at the time of salvation. The Holy Spirit will NEVER leaves the Christian, not for any reason (Hebrews 13:5). When we sin, grace more abounds (Romans 5:20). The believer is no longer under the curse of the law, but is now under God's grace forever. Once saved, always saved (OSAS). Anyone who denies OSAS is NOT saved, because they are requiring more than God does for redemption.

Adding even the least human effort to faith cancels grace. Dear reader, God is faithful (1st Corinthians 3:9). We are kept saved because God is faithful, not because we are faithful. If we have to live a holy life to prove that we are saved, then faith is not enough. We are saved because the indwelling Holy Spirit endures, not because we endure! When we got saved, we accepted a free gift, and that gift is eternal life. Romans 6:23, " For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2.2.14 There's Lots Of Confusion Today But God's Not Confused (2021-02-14 00:24)

Acts 19:32, "Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together." 1st Corinthians 14:33, "

For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

We are living in very confusing times in the United States. I have never seen so much confusion as there is today. Sadly, even the churches are confused. I can't think of anything more confusing than having literally hundreds of English Bible versions. You couldn't make this up in a good science fiction movie, having hundreds of Bibles to choose from. Whatever happened to having an infallible, inerrant and inspired Holy Bible? Obviously Satan wants to confuse everybody. Pastor Jack Hyles had this to say about the modern Bible versions:

> "You'd be shocked if you knew, how the versions of the Bible that are coming out, which are so unnecessary and not even Bible. You'd be shocked if you knew what they're doing to cause Christian people to feel subconsciously unstable! You'd be shocked if you knew what it's doing to the nervous system of our people—all these Bibles!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, MP3 sermon, [1]Don't Chase The Pendulum (1986).

Consequently, because of conflicting Bible version content, there is much confusion in churches today regarding how to get to Heaven. Some preachers errantly claim that you must turn away from living in sin to be saved. Others say you must be water baptized. Some preachers teach you must surrender your whole life to Christ to be saved, as an exchange of all you are for all that Christ is. My understanding of the King James Bible is that you simply need to BELIEVE the Good News that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried, and three days later He resurrected bodily from the dead.

Who is right? Who is wrong? It cannot be both. What confusion! Don't tell me that it is okay for some preachers to teach that you must cease from willful sinning to be saved, and others do not. You either must forsake your sinful lifestyle of stealing, adultery and drug abuse to be saved or you do not, but it cannot be both. What saith the Scripture? Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." God doesn't owe anyone anything! Salvation is by faith alone. The truth is that you couldn't turn away from your sins if you tried dear friend. The Bible says that even our best righteous efforts and human goodness are absolute filth to God (Isaiah 64:6).

These are confusing times. Everywhere I go in public today, even on the island of Guam, I see young people who are transgendered. I cannot discern if they are male or female, and that is sad. I'm a bit nearsighted at age 53, but my eyes aren't going that bad! The Devil wants to blur the lines of gender. Pastor Jack Hyles preached a helpful sermon on this topic called: "[2]UNISEX." I love everybody with God's love, so I am not bashing gays or being hateful, they need to know that God loves them. Jesus plainly said that He didn't come into the world to condemn sinners, but to save them (John 3:17; Luke 19:10).

God loves you dear reader and He desires for you to repent and be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). The way you "repent" is to simply "believe on the Lord Jesus Christ" (Acts 16:30-31). God has promised in His inspired Word **"

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b). No one can keep you out of Heaven except you! There is no sin or heinous evil so grotesque that God is not willing and able to forgive. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

I am listening to the Old Testament book of Jeremiah as I type. I listened to Proverbs yesterday. I just heard this Bible verse from Jeremiah 13:15, " Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken." I love that! Dear friend, God has spoken to us through His Son, through the Word of God (Hebrews 1:1-2; Revelation 19:13; John 5:39). There is no confusion for the man who anchors himself to the infallible, innerant and inspired King James Bible!!! Hebrews 6:19-20, "

Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

" What is our anchor? It is the PROMISES of God as recorded in the Scriptures.

I'd rather have Jesus than silver or gold
I'd rather be His than have riches untold
I'd rather have Jesus than houses or land
I'd rather be led by His nail-pierced hand!

There is no need to be confused friend. We have God's Word to light our path in this dark and dreary world of sin and confusion. Psalms 119:103-105, "How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

" The best way to expose the darkness is to shine the light! I am not confused about the Gospel. We are saved by faith alone without works (Ephesians 2:8-9). I am not confused about the Bible. We have the very pure inspired Words of God today in the inspired King James Bible (Psalms 12:6-7).

I am not confused about gender. God created every human being as either male or female (Genesis 1:27). I am not confused about which religion to join. There are approximately 4,400 different religions in the world. Salvation is not found in any religion, but in a person —the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 4:10-12). I am not confused about the issue of abortion. Taking innocent life is first-degree premediated murder (Exodus 20:13). I am not confused about life. The whole duty of man is to fear God and keep His commandments (Ecclesiastes 12:13). The Word of God is a " LAMP

" unto our feet, lighting the way as we take each step (Psalm 119:105). Like a bright lighthouse on a steep cliff overlooking the darkness of a stormy sea, the inspired Word of God is a beacon of light to rescue the perishing in the stormy sea of life.

You don't need to be confused dear reader, and you are all dear to me. THANK YOU for allowing God to use my humble writings to be a part of your life. I take my blog and websites very seriously. I know your time is valuable and you have privileged me with your time, to read what I have to say. Believe you me, that thought continually weighs upon my heart. I want to be a blessing. I want to feed the Lord's sheep, not just vent or rant. There are billions of webpages, but you chose to come here. God bless you whoever you may be.

As I mentioned, you don't need to be confused in matters of faith, morals or life. The Bible has the answer! The Holy Bible is the answer! Jesus Christ is the answer to ALL your problems!!!

2.2.15 Americans Woefully Abuse The Word “Free” (2021-02-14 09:30)

Romans 5:15-18,

But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification. For if by one man’s offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

Ephesians 2:8-9, “

For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Aren’t those beautiful words? Eternal life is a “FREE GIFT.” God even used the word “FREE.” The Greek word for “free gift” is charisma. Thayer’s Greek Lexicon defines the word “charisma” as: “a favour with which one receives without any merit of his own.” Eternal life is a favor from God, a pardon, which a guilty sinner receives without any merit of his own.

Having said that, as an American I am so sick and tired of our lying society. Here is an example I found today...

Boy that sounds great right? But wait, there’s a catch... [3]5 Reasons Not To Use Wix For Your Website – A Brief Wix Review. Turns out, if you make a “ website, they’re going to bombard your website with advertisements to promote their business. So in reality they are using you! They are manipulating your hard work to create a website, either compelling you through annoying ads to pay Wix $168 a year to make the ads go away, or else they’ll just pimp your website with ads galore! So is Wix really

? I think not.

Sadly, that is how [4]Dr. Steve Pettit and [5]Bob Jones University preach a perverted plan of salvation nowadays. Out of one side of their mouth they insist that salvation is solely by God's grace, still a free gift. But then [6]out of the the side of their mouth they say you must " repent and turn away from sin

" (which is nowhere taught in the Bible) to be saved. You don't have to turn away from a lifestyle of sinning to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift. Clearly the Bob Jones camp are in theological denial. Romans 11:6,

"And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

" Salvation cannot be by both grace and works.

I have heard woefully ignorant preachers, like [7]Pastor Charles Lawson in Knoxville, Tennessee, teach that turning away from a lifestyle of sinning is not a work. Kindly said, he is very wrong and as foolish as the deceived Galatian churches (Galatians 3:1-3; 1:6-9). What do you think works is? Romans 3:19-20, "

Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." The law says not to commit adultery, right? So if you tell a man that he must stop living in adultery to be saved, you have effectively required him to keep the law to be saved.

Folks, that is exactly what all these wicked churches are teaching people today, with their heresy of Lordship Salvation. They claim that faith in Jesus as one's Savior is not enough to be saved. In addition, they say you must receive Jesus as your

Lord,

" so that you turn away from living in adultery and surrender your whole being to Christ as your Master. Anyone who is not ready to cease from their willful adulterous sinning is rejected by the Lordship Salvation crowd, told that God won't save them by faith alone. That is of the Devil.

Even Satan will receive an adulterer! Don't you tell me that God won't save an ungodly sinner. " CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY

" (Romans 5:6-9). The changed life comes after a person is saved, not as a requirement to be saved. God saves a man and then the indwelling Holy Spirit begins to work on that man (John 16:13; Philippians 1:6; Hebrews 12:6-8; Romans 8:9), as he nurtures on the milk of the Word and is sanctified (1st Peter 2:2; John 17:17). Proponents of [8]Lordship Salvation and [9]Wrong Repentance frontload the Gospel, perverting God's free grace.

I could also mention the apostate Moody Bible Institute crowd in Chicago with their Lordship Salvation and dozens of counterfeit Bible revisions. Shame on Moody Church! I could mention the apostate group at Pacific Garden Mission and their '[10]UNSHACKLED' radio series, which often perverts the Gospel of free grace. Right doctrine matters! Calvinism is NOT the Gospel! Calvinism infects the Gospel. There is a lot of confusion in this world because of evil, but God is not confused dear friend (1st Corinthians 14:33). God knows the score! Nothing escape the sight of God (Hebrews 4:13). God sees all of the good and the evil, even that which is done in secret (Ecclesiastes 12:14). No man shall escape the judgment of almighty God (Hebrews 9:27). All of these preachers today who promote a dozen Bible versions will be sorry in eternity. God only authored ONE BOOK, not 2, not 335, not 900, but just ONE! We have that blessed infallible, inerrant and inspired Book in the King James Bible today! Hallelujah!

All of these Bible professors, administrators, churches and pastors that preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation and Wrong Repentance (often two different heresies) will be sorry in eternity, for perverting the Gospel of free grace. The people in Matthew 7:21-23 were as dedicated to Christ as you can get. They earnestly followed Jesus as their "

Lord.

" These were not lazy or idle people, they did **"

many wonderful works

" in Jesus' name. They prophesied (preached) in Jesus' name everywhere they went. Boy, they thought they had it made in the shade. Man, Jesus must be so proud of them, right? No, they all went to burn in Hell forever!

Jesus actually denied even knowing them. That's right! And Jesus doesn't know Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Bob Jones University, John MacArthur, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, Moody Church, Pacific Garden Mission or anyone else who thinks that you must turn away from sin to receive God's free gift. They are all no better than Wix.com for falsely advertising a free website, that in reality comes with a ton of unwanted advertisements. THAT IS NOT FREE!!! They are woefully abusing the word "

FREE.

Think about this, because it is really a great illustration. The Calvinist crowd claim salvation is a free gift, but then pressure people for the rest of their life with advertisements that you didn't really get saved unless you live a certain holy way that meets their criteria. How can eternal life still be free? Obviously it cannot. To be completely free, you must be able to go out and deliberately live like the Devil, and still be 100 % safe and secure in God's free gift of salvation. That is absolutely NOT the message being preached by the Bob Jones crowd today, who are all followers of Dr. John MacArthur's damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation.

Dear friend, let me ask you a good question. Are you ready? How much can you change the Gospel before it can no longer save someone? That is a good question. Romans 1:16b says the Gospel is " the power of God unto salvation, to every one that believeth.

" So the Gospel has the power to save. This is "the power" denied in 2nd Timothy 3:5,

"Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

" The world is full of dead religion, because the saving-power of the Gospel is missing. 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 clearly defines

"the gospel" as Jesus' death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later. Christ died for our sins, was buried and raised up from the dead the third day. That alone is the Good News (Gospel) friend, believe it and you are saved.

Do you think those people in Matthew 7:21-23 believed that Jesus died on the cross? Yes, I think they absolutely did. I am certain that they believed Jesus raised up from the dead. So where did they go wrong? Why didn't Jesus know them? Matthew 7:21 tells us plainly, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Jesus Himself said those words. You don't get to Heaven by idolizing the name of Jesus. You don't get to Heaven by serving, following, helping or ministering to the poor in Jesus' name.

The Lord said you must do the will of His heavenly Father. We find God's will in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." You get to Heaven by completely resting in Jesus as the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Who paid for your sins on the cross with His own blood. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

" Simply BELIEVE the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen dear friend and you have eternal life. You have God's promise of it!

2.2.16 Did Old Testament Saints Have Assurance Of Eternal Life? (2021-02-15 09:30)

Isaiah 45:17, “But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.”

I believe the Old Testament saints had the assurance of eternal security. If they were saved by faith, like as we are, then they would have also had the blessing of knowing they were saved. Job was certain of his eternal life. Job 19:25-27, "For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me."

David also taught eternal security in Psalms 125:1, "They that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever." Clearly, these Old Testament patriarchs had assurance.

Moses taught his people about eternal security. Deuteronomy 33:27, “

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Continually throughout the Old Testament the Lord promised His people an EVERLASTING COVENANT!

Jeremiah 32:40, “ And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.” The Lord promises everlasting salvation to those who trust in Him.

John 6:37, " All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."

Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith." Paul plainly says in

Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Did you read that? THE LAW WAS A SCHOOLMASTER TO BRING US TO CHRIST! That "us" includes the Old Testament saints! How do I know that? Why, listen to what the prophet Habakkuk proclaimed in Habakkuk 2:4, "Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith."

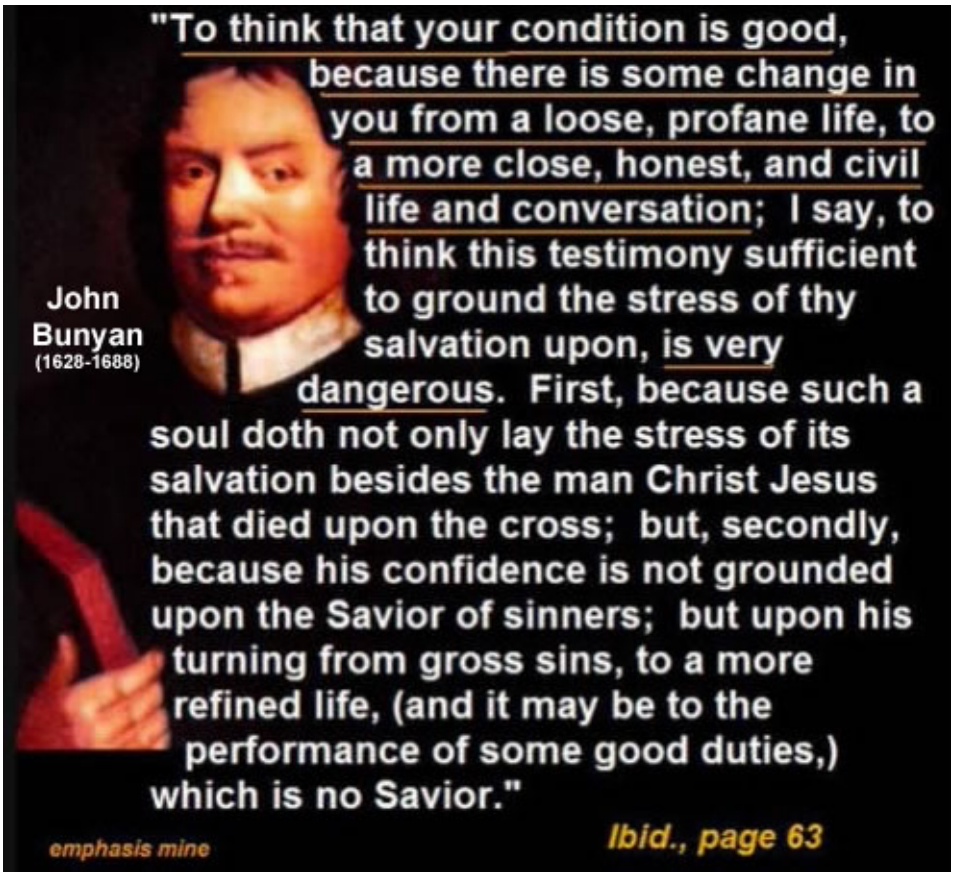
Habakkuk declared:

[1]



"...THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY HIS FAITH."

We find Habakkuk 2:4 quoted in three different Scripture passages in the New Testament:

> Romans 1:17, "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith."

> Galatians 3:11, “But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.”
> Hebrews 10:38, “Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.”

Habakkuk was under the Mosaic law. Don’t miss that! Abraham lived before the law was given, but Habakkuk lived under the law! That disproves Peter Ruckman’s claim that Old Testament saints were saved by WORKS! What saith Peter Ruckman? ...

> The original “plan of salvation” was pure WORKS (Gen. 2:16-17), and in the Millennium the last plan of salvation is again pure WORKS (Rev. 22:14), contrary to every immature, milksop, Baptist baby in your town or city. Genesis 3:22 corrects the kiddies. (Ruckman, Peter. Ruckman’s Bible References: Personal Notes on Salient Verses in the Bible, p. 7)

What saith the Scripture? Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.” Here is a plain statement from the Scripture that salvation has ALWAYS been through faith alone in Christ—Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” Salvation has always been by faith alone, and those who simply believed on the Messiah had God’s promise of eternal life. So saith the Scripture!

2.2.17 The Truth Is Not Just An Opinion, It Is Life Or Death (2021-02-16 02:01)

Proverbs 14:12, “

There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

” Acts 15:1,

“And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

Galatians 1:6-7, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

My regular readers know that I have been at war with the Bob Jones University crowd for several years now. War gets ugly sometimes. There are some ignorant believers who think that it is not Christlike in spirit to rebuke false teachers, but they are foolish and wrong. Titus 1:13b says “Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;” Sadly, the Bob Jones crowd are arrogant and you cannot teach an old dog new tricks. But for the sake of others who are watching the battle from the sidelines, I preach to help them see THE TRUTH. This battle is not merely my opinion folks, it is a matter of life and death.

Sadly, BJU today has been taken over by Calvinists. Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) sinfully [1]preaches a Calvinist plan of salvation (aka, the perseverance of the saints) to BJU’s 2,700 faculty and staff. I will preach until the Lord takes me home. Lordship Salvation is a false gospel accursed of God. It’s a big deal. Right doctrine matters! I am disgusted with pastors all across America who go along with this evil, refusing to stand. I thank God for Pastor Jack Hyles, [2]who recognized the danger of being wrong on repentance. The average preacher today doesn’t care about false teachers, they mind their own business and let people like me do all the fighting. 2nd Timothy 2:3-4, “ Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.”

Unfairly, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam continues to hurt me, turn members against me, ostracize me, ignore me, and shun me away for simply telling THE TRUTH. Harvest has gone down a dark path of evil, promoting corruptible seed and a counterfeit gospel of wrong repentance.

Proverbs 14:12, “

There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

” The Bob Jones University crowd are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. I am not the bad guy for telling THE TRUTH. Please read Dr. Jack Hyles again, this time [3]exposing false Bibles, which are a big hindrance to soulwinning.

> In conclusion, one may ask, "What does this have to do with soul winning?" Beloved, it has everything to do with soul winning. If the words of God are the incorruptible seed, and if seed must be incorruptible, if someone is born again, then the soul winner must have a perfect Bible. Thank God, we do! [emphasis added]
>

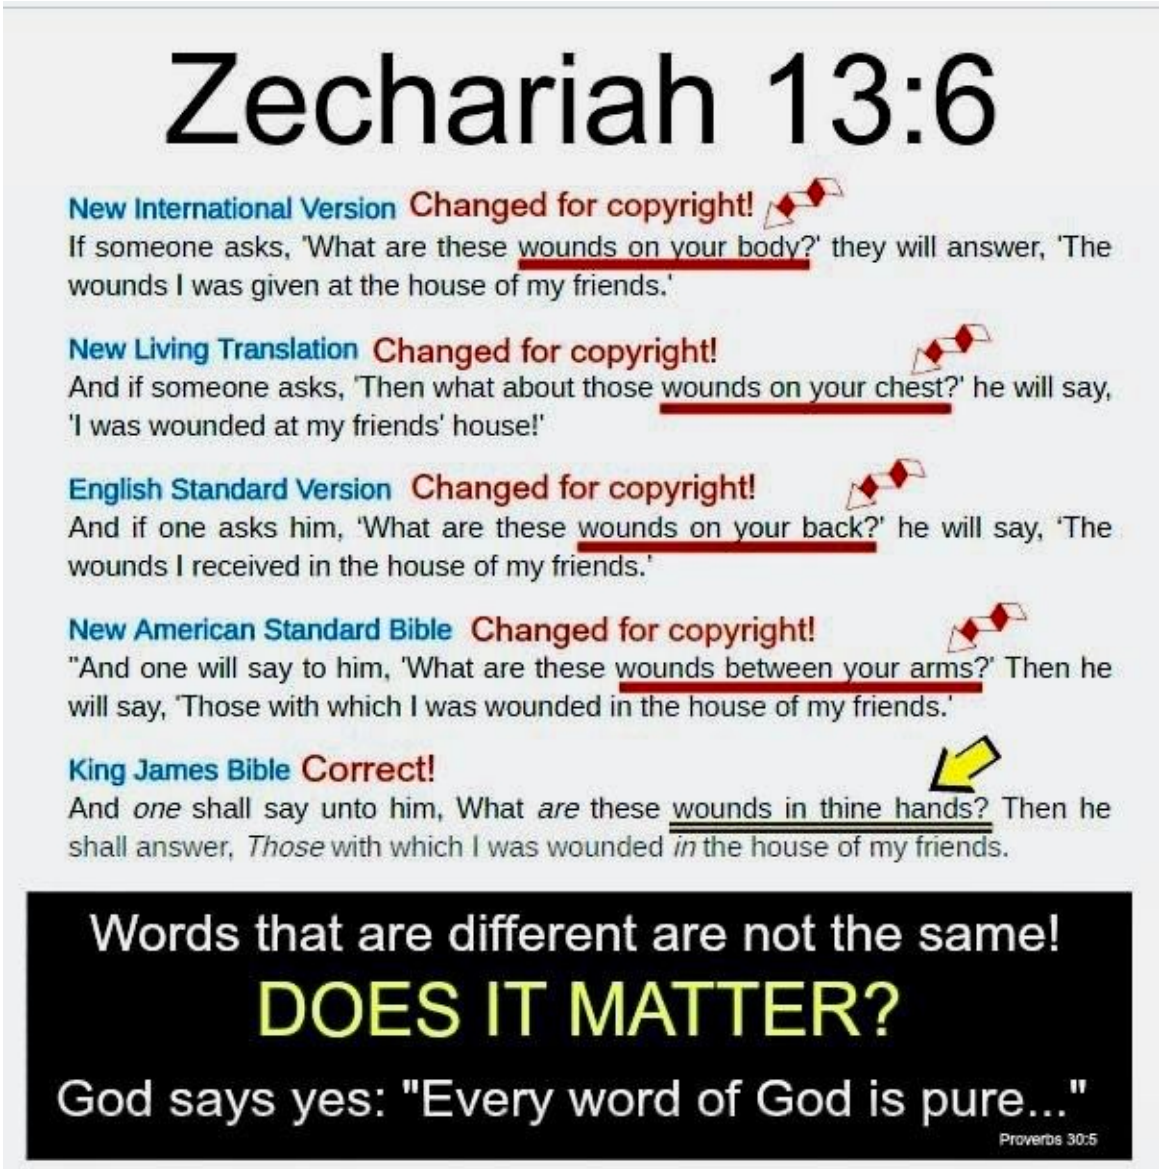
[5]

If I did not believe that I hold in my hand the perfect, inerrant, preserved, infallible, inspired, Word of almighty God, I would never preach again!!! How can we preach THE TRUTH if we don't know what the truth is? And how can we know what the truth is, if we search through dozens of English Bible revisions, which are all drastically different for copyright purposes? ...

[6]



Bibles Changed Merely For Copyright (This is evil folks!)

I am not the enemy friends, Harvest Baptist Church is the enemy of THE TRUTH! Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

They dishonor the Lord by supporting dozens of corrupt English Bible revisions. To support even ONE OF THEM makes a pastor and church guilty of promoting ALL of them, because all of the [7]Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort based translations are corrupt! This [8]helpful chart will prove what I am saying . I am not just making a fuss in ignorance. I know what I am talking about as a fundamentalist Bible preacher! 2nd Corinthians 11:6, " But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things."

If you want yuppie type, immature, shallow, theologically incompetent, marshmallow men for pastors, then you'll love the apostasy at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. The entire Bob Jones crowd today wreaks with the stench of apostasy. If you want dozens of English Bible versions to confuse everyone, then Harvest is your cup of tea. If you want to be misled with the heresies of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation, then you'll love the apostasy at Harvest and BJU today. Evangelist Steve Pettit will welcome you with open arms at BJU, as you all prepare to plunge into the Lake of Fire for eternity. Nobody sings as pretty as the unsaved Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and Catholics. Yet, because the Steve Pettit Evangelistic Team (what a joke) goes around signing hymns, everybody tolerates their false Bibles and false gospel. Right doctrine matters folks and I'm not going to shut up!

Sadly, the average pastor is so woefully ignorant of theology that he cannot even choose a side to take in this battle, so he straddles the fence like a coward. I said he is a coward! The face of a coward is the back of a someone's head as they run away from a battle! The Bob Jones crowd refuse to fight! But it gets worse, much worse. They also help the enemy! That's right. While faithful preachers like me preach the engrafted (firmly planted) Word, in season and out of season, the heretics at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church corrupt everyone. They corrupt everyone with [9]Wrong Repentance, [10]Lordship Salvation and [11]False Bibles. They bid Godspeed to John MacArthur and Steve Pettit, making themselves partaker of [12]their evil deeds. Preaching another gospel is an evil deed (Galatians 1:6-9).

Does anybody care anymore? Does truth matter to believers anymore? God authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 39, not 400! We have the one accurate Bible in the blessed inspired King James Bible today. There can only be ONE accurate Bible in any particular language. Common sense should tell you that! The Bible only teaches ONE GOSPEL, not two, not three or four. People were saved in the Old Testament the same way we are today, by simple childlike faith in Christ. Acts 10:43, "

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

Dear reader, the truth is not just my opinion, it is a matter of life or death. Dr. Hyles so beautiful emphasizes this fact in his book on enemies of soulwinning. I have been horribly mistreated for the past several years by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Their former pastors, and present pastors, have counted me as the church's enemy, simply because in love I did what was right and honorable, telling them THE TRUTH. Tragically, they rejected the truth, just as Harvest rejects me, and rejects Jesus Christ (who is the truth according to John 8:36 and John 14:6). It is no light thing to tamper with the Word of God, as we read in Proverbs 30:5-6 (one of our text passages).

Deuteronomy 4:2 warns not to add or diminish from God's Word. Deuteronomy 4:2, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you."

Yet foolish pastors everywhere today incompetently handle the Living Word, as if it is just another book, and its purity doesn't matter. For taking this faithful stand I have been demonized, hated, ostracized and blackballed by the biggest independent Baptist church on Guam since 2014.

Truth matters! Right doctrine matters! We are at war folks. I'm fighting on the frontlines, but where are the reinforcements? I am a soldier, spit upon by my own Baptist countrymen for fighting for my Savior. I know how those Vietnam solders felt, when they returned from fighting for their country in Vietnam, just to literally be spit upon by liberal Americans. Can you imagine how those men felt? I have an idea, believe me. I've been wiping the spit off my face from Harvest Baptist Church for the past 7 years.

2nd Timothy 2:3-4, " Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier." These pastors at Harvest are not soldiers, because they are not fighting for anything. They are college boys, academic types, who woefully lack compassion for hurting people, and woefully lack a burning passion for THE TRUTH as I have!!!

Listen, when I went though Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I went through spiritual boot-camp. These dead Bible colleges today, like Moody Bible Institute and Bob Jones University, don't care about truth, people or soulwinning; all they are focused on is careers in education, nursing programs, computer science and making a living (money)! That is why they won't stand. That is why they don't care. They got into the ministry for the wrong reasons. They were trained wrong. They were trained by the wrong people. They were trained to go into all the world and educate everyone in the academic arts, while the world goes to Hell.

I hope someone is listening. I really do. I am so tired of being the bad guy for Jesus. You know, the Lord was put outside the gate too. Jesus became our scapegoat, bearing the reproach of our sin and shame! The Bible says in 2nd Timothy 3:12 that if we live godly in Christ Jesus we shall suffer persecution. Harvest thinks I am persecuting them, but I am exposing them, rebuking them sharply (Titus 1:10-13) for promoting corrupting seed and preaching another gospel. God curse is on anyone, even an angel the Bible says, who preaches "another gospel" (Galatians 1:6-9). It is a big deal to God; therefore, it is a big deal to me. I could go on preaching for hours, but I won't.

[13]Please listen to the Epistle of Galatians. Listen with your undivided attention. Listen if the Apostle Paul ever asks them if they repented of their sins to be saved. He doesn't. Listen if Paul ever asks them if they have surrendered all to Jesus. He doesn't. In truth, Paul only asked the churches of Galatia one question in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? " I love that so much! I hope you will read [14]this article I wrote about Cornelius in Acts chapter 10. It is a wonderful story. The apostle Peter never told the audience listening to him to do anything. Peter simply preached the Good News of Jesus, and as the hearers believed, they were miraculously saved. That is the simplicity that is in Christ, you simply believe the Gospel when you hear it preached and are immediately saved forever. It is that simple dear friend.

John 3:16, “

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

There is an enemy of soulwinning lurking on the internet named Evangelist David W. Cloud. I enjoy reading many of his informative articles, when he’s not bashing Dr. Curtis Hutson and Pastor Jack Hyles. Mr. Cloud wrongly calls Dr. Hyles: “The King Of Shallow Soulwinners.” Nothing could be further from the truth. May I say, I was saved under the influence of Pastor Hyles’ ministry. Hundreds of thousands of sinners came to Christ to be saved in one of Brother Hyles’ five churches that he pastored for 55 years of ministry. Millions more have come to Christ in hundreds of churches influenced by Dr. Jack Hyles. Who is David Cloud to condemn all those hundreds of preachers and churches?

Someone sent me a message today on Facebook claiming that I misunderstand David Cloud, wrongly accusing him of preaching Lordship Salvation. We’ll get into that later. David W. Cloud lives and works in south Asia as a missionary. In the following article authored by Cloud titled: “[1]Sword Of The Lord’s Smokescreen About Repentance, ” he plainly preaches another gospel that is contrary to the Scriptures, insisting that a person turn away from a lifestyle of sinning to be saved. David Cloud detests Curtis Hutson and Jack Hyles, falsely accusing those men of perverting the true meaning of repentance. According to Cloud, Dr. John R. Rice taught that to be saved people must “ turn from their sin.

” But in fact, here is what Dr. Rice taught:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. [emphasis added]

From the preceding words directly from Dr. Rice himself, we see that he believed the way a man repents is to trust Jesus Christ. Brother Rice saw repentance and faith as being two separate parts of just ONE ACT of trusting Jesus Christ. He makes that clear in the preceding quote. That is why in the Gospel of John we find the word “ believe

mentioned 85 times, but the word

“

is not mentioned even once. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents believes! Repentance and faith are simply two sides of the same coin of salvation.

Anyone who teaches that repentance means to turn away from sin

has perverted the grace of God. If you are familiar with David Cloud’s attacks against the Sword Of The Lord, he continually refers to the words of John R. Rice, trying to pitch his words against Dr. Shelton Smith (current editor at the Sword) and Dr. Curtis Hutson (former editor). As I have just shown you from Dr. Rice’s own writings, he did not believe that repentance from sin was a separate act from trusting Christ for salvation. Yet, Mr. Cloud has a big problem with the Gospel as preached by Curtis Hutson, Jack Hyles, Shelton Smith and Carl Hatch. Mr. Cloud attacks Dr. Hyles in a book he is selling titled:

The Hyles Effect: A Spreading Blight.

He disparagingly labels Jack Hyles as being

“

King Of Shallow Soulwinning.

In his book titled: [2]Fundamentalists And Quick Prayerism, Cloud says:

> “Quick prayerism” reached it’s apex on May 3, 1998, when Jack Hyles claimed that more people were saved and baptized at his church on that day than were saved and baptized on the day of Pentecost or on any other day in church history. Hyles estimated that around 15,000 people were saved on that day and 5,112 were baptized. When the events at Hyles’ church are compared with those of Acts chapter two, though, five serious discrepancies appear.
> First, Peter preached the death, burial, and resurrection of Christ, whereas Hyles preached on Heaven. In his invitation, Hyles told the people that even if they had the slightest interest in going to heaven, to come forward. Well, who doesn’t want to go to heaven?

> Second, Peter demanded repentance, whereas Hyles did not even mention repentance or even hint that it might be necessary for salvation.
>
> Third, those saved on the day of Pentecost were added to the church, whereas those who prayed on Hylescost were not allowed to join the church.
>
> Fourth, the only “methodology” used at Pentecost was prayer, the preaching of the Word of God, personal testimony, and the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit; whereas Hyles used a multiplicity of man-made promotions and gimmicks to attract people to his meetings and to manipulate people into making “decisions” and submitting to baptism.
>
> Fifth, those saved at Pentecost “continued stedfastly in doctrine, fellowship, and prayer,” whereas very few of those who were counted in Hyles salvation statistics exhibited such plain evidence of salvation.
>
> SOURCE: [3]Fundamentalists And Quick Prayerism, Hylescost: The Zenith Of Quick Prayerism, by David W. Cloud, p. 20; Way Of Life Literature

David Cloud is such a liar! He has his facts all wrong. I was there on Pentecost Sunday. Here are Jack Hyles’ own words concerning the number of people saved:

> The First Baptist Church of Hammond, Indiana, began to work and pray as I’ve never seen a church work and pray. We were asking God to give us 3000 people saved on, as it were, another Pentecost. On that special Sunday, 5195 people walked the aisles of the First Baptist Church of Hammond receiving Christ as Saviour! The next year we had a second Pentecost Sunday, and over 3300 people were saved! Then the next year we had another Pentecost Sunday, and over 4900 people were saved, as Dr. Curtis Hutson was our guest speaker.
> SOURCE: [4]Ultra-Dispensationalism—An Enemy Of Soul Winning

So each year the church used promotions to compel as many people as possible to come to church. Cloud says Dr. Hyles claimed to have won 15,000 people to Christ in just one day (and it could be possible certainly). But kindly said, Mr. Cloud is a liar, as I just showed you! I mean, let’s get our facts straight. I just shared with you Pastor Hyles’ own words, in which he says these big days of soulwinning were held annually, and the number 15,000 was achieved over a few years.

David Cloud criticizes promotions to get people to church and what he calls gimmicks.

What saith the Scripture?

Luke 14:21b-23, “

...Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

” The Great King in Heaven isn’t interested in David Cloud’s empty pews! The Lord wants His house full at the Great Marriage Supper Of The Lamb in Heaven, when all the saints shall gather on the other shore!

David Cloud is a wicked man, slandering and tearing down the good names of godly soulwinners. Who can fault a pastor for being too zealous about soulwinning? In his horrible book, Cloud actually makes an issue that First Baptist Church Of Hammond failed to deal one-on-one to share the Gospel personally with each individual, as if that is a bad method of soulwinning. Dear reader, the Apostle Peter preached alone to thousands of people on the Day Of Pentecost in Acts chapter 2, and 3,000 souls were saved as a result (Acts 2:41). That is a 3,000 to 1 ratio. Cloud criticizes Pastor Hyles for having an alleged 30 to 1 ratio (that is 1 preacher sharing the Gospel with 30 people), as quoted by some knucklehead bitter pastor who says he was there on Pentecost Sunday. I was there too! Who cares if it was one person sharing the Gospel one-on-one, or to 5,000 people, as long as the truth was being preached?

That brings me to my next rebuttal of Mr. Cloud’s rantings in his horrible book. In point number 2 Cloud claims that Peter “demanded repentance.” He is referring to Acts 2:38, “Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” Carefully notice that there is no mention of “believing” here! That is because as I showed you earlier from Dr. Rice’s beautiful quote, and the fact that the Gospel of John mentions the word “believe” 85 times without ever mentioning the word “repent” even once, that the man who repents has believed. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. David Cloud ignores the entire Gospel of John, which never requires repentance as a separate act to be saved. Cloud still insists that Pastor Hyles preached a false gospel that left off repentance. I hope you see Biblically and ethically how wrong David Cloud is.

In Mr. Cloud’s third point he claims that on the Day Of Pentecost that 3,000 people were added to the church (Acts 2:41), but falsely claims that Dr. Hyles wouldn’t let those people saved join the church. David Cloud is a liar! I attended First Baptist Church Of Hammond (FBCH) and Hyles-Anderson Colleges (HAC) from 1985 to 1993, and I know for a fact that anyone who got saved in the church was automatically counted as a member. That is why Pastor Hyles said the church had a membership of 125,000 people! David Cloud is speaking garbage!

In his fourth slander, Cloud accuses Pastor Hyles of using manmade tactics instead of prayer, the Word of God, and the Power of the Holy Spirit, to lead all those thousands of people to Jesus Christ. It is absolutely absurdity, the things that David Cloud is alleging. Cloud sounds like an envious bitter man who lives in Asia, and gets his kicks out of tearing down men much greater than he could ever hope to be in a hundred lifetimes for Christ. [5]Here is exactly what Dr. Jack Hyles believed about repentance, directly from his own writings.

In his fifth slander, Cloud speaks of things he doesn’t know. How does Mr. Cloud know how many of those converts continued going to church or not? He ASS-U-MEs his claims. Furthermore, what does continuing in prayer and going to church have to do with the gift of eternal life? It appears that Cloud is teaching a form of Calvinism, aka, the perseverance of the saints heresy. It doesn’t matter if none of those people ever went to church again, just so long as their faith is in the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Savior. David Cloud is heretically merging discipleship with salvation, which is a false Gospel.

According to Mr. Cloud, if a person genuinely gets saved there should be a radical change of lifestyle, but that is not required for salvation. As do most false teachers today, since Mr. Cloud cannot cite the Bible to support his heresy, he quotes from preachers of centuries past as a secondary authority. Dear reader, the inspired Word of God is our ONLY authority in all matters of faith, morals and life. It doesn't matter what Baptists believed traditionally. That is using herd mentality as a means to justify a desired end. Proverbs 14:12, "T here is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Missionary David W. Cloud has wrongly demonized Pastor Jack Hyles time and time again, and I am sick and tired of him doing it. Revelation 12:10 says that Satan is the accuser of the brethren. If Mr. Cloud made valid points I would agree with him, but he keeps telling lies, distorting facts and telling whoppers! Please dear friend, don't listen to David Cloud's foolish rants, why not let Jack Hyles speak for himself? In the following excellent sermon titled: "[6]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY," Dr. Hyles preached against thinking a person can be saved just by praying without understanding the Gospel.

This one sermon exposes David Cloud as a big liar! Dr. Hyles would have been the first person to confess that you cannot be saved by merely praying some prayer.

In the sermon Brother Hyles rightly says that not one verse in the Bible teaches someone to pray a prayer to be saved. So enough of this garbage of accusing Dr. Hyles of using

Anybody Can Be Saved In An Instant

What should concern you greatly friend is what David Cloud thinks

"Q

uick Prayerism

" means. He thinks to be saved you must be willing to to turn away from living in sin, and if you continue living in sin, David Cloud says you've never been saved because you didn't repent. That is a perversion of God's grace! Mr. Cloud is distorting the facts of the history of repentance. In his ungodly book his attacks Pastor Bob Gray Sr. and other great soulwinning preachers, falsely accusing them of redefining the traditional Baptist position on repentance. The truth is that Mr. Cloud went back into history and only found the Baptist preachers WHO AGREED WITH HIM, and then painted a false picture that turning from sin is the traditional Baptist position. David Cloud is a deceiver!

The truth is that there has always been a raging battle between the free grace Gospel crowd, and the Wrong Repentance crowd. For example: One of my favorite preachers is [7]Alexander Marshall (1846-1928) who refuted the idea that repentance means " to turn from sin.

” If we were to name the most popular preachers today in the world, we would hear names; such as, Billy Graham, Franklin Graham, Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, Benny Hinn, Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, Kenneth Copeland and Pat Robertson. All of these men preach a false gospel of partial faith plus works.

I didn’t write this blog to attack David Cloud, God forbid. I am not that kind of person. I wrote this article to defend the simplicity that is in Christ, which is the Gospel. Anybody who comes to Christ as a needy sinner, receiving by faith in Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus was buried and resurrected from the dead the third day, is saved. It is that simple. Repentance is simply the acknowledgment that you are as guilty a sinner as God hath declared you to be in His word.

Repentance is not a separate event from faith, although they are not the same thing. Here is the best quote that I’ve found on repentance, by Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> “Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, ’Repent ye, and believe the gospel.’ Yet we find true believers exhorted to ’repent, and do the first works.’ So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance.” ([8]Except Ye Repent, p. 16)

The only thing that we need to repent from to be saved is UNBELIEF. Do we have to realize our sinful condition to be saved? Of course, yes! But there is not one verse in the entire Bible which requires a person to forsake sin to be saved. Nor does the Bible give anyone God’s permission to commit sin just because they are saved (Romans 3:31). Every time Jesus forgave someone and healed them, it was only AFTERWARDS that He said... “Go and sin no more.” John 5:14, "Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee."

Repentance simply means “a change of mind.” Believers change our minds every day about all kinds of things, including the sins in our life. Repenting of sins throughout one’s Christian life is solely a matter of DISCIPLESHIP, not SALVATION. It is a matter of growing in the Lord’s strength (1st Peter 2:2), as we yield to the Holy Spirit’s leading in obedience to the Holy Scriptures (2nd Corinthians 10:5). Kindly said, David Cloud is a fool. Read what he says:

> Shallow, unscriptural soul winning and neglect of repentance have produced incredibly weak churches. It has produced churches that are mixed multitudes instead of churches of disciples. If professing Christians are rebels against God’s Word and refuse to obey the preaching, refuse to be faithful, refuse to separate from the world, are insubordinate to pastoral authority, it is probably because they aren’t saved. As we have seen, the Bible is very clear on this point. See, for example, John 8:47; 10:27; Titus 1:16; 1 John 2:3-4. Most churches are far too careless about salvation. They pronounce people, including children, saved on a mere profession with no regard for biblical evidence.

That is some very dangerous talk folks. So according to Mr. Cloud, we cannot know if a person is really saved when they profess Christ, until we have time to examine their life to see if they have changed. This is not the Gospel of free grace! God promised us eternal life, not probationary or temporal life. The truth dear friend is that an unsaved person CAN do "many wonderful works" (Matthew 7:21-23). Jesus said that He didn't even know these people in Matthew 7. They said they had done these many wonderful works in Jesus' name. They preached in Jesus' name. They followed Him as Lord, saying: "Lord, Lord." Anyone examining their lives would have assuredly concluded that these people were indeed saved, but they were lost and went to Hell forever.

In Acts 10:1-4 we read about a man named Cornelius, who feared God, gave alms to the poor, fasted and prayed; yet, he was a lost man, still under the condemnation of God's law for his sins. Dear reader, any "proof" of salvation must be something that an unsaved person cannot imitate. An unsaved person can love. An unsaved person can do good deeds. An unsaved person can serve in a church, sing hymns, carry a Bible, tithe, be helpful, preach in Jesus' name, and even cast out devils (Matthew 7:21-23). 1st John 3:24 teaches that only a believer has the indwelling Holy Spirit, and that is something that only an individual person can determine and know (1st John 5:13). I simply cannot determine is another person is saved or not. So what David Cloud is teaching is utter heresy! You cannot determine how much fuel is in a car's gas tank by the color of the car. Likewise, I cannot know if you are a child of God merely by examining your life. If that were the case, we would think most Mormons are saved.

By the way, David Cloud likes to parade and pitch Dr. John R. Rice against soulwinning Christians today; such as, Dr. Bob Gray Sr. Pastor Jack Hyles, and Dr. Curtis Hutson. [10]But read for yourself what Dr. Rice had to say about judging a person's salvation based upon behavior. Dr. Rice is absolutely right, that the only way we can truly know if somebody is saved is from the direct testimony of their own mouth concerning Jesus Christ. What I just showed you exposes David Cloud's wickedness, that he continues to falsely accuse soulwinners today of incompetence and producing false conversions.

In Acts chapter 10 Peter was sent to preach the Good News to Cornelius and others. As these dear people listened to Peter preach, the apostle never once told them to do anything. Peter simply gave them the Good News, and as they heard and believed they were instantly saved and filled with the indwelling Holy Spirit (Acts 10:43-44). There was no probationary period to watch their lives, to verify their conversion. David Cloud is an unsaved false teacher, a tare who has crept his way into many churches today, confusing and contaminating the Gospel.

In Galatians 3:1-3 we read, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? " That is what David Cloud is guilty of, as were the Galatians, of trying to be made perfect in the flesh. Salvation is by faith alone; We don't finish or verify it in the flesh. The churches of Galatia had started out by being taught faith in Christ, but then a cult crept into their midst, which required keeping the law to be saved. They fell for it, showing that they were never saved to begin with. Those who were saved were saved by faith alone!

What a heavy burden for anyone to bear, worrying from day to day if they are proving their salvation by their works. In true salvation, you can KNOW immediately that you have God's salvation. Why is that? It is because eternal life is a PROMISE from God (Titus 1:2). God promised **"

” (1st Corinthians 1:21b). But Mr. Cloud says faith is insufficient, that you must ALSO turn away from your sins to be saved. Cloud wrongly accuses Jack Hyles, Bob Gray Sr. and Curtis Hutson of only preaching faith (quick salvation) without repentance from sins.

When Cloud foolishly denounces “Quick Prayism,” he means there is no “Quick Salvation.” That is exactly what he means! But he is oh so wrong! Salvation is instant! There is no probationary period to see if faith stuck! Samson chased harlots his whole life (Judges 16:2). Solomon’s life was a mess (Ecclesiastes 2:17). Ananias and Sapphira were killed by God for their sin, but they were saved (Acts 5:1-11). The Bible is full of sinful saints! The idea that hundreds or even thousands of people cannot be saved in one day is heresy. We saw it in Acts 2:41. Yet David Cloud leads people to think such great events are not possible today.

Admittedly, there are some idiots and theological ignoramuses lurking in churches everywhere today, but that is not the norm as Cloud portrays all soulwinners. As I showed you earlier in Pastor Hyles’ sermon on “ [11]FUNDAMENTALIST HERESY ,” Dr. Hyles preaches against thinking a person can be saved just by praying without understanding the Gospel.

2.2.19 Be Careful Who You Follow, They May Lead You Into Hell (2021-02-17 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, “

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

The saddest thing I see in churches today is that people blindly follow their pastors. The Bible commends the Bereans in Acts 17:11, “

These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

” Many of my readers are from the apostate Bob Jones University crowd. Some of them attend the horrible Harvest Baptist Church of Guam in Micronesia. If that is you friend, I implore you to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES as did the Bereans, and see for yourself that your religious leaders are liars, corrupt and enemies of the truth.

The pastor of Harvest Baptist Church since 2018 is Gary Walton, who preaches another gospel of wrong repentance. This is the John MacArthur cult! Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is a devout follower of Pastor MacArthur in California. These wicked men are caught between grace and works, preaching a Calvinist type of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. In fact, [1]Steve Pettit denies the instantaneous new birth, teaching that in order to

for the

of

Heaven itself

” (all his own words), you must run the race faithfully until the very end. These men are reprobates of the faith, leaders of the blind, and they will take you to Hell if you follow them.

Dr. Marty Herron is the former pastor of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam (1999-2018), who ran the church into the ground spiritually. That is my humble opinion. Herron is a hardcore follower of John MacArthur, who requires people to “ turn away from a lifestyle of sinning to be saved. I heard him say it with my own two ears on a Sunday morning at Harvest in 2019. Sadly, [2]Herron taught this same junk theology in 2019 at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. That is NOT God’s free grace. Kindly said, the man is corrupt theologically, caught between grace and works, leading people into the Lake of Fire.

Dear reader, please be careful who you follow in the churches today, “because many false prophets are gone out into the world ” (1st John 4:1b). Sadly, 99 % of churchgoers merely follow whatever their pastors tell them, never questioning anything. 1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.” A false gospel will send you to Hell. There is no salvation when you ADD anything to faith alone. Anyone who says that you must “ repent of your sin

to be saved has perverted God’s grace, adding works to faith. To make an effort to stop sinning is human effort, a work, and not the ceasing from works that Hebrews 4:10-11 requires to be saved. Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.”

I witnessed to a mother of five little girls years ago. Their children had rode our church bus each Sunday for a couple years, but then suddenly stopped coming. So I went to their home with my soulwinning partner in Chicago and asked the mother why her children stopped coming to church. She said the Jehovah’s Witnesses had convinced her to send her children to the Kingdom Hall instead. I begged the mother to change her mind, showing her several passages of Scripture about how corrupt and spiritually dangerous the Jehovah’s Witnesses are. They were a Hispanic family.

The mother in broken English refused to listen to reason, because she had been enamored with their persona, with their masquerade of being Christians. She said, “But they smile and tell me how wonderful Jesus is.” I told her that even the Devil appears as an angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). She replied,

“But they come to visit me in the hospital and bring me box of food.” We couldn’t convince her. Five little girls all went to the Devil, because of a foolish ignorant mother who went by what she saw.

Likewise, the people at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam blindly go by what they see. These apostate Bob Jones graduates smile and talk about Jesus, while demanding that people turn from their sinful ways to be saved. [3]Go read for yourself what BJU teaches. My neighbours who attend Harvest despise me, won’t talk to me, and some have recently moved away in hatred of me. What did I do so wrong to be hated so much? I simply cared enough about them to TELL THE TRUTH. Galatians 4:16, “Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?” Just like that foolish mama, whose daughters will all go to Hell because she fed them to the wolves (the Jehovah’s Witnesses); even so do foolish parents feed their children to the wolves at Harvest Baptist Church, Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Iowa. All of these Calvinist institutions pervert God’s grace by adding “ turn from your sins

to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That is not the Gospel.

Dear reader, [4]even the Satanic Roman Catholic Vatican teaches that salvation is by God’s grace! But as most of us know, the Catholic church requires people to keep the Seven Sacraments to get to Heaven, which is a false gospel that cannot produce the new birth. It is no different if you add keeping sacraments, than if you add turning away from committing deliberate sins, because in both cases you are adding to faith and negating God’s grace. As hard as it is to believe, Baptists in the Bob Jones crowd are in as much denial as Roman Catholics. Right doctrine matters! Truth is absolute, not relative. Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own Bible doctrine. That is why we are commanded to study to Word of God to “ rightly divide

” it (2nd Timothy 2:15).

I have never met such an unloving group of people in all my life as the religious hypocrites at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hanson, and the Bob Jones camp, all kicked me in the head and left me for dead when I reached out and pleaded for their help and love. My fundamentalist beliefs offended them so much that they counted me as dead. Where dwelleth the love of God? Are they even saved? It appears not so. Anyone who adheres to Lordship Salvation is in the same sinking boat as the false prophets in Matthew 7:21-23. They called Jesus “Lord, Lord,” adding works to partial faith. They spent their life serving Christ, but had never wholly rested in Jesus’ name.

Somebody needs to speak THE TRUTH. God will someday avenge my suffering since 2014 at the cruel hands of Harvest Baptist Church. I haven’t had a church family since 2014, because of Marty Herron and Gary Walton. These two men are money oriented opportunists, who are only in the ministry to make a career. When I needed and pleaded for their help, they turned a blind eye, ignored me and pretended like they didn’t know it. God sees their wicked hearts. Proverbs 24:12, “If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?” Harvest’s pastors and staff will answer to God. I told THE TRUTH that God only authored ONE BOOK, not 2, not 66, not 689. The only inspired Words of God today are in the King James Bible.

I told THE TRUTH that God made the promise of eternal life before the world began (Titus 1:2), and that there has therefore always been ONLY ONE GOSPEL (Acts 10:43). I have been thinking about buying an I-pad or x-phone to make blog videos while walking, to upload to YouTube. Then I can expose this wickedness even more! The sad and strange thing is I never would have said a word against Harvest, had they simply told me that they loved me, and allowed me to attend church services as I begged in 2017 and since. What kind of so-called “ refuses to allow someone to attend services? Not a good one, that’s for sure!

Anyway, be careful who you follow, because they might lead you away from the hope of the Gospel. Colossians 1:23, “ If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;” Harvest is a bad place to go. I feel sorry for anyone caught up into that religious mess. No amount of sincerity or religious devotion can make-up for trampling upon the free grace Gospel and the infallible Word of God, which the Bob Jones crowd are guilty of.

I know a lot of people are tired of hearing my preaching like a broken record, but until the liars stop lying and the false prophets stop leading people at Harvest Baptist Church and Bob Jones University into Hell, I must keep preaching. Somebody's got to care and I certainly do. I am hated, rejected, despised, ostracized, abandoned and mistreated by the pastors, staff and members of Harvest Baptist Church, simply because I agree with God's Word and told the truth as a true friend does. The worst form of emotional abuse is the silent treatment. If you see a bad situation and you cower away, letting someone suffer and hurt that needs and has pleaded for your help, you are in league with a monster! Please don't allow these heretics to take you to Hell with them at Harvest Baptist Church and Bob Jones University. I speak in love, with no hatred toward anyone, but I cry out as a hurting dog that barks. Truth matters!

2.2.20 Did U.S. President George H. W. Bush Go To Heaven? (2021-02-18 09:30)

John 3:3-7, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.”

America’s 41st U.S. President George Herbert Walker Bush (1924-2018) was [1]a lifelong Episcopalian church member . Dear reader, the Devil’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Churches all across the world are filled with hundreds of millions of religious people, who have never received the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. No amount of religious devotion, commitment to follow Jesus, or good works, can get someone into Heaven. We find biblical proof of this in Matthew 7:21-23...

> Matthew 7:21-23, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
>
> Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?
>
> And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.”

The folks in the preceding Scripture passage spent their lives performing “ many wonderful works.

” They did those wonderful works in Jesus’ name. They **“

prophesied

” (evangelized) in Jesus’ name. They even **“

cast out devils

” in Jesus’ name. Yet the Lord denied knowing them at all. How sad and tragic! This Bible passage lays to rest the false idea that all religions lead to Heaven. This passage proves that all paths don’t lead to the light. The Lord plainly warned in verse 21 that only those who obey the will of God the Father will go to Heaven. We find the Father’s will in John 6:40,

“And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” The will of the Father is faith alone in Jesus Christ, apart from all works.

> Episcopalians typically consider salvation to begin in each person’s life with baptism, the ritual by which a person is granted "rebirth" by the Holy Spirit and destined to live a Christian life. They consider the process to continue with regular celebrations of the Eucharist, which is the sharing of the bread and wine, symbolizing the body and blood of Jesus Christ, during church services. These rituals, along with constant repentance in everyday life, are intended to renew the lives of believers and create a better relationship with God. [emphasis added]

SOURCCE:

[2]Beliefs of the Episcopalians About the Salvation

[3]

Now since the Episcopalian church requires water baptism as a doorway to salvation, they are perverting the Gospel of free grace. Water baptism is NOT necessary for salvation. Nowhere does the Bible teach that a sinner must receive water baptism to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Quite the contrary, we are taught that Christ did not send the Apostle Paul to baptize, but to PREACH THE GOSPEL. 1st Corinthians 1:17-18, "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." It is the preaching of THE CROSS, and not being dunked in some baptistery tank that saves a man. If water baptism were necessary for salvation, then Paul never would have made such a dismissive statement about baptism. Salvation is by faith alone (Galatians 3:26).

From all that I have read, Episcopalians are basically Roman Catholic in their beliefs, a variation thereof. Therefore, based upon the authority of the Scriptures, I personally do not believe that former U.S. President George H.W. Bush went to Heaven. I am sad to say that, but for the sake of anyone reading this, please make sure you are not relying upon anything other than the precious blood which Jesus Christ shed for you on the cross to save you (1st Peter 1:18-19). We are saved only because GOD is faithful to keep His promise " TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE " (1st Corinthians 1:21b), and not in any way because WE are faithful to God. We all deserve to spend eternity burning in Hell to pay for our own sins, but

CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY

(Romans 5:6-9). What a wonderful God and Savior!!!

2.2.21 You Don’t Have To Forsake Sinful Behavior To Be Saved (2021-02-19 09:30)

John 6:47,

“

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

John 11:25-26,

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?” Acts 16:30-31,

“ And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

Romans 10:13,

“

For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved*.

There is not one mention in the inspired King James Bible of “ repent of your sins,

turn away from your sins,

to receive God’s free gift of

life. I have met some deceived Baptist pastors who are cowards. They are afraid to go against their peers in the Bible Jones’ camp. So instead of defend the Gospel, they make excuses to give the benefit of the doubt.

When I visited the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018, Sean Quinlan was their pastor. He is affiliated with Pensacola Christian College in Florida. I kindly let him know that some of their literature in the church tract rack, taught that you must turn away from your sinful ways to be saved. He didn’t care! Pastor Quinlan’s excuse was that you have to turn “from” something in order to turn “ something. Although that is a true statement, it was wicked of Pastor Quinlan to use it to justify ungodly preachers who require people to forsake living a lifestyle of sin to be saved.

Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) correctly understood that believing on Christ and repentance are simply two different ways of looking at the SAME event. ...

> Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

Dr. Rice is correct—one who turns from sin to God HAS DONE SO BY TRUSTING IN JESUS CHRIST!!! In sharp contrast, this is very different than the heretical preachers who teach that you MUST turn away from intentionally committing sin to be saved. Read the following Satanic heresy taught by Evangelist Ray Comfort (which is the [1]same junk theology taught at Bob Jones University today). Ray Comfort says:

> "That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[2]I've never killed anyone" ([3]MP3 clip)

Do you see the DRASTIC difference between the mindset of John R. Rice versus Ray Comfort concerning repentance? Dr. Rice correctly teaches that repentance and faith are two sides of the same coin. The man who believes has repented and the man who repents has believed. They are not two separate acts. They are two different parts of one action of trusting Christ as one's personal Savior. The man who acknowledges that he is a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19)—trusting in Christ Who died on the cross to pay for those sins (Ephesians 1:12-14)— is saved (Acts 16:31). This is Bible repentance

—a simple change of mind that compels a person to believe the Gospel to be saved.

In sharp contrast, Ray Comfort (and other heretical proponents of Lordship Salvation) teaches that turning away from sinful behavior is a separate act from believing. Mr. Comfort errantly says that repentance is " a continual thing,

which you must do for the rest of your life to prove that you are really saved. This is a perversion of the Gospel (Acts 15:1; Galatians 1:6-9). In essence, Dr. Rice correctly teaches that we repent TO believe; whereas Ray Comfort errantly teaches that we repent AND believe.

Respectfully said, [4]I heard Pastor Charles Lawson heretically teach that your faith is not valid with God, unless you have repented (stopped deliberately committing) from your sins. This is Calvinism, not the Free Grace Gospel. Pastor Lawson doesn't understand what it means to repent. Turning away from sins is reformation, not repentance. Sorrow for sins is penitence, not repentance. Trying to amend one's sinful ways is penance, not repentance. Repentance is a simple change of mind, where you acknowledge that you have sinned against a holy God, and thus see your desperate need for the Savior (Galatians 3:24-26). Anything more is a perversion of the Gospel.

The phrase

“turn from sin” is no where found in the Bible, so we ought not use it, lest we confuse people concerning how to be saved. Dr. Rice uses the phrase, and I don’t think he should, but he very clearly explains what is meant by his use of the phrase. What Dr. Rice is teaching is very different than what Ray Comfort, Charles Lawson, John MacArthur, Paul Washer, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John Piper, and countless others teach these days. It is true that in order to turn “to” something, you must logically also turn “from” something, which is exactly what repentance is—a change of mind from unbelief to belief.

It Is Not Okay To Embellish The Gospel

There is only one Gospel. What saith the Scripture? Galatians 1:6-7, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.” In the Epistle of Galatians, Paul rebukes the churches of Galatia for moving away from the hope of the Gospel. Paul plainly says that the foolishness they have fallen for is NOT another Gospel. And so I say to you today—Oh Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, and Bob Jones University, and The Master’s University, and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and Moody Bible Institute, and Pacific Garden Mission’s [5]UNSHACKLED radio—who hath bewitched you that you should believe another gospel? Oh foolish Lordship Salvation crowd, woe unto you all!

The Bible clearly defines “T he Gospel

in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 as three things: Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He resurrected from the dead physically. Jesus was seen in His resurrected body by over 500 brethren at one time (1st Corinthians 15:6). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins (2nd Corinthians 5:21), believing that He is risen and alive (Romans 10:9-10), is saved (Romans 10:13).

Salvation is a matter of taking God at His Word as recorded in the Bible, believing what God has promised by faith. The Gospel is not Good News to be lived, it is Good News to be believed.

1st Corinthians 1:21, “

For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

” Repeatedly in the Bible we are taught that the way of salvation is simply to BELIEVE. No where are we taught to forsake our sinful bad habits to receive God’s gift of eternal life. It is a gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is receiving, not achieving.

2.2.22 Matthew Henry Gets John 3:5 Wrong (2021-02-20 09:30)

John 3:3-7, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

Matthew Henry (1662–1714) is a famous minister and author. He was born in Wales, but spent much of his life in England. Henry is best known for the six-volume biblical commentary Exposition of the Old and New Testaments. Nearly every Bible student has often come across Matthew Henry's commentaries on the Holy Bible.

What saith the Scripture? John 3:5b, "

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

" Matthew Henry interprets this passage as follows:

> It is probable that Christ had an eye to the ordinance of baptism, which John had used and he himself had begun to use, "You must be born again of the Spirit," which regeneration by the Spirit should be signified by washing with water, as the visible sign of that spiritual grace: not that all they, and they only, that are baptized, are saved; but without that new birth which is wrought by the Spirit, and signified by baptism, none shall be looked upon as the protected privileged subjects of the kingdom of heaven. [emphasis added]
>

[2]

Matthew Henry promotes the corrupt Lutheran view of salvation, seeing baptism by water as being inseparable from the miracle of the new birth. The Lord plainly tells us exactly what he meant by water in John 3:5-7, " Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." The Lord contrasts being born **"

OF THE FLESH

versus being born

"OF THE SPIRIT." When Jesus speaks of being "BORN OF WATER,

" He is referring to the flesh. For 9 months a baby is carried in its mother's water bag in her womb. This is what the Bible means by " water

" in John 3:5, not religious baptism.

2.2.23 There Is No Female Aspect Of The Godhead (2021-02-21 09:30)

John 16:13, "Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. "

Six times the blessed Holy Spirit is referred to as "He." All three members of the Godhead (aka, the "Trinity" in theology) is masculine in nature. The Holy Spirit in several verses in the book of John is referred to with the masculine pronoun "He." I have heard some preachers teach that the woman in a home represents the Holy Spirit. I have no problem with that. Pastor Jack Hyles used that analogy in His helpful book titled: "[1]Meet The Holy Spirit." Chapter 31 is called: "[2]Woman, The Holy Spirit Of The Family." Dr. Hyles in no way is teaching that God has a feminine side. He is simply teaching that a woman sets the atmosphere in her home, whether it be one of peace and love, or anxiety and anger.

So remember, there is no feminine aspect of the Godhead. Witches, Kabballah

, Ying-yang, some [3]Lutherans , some Roman Catholics, Feminist Theology, the occult and numerous other heathen groups, teach that God has a female side. Leonard Nimoy (1931-2015) believed in a goddess aspect of God, which [4]drove him into a weird form of sensual pagan worship . Literally, Mr. Nimoy (famously known as "Spock" from the Star Trek series) had a hobby of photographing obese naked woman laying across his dinning room table.

Believing Wrong Will Send You To Hell

I am not judging Leonard Nimoy, God forbid. The Bible already condemns all of humanity as depraved sinners (Romans 3:10-23). John 3:18, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." We are all guilty sinners. That is why God gave mankind the Old Testament LAW, to show humanity our guilty condition and desperate need for a Savior (Romans 3:19-20; Galatians 3:19, 24-26). God is a holy, just and righteous God. God understands better than anyone our human weaknesses. Psalms 103:14, "For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust."

Therefore, God is very reasonable and fair with man, willing and even offering to sit down and talk things through, to come to a meeting of the minds. Isaiah 1:18, "Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." I love that Scripture passage. God is inviting all humans to Himself. God wants to be on friendly terms with everyone (2nd Peter 3:9). The only thing that prevents any living human from being close to God is sin!

Isaiah 59:1-2, "

Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

That is why Jesus came into the world and went to the cross, to bridge the gap between sinful man and a holy God. 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

" Romans 5:1-2, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." No one has ever gone to Heaven any other way, than by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

I am saddened that Leonard Nimoy was not a born-again Christian. His religion was Judaism, which denies that Jesus is the Messiah. Judaizers are still awaiting their messiah, which will be the Man of Sin, the Antichrist, when he appears (Daniel 9:27; 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-10; Revelation 13:15-17). God is so wonderful. He offers grace freely to all mankind. Micah 7:18, "Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy." No one will ever be able to blame God if they spend eternity burning in Hell.

2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." Dear friend, God is freely offering to you His grace just for the taking, by faith.

Believing wrong will send you to Hell dear reader. In Judaism, the concept of forgiveness is not based on the merits of the blood of Jesus Christ; but rather, [5]upon ourselves improving our behavior to please the God of the Old Testament. In Judaism, forgiveness is not sought through the cross of Calvary, as it is in Bible Christianity. John 14:6,

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Salvation Is Obtained Only Through Faith In The Name Of Jesus Christ

Salvation is only obtained through the name of Jesus. Acts 4:10-12, "

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved*.

" John 15:23, " He that hateth me hateth my Father also." Jesus is precious to every believer. 1st Peter 2:7, "

Unto you therefore which believe he is precious*: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

2.2.24 What If I Am Not Saved? (2021-02-22 09:30)

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God." —Romans 8:16

I want to share my personal Christian testimony, and the painful battle with the assurance of my salvation for seven miserable years. I don't remember the exact age that I was saved. I remember a place, a sermon, my heart's conviction that I was a guilty sinner, my faith in the gospel; but I didn't think at the time to write down the date or take notice of how old I was. You don't think about stuff like that unless someone tells you to write it down. That's why I think it's a good idea to tell a new convert to write down the day they got saved, so years later they can reflect back with that knowledge. I was between 12 and 14, that's all I remember as far as my age.

I had prayed a prayer years before when I was about 6-7 years old. I didn't really get saved (but I thought I had in my mind). I was water baptized following this profession. I was only in 1st grade. I had been having learning difficulty in public school, so my parents put me in a Christian school. Then I went back to public school for 2nd grade, Christian school for 3rd and 4th, public school for 5th and 6th, and then ultimately a Christian school from 7th grade through high school. Being away from the evils of public school kept me out of a lot of trouble as a teenager in Chicago (despite all the trouble I still got into...lol).

Growing up I had attended several churches; including the Methodist Church, non-denominational, the Salvation Army and Baptist churches. It wasn't until in a Baptist church that I first felt the conviction of the Holy Spirit, where the gospel was properly presented. I remember it was on a Sunday morning. I'll never forget what the preacher said. He said if you don't have the Holy Spirit convicting you about sin in your life, then you're not saved. Boy I was scared. I knew God was talking to my heart that morning through that sermon. For the first time in my life I was convicted about my sins.

I had never felt conviction up until that day. I never even thought about the Bible, nor the things of God (and I attended Sunday School regularly). I was used to hearing Bible stories. There was something about that sermon that God intended for me. God convicted me and I got saved. I was too shy to walk an isle. The best I knew how I called upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ from my pew and asked Him to forgive my sins and save me. I remember my face being red and my hands griping the pew in front of me, as I was a bit overwhelmed with conviction, emotion and fear.

Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) has a similar salvation testimony as I do. Brother Hutson was saved at age 11, but he couldn't remember the date that he was saved, and he went through years of uncertainty as I did. Here's an awesome sermon by Dr. Curtis Hutson titled, [1]ASSURANCE.

Seven Years Of Uncertainty And Fear As a Teenager

After church I had fear in my heart on the way home while riding the church bus. I had tears in my eyes. I was afraid of going to Hell. I went home and for the first time in my life began to read the Word of God. I started with a King James Bible (and I thank God I've learned the truth that the King James Bible is the true Word of God). I'll die believing and preaching from the inspired King James Bible. I read Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and then got bored with the Mosaic Law (being your typical teen), so I jumped ahead to the more exciting New Testament. But I was hungry to learn the truth of the Bible. I was reading all the little commentary notes, as it was a Nelson study Bible. I remember my mother saying, “You’ve changed.” I’m fairly certain that I was about 13-years of age, being in 7th grade.

The Holy Spirit had come into my life to stay, because I was saved. I was a child of God. However, I lacked the assurance of my salvation and wouldn’t find peace for another 7-years. I used to cry in school on Monday after hearing a sermon on Sunday about Heaven or Hell. I’d hide my tears thinking “What if?” “What if I go to Hell?” “What if I didn’t have enough faith to be saved?” “What if I missed something and didn’t pray right?” “What if, what if, what if?” I must have read at least 50 different gospel tracts. After reading each one I’d fall on my knees and pray the sinner’s prayer. I’d go through the steps of the gospel track, item by item...

- Do I know that I’m a sinner? ... Yes!
- Do I believe that there’s a penalty for sin in hell fire forever... Yes!
- Do I believe that Jesus is the Christ Who died, was buried and rose again 3-days later for my sins? ... Yes!
- Will I believe on the name of Lord, trusting His work of redemption as payment for my sins? ... Yes!

I’d assure myself that God cannot lie and since I obeyed the Bible, I am saved, case closed. Yet, I couldn’t deny what I felt in my heart, that is, fear, mental anguish, worry, uncertainty and misery. I was so sad and scared. It was a very lonely feeling.

It didn’t help to hear preachers say things from the pulpit things like ... “Just take God at His Word!” ... “Don’t insult God by questioning your salvation!” ... “Fear only comes from the Devil!” ... “If you worry, then that’s not faith and something is wrong!” I was terrified and all these statements from preachers only made it worse. Although some of those statements are true, they don’t help a person obtain the assurance of their salvation.

Eventually, at age 17 I finally couldn’t take it anymore and went to my pastor for counseling. After 4-years of worry, fear, tears, mental anguish and sadness, I wanted help to find out if I was saved or not. It was one of the hardest things I’ve ever done. I was very apprehensive because everybody thought I was saved all those years in our Christian church and school. No one ever questioned my salvation. I was worried what people would think about me. What would my pastor think? But alas, I decided that I didn’t care, I wanted to get the assurance of my salvation.

When I explained the situation to my pastor, he made a classic mistake that so many preachers make by saying “If you don’t know if you’re saved, then you must not be.” That’s simply not true. There are many doubting believers who are saved, but as babes in Christ are ignorant of the Scriptures. So my pastor led me in a sinner’s prayer. The next week I was water baptized for the second time in my life, but I was terrified getting into the baptistry because I still didn’t know if I was saved or not. Now (I thought to myself) I’d really look stupid if I went to my pastor after he thinks I just got saved. I figured if he couldn’t help me the first time, then he wouldn’t be able to help me the second time either.

As I stepped into the baptistry water, all I could think about was Mark 16:16, “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Was I going to be damned for getting baptized while still having doubts and fears in my mind and heart about being saved? Was my lack of assurance, in fact, unbelief that would get me damned to Hell? I was water baptized with a worrisome heart, doubts about my salvation, and I was terrified. What was I going to do? Not knowing that you're saved and on your way to Heaven is one of the most miserable feelings in the world.

I was already saved, but I didn't have peace about it. I had prayed a sinner's prayer at age 17 (but I had already been saved since I was age 13). When I was 13 I didn't pray audibly. I simply believed in my heart for Jesus to forgive my sins. From that moment until day I've felt the presence of the Holy Spirit in my life. That's because the Holy Spirit came to live in me the very second that I got saved. Romans 8:9 teaches that every Christian is indwelt by the Spirit of Christ. The moment you personally receive Jesus as the Christ, the Holy Spirit comes to live in your body.

You are now the temple of the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:7). This is why Christians ought not smoke, drink and abuse their health. You are the house of God! God doesn't dwell in a big church building with stained-glass windows, plush carpeting, and padded pews; but rather, He lives in you as a true believer in Christ Jesus.

Never Assume That a Person is Unsaved Just Because They Have Doubts

I think it is a bad thing to tell someone that they must be lost, simply because they don't know for sure they're saved. My situation is a perfect example of why this assumption should never be made. By attempting to lead a person to the Lord who is having doubts, you still haven't addressed their underlying fears, concerns and worries.

By telling someone that they need to get saved to remove their doubts, you're only slapping a temporary patch over a long-term problem; thus forcing them to suffer in continued fear, unanswered questions and worry. I know the utter misery of not knowing whether or not you're going to Heaven or Hell. It is a frightening thing to read Scriptures like (Hebrews 10:31, It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God) and not know for certain if you are ok with God. I had already prayed the sinner's prayer 50 times. I had read through dozens upon dozens of gospel tracts. I couldn't stop worrying and I felt bad about myself for having doubts.

What I needed as a teenager was some good (doctrinally sound) books on salvation, which I didn't know existed. This is why I am a firm believer that every church ought to have a bookstore with doctrinally sound books to help mentor new converts. I recommend the [2]Sword Of The Lord, who [3]publish numerous books and booklets available on the subject of SALVATION to help new believers.

Doubts are not evidence that a person is not saved. Although some Christian workers and pastors may feel that the safe approach is to lead the person to the Lord, doing so will not remedy the underlying fears, uncertainty and doubts caused by ignorance of the Scriptures and salvation. You need to teach that person some Bible truths about eternal security and assurance of salvation. This is why I have published this article, that is, to help others who are struggling with the assurance of their salvation to find peace.

The Epistle of 1st John was written so we can KNOW that we are saved (1st John 5:13). The Bible teaches that a couple of the ways that we know we are saved is if we, love one another, and keep God's Commandments with gladness. These are NOT requirements to be saved; but rather, evidences that we are saved. These are the FRUIT of genuine repentance. Faith is the ROOT (Genesis 15:6). A changed life is the FRUIT (result) of genuine repentance, and not a part of the ROOT of saving faith (Romans 4:5-6).

I studied 1st John a lot, because this Book of the Bible was written to help believers KNOW that they are saved. I asked myself, "Do I love my Christian brothers and sisters?" Yes, I do. "Are God's Commandments grievous for me to keep?" No, I love serving God. I want to obey and keep God's Commandments. "Do I believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God?" Yes, I do with all my heart. I passed all the tests presented in 1st John to verify that I was saved, yet I still couldn't find peace about my salvation.

"Just Enough" Faith is All You Need To be Saved

God sent a dear man of God who used to preach week-long revivals at our church. I'll never forget something he taught us about Romans 10:13, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." He asked, "How much faith does a person need to be saved?" Romans 10:13 answers this question... "JUST ENOUGH!" If you have "just enough" faith to call upon the name of the Lord, then you will be saved. All God requires is that we obey His Word. It matters not how many doubts you have, just so long as you act upon the faith. All the faith you need to be saved is "just enough" to call (appeal) upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

This truth greatly helped me, but I still had worries and doubts concerning all my other questions... WHAT IF? WHAT IF? WHAT IF?

Putting God On The Spot

After this I dare not tell anyone that I wasn't sure that I was saved. I fell on my knees and prayed to God often, putting Him to the challenge. I said with a humble and broken heart...

> "God, if I am your child, then you owe it to me to show me beyond any shadow of a doubt. But if I'm not saved, then simply show me and I'll get saved immediately. Just please show me... am I saved or not? I want to be saved. I want to go to Heaven. I know that I am a hell-deserving sinner. I believe that Jesus is the Christ, Who died for my sins. I believe that Jesus was buried and rose again. I not only believe Lord, but I know, because I believe it so much. I know these things are true. I want to be saved and be with you in Heaven so much. I know that Jesus shed His blood to pay for my sins. I am afraid of missing out on Heaven. What if I messed something up? What if I'm missing something? What if I don't have enough faith? I can't even remember when I was saved. Does that mean I didn't get saved? I need to know if I'm saved, beyond any shadow of a doubt. Please, please, show me Lord!"

I prayed similar words over and over, time after time, gospel tract after gospel tract, asking God to open the eyes of my understanding. I was spiritually hungry for the truth. I sat attentive in every sermon, taking keen notice any time that a preacher taught anything about faith, belief or salvation. I began to learn, a little at a time. My eyes and ears were wide open and I was hungry to learn.

Off To Bible College

I went off to Bible college to serve the Lord full-time. When I was 20-years old I heard Dr. Jack Hyles preach a sermon called "THE SIN QUESTION, SON QUESTION." In the sermon, Brother Hyles said that a lot of people turn over a new leaf and falsely think they are saved. They've only addressed the sin question. They've determined to amend their ways, turning over a new leaf to do better through religion, but they've have never addressed the question of the Son of God.

Then there's folks who false profess to be saved who've placed their full trust in Jesus Christ, fully surrendering and making a commitment to serve God; but they've never addressed the sin question. They've never acknowledged their guilt of sin and their debt owed in hellfire for all eternity for their sins.

After hearing this sermon I was scared. I was scared because I couldn't remember the date I was saved, let alone the thoughts of my mind at the time I was saved. I knew I was a sinner years later, but had I known it at age 13 when I think I was saved? Boy, this stuff could drive anyone bananas with worry. So I talked to a good friend about it and he asked, "Brother Dave, do you know you're a sinner?" I replied, "Yes." He then asked, "Do you believe that Jesus paid for your sins?" I replied, "Yes, I believe that Christ died, was buried and arose for my sins." He then concluded, "Brother Dave, if you go to Hell, then it's Jesus fault because you're trusting Him completely."

That helped me for the moment, but the fears and doubts were still with me. I had placed all my eggs (faith) into one basket (Christ), so-to-speak. I was trusting Jesus Christ alone to save me. I often said to myself after that, "If I go to Hell, then it will be Jesus' fault, because I'm relying upon Him 100 % to forgive my sins and take me to Heaven."

That's what salvation is, that is, putting all your hope in Christ. In salvation, we place our complete trust in Jesus Christ and what He did to pay for our sins. The good news (gospel) is that Jesus DIED, He was BURIED, and then He ROSE up after three days (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

That is the Biblical gospel of Jesus Christ. There are many strange gospels circulating on the internet these days, teaching a false gospel.

I continued to search for answers. I sat attent in my Bible classes and listened to as many sermons as I could. I was hesitant to talk with people about my doubts. I knew in my heart that I was saved, I just couldn't nail it down to find perfect peace on the matter.

The Work Of The Old Testament High Priest And The Lamb Of God

What ultimately helped me more than anything to find the assurance of salvation was a study of the Old Testament tabernacle, holy of holies, the sacrificial lamb, Day of Atonement, mercy seat and the work of the Levite high priest. Hearing preaching about the blood of Jesus and Bible studies on the Old Testament Day of Passover helped me immensely. [4]The blood had to be applied!

God had established Ceremonial Laws for the Jews as a means of teaching divine truths to them. Once each year, the high priest killed a male lamb (without spot nor blemish) and took that lamb's shed blood into the holy place. The priest then applied the lamb's blood to the mercy seat, which was a shadow of things to come (that is, it pictured Jesus Christ literally taking His blood into the heavenly holy place one day - Hebrews 9:12, 24). This was fulfilled after Jesus rose from the dead, but before He returned to be seen by the 11 Apostles (Judas killed himself after betraying the Son of God). Just as the Old Testament high priest needed to apply the blood to the mercy seat, so also did the Lord Jesus Christ need to apply His literal blood to the heavenly mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12).

People in the Old Testament were saved the exact same way that people are saved today, that is, by grace through faith in the Son of God (Acts 10:43; Genesis 15:6; Ephesians 2:8-9). It was the Jew's faith in the shed blood of the coming Messiah that saved them.

The message of the lamb's blood upon the mercy seat in the holy of holies plainly testifies of the necessity of Christ's blood sacrifice. This truth helped me to clear my mind of the errant thinking of salvation as a prayer. Most people tend to focus upon the sinner's prayer. You'll find that most people these days who profess to be Christians speak of having prayed a prayer. Now praying a sinner's prayer is certainly appropriate if it's based upon a believing heart, but please keep in mind that salvation is NOT A PRAYER. Romans 10:9 teaches that a person is saved by believing in one's heart that God hath raised Him [Jesus] from the dead.

Understanding the Old Testament lamb, high priest, holy of holies and mercy seat gives depth of understanding to salvation. It really helped me to see what was going on in salvation. For years I was worried about whether or not I had missed something. I was thinking too much. My fears were caused by IGNORANCE. It's the same type of fear that a person would naturally feel when in a dark unfamiliar room or walking into a dark alley. Uncertainty breeds fear.

If a person has never worked on a car before, then they will naturally have fear. I had the same fears when I was young and wanted to learn how to repair my own car. I purposed in my heart that the worst thing I could do was break it and have to pay to have it fixed. So I did my best and learned as I went. Eventually my fears went away as I became FAMILIAR with working on my own car. The same is true of every field of work, hobby, or even salvation. My fears were caused by uncertainty of the unknown. But I didn't realize that at the time. It wasn't until I knew what I knew that I realized how much I didn't know. In hindsight, it all seems so simple.

I know that there are MANY people today, who are afflicted just like I was back then, who are worried sick about their salvation. I assure you that it's because you are not knowledgeable about the Scriptures. It could be that you were never saved; but more than likely if you're that worried about it, you were and just don't have enough knowledge of the Scriptures to have peace about it. Although I knew back then in my mind that salvation was simple, I was worried that perhaps there was more to it than I had come to understand. I desperately didn't want to miss out on the opportunity of a lifetime to go to Heaven, and I certainly didn't want to end up in the Lake of Fire if I was wrong.

My problem was that I was ignorant of the Bible and afraid of the unknown. Jesus said in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

You'll find sweet peace when you become familiar with the tabernacle, the holy of holies, the Day of Atonement, the sacrificial lamb and the mercy seat all pointing to Christ's death, burial and resurrection; and Christ's ascension to appear before the Father in Heaven...

> Hebrews 9:24-28, "For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation."

The Bible defines the gospel of Jesus as Christ's death, burial and resurrection. Once a person gets saved, then they learn about Christ's Virgin Birth, deity (Jesus is God almighty), the Godhead, Christ's sinless life, bodily resurrection, vicarious (substitutionary) death, and other fundamentals of the Doctrine of Christ. A person doesn't need to understand and believe all these teachings to be saved. However, a person who is saved won't openly deny these doctrines when they are taught them from the Scriptures.

When I got saved at age 13, I didn't learn that Jesus was God until 5-years later in Bible college. When a godly teacher taught me about [5]Christ in the Old Testament, I was like a kid in a candy store. I wanted to learn all that I possibly could. I was so excited and happy to know that my Savior was God Himself, the Godhead manifest in the flesh (1st Timothy 3:16, Colossians 2:9; Revelation 1:8 - King James Bible). The Doctrine of Christ is vital and every Christian should study the Bible to learn these pillars of the Christian faith. But to be saved, all that God requires is that we believe on the name of the only begotten Son of God, Jesus, Who is the Christ that should come into the world to save men from their sins.

Please don't misunderstand, no man who denies the Virgin Birth can get saved regardless of his faith in Christ. I'm not talking about open and willful rejection of the Doctrine of Christ (such as the case with Martin Luther King Jr., Benjamin Franklin and and C.S. Lewis). But rather, I'm talking about the average naïve person like I was, who receives Christ as their Savior but it takes years for them to learn about the Virgin Birth, Christ's Deity and His bodily resurrection from the grave and bodily ascension into Heaven.

You'd be shocked how many religious people think that Heaven and Hell are not literal places. No professed Christian who denies a literal Hell is truly saved. If there's no Hell that burns with fire and brimstone, then prey tell me what did Christ save you from? Extinction? Although genuine born-again Christians differ and even argue many doctrines in the Bible, they all agree on the fundamental teachings of the Christian faith (which include Christ's Virgin Birth, sinless life, blood sacrifice, literal bodily resurrection, et cetera).

Those so-called Christians (such as Robert B. Thieme Jr. and John MacArthur Jr.) who teach that Jesus' literal blood soaked into the ground at Calvary and stayed there are heretics and unsaved Modernists. No man who denies the efficacy (saving power) of Christ's literal blood is saved. From the blood of the animal God slew in Genesis to clothe Adam and Eve, to the saints whose robes are washed in the blood of the Lamb in Revelation—the Bible proclaims the message of the importance, necessity and application of the literal, physical, precious, blood of the Lamb of God!!! Amen and amen!

> 1st Peter 1:18-19, "Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot."

The Danger Of Emphasizing A Sinner's Prayer To Be Saved

Part of the problem in our churches today is the false idea that a person is saved by a prayer. Every gospel tract that I had read told me to pray a prayer. That's why I'm really leery of passing out gospel tracts anymore. I give out Gospels of John instead; Or I write my own tracts. Nearly all of the gospel tracts I've read lead people to pray, which leaves the impression in one's mind that prayer is necessary to be saved. It's not. Salvation is believing, not praying.

Although a sinner's prayer is acceptable at the time of salvation, a prayer does not save anybody. You could pray your entire life and still go to Hell when you die (Matthew 6:7). A sinner's prayer is NOT the gospel. The gospel is the death, burial and resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

The Bible does not require a prayer to get to Heaven. Many people misinterpret Romans 10:13 to mean "a prayer." Romans 10:13 "For whosoever shall CALL upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." The Greek word for "call" here means "to invoke, appeal, to petition." It simply means that you go to the Lord to be saved, trusting upon His death, burial and resurrection as payment for your sins. A prayer is the expression of a believing heart. You wouldn't prayer if you didn't already believe. You are saved the second you believe on Christ. That's why I don't lead sinners to pray a sinner's prayer anymore. I used to. Now, I just lead people to acknowledge their sinnership before God; and to personally believe in their heart that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, relying upon the redemptive work of Christ as payment for their sins.

Also, when an invitation to receive Jesus Christ is given at the end of the sermon, a person is saved before they ever step out of their pew to go forward to the alter. It was their faith in the Lord that caused them to step out and go forward. They walked forward to find out what they just did. They were saved in their pew the moment that they believed upon Christ. Walking down an isle is not required to be saved, and neither is praying a prayer.

A lot of people have problems with the assurance of their salvation, like I once did, because they are focusing on a prayer. I was saved simply by believing on Jesus Christ; but in hindsight over the years to follow I was worried that I forgot something. Since I couldn't remember what my exact heart's words were, I was concerned. I prayed in my heart for Jesus to save me, but it was my faith that saved me (not the prayer). I eventually learned that all the things I was worried about had absolutely nothing to do with my salvation. I was saved simply by believing upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Salvation is so simple. Jesus paid our sin debt. All we have to do is believe on Christ and what He did for us.

Also, I don't think preachers should require people to leave their pew and come forward to find out how to be saved. A pastor should tell sinners in the pew that they can be saved without coming forward. A preacher should tell everyone in the congregation how to be saved right there in their pew. It's ok to invite people to come forward, but the gospel should not be withheld from those who don't come forward. Maybe a person doesn't feel well, or is shy, or embarrassed, or simply doesn't feel comfortable walking an isle. God will save any repentant sinner as they are, who they are, and where they are.

I am confident that a lot of people are going through the same fears, worries and doubts that I did for 7-years. The reason is because our churches have become caught up in leading people to pray a sinner's prayer. We need to teach lost sinners that praying a prayer is NOT the way of salvation, unless it comes from a believing heart in the gospel.

'The Gospel' is The Power Of God Unto Salvation

It is one's faith in the gospel (Hebrews 4:2; Galatians 3:26) that causes God to work the miracle of salvation (John 1:12-13). Salvation is a supernatural miracle of God in response to one's faith in the gospel.

2nd Timothy 3:5 warns about false religions that teach a way of salvation void of the saving power of the gospel. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Most professed Christians these days are as unsaved as the Devil. They falsely view Christianity and being born-again as a prayer, an experience, a philosophy, a way of life, a commitment, a surrender, amending one's ways, et cetera; but they fail to believe that there is a literal miracle-working God in Heaven Who saves sinners.

Many unsaved people are deceitfully declaring themselves Christians, therefore they are in their own feeble minds. They DENY THE POWER THEREOF as 2nd Timothy 3:5 warns. They're ok with any type of manmade salvation which doesn't involve a literal and miraculous God. Salvation is a miracle! Only God can save a person (John 1:13). Salvation is not wrought by men; not be might, nor by power, nor by the will of man. Salvation is 100 % totally and completely of God. This is why king David in the Bible [6]continually referred to THY SALVATION. Our part as admitted sinners is simply to believe upon the name of the Lord Jesus Christ (that He died, He was buried and He rose again); everything else concerning salvation is God's department. We are the SINNERS and Jesus is the SAVIOR!

The Promises Of God

One of the most important truths to bare in mind is that salvation is based upon the PROMISE of God. All of the false religious systems in this world are rooted in self-righteous works and uncertainty. Basically you do your best and hope it all works out ok! As Bible-believing Christians we don't have to live with fear, uncertainty or doubt. I've learned that salvation is a PROMISE from God, and that means I can KNOW (beyond any shadow of a doubt) that I am saved.

Eternal life is a PROMISE from God. Titus 1:2, "In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began." God wants us to have sweet assurance and peace that we are saved and secure. God made us a PROMISE.

But He went further, reminding us in Titus 1:2 that God cannot lie.

But He goes even went a step further and informs us that He made this promise of eternal life before the world began.

What precious truths! God PROMISED us eternal life in Christ Jesus, a promise that He made before the world was ever created, and God wants us to keep in mind that He never breaks a promise! Brother, that's eternal security!!!

If you have been struggling with the assurance of your salvation, I am confident that some of these truths will help you immensely to find the sweet peace and harmony of soul that God wants us all to have. Eternal life is not a reward for good behavior; but rather, it is a gift from God to ungodly sinners, paid for by Jesus' precious blood!

No matter how ungodly you may be, God will forgive you of every sin and declare you justified (Just-If-I'd) never sinned (Romans 4:5-6). All you have to do is cease from your own religious and self-righteous labors; and instead rest upon the PROMISE of eternal life by faith in Jesus, the Christ, Whom God the Father sent into the world to save men from their sins (Luke 19:10). Jesus DIED, He was BURIED, and He ROSE again three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). If you receive the gospel as payment for your sins, then you are saved eternally my friend. I trust that I will meet you in Heaven someday.

I haven't doubted my salvation in well over 20-years now. I fully understand the gospel and what God DOESN'T require of me for salvation. Most religions mislead people to think that God requires a bunch of things from them to get to Heaven. The truth is that the Bible says Jesus paid our sin debt because He loves us, and eternal life is a free gift at no cost, no obligation, nor burden to the recipient. Jesus paid it all! The burden of salvation rests upon Christ, Who bore our sins at Calvary on the cross.

I learned over time that it didn't matter what I could or couldn't remember from years past. Salvation is NOT an experience. Salvation is a new birth, a second birth, a spiritual birth; which is as irreversible as the first physical birth. What matters is that I have faith in my heart NOW, today. I am saved now this minute. I can say with total confidence that I am saved. Biblical salvation is instant and immediate. It is not a process. Eternal l life is a gift from God.

Although I had asked the Lord to save me at least 50 times during a 7-year period, I was saved the first time! At the very moment at which I believed on Jesus Christ to forgive my sins, I was saved eternally. All the other times I prayed a sinner's prayer out of ignorance. Although I was confused back then as a teenager, not being able to see the forest for the trees; in hindsight today I KNOW that I was saved as a young teen. It was like a light switch was flipped in my life. I've felt the strong presence of God's Holy Spirit in my life ever since that morning when I prayed in my heart for the Lord to save me.

I believed on Christ that Sunday morning. I knew that I was a guilty sinner. I knew that I wanted to go to Heaven. I knew that Jesus died, was buried and rose again three days later for my sins. I placed my trust in the Lord the best I new how, receiving the gospel as payment for my sins, and Jesus saved!!! Thank you Lord for dying for my sins and shedding your precious blood!

BEWARE of any false gospel which places [7]the burden of salvation upon the sinner to change, amend his ways, make a commitment, fully surrender to Christ, stop sinful bad habits, forsake the world, or turn over a new leaf. These things are all appropriate in their own respective places; but when added to the gospel they constitute a perverted and corrupted FALSE GOSPEL of self-righteousness! In salvation, the total burden rests upon Jesus Christ!

Upon trusting Jesus Christ, anything other than instant and immediate eternal life is a false gospel of self-righteous works!

We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS, i.e., Christ's righteousness, and not our own self-righteousness. Matthew 6:33 says, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and [8]HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS; and all these things shall be added unto you."

> What a day that will be, when my Jesus I shall see;
> When I look upon His face, the one Who saved me by His grace;
> And when He takes me by the hand, and leads me through the Promised Land;
> What a day, glorious day, that will be!

2.2.25 Beware Of All The Corrupt Bible Revisions Today (2021-02-24 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God*: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

I read a great quote today from Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882) that inspired me to write this article about the Holy Bible...

> “People do not deserve to have good writing, they are so pleased with bad.
> —Ralph Waldo Emerson

What a great statement! I’m telling you, 99 % of churches today DON’T deserve to have an infallible, inerrant, perfect or inspired Bible, because they are so pleased with all the bad ones! Take the New Living Translation (NLT) for example. Look at what they do to corrupt this passage of Scripture:

> NEW LIVING TRANSLATION (NLT) - 2nd Corinthians 2:17, “
>
> You see, we are not like the many hucksters
>
> who preach for personal profit*. We preach the word of God with sincerity and with Christ’s authority, knowing that God is watching us.
> **”

Hucksters? What in the world does that mean? The dictionary defines a huckster as: “a seller of shoddy goods; to sell or offer for sale from place to place.”

Here is what the accurate King James Bible says:

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - 2nd Corinthians 2:17, “
>
> For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God*: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.
> **”

There is a big difference between preaching merely for profit versus corrupting the Word of God!

Things that are different are not the same! The ERV is just plain retarded:

> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - “Certainly not those who are out there selling God’s message for a profit! But we don’t do that. With Christ’s help we speak God’s truth honestly, knowing that we must answer to him.”

Every Bible publisher under the sun sells Bible to make a profit! Who are they kidding? Only the King James Bible gets it right! Look what the NIV says:

NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - "Unlike so many, we do not peddle the word of God for profit. On the contrary, in Christ we speak before God with sincerity, as those sent from God."

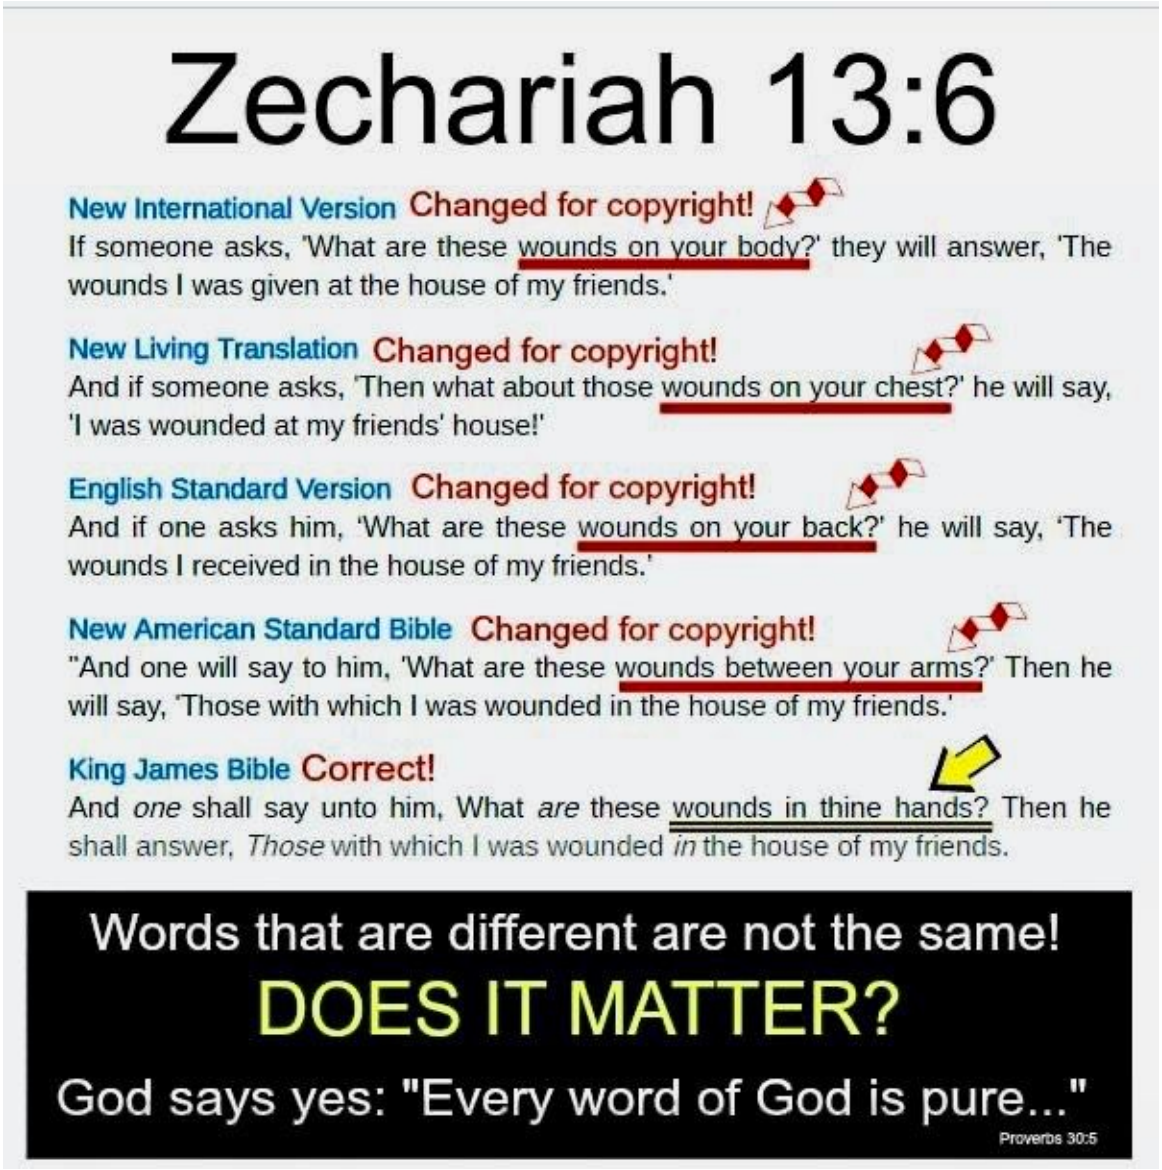
Here is the reading of the CEB and the ESV:

COMMON ENGLISH BIBLE (CEB) - "We aren't like so many people who hustle the word of God to make a profit. We are speaking through Christ in the presence of God, as those who are sincere and as those who are sent from God."

ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - "For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ."

Do you see the drastic difference in meaning? Each revision subtly changes the wording a little bit for copyright reasons, not to be honest or scholarly. That is very shady! Today's ungodly publishers have corrupting the Word of God...

[1]



Woe unto the preacher who bids Godspeed to this garbage! It is tragic that the average Baptist preacher today hasn't a clue what I am talking about. I have met umpteen Baptist pastors who weren't interested in contending for the faith. They are cowards, to be truthful. These shallow preachers are idle sitting on the premises instead of faithfully standing on the promises. God almighty only authored ONE BOOK, not two, not 339, not 900. If there is more than one Bible version, then we have more than one authority, which is a big problem!

All across the world dear reader, lame Hebrew and Greek Bible professors sit in judgment upon the inspired Word of God, placing the Holy Book on the court stand. Instead of " THUS SAITH THE LORD

" (Exodus 4:22b), all of today's counterfeit Bibles say

HATH GOD SAID?

(Genesis 3:1b). Where the King James Bible places an exclamation mark, all of the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions place a question mark.

" [2]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE "

(MP3 by Brother Lester Roloff). We need to get back to being a redeemed people of THE BOOK! If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have God's Word!!!

2.2.26 Beware Of The False Gospel Of Pastor John Barnett (2021-02-25 03:55)

Galatians 3:1-3, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

Salvation is a free gift. Service is what you choose to do with the gift. A popular preacher of our time is [1]Pastor John Barnett. Not surprisingly Barnett has studied at Bob Jones University (BJU), a [2]cesspool of theological error and [3]apostasy in recent decades. I wouldn't give you a dime for BJU today! Sadly, Mr. Barnett preaches another gospel of Lordship Salvation. The following heretical video sermon by Pastor Barnett is titled:

"DID YOU KNOW THAT JESUS SAID—ONLY TRUE DISCIPLES CAN GO TO HEAVEN?"

Kindly said, Pastor Barnett goes horribly astray in his understanding of the Gospel. He is misapplying Bible verses about discipleship with salvation. According to Barnett, faith alone in Christ is not enough to be saved, but also, he says you must be a disciple who is following Christ in total surrender and submission. Dear friend, if only true disciples can go to Heaven, then we are all doomed!!! No one, and I mean no one, has ever perfectly followed Christ. The very idea that someone would attempt to follow Christ to get to Heaven is works.

Please consider that Judas followed Jesus, being one of His very apostles. Yet, Judas died in his sins and went to Hell in unbelief. In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a dedicated group of religious people who spent their lives serving Jesus. They bragged of their "many wonderful works." They boasted that they "prophesied (preached) in Jesus' name. Can you image? They were hardcore followers of Christ, yet Jesus denied even knowing them as His sheep. They had been conned by the Devil to live the Christian life without ever being born-again. You don't give your life to Jesus to be saved, Jesus already gave His life for you on the cross, to pay for your sins and mine (Romans 5:6-9). Salvation has nothing to do with us. We are simply the recipient, only Jesus is the giver of eternal life.

God gave us the Gospel of John specifically to teach us how to be saved. John 20:21, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times, without any mention of anything else. Nothing else is required for a sinner to be saved than simple childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus' crucified, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Pastor Barnett quotes passages from Matthew, misinterpreting them to apply to salvation. Barnett cherry-picks the word "repent" from Matthew, while totally ignoring the fact that John never mentions repentance one time. Matthew 4:17, "From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." The learned Bible student understands that repentance and faith are inseparable and refer to the same act.

Dr. Curtis Hutson offers these helpful words:

> "Faith and repentance are the same; they are not two separate decisions. One cannot trust Christ as Savior without repenting or changing his mind. The very fact that he trusts Christ for salvation shows that he has changed his mind regarding sin, salvation, and God." —Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

This is why the Apostle Peter said in Act 2:28, "Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Peter doesn't mention "believing" to be saved. Peter says to repent. But notice what we read in Acts 2:44, "And all that believed were together, and had all things common;" Dr. John R. Rice gets it 100 % right:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But > it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God “now commandeth all men every where to repent” (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.

>
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being “a disciple of John the Baptist” in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation. [emphasis added]
>

I hope you see that Pastor John Barnett is an unsaved man, a false teacher. No one is saved who attacks and perverts the grace of God. The Bible plainly says that salvation is without works; yet Barnett says only disciples go to Heaven. You must choose dear reader who is right, John Barnett or the inspired and infallible Word of God. Please read the following excellent theological quote by Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can’t be lost because it depends upon God’s faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

It is hard for me to grasp, with the abundance of helpful theological resources today, that any preacher could be so corrupt in his theology as the Lordship Salvation crowd. I mean, the King James Bible is all we need for sound doctrine (2nd Timothy 3:15-17). But even if someone were ignorant of the Bible and wanted some help to understand it, we have excellent resources available today, like never before in history. The Lordship Salvation crowd aren’t even in the ballpark theologically! John Barnett is guilty of teaching the same junk theology as Gary Walton, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Charles Lawson and William Lane Craig. Here are some more helpful quotes differentiating between salvation and service:

> "Discipleship is frequently equated with salvation and often erroneously made a condition for becoming a Christian". Pentecost, J. Dwight. Design for Discipleship. Zondervan Publishing House, 1971 (p. 11).
>
> "Certainly discipleship is a most important aspect of our relation to Christ, but it belongs to the sphere of Christian life rather than entrance upon that life... One does not become a disciple in order to become a Christian, but because he has become a Christian by faith in the Savior, it is fitting that he embark upon a life of discipleship".

Harrison, Everett F. "Must Christ be Lord to Be Savior?-No." Eternity, September 1959 (p. 14).

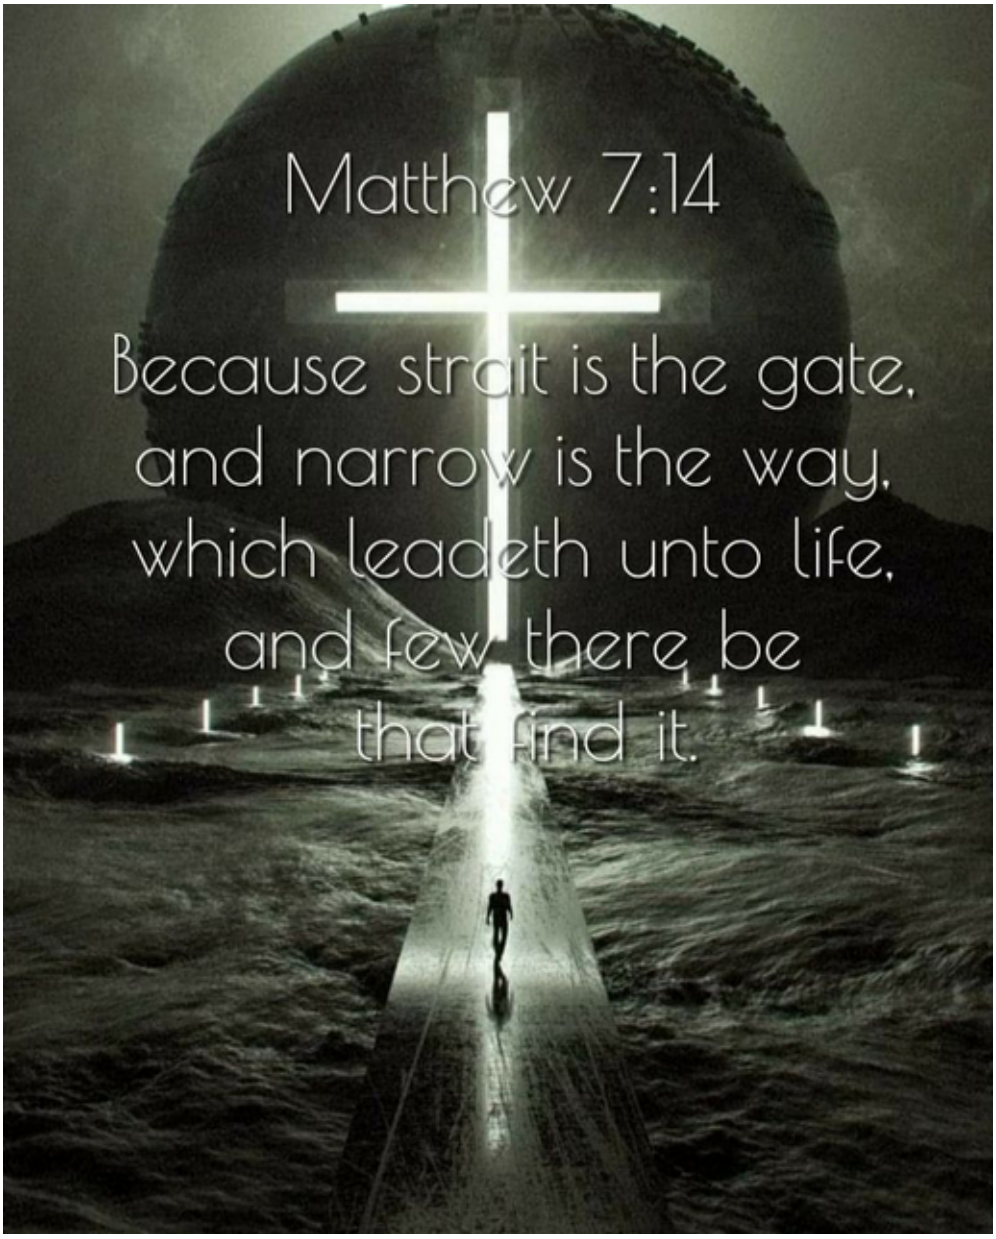
"There is no more piously subtle abrogation of the Gospel than to tell a Sinner that he must not only believe in the Savior, but dedicate himself to do God's will, crown the Savior Lord of his life, etc., etc. Obviously, dedication and service are highly desirable, but they are the privilege and the duty of the saved, never a condition of salvation for the unsaved (cf. Romans 12:1, 2)." Unger, Merrill F. God is Waiting to Meet You. Moody Press, 1975 (p. 117, 118).

"People are sometimes led to believe that there is saving value in some public confession of Christ, or profession of a decision. "With the heart man believeth unto righteousness." This is salvation. "With the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is the voice of the newborn child speaking to and of its father. The only condition on which one may be saved is to believe." Chafer, Lewis Sperry. Salvation. Dunham Publishing Company, 1917 (p. 46).

Those are great quotes, which will help you dear friend to see the difference between salvation versus service. Proof of what I say is found in 1st Corinthians 3:15, "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire." Notice that the unfaithful man in this Bible verse suffers loss of everything, barely escaping the fires of Hell, but he is saved nonetheless. If John Barnett is correct (which he is not), then this man couldn't be saved, because he was not a disciple.

You see, John Barnett is guilty of doing what all Gospel perverts do, they cherry-pick the Scriptures, taking what they need from various passages to bolster up their strawman argument. But friend, a good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. The Gospel of John, the Epistle of Romans, the Epistle of Ephesians and the Epistle of Galatians, are abundantly clear that salvation is by grace through faith alone. Romans 4:4-5, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." is absolutely NOTHING in the aforementioned books of the Bible that requires following Christ as Lord, forsaking all, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, to be saved. If it were so, then God would owe you and me salvation, which cannot be grace.

I plead with you friend to avoid these false teachers from Bob Jones University! They preach another gospel that is not what the King James Bible plainly teaches. Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, *or by the hearing of faith?" The Apostle Paul only wanted to know ONE THING, how did they get saved? How did they become indwelt with the Holy Spirit? Was it by works or by placing their faith in the Gospel when they heard it preached? We are saved simply by believing. That is why so many people miss Heaven, because men make salvation so complicated.



“More people will die and burn in Hell, because they’re trusting too much!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[5]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

“Everything that’s hard and complicated about salvation is God’s side of it!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[6]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

2.2.27 Did Pastor Charles Spurgeon Preach A False Gospel? (2021-02-28 09:30)

Romans 4:3-5, “

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness*.

There has been an ongoing battle between salvation by grace versus works, since the beginning of human civilization. In the Garden of Eden, after Adam and Eve sinned, Adam sewed together some fig leaves to cover their nakedness to hide their shame. God killed an innocent animal to provide skins to cloth Adam and Eve. Man’s fig leaf religion is not acceptable to God.

Adam and Eve bear children, the first being Cain and his brother Abel. Abel offered up a blood sacrifice to God, from a slain innocent animal, which the Lord accepted. That slain animal represented Jesus Christ, the slain lamb of God from the foundations of the world. However, Cain brought God a grain and vegetable offering from his fields. God was not impressed with Cain’s works. Only faith pleases God (Hebrews 11:6).

Having said that as introduction, there is still an ongoing raging battle today between salvation by grace versus works. The Devil has always used the effective warfare tactics of infiltration and imitation. Consequently, one of the Devil’s most effective deceptions is the HALF-TRUTH. This is why many false prophets merge grace with works, to deceive and confuse people. A classic example of a half-truth is the following quote from the Jehovah’s Witness’ Watchtower official website, in an article titled: “

What Must We Do To Be Saved?

> “Salvation is a free gift from God. It cannot be earned. Yet it does require effort on our part.”
> SOURCE: Watchtower, “ [1]What Must We Do To Be Saved?”

The part of the half-truth that is true can be defended with incontestable logic. It is true that salvation is a free gift from God. Who can argue with that? It is also true that salvation cannot be earned. So far, so good. However, it is untrue that salvation requires effort on our part. Nowhere in the Word of God are we told that effort is required to obtain eternal life. It is a free gift! Another classic example of a half-truth is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, which has sadly infected 75 % of Baptist churches today. This is largely because of the theologically morbid influence of apostate Bible colleges like [2]Bob Jones University and [3]Moody Bible Institute. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Also, tragically, Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, has thrust forward full throttle into Lordship Salvation, perverting the grace of God with their “

[4]UNSHACKLED

” radio program worldwide. Lordship Salvation is a HALF-TRUTH, whose proponents still insist that salvation is wholly by God’s grace, but also maintain that [5]you must faithfully run and complete the race to get to Heaven. That is exactly what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) heretically taught 2,700 students and faculty on January 26, 2015 in chapel. No Sir, that is not the Gospel of free grace, it is a false plan of salvation rooted in deception and human effort.

What About Pastor Charles Spurgeon?

You have to be careful about judging a man based on only a handful of statements. Anybody can cherry-pick and claim someone is a heretic. I’ve had preachers do it to me, cherry-picking my articles. You need to find what a man truly believes. Here is a great quote from Charles Spurgeon, which seems to clearly reveal that he believed salvation is by grace alone. Spurgeon didn’t teach that you have to “ turn from your sin

to be saved, as does the heretical Bob Jones University camp today. I love these words from Pastor Spurgeon:

> Oh friend, the great > grace of God surpasses my conception and your conception, and I would have you think worthily of it! As high as the heavens are above the earth; so high are God’s thoughts above our thoughts. He can abundantly pardon. Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners: forgiveness is for the guilty.
> Do not attempt to touch yourself up and make yourself something other than you really are; but come as you are to Him who justifies the ungodly*. [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Charles Spurgeon,
> “
>
> [6]All Of Grace,
> ”
> p. 14

Amen! Evangelist Ray Comfort twists Spurgeon’s teachings, claiming that Spurgeon required a person to [7]continually repent of sin all their life to be saved. At a glance, by cherry-picking Spurgeon’s sermons, it seems that Spurgeon agrees with Ray Comfort. However, it is obvious to me that these men did not agree. Granted, Spurgeon had some flaws in his theology, one being the Calvinist heresy of Limited Atonement (i.e., Jesus only died for the saints, not all sinners). The Bible blatantly calls Mr. Spurgeon a liar! 1st John 2:2, “

And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

” Christ died for all humanity, even for Christ rejecters who deny Him. 2nd Peter 2:1, “

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

Although I share a quote from Spurgeon from time to time with blog visitors, I am NOT a big Spurgeon fan. His writings are superb and incredibly scholarly, yet as with ALL MEN, we must never elevate man’s words to the same level as God’s inspired and infallible words in the Holy Bible. Men are flawed, sinners and incapable of always being right. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. ” I am fully aware that God will hold me accountable in eternity for every word that I type on the internet (Matthew 12:36). Romans 3:4 is my defence! If my constant criticisms against the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and Bob Jones University, and all the other apostates in our crooked generation today, AGREE WITH GOD’S WORD, then my many sayings will be justified. Lordship Salvation is of the Devil. Men are saved by faith alone, without works, and nothing else is required of a person to obtain and keep the gift of eternal life. It is clear to me that Charles Spurgeon also believed this truth.

In chapter 6 of “

All Of Grace

titled: “Concerning Deliverance From Sinning,” Spurgeon says:

> Dear friend, salvation would be a sadly incomplete affair if it did not deal with this part of our ruined estate. We want to be purified as well as pardoned. Justification without sanctification would not be salvation at all. [emphasis added]
>
>
> [8]All Of Grace, ”
> p. 28

Taken by itself, this quote could be used to claim that Spurgeon taught Lordship Salvation. However, we have to differentiate between the gift of eternal life, and the salvaging of a life for God. Notice that Pastor Spurgeon prefixes the entire following paragraph with the important word “

IF.

” Service (discipleship) to Christ is a separate decision from receiving the free gift of God, which is eternal life...

> If you yield yourself up to His divine working, the Lord will alter your nature; He will subdue the old nature, and breathe new life into you. Put your trust in the Lord Jesus Christ, and He will take the stony heart out of your flesh, and He will give you a heart of flesh. Where everything was hard, everything shall be tender; where everything was vicious, everything shall be virtuous: where everything tended downward, everything shall rise upward with impetuous force. The lion of anger shall give place to the lamb of meekness; the raven of uncleanness shall fly before the dove of purity;
>
> SOURCE: Pastor Charles Spurgeon,
> “
> [9]All Of Grace,
> p. 31

Clearly, Spurgeon recognizes that living for Christ is a choice, not something that is mandatory to be saved. There is much theological debate over this issue, so much so that many Bible colleges and churches these days are embracing both sides as being within the realm of orthodox theology. IT IS NOT!!! Calvinism is a completely different mindset than a Free Grace Theology. In Free Grace Theology, you simply believe The Gospel (Good News) of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross for your sins, buried, and bodily risen the third day.

But in [10]Calvinism, YOU must persevere in holiness until the end, or else you are said never to have been saved at all. I believe the Holy Spirit perseveres in a born-again believer until the end, not the believer persevering in holiness to run the race until the end. The former is God’s work alone, by which a saint has been sealed with the Spirit of God (Ephesians 1:13-15). The latter is a damnable false plan of salvation, depriving a person of the sweet assurance of salvation, which is the essence of demonic Calvinism. Calvinism is NOT the Gospel.

Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951), former faithful pastor of Moody Church (1930-1948) in Chicago, had these wonderful words of rebuke to say about Lordship Salvation...

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him."
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, Another Gospel.

Gently said, those dishonest [11]folks at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago have slandered Dr. Ironside horribly, accusing him of moving to a “ mild Calvinist position

in his latter ministry. Nothing could be further from the truth. Dr. Ironside was 100 % against Lordship Salvation!!!

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following quote by Dr. Ironside:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …
>
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”
>

Ray Comfort Preaches Another Gospel

With the truth I just shared with you, now read what Ray Comfort and Kirk Cameron falsely teach to millions of people. They teach that lost sinners MUST forsake their actual sins to be saved:

> "You must turn away from sin and turn to God. Desire to have NOTHING to do with sin, and surrender your life to the One who can save you... If you will confess and forsake your sins..."
>
> SOURCE: [13]http://www.livingwaters.com/good/022.shtml

[14]

WRONG! Someone from Ray Comfort’s organization contacted me years ago, claiming that I and Ray essentially believe the SAME GOSPEL. They were kindly asking me to stop criticizing Ray Comfort as a false teacher. I cut quickly to the chase with this statement: “I believe that a person can be saved and continue to wilfully live in sin, but Ray Comfort does not. We do not believe the SAME Gospel.” That ended our conversation. A big emphasis of Ray Comfort’s ministry is that a person who hasn’t experienced a drastic change in their life is not saved. In fact, [15]Ray totally misunderstands this drastic change to mean “born again.”

That is not what it means to be born again,

not at all. Being born anew means that God's Holy Spirit has quickened (made alive) our dead spirit by faith (Ephesians 2:1-2). John 1:12-13, " But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. " Being born-again means that a believer has the Holy Spirit in them (Romans 8:9; 1st Corinthians 3:16-17; 1st John 3:24).

On page 1513 of "

under the section "Questions & Objections," Ray Comfort addresses the statement: "Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin." Here's [16]Ray Comfort's reply to this statement…

> "The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon 'repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ' (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6." [Emphasis added]

> SOURCE: 'THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,' by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

That is so wrong on many levels. Dear reader, if you are a redeemed child of God, YOU ARE 100 % SAFE because Jesus died on the cross. Whether or not you choose to live your life to honor God has nothing to do with the GIFT of eternal life. That is why God calls it a "

gift

Search The Scriptures!

Ray Comfort extensively quotes Charles Spurgeon in 'The Evidence Bible.' False teachers like Ray Comfort, John MacArthur, John Piper, R.C. Sproul, Paul Washer and thousands more, selectively quote famous preachers like Spurgeon, as a secondary authority in an attempt to validate their false teachings. Jesus doesn't command us to read the books and sermons of great preachers, He exhorts us to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES. John 5:39. "

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. **"

When Jesus walked with the two curious men on the road to Emmaus, He didn't quote the theological philosophies of Moses, Elijah, Jacob, Nahum and other preachers of the past. No, the Lord expounded them in THE SCRIPTURES!!!

Luke 24:27, "

And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

” We need to get back to basics in 2021! I frequently receive emails from confused people, who are struggling with the assurance of salvation or other matters. They all share one thing in common —they’ve been listening to preachers instead of SEARCHING THE SCRIPTURES!!!

May I quote Pastor Charles Surgeon once again to settle this matter of what he believed:

> “You must not expect that you will be perfect in ’repentance’ before you are saved. No Christian can be perfect. ’Repentance’ is a grace. Some people preach it as a condition of salvation. Condition of nonsense! There are no conditions of salvation. God gives the salvation himself...” —Pastor Charles Spurgeon
> SOURCE: http://www.spurgeon.org/sermons/0044.htm (Charles Spurgeon, from a sermon titled, “REPENTANCE UNTO LIFE,” preached at the New Park Street Chapel, Southwark, on Sept. 23, 1855)

Despite many heretical statements which Mr. Spurgeon did in fact make, I believe he was saved. A man is not saved just because he makes some theologically foolish claims. Whether he is saved or not is based upon where he is looking. Spurgeon, as a 15 year old boy, was saved when he heard Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. ” When we strip away all of Spurgeon’s theology, I find that he was LOOKING UNTO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2). If you think Spurgeon was unsaved, you could be right and I won’t argue with you. If you think Spurgeon is bad, [17]look at Charles G. Finney (1792-1875). There is absolutely [18]NO WAY that this man went to Heaven!

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) was saved, and of that I have never doubted for a second. Dr. Hyles hated Lordship Salvation and did a great job by God’s grace to expose it for the demonic heresy it is. Dr. Hyles often quoted Spurgeon, and believed that Mr. Spurgeon was saved too. Pastor Hyles wrote a wonderful helpful book titled:

“ [19]Salvation Is More Than Being Saved , which clears up a lot of the confusion in churches and Bible colleges today. I think s Spurgeon’s own version of Dr. Hyles’ helpful book. I honestly think that Charles Spurgeon was simply saying the same thing as Brother Hyles.

“ [20]All Of Grace ” wa

Dr. Hyles explains salvation as beginning with justification . That is, God first rescues you from the incinerator (Hell). This is the gift of eternal life. But then God begins to sanctify you, which is the recycling of your life. Sanctification is an ongoing process that takes a lifetime. Getting saved is instant, by simply trusting Christ as one’s Savior, but then becoming Christlike takes a lifetime. And then one glorious day in eternity, with will experience glorification with our blessed Savior. The problems always start when sincere people (including preachers and Bible professors) mix and confuse these things, corrupting God’s plan of salvation. Pastor Jack Hyles explains this truth very well in his Oh so needful sermon called: “ [21]Steps In Sanctification; Or, The Root Of All Heresy.

” Brother Hyles originally preached this sermons at a Pastor’s School, and then by popular request across the country. It is a beautiful truth! I hope you will take the time to listen to it. I listen to this sermon a few times each year.

So, yes, I think Charles Spurgeon was saved, but sometimes it is difficult to know when he is talking about sanctification or justification and people get confused. If nothing else, Spurgeon teaches every preacher a very important lesson, which is that we must always make very clear the difference between justification (getting saved by faith), versus sanctification (growth in grace by faith plus works). That is why in James 2:18-22, the Apostle James speaks of being justified by works in the eyes of our fellow mankind. But in Romans 4:1-6, the Apostle Paul speaks of being justified by faith in the eyes of God. Do you see the difference?

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) makes this important distinction...

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

That is so helpful and wonderful. I think if we keep these precious Bible truths in mind, differentiating between justification and sanctification, it will help us to see clear.

2.3.1 The Greatest Threat To Christianity Today Is Pastors (2021-03-02 09:30)

Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Ephesians 6:10-13, "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

The greatest threat to Christianity in 2021 is not the vile homosexual community. It is not the murderous abortion industry. Our greatest enemy today is not the dirty liquor traffic. Our greatest threat is not filthy Hollywood and their cesspool of iniquity. The greatest threat to Christianity today is arrogant, proud and stubborn pastors, who will not heed THE TRUTH.

There is nothing new under the sun. They had the same problem in the Old Testament. I feel like a modern-day Jeremiah. The prophet Jeremiah wasn't married and neither am I. Jeremiah preached hard, uncompromising and without apology against the wicked pastors of the day, because they didn't care about truth. Jeremiah saw that the PASTORS of his generation (during the time of Babylon) were dropping the ball for God, just as I see it happening today in 2021. Read what the man of God says about the shameful pastors of his day...

Jeremiah 10:21, "For the pastors are become brutish [lacking good sense], and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered."

Jeremiah 12:10, "Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness."

Jeremiah 22:22, "The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness."

Jeremiah 23:1, "Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD."

Jeremiah 23:2, "Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD."

Ungodly pastors make people not want to go to church anymore. I receive emails all the time from people who don't want to attend church anymore, because they are sick and tired of Lordship Salvation being taught. They are sick and tired of seeing dozens of Bible versions, and corrupt revisions being used in churches. They are sick and tired of pastors running the churches like they personally own it, as a dictatorship instead of the house of God. Something is very wrong with 97 % of pastors and churches today, especially in the United States. The biggest problem is that pastors no longer have a PURE HEART. A man with a pure heart is a truth-seeker. He may start off wrong in the ministry, [1]as did Pastor Jack Hyles on the Bible, but because they are pure of heart they are willing to change toward right. Dr. Hyles was pure of heart, and by God's grace so am I.

Dear friend, always be pure of heart! But if you want to belong to a big group of phonies, who superficially claim to love truth but definitely don't, then Bob Jones University is the hellhole for you. They teach Lordship Salvation. Then deny that we have an inspired, infallible or inerrant Bible today. Perhaps you like that kind of [2]Caspar Milquetoast religion. Perhaps you like going along to get along with the crowd. That is why Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Dr. Marty Herron in Iowa at Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, and other heretics, refuse to break ties with Bob Jones University—birds of a feather flock together! Proverbs 16:5, " Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished." The Bob Jones crowd are a stiffnecked bunch!

You cannot help the Bob Jones University crowd, because they are subverted of themselves, filled with pride.

Titus 3:10-11, "

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself. " I am shocked how many pastors and churches rally behind Pastor John MacArthur. Mr. MacArthur's plan of Lordship Salvation is so complicated, that [3]he says children cannot be saved. Also, [4]MacArthur says Jesus did not have divine blood flowing in His veins. Contrary to the simplicity that is in Christ, [5]MacArthur makes salvation hard. But like the hellbound Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses, Dr. MacArthur says something really great, intriguing and interesting things from the pulpit. So millions of people are woefully deceived. A man who is wrong on the Bible, repentance and the Gospel cannot be trusted with anything theologically.

The Gospel is under brutal attack today in 2021. We are at war spiritually folks! We are at war over the inspiration, inerrancy and infallibility of the Word of God. We are at war over the clarity, meaning and accuracy of the Gospel. Sadly, the greatest threat to churches today are the apostate Bible colleges (e.g., Bob Jones University, Moody Bible Institute, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary, Masters University, et cetera), which supply churches with incompetent pastors. I wouldn't give you a plug nickel for the shallow, indifferent, wishy-washy, yuppie-type, graduates coming out of today's disgraceful so-called Bible colleges. What a misnomer!

One of the Devil's tactics, which he uses to corrupt truth, is to introduce imitations of the truth. So over time people get used to those imitations and embrace them, which eventually replaces the genuine thing. For example: Before the year 1881 nearly everyone used the King James Bible. But then two unsaved Anglican ministers named Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort, produced an allegedly new, older and better Greek text in 1881. The new Bible versions started being published, but sparingly. Albeit, in the 1960's all the stops of Hell were unplugged and Bible revisions by the dozens started appearing year after year. Today, according to the American Bible Society, there are [6]approximately 900 English Bibles.

Hundreds of thousands of young people enroll into Bible college believing that the Bible is inspired by God, and when they graduate don't believe that we have an infallible, inerrant or inspired Bible today. [7]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) admits that he also was misled by theologians in the early years of his ministry, but he woke up and realized what had happened, and because a champion for the King James Bible for the rest of his life.

The greatest threat to Christianity today is apathetic pastors. I've read that the average pastor only lasts for 5 years before he quits. That is because they got into the ministry for the wrong reasons. You're dealing with people as a pastor. If you don't like the smell of sheep, don't become a shepherd! The pastorate used to be a divine calling, when men felt called of God to preach (which is my testimony); but today you've got these pipsqueak knuckleheads who can't preach their way our of a wet paper bag, to whom the pastorate is merely a profession (a way to make money and keep their hands clean). I wouldn't give you a dime for today's shallow, gutless and incompetent pastors. I could go on all day about today's pathetic pastors and the churches who hire, tolerate and honor them! These yardbirds don't deserve any honor. They ought to be run out of town by their congregations! GET RIGHT WITH GOD AMEICA!!!

2.3.2 Salvation Is Not A Trial Basis, It's A Free Gift (2021-03-04 09:30)

John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

As computer users, we nearly all know the frustration of finding software advertised on-line for "free," but then after downloading and installing it, we learn that it's only free for a limited time, which is very deceptive! Usually such shady "free" offers end up being only on a trial basis for 14 days or a limited period, and then you either have to purchase the software or it won't work fully or at all. If I had my way, such manipulative advertising would be against the law!

Oftentimes we hear banks advertise that if you open up a new account, they will give you a “free” gift. But if it were truly free, you wouldn’t have to do anything to get it! If you have to open up an account, then it is really a reward for opening a new account, and not a free gift at all. This is all deceptive advertising, and dishonest. The word “free” is perhaps the most misused, abused and misapplied word in the English language today.

The same goes for all the shady counterfeit plans of salvation being offered in many churches today. We often hear of these shady “free” offers for eternal life, that is said to be freely offered by God’s grace through faith; yet at the same time they falsely advertise that you must “turn from your sins” or “be willing to turn from your sins” (which is effectively the same thing), or “follow Christ” or “make Jesus your ’Lord”’ or “commit your life to God” or any number of things which are not part of the Gospel.

We are truly living in a time of universal deceit. It was prolific author George Orwell (1903-1950) who stated, “In times of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary act!” That is very true! May I say kindly, yet boldly with all Biblical confidence, that the offer of eternal life is not on a trial basis. It is not limited to see how well you perform, or whether your life changes for the better, nor whether you like it or not, nor anything else. Salvation is a free gift from God, which is simply received by childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6)!

Unlike a lot of dishonest companies and shady internet ads, God is totally upfront and honest in His offer of eternal life. There are no hidden clauses, no fine print, and no strings attached in God’s [1]terms of salvation. God’s gift of eternal life offered in the inspired King James Bible is not a free trial for 14 days! It is not shareware! It is not conditional upon you forsaking sin, living a holy life, amending your ways, or committing your life to God! It is a totally free gift, which you simply receive by faith in the Gospel!!!

2.3.3 Change Is A Position (2021-03-05 09:30)

Romans 1:25, “Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.”

Sadly, the Bible college I gratefully attended from 1985 to 1993, Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), stopped believing that the King James Bible is inspired in 2008. Therefore, I cannot recommend or support them anymore.

Sadly, thousands of Hyles-Anderson College (HAC) alumni still support them, as if King James Bible infallibility, inerrancy and inspiration don’t really matter. I guess

[1]Pastor Al Lacy

and

didn’t know what they were talking about. No, Pastor Jack Schaap didn’t know what he was talking about!

A dark shadow of doubt is looming over the churches today! I promise you that as time passes, the First Baptist Church Of Hammond, Indiana WILL CHANGE for the worse, because they have already set the precedent.

Pastor Bob Gray Sr. (who attended HAC from 1972 to 1976) made these excellent statements, verifying what I am saying:

> "Somebody said about a preacher, 'He changed his position.' Listen carefully, nobody ever changes his position. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! ... When you change, you never have a set position anymore. Truth is set. Truth is stable. Change is not. When you leave the truth, you don't stop anywhere, you keep on changing! And that's why it's called 'backsliding'!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [3]Truth Vs. Change.
>
> "The process of changing is what error is!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [4]Truth Vs. Change.
> "Error has no boundaries, truth does!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [5]Truth Vs. Change.

That is exactly right. CHANGE IS A POSITION!!! That is what happened in the year 1881, when Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort introduced a SECOND AUTHORITY to the world of the Bible. Like the subtle serpent in Genesis 3:1, they introduced a new version of God's Word to the world. God had already commanded Adam and Eve what to do in Genesis 2:16-17, "And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

Notice that God said they COULD eat of every tree in the garden, except the Tree of Knowledge.

Now look at what the serpent (Satan according to Revelation 20:2) changed God's Word to say in Genesis 3:1,

"Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, *Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" The serpent misquoted God as saying that they COULDN'T eat of any of the trees in the garden? Why did the serpent change God's Word? It was to DECEIVE Eve's mind. It was to compel her to do something different than what God intended. Oh please don't miss this dear friend.

To receive God's gift of eternal life, He simply intended for you to acknowledge THE TRUTH (repentance) that you are a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19), and embrace THE TRUTH (Good News) that Jesus paid for your sins on the cross, was buried, and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. That is "the Gospel"

(1st Corinthians 15:1-4). But the serpent came along in the New Living Translation (NLT) and ADDED the following words to the Bible, saying you must repent

"[6]OF YOUR SINS" to be saved, thus compelling you to do something different than what God intended. So instead of simply resting wholly in Christ's work of redemption, now the Devil has convinced people that they must turn away from committing sinful bad habits to be saved. That is NOT what God intended dear friend!

Do you see how just changing a few words completely changes the intended meaning? Now imagine having HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions, which all contain literally THOUSANDS of changes. What utter massive confusion!!! My God, how did America's pastors, evangelists, Bible colleges and churches ever buy into this Satanic deception? Dr. Bob Gray Sr. nailed it in one of his previous quotes. ...

> "Error has no boundaries, truth does!" —Dr. Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the sermon, [7]Truth Vs. Change .

That was the reason for Westcott's and Hort's so-called "new," "older" and "more accurate" Greek text in 1881. By introducing a SECOND AUTHORITY to the world, man was put into the place of God, as was Eve, having to decide which of the first TWO AUTHORITIES is correct. New Bible revisions have been coming out ever since 1881, one after the other, year after year, obscuring and obliterating the true inspired Word of God, which is the King James Bible. The Devil's Bibles KEEP CHANGING, but the King James Bible never changes!

2.3.4 A Christian Couldn't Go To Hell If They Tried (2021-03-06 09:30)

Hebrews 10:10-14, "

By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified*.

A born-again believer couldn't go to Hell if they tried. Dear reader, salvation is of the Lord. Jonah 2:9-10, "But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

" There is absolutely no way that a saint can ever lose the salvation which God promised to THEM THAT BELIEVE before the world began. 1st Corinthians 1:21,

"For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Titus 1:2, " In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;" Eternal life is a promise to those who receive it by faith alone in Christ.

Once saved always saved. Salvation is of the Lord, not of man. You cannot save yourself! Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved. Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. Everyone has faith, but it's up to you to put it wherever you want.

For those of you who have come to Jesus, God promises eternal life. The only kind of life that God offers is eternal life—not temporal or probationary life—but eternal life.

John 6:37-38,

" All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

" If anyone could ever lose the promise of salvation that God gives to those who believe, then Jesus would be a liar. Dear reader, there is not even one documented case in the inspired Word of God of anyone ever losing God's promise of salvation. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." If saved always saved!!!

Some people are foolishly going to put their faith in doing good works, but you can't get saved like that. Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." Please don't build your house upon the sand. Dear reader, you may build a beautiful, expense and exquisite mansion; but if it is built upon the sand instead of anchored into the deep bedrock, your house will be washed away and come tumbling down when the heavy rains come.

Many people (especially religious folks) are going to be greatly disappointed, horrified in fact, when they enter into eternity and find out that they cannot go to Heaven. Luke 13:23-24, " Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Billions of people mistakenly think that they can merit Heaven by doing good works, or by living the Christian life; but the Word of God says in Ephesians 2:8-9,

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." What a beautiful Bible passage!

Once you make the decision to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Jesus raised up from the dead the third day, God works the supernatural miracle of the new birth. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Salvation is of the Lord.

In Matthew 7:21-23, a group of people were horrified to find out that they were not born-again. They had lived the Christian life without ever experiencing the new birth. They were following Christ diligently, calling Him

Lord, Lord,

" but they had never ceased from their own works to trust Him alone as their Savior. This is the same fatal error being made today by [1]Pastor John MacArthur, [2]Bob Jones University, [3]Steve Pettit, [4]Marty Herron and countless more foolish proponents of the [5]Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. Please listen to Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold preach this excellent sermon called: "

[6]JESUS Versus John MacArthur.

Dear friend, if you are saved you couldn't go to Hell if you tried. You may decide to go live in all manner of what some people call deep sin,

but God's grace will much more abound Romans 5:20,

"Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. " I love that so much—WHERE SIN ABOUNDED, GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND!!!! You cannot sin beyond the depth of God's grace. We are not saved because WE are faithful, but because GOD is faithful.

God never makes anybody do anything. God invites all men to be freely saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. 2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself." God abideth faithfully. GOD IS FAITHFUL dear reader. We all must die someday and then the judgment (Hebrews 9:27). Are you ready friend? Do you know 100 % that if you died right now, that you would go to Heaven? I know, and so can you. If you would like to know too, then please read this precious sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) called:

[7]The One Thing That Determines Salvation.

[8]

John 5:24, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life."

2.3.5 The Man Who Believes On Jesus Christ Has Repented (2021-03-07 09:30)

Mark 1:15, “

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

Luke 13:3,

“

I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

Acts 3:19,

“Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

Acts 17:30,

“

And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

These beautiful passages of Scripture are commonly cited by advocates of Lordship Salvation to justify their heresy of “ to saved. However, none of these passages teach that repentance means to turn away from your sins. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. The Gospel of John was written for the purpose of getting people saved (John 20:31). In the book of John we find the word **“

believe

” mentioned 85 times, but the word repent is not mentioned even once. This plainly evidences that the man who believes has also repented.

Something that bothers me is the deceitfulness of Baptist pastors and churches all across America. Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) is still recognized as one of the most notable and respected leaders in the independent fundamental Baptist movement today. Dr. Rice founded the Sword Of The Lord in 1934. I love Brother Rice and fully support his ministry and the Sword Of The Lord still today, whose editor is now Dr. Shelton Smith.

As an example of what I mean by deceit, please read the following quote from the Statement of Faith of the Metro Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kansas...

> You must repent.
>
> "And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:" (Acts 17:30) To repent literally means to have a change of mind (or spirit) toward God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you. You can see then, how the man who believes in Christ, repents, and the man who repents, believes in Christ. [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: [1]https://metrobaptistchurch.com/eternal-life

To an unsaved person, the preceding skewed quote gives the impression that they must forsake sinful living to be saved. Here is a quote from the Statement of Faith from the Highland Baptist Church in Cumberland, Maryland...

>
> And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: (Acts 17:30) To repent literally means to have a change of mind (or spirit) toward God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you. You can see, then, how the man who believes in Christ repents and the man who repents believes in Christ. The jailer repented when he turned from sin to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ. [emphasis added]
>

Did you notice that these two Statement of Faith are almost identical? That is because many church, like these, simply repeat what Dr. John R. Rice teaches in his popular Gospel tract titled: "

[3]What Must I Do To Be Saved?

" Here is a direct quote from Dr. Rice's tract:

> "To repent literally means to have a change of mind or spirit toward God and toward sin. It means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart, and trust in Jesus Christ to save you. You can see, then, how the man who believes in Christ repents and the man who repents believes in Christ. The jailer repented when he turned form sin to believe in the Lord Jesus Christ."

It bothers me when Baptist churches skew (a slanted position) Dr. Rice's writings, misrepresenting what he really taught. Anyone who represents Dr. Rice as teaching that you have to turn from sins, as a separate act from believing, is slandering him! Please read what Dr. Rice actually believes and teaches:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.
> Everyone who genuinely repented under the preaching of John the Baptist put his trust in the Saviour John the Baptist preached, and was regenerated. There is no such thing as being "a disciple of John the Baptist" in any honest sense without being a disciple of Jesus, that is, without trusting Christ for salvation.

Oh dear friend, that is so beautiful what Brother Rice said. Please don't miss it! I have heard [5]Missionary David W. Cloud and other false teachers, attempt to portray Dr. Rice as a proponent of Lordship Salvation, saying that he taught people must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. David Cloud even goes as far as to pitch Dr. John R. Rice against his successor Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995). I explain this issue in the preceding hyperlink. Mr. Cloud claims that Curtis Hutson leaves off repentance, thus corrupting the Gospel. [6]Nothing could be further from the truth.

Kindly said, I am so sick and tired of Ray Comfort's damnable doctrines of devils. In all of his YouTube videos, Ray requires people to do TWO things to be saved. He first requires that people repent of their sins. He defines repentance as telling God you're sorry, [7]and then living a LIFESTYLE OF REPENTANCE to prove the reality of your salvation. John R. Rice rightly taught that repentance and faith are simply two parts of ONE STEP of believing to be saved; whereas Ray Comfort errantly teaches that repentance and faith are TWO STEPS, which require an effort to stop living in sin to be saved.

These are two very different plans of salvation.

It is very deceptive for any Baptist church to partially quote John R. Rice, telling people that repentance means to turn from your sins, earnestly, with all your heart.

" In reality, in fact, that is NOT what repentance means!!!!!!! The word

regarding salvation in the Bible is either the noun metanoia (a change of mind), or the verb form metanoeo (to think differently).

Mark 1:15, “

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

To be saved, you must think differently and believe the Good News (i.e., Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, He was buried and physically resurrected three days later). We are saved by believing, not by repenting; but repentance makes believing possible. If you didn’t change your mind about whatever it is that has been preventing you from believing, then you wouldn’t have come to Christ to be forgiven and saved. The only thing you need to change your mind about is whatever has been hindering you from believing.

Unbelief is the only thing that keeps a person from believing. To require that someone commit to turning away from living a lifestyle of sin, has absolutely nothing to do with receiving God’s free gift of eternal life. I hope you see that. False teachers like John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, James White, Bryan Denlinger, Sam Horn, John Piper, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron and R.C. Sproul, unbiblically require people to forsake a lifestyle of sinning to get saved, which is heresy. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition.

Out Baptist churches today are filled with people who are very ecumenical, accepting and bidding Godspeed to all manner of heresy, false teachers, counterfeit Bible versions and other gospels. Sadly, anybody who professes faith alone in Christ alone by grace alone is embraced as being a true Christian; yet many of these so-called

Christians

” adhere to a very different plan of salvation than what is clearly taught in the King James Bible. I have just shown you two Baptist churches, whose Statement of Faith add turning away from sins to the Gospel, corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone.

Most churches are in denial today. While they insist that salvation is a free gift that cannot be earned, at the same time that also insist that you turn away from sinning to receive it. I can take you to the Mormon, Roman Catholic, Jehovah’s Witness, Church of Christ and Seventh-Day Adventist websites to show you where [8]they all insist that salvation is obtained solely by God’s grace. Yet, all of these false religions require some form of works for salvation, or to prove that you are really saved by performing works. The Word of God teaches the exact opposite, that a person is saved solely BY FAITH and nothing else is required...

> Romans 3:20-26, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
>
> But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
>
> Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ* unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
>
> For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
>
> Being justified freely by his grace* through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

> Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
>
> To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
> **”

Repeatedly in the Bible we are taught simply to BELIEVE on the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16). Nowhere are we told to repent “ of our sins

to be saved. NOWHERE!!! In closing, let me repeat these doctrinally sound words by Evangelist John R. Rice once again. And may I say, the inspired Scriptures are our final and only authority in all doctrinal and moral matters. You’ll find those inspired words only in the King James Bible today. Having said that, Dr. Rice gets it 100 % correct here, in my humble opinion as a fundamentalist Baptist preacher:

> “Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ*. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith.”
>
> [emphasis added]
> SOURCE: Evangelist John R. Rice, “Acts: Filled With The Spirit,” pp. 251-252; Sword Of The Lord, Murfreesboro, Tennessee; ©1963

Repentance is not a separate act from believing, but one and the same. This is the great Bible truth which is woefully lacking in thousands of Baptist churches today, perverting the simple Gospel of free grace. God bless you dear friend, and thank you from my heart for reading this humble sinner’s writings. To God alone be the glory!

2.3.6 How To Win A Soul To Jesus (2021-03-08 09:30)

Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." Mark 16:15, "

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

This tremendous soulwinning lesson is by Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). This helpful information is taken from chapter 4 of Dr. Hyle's excellent book, " [1]How to Boost Your Church Attendance. "

> The purpose of this chapter is not to deal with witnessing in public, but it primarily concerns the winning of souls to Christ in the home. It deals with the proper approach and some practical pointers to help one be a more effective soul winner. I have tried to put these principles into practice for a number of years, and God has blessed them with the salvation of literally hundreds of souls being won to Him in homes. May God use them to bless you and make you a winner of souls for Christ.

Last year alone over three hundred of our people won someone to Christ. Each of them was instructed through the following method, which is simple and easy enough for anyone to understand.

1. Be Clean and Neat. If a person is going to be a soul winner he must not be offensive to the people with whom he talks. It is a definite asset for a soul winner to be careful to bathe often, to avoid body odor. Teeth should be brushed, and the breath should be tested. Carry mints in your pockets or some good flavored chewing gum which will help keep the breath from being offensive. One of the most damaging things in soul winning is the effect of halitosis. By all means, a soul winner should watch this carefully. The soul winner should also be neatly dressed. A lady should be dressed conservatively, and I think it is best for a man to at least wear a shirt with a tie

2. Carry a Testament with You All the Time. One of the most effective methods that we have used is the carrying of two Testaments-one for you to read as you seek to win the person, and one for the unsaved person to read, or follow as you read. After he has given his heart to Jesus, then you may present him with the Testament that he has read from as a gift.

Testaments which are adequate for this type of work may be bought at most book-stores for about twenty-five cents each. It is our suggestion that a Testament is better to use than a Bible because it does not "give you away." As you get out of your car to walk to a house, a person might possibly see you carrying a Bible and immediately think that you are representing some cult or some false "ism" and build a mental barrier against you. Hence, it is usually better to carry a Testament in your pocket.

3. Be Soul Conscious. By this I simply mean to be aware everywhere you go that the people to whom you talk are going to spend eternity somewhere . . . the man who cuts your hair, the boy who shines your shoes, the man who fills your car with gas, the bread man, the milk man, the grocery man, the clerk at the drugstore, and the saleslady at the clothing store are all going to spend eternity somewhere. Make it a habit to ask people if they are Christians. This will be a blessing to you, and will give you a chance to witness to them. It is good to carry gospel tracts with you at all times in order that you may present one to a person who is not a Christian, that he may read it after you leave. This is effective to use when witnessing to people at work, who cannot stop their work for you to give them the plan of salvation.

Recently one of our soul winners was getting a shoe shine. Just before he asked the colored shine boy if he were a Christian, the shine boy looked up and asked the man if he were a Christian. Our church member responded with an affirmative answer, "Yes, you must be a Christian, too."

The colored boy replied, "Yes, sir, one of those Miller Road Baptist members won me to Jesus the other day while I was shining his shoes."

4. Go Two by Two. This is important! There are several reasons why God sent His disciples out in pairs, and certainly we should follow His example. Also, there is strength in numbers, and with another Christian present as a prayer warrior the soul winner is encouraged. However, the most important reasons that another person should go with you, apart from Scriptural reason, are to pave the way for absolute quietness, and to avoid any unnecessary disturbances while the soul winner is talking to the unsaved person. Such things as caring for the children, changing the baby, answering the door, turning the radio or television off can certainly be of value in the winning of souls to Christ.

5. Go with Different People. Many people think it is wise to team up with the same soul winning partner all of the time. However, this discourages the making of new soul winners. It seems advisable for a person who is an active soul winner to take a different person with him periodically so that the new visitor might actually see the winning of a soul. This is better than any study course a Christian can take.

6. Pray and Claim the Spirit Fullness before Going.

Before you go to the field you need to spend a few moments in prayer, simply asking God to bless you and to help you be a blessing to others. Also, claim His Spirit fullness by faith, asking Him to bless you as you go, and to prepare the hearts of those to whom you will talk.

7. Go Believing. The thing that transformed my soul winning life more than anything else was this one thing! Many times I would go to the fields to witness for Christ, not expecting to win anyone. When and if someone was converted I would actually be subconsciously surprised. However, it dawned on me one day that God wants to save people, and that as God was sending me out, He would save people. So, rather than going out defeated, an effort was made to go expecting to see someone saved. The increase that God gave to this attitude of faith was amazing.

8. Be Nice. Remember that the person to whom you are talking did not ask you to come. You are a guest in his home, and many times, an unwanted guest. A soul winner in a home cannot use the same frankness that the preacher can in the pulpit. It is necessary that a soul winner be nice and courteous, kind and understanding, as he goes into someone's home to talk to him about the Lord.

9. Be Careful about Going In. If a person is busy and obviously does not want to be disturbed, many times it is wise to tell him that you will not come in at this particular time, and suggest that you make an appointment for a later date when you may come back and talk to him about the Lord. This has proven effective in many cases.

10. Be Complimentary. As you enter someone's home, it is always good to be complimentary. If the children are sweet, tell them so. If the home is lovely mention it. It is good to be complimentary.

11. Let the One You are Visiting Talk of His Interests for a While. Ask him about his work, about the family, about his home town, and things of that nature. He will enjoy talking with you and speaking of his interests. One of the best points that a person can use is to be a good listener.

12. Have Only One Person Do the Talking. As you seek to win the person to Christ, let only one soul winner do the talking. Do not interrupt with your "two cents." You keep the road clear and keep the way paved for their privacy and pray! Do not pray with your eyes closed, however, as you may miss a chance to be of help by giving a child a drink, answering the door, or other things which might cause the lost person not to be free to listen carefully to the soul winner.

13. Stay on the Subject. Many times as you try to win a person he will ask questions that are irrelevant to salvation. When such a question is asked, it is usually good to say, "That is a good question. Remind me in a moment and I will answer that." Then, continue talking about the plan of salvation. Do not let yourself be sidetracked on less important issues.

14. Stay in the Same Book of the Bible. It seems that it would be confusing to a sinner for a soul winner to go all over the Bible in trying to explain his point. With isolated verses taken from all over the Scriptures anything can be proved; however, when a person stays in the same book of the Bible, near the same pages, the lost person can readily see that you are not trying to confuse him by taking isolated verses to prove your point. A good book to use is John, another one is Isaiah; however, I have found the most effective book to be Romans.

15. Draw a Map in Your Testament. Many people are young Christians and do not have the Scriptures memorized, nor can they find the ones that they must use to deal with the plan of salvation. To aid in this, a plan has been devised of drawing a map in the Bible or Testament one is using. For example, start with Romans 3:10. Then, beside Romans 3:10, write Romans 3:23, the next verse you will turn to. After you have explained Romans 3:23, have written beside this verse Romans 5:12, which shows you where to go from there. Then, Romans 6:23, Romans 5:8, and finally Romans 10:9-11.

The lost person will not necessarily see what you have written in your Bible, as he will be looking on from the other Testament which you have handed him to use. This way you can direct yourself to the next Scripture, even though you may not know a single Scripture by heart, or do not know where to find the Scriptures pertaining to the plan of salvation.

16. Three Basic Questions Should Be Asked in the Conversation. First ask, "Are you a Christian?" Second, "Would you like to be a Christian?" Third, "If I were to show you in the Bible how to be a Christian, would you be willing to do what God says?"

The first of these three questions has often been disputed. Some prefer to ask "Are you saved?", or, "Are you born again?", or, "Do you know Jesus?" However, the simple question, "Are you a Christian?" might lead to asking other questions. The way the person answers your question would determine whether or not you should inquire further as to the sincerity of his profession. Then, if he wants to be a Christian, you may proceed. Remember this-it is God's business to prepare a soul. You cannot argue anyone into being a Christian. He must be ready; if he is not ready, you cannot argue him into it. Then, if he commits himself by saying he would be saved if he knew how, you have a definite committal that he will respond. If he says he will, then proceed immediately to show him the aforementioned Scriptures.

Following is the structure of the conversation that I have found helpful in dealing with most unsaved people with whom I talk:

Soul winner: "First, Mr. Blank, if a person is going to be saved, he needs to be saved from something. Let me show you why a person needs to be saved. Notice in Romans 3:10, 'As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one.' The word righteous means good; hence, there is none good, no, not one. If there is not one good-then I am not good. Is that right? If there is not one good, then you are not good. Is that right? Now, let us turn to Romans 3:23, 'For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God.' If all have sinned, then that means that I have sinned. If all have sinned, that means you have sinned. So, you see that all of the people in the world are sinners. There is none that doeth good. We are all gone out of the way; we are together become unprofitable, and we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God.

"Now, Mr. Blank, may I show you where the sin came from? Notice in Romans 5:12, 'Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.' You recall that one man brought sin into all the world. You will also remember that this man was Adam in the garden of Eden. God made Adam and Eve. He put them in the garden. He told them that they could eat of every tree in the garden but one, and if and when they ate of that tree, they would die. Do your remember, Mr. Blank, whether or not they ate of that tree?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes, they did."

Soul Winner: "Yes, they did. When they did, they were separated from God. They died spiritually, and they became sinners. So, when they had children, their children were sinners, and their children were sinners, and their children were sinners-until finally, Mr. Blank, one day you were born, and the Bible says that you were born in sin. Though you were not accountable for it until you realized that you were a sinner, you were born going away from God. Mr. Blank, you are still going away from God; hence, you are a child of Adam.

"Now, would you look at and read Romans 6:23, 'For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord'?

"Mr. Blank, God, in order to be a just God, must make us pay for our sins. God has said that you will not get by with sin-so, God must make us pay for sin. The price on sin is death. This death is a spiritual death which culminates in the second death, mentioned in Revelation 21:8 and Revelation 20:14, which is the Lake of Fire. Therefore, the ultimate price that man must pay for his sins is to suffer in the Lake of Fire-or to go to hell. That means, Mr. Blank, according to your own statement that you are not a Christian, and according to the Word of God, if you died today you would go to hell. Is that right?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, I am happy to tell you that God does not want you to go to hell. God loves you as you love your children. Just as you would make a way to save any wayward children of yours, even so God has made a plan to save you. Here is His plan. Please read Romans 5:8, 'But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.' Mr. Blank, God looked down and saw that you were a sinner, and saw that you were going to hell. He did not want you to go to hell, so He came to earth in the form of a Man. His name was Jesus Christ. For thirty-three years He lived upon the earth-not once did He sin. Mr. Blank, if Jesus had sinned once, and the price of sin finally is the Lake of Fire, where would Jesus have had to go when He died?"

Mr. Blank: "To the Lake of Fire."

Soul Winner: "Exactly so. But He did not sin, did He?"

Mr. Blank: "No."

Soul Winner: "He was perfect. Not once did He have an evil thought, not once did He say a nasty word, not once did He drink a bottle of beer, not once did He do anything that was contrary to His Father's will. But Mr. Blank, on the Cross of Calvary Jesus Christ suffered spiritual separation from God, or the same thing that the sinner must suffer in hell. If He was not suffering it for His own sins, then He must have been suffering for someone else's sins. Do you have any idea for whom He was suffering?"

Mr. Blank: "He was suffering for you and me."

Soul Winner: "Exactly so. Now, if He was suffering for you and me, He was paying our debt. Is that right?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, if I went to the bank today, and paid off all of your debts at the bank, they would send a representative out to tell you about my payment. You would have one of two choices. You could say, 'No, I will not accept his payment; I will pay my own debts.' If that were your answer, even though I had paid the price, you would still be in debt. However, on the other hand, you could say, 'Of course, I will accept payment. I will receive the gift that Mr. Soul Winner gave me.' That moment, Mr. Blank, you would be free of debt. That moment the bank would wipe your debts completely clean. Now, Mr. Blank, you are in debt to God. You have sinned. Your record is in heaven. Jesus Christ went to the bank of heaven, as it were, and paid the full payment for all of your debts. He has paid for all of your sins. He sent me as His representative today to tell you about this. You can say one of two things: You can say, 'No, I will pay my own debts. I will go to hell for myself.' Or, you can say, 'Of course, I will accept a Saviour like that. I will accept His gift of eternal life, and receive Him as my Saviour.' That moment, Mr. Blank, you become a child of God, by receiving Christ as a Substitute for your sin, and taking Him in your heart as your Saviour.

"Now, Mr. Blank, let us sum up what we have said. Do you realize that you are a sinner?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Do you realize that if you died today you would go to hell?" Mr. Blank: "Yes." Soul Winner: "Do you realize that Jesus died in your place, and suffered spiritual separation from God in your place?"

Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Do you realize that if you were to bow here, and seek God's forgiveness and take Christ as your Saviour today, by faith, God would make you His child?" Mr. Blank: "Yes."

Soul Winner: "Then, Mr. Blank, could we just bow our heads and hearts in prayer, and let me pray for you? While I pray you can consider giving your heart to the Lord Jesus. Shall we kneel?"

(Turn to Romans 10:13-read it to him and have him put his hand on that Scripture. You pray. Pray sincerely, simply and briefly. As you conclude your prayer, do not say "Amen.")

Soul Winner: "With our heads bowed, Mr. Blank, wouldn't you like to ask God to forgive your sins right now? Tell Him that you are sorry for your sins, tell Him you want to receive Christ as your Saviour now. Will you do it?" (Mr. Blank may pray a simple prayer. If not, you might ask him to pray after you sincerely.)

Soul Winner: "Mr. Blank, if you are willing now, the best you know how, to turn from sin, and give your heart to Christ in faith, would you please take my hand as if it were the hand of Jesus as a token thereof?" (Mr. Blank takes the soul winner's hand. The soul winner, while holding the convert's hand, should offer a prayer of thanksgiving to God for saving him.)

Soul Winner: "God bless you, Mr. Blank. Now, let me ask you a question. If the Bible is true-where would you go if you died now?"

Mr. Blank: "I would go to heaven."

Soul Winner: "Isn't that wonderful? Isn't God good to give eternal life to those who will receive him by faith?"

17. Lead Him to a Profession. After the person has been converted, ask him to promise to come to church the next possible service, and walk the aisle and let the pastor tell the people that he has been saved. It seems unwise to ask him to be baptized until he has made his profession. Then, at the altar, when he is making his profession, or later, the minister can speak with him about baptism.

18. Go by and Get the Convert the Next Sunday. It is an unusual experience for many new converts to come to church. Many of them have not been to church for months, or years. It would be much easier for them to come if you will offer to go by and bring them with you.

19. Sit with the Convert in the Service.

20. At the Close of the Service Offer to Go Down the Aisle with Him.

21. After He Has Made His Profession, United with the Church and Been Baptized, He is Still Your Child. Continue to watch over him, and help him. Ask him over to your house for refreshments. Fellowship with him, and make him feel at home in the service of the Lord.

22. Appoint a Committee to Go by and See the New Converts, as Well as the New Church Members. The week after they join the church, it is good to have a committee to go by and see the new converts and new members.

This group may carry a certificate of baptism, a copy of the church budget, a copy of some book advising young Christians how to grow in grace, any books written by the pastor, etc. These will be helpful and appreciated by the new converts and new church members.

23. Use the "Buddy" System. After the Sunday services each week, call someone who lives near the new convert and "assign" him the new convert. It is good for him to have the new convert over for refreshments, to make a visit into his home, and perhaps have his family over for a meal to try to get him acquainted with some of the church members.

This person's job also would be to help integrate the convert into the church program, and introduce him to as many people as possible.

2.3.7 Romans Chapter 2 Refutes Lordship Salvation (2021-03-10 06:46)

Romans 2:1,

“ Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. ”

I was listening to Alexander Scourby read the book of Romans today and this passage struck me. What a great verse to refute the heresy of Lordship Salvation (LS). What is LS? Lordship Salvation is the false teaching that faith in Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved, more is required. LS says you must surrender to Jesus as absolute “Lord” of your life, which means turning away from a lifestyle of sinning, and giving your heart to Jesus.

Lordship Salvation is rooted in the heresy of Calvinism. John Calvin (1509-1964) was a high profile false preacher, who advocated the theological heresy that you cannot merely put your faith in Jesus Christ to be saved. Expressed in simplest terms, John Calvin believed that God chooses (theologically called unconditional election) who gets saved or goes to Hell. If God chooses you, He forces you to get saved (irresistible grace). Calvin believed that Jesus only died for these select few who have been chosen (limited atonement). Calvin taught that the chosen (i.e., the elect) will persevere in holy lives (perseverance of the saints).

Pastor John MacArthur is a devout 5-point Calvinist. Dr. MacArthur is one of the most popular preachers in the world, and a heretical false teacher who denies that Jesus had God's blood flowing in His veins, denies that children can be saved, denies salvation by faith alone, and denies that Jesus' blood is applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is a personal friend and hardcore supporter of John MacArthur, sinfully bidding him Godspeed. [1]BJU teaches Calvinism to their students. So we see that Lordship Salvation is rooted in [2]Calvinism.

I wanted to share that basic information with you, so you'll understand what's going on. The Bible colleges influence thousands of churches. Most people don't see the threat of Bible colleges today. Water flows downhill. If BJU teaches their 2,600 students Lordship

Paul was rebuking the Jews for trying to keep the law to merit salvation. Paul points out to them that they are requiring other men to do something that they cannot even do, KEEP THE LAW. Paul several verses later reinforces his preaching, saying:

> Romans 2:21-23, "Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?"

Advocates of Lordship Salvation require others to "turn away from sin" (i.e., not steal, not commit adultery, not get drunk, et cetera) as a necessary part of getting saved; yet they all still commit sin. Lordship Salvation is an utter contradiction. It is utter hypocrisy. The same Jews who boasted of keeping the law, broke the law of God, and in so doing dishonored God. In Romans chapter 3 Paul shifts gears and concludes (based on his evidence in chapter 2) that all have sinned and no one can be justified by the works of the law. Romans 3:28, "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law."

2.3.8 "Danger," by Pastor David Breese (2021-03-11 00:11)

Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

1362

David William Breese (October 14, 1926 - May 3, 2002) was an evangelical Christian pastor and theologian from the mid-20th century to the early 21st century. Pastor Breese authored this excellent defense of the Gospel, refuting the damnable doctrine of Lordship Salvation.

"Danger," by Pastor David Breese

One of the animated discussions which is now in the evangelical Christian scene surprisingly concerns the very issue of salvation itself. The question, therefore, of "What must I do to be saved?" is now being answered in a more complicated fashion than simply, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you shall be saved" (Acts 16:31). Traditional fundamentalists and most Evangelicals have long held to the doctrine of salvation by faith alone. The answer has now become more elaborate than that, as Christians newly discuss whether salvation is by faith alone or by faith plus some other things.

Stated very simply, the view that is now called "Lordship Salvation" (a view rarely defined to the satisfaction of anyone) holds that the offer of salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone is false, for faith includes good works.

There are a number of deficiencies involved in this view, which should be noted:

1. It improperly understands justification by faith. Justification does not mean to be "made righteous" or to "progressively become righteous." Rather, it means to be "declared righteous."

It is improper to define faith as "commitment," "dedication," "surrender," or any other expression which suggests a kinetic response on the part of the soul.

2. It ignores imputed righteousness. We are not saved by imparted, infused, or earned righteousness. No indeed, we are righteous by imputation.

3. It confuses justification and sanctification. To say that progressive sanctification is an "inevitable result" of salvation is evidence of doctrinal confusion. In each Christian, there may be at times a varying degree of affirmation to the leading of the Lord.

4. It misrepresents salvation itself. Salvation is presented in the Scripture in three tenses or three aspects. When I accept Christ, I have instant and eternal salvation in the sense of deliverance from the penalty of sin. As I live my life in commitment to Christ under the leadership and empowering of the Holy Spirit, I am delivered from the power of sin. Some Christians are insufficiently delivered from the power of sin, even to the extent of sickness (1 Cor 11:30) and physical death (1 Tim 1:20).

In the future, I am promised deliverance from the presence of sin. The Christian's future in heaven is vouchsafed because of salvation by imputation and positional sanctification. When he believes, he is already seated in the heavenlies with Christ (Eph 2:6), and he is promised that he will never perish (John 10:28).

5. Lordship Salvation diminishes the value of New Testament truth for the Christian. A very high percentage of the epistles of the New Testament are written as instructions to believers. These instructions have produced conviction and commitment in millions of Christians down through the history of the Church. Lordship Salvation cancels the value of these admonitions, in that it declares that if one does not obey these instructions, one is not a Christian. Therefore, the answer to Christian imperfection (obvious in the character of many Christians) is that this person was never saved and needs to be saved. So evaporates the value of all instructions to grow in grace.

6. It holds the impossible doctrine of salvation by perfect commitment. The doctrine that one is saved by submission to the Lordship of Christ, cannot admit to the possibility of imperfect commitment. For, from a logical point of view, imperfect commitment is not, in fact, commitment. In that most honest Christians will admit to imperfect commitment, they are thereby admitting that they are not Christians. The impossibility of "perfect commitment" is a troublesome problem to the Lordshipists. So "Semi-Lordship Salvation" is what this notion is at best. We await word as to what percentage of commitment produces salvation. (Hint–the scriptural answer is zero, for salvation is by "unmerited favor," i.e., the grace of God.)

7. Therefore, Lordship Salvation makes assurance tenuous or impossible. Submission to the Lordship of Christ as the basis of salvation holds open the possibility that at some future date one may be less than perfectly submissive. If one holds to the Lordship Salvation view, one's basis of assurance of salvation is gone.

8. It diminishes the value of Calvary. In the Lordship view, Christ becomes less the Savior and more the Helper. Under this view, I cannot "cast my helpless soul on Him," but rather I must cooperate with His helpfulness.

9. It equates discipleship and salvation. The advocates of salvation by commitment to Christ uncritically (and with profound lack of discernment) view the many calls of Christ to His own to come and be His disciples as the call to believe the Gospel. Consequently, the expression "Follow me" becomes the way of salvation. Hence, until one becomes a disciple, he is not a Christian. The call to become disciples of the King, extended to Jewish individuals, is very different from the call to believe and therefore be saved by grace and become a member of the Body of Christ.

10. It misunderstands repentance. To translate metanoia as "repentance" has been most unfortunate. "To do penance" is not its meaning. It means "a change of mind." Too often this will be thoughtlessly defined as "a turning about," "sorrow for sin," "being sorry enough to quit," "a complete change of character," or "making restitution"–all such definitions are falsehoods. By these inaccurate definitions, faith in Christ is freighted with burdens impossible to bear. Such defective epistemology has demoralized many a Christian.

11. It disorganizes the Christian mind. Salvation is either by grace or by works. They cannot be mixed (Rom 11:6). Works produce no standing before God or merit for heaven. Mixing grace and works overly strains the Christian mind. With these inchoate ideas (exhumed doubtless from the vicinity of Rome) who can say with assurance "I know whom I have believed" (2 Tim 1:12)? Paul could.

Conclusion

These and many other considerations should be kept in mind when one examines the various ways of salvation being offered on the evangelical scene of our time. Much of the confusion of these days would be instantly resolved if we would remember that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone. To redefine these words is not permitted, for they have real, changeless, and eternal meaning. Let us then remember: "Now to him that works is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that works not, but believes on Him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness" (Romans 4:4-5).

We know that we are people of eternal consequence because we were made in the image of God. We were redeemed by the most precious substance in the universe, and that is the blood of Jesus Christ. We were called by the Holy Spirit into a life of great purpose.

2.3.9 Romans 10:13-14, You Don’t Have To Pray To Be Saved (2021-03-13 02:35)

We are saved by faith, not by praying. Some preachers teach that you must pray to be saved, but they are wrong in their theology. Romans 10:13 is an obscure passage, since it raises a lot of controversy about praying to be saved. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. We have a clear passage in the entirety of the Gospel of John, in which we find the word “ believe

mentioned 85 times without any mention of praying

“

to be saved. How ridiculous it is for any preacher to insist that a person must pray to be saved.

The word

call

simply means that you come unto Christ to be saved, because you already believe. Romans 10:14,

How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

” A good illustration of the way Roman 10:13 uses the word call is when my Mom used to take me with her to the grocery store. I remember as a boy often reading a sign inside the store which said:

“

Please call again!

” I didn’t understand that, because we didn’t call them on the phone before we came.

As I grew older I understood that to call simply means that we came to their store. We went to their store because my mother trusted that they would sell would she needed (food, et cetera). Likewise, we come to Jesus to be saved because we trust Him. But we are saved the moment we believe, not when we call. Preachers who insist that you must call are basing a doctrine on ONE BIBLE VERSE!

Advocates of having to pray to be saved will run to Romans 10:13 and play it as a one-string banjo! Ignorant preachers do the same thing with Romans 10:9-10, playing this one verse as a one-string banjo, claiming that you must publicly confess Christ to be saved. The hellbound Church of Christ insists that you cannot be saved unless you publicly confess Christ. They base this heresy on obscure passages of Scripture, wrongly dividing the Word of Truth.

In Acts 10:43-44 Cornelius was saved simply by believing the Gospel as they heard Peter preach it. No one prayed. In Acts 2:41 the Bible says 3,000 people were saved when they gladly received the Gospel which they heard Peter preach. No one prayed. I cannot think of even one example in the Bible where someone prayed to be saved. Yet these ignorant and arrogant Baptist preachers today angrily get heated under the collar, insisting that you must pray a sinner's prayer to be saved the Bible way. They are foolish and wrong. But don't take my word for it dear reader. What saith the Scripture? I triple-dog dare you to show me even one place in the Bible, where someone was required to pray (or prayed voluntarily) to receive God's free gift of eternal life. I haven't found it yet.

Now, having said that, I am not saying that it is wrong to pray when someone gets saved. There is a natural desire in a person's heart when they believe on Christ that compels that to pray. It is natural to want to pray. So that is fine! If you want to pray with someone as you lead them to Christ, then do so. But please make sure that the person clearly understands that you don't need to pray to be saved, nor does God save anyone because they prayed.

Personally I don't lead people to pray to get saved, because I've seen too many people get confused. For 7 years as a teenager I struggled to find the assurance of salvation because I kept wondering if I missed something when I prayed. I knew Christ died on the cross for my sins. I believed it! I trusted Jesus because of what He did to pay for my sins through the cross. I believed He rose from the dead, believing that I was appealing unto a risen Savior to save me. I probably prayed 50 times, at least, going through the Roman's Road again and again.

I knew I was a guilty sinner when I got saved at age 13. But I didn't learn until many years later that I could simply BELIEVE and be saved. That truth solidified my assurance that I was 100 % saved. I am against the 1-2-3, follow-me, pray this quick prayer to be saved method, because it obscures the simplicity that is in Christ (which is the Gospel). Please don't misunderstand, you CAN be saved in an instant, and KNOW beyond any shadow of a doubt that you have the complete assurance of salvation. Any theology that does not give you the immediate absolute assurance of salvation is wrong! The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. By being led to pray to be saved at the end of every religious tract that I read, and being led to pray to be saved in every soulwinning class I ever took, and being taught to pray to be saved by every Baptist preacher I had ever heard, I WAS MISLED AND CONFUSED!!!

Again, this is not merely my opinion, this is BIBLE! John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

" John 10:9, " I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." I could quote dozens more passages, which simply teach to

to be saved. Thank you for reading my humble words. God bless you!

2.3.10 The Triumphing Of The Wicked Is But For A Moment (2021-03-13 09:30)

Job 20:5, “

That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

One of the most frustrating things as a preacher is to preach THE TRUTH but no one listens. Thank God some humble people do listen, but most don’t. Sadly, the most stubborn group of people are the religious crowd. I’ve never personally led a Mormon, Seventh-Day Adventist, Jehovah’s Witness or Lordship Salvationist to the Lord, because they are hard core indoctrinated in their false beliefs. The Bible exhorts believers to expose false teachers...

> Titus 1:9-13, “
>
> Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.
>
> For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
>
> Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre’s sake.
>
> One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
>
> This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
> **”

As a born-again fundamentalist Baptist preacher, I have been earnestly preaching regularly, uncompromisingly and unapologetically against the apostate Bob Jones University crowd since 2014. It is tragic that infidel Dr. Steve Pettit took over as president of BJU college in 2014. [1]Dr. Pettit is an avid fan of John MacArthur and a hardcore advocate of Lordship Salvation. As you can [2]see for yourself in these sermon quotes from January 26, 2015, Pettit is a heretical Calvinist who preaches the perseverance of the saints.

John MacArthur is a heretical staunch 5-point Calvinist! The doctrine of the perseverance of the saints in sanctification and holiness, is not compatible with a free grace Gospel and instantaneous new birth. I believe in the perseverance of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:12-14), not the perseverance of the saints. Believers are safe in Jesus because of GOD’S faithfulness, not OUR faithfulness. I don’t have to persevere in anything to remain saved, because God’s promise perseveres “ to save them that believe

” (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

Having said all that, the Bob Jones crowd won’t listen to rebuke. They are stiffnecked and proud in their errors. They refuse to heed sound doctrine and wisdom. I and others have rebuked them sharply, but they are not yet sound in the faith. Sadly, they are subverted of themselves.
Titus 3:10-11, “

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

” Gary Walton (senior pastor of Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2018) is subverted of himself and sinneth. Dr. Marty Herron (former senior pastor at Harvest, and now ruining young people’s lives in Iowa as executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College and Theological Cemetery) is subverted of himself and sinneth. Dr. Steve Pettit is subverted of himself and sinneth. None of these men heed THE TRUTH!

All we can do is proclaim THE TRUTH. If those men who are subverted are indifferent toward truth and don’t care about the purity of God’s Word, then there is nothing we can do except mark and avoid them, and warn others! It is sad, pathetic and tragic that these men have influence over tens of thousands of lives, yet serve their own bellies and not the Lord Jesus Christ. I am marking them, as the Bible says, warning others to avoid them. God knows my heart. All I have ever wanted to do is be helpful, share THE TRUTH, and be a blessing to those around me. But they just want to make money.

Dr. Steve Pettit gets paid over $200,000 a year as president of BJU. Marty Herron also pulls down a lucrative 6-digit salary, over $100,000 a year, by quote on quote “serving God.” Luke 16:13, “No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” These men are all diehard followers of [3]DR. JOHN MACARTHUR!!! Salvation is [4]NOT a trade or exchange. Dr. Marty Herron is a [5]damnable false prophet!!! I say that kindly but with love on Biblical authority! No man is doctrinally sound who teaches that you must repent “OF YOUR SINS” to be saved, because that garbage is nowhere taught in the Scriptures. These men are deceived by fables. Sam Horn is the new president of Master’s University, having replaced John MacArthur. The college is hardcore Calvinist!

These apostates are triumphing now, but God will rain on their parade before too long. No one can stick their finger in God’s face and prosper forever. Dr. Marty Herron’s days of preaching heresy are numbered. God’s patience won’t wait forever. I heard Herron with my own two ears in 2014, on a Sunday morning as he preached to hundreds of people at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, heretically say that it is not enough to admit you are a sinner, but also, Pastor Herron says: “You must turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved.” That is Satanic! That is a false gospel.

Galatians 6:7, “

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

” The preceding Scripture verse was spoken in the context of the churches of Galatia tolerating and bidding Godspeed to Gospel-corrupters! John MacArthur had come to Galatia, and the churches loved him, but he was a false prophet. The Apostle Paul called the Galatian churches foolish (Galatians 3:1) and accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-7).

The Bible says not to speak evil of any man, it doesn’t say not to speak out against evil. Titus 3:2, “To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.” Regarding the Bob Jones camp, I am reminded of Kenny Rogers’ (1938-2020) popular song: “[6]The Coward Of The County.” In the story lyrics, a young cowboy’s father always taught him that you don’t have to fight to be a man. But when the Gatlin Boys attacked his fiancée, he killed all of them, singing:

> "I promised you, Dad,
>
> Not to do the things you’ve done.

I walk away from trouble when I can.

Now please don’t think I’m weak.

I didn’t turn the other cheek.

And, Papa, I sure hope you understand:

Sometimes you gotta fight when you’re a man."

Likewise, I don’t like to fight against anyone as a Christian man, let alone a church. But when the Bob Jones crowd pervert the Gospel and corrupt the Word of God, I am compelled to fight because I am a Christian man! My heavenly Dad understands that! I think that is a good analogy. If you’re not upset you’re not paying attention! Far too many churches today are at ease, going along to get along, lackadaisical, weak and ecumenical, affirming of all manner of sin and wickedness. I am talking about the shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam. I am talking about the shameful First Baptist Church Of El Paso, Texas. I am talking about the shameful First Baptist Church Of Jacksonville, Florida. All of these pseudo-churches preach “ another gospel ” (Galatians 1:6-9; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4) of

“ turn away from your sin ”

to be saved. NO ONE has ever turned away from their sin! At best all you can do is try to sin less, but that is human effort, not wholly resting in Christ’s finished work of redemption.

Man’s Whole Duty Is To Fear And Obey God

Ecclesiastes 12:13-14, “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” I love that Bible passage! Dear friend, you don’t want to live your life striving against your Creator. Ecclesiastes 8:12-13, “

Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him*:

But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

Job 20:5, “

That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? ” I could have just as easily directed this article at the homosexual LGBTQ community. They are gaining much legal ground and rising in the political arena worldwide, but their triumphing will be short lived. Gays and transgendered people are rejoicing these days for the liberal direction of U.S. laws, but this cannot last. Hebrews 9:27, "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: " God loves you, no matter who you are, and He offers you a free pardon for all your sins (no matter how horrible and how many they may be). CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY (Romans 5:6-9).

The feminist crowd in America is of the Devil. Our homes and marriages are in disarray because of the evil rebellious influence of feminism on women. Titus 2:3-5, "The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

" How's your marriage and home? American society today has engineered women to be everything except what we just read. Sadly, my wife broke her marriage vows and divorced me in 2006. I wish divorce were not allowed in America, but it's not only legally allowed, it is encouraged and a guaranteed thing if one spouse files. God will not continue to bless a wicked nation of divorcees. Divorce is a sin (Matthew 19:8).

Hugh Hefner's ungodly Playboy philosophy, since 1953, has absolutely destroyed the integrity of American men, causing tens of millions of adulteries, abortions, divorces and broken homes. The Devil is a beautiful liar. Low living comes at a high price! Sin always undermines any nation. The United States has been on a steadily declining moral slide since Hollywood began in the early 20th century. Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold preached this wonderful sermon on chastity and purity called: " [7]Dating Is Dangerous .

I could mention many more evils in America. When people allow sin, it hardens their heart. This is why we are taught in Hebrews 3:13, "But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin." The more that sin is allowed to take root in the United States, the more people embrace it as being "normal." It is really sad. Hebrews 3:13 teaches that sin needs to be rooted out when it is small, nipping it in the bud whether it be in a church, family, or our personal life. I am shocked how filthy music videos have become nowadays. [8]Have you see this? Taylor Swift is not a good role model for youth.

Listen to the [9]type of language Taylor Swift openly uses in her music today. What will our country be like in 30 years from now, if the Lord Jesus Christ tarries His return? Open vulgarity, lewdness and disrespect for our leaders is commonplace these days, which is a sign of the spiritually depraved condition of our country. Do you think it is mere coincidence that we are seeing widespread police abuse against citizens, Black Lives Matter communist agenda, anarchy at the capital, civilian riots, massive homelessness, an epidemic of drug abuse and crime across the country, blatant corruption in state and city governments, and injustice in the courts? I think not. We are destroying ourselves in America!

I read some foolish comments online blaming President Donald Trump, falsely accusing him of treason. Dear reader, Mr. Trump did not commit treason! If you want to see treason, then research the [10]criminal fraudulent Federal Reserve System (a cruel hoax since 1913). If you want to see treason, look no further than our foolish leaders allowing U.S. corporations to outsource tens of millions of American jobs to foreign soil since the 1970's. President Trump was doing a good job to turn our country around, bring jobs back, and make America great again. I don't know if the 2020 election was stolen, [11]but it sure was in the year 2,000. If more Americans did in fact vote for Joe Biden, then we get the liberal President we deserve!!!

> "A nation can survive its fools, even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within... for the traitor appears not to be a traitor... he rots the soul of a nation... he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist." —Marcus Tullius Cicero

The Food And Drug Administration (FDA) was established in 1906 to protect Americans from fraudulent or risky products that are dangerous to our health, or falsely labeled. There is not a more crooked, dangerous and fraudulent treason today in America, than the trillion-dollar shady and wacky pharmaceutical industry. It is shocking that drugs which pose serious risks to humans, are prescribed like candy to millions of Americans each year! There's your treason!

1st John 2:15-17, " Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

Time is running out! Lord willing I will turn 54 years old on March 5th, 2021. I cannot believe it! My oh my, where have the years gone? My life is almost over. I just read in the news today that actor Dustin Diamond died. He was only 44 years old. The poor guy found out just 3 weeks ago in January that he had stage 4 cancer in his lungs, and now is dead! That is so sad. Dear friend, your life could be over by sundown or sunset. I am ready to meet my God. Are you? [12]You can be, right now, for free, by faith in Jesus Christ.

So many people complicate God's plan of salvation. The Bible calls the Gospel the "simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). God had to make the plan of salvation simple, because there are a lot of dumb people in the world. I am not being facetious, I am being very serious. Acts 4:13, "Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus." Some of Jesus' disciples were unlearned and ignorant men.

In sharp contrast, Luke was a medical doctor and a very brilliant writer. I love the book of Luke. Luke also wrote the book of Acts. Peter wasn't an educated man. In 2nd Peter 3:16-18 Peter said that he had a difficult time understanding the Apostle Paul's writings. Peter didn't rewrite the Bible to make it easier for him to understand, he studied it as it is. There's no bigger lie today than that we always need a new Bible that is easier to understand. As Alan Grant says in Jurassic park III: "Some of the worst things imaginable have been done with the best intentions." The Bible needs rereading, not rewriting!

Dear reader, are you on the winning side on Jesus Christ? You are if you're a child of God. If you have never been born-again, you are NOT a child of God. You are a son of God by creation, but you are not an adopted son of God by faith (John 1:12-13). Jesus is the only begotten (biological) Son of God (John 3:16). 1st John 4:4-5, " Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith."

2.3.11 Nothing Is More Important Than The Word Of God (2021-03-15 09:30)

Psalms 138:2, "I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name."

There is nothing in the entire universe more important than the Words which come forth from God's mouth. When the Creator of the universe, the earth, life and of all mankind speaks, there is nothing more important. God is the sole Author of the Holy Bible. God used about forty different men to write the Scriptures, but every word came from God's mouth. Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Everything that we do in Jesus' name as born-again Christians ought to be because we believe the Holy Bible, and not to secure an income or merely go through the religious motions to please others. The inspired Words of God are what it's all about! Nothing is more important than God's Words, nothing!

Having said that, something is VERY wrong in our churches today. Christian leaders are lackadaisical about which Bible is genuine. There are literally hundreds of Bible versions in the English language. There are articles all over the internet, and even books available, to help you choose which Bible versions is best for you. Why not pick and choose your own God while you're at it? God only wrote one Book.

The Scriptures teach that God's Words are not just pure, but "VERY PURE." Psalms 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." David said the reason why He loved God's Word is because it is VERY PURE. What if David had to choose from hundreds of different Bible versions which one he liked the best? Would David still have felt the same? No way! David would not have loved confusion, having to sort through hundreds (or even a dozen) different Bibles, not sure which one he could really trust. There was only one Holy Bible, so David didn't have to choose.

As I just showed you from Matthew 4:4 (which is a quote from Deuteronomy 8:3), God has given to mankind an EVERY WORD Bible. The Lord tells us that man must not live by bodily food alone, but by "EVERY WORD" that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. That means we need an “EVERY WORD” Bible. God authored a VERY PURE Book, and men wrote down EVERY WORD perfectly. When the Bible was finished, it was a grand manuscript, without error, infallible and inspired.

Best of all, God solemnly promised in Psalms 12:6-7 to preserve those VERY PURE Words unto EVERY GENERATION. Psalms:12:6-7, “The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times. Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.” Somewhere in this world today we have a preservation of EVERY WORD of God. There is an EVERY WORD Bible!!! I believe that EVERY WORD Holy Bible to be the authorized 1611 KING JAMES BIBLE, which was translated from the Textus Receptus. Although there have been numerous editions (to correct typos and update some words), there have never been any new translations and never will be.

There is nothing more important in the world than the Word of God. It is utter hypocrisy for any Bible student, Bible teacher or pastor to profess faith in the inerrant Word of God, while going along with the hundreds of different Bible versions circulating in our churches today. Shame on those bad pastors! There are many people who won’t have anything to do with church anymore, because they are sick of the indifferent attitude of pastors who are going-along-to-get along, instead of taking a stand for something as God does in the King James Bible.

It Really Does Matter Which Bible We Use

Why do we go to church? Why do we do what we do for God? The answer is faith. But what good is any of it if we have the wrong Bible? Why do any of it if pastors can’t even get the plan of salvation right? I mean, what’s the use of going to church if the Word of God is not important enough to defend? Why go to church to hear a false plan of salvation taught? Most churches today are using multiple Bible versions, which all [1]pervert the plan of salvation. May I say, the King James Bible is not a “version,” it is THE BIBLE! Anything worth doing is worth doing right, or else let’s not do it! I see professed Christians going through the motions, attending church, singing praises, tithing and doing all that they have been trained to do, yet they don’t have any say about the three dozen Bible versions floating around in their so-called “church.”

The Apostle Paul warned believers about ANOTHER JESUS, ANOTHER GOSPEL and ANOTHER SPIRIT. They didn’t have printed personal Bibles at the time 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 was written, but if they did, ANOTHER BIBLE would have been added to the list I am confident. Regardless, we are repeatedly warned in the Scriptures about false prophets who pervert the Words of God. Jeremiah 23:36b, “...for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.” Today’s corrupt Bible versions, like the ERV, teach ANOTHER JESUS, ANOTHER GOSPEL and ANOTHER SPIRIT.

Beware of false Bible versions and the false pastors who use and promote them. Beware of any preacher who requires you to stop living in a lifestyle of sin to be saved. That wayward preacher is playing the part of God, trying to control your life in exchange for a fake salvation that is not his to give. Biblically, eternal life is a free gift, that you simply take for free, and there’s nothing required of you, except that you receive it by faith in Jesus, Who is the Christ, the Son of God.

Could you imagine construction workers trying to follow dozens of architectural blueprints to build a big building? Yet the average pastor today doesn't have enough sense to figure it out. Could you imagine the confusion it would cause if a U.S. President's speech writer handed him three dozen speeches instead of one, to give his State of the Union address? Yet, the average preacher doesn't see a problem with church members showing up with dozens of different Bible versions each Sunday. Woe unto the shepherds!

It is very easy to see that Satan is behind all of the more recent modern Bible versions since 1881, which are all based upon the corrupt Greek manuscript produced by Brooke Westcott and Fenton Hort that was completed in 1881. The fathers of today's Bible versions were [2]steeped in Luciferian occult organizations (such as Hermes and Freemasonry). Helena Blavatsky and Alice Bailey, both so-called Ascended Masters of the New Age Movement, said that occultists would infiltrate the churches and con them into teaching the Luciferian doctrines of the mystery religion. Lo and behold, that is exactly what all the new corrupt Bible PERversions are accomplishing, removing all key theological terms, attacking Christ's deity in hundreds of Bible verses, removing the Godhead, diminishing Christ's preeminence and changing the gift of God into a works-based plan of Lordship Salvation. [3]Beware of the ever-changing new Bible versions!!!

Secular intellectual historian, English teacher and expert in 19th century psychology, Dr. Christopher Lane, Ph.D., in his article titled, "FAITH ACCORDING TO THE BIBLE(S)," proclaims what many Christians still refuse to admit, that is, "that even minor changes in translation have dramatic implications for the way people view and understand their faith." ...

> "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." So runs the celebrated line in Hebrews 11:1, the rationale that underpins so much of the Judeo-Christian tradition. According to that rationale, as the writer of the Epistle puts it, faith is a summation of hope and evidence apparently lies in "things not seen"—in the invisible and ineffable.
>
> Considering the importance of the line in Hebrews as an anchor to Judeo-Christian belief and faith, it's worth noting—as websites detailing various editions of the Bible underscore—that even minor changes in translation have dramatic implications for the way people view and understand their faith."
> SOURCE: [4]Faith According to the Bible(s) | Psychology Today (May 11, 2012)

There are seriously drastic differences in theological doctrine between the different Bible versions. The modern versions all corrupt the meaning of repentance, as evidenced by the satanic [5]Easy-To-Read Version (ERV). I have more respect for a pimp, prostitute or pervert than I do for a preacher who won't stand for the King James Bible. If you don't think that the KJB is the one, then which Bible do you believe is God's Word? Grow a spine! I'm so sick of wimpy pastors supporting hundreds of Bible versions. The KJB says "Lucifer" wanted to ascend above the clouds; but the New International Reader's Version (NIRV) says "King Nebuchadnezzar" wanted to ascend above the clouds. The KJB says "Easter" in Acts 12:4; but the ERV says "Passover." They can't both be accurate! One is true, the other is false. God pity the pathetic pastor who doesn't care. God only wrote one Book!!!

The sad truth is that most churches these days are just a lousy 501c3 state-licensed business. They're making a comfortable living. The Independent Baptist church down the street from me has a big religious school with 1,000 students, and a Bible college, which bring in millions-of-dollars a year. Since there are Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics and other false religions in the church, the pastor won't preach on the offensive topics of eternal punishment, Hell, fire and damnation. What kind of church is that? Something is wrong when churches are afraid to stand and tell the truth. You'll never hear a fiery sermon on Sunday morning when the bulk of the church family is there.

I'm not trying to be unkind, but God didn't call us to operate religious schools. God didn't call us to teach children how to play orchestral instruments. The Church is supposed to be the ground and pillar of THE TRUTH, but most churches today cannot even settle on which Bible they believe. Unless you believe that both Easter and Passover can interchangeably be used in Acts 12:4, then you cannot support both the ERV and the KJB. The Baptist church down the street from me officially uses the KJB and the ERV. The KJB says Easter and the ERV says Passover in Acts 12:4. The pastor doesn't see a problem! WELL I DO AND SO DOES GOD!!!

God says in Psalms 138:2 that He magnifies His Word above all His name, and so should we. It matters which Bible we use. They can't all be correct! I'm tired of pseudo-scholars telling us that we don't have a perfect Bible today. That's bullcrap! On Biblica's website ([6]BIBLICA.COM), the company that produces the New International Version (NIV), they openly admit that they don't believe in word-for-word inspiration; but rather, thought inspiration. That is, they believe God gave His thoughts to man, not His very Words. You see, that's the only way they can justify having hundreds of different Bible versions which all say something different.

You Always Recognize Your Mother!

What if you grew up as a child being told that you had hundreds of mothers? How would you know which one is really your true mother? You would just know. When a parent and child are separated at birth, and then meet again years later, there's an instant recognition that is unmistakable. As a born-again child of God, I know that the King James Bible is God's Word. Jesus Christ is the Word, Who was in the beginning with God, and is God (John 1:1). Jesus' Holy Spirit indwells me. As a born-again believer, born again by the seed of God's Word (1st Peter 1:23), I know my mother!

May I say, the Holy Bible is not like religious denominations, where you can pick and choose. God only wrote one Book. Everybody is confused. Not me friend, I only use the KING JAMES BIBLE!!! I hope you will do the same! Only one Bible today upholds Christ's deity and truly honors Jesus, and that's the King James Bible. Only one Bible still says that people "worshipped" the Lord, instead of changing worship to knelt or bowed. If you love Jesus, then this should be alarming to you. If you're not passionate about the Bible debate issue, why not? We're talking about God's Holy Word, the most important treasure in the universe. The Bible is not like a car, where you pick and choose your color, model, style and extras. God authored His Word and gave it to humanity!!!

There are numerous ways to know that the King James Bible is truly God's Word:

1. It’s the Bible which built America’s churches and has stood the test of time.

2. The KJB came before all these modern imposters.

3. The KJB is the soul-winner’s Bible.

4. All modern Bibles come from Westcott and Hort’s 1881 Greek and Rudolph Kittel’s Hebrew (but not the KJB).

5. The KJB is the one that queers, heretics and ecumenicals hate and attack.

6. The KJB is not copyrighted. All modern versions are copyrighted so the publishers can exclusively profit.

7. Only the KJB contains italics, put there by the translators because they were so honest in their work. These are words added for clarity. The translators wanted us to know that these words were not original. None of the modern versions are that honest.

8. Only the KJB maintains the authoritativeness of God’s Word. All modern versions read like comic books.

9. Only the KJB teaches the simplicity that is in Christ concerning salvation. All the new versions teach Lordship Salvation.

10. Only the KJB crowd believes in a word-for-word preserved Bible. All modern heretics claim only the original autographs were word-for-word accurate. They say that every Bible is a flawed Bible today, and we don’t have even one perfect Holy Bible.

Sadly, the integrity and purity of God’s Word doesn’t matter to today’s apostate ministers. They’re so boggled-down with administrating the church that they have lost sight of what really matters... TRUTH!!!

2.3.12 Please Make Sure You Are Really Saved (2021-03-17 09:30)

John 3:3-7, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

Dear friend, have you been born again? I didn't ask you if you attend church. I don't want to know if you've been water baptized. I am not concerned if you have turned away from a lifestyle of sinning, because that is not how you become a child of God. Have you been born again? That is, have you been reborn from above by a miracle of God? John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." The new birth is a supernatural miracle of God wrought in response to a person's faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

More specifically, you must know WHO Jesus is. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. You must also know WHAT Jesus did for you:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-6, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep."

Jesus died on the cross for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He miraculously physically resurrected from the dead. That is "the Gospel" (or, "Good News").

You are going to Heaven solely by believing in what Jesus Christ did for you in His death on the cross for your sins, His burial and His bodily resurrection.

If you are partially believing in "giving your life to Christ," repenting of your sins, confessing your sins, confessing your faith, changing your life, loving people, church membership, water baptism; or anything else!, as part of what will get you into Heaven, you will wake up in the fires of Hell the moment after you die.

These aforementioned things are all good works—but the Bible never promises salvation by works.

Salvation is not by your good works.

So I ask you dear reader:

Are you really saved?

” Have you been born anew from above by the Holy Spirit of God? Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. Seventh-Day Adventism is a prime example. Their religion adheres to the heretical beliefs of Miss Ellen G. White (1825-1915), which is identical to the Devil’s lie of [1]Lordship Salvation. Sadly, [2]Bob Jones University today preaches the same false gospel as SDA’s, that you must turn away from living in sin to be saved. That is a works-based counterfeit plan of salvation, not the free gift of eternal life which God freely offers by His free grace. If you have been trapped into the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, you are not really saved. I plead with you to forsake the cult you’ve been entangled in, and flee to the free grace Gospel, which is by faith alone (Romans 4:4-6). The fraud of Lordship Salvation says that faith is not enough; but in addition, you are told you must turn away from your sins.

Here is an example of what I am warning you about. Sadly, this quote came from the popular radio program called: ’[3]UNSHACKLED’ by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago.

In UNSHACKLED [4]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don’t get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I’ll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. According to this UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved; because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is “another gospel” accursed by God:

> Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!!

The Gospel is not open to embellishment. There is a certain degree of allowable semantics in presenting God’s plan of salvation, but the Gospel itself is set in concrete! Here it is:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

There you have it—Jesus DIED, was BURIED, and miraculously RESURRECTED three days later. There is no mention of turning away from sins, forsaking the old ways for good, speaking in tongues, getting water baptized, joining a church, praying, confessing Jesus publicly, nor of anything else to be saved! The apostle Paul said this is, ’THE GOSPEL,’ which Jesus personally gave to Him:

> Galatians 1:11-12, “But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.”

Do you know WHO Jesus is? Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Do you know WHAT Jesus did for you? Jesus died on the cross in your place. He was buried. Three days later He triumphantly resurrected from the dead, conquering sin and the grave! But do you also know WHY Jesus did all that for you friend? Jesus did it for you and me because we are guilty sinners (Romans 3:10-23). We are all guilty of breaking a holy God’s Commandments (James 2:10). Therefore, we are needy sinners as well. We all need a Savior to redeem us, so that we can escape being punished in the fires of Hell forever without mercy. God has shown the whole world incredible mercy, through the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross.

Dear reader, God desires for ALL humanity to be saved (2nd Peter 3:9). I don’t care how evil you may think you are, **“

(Romans 5:6-9). That includes you, me, your pastor, Jeffrey Dahmer and the Golden State Killer. Christ didn’t just die for our sins, He died for our righteousness too! Isaiah 64:6b says that

“all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. ” Dear friend, even your very best is filth to God. That is because even if you could live an admirable upright life of moral purity and goodness, even one sin makes you a guilty sinner in the sight of a perfect holy God. James 2:10, “

For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

That is why the whole lame idea that someone is required by God to “ repent and turn away from their sins

” to be saved is gross theological incompetence. Who can turn from their sins? Proverbs 20:9, “

Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

” Yet, that is exactly what [5]Dr. Steve Pettit foolishly teaches at Bob Jones University...

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [6]11:34)

What saith the Scripture? Galatians 3:3, “

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

” Please notice the capital

“S,” which refers to the Holy Spirit. That is, when we got saved, God’s Holy Spirit came to live inside (indwell) our body permanently. We were born again by the Holy Spirit. And so the Apostle Paul is asking the foolish Galatians why they are trying to complete their salvation in the flesh. That is exactly what Steve Pettit is doing in his preceding false teachings. This is Calvinism by the way, teaching that a saint must persevere in holiness to get to Heaven. That is not the Gospel.

Notice that Dr. Pettit says four times “

YOU HAVE TO.

” That is works, not grace! There are only two types of religion in the world Dwight Moody said: DO and DONE! You either believe that you must DO something to get to Heaven, or you believe Jesus did it all and it’s DONE! Steve Pettit says to be saved YOU HAVE TO do this, and YOU HAVE TO do that, but the Bible says something very different in Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

No, you don’t HAVE TO do anything to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, you simply receive it by faith. Just take God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures. Simply receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen from the dead. If the Good News of Jesus crucified, buried and risen is your only hope for Heaven, you are saved. Simply rest in the blessed Savior! John 6:28-29, “ Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ”

Acts 16:30-31,

“ And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. ”

2.3.13 Jesus Is Our Peace (2021-03-18 09:30)

Ephesians 2:1-17, “

But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace*, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

I love this Bible passage. The world is filled with carnal knowledge, bad advice and ungodly counsel. Secular psychologists, relationship experts and educators will tell you all kinds of advice to find peace, but the Bible teaches that JESUS IS OUR PEACE.

Robert Puff, Ph.D., is host and producer of the ’Happiness Podcast,’ with over 8 million downloads, who states:

> A daily practice of appreciating nature is one of the most beneficial activities you can do to increase happiness and reduce stress. While you may feel like you have no time in the day, it only requires a few minutes. Start by taking a five-minute walk outside every day. During this time, disconnect yourself from electronic devices.
>
> ...Being in nature is our opportunity to check in with ourselves and listen to our bodies and minds. We may realize that our mind chatter is so intense that the stillness of nature is actually stressing us out. We may be exhausted once we’re at our retreat destination. All of this is important information that will help us take better care of our minds and bodies.
>

[2]

I agree with those helpful ideas. Spending time in nature is good for the soul. When I am feeling a bit down and frustrated, I take a long walk in nature. It doesn’t matter where you live. Whether it be a tropical ocean in the south Pacific, or a dreary winter day in Indiana, being in nature is good for the soul. There’s nothing, to me, that cheers my soul than a snowstorm. I love the big flaky snowflakes that stick to everything. I encourage you to get out of the house and spend time in nature if you are battling depression. Go bike riding or buy a drone to take pictures in the air. Millions of Americans today are depressed, because they stay inside all the time. Psalm 19:1 teaches that nature declares the glory of God.

That brings me to the point of my article. Although I agree with the preceding advice about spending time in nature, the author totally misses the most important thing about finding inner peace, which is being right with God. NO ONE can truly have inner peace who is at odds with his or her Maker. Isaiah 45:9,

Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

” There is no greater inner joy and peace, than knowing that you are at peace with God. Romans 5:1, “Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.” The ONLY way for anyone to find true lasting peace is by faith alone in Jesus Christ. I KNOW that I am saved and on my way to Heaven.

Many years ago I unintentionally greatly offended a Muslim co-worker. I asked him if he “ knew

that he was going to Heaven when he died. That is a common question that a soulwinner asks others. The man, Ed, was very offended. He harshly replied, “How arrogant! How proud of you, to think you KNOW you are going to Heaven!” Ed further added,

“You had better do your best and hope to God that he accepts you someday when you face him.” I deliberately used lowercase letters, because Allah is a myth, not the true and living God. Kindly said, Islam is a false religion. Sadly, there are an estimated 1,600,000,000 Muslims in the world, all of whom reject Jesus as the Christ.

According to the Holy Bible, they are all going to burn in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15). 1st John 2:23, “Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. ” John 3:36 teaches that God’s wrath rests upon all Christ rejecters! I love Muslims, as my fellow human beings, but as a born-again Christian I feel sorry for them, because they will die IN THEIR SINS for not believing on Jesus Christ (John 8:24; 20:31). I am sad for my old co-worker Ed, because he never would listen to my wise advice. I gave him the truth of the Gospel, but he rejected it. In fact, some of my unsaved co-workers started harassing me for even witnessing to Ed, angry that I had said he couldn’t get to Heaven through Islam. They will sadly all burn in Hell one day, by their own foolishness. John 5:40, “And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.”

Ed does not have peace, and neither does any Muslim. Ed used to religiously (no pun intended) uses his breaks and lunch time to roll out his mat on the floor, facing the city of Mecca, Saudi Arabia (the holiest city in Islam), praying to Allah. Muslims pray in coordination with the cycles of the moon, 5 times per day. Islam is literally rooted in worship of the moon. It is a wicked false religion that rejects Jesus as the Messiah, just as Judaism also does. Both of these religions will foolishly embrace the Antichrist when he comes, thinking he is Christ.

Ed used to take a squirt water bottle with him into the bathroom. To put it delicately, Muslims are so entrapped into religious bondage, that they are required by the Hadith (one of their holy books) to cleanse their body every time they use the restroom, lest they go to Hell for being defiled. I kindly asked Ed one time if he believed that he would go to Hell for not washing himself after using the bathroom. He replied,

“You got that right!” In hindsight, I probably shouldn’t have asked him that, but it blew my mind that a person could actually believe such nonsense. Ed does believe it, with all his heart. No wonder Jesus said in Matthew 11:28-30, “Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

” Islam is a hard religion of bondage, fear and uncertainty.

This is why I get so upset at false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014), who preaches the same type of bondage as Islam:

> a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [3]11:34)

What do you mean I cannot just accept Christ and speak about GETTING SAVED? Of course I CAN! Dr. Pettit is preaching another gospel, not the gift of God. Pettit is a heretic, an infidel in the pulpit who perverts the free grace of God. You CAN speak of getting saved because you accepted Christ. By requiring MORE, Steve Pettit is just as guilty as Muslims, who require living one's life up to a certain standard of self-righteousness to get to Heaven. According to Steve Pettit's ungodly plan of salvation, you cannot have the sweet absolute assurance of salvation until you've faithfully lived the Christian life to the end. How is that a free gift? How is that the grace of God. It isn't, not even close!!!

Sadly, for exposing this woeful evil and crying aloud against this great evil, I have been banned, ignored and ostracized by the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church of Guam since 2014. Pastor Marty Herron is a close personal friend of Steve Pettit, who are both devout followers of Dr. John MacArthur. Kindly said, these three men are all infidels of the faith (false Christians). They masquerade as preachers of righteousness, but in reality they are Satan's ministers of unrighteousness, preaching another gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15; Galatians 1:6-9). I speak THE TRUTH as your friend. I love these men, enough to tell the truth to them. I [4]personally handed several books to Pastor Marty Herron in 2014 at HBC. I was trying to help him see THE TRUTH. He was greatly offended and drove me out of my church family I lost everything near and dear to me. Pastor Herron lost nothing, collecting his undeserved paycheck, stiff-necked against THE TRUTH.

Do you see how they agree? They both teach that you can't just get born-again and that's it. They both say more is required, that you are OBLIGATED to live a life of obedience to God. This is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation!!! Dear reader, God knows my heart, I am not a troublemaker. I LOVE YOU!!! I love every human being. I am not a respecter of person, and neither is our great God (James 2:1). I simply don't want you to miss Heaven and end up in Hell. Islam is a false religion. Calvinism (which is the garbage Steve Pettit is teaching) is false religion. Calvinism has been repackaged in modern times, now commonly referred to as Lordship Salvation (LS). In essence, LS simply says that faith is not enough to get to Heaven, MORE is required of a person. The Bible says faith is all that is required. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Dear friend, Jesus is our peace. Jesus is our peace concerning eternal life. Jesus is our peace as Christians. When you have problems, run to the Scriptures and claim the PROMISES of God. Jesus said this Himself in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." Jesus doesn't give us peace, JESUS IS OUR PEACE.

2.3.14 Religion Is The Worst Thing That Ever Happened (2021-03-19 09:30)

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

My biological father Arnold Leonard Stewart (1933-2010) was a Christian and a Skid Row Preacher for over 30 years. I know very little about him. My Dad grew up very poor during The Great Depression in the 1930’s in Escanaba, Michigan. My Dad was one of 11 children siblings. They were put into an orphanage at a young age. At age 15 he was adopted by a Christian who lived on a farm. He ran away, got into gangs and crime, but in his late 20’s turned his life around. That’s about all I know. He never wanted to talk about it. I wish I knew more about my father’s life. At age 13, my mother (Barbara Jean Josephson) came from Sweden with her grandmother to America. Since my grandmother was an officer in the Salvation Army, my parents were both involved with the Salvation Army. I was dedicated to the Lord at age one by my parents at the Salvation Army.

Having said that, my father used to say: “Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.” That is his most memorable quote. As I thought about writing this article, my father’s quote came to mind. Religion is dangerous! May I say, with all Biblical authority, that no religion can get you to Heaven my friend. You can join any or all religions on earth, and yet still go to Hell in your sins. Jesus said in John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Salvation is not found in any religion, but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

Dear reader, you cannot get to Heaven through religion. The Roman Catholic church does religion right, just like Kentucky Fried Chicken does chicken right. From the cradle to the casket, Roman Catholicism has a religious package for you! They’ll provide for your every religious need, right up until you burn in Hell for all eternity without Jesus Christ! You cannot get to Heaven through manmade traditions, rituals, ceremonies and the oracles of man. You must be born again! How do you get born again?

First, you must know that you’re a guilty sinner. Romans 3:23, “ For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; ”

Second, you must know that there is a penalty for your sins, which is death. Romans 6:23, “

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

” This includes the second death in the Lake of Fire.

Revelation 20:15, “ And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

Third, Jesus is the Son of God, the Christ, Who died on the cross to pay for your sins. Jesus was buried, and after three days He miraculously resurrected physically from the dead. ...

John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.”

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “

Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

Romans 3:24, “ Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: ”

If you admit that you are a guilty sinner deserving of Hell, and you see your need for the Savior. All you need to do to be saved is BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ. Simply take God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. It’s that simple. You don’t have to turn away from your sinning to be saved. You must turn away from your unbelief as a guilty sinner. Whatever changes God desires to see in your life He will attend to after you are saved, but to receive God’s free gift of eternal life, all you need to do is cease from your own self-righteous works and rest completely in the name of Jesus Christ. ...

John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

Simply REST in Jesus Christ, placing all your confidence in Him alone, to forgive and wash away all your sins by the precious blood that He shed on the cross to pay for them. ...

Hebrews 4:9-10,

“ There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.”

Philippians 3:9, “

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ”

1st Peter 1:18-19, “

Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:”

My father was absolutely right, and the older I get the more I appreciate his wisdom in the matter. Religion wants to fit you with glasses, but the Lord wants to open your eyes! Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Dear friend, going to Heaven when you die is not a matter of YOUR faithfulness, it is strictly a matter of GOD'S faithfulness to keep His solemn promise **"

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE

" (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

The heathen world is continually speculating about the afterlife, eternity and the mysteries of beyond the grave. Well there is no mystery or speculation if you believe the inspired King James Bible. God only authored one Book, not two, certainly not hundreds. Yet today we literally have hundreds of English Bible revisions, all claiming to be the most accurate, but none agree. That is Satan, the author of confusion. God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33). God has kept His promise in Psalms 12:6-7 to keep and preserve His pure inspired Words in the King James Bible forever. The [1]modern corrupt Bibles remove this promise. Dear friend, I am telling you THE TRUTH.

Jesus, please don't leave earth without Him. There is no other way to be saved according to Acts 4:10-12, "

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

If you want God's free gift of eternal life, it only comes wrapped in the package of Jesus Christ. If you reject Jesus Christ, you don't get the gift. It's that simple. If you receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, you get the gift with Him. John 1:12-13,

"But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." I hope and plead with you friend, that you will receive Jesus Christ now if you've never done so. Simply put your faith in the Scriptures, believing the record which God has given of His dear only begotten Son, the Christ, Who was crucified on the cross for your sins and mine. But Christ is not dead, HE IS RISEN forevermore! Trust Him now! Rest in the name of Jesus and you will have eternal life immediately and forever!

2.3.15 The Opposite Of John 3:20 Is THE TRUTH, Not Turning Away From Sin (2021-03-19 17:39)

John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God."

The Bible teaches that people who love their sinning WON'T come to the light. Jesus is the light (John 9:5). Christians are the light (Matthew 5:14). The inspired Word of God is the light (Psalm 119:105). The truth of the Gospel is the light (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). The unsaved world will NOT come to the light, lest their evil deeds be reproved (negatively spoken of). Lost sinners don't want to hear that fornication is a sin. They don't want to hear that drunkenness is a sin. They don't want to hear that homosexuality is a sin. They don't want to hear that covetousness, pride, lust and taking God's name in vain is a sin. They don't want to hear that failure to honor one's mother and father is a sin. John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil."

Our sinful carnal human nature naturally thinks the opposite of John 3:20 is to turn away from sin. Since love for sin prevents an ungodly man from coming to the light to be saved, then it makes perfect sense to our carnal nature that the remedy is to TURN AWAY FROM SIN. This is why we hear this false teaching in so many churches today. In fact, you'll hear this false teaching taught in MOST churches today. Tragically, that includes independent fundamental Baptist churches. They certainly are not fundamental, and they have gone independent of what the King James Bible teaches. Much of our doctrines taught in churches today has its origin in the flesh, and not in the Spirit. These are doctrines of devils. 1st Timothy 4:1-2a, "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared... "

Sadly, the Bob Jones University crowd comes to mind. Every preacher has his arch enemy. For General William Booth and his Salvation Army it was the Skeleton Army. I am not joking. The Skeleton Army hated the Salvation Army, comprised of atheists and bitter unbelievers. They hurled dead cats, stones and bucket of feces and urine off the rooftops upon the Christians preaching the Gospel in the streets below. For Pastor Jack Hyles his arch rival was the Hammond Times for the latter years of his ministry. For me it is Harvest Baptist Church of Guam and Bob Jones University. I didn't choose this battle, it chose me.

I shared THE TRUTH as any faithful Christian ought to do, but Pastor Marty Herron tried to shut me up and drove me out of Harvest Baptist Church. Sadly, his successor Pastor Gary Walton has continued to ignore, ostracize and hurt me, by shutting me out of their church family completely. God will hold these ungodly religious men accountable for what they are doing (Romans 14:10-12; Matthew 7:1-5). I am not judging them, they are judging me. I have always wanted to go back to church, but they continue to refuse. So this whole mess is on them alone! I haven't had a church family since 2014 because of Marty Herron and Gary Walton, but these arrogant men wipe their mouth like the adulterous woman in Proverb 30:20, "Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness." They have all done wickedly, and God sees it all. Hebrews 4:13, "

Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

" Their pomp, arrogance and haughty attitudes will cease, so promises the Bible (Galatians 6:7).

We KNOW that the opposite of John 3:20 is not turning away from sin. Whatever the opposite of John 3:20 is that causes a man to come to the light, it cannot be turning away from sin. How do I know that? Simply read the next verse in John 3:21, "

John 3:20-21, "But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." There you have it... HE THAT DOETH TRUTH!!! The Bible doesn't say HE THAT TURNS AWAY FROM SINNING. No, it simply says he that doeth truth.

" I can conform this with 2nd Timothy 2:25-26,

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

" Amen! Did you see that... REPENTANCE TO THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE TRUTH!!! What truth? Why, the truth that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20).

Dear friend, you don't run away from sin to receive the free gift of eternal life, you simply ACKNOWLEDGE THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner, and believe the Gospel to be saved. It is that simple. The Gospel (or 'GOOD NEWS' according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 is simply that Christ DIED on the cross to pay for your sins. He was BURIED. After three days Christ RESURRECTED bodily from the dead. Anyone who gladly receives this GOOD NEWS as their own, making this YOUR HOPE for Heaven, is immediately, irrevocably and eternally born-again!!! You have God's Word on it dear friend. Nothing else is required or allowed in salvation.

Now if anyone comes along, like John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Gary Walton or Steve Pettit, saying that more than faith is required, you know they have been inspired by demons! The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church of Guam is absolutely saturated in the heretical Calvinist doctrines of Steve Pettit and John MacArthur. Don't believe it? Listen to what Bob Jones University (BJU) president Steve Pettit sinfully taught 2,700 students and faculty members on January 26, 2015 in chapel:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [1]11:34)

Ladies and gentlemen, that is the Devil talking! That is not the Gospel of free grace, not even in the ballpark. [2]Steve Pettit is the infidel that Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) warned everybody about in 1945, and of whom he said he [3]blow the college to smithereens with a stick of dynamite if he could. Bob Jones College is of the Devil. BJU no longer preaches sound doctrine; but rather, the Calvinist ranting of a theological madman behind the pulpit. Shamefully, Harvest Baptist Church of Guam IDOLIZES this wicked false prophet, bidding him Godspeed. Pastor Gary Walton needs to be fired. All of their pastors at Harvest are bad seed! They should all be fired, and bring in genuine men of God who are sound in the Christian faith. Anybody who thinks that you must turn away from sin to be saved is a theological fool.

As I have plainly shown you from the King James Bible (and there is no other English Bible), repentance is acknowledging THE TRUTH, a simple change of mind, and NOT turning away from a lifestyle of sin as Marty Herron, Charles Phelps, Tom Ferrell, Charles Lawson, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, Sam Horn and John MacArthur errantly teach. These men all have blood on their hands. These men are all arrogant in their false teachings, insistent that a person cannot be saved without making an effort to turn away from your sinful behavior.

The Bible is 100 % on my side. I am on God’s side. Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.” Liars every one! You cannot show me even one Scripture that teaches to repent or turn from sin to be saved. That is a FACT!!! The opposite of John 3:20 is THE TRUTH, not turning away from sin.

2.3.16 False Bibles—An Enemy of Soul Winning (2021-03-21 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 2:17, “ For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ. ” Proverbs 30:5-6, “Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.”

[1]

by [2]Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001)

(Chapter 1 from Dr. Hyles book, [3]Enemies of Soul-Winning)

In order to live as a child of God, I must have a perfect Bible. Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Notice the words, "every word."

If I have my prayers answered, I must have a perfect Bible. John 15:7, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." That means that somewhere in the world, there has to be a perfect Bible.

God has told us that His words are pure. Psalm 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times."

God has told us that these pure words would be preserved forever. Psalm 12:7, "Thou shalt keep them, 0 LORD, thou shalt preserve them for this generation forever." Since today is a part of forever, somewhere in the world there must be pure words of God. Hence, it does not satisfy me for someone to say that only in the original do we have the pure words of God. Since there are no original manuscripts today, or for that matter, there are no manuscripts even near the original manuscripts as far as time is concerned, then what these people are saying is that we do not have anywhere today any book that contains the pure words of God. Yet, I am commanded to preach the Word.

II Timothy 4:2, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine."

Now since the words of God are pure, and since all of the so-called Bibles do not have the same words, only one can be the real Bible that contains the very words of God, the pure words of God, and the preserved words of God. The purpose of this chapter is not to enter into a discussion about the Textus Receptus or Westcott-Hort; it is simply to say that if God commanded me to preach His Word, He would have to give me His Word to preach, and certainly His Word is pure, because the words of God are pure according to the aforementioned Scriptures and will be preserved forever. This preacher believes that those preserved words are in the Bible that I hold in my right hand at this very moment-the King James Bible!

I have more respect for the person who says that one of the false Bibles contains the very words of God than for a person who says only the original contains the very words of God. At least he believes, though wrongly, that we still have the words of God which are pure. For many, many reasons I believe that the King James Bible has been preserved in the English language word-for-word. I have to believe that. I must have the words of God, if I live, if I preach and if I get my prayers answered.

1. There are some things that are incorruptible.

The word "incorruptible" means "perfect," "cannot change," "cannot be improved." If you change something, it must go to perfection or from perfection, so if something can be changed, it must have been imperfect and been made perfect, or it must have been perfect and made imperfect. Let us notice some things that are incorruptible.

(1) God.

Romans 1:23, "And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things."

This means God is perfect. He cannot be improved; He cannot change. He cannot be taken from imperfection to perfection or from perfection to imperfection.

(2) Our future crown. I Corinthians 9:25, "And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible." Once the crown is received, it cannot be improved; it cannot change. It will be perfect.

(3) Our glorified bodies. I Corinthians 15:52, "In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." I John 3:2 "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is." Notice that our glorified body will be like His, and it will be incorruptible. His glorified body is incorruptible. You cannot improve it; you cannot change it. Then, my glorified body will be incorruptible. It cannot be improved; it cannot be changed.

(4) Our inheritance. I Peter 1:4, "To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you." Our inheritance will be perfect. It cannot be improved; it cannot be changed.

(5) The Word of God. I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth forever." Psalm 126:6, "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him." Luke 8:11, "Now the parable is this:

The seed is the word of God." You will notice the seed from which we are born again is incorruptible. It is the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever. Consequently, you cannot improve it; you cannot change it. If you do, you must go from imperfection or to imperfection. Notice in I Peter 1:23 it is called "incorruptible." Just as God is incorruptible, just as our crown is incorruptible, just as our glorified body will be incorruptible, just as Jesus' body is incorruptible, just as our inheritance is incorruptible; likewise, the Word of God is incorruptible.

Notice in Psalm 126:6, it is "precious seed." This implies that there is some seed which is not precious. Luke 8:11 teaches us that this seed is the Word of God. It is perfect; it cannot be changed; it cannot be improved.

2. The words of God are the genes of regeneration.

Titus 3:5, "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost." Actually the word "regeneration" means "to be re-gened." Just as the genes of my parents brought my old nature into existence, even so the genes of God brought my new nature into existence. Your old nature is sinful because there was sin in the genes, but the genes of the Word of God are incorruptible, meaning that which is born of God; that is, the new nature, cannot sin.

Now if the very words of God must be pure, and if in fact the King James Bible contains the preserved words of God, then any other words are not the words of God. This means that the Revised Version is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Good News for Modern Man is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Living Bible is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the Reader's Digest Bible is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New King James Bible is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New Scofield Bible is not precious seed, because it is not incorruptible. This means that the New International Version (NIV) is not precious seed, and it is not incorruptible. This means that the American Standard Version is not precious seed because it is not incorruptible. If the versions do not agree, then all of them cannot be the very words of God that have been preserved for us.

3. The genes of the new birth must be incorruptible.

I Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." These words were penned in the first century, but it says that the incorruptible seed "liveth and abideth for ever." Since today is a part of "for ever," we must have the incorruptible seed in order to be re-gened, or regenerated, or born again.

4. Suppose corruptible seed is used.

Can a person then be born again from it? You answer that question. According to I Peter 1:23 we read, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed...." Then, if corruptible seed is used, one cannot be born again. I have a conviction as deep as my soul that every English-speaking person who has ever been born again was born of incorruptible seed; that is, the King James Bible. Does that mean that if someone goes soul winning and takes a false Bible that the person who receives Christ is not saved? I believe with all of my soul that the incorruptible seed must have been used somewhere in that person's life. If all a person has ever read is the Revised Standard Version, he cannot be born again, because corruptible seed is used, and

I Peter 1:23 is very plain to tell us that a person cannot be born again of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible seed, and it explains that that incorruptible seed is the Word of God, and it explains that it liveth and abideth forever.

This is also borne out in Psalm 19:7, "The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple." Notice the words, "the law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul." It is the law of the Lord that converts. It is the Word of God that regenerates. The Word is the seed, and the seed must be incorruptible.

*Note: Points 5 and 6 are missing from the original book, which I own.

7. The perfect Word of God must be used if a person grows in grace.

1 Peter 2:2, "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby." Notice that it is the "sincere" Word of God by which we grow in grace. So, to grow in grace, we must have the sincere (pure) Word of God.

This same thing is taught in Deuteronomy 4:10, 36, "Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the Lord said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children. Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire."

Notice the words of God are what teach us, and from the words of God we are to be instructed. If they are in fact words of God, they must be pure, because a pure God could not give impure words, and an incorruptible God could not give corruptible words.

8. These words of God are perfect. There are several things in the Bible that are called perfect.

(1) His work is perfect. Deuteronomy 32:4, "He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he."

(2) His way is perfect. Psalm 18:30, "As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him."

(3) The Heavenly Father is perfect. Matthew 5:48, "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

(4) The glorified body will be perfect. I Corinthians 13:10, "But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

(5) The law of the Lord is perfect. Psalm 19:7, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple." So we must have an incorruptible, perfect Word of God. To say that this could be found only in the original manuscripts is to say we have no words of God today that are perfect, which means we have no perfect Book to preach, we have no perfect Book to read, we have no perfect Book by which to grow, and we have no perfect Seed by which we can be born again or re-gened or regenerated.

9. There are several ways that the words of God are made into impure words by translators and theologians (self-styled).

(1) They add to the Word of God. Proverbs 30:5, 6, "Every word of God is pure; he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar." Notice several things in these verses. First, every word of God is pure. Psalm 119:140, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." Psalm 12:6, "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times." Psalm 19:8, "The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes." Second, in Proverbs 30:6, we are told not to add to these words. Third, in verse 6 the Bible says that He reproves those who do add to His words.

Then in verse 6 also, the Bible says that those who do add to His words are liars.

Now notice Deuteronomy 4:2a, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you...." We are commanded not to add to His Word.

(2) They take away from the words of God. Deuteronomy 4:2, "Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you." God plainly commands that we not diminish His Word.

Now notice Revelation 22:19, "And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." A stern rebuke and warning is given to anyone who takes away from the words of God. This means that God's judgment will rest upon those who try to give us a condensed Bible.

(3) They will try to change the Word of God. Jeremiah 26:2, "Thus saith the Lord; Stand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word." Here we have a command not to diminish one word. It is not talking here necessarily about taking words away but changing a word or diminishing a word. Let the translators of the many versions take heed and take warning.

In conclusion, one may ask, "What does this have to do with soul winning?" Beloved, it has everything to do with soul winning. If the words of God are the incorruptible seed, and if seed must be incorruptible, if someone is born again, then the soul winner must have a perfect Bible. Thank God, we do!

2.3.17 Dr. David Jeremiah's False Tests For Salvation Assurance (2021-03-23 09:30)

Ephesians 1:12-14, "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession*, unto the praise of his glory." 1st John 3:24, "

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

Pastor David Jeremiah is way off in some of his Bible theology. In 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 we are warned by the Apostle Paul about complicating **"

the simplicity that is in Christ.

" My Christian friend Curtis Smale made these helpful true observations:

> Dr. David Jeremiah's False Bases for Assurance of Salvation
>
> I just listened to a sermon by Dr. David Jeremiah. The problem with so many of these preachers is that they preach the biblical truth that if you believe in Jesus you're saved forever—and then they take it back in the next sentence by telling you that if you don't do these things and don't stop doing these other things, then you probably aren't saved.
>
> My Criticisms of David Jeremiah's teachings about salvation:
>
> - There are no "Birthmarks of salvation."
> - Confession of faith is not necessary for salvation or proof of it. (False confessors; some Jews in the time of Jesus believed in Him, but would not confess their faith in Him because they did not want to be rejected by other Jews and thrown out of the synagogue.)
> - Practicing righteousness is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (There are civic-righteous Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, Roman Catholics, Jews.)
> - Love is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Loving Atheists, Buddhists, Hindus, secular people)
> - Conflict with evil is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Human-level Righteous non-believers)
> - Winning over sin is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (Unbelievers in AA)
> - Repenting/stopping sin is not a condition of salvation or proof of it. (the sinning believers in the Corinthian church)

- Good works are not a condition of salvation or proof of it.
- We don’t ask God to forgive us for sins because He has forgiven us of all sins. (Colossians)

Jeremiah does not understand the new nature perfection.

Conscience is not a condition of salvation or proof of it.

The biblical truth is, if anyone ever believed in Jesus, they are saved forever and indwelled by the Holy Spirit, forgiven and destined for Heaven. They know whether they believe or not.

—[1]Curtis Smale

As our text passages of Scripture teach, the evidence that a person is a child of God is the indwelling Holy Spirit, which only an individual can determine. That is what the Epistle of 1st John is all about. 1st John 5:13, “

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

” Many Bible students misunderstand the Epistle of 1st John, thinking that we should examine our life and works to see if we are saved. But the Bible never says that. What saith the Scripture?

1st John 3:24, “

And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

” God authored 1st John so that you, as an individual believer, can determine if you have the Holy Spirit.

And how do we get the Holy Spirit? Galatians 3:1-2, “O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, *Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?” Notice that capital “S,” meaning the Holy Spirit of God. You get saved and indwelt by the Holy Spirit by simply putting your faith (reliance) in the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ when you hear it preached. Paul calls this **“

We see this beautifully evidenced in Acts chapter 10. The Apostle Peter preached the Good News of Jesus crucified on the cross, buried and risen the third day, and when Cornelius simply believed what he heard, he was immediately saved and indwelt with God’s Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38-43). Kindly said, Pastor Jeremiah complicates the simplicity of the Gospel.

2.3.18 Catholics Are Not Christians (2021-03-25 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-9, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

1400

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

I read online today that [1]Peter Criss and [2]Ace Frehley (original bands members of KISS) are both Christians, Catholic. Roughly 51,000,000 Americans are Catholic [3]according to Pew Research. You need to understand dear reader that there are many different meanings of the term “Christian.” The Roman Catholic meaning is far from the biblical meaning.

The way I see it there are three meanings, as relate to this article here:

1. Unsaved people see a Christian as a follower of Christ - In the Bible, a Christian is someone who follows Christ. The disciples were first called “ at Antioch (Acts 11:26). It was the unsaved world, and not believers themselves, who called the followers of Jesus Christians. If you were placed on trial and accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?

   Christians

2. Catholics see Christianity as a system of beliefs and practices, a religion - [4]https://www.catholic.com/encyclopedia/christianity

3. The saved person has been born again - This is the true biblical meaning of what it means to be a Christian. Only a born-again person can enter into the Kingdom of God.

John 3:3, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ” As a musician myself I have always admired [5]Eddie Van Halen (1955-2020). Yet, Eddie was a devour Roman Catholic. The Bible doesn’t say you get to Heaven by being religious. Sorry Eddie! His brother Alex is also Catholic, an ordained minister in fact. Alex has often performed the weddings of celebrities and friends. And as I mentioned earlier, Ace Frehley and Peter Criss of KISS are professing Catholic Christians. But dear friend, these men are not born-again believers!

One woman on Facebook was upset with me, trying to shame me for saying that Eddie Van Halen served the Devil all his life, and is likely sadly burning in Hell now. Dear reader I didn’t say that, Jesus did. John 3:3, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ” The Catholic church perverts God’s free grace by adding keeping Seven Sacraments to it. According to official Catholic dogma, the first of the sacraments is water baptism, which the Vatican says is the door into the Catholic church. They teach that the [6]Catholic church is the Body of Christ, with Peter (the first pope)

as its head

. The Bible teaches something very different in John 14:6,

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. ” The Vatican says there is no salvation outside of the Catholic church, but Jesus said He alone is the way, the truth and the life.

I truly hope with all my heart that Eddie Van Halen died in the Lord, but it doesn't appear to be so. I do not say that because of the wickedness of Van Halen's career, but because Catholicism is a false religion. Granted, we all have our opinions. But what saith the Scripture? Jesus exhorted everyone in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." El Papa over in Rome cannot save himself, let alone anyone else. Your sinful Catholic priest or Lutheran minister cannot forgive their own sins, let alone yours! You can confess your sins to some sinful priest in a telephone booth all you want, but the Bible says in 1st Timothy 2:5-6, "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." My friend, the Bible is abundantly clear that Jesus Christ is the ONLY way to Heaven!!! Jesus is the one and only Mediator.

The Bible says that eternal life is a free gift. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. " A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition. Salvation is received, not achieved. Do you know why so many preachers today are going astray from the truth? It is because they spend more time listening to their peers and buddies than they do searching the Scriptures. There is no way that you can listen to the Gospel of John or the Epistle of Galatians, and walk away thinking that you must "

repent of your sin

" to be saved. You won't find the phrases "

turn away from your sin

repent of your sin

anywhere in the King James Bible. Yet [7]every [8]pseudo

[9]-Christian cult teaches that you must repent of your sinful behavior to get to Heaven.

Please understand that I am not a Catholic basher! If you are Catholic I respect your right to believe as you choose. This is America, right? A truly free society is one in which it is safe to be unpopular. So if you are a Catholic, I love you with God's love. I am not berating you for your beliefs. However, I am letting you know as a true friend does, that the Devil is deceiving people with Catholicism. Truly, the Catholic church is a religious prisonhouse! There is nothing taught in the Bible about sacraments. Listen to what Jesus warned in Mark 7:9,

"And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, [10]that ye may keep your own tradition." Do you see how Catholicism is manmade? The preceding link shows a few dozen of Catholicism's manmade fabricated doctrines. Psalm 118:8, " It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man."

Catholics are not Bible-believing born-again Christians, they are Vatican following religious churchgoers. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. John 3:3, "

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. " John 3:7, " Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again. ” 1st Peter 1:23, “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” The inspired and incorruptible Word of God is the seed (Luke 8:11) by which we are born anew from above by the Holy Spirit of God (John 1:12-13). If you are born once, you die twice (Revelation 21:8); but if you are born twice, you die once (Revelation 20:6). John 3:7, “ Marvel not that I said unto thee, [11]Ye must be born again. ”

2.3.19 Catholics Teach “Born Again” Same As Lordship Salvation (2021-03-27 09:30)

Galatians 1:7 and 9, “...there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ ... As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

The following quote is taken from a 100 % devout Catholic website, authored by David MacDonald, which clearly reveals that all of the apostate Contemporary Christian Music [CCM] singers, sinister ecumenical ministers, and Lordship Salvationists; totally AGREE with Catholic theology (which is unbiblical heresy and lies of Satan).

The following is damnable heresy and a FALSE GOSPEL from David MacDonald's web-site...

> "Note: If you have never made a personal commitment to Christ. If you have never asked him into your heart and to be Lord of your life, I encourage you to do that now.
>
> Are Catholics Born Again?
>
> I think Evangelicals and Catholics totally agree about the awesomeness of a personal encounter with Jesus. In Pope Benedict XVI's new encyclical, 'Spe Salvi' we read:
>
> 'Life in its true sense is not something we have exclusively in or from ourselves, it is a relationship. And life in its totality is a relationship with him who is the source of life. If we are in relation with him who does not die, who is life itself and love itself, then we are in life. Then we 'live... Our relationship with God is established through communion with Jesus – we cannot achieve it alone or from our own resources alone.'
>
> Much debate has set Catholic 'Baptism' against the Evangelical 'Born again' concept. I think that greater common ground can be found if we compare the Evangelical 'Born Again' experience to the Catholic 'Second Conversion' experience which is when a Catholic surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you.' This is a spontaneous thing that happens during the journey of faithful Catholics who 'get it.' Yup, the Catholic Church teaches a personal relationship with Christ:"
> SOURCE: [1]http://www.davidmacd.com/catholic/born _again _catholics.htm

That is EXACTLY what John MacArthur, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, CCM singers, Max Lucado, Rick Warren, Moody Bible Institute, and all the other Lordship Salvationists are teaching today. In case you haven't realized it yet, Lordship Salvation is CATHOLIC DOCTRINE!!! David MacDonald claims that evangelical Christians and Catholics agree that salvation is an "experience" in which a person "surrenders to Jesus with an attitude of 'Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you."'

May I say, that is a doctrine of devils. Being born again is NOT an "experience" as David MacDonald refers to, nor is it surrendering one's life to Christ; it is a lost sinner being saved by the power of God (John 1:12-13). It is a miracle of God in response to a man's faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. I tell you that the Catholic religion is Satanic through and through.

Being born-again is a new birth—a second birth, a spiritual birth into the kingdom of God. It is having He (Jesus) Who is the Beginning (Revelation 1:8) born in us. Just as the physical birth (first birth) brought us into this earthly life, so also does the spiritual birth (second birth) bring us into God's family.

The [2]Salvation Army follows the heresy of their founders, William and Catherine Booth, who considered salvation a "state" that could be lost if one failed to continue in obedient faith.

May I say, salvation is NOT a "state," it is a new birth. It is a second birth, a spiritual birth. The spiritual birth is as irreversible as the physical birth. The teaching that salvation is a "state" that is conditional upon "continued obedient faith" is demonic works-salvation. The believer's salvation is secure in Christ's finished work of redemption. Jesus died, was buried and arose. He ascended into Heaven. The blood has been applied to the heavenly mercy seat (Hebrews 9:12, 24). The price has been paid.

I KNOW I am saved because eternal life is rooted in the PROMISES of God (Titus 1:2); and not upon how good I'm doing in life as a believer. My salvation is secure in Jesus Christ and has nothing to do with my efforts. Eternal life is a gift (Ephesians 2:8-9). A gift has no strings attached. Our part is simply to trust upon the name of Jesus. God does the saving (John 1:12-13). Salvation is not a state, nor an experience, nor a feeling; but rather, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever" (1st Peter 1:23). We are born anew of the Spirit of God (John 3:5) by the seed of God's Word. Amen!

Catholics, CCM singers, ecumenical ministers, Lordship Salvationists, and other apostates, all talk about being born-again as a [3]feeling or an [4]experience; but they deny the power thereof (2nd Timothy 3:5), which is the Gospel of Jesus Christ (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Notice in the preceding quote that David MacDonald, admittedly a devout Catholic, continually refers to being born-again as an "EXPERIENCE" (just as the apostate [5]Newsboys CCM group do)!

David MacDonald defines being "born-again" the exact same way as apostate CCM singers and sinister ecumenical ministers, teaching, "Jesus, take my will and my life, I give everything to you." That is a false Gospel. Judas was one of Christ's very Apostles, a follower of Jesus, but still went to Hell. Jesus called Judas a devil (John 6:70).

Notice that the mention of "sin" is not made. Being born-again is a matter of having one's sins taken away by the precious blood of Jesus Christ (1st Peter 1:18-19; John 1:7; Revelation 1:5). Colossians 1:14, "In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." The Pope doesn't mention "sin" when he speaks of being born-again. David MacDonald talks about having an experience, just as the evil Newsboys sing and teach; but they leave off any mention of coming to God as a guilty, hell-deserving "sinner" (Romans 3:19).

Modern apostates jumble a bunch of Biblical terms into their fruit cocktail of religious music and sermonettes; but fail to present the Biblical Gospel of a man coming to God as a guilty sinner and trusting upon the Lord, apart from all self-righteous works, to be forgiven (Romans 4:5-6; Ephesians 2:8-9). Jesus died, was buried, and rose again for our sins (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation is not a feeling, nor an experience; it is a miracle of God in response to a sinner's faith in the Son of God, Jesus Christ (John 20:31; Romans 10:3-4; Galatians 3:26).

Asking Jesus to "take your will and life," and "giving everything to Him"; are not the ways to be saved. This is made clear in Matthew 7:21-23. In verse 21, Jesus said, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Jesus said You must do "the will of the Father." What is the will of God how to be saved? John 6:40 tells us exactly what the will of God concerning salvation is... "And THIS IS THE WILL of Him [God the Father] that sent Me [God the Son], that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on Him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day." Amen and amen! So there you have it, the will of God how to be saved, i.e., to believe on Jesus Christ. The will of God is to BELIEVE... to BELIEVE... to BELIEVE on Jesus Christ, as the Son of God (Acts 16:30-31).

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

2.3.20 Jesus Didn't Finish His Work Of Redemption On The Cross (2021-03-29 09:30)

John 19:28-30, "

After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost."

I hear many preachers misinterpret this passage. Nothing was finished on the cross concerning redemption! The Gospel, as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 is Christ's death, burial and resurrection (none of which were finished on the cross). Christ had not even died yet when He uttered

"It is finished." So what was finished? Jesus tells us in John 19:28—all of the Old Testament Bible prophecy concerning Him up until that point. Everything that Jesus was supposed to do, had been accomplished. Only one thing remained, which was for Jesus to cry out "I thirst!" (Psalms 69:21). Once Christ had made that statement, all of the prophecy concerning Him had been fulfilled, and He could now dismiss His Spirit (die). Remember, Romans 6:23 says that the wages of sin is death. Since Jesus was sinless, He couldn't be killed. That is why Jesus commended His Spirit into His Father's hands (Luke 23:46).

The Lord knew His Bible well! You will never find any student of the Bible, who searched the Scriptures more diligently than did our very Savior! When the Devil came to tempt Jesus in Matthew 4:1-10, Jesus used the Scriptures to overcome temptation. When Jesus witnessed to people—whether it be the Samaritan woman at the well in John chapter 4, or the two men walking on the road to Emmaus in Luke 24—He expounded this with the Old Testament Scriptures. Think about that! Over 99 % of soul-winning Christians today stay in the New Testament, but all they had to work with in Christ's generation was the Old Testament. And how remarkably skilled they were using it!!!

Let's go further shall we. Jesus did NOT finish anything concerning redemption on the cross. I love teaching the Bible! I love teaching the Bible because God has blessed me with a good understanding of the Bible. I have been saved for 40 years now. I have had the best Bible teachers; such as, Dr. John R. Rice, Dr. Harry A. Ironside, Pastor Jack Hyles, and Dr. Max D. Younce. Hebrews 10:1, " thereunto perfect. ” It is important to understand dear reader, that everything that happened in the Old Testament was written for our learning (Romans 15:4), and as we just read, was NOT the very image of the things they represented. The Old Testament ceremonial laws were OBJECT LESSONS. God never intended for the law (neither moral, civil or ceremonial laws) to give men salvation! As we just read in Hebrews 10:1, the law was merely A SHADOW of good things to come in the future.

For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers

Jesus Christ became the fulfillment of those good things to come. Hebrews 9:11-13, “But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? ”

It disturbs me greatly that so many preachers today totally ignore this passage of Scripture. Anytime you hear a preacher say that salvation was finished on the cross, please tell him he is a liar, according to Hebrews 9:12. The Word of God says Jesus BY HIS OWN BLOOD entered once into the heavenly Holy Place, to obtain eternal redemption for us. So redemption wasn’t obtained by Christ on the cross, but through the cross of Calvary. Hebrews 9:12 plainly teaches that Christ obtained our redemption when He sprinkled His blood upon the Mercy Seat in Heaven.

That is why we read in Hebrews 12:24, “And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.” Jesus is our Mediator. A mediator requires two parties, so he can mediate between them. On one side we have God the holy Father. One the other side we have sinful men. Man is not God, and God is not man. But praise be to God, our blessed Redeemer is the eternal and sinless Son of God, Who is both man and God. 1st Timothy 2:5-6, “For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.” Salvation can only be obtained through Jesus Christ.

And please notice that Christ gave Himself as a ransom “FOR ALL.” Here again we see the fallacy of Limited Atonement refuted by the Scriptures. I am shocked that Pastor Charles Spurgeon, as brilliant a theologian as he was (most of the time), blatantly and utterly got this truth wrong! In fact, Mr. Spurgeon taught the Calvinist heresy of Limited Atonement, as does Pastor John MacArthur today. This blatant heresy claims that Christ did not die on the cross for all humanity; but rather, only for the saints. Thus the term “limited.” Dear friend, Christ’s work of redemption was accomplished “ FOR ALL,

” as we just read in 1st Timothy 2:6.

1st John 2:2,

“And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.” Could the Bible be any plainer? I think not. I believe that Charles Spurgeon caved in to ecclesiastical peer pressure from other ministers, just like many Neo-evangelicals ministers do today. Sadly, the apostates at Bob Jones University (BJU) in South Carolina have been caving in to pressure from pseudo-scholars, Neo-evangelicals, the LGBTQ community and liberal politicians, for decades now; so much so that the fundamental Christian world cannot even recognize BJU today as being a Christian institution legitimate anymore. [1]Dr. Steve Pettit since 2014 has preached another gospel of hardcore Calvinist Lordship Salvation at BJU, even [2]honoring John MacArthur's Satanic ministry in California. God's curse is upon these ungodly men, and their ungodly religious institutions, for preaching a perverted gospel of partial faith in Christ PLUS WORKS (Galatians 1:6-9; Acts 15:1).

Again, dear reader, I say to you that Christ did NOT finish redemption on the cross. What Christ did finish was all of the prophesy concerning Himself, based upon His thorough knowledge of the Scriptures. I mean, after all, John 1:1-3 and 14 declares that Jesus Christ was the Word of God incarnate (made flesh). Jesus is the Living Word; the Bible is the Written Word. That is why Jesus commands every believer in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. " We learn about Jesus in the Scriptures, and Jesus is the Word of God (Revelation 19:13).

Redemption was finally completed when the last drop of Christ's literal, physical, liquid, blood was sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat, which is located in the Holy Place, within the Tabernacle. The Apostle John said that in the future, the city of the New Jerusalem will descend upon the earth, in which is found the TABERNACLE OF GOD. Revelation 21:2-3, "And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

" It is within that Tabernacle of God that the Mercy Seat exists, where Jesus' blood is forever a testimony of His sacrifice for our sins. The blood had to be applied in Heaven folks.

[3]Dr. John MacArthur is an unsaved dangerous false prophet, who teaches that Jesus' literal liquid blood is NOT in Heaven, and that it soaked into the dirt at the cross. Pastor Marty Herron (former pastor of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) is a big fan of John MacArthur. So also is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014). Dear reader, you have no idea who corrupt Dr. MacArthur really is. Did you know that MacArthur teaches Jesus' blood was not God's blood? [4]Read his statements for yourself, and weep. In case you did or didn't read it, here are his words again, because this is so important I want you to see this:

Pastor John MacArthur heretically teaches:

> "It isn't human flesh, human bones, and divine blood. That's not a man. It is medically impossible to think of Christ's blood as divine. It is theologically impossible to think of Christ's blood as divine. It is Scripturally impossible to think of Christ's blood as divine. He would be less than man. His blood is human blood." —Dr. John MacArthur, '[5]The Precious Blood - Part 1'

GET THEE BEHIND ME SATAN!!! Evidently Mr. MacArthur forgot the VIRGIN BIRTH! What normal man has ever been born of a virgin? That's right, NONE! Jesus was 100 % a man, but he had God's divine blood in His veins, making Him 100 % God as well; otherwise Jesus would have had a sinful nature, just like you and me (Romans 5:12). Woe unto John MacArthur! Woe unto Bob Jones University for bidding him Godspeed! Woe unto Steve Pettit, Marty Herron and anyone who bids this false prophet Godspeed. Woe unto the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for bidding this ungodly reprobate Godspeed! 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." All of the aforementioned religious people have blood on their hands, for betraying the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

If there be any doubt that Christ's blood was divine, please read Acts 20:28, " Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed*the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood*." God purchased the Church with His own blood. That means Jesus' blood was God's blood! And why wouldn't it be, since Jesus is the only begotten biological Son of God? Only an unsaved liberal preacher like John MacArthur would deny that Jesus had God's blood, [6]deny that children can be saved, deny that Jesus' blood is applied to the Mercy Seat in Heaven, and deny that childlike [7]faith is sufficient to receive God's gift of eternal life. Please beware of any Bible college, church, or preacher who hobnobs with, bids Godspeed to, or promotes Dr. John MacArthur! All that glitters is not gold!

2.3.21 You Don't Give Your Life To Jesus, He Gave His Life (2021-03-31 09:30)

Romans 5:6-9, "

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

1st Timothy 2:5-6,

For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

Who gave himself a ransom for all*, to be testified in due time.

Dear friend, Jesus Christ died FOR YOU! You are an ungodly sinner. Oh yes you are, you ain't fooling me, and so am I. We're all wicked sinners. Romans 3:23 says, "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;" Christ only died for BAD PEOPLE! You are a bad dude (or dudette), and so am I. Yes, "

is a real word, I looked it up...lol. Dudette is a female dude! So listen up all you dudettes out there! You don't give your life to Jesus to be saved, because He gave His life for you on the cross!!!

I am so sick and tired of hearing these horrible preachers today, who are as corrupt theologically as can be, telling people to

"G ive your life to Jesus

to be saved. They've got it all backwards!

2.4.1 The Righteous Are As Bold As A Lion (2021-04-02 09:30)

Proverbs 28:1, " The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion."

I love that Bible verse! The wicked person flees when no man pursueth. That means evildoers have to look over their shoulder all the time, paranoid that they'll either get caught. The person who does right can walk in complete boldness, fearing nothing. I would infinitely rather die as a righteous man for doing right, than to suffer as an evildoer! What saith the Scripture? 1st Peter 4:15-16, " But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf." I would ten billion times rather die for my Christian faith, than suffer for hurting another human being. I hate evildoers! I don't hate people, I hate the sin. We must never accept the sin with the sinner, nor reject the sinner with the sin.

> Psalms 97:10-12,
>
> "Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.
>
> Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
>
> Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.
> **"

Crime does pay short-term, otherwise people wouldn't commit it; but it never pays in the long-term! Ecclesiastes 8:12, " Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. " Our walk with God should be strong enough as believers, that we do right when no one else is looking, because WE FEAR GOD. I love something that Dr. Jack Hyles said:

> “If you want to never do anything that is terribly wicked, then you never do anything that is slightly wicked.” —Pastor Jack Hyles, “[1]Unjust In The Least.”

By God’s grace, I want to think right, live right and do right. If we DO GOOD it will BE GOOD! Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said that truth! Sometimes doing the right thing is frustrating, and may not be convenient, but it pleases our righteous God.

Psalms 97:12,

“

Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. ” What a beautiful Bible verse! We are supposed to be thankful at the remembrance of God’s holiness! I am so thankful that we have a just, faithful and good God! Aren’t you? What if the Devil were more powerful than God? I am so thankful that when all is said in done in this life and world, that our holy and righteous God will make everything right.

I love something that the brilliant author Mark Twain (1835-1910) said:

> “If you tell the truth, you don’t have to remember anything.” —Mark Twain

What a simple but profound statement! If we always tell the truth, we never have to cover our lies. I want to always live in such an honest and upright way, that if asked questions I never have to lie. I learned something that I thought was fascinating from a police detective. He said the way to find out if someone is lying is to simply keep asking questions. If someone is lying, then at some point their story will change, because they have to lie to cover-up for the lies. But if a person is telling the truth, you can ask them questions for three months and their story will never change. The way to avoid ending up in a difficult situation like that is to always DO RIGHT! Do right dear reader, though the stars fall, DO RIGHT!!!

The Righteous Lord Loveth Righteousness

The primary evidence of being saved is the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24), who creates a desire in us for righteousness. 1st John 3:7-8, “ Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.” That doesn’t mean someone is not saved who lives in unrepentant sin. There is much confusion and debate over this subject in churches today. Christians don’t always do the right thing. In fact, sometimes believers commit horrible crimes, just like unbelievers do at times; but there should be a desire inside the breast of every born-again child of God, that hates evil. I hate the wrong things I have done in my life. I am not proud of them. I wish I could go back and undo them, and always do the right thing! That is the Holy Spirit in me!!!

Psalms 11:7, “ For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.” I want God to be proud of me! I want my heavenly Father’s face to shine toward me, bragging on me like He did Job. I want to work as hard as I can, in the Lord’s strength, to influence as many people with the Gospel of free grace as I can, so there will be a bunch of saved souls waiting to greet me in Heaven someday (Daniel 12:3). God loves when His children do right! No one ever gets away with anything. I heard recently that the conviction rate for murderers is about 50 %. Most people who commit horrible crimes are never brought to justice. The culprits behind the 911 attack on the World Trade Center in New York City have never been brought to justice. The corrupt U.S. Justice Department has turned a blind eye to the crimes, but Ecclesiastes 5:8 and 12:14 says they won’t get away with it. I thank God for those passages of Holy Scripture!!!

The Upright Christian Can Stand As Bold As A Lion

The righteous are as bold as a lion. What a beautiful truth! When I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993), I gladly served the Lord voluntarily in the ’B bus ministry’ for seven years in Chicago. I drove a church bus for four of those years, which is how I sustained my permanent neck injury when rear-ended by another bus n 1992. We had a slum apartment building on our 76-3 bus route. This particular building was known for drugs and roughnecks. One afternoon there was a police raid and dozens of cops swarmed in on the building. One of our faithful teenage girls stood firm in front of the building, while everyone else who lived there was fleeing. The police asked her the question, “Why aren’t you running?” She confidently replied, “I’m not doing anything wrong, so why would I run?” That is a perfect example of our text Bible verse from

Proverbs 28:1, “ The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.”

I don’t know about you, but I am determined to always do the right thing. I know I won’t always do the right thing, because I am a sinner by nature, but at any given moment I CAN choose to do what is right (1st Corinthians 10:13). It feels good to live right. When I surf the internet, I always assume that thousands of people are monitoring my activity, because some of them are. Everything we do online is recorded, shared, stored, monitored, analyzed and archived. There is no such thing as internet privacy! I never say anything in private that I wouldn’t want everyone to know, because people talk. It is in our nature. James 3:8, “

But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

” Every Christian believer ought to purpose in our heart to think right, live right and do right! That way we can confidently walk upright everywhere we go, at all times without guilt or worry, being AS BOLD AS A LION in the fear of God!

“No man can pray inside the will of God, while he lives outside the Word of God!”

2.4.2 Preaching The Simplicity That Is In Christ (2021-04-04 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 11:1-4, “

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

The Bible is very clear what the Gospel is:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, “ Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
>
> By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
>
> For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:”

The Gospel (meaning Good News) is three things:

1. Christ died on the cross for our sins
2. Christ was buried
3. Christ physically resurrected from the dead after three days

As I do from time to time, I listened to ’[1]UNSHACKLED’ by Pacific Garden Mission today. As always, I was utterly disgusted by what I heard (besides the corny bad acting). All they kept saying is to “surrender” your life to God to be saved, which is wrong. They kept saying to receive Jesus as your Savior “ and Lord

to be saved, which is totally wrong. They kept saying to invite God into your life, surrender your will to live for Christ, and a bunch of other junk not taught in the Holy Bible. Tragically, UNSHACKLED preaches about a dozen different variations of the Gospel. If you doubt what I say, please continue reading.

Unfortunately, there are many FALSE PROPHETS today, like Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago, who complicate 'The Gospel' in their UNSHACKLED radio series. Let's see how these false prophets make salvation very had. Hear for yourself and weep for their victims! I was saddened today as I listened to Pacific Garden Mission's popular radio program called: 'UNSHACKLED' ([2]program #3589 - aired in 2020 - the Story of Debbie Brooks). In the episode, Debbie meets with a religious friend named Sharon, and they share this brief dialogue:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don't get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
>
> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

BLASPHEMY!!! I cannot believe what I just heard, and that PGM sanctions this garbage theology! Sharon is telling Debbie that it is NOT EASY TO BE SAVED, because to be saved she says you MUST repent to give up all the old ways, GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD! How is any of this a free gift from God? Dear reader, PGM are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. Everything that they put out to radio bears their ministry's name, which makes them 100 % responsible for every bit of content!!! Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

My friend Curtis Smale (pronounced as in "

snail

) made these helpful Gospel videos...

If you watched the videos, then you heard Curtis say that of the 35 different churches he has visited over the past 5 years, NOT ONE OF THEM preaches the free grace Gospel without perverting it. The Devil has crept into the churches. The biggest culprit are today's apostate Bible colleges. [3]Look at the Satanic garbage theology being taught at Bob Jones University today!!! Folks, Dr. Steve Pettit is not a born-again believer. If you think Mr. Pettit is saved, you're not! No man is saved who requires you to live a faithful Christian life to "

award

of

“

Heaven itself

(those are his very terms).

Dear reader, the only qualification for salvation is your sin that made it necessary!!! What do you mean that I must “ qualify

to merit the

award

” of Heaven? Please listen to me, Heaven is not an award, it is a free gift! All Pettit’s talk of qualifying, by running and finishing the race to qualify to receive the award of Heaven, is of the Devil. Dr. Pettit doesn’t even hit the ball within the ballpark of the Gospel. Go back and read 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The only reason why anybody goes to Heaven is because God had to give it to us BY GRACE THROUGH FAITH. If God didn’t give us eternal life, we couldn’t have it! Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). Here is a helpful sermon by Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold titled: ’REPEAL AND REPLACE’...

Repeal And Replace
(by Pastor Ralph 'Yankee' Arnold)

Dear reader, why cannot men leave the Gospel alone, keeping it simple the way God intended for it to be? John 10:9, " I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." Jesus is the Door to eternal life.

1st John 5:20, "

And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

" JESUS IS GOD AND ETERNAL LIFE!!! So if you have Jesus, you have eternal life. I love how Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) explained it:

> "God gives you eternal life when you take Him. Eternal life is wrapped up in Christ. 'He that hath the Son hath life.' There is just one difference between a Christian and a sinner. A Christian has Christ and a sinner does not have Him. That is the only difference. All you need is Jesus. It is all in Jesus! If you will take Him, He will blot out all your sins. If you take Him, He will give you a new nature. If you take Him, He will go with you along the journey of life. He will be with you when you are tempted. He will put arms of power around you and give you the victory. 'By grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast." —Dr. Bob Jones Sr., "Things I Have Learned: Chapel Talks," page 223; Bob Jones University Press, ©1945

That was so simply, beautifully and eloquently said by Dr. Bob Jones Sr., with no mention of [4]turning away from your sin, surrendering your life to God, [5]running the race faithfully until the end, qualifying for the award of Heaven, or [6]exchanging all that you are for all that Jesus is to be saved. Literally, these latter requirements are the foolish things that we hear taught by John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Ray Comfort, Kirk Cameron, Paul Washer, John Piper, Sam Horn, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit and countless other corrupters of the faith. No one is saved who requires more than faith alone to be saved.

In fact, you DON'T need to repent "

of your sins

to receive God's free gift. I am going to Heaven because I AM PERFECT! You read right, I am 100 % perfect. You cannot get to Heaven by repenting of your sins, because you could never turn from all your sins. But you say, what do you mean you are perfect? The only way you can get to Heaven is by being absolutely 100 % perfect. Since I cannot be perfect, I need a perfect Savior. Jesus is perfect! 2nd Corinthians 5:21,

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

What saith the Scripture? Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:” Ah, there is the answer! Through faith alone in Jesus Christ, we are made the perfect righteousness of God. This is the [7]imputed righteousness of Jesus Christ (Romans 4:4-6). If you were to ask me to suggest a subject to study in the Bible, it would first be the Imputed Righteousness of God. That is how a broken humble sinner like me, with no righteousness of my own to offer God (Isaiah 64:6), can confidently claim and know that I am 100 % perfect by God’s imputed righteousness, which is by faith alone in Christ. By faith God imputed my sins to Christ on the cross, and imputed His righteousness to me. What a great gift!

Here is one of my favorite books:

’Except Ye Repent.’ The book is authored by one of my favorite preachers,

Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951):

1. [8]Repentance: Its Nature and Importance
2. [9]The Book of Repentance
3. [10]John’s Baptism of Repentance
4. [11]Christ’s Call to Repent
5. [12]The Ministry of Peter
6. [13]The Ministry of Paul
7. [14]Repentance Not to Be Repented of
8. [15]Repentance from Dead Works
9. [16]Repentance in the Apocalypse
10. [17]They Repented Not
11. [18]Does God Ever Repent?
12. [19]Impossible to Renew Unto Repentance
13. [20]Repentance and Forgiveness
14. [21]Hopeless Repentance
15. [22]City-Wide Repentance
16. [23]The Preaching that Produces Repentance
17. [24]But Is Repentance Desirable?

Pastor Ironside preached the simplicity that is in Christ, refuting the heresies of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation) and Misunderstood Repentance. You don’t turn from your sinning to be saved, you turn from your unbelief to believing to be saved. Since only unbelief keeps a man lost, then only believing can save him.

It blows my mind that Bob Jones University (BJU) today in 2021 preaches Lordship Salvation, which is a perversion of God's grace and an enemy of soulwinning. Dr. Bob Jones Sr. would blow Bob Jones College to smithereens today if he could, [25]and he said so in 1945. Dr. Steve Pettit has irresponsibly steered the college into an iceberg of Lordship Salvation, the consequence of which is that BJU is sinking into an icy sea of the Devil's false Bibles. ....

Many passages of Scripture are ambiguous and open to interpretation, but the Gospel is not one of them. We have a very clear definition of exactly what 'THE GOSPEL' is in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. The Gospel of John was " written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name

" (John 20:31). In the Gospel of John we find the word

mentioned 85 times, but the word

is never mentioned. That is because repentance and believing are the SAME act. The man who believes has repented (i.e., changed his mind).

In John chapters 19-20 we read about Christ's death on the cross for our sins, His burial and subsequent physical resurrection from the dead after three days. This is the Gospel (the Good News), by which we are saved, if we believe (Romans 1:16). John 3:18,

“He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.”

Can Believers Live Like The Devil?

Most people think that how you live determines your eternal destination. But living bad doesn’t send you to Hell, and living good doesn’t send you to Heaven, you must believe on Jesus Christ as your Savior! Yes, a Christian believer CAN live like the Devil and still be saved, because getting saved has nothing to do with our behavior, it is solely predicated upon Christ’s sacrifice on the cross of Calvary.

Read what Pastor Charles Spurgeon said:

> “Christians can never sin cheaply; they pay a heavy price for iniquity. Transgression destroys peace of mind, obscures fellowship with Jesus, hinders prayer, brings darkness over the soul; therefore be not the serf and bondman of sin.” —Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, ’Morning And Evening: Daily Readings’

Low living comes at a high price for believers! This has nothing to do with salvation. Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold addresses this important topic in his sermon called: ’[28]The Price Is Right.’ We don’t do good works to go to Heaven, we’re already going to Heaven, but God wants His children to zealously perform good works (Ephesians 2:10; Titus 2:14).

We are not going to be saved someday, we are already saved. If you are a believer, you already possess everlasting life. John 5:24, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.” That is why we can rejoice confidently as God’s saints, knowing that our name is written in the Lamb’s Book of Life.

2.4.3 Popular Myths About Hell And The Devil Debunked (2021-04-06 09:30)

Job 1:6-7, “

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.” 1st Peter 5:8-9, “

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.” Revelation 2:13, “I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan’s seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

Hollywood movies often portray the Devil as tormenting people in Hell, but nothing could be further from the truth. The typical depiction of the Devil is as a red creature with a tail, a sinister smirk on his face, having two horns on his head, and holding a big pitchfork to torment his prey. The Holy Bible describes Satan very differently in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15, “For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.” The Bible describes Satan as an imposter, an actor, who masquerades as as angel of light...

The Devil Is A Beautiful Liar!

So this is the first myth about the Devil, that he is some red guy with horns, having a tail, and carries a pitchfork. That is the world's idea of who the Devil is, and it is admittedly intriguing, but that is not how the Word of God describes him. Satan appears as a beautiful creature, an angel of God, a popular rock star! When the Antichrist comes, the world will love and follow him, because he will not appear in his true form. Half way into the Tribulation period, the Antichrist's true colors will appear (called 'The Abomination Of Desolation' - Matthew 24:15), when the False Prophet starts murdering anybody who refuses to bow down and worship the Beast (Revelation 13:15-18). The very core nature of the New World Order is deception. Revelation 12:9, "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." I preach THE TRUTH so you won't be deceived.

The Devil Does Not Appear As The Devil

The Devil came to Eve in the form of a serpent, to deceive her. Do you know why Satan came as a serpent? The answer is simply because there were no other human beings at the time. If the Devil were to come to Eve today, he would come to her as a wicked person, who gives wicked advice (Psalms 1:1). When someone advises you to file for divorce, that is the Devil talking. When someone advises you to get even with someone, that is the Devil talking. When someone advises you to have an abortion, that is the Devil talking. When someone advises you to do anything wrong, that is the Devil talking. SHUT UP DEVIL!!!

Please don't forget this important truth. Evil often appears as good, intending to deceive it's victims. I could give you several dozen good examples.

One example is the Tree of Knowledge in the Garden of Eden. Genesis 3:6, "And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat."

Sound familiar? It sounds like the state governments, each time the individual states wanted to start a new state lottery. The states promise more money for education for the children. They promise lower taxes. But when they get their dirty lottery, the money gets stolen. [3]Here's proof of what I just said!

The Devil Does Not State His True Intentions

Another example of how the Devil deceives are [4]the gambling casinos. There has been substantial research done showing the phycological addiction often associated with gambling, and how casinos use this human weakness to prey upon their victims. If you read the preceding article at the link I provided, you learned that casinos use bright flashing lights and thrilling sounds to mesmerize their victims. Literally, by manipulating your desire for excitement, casinos make you feel like a winner while you're losing!!! The Devil is a beautiful liar!

Dear reader, that is exactly how the Devil works all the time! While a young woman is throwing away her virginity, giving her most prized possession (her innocence) to some lustful dog to whom she is not legally married, through his deceptive charm he makes her feel like she is a winner, only to find out shortly thereafter that she was just another fire-hydrant for a dog. Young ladies, never have carnal knowledge (intimacy) with a male until you are legally married. Most males are immoral nowadays, having being brought up with the Playboy American mindset, which is very sinful (Hebrews 13:4). You cannot go wrong doing things God's way. I'd rather die an old maid, than to live the rest of my life with regret that I gave my virginity to some pig that used me. If you wait until you are legally married, you cannot be burned. And I don't mean waiting until some guy promises to marry you, that means nothing. I mean wait until you are legally declared man and wife.

The Devil is a beautiful liar!

The serpent came to Eve instead of Adam, knowing that she was the weaker vessel (1st Peter 3:7). The serpent lied to Eve, only telling her what she wanted to hear (1st Timothy 2:14). The Devil convinced Eve that eating the forbidden fruit would be a win-win situation. It turned out to be the worst and most costly bad decision she ever made. Sound familiar? We've all been conned and made bad decisions that we regret. From shady used car salesman to crooked greedy lawyers, dishonest people will not tell you the whole truth. We've all been taken advantage of by lying politicians, shady business advertisements and thieving car rental agencies. The United States has become one of the most greedy and dishonest cultures in history.

Dear friend, the Devil is not in Hell, he is roaming the earth.

Job 1:6-7, "

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, *From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it." The Bible calls Satan

"The

Prince Of The Power Of The Air

" in Ephesians 2:2,

Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:" The Devil is a spirit. Could the "power of the air" refer to the incredible power of THE MEDIA? Brother Lester Roloff (1914-1982) used to say that next to the Word of God, the media is the most powerful force in the world. I fully agree! The U.S. newsmedia has the power to [5]accomplish what an invading enemy army could not do!

Hell Is A Literal Place, Not Just A Parable

Human beings are not bodies with a spirit; but rather, a spirit with a body. Singer Sting of the band 'The Police' sang it right: "

[6]We are spirits in the material world.

" That is accurate biblically. When our body can no longer provide housing for the spirit God gave to us at birth, our spirit returns to God Who gave it (Ecclesiastes 12:7). Our days on earth are numbered. Dear friend, the Devil is not in Hell, but he WILL BE down the road, and so will you if you die in your sins.

Matthew 25:41, "

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Hell is a literal place, which burns with fire and brimstone (Revelation 21:8), which was originally prepared only for the Devil and his angels (i.e., Lucifer and the demons). It is clear to me from the Scripture that Hell (Hades) is located in the heart of the earth (Matthew 12:40). Scientists in 2021 still cannot determine if the center of the earth is composed of liquid rock, or if it is solid. They do know that the inner mantle is molten rock (lava). God never wanted one human being to go to Hell. But when Adam sinned, he opened the floodgate of sin and death upon the world (Romans 5:12).

Consequently, humans do go to Hell now, anyone who dies in their sins (Luke 16:19-31; John 8:24; 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Jude 1:7; Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). Some Bible teachers say that the story Jesus told about the Rich Man And Lazarus in Luke 16:19-31 is a only a parable. Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses all three agree that this story is only a fictitious parable. However, we know that is a true story for a few reasons:

1. Jesus did not call it a parable (which He always did when telling one)

2. The Lord used proper nouns (Abraham and Lazarus), which He never did when telling a parable.
3. Jesus didn't explain afterwards what the story meant, which He always did when telling a parable, so the hearers could understand.
4. In John 14:2b Jesus said, "if it were not so, I would have told you." It would have been very deceptive and misleading for the Lord to describe a literally place of Hell, fire and eternal torment, if such a place did not really exist.
5. Other passages of Scripture support the reality of a physical place called Hell. Matthew 10:28, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell."

Yet, I am amazed to hear Bible teachers; such as I heard in a Wednesday night Bible study at the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, that Luke 16:19-31 is merely only an untrue parable. If we are to take the Bible at face value, and I certainly do, then we must accept this story as 100 % true. It actually happened! That is why Jesus mentioned actual names of real people.

The Devil Wants You To Do Your Will, Not His Will

Most people think that the Devil wants you to do his will. The truth is that Satan has no will for your life. The Devil couldn't care less about you, your loved ones, your friends, nor anybody else. Jesus warned that the thief (Satan) comes only to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10). The Devil wants you to do your own thing, which is sadly what most youth are doing today in America. A socking [7]16 % of 'Generation Z' now identify as homosexuals. According to Pew Forum, [8]Christianity is in rapid decline in America.

Infamous Satanist Anton LaVey's (1930-1997) is famous for authoring 'The Satanic Bible,' in which he teaches that it is okay to commit immorality, just so long as you don't hurt anybody else. Whoremonger, Hugh Hefner (1926-2017) [9]shared such immoral warped views. But that is a woeful deception, because immorality always hurts other people, whether it be from an abortion, the further destroying of someone's soul by sinning, or the undermining of the integrity of society as a whole.

The 20th century's most infamous Satanist, Aleister Crowley (1875-1947), is famous for his motto: "

DO AS THOU WILT, SHALL BE THE WHOLE OF THE LAW.

" This is the same degenerate life's philosophy as Hefner and LaVey. Since they all disregarded God's commandments, these men elevated themselves as God, adhering to a lowlife form of beastly morality that permitted anything that society tolerated. Dear friend, low living has a high price! Colossians 3:5-7,

"Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

It is not okay to live any way you and I choose, just so long as we think it doesn't hurt other people. What saith the Scripture? Ecclesiastes 12:13,

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” If we are to live by faith as believers in Christ, then we must fear God and keep HIS COMMANDMENTS, not our own. To the same extent that Americans forsake the King James Bible, faith no longer exists, and all manner of wickedness follows.

The Devil Is Not In Hell Waiting For More Victims

The Devil romans the earth as a roaring lion, seeking his next victims. 1st Peter 5:8-9, “

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.” The Devil wont be the one to torment the dead in Hell, God will. 2nd Thessalonians 1:8, “

In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power; ” God Himself will punish the lost.

Matthew 10:28, “And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” Vengeance belongs to God alone. The Devil does not have the authority nor power to hurt anyone without God’s permission. We know in the Scriptures that God DOES often allow the Devil to hurt the unsaved (Revelation 9:4). God protects His own, the saints.

Psalm 34:7, “

The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them. ” The world gives the Devil too much credit. Satan cannot send anyone to Hell. Only God can put somebody in Hell, but He only sends those to Hell who choose to go there, by willfully rejecting the sacrifice of His only begotten Son on the cross for their sins (Philippians 3:9). To reject the free gift of God’s grace deserves the penalty of eternal damnation. How can proud sinful men knowingly reject such a free gift rooted in the unmeasurable love of a holy God?

Perhaps the most interesting Scripture of all is found in Revelation 2:13, “I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan’s seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

The Devil has his favorite seat in church. That is what we just read, “where Satan dwelleth,” in the church! If you don’t believe that, please look at this creepy photo of Pastor Joel Osteen’s Lakewood Church in 2017, when rapper Kanye West performed a dance concert for 70,000 church members...

All Seeing Eye At Joel Osteen's Corrupt Church

The above photo is a screen capture from a YouTube video of the '[11]Jesus Is King' church service. This is the Devil in the church!!! That All Seeing Eye they are displaying speaks loud and clear that Kanye West is of the Devil, and Satan has infiltrated this wicked church with the New World Order. You couldn't make this stuff up! Yet, 70,000 deceived people continue to attend Joel Osteen's truth-barren apostasy circus each week, selling their souls to Satan.

I just wanted to point out a few common myths about Hell and Satan in this blog. The Devil's greatest feat has been to convince the world that he doesn't really exist, but he does friend! SATAN IS REAL!!! Just look at all the senseless wars and mass killings over the past 200 years. The Bible attributes these evils to Lucifer (Isaiah 14:12-18). When Jesus returns at His Second Coming, Satan will be bound in chains in the Bottomless Pit for 1,000 years' (Revelation 20:6). This will be a period of peace like the world has never known, often called in theology: 'THE MILLENNIUM.' Jesus Himself will reign as King over the earth from the throne of David in Jerusalem, in the true and regathered nation of Israel. The raptured saints, and all those saints who didn't live through the Tribulation, will help Jesus reign (Revelation 20:6). The saints who do survive the Tribulation, will go into the Millennium with their earthly bodies, bearing children and living happy lives without the Devil to ruin everything.

God bless you dear reader. Thank you for following my ministry blog. I sure appreciate your continued interest. Kindest regards.

2.4.4 Truth Resistance Is As Deadly As Insulin Resistance (2021-04-08 09:30)

Revelation 3:1-2, "And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God." Jude 1:3, "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

Insulin resistance kills three times more Americans than cancer does! What is insulin? What is insulin resistance? Insulin is a hormone produced by the pancreas that regulates blood sugar (glucose). Eating carbohydrates (rice, bread, pasta potatoes) all gets converted in the body to glucose. Plus the sugar you eat gets turned into glucose. Fructose is sugar from fruit. Sucrose is sugar from sugar cane. Too much sugar is toxic for your body!

Americans as a whole eat a horrible diet. Only 5 % of Americans eat the required amount of fiber each day. The average American eats 20 times more red meat than they should. Meat is high in protein but contains ZERO fiber. Beans are much better, having both protein and fiber! Consequently, 40 % of Americans are obese. Here is some information explaining insulin and insulin resistance:

> Insulin is a hormone that plays a big role in metabolism, which is all about how our body converts digested food into energy.
> Let's start from the beginning:
>
> Our digestive track breaks down the carbohydrates we eat into glucose as well as other simple sugars. Our bloodstream then delivers glucose across the body, for our cells to use as energy.
>
> That's where insulin comes in.
>
> It's a hormone produced by our pancreas, to help blood glucose enter into the cells. You can think of it as the key that opens the cell's door, allowing blood glucose to enter.
>
> 'Insulin resistance' simply means that the cells of our body have slowly stopped responding to insulin – it can no longer open the door.
>
> Although cells have other ways of taking up glucose, this definitely causes an imbalance in our blood glucose levels, and even impairs the functions of cells.
>
> The condition of 'insulin resistance' is known as type-II diabetes mellitus. This is different from type-I diabetes mellitus, where the body cannot make insulin in the first place, making it necessary for the patient to inject insulin into their blood.

SOURCE: [1]A Simple Explanation: Insulin Resistance And It's Effects

Likewise, churches today are obese with money, comfort and luxury. The New Testament church didn't have heating and air conditioning. As far as we know they didn't even have a building. How does that compare to churches today with their padded pews, stained-glass windows, lush carpeting, annual trips to the Holy Land, exorbitant salaries for pastors (2 to 3 times what the average U.S. worker gets paid annually), et cetera? These spiritually obese churches have become truth resistant, just as an insulin resistant sick person.

Insulin Resistance (Diabetes) Causes All Sorts Of Health Problems

Once a person's body has become resistant to insulin, meaning that the muscles no longer burn sugar as energy, really bad things start to happen. Blood sugar levels spike. Blood pressure spikes. Nerves start to die in the feet, toes and extremities of the body. You can go blind, have a stroke, have kidney failure, and a bunch of other awful things. The cure is simply to lose weight, eat heathy, exercise and take control of your health. Insulin resistance is also known as diabetes, commonly known as: "The Silent Killer" (because many people don't even know they have it until too late). Diabetes is also called: "The Sitting Disease," because America's sedentary lifestyle is the major cause of insulin resistance, and bad diet.

The same horrible thing has happened to the churches today. Churches have become truth resistant . Pastors and congregations no longer respond to the Holy Spirit, failing to absorb truth ; just like muscles which no longer respond to insulin , failing to absorb glucose (body sugar). As a consequence of not being able to absorb truth, because pastor's hearts are not right with God today, all sorts of really bad things are happening in the churches.

This is why the deadly disease of Lordship Salvation is so prevalent in churches nowadays (in the absence of truth), which is a perversion of God's grace. Some people mockingly refer to the simplicity that is in Christ (the free grace Gospel) as "

cheap grace,

but friend, grace does not come cheap, it cost Jesus His life. God's grace is free to you and me, but it cost God His only begotten Son (John 3:16), and it cost Jesus His very life (2nd Corinthians 5:21), so we could be free and escape eternity burning in the Lake of Fire (Romans 5:9).

It is resistance to THE TRUTH why so many churches today have been infected with literally hundreds of corrupt English Bible revisions, which attack the deity of Jesus, pervert the meaning of repentance, change of plan of salvation, remove the Godhead (Trinity), eliminate complete passages of Scripture, and diminish the preeminence of Christ. Truth resistance is deadly, and your church has probably already been diseased by this Silent Killer!!!

Since I am a Baptist, I see the apostate condition in most Baptist churches today, and it grieves me. Baptist churches everywhere are dying. Revelation 3:1-2, "And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God." The Lord exhorted the church at Sardis to strengthen

the things that were READY TO DIE.

This Scripture passage is so applicable today in America. Once a church is so far gone that they preach another gospel of misunderstood repentance (aka, to be saved), they are now a religious cult, not a church. It is corrupt theological institutions; such as, [2]Bob Jones University and [3]Moody Bible Institute, that are promoting a counterfeit plan of salvation through thousands of their corrupt graduates.

“

turn away from your sin

When a hardened person, like the Bob Jones camp today, become truth resistance, all kinds of spiritual diseases and problems ensue. BJU and HBC are infected with [4]Lordship Salvation, [5]Misunderstood Repentance and the [6]Devil’s False Bibles.

Pastors Are Killing The Churches By Resisting The Truth

The following information appeared in a Pew Forum article on October 17, 2019. The article is titled: ’ [7]In U.S., Decline Of Christianity Continues At Rapid Pace ’:

> More than eight-in-ten members of the Silent Generation (those born between 1928 and 1945) describe themselves as Christians (84 %), as do three-quarters of Baby Boomers (76 %). In stark contrast, only half of Millennials (49 %) describe themselves as Christians; four-in-ten are religious “nones,” and one-in-ten Millennials identify with non-Christian faiths... The data suggests that Christians are declining not just as a share of the U.S. adult population, but also in absolute numbers. [emphasis added] —[8]SOURCE

I was saddened when I learned that Kanye performed a dance concert at Joel Osteen’s so-called "church" in Houston, Texas in 2019. Check out this giant All Seeing Eye which was displayed when Kanye performed there. This is their way of bragging that the [9]Luciferian elite have infiltrated the churches with the New World Order. I-chabod (the glory of the Lord is departed) is written over the door of today’s churches!!! Joel Osteen is a false teacher. Evangelist Michael P. Bowen refutes Pastor Osteen’s false gospel in his helpful book titled: "[10]I NEVER KNEW YOU," chapter 2, page 19.

Jeremiah 23:1-2, “Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.

Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.” The churches are pathetic today. Formalism is the enemy of the Gospel. I have been in Catholic churches, which feel like spiritual morgues. That is because it is a formalized religion, but the blessed Holy Spirit of God is not present. God is love (1st John 4:8. God cares (1st Peter 5:7). God is faithful (1st Corinthians 1:9).

Ephesians 4:30-32 teaches us as believers to be loving, forgiving, kind and tenderhearted one toward another. Yet, we find coldness, covetousness, hypocrisy, a sinful respect of persons, social cliques and a woeful lack of compassion for hurting people in many churches today.

Something is very wrong! It is simply because the churches have fallen into the rut of going through the religious motions, not walking close to God, which produces the fruit of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

A Preacher Who Walks With God Will Hate Every False Way

A person who walks with God, by abiding in the Word of God, will hate every false way. Psalm 119:104, "Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I hate the New World Order (controlled by the Illuminati). I call them the "Luciferian elite." Alex Jones calls them "Globalists." Commander William Guy Carr refers to the NWO in his books as: "The World Revolutionary Movement." Carr refers to the Illuminati as "Satanists." These are all accurate terms. Satan is "the god of this world" (2nd Corinthians 4:4b). The average preacher doesn't study the NWO, doesn't care at all about it, and won't warn people about it.

Consequently, tens of thousands of churches are embracing the Devil's NWO Bible versions. As any good coach will tell you: "The best defense is a strong offense!" The churches are biting hook, line and sinker into the NWO because their pastors have failed to educate them. Humbly said, it is because I love God and the inspired Word of God that I hate every false way, as the Bible says in Psalm 119:104. Sadly, over 95 % of preachers and pastors today don't seem to hate anything, except not getting paid. Tragically, as I showed you earlier, the [11]United States is departing from faith in God at a rapid pace. Pastors and churches are much to blame, for not strengthening the things that remain, for not contending for the faith!

The Way To Keep Living Is To Fight Dying

The churches are dying because pastors aren't standing. I am hated and despised by local churches on Guam where I live, and all across the world, because I preach THE TRUTH. The shameful Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, where I was welcomed for one year in 2014, axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day when I befriended them with THE TRUTH (as a true friend does). Since late 2014, I have been banned from even attending church, for simply showing them that Lordship Salvation is not the Gospel.

Despite my love for them, Harvest's wicked pastors drove me out of their social club in 2014, and have sinfully ostracized me ever since. Neither Pastor Marty Herron nor Pastor Gary Walton would allow me to come back to church. Dear friend, the churches are changing because they aren't fighting not to change. It's like exercising, eating healthy and walking. If a person doesn't fight to stay healthy, we'll get fat and let our health go (now I'm preaching to myself...lol). I have been eating healthier, walking more and I've lost some weight. I feel good, but it is a constant battle. You see, you have to STRENTHEN THE THINGS THAT ARE READY TO DIE to preserve them.

The same is true of churches. By going alone with the apostasy everywhere today, and not fighting to stay healthy, the churches are all truth resistant (like insulin resistance), becoming obese with heresy and spiritual disease, dying prematurely. That's a great comparison of what is happening to churches today. To God be the glory. Our American churches have become so spoiled rotten, disgustingly fat, financially prosperous and weighed down with social clubs and high society types, that they are as a diseased body with type II diabetes. Churches today are having their bus ministry and weekly soulwinning program amputated. They are truth resistant.

You can inject high doses of truth into the average church today, and it won't make a difference, they just laugh at you!

I'm talking about the Bob Jones crowd. I'm talking about Pastor Marty Herron in Iowa at the Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary. I'm talking about Pastor John MacArthur, who is an alumni of BJU. I'm talking about Harvest Baptist Church of Guam, a dried up barren social club who emphasize the education business at the neglect of the Master's business of soulwinning. These names and institutions have all become truth resistant! You cannot help them, because they are subverted of themselves. Titus

3:10-11, "

A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

" The Lordship Salvation crowed sinneth. The wrong repentance crowd sinneth. The false Bibles crowd sinneth. They are subverted of themselves. They are TRUTH RESISTANT!!!

The Truth Resistant Harvest Baptist Church Of Guam

I happily attended the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam for a year in 2014. I saw that the church was infected with false Bibles, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. I gave them an injection of THE TRUTH, as a true friend does. I purchased several hundred dollars of books with my own money for the pastors, to help them to see. I was humble about it. I prayed and asked God to soften their hearts. But once the injection of THE TRUTH was given, I realized quickly that they are TRUTH RESISTANT at Harvest.

Harvest Baptist Church (HBC) of Guam has spiritual type II diabetes. They have grown so fat with success, money and popularity in the geographical region, known as: The Federated States Of Micronesia, that they are sickly. Harvest's feet and toes are infected, rotting away. Their youth are rotting away with another gospel of Lordship Salvation. Harvest's spiritual glucose level is 400, using 24 different Bible versions among their sickly congregation. I am hated for caring enough to tell them THE TRUTH. Harvest's pastors are infected the most, indifferent as can be, totally truth resistant. You could inject unit after unit of TRUTH into Harvest Baptist Church Guam all day long, and their diseased church body would merely laugh at you, as they laugh at me, literally banning and ostracizing me from attending church since 2014. Harvest is as a dying man with stage 4 Type II diabetes.

The saddest thing is that although Harvest's diseased condition is totally curable, they would rather continue being infected, until every limb has rotted away, and all life is gone. Harvest's shameful pastors are arrogant sinful man, who are as fools who resent being told they are wrong. So they [12]continue leading people into Hell by promoting Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) who preaches another gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. HBC sends people to Hell by preaching Lordship Salvation. HBC sends people to Hell by preaching a misunderstood repentance that demands a person "

turn away from sin

" to go to Heaven. You simply cannot give THE TRUTH to most Baptist churches today, because they have become truth resistant . This is a consequence of the sinful human heart.

Answering the question: "Why Is It So Hard To Convince People That They're Wrong?,"

Pam Rose, a clinical psychologist, says:

> Some people simply don't "believe in" evidence. They believe what they want to believe for any number of reasons: to shore up a self-image, to avoid diligence and study, to support a whole system of non-evident beliefs, to remain consistent in their emotional attachments. They listen for support for their existing framework and reject all else: it's staggering I know but some of us prefer to "like" an idea rather than support it with evidence.
>
> Another huge step is required to convince someone they're wrong or from a more positive perspective, to teach someone something. The other must agree to be taught by you, psychologically. From grade school teachers to preachers, coaches to politicians, parents (especially of teens!) and between friends, this ephemeral permission-to- learn- from lies between you with your evidence and your potential learner.
>
> With some it seems once they've granted the permission to another to teach them, they may refuse to alter that permission despite massive evidence to the lack of fitness of that one to teach anyone anything. They may call it loyalty or commitment; I call it blindly following.
> PBS show from years ago focused on a German ship rescuing German civilians from coastal areas of Europe to return them to Germany towards the end of WWII. [13]It sank with 9,000 people, exceeding the Titanic always reputed to be the most souls lost. My good friend, a teacher could not/would not believe me. I was watching it as we spoke by phone and she sputtered, "everybody knows…..I've never heard of such a thing…..that's just not true….etc. I said "It's here before my eyes, don't you believe PBS? I just saw full details about it" but she was adamant. I couldn't change her mind but she changed mine about her. [14]SOURCE

Pam is so right! These ungodly pastors today absolutely refuse to be taught by another preacher who resides outside of their particular religious clique. Just like that foolish teacher who refused to believe that 9,000 people died when the Wilhelm Gustloff ship sank in January of 1945, so also do today's foolish Bob Jones University graduates refuse to believe that God only authored ONE BIBLE (not 2, or 39, or 900). They refuse to believe that Lordship Salvation is a false plan of salvation. They refuse to believe that you don't have to forsake a lifestyle of sinful behavior to be saved.

Yet, these things are all true. You don't have to stop any sin to be saved. You don't have to follow Jesus as your "Lord" (Boss), surrendering all to Him to receive God's free gift of eternal life. That is why the Bible calls eternal life "a gift," because you can have it without working or qualifying for it. Literally, [15]Steve Pettit teaches that Heaven is an "award" that you must "qualify" for. That is as Satanic as anything I have ever heard preached from a pulpit. Pettit said that to 2,700 students and faculty at Bob Jones University during chapel on January 26, 2015.

an exchange

for all that you are for all that Jesus is. Folks, it cannot be a gift then! Either salvation is a trade, an equal exchange of some sorts, or else it is a free gift that you simply receive by faith alone (Galatians 3:26), but it cannot be both. I am saddened and frustrated that so many pastors today refuse to heed THE TRUTH. I am irritated to know that the majority of Baptist pastors have nothing to say in rebuke of [17]Evangelist Ken Ham's false theology, which demands that a person to be saved. That is false religion! If a man must cease from fornicating, getting drunk and stealing from his employer to be saved, or prove that he is saved, then eternal life cannot be justly called a free gift

repent of your sin

” (Romans 5:15-18).

Is your pastor and congregation TRUTH RESISTANT? If so, your church has been infected with sinful error and pride. There’s just something in our sinful human nature that hates being wrong. Carnally-minded people would rather die than admit they were wrong! I used to tell people to “invite Jesus into your heart” to be saved, but I was very wrong. Dr. Oliver B. Greene used to preach that junk theology and misled a bunch of people. No, you don’t invite Jesus into your heart to be saved, you simply “ on Him as the Bible says. John 6:47, “ Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” You cannot show me even one verse that teaches to invite Jesus into your heart. Right doctrine matters!

2.4.5 The Corrupt First Baptist Church Of El Paso, Texas (2021-04-11 09:30)

Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

I have been considering what city I would like to relocate from Guam to in the United States. I am considering El Paso, Texas. I was searching for a good Bible-believing Baptist church to attend. The First Baptist Church of El Paso caught my attention, but sadly they preach another gospel that is totally perverted...

Do you see the woeful contradiction? In one statement they say that you cannot be saved by works, but then they follow two sentences later by saying that without works you cannot be saved! That is theologically crazy! Clearly they are ADDING works to faith, corrupting the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Dear reader, where does the Holy Bible teach that a person must "TURN FROM OUR SELF-WILLED LIFE" to receive God's free gift of eternal life? You'll never find any such garbage in the inspired King James Bible. In fact, you DON'T have to turn away from your self-willed life to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). If you were required to turn away from ruling your own life, then salvation would be a REWARD, not a GIFT. Shame on the First Baptist Church of El Paso for perverting the Gospel.

Here is " the Gospel

" as defined in the Word of God:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

Huh, there's no mention of turning away from your self-ruled life. The First Baptist Church of El Paso are guilty of preaching the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. We find this foolish group in Matthew 7:21-23, who followed Jesus calling Him "

Lord, Lord,

" but Jesus said He never knew them!!! Please don't follow the pastors and congregation of the First Baptist Church of El Paso into the Lake of Fire. The way to be saved is by faith alone in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

2.4.6 Romans 2 Refutes The Lie Of Lordship Salvation (2021-04-15 09:30)

Romans 2:1, "Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things."

I was listening to Alexander Scourby read the book of Romans today and this passage struck me. What a great verse to refute the heresy of Lordship Salvation (LS). What is LS? Lordship Salvation is the false teaching that faith in Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved, more is required. LS says you must surrender to Jesus as absolute “Lord” of your life, which means turning away from a lifestyle of sinning, and giving your heart to Jesus.

Lordship Salvation is rooted in the heresy of Calvinism. John Calvin (1509-1964) was a high profile false preacher, who advocated the theological heresy that you cannot merely put your faith in Jesus Christ to be saved. Expressed in simplest terms, John Calvin believed that God chooses (theologically called unconditional election) who gets saved or goes to Hell. If God chooses you, He forces you to get saved (irresistible grace). Calvin believed that Jesus only died for these select few who have been chosen (limited atonement). Calvin taught that the chosen (i.e., the elect) will persevere in holy lives (perseverance of the saints).

Pastor John MacArthur is a devout 5-point Calvinist. Dr. MacArthur is one of the most popular preachers in the world, and a heretical false teacher who denies that Jesus had God’s blood flowing in His veins, denies that children can be saved, denies salvation by faith alone, and denies that Jesus’ blood is applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is a personal friend and hardcore supporter of John MacArthur, sinfully bidding him Godspeed. [1]BJU teaches Calvinism to their students. So we see that Lordship Salvation is rooted in [2]Calvinism.

I wanted to share that basic information with you, so you’ll understand what’s going on. The Bible colleges influence thousands of churches. Most people don’t see the threat of Bible colleges today. Water flows downhill. If BJU teaches their 2,600 students Lordship

Paul was rebuking the Jews for trying to keep the law to merit salvation. Paul points out to them that they are requiring other men to do something that they cannot even do, KEEP THE LAW. Paul several verses later reinforces his preaching, saying:

> Romans 2:21-23, “Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?”

Advocates of Lordship Salvation require others to "turn away from sin" (i.e., not steal, not commit adultery, not get drunk, et cetera) as a necessary part of getting saved; yet they all still commit sin. Lordship Salvation is an utter contradiction. It is utter hypocrisy. The same Jews who boasted of keeping the law, broke the law of God, and in so doing dishonored God. In Romans chapter 3 Paul shifts gears and concludes (based on his evidence in chapter 2) that all have sinned and no one can be justified by the works of the law. Romans 3:28, “Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.”

2.4.7 A True Witness Delivereth Souls (2021-04-17 09:30)

Proverbs 14:25, “

A true witness delivereth souls*: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

" Daniel 12:3, "

And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

1st Corinthians 9:16,

"For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

The dearest thing to the heart of God is soulwinning. Soulwinning is simply sharing with someone how you were saved, and trying to lead them to the Lord. Proverbs 11:30, "

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise. " It is so easy to glance over Scripture and miss the golden nuggets of truth therein. God has used this humble writer since 2002 to witness the Gospel to millions of people with the truth. I am just the clay and God is the Potter. There is only one true and living God, Who has revealed Himself to the world in the beautiful man Jesus Christ (1st Timothy 3:16).

Humbly, I prayed as a young man earnestly for God to use me in some capacity. I worked my way through Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993) by working as a truck mechanic. My soul was starving in hunger for God's presence. My life was surrounded with Bible preaching, which God used to shape my caring heart as a fundamentalist Bible preacher. My heart literally ached to be used of God. I used to pray in my car after work, with the heater going in five below zero temperatures, in the wee hour of the morning after midnight, begging God to use a sinner like me. I cried as I listened to [1]Pan Pipes cassettes by Ralph Carmichael

. I did that hundreds of times throughout my Bible college years. I believe my website ministry is the answer to that prayer. I give God ALL the credit and praise. Thousands of people have come to Jesus Christ as personal Savior through this needful ministry. It is my continued humble prayer that God would give me wisdom and strength to help others. I am just a crying voice in cyberspace, but [2]I AM A VOICE!

The fruit of the righteous is a TREE OF LIFE. A tree bears fruit. A corrupt tree bears corrupt fruit. A good tree bears good fruit. Only a TRUE WITNESS can lead a lost sinner to Jesus Christ. Many false teachers today are preaching religion, but are not getting anyone saved. 2nd Timothy 3:5, "Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away." That "POWER" is the Gospel according to Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Any Bible professor or preacher who

All of my ministry websites belong to the Lord. They are God's websites, not mine. The moment you and I got saved friend, we and everything that we own became God's (1st Corinthians 6:20). As a believer our life is hidden in Jesus Christ (Colossians 3:1-3). That is why Jesus said in Matthew 25:40 and 45 that whatever someone does (or doesn't do) to a believer, is equally as if done unto the Savior Himself. We are one with Christ (Galatians 3:26-29). Literally, Jesus says: "We're in this thing together!" 2nd Timothy 2:12, "If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

" (see also Revelation 20:6). What an awesome Savior!!!!!!!

The Bible says that a TRUE WITNESS delivereth souls. Delivers from what? From sin and Hell. I am listening to [3]Alexander Scourby read the book of Proverbs today.

Proverbs 26:8, “

As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

” Colossians 1:13,

“Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

” A man can only be delivered (rescued) with the Gospel. A true witness preaches a free grace Gospel, unadulterated with false theology. Sadly, the Devil has crept many false teachings into the churches today.

One of the biggest and most damning of these heresies is the lie that a person must repent “OF YOUR SINS” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. That phrase “OF YOUR SINS” is nowhere found in the King James Bible. Some of the Devil’s corrupt Bible revisions have added these words, but the original Greek meaning of “ repent

” (metanoia) concerning salvation simply means “a change of mind.” Acts 20:21b speaks of “repentance toward God.” 2nd Timothy 2:25b speaks of repentance to the “repentance to the acknowledging of THE TRUTH...”

There is no mention of forsaking a sinful lifestyle.

Proverbs 22:11, “

He that loveth pureness of heart*, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

” Matthew 5:8, “ Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.” Dear friend, I cannot emphasis enough the importance of having a pure heart. Being pure of heart simply means that you are real, sincere, care and want THE TRUTH. John 3:20-21, “

For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.” Carefully notice that the opposite of running away from God (because of sin) is NOT turning from one’s sins.

Please don’t miss that.

Thousands of corrupt preachers today are going around falsely saying that you must “ turn away from your sin

to be saved, but that is not what the Bible says. We read in John 3:21 that the man who cometh to the light. That is so precious and beautiful. Dear friend, you get saved by acknowledging

“

THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19), believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel of Jesus Christ crucified on the cross, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). Amen and amen!

Kindly said, when [4]Evangelist Ray Comfort preaches Lordship Salvation, he never leads any-one to the Lord. How can he without the Gospel of free grace? Ray says you must live a lifestyle of turning away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven. Sadly, Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) [5]preaches the same damnable heresy!

Only a TRUE WITNESS can win a lost soul to Christ, because only the Gospel has the power to save.

Proverbs 14:25, “

A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

” Oh how we need truth-telling preachers today!!!

Proverbs 8:7a, “For my mouth shall speak truth.” Proverbs 16:19, “Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.” I am nothing more than a clump of dirt that God loves and redeemed by the precious gift of His only begotten Son (John 3:16).

2.4.8 Thought Control Is As Important As Prayer (2021-04-24 01:32)

Philippians 4:6-8, “Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise,think on these things.”

This is a remarkable truth that I apply to my live daily. An important thing I learned years ago while studying the Bible is to always consider an entire passage, and not just lift a single verse out of the passage, which can easily be taken out of context. Nearly every false teacher who wrests (tortures) the Bible to support their heresy, lifts a small text out of the context, creating a new pretext.

A classic example of this is Matthew 24:13, “But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.” Sadly, even one of my heroes of the Christian faith, Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) gets this passage horrible wrong, applying it to salvation. By simply reading the entire passage we find the correct interpretation of verse 13. Matthew 24:22, “

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened. ” We plainly see that the subject is the saving of THE FLESH, and not ETERNAL LIFE. Those believers who survive until the end of the Tribulation period will be saved from physical death, and will enter into the 1,000 year Millennium, when Jesus Himself will reign as majestic King over the whole earth from the then restored city of Jerusalem.

I want to teach you a beautiful and practical truth from Philippians 4:6-8. Nearly everyone separates verses 6 and 7 from verse 8, but they are all connected. Verse 6 tells us not to worry about anything, but instead to pray about everything. Verse 7 promises that if we commit our problems, needs and requests to the Lord, then we can claim the peace of God which passeth all understanding. Oftentimes we will not be able to understand why things are happening in our life. Why do we suffer when we are working so hard to please God? Why do our loved one's suddenly die, when we are serving Christ faithfully? We see wicked people enjoying their grandchildren, while godly saints bury their children as a consequence of being struck and murdered by an irresponsible drunk driver. Why do the saints sometimes suffer, when the wicked prosper? Bad things happen to everyone, both wicked and righteous alike. Ecclesiastes 9:11 teaches that time and chance happeneth to all.

One of the great truths I have learned in my Christian life is to stop worrying, and start praying. A person cannot worry and pray in faith to God at the same time. I am sick and tired of carnal people claiming that pray is a great therapy for depressed people, and is spiritually uplifting, and is beneficial to calm the mind, et cetera. No, prayer is asking God for something! Prayer is only powerful because there is a real God in Heaven Who is listening, and is omnipotent (all powerful), omnibenevolent (all loving), omnisapient (all wise), omniscient (all knowing), and omnipresent (all present). I would NEVER pray as a means of meditation, mental therapy or anything else other than communicating with my CREATOR. The heathen religious world has diminished prayer into a mere form of godliness without the power thereof (2nd Timothy 3:1-5).

I often think about this wonderful Bible passage, especially when I start to worry. If we pray about everything, then we can trust God and stop worrying. If things get worse, then we can rest in the perfect peace of soul knowing that we have cast our cares about the Lord as He commanded (1st Peter 5:7).

I receive thousands of emails each year. I cannot even begin to count how many people contact me because they are down, depressed, frustrated, tired, disillusioned and disgusted with life. One 62 year old Christian lady said she sometimes wishes that a stray bullet would come through her front window and end her life. Numerous people have said they have contemplated taking their own life. Many people are struggling with failing marriages, family problems and turmoil in their relationships. They write to me, some just to vent, others hoping I'll have a magic solution to fix all their problems.

The one thing in common that these hurting people all share is that they don't go to church. The church is not a museum for spiritual relics, it is a hospital for sinners. I have heard some Baptist preachers criticize that idea of the church being a hospital for sinners, but they are wrong. All humans are dirty sinners. There are redeemed sinners and unsaved sinners, but we are all still dirty sinners. A believer is under God's grace, but the unbeliever is still under the curse and power of the law of God. But even the saint of God still commits sin. This whole insane idea today that if you are really saved, you have turned away from your sins, is demonic heresy. No one has ever turned away from their sins. You may try, but that is as far as you'll ever get, merely trying. That is why Jesus has to do the saving from sin, all of it!!!

Everyone needs a church family. The purpose of going to church is to receive comfort and encouragement from one another, and to organize to go soulwinning in the community. The purpose of the New Testament church is to:

- EXALT the SAVIOR
- EVANGELIZE the SINNER
- EDIFY the SAINT

The purpose of attending church is not to worship God. We are supposed to worship God all the time. We don't go to church to sing, we are supposed to do that all the time, or pray in our afflictions the Bible says (James 5:13).

Another thing these people all have in common, who write to me about their miserable lives, is that they are focusing on the wrong things in their life. THINK ON THESE THINGS the Bible commands in Philippians 4:8. What things? ...

> Philippians 4:8, "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

You've often heard the expression: You are what you eat. Well, the same is true mentally. You are what you think. What saith the Scripture? Proverbs 23:7, "For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

" Whatever you allow to enter into your life becomes a part of you. This is why we read in Proverbs 4:23,

"Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. " That is my favorite Bible verse.

Dear friend, please be careful who you choose as friends. Be careful who you get into a car with. I am a fan of biographies of celebrities. I have an interest in the lives of the stars. I like to see where the heathen lifestyle they have chosen leads them. Ozzy Osbourne was bigger than life as a rock star when I was growing up in the 1970's and 1980's. He was the lead singer for a few years of the band, Black Sabbath. Ozzy has such a distinct singing voice. Ozzy has called himself: "

The Prince Of Darkness.

" In 1982 Ozzy's gifted guitar player, [1]Randy Rhoads (1956-1982), made the fatal mistake of getting into the airplane of a cocaine addict, which cost him and everyone onboard their life. Rhoads was seen physically struggling with the insane plane pilot as he crashed the small plane into Ozzy's tour bus and adjacent home.

Randy Rhoads died because he trusted someone whom he never should have trusted. You can never trust a substance abuser! I have declined free car rides from people, simply because I didn't know who they were. I don't trust anyone's driving except mine, with rare exceptions. Millions of people have ended up serving prison time (even life), for crimes they didn't commit, but they got into the car of someone who did commit a crime, making them an accomplice. So be careful who and what you let enter into your life, home, marriage, car, church, et cetera.

All across America Baptist churches are being destroyed from within, because they innocently allowed a false teacher like [2]Marty Herron, [3]Steve Pettit, Sam Horn, [4]John MacArthur or [5]Kevin Bauder into their midst, who brought in the Devil's damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation. I love you dear friend, and I don't want you to burn in Hell forever. Lordship Salvation is a counterfeit gospel which cannot produce the new birth in Christ Jesus. Be careful what you let the cat (pastor) drag into your church, because it might infect your whole congregation. The Marty Herrons, John MacArthurs and Charles Phelps's of this world need to be run out of town, lest they corrupt your church too! BEWARE of Bob Jones University (BJU) today, which [6]has gone total hardcore Lordship Salvation over the past decades. I digress.

Philippians 4:8 teaches us as believers to THINK ON THESE THINGS. What things? Things that are honest, pure, of good report, true, lovely, virtuous and bring praise to God. The reason why so many people are miserable is because they choose to focus on all the negative things in life. They watch the negative daily news. They listen to negative family and friends. They read gossiping magazines and critical websites. The media makes a living killing people's reputations, accusing others, destroying families. There ought to be laws prohibiting the media from profiting off ruining other people's lives.

So much of what we hear from NBC, FOX, CNN and the entire mainstream newsmedia is FAKE NEWS! The Republicans are just as guilty as the Democrats, but not nearly as demented as the liberal left today. America is a house divided, which is destroying our nation. Republicans and Democrats are merely two separate legs both walking in the same direction of a New World Order. All across the United States carnal Christians support FOX news, while [7]these wicked people fully endorse Caitlyn Jenner who is now running for governor of California. Bruce Jenner is a wicked sick-minded 71 year old man, who is not in his right mind. Brice Jenner is NOT a female, despite his desire to appear as one in public. Sadly, Jenner will likely win as governor of California, simply because of the rigged election process—the same one which removed Donald Trump and installed Joe Biden (a gigantic evil monstrosity). Shame on FOX news for not rebuking this sick filth and insanity!!! The country is not going to hell, it went to hell a long time ago, and is assuredly going to HELL!

I challenge you dear Christian, to take your mind off of this perverse and dark world.
Colossians 3:1-3, "

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

" When people email me about their horrible lives, lack of desire to live anymore, and thoughts of ending it all, I KNOW that their mind is dwelling on everything negative. The Bible says you are what you think in Proverbs 23:7. That is why every believer should [8]listen to the King James Bible every day. That is why we all need to get involved in a local Bible-believing church. There's nothing that will bless your life and boost your spirit than attending a soulwinning, people-loving, sin-hating, Jesus-loving, fundamentalist Baptist church!!!

What do you think about friend? Hebrews 12:2 tells us to LOOK TO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith. God always finished what He starts. Our heavenly Father is not an absent parent. Hebrews 13:8 declares that Jesus is THE SAME yesterday, today and forever. Malachi 3:6 says that God NEVER changes. In theology this is called the immutability of God. It is impossible for God's nature to change. Our good, holy and perfect God is immutable!

If you are down in the dumps dear saint, I encourage you to get a hobby. There are thousands of wonderful hobbies, activities and things we can do to enjoy God's great creation. I love being in nature. I love musical instruments. I love watching animals, birds and all that God made. I love the stars, moon and sun. I enjoy God. If you watch TV al day, you are going to be warped and filled with all the negativity, perversion and fears of this ungodly insane world. We must all learn to make the best of what we DON'T have in life.

Most of us have an abundance of blessings to praise God for, yet we all tend to focus on the shortcomings in our life, and what we don't have, and the people who hurt us instead of all the sweet and good people. I am guilty too, so I am not condemning anybody. But I have learned, at age 54, to let go and let God. I don't have much time left on earth. I don't intend on spending the remainder of my life fretting, worrying, becoming angry and bitter, hating, or letting this insane world get me down, confused and off course as a child of God.

Dear reader, THINK ON THESE THINGS. If your life is a pile of garbage, your thinking is all wrong. Once you get to the bottom of life, it is extremely hard to break free of the dark world you have allowed yourself to enter into. Where do you start? You get involved in a Bible-believing church. I don't mean some dead church that doesn't love people, like the ungodly Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (which literally has banned me from attending church there since 2014, because I befriended them with the truth that Lordship Salvation is a false gospel). They are a cult, not a Bible church. I don't mean a garbage hole like that! I mean a genuine people-loving, soulwinning, Christ-honoring, King James Bible only, free grace Gospel preaching, New Testament church!!! Amen and amen! Your life will grow from there.

Start [9]listening to Bible preaching every day. If you have negative friends and family, all the more you need to make new friends at church. Invite your family. I get many emails from people who have failing marriages, wanting some miracle cure from me, but there is none.

Husbands write to me and tell me how horrible their wives are, but those men refuse to go to church, and their wife is a mess spiritually, so she is not a good wife. Happy successful marriages don't just happen, you need to work at all. We all need guidance.

I get so frustrated giving biblical advice to people, because less than 5 % listen to me. They just keep emailing, month after month, moaning about all their problems. I have had to start ignoring some people, writing back once a week, because they become pests. I am not being unkind, but I am not here for people to vent when they have issues. My ministry is to help people, not coddle and babysit them in their rebellion. People are so stubborn, set in their wrong ways.

It's the same with weight loss.

People will buy every pill, powder, gimmick and alleged shortcut available, but they never lose weight. The answer is and has always been to start eating properly, and the body will adjust to its proper weight over time. It may take a couple years if you are greatly obese, but you cannot remain obese eating beans, salads and fish. It's all the other junk food that people add (processed foods, dairy, sugar and fattening oils) that cause them to explode in weight. Likewise, if you're sad, miserable and unhappy, something needs to change in your thinking.

I have had countless men write to me to complain about their wife. I have been single and alone for 15 years. I tell those men that I would give anything to be married, and have the problems they think are so bad. Married couples often take each other for granted. You need to take a step back, look at the big picture, and count your blessings. My life is far from perfect. I am not happy every day. But I decide to focus on Jesus, the Author and Finisher of my faith. I always rejoice that my name is written in Heaven, and that never changes. God's promises as recorded in His inspired Word never change. The Holy Bible is a shining lamp unto our feet (Psalm 119:105). What we think about is just as important as going to the Lord in prayer, because if you think negative you won't be praying for long. Jesus said we would have TRIBULATION in this ugly world, but He said to BE OF GOOD CHEER, knowing that He is risen (John 16:33). What a wonderful Savior!!!

2.4.9 You're Either Redeemed By The Blood Or You're Toast (2021-04-24 09:30)

John 3:35-36, "

The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

" James 2:10, "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

I want to share a very important truth with you that burns my heart often, which is that the ONLY righteousness we have is GOD'S IMPUTED RIGHTEOUSNESS. We hear much heresy taught in the churches today about turning from sins to be saved. For example: Bob Jones University teaches their 2,600 students that you must "[1]repent and turn away from your sin" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. This is a perversion of God's grace and a false gospel. BJU sends out graduates to work in thousands of churches. Consequently, here is a classic example of how just one corrupt Bible college can contaminate thousands of churches. I detest Bible colleges these days.

I mentioned BJU as an introduction, to show that they are woefully ignorant of the Bible. Go figure, a Bible college ignorant of the BIBLE! I am so sick and tired of hearing heretics add to the Gospel. They say you cannot be saved unless you first "turn away from a lifestyle of sin.

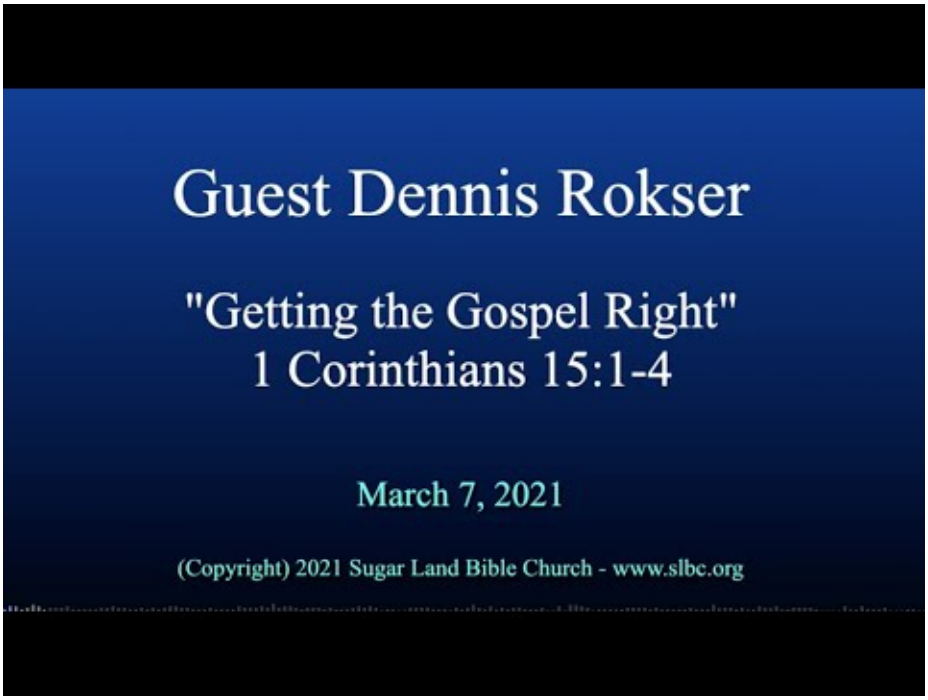
I heard Pastor Marty Herron say those exact words at Harvest Baptist Church of Guam in 2014. It was a Sunday morning. Hundreds of people were present in church that day. I went home and literally cried after hearing that, asking God if I should go back or not. I decided to go back and befriend them with THE TRUTH. Perhaps they just didn't know any better. Perhaps Pastor Herron had never been told THE TRUTH. Well, Pastor Herron and his ungodly associate pastors, and some of the snobby rich people in the church, axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving Day! Harvest Baptist Church in 2021 is still a cesspool of iniquity, a den of vipers, a nest of Bible-corrupters, full of doctrines of devils and a prisonhouse of religion!!!

- [2]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are GUILTY!)
- [3]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (Harvest Baptist Church Guam GUILTY!)
- [4]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU and Harvest Baptist Church Guam GUILTY!)

I had hoped that Pastor Marty Herron would reflect upon the truths I had shared with him in 2014. In 2018, Herron resigned as senior pastor at HBC to go work as executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. In 2019 he was invited to preach at the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. Sadly, Marty still preaches the same damnable LIE that you must repent OF YOUR SIN to be saved. That is not the Gospel dear friend. I am not picking on Marty Herron, I am exposing a false prophet! Somebody needs to warn people about false teachers! Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts. The Gospel is a fact, not an opinion. You cannot show me even one Bible verse that teaches to turn away from committing sin to be saved. That is a fact! What

Mr. Herron is preaching is his opinion, not what the Bible says. Let God be true but every man a liar (Romans 3:4).

Pastor Dennis Rokser of the Duluth Bible Church in Minnesota, preached this excellent sermon proclaiming what the Gospel is, and what the Gospel is not:



What The Gospel Is, And What The Gospel Is Not

Dear friend, this is the great truth I want you to take away: You are either washed in the blood of Jesus, or you are just as condemned as the vilest dinner in the world! James 2:10 warns that to violate even the least commandment of God makes us guilty of violating them all. Why? It is because committing even one sin makes us GUILTY. God is 100 % perfect. God is 100 % righteousness. God is 100 % holy. No sinner can enter into Heaven. Dear friend, you don't have to turn away from living a sinful lifestyle to be saved, you MUST be absolutely perfect in every way. Unless you are perfect you cannot go to Heaven!

That is why Jesus told His disciples that salvation is IMPOSSIBLE with men:

> Matthew 19:24-26, "
>
> And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
>
> When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?
>
> But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.
> **"

Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." Either God does the saving, all of it, or you are not saved. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

God will not save anyone who is trying to be saved, He will only save those who are trusting to be saved.

Dear friend, you are either washed in the blood of the Lamb, and you unworthily possess God's imputed righteousness which is by faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 4:1-6); or else you are still wallowing and perishing in your own sin and self-righteousness, trying to turn away from your sin to qualify as being worthy to receive God's free gift of forgiveness and eternal life (Matthew 7:21-23). I have no goodness to offer God. I have no righteousness to offer God. Isaiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away." The only thing you contribute to your own salvation friend, is the sin that made it necessary. Jonathan Edwards (1703-1758) said that and he is 100 % right!

Which is it friend? Have you been washed in the blood as a guilty sinner, wholly leaning on Jesus name? Or are you among those in Matthew 7:21-23, who are going about to establish your own righteousness by looking within yourselves to turn away from sinful lusts and desires to qualify for God's grace? If you think I am exaggerating, [5]please read what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) heretically teaches their faculty and students. Mr. Pettit errantly teaches that you must "

to receive the

award

of

Heaven itself

" (those are all his own words).

Pettit is wrong on all counts! Salvation is not an award, it is a free gift (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23). You cannot qualify to obtain Heaven, you must humbly receive it as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), wholly unworthy of God's grace. Mr. Pettit is not a born-again child of God, he is an infidel in the pulpit at BJU, who needs to be fired.

Faith is the only righteous thing I can do! This is a serious matter. Right doctrine matters! You're either redeemed by the precious blood of Jesus, or you're toast friend. Life is short, Hell is hot and eternity is a long time! Dear friend, any plan of salvation that does not offer you immediate, irrevocable and permanent assurance of eternal life is a false gospel. Any theology that does not give you the absolute assurance of salvation is WRONG! God does not give temporal or probationary life, He only gives eternal life. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

[6]

"There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." – Pastor M.R. DeHaan, Hebrews; Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

2.4.10 Biblical Proof That Dr. Steve Pettit Is Full Of Crap (2021-04-25 20:17)

Luke 10:20,

“

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

Respectfully said toward Dr. Pettit (I mean no unkindness, truly), he preaches another gospel. Who is Steve Pettit? Mr. Pettit has been the president of Bob Jones University since 2014. I am writing this blog article because BJU has a tremendous impact upon thousands of churches today, particularly independent Baptist churches, through their thousands of graduates. Right doctrine matters folks! Galatians 1:6-7 warns that there is NOT another Gospel. Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. ” Sadly, today’s Bible colleges and churches are filled with heretics who pervert the Gospel, damning people’s souls to Hell.

Read for yourself [1]what Steve Pettit heretically preached on January 26, 2015 at BJU chapel to 2,700 students and faculty:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [2]11:34)

The “

that Dr. Pettit teaches you must [3]work hard to earn he says is

“

Heaven itself

> “We run the race, we cross the finish line, and so what’s the prize? What is the award? Well, there are different viewpoints. Some would have the viewpoint that the awards are crowns in Heaven. But as I read the book of Hebrews and see the whole gist of the book and the flow of the book, I don’t believe its referring to crowns in Heaven. I think it is referring to Heaven itself.” [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit (“What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [4]22:57)

Dear friend, eternal life is not an “award,” it is the “free gift” of God by grace alone (Romans 5:15-18, 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

A gift is a take proposition, not a give proposition. You simply take it by faith. Luke 10:20 teaches us as believers to rejoice that our names are written in Heaven. That means KNOWING 100 % that we are saved certain. But according to Dr. Pettit's rotten perverse teachings, you cannot KNOW that you are saved yet, not until life is over, and you have faithfully run the race to the finish line. How else could we KNOW that we are saved, since we cannot say someone has "faithfully run the race" until they actually cross the finish line?

Oh reader, do you see how dangerous and unbiblical Steve Pettit's teachings on salvation are? God knows that I have nothing personal against Mr. Pettit. I met him on Guam in 2014 when he preached at Harvest Baptist Church. Sadly, Pastor Marty Herron is as corrupt and perverse in his theology as Steve Pettit, and neither of these men ought to be allowed to speak behind any pulpit. I speak on the authority of God's Word from the inspired King James Bible:

> Titus 1:10-13, "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;"

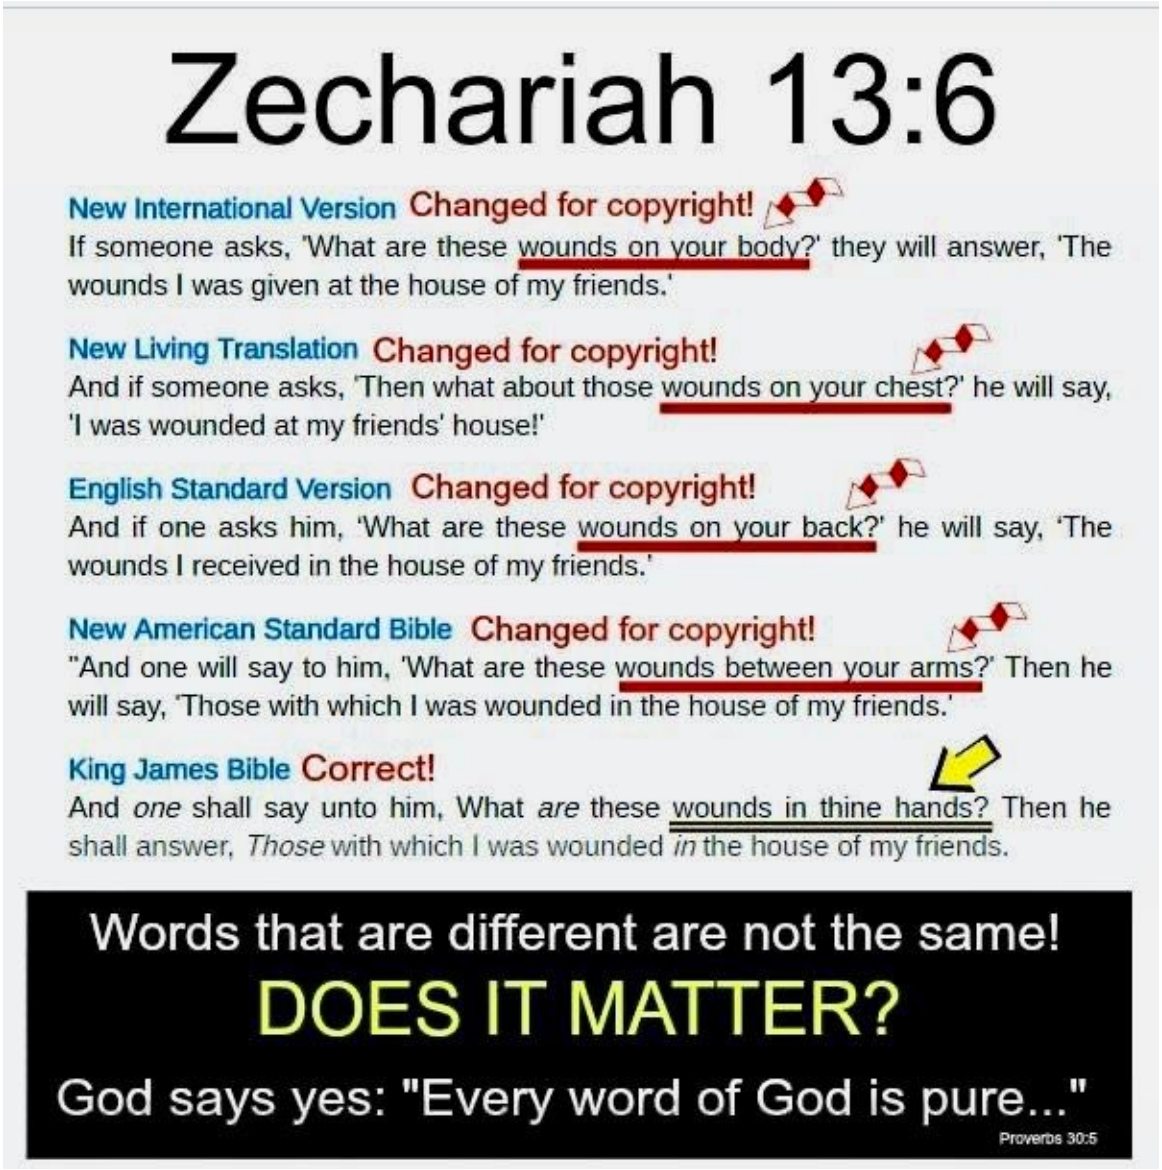
Sean Quinlan (former pastor of Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam) once scolded me, saying: "You're not an apostle." What an ignorant and foolish thing to say. Dear reader, neither was Titus an apostle, but Paul instructed him to REBUKE THEM SHARPLY who pervert the Gospel. I am and will continue to sharply rebuke the Bob Jones University camp until they repent and stop teaching Lordship Salvation, and promoting the Devil's corruptible seed. ...



It Matters Which Bible You Use - God Only Authored One Book!

Kindly said, Steve Pettit was inspired by demons when he preached that awful heretical sermon, which he has never recanted. In case you don't know, [6]Pettit is buddies with the biggest heretic of our generation, Dr. John F. MacArthur in California. MacArthur is an alumni of BJU, which has consequently crept more tares into the college over the decades. [7]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) would have run these infidels out of the college!!! Would to God BJU still had some biblical sense today and would fire Steve Pettit and renounce his false teachings. I say that with love, but on the authority of the Word of God.

The fact that Jesus commanded every believer to rejoice that their name is written in Heaven, is biblical proof that Steve Pettit is full of crap! You CAN in fact accept Jesus as your personal Savior, by believing the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of His death, burial and resurrection (1st Corinthians 15:1-4), and KNOW that you are immediately, irrevocably and permanently forever saved (John 6:47). Who are you going to believe, Steve Pettit or the King James Bible?

2.5.1 Focus On Christ Alone And Not Yourself For Assurance (2021-05-01 09:30)

2nd Corinthians 5:21, “

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Philippians 3:9,

“

And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

A hurting man has been emailing me in recent months. He is struggling with sin in his life, both past and present. According to his testimony, he has done horribly sinful things in his past, so much so that he is finding it hard to believe he is saved. I have exchanged a few dozen emails with him, recommending free online books, sermons, Gospel tracts and other helpful resources to guide him along. Mostly, I have encouraged him to spend a lot of time meditating in the King James Bible. Romans 10:17, “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.” If you are struggling dear reader with any type of faith based issue, I highly recommend that you get into the Word of God. All of the modern Bible revisions are corrupted by the Devil, so I only use and recommend the inspired King James Bible.

I also gave the man I mentioned a few dozen Scripture passages, kindly suggesting that he commit them to memory to help him combat his doubts. As we just read in Romans 10:17, faith comes by hearing God’s Word. That is also a big reason why it is very important that you and I, and every born-again believer, attend a solid Bible-believing church in your local community. Sadly, there are a lot of junk churches today, especially in the United States. You never know what to expect when you walk into a new church. So be on guard. Just be friendly toward everyone, humble, and go see what the church is about. [1]Here is a list of Baptist churches near you ([2]more).

It is normal to feel a bit awkward and strange for the first few visits.

It is important that you feel comfortable overall being there. Just give it some time.

It is very important that the pastor preaches a free grace view of the Gospel, and not the demonic junk called Lordship Salvation (LS). LS basically teaches that faith is not enough to get to Heaven. In addition, you are told that you must turn away from your sinful behavior, surrendering “all” to Christ, in an exchange of all that you are for all that Jesus is. LS is a toxic poison which has contaminated many churches today, turning once great churches into deadly religious cults. Please RUN AWAY quickly from any church, if you hear the pastor saying that you cannot merely accept Jesus as your Savior to be saved, but also, in addition, he says we must watch to examine that person’s life for awhile to see if they’re really saved. That is not the saving Gospel of free grace, not by a longshot, it is a works-based type of counterfeit salvation.

Getting back to the man I mentioned, I also sent him a link to my 42 chapter book called: ’ [3]SALVATION ’ to share my own testimony and truths which the Lord has taught me in my Christian life. I kindly sent him internet links to hundreds of helpful Bible sermons about salvation. Some of the best and most helpful salvation sermons you can share with others is [4]on YouTube by Pastor Ralph ’Yankee’ Arnold. Yet, despite all these helpful resources they guy emailed me back in desperation, saying that he needs me to pray for him that God will force him to believe, because he just doesn’t have any faith that Christ will save him because of his wickedness.

I get emails like this from time to time, and they are always easy for me to deal with. They are easy for a few reasons. First, God has blessed me with an excellent understanding of the Gospel. I had great teachers (Dr. Jack Hyles, Evangelist Harry Ironside, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, et cetera). Second, the Gospel is simple. The Bible calls the Gospel

the simplicity that is in Christ

(2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Men always complicate things, but God made salvation simple. The Lord needed to keep salvation simple, because there are a lot of ignorant and base type of people in the world who cannot grasp complicated things. God is a good, fair and reasonable Creator. You cannot outdo God friend, He knows what He’s doing.

Unfortunately, the man has persistently written back to express his religious scrupulosity, afraid that he is not saved, worried about going to Hell, asking me to pray for God to save him. I kindly responded by letting him know that I cannot pray for what he is asking. I do not have the right, nor is it proper biblically, to ask God to save someone. There is only one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1st Timothy 2:5-6). I did however let him know that I did pray for God to give him knowledge and wisdom to help him understand the truth of the Gospel. I have explained the Gospel to him multiple times. But it doesn’t matter what I say, because he is focusing on himself instead of Christ concerning salvation.

I didn’t write this blog article to criticize the man in question; but rather, to help others who may be in a similar situation. It is my privilege to help others for Christ, so I maintain a humble spirit. Philippians 2:3, “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.” Friend, I cannot save you. No Catholic priest or Lutheran minister has the right nor power to forgive anyone’s sins. Jesus is the only Mediator between God and men. Salvation is of the Lord (Jonah 2:9). John 14:6, “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.”

When I send several dozen resources (books, sermons and tracts) to a person who is struggling to settle the assurance of salvation, and they persist to tell me that they just don’t feel like they are saved, then it becomes clear to me that they are either:

1. LAZY - They're not reading the books and sermons, nor listening to the sermons I have shared with them. Ninety-nine percent of the time, when people cannot get it settled after I help them, they never tell me about truths they read or learned from the resources I have kindly shared with them. Literally, some people would rather worry than study. They are lazy. For whatever reason they won't help them self by studying. What did Jesus say? John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." Dear friend, if you are struggling to know you are saved, the answer is IN THE SCRIPTURE! I can show you Bible verses all day, but until you apply yourself to understand God's Word, you won't settle anything. People write to me and want me to tell them that they are saved, but I cannot and will not do that. You need to KNOW that you are saved based upon the written PROMISES of God in His Word. Jesus said to SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES!!!
2. LOOKING IN THE WRONG PLACE - They are focusing on them self instead of Christ. When Moses formed some brass into the shape of a serpent, the Israelites were told to LOOK AND LIVE. Because of their complaining God sent fiery deadly serpents (snakes) among the people to bite them. God instructed Moses to hold up the brass serpent on a pole, and whosoever LOOKED to the serpent LIVED. That serpent symbolized Jesus, the sinless Lamb of God Who chose to became as sin for you and me, to redeem us from the consequences of sin in Hell (2nd Corinthians 5:21). John 3:14-15, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life." Get your mind off yourself concerning salvation. Your attitude toward your sins has nothing to do with getting saved, except that you acknowledge being a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20).

You and I contribute NOTHING to our salvation except the SIN that made it necessary.

3. THEY HAVE OCD (obsessive compulsive disorder) - OCD is a mental disorder, and no amount of Bible knowledge is going to help them short term. If a person is a worry wart, then their problem is psychological. The only advice I have for such a person is to bath your mind, heart and life with the King James Bible. Listen to Bible preaching every day. Every believer should attend a local Bible-believing church. I understand that there are many junk churches today, and not everyone has a good sound church to attend. But most people who email me with a bunch of problems DON'T go to church at all, nor do they desire to go. We all need fellowship with other believers, to encourage, comfort, love and help one another. There are several helpful website for people with OCD concerning assurance of salvation. I can help people who are ignorant of the Bible, but I cannot help people who refuse to trust Christ in lieu of the plain truth set before them.

Dear reader, please don't be scared off if you have any Bible questions for me. As long as you have Bible questions I CAN help you. But when you write to me, after all the truths I have shared with you, and tell me that you just don't trust Christ and you don't know why, I cannot help you any further. When a man tells me that he doesn't trust Jesus, and asks me to pray for God to force him to believe, I have nothing else to say to him. What do you mean you don't believe, but want to believe, and want me to pray for God to save you? I mean, you either believe that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, or you don't. You are either wholly relying upon Jesus, Who became the sacrifice for your sins on the cross, or you don't.

I kindly told the man that he is suffering from [5]religious scrupulosity and is driving himself crazy by thinking too much. Salvation is so simple friend. Men always complicate everything.

I understand what it feels like to have doubts, fear and cry in torment because I couldn't find the assurance of my salvation. But I never told God that I don't believe and don't know why. That is ridiculous. I always told God that I DO believe, but I still didn't FEEL like I was saved. I suffered for 7 miserable years as a lonely teenager, unable to find the sweet peace that I was saved. In hindsight, I learned many years later that I was simple ignorant of how salvation works. I had been misled by Baptist preachers my whole life, whole taught me to pray a prayer to get saved. That is the worst advice you can give an unsaved person, to pray to get saved.

I have had preachers rebuke me for teaching that prayer is not the Bible way to be saved. Folks, it is not the Bible way to be saved. Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to PRAY to receive Christ as our personal Savior. In particular, respectfully, Pastor Steven Anderson (and those pastors who are die hard followers of his New IFB movement) are adamant about the necessity to pray to get saved. That is unbiblical. Don't take my word for it, study the Scripture for yourself. I triple-dog dare you to show me where the Bible commands anyone to pray to receive God's free gift of eternal life. You cannot! I say that kindly, but truthfully. We are saved simply by BELIEVING. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Dear reader, Christ paid it all. Jesus paid your debt of sin and mine. Anybody who comes to God as a dirty guilty sinner, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, is immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved. Now, it is not wrong to pray a prayer at the time of salvation. In fact, it is natural for someone to desire to pray. That is fine to do. I am not saying that someone who prays and asks Jesus to save them is not saved. I believe that Pastor Anderson, and the other pastors who follow his leadership worldwide, are legitimately getting people saved. But I am saying that I personally went through several unnecessary years of confusion, worry and misery because I was focusing on whether I prayed right or left something out. I was trusting Jesus with all my heart. I know I was saved at age 13. But I was looking at the wrong thing to find assurance, and it misled me. Until you LOOK TO JESUS alone, and not worry about your part in salvation, you'll never find peace.

Being confused doesn't necessarily mean you are not saved (but it certainly could mean that too). It all depends on what you are confused about, and where your trust rests. I always trusted Christ 100 % from the very moment I was saved. But I thought the way you trust Christ is by asking Him to save you through prayer. I came to eventually learn that we are saved simply by BELIEVING, and nothing else. Praying is not believing, but a person may pray because they believe, which is what I did (Romans 10:14). Focus on Christ alone concerning salvation. If your faith is in the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified, buried and risen, you are saved according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4.

2.5.2 The Greatest Thing You Will Ever Do In Life (2021-05-04 01:01)

1st Corinthians 3:5-9, "

1464

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one*: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

Every man is reached by some man. Somebody somehow had to hear the Gospel in some way to get saved. That's the great thing anybody could ever do their entire life, to have somebody believe the Gospel because we shared it with them. I often receive emails from people who tell me that they got saved through my ministry. I cannot even out in words the great joy that floods my soul when I hear such precious testimonies. That is why I do what I do, tirelessly without monetary recompense, because I want to see people get saved. Romans 10:1, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved. "

Neither you or I have ever saved anybody. We might sow, or water the seed sown by another, or we may have the privilege of reaping that soul to Christ. We are laboring together with the Lord. The Bible says he that planteth and he that waters ARE ONE. Whatever our labor was, we are co-laborers with God. The Lord will reward us each according to our own LABOR, not for the results. God alone gives the increase!

1st Corinthians 3:7-8b, "

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one..

" Wow! The Bible says the seed sower and the seed reaper ARE ONE. So if you give someone a Gospel tract, and that seed of truth begins to work in their heart, and then years later I come along and win them to Christ, the Bible teaches that you and I BOTH had a part in that lost sinner's conversion. Neither you nor I can claim credit for that person getting saved, because God saved them, not us.

Lordship Salvation Is An Enemy Of Soulwinning

The Apostle Paul is emphasizing these truths to discourage cliques in the local church. I know the pain of not being accepted by a church clique. Sadly, Bob Jones University is very cliquish. They are very cultish. If you aren't accepted by the inner core of their clique, you're ostracized and left out. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is one such clique. Pastor Marty Herron is an arrogant snob, who corrupted HBC when he was their shameful pastor between 1999 and 2018.

When I attended Harvest for a year in 2014, I was accepted at first. But as soon as I loved them enough to befriend them with THE TRUTH, I was rejected and ostracized by the group. That is how religious cults operate. Since 2014 I have been shunned in the Guam community by everyone who attends Harvest Baptist Church. Just last week I was walking at Asan Beach and saw the church's Harvest House van, and some foster children with Harvest staff members. It was like I wasn't a human being as I passed by and befriended them. They refused to wave. They hate me. Because of Pastor Marty Herron and Pastor Gary Walton's wickedness, arrogant snobs who despise me, they have turned the entire church against me, so that I cannot even walk in public without being stared at, shunned and mistreated by their staff and members. That is of the Devil. That is a religious cult. That is not God's love.

Do you know what is the underlying core issue? Harvest Baptist Church is preaching another gospel. They preach the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. They promote the Devil's corruptible seed in the modern perverse Bible revisions. They preach a misunderstood repentance that falsely requires people to try to stop sinning to be saved. Harvest Baptist Church is a Satanic cult, following their Satanic headquarters at Bob Jones University...

- [1]False Bibles: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU and Harvest Baptist Church of Guam are GUILTY!)
- [2]Misunderstood Repentance: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (Harvest Baptist Church Guam GUILTY!)
- [3]Lordship Salvation: An Enemy Of Soulwinning (BJU and Harvest Baptist Church Guam [4]GUILTY!)

Here is an excellent sermons by Pastor Dennis Rokser, exposing the perversion of Lordship Salvation: [5]Getting The Gospel Right And Wrong. There is not a more ungodly, corrupt and toxic group today than the Bob Jones University crowd and their hero Dr. John MacArthur. Marty Herron is a wicked false teacher, who now corrupts young people in Iowa, collecting a 6-digit salary as executive vice president of a dead deeper-life religious college. These apostates simply don't care about truth or hurting people. They only care about their careers. They only care about their buddies and friends. Dr. Steve Pettit is one of them, another apostate who preaches Calvinism at BJU. Woe unto the Bob Jones camp! Their arrogance will soon come to an end, and my Bible preaching will be vindicated by God. The Bob Jones camp have heaped coals of fire and God's judgement upon them (Galatians 1:6-9; 3:1-3; 5:4; 6:7).

Harvest's church logo is: "Helping People Develop A Heart For God," but they ought to be honest and change it to: "

Helping People Go To Hell Forever." Jesus told the Samaritan woman in John 4:24 that God can only be worshipped in TRUTH and SPIRIT. God cannot be worshipped in error, for to do so Jesus called vain worship

(Matthew 15:8).

Sharing The Gospel Is The Greatest Thing You Can Do

Millions of people (young and old alike) live to make money. Today's apostate Bible colleges are geared toward preparing young people to pursue money-making careers. As reasonable as that may sound to the carnally-minded person, that is not the high road to take. I am so sick of BJU luring young girls into their nursing program, to earn money in a nursing career. Consequently, BJU has slacked off in their moral standards, allowing female students to wear halter tops, slacks and pants. It is shameful.

Psalms 97:10, " Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked. " Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. " I know some blog visitors are wondering why I preach against the Bob Jones crowd so much. These two Bible verses explain why. Lordship Salvation is a false way. It is evil. To preach Lordship Salvation, and to bid Godspeed to those who do, is evil. The Bible says that a Christian who abides in the Scriptures will HATE EVERY FALSE WAY. It is okay to hate, if you hate the right things, and not people. I love everyone. I love Marty Herron, Gary Walton and Steve Pettit, I just HATE the false gospel they preach. I HATE the counterfeit Bible revisions that they use, sell and promote. I HATE the misunderstanding of repentance that requires people to try to stop sinning as much to be saved, which is nonsense.

Friend, you don't have to clean up your life to get into Heaven, you absolutely MUST be 100 % perfect, sinless in every way. Who can do that? You're right, nobody can. That is why Jesus paid the price for our sins with His blood on the cross. When we trust Jesus as our personal Savior, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He resurrected three days later from the dead, we are saved. God credits (imputes) our sins to Christ, and God imputes His righteousness to us. This all happens in a second of time BY FAITH ALONE (Ephesians 2:8-9).

I love the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They think I hate them, but I hate their false doctrine. I hate their false Bibles. I hate their false understanding of what it means to repent. I hate their pride and arrogance, and loyalty to reprobates like Steve Peter, Marty Herron and John MacArthur, which causes them to [6]continue down the path to Hell and destruction. I hate every false way. I hate evil. That is what God commands me and you to do. Something is very wrong with Bob Jones University today, that they don't see a problem with Calvinism. That is all that Lordship Salvation really is, repackaged Calvinism. "Calvinism" refers to the corrupt theological teachings of an unsaved religious man named John Calvin (1509-1564). Calvin was a madman, who literally murdered 58 people for disagreeing with his theology. So much for living a changed life to prove that you're saved, aka, Lordship Salvation.

Dear reader, the greatest thing you will ever do is to witness the Gospel to someone. Hopefully you've been sharing the Gospel with hundreds of people throughout your Christian life. If not, today is the first day to live happily ever after. Pastor Dwight L. Moody wisely said, "It is the only happy life to live for the salvation of souls." Amen and amen. When Christians write to me, down and depressed with life, I already know that they never go soulwinning. I know because soulwinners are very happy people. Anybody who knows me knows that I always smile and have God's shine on my face. That is Jesus in me, the hope of glory.

My name is written in Heaven. I am so blessed, regardless of what happens to me in this miserable earthly life. I have the blessed hope of God's promise of eternal life by faith (Titus 1:2).

I am sad that Harvest Baptist Church continues to reject and ostracize me, since 2014, but I rejoice in knowing the reasons why they reject me. They count me as their enemy (as the churches of Galatia did the Apostle Paul in Galatians 4:16), because like Paul I befriended them with THE TRUTH. They couldn't handle it. Marty Herron is a loyal buddy of Steve Pettit, and he will not go against headquarters, which would be career suicide. Amos 3:3, "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?" Romans 3:4, "

God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

” The Bob Jones crowd cannot be right, and the free grace Gospel crowd be right too.

I watched a very interesting 12 hour documentary by historian film producer, Ken Burns, on ’[7]The American Civil War.’ It is heartbreaking history! I just heard a quote in the film by President Abraham Lincoln (1809-1865) that caught my attention...

> “In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!” —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy both claimed to be doing “God’s will” in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing “God’s will.” As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God’s will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

So Bob Jones University and their dirty accomplices cannot be right, and also the opposing side (Jack Hyles, Curtis Hutson, Bob Gray Sr., Ralph Yankee Arnold, myself and Harry Ironside) all be correct. It is IMPOSSIBLE!!! Either you have to stop living in deliberate sinning to receive God’s free gift of eternal life (as Lordship Salvation teaches), or else you don’t have to quit your willful sinning to be saved (which is the truth of a free grace Gospel). I love Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995), who preached THE TRUTH that [8]you don’t go to Hell because you won’t quit your sinning. There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ! Do you fully trust Him friend? I do. If Christ is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved. If you are also trusting water baptism, just in case, then you are not saved. You must put all your apples into one basket, and that basket is Jesus.

Are you are soulwinner? If you know that you are saved, then you should be able to tell someone else how you got saved. That is all that soulwinning is. Many people are confused by Satan, thinking that they must forsake sinful bad habits to be saved. Consequently, many people won’t come to Christ, thinking wrongly that Jesus won’t accept a big sinner like them. Dear reader, you couldn’t be more mistaken if that is what you have been thinking.

>
> For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
>
> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
>
> But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
>
> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
>
> **”

Jesus only saves one type of person, THE UNGODLY! What did Jesus say? Mark 2:17, “

When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. ” I am disturbed that some heretics can read this Bible passage, and mistakenly think that it means to turn away from sinning to be saved. They are guilty of the same sin as the self-righteous Pharisees, thinking that God saves people who reform themselves first. The Pharisees lived above reproach. They didn’t commit adultery. They didn’t murder. So they thought they were sinless.

Look what Jesus said to the people about the self-righteous Pharisees in Matthew 5:20, “

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

” Dear reader, unless you have more righteousness than the Lordship Salvation crowd, you won’t go to Heaven when you die. You need GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS, not yours! Philippians 3:9,

“And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
” I tremendously love that Bible verse!!! We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS. That is what it means in Matthew 6:33, “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

> “The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you.”
> —[9]Pastor Dennis Rokser

The greatest thing you’ll ever do is to lead someone to Christ with the Gospel. I have had the blessed privilege to lead thousands of people to Jesus Christ through my humble online ministry. God saved them all, I just gave them the truth of the Gospel. Jesus said in John 15:5 that without Him we cannot do anything. Jesus is the vine, we are the branches. If we abide in Christ, then we will bear much fruit (Luke 8:15). That is our duty as believers, to be ambassadors of Christ to the world, reconciling sinners to God with the Gospel. 2nd Corinthians 5:20, “Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God.”

I have made an entire website dedicated to this great effort at [10]SOULWINNING.INFO, which has many helpful resources for leading people to Christ. There is no specific way to share the Gospel, just be natural and talk normally to people. Usually they will bring up the subject. I made my own Gospel tract a couple years ago, which I pass out all the time of Guam. I like to put $20 inside, fold it up, and toss it out the window as I drive by to hurting people begging for money. [11]Here’s my .PDF Gospel tract if you’d like to print and share it with others also.

Many Pastors Have Destroyed Soulwinning Churches

I am now listening to a needful sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles called: “[12]Many Pastors Have Destroyed My Vineyard.” Dr. Hyles said in this helpful sermon, “You never outgrow God’s Great Commission.” Matthew 28:19-20, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen.” We are commanded to take the Gospel UNTO THE END OF THE WORLD.

There is nothing more important than soulwinning. It is tragic that so many churches have fallen into the trap of WORSHIP. You cannot show me one verse in the King James Bible that says we go to church to worship God. You cannot! Pastors have destroyed our churches, turning them into fun centers and places of entertainment. The job of the New Testament church is to help sinners! These hypocritical churches who ban sinners, and drive out truth-tellers like me, are of the Devil. How can you help sinners if you kick them out of church? I'm not talking about defiant open sin in the church (1st Corinthians 5:1-5).

The ungodly Harvest Baptist Church of Guam expelled a man for divorcing his wife. How can that man be helped now? They destroyed his life! Pastor Marty Herron kicked me out for telling THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is not the free grace Gospel. That devil has blood on his hands, and I'm going to be there when God makes him rue the day he hurt me for telling THE TRUTH!!! Kindly said, Pastor Herron is a theological liar, a false teacher and a religious hypocrite. He can sin, but no one else can. When a man on staff divorced his wife, Pastor Herron axed him, excommunicating him as a church member. But when Marty Herron bids Godspeed to evildoers Steve Pettit and John MacArthur, and spreads the Devil's corruptible seed of the modern perversions, and refuses to allow me to attend church, that's okay? I haven't had a church family since 2014 because of Marty Herron. He couldn't care less. I fully agree with Pastor Jack Hyles...

> "I'm 62 years old, everybody's fighting any way, I think I'll just going go out fighting! I'm no longer going to keep my mouth shut." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon: '[13]Many Pastor's Have Destroyed My Vineyard'

The churches are all about reaching people for God. Today's pastors have no compassion, letting the world go to Hell. They're a bunch of yuppie-type academics, who have never built churches and couldn't care less about drunkards, the poor and hurting sinners like me who need love and a church family.

> "I preached a week down there many years ago, every night for a week—Billy Sunday Tabernacle. You know why they're going to tear it down? 'Cause they ain't got enough religion to fill it up. That great tabernacle where they used to have great Bible conferences, where Billy Sunday and others used to preach, it's about to go down now. You know why? Because we've got a bunch of deeper-life people gathering around the Word, when we ought to gather around the hungry. I'm not against the Bible, I love the Bible, but the Bible is not just a Book for you to feast on and study, the Bible is a Book to use, to feed, to convict and to convert." —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the sermon: '[14]Many Pastor's Have Destroyed My Vineyard'

2.5.3 Jesus Warned That Few People Will Enter Into Heaven (2021-05-04 22:11)

Matthew 7:13-15, “

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

” Luke 13:23-24,

“

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

I have observed an astonishing phenomena in Baptist churches my entire life—pastors and congregations embracing and tolerating the most heretical of doctrines. The Apostle Paul said that they didn’t tolerate the perverse gospel even for one hour. Galatians 2:4-5, “ And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. ” I wish we had more caring Christians today, like Paul, who understand the importance of nipping heresy in the bud quickly, lest it take root and spread.

Paul tells us why he refused to tolerate heresy in verse 5—that THE TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL might continue. Paul understood that a little leaven leaventh the whole lump. Galatians 5:7-9, “Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.” Paul is speaking about the truth of the Gospel here. The apostle is rebuking the churches of Galatia for allowing a religious cult to infiltrate and find acceptance with them. Paul warns them that a little ferment (bacteria) will eventually spoil the whole (whether it be bread, juice or a local church). Heresy is just like cancer, it spreads, destroying good tissue as it progresses. Paul is teaching believers the importance of Bible doctrinal soundness. Paul is effectively saying, “

With these truths in mind, it will help us to better understand the Lord's words of warning in Matthew 7:13-15. Jesus said that "few" people ever find the narrow way unto eternal life. [1]Evangelist Ray Comfort perverts this passage of Scripture, errantly teaching that the " narrow way

refers to living a separated life from sin. Dear reader, that is not what Jesus meant. The way is narrow because men complicate everything, and the Gospel is very simple (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). How simple? Read for yourself in John 3:16,

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. " Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do.

Yet, Ray Comfort horribly teaches that you must turn away from your sinful behavior, and [2]LIVE A LIFESTYLE of abstaining from sin your entire life, to prove that your faith is genuine. Ray Comfort is preaching the Devil's lies of John Calvin (aka, Calvinism). If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not! We are saved by God's righteousness through faith alone in Christ (Philippians 3:9). My friend, you don't have to turn away from your sins to be saved, you must be 100 % sinless and perfect. That is why when asked who can be saved, Jesus said it is IMPOSSIBLE!!! ...

> Matthew 19:24-25, "
>
> And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
>
> When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, *Who then can be saved?
>
> But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible.
> **"

So you see, you cannot save yourself, nor does God permit you to play any part in getting saved, except to get out of the way and rest in the finished redemptive work of Christ (Hebrews 4:10-11). Christ died on the cross, was buried and three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel, the GOOD NEWS (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Getting saved is so free, easy and simple that even a small child can do it (2nd Timothy 3:15). Pastor John MacArthur's false plan of salvation is [3]so costly, hard and complicated, that [4]he says children cannot be saved. This is why Jesus called the Gospel "the narrow way," and said "strait is the gate" which leadeth unto life. ...

> "The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you."
> —[5]Pastor Dennis Rokser

Millions of phony churches around the world have been infiltrated, corrupted and destroyed by the Devil's lies of [6]Wrong Repentance, [7]Lordship Salvation and doing Good Works to be saved. It never ceases to frustrate me to hear advocates of Lordship Salvation (which sadly includes the corrupt [8]Bob Jones University crowd), still maintain that salvation is by grace alone, while adding a bunch of requirements to faith that God doesn't ask. Adding anything more to God's simple plan of salvation by childlike faith is a perversion of God's grace. Please read this excellent sermon excerpt from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) called, '[9]A Perversion Of The Gospel: Lordship Salvation.' Also, I highly recommend these 100 % Gospel accurate sermon videos by [10]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold. Thank God for free grace Gospel preachers!!!

Jesus warned in Matthew 7:13-14 that "few" people will be in Heaven in eternity. In Luke 13:23-24 Jesus said that "many" people will seek to enter into the gates of Heaven, but will be denied entrance. Can you imagine? It will be horrific. There will be lifelong missionaries, pastors and religious people by the billions, all trying to enter into the Pearly City, but won't be able to. Why? Jesus gives us the answer:

> Matthew 7:21-23, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

What is the heavenly Father's will? I'm glad you asked my fine non-feathered friend. Jesus again gives us the answer in John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. " God's will is to simply BELIEVE (rely, rest upon) Jesus to have the free gift of eternal life. That is why Jesus said the way is narrow and the gate is strait, because it is so simple to be saved that most men miss it. That is what it means to be **"

fallen from grace

" in Galatians 5:4. Advocates of the heresies of Wrong Repentance and Lordship Salvation are fallen from grace they have missed the only bus going to Heaven, they are subverted of themselves, hellbound in their partial faith in Christ plus: turning from sins, following Jesus, surrendering all to Christ as

Lord,

" paying the cost, running the race faithfully to the end and exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is.

Literally, all of the preceding unbiblical additional requirements to be saved are what Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Ray Comfort and Marty Herron preach. I have all their damnable quotes!!! Oh why won't churchgoers wake up and heed the truth that I (and free grace preachers like me) preach from the Word of God?

God does not save anyone who has partial faith in Christ. I like to use the Chair Illustration. Let's say for the sake of illustration (humor me), that you need to replace a defective lightbulb in your home. You don't have a step ladder, so you use a chair. I've often done that myself. How much faith do you need to get up upon the chair? Just enough to actually do it! Likewise, that is all the faith you need to be saved, JUST ENOUGH to obey God by believing (placing your reliance upon) the GOOD NEWS of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen three days later for our justification. Come to God as a guilty sinner and believe the Gospel and you are saved!!! It's that simple oh sinner.

Now, it wouldn't matter if you had 99 % doubt in a chair's ability to hold you up, you would be placing no less than 100 % of your faith in the chair if you stood upon it unaided. Faith is not the presence of optimism, it is the presence of obedience. I may not have much confidence in a chair, but if I get up and place all my weight upon it, I have trusted it completely! The same is true with receiving God's gift of eternal life. The Lord doesn't demand that you rid your mind of all doubts and fears. It wouldn't be faith without doubts and concerns. Faith is taking God at His Word, as written in the Holy Bible, simply receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. Isn't that simple and beautiful.

As hard as it is for many people to grasp, it is possible to serve Jesus your entire life and still burn in Hell forever. That is exactly what we see in Matthew 7:21-23. These were not bad people! They were not criminals. They tried to defend themselves at the judgment, telling Jesus that they did "MANY WONDERFUL WORKS" throughout their earthly life. They even called Jesus "LORD, LORD" (there's your Lordship Salvation crowd in the Bible). Jesus heard all their excuses. These were dedicated religious people, wholly committed to serving Christ. Yet, look at the horrifying words Jesus said to them in verse 23, "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Will Jesus also someday deny knowing you as one of His sheep? YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:7). To read more about the simplicity of the Gospel, please read the excellent book by Michael P. Bowen, '[11]I NEVER KNEW YOU.'

You now know THE TRUTH and can become (if you're not already), one of THE FEW. Our churches today are filled with deceived people, who think that they have a part in saving themselves, by continuing to prove that their faith is real by living a holy life. Dear friend, what would be the evidence that my faith is real to stand upon a chair? Why, it would be the very act of me getting up to stand on the chair. Likewise, the evidence of a person's genuine faith in Jesus is faith itself, and nothing else!

The heretical notion that a professed believer is required to prove the reality of their faith, by faithfully running the race (living the Christian life) is a false gospel. This is classic Calvinist heresy! The Bible says a believer SHOULD serve Christ; Calvinism says a believer WILL serve Christ; Catholics say you MUST do good works to be saved. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Self has no place in God's free simple plan of salvation. We are saved by God's imputed righteousness, and not by any goodness, effort, merit, sacrifice or self-righteousness of our own. We have nothing worthwhile to offer God (Isaiah 64:6). The ONLY thing that you and I contribute to salvation is the sin that made it necessary! Between me and the flames of Hell is the precious blood of Jesus which was shed on the cross of Calvary!

2.5.4 Three Men All Died Differently On Three Crosses (2021-05-09 09:30)

Luke 23:39-43,

“

And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

1st Peter 2:24,

“

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

The Holy Bible teaches that there were two other men who were crucified with the Lord Jesus Christ. One of the men berated the Lord, challenging His deity. The man sarcastically said to Jesus, “If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.” (Luke 23:39). But the other man on the cross defended the Lord’s honor, saying that whereas they both deserved to die for their crimes, Jesus was an innocent man Who did nothing wrong.

So we see that there were three different men, who all died in different ways:

1. Jesus died FOR SIN
2. The repentant thief died TO SIN
3. The unrepentant man died IN SIN

Every born-again believer DIES IN THE LORD. Revelation 14:13, “And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.” Every Christ-rejecter dies IN THEIR SIN. John 8:24, “

I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

” Which are you dear reader? I became a born-again Christian at age 13. The moment I was saved I died to sin. That simply means that sin no longer had any power to condemn me, because I was under God's saving GRACE instead of the LAW. The unsaved man is still under the curse of God's law.

Getting saved is like taking the stinger our of a bee. Once a bee stings, it cannot sting twice and it dies. Likewise, Christ died once on the cross for all mankind. Jesus took the sting out of death, for those who believe in Him as their personal Savior.

This is justification. 1st Corinthians 15:56, " The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law." It is similar in our American court system. Once a person has been judged in court, that person cannot ever be tried again for the same crime. Once we get saved, we are declared justified freely forever. Nothing more is required.

All these false teachers today, like [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) and [2]Dr. John MacArthur (pastor of Grace To You ministry), who teach that faith alone is not enough to be saved, are perverting the grace of God. The Apostle Paul said he worried that the Galatian churches had been deceived from the 'SIMPLICTY THAT IS IN CHRIST,' which is the Gospel (Romans 1:16). The Gospel means GOOD NEWS! It is the Good News that Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins, and that He was buried, and three days later He bodily resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Any admitted guilty sinner who believes this Good News is immediately, irrevocably and permanently saved. Even a small child can believe the Gospel and be saved. Salvation is a free gift from God, which does NOT require giving up pet sins, turning over a new leaf, reforming one's life of sin, water baptism, good works, nor anything else. We are saved by faith alone. Anything else is a counterfeit gospel, and cannot produce the new birth, without which no one can enter into God's Kingdom Jesus said (John 3:3-7).

Three men died on a cross. One died FOR SIN, another died TO SIN, and the last man unfortunately died IN SIN. Which are you dear friend? The choice is yours alone to make.

2.5.5 Satanic Modern Bible Versions Say It Is Hard To Enter God's Kingdom (2021-05-12 14:24)

1st Corinthians 11:3, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ."

Repeatedly in the precious Scriptures we are taught that getting saved is free, simple and easy. Getting saved is as easy as drinking a glass of water, if that water is Jesus. John 4:10, "Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water." Notice that Jesus said the water of life (salvation) is a "gift," and that the woman at the well simply needed to ask Him to receive it. Getting saved is as easy as walking through a door, if that door is Jesus. John 10:9, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." Our text verse above calls the Gospel (Good News) "the simplicity that is in Christ" (2nd Corinthians 11:3). It is that simple to be saved. Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation!

If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's eyes, and you receive Christ's sacrificial death on the cross as full-payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, and bodily raised up from the dead 72 hours later, you are saved. It is that simple!!! With this simple truth in mind, now take a look at how Satan has perverted the modern Bible revisions to complicate getting saved. Here is a comparison of Mark 10:24 between the trustworthy King James Bible (KJB), and the corrupted Easy-To-Read version (ERV), the New International Version (NIV), and the Southern Baptist Convention's exclusive, Holman Christian Standard Bible (HCSB). ...

> KING JAMES BIBLE (KJB) - Mark 10:24, "And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!"
>
> ENGLISH STANDARD VERSION (ESV) - Mark 10:24, "And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how difficult it is to enter the kingdom of God!"
>
> EASY-TO-READ VERSION (ERV) - Mark 10:24, "The followers were amazed at what Jesus said. But he said again, "My children, it is very hard to enter God's kingdom!"
>
> NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION (NIV) - Mark 10:24, "The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!"
>
> HOLMAN CHRISTIAN STANDARD BIBLE (HCSB) - Mark 10:24, "But the disciples were astonished at His words. Again Jesus said to them, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!"

I've just given you another example (of literally thousands that exist) of Satanic corruption in the modern Bible revisions.

The King James Bible says that them that trust in riches will have a hard time entering into God's kingdom, because they are trusting in their riches instead of the Gospel. People with lots of money have a hard time believing on Jesus Christ, which requires humbling one's self enough to admit being a guilty sinner who cannot save our self. Wealthy people are used to relying upon themselves and their own riches. To be saved you must trust completely upon the Lord Jesus Christ! The satanic Alexandrian manuscripts (as evidenced in the preceding quotes from the ERV, ESV, NIV and HCSB) corrupt the Word of God, saying instead that it is hard to enter into God's kingdom. That is not what the King James Bible teaches. The new perverted Bible revisions are missing the phrase, "that trust in riches," rendering the Word of God a lie. Why, Oh why, would any sensible pastor, Bible teacher or Christian want to use today's satanic Bible revisions that butcher the inspired Words of God???

If you show this vital information to your pastor, but he doesn't care and still chooses to use and/or support the modern Bible revisions, you need to leave that church and find a real man of God. Something is VERY wrong with a pastor that doesn't care about the purity of God's Words! God loathes neo-evangelical Baptist preachers today who are lukewarm, who use multiple Bible revisions and don't have enough spiritual discernment (or just don't care due to ecclesiastical peer pressure) to stand upon the Words of God! They claim to care about the truth, while promoting conflicting manuscripts of the Bible. I mean, either it is hard to get into Heaven, or it is easy. It cannot be both! One Bible is very correct, and the other is very wrong!

Gone, Gone, Gone... Yes, Acts 8:37 is Gone! - Unless You Have a King James Bible!

There is not a greater threat to the world today than the modern, Alexandrian, watered-down, corrupted, Beelzebub, perverted, copyrighted, Westcott and Hort translated, Bible revisions! WHAT A CRUEL HOAX ON THE CHURCHES!

[1]Satan's NIV Revision Teaches Salvation By Water Baptism: Removes Acts 8:37 Completely

Here is Acts 8:37 quoted from the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV)...

Acts 8:37 -

That's right, it doesn't exist!!! [2]Look for yourself! So now the new satanic Bible revisions teach that you can get into Heaven just by being water baptized. Verse 37 says you can only be water baptized IF YOU BELIEVE ON THE SON OF GOD! Verse 37 is critically important, don't you think? These new Bible revisions are of the Devil. Would somebody please wake up today's dead pastors and lame preachers, who couldn't care less!!! It is hard to grasp the dark reality that most pastors today are blinded by the Devil. They tolerate the plethora of modern Bible revisions, despite the insane fact that due to copyright restrictions they all read differently. If you don't like what one Bible revision says, then you can just read from another, and another, and another. This is wickedness! God only authored ONE BOOK folks, not hundreds!

Neo-evangelical churches and ministries are serving mammon instead of God. Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." There is no middle ground. You either love God and stand for the truth at all cost, or else you love money and make excuses to shirk off your duty as a child of God to stand for truth. Although they would never admit to such shameful and wicked behavior, there is no other explanation for supporting the Devil's Bible versions. They choose to go-along-to-get-along, for the sake of acceptance by their ministry peers and job security. And may I say, the King James is the Bible, not a "version." If you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have a Bible! Satan is trying to confuse everybody by publishing literally hundreds of English Bible versions. If you have a King James Bible, you have God's preserved and inspired Words!!!

[3]BATTLE OF THE AGES (Dr. Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

Nearly every pastor who uses, tolerates, and refuses to expose the corrupt Alexandrian Bible manuscripts has been warned, but he doesn't care. Bob Jones University (BJU) and Moody Bible Institute (MBI) have been warned repeated about the Bible issue, but they are stiffnecked with stubborn pride. As Satan has relentlessly changed the Words of God into a lie over the past half-century, these religious institutions have stood idle, going along to get along with mainstream evangelicalism! In so doing, they have helped the enemy! They are now on enemy territory, pulling on the same rope as the Devil! People in the churches are as confused as ever! God is not the author of confusion (1st Corinthians 14:33), but Satan is!

The Devil fully knows that the most effective deception is the half-truth. For example: When the Devil perverts the plan of salvation, he starts off with the truth that eternal life is a gift. So he'll tell you that getting saved is a gift, but then he'll add the unbiblical requirement to "turn from your sins" also. So now the Devil has you foolishly thinking that salvation is a gift that you must do something to get. You've been deceived!

Whereas God has told Adam and Eve they could freely eat of every tree in the Garden of Eden except one (Genesis 2:16-17), the serpent (Satan) lied to Eve and convinced her that God told them not to eat from any of the trees (Genesis 3:1). Satan tricked Eve by presenting his lie in the form of a question. Satan is very subtle. Where do you think the ungodly newsmedia gets their training? That's right, from the Devil who is their spiritual father.

[4]The Greatest Book In The World! (video, Pastor Danny Castle; The King James Bible is God's Word!)

Beware of Satan's Poison Apples

My friend, Satan is a big liar! The Devil is deceiving the whole world, even most of the churches (Revelation 12:9). But you don't have to be deceived if you're a born-again Christian who walks with God, abiding in the King James Bible! You show me a professed Christian who doesn't make a fuss over which Bible version is accurate, and I'll show you a weak believer (if they're saved at all), who doesn't truly walk close to the Lord. Amos 3:3, "Can two walk together, except they be agreed?" How can any Christian walk with God in a dozen Bible revisions? You cannot! God's Words are incorruptible. We are born-again by the incorruptible Word of God. 1st Peter 1:23, "Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever." A person cannot be born anew from corruptible words!!! You've seen how the new Bible revisions pervert mark 10:24 and Acts 8:37.

In John 3:16, the new versions completely remove the word "begotten" concerning Jesus as the Son of God. I am an adopted son of God, and so is every believer (John 1:12). Romans 8:15 says we cry out to God, "whereby we cry, Abba, Father." God has many sons, but Jesus is the only "BEGOTTEN" (biological) Son of God. That's an important truth. Hence, all of the modern Bible revisions teach heresy, claiming that Jesus is God's "only son," because Jesus is not God's only son. Jesus is God's only "begotten" Son. Amen!

The moral of this lesson is very clear... use only the precious KING JAMES BIBLE. If you have any of the modern Bible PERversions, rip them up and throw them away, or burn them in your barbeque! Do the Lord a favor! God loves when His children are hot, not lukewarm. God doesn't want us to be cold, that is, carnal; but Revelation 3:15-16 teaches that God would much rather prefer for us to be cold than lukewarm (middle of the road). The corrupt Bible revision crowd are unsaved. You cannot be born again from corruptible word. There are many Christians who were saved under the King James Bible, but due to sinful compromise with the ecumenical movement, have embraced the Devil's dirty dozen as well!

The average neo-evangelical churchgoer uses about a dozen favorite Bible revisions (of literally hundreds of English revisions available) to form their warped theology. I call these the “Devil’s dirty dozen”! Some neo-evangelicals are saved, most are not! The heresy of “turning from sins” to be saved (aka, Lordship Salvation) originates in the Alexandrian, Egypt, Bible perversions. Turning from sins is a work, which is effectively the same thing as keeping the works of the law to be saved, which God forbids. Romans 3:20, “Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.” God’s law (i.e., the Ten Commandments) makes our sin exceedingly sinful (Romans 7:13), showing us our guilty condition when we break God’s commandments, so that we may become guilty before God (Romans 3:19).

Eternal life and forgiveness of sins is a free gift (Ephesians 2:8-10). A gift may simply be taken. You cannot require anything more of the recipient of a gift, other than to take it, otherwise it ceases to be a gift. It is easy, free and simple to get to Heaven!

2.5.6 A Deadly Misunderstanding Of James Chapter Two (2021-05-14 09:30)

James 2:17-24, “

Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

This is one of the most misunderstood, hotly debated and abused passages of Scripture in the Bible. I love something that Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) said:

“A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.

” There is no argument that James chapter 2 is an obscure passage, which is exactly why it is hotly debated in theology circles. In sharp contrast, the Gospel of John is very plain. John teaches the reader simply to “believe” 85 times, without any mention of repentance, confessing Christ publicly, water baptism, turning away from sinful bad habits or growing. The Gospel of John is abundantly clear, with no obscurity, concerning how to get to Heaven. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

There is a deadly heresy commonly taught by the Lordship Salvation crowd, which says James chapter 2 is teaching that faith alone cannot save a person. Advocates of Lordship Salvation claim that if a person’s life has not changed, they are not saved because their faith is not genuine. So effectively, advocates of Lordship Salvation have a different understanding and definition of faith than the Bible does. This wrong meaning of faith held by the proponents of Lordship Salvation, is the [1]SAME theological error held by the Seventh Day Adventist cult. Likewise, the Mormon religious cult also teach the SAME Lordship Salvation as do Marty Herron, Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary; Sam Horn, Master’s University (John MacArthur’s school); Steve Pettit, Bob Jones University; Gary Walton, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam;

Charles and Daniel Phelps,

Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis

, Indiana; Ray Comfort, Living Waters; and countless more theological frauds and pulpit devils. All of these heretics are hellbound without true salvation.

Pastor Curtis Hutson rightly exposes these wicked false prophets, preaching THE TRUTH that they cannot be saved until they repent of their wrong idea of what it means to repent...

The Bible meaning of repentance is simply “ a change of mind,

not a change of lifestyle. Advocates of the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation wrest (torture) the Bible to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17). They totally ignore the clear teaching of the entire Gospel of John, wresting an obscure passage of Scripture to bolster up their straw man heresies of turning away from sin, surrendering all to Christ, following Jesus as no matter what the cost, faithfully running the race and exchanging all that you are for all that He is, to be saved. These are the crazy theological things that the aforementioned false prophets all preach!!!

I was listening to a heretical sermon today by the son of Pastor Church Phelps (the [2]pastor who shamefully covered up for a rapist in New Hampshire). Daniel Phelps preaches this heretical sermon titled: "[3]Faith That Works." In the horrible sermon, Daniel teaches that someone's faith in Jesus Christ as Savior is ineffective to save, if that faith does not INCLUDE works, which he heretically defines as:

- Real faith is demonstrated by our activities.
- Real faith is proven by testing.
- Real faith is rewarded by God.
- Be motivated by the reward your perseverance is sure to bring.

These false teachings by Daniel Phelps are NOT what the inspired King James Bible teaches! I receive so many emails from worried professed Christians, scared that they might not be saved because of an abundance of sins in their life. They are worried after hearing corrupt preachers from the Bob Jones University camp, like Charles and Daniel Phelps, and Marty Herron, and Gary Walton and John MacArthur. These evil men are all infidels!!! They are the ENEMIES of God, corrupters of God's free gift of grace and eternal life (Ephesians 2:8-9).

The famous author of the book Pilgrim's Progress, and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan said it well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Daniel Phelps (like his perverse father) are corrupt on God's grace, both preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9). The Bob Jones camp cast stumbling blocks before their students, infiltrating and infecting thousands of Baptist churches with the deadly poison of Calvinism. I am sick and tired of hearing these reprobates of the faith, who ADD living a changed life to faith alone. They lie and still maintain that salvation is wholly by grace alone, yet they insist that you must live a changed life to proven that your faith is genuine. That is NOT faith.

Dear friend, if I offer you a gift for your birthday, all you would need to do is take it. But what if I said that I am going to be watching your behavior over the coming year, to see how you are doing? And what if I tell you that you will lose the gift I am handing to you, if you fail to live a certain way? First, you would think I am a nut. Second, you certainly wouldn't feel like it is a gift. So why is it that when it comes to God's gift of eternal life, by faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and bodily resurrected from the dead the third day, we can no longer conceive the meaning of a free gift?

At the end of the perverse sermon, Daniel Phelps says that those who "persevere" will receive the "reward" of Heaven. This is the [4]same damnable garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit (shameful president of Bob Jones University) preaches. These wicked men are NOT true believers! They preach a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. There is no assurance of salvation in their theology, because you cannot KNOW you are saved until you've proven that it is real, by living a holy life, activities, testing and persevering. These corrupters of grace cast stumbling stones before the people, confusing sanctification within by justification without. The Christian believer is justified by faith alone in an instant; but sanctification (growing in the Lord) takes a lifetime. Millions of believers choose to live in sin, and do not attend church. They have dirty minds. They drink booze. Many live in the sin of fornication, with no intention of getting married at any time. The Lordship Salvation camp says they are not really saved, because they have never repented of their sins. They are WRONG!

Dear reader, I hope you are listening. I am telling you THE TRUTH. God's free gift of eternal life is obtained without any obligation to you whatsoever to change your life. Reformation (turning away from sins) is not repentance (a change of mind). Penitence is sorrow for sins, not repentance. Penance is trying to make a mend for sin, not repentance. Repentance is realizing that you are a guilty needy sinner in the sight of a Holy God (Romans 3:19-20), which compels you to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be forgiven and saved eternally (Acts 16:30-31). Tens of millions of churchgoers are being led into the fires of Hell by the Bob Jones University camp today, with their damnable lies of [5]Misunderstood Repentance and [6]Lordship Salvation. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) also faithfully exposes BJU's [7]False Bibles, which is the source of their damnable heresies.

James chapter 2 simply refers to being justified in the eyes of men. The key verse is James 2:18, "

Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

" Carefully notice that James says I WILL SHEW YOU! James wasn't speaking about being justified in the sight of God. The Apostle Paul speaks of justification in the sight of God in Romans 4:4-6, which is BY FAITH ALONE WITHOUT WORKS. The Bible even says that in Romans 4:5! Yet, these theological liars (like Marty Herron, Chuck and Daniel Phelps) will tell you salvation is still by grace, while insisting that you must WORK to prove that your faith is real. Even a small child can see that this rotten apple has worms!!!

2.5.7 Like NASA In 1986, Today's Pastors Are Not Listening (2021-05-16 04:58)

Proverbs 14:12, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death."

Matthew 7:21,

"Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

In 1986, the day before the Space Shuttle Challenger was launched in Florida, and exploded in flight, [1]engineers warned NASA officials that it was not safe to launch the rocket below 53 degrees Fahrenheit. Despite the outside temperature being below freezing, NASA officials decided to go against the engineers (you know, the scientists who designed the rocket). Seven astronauts were murdered by NASA officials. Some stupid bureaucrats DIDN'T LISTEN TO THE WARNING from the engineers who built the rocket!!!

Likewise, God is the engineer of the plan of salvation for mankind. God has given us His engineering manual, called the Holy Bible. We have that blessed Book today in the inspired King James Bible. Since God designed and built the rocket that will take us to Heaven, He alone has a right to tell us how to use that rocket. The Gospel is God's rocket to Heaven. The Gospel means GOOD NEWS! It is the "Good News" of Jesus Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who comes to God as an admitted guilty sinner in need of redemption, receiving Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, trusting upon the risen Savior by faith alone, is saved.

It is so sad that seven astronauts needlessly died in 1986, because some corporate big shots thought they knew more than the contractor engineers. But wait, we see this same arrogance today in thousands of foolish pastors, who won't follow the Gospel. Instead, they are following a corrupt theologian who lived 500 years ago named John Calvin (1509-1564). Today, Calvinism has been cleverly repackaged into a heresy known as Lordship Salvation. This lie of Satan teaches that faith is not enough to be saved. In addition, Lordship Salvation requires that you surrender all to Jesus as your "Lord" to be saved. Proponents of this deadly heresy still deceitfully maintain that salvation is wholly by grace, but say if you don't have WORKS your faith is not genuine and you're not really saved. Clearly, that is a works based type of false salvation. The true Gospel taught in the Bible excludes works in all its forms!

Dear reader, we've got a bunch of big shot pastors today, who think they know more than God. The fact of the matter is that you cannot show me even one Bible verse that teaches to "repent of your sin" or "turn away from your sin" to be saved. So why does Bob Jones University (BJU) and many of their alumni preach another gospel of Lordship Salvation? [2]As you will read in this blog, BJU today is not the same college it was 75 years ago [3]when Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) was still at the helm. BJU is a perfect example of how easy it is for the Devil to creep heresy into an institution over time. Because of Dr. John MacArthur's worldly success as a pastor in Sun Valley, California (being an alumni of BJU), they idolize and follow his ministry at BJU. This is tragic, because [4]Pastor John MacArthur is very wrong on the Gospel. In fact, Mr. MacArthur's plan of salvation is so foreign to what the Bible teaches, and so difficult, that [5]he says children cannot be saved. That is not God's simple plan of salvation.

Dear friend, I highly recommend that you listen to God concerning salvation, and not what men say. I don't want you to believe what I say. I want you to search the Scriptures (John 5:39), and see if the things I say are so. Go look for yourself in the Bible, and see if it says to turn away from your sins to receive God's free gift of eternal life. And please make sure you only use the inspired King James Bible, because all of the Devil's modern Bible revisions are corrupt! You cannot trust any of them!!! All of Satan's apples have worms! The only inspired Words of God in the English language today are in the King James Bible.

Has Been Corrupted To Obtain A Legal Copyright

The [7]modern Bible revisions are ALL corrupt!

Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." The Bob Jones University crowd have been deceived by Satan. I do believe some of them are saved, because of the crossover between free grace churches and corrupt Lordship Salvation churches. There is a lot of confusion in the churches today, which is exactly how Satan hinders people from being born again (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). It all depends on a person's mindset, if they have ever truly grasped and embraced the Gospel personally to be born-again. You'd be shocked if you knew how many churchgoers have never been born anew by the Holy Spirit of God. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life (Lordship Salvation), without ever being born again. That is what Luke 13:23-24 means.

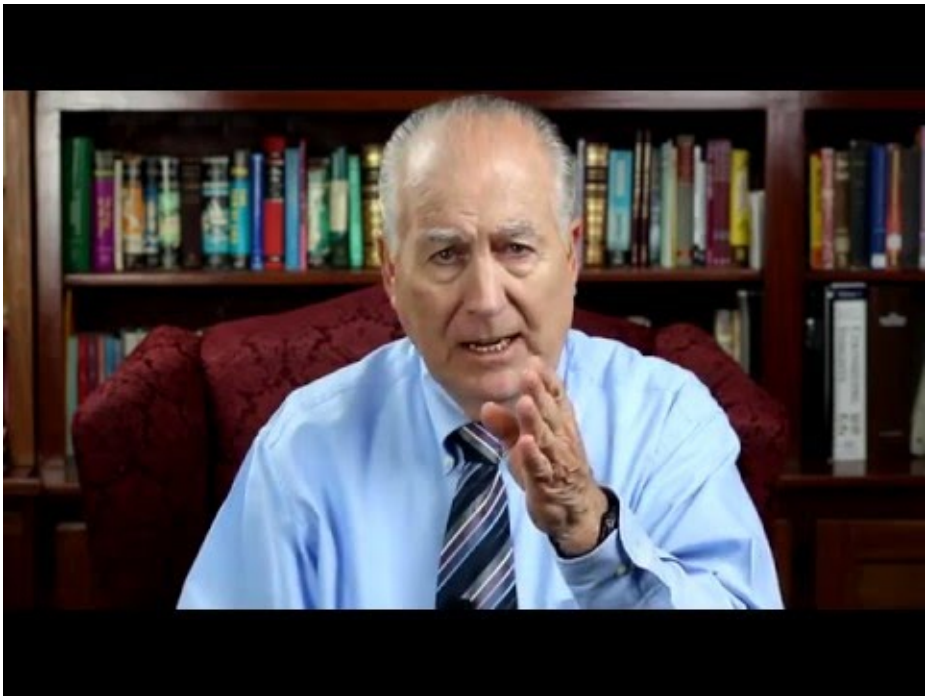
The Space Shuttle Challenger disaster in 1986 was tragic, but avoidable, if NASA's leaders had simply listened to the engineers. It was too cold outside, which caused the giant O-ring to contract and not expand enough to seal properly during lift off. Seven innocent people died that day. It certainly can be called murder! NASA's protocol was intentionally violated. We see this today in tens of thousands of churches, violating God's protocol, [8]perverting the Gospel into something entirely different! Please watch this excellent video presentation by one of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, so you can know HOW TO BE SAVED:



The Clear Gospel In 4 Minutes (Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

2.5.8 Colossians 3:24 - The Reward Of The Inheritance (2021-05-19 09:30)

Colossians 3:22-25, "Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons."

One of my favorite preachers is Evangelist Charles John Ellicott (1819–1905). He was a distinguished English Christian theologian, academic and churchman. Ellicott states concerning Colossians 3:22-25:

> (22-25) Compare throughout [1]Ephesians 6:5-9. The only peculiarity of this passage is the strong emphasis laid on "the reward of the inheritance." "The reward" is in the original, a perfect recompense or requital. The "inheritance" is exactly that which no slave could receive; only a son could be an heir ([2]Galatians 4:7). Hence the slave on earth is recognised as a son in heaven. He "serves the Lord," but his service is the perfect freedom of sonship.
> SOURCE: [3]https://biblehub.com/commentaries/ellicott/colossians/3.htm

I love that! The Apostle Paul encourages the lowest form of earthly slave, by reminding them that in God's eyes they are SONS, and have all the same rights and privileges of inheritance as BIOLOGICAL SONS (even though they are adopted sons by faith - John 1:12; Romans 8:15). So the "reward of the inheritance" here means that even though they are mere slaves to their masters, and not qualified to be treated as sons, God will reward them for their labors as if they were sons.

I think the story of the Prodigal Son is a good example of this truth. Both were sons. Both had an inheritance coming that they were entitled to. Yet we see how one son squandered his inheritance from the father. The other worked hard faithfully and pleased his father. Likewise, all believers are justified by faith alone. We are all sons. We are all entitled to a divine inheritance. Yet, only those who turn many to righteousness shall shine as the brightness of the stars forever (Daniel 12:3). Some believers will have treasures laid up in eternity (Matthew 6:19-20), while others will have no rewards (1st Corinthians 3:15).

The faithful son was upset with his father for throwing a party for the prodigal son who returned, killing the fatted calf and putting a ring on his irresponsible brother's finger. Who could blame the faithful son for being frustrated and peeved? Yet, we see the great wisdom of the father, which represents our heavenly Father. The Dad enlightened the faithful son that it was right and proper to rejoice that the prodigal son had repented and come back home, but he reminds his faithful son that everything he owns is his, not just a fatted calf and a ring.

Likewise, all believers are entitled to Heaven, but faithful believers will be entitled by their faithfulness to greater rewards in eternity (1st Corinthians 3:8-9). Revelation 22:12, "And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be."

This is why we must separate SERVICE from SALVATION. God rewards faithful service, but salvation is by faith alone. The beautiful story of the Prodigal Son shows us the difference in how different children are rewarded by God for faithfulness, yet both are sons who are entitled to an inheritance.

Many believers are wasting their time, money and spiritual gifts from God here on earth, for which they will one day regret it dearly at the Judgment Seat Of Christ:

> 2nd Corinthians 5:9-11, "Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
>
> For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.
> Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences."

This passage of Scripture is NOT about salvation. As believers we will be held accountable by the Lord for our works. Revelation 14:13, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. " Right now it is time to LABOR for believers. There is always much work to be done. The world is literally dying for Christians who are real, who proclaim THE TRUTH and care!

Sadly, the average Neo-evangelical church today is only concerned about making money, with no interest in soulwinning. I attended the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam for a year in 2014. They have no soulwinning program. That's the barren Bob Jones University crowd today, with their [4]perverse counterfeit gospel of Lordship Salvation. Neo-evangelicals reject and intentionally avoid the word "soulwinning" because it is commonly attributed to Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who was in my humble opinion responsible for more soulwinning than any other preacher of the 20th century. The Bible says winning souls is wise. Proverbs 11:30, "The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise."

One day the Lord will welcome every believer home, throwing a big party in Heaven, making us feel loved and welcomed. Yet, those believers who haven't been faithful to serve God won't enjoy Heaven as much as the believers who did, laboring to win souls by preaching the Gospel and laying up treasures in Heaven. If all believers will have everything equal, then what would be the purpose of laboring for Christ to earn rewards? (1st Corinthians 3:7-9). What would be the benefit of laying up treasures in Heaven? (Matthew 6:19-20). What would be the reason for counting the cost and paying the price of discipleship?

Luke 14:27-28, "

And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

" This is not salvation, this is service.

Pastor M.R. DeHaan (1891-1965) explains the difference very well:

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one > accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." DeHaan, M. R. Hebrews. Zondervan Publishing House, 1959 (p. 117).

Bravo! I couldn't have said it any better.

The Lord knows your efforts. Hebrews 6:10, " For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister." The Lord promised to reward us even for giving a cup of water in a disciple's name, not in Jesus' name. The Bible is saying that God is so ethical that He is going to reward a Christian who helps another believer, who is helping another believer, who is helping Christ. The man at the auto parts store who helps the church mechanic, who is helping his pastor, gets a reward for ultimately helping Christ. That is so awesome and wonderful. God is a good God.

2.5.9 Very Few People Are Going To Heaven (2021-05-20 21:09)

Matthew 7:13-15, "

Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." Luke 13:23-24, "

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

The Bible teaches that very "FEW" people will be going to Heaven. Very few people throughout human civilization have gone to Heaven. Very few people in the future will be going to Heaven. This is what our precious Lord Jesus said in our text passages. Luke 13:23-24 says that "MANY" people will seek to enter into Heaven, but shall not be able. That clearly implies that these people will be under some form of deception, thinking that they can enter into the Pearly City, but will be denied access.

We often hear preachers quote Matthew 7:13-15 and Matthew 7:21-23, but they rarely ever connect these two passages. They go together! Matthew 7:21-23, " Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. ” This is why only a “FEW” people will go to Heaven. They have not put their faith in Christ alone, which is the will of the Father (John 6:40).

Churches everywhere today are counterfeit churches. They claim to believe in Jesus Christ. They profess salvation by grace alone. They look, behave and talk like Christians. Yet, they have not done the will of the Father. They are doing TOO MUCH! A perfect example are all the false religions in the world who ADD water baptism to faith in Christ. In theology we call this heresy, “Baptismal Regeneration.” You cannot be regenerated (born again) by getting dunked in a baptistery. Jesus said in John 3:7b, “YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN.”

The way to Heaven is super simple. It is a free gift. It is without any works. Getting saved is the simplest thing, so simple that even a small child can be saved—simply by BELIEVING! If by faith oh sinner, will receive Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried, but three days later He resurrected from the dead, you are saved. This is “the Gospel,” meaning “

Good News

” or “Glad Tidings” (1st Corinthians 15:1-6). The only thing that you contribute to your salvation is the sin that made it necessary! Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do. If you add anything to this, you will go to Hell.

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) fully understood this great truth...

> “More people will die and burn in Hell, because they’re trusting too much!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[1]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”
> “Everything that’s hard and complicated about salvation is God’s side of it!” —Pastor Jack Hyles, a precious quote from the MP3 sermon, “[2]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!”

I encourage you to listen to the above sermon, “Yes, Yea, And Nay, Nay.” It is a wonderful sermon all about the simplicity of God’s plan of salvation. I thank God for Dr. Hyles, and Pastors’ Curtis Hutson, Ralph Yankee Arnold, Max Younce, Hank Lindstrom, Ray Stanford and genuine other men of God, who faithfully preached a simple free grace Gospel. It is tragic that over 95 % of churches today are teaching “ another gospel

” that cannot produce the new birth. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4,

“But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.”

Getting saved is as simple as BELIEVING in Jesus as your Savior. We get saved by getting out of the way, letting Christ do ALL the saving. Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.” This passage speaks about salvation. What labour

1490

must we do to be saved? John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Do you plainly see dear friend how everything in the Bible keeps pointing to one thing to be saved?—BELIEVING ON JESUS!!!

“ [3]The One Thing That Determines Salvation ”

(by Pastor Curtis Hutson)

I am telling you these things dear friend, because I care about you. I get so sad when I hear about famous celebrities who died, and they no doubt went to Hell. Of course, the unsaved world NEVER says that anyone went to Hell. According to the lost world, everyone goes to Heaven. But that is not what the Bible teaches. And even worse, most of the religious people in this world are hellbound. Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world, because religion offers people a false hope, comforting them in them lost condition. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!

Another woeful evil that I see today (especially in Baptist churches today) is the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation. Just like the crime of adding water baptism to faith alone, the Lordship Salvation crowd add “turning away from your sins” and “surrendering all to Christ as ’Lord”’ to be saved. I am so sick of this Lordship Salvation mess! [4]So also was Dr. Jack Hyles!!!

Sadly, [5]Bob Jones University and most of their graduates trust in a perverse gospel of turning from your sins to be saved, which is not the way of salvation. BJU has adopted the Roman Catholic meaning of repentance. To “repent” in the Bible simply means “a change of mind,” nothing more. Anyone who says that a person still living in willful sin never really repented, and so their faith in not genuine and they’re not saved, is a false teacher. Many people in the Bob Jones camp, and in other religious circles that preach Lordship Salvation, live in fear and uncertainty about their salvation. [6]Look at the horrible perverse gospel that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU) preaches. This is not the Gospel set forth in the King James Bible!!!

It is not that difficult to see why so few people are going to Heaven. Whether it be the Seven Sacraments added by the Catholic Church, or turning away from your sin as the Bob Jones crowd require, or adding water Baptism as do the Church of Christ and Mormons, or keeping the Sabbath as do Seventh-Day Adventists —this is NOT the simplicity that is in Christ, which is THE GOSPEL. Mankind has an insatiable desire to complicate God’s simple plan of salvation. What saith the Scripture? John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

Why is this truth so hard for people to grasp? Why do wicked people require more than God does to get to Heaven? You can do what you want dear reader, but I simply BELIEVE IN JESUS. I am resting 100 % in Christ, because of what He did on the cross to pay for my sins. He was buried and three days later miraculously raised up for our justification. I am trusting the GOOD NEWS and nothing more. I came to God as a guilty sinner as a 13 year old boy. I heard the Gospel preached and I gladly believed it. That is all God requires to get to Heaven.

2.5.10 Make Sure You've Been Born Again (2021-05-23 13:54)

John 3:1-7, "There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

Dear friend, Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again. We often call this "Calvinism" (i.e., the false teachings of a man named John Calvin, 1509-1564). This falsehood has been repackaged in these modern times, known as "Lordship Salvation." These falsehoods requires more than faith to be saved. Proponents of this heresy say that you must " surrender all to Christ as Lord,

or your faith is invalid.

We are told that if we don't have WORKS, then our faith in Jesus is not genuine. Of course, these are lies of Satan, because we know biblically that faith is all that is required to be saved. Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. "

Dear reader, there are hundreds of millions of churchgoers around the world who have never been saved. It is sad but true. You'd be shocked if you knew how many people attend church every Sunday, go through all the motions of Christianity, play the game just right, but have never been born again. If they died this moment, they would split Hell wide open and burn forever in the torments of fire, suffering day and night without rest in smoke and flame (Revelation 14:11; 20:12-15; 21:8). Hell is a real literal place, where all Christ-rejecters go! Believing in God does not produce the new birth (James 2:19). Praying does not produce the new birth (Matthew 6:7-8). As we see with Cornelius in Acts 10, being a good man (praying , giving alms to the poor, fasting and fearing God) does not produce the new birth.

We read a horrifying true story in Matthew 7:21-23 about a group of people who did "prophesy" (preached) in Jesus' name. They did "many wonderful works" in Jesus' name. They even “cast out devils” in Jesus’ name. Yet, Jesus said the most horrifying words anyone could ever hear: “I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.” These people were dedicated to preaching in the name of Jesus. They were wholly committed to doing good works and making a difference for the cause of Christ. So how could they go to Hell? Why did Jesus say He didn’t even know them as His sheep?

Dear friend, I ask you: “Have you been born again? Matthew 7:21, “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.” What is the will of the Father in Heaven? John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.” There you have it! The will of the Father is to BELIEVE ON THE SON! John 3:36, “He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.”

You get born again by believing on the only begotten Son of God. To get to Heaven you must know the WHO, WHAT and WHY concerning Jesus Christ:

- WHO - Who is Jesus? Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31).
- WHAT - What did Jesus do? Jesus died on the cross to pay for our sins. He was buried. Three days later He physically resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel, or Good News, by which we are saved if we believe (1st Corinthians 15:1-6).
- WHY - Why do we need to believe on Christ? All men are guilty sinners (Romans 3:19-23). Therefore, we deserve to be punished in Hell (Revelation 21:8). All humans need redemption. Jesus is the only Savior, our Mediator between God and men (1st Timothy 2:5).

You can join and be a key figure in your church all the days of your life, from the cradle to the casket, and yet go straight to Hell when you die forever! YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN!!! Have you been born again? Perhaps you think you do in fact trust Christ, but your Church of Christ also requires water baptism to be saved. Dear friend, if that is you, I assure you that you have never been born again. Partial faith in Christ plus water baptism does not produce the second birth. You absolutely must rest completely in Jesus Christ, because of what He did to pay for your sins through Calvary’s cross. Hebrews 4:10-11, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.”

Perhaps you think that to get to Heaven, you had to turn away from your sinful lifestyle. If that is how you think you got saved, I assure you that you have never been born again. Adding even the slightest bit of human effort negates one’s faith! We hear the [1]apostate Bob Jones University crowd today, foolishly preaching that you must “[2]repent and turn away from your sin” to be saved, but in fact the Bible teaches the exact opposite, as I just showed you from Hebrews 4:10, “For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. ” How is it then that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) and BJU’s thousands of alumni, add to the free grace Gospel, requiring WORKS to prove the genuineness of the reality of one’s faith? I hope you see that utter contradiction.

You must choose sides dear reader. Will you do good works to prove that your faith is real, on penalty of damnation if you fail to faithfully “run the race” as Steve Pettit errantly teaches? Or will you cease from your own works, as the inspired King James Bible teaches in Hebrews 4:10? Your choice will determine the difference between Heaven or Hell, between living the religious life versus being born again by faith alone without works (Romans 4:5-6). I am the best friend you have this moment, because I am telling you THE TRUTH.

If God meant works, then He would have said works! If God meant that works are necessary to prove the reality of the genuineness of our faith, then He would have said so, but He didn't. The Epistle of James, chapter 2, is often misused in a foolish attempt to justify the heresy of Lordship Salvation. However, James plainly said "

shew me

thy faith, and

I will shew thee

" my faith. James 2:18, "Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and*I will shew thee* my faith by my works. " James is clearly speaking about being justified in the sight of men by works, not by God. We are justified in the sight of God by faith alone (Romans 4:1-6).

Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again? Have you been born again?

Jesus can read your mind. He knows the very moment that you put your trust in Him. If you want to be born again, you MUST know that you're a sinner. 1st John 1:8-10 says we are calling God a liar if we deny our sinfulness. I sure am a sinner, and so are you friend. We've all broken God's commandments. We've all lied. We've all lusted. We've all hated someone, which the Bible says is equivalent to murdering them (Matthew 5:21-22). We've all lusted, which the Bible says is equivalent to adultery (Matthew 5:27-28).

The wages that we earn by sinning is death, both the first physical death and the second death in Hell. Romans 6:23, "

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

ote that the second death is not a spiritual death, as many people errantly think. Ephesians 2:1 teaches that the unsaved person is already spiritually dead, which is why we all must be BORN AGAIN by God's Holy Spirit (John 1:12-13). Unless a man is born anew from above, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. There are absolutely no exceptions! Every human being is born spiritually dead.

When Adam sinned in the Garden of Eden, sin and death entered into the human race. Consequently, death passed upon all men, for all have sinned (Romans 5:12; 3:23). If a person never gets born-again by the Holy Spirit of God, then they will go to Hell. This is the second death according to Revelation 21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." So the second death is for those who are already spiritually dead.

Please make sure you've been [3]BORN AGAIN dear friend.

2.5.11 A Very Good Reason Not To Trust The Bob Jones University Crowd Today (2021-05-24 06:50)

Matthew 4:4, "But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Acts 19:32, "

Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused*; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

" 2nd Corinthians 2:17,

For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God*: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ."

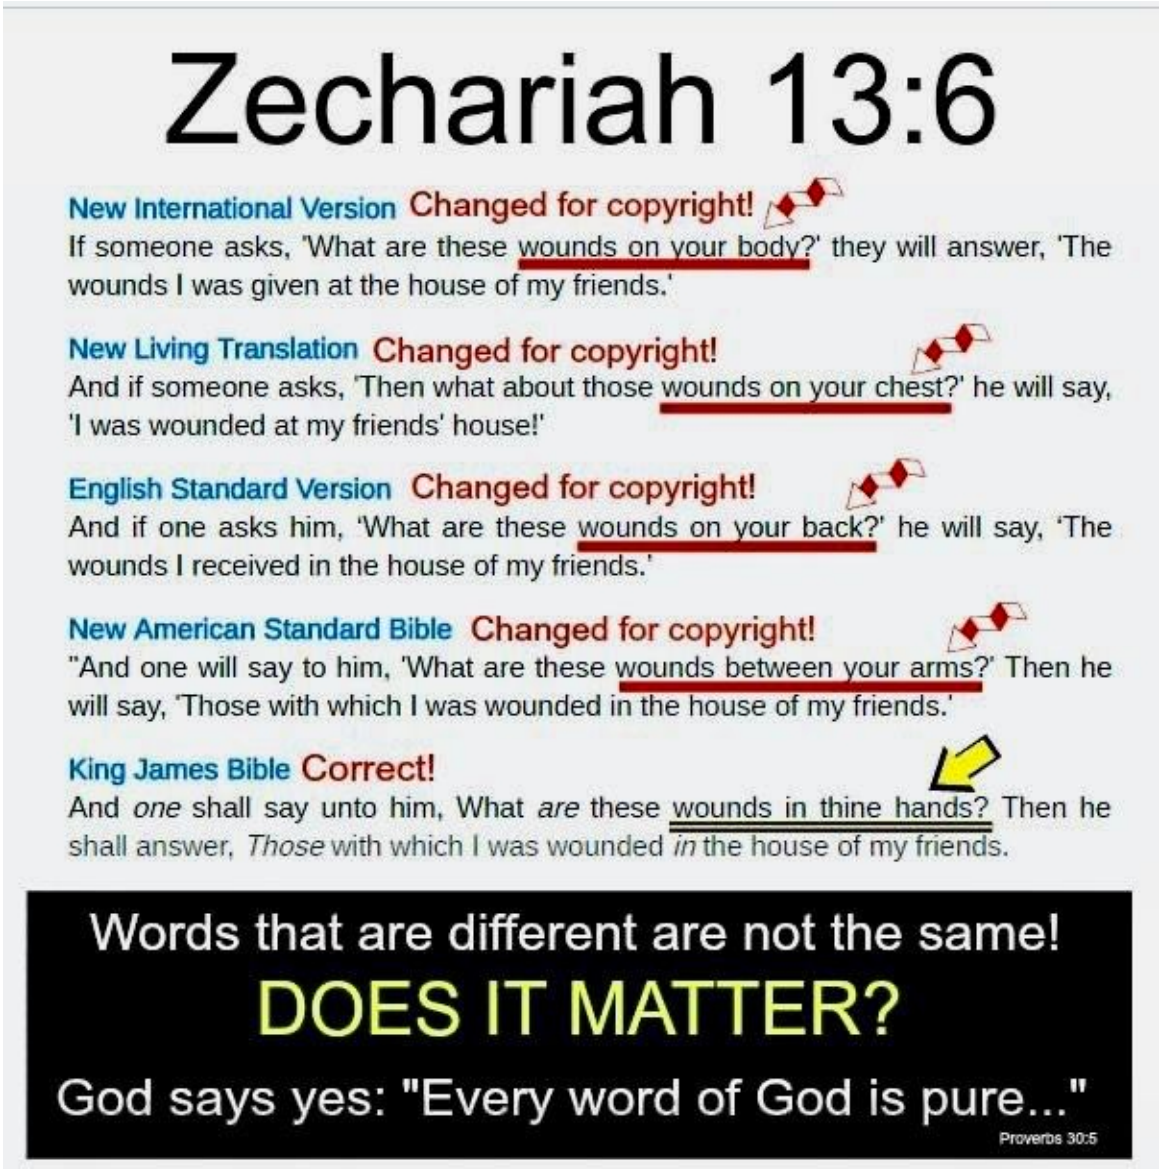
Our text passages make very clear that to live for God, we need EVERY WORD of God. That means we need an accurate Holy Bible. But there's a big problem then, because there are literally HUNDREDS of English Bible revisions. Which one's are accurate? If you listen to the ungodly Neo-evangelical crowd from Bob Jones University, they will downplay the seriousness of the matter, claiming that the differences are minor between the different versions. Here's the ugly truth that they will NEVER show you...



The Blatant Corruption In Today's Devil's

Bibles, Changed Merely For Copyright

Dear reader, A VERY GOOD reason not to trust the Bob Jones University crowd today is that they sanction this insanity! If you go look at [2]BJU's Campus Bookstore, you'll find that they sell at least FOUR different versions of the Bible, including the Satanic Westcott and Hort [3]corrupted English Standard Version (ESV). These modern PERversions are Devil's Bibles! [4]Pastor Al Lacy (1933-2016) had it right!!! Today's Baptist pastors don't stand for anything anymore! They don't stand for the infallibility and inspiration of the King James Bible anymore. They don't stand for the literal liquid blood of Jesus applied to the heavenly Mercy Seat. They don't stand for the importance of the local New Testament church.

Churches don't run bus ministries anymore to reach families for Christ. They've dipped their sails and sold out for making money. Academics has replaced soulwinning! Today's pathetic pastors just want their next paycheck, and don't care about soulwinning. I cannot remember the last time I heard a Baptist preacher cry aloud against the evils of abortion, booze, dancing, gambling, covetousness and adultery! Pastor don't preach the Gospel anymore, they've all sold out to accept the damnable heresy of Lordship Salvation as if it's a valid opinion within orthodox theology. No, Lordship Salvation is a lie of Satan!!! Today's chicken ranch pastors are no longer preachers!

And don't get me started on Pensacola Christian College (PCC), because they don't stand for anything today. They have chosen to remain neutral in the things of God, going along to get along with fake Bibles, Lordship Salvation and misunderstood repentance. PCC is nowhere to be found in the spiritual battle today, they're just making more money. I've met their pathetic graduates, who don't stand against the Devil's Bibles. They don't expose the Devil's Lordship Salvation. They rub shoulders with them! That is why I couldn't attend the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, because their horrible pastor called Harvest Baptist Church on Guam their " sister church.

GET THEE BEHIND ME, SATAN!!! You mean sister in spiritual whoredom! Harvest is a cesspool of Calvinism!!! I will not bid Godspeed to these evildoers, not at PCC or BJU. Sadly, Dr. Jack Hyles was so right, pastors no longer stand!

Words Matter To God!

Proverbs 30:5-6, " Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him. Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

Folks, you simply cannot trust anyone who uses, sells and sanctions multiple Bible versions. The very idea is absurd. Would you use two different road maps, if they conflicted and led different ways? Of course not, you'd pick which one seemed accurate and throw the other one away! That is what you need to do with your multiple Bibles if you have more than one version. Pick which one you believe is true, and toss the other one into the trash. I'll help you out, if you're not using a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible!!!

Please don't trust these confused people today in the Bob Jones camp. I literally heard Pastor Marty Herron at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam apologize for surfing the internet during the special music before his Sunday morning sermon. He shamefully told the church that he was “searching different versions of the Bible” to prepare his sermon. Folks, do you really want to trust a confused man like that, a religious leader who cannot even spiritually discern which Bible God authored?

Sadly, Marty Herron is now corrupting young people as the Executive Vice President of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. Spiritual crime pays well! These ungodly false teachers prey upon the naïve, serving their own belly and not the Lord Jesus Christ, raking in the money. Herron gets paid a sickening 6-digit salary, trusting in his [8]uncertain riches instead of a free grace Gospel. Anyone (like Herron) who teaches that you must “ repent and turn from your sin

to be saved is trusting in uncertain riches. It is fool’s gold, a false gospel. These wicked men must be marked and exposed (Titus 1:10-13). [9]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) exposed them well!!! And so am I exposing them today!!! ...

> Romans 16:17-18, “ Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. 2.5.12 Does Matthew 9:13 Teach Repentance From Sin? (2021-05-26 21:43)

Matthew 9:10-13, "And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Does Matthew 9:13 teach repentance from sin? Someone asked me this question recently. The answer is, No absolutely not. We must also include verses 10-12 with verse 13. As a habit when studying the Bible, NEVER lift a text out of context lest you create a new context. The way to avoid this error is to simply read the entire passage. Many heresies could be avoided if Bible students would simply get into the habit of ALWAYS reading an entire passage before concluding what a particular Bible verse means. I see false teachers do this all the time, lifting a single Bible verse out of context to support a particular heresy, while totally ignoring the rest of the related passage.

In Matthew 9:13 Jesus simply meant that He didn't come to save self-righteous people who don't see themselves as guilty sinners. Jesus came to save sinners (Luke 19:10). Jesus came to die for ungodly sinners (Romans 5:6-9). The word "repentance" here is the Greek noun metanoia, which means "a change of mind." The word never means "to turn away from sin" concerning salvation in the Bible. The English dictionary says to turn from sin, but that is NOT the Greek meaning in the Bible. The person who repents has simply changed their mind "toward God" (Acts 20:21), acknowledging "the truth" that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19; 2nd Timothy 2:25). Anyone who says repentance means to turn away from sin is perverting the Word of God.

We ought to depart from iniquity because we are saved, not to get saved (2nd Timothy 2:19). But when a believer chooses to sin (and we all do at times), God's grace will much more abound (Romans 5:20).

2.5.13 Our True Life Is In The Spirit, Not In The Body (2021-05-29 23:18)

Deuteronomy 33:27,

The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

Ecclesiastes 12:7,

Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

Luke 12:15,

And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

2nd Corinthians 5:4-8, " For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

(For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

I love listening to Bible preaching! My all-time mentor and favorite Bible preacher is Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001). I wish you all could have known Brother Hyles. I was privileged to be a part of Pastor Jack Hyles' beautiful ministry for 8 years, when I attended Hyles-Anderson College (1985-1993). The people online that horribly slander and attack Dr. Hyles in hatred absolutely don't what they're saying. I heard a very precious sermon today by Pastor Hyles called,

" [1]When You Hit Bottom .

In this sermon you can hear the great heart of Brother Hyles, and his love for people.

In the preceding sermon, "When You Hit The Bottom," at 23:45 minutes into the message, Pastor Hyles says something that touched my heart that I can strongly relate with. Dr. Hyles' biological father died at age 62 in 1950. His father was tended to by the same funeral home where U.S. President John F. Kennedy was taken when assassinated. Dr. Hyles said that he reached out his hand and physically touched his father's brow and it was cold. Brother Hyles said that startled him, because he hadn't expected his father's body to be COLD.

When I heard Dr. Hyles say that my heart was greatly encouraged, because in August of 2001 my own biological mother died. Brother Hyles also died in 2001, in February. I went with my father to the funeral home to see my mother, before she was cremated. My father couldn't afford to bury her in an expensive casket and funeral, which average between [2] $7,000 to $12,000. It's crazy what funeral homes charge, taking advantage of families during their time of loss. That has always bothered me.

Anyway, I went first into the large funeral room where my lifeless mother was laying on a gurney. My father was lagging behind, understandably, not wanting to see his wife of 36 years lifeless. I reached out the back of my left hand and placed my fingers upon her forehead. When my best friend growing up commit suicide at age 22 with his father's shotgun, I touched his right wrist (with the back of my fingers on my right hand) at the funeral wake. His wrist was hard, like touching a wooden table, from being embalmed.

My dead friend's wrist was ambient (room) temperature. So when I reached out to touch my deceased mother's brow, as a gesture of saying goodbye, I expected the same thing. But I was startled, and admit it felt a bit creepy, when I felt that she had been in a refrigerator. Her brow felt about 40 degrees, very cold and still moist to touch. I quickly realized that my friend had been embalmed and buried in a casket, but my mother was about to be cremated, so she hadn't been embalmed.

She had been stored in the morgue, refrigerated prior to cremation.

I was comforted that Brother Hyles also reached out to touch his dead father's brow, as I did my mother's brow. She was 65 years old. Dr. Hyles father was 62. Like brother Hyles, I expected a higher temperature. I didn't expect to feel coldness. It was a sobering moment for both Brother Hyles and myself. I am glad that I heard Dr. Hyles share this experience, so I can relate with him and share his experience with losing a loved one.

The big difference though is that my mother died IN THE LORD (Revelation 14:13), but Pastor Hyles' father died IN HIS SINS (John 8:24). Brother Hyles often shared the Gospel with his father, but he always procrastinated, putting it off until another day. Sadly, that day never came. What saith the Scripture?

2nd Corinthians 6:2, " (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)" Dear friend, it is not too late for you to get saved. Life is short, Hell is hot, and eternity is a long time! [3]Please don't put it off!

This earthly life is not who we really are! We are not a body with a spirit, we are all spirits living in a fleshly body on loan from God. Our text passage from Ecclesiastes 12:7 says that when our body dies, our spirit returns TO GOD Who gave it. God is the giver of life! So many people need help today. So many people are hurting. I wish I could inspire all my web visitors to get excited about the PROMISES OF GOD in the King James Bible.

So many religious people are familiar with their favorite celebrity preachers, but they cannot quote any Bible verses. Jesus commanded us in John 5:39a to "SEARCH THE SCRIPTURES," He didn't tell us to listen to religious men on TV, radio or the internet for answers. Sadly, millions of churchgoers have been inoculated from the inspired Word of God, injected with so-called Christian magazines, Christian radio, Christian devotions, Christian movies, Christian books, Christian meetings, Christian music, et cetera. Bless God, we all need to get back to " [4]THE BOOK THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE! " (Brother Lester Roloff, 1914-1982).

We all have burdens, heartaches and needs. I suffer in constant chronic neck pain. I have little patience. I get frustrated very easily. I am always humbly asking God to help me be more understanding and patient in my bodily suffering. So many folks need help. It seems like everybody needs somebody to help them. I sure need help, but there is nobody. I have to look up to my blessed Savior, and go it alone, with no local church to love me, and no wife, and no Christian friends on Guam. Lord willing, I am preparing to move, but it has been so difficult.

I receive so many e-mails from people who tell me that no one cares. A dear hurting lady this week said she is worried that she may have commit the " sin.

unpardonable

" She said the churches she has contacted for help either ignored her or didn't really care enough to take time to help her. It is my privilege to help others for Christ! I gladly spent a couple hours exchanging emails with her to teach and comfort her with the Holy Bible. I sent her some helpful sermons and books. I shared God's unconditional love with her. She was so grateful.

People need someone to care. I CARE! God knows that I care. I care about truth. I care about right. I care about people. Sadly, most churches today are shallow, going along to get along with their peers, unwilling to stand against fake Bibles, false gospels, misunderstood repentance and other falsehoods. I CARE! I am now listening to a beautiful sermon by Pastor Hyles called, " [5]I Quit .

" I hope you will listen to this wonderful helpful message on caring about others. I care dear reader. I CARE!

I am not allowed to attend the local Harvest Baptist Church on Guam because I CARED enough to befriend them with the truth. I took a biblical stand against the Devil's corrupt Bible revisions. I took a biblical stand against the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation. I took a biblical stand against the Devil's lie of misunderstood repentance. I loved them unconditionally, willing to become the villain for their eternal sakes. God help us to stay in the battle!

Our true life is not in this fleshly weak body, it is in the spirit that God gave us, which will one day return to Him. Are you ready to meet your Maker dear reader? I am. My name is written in Heaven. By God's grace I am redeeming the time, preaching the Gospel, making a difference for eternity. ...

> Gone, gone, gone, gone!
> Yes my sins are gone.
> Now my soul is free, and in my heart's a song;
> Buried in the deepest sea,
> Yes that's good enough for me;
> I shall live eternally, Praise God! My sins are gone.
>
> Hear this song sang: [6]MY SINS ARE GONE! ...

2.5.14 Why Is Lordship Salvation Becoming So Popular? (2021-05-31 21:48)

1st Corinthians 5:6, "

Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, “

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.” Galatians 5:9, “

A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump*.

I am greatly concerned about the churches today. All across America churches are being infiltrated and corrupted by the Devil’s lies of misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. These are two separate, but often related, false teachings today. Pastor Jack Hyles does an excellent job exposing the heresies of: [1]Misunderstood Repentance and [2]Lordship Salvation. These two doctrines of devils hinder people from getting born-again, which means they will go to Hell someday. Jesus plainly warned everyone in John 3:3b, “Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. ” There are no exceptions to this rule!

The word “fear” in 2nd Corinthians 11:3 is the Greek word phobeo, from which we get our English word phobia, which means “ to be alarmed.

” The reason why these deadly heresies have crept unawares into tens of thousands of churches is because preachers are no longer standing today! Preachers have become weak, tolerant of falsehoods, lackadaisical in their preaching duties and indifferent toward evil. Hardly anyone cares anymore!

The name of the game nowadays is money. Missionaries need their paychecks, so they stay quiet and don’t stand. Pastors need their parsonage and paychecks, so they don’t want to invite anything controversial into their churches. I heard a pathetic weakling for a pastor on Guam, Sean Quinlan, of the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam, say those very word to his congregation in 2018: “

THERE WILL BE NO CONTROVERSIES IN THIS CHURCH!

That were his foolish words. Of course, that was his way of trying to silence me. You can’t silence me friend!!! Mr. Quinlan is from Pensacola Christian College (PCC). PCC is all about the money, refusing to stand for anything controversial (like THE TRUTH)! PCC refuses to stand against the Devil’s corrupt Modern Bible revisions.

Consequently, PCC bids Godspeed to the wicked Bob Jones University crowd. Pastor Quinan literally called the sickening Harvest Baptist Church on Guam their “sister church.” Sister in spiritual whoredom you mean! God pity these wicked institutions today, who refuse to stand against evil. That dear reader is exactly WHY the demonic heresies of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance have so easily crept into the churches. Pastor would rather remain NEUTRAL in the things of God, than to stand and be put outside the gate with Jesus. Today’s cowardly pastors are not willing to suffer reproach for the name of Christ!

I know some people would prefer that I don't mention any names, like SEAN QUINLAN. Brother, we need to name names of loafers, and mark those who don't care about the accuracy of the Gospel. Romans 16:17-18, "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple. "

Ironically, the Bob Jones crowd and their supporters (like Sean Quinlan) accuse me of causing division, but that is not what this Bible passage means at all. Folks, there is only ONE GOSPEL. There is only ONE HOLY BIBLE. So anyone who comes along preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL, or promoting ANOTHER BIBLE, is the one who is causing DIVISION. They are the guilty ones who are causing offences CONTRARY TO SOUND DOCTRINE. I am not trying to smear Sean Quinlan's name, I am trying to get preachers TO CARE! I am trying through my humble Bible preaching to WAKE PREACHER'S UP!

God knows that I am simply MARKING (identifying) them (like Pastor Sean Quinlan) who make light of THE TRUTH, and bid Godspeed to [3]devils in the pulpit today like Dr. Steve Pettit at BJU. 2nd John 1:11, "For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds."

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam is a cesspool of iniquity, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men like Steve Pettit and [4]John MacArthur. I am not the liar, they are! I am not the one perverting the free grace Gospel, they are! I am not the one promoting umpteen Bible revisions, they are! I am not the one adding forsaking sinful behavior to get to Heaven, they are! I am marking them, and exposing them, and avoiding them, and so should you!!!

The simple reason why our churches today are getting caught up in the Devil's net of Lordship Salvation and Misunderstood Repentance, is because pastors don't care anymore. Times are tough, lawsuits are coming at churches left and right, the Christian Law Association can't handle all the cases against churches (they totally blew me off twice when I asked for their legal help), pastors are running scared like little girls, and nobody gives a damn anymore! That is not the way God wants things to be. The man or women who walks with God will HATE EVIL (Psalms 97:10). They will HATE EVERY FALSE WAY (Psalms 119:104).

You show me a bad pastor like Chuck Phelps, Sean Quinlan, Marty Herron or Gary Walton, who sinfully bid Godspeed to a [5]wicked Calvinist institution today like Bob Jones University, and I'll show you someone who DOESN'T walk with God. My King James Bible says

Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." The obvious reason why today's shameful pastors don't HATE EVERY FALSE WAY, is because they don't truly abide in the Word of God as they think they do. Oh they may spend time preparing sermons and reading the Bible, but they don't really grasp THE TRUTH.

Remember, even the Devil misquoted the Bible and took it out of context, during the three times He temped Jesus in Matthew 4:1-10. Just because a pastor is knowledgeable of a bunch of Scriptures DOESN'T mean that he is a good Bible teacher. Ninety-five percent of what John MacArthur teaches is good stuff, and he seems like a good Bible teacher, but then he perverts the meaning of repentance, gets the Gospel wrong, gets the blood of Jesus wrong, and it turns out he is a lousy Bible teachers, and not even a born-again Christian!

Has Lordship Salvation crept into your church? If so, you are in a cult. Please leave while you can, before you follow their damnable heresies and go to Hell with them. [6]Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace! Pastors are no longer contending for the faith (Jude 1:3), and that is why heresies are creeping into the churches. Sadly, many pastors are increasingly broadening the limits of what is considered "orthodox theology." Dear friend, there is a night and day difference between Lordship Salvation (i.e., Calvinism) and a free grace Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Salvation cannot be by both! Both plans of salvation may be wrong, or one right and one wrong, but both simply cannot be right! Please don't tolerate this garbage in your Bible college, ministry or church, expose it quickly and nip the Devil in the bud where it hurts!

2.6.1 The Unpardonable Sin (2021-06-03 05:23)

Matthew 12:22-24 and 31-32, "Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils. ...Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come."

In our text passage above we see that Jesus cast a devil out of an afflicted man. We don't know if the demon possession caused the man's blindness and inability to speak. But we do know that Jesus had mercy and miraculously healed this afflicted man! In response the wicked Pharisees accused Jesus of having a devil Himself. The Lord rebuked the wicked Pharisees for their unbelief, teaching them that God will not forgive anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit. What did Jesus mean? I found this helpful quote from Russell McKinney:

> Let me close with an illustration that I trust will help. Let's say that you have a life-threatening disease, but your doctor knows about a cure and tries repeatedly to tell you about it. But, for whatever reason, you refuse to hear his words. When he walks in to see you, you get up and leave. When he calls on the phone, you hang up. When he sends you a letter, you throw it away without opening it. When he sends you an email or a text, you immediately delete it. And so what happens? Well, finally, after his best efforts have been repeatedly rebuffed, the doctor says, "Alright, if you want to die, go ahead because I'm through trying to help you." And so you die. But what killed you? Was it the disease? Yes, in a sense. But in another sense it was your refusal to heed the doctor who was trying to point you to the cure, to say nothing, of course, of your lack of the cure. Now let's put it all together. Your fatal disease is sin. The doctor who is trying to help you is God the Holy Spirit, and the cure He is trying to get you to take advantage of is Jesus Christ. Now do you understand? That is how one commits the unpardonable sin today. SOURCE: [1]The Unpardonable Sin

I love that illustration! Dear friend, so many believers needlessly worrying about this matter of The Unpardonable Sin. I assure you on the authority of God's inspired Word that if you are already saved, it is IMPOSSIBLE for you to commit ANY SIN that is unpardonable. That is because all of our sins have ALREADY been pardoned by the sin-cleansing blood of Jesus. What saith the Scripture? ...

> 1st Corinthians 6:9-11,
>
> "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor
>
> Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
>
> And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
> **"

The very moment that we trusted Jesus dear friend, WE WERE WASHED in the blood of Jesus!!! All our sins (past, present and future) were [2]GONE, GONE, GONE, GONE! Yes, my sins are all gone!!!

Here again are some excellent quotes from Evangelist Russell McKinney:

> Some students of the Bible contend that the sin of which Christ spoke (the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit) cannot be committed today because it specifically involved attributing an obvious miracle of Jesus to the power of Satan. According to this view, since Jesus is no longer personally on the earth working miracles today, the "unpardonable sin" no longer comes into play. As Dr. Harry Ironside wrote,
>
> > "The unpardonable sin of Israel at Christ's first coming was the rejection of the Spirit's witness to His Messiahship."

However, with that said, I agree with Dr. J. Vernon McGee who wrote:

> "The Holy Spirit came into the world to make real the salvation of Christ to the hearts of men. If you resist the working of the Spirit of God when He speaks to you, my friend, there is no forgiveness, of course."

Along the same lines, the previously mentioned Dr. Ironside also wrote:

> "...if they speak against the Holy Spirit, that is, in the sense, of course, of utterly rejecting His testimony, then there can be no forgiveness, for it is only through the Spirit's testimony that the Son of Man is made known."

You see, to rightly understand this whole subject, it is vital that we understand the role that God the Holy Spirit plays in salvation. First, the Spirit convicts the lost sinner concerning the sinner's sin (John 16:8). Second, He (the Spirit is not an "it") strives with the sinner over the sinner's need for forgiveness and salvation (Genesis 6:3). Third, He works to convince the sinner of the sinner's need to believe in Jesus Christ as Savior (John 15:26, 16:14). Fourth, at the moment the sinner chooses to believe in Christ as Savior, the Spirit comes to indwell the sinner's body (Romans 8:9-11, 1 Corinthians 6:19, Titus 3:5). It is this indwelling of God the Holy Spirit that creates the "born again" experience in the person (John 3:1-8).

But what if a lost sinner time and time again refuses the Holy Spirit's convicting, striving, and convincing? Well, that is where the issue of blaspheming the Holy Spirit comes into play, and at some point the Holy Spirit will simply stop working on that lost sinner. And it is then that the lost sinner will have committed the unpardonable sin. I think that Dr. John R. Rice described the potential situation perfectly when he wrote:

> "The unpardonable sin is a complete and final rejection of Christ so definite and blasphemous that it insults and drives away the Holy Spirit forever. Then He no longer moves the heart, brings conviction or arouses desire for salvation."

My friend, only an unsaved person can commit the unpardonable sin, by resisting the conviction of the Holy Spirit that they need to get saved. The Apostle Paul put it this way in Galatians 5:4, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." Whether it be trusting in false religion to get someone to Heaven, or blatant flat out rejection of the Savior, anyone who rejects God's free gift of eternal life by faith alone in Jesus Christ has FALLEN FROM GRACE! That is, they have missed the only bus going to Heaven!

And may I confidently say, the Christian believers can only fall IN GRACE, but never FROM GRACE. God's grace prevents every born-again child of God from ever losing God's salvation. Acts 13:39, "And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. " The moment you got saved dear saint, you were JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS (just-if-I'd never sinned at all).

In God's divine courtroom, every believer has been declared legally JUSTIFIED. It is a legal matter. We are not merely acquitted (i.e., not convicted, but not declared innocent either). Salvation is not a plea agreement (i.e., pleading guilty to a lesser charge to avoid more severe prosecution). Salvation is being 100 % declared innocent! But wait, there's more! Not only does God declare the believer justified from all things, but God also credits all of His righteousness to us. Think about that! What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 4:3-6, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

God imputes (credits) Christ's righteousness to us without works.

Dear friend, I cannot warn you enough about the toxic danger of the Devil's modern Bible revisions. Here for example is Romans 4:6 in the Easy-To-Read Version (ERV), "David said the same thing when he was talking about the blessing people have when God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done:" The inspired King James Bible says something very different! The King James Bible says that God imputes righteousness to the believer without works. But the ERV says God merely accept them as good!

Friend, there is a BIG DIFFERENCE between God accepting someone as being good, versus imputing His righteousness to them! When you got saved, God didn't "accept you as good," He made you Good, by crediting His goodness to your filthy sinful record. 2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." GOD MADE YOU AND ME RIGHTEOUS BY FAITH!!! God didn't merely accept us "

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" It is GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS dear friend, and not merely God accepting you as good. Do you see the big theological difference between the trustworthy King James Bible, and the Devil's modern Bibles? I sure do.

Once you have been redeemed dear saint, you can NEVER lose God's promise of salvation. If saved, always saved. Once saved, always saved. Eternal life is eternal security!!!

2.6.2 Blessed Are The Persecuted, But Not False Teachers! (2021-06-05 03:22)

Matthew 5:10-12,

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Titus 1:10-14, "

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

Der reader, the Bible promises that God will bless any believer who is persecuted for Christ’s sake. But please notice carefully the phrase, “and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely.” If people criticize, expose and speak evil against you TRUTHFULLY, then there is no blessing for being persecuted. All of my life I have heard wicked people (heathen and religious alike) twist the Bible around to justify all manner of evil, falsehoods and heresy. Every false Christian religion (e.g., Mormons, Roman Catholics, Orthodox Catholics, Jehovah’s Witnesses, Seventh-Day Adventists, Lutherans and Church of Christ, to name but a few), wrest (torture) the Holy Bible in an attempt to sinful justify their false religion (2nd Peter 3:16-17).

The truth ladies and gentlemen is that a born-again child of God sees the Holy Bible very differently than the unregenerate (or unsaved) person does.

For example: To the unsaved man who does not have the indwelling Holy Spirit to guide them (John 16:13), it doesn’t make sense that one God would be divided into three separate persons. In his excellent book, ’[1]Kingdom Of The Cults’ by Dr. Walter Martin (1928-1989), he teaches how the Jehovah’s Witness’ religious cult lean strongly upon human reasoning to deceive their victims. Regarding the great Bible doctrine of the Godhead (i.e., Trinity), which JW’s deny, the group appeal to secular human rational, arguing that it doesn’t make sense for God to divide Himself into three different beings. To the natural (or unsaved) man this makes sense because he cannot discern spiritual things (1st Corinthians 2:14-16).

> “Beware of false knowledge; it is more dangerous than ignorance.” —George Bernard Shaw

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) wisely said: The man with no hope is better off than the man with a false hope, because the man with no hope is still searching for answers. This is so very true. That is why we read in the Old Testament in Proverbs 26:12, “Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.” A fool is one step with from getting right with God, but the conceited man is two steps away, because he first has to admit that he is wrong! A conceited person first needs to realize the error of their ways. That is why I have often said that the hardest part about getting people saved is first getting them lost! It is easy to lead someone to Christ once they realize that they’re a guilty sinner on their way to be punished in the fires of Hell forever! It is the self-righteous religious person that is hard to win to Christ! Jesus said that Himself in Matthew 9:12, “ But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.”

> “One great power of sin is that it blinds men so that they do not recognize its true character.” —Pastor Andrew Murray (1828-1917)

Heresy has crept into hundreds of thousands of churches today. Heresy is sin. To preach false doctrine is evil. To bid Godspeed to those who preach false doctrine is evil. 2nd John

1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has much blood on their hands, for bidding Godspeed to Bob Jones University and their Lordship Salvation heresy. Harvest bids Godspeed to John MacArthur and BJU president, Dr. Steve Pettit! These people are dangerous spiritual false teachers!!!

> "Beware of false knowledge; it is more dangerous than ignorance." —George Bernard Shaw

Please watch the excellent sermon: '[2]Why Lordship Faith Misses The Mark For Salvation' (by Pastor Charles Bing). Pastor Bing is absolutely right, exposing John MacArthur and the heretical Lordship Salvation crowd!!! Roman Catholics errantly teach that salvation is by FAITH PLUS WORKS. Proponents of Lordship Salvation errantly teach that salvation is by a FAITH THAT WORKS. Faith is opposed to works for salvation, and cannot be mixed just as oil and water cannot be mixed together! The inspired King James Bible teaches that salvation is by FAITH WITHOUT WORKS. **...

> Romans 4:4-7, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

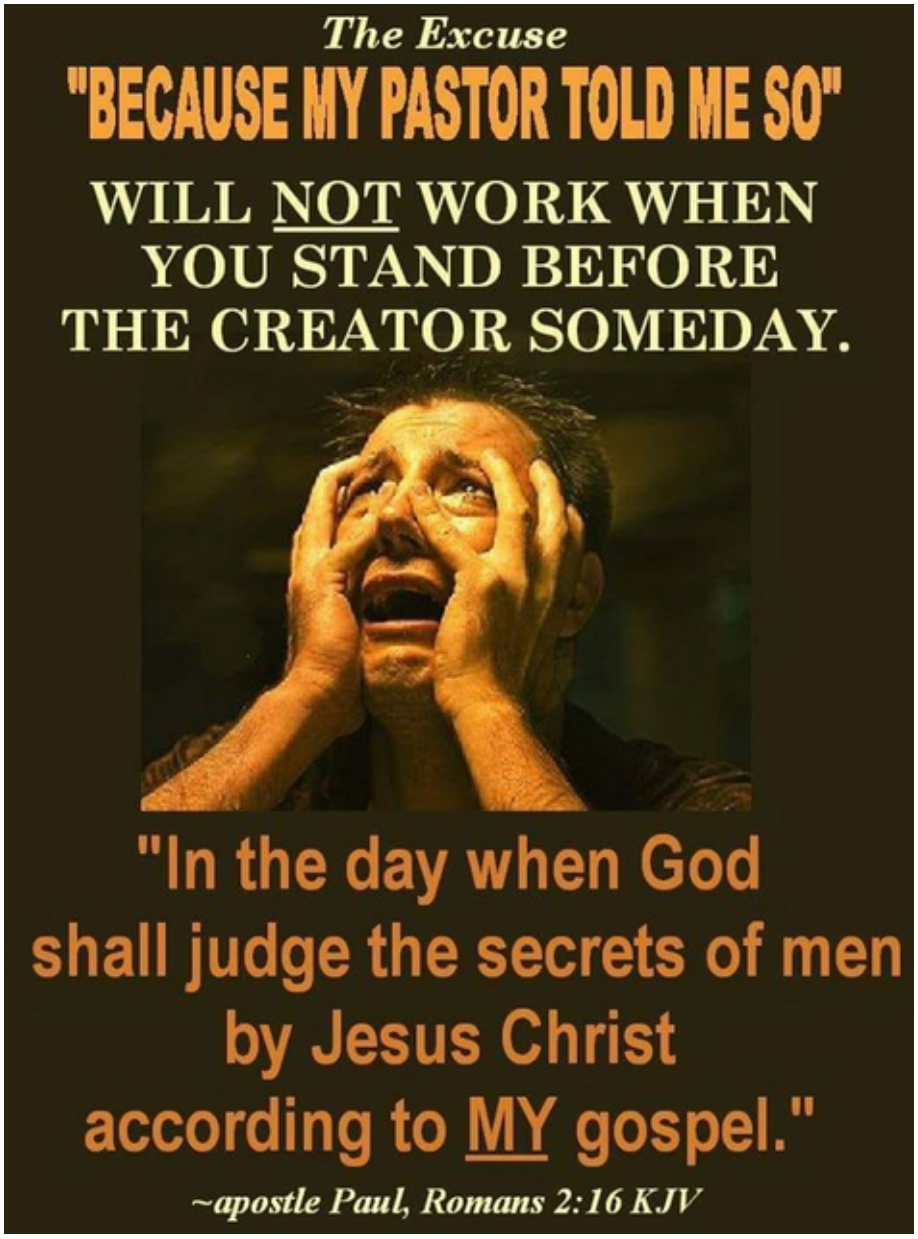
Kindly said, Bob Jones University and their alumni are bold faced theological liars! They have perverted God's saving grace—attacking the God of grace, the gift of grace (which is eternal life by faith alone), the guardian of grace (which is the local New Testament church), and the goal of grace (which is to preach the Gospel to all the world). [3]Lordship Salvation and [4]Misunderstood Repentance are perversions of God's free grace, which cannot produce the new birth by the Spirit of Christ. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:7).

> "God is worthy of our trust; He is always faithful. Our nearest friends may deceive us, but God never will." —Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)

The biggest mistake you will ever make dear friend is to trust some lying pastor...



Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged."

So how do you play it safe? Simply, test everything by the inspired Word of God. First, make sure you have the right Bible. If you have a corrupt Bible, you cannot get saved. The only inspired Words of God today in the [6]English language are found in the KING JAMES BIBLE.

Dear reader, God is not blessing you, nor your Bible college, nor your pastor, nor your church, if you are being persecuted (exposed) for being involved in a religious cult that preaches another Jesus, another gospel, and with another spirit that is not the Holy Spirit. Lordship Salvation is of a demonic spirit. Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam foolishly think they are being persecuted by me, but I am EXPOSING THEM as a faithful Bible preacher!

I can back up all my preaching with the inspired King James Bible!!! They cannot back up their false understanding of repentance, nor their heresy of Lordship Salvation!

The lie that a person must “ repent and turn away from their sin

” to be saved is of a demonic spirit. The fact of the matter is that (unless you have one of the Devil’s corrupt modern Bible PERversions), you cannot show me any place in the Bible that teaches to “ repent of sin

turn away from sin

to be born-again. We simply need to acknowledge our SINNERSHIP and BELIEVE THE GOSPEL (Romans 3:19-20; Acts 2:41; 1st Thessalonians 4:14; 1st Corinthians 1:21; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

2.6.3 Singer Toby Mac Is Not A Born Again Christian (2021-06-05 21:02)

John 3:3-7, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God. Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born? Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.”

One of the biggest phonies in the entertainment industry and corrupt churches today is singer Toby Mac (real name: Toby McKeehan). In this pathetic video testimony, Toby Mac merely says that he made Jesus the Lord of his life by “ [1]asking Jesus into my life .

Dear reader, that is NOT the Gospel, not even in the ballpark. All you have to do is search the internet for and a couple YouTube videos come up, which are as lame and empty of any real Gospel testimony as can be. The Devil is a beautiful liar!

As the churches are becoming more worldly, so also is the world becoming more churchy. There is nothing even remotely Christian about anything Toby Mac is promoting. Toby’s video are all about glorifying Toby, not Jesus Christ. The [3]San Diego Gay And Lesbian Transgendered organization openly supports and promotes Toby Mac’s worldly music. These are sick and twisted times in which we live. The prophet Isaiah warned thousands of years ago against calling good evil, and evil good. Isaiah 5:20, “ Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!” Like it or not dear friend, homosexuality is a sin (Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:24-32; Jude 1:7). Satan identifies Satan as the god of this wicked world (2nd Corinthians 4:4; 1st John 5:19).

Any

or Christian that gives Toby Mac their stamp of approval is not right with God. The San Diego LGBT Pride organization uses Toby Mac’s worldly song: ’[4]Feel It ft. Mr. Talk Box’ as their theme song, which contains the lyrics:

“You take our brokenness and make us beautiful.” Homosexuals are perverting the Holy Bible to justify their wickedness, claiming that God’s love is inclusive of all people, no matter how sinful and rebellious they are.

Numerous Contemporary Christian Music (CCM) singers have come out as open homosexuals. One example is Trey Pearson. Another example is Vicky Beeching, who blaspheme God by claiming that He supports their wickedness:

> In [5]Charisma News, Vicky Beeching opened up about many things, including coming out and what she's doing after coming out. Despite her sexual orientation, she believes God will love her just the way she is. This is confirmed in a statement when she said the following:
>
> > "What Jesus taught was a radical message of welcome and inclusion and love. I feel certain God loves me just the way I am, and I have a huge sense of calling to communicate that to young people."

Over the last ten years, Vicky Beeching has recorded worship songs which include "The Wonder on the Cross," "Glory to God Forever," and as shown above, "Above All Else." She's also a staple in mega churches and music festivals. Though it is recent, her coming out shouldn't be a surprise because she did test the LGBT lifestyle. Back in April, she attended an event supporting gay marriage. She soon followed up with a post on her blog about LGBT theology. Now she's using theological training to change church views on gays and lesbians:

> > "It takes work to assess the historical context of verses—like when Paul said 'women should be silent in church.' When we look at their historical context, and assess the original language they were written in, some of these verses they make sense in a completely different way than they do from a first scan."

To all the Christ followers (and everyone else, actually), we want to know your opinions of Vicky Beeching's revelation. Are you like her and believe that God loves and accepts everyone despite their sexual orientation or is she missing vital knowledge from the Holy Bible that still shows homosexuality, as well as her views of Jesus' love, is not necessarily wrong, but incomplete?

> SOURCE: [6]Prominent Christian Singer Comes Out Of The Closet As Gay!

[7]

Let me repeat something that Vicky Beeching said, which is blasphemy against a holy God:

> > "What Jesus taught was a radical message of welcome and inclusion and love. I feel certain God loves me just the way I am, and I have a huge sense of calling to communicate that to young people."

Is that really what Jesus said? John 7:7, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil." The Bible says that Jesus testifies against the world, because of the world's SINS! That is why the sinful world HATES JESUS! [8]Pastor Steven Anderson has been banned in several dozen countries because of his uncompromising preaching against the sin of homosexuality. I do not agree with everything Pastor Anderson does or says, but he is correct that God hates sin! Jesus testifies against the world because of our wickedness!

One big thing that I disagree with Pastor Anderson on is that he says God hates homosexuals. That is very WRONG! God loves everybody unconditionally. However, God does NOT accept everybody. Vicky Beeching is half right. The Devil knows that the most effective deception is the HALF-TRUTH, because in part it can be defended with incontestable logic. It is true that God loves everybody as they are. Vicky is right about that. But she is confused and very wrong that God accepts everybody as they are. Proverbs 18:5, "It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment."

> Jeremiah 7:8-10, "Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?"

The Israelites in the Old Testament were committing awful sins, claiming that they were doing God's will. That is exactly what Vicky Beeching is doing. That is why wicked people are continually changing and corrupting the Holy Bible. All of the modern Devil's Bible revisions completely remove the word "sodomite." They changed it to "male temple prostitute." That is the Devil's clever way to distance the modern Bible revisions from the sin of homosexuality. In case you don't know, homosexuality is not just another sin, it is [9]THE END TIMES SIN that is preparing the world to receive the coming Antichrist.

Homosexuality is the lowest form of depravity to which a society can sink. I say that in love, but truthfully on the authority of God's Word. Dear friend, there are many battles going on in the world right now between good and evil, but the war has already been won. When the blessed Savior died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried, and then miraculously raised up three days later, THE VICTORY WAS WON! Every born-again believer is already on the winning side in Jesus Christ!!!

Where did Jesus testify against the world? Friend, Jesus is the Living Word of God (John 1:1-3, 14; Revelation 19:13). The Bible is the Written Word of God (Matthew 4:4; John 17:17; Proverbs 30:5-6). That is why Jesus commanded in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

Toby Mac has a net worth of $10,000,000, but he is a very poor man spiritually. I do not believe that Toby McKeehan (born 1964) is saved. I do not think he is saved because I've never heard him give a clear Gospel testimony. All I've heard is Toby saying he made Jesus his Lord, or that he asked Jesus into his life. Well, Judas was a part of Jesus' life, but he went to Hell in his sins forever. You cannot be saved by becoming a Christ follower! You cannot get to Heaven by joining a church, getting water baptized, nor by living the Christian life. YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:3-7). Toby never mentions his sins for which Christ died. I've never heard him mention the cross. Toby uses a lot of religious lingo in his song lyrics, but his message is shallow and vague at best. Toby's millions of fans are shallow and worldly.

Many religious parents think that [10]Toby' funky rap music is a good alternative to the Devil's music. I would have to agree from what I've heard from the vile gang, prison and drug culture which underlies the world's secular music. However, neither would be good choices. Sometimes our choices aren't between good and bad, but between good or best. Toby's music is not the best option in my humble opinion as a Christian.

But the purpose of my article is not to address Toby's music style. I published this blog article to address Toby's fake Christian testimony. I went to visit his website. There's NOTHING on his website about how to get to Heaven. Why wouldn't a professed Christian, who influences tens of millions of young people, not want to share the Gospel with them? Something is very wrong with a professed Christian singer who is popular with the homosexual community. Job 20:5,

“That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?” These are perilous times in which we live (2nd Timothy 3:1-7).

People are confused. The Devil wants to confuse everybody, especially young people. That is why the Devil has used to love of money to inspired wicked men to publish hundreds of English Bible revisions, to confuse the churches (and they are very confused). Satan is behind today’s insane gender-bending and cancel culture in the United States. Things couldn’t get much crazier! If the Lord tarries His return in the decades to come, we will see children undergoing reassignment surgery, ordered by the wicked courts against their parent’s consent.

I thank God for the God-fearing families we still have in Florida, Texas and Tennessee today. I heard ’The World According to Briggs’ YouTube channel recently. He made a video of ’The Top Ten Reasons Not To Move To Tennessee.’ Unbelievably, one of his ridiculous reasons not to move to the state of Tennessee is that they refuse to teach the blatant fraud of evolution in the schools. Buddy, I want to live in Tennessee! It’s refreshing to know that some people still have some Horsesense! Evolution is the biggest fraud ever fabricated by the Devil. I lost a bunch of confidence in “Briggs” when I heard him making a fool of himself. Brigg’s actually thinks Tennesseans are backwards because they refuse to go along with the blatant fraud of evolutionary ’THEORY’ (it still hasn’t even begun to be verified). What does that say about Briggs? It says that he ain’t very smart. Only a fool speaks of evolution as a fact, because it ain’t so!

Dear friend, I didn’t write this blog to attack Toby Mac. I am not that kind of person. I love everybody. Toby has some great music. I am a musician myself, so I know good music when I hear it. Toby has great timing and some catchy songs. Albeit, where will he spend eternity? Making Jesus your Lord is not the new birth. Asking Jesus into your life does not produce regeneration! The only way to be saved is by faith alone. I dare you to watch Toby Mac’s YouTube video testimonies and try to find him speak of faith. I couldn’t find it. If you think I am wrong, then please send me a clear public Gospel profession from him. All I see is a man who is preying upon churches to make filthy lucre. He seems nervous when giving his testimony, like he doesn’t really have one and is winging it. If you disagree, prove me wrong! Thank you for reading my blog articles and kindest regards.

2.6.4 How Far Can A Believer Fall Into Sin? (2021-06-08 09:30)

2nd Timothy 2:19, “ Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.”

No one "falls" into any sin, we all choose to do right or wrong. Proverbs 4:23, “Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.” A believer can sink to the lowest level of sin. Proverbs 14:14, “The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.”

Romans 5:20 teaches that “where sin abounded, GRACE DID MUCH MORE ABOUND.” So the believer is safe in Christ, regardless of sinful choices, but 2nd Corinthians 5:10-11 warns that every believer will be held accountable at the Judgment Seat Of Christ for the good and bad done in the body. Choosing to sin is always wrong. ...

> “Christians can never sin cheaply; they pay a heavy price for iniquity. Transgression destroys peace of mind, obscures fellowship with Jesus, hinders prayer, brings darkness over the soul; therefore be not the serf and bondman of sin.” —Pastor Charles H. Spurgeon, ’Morning And Evening: Daily Readings’

2.6.5 God’s Righteousness Is The Only Way Into Heaven (2021-06-13 03:46)

Matthew 5:17-20,

“

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven*.

Oh how precious is this truth! I desire in my heart of hearts for you dear friend to fully grasp this simple truth. The Bible says that very few people are going to Heaven. Matthew 7:13-15, “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. ” Jesus warned that few people are going to Heaven (cf., Luke 13:23-24).

It is no coincidence that verse 15 warns us about FALSE PROPHETS (wolves that appear to us in sheep’s clothing). This Scripture has profound meaning. A lamb is a harmless animal, completely defenseless and no threat. The Bible teaches that this is how deadly false prophets, who can kill us. Cunning deadly wolves are a major threat, but they usually appear in such a deceptive way that people fail to see any threat! Instead, they see ministers of righteousness (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

What did Jesus mean in Matthew 5:17-20,

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

” The Pharisees were devoutly religious men. They knew the content of the Scripture well. Yet they didn’t obey it. The Jews in the Wilderness heard Moses preach the truth of the Gospel for 40 years, but they didn’t believe any of it. They could have recited the Gospel to you word-for-word, but it did not profit them, because they had no faith (Hebrews 4:2). Likewise, the religious Pharisees knew the Scripture, but they didn’t obey it. The Pharisees lacked faith, with a few exceptions, like Nicodemus.

When the unbelieving Pharisees saw Jesus eating with a bunch of sinners, they unjustly criticized Him. Mark 2:17, “ When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.” So many foolish Bible students and corrupt pastors ASS-U-ME that the word

here means

to turn away from sin.

But the Bible doesn’t say that! Jesus was simply saying that He cannot save those who are self-righteous, thinking that they have no need of being saved. Open sinners see their desperate condition, guilt and need for redemption. That was the main purpose for which the Old Testament law was given by God, to give all men THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN (Romans 3:19-20). Jesus saves SINNERS, no one else. What saith the Scripture? “CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY” (Romans 5:6-9).

Ladies and gentlemen, neither you nor I have any righteousness. Isaiah 64:6, “

But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

” Your very best is filth to God. This is why the Apostle James said in James 2:10,

“For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

” Committing even one sin keeps us out of Heaven. That is what the Bible means in 1st Corinthians 6:9-10. Ah, but 1st Corinthians 6:11b wonderfully says, “BUT YE ARE WASHED.” I sure hope you are getting this truth my friend. If you understand that we are saved solely by GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS, it will open up your understanding to the Entire Scriptures, like a master key!

In sharp contrast to the Word of God, please watch this heretical video of what Pastor John Piper preaches. Folks, this video is evil to the core, totally unscriptural...

Pastor John Piper's Damnable Counterfeit Plan of Salvation

I love this truth by Pastor Yankee Arnold:

> "If you have to look at your life to prove that you are saved, it proves that you're not!" —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, "[1]Why Lordship Salvation is WRONG!

Here is a great truth from Pastor Martin R. DeHaan (1891-1965):

> "There is a vast difference between coming to Jesus for salvation and coming after Jesus for service. Coming to Christ makes one a believer, while coming after Christ makes one a disciple. All believers are not disciples. To become a believer one accepts the invitation of the Gospel, to be a disciple one obeys the challenge to a life of dedicated service and separation. Salvation comes through the sacrifice of Christ; discipleship comes only by sacrifice of self and surrender to His call for devoted service. Salvation is free, but discipleship involves paying the price of a separated walk. Salvation can't be lost because it depends upon God's faithfulness, but discipleship can be lost because it depends upon our faithfulness." —

Amen and amen! Dear friend, we are saved only by GOD'S RIGHTEOSUNESS. That is why we read in Matthew 6:33, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. " Philippians 3:9,

"And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: " That is so simple!

You know, I've heard all my life that the best way to spot counterfeit money is by handling real money, so that you are familiar with it. That is exactly why I can spot a counterfeit Bible right away, I have only been using the inspired King James Bible my entire Christian life since I was saved at age 13. That was 41 years ago!

I feel sorry for this younger generation, who have to choose between hundreds of English Bible versions. When I attended the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, I went to a Watchcare Meeting at one of their deacon's homes. He had literally seven different Bible versions on his book shelf. These knuckleheads at Harvest are wicked men. They think that because hundreds of church members and parents support their work that they are right, but the Bible warns against such arrogance. Proverbs 14:1, "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death. "

Proverbs 16:5, "

Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

" Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. "

The Bob Jones University crowd today are of the Devil, preaching a false gospel of turning from sin to be saved. Galatians 3:1-3, " O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? " Biblical salvation comes by simple childlike faith in the Good News (Gospel) of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). All this junk theology about repenting of one's sinful ways, running and finishing the race, surrendering all to Christ as Lord, paying the price and exchanging one's life for Jesus' life is of the Devil, nowhere taught in the inspired King James Bible!

These devils ALL superficially claim that salvation is solely by God's free grace, which at the same time perverting what faith means, and requiring MORE than faith to know that you are saved. Dear reader, consider that [2]even the Satanic Roman Catholic Vatican's official dogma teaches that salvation is by God's grace. Hellbound Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Seventh-Day Adventists and Church of Christ, to name but a few religious cults, will ALL tell you that salvation is by God's grace too! But then they ADD MORE, corrupting the Gospel (Acts 15:1, 24; Ephesians 2:8-9).

Even the Devil will tell you a half-truth, to deceive you. That is how the serpent tricked Eve (Genesis 3:1). The serpent told a couple half-lies. It is true that God did give Adam and Eve instructions concerning the Tree of Knowledge. But the serpent lied about what God said to Adam in Genesis 2:16-17. God never said they couldn't eat of "any" of the trees. Satan added that part. God in fact said that they could eat of any tree, except one.

It is also true that Eve did become as " a god,

gaining the power to decide between good and evil for herself. But the serpent never mentioned that making Eve's own decisions would result in dire consequences, even death (Romans 5:12). The serpent didn't mention the pain of childbearing, the curse brought with sin, the murder of her son by his elder brother, the miseries of having the freedom to make one's own choices independent of God, et cetera. Eve was conned! The serpent was the first shady used car salesman, the best con artist in history!

Matthew 5:20, "

For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

" What saith the Scripture? Romans 10:3-4,

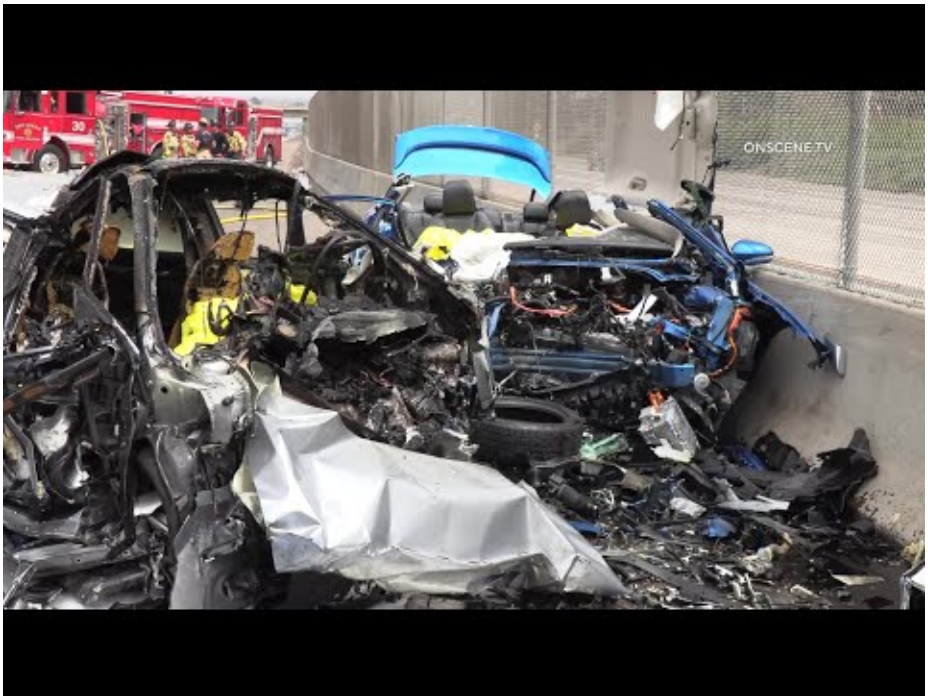
"For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." Do you see friend how we keep reading in the Bible about "GOD'S RIGHTEOSUNESS"? That is what salvation is all about—excepting Christ's sacrifice on the cross as complete payment for our sins.

I get upset when I hear [3]false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit (long time theologically incompetent president of Bob Jones University) preaching a perverse gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works. Someone needs to care! Someone needs to be alarmed and take a stand for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). Steve Pettit is an infidel, an unbeliever. [4]Pettit adheres to the same gross theology of Lordship Salvation as did Miss Ellen G. White (the revered prophetess of the accursed Seventh-Day Adventist cult).

God knows my humble heart. I do not mean to be unkind. I care about your soul dear friend. I don't want you to spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell.

Death often comes unexpectedly for all of us. I just read this week about a horrible head-on-collision in San Diego, California. A woman had just come from her dialysis treatment and turned into oncoming highway traffic. She collided with a young couple of police detectives in their 20's, who had just got married. The woman who made the innocent error, and the young male and female doing nothing wrong, were killed instantly. You can see the wreckage on YouTube. ...



An Innocent Error Led To Multiple Deaths!

I cannot plead with you enough NOT to follow religious men! What did Jesus tell us to do? John 5:39-40, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. " The Bob Jones crowd are arrogant in their error, driving the WRONG WAY into oncoming traffic, barreling down the highway to Hell, driving their unlicensed vehicle of Lordship Salvation!

The Apostle Paul NEVER once told us to "repent of your sin" to be saved! Paul NEVER said to "surrender all" to Jesus as the absolute Lord and Master of our life, forsaking the old ways for good, committing our life to serve God. NO, Paul didn't teach that garbage to be saved. What did Paul teach? 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. " Isn't that so simple? That is the blessed Gospel. All you have to do to go to Heaven is come to God as a guilty sinner, realizing your need for salvation, and BELIEVE the Good News that Jesus died on the cross in your place to pay your debt of sin. He was buried and three days later Jesus miraculously raised up from the dead physically. And THAT IS IT! (John 6:28-29).

I love what Paul said in Galatians 3:1-3, " O foolish Galatians (Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam), who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth (the Gospel), before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

" I love that wonderful phrase...THE HEARING OF FAITH. That is how 3,000 people got saved on the Day of Pentecost in Acts 2:41,

"Then they that gladly received his word (Peter's Gospel message) were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." Those dear folks just heard Peter preach the Gospel, and they gladly received it. That is what Paul meant in Galatians 3:2b by **“

THE HEARING OF FAITH.

” You get saved when you believe the Gospel as you hear it. Isn’t that so simple? Sure it is, the way God intended for salvation to be.

So the next time you hear a false teacher like Gary Walton, Marty Herron, Steve, Pettit, Chuck Phelps or John MacArthur COMPLICATING God’s simple plan of salvation, RUN away from them! Mark (identify) and avoid them (Romans 16:17-18). Expose them (Titus 1:10-13). The Bible says that we are saved solely by GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS, which is by faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9; Romans 10:3-4; Galatians 3:24-26). JESUS PAID IT ALL! ...

My hope is built on nothing less

Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;

I dare not trust the sweetest frame,

But wholly lean on Jesus’ name.

On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

Lordship Salvation is a foundation of sand. Misunderstood repentance (i.e., turning from sin to be saved) is a foundation of sand. These modern corrupt Devil’s Bibles will instruct you how to build a house upon the sand! Dear friend, you need JESUS CHRIST, the only true foundation (1st Corinthians 3:11). We find the will of God the Father concerning salvation in John 6:40, “

And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

” Please pay attention to what Jesus said! The dear Savior didn’t say anything about running the race as Steve Pettit preaches. The Savior didn’t bid Godspeed to such wicked evildoers as does Pastor Gary Walton at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam to Steve Pettit and John MacArthur! Jesus said the Father’s will to get to Heaven is to BELIEVE ON HIM!

Some people directly asked Jesus what **“

works

” God requires to be saved. The Savior gave them the simple answer in John 6:28-29, “

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ” Dear friend, over and over and over the Bible plainly teaches us to simply BELIEVE ON HIM to be saved.

So where in the world did Ray Comfort come up with the [5]false claim that God requires a person to LIVE A LIFESTYLE of turning away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven? Harvest Baptist Church on Guam bids Godspeed to these devils in the pulpit! Steve Pettit is friends with John MacArthur, sanctioning his doctrines of devils. Folks, none of what these wicked infidels preach is THE GOSPEL, as I have just plainly shown you. We need to get mad (M ake A D ifference). I have been wearied lately, lonely without a church family, all because Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has done evil against me, ostracizing me since 2014 for telling THE TRUTH (the very truths that I have shared with you in this important blog).

Sadly, very few (and I mean very, very few) pastors care about what I am saying. Your average fundamentalist church and pastor today shamefully don't want to suffer reproach for the name of Christ (2nd Timothy 3:13). They refuse to fight, withstand and take a stand (Ephesians 6:11-13). They don't want to be put outside the gate with Jesus. Shameful pastors like Chuck Phelps, Jared Baldwin, Joe Hansen, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, and thousands more infidels like them, are all pulling on the same rope as the Devil, perverting the grace of God. I am telling THE TRUTH, faithfully, as a Christian and preacher should (Jude 1:3).

2.6.6 Does 1st John 1:6 And John 3:21 Teach Lordship Salvation? (2021-06-16 09:30)

John 3:21, "But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." 1st John 1:5-7, "This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

Does 1st John 1:6 teach Lordship Salvation? No, absolutely not! Someone recently asked me if John 3:21 is connected to 1st John 1:6, regarding THE TRUTH. Yes and no, depending on what you mean. The matter at hand is obeying THE TRUTH, not turning away from sins. I am so sick and tired of this junk theology that has infected most churches today, which teaches that you cannot go to Heaven unless you attempt to turn away from your sinful behavior. This is the Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation.

The Bible teaches a free grace Gospel. You simply acknowledge that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight (Romans 3:19-23), and believe the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) to be saved.

The subject of 1st John 1:6 is fellowship, not turning away from sins. One of my favorite preachers, Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold preached a helpful sermon on this subject called, " [1]1st John Made Simple: Milk Vs. Meat .

Also, here is some helpful Bible commentary from Pastor Max Younce on 1st John 1:6...

> A few years ago I attended a Bible conference at a large Bible college in the South. One of the speakers spoke on the "so-called contradiction" in James 2:17. At the conclusion of his message he made this startling statement, "If you are really saved, you will live it! His other remarks along with this led all to believe that if you had sinned since being saved or were not really dedicated to Christ, you had better check to see if you were really saved. At the invitation thirty-five to forty college students came forward. It was later announced that they had come for REASSURANCE of their salvation.

It was a subtle way to get one to doubt God's faithfulness to His promise of everlasting life because of one's unfaithfulness to Him. This left no room for being in a backslidden condition and that chastening could result if one did not get back in fellowship with the Lord. In 1st John 1:9, 7 we are told "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness ... But if we walk in the light God's Word), as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin."

This was never brought out at all in his message. The sad thing was that dedication and coming forward was in intermingled with salvation. The next time any of these students should sin or not be 100 % dedicated, they very likely will again doubt their salvation.

Since that message was not delivered in its proper context, one will never know the devastating effects it will have on some of these students in the future. The whole message was summed up in doubting one's salvation, instead of realizing the Christian's testimony will fall dead on the ears of the lost if our life does not incorporate good works.

In discussing 2nd Corinthians 5:17 which states "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature creation): old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." We should notice how this Verse is applied when used in inviting people to trust Christ at the invitation. It is usually emphasized that if one is willing to lay all on the altar, i.e., willing to confess and forsake all known sin, then Christ will accept the person and give them eternal life. This may seem like sound theology because God does want us to forsake our sin; but not as a condition to be saved. Then why would God want us to confess and forsake our sin if it is not to have eternal life? The answer is made perfectly from 1st John 1:6, "If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another..." When a Christian is living in sin his fellowship with God is broken. The way to restore that fellowship between Christ and the believer is set forth in Verse 9, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all righteousness." Now notice carefully, when we forsake, confess, and walk with Christ we have fellowship, not salvation and Sonship.

Some have tried to argue this by saying 1st John was written to lost people and not to Christians. The Word of God refutes this argument abruptly. Let us quote 1st John 5:13, "These things have written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life. . ." Who did John say he wrote these things unto? Christians, of course, "to you that believe."

I hope you begin to see how confusing the terminology of "laying all on the altar" becomes to a lost person. He is led to believe that confession and forsaking all sin is a requirement before God will accept him. The Bible says that "while I was a sinner Christ died for me" (Romans 5:8). He did not say, "When you forsake all your sin, Christ will die for you." We must remember that before a person is saved he is the natural man (Corinthians 2:14) and is not indwelt with the Holy Spirit which is the power that changes a person's life. The Holy Spirit is given to each person simultaneously with his faith in Christ and is not a result of confession, promises, or works. Paul had this same problem with the Galatians, "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched (i.e. tricked or fooled) you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?" Then Paul asked them the question, "Received YE THE SPIRIT BY THE WORKS OF THE LAW, OR BY THE HEARING OF FAITH" (Galatians 3:1,2; Ephesians 1:13)

Let us present God's salvation, not man's. God's salvation is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Can we not then trust the indwelling of the Holy Spirit to convict and provide the power to change a life, to that which will be pleasing unto God.

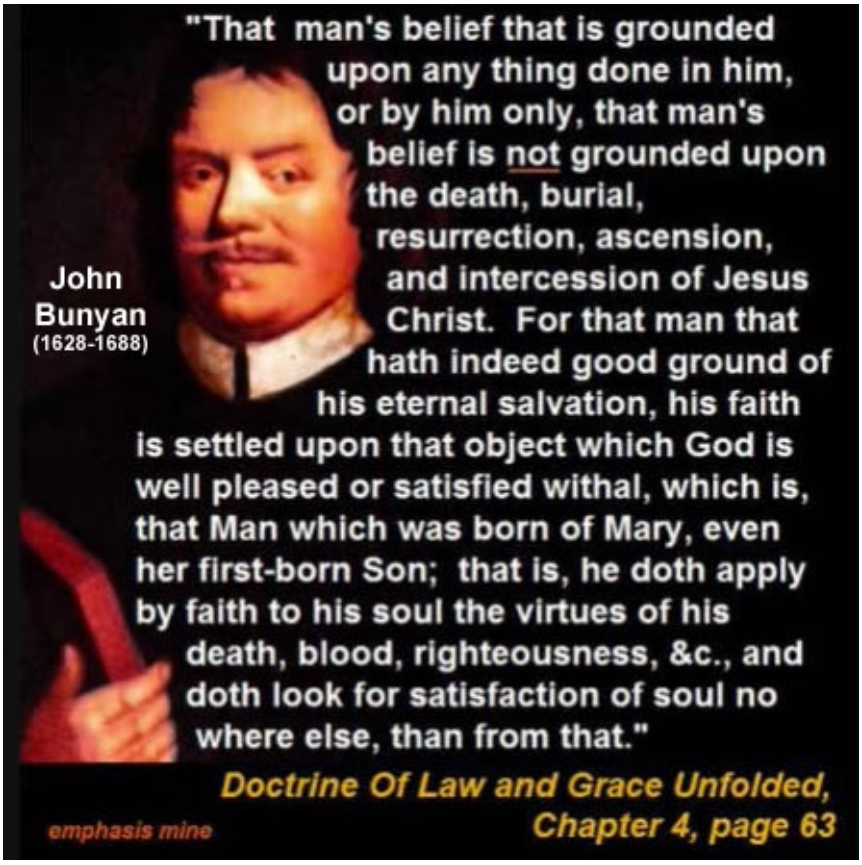
SOURCE: [2]http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/BTP/Dr _Max _Younce/Invitation/01b.htm

I emphasize the importance of the Gospel of John. We are told 85 times to believe, without any mention of turning away from sins to be saved. If anything more than believing (trusting, resting) in Christ were required for salvation, then the Lord would have said so. Jesus said what He meant, and meant what He said (John 14:2).

I encourage you to [3]read carefully through these helpful quotes, discerning the difference between justification versus sanctification. The famous Pilgrim's Progress author and preacher John Bunyan (1628-1699) made this awesome true statement, showing how the Lordship Salvation crowd corrupt God's Word, and cast stumbling blocks before the people...

"If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

It is a very theologically dangerous thing to combine and confuse sanctification with justification. These are two entirely separate and different things. Here are a couple more beautiful quotes from John Bunyan. ...



"That man's belief that is grounded upon any thing done in him, or by him only, that man's belief is not grounded upon the death, burial, resurrection, ascension, and intercession of Jesus Christ. For that man that hath indeed good ground of his eternal salvation, his faith is settled upon that object which God is well pleased or satisfied withal, which is, that Man which was born of Mary, even her first-born Son; that is, he doth apply by faith to his soul the virtues of his death, blood, righteousness, &c., and doth look for satisfaction of soul no where else, than from that."
John Bunyan
(1628-1688)
Doctrine Of Law and Grace Unfolded, Chapter 4, page 63 emphasis mine

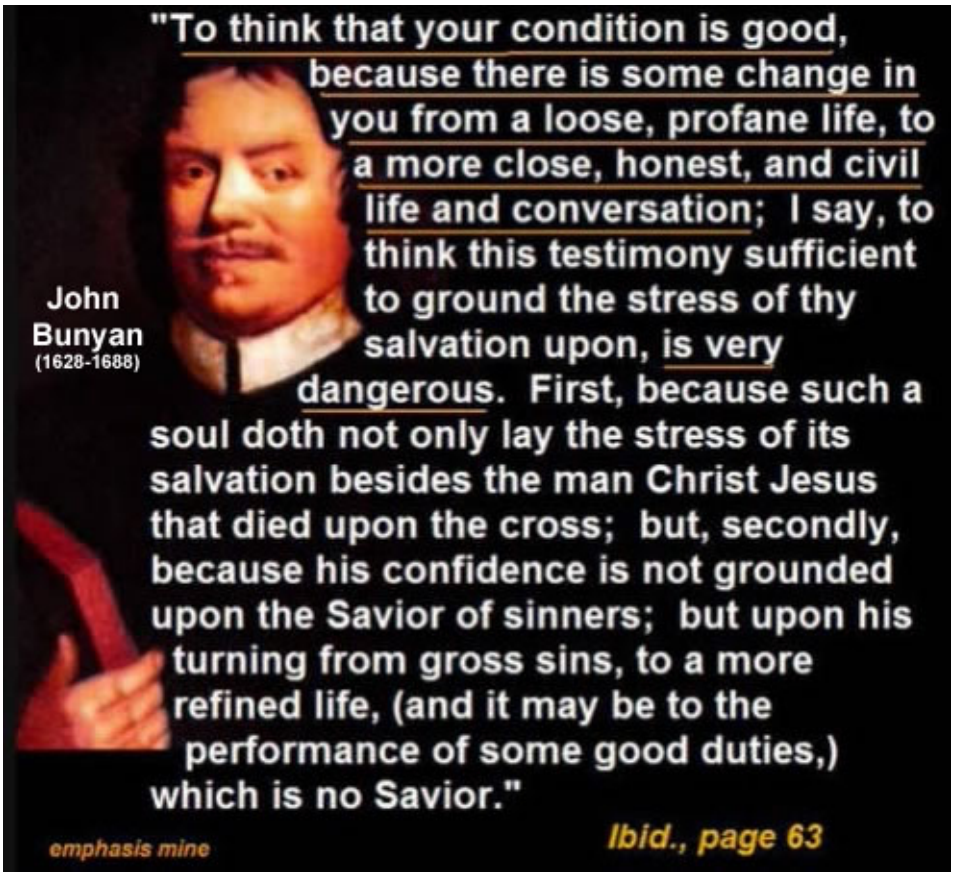
[5]



"To think that your condition is good, because there is some change in you from a loose, profane life, to a more close, honest, and civil life and conversation; I say, to think this testimony sufficient to ground the stress of thy salvation upon, is very dangerous. First, because such a soul doth not only lay the stress of its salvation besides the man Christ Jesus that died upon the cross; but, secondly, because his confidence is not grounded upon the Savior of sinners; but upon his turning from gross sins, to a more refined life, (and it may be to the performance of some good duties,) which is no Savior."
John Bunyan
(1628-1688)

The word “fellowship” in 1st John 1:6 simply means that the believer knows His Savior. Jesus knows His sheep, and they follow His voice. John 10:27-28, “My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.” That doesn’t mean that a believer always obeys Christ. That doesn’t mean that a believer won’t sometimes choose to live in gross immorality and rebellion against the Word of God. It simply means that the true believer has the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24; Romans 8:9), which God has given to every saint to seal us until the day of redemption (Ephesians 1:12-14).

Beware and run from anyone who teaches that you must repent of your sins to be saved. There is no such teaching in the inspired King James Bible. Many of the Devil’s corrupt modern revisions pervert the Scriptures to say all kinds of garbage, but you cannot show me one verse from the King James Bible that says to “turn away from your sin” to be saved. Eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15-18). A gift cannot be earned. Salvation is received, not achieved. Salvation is a take proposition, not a give proposition. You take it by faith, and give nothing in return. That is a free grace Gospel.

The curse of Lordship Salvation ADDS to the Gospel, saying that MORE is required—teaching that in addition you must turn away from your sins, faithfully run the race until the finish, surrender your will to fully obey God, follow Jesus no matter what the cost, and receive Christ as “Lord” (Boss) of your life to be saved. None of that is the free grace Gospel (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Satan has crept tares into most churches today, while the the churches slept. Sadly, you’ll find far more tares than wheat in most Baptist churches today.

You’ll often here false teachers like Jack Chick, Marty Herron, Bob Jones University, Charles Phelps, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur misinterpreting Luke 13:5 to support their heresy of Lordship Salvation. Luke 13:5, “I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.” Nothing in this verse indicates turning away from sins to be saved. The Greek word for “repent” here is the verb metanoeo, which simply means “to think differently.” Repentance is “toward God” (Acts 20:21), not from sin. Repentance means to think differently concerning acknowledgment of THE TRUTH (2nd Timothy 2:25). You are a dirty, guilty and needy sinner, and so am I. I received Jesus as my personal Savior in 1980 at age 13. I was born-again forever. I accepted Christ and that was it, a done deal.

Anybody (like [6]false teacher Steve Pettit, president of Bob Jones University) who says you cannot accept Christ and that’s it, is a liar. The Bible colleges and churches are filled with theological LIARS today, evil men who damn the souls of millions of people to the Lake of Fire, with their Satanic falsehood of Lordship Salvation. Who will you believe, the King James Bible or all the Devil’s modern Bible perversions and these lying false prophets? Choose ye this day whom ye will believe, God’s Word or the Devil’s religious crowd.

2.6.7 You Get Saved By Trusting Christ, Because You See Your Need As A Sinner (And That Is Repentance) (2021-06-19 09:30)

Mark 1:15, "

And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel."

It is tragic how the Devil has crept into tens of thousands of Baptist churches today, spreading the lie that God won't save anyone unless they first have a sincere desire "to turn away from sin." No such teaching is found in the inspired King James Bible. What advocates of the heresies of Misunderstood Repentance and Lordship Salvation usually do is wrest (torture) obscure passages of Scripture to support their junk theology. Our text passage from Mark 1:15 is one such example. They wrongly ass-u-me, that the word repent means "to turn from sin," but the Greek verb is actually, metanoeo, which means, "to think differently."

The truth dear friend is that we get saved by trusting Jesus Christ as our personal Savior, and we trust Him because we see our need for redemption as a needy sinner, and this is repentance. Here is one of the best quotes that I've found on repentance, by Dr. Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951):

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([1]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

Amen! We don't give up our sins TO BE saved, we should give up our sins because WE ARE saved, and that requires time to grow in God's grace (1st Peter 2:2). Ephesians 2:10 says that believers are "created in Christ Jesus unto good works," not by good works. I hope I have made the Bible clear enough dear reader. We are at war today with the Devil's religious crowd over the Bible. It is sad that so many pastors, including the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, have been tricked by Lucifer, into adding "turning away from your sin" to faith alone in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross, buried and bodily risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Repentance is simply realizing your need for salvation, so that you will BELIEVE ON JESUS and be saved. No one has ever believed without repenting, but repentance is simply a change of mind (which happens automatically). The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. Any corrupt preacher who tries to separate repentance from faith, requiring that you turn away from your sin as a prerequisite to saving faith, is preaching another gospel. The Bible teaches that we repent TO believe, we don't repent AND believe. Repentance and faith are inseparable.

The evidence that our faith is real is faith itself, and nothing else. When Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) [2]heretically says that your faith is not genuine, unless you turn away from your sin and faithfully run the Christian race until the end of life, you know that he has been inspired by demons! God bless you dear reader and thank you for reading my blogs.

2.6.8 Repentance Is Toward God And Truth, Not From Anything (2021-06-23 09:30)

Acts 20:21, "

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

2nd Timothy 2:25, "

In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

I am so sick and tired of idiotic pastors who corrupt the Gospel by adding words that God did not author in the Holy Bible. When asked for their view on repentance, countless woefully ignorant pastors have said to me over the years, "Well you can't turn TO something unless you also turn FROM something." To the logical human mind that sounds very reasonable. Yet the Bible does not say that, does it. You cannot show me any place in the inspired King James Bible where it says to turn away " from

something to be saved.

Dear friend, it simply doesn't matter what you are turning away from, because the man who repents toward God and the truth is saved. By using the clever mentality that you can add anything you want to the Gospel, perverting God's grace. The popular teaching these days is that to be saved you must turn away from your sins. This is what [1]Bob Jones University adds to the Gospel, perverting God's grace. Most religious literature teaches that you must turn away from sinful ways

"you can't turn TO something unless you also turn FROM something,"

to be saved. That is not what the Bible teaches!

One of the most ungodly institutions today is Bob Jones University. Sadly, tens of thousands of churchgoers have been deceived and infected with BJU's heresy of wrong repentance and Lordship Salvation. BJU has blood all over their hands. I have been faithfully preaching for decades against these evils, but I am tired. One of the most ungodly places I have ever found is the rotten Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Their pastors disregard truth. When I attended the church for one year in 2014, I was sickened by the things I heard and saw. Harvest has very low moral standards. Harvest's pastors preach Lordship Salvation. I witnessed to many of their staff members, who serve as school teachers, and others as deacons in the church, who clearly were not born-again Christians. They all believe that you cannot be saved unless you turn away from your sin first. That is a works based counterfeit plan of salvation.

According to Galatians 1:6-9, God's deadly curse is upon Bob Jones University and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They all did me wrong! They drove me out of their church, banned me from returning to church services, and have cruelly ostracized me since 2014. In 2017 I was desperate for a church family, and pleaded three times with the church pastors to return. They were cruel and selfish, telling me to go away. My heart was broken, for the second time. It was bad enough that they forced me out of the church in 2014, but now despite my apologies and humble plea to simply sit in church on Sunday, they sinfully rejected me.

The Bible says that if we don't forgive others, neither will the Lord forgive us. Any forgiveness that refuses to even allow a man to sit in church services is a false forgiveness! Matthew 6:14-15, "For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." Pastor Marty Herron refused to forgive me! Jesus will not forgive him either. I do not believe Mr. Herron is saved at all, because he thinks you must turn away from a sinful lifestyle to get to Heaven, which is self-righteousness. The true Gospel only focuses on JESUS, a false gospel focuses on YOU. Anytime a preacher speaks of something that YOU must do to be saved, he is a liar who is preaching another gospel!

Harvest's Pastors And Staff Have Much Blood On Their Hands

When I attended Harvest Baptist Church on Guam throughout 2014, their nurse Kristen Hurlburt fell in love with me. I loved her too and wanted to marry her, but her pastors didn't want me in the church, even though I begged very humbly for a second chance. Those ungodly pastors kept me and Kris apart, and she was pressured by her bosses to get rid of me, and she did in 2017. It hurt so bad the way she cruelly told me never to contact her again. She lied and denied ever having had any feelings for me, which her pastors used against me. I know as sure as I am a born-again believer that Kris wanted to marry me. The Lord knows that she did have feelings for me, but lied when her bosses got involved. God knows.

Folks, this is what happens when pastors reject THE TRUTH. I did nothing wrong! As a true friend does, I befriended Harvest's pastors with THE TRUTH that the modern [2]Westcott and Hort based Bible revisions are corrupted by the Devil. I told them THE TRUTH that [3]false Bibles are an enemy of soulwinning. I told THE TRUTH that [4]Misunderstood repentance is an enemy of soulwinning. I told THE TRUTH that [5]Lordship Salvation is an enemy of soulwinning. For faithfully contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). I was counted as their "

enemy

” at Harvest (Galatians 4:16), and also by Kristen Hurlburt to her woe and shame. God takes this doctrinal matter VERY seriously!

Kindly said, I pray for God to avenge me of all of them. Their blood be upon their own heads when they answer to God in eternity! They have all committed the unpardonable sin of adding to the Gospel, effectively denying Jesus Christ as the only all-inclusive means of salvation. If turning away from one’s sinful lifestyle is required to get to Heaven, then faith alone in Jesus Christ is insufficient to save! I speak THE TRUTH (Ephesians 4:15). Kris did me very wrong. Harvest’s pastors did me very wrong. All I ever humbly begged for was their love, to give me a second chance to quietly sit in church services, and be a part of their church family.

Tragically, Harvest is nothing more than a glorified private social club on Guam, where only card carrying voted-in members are allowed to attend church. Their ministry only consists of the children of parents who have enough money to finance their child’s enrollment into Harvest Baptist Academy or Harvest Baptist Bible College. That is the bulk of the church membership, of financially well to do families, who pat the paychecks of a bunch of snobby Bob Jones University graduates making a career by parasiting off of Christendom. Shame on all of them! Jesus Himself warned in Luke 16:13 that it is IMPOSSIBLE to serve God and money (mammon). Any time that monetary profits takes precedence over hurting people who plead for help (as I did umpteen times), something is very wrong in a church. That is not God’s unconditional love. 1st John 3:17, “ But whoso hath this world’s good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?” There is no compassion at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam.

Harvest Baptist Church on Guam (in the Micronesia island chain) is a lousy social club, a fun center, a house of entertainment each Sunday, where only select members are welcomed. They’re pastors are far more guilty than of merely being immature, they are hardened Pharisees who have continually rejected THE TRUTH that I have kindly handed to them for the past several years, placing THE TRUTH directly into their very hands. The new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is a very bad pastor, indifferent, cold and not concerned about hurting people like me. Pastor Walton is only there for paying customers. That is sinful and sad. Whereas Jesus left the 99 sheep to go find the one that got lost, Harvest’s pastors don’t care about losing one like me, because they still have the 99. That is their pathetic attitude.

Likewise, Kristen Hurlburt is not interested in finding a godly man to marry, she just wants a good husband, but not a godly husband. That is her loss. Kris will never find a man who loves Jesus more than I do, and who has a burning passion for preaching the truth and winning souls as I do, or who loves her as much as I still do and always will. When I met Kris at Asan Beach in 2017, she berated me for not attending church. But it was her very wicked pastors who drove me out of church at Harvest, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. What do you suppose God thinks about that? I had no where else to Go. Kris is your typical religious person, who only views things from a superficial point of view (Matthew 15:8), lacking spiritual discernment. This is the superficial Laodicean church (Revelation 3:15-16). Perhaps God was protecting me from marrying Kris, lest I have the devil for a father-in-law.

Harvest’s pastors said that I couldn’t return to Harvest because it would make Kris uncomfortable, because I liked her. Literally, with God as my witness, that is what they said and did to me. Because Kris lied, and Harvest’s pastors held a grudge against me, none of them cared about me need to attend church, and they all rejected me cruelly. I have not attended church since, having no church family since 2014 because of them. My blood is on Kris Hurlburt’s hands, because she lied before God, and her shameful pastors who selfishly only thought about their own belly and paycheck (Romans 16:17-18). God will judge between me and them all. I was THE ONLY ONE at Harvest who did what was right. I was THE ONLY ONE who told THE TRUTH.

Pastor Jack Hyles is right that: “T he King James Bible crowd will come out on top.

What is sad most of all is that these people in the Bob Jones University camp just don’t care. They are arrogant, sinfully proud and spoiled rotten. Marty Herron bailed from Harvest Baptist Church in 2018, now collecting a disgusting 6-digit salary as the new executive vice president of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary (preacher’s cemetery) in Ankeny, Iowa. [6]Pastor Herron is a wicked man, who preaches a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus human effort (aka, turning away from a sinful lifestyle) to get to Heaven. That is the Devil’s plan of damnation! Mr. Herron has the blood of thousands of victims upon his hands, of everyone whom he has misled to think that God won’t save them unless they make an attempt to stop living in sin.

And sadly, Kris Hurlburt doesn’t care either. Her only interest is finding a husband and her career as a nurse. Spiritual things (like the truth) don’t matter to her. Colossians 3:1-2, “

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.” 2nd John 1:11, “

For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

” Kris bids Godspeed to the false prophets at BJU and Harvest, supporting the Devil’s fake Bibles, and the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, and the Devil’s lie of turning from sins to be saved.

Bob Jones Alumni Are The Enemies Of Jesus Christ

As much as it hurts my heart that Kristen rejected me as her husband, I sincerely believe that God was protecting me from a wicked woman who couldn’t care less about THE TRUTH. If all she wants is a husband, then that is what she will settle for; but she could have married a real man who loves God, loves the truth, and has the capacity to deeply love her like no other man ever could. No man can love a woman as deeply as can a man of God who has a passion for THE TRUTH. It is sad to see the shallow type of men that women settle for, bums. I make no apologies for being a TRUTH TELLER. If I end up staying single because I told THE TRUTH, then so be it. I know that God will bless me. The pathetic Bob Jones crowd may find secular prosperity and happiness in their selfish earthly lives—by selling out to ecumenism, dipping their sails in sinful compromise, going along to get along, and not standing for God and truth—but they will reap what they have sown in eternity

I was crucified, shamed, mistreated, ostracized, rejected, humiliated and made the enemy by Harvest’s ungodly pastors and staff, including by Kristen Hurlburt her self, for which they will all be held accountable by God. I pray for it to be so! They all deeply hurt me, because I befriended them with THE TRUTH. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

” The Bob Jones crowd are liars! Lordship Salvation is a lie. The teaching that you must turn away from sinful bad habits to be saved is a lie. Dr. Steve Pettit’s (president of BJU) preaching is full of lies! Mr. Pettit says that you must join, run and faithfully finish the race (the Christian life) to get to Heaven. Pettit says that Heaven is an award for those who run and finish the race. [7]If you drop out of the race and quit, Dr. Pettit says that you lose your salvation!

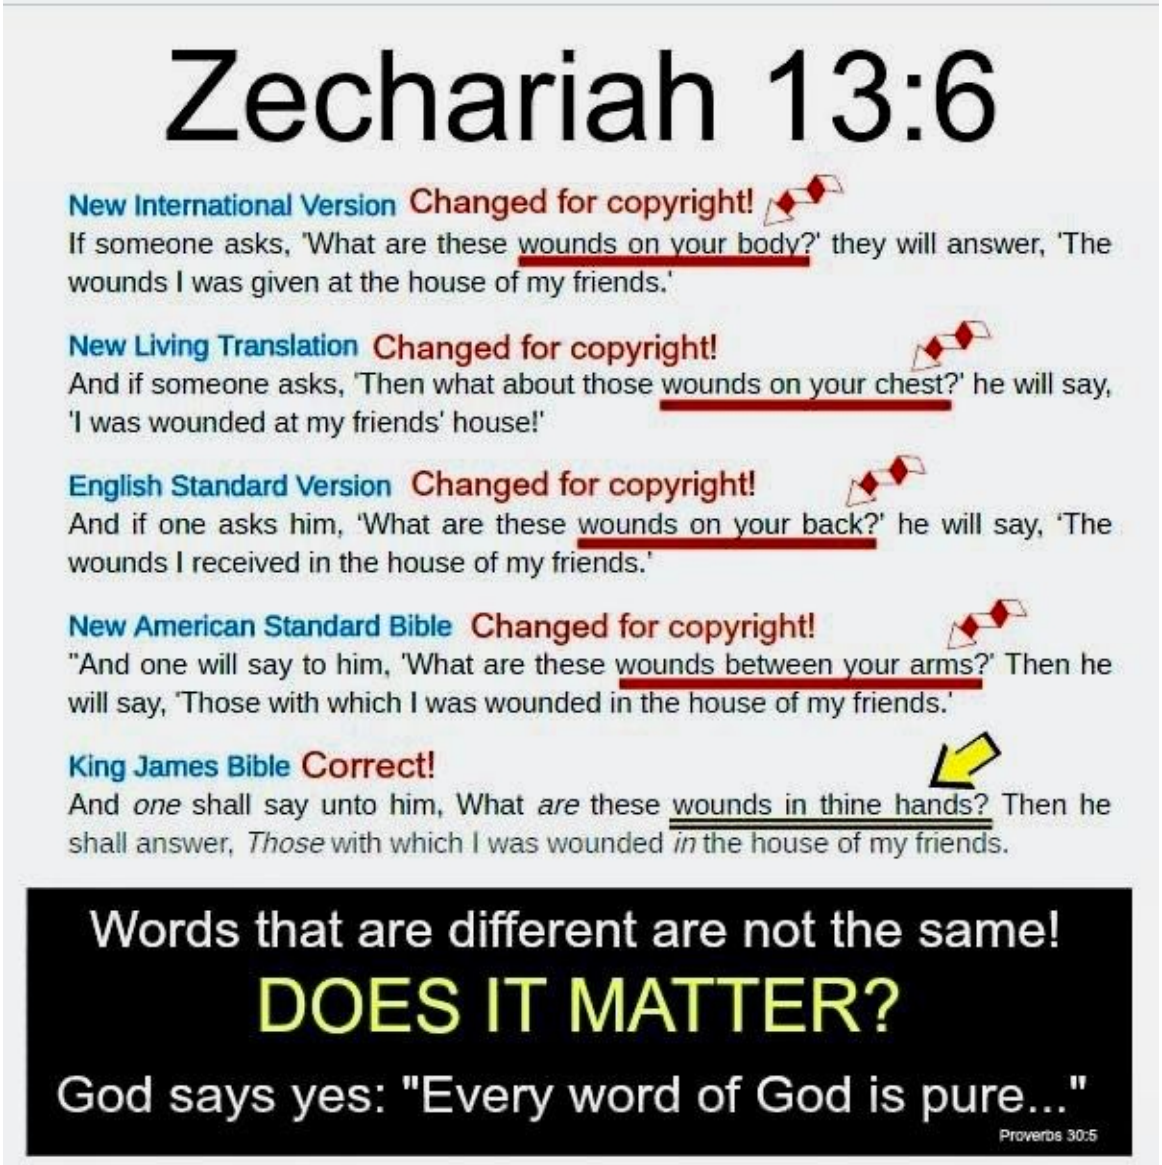
I love the Bob Jones crowd. I love all people. There is not one human being that I hate. But I do hate evil, as God commands me to as His child (Psalms 97:10). I do hate every false way, as God commands me to. Psalms 119:104, "

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

" There is a very serious problem in 99 % of churches today, which is that preachers no longer walk with God. If they truly did walk with God, then they would HATE the Devil's modern Bible revisions. I mean, take a look at this my friend...

[8]



The Bible Has Been Sinfully Changed Merely For Copyright

As Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said: “Things that are different are not the same.”

[9]

This Is The Wickedness That Bob Jones Alumni Support

I could spend literally hours expounding you dear reader in the corruptions found inside today’s hundreds of English Bible revisions. It is as shocking as it is disgusting.

It is for taking a courageous stand against these very evils, that I was horribly and sinfully despised and rejected by the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. For the past 7 long and lonely years I have been banned from returning to church, and ostracized by Harvest. I will never shut up! I am so sick and tired of churchgoers downplaying the severity of this issue as a mere matter of difference of opinion. The two pictures I just shared with you are not someone’s mere opinion, they show the BLATANT CORRUPTION found in ALL of the Devil's modern Bible revisions. Do you really think that this is all a mere coincidence? Please don't be naïve.

It breaks my heart that Harvest ousted me as their enemy, because I told THE TRUTH. The churches of Galatia did the same exact thing to the Apostle Paul. Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" I am not the villain, I am the hero! I am like Batman in the popular 2008 film, "

The Dark Knight.

" In the movie script, Batman chooses to take the blame for the murders committed by Harvey Dent (the district attorney who went mad after the Joker killed his fiancée). To protect Harvey's image and preserve all the good that he had done to clean up Gotham City, Batman decides to take the rap instead. Before he goes insane, Harvey Dent makes this great statement: "You Either Die A Hero, Or You Live Long Enough To See Yourself Become The Villain."

Likewise, I have become the villain in all this bad situation with the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. I didn't want to become the villain. But like the Apostle Paul, and Batman, I have been counted as the enemy for doing the right thing! Always be pure of heart! Matthew 5:8, "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God." Do you know why the pure of heart will see God? It is because those who are pure of heart will seek THE TRUTH. Those who are not pure of heart, like the phony Bob Jones crowd today, merely follow the trend. Those who are not pure of heart worship God with their mouths, but their heart is far from Him (Matthew 15:8). You show me a pastor or layman in a church who rejects THE TRUTH when handed to them, and it becomes obvious that they are phony in their testimony. The pastors and staff at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam rejected THE TRUTH that I gave them.

What truths did I give them? One helpful I handed them is a book called, "

[10]NIV: The Antichrist's Bible

by Pastor Al Lacy. Another helpful book that I handed to them is,

[11]Martin Luther: Master Of Deceit

by Pastor Max D. Younce. Another helpful book that I handed to Harvest's pastors is by Michael P. Bowen titled,

[12]I Never Knew You: The Coming Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It.

" I hope that you will take the time to read these books, the last two of which are freely available to read online in .pdf format. Sadly, the Bob Jones crowd today are hardened sinners. They are wrong on repentance, wrong on the Gospel, and wrong on the Bible; but if you try to befriend them with THE TRUTH (as I lovingly did in 2014), they will outcast you as an enemy before you even realize what happened.

Since 2014 I have suffered inexplicable emotional pain because of Harvest's rejection, and the loss of Kris as my wife (I KNOW she would have married me), and loss of the only beloved church family that I knew. Oh, how I deeply love them and always will. I have been ostracized as Rudolph The Red-nosed Reindeer, simply because of my shiny King James Bible only nose. Harvest's despises me because of my free grace Gospel only nose. Since 2014 they have not allowed me to join in to play in any of their reindeer games. That is as wicked as Hell, and Pastor Marty Herron knows it, but he is a coward and a rotten ungodly man.

Sadly, the new senior pastor since 2018 has upheld all of the same wickedness as the former incompetent pastor. God's wrath and judgment is upon the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They are not prospering in God's sight. They are naked, miserable and wretched (as the Lord said about the Laodicean church in Revelation 3:15-16); but Harvest is blinded to their own apostate condition, lulled by a spirit of sinful pride and indifference, and a woeful lack of compassion for hurting people like me. [13]They still have the 99 sheep, so they couldn't care less about me as that one lost lamb.

The Bible foretold that " perilous times

" would come, when people would selfishly do whatever they feel like doing (2nd Timothy 3:1-7). Young people don't go to Bible college anymore to serve God, they enroll into Bible college to pursue a secular career. These young immature girls today are desperate to settle for anybody they can find. It is pathetic. We've never seen ugly times like this, when pastors don't stand for anything anymore. The churches are pathetic these days. Truth means nothing to professed Christians anymore, most of whom are not even born-again. Nobody is saved who believes Lordship Salvation. Nobody is saved who thinks you have to turn away from sin to be saved.

Kindy said, [14]Dr. Steve Pettit and [15]Pastor Marty Herron are not saved. I KNOW that by the direct perverse teachings from their own mouths. They are religious con men in the pulpit. Ladies and gentlemen, we've got a bunch of unsaved religious infidels preaching another gospel from corruptible seed (perverse Bible revisions) in pulpits all across America! I love these truthful quotes from Dr. Jack Hyles...

> "The only inspired Words of God are in the King James Bible!" —Dr. Jack Hyles ([16]an awesome quote —Dr. Jack Hyles ([17]THE REAL BATTLE!")

> "We're in a battle for the Word of God, that's the big battle!" —[18]BATTLE OF THE AGES (an MP3 sermon by Dr. Jack Hyles, "The King James Bible crowd is going to come out on top!")

These Devil's Bibles are the primary source of all sorts of perverse teachings concerning the Gospel in churches today. Anybody who promotes the Devil's Lordship Salvation is the enemy of God. [19]Please listen to my favorite preacher, Pastor Jack Hyles, expose the Devil's fraud of Lordship Salvation. BJU are God's enemy! Bob Jones alumni are pulling on the same rope as the Devil with their false Bibles, misunderstood repentance and Lordship Salvation. These are all FALSEHOODS!!!

Psalms 119:104, "

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.

Repentance Is Toward God, Not From Anything

I hope I have conveyed to you the vital seriousness of this matter of THE TRUTH. Repentance is **"

TOWARD GOD

” (Acts 20:21b), and not

anything. The truth is that when a man repents

“

toward God,

he has believed the Gospel. You don’t have to turn away from sinful behavior to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. Turning away from sin means cleaning up one’s life. Reformation is behavior modification, not Bible repentance. Dear reader, I absolutely cannot stress the importance of this issue enough.

For example: In Pacific Garden Mission’s radio program, UNSHACKLED ([20]program #3589 aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don’t get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> DEBBIE: Huh, well, I’ll have to think about it.

BLAPHEMY!!! Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is “another gospel” accursed by God! Somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of Pastor John MacArthur’s demonic Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God’s curse is upon all of them…

> Galatians 1:6-9, “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.”

Pacific Garden Mission are PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful way of life is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God's plan of salvation is simply that you come to God as a needy sinner, and you receive His Son's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches. PGM's false gospel is that you must make a commitment to follow the Lord. Judas followed Jesus and went to Hell. Matthew 27:3 says Judas "repented" of his sins, but he wasn't saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, but they will be in Hell. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

If I ask you to please go get something out of my car to bring me, I do not need to first ask you to leave the house. Leaving the house is automatic. Likewise, when a person believes the Gospel, they have repented. Repentance is automatic. That is why I never even bring up the word "

when witnessing to someone, because it will likely confuse them. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract (John 20:31). In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 85 times, but there is no mention of the word "

repent.

" This is because repentance is automatic. The man who repents has believed, and the man who believes has repented. They are two sides of one coin, inseparably related.

Repentance simply facilitates believing the Gospel to be saved. Without repentance no man would ever believe. Repentance is simply " acknowledging THE TRUTH

" that we are a guilty sinner (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20). The Old Testament LAW shows us our sinful condition and need for salvation, and then brings us to CHRIST in the New Testament to be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:24-26). That is the simplicity of the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; 1st Corinthians 15:-4).

2.6.9 Acts 16:30-31 Gives Us The Simple Plan Of Salvation (2021-06-23 22:22)

Acts 16:30-31, “

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

I love the simplicity of the Word of God. Although there are many passages of Scripture which are indeed controversial, the topic of salvation is abundantly clear in the Holy Bible. God authored the Gospel of John to show us how to go to Heaven. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.” As you can clearly see, John 20:31 penned by the Apostle John is in full agreement with Acts 16:30-31 written by the Apostle Luke. To be saved we are simply told to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST.

With such clear Scriptural evidence in view, it is tragic and disturbing that countless religious leaders today pervert the Gospel, teaching doctrines of devils. These men are sincere, but dead wrong in their theological error. The Bible is our final standard, not the teachings of men. What saith the Scripture? I just showed you what the Bible says in Acts 16:30-31 and John 20:31. We are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS.

The Damnable Counterfeit Gospel Of Pacific Garden Mission

Now take a disturbing look at [1]what Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) teaches, and you’ll understand why I preach against these infidels of the faith.

In UNSHACKLED [2]program #3589 (aired in 2020), a woman named Debbie Brooks meets with a religious friend named Sharon:

> SHARON: Trusting Jesus is the only thing that can make a difference in my messed-up life.
>
> DEBBIE: I keep hearing that in church, but I don’t get it—how something that EASY can be a life-changer.
>
> SHARON: Oh Debbie, it’s not easy—believing in Jesus means repenting and asking forgiveness for all the old ways, and then GIVING THEM UP FOR GOOD. When you find the COURAGE TO DO THAT, He’ll help you CHANGE YOUR LIFE.

DEBBIE: Huh, well, I'll have to think about it.

Dear reader, what you just read taught by Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago is of the Devil, straight out of the pits of Hell. I hope you see how evil this is. PGM has moved away from the hope of the Gospel. According to the preceding UNSHACKLED program, it is NOT EASY to be saved, because you are required to GIVE UP YOUR OLD SINFUL WAYS PERMANENTLY! That is "another gospel" accursed by God! Somewhere along the way, Moody Bible Institute, Bob Jones University and Pacific Garden Mission became devout followers of [3]Pastor John MacArthur's demonic Lordship Salvation garbage theology! God's curse is upon all of them—including infidels' Marty Herron, Chuck Phelps, Sam Horn, Steve Pettit, Tom Ferrell, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton. Pacific Garden Mission is also guilty of preaching another gospel...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed."

Pacific Garden Mission is PREACHING ANOTHER GOSPEL!!! We are taught in 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 that the Gospel is simple. Having to forsake the old sinful way of life is anything but simple. PGM has it backwards. God's plan of salvation is simply that you come to God as a needy sinner, and you receive His Son's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins. PGM demands that you turn from your sins first, which is not what the Bible teaches.

Again, I just showed you from John 20:31 and Acts 16:30-31 that we are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS. Nothing more is required! Repentance is automatic. The man who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ has repented (i.e., changed his mind toward God - Acts 20:21). If repentance was a separate act from believing, then the Bible would have said to repent and believe in Acts 16:30-31 and John 20:31, but it doesn't. The Bible simply says to BELIEVE on Jesus!

What right do wicked men have to add to God's Words? Proverbs 30:5-6, "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

" Pastor Marty Herron is a liar. Dr. Steve Pettit is a liar. Pastor John MacArthur is a liar. Pacific Garden Mission are liars. Cartoon evangelist Jack Chick is a liar. Dr. Sam Horn is a liar. Bob Jones University are liars. Moody Bible Institute are liars. Harvest Baptist Church on Guam are liars. Pastor Gary Walton is a liar. The proponents of Lordship Salvation are liars. Those who teach that a person must turn away from sin to be saved are liars. These are all the commandments of men, which make the inspired Word of God of none effect (Mark 7:7-13).

PGM's false gospel says you must make a commitment to follow Jesus as "

Lord.

Yet, Judas followed Jesus as one of His very apostles and still went to Hell. Matthew 27:3 says Judas "repented" of his sins, but he wasn't saved at all. Millions of religious people falsely think they will be in Heaven someday, because they are trying to faithfully live the Christian life, but they will be in Hell (Matthew 7:21-23). Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

Here is PGM's 'GO TO' Bible passage—2nd Corinthians 5:17-18, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;" There is a fine line between faith and foolishness! God knows that I am not trying to be negative, nor criticize Pacific Garden Mission without a cause; but rather, they are pressuring sinners to make a commitment to turn away from sin to be saved, which is not a part of the Gospel.

new creature

" spoken of in 2nd Corinthians 5:17 is wrought by the work of the indwelling Holy Spirit, and NOT by the recipient of God's free gift of eternal life by faith alone. God saves a man by faith alone (this is justification), and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes that man over a lifetime of growing in grace (this is sanctification). PGM's worldwide popular 'UNSHACKLED' radio broadcast preaches another gospel which cannot produce regeneration (the new birth).

The Deadly Bob Jones University Crowd Today

It is critically important that sanctification within be kept entirely separate from justification without. Pilgrim's Progress author and Gospel preacher, John Bunyan, said it well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

I love that helpful quote. In fact, it is one of my favorite quotes. It shows that John Bunyan fully understood that a changed life has NOTHING to do with receiving the free gift of eternal life, which is solely by the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). The entire Bob Jones University crowd today are deceived by the Devil, because they do not put a difference between justification and sanctification. Proof of what I say is clearly seen in [4]the following horrifying quote from Dr. Steve Pettit (an unsaved infidel who has hi-jacked the leadership of BJU since 2014):

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose > everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —[5]Dr. Steve Pettit ("What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [6]11:34)

As you just read from Steve Pettit's own words, he teaches that you CANNOT separate justification from sanctification. In so doing, Dr. Pettit is guilty of corrupting the Word of God and casting stumbling blocks before the people. Anyone who bids Godspeed to BJU today and Steve Pettit are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. For taking a faithful stand for THE TRUTH, at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014 to 2021, I was cruelly driven out of their church family and thrown under the bus. Wicked men don't care! Wicked men teach the commandments of men instead of what the Bible teaches. The Scripture is very clear that we are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS. John 11:25-26, " Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

How in the world did evil men like Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, Ray Comfort, Chuck Phelps and John MacArthur corrupt the Gospel, so that BELIEVING ON JESUS is no longer enough to be saved; they say you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin, surrender your life to Christ as absolute faithfully run the race of the Christian life until the end, count the cost and pay the price, exchange all that you are for all that Christ is, commit your life to serve Christ, live a perpetual lifestyle of turning away from sin, and follow Jesus no matter what the cost? NONE of these things comprise **"

Lord,

the Gospel

" as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Pastor Herron and the other aforementioned wicked men, all teach for doctrines the **"

COMMANDMENTS OF MEN

(Mark 7:7-13).

We should always let the Holy Scripture speak for Itself. Acts 16:30b-31, "

Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

That is so simple, free and easy. Please don't allow a bunch of arrogant wicked Bob Jones University alumni take you to Hell with them.

2.6.10 Most Good People Go To Hell Forever (2021-06-24 21:29)

Matthew 7:19-23, “

Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them*.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity*.

The Holy Bible says that we will know someone by their “ fruits.

” A fatal mistake that so many people make is to ass-u-me that fruits

means

works.

It absolutely does not. The context of this passages is very clear. Jesus is speaking about one’s doctrine, not their works. Proof of this is the fact that these religious people boasted of their **“

many wonderful works,

” yet they were corrupt in their plan of salvation. The Savior denied knowing them! Jesus called them workers of iniquity! Their woeful error was that they failed to obey the will of God, which according to John 6:40 is to

“

BELIEVE ON HIM.

” We are saved by placing our childlike faith in Jesus Christ, period. Salvation is not faith in Christ, plus something else.

I’d like to point out that these were GOOD PEOPLE! They did many wonderful works. They did these works in Jesus’ name. They prophesied (preached) in Jesus’ name. They cast out devils in Jesus’ name. They even called Jesus **“

LORD, LORD. ” There’s your Lordship Salvation heresy right there! Many churches (especially Baptists) today have succumbed to the Devil’s lie that to be saved, faith MUST include a life of devotion to serving Christ, turning away from a sinful lifestyle, surrendering all to Jesus as absolute “

Lord,

” faithfully running the race (living the Christian life) until the end, counting the cost and paying the price, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, and following Jesus no matter what the cost. This fallacy is the same [1]Lordship type of false gospel that Seventh-Day Adventists (SDA) teach.

In sharp contrast to all that extra garbage, which the proponents of Lordship Salvation and the SDA cult ADD to God’s simple plan of salvation, the Bible defines faith as simply RESTING in God’s righteousness through faith alone in Jesus Christ....

> Hebrews 4:10-11, “
>
> For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works*, as God did from his.
>
> Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest,* lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

Jesus proclaimed this great truth in John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. ” The only labour (work) which God allows to be saved is to BELIEVE ON JESUS!!! This is true Bible faith, not the ridiculous demonic faith of wicked men that require doing a bunch of things to get to Heaven. We are saved by FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD; not by FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS something else.

Please RUN away from any bad preacher or corrupt pastor who tells you to “repent of your sin” to be saved. That wicked man has added a step to salvation beyond what God requires. Nowhere in the King James Bible are we taught to repent or turn away from sinning to be saved. These are manmade commandments. The Bible simply teaches to BELIEVE ON HIM. John 9:36, “He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

A common attack made by the Lordship Salvation crowd is that free grace advocates (such as myself) are guilty of leaving off repentance. No, we haven’t left off repentance. No one has ever been saved who didn’t repent. But Bible

(metanoeo, a verb) simply means to think differently.

Acts 20:21 speaks of repentance **“

TOWARD GOD.

” 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of repentance

TO THE ACKNOWLEDGING OF THE TRUTH.

” The Bible never speaks of repentance from sin. A man is saved by BELIVING ON JESUS!!! Repentance is automatic, which is why we find the word

mentioned 85 times in the Gospel of John, but the word

“

is not mentioned even once. This is simply because the man who BELIEVES ON CHRIST has repented, and the man who repents has BELIEVED ON CHRIST.

Repentance is simply acknowledging THE TRUTH that you are a needy sinner (Romans 3:19-20), so that you will BELIEVE ON JESUS to be saved (Galatians 3:24-26). When wicked religious men ADD turning away from sin with all your heart to the Gospel, they have perverted God’s free gift of grace. They are preaching “another gospel” (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4; Galatians 1:6-9, 6:7). These are good men as far as good men go in the world, but they are wicked men in the sight of almighty God, because they corrupt THE TRUTH.

The false teachers in Matthew 7:21-23 were GOOD PEOPLE. No wonder Jesus said in Luke 13:23-24, “Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

” Millions of infidels will someday in eternity try to enter into Heaven, boasting of all the good works they did throughout their earthly life, but they will be denied admission into the pearly gated heavenly city. Matthew 7:21,

“

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

” John 6:40 says that the Father’s will is to **“

BELIEVE ON HIM.

For preaching this simple Bible truth, I have been persecuted by the Bob Jones University crowd. I have wickedly forced out of my church family at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014. I was banned and ostracized by the church congregation, staff members and ungodly pastors. As of 2021, I haven’t had a church family for the past 7 years because of the wickedness of Pastor Marty Herron (senior pastor from 1999 to 2018), Associate Pastors' Joe Hansen and Jared Baldwin, Gary Walton (senior pastor since 2018) and the other associate pastors at Harvest. They cruelly axed me like a turkey on Thanksgiving day! My only crime was TELLING THE TRUTH that Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace.

The church's school nurse, Kristen Hurlburt, was my love. I wanted to marry her and told her so in 2017 in writing and in person. She kicked me in the teeth and threw me to the curb, putting it in writing that she didn't ever want to hear from me again. I was devastated in my soul. I will always love her and wish she had agreed to marry me. That was her decision alone. I am saddened that Kristen bid Godspeed to her wicked pastors, following the same damnable doctrines of devils that they spread to send people to Hell. Repeatedly in the Bible we are told to simply BELIEVE ON CHRIST to be saved. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. "

It breaks my heart that Kristen Hurlburt is as shallow as her ungodly pastors, passing up a really great guy who loves her with all his soul, because she lacked the spiritual insight to see the beauty of my caring heart and soulwinning ministry. Instead, she'll end up marrying some average guy, a bum who has never done anything for Christ except occupy a chair at church. I pray for God to give me a loving wife who values my tender caring heart and soulwinning labors. Perhaps God didn't want Kristen to marry me, because of her corrupted faith. Anybody who is okay with the [2]perverse plan of salvation being preached by the Bob Jones University crowd today is not a born-again believer. There is NOT another gospel (Galatians 1:6-7).

Yes, most good people are going to spend eternity burning in torments in the Lake of Fire. I am not happy about that. God is not willing that ANY should perish, but that ALL men should come to salvation (2nd Peter 3:9). God deliver us from the ungodly, shallow, neo-evangelical, indifferent, doctrinally corrupted, sinfully arrogant Bob Jones camp today!!!

Dear friend, you don't go to Heaven because you are GOOD, nor to Hell because you are BAD. The only reason why any of us can go to Heaven is simply because GOD IS GOOD! What saith the Scripture? Titus 3:5-7, "

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life." The **"

washing of regeneration

" speaks of having our sins washed away when we are born-again (regenerated) by the Holy Spirit. We are legally declared JUSTIFIED (just if I'd never sinned at all) by God's grace.

I want to puke when I hear the hypocritical Bob Jones University crowd insist that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone, while at the same time [3]insisting that you must "repent and turn away from sin" to be saved. Folks, that is a forked-tongue plan of damnation! I know that it seems so subtle and hardly anything to make a fuss over, but the tiniest addition to BELIEVING ON CHRIST is a counterfeit gospel, which cannot produce regeneration (the new birth). Salvation is not turning away from your sinful lifestyle PLUS partial faith in Christ. This is the satanic junk that the BJU crowd are propagating everywhere today. The Bible teaches over and over that to have eternal life, it is a free gift (Romans 5:15) that we simply receive by faith (Galatians 3:26). Anyone who comes to God as a needy sinner, receiving by faith Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that He is bodily risen is saved. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. "

It is so sad and tragic, and a tremendous source of discouragement and frustration in my life personally, that the Bob Jones crowd are corrupted in their understanding of the Gospel. I have been a victim, emotionally abused and cruelly abandoned by the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam from 2014 to 2021. I am finally moving, from Guam to Florida in 2021. I am glad to end this dark chapter of my life, which was caused simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH at Harvest, and their pastors persecuted me for it. When I pleaded for their compassion in 2017, begging to allow me to attend church services so that I could court Kristen Hurlburt for marriage, they all told me to " go elsewhere.

" Kristen was cruel too!

I have been [4]outside the gate with Jesus all these past 7 painful and miserable lonely years. [5]I have stood alone (a beautiful MP3 sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). I lost Kristen as my beloved wife because I took a faithful stand for God against false doctrine at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam and in the Bob Jones University camp. I do not agree with Pastor Peter S. Ruckman on everything he taught, but he was [6]100 % correct to expose BJU as the Alexandrian Cult. The perverse Devil's Bible revisions which BJU uses, sells and sanctions have corrupted them!!!

I have lost everything near and dear to me since 2014 because of the wicked pastors of Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. My blood is upon their incompetent hands as leaders. They betrayed their duties as church leaders, failing to protect the flock of God, leading people astray into heresy and deception (Jeremiah 5:31; Titus 1:10-13; Mark 7:7-13; Matthew 15:8; Matthew 12:36). Judgment day is coming for all men (Hebrews 9:27). I pray for God to speedily avenge me of losing Kristen as my wife. I pray for God to vindicate my doctrinally sound preaching against Harvest. Romans 3:4, "God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

" The truths which I shared with Harvest's pastors were in total agreement with the inspired Word of God. Yet, Harvest's ungodly pastors chose the commandments of men instead of the truth of God's Word.

There is only ONE GOSPEL, but the Bob Jones crowd are all over the road doctrinally. Either Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) is right that you don't have to stop committing one sin to be saved (with which I fully agree - Romans 5:20; or else you cannot be saved unless you turn away from a lifestyle of sin (as Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, John MacArthur, Chuck Phelps, Gary Walton and the whole rotten Bob Jones crowd foolishly preach today). But salvation cannot be by BOTH WAYS! Someone is wrong! Both sides of the debate may be wrong, or one side wrong, but both sides cannot be right!!! That means one side is going to Hell.

For befriending Harvest Baptist Church on Guam with THE TRUTH, which I did in the kindest and most gentlemanly way, they killed the prophet. They cost me Kristen as my wife. They cost me my church family for 7 lonely and inexplicably painful years. The new pastor since 2018, Gary Walton, is just as wicked as the rest of them, only selfishly thinking about himself. The Bible exposes these infidels of the faith in Romans 16:17-18, "

Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

” There’s your hellbound crowd in Matthew 7:21-23, whom the Lord called workers of iniquity and denied ever knowing them. Marty Herron is a stranger to Jesus Christ! Steve Pettit is a stranger to the blessed Savior! John MacArthur is a stranger to the Redeemer!

Pastor Marty Herron ruined my life, cost me my wife, destroyed my happiness, left me for dead, and then weaseled away like the deadly serpent in Genesis. Herron is as the adulterous woman in Proverbs 30:20, “ Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.” But Pastor Herron has done MUCH wickedness. The stench of his apostasy reaches up unto Heaven’s gates, where he won’t be allowed admission someday (John 10:1, 9). Isaiah 14:9,

“ Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.”

Sadly, Dr. Marty Herron is a spoiled rich man, who has preyed upon naïve churches his entire life, following the money-making opportunities as they were presented to him, selling out in sinful compromise, dipping his sails, going along to get along with spiritual apostasy. These shallow neo-evangelicals stand for virtually nothing, operate their organizations with cultish club membership only policies, [7]mistreat hurting people with dictatorship thuggish authoritarianism. I do not hate anybody. God knows that I am a loving man. I love all sinners, everyone! I view every human being, even the most contemptible among us like Marty Herron, as a sinner for whom Jesus Christ was willing to die on the cross of Calvary (Romans 5:6-9). But Marty Herron is no mere sinner, he is an arrogant hardened Pharisee, self-righteous as can be, thinking that to get to Heaven a person must turn away from living a sinful lifestyle.

The Bob Jones crowd are wicked abusive authoritarians!

Don’t take my word for it, search the internet for authoritarian abuse at Bob Jones University. BJU has made countless enemies over the years, by being abusive, just as I was horribly ABUSED repeatedly at the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam between 2014 and 2021. These wicked leaders literally play God with people’s lives, hurting anybody who opposes them. There is no accountability. Marty Herron belongs behind bars in prison, which is where I wish I could put him for the rest of his life, but I am powerless to hold him accountable for costing me Kristen and ruining my life. God promises to punish him (Romans 12:19-21; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Galatians 1:6-9, 3:1-3, 5:4, 6:7).

Dear friend, I didn’t author the inspired Holy Bible, God did. I am simply upholding, defending and proclaiming what the inspired Word of God says—that we are saved by BELIEVING ON JESUS!!! For proclaiming these blessed TRUTHS, I lost Kristen Hurlburt as my wife, and lost the only church family I knew for an entire year in 2014. I have been so lonely since 2014 because of Mr. Herron’s prejudice, hatred and rejection of THE TRUTH. While Marty Herron romances his wife, enjoys homecooked dinners and is living large, he ruined my life. That is what I got for TELLING THE TRUTH to be faithful to God.

I know God is good, and somehow my dear Savior will punish Marty Herron and make it up to me in the long run. No man can reject THE TRUTH and get way with it! No pastor can deprive another hurting human of the right to attend church, and get away with it. Blessed be the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, my God and Savior. Cursed by the name of Marty Herron, the Devil’s servant. Yes, good people go to Hell all the time. Marty Herron is not a good man in my humble view, but an opportunist like Bill and Hillary Clinton.

Most good people go to Hell forever, and that sadly includes most religious people (Matthew 6:7-8, 7:13-15, 15:8).

There is nothing good about me except Jesus (Galatians 2:20). I am just a needy sinner saved by God's grace. I have never tired to forsake my sinful life to get saved, God forbid. The truth is that neither Marty Herron nor any other human being has ever turned away from a sinful lifestyle. Ecclesiastes 7:20, "For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not." All you can do is try, which is WORKS for salvation if you include it in the Gospel. The Bob Jones crowd are corrupt and on their way to the Lake of Fire. I tried to help them see as a true friend does, for which I was thrown under the bus and crucified (2nd Timothy 3:12). It is tragic that the worst persecution, rejection and pain in my life has come from churches, simply because I TOLD THE TRUTH (Galatians 4:16).

2.6.11 Exposing False Teachers Is Very Important To The Gospel (2021-06-26 09:30)

Titus 1:10-14, "

For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

: Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth."

1st Corinthians 11:19,

For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

The Bible commands us as born-again believers to take a stand against heresy. The word " heresy

" simply means any opinion that disagrees with the inspired Holy Bible. There is no controversy if you believe the Bible. God's Word stands! The Bible teaches in one of our text passages that WE NEED HERESY, so that doctrinally sound Bible teachers can be made known. Heresy is far more deadly than the COIVD-19 virus, which can send you to Hell forever if you die in your sins without Jesus as your Savior (John 8:24; Revelation 20:15).

I received an e-mail recently from a sincere 73 year old man. He rebuked me, saying that I should just preach the Bible and not fight against my brothers in the Lord. Kindly, that man is woefully ignorant. The Bible says in 1st Corinthians 11:19 that we need heresies, as a canvas against which true Bible preachers can proclaim THE TRUTH. By exposing the corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd and their Devil's lie of Lordship Salvation, I am able to lead people to Christ. I've often said that we cannot get anyone saved until we first get them lost.

Tragically, millions of churchgoers and Bible college students have been lied to by false teachers like [1]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU), told that they cannot merely say they've accepted Christ and that's it. In addition, Steve Pettit errantly teaches that you must start, faithfully run, and finish the race (living the Christian life) or else you won't go to Heaven. There are not two different Gospels friend. There are not variations of the Gospel of free grace. The Bible says that you simply come to God as a needy sinner, resting in the finished work of Jesus Christ Who died on the cross for our sins, was buried and miraculously raised up bodily three days later. This is THE GOSPEL by which we are saved if we believe it (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Nothing more is required or allowed to receive eternal life.

In sharp contrast, false teachers like [2]Pastor John MacArthur teach that you must forsake a sinful lifestyle, count the cost and pay the price, exchange your life for Christ's life, commit your entire personality to Christ as Lord to follow Him no matter what the cost. That is NOT the Gospel, not even in the ballpark! [3]Another big time heretic is Pastor Marty Herron, who says that it's not enough to admit that you are a sinner, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sin to be saved. I heard him say it at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam in 2014 with my very own two ears, in front on hundreds of church members on a Sunday morning. God's curse is upon that wicked false teacher (Galatians 1:6-9).

Evangelist Ray Comfort is another bad apple, who requires that you [4]LIVE A LIFESTYLE of turning away from your sins, just like Marty Herron does, to be saved. These are false prophets of the worst sort, because they deceptively appear as Christians. Their gospel is not our Gospel. There is nothing in the Gospel as defined in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 that includes repenting of your sins to be saved. Repentance is not mentioned at all! That is because repentance is automatic. The man who BELIEVS has repented of his unbelief and idols. If God wanted us to turn away from something to be saved, then He would have said so, but He didn't!

Repeatedly in the Gospel of John, and throughout the New Testament, we are simply taught that the way of salvation is to BELIEVE ON JESUS. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Yet, thousands of ungodly false teachers refuse to teach the simplicity that is in Christ, making salvation HARD. John MacArthur even authored a horrible book titled:

[5]HARD TO BELIEVE.

" Any preacher who makes getting saved hard is of the Devil. Pastors' John MacArthur, Chuck Phelps, Marty Herron, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton and the entire Bob Jones crowd today are of the Devil, making salvation hard.

I have paid dearly for my stand for THE TRUTH. I lost two potential wives at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, because Marty Herron drove me out of the church for befriending him with THE TRUTH. God will deal with Herron treacherously as he has dealt with me, costing me everything. Pastor Herron has his wife, so what does he care if I am alone without a companion.

I haven't had a church family since 2014 to 2021, because of Marty Herron's cowardice, arrogance, selfishness, haughty rich man's pride and wickedness to reject THE TRUTH. God's curse is upon that rotten false prophet! I didn't say, God did in Galatians 1:6-9 and Galatians 3:1-3 and Galatians 6:7. Lordship Salvation is a perversion of God's grace. My blood is upon their heads at BJU and Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. They can remove, ban, shun, shame and ostracize me as a truth-teller, but they cannot escape the judgment of God almighty (Matthew 7:1-2; Galatians 6:7; Matthew 12:36; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14; Hebrews 4:13; Matthew 7:21-23; Luke 13:23-24).

I wouldn't give you a dime for any preacher who does not expose false teachers. The 73 year old man who wrote to me is foolish in his thinking. He erroneously calls the false teachers whom I expose " brothers.

" Kindly said, Marty Herron, John MacArthur, Steve Pettit, Chuck Phelps, Gary Walton, Paul Washer and Ray Comfort are not Christian brothers (to name but a few), they are infidels lurking in the pulpit today, damning men's souls to Hell with a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus giving up your sinful bad habits. Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus surrendering all to Christ as " of your life. Salvation is wholly resting in Jesus Christ because He died in your place on the cross, was buried, and physically resurrected three days later.

2.6.12 Faith In Christ, Plus; Versus Faith In Christ, Period (2021-06-26 09:30)

John 6:28-29, "

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Acts 10:43,

To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

Acts 16:30-31, "

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

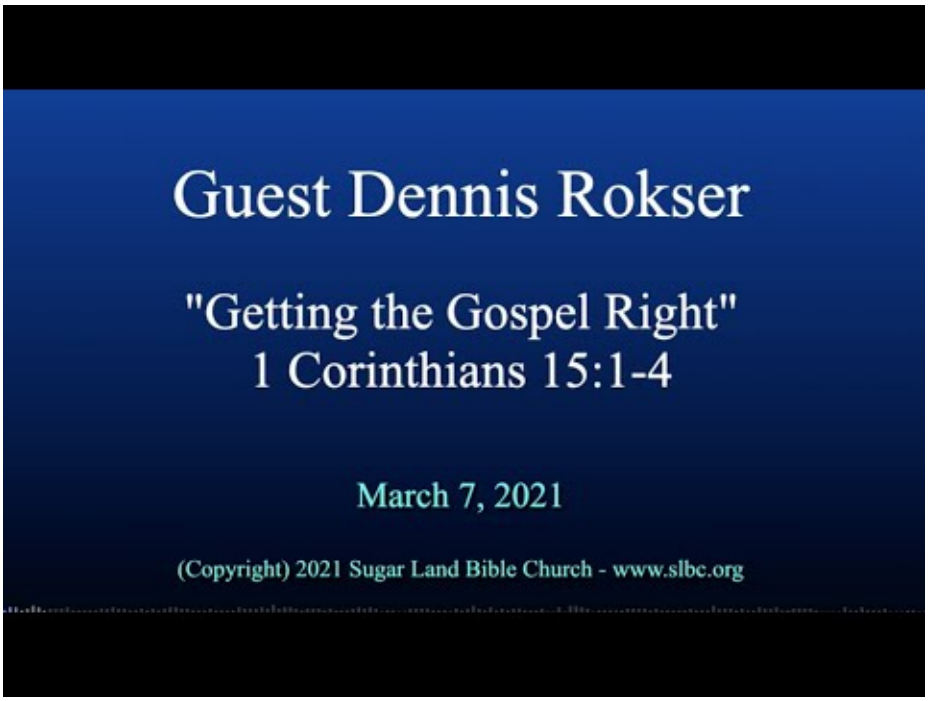
Again and again throughout the Holy Bible we are taught that the way of salvation is to simply BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD.

Tragically, churches and Bible colleges and pastors everywhere nowadays are preaching FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS something else, which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. One of my absolute favorite sermons is by Pastor Dennis Rokser, preached at the Sugar Land Bible Church in Texas. The awesome sermon, a defense of the simple Gospel is called: 'GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT AND WRONG'...



GETTING THE GOSPEL RIGHT AND WRONG

Dear reader, the Word of God is adamantly clear that there is NOT another Gospel. ...

> Galatians 1:6-9, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed. "

There is only ONE GOSPEL. I am sickened by most church pastors today, particularly Baptists. I am sickened because they all go along with their peers, knowing that their peers in the clergy are preaching a wide array of unbiblical ideas. For example: [1]Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) correctly preaches a free grace Gospel, FAITH IN CHRIST, PERIOD. [2]Dr. Hutson refutes the heresy of Lordship Salvation.

In sharp contrast, [3]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) preaches another gospel of Calvinism (aka, Lordship Salvation). This is the same damnable heresy that [4]Pastor John MacArthur teaches. These men cannot all be right!

> "In great contests [battles], each party claims to act in accordance with the will of God—both may be, but one must be, wrong—God cannot be for and against the same thing at the same time!" —President Abraham Lincoln

Why did Mr. Lincoln say that? It is because both the Northern Union and the Southern Confederacy claimed to be doing "God's will" in fighting The Civil War (1860-1965). Both President Jefferson Davis in the south, and President Abraham Lincoln in the north, said they were doing "God's will." As Mr. Lincoln wisely points out, that is IMPOSSIBLE! When two opposing parties, who are warring against each other, claiming to be doing God's will, obviously someone is WRONG! That is why Abraham Lincoln made that powerful statement!

Likewise, the Gospel cannot mean that there are multiple plans of salvation. Either you don't have to do anything except BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PERIOD; or else you must BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PLUS [5]turn away from your sins, surrender your life [6]to Christ as absolute "Lord," run the race (Christian life) [7]faithfully unto the end, count the [8]cost and pay the price, exchange [9]all that you are for all that Christ is, live a [10]lifestyle of repentance (continually turning away from sinful behavior), and [11]follow Jesus no matter what the cost. I have provided the preceding hyperlinks so you can see the theological garbage that these false teachers preach for yourself. Folks, all of these things have their proper place in the Christian life, but NONE OF THEM comprise the Gospel (Good News) that saves us by faith (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

If you want to go to Heaven someday dear friend, then you had better BELIEVE IN JESUS, PERIOD. John 6:40, "And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. " That is so simple! The Father's only will for you and me, concerning eternal life, is that we BELIEVE ON CHRIST. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " Again and again the Word of God simply teaches us to BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD.

Yet, these devils in the pulpit today like Marty Herron, Gary Walton, Steve Pettit, John Piper, John MacArthur, Sam Horn, Ray Comfort, Adrian Rodgers, Jack Chick, William Lane Craig, Chip Ingram, Paul Washer, Joel Osteen, John Hagee, Rick Warren, Beth Moore, Charles Stanley, Bryan Derringer, Southern Baptist Convention, Pacific Garden Mission's UNSHACKLED

—all these corrupt infidels are guilty of preaching another gospel that says to BELIEVE IN CHRIST, PLUS something more to be saved.

In Matthew 7:21-23 we find a group of dedicated religious zealots, who spent their lives serving and following Christ as " LORD, LORD.

" Yet Jesus denied even knowing them! The reason why is because they were trusting in FAITH IN CHRIST, PLUS their many wonderful works done in Jesus' name, and that they had preached in Jesus' name, and that they had cast out devils in Jesus' name. The Lord makes it very clear in Matthew 7:21,

“Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. ” John 6:40 says that the Father’s will is to BELIEVE ON CHRIST, PERIOD!!!

We LOOK TO LIVE, we don’t LIVE TO LOOK. Isaiah 45:22, “Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.”

Regeneration does not precede faith (John 1:12-13). If you admit that you are a guilty sinner, seeing your need for redemption, Christ will save you simply for resting in Him as your Savior. John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

2.7.1 Not All Israel Is Israel, And Not All Baptists Are Baptists (2021-07-09 20:42)

Romans 9:6-8, “Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.”

The Devil is a beautiful liar! The Scriptures teach us in 2nd Corinthians 11:13-15 that Satan masquerades himself as an angel of light, and so does his false ministers of unrighteousness. To the natural (or unregenerate mind), human rational tells us that God won’t forgive anyone unless they make a conscious effort to turn away from their sinful ways.

However, that is not what the inspired King James Bible teaches. If you do some research, as I diligently have, you’ll find that every pseudo-Christian religion (i.e., false Christian religion) requires their followers to repent of their sins to get to Heaven. Nowhere in the King James Bible are we taught to repent “OF YOUR SINS” to be saved. Wicked men added those extra words, corrupting God’s Word to mean something different than what God intended.

Repentance is a change of mind, period. According to 2nd Timothy 2:25 repentance is “the acknowledging of the truth;” Repentance is simply the admission that you are a guilty sinner so that you'll see your need to believe the Gospel and be saved. Anyone who tells you to "turn away from your sinful ways" or "repent of your sins" to get to Heaven is a liar. I have been thrown out of churches, shunned, hated, ostracized and counted as their "enemy" for preaching this Bible truth (Galatians 4:16). God will reward me for my faithful "stand" (Ephesians 6:13). I thank God for Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001), who also exposed [1]Misunderstood Repentance.

The Bible says that not all Israel is Israel. That simply means that even though God chose the nation of Israel as His own, not all Jews are God's children. Romans 2:28-29, "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God." Only born-again Christians are God's children!!! We are the chosen!

I am so sickened and disgusted by the horrible perversions of the Gospel that I keep hearing being taught today. Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago has done much good over the past century, but they are also [2]sending souls to Hell by obscuring the truth of the Gospel. Some UNSHACKLED episodes are good, but others are [3]horrifying in corrupt theology! Friend, right doctrine matters! Galatians 1:6-7 proclaims that there is only ONE GOSPEL. We have at least TWO very different plans of salvation circulating in churches today. [4]I fully agree with Pastor Curtis Hutson on the Gospel.

Now take a look at the [5]ungodly perverse garbage that Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) is preaching. These are two very different plans of salvation. In fact, they are not even compatible with each other! One is instantaneous and requires mere childlike faith (the Gospel), but the other requires a life of religious devotion to persevere in faithful Christian living until one's death. The former is grace, the latter is works!

[6]Dr. Bob Jones Sr. (1883-1968) himself warned in 1945, about infidels that would someday creep into the college and steal the faith of the saints, and said that we'd pay them to do it! Dr. Jones was warning everyone about infidels like Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, John MacArthur and other reprobates of the faith who pervert the Gospel. There are not two Gospels, there is ONLY ONE (Galatians 1:6-7; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4). The Bible speaks of "the simplicity that is in Christ," which is the Gospel (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

When Jesus was asked what "works" we must do to get to Heaven, here is His answer in John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." There is the simplicity of salvation... BELIEVE! Anyone who believes on the Lord Jesus Christ, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He is risen from the dead, is saved. 1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

Not all Baptists are Baptists! Any Baptist church that preaches Lordship Salvation, or Misunderstood Repentance, is a religious CULT, not a New Testament church.

2.7.2 The Epistle Of 1st John (2021-07-13 18:00)

1st John 1:3-8, “

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

The Epistle of 1st John is often misunderstood. It is very important to recognize that the Apostle John is the writer of both books. In the Gospel of John we are told by John how to have eternal life. John 20:31, “But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

” Here we plainly see that God gave us the Gospel of John, to convince us that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of God, so that we might believe and be saved.

But regarding the Epistle of John we read this in 1st John 1:4, “

And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full. ” Here we plainly see that John’s purpose is not to show us how to have eternal life, but how to have the fullness of joy as believers. John makes it very clear that he is addressing his epistle to believers. 1st John 5:13,

“These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. ” Here we see clearly that the Epistle of 1st John is written to BELIEVERS, not unbelievers.

This truth is very important to know, in order to understand these books of the Bible. The Gospel of John was written to everyone , to show us the way of salvation by convincing humanity that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 20:31); but the book of 1st John was written exclusively to believers, that our joy may be full (1st John 1:4). In 1st John 5:13, the apostle John says that he is writer to believers, that we may “

we have eternal life. This is so that our joy may be full. John is familiarizing believers with the work of the indwelling Holy Spirit in the life of every child of God. 1st John 3:24,

“ And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.”

Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) authored a wonderful book, which is one of my favorites, all about the Holy Spirit. This is one of the greatest and most helpful books I have ever read. The book is titled: “

[1]Meet The Holy Spirit.

” The great joy of my life as God’s child is enjoying the constant abiding comfort of the indwelling Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is God in me. John 14:23, “

Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

” God the Father and God the Son live inside every born-again believer as God the Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9). I love the Holy Spirit!!!

So when John teaches that whosoever committeth sin is of the Devil (1st John 3:8), he is not saying that backslidden Christians aren’t saved. Proverbs 14:14a says that “ the backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways.

” We’re all guilty of that! I sure am. You are too you wretched sinner! 1st John 1:8,

“If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ” We’re all lousy Christians!

One of the keys to having full joy as a believer is to continually acknowledge that we are sinful, and cannot live the Christian life in our own strength. Galatians 2:20,

“I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. ” Jesus lives the Christian life through us, as we yield to the Holy Spirit in humble submission to the inspired Word of God. 2nd Corinthians 10:5-6,

“

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

” That is not mind control, that is walking in the blessed Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:25).

I love that last verse in

Galatians 2:21,

“I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain. ” Please don’t miss that! This whole heretical idea in many churches today, called

“

[2]Lordship Salvation,

is foreign to the Scriptures. The Apostle Paul also said in Galatians 3:3,

“Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” Paul is effectively saying, “You got saved by faith, so why are you trying to validate your salvation by works?” Our faith is justified in the eyes of MEN by works (James 2:18), but with GOD we are justified by faith alone (Romans 4:5).

Kindly said, anyone (e.g., [3]Dr. Steve Pettit and the Bob Jones crowd today) who teaches that works prove the genuineness of the reality of your faith in God’s sight, is preaching ANOTHER GOSPEL (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Works cannot be used to prove the validity of your faith to God. The very idea is absurd according to Romans 4:3-4, “For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

” The evidence of your faith is faith itself! Faith is the only righteous thing I can do!!! Jesus confirmed this truth in John 6:28-29,

“Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

It bothers me a lot when I hear Calvinistic preachers (like [4]Pastor Charles Lawson of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee) teach that a believer must turn away from sin (i.e., do works) if they are really saved. That is unscriptural. The Bible teaches the exactly opposite. Romans 5:20 says that when we sin as believers, GRACE DOTH MUCH MORE ABOUND! Acts 13:39 teaches that the believer is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS!!! I’m not the one perverting the Gospel of free grace, the wrong repentance crowd are!

We read in 1st John 3:9 that one who is born of God cannot sin. The Apostle Paul put it this way in Galatians 5:16, “

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. ” When we choose to sin, it is only because we are walking in the flesh, instead of the Holy Spirit that lives within our body and soul. A believer who chooses to walk in the flesh cannot experience full joy. What saith the Scripture? Romans 8:6, “ For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.” That is what John is saying in his epistle. If we are to have God’s fullness of joy, we need to walk in the Spirit.

God gave us the wonderful book of 1st John so that our joy may be full as believers. A child of God who chooses to walk in the flesh won’t have God’s full joy. A believer who harbors hatred against other brothers and sisters in the Lord won’t have God’s full joy. Ah, but when our walk aligns with our talk, and we have sweet fellowship with the Lord, then we will have full joy. So please don’t make the mistake of using the Epistle of 1st John as a plan of salvation. God gave us the Gospel of John to show us how to get to Heaven. God gave us the Epistle of 1st John that our joy as believers may be full.

2.7.3 Didn't Dr. John R. Rice Teach That You Must Turn Away From Sin To Be Saved? (2021-07-16 12:52)

Romans 4:4-7, "Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

Didn't Evangelist John R. Rice (1895-1980) teach that you must " repent from sin with all your heart to be saved? [1]Yes he did! Yet, Dr. Rice clearly didn't believe that a person must attempt to reduce their amount of sinning to be saved, as evidenced by this wonderful quote from him:

> There are those hyper-dispensationalists who think that John the Baptist preached a different Gospel from Christ when he commanded repentance (Matt. 3:2). But it is the same repentance Jesus commanded in Matthew 4:17, in Luke 13:3 and 5, and the same repentance that Paul preached in Athens that God "now commandeth all men every where to repent" (Acts 17:30 31). Repentance is not a different plan of salvation from having faith: it is part of the same plan of salvation. Or rather repentance is simply another way of describing or looking at the plan of salvation. One who turns from sin to God has done so by trusting in Jesus Christ. A change of mind toward sin is necessarily involved in saving faith. [emphasis added]

Clearly, John R. Rice believed that the way you "turn from sin" is by trusting Jesus Christ as your Savior. This is one step, not two, to be saved. That is [2]NOT what the Lordship Salvation crowd are heretically preaching today. I keep hearing these false preachers teaching that you must turn away from your sins first, and then secondly believe the Gospel. That is a false gospel of partial faith in Christ plus works! You don't repent AND believe, as Dr. Tom Ferrell, Pastor Marty Herron and Bob Jones University preach; you repent TO believe as Dr. John R. Rice rightly taught. There is a fine line between faith and foolishness!

Having said that, I do not like nor approve of Brother Rice's poor choice of words. No preacher should ever add to the Scripture, to say something that God didn't say. Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to repent "OF YOUR SIN" to receive God's free gift of eternal life. Proponents of this damnable heresy are often quick to falsely accuse the free grace crowd (e.g., myself, Dr. Jack Hyles, Dr. Curtis Hutson and Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold) of leaving off repentance. No, we have not left off repentance, nor have we added something to the Bible which God did not say. To repent simply means "to think differently."

I love how Pastor Bob Gray Sr. explains it:

> "Repentance means to change your mind—change your mind—change your mind about how you want to get to Heaven to what God says you've got to do to get to Heaven. If you've got to repent of all your sins, you're still headed for Hell tonight."
> —Pastor Bob Gray Sr., a quote from the awesome MP3 sermon, [3]Why You Should Be A Part Of A Growing Church

Christian author Michael Patrick Bowen accurately states in his excellent book titled: “ [4]I NEVER KNEW YOU ”:

> “Repent, as Christ meant it to be in terms of salvation, means to change your mind from trusting in what you can do for God to trusting only in what He can do for you.” —Michael Patrick Bowen, a quote from the awesome book, “[5]I NEVER NEW YOU” (Page 114)

The faithful soulwinning man of God, Dr. Harry Ironside (1876-1951), rightly states:

> "Repentance is the recognition of my sinnership—the owning before God that I am as vile as He has declared me to be in His holy Word." — Dr. Harry Ironside, [6]Except Ye Repent, chapter 3

I agree with all those explanations of repentance. Acts 20:21 speaks of “repentance toward God,” not from anything. Some foolish pastors coddle and bid Godspeed to false teachers, by alleging that in order to turn TO something you have to also turn FROM something. I agree! But when you require turning FROM something as a separate act of turning TO Christ to be saved, you have corrupted the Gospel. It is easy to see how words can be manipulated to teach a perverse plan of salvation (Galatians 1:6-9). The man who turns TO Christ has at the same time turned FROM all that had previously hindered him from coming to the light of the truth of the Gospel to be saved. Nothing more is required to get to Heaven than to simply BELIEVE the Good News of Jesus Christ. This is what Dr. John R. Rice rightly believed and taught.

In 2014, I heard Pastor Marty Herron at Harvest Baptist Church on Guam errantly teach hundreds of people on a Sunday morning, and I quote: “It is not enough to admit that you are a sinner to be saved, you must also turn away from a lifestyle of sinning.” I knew right there and then that Pastor Herron is an infidel, not a born-again Christian, a false prophet! Herron has added works to grace, perverting the Gospel. Where did he get that garbage theology? Look no further than his mentors: [7]Dr. Steve Pettit and [8]Pastor John MacArthur. I am not trying to be unkind or mean, I am contending for the faith once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3). I can preach the truth all day long, month after month, year after year, but people don’t seem to take notice and “get it,” until I start to mention the names of heretics and step on some toes. Let God be true, but every man a liar (Romans 3:4). The greatest sin of our generation is complacency, indifference and tolerance of false teachers by professed Christians. Right doctrine matters! It matters which Bible that we use. Words matter to God. God cares and so should we as His redeemed children!

So, even though I disagree with Dr. John R. Rice’s poor choice of wording, he vindicates himself by plainly explaining what he means by “ turn from sin with all your heart

” to be saved. Dr. Rice plainly taught that the man who BELIEVES on Christ has turned from his sins. This is not what the Bob Jones crowd are preaching today! Dr. Rice rightly recognized repentance and faith as being two sides of the same coin. He didn’t see them as separate actions, and that is critically important to understand, lest you corrupt the Word of God and cast stumbling blocks before the people.

If a man must commit to forsake his lifestyle of sinning as a requirement to be saved, then a payment has been demanded of him. This is a false plan of salvation. In God’s true plan of redemption, a man ceases from ALL his works (good and bad alike, which the Bible calls “dead works” in Hebrews 6:1). One of my favorite Bible passages is Hebrews 4:10-11,

“For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

” If you want to go to Heaven, you simply need to CEASE from trusting in all your works (good and bad works alike) and REST in Jesus Christ. [9]Look at this frightening theological garbage that Evangelist Ray Comfort wickedly preaches!

Dear reader, eternal life is the free gift of God (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). You don’t earn or merit that gift. You don’t turn away from your sin to qualify for that gift. It is a gift! You don’t have to live a lifestyle of repentance as Steve Pettit and Ray Comfort preach to prove the validity of your faith. You don’t have to be willing to turn away from sin to get that gift. You simply take it by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31). You simply need to acknowledge the truth that you are a guilty sinner in God’s sight (2nd Timothy 2:25; Romans 3:19-20), so you’ll see your need to believe the Gospel (the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen) to be saved (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Our part in salvation is simply to BELIEVE the Good News of Jesus Christ, God does the rest. That is the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4). Whatever changes that God wants to see take place in one’s life as His child is His department, and you can be assured that He will not be an absent Father (Hebrews 12:6-8).

Although I respectfully disagree with some of his wording, Dr. John R. Rice was a faithful man of God and I still fully support his ongoing ministry today at the Sword Of The Lord.

2.7.4 Anybody Who Makes Repentance A Separate Act From Believing Has Perverted God's Grace (2021-07-22 13:24)

1st Thessalonians 4:14, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

In several dozen Bible passages we are simply taught that salvation is by faith alone in the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our inspired text verse from 1st Thessalonians 4:14 makes this abundantly clear, "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him." Also, please consider Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Please consider Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Please consider John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." That is so simple.

Yet, we hear in umpteen corrupt churches today that BELIEVING on Jesus as our Savior is not enough to be saved. In addition, many preachers foolishly teach that you must have an additional act of repentance, which they say is more than a mere change of mind; but rather, they say that a change of mind must lead to a change of behavior. This is a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. I love how Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), explains it:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." [emphasis added] —Evangelist John Bunyan

Amen! That was well written. Anybody who adds repentance as a separate act from BELIEVING on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved is preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Again, the inspired King James Bible simply teaches to BELIEVE! How in the world then, do so many preachers in churches today come up with the additional requirement to turn away from sinful behavior as a necessary step to salvation? They have been woefully deceived by Satan!

A changed life is the "fruit" of the indwelling Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25), which every born-again believer possesses (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). The Holy Spirit sanctifies every believer with the Word of God, which is THE TRUTH (John 17:17; 1st Peter 2:2). To change one's own behavior is reformation, not repentance. Sorrow over sins is penitence, not repentance. Making a mend for sin is penance, not repentance. Yet, so many corrupt pastors today confuse and add these things to repentance, demanding that people be sorry and commit to behavior modification in order to go to Heaven. That is not the Gospel of free grace, not even close! The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. Anybody who teaches that believing on Jesus is not enough to get to Heaven, claiming that you must also repent (that will lead to turning away from your sinful bad habits) is a theological liar! In effect, such a horrible preacher is requiring that you first make a toll payment in order to enter into God's Kingdom.

In the true Gospel, you do need to repent, but repentance is simply a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21) that causes you to BELIEVE the Gospel. Repentance and faith are not the same thing, but they both happen at the same time, and are one act, not two separate acts. False prophet [1]Ray Comfort teaches that repentance is a separate act from believing...

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance. That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing —trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added]

Dear friend, believing on Jesus is NOT the "second thing" that you must do to be saved, it is the only thing!!! What saith the Scripture? Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Does the Bible say that you must first prove your sincerity by giving up your sinning, and then SECONDLY believe on Christ? No, it certainly does not. The Bible simply teaches to BELIEVE on Jesus! So why does Ray Comfort teach this madness? You tell me.

To be saved, you do need to know that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-23), so that you will see your need for the blessed Savior Galatians 3:24-26). But this is all that repentance is. Let me give you a helpful illustration of repentance and faith. I recently moved from Guam to Florida in July of 2021. Now, when I got on the airplane to leave Guam, I didn't have to make a second decision to head toward Florida. I was moving toward Florida at the same time I was moving away from Guam. That is how repentance and faith work. You don't repent first, and then believe second.

I am tired of hearing unlearned and injurious preachers corrupt the simplicity of the Gospel, by teaching that someone who is trusting in Christ isn't really saved if they haven't forsaken their sinful behavior, alleging that they have never repented. That is another gospel. Anything required more than faith is a counterfeit plan of salvation. Faith is the only righteous thing I can do. Our part in salvation is simply to get out of the way, by ceasing from our own dead works (good and bad works alike) and RESTING wholly on the precious name of the Lord Jesus Christ (Hebrews 4:9-11).

[4]The Gift Of Eternal Life Is Wrapped In The Wonderful Package Of Jesus

"Faith is the only righteous thing that I can do!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon titled: "[5]God's Reversal Of Psalm 51"

2.7.5 God Wants To Give You A Gift Of Eternal Life, He Doesn't Demand That You Give Up Your Sinning To Receive It (2021-07-23 10:45)

Romans 4:1-5, "

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

Our text passage makes it very clear that salvation is by faith alone, without works. I am so frustrated with pastors today who continually focus on repentance more than faith to be saved. The Gospel of John doesn't mention the word "

repent

" even once. This is because repentance is automatically included with believing. The word

"believe" is mentioned 85 times in John.

Dear friend, God wants to give to you a free gift of eternal life. Ephesians 2:8-9,

"For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." God does not demand that you give up your sins, make a mend, promise to do better, improving your life, surrender all to Jesus, turn over a new leaf, be willing to turn away from your sins, nor anything else to receive His free gift.

I heard a pastor recently teach that believing on Jesus is not enough to be saved. He simply meant that a person must also realize their sinnership, and I fully agree with that. You cannot merely turn over a new leaf from sin. to clean up your life to be saved. You need Jesus Christ! Contrariwise, you cannot merely trust Christ and fail to realize that you are a guilty sinner. Every person must answer the SIN QUESTION and the SON QUESTION.

1. Do you know that you're a guilty sinner?
2. Do you know that Jesus died on the cross to pay for your sins, was buried and raised up three days later, and that only though faith in Him can you be saved?

That is the simple Gospel. Nothing more is required. So when you hear wayward preachers perverting the Gospel, requiring tuning away from sins in addition to believing, you know that they don't know what they're talking about. Repentance must never be taught as being a separate action from believing. Therefore, it is impossible that someone could ever believe and yet not have repented. It is utterly impossible! You may follow Christ, but not believe. You may join a Christian organization, but not believe. You may live the Christian life, but not believe. But you cannot believe and yet still be lost!

The churches are filled with heresy today.

2.7.6 Bible Doesn't Explain Repentance, So Why Should We? (2021-07-26 23:25)

Acts 16:30-31, "

And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

We've got a BIG problem in many of our churches today with what pastors are teaching about Bible repentance to be saved. I was pondering this important matter today and something dawned on me. Folks, why do so many preachers try to explain what repentance means, when even the Bible doesn't tell us? Think about that. I am guilty of doing it too, so I am preaching to the choir.

In Acts 16:30 the question was asked, **"

Sirs, what must I do to be saved? " The simple answer to this naïve Roman soldier was,

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved...

" Paul didn't mention repentance! No mention was made of turning away from anything. Oh, why do preachers make getting saved so complicated? Now, we know from the Bible that a person MUST realize that they are a sinner. That is the whole purpose of God's law according to Romans 3:19-20,

"Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

I think one of the greatest injustices that pastors do to people is to make a big issue of repentance, which confuses them. I totally disagree with the theological statement: "Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior." Folks, that simply is NOT true! Repentance is "

a change of mind,

period, end of story! It is true that once saved, the indwelling Holy Spirit will begin to produce

“

in the life of a believer (Galatians 5:22-25), but this fruit MUST NOT be connected with the plan of salvation itself, lest we corrupt the Gospel and cast stumbling blocks before the people.

Pilgrim’s Progress author, John Bunyan (1628-1688), wonderfully made this statement:

> “If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I LOVE that statement! I am amazed that John Bunyan had such a keen grasp of the Gospel. But after all, why shouldn’t he, the Word of God was the same then as it is today, which is why John Bunyan was refuting them. Moreover, this statement PROVES that many preachers back then were getting the Gospel wrong, just as they are today

, which is why John Bunyan was refuting them

. I have heard Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and John MacArthur all make lying allegations that the old time preachers all preached repentance from sins to be saved. Well, many did, and they were false teachers! But as the preceding wonderful quote from John Bunyan proves, there were also many preachers back then who taught a free grace Gospel, rejecting the heresy that to be saved you must first be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning.

In reality what these false teachers of “ repent of your sins to be saved

” are saying is that YOU must commit to changing your life, or else you don’t meet God’s qualifications to be saved. Dear friend, the Bible teaches in 2nd Corinthians 5:17 that if any man “BE IN CHRIST”

(i.e., he is already saved), he becomes a new creature. Kindly said, Pacific Garden Mission’s [1]UNSHACKLED radio program really gets the Gospel wrong oftentimes. Heresy has invaded most churches today! Nowhere in the inspired King James Bible are we taught to forsake our sinning to be saved.

I am tired of hearing pastors teach that repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior. What they are indirectly implying is that if your life hasn’t changed you’re not saved! Being indwelt with God’s Holy Spirit and the manifestation of an outward change of behavior are two different things! Case in point, I know of several believers who are serving time behind bars in prison. They’re behavior didn’t change! Well you say, if you are saved, there should at least be some evidence of the Holy Spirit. Okay, how much? How much does a person’s life need to change before they are considered saved? Do you see how foolish this heresy of having a change of behavior is folks concerning salvation?

The truth is this—if you are saved you SHOULD live for Christ; not WILL because that is Calvinism; not MUST because that is works. What saith the Scripture? Titus 2:11-12, “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

” If you are saved, YOU SHOULD live for God. When you hear a preacher insisting that true repentance means that your behavior WILL CHANGE, he is preaching another Gospel.

Listen, anything that an unsaved person can imitate cannot be used as “proof” that someone is saved. Can an unsaved person change? Yes. Can an unsaved person love, do good works and live the Christian life? Yes. So those things cannot be used to “prove” that anyone is saved. The only “proof” that you are saved is the blessed presence of the in-dwelling Holy Spirit. 1st John 3:24, “And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.”

That is something that only YOU can determine, which is what the epistle of 1st John is about (1st John 5:13).

The simple answer given in Acts 16:31 to the question in Acts 16:30 about how to be saved, is simply to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!! No mention is made about forsaking a sinful life. No requirement is given about the necessity of a change of behavior down the road. It is so easy for preachers to get caught between grace and works. The churches today are full of false teachings on what a person must do to get to Heaven. I adamantly reject any teaching that even mentions a change of behavior with God’s simple plan of salvation!!!

Again, the Word of God doesn’t make an issue of repentance to be saved, so why should we? Whatever change of mind (repentance) is necessary to be saved is automatically included in believing for the sinner that comes to Christ. The ONLY requirement to receive God’s free gift of eternal life is that you admit you are a sinner. No intent to reform is necessary, which would be equivalent to paying a toll to enter into God’s Kingdom. Sorrow for sin is penitence, not repentance. To make a mend is penance, not repentance. To turn from sin is reformation, not repentance. All that God requires to be saved is repentance (a change of mind), which compels a man to believe the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Repentance facilitates believing. Repentance and faith are inseparable, two parts of one action of believing the Gospel to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

I reject the idea that it is even possible to believe without repenting. Some preachers claim that if a person professes faith in Christ, but are still living in immorality, that they never repented of their sins and are not saved. That is another gospel. The truth is that it is possible to follow Christ, live the Christian life, join a Christian organization, or adopt a Christian culture, and still be lost. We see this evidenced in Matthew 7:21-23. They did many wonderful works in Jesus’ name. They preached in Jesus’ name. They even called Jesus “ but Christ denied knowing them, calling them workers of iniquity. The Lord tells us the reason why in Matthew 7:21, because they failed to do the Father’s will. John 6:40 teaches that the Father’s will is to BELIEVE ON CHRIST!!!

Lord,

Dear friend, you can follow Jesus, serve Jesus, love Jesus and talk about Jesus all you want, but you will never be born-again until you cease from your own works and wholly TRUST JESUS. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” So when we witness to people, we should simply make sure that they understand they are a guilty sinner in God’s sight, under the condemnation of God’s law. We should explain that there is a penalty for sin, which is eternity in the fires of Hell. Never withhold the reality of Hell from people when you witness to them. But we must be VERY careful to never give the wrong impression that their behavior must change to be saved.

I love what Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) said:

> "In all that I have written I have failed completely to express what was surging up in my soul if I have given anyone the impression that I think of repentance as something meritorious which must be produced in man by self-effort ere he is fit to come to God for salvation." —Dr. Harry Ironside, a quote from chapter 16, [2]THE PREACHING THAT PRODUCES REPENTANCE, from his timeless classic book, [3]EXCEPT YE REPENT.

I agree 100 %! The entire concept of Lordship Salvation is based in self-righteousness. The concept of wrong repentance is rooted in self-righteousness. Never, ever, accept the teaching that repentance means anything more than a simple change of mind. That may not settle right with you dear friend, but it is God's Word. The Lord in His infinite wisdom intentionally chose [4]metanoia (a Greek noun that means "a change of mind"). If God wanted to use a different word that included a change of behavior, then He would have chose a different word. Think about that! Why do so many preachers ADD meaning to the word metanoia?

I did an internet search to see if I could find out why preachers add extra meaning to repentance as "

a change of mind.

" The hardcore Lordship salvation website GotQuestions.org came up first. This is the heresy that they teach:

> When a repentant person changes his mind about sin, that change of mind naturally leads to a turning from sin. Sin is no longer desirable or fun, because sin brings condemnation. The repentant sinner begins to abhor his past misdeeds. And he begins to seek ways to amend his behavior (see Luke 19:8). So, ultimately, the result of the change of mind about sin is good deeds. The sinner turns away from sin toward faith in the Savior, and that faith is shown in action (see James 2:17).
>
> SOURCE:
> [5]https://www.gotquestions.org/repentance-change-mind-turn-sin.html

That is an ASSUMPTION! They are perverting the Bible meaning of repentance based upon their own flawed human understanding and not Scripture. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught that repentance (a change of mind) naturally leads to a turning from sin!!! This is human reformation and not the work of the Holy Spirit. In true salvation the sinner has zero power to turn away from their sins. It is the power of Christ in the life of a born-again believer that enables us to turn away from sin (Galatians 2:20). In other words, God saves us and the Holy Spirit changes us. This is the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-25).

The horrible preceding quote from GotQuestions.org attributes all of the changes in a believer's life to SELF, and not the Holy Spirit. According to their flawed reasoning, all of the changes in a believer's life has its origin in repentance; but the Bible teaches that a believer is transformed by the renewing of our mind (Romans 12:1-2). John 17:17 teaches that the believer is sanctified by the Word of God, the truth. I completely reject the heretical idea that the change of mind which is necessary to believe the Gospel, somehow perpetuates into a change of behavior, so that if someone's behavior hasn't change they aren't really saved.

Friend, if you don't have the Holy Spirit you're not saved. That is the truth! Romans 8:9, "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. " I hope you see the big difference between the manmade changes that false teachers require, versus the changes which the Holy Spirit produces in the believer. No pastor should ever teach people that repentance is anything more than a simple change of mind. For to do so is to corrupt the Word of God. No mention of changing one's behavior ought ever be mentioned with repentance. God doesn't, so why should we? Where the Bible is silent we should be silent.

I love what Mario Cuomo, the governor of New York said: "Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but nobody has a right to their own facts." Yes Sir! The FACT of the matter is that repentance in the Bible concerning salvation is simply "a change of mind."

2.7.7 Can A Person Be A Catholic And Still Be Saved? (2021-07-28 09:30)

Hebrews 4:10-11, "For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief."

Can a person be a Roman Catholics and still be saved? Yes and no. A man recently wrote to me from South America and asked me if his elderly mother can still be saved. He wants to lead her to Christ before she dies, but she refuses to leave the Roman Catholic Church. He emailed me for me advice. He asked a very good question.

Yes, it is possible for a person to be saved and yet still be a member of a false religion, but only if they completely trust Jesus Christ and cease from trusting in the false Gospel of their false religion. In the case of Roman Catholics, they are taught from the cradle to the casket that to get to Heaven a person must keep the Seven Sacraments (baptism, confirmation, Eucharist, penance, anointing of the sick, marriage and holy orders). Catholics are falsely taught that salvation rests in the Catholic Church itself and that water baptism is the door into the Catholic Church. All Catholics trust in water baptism for Heaven. This is a counterfeit plan of salvation which cannot produce the new birth. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

Catholics also are taught that to get to Heaven a person must be confirmed, partake of the holy eucharist, et cetera. So to get saved, a Catholic would need to renounce these things. That is, they would have to stop trusting (repent) of these "dead works" (Hebrews 6:1), by trusting only in Jesus Christ. You don't have to do anything to be saved except come as a sinner and rest wholly in Jesus' name, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Christ is risen from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). A person CANNOT be saved while still holding onto trusting in water baptism, the priest, confirmation, and the confessional booth.

So if a man understands that he is a sinner in God's sight and places his childlike trust (reliance) in Jesus Christ alone, he will go to Heaven. Acts 16:30-31, "And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." Salvation is very simple, free and easy. We simply need to rest wholly in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. Your mother already believes those things, but she is also adding water baptism and the Seven Sacrament. To be saved she must trust Christ alone, and nothing else. Adding anything to Christ is no trust at all. Partial faith in Christ plus keeping the Seven Sacraments is a counterfeit gospel, which cannot produce the new birth.

I agree that a person who gets saved logically wouldn't want to remain in the Catholic religion. But some people don't know anything else because Catholicism has been their hope and home since childhood. So for the sake of family, tradition or fear, a person may not necessarily leave the Catholic church right away, but God WILL save them if they will simply cease from trusting in the Catholic religion and rest only in Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins to be saved (Hebrews 4:10-11). The only thing from which a person needs to repent to be saved is from the only thing which prevents them from entering into Heaven, unbelief.

Here is a very helpful and wonderful free online book by Michael P. Bowen explaining the simplicity of the Gospel. The book is called: "I Never Knew You: The Coming Great White Throne Judgment And How You Can Avoid It!"...

[1]http://www.jesus-is-savior.com/BTP/i _never _knew _you.pdf

And here is a very excellent sermon by Pastor Curtis Hutson called: "The One Thing That Determines Salvation"...

[2]http://www.jesusisprecious.org/sermons/printed/curtis _hutson/determines _salvation.htm

We are saved by looking TO Jesus. This is how people were saved in the Old Testament too. Isaiah 45:22, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else." I just prayed for your mother that God would help her to understand the Gospel and that she would believe it to be saved. So your mother doesn't have to leave the Catholic religion to be saved, she just needs to stop trusting in it to Get to Heaven, and trust only Jesus instead.

I hope that helps my friend. I share your heavy burden for your mother. She is blessed to have a son who is concerned about her eternal fate. Here is a wonderful video by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold that perhaps your mother would watch called: "The Clear Gospel In 4 Minutes"...

[3]https://youtu.be/Wh1VU- _OF98

Getting saved is simple, free and easy. God will save anybody who wholly rests in Jesus' name. No sin or religion can prevent salvation if there is genuine faith in the Savior.

2.7.8 Beware Of False Teacher Pastor Joel Osteen (2021-07-30 18:13)

2nd Peter 2:1, “

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

Joel Osteen says many helpful and great things. I always feel encouraged after I listen to him. Pastor Osteen makes me feel like I can do anything! Joel Osteen is a powerful motivational speaker and a gifted orator. The biggest problem with his sermons is WHAT JOEL OSTEEN DOESN’T SAY.

Unfortunately, Pastor Osteen gets the Gospel horrible WRONG. I was listening to him preach the other night (if you can call his motivational speeches preaching). At the end of his sermon, Joel gave a counterfeit plan of salvation that made me cringe. Pastor Osteen requires four things to be saved that are totally unbiblical:

1. Joel says you must “receive Jesus as Lord” to be saved.
2. Joel says you must “repent of your sins” to be saved.
3. Joel says you must “pray” to be saved.
4. Joel says you must “follow Christ” to be saved.

I heard Joel Osteen on TV the other day require those four unbiblical things to be saved. Joel didn’t even mention Jesus’ death, burial or resurrection in his suggested sinner’s prayer. Dear reader, you don’t need to do anything of those things Joel requires.

You can simply BELIEVE on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31). You don’t have to pray. God is already offering you eternal life as a gift, if you will simply BELIEVE. John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to “

repent of your sin

” to be saved. Wicked men added that. Repentance is simply realizing that you are a guilty sinner in need of redemption, a change of mind toward God (Acts 20:21), that is part of BELIEVING on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed. They are not two separate acts, but just one. Acts 16:30b-31, “

Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

Friend, you must choose whether to believe Joel Osteen (who adds at least four additional requirements), or you must believe what the Bible says we must do to be saved. It cannot be both! Something is wrong with Joel Osteen’s plan of salvation. It does not agree with God’s plan of salvation in the Bible. You only need to receive Jesus as your Savior to be saved, not your Lord. Jesus is Lord, you don't make Him Lord. It is heresy that you must make Jesus your Master, and commit to follow Him, to get to Heaven. If those things were true, then eternal life could not be a free gift, because YOU would have to pay for it.

All of the false Christian cults teach these same heresies that Joel Osteen does concerning how to be saved. All of the cults teach that to be saved you must "repent of your sins." They teach that you cannot receive God's free gift of eternal life unless you first commit to forsake your lifestyle of sin. This heresy has crept into nearly all Baptist churches today, corrupting the Word of God and perverting the Gospel, casting stumbling blocks before the people. You come as a guilty sinner to the Savior to be saved, you don't need to commit to stop your sinning to be saved.

It is the conviction of the Holy Spirit that works repentance in a man unto salvation, and not YOU. 2nd Timothy 2:25 speaks of repentance to the acknowledging of the truth, not turning away from your sinning. Repentance is a matter of the truth that you are a guilty sinner. You need to know what you're being saved from. Galatians 3:24-26 teaches this. The LAW of God shows us our sins and brings us to CHRIST to be saved by God's grace. Joel Osteen fails to understand this biblical truth. CHRIST Himself is sufficient Oh sinner to be saved!

Therefore, you don't need to follow Christ as " to be saved. It sounds so good and noble, so religious and reasonable, that a person must make Christ their

Lord

Lord

" (Boss) to get to Heaven. But this teaching goes 100 % contrary to the righteousness of God, which is by faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). CHRIST is the end of the LAW to him that believes, not our behavior changes, commitment to do better, desire to turn away from sins, religious devotion or willingness to follow Christ. Romans 10:3-4, "For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth."

Oh how simple are the Scriptures! Do you see that dear friend. CHRIST Himself is the END of God's Law to all who believe. How beautiful!!! All that is required to be saved is to simply BELIEVE. Do you know what this means? It means that Joel Osteen is not saved. It means that Joel Osteen is woefully ignorant of God's simple plan of salvation. It means that Joel is a damnable false teacher who is leading the masses into Hell. By embellishing the true Gospel with a bunch of garbage theology that is not required, NOR ALLOWED BY GOD, Pastor Osteen has successfully obscured (hidden) the Gospel from the lost (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4).

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again. You can follow Christ as "Lord, Lord" like Joel Osteen teaches, and you'll one day hear Christ's horrifying Words: **"

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

" (Matthew 7:23b).

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again.

You can

repent of your sins

like Judas did in Matthew 27:3, and as Joel Osteen foolishly teaches, and you’ll one day hear Christ’s horrifying Words: **“

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

” (Matthew 7:23b).

Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without being born again.

You can pray as did an unsaved religious man named Cornelius in Acts 10:2, and as did the unsaved people in Matthew 6:7, and as heretic Joel Osteen teaches, but you’ll one day hear Christ’s horrifying Words: **“

I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity

” (Matthew 7:23b).

Dear reader, the Bible plainly tells us what we must do to be saved in John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. ” The only way to God the Father is through faith in God the Son. John 14:6,

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. ”

In the Gospel of John we are taught to simply BELIEVE on Jesus to be saved. You need to know Who Jesus is, He is the Christ, the Son of God (John 20:31). You need to know what Jesus did for you, He died for your sins on the cross (John 19-20). You need to know why Christ died for you, because we are guilty sinners (John 1:29). Nothing more is required nor allowed to be saved, except to “ Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house ” (Acts 16:31). Pastor Joel Osteen gets it woefully wrong!

2.7.9 If You Think Salvation Can Be Lost, You Don’t Understand The Gospel (2021-07-31 13:58)

John 10:25-29, “Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father’s name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father’s hand.”

The Word of God teaches ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED. I don’t see how anyone could be saved who disagrees with this view. Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) preached a very helpful sermon called: "[1]HOW PERMANENT IS YOUR SALVATION."

If a person thinks that they CAN LOSE God's salvation, then it shows that they errantly think THEY must do something to retain or maintain that salvation, which is not total faith in Christ. The true Gospel always points you to Christ; a false gospel always points to you. A true born-again believer has the mindset that JESUS PAID IT ALL, and God alone does the saving, all of it. When we accept a gift, it is ours! To say that a person could ever lose God's free gift of eternal life, is to change the meaning of a gift. A "gift" is something given without compensation or payment in return. If a person could ever LOSE salvation, then it could not be a gift. I firmly believe that those people who think salvation can be lost, were never truly saved at all.

Also, to say that salvation can be lost is to fail to understand the new birth. When a person gets saved, a new spiritual birth has happened. The new birth is wrought by God's Holy Spirit in response to a person's faith in Jesus Christ. This birth is permanent and irreversible, as is the first physical birth. The new birth cannot be lost!

Dear friend, the new birth is a miracle of God. The blessed Savior promised to give eternal life, not probationary or temporal life, to them that believe on Him. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED (OSAS). Anyone who disagrees with OSAS is not a born-again believer. They are not a redeemed child of God. I can say that boldly with confidence from the Scriptures! Salvation is not partial faith in Christ plus something else.

I like how [2]Pastor Hank Lindstrom tests a professed Christian, to see if they are really saved. He asks them if they were to murder someone, would they still be saved? If they response with "

No,

then they are not saved, because it evidences that they don't understand the Gospel.

Salvation is based solely upon God's imputed righteousness through faith in Jesus Christ (Philippians 3:9). Even the best Christians still habitually sin (Romans 7:14-25). The Bible doesn't teach that we must repent "of your sins" to be saved. In fact, we must be 100 % sinless and perfect to enter into God's Kingdom (James 2:10; 1st Corinthians 6:9-11). That is why Christ had to come into the world, to die on the cross in our place to pay our debt of sin (2nd Corinthians 5:21).

Therefore, we can be declared 100 % sinless (justified) through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). God justifies the believer on the basis of faith alone in Christ, imputing our sins to Jesus and His righteousness to us (Romans 4:4-6). Christ is the end of the law to all who believe (Romans 10:3-4). We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33). The believer's righteousness is based solely in God's imputed righteousness, which is by faith in Jesus, and not our own. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! Anyone who disagrees with that doesn't understand the Gospel. They don't understand the new birth. They don't understand the free gift of eternal life. They don't understand God's imputed righteousness. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

2.8.1 Where In The Bible Was Anyone Asked To Forsake Their Sins To Be Saved? (2021-08-03 13:23)

Romans 4:4-7, “

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness*.

Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

Let’s list the people in Holy Bible who were told to forsake sin, repent of sins, invite Jesus into their life, commit to follow Christ or make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved. Here’s the list...

That’s right, there are NONE! Nowhere in the inspired Word of God can you show me where anyone was told to forsake sin, repent of sins, invite Jesus into their life, commit to follow Christ or make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved.

We read concerning Abram in Genesis 15:6,

“

And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

” Abraham was saved by faith alone in the Lord. No mention is made of forsaking sin, repenting of sins, inviting Jesus into his life, committing himself to follow Christ or make Jesus the Lord of his life to be saved.

On the Day of Pentecost we read that 3,000 people were saved, but no one was told to forsake sin, repent of sins, invite Jesus into their life, commit to follow Christ or make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved. Acts 2:41,

“Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. ” They were saved simply by gladly receiving Peter’s Gospel message.

In Acts 10:43 we read how simple it was for an Italian man named Cornelius to be saved, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. ” Again, we clearly see that salvation comes to those who simply BELIEVE. No one was told to forsake sin, repent of sins, invite Jesus into their life, commit to follow Christ or make Jesus the Lord of your life to be saved.

Our churches today are pathetic. I cannot believe the garbage that I read in Statements of Faith of churches and Bible colleges. Satan has crept into most churches. I was sickened on July 21st, 2021 when I attended the Campus Church in Pensacola. The church's assistant pastor Tim Zacharias got up and made this heretical statement: "Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of behavior." Pastor Zacharias is WRONG! In fact, repentance is "

a change of mind,

period, end of story. Any pastor who embellishes the biblical meaning of the word

[1]repent

" is a liar. I called them out for teaching false doctrine at Campus Church. Sadly, Pastor Jeff Redlin replied by 100 % agreeing with the preceding heresy!

I am sick and tired of pastors corrupting the Word of God. You talk about pride! The moment that you correct these pastors, they count you as an enemy, as they did the Apostle Paul. Galatians 4:16, " Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

We are declared 100 % sinless (justified) through faith in Jesus Christ (Galatians 3:26). God justifies the believer on the basis of faith alone in Christ, imputing our sins to Jesus and His righteousness to us (Romans 4:4-6). Christ is the end of the law to all who believe (Romans 10:3-4). We are saved by HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS (Matthew 6:33). The believer's righteousness is based solely in God's imputed righteousness, which is by faith in Jesus, and not our own. Kindest regards. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! Anyone who disagrees with that doesn't understand the Gospel. They don't understand the new birth. They don't understand the free gift of eternal life. They don't understand God's imputed righteousness. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

2.8.2 Repentance Never Means More Than A Change Of Mind (2021-08-05 21:46)

Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

Dear reader, repentance in the Bible concerning salvation NEVER means anything more than a change of mind. Anybody who adds to that meaning is preaching another gospel.

I moved last month from Guam to Pensacola. I feel like a cow looking at a new gate. I have been making many sincere mistakes since I've been here. I am learning many new things. For example: I had never used a mobile phone before to answer phone calls. People were calling me and I couldn't figure out how to answer my Samsung phone, that I bought at Best Buy. I tried to call, but couldn't get through. I tried to press the green circle, but it didn't work.

So I searched Google for "How To Answer Samsung Mobile Phone." One website said to swipe upward, which I tried but it didn't work either. Another website said to swipe up on the white circle around the green dot, but that didn't work either. I was so frustrated, as my stupid phone rang, and I couldn't answer it. I was calling people back, to see who had called me, but was getting answering machines and voice mail. This went on for 2 weeks, until I finally had a chance to drive 30 minutes back to Best Buy where I purchased the mobile phone. As it turns out, to answer the phone you have to start at the green dot and swipe diagonally for 3 inches to the middle of the phone. Oh brother! Now I know how to answer my phone...lol. What the phone designer made to be simple and self-explanatory was very difficult and a mystery for me, because I was unlearned.

I think this is a perfect illustration of what so many pastors are doing today with the Bible doctrine of repentance. What God intended to be simple they are making complicated because they are unlearned. Repentance is simply "[1]a change of mind." That is what the Greek word metanoia means, and nothing more. Yet I hear foolish pastors expressing their anger that someone would teach that repentance is just a change of mind. One such unreasonable pastor is [2]Charles Lawson of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, Tennessee. I love the man's preaching otherwise, but he really blows it regarding repentance and how to be saved. Respectfully, that means Pastor Lawson is not truly saved. How can he be when he is wrong on the Gospel?

Dear friend, repentance NEVER means anything more than a change of mind. But doesn't the Bible give us some indication of what we must change our mind about? Yes, the Bible does! First let's look at Acts 20:21, "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Here we read that repentance is "TOWARD GOD." Amen! Now let's look at 2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." So here we learn that repentance is "TO THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THE TRUTH."

A key Scripture passage to understand Bible repentance is John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." So here see that repentance is when a lost person changes their thinking. Whereas before they refused to come to the light of the truth of the Gospel to be saved, now they have changed their mind TOWARD GOD AND ARE ACKNOWLEDGING THE TRUTH. They have acknowledged THE TRUTH that they are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20) and are believing THE TRUTH of the Gospel to be saved. That is salvation! That is simple, free and easy.

In sharp contrast, many unlearned preachers today (both layman and pastors alike) are corrupting the Word of God and casting stumbling blocks before the people, by teaching that repentance means "[3]turn away from your sinful ways." False Teachers like [4]Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) and [5]Dr. Marty Herron (Vice President of Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary) pervert the Gospel, teaching that repentance means that you must turn away from a lifestyle of sinning to get to Heaven. This is manmade righteousness, and not the imputed righteousness of God through faith alone in Jesus Christ (Romans 4:4-7). These wicked men will deceitfully claim to believe the latter, but by adding the additional requirement to turn away from your willful sinning, they have corrupted the Gospel.

Dear friend, there is an entirely different mindset in the brain of someone who thinks that you cannot continue in sin and go to Heaven. They utterly fail to understand that we are saved solely on the basis of what Jesus Christ did through Calvary's cross, by the shedding of His precious blood for our sins. If YOU must turn away from your sinning to get to Heaven, then in fact you are only placing partial faith in Christ, and adding your own self-righteousness.

NO ONE is saved who thinks that a person can lose God's free gift of salvation, because it proves that YOU are not completely trusting the blessed Savior. I have had people argue with me, who claim that they were formerly confused as a Pentecostal, thinking that salvation could be lost, but still insist that they were saved back then. I am not sorry to disagree fully with them. You were never truly saved (born again) until you completely ceased from trusting in your own works, and you wholly rested in Jesus Christ as your Savior. If turning away from sinful living, or maintaining a life of holy living, is required to know that you are truly saved, then YOU ARE NOT SAVED! If you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, then you're not saved.

I was gloriously saved at age 13 by faith in Jesus Christ (Acts 16:30-31; Galatians 3:26). I became God's adopted child forever when I got saved. Nothing more was necessary or required. I have NEVER one time in my Christian life thought that I could lose God's free gift of salvation, which He gave to me because of my faith in His only begotten Son (John 3:16). I have never thought that I must persevere in holy living to prove the genuineness of the reality of my faith. This is a very important matter dear reader. The Bible is very clear that there are not two gospels. There is a very dangerous teaching going around in our Bible colleges and churches today, which says that "Lordship" salvation (i.e., Calvinism) and Wrong Repentance (i.e., Calvinism) fall within the realm of orthodox theology. No, they don't! Anything other than a 100 % free grace Gospel is a lie of the Devil.

In closing, repentance in the Bible concerning salvation NEVER means anything more than a change of mind. Anybody who adds to that meaning is preaching another gospel (Galatians 1:6-9). You simply need to think differently so that you will admit you are a guilty sinner and believe the Gospel. The only change of mind that you must have is the realization (acknowledging THE TRUTH) that you are a guilty sinner under the condemnation of God's law, deserving of punishment in Hell. In other words, you need to know what you are being saved from. You need to know why you need a Savior. You are a guilty sinner and so am I (Romans 3:23).

Consequently, we all deserve to burn in the Lake of Fire for ever (Romans 5:9, 6:23; Revelation 20:15). But God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world to die on the cross. Christ paid our sin debt (1st John 2:2). Anyone who by faith receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins is saved. It is simply a matter friend of trusting the truth as recorded in God's written Word concerning His Son, Jesus Christ. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

2.8.3 Don't Make A Christ Out Of Your Repentance (2021-08-06 14:10)

John 6:37-40, "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day."

Notice in the following quote that Pastor Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) accurately teaches that repentance does not precede believing. When a man sees Christ (John 6:40), he changes his mind (repents) and believes at the same time. And then it is the precious indwelling Holy Ghost Who turns us from sin. That's how the new birth works! ...

> "Repentance will not make you see Christ; but to see Christ will give you repentance. You may not make a Christ out of your repentance, but you must look for repentance to Christ. The Holy Ghost, by turning us to Christ, turns us from sin. Look away, then, from the effect to the cause, from your own repenting to the Lord Jesus, who is exalted on high to give repentance." —Charles Spurgeon; "[1]All Of Grace," Chapter 11 - "Alas! I Can Do Nothing"

Boy, that was brilliantly said. Yes, that is right! Those pastors today who falsely teach that you must turn away from your sin to be saved are looking to the effect (repentance) rather than the cause (which is Christ). We must look to the Lord Jesus, and not to our own repenting. Certainly every believer still sins (Romans 7:14-25), but the indwelling Holy Spirit will chastise every child of God when we sin. I agree with Spurgeon's preceding quote. It is the Holy Spirit Who turns us from sin (Philippians 2:13), and not our own repentance. Repentance is a grace from God (2nd Timothy 2:25). This doesn't mean we should look for changes in a believer's life to determine if they are saved. Only God can see someone's heart.

When I got saved as a boy at age 13, the Holy Spirit immediately began to convict me about the sin in my life. Pastor Spurgeon is right that we don't have to turn away from sin to be saved. That is not how salvation works. You come to God as a guilty sinner, believing on Christ, and in so doing you have repented. This is what I think Spurgeon meant.

We don't have to turn away from sin to be saved; but rather, when we believe on Christ, the Holy Spirit begins to work in our life concerning our sins. This doesn't mean that every believer will turn away from sinning. No believer has ever turned away from all their sinning.

Even the best saints will sin, because we are still in the flesh.

So the very idea that a Christian must turn perpetually away from their sins to prove that they are saved is preposterous! It is the Holy Spirit who works in every believer to turn us from our sins, but many believers choose to dwell in Sodom. Demas forsook Paul because he loved this present world. Lot lived a life of sin. Samson chased women all his life. Samson build altars for his pagan wives. If you are saved, then the Holy Spirit deals with you concerning the sin in your life, even though you may be disobedient and still choose to wallow in the hogpen of sin like the Prodigal Son. Every believer has God's Spirit in them (1st John 3:24).

John 3:20-21, "For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God." The word "repent" in the Bible only means "a change of mind." We know that it must deal with sin, because John 3:20 says people who do evil won't come to the light to be saved. This helps us to understand repentance. The person who repents has changed their mind. Verse 21 is very important, which says that "HE THAT DOETH TRUTH COMETH TO THE LIGHT."

So here we see that the opposite of the unrepentant man is the man who doeth (or acknowledges the truth). What truth? The LAW clearly teaches us that it is THE TRUTH that all men are guilty sinners. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." It is wrong to teach that repentance has nothing to do with sin. You must know what you are being saved from. I think Pastor Harry Ironside said it well:

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, 'who gave himself a ransom for all.' Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."—Harry A. Ironside; "Except Ye Repent," pg. 36

The Epistle of 1st John was written to believers that our joy may be full (1st John 1:4), by helping us as individual believers to "know that ye are saved" (1st John 5:13b) . The test given in 1st John 3:8-9 is not to see if we are saved because we have turned away from our sin; but rather, to determine if we have the indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). The Holy Spirit will convict a believer when we sin. If you don't have that conviction from God's Spirit living in you, then you need to get saved. That was the truth that compelled me to come to Christ as a 13 year old boy.

Certainly, it would be heresy to say that the Holy Spirit doesn't work within every believer to influence us to turn away from our sins. Philippians 2:13,

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

2nd Timothy 2:19b,

...Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

Repentance and faith are inseparable. The Gospel of John mentions the word "believe" 85-times, but the word "repent" is never mentioned even once. In genuine salvation, one who believes on Jesus Christ has repented, and the one who repents has believed on the Lord Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins. The Good News (i.e., Gospel) is that Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for our sins, was buried and triumphantly raised up from the dead, so that He can save those who believe.

2.8.4 Helpful Salvation Quotes By Evangelist John Bunyan (2021-08-07 18:23)

“If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people.” —Evangelist John Bunyan

2.8.5 God Only Saves The Ungodly In Their Ungodly Condition (2021-08-08 17:22)

Romans 5:6-10, “

For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.”

I absolutely LOVE our text passages from the New Testament book of Romans. The Apostle Paul is the writer, God is the divine Author. The Apostle makes very clear that CHRIST DIED FOR THE UNGODLY. There is a popular heresy circulating in churches today, which says that you cannot come to Christ for salvation unless you first "[1]repent and turn away from sin in every area of your life." But that is not the Gospel! The true plan of salvation is that you see yourself as a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20), and BELIEVE the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Christ crucified on the cross for our sins, buried and bodily risen three days later from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Many pastors and Christian layman don't understand Bible repentance, so they wrest (torture) the Scripture to their own destruction (2nd Peter 3:16-17). One of the worst sins a man can commit is to attempt to teach the Word of God when he doesn't know what he is doing.

Refuting Evangelist Dan Corner's Perverse Gospel

A perfect example is [2]Evangelist Dan Corner, who denies the Bible doctrine of Eternal Security. Dan Corner utterly fails to comprehend the imputed righteousness of God, which is through faith in the Son of God (Philippians 3:9). Dan Corner errantly teaches that you must do WORKS to be saved.

> Again, one must repent (turn from his sins) or he will perish. Hence, the faith in Jesus that is needed to be considered righteous is a trusting and submitting faith - one that obeys. Furthermore, it is imperative to endure to the very end of your life to enter God's paradise kingdom (Mt. 10:22; Heb. 3:14 and Rev. 2:10,11). If you are a real Christian now, you are righteous, but sin can change that righteous standing and bring you to your spiritual death, just like it did for both Adam and Eve. Because of this truth, Paul told Timothy (who was righteous) to keep himself pure (1 Tim. 5:22). [3]SOURCE

Heresy! Dan Corner is unlearned about the Scriptures. Nowhere in the Bible are we taught to turn away from our sinning to be saved. And nowhere does the Bible teach that salvation can be lost if we continue sinning. Corner horrible misinterprets Matthew 10:22, "And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved." Jesus here is speaking about the coming Tribulation period. The Lord reiterates this truth in Matthew 24:13, "But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved." Matthew 24:22, "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." Do you see what the Lord is referring to by "saved"?

He is referring to flesh! Except the Lord shorten the Tribulation period, no flesh (humanity) will be saved. This has nothing to do with persevering in holiness to be saved.

Dan Corner foolishly cites Hebrews 3:14 to bolster up his strawman heresy that a person must "endure" to the end to be saved. To understand this Bible verse, we must examine it within the context of the entire passage. And also, please remember that men, and not the Holy Spirit, added the chapter divisions to the Bible as we know it. Here is a classic example of where chapter divisions sometimes hinder the reader from understanding the Word of God. In order to understand Hebrews 3:14 we must also read chapter 4...

Hebrews 3:14: “

For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

Hebrews 3:15, “

While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

Hebrews 3:16, “For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.”

Hebrews 3:17, “

But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

Hebrews 3:18, “

And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

Hebrews 3:19, “

So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Hebrews 4:1, “Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.”

Hebrews 4:2, “For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.”

Hebrews 4:3: “For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.”

Hebrews 4:4, “For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.”

So here we learn that many of the Jews perished in the Wilderness. They had heard Moses preach the Gospel for 40 years, but it did not profit them (i.e., they didn’t get saved) because they didn’t have FAITH in the Gospel). These people were never saved to begin with. A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. Dan Corner is cherry-picking passages of Scripture which contradict the plain teaching of the Bible that the new birth is a one-time miracle (John 3:3-7; 1st Peter 1:23). The new birth (justification and regeneration) is not a process. Growing in grace (sanctification) is a process.

Hebrews 3:19, “

So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

” The issue is faith here. They had never believed at all.

Hebrews 4:11,

“

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest*, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

John 6:28-29,

“

Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.” Jesus Himself confirmed that the only

“work” that we can do to get to Heaven is to **“

BELIEVE ON HIM.

” The very moment that we BELIEVE ON CHRIST we are born anew by the Holy Spirit of God, regenerated and given eternal life. Jesus is our eternal life. 1st John 5:20,

“And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. ” Jesus is the true God and eternal life. If you have Jesus, you have eternal life!!!

Charles Spurgeon Had It Right — God Saves The Unrighteous

I love the following excellent quote from Pastor Charles Spurgeon:

> “Do not attempt to touch yourself up and make yourself something other than you really are; but come as you are to Him who justifies the ungodly. A great artist some short time ago had painted a part of the corporation of the city in which he lived, and he wanted, for historic purposes, to include in his picture certain characters well known in the town. A crossing-sweeper, unkempt, ragged, filthy, was known to everybody, and there was a suitable place for him in the picture. The artist said to this ragged and rugged individual, "I will pay you well if you will come down to my studio and let me take your likeness." He came round in the morning, but he was soon sent about his business; for he had washed his face, and combed his hair, and donned a respectable suit of clothes. He was needed as a beggar, and was not invited in any other capacity. Even so, the gospel will receive you into its halls if you come as a sinner, not otherwise. Wait not for reformation, but come at once for salvation. God justifieth the ungodly, and that takes you up where you now are: it meets you in your worst estate.”

Pastor Spurgeon continues...

> “I would like to make this very plain. I hope that I have done so already; but still, plain as it is, it is only the Lord that can make a man see it. It does at first seem most amazing to an awakened man that salvation should really be for him as a lost and guilty one. He thinks that it must be for him as a penitent man, forgetting that his penitence is a part of his salvation. "Oh," says he, "but I must be this and that,"–all of which is true, for he shall be this and that as the result of salvation; but salvation comes to him before he has any of the results of salvation. It comes to him, in fact, while he deserves only this bare, beggarly, base, abominable description, "ungodly." That is all he is when God’s gospel comes to justify him.” —Pastor Charles Spurgeon,

I love those quotes! Spurgeon is right, you simply come to God JUST AS I AM to be saved. God doesn’t expect nor demand that you give up one sin, not desire to turn away from committing them to be saved. God saves a man and then the indwelling Holy Spirit changes him! ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED. Jesus is precious!

2.8.6 How To Become An Understanding Person (2021-08-12 14:16)

Luke 23:33-34, “

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do*. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

I was thinking this morning, about how we as humans often fail to take the higher path than the lower path when dealing with others. I speak mainly to Christians. So often when people hurt our feelings we focus on the offense instead of looking beyond the offense to see a hurting person.

I think one of the greatest examples of the proper way that we should respond to offenses is from the dear Savior Himself on the cross. Pilate had just ordered Jesus' crucifixion and the soldiers carried out their orders. They were all just doing their job. I think most of us, if placed into Jesus' dire situation, would have cursed Pilate and the soldiers with bitterness and anger, praying for God to send them all to Hell to burn. You know it is true!

We see another Christlike example in the Scripture, Stephen:

> Acts 7:54-59, " When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep."

Just like our dear Savior, Stephen looked beyond his killer's offense and saw their need as people for whom Christ died on the cross. Aren't we so shallow at times folks? I think it is safe to say that all of us at times in our life have failed to look beyond the offense of others, zooming in on their offense and making a mountain out of a molehill.

Our precious Lord, and Stephen who was filled with the Spirit of Christ, looked beyond the faults of their attackers and instead saw their need. What a great God and Savior!

I you want to become an understanding person, then learn to LOOK BEYOND the superficial hurtful behavior of others, and their offensive remarks; and instead take it all to a higher spiritual level by seeing their lack of God's love, their lack of spirituality, their need for humbling from God, perhaps even their need for salvation, and may we pray for them instead of lower ourselves to their shallow level.

I speak of pastors as well as Christian layman, and lost people. It was the religious crowd, the Pharisees of Jesus' time, who caused Him the most grief and injury. Ultimately it was the Pharisees who had Jesus' falsely accused and crucified on a cross. My biggest enemies over the decades in my ministry have not been the unsaved heathens, but the saved heathens! I have learned to look beyond their lack of maturity in the Lord, and to rise above with God's love and compassion, even for my own backslidden and shallow Christian brethren.

I don't claim to be a good Christian, but God has broken me as a man. I have been to the bottom of life, losing everything near and dear. I know what rejection feels like. I know what it means to have burdens come that will never go away. There's just something about being utterly broken that drastically changes a person, humbling them to never look down on another human being again. Very few Christians can relate to my adverse experiences in life. They don't know what an ugly and costly divorce feels like.

They don't know what utter loneliness feels like. They don't know what group rejection for several years feels like. But I sure do! They don't know what it feels like to work in a Hostile for years. They don’t know what it means to truly suffer in life, not for days, weeks, months or even years, but for decades! I know, all too well. God has used these hardships, inexplicable pain of both body and soul, to conform me more into the image of my blessed Savior! ...

> 1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:
>
> Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

Unshakable faith comes from having our faith shaken. Faith is like film, it develops in the dark! When people hurt us, ignore us and narrow in on our faults, failing to LOOK BEYOND and see our hurting soul, burdens and need to be loved; we need to LOOK BEYOND their shallowness, immaturity and lack of compassion, and realize that they haven’t suffered as we have and cannot reciprocate our depth of love and care for them.

When our Lord was crucified, the Roman authorities and soldiers who killed Him failed to LOOK BEYOND the blatant false accusations and see Who He really was, the Son of God, the Christ. But Jesus did LOOK BEYOND their blindness of heart, their callousness and their cruelty as they spit upon Him, mocked Him, stripped Him naked and then nailed Him to a wooden cross. Jesus saw their lost condition, realizing that they didn’t know what they were doing. 1st Corinthians 2:7-8,

“

But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

I admit that at age 54, and having been saved for the past 41 years since age 13, I still need to work on LOOKING BEYOND the offenses of others.

2nd Corinthians 12:15,

And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

” The Apostle Paul had suffered MUCH throughout his saved life. Before he was saved Paul (Saul) was living large, as a high ranking Pharisee. Paul literally gave up everything to follow Jesus when he got saved in Acts 9:1-5. Paul suffered much, and as a result the broken apostle had learned to love and care like no one else could in his time.

I know how Paul felt. God has allowed me to suffer MUCH in my lifetime, mostly in my latter life. My chronic neck pain 24/7 is a permanent thorn in my flesh. I have suffered so much over the years, some things which I won’t even talk about. As a result God has given me a depth of understanding, compassion and care that few Christians can reciprocate.

That is why I am one of very few fundamentalist Baptist preachers who whole-heartedly supports Pastor Steven Anderson and his ministry. I LOOK BEYOND his faults and see a truth-teller, an aggressive soulwinner and a man who is helping tens of thousands of people. I thank and praise God for the suffering in my life, which the Bible says is worth more than gold which perisheth, because it has given me more understanding and love for people.

I am far from perfect and I don't claim to be a good Christian, but I am 100 % pure of heart and my intentions are only to be a help and blessing to the cause of Christ. My constant toothache-like neck pain, and feeling of burning throughout my nervous system, and a feeling of having inflated arms, and the right side of my body always feeling half asleep, keeps me humble. I believe God has used this heavy burden in my life, so that He could bless my ministry.

2nd Corinthians 12:7,

And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

I am not a happy man. Happiness is what

to us. I am not happy most of the time, admittedly

, but I have joy and peace flowing in my soul like a river. I always have God's love shining on my face. I am joyful always in the Lord, knowing that my name is written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life, and that God is using a broken redeemed sinner like me to reach the lost for Christ, and to edify the saints.

> "No one is any better a Christian, than they are kind." —Dr. David Gibbs Jr. (a quote from the beautiful sermon "[1]HIS VOICE" about loving the unloving with God's love!)

If you want to be an understanding person, then learn to LOOK BEYOND the faults and shortcomings of others, and instead see their needs. So often when people are unkind to us, they are hurting in their own life and simply want to know that someone cares. They simply want to be loved. The secret to loving others is to let God love you friend. You cannot love anybody until you first allow God to love you, and then pay it forward to others. The greatest joy that I know is knowing that God loves me!

God loves us, not because of who we are, but because of Who He is. I love these helpful quotes by Pastor Jeff Owens:

> "Do you want some advice about depression—if you're depressed, love your way out of it! Love your way out of it!—You say, 'What do you mean?' LOVE GOD! And if you'll love God, then you'll do what God commands, and you'll do what God wants, and you'll do what is best for God; and staying in that state is not best for God. Love your way out of it!" —Pastor Jeff Owens, a beautiful quote from the sermon titled, "[2]God Knows The Truth About Your Love."

"Those of you who are down, love will get you up!" —Pastor Jeff Owens, an awesome quote from the sermon titled, "[3]God Knows The Truth About Your Love."

Love and understanding go hand in hand. The Pharisees hated Jesus and had no understanding. When you love others you want to understand them and their situation. When you love someone you care. When you love someone you don't ignore them. Love is patient, kind, gentle and esteems others better than our self. Jesus is precious!

2.8.7 Why Today's Churches Are So Horrible (2021-08-13 20:56)

Acts 4:13, " Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. "

I think the greatest thing lacking in pastors today is a genuine close walk with God. When the Jewish rulers saw the BOLDNESS of Peter and John to speak THE TRUTH, they knew that these men had been with Jesus. The reason why so many pastors today are indifferent, weak, Caspar Milquetoast, and unwilling to take the time to respond to people's emails and love people where they are is only because they have not been with Jesus. They aren't walking with God.

I receive many emails from people who tell me that I am the only preacher who takes the time to help them. In some cases they make strange statements, speaking of seeing demons or having hallucinations. Many pastor's assume that such people are crazy and ignore them. I always give people the benefit of the doubt, unless I see open contempt and mockery. Many people are messed up in their thinking from Hollywood and the ungodly world, so they don't know any other way to communicate. So I always give them the benefit of the doubt that they just need someone to love and care about them. I know that is what Jesus would do.

Pastor Jack Hyles said that the greatest advice he could give any preacher is to "Walk With God!" ...

[1]How To Walk With God (by Pastor Jack Hyles)

Galatians 5:22-25 lists the "fruit" of the Holy Spirit. Most pastors walk in the flesh, not in the Spirit. For if they walked in the indwelling Holy Spirit, they would have love, patience, faith, meekness, peace, longsuffering, goodness, temperance, joy, gentleness and concern for every individual human being. Pastor R. A. Torrey rightly said:

"We are too busy to pray, and so we are too busy to have power. We have a great deal of activity, but we accomplish little; many services but few conversions; much machinery but few results." —Pastor R. A. Torrey

There is an astounding true story in Mark 5:1-15. A man had been possessed of devils. No one knew how to help him. The only solution that the local townspeople could come up with was to bind him with ropes and chains. But when Jesus met the man, the Savior healed him, casting out the devil. Mark 5:15, "And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid." Isn't that something? At first the townspeople tried to bind him when he was crazy, but now that he is sitting still in his right mind, they are afraid of him! This is so typical of human nature, to solve every answer with either locking people up, or shunning them in fear.

Fear is part of our human nature. But the Bible says that Peter and John became bold because they had walked with God, that is, they had been with Jesus. Acts 4:13, " Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. " When you spend quality time searching the Scriptures (John 5:39), praying about everything (Philippians 4:6), walking in the Spirit (Galatians 5:25), bringing every thought into captivity unto obedience to Christ (2nd Corinthians 10:5-6), walking humbly with your God (Micah 6:8), it is inevitable that you will be influenced by Him.

We live in a perverse American culture today, where society cannot even figure out what gender people are anymore. Demonic influences are everywhere! People all over the country are hurting and they need to know that God loves them. Society's answer for everything is to either incarcerate, indoctrinate or drug people, when what they really need is Jesus Christ. The crazy man in Mark 5 was made whole when He met the blessed Savior. People need to hear [2]the Gospel preached unto them (Mark 16:15).

The Charismatic Movement has been lying to people for several decades, falsely teaching them that the sign of being filled with the Holy Spirit is to Speak In Tongues. Nothing could be further from the truth of God's Word. Dr. John R. Rice (1895-1980) used to wisely teach that the sign of being filled with the Spirit is a desire to win souls to Christ. The dearest thing to the great heart of God is soulwinning, evidenced by Luke 8:15,

But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

" The parable of the Sower and The Seeds in Luke 8:11-15 is not about salvation; but rather, spiritual maturity. The fourth group of seeds are those that fell upon good soil and matured to bring forth FRUIT. This is God's goal for every believer, to become a soulwinner.

John 15:5,

" I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

You can tell which churches are full of believers who walk with God, to the same extent that the church is a soulwinning church! Of course, this mainly depends upon the pastor. The local church was never intended by God to be a place where you go to worship. Not one verse in the Bible teaches that we ought to attend church to worship God. In truth, we should worship God seven days a week. [3]We go to church to fellowship with other believers, a place to mature in Christ, a place to tithe, to find comfort and encouragement, and to do the work of soulwinning. America needs more soulwinning pastors who walk with God.

> "If there's one thing I want you to have, I want you to know God!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the MP3 sermon, "[4]How To Walk With God."

The truth is that a pastor can go to work everyday and go through the external motions of being a pastor, and yet never walk with God at all. Some pastors are not even born-again! Pastor Jack Hyles preached a wonderful sermon called: "[5]The Spirit's Abiding." All is in vain unless the Holy Spirit comes down! Walk with God dear friend. Whether you be in the clergy or a layman in a local church, walk with God! You mothers laboring at home, walk with God. Every child ought to walk with God! Every dog and cat should...oops! Seriously, we should all spend time walking with our great God and Savior.

The reason why our churches are so horrible today is because professed Christians don't walk with God. How do you walk with God? Dear friend, God is no different than getting to know anyone else in your life. What do you do when you admire a celebrity? Why, you go buy every book, magazine, CD, poster and form of media you can find to know everything you can about your idol. When we search the Scriptures we are learning all about Jesus. John 5:39, "

Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. " If you want to walk with God, then you need to get to know Jesus, and the only way you'll ever get to know Him is to abide in the inspired Word of God. I encourage you to listen to Pastor Hyles' sermon:

2.8.8 The Bible Uses Marriage To Help Us Understand LAW and CHRIST (2021-08-16 00:06)

Romans 7:1-6, " Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

But now we are delivered from the law*, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

More and more as I study the Word of God I am impressed with the wisdom of the Apostle Paul. Paul simplifies things, making them easy to understand. In our text passage Paul uses marriage as an illustration to explain the Law. This is beautiful. Paul teaches that a wife is bound to her husband as long as her husband is alive. Paul likens this illustration to the Law, to whom all humanity is married because of our own sin (Romans 5:12). But the Scripture teaches that when we place our trust (faith, reliance) in Jesus Christ, the Law becomes dead to us. That is, the Law no longer has any power to condemn us, because our sins have been forgiven and washed away by the precious blood of Jesus.

> Romans 7:4, "Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. "

Now that every believer is dead to the Law, we are no longer bound by marriage to the Law. We are now married to Christ by faith, which wrought the new birth. Praise God! We are no longer married to the Law which kept us in bondage and condemnation. We are now liberated, free in Christ from all condemnation!!!

Romans 8:1,

"*There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit." Some false teachers misinterpret Romans 8:1 by saying that it is not enough to be saved to avoid condemnation.

They claim that as a believer you must also live in holiness.

That is, they say you must also Walk in the Spirit instead of Walking in the Flesh.

Galatians 5:25, " If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit." It would be easy to misinterpret the Bible here. As a general rule we should never use an obscure passage of Scripture to contradict a clear one; such as Romans 8:34, "Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

Here we plainly see that there is NO CONDEMNATION for those who are in Christ (i.e., saved).

Here is another clear passage of Scripture from

John 3:18, “

He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

” It is foolish to misinterpret Romans 8:1 contrary to the plain teaching of Romans 8:32 and John 3:18. Also, Acts 13:39,

“And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

” Every child of God is JUSTIFIED FROM ALL THINGS!!!

2.8.9 Religion Is The Worst Thing That Ever Happened (2021-08-17 20:21)

Matthew 15:7-9, “

Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me*.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

Religion without Christ makes a person more a child of the Devil.

My father was a Skid Row preacher for most of his life.

I once heard my father say that:

“Religion is the worst thing that ever happened to this world.” He was absolutely right! I often am reminded of what Dad said. Most people sadly have churchianity without Christianity. That is what our text passage means in

Matthew 15:7b-9, “

This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

” Look at this [1]list of manmade Roman Catholic TRADITIONS and the years in which they were fabricated.

What further saith the Scripture? Mark 7:6-9,

“He [Jesus] answered and said unto them [the Pharisees and scribes], Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.” This is a profound passage of Scripture!

There are an estimated 4,400 religions in the world and still growing every day. A man named Ron Hubbard (1911-1986) once said that the fastest way to become a millionaire is to start your own religion, and then he started the thriving [2]greedy cult of Scientology! The world would be much better off without religion! The Bible doesn't mention the word religion much, and when it does it is in a negative light. But we have one neutral mention of the word in James 1:27, "

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

" Religion is helping people for Christ!

It is important to make a distinction between religion and Christianity. Christianity's foundation is Jesus Christ. 1st Corinthians 3:11, "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

" Religion often is based upon everything except Christ! The Roman Catholic Church follows their own manmade traditions instead of the inspired Word of God.

Mark 7:7,

" Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." We see this sore evil everywhere today!

A perfect example is the Devil's heresy of "Lordship" salvation. Not one verse in the Bible says to make Jesus the "Lord" (Boss, Master) of your life to be saved. Men added that requirement. [3]Lordship Salvation teaches that you cannot be saved unless you surrender your entire personality to Jesus' Lordship, willing to follow, obey and turn away from sin in every area of your life. Dear reader, I highly encourage you to just lay down and rest, with your eyes closed upon your bed or sofa, and listen to the entire Gospel of John. I promise if you'll do that, you will clearly see God's free and easy plan of salvation, which is simply to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. The Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract for humanity. John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. "

Salvation is not found in any religion, but in a person—the Lord Jesus Christ!

2.8.10 So Let Your Light Shine Before Men (2021-08-20 14:44)

Matthew 5:13-17, "

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid*.

Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven*.

Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil."

I love this passage of Scripture. Jesus said to let our "light" shine before men, that they may see our GOOD WORKS and glorify our heavenly Father. We hear so much preaching about not trusting in GOOD WORKS to be saved, but we don't hear enough about the need for every believe to do GOOD WORKS. Jesus said that He came not to destroy the Law, but TO FULFULL IT!

Jesus calls us "salt." Salt makes people thirsty! That is why you'll usually see a snack machine next to a soda machine. The salty snacks make you thirsty for a drink. As believers Jesus said that we should live in such a manner that we are the SALT of the earth, making people thirst for the righteousness that we have of God. This is what the writer of Hebrews means in Hebrews 12:14, " Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:" We ought o let OUR LIGHT SHINE to the darkened world around us, always doing GOOD WORKS that God may be glorified.

A city up on a hill cannot be hid. Men do not light a candle, and then hide it under a bail of hay, they set that lit candle in a candlestick that it may light the entire room. Likewise, every saint out to let our light for Jesus shine. That is why I wear a " hat everywhere I go, to let the world know that I am not ashamed of my blessed Savior. I love to do good works. I love to say

John 3:16

"Keep the change!" I love being generous everywhere I go. People say, "You must be a Christian!" I say, "Yes Sir" or "Yes Ma'am, I sure am!"

So let your light shine before men, that they may see YOUR GOOD WORKS and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

2.8.11 The Purpose Of Repentance Explains What It Means (2021-08-28 23:54)

Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

2nd Timothy 2:25-26, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will."

There is not a more hotly debated subject today than repentance for salvation. This past week a man (one of my web visitors) shared a copy of a disciplinary letter he received from his church's pastors. The man had spoken out about the heresy of Calvinism (ala, Lordship Salvation) being taught from the pulpit by his pastor. Consequently, they excommunicated him. I comforted my hurting brother in Christ by reminding him that Jesus was also **"

despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief

" (Isaiah 53:3).

Lordship

salvation is the false teaching that faith in the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) of Jesus Christ is not enough to be saved; but in addition, a person must turn away from their sinful behavior, surrender all to Christ as absolute

Lord

" and follow Jesus no matter what the cost. So if a person professes faith in Christ, but their life hasn't outwardly changed, they are said to be unsaved because they have never repented. Proponents of Lordship Salvation teach that a person cannot claim immediate salvation; but rather, we must watch their life to see if their behavior changes over time to prove the reality of their faith. This is the Devil's lie of Calvinism! This is what many religious cults teach (e.g., Seventh-Day Adventists, Mormons, Jehovah's Witnesses, et cetera).

The reason why so many people get God's simple plan of salvation wrong is because they don't understand the purpose of repentance. It is vital that you understand that the only purpose of repentance is the "acknowledging of the truth

" (2nd Timothy 2:25b

). God's law was intended to show humanity our SINNERSHIP. Galatians 3:24-26,

"Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. " The Old testament law (God's Commandments) show mankind our utter inability to merit eternal life. A person must know what they are being saved from to be saved, and that is the purpose of repentance. Sin is the reason why we need to be saved. So repentance is the admission that we are a guilty sinner in God's sight.

The Law shows us that we cannot earn our way to Heaven, because we have ALL fallen short of perfectly obeying God's Commandments (Romans 3:23). We've all broken the Ten Commandments!!! Therefore, none of us are righteous. Our best goodness is filth to God according to Isiah 64:6, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

” That is why we need a Savior! Jesus lived a perfect life. He perfectly kept all of God’s Commandments, never breaking even one of them. Jesus was sinless on earth! That is why John the Baptist could say with absolute certainty in John 1:29b, “Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

People who are living in denial of the sin in their life won’t come to the light of the truth of the Gospel, lest their evil deeds should be reproved (spoken negative against by God). Unsaved sinners run away from God, because they know what they are doing is wrong, but are in denial. This is exactly what the Bible teaches in

This is why we often hear homosexuals attempting to justify their sins. They are in denial. They have not repented toward God yet. The Bible teaches that anyone who denies their sins is calling God a liar and is not saved. 1st John 1:10, “ If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.” Repentance is when a person accepts the TRUTH that they are a guilty sinner! It is that simple. Repentance is solely a matter of the heart, and has nothing to do with works. Repentance is realizing that you have sinned against a holy God, so that you believe on the Lord Jesus Christ to be saved (Acts 16:30-31).

So if you understand that the purpose of repentance is simply to facilitate (make possible) believing, then you won’t go astray thinking that repentance means turning away from a lifestyle of sinning. Many preachers fail to understand that we are saved by faith alone. If a separate act of repentance were required to be saved, then faith could not be sufficient. Galatians 3:26, “For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ” So obviously faith includes repentance. It is impossible for a man to have faith in Christ, but not have repentance. Such a case has never happened in history, not one time!

Many people misunderstand what repentance is not. Let’s define some terms shall we:

- penitence = sorrow for sins
- penance = making a mend for sin
- reformation = turning away from sin
- repentance = a change of mind

When a preacher tells you that to be saved you must grieve over your sins, be sorry, commit to do better in the future, or turn away from a lifestyle of sinning, he is preaching another gospel. None of those things constitute repentance! You may do all those things and never be saved at all! Proof of this is found in Matthew 27:3-4, “Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.”

Judas felt remorse. The word

"repented" here is a different Greek word than is used for repentance unto salvation in the Bible. As used here, the word means that Judas felt bad afterwards. Judas was sorry that he got caught, he didn't experience true repentance toward God. Judas felt sorrow (penitence). He tried to return the thirty pieces of silver (penance). He had turned away from his sins (reformation). Yet Judas went out in shame and hung himself, and is now burning in Hell for all eternity without hope, because he didn't have faith in Christ. So we see a perfect example here in the Bible of a man who went through all the emotional feelings of guilty, shame and a desire to do better, turning away from his sins, yet still was not saved. I love this helpful quote from Pastor Charles Spurgeon:

> "Repentance will not make you see Christ; but to see Christ will give you repentance. You may not make a Christ out of your repentance, but you must look for repentance to Christ. The Holy Ghost, by turning us to Christ, turns us from sin. Look away, then, from the effect to the cause, from your own repenting to the Lord Jesus, who is exalted on high to give repentance." —Pastor Charles Spurgeon; "All Of Grace," Chapter 11 - "[1]Alas! I Can Do Nothing"

Spurgeon is right! We don't see Christ because we repent of our sins. We don't believe on Christ because we first turned away from our sinning. This is the junk theology that we hear so much today from the heretical Lordship Salvation crowd (e.g., Bob Jones University, John MacArthur, Marty Herron, Harvest Baptist Church on Guam, Ray Comfort, Sam Horn, et cetera). They all teach that you must turn away from your sins in order to be saved. That is not God's simple plan of salvation. It is very difficult for people to turn away from lifelong sinful bad habits. God does not require that to receive His free gift of eternal life.

The truth is that we repent (change our mind toward God - Acts 20:21) because we see Christ in His holiness and believe (completely rest) in Him for salvation. Repentance means acknowledging THE TRUTH that we are a guilty sinner, believing the Gospel to be saved. We have changed our mind. We are now trusting Jesus to save us instead of attempting to work our own way into Heaven. That is all repentance is, nothing more. Beware of preachers who make repentance some big scary thing! In fact, God doesn't even mention repentance in the Gospel of John, which proves that it is not something separate from believing to be saved. The man who believes has repented, and the man who repents has believed.

Anytime that you hear a preacher speaking of repentance as something different, or more, that you must do than simply BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST, he is preaching another gospel. Acts 16:30-31,

"And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." The Apostle Paul didn't tell the Roman jailer to repent, did he? But isn't repentance necessary to be saved? Yes, of course, but it is automatic. When a man changes his mind toward God, believing the Gospel to be saved, he has repented. It is that simple friend.

2.8.12 Security Verses Assurance (2021-08-29 11:27)

1st John 1:4, "And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full."

I heard a wonderful MP3 sermon today by Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold titled, " [1]Security Verses Assurance ," in which he makes the following helpful statement:

> "Assurance of your salvation is how you see it, and your perception can be based upon what somebody told you to look at it. Like for example: Some say if you're really saved, it will manifest itself in your life. Well, if everybody looked at their life as the evidence of their salvation, [the] majority of people (I would say most people) would have to come to the conclusion, that they're not saved. If I had to look at my life, as the evidence to prove that I'm saved, I'd come up to the conclusion, I'm not. Because, how many sins would I tolerate? How many sins can I commit? How many questions and doubts? What about my thought life? Every person has enough in their life, that could be used as evidence, that they're not really saved. But you see, that's because you would lose assurance of your salvation; but, if you forget about looking at yourself, because your salvation doesn't depend on you, and it depends upon what Christ said, well [if] what Christ said is still true, and it doesn't lie, then you have eternal security based upon what God said. So God knows those whom He has saved, given eternal life, and are born into His family, and so you are safe and secure. But you may get to the place, where you no longer are full of assurance. When you study the book of 1st John, it talks about (as a child of God) having full joy—'that your joy may be full.' And your joy cannot be full if your assurance is missing." —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, from the MP3 sermon, "[2]Security Verses Assurance."

Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold further makes this tremendous helpful statement:

> The doctrine of eternal security is not a separate doctrine from eternal life. If you have eternal life, you are safe and secure in the arms of the everlasting Father. Deuteronomy 33:27, "The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them." Our salvation in Jesus Christ is as secure and guaranteed as God's existence Himself. The only kind of life that God offers is "eternal" (or "everlasting") life! John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Oh my friend, if you are saved, you have everlasting life!!! Nothing can jeopardize our security in Christ! Whether I go to Heaven has nothing to do with whether I'm good or bad, but whether God is good or bad. We have a good God, Who has made a way of escape through the sacrifice of His dear only begotten Son on the cross for our sins. What an awesome God and Savior!!! —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, from the MP3 sermon, "[3]Security Verses Assurance."

Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008) made these helpful statements:

> "Nothing in my future can ever affect the salvation that I have... Once you trust the Lord Jesus Christ as your Savior, you are eternally secure!" —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[4]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

> "The Christian life doesn't save you! You're saved by Jesus Christ' death on the cross, and that alone, and it's important to understand the difference. And, it's true that we should not live a life that's opposed to the will of God after we're saved (We'll talk about what God will do, if we do live that kind of way). But, salvation is based upon purely what Jesus Christ has done. And if you've trusted Jesus Christ here, you're saved forever! Nothing in your life, nothing in your death, angels, principalities, nothing—nothing in your future—could ever undo that relationship that has been made when you trusted Jesus Christ as Savior. And there are many people who are confused over this whole thing." —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[5]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

> "There are many people who name the name of Jesus Christ, who are not saved, because they're trusting in living the Christian life, or in their works, or in some efforts that they're doing, in order to obtain their salvation." —Pastor Hank Lindstrom (1940-2008), a quote from the classic MP3 sermon titled, "[6]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?"

You'd be surprised how many people faithfully attend church much of their life, but have never been born-again. Most people join a church because someone befriended and invited them, and then they gradually became a part of the church family, but if you were to ask them why they're going to Heaven, you'd find out quickly that they have never been saved at all. That's why I frequently pass out the awesome book by Michael P. Bowen called, "[7]I NEVER KNEW YOU: THE HORROR OF THE COMING GREAT WHITE THRONE JUDGMENT AND HOW YOU CAN AVOID IT!" Here is the complete [8]free online .PDF version.

How could somebody attend a local New Testament church for decades and still go to Hell? IT HAPPENS!!! It happens even in independent fundamental Baptist churches. The reason why is because living the Christian life is NOT the way to be saved. You get saved by placing your trust in the Good News of Jesus Christ, Who DIED on the cross for our sins, was BURIED, and bodily RESURRECTED three days later.

Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. Nearly everyone who professes the name of Christ is guilty of this sin, relying upon the religious life they are living to get them into Heaven on day. Luke 13:23-24, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

2.8.13 Believing In A Savior Whom We Cannot See (2021-08-29 17:33)

1st Peter 1:7-9, "That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls."

That is so awesome! The Bible acknowledges that we are trusting in a Savior we have never met. Did you know that we get a special blessing for that? John 20:29, "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." Wow! I am glad that I can prove my love for the Father and His only begotten Son by believing (having faith) even when I cannot see Him.

> Hebrews 11:24-27, "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible."

That is so precious! Repeatedly in the Holy Bible we are encouraged for our faith, trusting in a God that we cannot see, Who is invisible.

> Romans 1:20-23, "For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened."

What an amazing passage of Scripture! The Bible says that THE INVISIBLE THINGS of God from the creation of the world are CLEARLY SEEN by the things which are made, even His eternal power and Godhead, so that all men are WITHOUT EXCUSE.

When we behold the moon, sun, stars, planets and universe we see God's handiwork. Psalms 19:1-3, "The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork. Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard." Nature itself speaks a universal language to all mankind, testifying of the goodness and power of the true and living God. This is what makes preaching the Gospel so powerful and effective, because our Gospel presentation is supplemented by the voice of nature and the Holy Spirit (John 16:7-11).

I love that about God, He has given us witnesses to verify THE TRUTH. The Lord doesn't expect us to believe something without providing some evidence to prove it is true. Although we cannot see Jesus physically, we can see all of creation, and that is a voice (a witness) the Bible says.

This is what the Bible means:

> 1st John 5:4-8, "For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one*."

There are THREE witnesses in the earth that Jesus is the Son of God:

1. The Holy Spirit (John 16:7-11)
2. Jesus' flesh (Christ's lineage traces back to Eve, proving His humanity in Luke)
3. Jesus' blood (Christ was born of a virgin, proving God is His Father, Matthew 1:23)

The blessed doctrine of the Godhead (God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Spirit) proves in Heaven that Jesus is God, deity. His incarnation in the flesh and virgin birth on earth prove that he is the biological Son of God. The Holy Spirit bears witness that these things are true! The great battle has always been over whether Jesus is Whom He claimed to be. Is He a fake? Is He a deceiver? The wicked chief priests and Pharisees called Jesus a "deceiver." Matthew 27:63-64, "Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again." Did Jesus deceive them? No, He did indeed rise up from the dead after three days!!!

It is because of the negative nature of mankind that God gave us witnesses. Remember, the Bible calls Satan "the accuser of the brethren" in Revelation 12:10b. The Bible gives us a description of our enemy, the Devil. John 8:44, "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it." Satan does not abide in THE TRUTH, he lies all the time. Sound familiar? The newsmedia don't care about THE TRUTH, they delve into lies, even fabricating FAKE NEWS to further their own agendas and greed to sell a story:

> The news media and the government are entwined in a vicious circle of mutual manipulation, mythmaking, and self-interest. Journalists need crises to dramatize news, and government officials need to appear to be responding to crises. Too often, the crises are not really crises but joint fabrications. The two institutions have become so ensnared in a symbiotic web of lies that the news media are unable to tell the public what is true and the government is unable to govern effectively. That is the thesis advanced by Paul H. Weaver, a former political scientist (at Harvard University), journalist (at Fortune magazine), and corporate communications executive (at Ford Motor Company), in his provocative analysis entitled News and the Culture of Lying: How Journalism Really Works .

SOURCE: [1]Why The News Is Not The News (Harvard Business Review)

That is tragic and another reason why our American society is deteriorating quickly. Matthew 24:12, "And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold." People don't know what to believe anymore. Because of the blatant fraud of 911, many people no longer believe anything the government or newsmedia say. 911 was a blatant INSIDE JOB. It wasn't two planes, but thermite charges (bombs) carefully planted in the World Trade Center buildings (which take months to prepare) for controlled demolition. Firefighters who were present at Ground Zero [2]testified in court that they heard explosive charges systematically going off. [3]A New York judge put a gag order on the firefighters to silence them!!! No wonder Americans today have little confidence in what the U.S. government tells us. I sure don't! This whole COVID-19 pandemic stinks with dishonesty. As far as I'm concerned it is just 911 part two, intended to further the New World Order. Time will tell the true story.

Praise God that He has given to us many evidences to support THE TRUTH of His dear only begotten Son. John 20:31, " But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. "

2.9.1 Deadly Seventh-day Adventism Teaches Another Gospel (2021-09-02 03:48)

2nd Corinthians 11:3-4, "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him."

As an American, I am often ashamed of my nation in the eyes of the world. Many of our top [1]politicians lie their way into office, lie their way [2]through office, and lie when they leave office. American businesses are some of the most dishonest and shady in the world—using vibrant colors, pleasant music, big smiles and captivating advertisements to lure customers; but then negate it all with thuggish black and white fine print buried in a tiny barely noticeable disclaimer. Read the fine print of the average insurance policy and you'll be shocked what the insurer won't pay for. U.S. lawyers, prosecutors and judges are notoriously corrupt. Our entire U.S. government is a [3]massive Masonic hoax, perpetrating the illusion of freedom [4]as they enslave us!

Likewise, one of the biggest deceptions today is the religious sect of Seventh-day Adventism (SDA). Just as politicians often lie right to our faces, breaking their promises and dealing deceitfully; so also do SDA's employ double-talk in their literature. Satan is a beautiful liar. The best place to hide a LIE is between two TRUTHS!

Recently I ran across an issue of "Signs Of The Times," a popular Seventh-day Adventist (SDA) magazine. On the front cover, and also on all 15 pages of the magazine, are printed the words, "TRUTH MATTERS," which is very disturbing (because SDA's don't speak the truth, as I will show you). I do not question the sincerity of SDA's. No doubt most of SDA's members are sincere, being blinded by Satan (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4). I am not trying to be unkind by exposing SDA's; but rather, I am contending for the Biblical Christian faith, which SDA's deviate from significantly. What makes Seventh-day Adventism so dangerous is that they align themselves so closely with Christianity on the surface, but a learned believer who "rightly divides the word of truth" will be able to discern SDA's doctrines of devils.

First, here is a quote from page 6 of "Signs Of The Times" (I don't see an issue number, but the magazine title reads, "Who are the Adventist?"). The following quote sounds great and gives the unlearned person the false impression that SDA's are Christians:

> Salvation By Grace
>
> The most important doctrine that Seventh-day Adventists share with other denominations is salvation by grace alone through faith in Jesus Christ. This means that our obedience to God's laws contributes nothing to our salvation; we do not merit salvation because of anything we do. We are saved exclusively on the basis of our faith in Christ's death on the cross for our sins. This doctrine of the Christian church is clearly taught in the New Testament. For example, Paul said, "We maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law" (Romans 8:28). And in another place, he said, "It is by grace you have been saved, through faith, . . . not by works" (Ephesians 2:8 ,9).
> SOURCE: Who are the Adventists?, "Truth Matters: Signs Of The Times" magazine, page 6.

The preceding quote sounds good, but it's not in agreement with the writings of Ellen G. White, whom SDA's all but worship. SDA's DON'T teach salvation by grace!!! In sharp contrast to the preceding quote, in the following quote from Miss White's book, "Steps To Christ," she teaches [5]Lordship Salvation (which is a works-based false plan of salvation):

> "That so-called faith in Christ which professes to release men from the obligation of obedience to God, is not faith, but presumption. 'By grace are ye saved through faith.' But 'faith, if it hath not works, is dead."'
>
> SOURCE: Ellen G. White, [6]Steps To Christ, p. 61.

So "faith" according to Ellen White is not simply trusting upon the Gospel to be saved. In addition, Miss White teaches that faith encompasses all of the obligations of living the Christian life. Starting to get the picture? Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again!!!

Ellen White is employing the typical double-talk we often see from false teachers. In one place in her book she teaches that salvation is by God's grace through faith alone, without works; but then she teaches in another place (as I just quoted to you) that faith without works is not genuine faith. That is a corrupt plan of salvation, which superficially professes the simplicity that is in Christ by faith alone, but then perverts the Gospel by requiring discipleship in order to be saved.

Prolific author and 33rd degree Freemason, Manly P. Hall (1901-1990), makes the brilliant truthful statement:

> "The half-truth is the most dangerous form of lie, because it can be defended in part by incontestable logic."
> SOURCE: "The Secret Destiny Of America," page 195, by Manly P. Hall, a 33rd degree Freemason; 1944; ISBN: 0-89314-388-X; publisher: The Philosophical Research Society, Inc, Los Angeles, California.

Don't miss that! This concept is so important to understand when exposing the religious cults! This is exactly what Ellen White and SDA's are guilty of, that is, fabricating and propagating half-truths! By sheltering lies behind truth, it makes it very difficult to spiritually discern their doctrinal errors. When a naïve person reads the first quote I gave you earlier, they are duped into concluding that SDA's must be Christians. I'm frustrated that some born-again Christians have been deceived to believe that Seventh-day Adventists are saved, because THEY ARE NOT!!! When you delve deeper into the SDA religion, understanding the dangers of the half-truth, it becomes obvious that something is very wrong with their dogmas (teachings)!!!

Beware Of Religious Nuts Like Ellen White Who Claim To See Visions From God

You need to understand that SDA's attribute "VISIONS" to Ellen G. White, which they believe qualify her as some sort of spiritual tour guide from God. Here's a quote from the same issue of "Signs Of The Times," page 11:

> "While studying and praying with friends in Portland, Ellen went into a vision. God showed her that the Advent believers were on a difficult and sometimes discouraging path, but one that, if followed faithfully, would take them to the kingdom of Heaven. That was followed shortly by another vision, in which she was asked to tell others what God was telling her."
>
> SOURCE: Who are the Adventists?, "Truth Matters: Signs Of The Times" magazine, page 11.

Here's another quote from the same issue of "Signs Of The Times," page 15:

> "Seventh-day Adventists believe that God worked through her [Ellen White] in a singular way to clarify and emphasize the Bible's message about Jesus' return."
>
> SOURCE: Who are the Adventists?, "Truth Matters: Signs Of The Times" magazine, page 15.

SDA's violate the Holy Scriptures by recognizing their alleged prophetess, Ellen G. White, as a "VOICE" from God. The Bible plainly tells us that God only speaks to us through JESUS CHRIST. Hebrews 1:1-2, "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds." Jesus is the Living Word, and the Bible is the Written Word (John 1:1-3,14; Revelation 19:13). Jesus is not here physically today; but rather, He ascended into Heaven and is seated on the right-hand of the Father (Colossians 3:1-2; Romans 8:34), and Christ's Holy Spirit indwells every believer (Romans 8:9). Hence, God speaks to us solely through the inspired Words of God in the Holy Bible, which in English is the trustworthy King James Bible!!! God does NOT speak today through visions or dreams!!!

2nd Peter 1:20, "Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation." Ellen White's claim of private visions from God is of the Devil!!! SDA is creepy! Beware of any religious person who claims to see visions, or follows a religion whose leaders and founders have claimed to see visions. In my book, only nuts see visions! Ellen White was a nutcase! SDA's put forth a false sense of humility, claiming that even Ellen didn't want her writings to be compared with God's Word; and yet, SDA's entire whacko prophetic heresy concerning the meaningless year 1844 is solely based upon the satanic writings of Ellen White. To learn more about SDA's and 1844, please read my article: [7]Things You Need To Know About The Cult Of Seventh-day Adventism.

Kindly, Ellen White was an unsaved fruitcake who claimed to have experienced private visions. This clever hoax is still deceiving 16,000,000 Seventh-day Adventists worldwide in 2015. SDA is a satanic cult, which needs to be exposed for what it is, straight from the pits of Hell.

> John 8:45 "And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not." —Jesus Christ

Seventh-day Adventists [8]deny the reality and existence of a literal burning Hell. Instead, like Jehovah's Witnesses teach, SDA's believe in annihilation for the wicked. This is totally unbiblical. [9]You need to know about the SDA heresy on Hell. Clearly, SDA is very different than Biblical Christianity. Never follow any religious leader who isn't following the plain Word of God. When anyone starts talking about "visions," it's time to leave. Ask them what they've been smoking?

You need to understand that when SDA's speak about salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone, they have a different meaning of the word "FAITH" than the Bible does. As I showed you early in a quote from Ellen White, she considers "FAITH" as being all-inclusive of a life of obedience to Christ, which would definitely include consecration, surrendering one's will and discipleship. Come to think of it, that's exactly what Dr. John MacArthur, John Calvin, Paul Washer, Ray Comfort and other heretics are teaching today.

The truth, Biblically, is that eternal life is a free gift, free to be received without obligation or strings attached. But then, when a person gets saved (born-again), there is a second decision that God wants us to make, but it is not required nor will it have any effect on God's gift of salvation to us. [10]That second decision is DISCIPLESHIP! The first decision was SALVATION. Don't confuse or mix these two or you will have a false plan of salvation, which is merely religion without the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God.

Just like Roman Catholics who professes to believe the Gospel, while adding the Seven Sacraments to be saved; so also do Seventh-day Adventists add obedience to the things of Christ to be saved. These are BOTH false plans of salvation.

Please keep in mind that occultist Alice Bailey (considered by many to be the mother of the modern New Age Movement), in her book titled "[11]The Externalisation Of The Hierarchy," mentions the word "Christ" 666 times. This is because Miss Bailey's "Christ" is the soon coming Antichrist!!! So when SDA's speak of Christ, without mentioning His death on the cross for our sins, His burial, and His bodily resurrection three days later, you might want to ask which "Christ" they are talking about.

Despite some attempt to downplay the occult involvement of SDA founders, the truth is plainly evident. Ellen and James White have Masonic tombs upon their graves. [12]Research and you will find, that Freemasonry did have a big influence of SDA.

SDA's Teach Lordship Salvation, Which Is Another Gospel

If you'll search online amongst SDA websites for "How To Be Saved," you'll get Lordship Salvation basically. Here's an SDA official website, where they invite the reader to receive the free gift of eternal life, but then add a stipulation that works are necessary to be saved. Notice carefully that the SDA author of the following article speaks of God saving a person in future terms. This is because SDA's believe Christ entered into the heavenly Holy Place in 1844 to begin his work of "Investigative Judgment" (a bizarre heresy exclusive to SDA). No other religious group teaches this bizarre doctrine, which is a big warning flag also.

Here's what SDA's teach concerning salvation:

> Nor do we have the right to say for sure whom God will save. Given the kinds of people Jesus brushed shoulders with (thieves, the demon-possessed and prostitutes), it's a safe bet that there will be people in heaven that you and I wouldn't have selected to go there. ... God does want us to be good. Determinedly wicked people aren't trusting in Jesus, or they wouldn't do the things they do.
> SOURCE: [13]Seventh-day Adventist Church: How To Know You're Saved

The preceding statement is a lie. To say that people who intentionally commit wickedness are not saved is unbiblical. Noah deliberately got drunk. Samson deliberately went with harlots. David deliberately commit adultery with Bath-Sheba and murdered her husband. Jonah deliberately ran from God's will. Ananias and Sapphira deliberately lied and stole from God. Demas forsook Paul in the ministry, loving this present world. Peter deliberately took his clothes off, denied knowing Christ and quit the ministry, et cetera. The Bible is filled with shameful believers who did horrible things as Christians. All Christians sin.

The problem is that when you require a change of life as validation, confirmation or legitimization of one's faith in Christ, you've changed the plan of salvation. How can eternal life truly be a "free gift" (Romans 5:15; 6:23) if your behavior must change as part of being saved? It cannot! On the same website as the previous quote, SDA's teach that salvation can be lost, and that to remain saved, a person must continually choose to "STAY CLOSE TO GOD":

> People can "fall away" from God through choice, pressure, carelessness or inattention. Though God draws us to Himself and will do everything He can to keep us close to Him, He won't force us to stay. But those who do stay close to God live happier, more confident lives than those who don't.
> SOURCE: [14]Seventh-day Adventist Church: How To Know You're Saved

Notice the heresy in the preceding quote. SDA's teach that those who stay closer to God can live more confident lives than those who don't. Clearly, SDA's do not view salvation as a new birth that cannot be reversed. Rather, their heresy on Investigative Judgment teaches that since 1844, Christ is in the heavenly Holy Place deciding who is "worthy" or not to enter into Heaven. So if you stay close to God throughout your life, you have much better odds of being found worthy than if you don't stay close to God. Ladies and gentleman, this is an entirely satanic false plan of salvation that cannot produce the new birth by the Holy Spirit of God. John 1:12-13, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God."

> Galatians 4:16, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?" —Apostle Paul Biblically, you must be born-again to be saved. Notice that the SDA website titled, "How To Be Saved," never mentions the Gospel. What is the Gospel? The Bible tells us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

There you have it... Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED and He RESURRECTED the third day. If you see yourself as a guilty sinner in God's holy eyes (Romans 3:19), and believe the Gospel (Mark 1:15), you will be immediately and forever saved (Romans 10:13).

Clearly, the Bible teaches something very different than what SDA's teach. You don't get to Heaven by receiving God's free gift and then staying close to God in holy living, increasing your odds that God will save you. That's the same theological garbage that [15]Billy Graham, [16]John MacArthur, [17]Paul Washer and [18]other heretics are teaching, infiltrating and defiling evangelical churches. The Bible teaches that we are saved by God's righteousness, not our own (Romans 10:3-4).

Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith." In theological language, and mentioned in Romans 4:5-6 of the precious King James Bible, it is called [19]IMPUTATION. We are saved by the [20]imputed righteousness of God by faith in Jesus Christ (2nd Corinthians 5:21), because we have no righteousness of our own to offer God (Isaiah 64:6).

Hence, once you are saved, you can NEVER lose your salvation. When you hear someone saying that they "used to be a Christian," what they are really saying is that they once ascribed to the philosophy of Christianity or joined a Christian organization, but they were never truly BORN-AGAIN!!! Christianity began as a new birth by faith in Christ Jesus. When it went to Greece, Christianity became a philosophy. When it went to Rome, it became an organization. When it spread throughout Europe, it became a culture. And when it came to America, Christianity became a business!

Seventh-day Adventism Is NOT Compatible With New Testament Biblical Christianity

My friend, Seventh-day Adventism may look, smell and taste like Christianity, but it is a worm-filled apple, rotten to the core. The exclusive doctrine of Investigative Judgment, which teaches that Christ entered into the heavenly Holy Place in the year 1844 is bizarre, completely foreign to Biblical Christianity. Of course, as you can imagine, SDA's reject all other religions, claiming that only they are the full remaining faithful. SDA's worship on Saturday, their self-made Sabbath. They're businesses are often open on Sundays, totally disregarding the Lord's Day on Sunday as being part of the world's antichrist system. Baptist pastors are viewed as being antichrists by SDA's. They won't tell you any of this upfront.

As I have briefly shared with you, SDA's have a completely different, far out, bizarre, strange, belief system. The Bible calls this "strange doctrines." Hebrews 13:9, "Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein." Doctrinally, we ought to stick to the fundamentals of the Christian faith. The SDA doctrine of Investigative Judgment is certainly a STRANGE DOCTRINE.

There is absolutely no way to reconcile Seventh-day Adventism with Biblical Christianity. They are diametrically opposed to each other. Also, there are [21]strong occult connections between Ellen G. White and Freemasonry, as is true of most mainstream religious cults. SDA is a part of the Devil's New World Order deception. Satan's purpose is to BLIND people, so that they will rest at ease in a false security, and go straight to Hell when they die, when they thought they were going to Heaven. This is why Jesus said in Luke 13:23-34, "Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able."

Please understand that Seventh-day Adventism is a business, an organized religion, not Biblical Christianity. Satan is a master con-artist, a deceiver, whom the Bible warns appears as an angel of light (2nd Corinthians 11:13-15). Literally, the Devil and his sinister ministers are actors, pretending to be of God, but they are satanic. We are all in a spiritual war. SDA does its best to appear as a Christian organization, but it is a woeful deception of the Devil.

Eternal life is a free gift (Romans 5:15; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-10). A gift need only be received. To genuinely be a free gift—salvation cannot require anybody to clean up their act, turn over a new leaf, commit their life to God, surrender their will to follow Christ, confess Christ publicly, join a church, forsake the world, cease from sinful bad habits, get water baptized, keep the Sabbath, nor do good works—for all these are HUMAN EFFORT!!! It is tragic how Satan has blurred the lines of theological doctrine between the churches and the satanic cults. Consequently, many of our once evangelical churches have succumbed to satanic error are are no longer New Testament churches, because they are teaching a false plan of salvation. [22]Lordship Salvation is NOT salvation!!!

Heresy is creeping into the churches by the hour. The "simplicity that is in Christ" is that a person who realizes that they are a sinner can be saved by simply BELIEVING the Gospel.

"The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?" —Psalms 118:6

Psalms 56:9, "...this I know; for God is for me."

2.9.2 Today's Wimpy Pastors Are Not Standing (2021-09-05 13:13)

Revelation 3:2, "Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God."

America is guilty of 10,000 sins! Maybe 1,000,000 sins! Only God knows. I know we are a nation of 370,000,000 guilty sinners! Yes, we sure do need a revival of brokenness and repentance, beginning with our arrogant pastors who refuse to heed rebuke. I am so disgusted with the Bob Jones University (BJU) camp. If I had my way, BJU would be shut down permanently. They are the biggest promoter of the Devil's Calvinism and "Lordship" salvation today. The saddest thing of all that I see is that professed Christians don't care anymore.

I have been attending Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC). The place is dead spiritually. They don't preach against sin. The don't preach against anything. The PCC camp are idle! They won't expose the BJU camp. Instead their PCC students play sports with BJU. It is sickening. They will hypocritically tout the importance of truth, while bidding Godspeed to the Bob Jones crowd who corrupt the truth. I plan to keep monitoring and exposing Campus Church. Someday needs to care.

Their pastor Jeff Redlin doesn't care. He's some snobby yuppie from Colorado, now senior pastor of Campus Church. He saw my ministry websites and had nothing good to say about my work. He wrongly accused me of finding "weaknesses" in pastors. Those aren't "weaknesses"; but rather, hardcore corruption and damnable heresy! [1]John MacArthur is a damnable false teacher! These are arrogant corrupt men, not weak men! [2]Steve Pettit is a child of the Devil. Pastor Redlin is just another sellout, wimp, puppet on strings, part of the problem, coward, sucking a 6-digit salary, parasiting off the churches!

These shameful [3]Caspar Milquetoast pastors make God sick! They are lukewarm (Revelation 3:15-16). They think they are rich and prospering, but they are naked, wretched and blind. Jeff Redlin needs to get right with God and stop hiding behind lame excuses! Redlin doesn't get a free pass just because he has a job at Campus Church, he has a duty to PREACH THE WORD (2nd Timothy 4:1-3) and REBUKE THEM SHARPLY who subvert entire households (Titus 1:10-13).

Pastor Marty Herron ruined the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. Harvest is full of corrupt BJU alumni who preach another gospel. [4]If you don't believe me, take a look at this garbage! There is not a more accursed and dangerous group today than Bob Jones University and the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. This includes the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana and Faith Baptist Bible College And Theological Seminary in Ankeny, Iowa. These are unsaved reprobates in the same camp as Church of Christ and Lutherans who ADD to the free grace Gospel. The BJU camp reject salvation by faith alone, insisting that a [5]separate act of repentance (turning away from a sinful lifestyle) is also necessary.

Shame on Campus Church for supporting the Bob Jones crowd today! Shame on Pastor Jeff Redlin for treating me like garbage and bidding Godspeed to the BJU camp! Shame on PCC for bidding Godspeed and remaining eerily silent about Lordship salvation in the Bob Jones camp. Right doctrine matters! Truth matters! These wicked people don't care, but I do. Jeff Redlin is too busy with a large church (that's his lame excuse), to contend for the faith, but I am not too busy. Jeff Redlin and the PCC camp have blood on their hands. 2nd John 1:11, " For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

2.9.3 Bible Repentance Is Solely A Matter Of Acknowledging The Truth (2021-09-07 18:18)

Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

This is so important to understand. The only purpose of God's law in salvation is to give all humanity "THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN."

Very few Bible preachers correctly understand what it means to "repent" to be saved.

A man needs to know what he is being saved from. God's law shows us our iniquities and then brings us to Christ to be saved by grace. Galatians 3:24-26, "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Do you see that friend? When you place your faith in Christ, the law is no longer necessary in receiving eternal life. The ONLY purpose of the law is to give people THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN.

So when bad preachers tell you that you must repent "OF YOUR SINS" to be saved, they are lying to you and using the law differently than it was intended by God, to give the KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. They are requiring you to OBEY THE LAW to be saved, or to BE WILLING TO KEEP THE LAW to be saved. They say you must be willing to forsake a lifestyle of sinning. But that is not the Gospel of free grace as taught in the inspired King James Bible. Dear friend, Jesus paid your debt of sin, because you couldn't do it, and neither could I. Eternal life is a free gift from God. You don't have to give up anything, nor be willing to give up anything. Consider again this beautiful quote from Pastor Harry Ironside...

> "The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past ...
> Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all."
>
> SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [1]What Is The Gospel?

Repentance is simply a matter of acknowledging THE TRUTH of your sinnership. 2nd Timothy 2:25, "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." Repentance is entirely a matter of the heart, where a person acknowledges THE TRUTH that you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God; thus believing the Gospel you are saved by faith alone.

2.9.4 Don't Make A Big Deal Out Of Repentance For Salvation (2021-09-12 11:57)

John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

I have been receiving increasing emails from people who are worrying over repentance. Dear reader, the Bible does not make even a small issue of repentance, and neither should we. In the Gospel of John we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times, but the word "repent" is never mentioned. That speaks volumes! It simply means that repentance is automatic and is included with believing. The person who believes has repented and the person who repents has believed.

All these repentance preachers today who focus on turning away from your sinful behavior to be saved wrestle obscure passage of Scripture to support their heresy. For example: [1]Read this shocking article I wrote exposing Evangelist Ray Comfort's heretical preaching. According to Ray you must live a lifestyle of repentance to get to Heaven. Folks, that is the Devil talking through Ray Comfort, not the Holy Spirit of God. Biblical repentance is simply a change of mind toward God that causes you to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am continually surprised how many people needlessly worry over this stuff. The reason is because of all the big issue being made today over repentance. Friend, if you know you are a guilty sinner and put your faith in Christ alone to forgive your sins, you are saved! You have repented. How do I know you have repented? I know because you have believed. It is impossible for anyone to believe without repenting.

Repentance and belief happen at the same time. It will cause you sleepless nights if you view repentance as being something different that you must do from believing to be saved. John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

All the Bible tells us to do is BELIEVE. I am tired of preachers using obscure passages of Scriptures like Mark 1:15, Luke 13:5 and Acts 20:21 to make repentance a separate act from faith.

Dear friend, the purpose of repentance is so that you will come to the light to be saved. Repentance is a change of mind toward the truth (2nd Timothy 2:25), the admission before a holy God that you are a guilty sinner (Romans 3:19-20). The law of God shows us our sinnership and then brings us to Christ to be saved by God's grace alone (Galatians 3:24-26).

2.10.1 The Lake Of Fire Is Real And Lasts Forever (2021-10-01 13:03)

Revelation 20:10-15, “And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

According to [1]Pollster George Barna:

- 76 percent of Americans believe in Heaven, and 71 percent believe in Hell.
- Only 32 percent believe that Hell is ‘an actual place of torment and suffering.’
- 40 percent believe it is ‘a state of eternal separation from God’s presence.’
- 64 percent believe that they will go to Heaven,
- Only 0.005 percent believe that they will be sent to the flames.” [2]SOURCE

Isn’t that something? A whopping 71 % of Americans believe in Hell, but only 32 % of them think Hell is actually a literal place of torment and suffering. Even more disturbing is that only .005 (1 in 200 people) think they will be cast into the Lake of Fire someone day be burned.

Dear friend, the Holy Bible is very clear that Hell is a literal PLACE. Hell is a literal physical place that burns with fire and brimstone (Revelation 21:8). The Bible teaches that God created Hell for the Devil and his angels (demons), not for humanity (Matthew 25:41). God does not want anyone to perish into Hell (2nd Peter 3:9). Sinners don’t go to Hell, Christ-rejecters go to Hell. The only sin that can keep the worst sinner out of Heaven is unbelief.

It is tragic that only 32 percent of Americans think that Hell is a literal place of torment and suffering. Even worse, less than 1 % of people in the United States think that they are going to Hell. Friend, you had better read the Holy Bible for yourself and make the right decision to trust God’s Word. There are no atheists in Hell. Everyone will believe in Hell who goes there! God’s wrath is poured out upon all Christ-rejecters who go to Hell. ...

[3]

Romans 5:8-9, "But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him."

2.10.2 What Churches Publicly Preach Is Every Saint's Business (2021-10-03 22:10)

1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:"

The Apostle Paul clearly defines the Gospel for us in our text passage. Paul doesn't mention anything about turning away from a lifestyle of sin. Paul doesn't mention anything about water baptism. Paul doesn't mention anything about surrendering all to Christ as Lord. Paul doesn't embellish the Gospel which Jesus Himself gave to him. Galatians 1:11-12, "

But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. " No one taught Paul the Gospel, the Lord gave it directly to him.

Why oh why is it so difficult for the Bob Jones University camp to leave the simplicity of Christ be! Why cannot they simply LET IT BE!!! The Beatles had it right in their iconic song:

"LET IT BE." Dear reader, LET IT BE!!! Let the Gospel be! The primary reason why most people will burn in the fires of Hell someday is because they were trusting TOO MUCH to get to Heaven! The Lord Himself simply said in

John 10:9, "

I am the door*: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

" That is how you get saved oh sinner! You simply come to God in your sinful ungodly state, BELIEVING the Good News (the Gospel) that Christ DIED on the cross to pay for your sins, He was BURIED, and three days later the precious Savior physically RESURRECTED from the dead.

So what is all [1]this Satanic nonsense that we hear being preached from the self-righteous Bob Jones University camp...

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[2]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?," BJU chapel - January 26th, 2015)

BLASPHEMY!!! Dear reader, what you just read by false teacher Steve Pettit is the Devil's lie of Calvinism. It is high time for all Christians everywhere to "REBUKE THEM SHARPLY" (Titus 1:10-13) who teach things contrary to the inspired King James Bible!!! I tell you with all Biblical confidence and certainty that YOU CAN accept Christ as your personal Savior and KNOW 100 % that you are eternally saved and secure in Jesus Christ!!!

I was unjustly criticized by Pastor Sean Quinlan at the Lighthouse Baptist Church on Guam in 2018. Pastor Quinlan sarcastically said to me in rebuke: "You are obsessed with the Bible debate!" I took that insult as a badge of honor, because I have stood for THE TRUTH!!! What a shameful thing for a pastor to make, berating a fellow Christian laymen for being zealous over the Word of God. It would have been manly for Pastor Quinlan to encourage and commend me for having zeal over the Word of God, and to thank me for my zeal to expose the false Bibles that Bob Jones University sells, uses and promotes.

Instead Pastor Quinlan chose the low path, to make disparaging comments about me. What a bad pastor! In hindsight I am convinced that he felt threatened by my manhood and boldness to speak THE TRUTH. Pastor Quinlan was envious of me. He actually told me that he doesn't know even one thing wrong with the modern Bible revisions. How pathetic! For a Baptist pastor to scold me for having obsessive zeal over the inspired Word of God, and for him to admit that he doesn't even know anything about the issue, reveals how incompetent and foolish he is. Part of exposing heretics is calling names! Sean Quinlan ought to be ASHAMED of himself for bidding Godspeed to the apostate Bob Jones University (BJU) crowd! It is our business what they are propagating to the world!!!

Humbly said, I make no apologies for being "OBSESSED" over the inspired Word of God. I have to make up as a preacher for all the yellow-bellied preachers who won't stand!!! The average pastor today is far more concerned about the church offering than he is about upholding THE TRUTH. Sean Quinlan told me that he has the pathetic attitude: "What Harvest Baptist Church does on Guam is none of our business." No sir, you are very wrong! What every church publicly preaches is every believer's business!!! Harvest Baptist Church on Guam has their own radio station (KHMG 88.1 FM), [3]on which they broadcast chapel sermons from Bob Jones University throughout the Micronesian islands, which preach the Devil's lie of Calvinism. Dr. Steve Pettit is an unsaved Calvinist infidel. You had better believe that what Harvest does is my business, and it is yours too if you love the Lord Jesus Christ!!!

I am sick and tired of today's lame, incompetent, arrogant, spoiled, lazy and lackadaisical pastors who refuse to stand against falsehoods, evildoers and heresies! Proverbs 28:4,

" They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. " Today's shameful pastors who lack concern over Satan corrupting the Word of God are consequently indifferent toward corrupt churches and Bible colleges. You show me a shallow pastor who doesn't care about the purity of God's Word or the accuracy of the Gospel, and I'll show you a bad pastor who doesn't faithfully walk with God in His inspired Word.

The Bible teaches in Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." Something is WRONG with a pastor or preacher who doesn't get upset over FALSEHOODS and HATE EVERYT FALSE WAY!!! One of the positive comments that I have heard from my web visitors over the years is that my websites cover more subjects than any other websites they have found. Dear friend, that is because of Psalms 119:104, " Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way." I hate every false way as God commands me to!!! Too many pastors only care about the church budget, their own family, being paranoid about anyone like me with whom they feel uncomfortable. Those weasels don't deserve to be pastors, let alone get paid to milk their congregation. Sadly, over 95 % of pastors nowadays are mere parasites!!! They walk in fear of anything that threatens their next paycheck.

That is exactly why the country is going to Hell. Jesus plainly warned in Luke 16:13 that NO MAN can serve God and mammon (a career). I have never received a single penny for serving God. That is why I preach with boldness as I do, calling names and am not afraid of whom I might offend. Pastor Jeff Redlin at Campus Church (at Pensacola Christian College in Florida) is a coward, afraid to expose the Bob Jones University crowd by name. It would be a cold day in Hell before Pastor Redlin ever grew a spinal cord strong enough to expose Dr. Steve Pettit as a false teacher and unsaved infidel. PCC are cowards, too afraid to offend the BJU camp, because they are all in bed together making tens of millions of dollars in revenues. The love of money is the root of all evil (1st Timothy 6:10).

What saith the Scripture? 1st Kings 18:21, "And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word." I cannot think of a more applicable passage of Scripture to describe the Bob Jones (BJU) crowd, and sadly the Pensacola Christian College (PCC) camp, and hundreds more increasingly apostate institutions and churches today, who are INDIFFERENT toward doctrine and truth. The prophet Elijah gave an invitation to the people of Israel. Elijah put them on the spot, asking the Jews to make a decision, but THE PEOPLE ANSWERED HIM NOT A WORD!!!

That is so tragic and sad. That perfectly describes the PCC camp today, who refuse to take a Biblical stand against the damnable heresies being taught at Bob Jones University, and in the infidel churches of BJU alumni worldwide. [4]How you live has nothing to do with your final destination!!! The Bob Jones University crowd are utterly confused on sanctification and justification concerning salvation. I love what Evangelist John Bunyan wisely said:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Amen, amen and amen!!! What a great statement! BJU are corrupting the Word of God and casting stumblingblocks before the people. It is not hard to discern why when we consider that the BJU camp uses umpteen different Bible revisions, which contradict one another! For example: [5]Look how the modern Bible revisions pervert God's simple free grace plan of salvation. According to the Easy-To-Read Version (ESV), you must change your heart and your life to get to Heaven. Folks, that is NOT what Jesus said in John 10:9. The blessed Savior said in

I am the door*: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

" That is so simple! Jesus is THE DOOR by Whom we enter by faith into Heaven. Do not add anything to that!

Dear reader, I encourage you to spend some time in the Gospel of John. According to John 20:31 the Gospel of John is God's Gospel tract. John 20:31,

"But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. " Over and over in the beautiful simple Gospel of John we are taught that the way to be saved is to BELIEVE. John 6:47,

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. ” All you have to do is NOT screw it up by adding things to the Gospel. In John chapter’s 19 and 20 we read about Jesus’ death, burial and bodily resurrection three days later. The beautiful thing about God’s plan of salvation is that it is simple. 2nd Corinthians 11:3-4 even calls the Gospel **“

the simplicity that is in Christ.

What the Bob Jones University camp have done is complicate the Gospel. BJU foolishly adds turning away from a sinful lifestyle to be saved. BJU adds surrendering all to Christ as “Lord” to be saved. BJU adds persevering in living the Christian life to get to Heaven. None of these are the simplicity that is in Christ!!!

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) made this great statement refuting the Bob Jones camp:

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him." —Pastor Harry A. Ironside, from the beautiful Gospel tract titled:
>
> “
>
> [6]Another Gospel

Amen and amen! The more that I preach against the apostate Bob Jones University camp, the more people criticize me, telling me to let it go. But they speak as fools, because the Gospel is at stake friends. The Word of God is inspired still today, which we have preserved in the inspired King James Bible. It blows my mind that my home Bible college, at Hyles-Anderson College (HAC), has denied the inspiration of the King James Bible since 2008. Please say it isn’t so! Sadly, it is true! Dear friend, God’s Word has always been inspired, which means it is from God. They are God’s Words, not man’s. If you do some research, you’ll learn that all of the modern Bible publishers think we don’t have an inspired Holy Bible today. They think that at best all we have is the best mankind could produce. I totally disagree! I believe that I have EVERY WORD of God in the inspired King James Bible. Thank you Lord!

Dear reader, it is OUR BUSINESS what churches, pastors, Bible colleges, missionaries, evangelists and other members of the clergy dish out to the public. When I hear Harvest Baptist Church on Guam broadcasting Dr. Steve Pettit’s damnable heresies of Calvinism (ala, Lordship salvation) on their corrupt radio station, it becomes MY BUSINESS!!! Harvest has since removed much of their doctrine from their church website, to save face because I have exposed them. I have REBUKED THEM SHARPLY as the Bible commands me to do in Titus 1:10-13. Why then are so many carnal believers upset with me for obeying the Holy Bible? I am exposing Lordship salvation, which Pastor’s Sean Quinlan and Jeff Redlin bid them Godspeed at BJU. You’ll never hear a negative word against the BJU leadership at PCC.

Folks, God does not want us to go along with falsehoods, damnable heresies, wickedness, evil, corrupt Bibles and counterfeit gospels. Christian Fundamentalism is not believing the fundamentals of the Bible. Fundamentalism is SEPARATING from those who no longer believe the fundamentals of the Word of God. BJU stopped being a fundamentalist Christian institution 40 years ago!!! BJU is a cesspool of iniquity, a den of vipers, a house built upon the sand which cannot stand when the tide rises and comes in.

I kindly encourage all believers to use social media [7]to expose the Bob Jones University camp. Please don't do it for me. You should do it for Jesus Christ! Hell is real. Hell is a literal place that burns with fire. Everyone who dies in their sins without having trusted Jesus Christ as their personal Savior will be cast into Hell forever (Revelation 14:13; 20:15; 21:8). The Bible has more to say about Hell than it does Heaven! Sadly, according to a George Barna Poll, less than 1 % of Americans think they will be cast into Hell to be punished someday. In fact, [8]only about 1 in 200 Americans think they will burn in Hell (or .005 percent).

I am not the bad guy dear friend. I am the truth-teller. I am the Christian who cares. I am the child of God who thinks that RIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!! I sure feel lonely preaching THE TRUTH against the lying Bob Jones camp today. I thank God that I am not completely alone. [9]A dear brother in Chicago named Lou Martuneac (one of very few respectable Bob Jones graduates) has a wonderful blog rebuking the Bob Jones University camp for preaching Calvinism. I commend Lou for taking a stand with God's TRUTH and against the dark direction that BJU has deteriorated over the past half century. [10]Great job Lou!!!

BJU is training, brainwashing and sending out tens of thousands of graduates over the years. It is OUR BUSINESS what these graduates are being taught, and what they teach and preach in the churches that they run into the ground. Somebody needs to care! I CARE! GOD CERTAINLY CARES! DO YOU CARE DEAR FRIEND??? Calvinism is a lie of the Devil, a counterfeit plan of salvation, which must be exposed lest multitudes go to Hell forever.

2.10.3 I Am The Door (2021-10-04 14:44)

John 10:1 and 9, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ... I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

I absolutely love the Gospel of John. In this wonderful book of the Holy Bible we see the simplicity of God's plan of salvation. In chapter's 19 and 20 we read about Jesus' DEATH on the cross, His BURIAL and His bodily RESURRECTION. This is "The Gospel" (meaning GOOD NEWS). The Gospel assuredly is Good News! It means that we don't have to die in our sins to be punished in Hell forever. Romans 6:23, "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

In the precious Gospel of John we are taught the simple, free and easy plan of salvation. Jesus proclaimed the truth that HE IS THE DOOR!!! John 10:1 and 9, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ... I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." My youngest daughter drew this amazing picture when she was about 12 years old, showing that she had a comprehensive understanding of salvation only through Jesus Christ...

[2] Download 'Robbers' Image

What a great illustration of John 10:1 in the Bible!!! The Catholics are trying to tear off the roof to enter into Heaven. The Jehovah's Witnesses are trying to break in by using jackhammers. The Seventh-Day Adventists are trying to break into Heaven by using grappling hooks! Someone else is trying to use water baptism to enter into Heaven. These are all THIEVES AND ROBBERS the Word of God says. They are stealing the right to save which belongs only to Jesus Christ. What saith the Scripture? John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." Jesus is the ONLY DOOR into Heaven, and that DOOR is wide open dear friend.

In John 10:1-9 we are plainly taught that all God requires to get into Heaven is to ENTER BY FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST!!! Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." In none of these Scripture passages do we see anything about repenting from sins. We see nothing about getting water baptized. We see nothing about being required to surrender all to Christ as "

Lord.

" We see nothing about inviting Christ into our life to be saved. Nor do we see anything about making a commitment to live for Christ to enter into Heaven!!!

Dear friend, the Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. The Bible identifies Satan as the god of this world, teaching us that Satan deliberately obscures the light of the truth of the Gospel to hinder people from being saved. The Devil's primary goal is to BLIND THE MINDS OF THEM WHICH BELIEVE NOT (2nd Corinthians 4:3-4).

Dear reader, God's plan of salvation is easy, free and simple. God intentionally made the plan of salvation simple, so that even educable slow, children and unlearned people can be saved. If you want to have eternal life and go to Heaven, it is as simple as this—you are a guilty sinner in the sight of a holy God (Romans 3:19-20). There is a penalty for your sins, which is death (Romans 6:23). This includes a second death, being tormented in Hell (the lake of fire and brimstone) forever and ever without rest day and night (Revelation 14:11; 20:11-15; 21:8).

But there is GOOD NEWS friend! God in His love sent His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, into the world to die on a cross for your sins and mine (John 3:16-18). Jesus paid a debt He did not owe, because we owed a debt we could not pay (2nd Corinthians 5:21). JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! If you will simply BY FAITH take God at His Word as recorded in the Scriptures—to receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that He was buried and raised up from the dead three days later—you will be instantly, irrevocably and permanently saved. If the Gospel (the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ) is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, you are saved!!! It is that simple friend.

Let's look at some examples in the inspired King James Bible of how easy it is to be saved:

- THE DAY OF PENTECOST - The Apostle Peter got up and preached the Gospel (the Good News) to several thousand people present from many nations. The Bible simply says that when they heard the Gospel preached, they believed and were saved. Acts 2:41, "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls." The Bible method is to water baptize new converts as a public profession of their new found faith in the Gospel. But water baptism is NOT required to be saved. The Bible says that 3,000 souls were saved in one day by gladly receiving by faith the truth of the Gospel they heard preached.

- CORNELIUS - Cornelius was a leader over 100 Italian solders. Cornelius was a God-fearing man who prayed, fasted and gave alms (money) to the poor. But Cornelius was not saved! Here is a classic example of a good man who was lost! Contrary to popular opinion, good people don't go to Heaven and bad people don't go to Hell. Redeemed sinners go to Heaven, and lost sinners who die in their sins go to Hell. We are ALL sinners (Romans 3:10-23). The $64,000 question is have you been born-again? The Bible says that God divinely arranged for Cornelius and the Apostle Peter to meet. As Peter was preaching the truth of the Gospel to Cornelius and his friends, they were saved by simply BELIVING the Good News they heard preached unto them. Acts 10:43-44, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word." They believed and instantly became indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God. This is exactly what the Apostle Paul meant in Galatians 3:2, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?" How did you get indwelt with the Holy Spirit? That is, how did you get saved? Was it by keeping the works of the law (i.e., turning away from a lifestyle of sinning); or was it BY THE HEARING OF FAITH? Friend, you get saved BY THE HEARING OF FAITH. That is, you are saved when you put your faith in the preaching of the GOOD NEWS of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen. 1st Corinthians 1:18, "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." I love that! Do you see it? THE PREACHING OF THE CROSS? What is that? Why friend, it is THE GOSPEL!!! The Gospel is the POWER OF GOD unto salvation to them that BELIEVE. Romans 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek." Those beautiful and profound passages of Scripture.

I have shared with you two beautiful accounts from the Word of God of people who were saved by simply BELIEVING the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and resurrected. They simply by faith TRUSTED JESUS, WHO IS THE DOOR into Heaven!!! Dear friend, do you see how easy, free and uncomplicated it is to go to Heaven? Why then do multitudes of religious men today complicate God's plan of salvation, making it so absurdly difficult that [3]Pastor John MacArthur says children cannot be saved? Dr. MacArthur was inspired by demons when he said those words that children cannot be saved. Jesus said that children CAN be saved, for such is the Kingdom of God (Mark 10:14).

"More people will die and burn in Hell because they're trusting too much!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, MP3 sermon, "[4]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

"Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Dr. Jack Hyles, MP3 sermon, "[5]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Oh how simple is God's plan of salvation! JESUS IS THE DOOR!!! All you have to do friend is DON'T ADD anything else to faith. When Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014) [6]teaches that faith is not enough to be saved, he is damning himself and others to Hell. [7]According to Steve Pettit, you must live the Christian life faithfully to get to Heaven. That is NOT the simplicity that is in Christ, [8]it is the Devil's fraud of Calvinism.

Jesus proclaimed I AM THE DOOR in John 10:9. Getting saved is that simple dear reader! If all your hope is in Christ, you are safe and secure in God's promise of salvation. 1st Corinthians 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Again and again the Bible promises that God will SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE!!!

But if you embellish the Gospel—by adding works, adding turning away from sinful ways, adding surrendering your will to God, adding running the Christian race faithfully, adding water baptism, adding keeping sacraments, adding counting the cost and paying the price, adding ANYTHING to faith alone—then you have not been born-again and will split Hell wide open when you die someday!!!

You must trust Jesus and only Jesus. Salvation comes to those who rest completely in Christ alone, having ceased from all their own human efforts. This is what the Sabbath Day pictures in the Bible—Jesus Christ in Whom we 100 % rest for forgiveness of sins and eternal life. Hebrews 4:10-11, "

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief." Salvation is found ONLY in Jesus Christ!!! Trust Him now dear friend, if you never have made that decision.

Over and over in the Word of God we see God's simple plan of salvation. Take a look at this precious passage from Ephesians:

Ephesians 1:12-14, "

That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation*: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

Boy I love that! They were saved BY TRUSTING JESUS!!! Please notice in verse 13 that they “ HEARD THE WORD OF TRUTH, THE GOSPEL OF YOUR SALVATION,

” and then they **“

BELIEVED

” !!! That is so simple. That is so easy. This is what the Apostle Paul says in Galatians 3:2, when he mentions “BY THE HEARING OF FAITH.” In John 10:9 we are simply taught that Jesus is THE DOOR into Heaven. In Ephesians 1:12-13 we are taught again that we are saved by simply TRUSTING JESUS!!!

So where in the world does [9]Pastor Marty Herron heretically get the extra Biblical requirement to TURN AWAY FROM A LIFESTYLE OF SINNING to be saved? Where does [10]Evangelist Ray Comfort get the heretical idea that to be saved a person must LIVE A LIFESTYLE OF REPENTANCE? Where did Pastor John MacArthur get [11]the Satanic idea that children cannot come to Christ for salvation? These wicked religious men have all been inspired by demons!!!

Satan knows if he offers you a completely different plan of salvation that you’ll probably reject it. So instead the Devil embellishes the Gospel, mixing lies with truth to deceive people. Satan comes along teaching a corrupt Gospel of partial faith in Christ plus something else. Adding anything to faith cancels faith! Adding anything to faith negates faith! Adding anything to faith is not genuine faith. True faith means 100 % relying upon Jesus Christ because of what He did to pay for your sins through the cross of Calvary.

A popular lie which Satan has crept into Bible colleges and churches nowadays is that you must “ repent and turn away from your sinning

to receive God’s free gift of eternal life. So if a man professes faith in Christ, but he chooses to continue living in willful sinning, then he is deemed not to be saved because his faith is not genuine. That is [12]the garbage which Pastor Chuck Phelps and [13]Evangelist Steve Pettit are heretically preaching today, which is another gospel.

In God’s free offer of the gift of eternal life, the supernatural miraculous new birth is instant and 100 % based upon God’s faithfulness, not ours. John 1:12-13, “But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.” But in Bob Jones University’s perverse plan of salvation, there is no new birth produced, because they have turned the gift of God into a lifelong process which requires living a sanctified life. This is a 100 % works based plan of damnation!!!

Evangelist John Bunyan, the author of the classic Christian book Pilgrim's Progress, made this excellent statement:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

I couldn't have said it any better. Bob Jones University today and their alumni are preaching another gospel of Calvinism. They must be exposed, marked and avoided (Romans 16:17-18; Ephesians 5:11). Titus 1:10-13 teaches us as believers to " REBUKE THEM SHARPLY " that they might be sound in the faith. Jesus exclaimed I AM THE DOOR. John 10:1 and 9, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. ... I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

If you go through THE DOOR OF JESUS dear reader, then you have been born-again and have eternal life; but if you add anything to faith alone, then you have not been born-again and will spend eternity being tormented in the fires of Hell. The choice is your alone to make friend. You must decide whether to believe Christ's words in John 10:9 that He is THE DOOR; or else you must choose to believe the Bob Jones camp today, who say that more than faith is necessary to get to Heaven.

The BJU crowd will lie and play with words, claiming that they believe faith alone is enough. But if you take a closer look at their definition of faith, you'll discover as I did that [14]BJU shares the same heretical concept of faith as do Seventh-Day Adventists. In their sordid view, faith means obeying all the commandments of God. So if you don't live the Christian life faithfully, they claim that your faith for salvation is invalid and you're not really saved. It is a backdoor approach to works salvation, which is really SLAVATION!!!

In God's true plan of salvation, you CAN write your name, time and place you were born-again in your Bible, and you CAN 100 % know for certain for the rest of your life that you are a bonafide child of God, regardless of the sinful lifestyle that you choose to live. If the truth be known, every believer lives a sinful lifestyle. We all sin every day, every hour and every minute of every day. If you break even one commandment of God, you are guilty of breaking all of God's commandments (James 2:10). The Bob Jones University camp are self-righteous!!! They are just as big sinners today as everybody else. Yet, they hypocritically go around teaching that you're not saved unless you persevere to live the Christian life and serve God faithfully until the end. That is a counterfeit plan of salvation!!!

I thank God! I thank God! I thank God that as His child I see the simplicity that is in Christ. The very moment that I trusted Christ as a 13 year old boy, I was eternally born-again. Jesus tells us as believers to REJOICE that our names are written in Heaven in the Lamb's Book of Life (Luke 10:20). There is no way we could REJOICE that our name is written in Heaven if Calvinism were true, because in Calvinism you cannot know you're safe and secure in salvation until life is over and you've proven that your faith is genuine by the lifestyle you have lived. Friend, do you see how corrupt Calvinism is? The very idea that we must live a holy sanctified lifestyle to prove that our faith is genuine is a works-based plan of salvation!!! How tragic! How sad! How unscriptural!

I sincerely hope and pray that God's Holy Spirit has used this humble blog to open your eyes. Jesus simply said that He is THE DOOR. Jesus is the way into Heaven. JESUS IS THE DOOR! The lifestyle that you choose to live has absolutely NOTHING to do with God's free gift of eternal life. Nowhere in the Gospel of John are we taught to forsake our sinful bad habits to be saved. NOWHERE!!! Wicked unsaved false teachers have perverted the Gospel, teaching for God's commandments the traditions of men (Mark 7:7-9). I have taught you the Scriptures dear reader. Please verify everything I have shared with you, as did the Bereans in Acts 17:10-11. Calvinism is very complicated!!! Forsaking the world and giving up one's sins is a hard, complicated and extremely challenging thing to do.

I [15]get sick and tired of hearing Pacific Garden Mission (PGM) in Chicago pervert the Gospel. They broadcast '[16]UNSHACKLED' worldwide, stories of sinners enslaved to Satan who get saved and then turn their lives around. But unfortunately, in an attempt to sensationalize their show, PGM takes it to extremes, corrupting the Gospel in an attempt to force people to change to be saved. That is a false Gospel. PGM's one Go-to verse is 2nd Corinthians 5:17, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." According to PGM, this verse means everyone who gets saved changes, turns from drugs and sin, and walks the narrow way of holiness!!! Sadly, [17]many 'UNSHACKLED' episodes resemble bizarre episodes of The Outer Limits!!!

[18]Your Salvation Didn't Change You One Bit (an excellent sermon by Pastor Jack Hyles). Converting new believers to become useful to serve God is the work of local New Testament churches. Pastor Jack Hyles makes this helpful statement:

>
> Conversion then is the work of the church and its members as they are led by the Holy Spirit to change the life and work of one who has been regenerated.
>
> Redemption is a work of God the Son. Regeneration is the work of God the Holy Spirit. Justification is the work of God the Father as He declares the sinner righteous in the Son. Conversion then becomes the work of the church as we change the use and purpose of a life.
>

Oh how beautiful and simple is THE TRUTH.

2.10.4 Jesus Is The Resurrection And The Life (2021-10-08 00:05)

John 11:25-26, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

How simple is the Gospel. In John 11:25-26 we once again see that salvation is obtained freely by simple childlike faith in the only begotten Son of God. BELIEVE oh guilty sinner and you are forever saved! Jesus didn’t ask Martha if she was ready or willing to repent and turn away from her sins (which Bob Jones University errantly requires on their website).

Jesus didn’t ask Martha is she had surrendered "all" to Him as Lord (which Pastor John MacArthur errantly requires). Jesus didn’t ask Martha to repent AND believe to be saved (as Ray Comfort errantly requires). Jesus didn’t ask Martha to start, run and finish the race to win the award of salvation (as Steve Pettit errantly requires).

Jesus SIMPLY asked Martha if she BELIEVED that He is the Resurrection and the Life? Jesus SIMPLY asked her if she believes that He gives eternal life? John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Simply BELIEVE oh guilty sinner to be immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved!!! Believe the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and three days later Jesus raised up from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

Galatians 1:6-7, “ I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. ” The Apostle Paul was bewildered that the churches of Galatia, whom he had spent so much time preaching and teaching the things of Christ, had so soon been duped into a local religious cult that perverts the Gospel. Paul calls them “fools” and “bewitched” in Galatians 3:1. Likewise, I find it hard to accept that Moody Bible Institute (MBI) and Bob Jones University (BJU), once fundamentalist institutions, have deteriorated decades later into cesspools of doctrinal heresy and worldliness. Both MBI and BJU have turned into hardcore Calvinist institutions today in 2021. This is so tragic!

I challenge you dear reader to forget everything that you have heard from preachers from a moment, and simply focus on the words of our wonderful Savior in our text passage.

John 11:25-26, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

” The Savior’s words are so clear and simple. All that He wanted to know from Martha is if she BELIEVED that He is the Resurrection and the Life!

Dear friend, if you BELIEVE that Jesus is the Christ, Who died on the cross in your place to pay your debt of sin, and you BELIEVE that just as He resurrected from the dead He can also raise you up from the dead, and that is your only hope for forgiveness of sins and eternal life, then you are saved! Salvation is so simple! You are a guilty sinner friend, and so am I. But Jesus died for OUR SINS, so that He could take our guilt upon Himself. I was saved at age 13 when I received Jesus as my personal Savior.

From that moment and forever I was no longer guilty. I am no longer under the curse of God's law, I am forever under God's grace. The born-again believer never falls from grace, we fall in grace! Amen and amen! Only an unsaved person who rejects the Gospel is fallen FROM GRACE, like the deceived Calvinist Bob Jones University camp today. Since [1]they ADD turning away from your sinful ways to be saved, they have FALLEN FROM GRACE, burning their bridge to Heaven. Faith alone in Jesus Christ is that bridge! BJU has torn up their ticket to the Pearly City. They have damned themselves by corrupting the Gospel, placing their trust in a false hope, another gospel which cannot produce the new birth. The Devil's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again.

Dear friend, I love you with God's love! I care about you. I love THE TRUTH. Right doctrine matters. There is no Gospel in Calvinism. Calvinism is a deadly theological system of lies that base salvation upon human performance, not Christ's sacrifice on the cross. In God's true plan of salvation, you can absolutely KNOW 100 % that you are immediately saved the instant that you place your trust in Christ, because salvation is solely rooted in God's promise to SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE (1st Corinthians 1:21b). I know that I am saved because God said so in His Word.

I put my trust in Jesus alone to save me as a 13 year old boy, and God wrought the supernatural miracle of the new birth. I was forever indwelt and sealed with God's blessed Holy Spirit since the moment I was saved. I have never wondered if I am really saved because of bad sinful decisions I have made in my life. I have never questioned God's salvation of my soul because of my poor behavior as a child of God. I have never doubted my salvation because of those reasons because I was not saved by being good or forsaking my sins. I didn't get saved by doing good works, so I cannot become lost by doing bad works. God saved me because of my childlike faith in His only begotten Son (John 3:16-17).

If you talk to a Calvinist you will hear them insist that salvation is without works. Yet at the same time they will say that you will do works if you are really saved. It get ugly theologically. Calvinists will all tell you that you cannot know for certain that you are saved if you continue living in sin and if your life does not change and continue to change until you get to Heaven. This is NOT the simplicity that is in Christ.

Case in point is Evangelist Ray Comfort, who heretically states:

> "Merely being sorry for your sins, or confessing them to God won't help you. You must turn from sin (repent)." —LIVING WATERS ministry, [2]SAVE YOURSELF SOME PAIN

That is a lie of the Devil. What saith the Scripture?

1st John 1:9, "

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness

. ” The Bible teaches that if a person will simply confess that they are a guilty sinner to God, the Lord will forgive us before even being asked to do so. That is a good God Who loves to pardon guilty sinners!!! Isaiah 65:24, “And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.” In a false religion, you have to beg, torment yourself with penance, wait and sacrifice, hoping to receive pardon from a false god. But in Biblical Christianity, God offers complete and immediate forgiveness on the sole basis of the sacrifice of His dear only begotten Son Jesus Christ on the cross of Calvary. No other religion offers such a good deal of a free, easy and simple pardon by faith alone!!!

Ray Comfort’s plan of salvation is extremely HARD because it requires a large amount of self-denial, self-abandonment and self-righteousness. You are required to stop all deliberate sinful activates if you want to be saved. That is a false Gospel. Romans 4:5-6 plainly teaches that salvation is solely by Christ’s righteousness and without our own works. On page 1513 of ’THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,’ under the section: “Questions & Objections,” Ray Comfort addresses the statement: “Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin.” Here’s Ray Comfort’s reply to this statement:

> “The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon ‘repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ’ (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross. See 1 John 3:4-6.” [Emphasis added] —’THE EVIDENCE BIBLE,’ by Ray Comfort, p. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Those are some very dangerous and heretical words at the end, “…assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross.” Dear reader, what Ray Comfort is preaching is NOT what Jesus taught Martha in John 11:25-26. The Savior simply asked Martha if she BELEVED on Him as the Resurrection and the Life. Do you believe friend that Jesus died on the cross for your sins? Do you believe that after being buried, that three days later Christ raised up by the power of God triumphant from the dead? And do you believe that Jesus has the power to give you the same eternal life through faith in Him? Do you BELIEVE these truths? I sure do, which is why I got saved as a 13 year old boy. The only way to get saved is through FAITH in the Lord Jesus Christ. Acts 16:30b-31, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.”

Carefully notice that nowhere in these passages of Scripture are we taught to repent (turn away from sinful behavior) to be saved. Ray Comfort ADDED that extra step to the Gospel. Ray Comfort is a theological liar! Romans 3:4, “God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. ” You must decide dear reader who to believe! Will you trust Ray Comfort and his lies that you cannot go to Heaven without forsaking your sinful bad habits? Or will you trust the Holy Bible and Jesus, who said to Martha in John 11:25-26 that He is the Resurrection and the Life?

Jesus’ plan of salvation is so wonderful and simple, you just BELIEVE on Him. Ray Comfort’s plan of salvation is complicated and burdensome, because you must forsake your pet sins and make a constant effort to turn away from sin for the rest of your life, or else worry that you may not make it to Heaven. How in the world is that not works what Ray is falsely preaching? [3]If you must maintain a repentance LIFESTYLE (which is the exact word that Ray uses), to maintain the confidence that you are saved, then how can you ever really enjoy the perfect peace of knowing that you are a child of God? Obviously you cannot!!! Folks, please listen to me, these ungodly infidels are not true preachers of righteousness, they are phonies masquerading as God's righteous ministers for the sake of filthy lucre. Ray Comfort makes about $4,000,000 each year from his Living Waters and Way Of The Master demonic ministries. I've never made a single penny. It is tragic that tens of millions of people are being woefully deceived by these wicked devils.

Jesus never once told anyone to turn away from sinful behavior to get to Heaven, He simply said to BELIEVE on Him. John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent. " Again we simply see that salvation is obtained by BELIEVING ON HIM!!! Nothing more is required than faith in the Good News of Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day (1st Corinthians 15:1-4; John chapters 19-20). You are a guilty sinner friend! Consequently, you deserve to burn in Hell forever (and so do I).

But God in His love has made a way of escape through faith in His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. Anyone who receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins, believing that Jesus is risen from the dead physically, is immediately, irrevocably and forever saved. Nothing more is necessary, required or allowed. Christ died, that's history; Christ died for me, that's salvation. When you come to God as a dirty guilty sinner and personally trust Jesus as YOUR Savior, you are now a born-again child of God. Salvation is all about you coming to God as you are, in your ungodly state; and BELIEVING the record God has given in His Word about His Son. Simply take God at His Word and be saved!!! The Bible says you are a guilty sinner for breaking God's commandments. If you agree with that and want to escape the fires of Hell and go to Heaven forever, then let God save you by putting your trust in His dear Son.

Friend, did you know that you don't even have to ask God to forgive your sins? That is correct! God is already offering you the free gift of eternal life. God is already asking you to please receive His only begotten Son as your Savior. John 3:16, " For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. " Jesus has already paid for everyone's sins with His precious blood. This is why God can freely offer eternal life to all humanity. All you need to do is receive that gift by faith, but you MUST want it. God won't force Himself on anybody. 2nd Timothy 2:13, " If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. "

All you need to do is accept the gift that God is freely offering you. Your sins and eternal life have already been completely paid for by Jesus. God is offering you forgiveness of sins and eternal life, just for the taking. It would be silly to ask God to forgive your sins, when He is already asking you to freely receive it. Just say "

to Jesus! The

Gospel

means Good News! It is the Good News that Jesus is the Christ Who died on the cross for our sins, He was buried, and three days later Jesus bodily resurrected from the dead. This is the Gospel according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Anyway who BELIEVES this Good News is saved!!!

That is what Jesus was asking Martha when He asked her if she believed He is the Resurrection and the Life. Fortunately Martha did believe! The $64,000 question is do you BELIEVE?

2.10.5 Calvinism Instills Fear In Its Cult Followers (2021-10-08 15:35)

Matthew 11:28-30, "

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Calvinism is a lie of Satan, not the Good News (Gospel) of Jesus Christ. In God's true plan of salvation in the Bible, you simply come to God as an admitted guilty sinner and receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, believing that Christ was buried and raised up from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Acts 16:30b-31, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

In sharp contrast, in the Devil's lie of Calvinism, you are taught that you cannot KNOW 100 % that you are saved at the time you accept Christ. Don't take my word for it, here are some heretical quotes from unsaved infidels preying from the pulpit today in churches.

Evangelist Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University) heretically said this:

> "You can't just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that's it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There's ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don't finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!" [emphasis added] —Dr. Steve Pettit ("[1]What Does It Mean To Run 'The Race'?" - [2]11:34)

Pastor Paul Washer heretically said this:

> "We talk about the Germans of the 20th centuries that brought on their higher criticism. It is not near as dangerous as conservative Baptists with their gospel reductionism. How dare we, all these stupid evangelists walking around telling men after they've made some little prayer that they need to write their name > in the back of their Bible, and put the date and if the Devil ever comes to them, they need to show him that. That is Roman superstition, it is not the gospel of Jesus Christ. You see we've turned the gospel into a flu-shot." — [3]Paul Washer Sermonette

On page 1513 of THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, under the section "Questions & Objections," Evangelist Ray Comfort addresses the statement: "Because Jesus died on the cross we are forgiven of every sin." Here's Ray Comfort's heretical reply to this statement:

> "The forgiveness that is in Jesus Christ is conditional upon 'repentance towards God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ' (Acts 20:21). It is a gift that God offers to everyone, but individuals must receive it by repenting and trusting in Christ, or they will remain dead in their sins. No one has Biblical grounds to continue in sin, assuming that they are safe just because Jesus died on the cross . See 1 John 3:4-6." [Emphasis added] —THE EVIDENCE BIBLE, by Ray Comfort, pg. 1513; 2003, Bridge-Logos Publishers, Orlando, Florida

Do you see how this ungodly false teachers are pervert the new birth, instead teaching that you cannot KNOW 100 % that you are eternally secure at the time you get saved. This is because they are deceived rotten Calvinists! In the Calvinist's errant mindset, you must prove the reality of the genuineness of your faith by living a changed life, by turning away from a lifestyle of sin and living a permanent lifestyle as such. If you think I am exaggerating, [4]please read this shocking heresy by Ray Comfort, in which he heretically requires people to LIVE A LIFESTYLE to get to Heaven!!!

Dear reader, you are 100 % safe and don't need to ASS-U-ME anything, because God has solemnly promised

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE.

1st Corinthians 1:21,

"For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." You have God's promise!!! Anyone who puts their trust in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior instantly becomes a born-again child of God. ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED! Ray Comfort doesn't believe that! Paul Washer doesn't believe that! Steve Pettit doesn't believe that!

I just shared their heretical quotes with you, which instills fear and worry into the hearts and minds of their deceived followers. You CAN absolutely know you are eternally saved the very moment that you put your faith in Jesus Christ!!!!!!! How else could we obey the Lord's command to **"

rejoice, because your names are written in heaven

" (Luke 10:20). If my name is written in Heaven, then I KNOW I am saved. So what is this garbage theology that Paul Washer is preaching which says I cannot write down my name, date and place where I got saved? You absolutely CAN write down the time, place and your name where and when you got saved!!! That is why the Bible calls getting saved a new birth (born again - 1st Peter 1:23). John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

The Christian life begins with a new birth, just as your earthly life began with a physical birth. Once you were born physically, it was a done deal. Likewise, once you are born again into God's family, it is a done deal. Calvinists will insist that you are not safe, and cannot be assured of Heaven unless you persevere to live a sanctified life. That is NOT the free grace of God. The Bible clearly teaches that eternal life is a free gift from God (Romans 5:15-18; 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). All you need to do to receive a gift is take it. That is all you need to do to receive God's free gift of eternal life, simply take it by putting your childlike faith (confidence) in Jesus Christ.

For Calvinists to ADD to the Gospel, by requiring people to live a better life, turn away from sinful behavior and prove that their faith in genuine by living a certain way is a counterfeit Gospel. Calvinists pervert the grace of God, instilling fear into people by making them worry constantly that living in sin will prove their faith is not real. How in the world is this not 100 % a works-based plan of salvation (or better said, plan of damnation)? In God's true plan of salvation, you CAN 100 % know that you are saved regardless of how you choose to live, because it was a gift. Would you give someone a birthday gift and then afterwards require them to live a certain way to keep it, or to prove that they were sincere when they accepted it? That would be absurd! Well it is no more absurd than what Calvinists are preaching!!!

I got gloriously saved at age 13. That was 41 years ago. It was an immediate permanent new birth. I instantly became God's adopted and redeemed child by faith in Christ, forever saved and sealed by the indwelling Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:12-14). Truly, I could go out and live like the Devil if I wanted to, and still be 100 % safe in my eternal life and redemption!!! The reason why is because my salvation is based in GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, and not my own. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: " I love that Bible verse!!!

This one Scripture passage in Philippians 3:9 blows Calvinism right out of the water. I am sick of lying Calvinists saying that we are not saved by works, but if you are saved you will have works. That is a backdoor approach to adding works to faith, because Calvinists teach that if you don't have works then your faith is not genuine. By attaching works to faith, they have absolutely corrupted the Word of God, perverted the Gospel and cast stumbling blocks before the people, confusing and instilling needless fear into their souls, damning them to the Lake of Fire. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again, which is EXACTLY what Calvinists are doing!!!

My justification (sins forgiven) has NOTHING to do with my sanctification (becoming more Christlike). Discipleship and sonship must be kept separate!

If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people. Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan said that and he is absolutely right! I love that quote.

The simplicity that is in Christ means that we are saved by simply trusting Christ. You don't have to live a changed life to prove that your faith is real. Calvinism perverts the Gospel, instilling fear in its followers, leading them to falsely labor to live a moral and committed life to Christ to validate their faith, which is 100 % a works-based Seventh-Day Adventist type of Lordship salvation. Dear reader, you CAN know 100 % right now that you are eternally saved by faith alone in Jesus Christ. The life that you choose to live is a separate matter of discipleship , not sonship. It is a matter of sanctification, not justification. It is a matter of proving how much you love Jesus, not how genuine your trust in Him is as your Savior.

How simple is the Gospel. In John 11:25-26 we once again see that salvation is obtained freely by simple childlike faith in the only begotten Son of God. BELIEVE oh guilty sinner and you are forever saved! Jesus didn't ask Martha if she was ready or willing to repent and turn away from her sins (which Bob Jones University errantly requires on their website). Jesus didn't ask Martha if she had surrendered "all" to Him as Lord (which Pastor John MacArthur errantly requires). Jesus didn't ask Martha to repent AND believe to be saved (as Ray Comfort errantly requires). Jesus didn't ask Martha to start, run and finish the race to win the award of salvation (as Steve Pettit errantly requires).

Jesus SIMPLY asked Martha if she BELIEVED that He is the Resurrection and the Life?

Jesus SIMPLY asked Martha if she believed that He gives eternal life? John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Simply BELIEVE oh guilty sinner to be immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved!!! Believe the Good News (Gospel) that Jesus died on the cross for your sins, He was buried, and three days later Jesus raised up from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Galatians 3:26, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus."

2.10.6 The Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds (2021-10-11 23:16)

Luke 8:11-15, "Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience."

This is what The Parable Of The Sower And The Seeds is about in Luke 8:11-15.

Verse 11 says that the seed is the Word of God. Here are the four groups of seeds and what they represent:

1. Verse 12 mentions the seeds which feel on stony ground. Birds (symbolic of the Devil) came down and ate the seeds, so that no one was saved.

2. The second group of seeds in verse 13 fell on shallow soul. They sprouted, meaning they got saved, but due to their shallow roots they fell away when the winds of persecution blew. This group did not lose their salvation as Evangelist Ray Comfort errantly teaches, they simply did not mature to bring forth any fruit (soulwinning).

3. The third group in verse 14 are the seeds which fell upon soil with thorny weeds. As they grew (showing they are saved), they were choked by the cares, riches and pleasures of this earthly life. I think this is where most believers fit in today. Likewise, they never mature to share the Gospel or bear fruit for Christ.

4. The final and fourth group of seeds in verse 15 are they that with an honest and a good heart the Bible says, bring forth fruit unto perfection. These are soulwinners who make their heavenly Father proud. This is the goal of The Great Commission in Matthew 28:19-20, to win people to Christ, get them water baptized as a public profession of their new found faith, and then teach them to go out and do the same, winning others to Christ with the Gospel.

This parable is about maturing to win souls as a Christian, not about salvation.

2.10.7 Lordship Salvation Has Infected Thousands Of Churches (2021-10-11 23:24)

Galatians 1:6-7, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

I attended a 3-day revival at a local Baptist church in Pensacola. A guest Bluegrass group was invited to perform called “Living Proof.” Their home church is in Jacksonville, Texas at the Immanuel Baptist Church. As far as I can tell so far, both of these churches are doctrinally sound, according to their websites.

But for some reason the dear lady playing the upright bass saddened me when she gave her horrible testimony. She told everyone that some of the song they were performing she had written herself, back at a time in her life when she was a phony. She said her life was empty and she was just going through the motions, but then she finally repented of her sins and surrender her life to Jesus as Lord, and now she was finally saved. My heart was saddened, after hearing them perform for the previous four church revival meetings. What had been such a great revival was soured by her heretical false gospel.

Friend, that lady is still NOT saved. She is obviously confused, but confused people are not saved if they don’t understand the Gospel. Jesus paid your dent of sin friend, because you owed a debt that you could not pay. Getting saved is about you accepting GOD’S RIGHTEOUSNESS through faith alone in Christ. Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: ” You don’t need to repent

“of your sins” not surrender to Jesus as “Lord” to be saved. These are additions that corrupt the free grace of God in salvation.

Kindly said, for this reason I cannot recommend that any church invite “Living Proof” to perform for them, lest they corrupt your church members with a false gospel message. They have been performing for 21 years now, since 2000. They are a phenomenal music group. I love the banjo, dobro, bass, piano, guitar and mandolin. They are awesome! I play several stringed instruments myself (pedal steel guitar, banjo, ukulele, guitar, lap steel, et cetera). I greatly enjoyed listening to “Living Proof” sing and perform during the revival. What a blessing! They have a beautiful family. But they preached a damnable false gospel at the revival I attended this past week. I was saddened to hear a few of the guests present at the revival shout “Amen!” and agree with her damnable heresy. Clearly, there were unsaved religious people present at the event. Only an unsaved infidel would agree with someone’s heretical teaching that you must repent of your selfish ways, turn from sinful bad habits, and surrender “all”

to Christ to get to Heaven!!!

It could be that the lady I mentioned was going through the motions of living the Christian life, but she had never been born-again. That is a common thing nowadays. She is clearly still not saved, which means she has never been saved, because she still has a wrong mindset on the Gospel. This is why the Apostle Paul warned in 1st Corinthians 15:1-2, “Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

” Paul is not saying that you can lose God’s salvation, he is teaching that the Gospel is a very certain mindset.

The Bible is very clear of what the Gospel is; namely, three things: Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and then three days later Jesus RESURRECTED by the power of God from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Turning away from sinful ways is NOT a part of the Gospel. Surrendering all to Jesus is NOT a part of the Gospel. Neither is the Gospel turning over a new leaf, inviting Jesus into one’s life, running the race faithfully, obeying God’s Commandments, living a lifestyle of repentance, doing works to prove the reality of the genuineness of one’s faith, forsaking the world, exchanging all that you are for all that Christ is, counting the cost and paying the price, confessing Christ publicly, getting water baptized nor anything else beyond the simple death, burial and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! Faith + Gospel = Eternal Life! It’s that simple dear friend.

The apostle plainly defines what is “the Gospel” so that there is no misunderstanding. I am sick and tired of hearing unsaved religious people in Baptist churches testify about how they repented “ of their sins,

” forsook their selfish ways and surrendered everything to Christ as Lord to be saved. No Sir! No Ma’am! That is not the Gospel of free grace as presented in the Word of God. I sometimes wonder if anybody in these corrupt churches today even study the Bible anymore. We need to stop blindly accepting what preachers tell us, and start searching the Scriptures on our own as the Bereans did in Acts 17:10-11. Don’t be a parrot, just repeating some junk theology that you heard some pervert preacher say from a pulpit. Verify everything!!!

I am not against surrendering to Jesus as one’s Lord, I am against adding it to faith to be saved, which is another gospel. To be accurate, you don’t make Jesus Lord of your life, He is Lord! We are exhorted in the Bible in Romans 12:1b to “present your bodies a living sacrifice unto God.” You see, we all need to make two big choices in life.

The first decision is whether or not to accept Jesus as our Savior, by simply believing the GOOD NEWS (Gospel) that Jesus is the Christ Who died on the cross for our sins, and He was buried, and then bodily resurrected from the dead three days later for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who believes this GOOD NEWS by childlike faith is instantly, irrevocably and eternally saved by God. Going to Heaven is that simple and nothing more is required. All that is complicated about getting saved is God's part. Our part is simply TO BELIEVE. John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life. "

And then the second decision, for those who have received Jesus as their personal Savior (John 1:12-13) is to decide whether to follow Jesus in obedience as His disciple. Nowhere in the Word of God are we taught to receive Jesus as our Lord. Jesus is our Lord (Master) the very moment we get saved. Now it is just a matter of whether we love Him enough to obey Him (John 14:15). This has nothing to do with justification. Growing in grace is a matter of sanctification. We are sanctified by the Word of God (John 17:17), as we grow in the milk of the Word (1st Peter 2:2).

When I got saved as a 13-year-old boy in Chicago in an old-fashioned Baptist church one Sunday morning, the first thing I remember was having a new found hinger to read and study God's Word. I was like a little baby, hungry for the milk of the Word. The issue of repenting or turning away from my sins had never come up when I got saved. I simply put my trust in the dear Savior, believing that He dies in my place on Calvary's cross. He was buried and three days later Jesus raised up from the dead. I called out in my heart to the risen Savior and asked Him to save me, and He did. I learned many years later that I didn't even need to "ask" Jesus to forgive my sins or save me, because God is already freely offering eternal life to WHOSOEVER will simply "believe" on His only begotten Son.

I did not write this blog to be unkind, but to address the growing problem of "Lordship" salvation in our churches. Dear friend, you cannot get to Heaven by living the Christian life. The religious lady who plays the upright bass in the "Living Proof" Gospel Bluegrass group is NOT saved. I say that humbly and with concern for her soul. Adding anything to faith negates faith! She told everyone at the revival that the reason she hadn't been saved (while going through all the motions of living the Christian life) is because she had never repented and surrendered all to Christ as Lord. No ma'am, that is wrong! You had never been born-again at all. Here is the Statement of Faith of the Immanuel Baptist Church in Jacksonville, Texas. Their Statement of Faith is okay, which makes me wonder why this dear lady is so theologically confused. Someone lied to her about how to be saved. ...

> The Way of Salvation
>
> We believe that the clear message of salvation is "repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ" ([1]Acts 20:21). We believe that salvation is "by grace" plus nothing minus nothing. We believe that men are justified by faith alone and are accounted righteous before God only through the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ ([2]Ephesians 2:8-10; [3]John 1:12; [4]I Peter 1:18-19).
> We believe that all the redeemed, once saved are kept by God's power and are thus secure in Christ forever. We believe that eternal life is the present possession of every believer ([5]John 6:37-40, [6]10:27-30; [7]Romans 8:1, [8]38-39; [9]I Corinthians 1:4-8; [10]I Peter 1:4-5; [11]Jude 1:1-2).

Dear reader, you cannot get born-again by repenting of your sins, because the Bible does not teach that. Nor can you get saved by surrendering all to Christ as Lord, because the Bible does not teach that either. Satan's greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born-again. That dear bass-playing woman is as lost as the Devil. The only way to be saved is to cease from all your own human efforts (works) and REST completely in Christ's finished redemptive work through Calvary's cross.

You are a guilty sinner. You deserve to burn in Hell forever as punishment for your sins. So says a holy God (Romans 5:9, 6:23; Revelation14:11, 20:11-15, 21:8). But God in His love sent His only begotten Son into the world to die on a cross to pay your debt of sin (and mine). Anyone who by faith receives Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is immediately, irrevocably and eternally saved. Nothing more is required or allowed. The life that we SHOULD live as believers is entirely a matter of discipleship, not sonship. Turning away from our sins is a matter of sanctification as a believer, and has nothing to do with justification.

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

2.10.8 Evangelist Ken Ham's False Gospel (2021-10-16 22:26)

Romans 4:4-6, "

Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works."

The Gospel is very delicate and easily corrupted. Wrong theology means going to Hell. Literally, your doctrine determines your destiny! The Word of God plainly defines "the Gospel" for us:

> 1st Corinthians 15:1-4, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached > unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures."

There you have it—Christ DIED on the cross for our sins, He was BURIED, and He bodily RESURRECTED from the dead three days later. This is "the Gospel," which means "Good News." Anyone who admits that they are a guilty sinner in God's sight, and believes the Gospel is saved. No one has ever been saved who didn't admit that he is a guilty sinner in God's sight. You need to know what you are being saved from. We all deserve to be punished in the fires of Hell forever because of our own sins.

Now read what Dr. Ken Ham errantly teaches:

> The Free Gift of Salvation: Belief in Christ
>
> Jesus, being the perfect sacrifice, offers the free gift of salvation. God loves you so much that He sacrificed His own unblemished Son to suffer the wrath against sin and die on the Cross. He commands you to repent (change your mind and turn from sinful ways) and trust in Him. [emphasis added] —SOURCE: [1]What Does It Mean To Be Saved?

That is NOT the Gospel of free grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ's death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. Dear reader, I triple-dog dare you to show me in the King James Bible where it says to "TURN FROM SINFUL WAYS" to be saved. You cannot! It may seem like a trifle matter, but it is not! Repeatedly in the Scriptures we are warned about trying to keep the law of God to get to Heaven. Romans 3:19b plainly explains that the purpose of God's law in the Old Testament is to show men their sinnership, so "that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God."

The Bible is very clear about this. Romans 3:20-22, "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ* unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:" What a beautiful passage of Scripture! The inspired Holy Bible teaches that BY THE LAW IS THE KNOWLEDGE OF SIN!!! So why do Calvinists and the proponents of "Lordship" salvation tell lost people that to get to Heaven they must TURN AWAY FROM SINFUL WAYS (as I just quoted to you from false teacher Ken Ham)? They are sinfully adding to God's simple plan of salvation. The Bible simply tells us to BELIEVE the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen the third day from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Ken Ham Preaches a False Gospel of Reformation For Salvation

It is frightening that Pastor Clarence Sexton of the Temple Baptist Church in Knoxville, and other Baptist preachers today support and promote Mr. Ham's counterfeit Gospel. I am also against [2]Ken Ham's Young Earth heresy! Our apostate churches have embraced Calvinists as if they are Christian brethren! Calvinism is NOT the Gospel!!! Turning away from sinful ways is NOT the Gospel. I am saddened that Campus Church at Pensacola Christian College (PCC) bids Godspeed to Ken Ham's false gospel. Senior pastor Jeff Redlin is a bad pastor, bidding Godspeed to Ken Ham's counterfeit plan of salvation and Young Earth Creation (YEC) heresy. These are lazy pastors who show the heretical videos of Ken Ham, rather than study and rightly divide the Word of God for themselves. I wouldn't give you a dime for phonies like Jeff Redlin, who should be fired from Campus Church and a real man of God sought.

Pastor Harry Ironside (1876-1951) beautifully states:

> "Which comes first, repentance or faith? In Scripture we read, 'Repent ye, and believe the gospel.' Yet we find true believers exhorted to 'repent, and do the first works.' So intimately are the two related that you cannot have one without the other. The man who believes God repents; the repentant soul puts his trust in the Lord when the Gospel is revealed to him. Theologians may wrangle over this, but the fact is, no man repents until the Holy Spirit produces repentance in his soul through the truth. No man believes the Gospel and rests in it for his own salvation until he has judged himself as a needy sinner before God. And this is repentance." ([3]Except Ye Repent, p. 16) [emphasis added]

Pastor Ironside is absolutely correct, repentance is judging one's self as a needy sinner before a holy God. Romans 3:19, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." Clearly, repentance does NOT mean to turn away from sinful ways, which is what Evangelist Ken Ham errantly teaches.

Read again the heresy from Ken Ham's goofy website, Answers In Genesis:

> The Free Gift of Salvation: Belief in Christ
>
> Jesus, being the perfect sacrifice, offers the free gift of salvation. God loves you so much that He sacrificed His own unblemished Son to suffer the wrath against sin and die on the Cross. He commands you to repent (change your mind and turn from sinful ways) and trust in Him. [emphasis added] —SOURCE: [4]What Does It Mean To Be Saved?

It may seem like a small matter that's not worth debating, but it definitely is a big issue. Just adding that one little extra Biblical requirement to "turn from sinful ways" to be saved, totally perverts and negates the saving power of the Gospel. Requiring someone to forsake sinful bad habits to get to Heaven is an entirely different mindset than trusting Christ alone.

Either a person must "turn from sinful ways" to receive God's gift of forgiveness of sins and eternal life, or they do not. It cannot be both! Either a man must purpose in his heart to forsake a deathstyle of fornicating, boozing and thieving to be saved, or he can simply believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and be saved without giving up anything. The difference between these two plans of salvation is drastic. One requires nothing on the part of the sinner, except faith in the Gospel. The other places a heavy burden upon the sinner's shoulders—requiring that he make substantial life's changes, forsaking the sinful world, ceasing from sinful bad habits, surrendering all to Christ as as absolute " Lord.

None of these constitute the Gospel.

Carefully examine our text passage of Scripture again. Notice that salvation is “without works,” and that a man is saved solely by [5]God’s imputed righteousness through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ (i.e., “Him that justifieth the ungodly”):

> Romans 4:5-6, “But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works.” [emphasis added]

So few people have a clear understanding of how salvation works. Let me make it very simple. YOU ARE A SINNER and unless you accept Christ’s payment on the cross for your sins, you will spend eternity burning in the fires of Hell. You cannot add or subtract anything to Christ’s payment. Jesus paid the price of our sins in full with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Religion is man trying to reach God through human effort, but Christianity is God trying to reach man by the sacrifice of His Son on the cross. Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ’s best put to your account through receiving Him by faith. Unless you trust CHRIST ALONE for your salvation, you CANNOT be saved.

Ken Ham is Wrong On the Meaning of Repentance

There is woeful confusion and misunderstanding today in the churches over the meaning of repentance. Biblically, the Greek word for “repent” is the noun [6]metanoia (a change of mind), or the verb form, metanoeo (to think differently). Ken Ham errantly alters this meaning to, “change your mind and turn from sinful ways.” As you can clearly see, Mr. Ham has perverted the meaning of repentance. This perversion has crept into most of the churches today, changing how a person gets saved. So instead of an admitted sinner simply trusting upon the Savior, through childlike faith in the Gospel; now people are told to invite Christ into their life, and to receive Jesus as their “Lord and Savior,” and to turn away from sinful ways as a requirement to be saved. The former is the new birth, the latter is dead religion. Satan’s greatest weapon is to con people into living the Christian life without ever being born again.

Ken Ham is a false prophet, teaching Lordship Salvation. I highly recommend that you listen to the following excellent, doctrinally sound, awesome, MP3 sermons to help clarify the Gospel in your mind:

Now read again what Dr. Ken Ham heretically teaches:

> The Free Gift of Salvation: Belief in Christ
>
> Jesus, being the perfect sacrifice, offers the free gift of salvation. God loves you so much that He sacrificed His own unblemished Son to suffer the wrath against sin and die on the Cross. He commands you to repent (change your mind and turn from sinful ways) and trust in Him. [emphasis added] —SOURCE: [19]What Does It Mean To Be Saved?

That is NOT the Gospel of free grace through faith alone in Jesus Christ’s death on the cross, burial and bodily resurrection. It may seem like a trifle matter to you, but dear reader, adding to the Gospel cancels God’s grace! Ken Ham might as well have added water baptism (aka, the heresy of ’Baptismal Regeneration’). Mr. Ham might as well have added keeping the Seven Sacraments (as does the Roman Catholic church). Ken Ham might as well have added standing on your head and yodeling for 30 minutes to be saved. Dear friend, all that God requires is that you put your trust in Jesus Christ as your Savior.

2.10.9 Beware Of Renee Roland's YouTube Channel (2021-10-18 05:13)

Matthew 10:28, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matthew 25:46, "

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

Revelation 20:14-15, "

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Lovingly said, Renee Roland is a loudmouthed fool on YouTube! The Bible teaches in 2nd Timothy 2:15, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

" Renee is woefully ignorant of the Scriptures.

Ironically, [1]Renee says to let the Bible interpret itself in her video , yet she boldly denies eternal damnation for the wicked. She claims to have found 50 Scriptures that led her to conclude that eternal damnation doesn't exist. Renee is a fool.

Miss Roland errantly claims that only Christians have immortality, and the unsaved only have what she terms " conditional immortality.

That is NOT what the Bible teaches. Our text verse from Matthew 10:28 warns not to fear man, who can destroy the body; but fear God Who can destroy both body and soul in Hell. Obviously then, there is eternal punishment. The Bible plainly teaches the reality of EVERLASTING FIRE and EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT:

> Matthew 18:8, "
>
> Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.
>
> **"
>
> Matthew 25:41, "
>
> Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:
>
> **"
>
> Matthew 25:46, " And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.
>
> **"
>
> Jude 1:7,
>
> " Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire."
>
> 2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9, "In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;"

Renee foolishly bases her denial of eternal punishment upon her own flawed human rational. She fails to grasp the holiness of God. She cannot wrap her mind around the idea that God would punish someone forever and ever without hope, but that is only because she fails to understand the holiness of God. We all deserve to be punished in Hell forever!!!

Renee Roland Is A Rebellious Woman Preacher!

Proverbs 9:13, "A foolish woman is clamourous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing." The Bible forbids women to preach with authority. 1st Corinthians 14:34, "Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law." Proverbs 9:13, " A foolish woman is clamourous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing." Renee is utterly confused on Bible theology. I am writing this article, one of many, to warn people about Miss Roland, because she has several thousand followers on YouTube. She ought not be preaching with authority. If it is wrong in the church for a woman to speak about doctrine, then it is wrong on YouTube!!! Miss Roland should leave the Bible preaching to the men. Pastor Max Younce has authored this helpful book on the matter titled: '[2]A BIBLICAL EXAMINATION OF HELL.' (read [3]free .pdf version online). You need to hear Dr. Younce, not Renee Roland!!!

You know, it really bothers me that a true man of God like [4]Pastor Max D. Younce only has a couple hundred followers, who has been faithfully pastoring churches and authoring Bible study books for over 50 years. What has Renee accomplished? She has never built a hotdog stand?

I just checked their YouTube channel statistics...

Renee Roland's YouTube views:

- Joined Aug 2, 2013
- 4,397,901 views

Pastor Max Younce's YouTube views:

- Joined Feb 2, 2012
- 214,085 views

That is sickening!!! Over the past several years Renee has received 20 TIMES more YouTube visitors that Pastor Younce. How many books has Renee authored? Dr. Younce has dozens. How many churches did Renee pastor? Dr. Younce has pastored three churches! What Bible college did Renee attend? Dr. Younce graduated from Florida Bible College. Yet, millions of fools choose to listen to a loudmouth like Renee Roland while ignoring a faithful preacher like Dr. Max Younce. These are apostate times friend!!!

These idiots who surf the internet all flock to a blabbermouth like Renee Roland, while hardly anyone wants to hear a true man of God like Pastor Max Younce. The Word of God told us this would happen in 2nd Timothy 4:2-4, "Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables." Literally, the Bible teaches that fools will seek out fools to teach them the Bible!!! People after their own lusts (desires) seek out fools who tell them what they want to hear, who teach fables (like Renee Roland denying that Hell lasts forever).

Renee foolishly claims in her video that by denying eternal damnation for the wicked, she has been able to lead atheists to Christ which otherwise wouldn't have come to Jesus. Something is VERY wrong with that folks. If a lost sinner refuses to come to Christ to be saved unless you deny the reality of eternal punishment, then that person DIDN'T get saved!!! Eternal conscious torment. Renee asks people who disagree with her not to call her names. She is a FALSE TEACHER!!! Renee is a fool. Miss Roland is a Bible ignoramus!!! Those are not just names, those are descriptive terms to mark her and I hope you will avoid her (Romans 16:17-18).

Renee repeatedly asserts that she doesn't know the subject, but then assertively preaches with authority that there is no eternal damnation of the wicked. She is confused at best and a liar at worst! She is both unfortunately!!! [5]Renee made a video a few years ago complaining that she doesn't see Jesus in Christians. Perhaps it is because she is NOT a Christian herself!!! John 16:13 says that the indwelling Holy Spirit teaches and guides us into all truth. If Renee were truly a child of God, then she would see that eternal damnation is real. I sincerely doubt her salvation, because something is very wrong with her theology. All manner of false teachers have crept unawares into the churches. Hell is forever!!!

Revelation 14:11, " And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. " Here we plainly see that the wicked are tormented forever. In her wicked video, Renee foolishly claims that " day or night

" in Revelation 14:11 doesn't exist in eternity, so she says this Scripture passage only refers to this earthly life. She is denying the literacy of the Scriptures!!! She claims that the writer of Revelation (John) is merely using artistic terminology. Dear reader, Renee is not saved. What saith the Scripture?

Revelation 22:19, " And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book." Renee is taking away the doctrine of eternal punishment from the Word of God.

It frustrates me that 20 TIMES more people are listening to Renee Roland on YouTube than they are [6]Pastor Max Younce. Like Dr. John MacArthur, Renee says a lot of accurate and helpful things, as all false prophets do, but she is pulling on the same rope as the Devil when she denies the Biblical truth of everlasting punishment for the damned. Jesus warned in

Matthew 25:46, "

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

" Renee is spiritually blind. Maybe she needs glasses. I see the words

"EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT" in Matthew 25:46. Her boisterous rant is based upon mere human conjecture that since human courts only impose finite sentences, then God must not be any more just than man. But dear friend, if God gives ETERNAL LIFE to the righteous, then it would only seem logical (if you want to use human reasoning) that ETERNAL PUNISHMENT in Hell would be the opposite. But moreover, Jesus said that the wicked would go into EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT!!! Those very words came out of the dear Savior's own mouth in Matthew 25:46.

I cannot warn everyone enough to avoid Renee Roland's Bible teaching on YouTube. I do not hate Renee. I do not think she is saved, despite being correct on the details of the Gospel. Something is wrong with a professed Christian who denies the fundamental Bible doctrine of eternal punishment for the damned. It ceases to amaze me how any fool can start a YouTube channel and tens of thousands of fools will follow that ignorant person into all manner of false doctrine, theological perversion and foolish thinking. Sadly, Renee's unbiblical videos have received many tens of thousands of positive comments. Oh foolish generation, who hath bewitched you that you should not believe THE TRUTH?

2.10.10 Beware Of Joyce Meyer’s Counterfeit Gospel (2021-10-19 11:09)

Job 13:7, “Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?” 1st Timothy 2:11-12, “Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.” 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, “ For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.” Revelation 2:20, “

Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

Joyce Meyer is a false prophetess!!! She has no business preaching the Word of God. For a very good reason God didn’t want women usurping authority over men, because just as Eve was deceived and not Adam, women are more prone to doctrinal deception than men. Evidence of what I say is Joyce Meyer’s counterfeit plan of salvation, which states:

> READY FOR YOUR NEW BEGINNING?
>
> God says* in Romans 10:9 that if we make Jesus Lord (the leader) of our lives, and believe that He was raised from the dead, we will be saved. *If you’re ready to start a new life with Jesus leading you and experience His true peace and joy in your life, pray this simple prayer out loud:
>
> "Jesus, I know that I have made mistakes and I need You to save my life—I need You as my Savior. I have tried to do things on my own for too long, and I know it doesn’t work. So today, I give my life to You. I believe that You died on the cross for my sins and that You rose from the dead. Help me to live my life for You and You alone*. Thank You for Your unending love, forgiveness and grace in my life. Thank You for a fresh start! Today, I start out my new life as a part of Your family." [emphasis added]
>
> SOURCE: ’[1]How To Know Jesus,’ Joyce Meyer Ministries

Here are all the things WRONG with Joyce Meyer’s corrupt plan of salvation:

1. Carefully notice how Joyce avoids using the word “

   sin, ” instead saying that we have “made mistakes.” No, you are a dirty, rotten, guilty, SINNER, and so am I!!!

2. You don’t have to make Jesus the “Lord” (leader) of your life to be saved. Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995) wisely said: “A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one.” Joyce takes one obscure passage of Scripture from Romans 10:9 about Jesus being “Lord” and ignores the entire Word of God concerning how to get saved. She ignores the plain Gospel of John. In the Gospel of John we are simply told to BELIEVE to be saved. Not one mention is made about making Jesus our Lord (leader) to be saved. This is the heresy of “Lordship” salvation which Meyer is preaching, and it will send you to the Lake of Fire!!!

3. Joyce lied when she said: “God says” in Romans 10:9, but she speaks in error, not knowing the Scriptures. Woe unto the man or woman who speaks deceitfully for God. Job 13:7, “Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?”

4. Joyce errantly says: “If you’re ready to start a new life with Jesus leading you,” Dear friend, you don’t have to be willingly to “start a new life with Jesus leading you” to receive God’s free gift of eternal life and forgiveness of sins. It is a gift, because Jesus has already paid for it with His blood. Jesus has already paid for everyone’s sins through

Calvary's cross with His precious shed blood. Therefore, God is offering you eternal life as a free gift, and all you have to do to receive it is BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). Joyce Meyer is horribly complicating the Gospel. She is preaching another gospel, for which God's curse is upon her (Galatians 1:6-8).

5. You don't need to give your life to Jesus to get to Heaven! Joyce Meyer is utterly confused on God's simple plan of salvation. Today's popular preachers are so afraid of being called out by the religious crowd if they don't add something about living a better life to the Gospel. They dare not preach THE TRUTH that you can get saved and still live like the Devil. That is why God calls his offer a "GIFT" (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9). Romans 5:15-18 even calls eternal life a "FREE GIFT."

6. Joyce is WRONG to require people to "live my life for you." Nowhere in the Word of God are we taught to live for Christ to be saved. In fact, that was the fatal blunder of the fools in Matthew 7:21-23. They boasted of following Jesus as their "Lord." They boasted of their "many wonderful works" all done in Jesus' name. They boasted of casting out devils. They boasted of preaching in Jesus' name, just like Joyce Meyer. But they had never ceased from all their own human labors, and simply REST in the slain Lamb of God for our sins. Believing that Christ died on the cross for your sins, was buried and bodily resurrected three days later CANNOT produce the new birth in you if you ADD anything to it!!! You must CEASE from all your works!!! That means you may not ADD making Jesus Lord of your life to be saved. You may not ADD giving your life over to Jesus to live for Him. You may not ADD repenting "OF YOUR SINS" to the Gospel. These are all things that God doesn't require to receive His free gift.

These things may appear trifle or small to you, but if so it is only because you fail to grasp God's plan of salvation.

Joyce Meyer also endorses the Devil's corrupt modern Bible revisions. Friend, if you don't have a King James Bible, you don't have an inspired Holy Bible in the English language. ALL of the modern English Bible revisions are corrupted by Satan!!!

We are living in apostate times of sycophantic worship in the churches.

Hillsong is of the Devil, nothing more than bringing The World into the Church, which is not a real New Testament church of God. The Bible foretold that the time would come when people would no longer endure SOUND DOCTRINE, but would seek out false teachers to tell them what they want to hear...

> 2nd Timothy 4:3-4, "*For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine ; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

If you listen objectively to Joel Osteen, Joyce Meyer and the whole rotten lot of them, you'll see that they don't PREACH THE WORD at all. Instead they tickle people's ears, saying a bunch of garbage that people want to hear. That is why they keep coming back, to feel better about themselves. Joel Osteen even admits that he avoids everything of a negative nature (i.e., sin, judgment, Hell). Joel Osteen is a very deadly FALSE PROPHET!!! Their damnation slumbereth not the Bible says in 2nd Peter 2:1-3.

2nd Peter 2:1-3, "But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not."

Hillsong is all about telling everyone, including unrepentant sodomites, that everything is all about love and getting along. Right doctrine doesn't matter. There is no call for homosexuals to repent of their wickedness. Hillsong is just a giant rock concert in Jesus' name. They don't get people saved, they merely give rebellious unsaved people a place to attend church and be accepted as they are in their unregenerate state. Hillsong is known for feminist women preachers who wear pants, talk like men and have no shame for disobeying the Holy Bible.

Dear reader, don't be a fool. I challenge you to seek out independent fundamentalist Baptist preachers (e.g., Curtis Hutson, John R. Rice, Harry Ironside, Jack Hyles, Max Younce, Danny Castle, et cetera) who preach and practice Bible separation from the world, from false teachers and from the Devil's crowd. The one big thing woefully lacking in our Christians and churches today is separation. There is something very wrong when 50,000 people show up to hear a fool like Joyce Meyer, [2]while 75 people want to hear a godly faithful man of God like Pastor Max D. Younce. The lost world and immature believers today will not endure (tolerate) sound Bible doctrine. They want to hear fools instead like Joel Osteen. They want to hear preachers who are powerless with God. They want to hear "feel good" preachers, not "THUS SAITH THE LORD!!!" preachers. Joyce Meyer and Joel Osteen are pulling on the same rope as the Devil. They HATE you! If they loved you they would tell you THE TRUTH.

48. Are baptized into the Body of Christ by the Holy Spirit – 1 Corinthians 12:13
49. Are sealed with the Holy Spirit – Ephesians 1:13
50. Are complete in Christ – Colossians 2:9,10
51. Are called out of darkness into Christ's Marvelous Light – 1 Peter 2:9
52. Will no longer have pain or sorrow – Revelation 21:4
53. Are promised by God that former things will pass away and all things be made new – Revelation 21:5
54. Will reign with Christ – Revelation 20:6

55. Will be glorified with Christ – Romans 8:17, 30
56. Will be given a new name by God – Revelation 3:12
57. Will never lose our joy again when Jesus returns – John 16:22

I have just given you 57 things that God promises when you get saved. What a great deal! Best of all, God offers eternal life to everyone for free!!!

If you have never trusted Christ alone as YOUR Savior and are not sure of your eternity, simply receive the truth which God has recorded in His Holy Word. The Gospel is not Good News to be carried out as a lifetime commitment to live the Christian life, God forbid. That would be works! That is [1]the Satanic garbage that Bob Jones University preaches nowadays!!! The Gospel is simply the

"Good News" that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God Who DIED on the cross for our sins. He was BURIED. And then three days later Jesus miraculously RESURRECTED from the dead by the power of God (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). These three things comprise THE GOSPEL—Christ died on a cross, was buried and raised up the third day. Here is a wonderful, short and concise presentation of the Gospel...

2.10.12 Works Do Not Prove The Reality Of The Genuineness Of Your Faith (2021-10-20 08:58)

Galatians 3:1-3, "

1664

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?"

The world is full of false religiousites who do many wonderful works (Matthew 7:21-23). You cannot impress God with your works, not before or after you are saved. If you are trying to prove to God that your faith is genuine by the works that you do, then you truly HAVE NO FAITH!!! The evidence that you are saved is the gift of the blessed indwelling Holy Spirit (1st John 3:24). You cannot prove that your faith is real by doing works!!! IT IS IMPOSSIBLE!!! Faith is faith and works is works.

That is why the Apostle Paul said in Galatians 3:2-3, "This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? *Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?" You don't get saved by faith and then prove your faith by works!!! That is exactly the type of thinking which the Apostle is refuting in the Epistle of Galatians!!!

The Galatian churches had bought into the Devil's mindset that you get saved by faith, but then keep the law to prove that your faith is real. That is the same counterfeit false gospel being preached by Bob Jones University and their corrupt graduates today!!! Paul scolded the Galatian churches for having this perverse mindset, because it is another gospel which cannot produce the new birth in Jesus Christ!

Galatians 3:2-3, "

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

*Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?" The corrupt Bob Jones University (BJU) camp today deceitfully claim to believe in a salvation by grace alone through faith alone, but then they errantly teach that if you don't do WORKS to prove that you faith is real, you're not saved. That is another gospel.

Mark 12:24, " And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?" Steve Pettit, Marty Herron, Gary Walton, John McArthur and other Bob Jones infidels DO ERROR, BECAUSE THEY KNOW NOT THE SCRIPTURES, NEITHER THE POWER OF GOD!!! Romans 1:16 says that the POWER OF GOD unto salvation is the Gospel, to them who wholly trust in Jesus' name.

The Apostle rebuked the corrupt churches of Galatia for changing the terms of their salvation from that of grace to works. They started out believing the Gospel, but then were deceived by a local religious cult who convinced them to keep the law to prove that their faith is real. This proved that they were never saved at all, because ONCE SAVED, ALWAYS SAVED!!! No one has ever lost God's salvation. You either had it and always will, or else you don't today and never did. Steve Pettit was never saved to begin with. Dr. Pettit is the theologically incompetent president of Bob Jones University today (since 2014). [1]Please read here what Steve Pettit horribly preaches at BJU chapel. Our Baptist churches are in pathetic shape today. Evidence of what I say is that they bid Godspeed to the shameful Bob Jones crowd.

Now, in the Epistle of James the Apostle teaches that our faith is justified IN THE SIGHT OF MEN ONLY, but never God. The Bob Jones camp attach works to faith, which is another gospel.

> James 2:17-24, "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only."

A very important rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to NEVER use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one. This is where many Bible students go astray while attempting to interpret the Word of God. A perfect example of this Bible study principle is this obscure passage in James 2:17-24. We know it is obscure because there is so MUCH theological debate over what it means. But we have rock solid passages of Scripture in the Gospel of John and Romans 4:1-6 which plainly declare that [2]God's imputed righteousness is " WITHOUT WORKS " (Romans 4:5b). That doesn't only exclude works at the time of salvation, but works at any time in a saint's life.

Carefully notice that James says "SHEW ME" and "I WILL SHEW THEE." James 2:18 that the Apostle says, "Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works." This has nothing to do with being justified in the sight of almighty God. Proof of what I say is the book of Romans, in which the Apostle Paul makes it very clear that men are justified in the sight of God WITHOUT WORKS:

> Romans 4:3-7, "For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
>
> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

It is a folly to teach that we are saved by faith alone, but then works are required to prove that our faith is real faith. What such incompetent preachers are effectively doing is redefining faith to mean works. Think about that! If I must do works to prove that I have faith, how is that not righteousness by keeping the deeds of the law? It is one and the same!

I know what I am talking about dear friend. I know because I have been saved now for 41 years (since age 13 in 1980) and I've been around the block a few times! I know because I have spent my life studying false religion and the truth of God's inspired Word. The Devil's lies of Calvinism (i.e., the teachings of an infidel named John Calvin, 1509-1564) have crept unawares into our churches today. “Lordship” salvation is nothing more than Calvinism repackaged! [3]Miss Ellen G. White (legendary prophetess of Seventh-Day Adventism) preaches the SAME false understanding of [4]faith to mean works as does Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University). [5]I just wrote an article exposing Chuck Phelps (senior pastor of the Colonial Hills Baptist Church in Indianapolis, Indiana). These ungodly false prophets have corrupted the Word of God, perverting God’s grace by redefining faith to mean works, and in so doing have cast stumbling blocks before the people!!!

Works Do Not Prove The Reality Of The Genuineness Of Our Faith

Galatians 3:1-3, “

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

*Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” Paul wanted to know how they got saved. That is, how did they become indwelt by the Holy Spirit of God? Was it by keeping the works of the law (i.e., turning away from your sinful ways)? Or did you get saved simply by BELIEVING the Gospel when you heard it preached? The latter is God’s plan of salvation. The former is damnation!!!

2.10.13 Don’t Be Too Hard On Yourself Or God (2021-10-21 00:30)

Acts 16:16-31, “And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying: The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely: Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house."

I woke up today and started to become a bit frustrated. I got frustrating because since 2015 Google has been censoring my website articles, [1]reducing my web traffic by 85 %. I began to complain to God, asking Him if I am wasting my time. I became frustrated realizing that all my labors are being cast aside and countered by Google, rendered ineffective for no other reason than they don't like what I am preaching! But then the indwelling Holy Spirit reminded me of a Scripture passage we learned about in church last Sunday. By the way, everyone needs to attend a local Bible-believing church. Amen!

I thought about our text passage from Acts 16:16-31. The disciples were doing something good—they were soulwinning, preaching the Gospel to the lost. When a woman who had been exploited by wicked men because of her soothsaying abilities got saved, she was no longer of use to them. Consequently, those wicked men were able to convince the local ungodly authorities to have the disciples arrested, beaten stripped of their clothes and thrown into prison! Think about that. The local authorities didn't care about the afflicted woman who had been exploited by wicked men. No, they only cared about the pimps who used her! Unbelievable!!! We see that type of wickedness much today in America. It doesn't matter that preachers are getting people saved and lives are being changed for good, big tech social media companies are censoring God-fearing preachers who tell THE TRUTH.

As I pondered this matter of Google censoring my ministry by 85 %, the Lord comforted my heart. His blessed Holy Spirit told me not to be so hard on myself or Him. I'm not the first preacher who has been censored...lol. Pilgrim's Progress John Bunyan (1628-1688) was locked up in prison for 12 years for preaching the Gospel. Contrary to the demonic health, wealth and prosperity preaching of Benny Hinn, Joyce Meyer, Joseph Prince, Joel Osteen and Pat Robertson, the Bible says in Hebrews 11:37b that some Christians were **"

SAWN ASUNDER

" for their faith!!! 2nd Timothy 3:12 guarantees that if you live godly in Christ Jesus, YOU WILL SUFFER PERSECUTION!!!

As I pondered these easily forgotten truths in the Bible, I thanked God for using a broken humble sinner like me to help reach others as an ambassador of God (2nd Corinthians 5:18-21). Acts 17:32, " And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter." I love that Bible verse! As the Apostle Paul preached the truth unto the men at Athens, Greece, some mocked him while others listened attentively with curiosity. They even asked Paul to explain it to them again!!!

The Lord encouraged my soul today concerning being censored by Google. The disciples were also censored. They were physically assaulted, beaten and thrown into prison.

I heard a beautiful and very needful sermon last night by Pastor Steven Anderson called: " [2]ONLY ONE VIEWPOINT IS ALLOWED ." Please listen to this message! The video is now safely on the [3]BannedPreaching website, because YouTube banned it! It is a crying shame that a website would even have to exist called, "BannedPreaching." I love Pastor Steven Anderson as my dear brother in Christ and that he is a faithful truth-teller!

In the preceding needful sermon Brother Anderson wisely explains that the Devil doesn't want people to get saved. The Bible teaches this in 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4. Satan blinds men's minds, lest they see the truth of the Gospel and be converted into the Kingdom of God. It is for this reason that Satan doesn't want people to hear the message of preachers like myself and Pastor Anderson. We are VOICES for God.

John 12:17, "

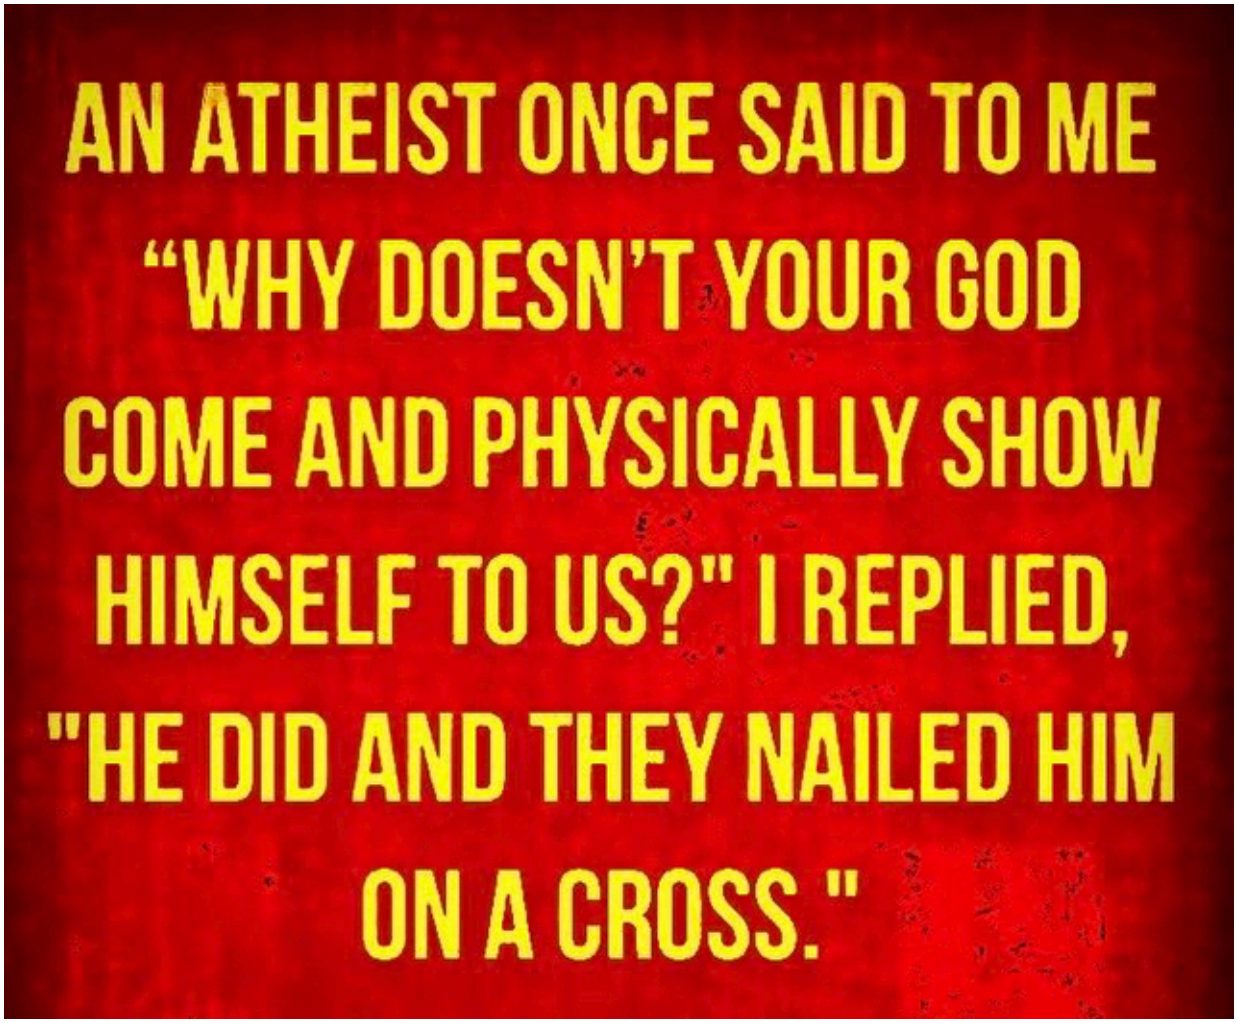
The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. " Amen! I love that.

The Pharisees were plotting to silence the blessed Savior, but the more they tried the more popular Jesus became! Therefore, I know that if God be for me, no man can stop my preaching!!! [4]Google can continue to censor my ministry, but God is still on His throne . Wicked men censored, banned and persecuted the disciples of Jesus. In John 15:19 Jesus exhorts every believer to keep in mind that if the world hated Him, so also will they hate us as His disciples!!! John 7:7 says the world cannot hate us as believer; but rather, they hate Jesus because through the Word of God He testified against the wickedness of the world, and they despise that (John 3:20).

So please don't be too hard on yourself or God dear saint of God, when persecution comes, because the world persecuted our dear Savior. The world nailed Him to a cross. I read a great quote today on social media...



"A free society is one where it is safe to be unpopular." —Adlai Ewing Stevenson, 23rd U.S. Vice President Jesus spoke THE TRUTH, for which the world nailed God to a cross! 2nd Corinthians 5:19, "To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation." God was in Christ, as we just read (1st Timothy 3:16; Colossians 2:9 - All Scriptures references are only to the inspired King James Bible). The Godhead indwelt the fleshly body of the man Jesus (John 1:1-3, 14). What a great God and Savior!!!

I also saw something beautiful on the BannedPreaching website, which is that you can [6]DOWNLOAD THEIR ENTIRE WEBSITE'S CONTENT with just one click (you will need 770 GB of free hardrive disk space. That's almost a terabyte!!! [7]You can buy a 5 TB USB hardrive on Amazon fairly inexpensive . I have that exact hardrive which I use on my laptop.

Dear reader, we are on the winning side in Jesus Christ (Romans 8:37). Bible prophecy is history written in advance. We are blessed to read in the Bible about events that haven't even happened yet, in past tense. How awesome is that!!! Despite our problems, pain, burdens and heartaches in this temporary world, we already KNOW that Christ has won the war and we are on His side by the blood of the Lamb. Revelation 12:11, "

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

” Everything that Christ has accomplished is only by His precious blood which was shed on Calvary’s cross and sprinkled upon the heavenly Mercy Seat (Hebrews 9:12, 22-24; 12:24). THANK YOU JESUS!!!

So don’t be too hard on yourself oh saint of God! The world WILL despise and hate you. Jesus said they WILL deliver us up to the courts to be prosecuted as saints. In fact, Jesus foretells of the time when Christian will be martyred for their faith. Matthew 24:9, “

Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake. ” How are we supposed to respond to that? John 16:33, “These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

” Keep your head high oh Christian, and let God’s love shine on your face for Him!!!

Now, I’m not talking about the fake apostate Hillsong church today with their sycophantic worship! Those yardbirds are a disgrace if ever there was one. Their gospel message is intentionally vague, welcoming and affirming sodomites in their unrepentant state, calling them righteous children of God. Hillsong’s greedy leaders deliberately blur the lines between truth and lies, between righteousness and unrighteousness, between saved and unsaved. As the churches become more worldly, so is the world becoming more churchy! Proverbs 24:24-25, “[8]He that saith unto the wicked, [9]Thou are righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.”

I’m talking about genuine Bible Christendom. Jesus warned in John 3:3, “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

” Have you been BORN-AGAIN dear reader? That is the $64,000 question. You were born the first time from your mother’s womb. That is the birth by water (flesh) which Jesus speaks of in John 3:6, “

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. ” Some corrupt preachers errantly teach that the “water” in John 3:5 refers to water baptism. Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. Here we see that “water” and “flesh” are synonymous. You and I spent 9 months forming in our mother’s water bag (i.e., born of water) in her womb. This is the first (physical) birth).

Now there is a second birth by the Spirit (i.e., God’s Holy Spirit). God desires to save all humanity (2nd Peter 3:9). I don’t care how vile, wicked and contemptible you may be or think of yourself, God loves you oh sinner and He wants to save you, so says the Scripture:

> Romans 5:6-9, “ For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
>
> For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
>
> But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
>
> Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. ”

Christ died for THE UNGODLY (you, me and all mankind). We are all wicked sinners (Romans 3:10-23). There is NONE righteous, no not one. Ecclesiastes 7:20, "

For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

" There is a penalty for our sins, which is DEATH (Romans 6:23). The Bible speaks of a " second death

" (Revelation 21:8b), which is eternal separation of our body, soul and spirit from God in a Lake of Fire and Brimstone, being tormented by God in fire forever and ever without rest (2nd Thessalonians 1:8-9; Revelation 20:11-15). That is the BAD NEWS!

The GOOD NEWS is that God loves you friend. In fact, God loves you so much that He was willing to die for you! God came down to earth, born of a virgin as a man. Jesus lived a sinless life. He was crucified on a cross for our sins, paying our debt of sin that we simply could not afford to pay. If we were to pay for our sins, we would have to be punished in the fires of Hell forever!!! That may be difficult to accept, but it is what the Bible teaches. Don't try to figure God out dear friend, just trust His Word that He has recorded. John 5:39-40, "

Search the scriptures*; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life." If you simply come to Jesus as a guilty sinner, BELIEVING that He is the Christ, the only begotten (biological) Son of God, receiving His sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins, and believing that Christ was buried but is risen from the dead, YOU ARE SAVED!!!

The very second that you put your FAITH (trust, confidence, rest) in Jesus Christ, God performs a supernatural miracle by which you are instantly made a born-again child of God. God's Holy Spirit comes to live inside of you. THIS IS THE NEW BIRTH!!! God is born in you! Isn't that beautiful? Sure it is. When you were born the first time (physically), you were born into God's creation; but when you get born for the second time (spiritually), God is born into you! 1st John 3:24, " And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us."

I hope you enjoyed learning those Bible truths. I always enjoy teaching them! As a born-again child of God I greatly desire to preach the truth of the Gospel to get more people saved. So it greatly frustrates me when the Devil's crowd censors the truth. The Bible says in 1st Corinthians 1:18 that THE PREACHING OF THE CROSS IS FOLLISHNESS TO THEM THAT BELIEVE NOT!!! 1st Corinthians 1:18, " For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God." I wish the owners of Google believed the Gospel, but they don't, so to them it is foolish. It is so easy to be saved! Pastor Anderson preached a great sermon recently called, what else: "[10]SALVATION IS EASY." I encourage you to listen to it. God bless you dear reader (and you sincerely are dear to this humble Gospel preacher). THANK YOU for reading my blogs! I love you with God's unconditional love.

2.10.14 You're Not Saved Unless Wholly Trusting In Jesus' Name (2021-10-22 00:30)

Acts 15:1 and 24,

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

...

Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

I love this simple passage of Scripture. A group of unsaved men came down from the mountains to Jerusalem preaching a counterfeit gospel which requires people to keep the law (i.e., turn away from their sins) to be saved. What saith the Scripture? Romans 3:19-20, "Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." God's Old Testament law gives all humanity the KNOWLEDGE OF SIN. The Apostle Paul said in Romans 7:13b, that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

" The law gave the world a guilty conscience!!! Could that be why the world hates the Jews so much? God through Israel gave the law to the world, and therefore, guilt. John 7:7,

"The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil. " Jesus is the Living Word (John 1:1-3 and 14, Revelation 19:13); the Bible is the Written Word (Matthew 4:4; Hebrews 4:12).

Dear reader, there is only way way to Heaven, which is through childlike faith in Jesus Christ. Salvation is easy! I am listening to a wonderful sermon right now by Pastor Steven Anderson called: '[1]SALVATION IS EASY.' If that link goes dead (and YouTube will censor it eventually), [2]you can hear the MP3 here). It is sad that Bible preaching by God's man is being censored and removed from YouTube; while sodomites, feminists and abortionists have complete freedom of speech. God sees that horrible injustice!!! In this sin-sick world today, good is called bad and bad is called good. Isaiah 5:20, "Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! " This is the Luciferian New World Order cabalist M.O. (Method of Operation). Professor Henry Makow rightly describes this Cabalist M.O:

- Destroy while convincing you that it’s for your own good. Destroy the economy. It’s for your own good.
- Convince women to squander their most fertile years pursuing career and free sex because it’s "empowering."
- Convince western nations to destroy their racial and cultural heritage because, "Diversity is our Strength."
- Destroy gender identity and promote homosexual dysfunction to children in the name of tolerance. "Love is Love." It’s "progressive."
- Cabalists create false reality to suit their perversion. That’s why they own the mass media. It’s their Black Magick.
- The scamdemic is part of a larger pattern. [3]We are under occult assault. [4]READ MORE Satan is the god of this world and he has everything backwards nowadays. Instead of having one Holy Bible, we’ve got literally hundreds of English versions to choose from. That is Satan’s doing, not God (1st Corinthians 14:33). The Devil has young people confused about their gender. God created every human being as either male or female, nothing in between!!! God doesn’t make mistakes. If you live next to a leaking nuclear reactor, or are the victim of mad scientists tampering with life, that is not God’s fault. Don’t blame God for man’s evil and incompetence!!!

Likewise, the Devil has most people confused about how to get to Heaven. I triple-dog dare you to go on the internet and find out what singer Amy Grant believes about salvation. Good luck, because you won’t find anything! Miss Grant is a horrible role model to younger women. Like nearly all other celebrities in these ungodly times, Amy Grant dares not offend the sodomite community, so she twists the Word of God around to say that God welcomes homosexuals as much as anyone into His love.

Although it is true that God loves everyone, and God will save the vilest sinner who trusts in Jesus Christ as Savior, it is also true that God will NEVER accept the person of the wicked!!! Homosexuality is a horrible sin which God will NEVER accept. No homosexual can be completely right with God as long as they commit such a wicked sin, but God WILL save them regardless if they place their trust in Jesus Christ. Yes, a practicing homosexual CAN be eternally saved and know it right away. That is because forgiveness of sin and eternal life is a free gift from God, which Christ paid for on the cross with His blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Anyone who receives Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for their sins is saved.

Salvation is easy!!! Getting saved is as easy as going through a door (John 10:1). Getting saved is as easy as drinking some water. John 4:13-15, “

Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

” Getting saved is as easy as eating a piece of bread (John 6:32-35).

Dear friend, you are not saved unless you are wholly trusting Jesus. If you think that salvation can be lost you are not saved. It is because you foolishly think there is something that you must do to stay saved, or maintain your status of being saved, or to prove that your faith is genuine. If you think any of those things you are not saved!!! Only those who completely REST wholly in Jesus' precious name are saved. ...

> My hope is built on nothing less
> Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
> I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
> But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
> On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
> All other ground is sinking sand,
> All other ground is sinking sand.

I was saved at age 13 long ago. I am now 54 years young...lol. I have been a child of God for 41 years. I have never thought for one second that I must do something to make sure that I'm really saved. I have never tried to live above sin (as Steve Pettit wickedly peaches at Bob Jones University) to prove that I am really saved. Such thinking is of the Devil. Calvinists like Ray Comfort, Steve Pettit, Gary Walton, Paul Washer, Chuck Phelps, Marty Herron and John MacArthur cause people to needlessly live in uncertainty, fear and worry. These wicked false teachers all tell people that they must turn away from sinful ways to be saved, or to prove that their faith is genuine. The proof that my faith is genuine in God's sight is my FAITH itself!!!

The Apostle James speaks about being justified in the sight of men in James 2:18-21, not God; but the Apostle Paul speaks about being justified in the sight of God by faith alone in Romans 4:1-6. Pilgrim's Progress author, John Bunyan, made this very helpful statement:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

Amen brother! Amen!!! I couldn't have said it any better. Wow! John Bunyan was eloquent with his words. What a great statement! Getting saved is free, simple and easy. A lot of people would get saved today if they just knew how simple it really is to be saved. Most people think it is harder than it is to get to Heaven. Corrupt Bible colleges and apostate churches complicate God's plan of salvation, making salvation much harder than it truly is. Jesus said that His yoke is easy, and His burden is light (Matthew 11:29-30). There is nothing light or easy about having to give up your sinful ways to receive God's free gift. How could it be a gift if you must exchange your sinful bad habits to get it? Obviously it couldn't, because you are being asked to give up something to get it!!! Beware of lying preachers!!! God's gift of eternal life is unconditional. You just need to know what you're being saved from. You must know that you're a guilty sinner and the penalty for those sins is eternal punishment in Hell fire (Romans 6:23; Revelation 21:8).

You're not saved unless wholly trusting in Jesus' name. Please don't add water baptism, because if you do you won't be allowed into Heaven. Please don't follow the demonic Church of Christ (COC) like singer Amy Grant does, because if you do you won't be allowed into Heaven. COC falsely requires that you repent of all your sins, make public confession of Christ and partake of water baptism. None of those three things are necessary to get to Heaven. The Apostle Peter was ashamed of Christ, even denying Him three times and cursing His name. Many of the chief rulers were saved, but refused to publicly confess Christ for fear of persecution (John 12:42-43). No one in the Old Testament was water baptized, yet Acts 10:43 says they were all saved through faith in Christ. The only thing that you must do to get to Heaven is BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

2.10.15 Indifference Is The Devil's Greatest Advantage (2021-10-22 19:51)

Revelation 3:15-18, "

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth*.

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

The biggest problem with fundamentalist Christians today is indifference. Here's the difference between APATHY versus INDIFFERENCE:

- An apathetic person is without feelings, not because they chose to, but because they can't, they are incapable of response.
- An indifferent person simply doesn't care or isn't concerned, not because they can't, but because they won't.

America's Bible colleges, pastors and churches have become INDIFFERENT. They could care, but they don't! They don't care because of THE LOVE OF MONEY! Luke 16:13, "No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. " Today's Bible colleges and churches are all about making money to support their salaries. They have mortgages, car payments and medical bills to pay off, so they dare not risk losing financial support by standing for THE TRUTH. It is in their own best interests to go along to get along with false teachers, like the unsaved Calvinists at Bob Jones University, so they don't care!

It is high time for professed Christians to start caring again. Calvinism has crept into churches everywhere and hardly anybody is saying anything negative about it! Well I'm not staying quiet! I am going to expose Calvinism wherever I find it!!! Everywhere I look today I see indifferent pastors and churches. No one seems to give a hoot that Satan has crept unawares into the churches, preaching another gospel which is complicated.

Anyone who tells you that you must “repent and turn away from your sin to be saved” is preaching another gospel. Jesus gave His life on the cross to pay for our sins, so in fact YOU DON’T have to forsake a sinful life to be saved. Christ paid for our sins!!! If you had to give up your sinning to be saved, then salvation would be an exchange, a trade of sorts, and not a free gift.

I was forced out of the shameful Harvest Baptist Church on Guam by Pastor Marty Herron, because I did the right thing by befriending him with THE TRUTH. The same is true of his shameful successor, Gary Walton. Both of these ungodly infidels belong in prison for all the people’s lives they have spiritually destroyed by preaching Lordship salvation and bidding Godspeed to Dr. Steve Pettit’s Calvinism at Bob Jones University (BJU)!!!

Like the honorable Apostle Paul, [1]I was called their

“ [2]enemy” for trying to help them see the truth. Between 2014 and 2021 I had no church family. I had lost the only church family I had known on Guam. Marty Herron took away my happiness and ruined my life, for which I hope and pray God will punish him harshly (Romans 12:19-21). Galatians 6:7 promises that these wicked false teachers will someday reap the the seeds of evil that they have sown. Calvinism, Devil’s Bibles, misunderstood repentance —for these evils and much more, the Bob Jones University camp are GUILTY in the sight of almighty God (Romans 3:4; Galatians 1:6-9). ...

2.10.16 Understanding Predestination (2021-10-23 11:32)

The following helpful information is taken from Pastor A. Ray Stanford's (1916-2012) excellent book, "[1]Personal Evangelism Handbook."

CHAPTER XX - Understanding Predestination

BIBLICAL DOCTRINE: "God is absolutely sovereign, and in His sovereignty gave man a free will to accept or reject the salvation that He has provided. It is God's will that all would be saved and that none should perish. God foreknows but does not predetermine any man to be condemned. God permits man's destiny to depend upon man's choice" (Florida Bible College Doctrinal Statement, Point Four) .

I Tim. 2:4 tells us that God would have all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. God does not predetermine who will believe and who will not believe, but God predetermined what will HAPPEN to the believers and to the unbelievers.

The father who asks the son to mow the yard may have predetermined that if he does, he will reward him, and if he doesn't, he will chasten him. God explains our salvation in this same way . . . that the choice of our salvation is up to us, but He has predetermined the RESULTS of our choices.

Acts 10:34; Eph. 6:9; Col. 3:25; Rom. 2:11; and II Chron. 19:7 all point out clearly that God is no respecter of persons and does not choose one to be saved and one to be lost, but loves all alike. This is certainly clear in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

II Thess. 2:13 says, "But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation THROUGH sanctification of the Spirit AND belief of the truth." We are made pure and holy by sanctification of the Spirit. Look up the word "holy" in the Strong's Concordance, #37 in the Greek New Testament, and you will find it means to be made "holy, pure, and blameless." God chose those that believe the truth to be sanctified by the Spirit. But He did NOT choose WHO would believe the truth!

Eph. 1:4 is addressed to those who have received Christ as their Saviour and says that God predetermined all BELIEVERS to be before Him, holy, and without blame. Fatalists believe that this verse is teaching God chooses some to be saved. But the entire epistle of Ephesians is written to those who are already saved (Eph. 1:1), and verse four specifically says this is to those who are already "in Him"- believers who are in Christ. Ephesians 1:13 tells us we heard the Word of truth first; then, by believing, we were sealed with the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8: 29 tells us more about God's foreknowledge, "For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren." Some take this out of its context and say God chose some and made them to be conformed to the image of His Son, instead of realizing that God FOREKNEW those who would believe and predestinated the BELIEVERS to be conformed to the image of His Son. He did not predetermine WHO would believe. He predetermined what would happen to those who did believe. I Peter 1: 2 also tells us we are chosen according to God's foreknowledge of who would believe.

God has a faculty that people do not have. He can see the future perfectly. Perhaps this is because God is "timeless," and therefore is actually living in the future as well as in the present. If we could see into the future and know exactly what things would take place, we could tell people what would happen in the future . . . not that we would MAKE these things happen . . . but simply that we would KNOW what will happen.

God does not "decide" who will be saved. God does not "make" any one believe, even though He wants all to believe and be saved. But God, since He can see the future, knows who will believe and who will not believe. Long before I was ever born, God knew I would decide to trust Christ as my Saviour. But this "foreknowledge" of His did not CAUSE me to trust Christ as my Saviour.

In Matt. 23:37 we find that Christ looked over Jerusalem and said that He would have gathered them together many times, but the people would not receive Him. God did not make these people reject Him. In fact, it is God who is desiring them to accept Him. But it is the people who would not, by their own free will and choice.

Our salvation comes through OUR OWN belief. The Bible is full of Scriptures that point this out. Rom. 1:16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that BELIEVETH...." I Cor. 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that BELIEVE." John 3: 18, "He that BELIEVETH ON HIM is not condemned: but he that BELIEVETH NOT is condemned already, because he hath not BELIEVED in the Name of the only begotten Son of God." See also Habakkuk 2:4; Luke 7:50; Matt. 15:28; Psalm 119:173; Jude, vv. 10, 16-19; Psalm 119:30; Gen. 6:12; Isa. 29:13; John 17:8; Hos. 4:6; Isa. 55:1.

II Peter 3:9 says God is "not willing that ANY should perish, but that ALL should come to repentance (change of mind)."

Luke 2:10-The angel told us that the good news would be to ALL people, not to a limited number.

FATALIST POSITION: Many fatalists teach that faith is a gift of God and that God would have to "give" you the faith in order for you to believe. But God gives everyone the ability to believe (faith). Man may exercise this ability in any direction. Man can have faith in Buddha, Mohammed, or any cult or sect . . . and by their same definition, this would be a God-given ability to believe (faith) in Buddha, etc., as well as Christ. The faith we placed in the Lord Jesus Christ to save us COULD have been placed in Mohammed. The CHOICE was left up to us.

Some fatalists use the "sign theory," trying to take contradictory statements and make them seem not to be contradictory. They place a sign over heaven saying, "Whosoever will may come." But after you get to heaven you see the reverse side of the sign which says, "Chosen in Him before the foundation of the world." (This, of course, is only a partial quotation of Scripture, and you just studied the answer to these-the answer is that BELIEVERS are chosen to be before the Lord, holy and blameless someday.) The fatalists say, "We do not understand it," and they think this explains it.

This "sign theory" cannot be true because you would have to place the same sign over hell in the same way, saying, "Whosoever rejects Christ goes to hell," and on the other side of the sign you would have to place, "Chosen to go to hell from the foundation of the world." The reverse side of this sign would be just as unscriptural as the reverse side of the one over heaven.

IN CONCLUSION: “WHOSOEVER shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved” (Romans 10:133.

Praise the Lord that our God is truly one of love, and who offers, “And ye shall seek Me, and find Me, when ye shall search for Me with all your heart” (Jeremiah 29: 13) . Psalm 107:9 says, “For He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.”

There is no person who has ever lived on the face of the earth that the Holy Spirit of God hasn’t worked with continually, showing the person the truths of God. Christ in John 16:8 says the Holy Spirit convicts the world (every body) of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment. No one can stand before God and say he didn’t have the opportunity to hear the truth. “For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead; so that they are WITHOUT EXCUSE” (Rom. 1:20). “For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to ALL MEN” (Titus 2:11).

2.10.17 You Don’t Have To Forsake Your Sinning To Receive God’s Gift Of Eternal Life (2021-10-24 00:30)

Proverbs 28:13, “

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

This Bible verse (our text passage above) is oftentimes misquoted in a foolish attempt to justify “ salvation. I learned a great truth about Bible study from Pastor Curtis Hutson (1935-1995). You never use an obscure passage of Scripture to contradict a clear one. We have the entire Gospel of John and Romans 4:1-7 which very plainly teach that salvation is obtained freely by God’s undeserving grace through childlike faith WITHOUT WORKS in Jesus Christ. A man’s faith is counted for righteousness (Romans 4:5). Did you understand that: A MAN’S FAITH IS COUNTED FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS!!!

> Ephesians 2:8-10, “*For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
>
> Not of works, lest any man should boast*.
>
> For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.
> **”

I marvel that in view of such plain Bible passages that Calvinists (which includes the "Lordship" salvation crowd) would also require that a person prove the reality of their faith by living a faithful Christian life. What saith the Scripture? ...

> Romans 4:3-7, “For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
>
> Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt*.
>
> But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
>
> Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
>
> Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
>
> **”

So what does the Bible mean in

Proverbs 28:13, “

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

” Does this verse teach that we cannot be saved unless we forsake a lifestyle of sinning? No, absolutely not, because that would be WORKS! This verse speaks to Christians, not to the unsaved. Getting saved is a legal matter. We are all guilty of breaking God’s commandments in the Old Testament (Ecclesiastes 7:20; Romans 3:19-20). There is a penalty for sin, which is death (Romans 6:23). This includes the second death in fire and brimstone (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). But God is His love made a way of escape through the cross of Calvary. God sent His only begotten Son, Jesus, into the world. Jesus lived a sinless life and didn't deserve to die. But Jesus died on the cross to pay our debt of sin. He was buried. Three days later He resurrected from the dead bodily by the power of God. This is the Gospel, the Good News (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Anyone who BELIEVES this Good News is forgiven and has eternal life.

There is something irresistibly tempting to the carnal mind that wants to contribute in some way to God's plan of salvation. Pastor Jack Hyles made these great statements:

> "More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[1]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"
>
> "Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!" —Pastor Jack Hyles, "[2]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

The Gospel is very delicate and easily corrupted. Getting saved is very easy, free and simple. Jesus said in John 10:9 that getting saved is as easy as going through a door, and He is the Door. In John 4:13-14 Jesus told the Samaritan woman at Jacob's Well that getting saved is as easy as drinking water, and He is the Water of Life. Jesus said in John 6:51 that getting saved is as easy as eating a piece of bread, and He is the Bread of Life.

Yet, tragically, wicked religious men like Evangelist Ray Comfort complicate the Gospel, saying foolish untrue things like this:

> "So if the plane goes down, you'd end up in Hell! There are two things you have to do to be saved. Do you remember what they are? I told you what they are—You've got to repent and trust the Savior! ... God's offering you everlasting life upon your repentance and faith in Christ. Who in his right mind wouldn't say, 'Whoa! That's a good offer!' (The curious woman asks what it means to "repent"?)... Have you ever said you're sorry to someone you did something wrong to? That's all repentance is—You've sinned against God; it's a matter of saying, 'God, I'm sorry,' and then LIVING A LIFESTYLE that proves the reality of your repentance . That's what repentance is, it's a continual thing! God, 'I'm sorry, but I'm not going going to lie or steal or blaspheme Your name ever again. It has that attitude! And the second thing—trust in Jesus!" [emphasis added] —Evangelist Ray Comfort, "[3]I've never killed anyone" ([4]MP3 clip from video).

Does the Bible require "

LIVING A LIFESTYLE

" to get to Heaven? Is that what the new birth is all about. Let me ask you a question friend—do you have to live any certain way to prove the reality that you are alive as a human being? No, that would be absurd. A human being is either alive or dead. You are either born-again or not saved at all. You don't need to LIVE A LIFESTYLE to prove that you are a child of God. The very idea that a believer needs to do good works to know that they are saved is of the Devil. If you have to look at your life to prove that you're saved, it just proves that you're not!

I know I am saved because I believe the Gospel, and God promises to save them that believe (Romans 1:16; 1st Corinthians 1:21).

One of my [5]favorite free grace Gospel preachers is Pastor A. Ray Stanford (1916-2012):

> "Any teaching that demands a change of conduct toward either God or man for salvation is to add works or human effort to faith, and this contradicts all Scripture and is an accursed message (Gal. 1:8-9; Deut. 27:18). Study the book of Galatians."
> —[6]REPENTANCE, Pastor A. Ray Stanford, Chapter 6, '[7]HANDBOOK OF PERSONAL EVANGELISM'

Again, this following Bible verse does not apply to getting saved.

Proverbs 28:13, "

He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

" If you were required to show forth a desire to stop sinning, or make a commitment to do better and turn away from sinful ways to be saved, then salvation could not be a gift. A gift must remain truly free or else it simply cannot be a gift.

" Romans 6:23, "

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

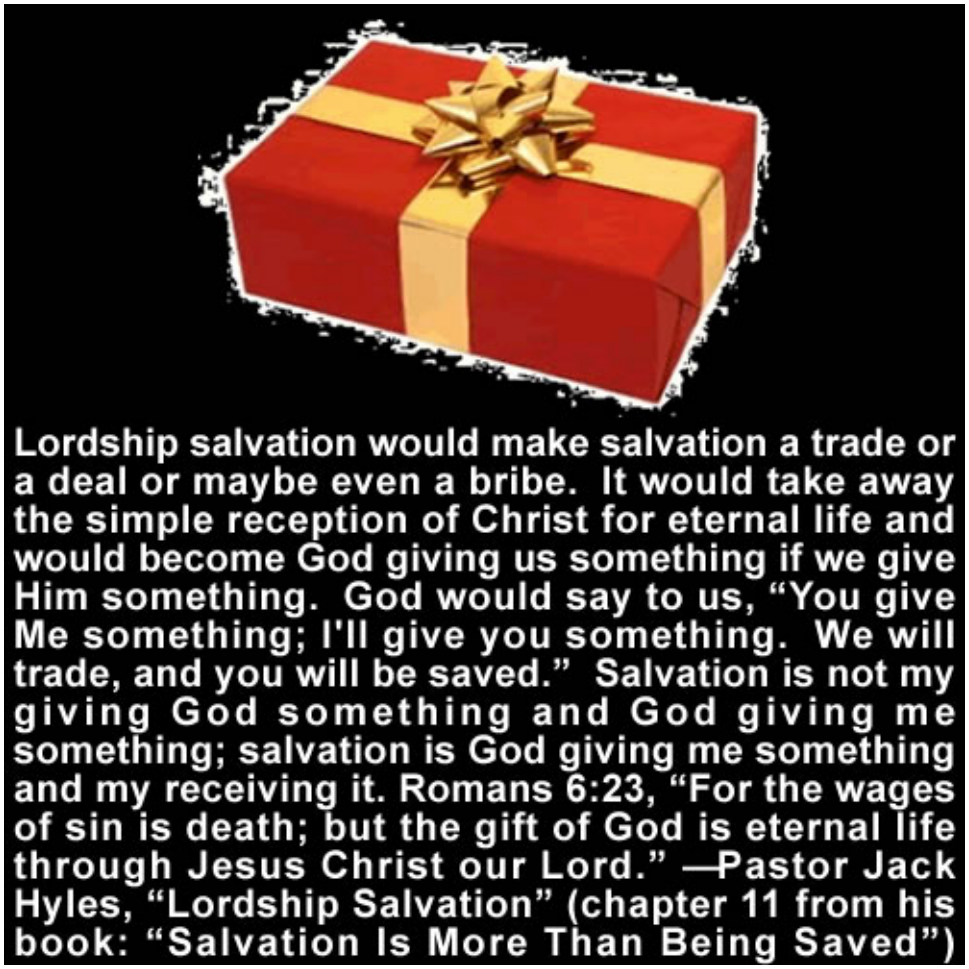
" Somehow preachers foolishly think that God's gift is different than a human gift. What if I gave you a birthday gift, with the stipulation that you must stop doing certain things that I don't like? Would that truly be a gift? No, no way, it would be an exchange, a trade. Pastor Jack Hyles (1926-2001) made this helpful observation...



Nowhere in the Gospel of John does the inspired Word of God teach us that God will not save someone who refuses to forsake their sinful bad habits. I love something that Pastor Charles Spurgeon said:

> "Repentance will not make you see Christ; but to see Christ will give you repentance. You may not make a Christ out of your repentance, but you must look for repentance to Christ. The Holy Ghost, by turning us to Christ, turns us from sin*. Look away, then, from the effect to the cause, from your own repenting to the Lord Jesus, who is exalted on high to give repentance." [emphasis added]
> —Pastor Charles Spurgeon; "All Of Grace," Chapter 11 - "[9]Alas! I Can Do Nothing"

I love that quote! Pastor Spurgeon clearly understood that we don't have to turn away from our sinful ways to be saved; but rather, the Holy Spirit begins the work of sanctification in the life of every child of God (John 17:17) to turn us away from sin (Hebrews 12:6-8). This doesn't mean we will be perfect, nor does it mean that a professed Christian who sins is not really saved, God forbid. It simply means that God is not an absent parent and He scourges and chastises His children when we disobey (Hebrews 12:6-8). The Apostle Paul said that he struggled with sin all the time (Romans 7:14-25). Every believer struggles with sin.

Right doctrine matters! Heresy has crept unawares into most churches today. "Lordship" salvation is of the Devil. Believers must expose this deadly false teaching which is becoming very popular today in the churches. Pastor Jack Hyles made this great statement:

> “God has a special rebuke, again and again and again in the Bible, toward those people who keep their neutrality in the work of God!” —SOURCE: Dr. Jack Hyles, a quote from the great MP3 sermon, “[10]Where Were You In The Battle?”

The Bible clearly defines the Gospel for us, so there is no need to guess. "Lordship" salvation is clearly a violation of the Gospel as taught in 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. and is another gospel which is accursed by God (Galatians 1:6-9). Dear reader, you DON’T have to forsake sinful behavior to be saved, because eternal life is a free gift from God, which Jesus has already paid for with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Jesus is precious!!!

2.10.18 You Are Now Entering The Mission Field (2021-10-26 00:30)

2nd Corinthians 5:18-21, "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

You may be the only Jesus that somebody knows. I have attended numerous churches which posted a popular sign above the exit door of the church which reads: "YOU ARE NOW ENTERING THE MISSION FIELD!" How true that is!!! Yes dear friend, if you are a redeemed child of God, you are a missionary at all times in the world. One of our text passages, from Hebrews 12:14-16 exhorts believers to pursue peace with all men, and holiness, without which NO MAN SHALL SEE THE LORD. Now I'm not into Lifestyle Evangelism. Lifestyle Evangelism was made popular by heretic Pastor Robert Schuller.

Be a missionary every day! Tell the world that Jesus is the way! Be it any town or country or a busy avenue, Africa or Asia, the task is up to you! We have a duty as God's children to be a soulwinner! Hebrews 12:14-16, "Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright." Somebody is always watching you and me. The world sees so many greedy TV evangelists, fallen pastors in the news and phony Christians who live worldly lives. The Bible says that without seeing us live a holy life, the lost world won't see the Lord.

> "My destination is not based upon how I > live my life, it's on whom that I trust to save me." —Pastor Ralph "Yankee" Arnold, ' [1]Is Salvation Forever? '

The world is our mission field! It is ridiculous that tens of thousands of young people go to Bible college, then go on deputation to convince churches to financially support their work in some foreign country as a missionary. Yet the biggest mission field is right here in the United States! It is tragic! Churches feel some sense of self-worth because they are paying a missionary to win five people to Christ in 10 years. Meanwhile millions of Americans are going to Hell and the churches couldn't care less about winning them to Christ. Does that make any sense to you friend? We need missionaries right here!!!

The mission field is right here, right outside our front door, everywhere we go!

2.11.1 You Should Be 100% Sure That You're Going To Heaven (2021-11-02 19:10)

1st John 5:10-13, "

He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

I was saved at age 13 at an old-fashioned Baptist church in Chicago. There's not a day that goes by when I don't REJOICE as the Lord commanded every believer to do in Luke 10:20, "

Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

" Now, it would be IMPOSSIBLE to rejoice as Jesus commanded, unless we could KNOW 100 % with all biblical certainty that we are presently saved. This means that every Christian believer CAN have the absolute 100 % assurance that we are saved right now, this very moment and forever, without any further stipulations or additions obligations imposed upon us to have eternal life.

Therefore, it greatly grieves my soul when I hear false teachers like Dr. Steve Pettit (shameful president of Bob Jones University since 2014) preaching to 2,700 faculty and staff at BJU chapel that they cannot merely accept Christ and know that they are saved certain. Read for yourself what this foolish and incompetent theologian teaches:

> “You can’t just speak about getting saved, and you accepted Christ, and then that’s it! There is a justification; There is a sanctification; There’s ultimately a glorification, and though there are three parts, they are all part of the whole, and you cannot separate them. In order for you to qualify for the award, you have to get into the race, you have to stay in the race, and you have to finish the race. If you want to win, you have to run to the end; and winning in the Christian life is everything, because if you lose—if you don’t finish—you lose everything—you lose your SOUL. And so, the Christian race is the life of faith that begins, is run, and is finished when we cross over into Heaven!” —Dr. Steve Pettit (“[1]What Does It Mean To Run ’The Race’?” - [2]11:34)

Dr. Petit is not a born-again believer. How can he be when he thinks that you must live a certain way to get to Heaven? Dear reader, eternal life is a free gift from God. Having your sins forgiven is a free gift from God. The reason why God freely offers all mankind this gift is because Jesus paid our debt of sin by shedding His own precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19). Salvation is not cheap grace my friend. Oh no! Grace didn’t come cheap at all, it cost God His only begotten Son. Salvation cost Jesus His life! And because getting saved is simply receiving a free gift, there can be no additional requirements to run a race, turn away from sinful living, or surrender your rights to follow Christ as Lord. None of these things are the Gospel. You may do all those things and yet never have been saved at all!

Judas followed Christ, becoming one of His very apostles. Yet, Jesus said Judas had a devil in him (John 6:70). Judas repented and turned from his sins (Matthew 27:3). Yet, Judas went to Hell in his sins without Christ as Savior, burning in the torments of fire forever!!! In Matthew 7:21-23 we read about an unfortunate group of religious people, who followed Jesus all their lives, even calling Him “

Lord, Lord.

” Yet, Jesus denied knowing them! There is a way that SEEMETH RIGHT unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death (Proverbs 14:12; 16:25). Jesus said in Matthew 7:21 that to be saved you must do the Father’s will, which is to BELIEVE ON JESUS (John 6:40).

Dear reader, you CAN in fact, according to the inspired Word of God, KNOW 100 % that you are saved presently and forever. If you will simply take God at His Word, as He has recorded in His written Word, then you can know assuredly that you are going to Heaven someday. I never doubt my salvation. I did in the early years as a teenager, because I was taught wrong. When I got saved at age 13, I thought that the way you placed your trust in Jesus was to pray and ask Him to save you. I knew that prayer didn’t save us, trusting Jesus did. But I was confused, which caused me to worry a lot that perhaps I left something out when I prayed.

Since I couldn’t remember exactly what I said to Christ, I was needlessly worried. Had someone simply told me that I was saved by BELIEVING the Gospel (i.e., Jesus died on the cross for my sins. He was buried. And three days later, Jesus physically resurrected from the dead for the justification of my faith), I would have had complete assurance of God’s salvation.

If you don’t KNOW 100 % friend that you are going to Heaven, then something is wrong. More than likely you simply have never been properly presented with the Gospel. I highly encourage you to read this free .pdf book by Michael P. Bowen titled, “[3]I NEVER KNEW YOU: THE COMING GREAT WHITE THRONE JUDGMENT AND HOW YOU CAN AVOID IT!” This is my favorite book, next to the Holy Bible of course, to which there is no comparison. Men author books, but God authored the inspired Holy Bible!

If you admit that you are a guilty sinner in God's sight, for breaking His commandments (Romans 3:19-23); and you receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for your sins (1st Corinthians 1:21), then you are saved (John 6:47).

You must know these simple things to be saved:

1. WHO Jesus is - The Christ, God's only begotten Son (John 20:31)
2. WHAT He did for you - Jesus died on the cross for your sins, was buried and bodily raised up miraculously from the dead after three days

   (1st Corinthians 15:1-4)
3. WHY He did it - Because we are all guilty sinners and the penalty is death, not only physical death but a second death in the Lake of Fire forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8)

Dear friend, it is that simple to get to Heaven. Christ is the Savior of all men! 1st Timothy 4:10, " For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe." Since Jesus paid for everyone's sins, He is the Savior of ALL MEN. However, as you just read, Jesus is ESPECIALLY the Savior of THOSE THAT BELIEVE. In other words, if you reject Christ as your personal Savior, you will spend eternity burning in Hell, while your gift rots. Christ will have needlessly paid for your sins, and you didn't want it. I can purchase you a birthday gift, but if you refuse to accept it, then I wasted my money. Jesus paid for the sins of ALL humanity. 1st John 2:2,

"And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

" Could the Bible be any clearer? I think not.

Also, the Epistle of 1st John is often misunderstood. As our test verse says in 1st John 5:13, we can KNOW that we are saved. At a casual glance, one might read the Epistle of 1st John and think that words are required to prove that someone is saved (1st John 3:8-9). However, i think the key verse is 1st John 3:24,

"And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us. " The only proof that someone is saved is the presence of the indwelling Holy Spirit. Now, I know that I am 100 % securely saved first and foremost because I have God's written PROMISE that He will

" SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE " (1st Corinthians 1:21b). John 6:47, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life."

Remember, the same Apostle John who penned the Gospel of John also penned the Epistle of 1st John. We must be very careful not to mix and confuse the justification wrought by the man Christ without by faith that John teaches in the Gospel of John; versus the sanctification wrought by the Holy Spirit of Christ within in the Epistle of 1st John. Pilgrim's Progress author John Bunyan understood this biblical truth very well:

> "If you do not put a difference between justification wrought by the man Christ without and sanctification wrought by the Spirit of Christ within, you are not able to divide the Word aright; but contrariwise, you corrupt the Word of God, and cast stumbling blocks before the people." —John Bunyan (1628-1688)

So if we want to find the way to be saved, we must look only to the Gospel of John; but if we want to see the fruits of the indwelling Holy Spirit, then we should look at the Epistle of John. We must not mix and confuse the Epistle of 1st John with the Gospel of John. They were written for two different and separate purposes. If you keep that in mind you won't be led astray with false doctrine. Anyone who says that you must turn away from sinful ways to be saved is a liar, fraud and false prophet. Anyone who says that turning away from sins is necessary to "prove" that you are saved is corrupting the Word of God and casting stumbling blocks before the people. That is why Calvinism is so horrible and unbiblical, adding works (keeping the law) to grace to receive God's free gift. It is a counterfeit plan of salvation.

As believers we SHOULD live for Christ. There will be changes inside when a person gets saved. That change is the Holy Spirit Who has forever moved in! When I got saved the Holy Spirit began to convict me about the sins in my life immediately. But I didn't forsake all my sins. I held on to some of them. You did too! No one has ever forsook all their sins. If you claim otherwise you are calling God a liar (1st John 1:8-10). If you are saved, the HOLY SPIRIT will convict you about those sins. That is what John is teaching in 1st John. If you are saved, the HOLY SPIRIT will convict you if you lack love for other believers. The focus of the Epistle of 1st John is SELF-EXAMINATION (not trying to determine if others are saved). The focus of 1st John is to determine if you have the HOLY SPIRIT, which you do if you have BELIEVED ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31).

Also, I highly encourage you to read Pastor Max D. Younce's helpful book titled: " [4]SALVATION AND THE PUBLIC INVITATION .

" This book is wonderful, showing how many preachers needlessly ADD requirements to God's simple plan of salvation that God does not require. You CAN know 100 % friend that you are saved, and you should. DON'T go by your feelings, because our feelings can often deceive us, as it did Isaac in the Bible. Isaac heard the voice of Jacob, but he felt the hairy arm of Esau (which was an animal skin to trick him, and it worked). If Isaac had gone by the voice that he heard, he wouldn't have been deceived. Never go by your feelings, go by the written Word of God.

You can and should KNOW without any doubt that you are now and forever saved. The way that you choose to live has no effect on the gift which God has given to you, freely by faith in His only begotten Son. Never forget that forgiveness of sins and eternal life is a gift (Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:8-9).

2.11.2 A Perversion Of The Gospel: Lordship Salvation (2021-11-05 03:52)

by [1]Dr. Curtis Hutson (1934-1995)

"Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;) And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed." —

Galatians 1:1-9

Lordship salvation is an unscriptural teaching regarding the doctrine of salvation and is confusing to Christians. Those who teach it claim that one must make Jesus Lord of his life in order to be saved. They use such expressions as, "You cannot receive Jesus as Saviour without receiving Him as Lord," or, "If Jesus Christ is not the Lord of your life, then you are not saved."

The Bible teaches salvation by grace through faith. Ephesians 2:8, 9 says, "For by grace ye are saved through faith: and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." But those who teach Lordship salvation say that is is not enough to trust Jesus Christ; you must also make Him Lord of your life in order to be saved. This kind of teaching frustrates the grace of God and is called in the Bible "another gospel."

I. Another Gospel Which Is Not Another

In verse 6, Paul said, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into grace of Christ unto another gospel." Paul contrasts the Gospel of the grace of God with "another gospel" which he does not define. In verse 7 he said, "Which is not another...." That sounds like a contradiction, but the word "another" does not come from the same Greek word. In verse 6 it means "another—different from the one we preach." In verse 7 the Greek word means "another of the same kind." So we might paraphrase the verse, "I marvel that you are so soon removed from him who called you unto the grace of Christ unto a different gospel which is not like the one we preach."

He goes on to say, "There be some that trouble you" (vs. 7). The preaching of another gospel troubles people. He also calls it a perversion of the Gospel of the grace of God.

Then he says something very strong in verse 8: "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"]. Then he emphasizes it again in verse 9: "As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach another gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed [or "let him be damned"].

Paul said, "I am startled; I marvel; I can't believe that you are so soon removed from the Gospel of the grace of Christ unto another gospel." "Another gospel" is not defined, so I will define it based upon the implication of the text.

The Gospel of the grace of Christ is one thing. Another gospel would be anything that contradicts the teaching of salvation by grace through faith. If a man preaches that one is saved by the substitutionary death of Jesus, by trusting Christ, then adds some from of good works, he contradicts the Gospel of the grace of God. I could not put it any better than Romans 11:6, "And if by grace, then it is no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no more work."

Salvation cannot be by grace and works. It has to be either grace or works.

Most people have a poor concept of grace. I used to work for a loan company. I would give what is called a "grace period." If you didn't pay your debt in time, you had five days "grace" before you got a notice and were tagged with a late charge.

That is not grace; that is a probation. Grace is the unmerited, undeserved favor of God toward Hell-deserving sinners.

There is so much confusion over the doctrine of salvation. If you ask the next ten people you see, "How does a person get to Heaven?" you will probably get ten different answers. And it is very likely that none would be correct.

In the final analysis, there are only two schemes of salvation that are taught by all religions. One is that man saves himself; the other is that God saves a man. They say that man saves himself by reforming or cleaning up his life before he is saved in order to merit salvation; or that man saves himself by promising to keep the Ten Commandments before he is saved; or man saves himself by obedience. Others teach that man saves himself by behaving. Those who teach Lordship salvation say that man saves himself by making Jesus Lord of his life. Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ: for it [the Gospel] is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that behaves..."? No, "...to every one that believeth."

The only thing you can do with the Gospel is believe it. The Gospel is the good news of how Jesus Christ came to this earth, how He died on a cross in our place for our sins, how he was buried and rose again the third day. That is the Gospel.

Don't confuse the truth with the Gospel. The Gospel is the truth, but all truth is not the Gospel. It is the truth that I wear a necktie to church, but that is not the Gospel. It the truth that I brush my teeth every morning, but that is not the Gospel. All truth is not the Gospel, but the Gospel is the truth.

When I preach on Hell, I preach a Bible truth that ought to be preached and one that Jesus preached, but it is not the Gospel. hell is not good news; Hell is bad news. If I preach on judgment, I preach the truth but not the Gospel. But when I preach that Jesus loved sinners, that He died in the sinner's place to pay the sinner's debt, that He was buried and after three days God raised Him form the dead to show His satisfaction with the payment, then I preach the Gospel.

An old preacher spoke to a large crowd of young preachers. Before leaving the platform, one young pastor said to him, "Sir, before you leave, give us a word of advice." The old preacher thought for a moment, then said, "My preacher brethren, make it plain to men how they are to saved."

Far too many preachers are muddying the Gospel. The waters of the grace of God must be kept crystal clear. It disturbs me when preachers scramble the grace of God with works. Paul said, "Though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you...LET HIM BE DAMNED!" Strong language, but that is how God feels about preachers who pervert the Gospel. Paul says that even an angel is to be damned for preaching another gospel.

Something about us religious humans make us want to add to the Gospel. We want to help God with our salvation. If we can't help Him save us, we want to help keep ourselves saved. Adam and Eve gathered fig leaves and sewed them together to make aprons to cover their nakedness. They knew something was wrong and tried to right it before God came to visit. They were happy and well pleased with their fig-leaf religion until God came, then they were embarrassed with their fig-leaf covering and ran and hid themselves. God called them unto Himself, killed an innocent animal (a picture of the substitutionary death of Jesus), took the skin from the animal and made coats for Adam and Eve. He didn't let them keep one single fig leaf of their own making. Salvation is of the Lord. You may be satisfied to stand before men with you religion, but are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God Almighty?

Remember, God put His Son on a cross, loaded Him down with your sin, and poured out His wrath on His own Son so He could save you from the penalty of sin, which is Hell!

Are you going to be satisfied when you stand before God with fig-leaf religion? There is no promise in the Bible to those who partially believe on Christ; one must trust Him alone and nothing else.

Those who teach Lordship salvation say, "If you do not give over the control of your life to Christ at the moment of salvation, you are not saved."

II. Must There Be a Commitment to Christ as the Lord of One's Life in Order to Be Saved?

Those who teach Lordship salvation say that you cannot divorce His Saviourhood from His Lordship; that you can't accept Him as Saviour without accepting Him as the Lord of your life also; that unless Jesus Christ is Lord of your life, you are not saved. But when you question these same people, you discover that Jesus is not Lord of their lives. I asked one who taught Lordship salvation, "Has Jesus been Lord of your life since the day you trusted Him as Saviour? Has there ever been a time since you were saved when Christ has not been the absolute Lord of your life?" He hesitated a moment, then said, "Well, He has always been Lord, but there have been times when I didn't obey Him."

When we don't obey Him, He is not Lord of Boss. When we are in control, Jesus cannot be in control. In Luke 6:46 Jesus said, "And why ye call me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" It is inconsistent to call Him "Lord, Lord," and not do what He says. When this man I mentioned realized that Jesus had not been Lord of his life, he rephrased his statement: "Well, I am not saying that you must absolutely make Him Lord of your life in order to be saved, but there must be a willingness to be controlled by the Lord at the time of salvation in order to be saved."

If there must be a willingness for Jesus to have absolute control over one's life in order to be saved, how long can he wait before he becomes unwilling and disobeys again?

There are not two ways to be saved. One is either saved by grace through faith or saved by grace through faith plus surrender. The Bible says in Ephesians 2:8-9, "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and not that of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast." If it is salvation by grace through faith, as this Scripture declares, then it is not salvation by grace through faith plus surrender, or plus anything else. It is salvation by grace through faith. PERIOD! You say, "Dr. Hutson, don't you believe in surrender?" Absolutely! Wholeheartedly! But not to be saved. Surrender can be right or wrong, depending where you put it. A diamond ring is a beautiful thing on a lady's finger. It brings pleasure to the lady. But put that same ring in her high-heeled shoe, and it causes pain and discomfort.

The surrender of the life to the Lordship of Christ is a beautiful and wonderful thing; but when you make surrender a requirement for salvation, it becomes an ugly, dirty, wicked thing and frustrates the marvelous grace of God!

III. Bible Examples of Uncommitted Believers

Let me give you some Bible examples of uncommitted believers.

First, I will call your attention to some who had definite lapses from a fully surrendered life after they were saved. Second, I will call attention to believers who did not commit their lives to Christ until long after they were saved. Third, we will call attention to one in the Bible who trusted Christ as Saviour but never surrendered to the Lordship of Christ.

David is an example of one who had a definite lapse in his surrender. Now David may or may not have surrendered his life to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation, but Jesus dead sure wasn't Lord of David's life when he committed adultery with Bathsheba. David was lord at the time; David was running the show. David may or may not have surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation, but Jesus Christ was not Lord of David's life when he sent Uriah into battle and had him killed. If Jesus was Lord of David's life, then it is certain that David had a lapse of his surrender. David's life was not committed to the Lordship of Christ when he committed adultery and murder! So If he had committed his life, he definitely had a lapse. If total surrender to Christ was a prerequisite for salvation, then David lost his salvation until he totally surrendered again. But he didn't lose it!

According to Psalm 51:12, all he lost was the joy of salvation. He prayed, "Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation." He didn't pray, "Lord, save me because You have not been the Lord of my life."

Noah is another example of one saved by the grace of God who, if ever committed to Christ, had a relapse. The Bible says in Genesis 6:8, "Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord." Noah was saved and may or may not have surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation. But when the ark landed, Noah got drunk; and in a drunken stupor lay naked before his sons. If Noah had surrendered and committed his life to the Lordship of Christ when he was saved, he certainly had a lapse. You can't say Jesus Christ was controlling Noah's life when he got drunk! Noah was controlling his own life. You can't blame his immoral conduct on the Lord.

The Apostle Peter is another example of one who, if ever committed, had a relapse. Peter said, "Though al men forsake thee, I will never leave thee" (Matthew 26:33). But he followed the enemy and warmed himself by the Devil's fire.

One of the enemy came and said, "Hey! That fellow there is one of them; he's one of the Lord's boys." Peter said, "Oh, no! I don't know Jesus." Another one said, "Yes, Peter is one of Jesus' followers." Peter insisted, "No, I don't know Christ. I'm not one of them!" A woman said, "You are one of His disciples! Your speech betrays you." And Peter began to curse. He said, "You blankety-blank-blank, lowdown, sneakin' woman, I don't know Jesus Christ and never knew Him!" If he surrendered to the Lordship of Christ in total commitment at the moment of salvation, he certainly had a lapse when he cursed and said, "I never knew Jesus Christ!"

In John 21, Peter quit the ministry. He said, "I go a fishing" (vs. 3). This was a public announcement that he never intended to preach again. "I am through preaching—I quit!" And six preachers went with him! When he got out on the lake in a boat, he took off his clothes and was out there naked in the middle of the night in a boat, fishing. It is all in John 21. If he was surrendered to Jesus Christ totally at the moment of salvation, he was not surrendered totally now. He quit the ministry and never intended to preach again! The Lord had to come and warm his backslidden heart by the fires of John, chapter 21, before he preached in Acts, chapter 2, and had 3,000 conversions.

There are other examples in the Bible of men whom if they were totally surrendered, had a lapse in their yieldedness or commitment after they were saved.

Now let me give you an example from the Bible of some believers who were saved and later made a commitment of their lives to Christ. In Acts 19 we have the conversion of some people at Ephesus who had been worshipping the goddess Diana. An important part of worship included the superstitious dependence on magical words and charms and saying. Paul had been there two years preaching, and these people had believed on Christ. "And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds" (vs. 18). Some of them had believed as much as two years earlier. Verse 19 says, "Many of them also which used curious [magical] arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver"—$9,300 worth of books burned! They were just now burning their books of magic—two years after trusting Christ! These people were saved without surrendering to the Lordship of Christ at the moment of salvation.

We know many believers who trusted Christ as Saviour, then years later quit bad habits such as smoking. We even know some who, like Noah, got drunk after they were saved. Now we are not condoning sin; we are simply showing that Jesus was not Lord of these believers' lives. I know some Christians who were saved and a year later quit some habits, while others waited several years. As a matter of fact, I don't know one Christian anywhere who surrendered to the absolute Lordship of Christ at the moment of conversion and has continued a life of complete surrender.

One dear man who teaches Lordship salvation told me that if Jesus was not Lord of an individual's life, then that individual was not saved. He also said that he had surrendered to the Lordship of Christ at the moment he was saved. Later this man was dismissed from a Christian organization because of conduct unbecoming of a Christian.

You don't get better to get saved; you get saved to get better. You can't get better until you do get saved. You don't have anything to get better with. In Acts 19 we have people who were saved though they had not totally committed themselves to Christ at the moment of trusting Him as Saviour. Two years later they burned their magic books—two years late! These people certainly contradict the teaching of Lordship salvation.

The third example is one of a lifelong refusal to commit oneself to the Lordship of Christ. If you read only the Old Testament references to Lot, you wouldn't believe he was saved. But the Bibles says in 2nd Peter 2:7- 8 "And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked. (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)" Twice in verse 8 he is called "righteous," and verse 7 calls him "just Lot"

Now Lot was saved, justified. Second Peter 2:7-8 makes this amply clear. But when you read the Old Testament account of his life, it is plain to see that he was never surrendered to God before or after he was saved.

His Uncle Abraham set out on a journey, and Lot just followed his uncle! In the process, his herd of cattle grew; and his herdsmen began to fight with Abraham's herdsmen. Then they decided they had better separate. This little, puny, potato-string backboned nephew looked up at this giant of faith, Abraham, who said to Lot, "You choose either direction you want.' Lot looked towards the mountains, then toward the wellwatered plains of Jordan. If he had been surrendered, he would have said, "Uncle Abraham, I am not even supposed to be out here. I just followed you. You make the choice, and I'll take the one you don't want." But that little pipsqueak took the well-watered plains of Jordan. He wasn't surrendered.

When he went down to Sodom and called the Sodomites "brothers"—that is not being surrendered. If you call somebody who doesn't believe the Bible a "brother in Christ," you are not surrendered. It shows you don't know much about the Bible. The only man who is your brother is the one who has received Jesus Christ as Saviour. You become a Son of God by faith (John 1:12). When he called those wicked Sodomites "brethren," do you think he was surrendered to Christ?

Two angels came down from Heaven, and Lot took them into his house. The young and old men of the city of Sodom compassed about the house of Lot and clamored and cried, "Send those men out to us that we may know them" (Genesis 19:5). They wanted to commit homosexuality with two angels who came from Heaven. That is where we get the word "sodomy."

Do you know what Lot did? "I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof." Does that sound like a committed Christian? It certainly doesn't!

When God sent an angel down to get Lot out of Sodom, Lot lingered. He didn't want to leave. Finally the angel had to get him by the arm and drag him out of Sodom before the fire and brimstone rained down from Heaven. He was so worldly and uncommitted and unsurrendered that his sons-in-law laughed at him when he tried to get them to leave. They laughed at his testimony.

But keep following him; his life gets worse. Before fire and brimstone rains down from God out of Heaven, they leave Sodom and Gomorrah. He takes with him his wife and two daughters. His wife looks back and turns into a pillar of salt. Lot goes into a cave with his two daughters and gets drunk. There was no liquor store in that cave, so Lot must have brought that wine with him when he left Sodom. While he was drunk, he committed incest with both his daughters; and both gave birth to babies.

Lot is a Bible example of one never surrendered to the Lordship of Christ, one who never made a total commitment to the Saviour. But we know he was saved because the Bible says so in 2nd Peter 2:7-8. So you have three Bible examples of uncommitted believers: those who trusted Christ had lapses in their yieldedness or surrender after they trusted Christ as Saviour but did not surrender until some time later, and Lot who never did yield his life to the Lordship of Christ.

IV. Scriptures That Clearly Refute Lordship Salvation

Not only do Bible examples refute Lordship salvation but clear passages of Scripture refute it also. First Corinthians 12:3 says, "...no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost." Now keep in mind that one does not have the presence of the Hoy Spirit in his life until after he is saved. Romans 8:9 says, "Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his." The Bible says in Galatians 4:6, "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father."

John 3:6 says believers are "born of the Spirit." They are sealed by the Spirit (Ephesians 4:30). If you can't call Jesus Lord without the Holy Ghost, and you must call Him Lord to get saved, and you are not saved without the Holy Ghost, you have a problem!

Romans is a book about salvation.

Romans, chapter 3, says that everybody need to be saved. It describes humanity. It lays man out on God's examination table and gives him a divine diagnosis. God looks at man and says, "Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

Their feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their ways" (Romans 3:13-16). He describes man from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, and says that he is a totally depraved sinner. In Romans 3:10 God says, "There is none righteous, no, not one." In verse 23 He says, "For all have sinned, and come short upon the glory of God." Romans 3 teaches that everybody needs to be saved!

Romans, chapter 4, gives three ways you cannot be saved. Verses 1 to 4 teach that one cannot be saved by works. Verses 9-12 teach that one cannot be saved by the observance of ordinances. Verses 13 to 25 teach that one cannot be saved by keeping the law.

Romans, chapter 5, tells you the only way to be saved. Verse 1 says, "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Justified by what? By surrender? By commitment? By making Jesus Lord of your life? No. "Justified by FAITH."

Romans, chapter 12, is written to those who are already saved, and verse 1 says, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

Notice that Paul refers to them as "brethren," meaning they were saved. there is no such thing as the universal fatherhood of God and the universal brotherhood of man. The only people who are our Christian brothers are those who have trusted Jesus Christ as Saviour. John 1:12 says, "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." Everyone who has trusted Jesus or received Him as Saviour, has become a son of God and is therefore a brother to all others who have trusted that same Saviour.

These people to whom Paul is writing are born-again believers but not committed, surrendered believers; and Paul is pleading with them, in view of all God's mercies, to present their bodies as living sacrifices. They are saved but Jesus is not the Lord of their lives.

Some say, "But the Bible says, 'If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me' (Matthew 16:24). The Bible says if you don't love the Lord with all you heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and hate your father and mother and all that, you can't be a disciple. The Bible says if you don't forsake all you have, you can't be a disciple (Luke 14:33)."

That is all true, but remember He is saying, "You cannot be my disciple." He didn't say, "You can't go to Heaven." We must not confuse the requirements for discipleship with the requirement for salvation. Every disciple is a believer, but every believer is not a disciple. A disciple is a learner, a student.

God never says to the unsaved man, "Come after Me for salvation." He says, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." But after one accepts Christ as Saviour, then He says in Matthew 4:19, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." We come to Him for salvation and come after Him for service.

It is one thing to trust Jesus Christ as Saviour and quite another to surrender one's life to the Lord. There is such a thing as the dedicated Christian life. And there are carnal Christians, according to 1st Corinthians 3, who have never yielded their lives to Christ. The yielding of one's life or making Jesus Lord of one's life is not a requirement for salvation. That is Lordship salvation and a perversion of the Gospel.

V. Some Arguments of Those Who Try to Prove Lordship Salvation

Those who teach Lordship salvation say, "But the Bible says, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.'" Sure it does. But it does not say, "Obey the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved."; it is always careful to identify the object of our faith. Our faith, our trust, our dependence must be in the Lord Jesus Christ.

We cannot trust our good works, our good life, our surrender, our baptism, our ordinances or anything else. We must trust Jesus Christ and Him alone for salvation. He plainly said, "I am THE way, THE truth, and THE life: no man cometh unto the father, but by me" (John 14:6). Why must we confuse the most important message in the world?

Suppose I am going to jump from a building into a net held by four men. A mechanic is holding once corner of the net, a dentist one corner, an airplane pilot one corner, and an insurance salesman the other corner. I am going to trust them to catch me. Some one could say, " Believe on Mr. Domansky, the dentist, and thou shalt be saved," but that doesn't mean I have to let him pull all my teeth in order to get saved. It simply means that I am going to have to trust him to catch me in that net.

Someone else could say, "Believe on Mr. Smith, the insurance salesman, and thou shalt be saved." But that doesn't mean I have to buy my insurance from Mr. Smith to be saved. It simply means I must trust him to hold that net for me.

When the Bible says in Acts 16:31, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved," it doesn't mean you have to make Him Lord of your life. It simply means you must trust the Lord Jesus Christ for your salvation. Verse after verse in the Bible clearly says that salvation is simply trusting in Jesus Christ. John 3:36 says, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

The man who is trusting anything other than Jesus Christ is not saved. That is plain teaching of the Bible. The man who claims he is trusting in Jesus Christ—plus his ability to yield to the Lordship of Christ, is not fully trusting the Saviour; and there is no promise to those who trust Jesus Christ plus something else, no matter how good the other thing may be.

When we get to Heaven, we are going to sing: "Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation" (Revelation 5:9). We are not going to sing: "We are worthy for we have committed and surrendered to the Lordship of Christ." Now when you teach salvation by grace through faith, that one is saved simply by trusting Jesus Christ, some call that "easy believism." But you will not find that expression in the Bible. That is a manmade expression.

It is not easy to get one to trust Christ, Him alone, and nothing else for salvation. As matter of fact, that may be the hardest thing in the world to do. You are called upon to believe in Someone whom your eyes have never seen.

You are called upon to believe in Someone, and you have never met an eyewitness who ever saw Him. You are called upon to believe on Someone whom the so-called scholarship of the day denies. You are called upon to believe in Someone who died on the cross two thousand years ago. You are called upon to believe in Someone of whom the only record you have of Him has been kept by His friends. You are called upon only to believe in His existence, but to believe that by depending on Him you can be justified on the basis that He was made guilty for your sins.

Now that is not easy! It is hard enough to trust someone we see and know, someone we have shaken hands with and talked to. But to trust in Someone whom we have not seen is difficult. That fact that most religions teach works, ordinances, sacraments, baptism or something else for salvation show how difficult is is to get a person to simply trust in Jesus Christ as Saviour. Salvation by grace is "believism" all right, but it is certainly not "easy believism."

Now don’t misunderstand me. I am not saying that you simply admit there is a Christ and thou shalt be saved; I am saying what the Bible says, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." The Bible word "believe" means to depend upon, to rely upon, to trust in. Some argue that verse in James 2:19, "...the devils also believe, and tremble." But the devils do not trust Jesus Christ as Saviour; they simply admit His existence.

It is one thing to believe an airplane can fly; it is quite another to trust your physical life to the pilot and plane to take you across the nation. To be saved, one must trust Jesus Christ completely for salvation. No Christian in the world can say that when he was saved he totally committed himself to Christ and has since then been absolutely surrendered. Not even those who teach Lordship salvation will say that. They will say, "Jesus has been my Lord, but many times I have disobeyed Him." Then when you disobeyed Him, He wasn’t the Lord of your life.

Those who teach Lordship Salvation say, "He’s always Lord." "Lord" comes from the Hebrew word Adonai, meaning "Master." It also comes from the word Jehovah, the personal name of God. There are several translations of the word. In that sense, He is everybody’s Lord. He is the tadpole’s Lord, the bumblebee’s Lord, the bullfrog’s Lord, the rattlesnake’s Lord—but that doesn’t mean they are saved. He is Master of the whole universe. he can do what He want to do, when He wants to do it!

Philippians 2:10-11, declares, "That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Does that mean that everyone will be saved, since the day will come when every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Jesus is Lord? Of course not. When we talk about Jesus being Lord of one’s life, we mean yielding to Him for the control of the life.

Jesus is Lord over many things about every individual—the color of my eyes, my height, my parents, etc. The Lord determined who my parents would be. He was the Boss; He was the Master. The Lord determined my height. he determined the size of my ears, nose, the texture of my skin.

But one important area of my life where He gives me control is my will. God made us free moral agents. We are creatures of choice. He wants to be Lord of our wills, but he doesn’t want to force us. He wants us to yield to Him because we want to do so. He was a willing Saviour, and He will have only willing servants. We trust Him for salvation, and we yield to Him for service.

VI. The Teaching of Lordship Salvation Confuses Believers

I have often heard those who teach Lordship salvation brag that three of four preachers got saved in their service. Some have said, "The youth pastor and three deacons got saved!"

Now I am for people trusting Christ as Saviour who have not already done so, but I am against any teaching that confuses believers. We heard of a youth director who was supposedly saved after hearing a sermon on Lordship salvation. Then many of the young people who trusted Christ under the youth director’s ministry, deciding they must not be saved, went forward and, in the words of the evangelist, were "really saved."

There is no difference between being saved and "really saved." There is no such thing as degrees in salvation. No one is more saved than the other. The Bible says in John 3:36, "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not on the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth upon him." Nothing can be plainer: those who are trusting Jesus Christ are saved, and they have everlasting life. And those who are not trusting Him are not saved, but the wrath of God abideth on them.

Saying one is "really saved" is like going to a funeral home, pointing to a casket and saying, "The person in that casket is dead," then pointing to another casket and saying, "The one in that casket is really dead!" There is no such thing as being dead, deader, and deadest.

One is either dead or alive, saved or lost, guilty or justified, believing or not believing. There is no between. Why do good Christians supposedly get "really saved" under the preaching of Lordship salvation? Because they believe the preacher. If I believed that one must make Jesus Lord of his life in order to be saved, then I would go forward every time I heard a sermon on the subject and get saved because there have been times when I have been a disobedient child, times when I have yielded to my old carnal nature.

The problem is, those who go forward and supposedly really get saved will have the same problem again later because they are not going to live a perfect life. There will be times when they will yield to the flesh; then when they hear a preacher say, "Unless you make Jesus Lord of your life, you are not saved," they will look back and see that Jesus has not been Lord of their lives and reason that if the preacher is correct, then they must not have been saved. So they will go forward again to trust Christ as Saviour, and make Him Lord of their lives so they can really be saved.

Lordship salvation confuses believers and makes them doubt their salvation. The Bible is very plain: the only way to be saved is by trusting Jesus Christ. In John 3:18 Jesus divides the whole world into two groups: "He He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." The condemned criminal is the one who has been arrested, tried, found guilty, and sentenced. The Bibles says the man who is trusting Jesus Christ is not under the sentence; he is not condemned. And he who is not trusting Jesus Christ is condemned. Why? Because he has "not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." He is not trusting Jesus Christ fully for salvation.

2.11.3 All False Teachers On Repentance Cite Obscure Scripture Passages (2021-11-07 19:44)

John 3:14-16, "And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 6:28-29, "Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent."

I have just quoted to you the plain teaching of God's Word. I found the following interesting quote from Pastor Dwight L. Moody (1837-1899)...

> "Thirty years ago people did not question the gospel. They believed that the Lord Jesus Christ, by dying on the cross, had done something for them. … And my work was to bring them to a decision to do what they already knew they ought to do. But all is different now. The question-mark is raised everywhere. There is need for teachers who shall begin at the beginning and show people what the gospel is. What we need today is men who believe in the Bible from the crown of their heads to the soles of their feet: who believe in the whole of it, the things they understand, and the things they do not understand." [emphasis added]

SOURCE: [1]Harold Lindsell, The Bible in the Balance (Zondervan, 1979) 26-27

D.L. Moody didn't know how right he was! Today in 2021, the Gospel is constantly being questioned, redefined and butchered. The average pastor is confused doctrinally. There are a lot of theologically incompetent pastors today who ought not be allowed behind any pulpit.

I am not accepted by God for what I do. I am accepted by faith for what Jesus has already done through the cross of Calvary.

Before salvation we are known by our sins, but after salvation we are identified with the righteousness of Christ. The Lord Jesus Christ took all our sin at the cross and now we have the privilege to have His righteous record placed on our account! Listen. I read a great quote by Pastor Curtis Hutson (1934-1995): "A good rule to follow when interpreting the Bible is to never use an obscure passage to contradict a clear one." Salvation is not doing your best, it is having Christ's best put to your account through receiving Him by faith.

As an example of false doctrine which has crept into the churches, here is a quote from the Victory Baptist Church in Pensacola, Florida. The pastor is Allen Cotton, who states in their Statement of Faith:

" Repent of your sin

Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of direction – a turning from sin unto Christ

Matt 3:2 - ...Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

Luke 13:3 - ...except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

SOURCE: [2]https://www.vbbcfl.org/salvation

As you can see, just like Pastor Curtis Hutson warned not to do, this pastor cites two obscure passages of Scripture to justify teaching a misunderstanding of repentance to be saved. The fact is that not one verse in the inspired King James Bible says to repent "of your sin" to be saved. Not one place in the Bible teaches to forsake sin, or turn away from sinful ways, to receive God's free gift of eternal life. In the Gospel of John, we find the word "believe" mentioned 88 times, but the word "repent" is not mentioned even once. That speaks volumes!!! John 20:31, "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

The entire purpose for which God authored the Gospel of John is to convince the reader that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God, and that by believing we will be saved. So why does Pastor Cotton need to quote two obscure passages of Scripture to support his false teaching that to be saved you must "Repent of your sin"? Dear reader, I am not trying to scold

Pastor Cotton, I am simply using him as a perfect example of how bad pastors use obscure passages of Scripture to bolster up their false doctrines!!! You don't need to "Repent of your sin" to be saved, you simply need to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST (Acts 16:30-31). The only thing you need to turn from to be saved is the only thing that can prevent you from entering into Heaven, which is YOUR UNBELIEF.

2.11.4 Set Your Affection On Things Above (2021-11-07 22:47)

Colossians 3:1-3, "

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

I love and often think about this precious passage of Scripture. Dear friend, if you are a born-again child of God, the very moment you were saved you raised up with Jesus Christ. Ephesians 2:1, "And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;" The word "quickened" means "alive." Before we were saved, we were DEAD the Bible says, without God's indwelling Holy Spirit, walking in darkness. But the moment you were saved, God sealed you with His blessed Holy Spirit (Ephesians 1:14-15).

Every believer is indwelt with God's Holy Spirit (1st Corinthians 3:16-17; Romans 8:9; 1st John 3:24). If you don't have the Holy Spirit living inside you, you are not saved. You are still in your sins and under the curse of God's law. The very second that a lost sinner puts his or her childlike faith in the Good News of Jesus Christ (i.e., the truth that Jesus died on the cross for our sins, was buried and three days later bodily resurrected from the dead), that person is saved immediately, irrevocably and eternally. The Gospel + Faith = Eternal Life

The Gospel + Faith = Eternal Life

If we are not careful, this dark and sinful world will have us on our knees cowering in fear, instead of falling to our knees in prayer to God. The Devil fears when the weakest saint gets upon his knees to pray. When you feel discouraged friend, SET YOUR AFFECTON ON THING ABOVE. Set your thoughts, your interests and your goals on heavenly things.

It was famous missionary Jim Elliot (1927-1956), who was martyred for his faith in Ecuador, who eloquently said:

> "He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep to gain that which he cannot lose." —martyred missionary Jim Elliot

This earthly life is so short. It will be over before we know it. I cannot believe that I am 54 years old! It seems like just yesterday that I was a pimple-faced nerdy teenager. I accepted Jesus as my personal Savior at age 13. That was 41 years ago...

Ev'ry day with Jesus
Is sweeter than the day before,
Ev'ry day with Jesus
I love Him more and more;
Jesus saves and keeps me,
And He's the One I'm waiting for;
Ev'ry day with Jesus
Is sweeter than the day before.

I am ready to go home to be with Jesus whenever He calls me home. I've had all I care to see of this sin-cursed insane dying world, although I still marvel always at God's beautiful creation. My only hope for eternal life is the cross of Jesus Christ and His bodily resurrection from the dead after three days. CHRIST IS RISEN! MY REDEEMER LIVETH!!! ...

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus Christ, my righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand,
All other ground is sinking sand.

Job 19:25, " For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:" We have so many reasons to rejoice as Christians. Our name is written in Heaven, which fact can never be forfeited nor jeopardized by our sins. Salvation is based solely upon God's promise " TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE " (1st Corinthians 1:21b).

The Holy Bible commands every child of God to SET OUR AFFECTION ON THINGS ABOVE. The things that interest me the most are studying the Bible, contending for the Christian faith, preaching the Gospel to win the lost to Christ, and helping others to grow in grace. God has put an earnest desire in my soul to teach others the Bible. I love to preach! I love to help others for Christ. God knew that I would stick with the stuff and get the job done, which is why He blessed me with this website ministry. After 19 years God is still blessing my humble labors for Him. Heresy has crept unawares into most churches today. Somebody's got to care! EIGHT DOCTRINE MATTERS!!!

Dear reader, when someone hurts your feelings, leave those hurt feelings at Jesus' feet. Hebrews 4:14, "

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. " We are already on the winning side in Christ Jesus!!! Therefore, let us hold fast our profession of faith. 1st Timothy 6:12, " Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses." The writer of Hebrews exhorts every believer to fight the good fight of faith, and to lay hold on eternal life. That means since we already have eternal life, we ought to seize every opportunity to serve God today while we still can. We won't receive eternal life someday when we die; but rather, we already posses eternal life now and can never perish.

I encourage you dear friend to listen to (or read) the Holy Bible every day. I listened to the complete books of Luke, Mark and some of Nehemiah today. I also encourage you to regularly listen to Bible preaching, which helps us think right. We all need Bible preaching. We all need the milk and meat of God's Word. And please don't just read or listen to the Bible, take the time to study what it means. You won't become a learned believer by merely listening to the Bible, or just reading it. You need to buckle down and study what each passage means. [2]The internet is chocked full of Bible study aids.

David set his affection on things above in Psalms 1:1-6, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish." What a beautiful passage of Scripture!

It is so easy to be distracted by life's burdens, hardships, problems and nasty people. One of the hardest things for us all is to cope with rude, mean, ungodly, selfish and indifferent people. We could all tell umpteen true stories about people hurting other people. But that is not the Christian way. The Bible teaches that our old man was crucified with Christ the day that we were saved. Salvation has nothing to do with living a sanctified life. Getting saved is a free gift from God, period. Nothing more is required to be forgiven of all sins and receive eternal life, than to simply receive Christ's sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins. JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! NOTHING TO HIM I OWE!!!

The Apostle Paul in Romans 12:1-2 calls presenting our bodies to God as a "LIVING SACRIFCE" is our "reasonable service," not our mandatory service. Since we were bought at a price (1st Corinthians 6:20), it is only reasonable that we return the favor, by presenting our body to God as a willing sacrifice to serve Christ. But if we refuse and choose to live out our own selfish existence here on earth, neglecting the gift that is in us (1st Timothy 4:14), then God's salvation of our soul and body is forever secure.

Kindly said, if we don't take the time to think about the things of God above, then we won't serve Go below. Nobody just wakes up one day and miraculously starts serving God. Everything begins with taking baby steps!!! I pray and hope that you will become soul-conscious dear friend, and perhaps get involved with a local soulwinning church. Good churches are becoming hard to find anymore, but they're out there if you look for them. Don't look for a perfect church, because you absolutely won't find one.

At best, Christians are horrible redeemed sinners. At best all Christians are still people, and at best all people are still sinners! So cut some slack to your imperfect pastor. Does he preach the truth, or does he compromise? Does he care about hurting people, or does he brush them aside? Does he expose false teachers, or does he sinfully bid them Godspeed? Does he know the true meaning of Bible repentance (which is simply “

a change of mind

), or does he corrupted the meaning of repentance (saying it means to

turn away from your sinful ways to be saved)? Yes, repentance is necessary for salvation, but it simply facilitates (makes possible) BELIEVING, by acknowledging the truth that we are guilty sinners in God’s sight (John 3:20; Romans 3:19-23; 2nd Timothy 2:25).

2.11.5 Keep The Gospel Simple (2021-11-09 20:18)

2nd Corinthians 4:3-4, “

But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost*: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” 2nd Corinthians 11:1-4, “

Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ*.

For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

Dear reader, the Devil’s methods are still the same today as they were 6,000 years ago in the paradisiacal Garden of Eden. Whereas God had told Adam and Eve in Genesis 2:16-17 that they COULD eat of all the trees in the garden except one (the tree of knowledge), the serpent misquoted God in Genesis 3:1 as saying the exact opposite, that they COULDN’T eat from any of the trees in the garden. God check for yourself and you will see!

The Bible warns that MANY false prophets are gone out into the world. 1st John 4:1, “Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because *many false prophets are gone out into the world." False teachers are notorious for taking Scripture passages OUT OF CONTEXT. The sinister art of taking words out of context is called "contextomy":

> 'Contextomy' refers to the selective excerpting of words from their original linguistic context in a way that distorts the source's intended meaning, a practice commonly referred to as 'quoting out of context'. Contextomy is employed in contemporary mass media to promote products, defame public figures and misappropriate rhetoric. A contextomized quotation not only prompts audiences to form a false impression of the source's intentions, but can contaminate subsequent interpretation of the quote when it is restored to its original context. —Research Gate, '[1]The Art Of Quoting Out of Context'

As we can see, taking someone's words out of context can do lasting and permanent damage! In Bible study there is a concept known as "

The Law Of First Mention,

which simply means that the first mention of a word or doctrine in the Bible sets a precedent to help guide us to understand the rest of Scripture. The reasoning behind this is that the first mention of something in the Bible is likely the simplest and clearest meaning of it.

We certainly see that this holds true in the Garden of Eden. The first place in the Bible where something was intentionally taken out of context was when the serpent deceived Eve in Genesis 3:1-5. It is important for us to study and fully understand what happened in the Garden of Eden, because Satan is using this simple but very effective deception in the churches today, still taking God's Words out of context to destroy people's lives!

Dear friend, God deliberately made His plan of salvation very simple, so that even a small child or a mentally challenged (retarded) person, can still be saved. There are a lot of base people in the world, who have low IQs and have difficulty understanding things. So our benevolent God made His plan of salvation utterly simple, free and easy! Let's clarify:

- SIMPLE - The bad news is that we are all guilty sinners for breaking God's commandments. There is a penalty for sin, which is "death" (Romans 6:23). This includes the "second death," which is to be punished in Hell forever (Revelation 20:11-15; 21:8). But God made a way of escape. The Gospel means "Good News." It is the Good News that Jesus is the only begotten Son of God, the Christ, who died on the cross to pay for our sins, so we don't have to go to Hell. Jesus was buried and three days later He resurrected from the dead (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).
- FREE - Jesus paid for our sins with His precious blood (1st Peter 1:18-19).
- EASY - All you need to do to go to Heaven is BELIEVE (trust, rest in) the Gospel to be saved.

That is so simple that even a Caveman can do it! Sorry, [2]I was thinking about the old Geico TV commercials. Getting saved is so easy that even a child can do it! I was saved at age 13. Pastor Jack Hyles and Dr. Curtis Hutson were both saved at age 11. Pastor Steven Anderson was saved at age 6. Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold was won to the Lord by his father-in-law at age

18. Did you know that 85 % of believers got saved at or before the age of 18? It is true. Only 4 % of people get saved after age 70! Wow, that is scary! Dear friend, if you got saved later in life, consider yourself very fortunate!!!

The older people grow, the less likely it is that they will ever come to Jesus Christ to be saved.

No wonder Jesus exclaimed in Luke 18:17, “

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

” Amen and amen! To be saved, a person must humble them self before God almighty, admitting that they need a Savior to get to Heaven. Adults often are too proud to do that, especially those who have much wealthy, fame and the worldly pleasures of this life.

The Gospel is so simple. You simple need to come to God as a needy guilty sinner, receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for YOUR SINS, believing that He is risen from the dead! That’s it. If the Good News of the Lord Jesus Christ is your only hope for Heaven, then you are saved dear friend. God authored a particular book of the Bible to show humanity how to go to Heaven, which is the beautiful and simple Gospel of John. NOT ONCE is the word “

repent

” mentioned in the Gospel of John. Wow! This is so important for you to realize dear reader, because it very clearly shows that repentance is NOT a separate act from BELIEVING to be saved. If repentance we something that needs to be done, in addition to believing, then God would have plainly said so in His Word.

In the Gospel of John we find the word “believe” mentioned 88 TIMES! Ladies and gentleman, that is all that God requires to be saved. What saith the Scripture? ...

John3:16,

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ”

John 6:28-29, “Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.”

John 6:40, “And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.”

John 6:47, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.”

John 11:25-26, “Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?”

John 14:6, “

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. ”

John 20:31, “ But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name. ”

These are but a few of hundreds of wonderful Bible passages, which teach us that the way of salvation is simply to BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!!!

So why do multitudes of bad pastors, foolish Bible professors and tainted evangelists ADD the unbiblical requirement to “

repent of your sin

” to be saved? Repenting of one’s sins sounds very religious, but it is NOT taught in the King James Bible. You have to be careful about using the Devil’s corrupt modern Bible revisions, because [3]many of them have been corrupted by Satan to say

“ [4]turn away from your sin” to be saved . Please only use the inspired KING JAMES BIBLE!!!

If you pick up and read most religious tracts nowadays, they are very complicated, loaded down with all sorts of extra non-biblical requirements to get to Heaven. Dear friend, the King James Bible [5]DOESN’T ASK YOU TO DO ANYTHING to get to Heaven. When the Gospel is preached, you simply BELIEVE WHAT YOU HEAR (OR READ), and that is how you get saved. The Apostle Paul calls this “the hearing of faith” in Galatians 3:2, “

This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

” I love that Bible verse!

But then the ungodly Bob Jones University (BJU) camp come along with their perverse Calvinist doctrine, [6]saying that if you don’t do good works that your faith is not genuine and you’re not saved! BJU is of the Devil. This is exactly what happened to the churches of Galatia, they were infiltrated by a works-based religious cult who misled them to believe that works are necessary to get to Heaven, under the disguise of faith. Galatians 3:3, “

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

” [7]That is what Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU since 2014) is heretically preaching. [8]That is what devil-dog Pastor Marty Herron (former shameful senior pastor who ruined the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam) is foolishly preaching today! These accursed wicked men (Galatians 1:6-9) are damning people’s souls to Hell with a Calvinist counterfeit plan of salvation!!!

Repeatedly, we are told in the Word of God that the SIMPLE way of salvation is through faith alone in Jesus Christ. Galatians 3:26, “ For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. ” The Apostle Paul said that he feared lest the churches of Galatia would be deceived like Eve was tricked by the crafty serpent. The serpent took God’s Word out of context in Genesis 3:1, just as Steve Pettit and Marty Herron take God’s Word out of context to preach misunderstood repentance and “ salvation. It is a serious crime to take God’s Word OUT OF CONTEXT!!!

I have plainly shown you the simple plan of salvation from the Gospel of John, which is to BELIEVE the Gospel (Good News) that Jesus died on the cross, was buried, and physically raised up after three days. If you make that your only hope for Heaven, you are saved! JESUS PAID IT ALL!!! I know 100 % that I am going to Heaven, not because of anything that I have done; but because of what Christ did for me, dying on the cross and shedding His precious blood for my sins, being buried and raising up from the dead victoriously the third day. CHRIST IS RISEN!!! MY SAVIOR LIVES!!!

Dear friend, please don't let ungodly false prophets in the corrupt Bob Jones University religious camp take you to Hell with them! You DON'T have to "repent of your sin" or "follow Jesus" or "fully surrender your will to Christ" or anything else to get to Heaven, just BELIEVE on Him. In fact, if you think you're going to Heaven because you've "repented of your sins," then YOU'RE NOT SAVED!!!

Partial faith in Christ plus something else equals damnation. The ONLY way to get to Heaven is you must completely REST in the finished redemptive work done by Jesus through Calvary's cross. We are saved by GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS, not our own righteousness. Philippians 3:9, "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:" I have God's imputed righteousness, which is by faith alone in Christ.

The simple way of salvation is through faith in the Lamb of God. Acts 10:43, "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. " Do you BELIEVE? Trust the Gospel of Jesus Christ now friend and you too can KNOW assuredly that your name is written in Heaven (Luke 10:20).

2.11.6 Don't Worry, Pray (2021-11-11 01:30)

Philippians 4:6-9, "

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God*.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

With the economic crisis in our country right now, I honestly do find myself beginning to worrying sometimes. Will I have an income next year? What if? What if? We never know what a day may bring forth (Proverbs 27:1). I never take anything for granted. I receive disability for my neck injury. I have much difficulty getting through each day, due to agonizing constant toothache-like pain in the bony area of my neck. The entire right side of my body feels half-asleep 24/7.

I feel intermittent sharp razorblade-like radiating pain down both arms and legs, mostly the right side. I feel burning throughout my entire nervous system, which feels like spasms at times, which is caused by nerve damage in my spinal cord from the second neck surgery I underwent in 2010 which made me 100 % worse. I feel constant pressure in my neck, which feels like a small balloon filled with air inside my neck. These discomforts make it difficult for me to sit through a church service, carry on a normal conversation and cope with everyday life.

All of these aforementioned discomforts and pain frustrate me. I get irritated easily and have little patience, because the pain is in my neck right next to my head, afflicting me. I survive from day to day in a form of hell on earth. I have endured this misery for the past 17 years since 2004. I never assume anything. I used to worry all the time around 2010 to 2013, but it became so emotionally difficult for me that I couldn't do it anymore. I came to the place where I didn't care anymore if I lost my disability, it wasn't worth the emotional trauma and fear. I decided to trust God no matter what!

I recently moved from Guam to Florida and started to worry if it will change my disability status. Laws change from place to place, involving many legalities. It is next to impossible to gather all the information a person needs, about everything that may affect us. I simply cannot live a life of fear. So I am trusting God. I don’t know what will happen over the next year or two. I can think of dozens of “

What ifs?,

” worrying myself. But that is not how God wants me to live as His child. I am not a self-made millionaire. I am not financially set for life.

” I honestly do not know what I would do if I lost my income tomorrow, I would end up homeless.

I am being transparent with you dear reader, to help relate to your own worries and burdens. We all have them!

Hebrews 13:5, “

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. ” I cherish this Bible verse! And yet I read about poor people in Africa who are barely surviving in utter poverty. I see poor people in the Philippines who survive on $30 per month income. I feel guilty for worrying when I read in the news about people whose homes burn down, and those who have unfortunately lost their jobs, and others who are terribly disabled and suffering. Yet I see those hurting people smiling and praising God!

When I start to feel sorry for myself and worry, I am reminded quickly of dear people like Katie Stubblefield, who took her brother’s shotgun to commit suicide. Some mean girls at school were bullying her (I know what being bullied hurts like). Katie didn’t know how to process those hurtful emotions and decided to take her own life. She was a beautiful teenage girl in appearance. She failed at killing herself and instead blew her face off. Katie is blind today, but has renewed her faith in God and has a purpose in life now! She is an encouragement to millions of people, including me. I think about Katie often and use her tragedy to always REMIND ME that I have absolutely NOTHING to worry, complain or feel bad about. ...

The Wonderful Story Of Katie Stubblefield

One of the reasons why I have thousands of web visitors who love and follow me faithfully with interest is because I have suffered MUCH over the decades, yet I keep going by God's grace strong in my faith. I give God ALL the credit and praise for anything good ever accomplished in me. Without Jesus we can do nothing (John 15:5).

My beloved wife divorced me in 2006. We lost our paid home as a consequence. I've been renting ever since. I got hit by a church bus in 1992 which permanently misaligned my neck, leading to Cervical Degenerative Disk Disease. I had a serious accident in 2004 which worsened my neck injury, leaving me with radiating pain in my limbs. I flew 6,000 miles from Guam to California twice in 2009 and 2010 to undergo two major neck surgeries. I was by myself and had no one by my side. I wanted to die for loneliness. But I knew God was with me. When I recovered from my first surgery, awakening out of anesthesia, I exclaimed in the Emergency Room: "

God saw me through!,

and He did. I love Jesus!!!

> "A test of a Christian's character is what he does after he comes to the blockade in the road and what his attitude is after everything has left him except Jesus." —[1]Brother Lester Roloff

I could tell you many more hardships that I have endured, some that I choose not to share with others because they are too painful. Faith is like film, it develops in the dark! Unshakable faith come from having your faith shaken! Sadly, the biggest obstacle to my Christian faith has been other professed Christians who are phony, ungodly and indifferent about truth. Namely, the ungodly Bob Jones University camp have utterly discouraged me from serving God. If it weren't for my faith being strong and mature in the Lord, having been a born-again believer for 41 years since age 13 in 1980, I would have quit and never gone back to church again because of [2]shameful Pastors' Marty Herron, Joe Hansen, Jared Baldwin and Gary Walton on Guam! I forgive those wicked men, but God must avenge me of [3]their evil toward me and my family, and all the seven years that I had no church to attend because they banned me.

One thing that I have painfully learned is to JUST PRAY about everything, and then claim God's peace in all things. I love the following Bible passage from the Old Testament book of Daniel. King Nebuchadnezzar was a vain king, demanding that all men worship HIM. The young Christian lads, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, respectfully REFUSED! They told the king that their God of Israel would deliver them from the deadly fiery furnace, and I love what they said next...

BUT IF NOT

"!!! Whew that is precious, BUT IF NOT...

> Daniel 3:15-18, "Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up."

Likewise, my attitude is that I am going to just do what the Bible says and PRAY ABOUT EVERY-THING. God will answer my prayers if it is within His will. BUT IF NOT, then I am still going to obey God to pray, so it can never be said down the road in eternity that I failed to pray. God does not expect me and you to do HIS PART, God only expects us to do OUR PART.

That is why so many preachers have gone haywire on the Gospel, because they are trying to force sinners to do GOD'S PART. OUR PART in salvation is to simply get out of the way, ceasing from our own works, and to simply REST in the Good News of Jesus Christ crucified, buried and risen from the dead (John 19-20; 1st Corinthians 15:1-4; Hebrews 4:10-11). In every case of someone preaching a false plan of salvation, it is always because they are confusing OUR PART with GOD'S PART.

"More people will die and burn in Hell, because they're trusting too much!"

—Pastor Jack Hyles, " [4]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay! "

"Everything that's hard and complicated about salvation is God's side of it!"

— Pastor Jack Hyles, "[5]Yea, Yea, And Nay, Nay!"

Dear reader, I struggle with praying about everything just as you do. I seriously doubt if 99 % of believers are faithful to pray about everything. One thing I learned many years ago from Matthew 6:7-8 is that God doesn't expect us to spend lengthy hours in prayer to see results. Too many Christians, I think, approach prayer with a superstitious mindset. Let's be real here! God wants to help us, but the Bible says if we are proud, then God will avoid us (James 4:6). Hebrews 4:14-16 says that as God's redeemed children we have a legal right to come before the throne of grace, to ask God for mercy to give us grace to help in our time of need.

God wants us to pray (1st Thessalonians 5:17). God wants us to ask Him for things (Philippians 4:6-7). 1st John 5:14-15, " And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. " I have often felt that God was ignoring me, not answering my prayers. But dear friend, that is where our faith comes into play. Praying in itself is an act of faith. But when God doesn't answer (or seems not to answer) and we keep on praying, that requires a greater faith, which according to Hebrews 11:6 PLEASES GOD. We find confirmation of this truth in Luke 18:1-8 in the story of the widow and the unjust judge.

Luke 18:1, " And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;"

We all have different thinks that we could worry about Pastor Danny Castle says:

> “He was God when you thought your whole world caved in on you, and you didn’t know where you was gonna turn to!!!” —Pastor Danny Castle, [6]a beautiful quote from the life-changing sermon, “[7]GOD” (MP3) | [8]Video

I love this quote too by Pastor Danny Castle, one of my favorite preachers:

> “There’s two days you should never worry about—yesterday and tomorrow! You can’t change them. Fight today’s battles today! Worry is the end of faith and faith is the end of worry! The second I start trusting the Lord, I quit worrying; and the second I start worrying, I quit trusting the Lord. Worry is not trusting God. I just feel like, some of you may be just worrying yourself sick, over stuff that you can’t change it a bit. You know what you need to do—put it into God’s hands! Don’t be guilty of the sin that most Christians commit." —Pastor Danny Castle, a quote from the sermon titled: "[9]The Sin That Most Christians Commit"

And here is a helpful quote from Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold:

> “See, you have peace ’with God’ when you trusted Christ as your Savior; but the peace ’of God’ is what God gives to you on a daily basis, when you rely upon Him and you trust Him.” —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, a helpful quote from the excellent MP3 sermon, “[10]The War On Worry.”

Wow, I love that quote! We have peace WITH God when we get saved, but we have the peace OF God on a daily basis as we TRUST IN GOD...

> Trust and obey,
>
> for there’s no other way
>
> To be happy in Jesus,
> but to trust and obey.

Dear child of God, don’t allow the Devil to cause you to worry. You know as well as I do that worrying doesn’t help anything. It is true! When we worry, all we do is punish ourselves and wish we could die and make the pain go away. I know I feel that way when I choose to worry. I know it is hard not to worry sometimes, especially when we are facing something really bad or serious in life; but what you need to do is take the first step, which is to go do something else to get your mind off of whatever you’re worrying about.

I usually go write blogs or work on my website ministry when I worry, redirecting that negative energy into something positive that will cause me to reap more heavenly rewards. When the Devil kicks you in the rear, you kick him in the front! Witnessing the Gospel is a perfect way to overcome worry. God bless you dear reader and THANK YOU for taking the time to read my ministry blogs. It does mean very much to me. You are a blessing to me, whoever you may be. You’ll never go wrong by praying. And if you do worry, go ahead and pray anyway while you’re worrying. Always get God involved. When we pray, we are putting the ball into God’s hands.

2.11.7 ’The Gospel’ is The Power Of God Unto Salvation (2021-11-11 13:54)

Romans 1:16-17, “ So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth*; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith. ”

It is one’s faith in the Gospel (Hebrews 4:2; Galatians 3:26) that causes God to work the miracle of salvation (John 1:12-13). Salvation is a supernatural miracle of God in response to one’s faith in the Gospel. Calvinists fail to see getting saved as a one-time NEW BIRTH. Instead, they view salvation as an ongoing process in which you must live a certain way (i.e., faithfully running the race, persevering in holiness, continually turning away from sin) to get to Heaven.

The NEW BIRTH is instantaneous, meaning that a believer CAN KNOW 100 % that we are saved now, confidently and forever. I think we don't hear enough about "the new birth" and "being born again" nowadays from pulpits. I've noticed that Calvinists avoid terms like "gift" and the "imputed righteousness of God" and the need to be "born again," because it doesn't fit their false doctrinal agenda.

Eternal life is a gift that we receive! Once we accept it by faith alone, it is ours forever to claim and rejoice in. We couldn't "rejoice" that our name is written in Heaven, as Jesus commanded us to do in Luke 10:20, unless we could KNOW 100 % that we are saved presently. Calvinists teach that we cannot know until we get to Heaven, since we must do good works to prove that our faith is genuine. That is a counterfeit gospel. Luke 10:20, " Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." The ONLY way that anyone could REJOICE that their name is written in Heaven is to 100 % KNOW NOW (this very moment) that you are saved.

2.11.8 The False Religion of 'Hinduism' Exposed! (2021-11-12 01:30)

John 3:3, "Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

Hinduism is one of the Devil's religions! I say that kindly, but truthfully, because I care about you and don't want anyone to go to Hell when they die. The Holy Scriptures given through Israel have been proven accurate by historians, archaeologists, scientists, astronomers, and experts from nearly every field. Only a fool would ignore such overwhelming conclusive evidence of a divine Creator, God and Savior!

A demon's favorite activity is to make people feel comfortable in their religion, without ever being born-again by faith in Christ Jesus. And may I say, that includes every religion. No religion can take a person to Heaven. We are not saved by following a religion; but rather, by believing on the Lord Jesus Christ! According to John 3:3 (our text verse above) in the Holy Bible, God's inspired Words, a man must be born-again if he is to enter into the Kingdom of God. Clearly, as you will see, the false religion of Hinduism does NOT recognize the concept of being born-again in Christ Jesus. In fact, Hindus reject Jesus as being the Christ, the Savior of the world. Thus, Hinduism is diametrically opposed and incompatible with Bible Christianity. I say this, not to be unkind, but truthful.

Hindus Worship Cows, Even Eating and Bathing in Cow Urine and Dung

My friend, Satan loves to inspire people to do unthinkable things. Take for example Hindus infatuation with drinking cow urine! That's right, carbonated, flavored, anyway you want it... [1]COW PISS!!! (YouTube video). I'm not making this up! But that's not all, adherents bath and sprinkle their faces with fresh cow urine, and the women perfume their bodies with cow urine. And yes, Hindus even [2]smear cow dung and urine around their home in hope of receiving a blessing from their plethora of demonic gods. A common food that is eaten in India (by cow-worshipping Hindus) is made from cow's milk, urine, dung and saliva.

Truly, Satan is the god of this wicked world! The popular excuse of using cow urine is that it is healthy, which has yet to be proven. Perfuming yourself with stinking cow urine has no health benefits. Certainly, smearing cattle fecal matter around your living room is not healthy for humans (but it's good for fertilizing plants as manure). Hinduism has some extremely unsanitary practices, which all originate from the insane worship of cows. Literally, if there is a cow blocking the road, Hindus will sit and wait for hours if they cannot go around it.

The strange fact of the matter is that Hindus in India worship their cows as gods:

> Millions of Hindus worship and revere cows. It is one of the animals which is considered sacred in Hinduism. From the Mother to the Goddess, a cow is very auspicious and holds a special significance in Hinduism. It is the sacred animal which provides the life sustaining milk. Cows are held in a superior position in Hinduism as it is one of the animals which has been mentioned in Puranas and mythological stories as well. We cannot forget the white cow that stood behind Lord Krishna. Lord Krishna was a cow herder so cows are considered very holy in the Hindu religion. However, even the cow dung is considered holy and auspicious in Hinduism. In Hinduism, cow dung has a special spiritual significance. It is said that the cow doesn't eat non-vegetarian items and only eats grass or grains which makes cow dung holy and acceptable. In a lot of pujas, both dried and fresh cow dung is used. From Govardhan Puja to havans, cow dung is used during pujas.

Biblical Christianity has no such insane practices. In Christianity we eat cows for dinner, giving thanks to God in Heaven. Cows blocking the road are either turned into road-kill, dinner or forced off the roadways (or all three). Cows are mere animals. It is a sin to worship anything or anyone other than God in Heaven (Isaiah 42:8), Who has manifest Himself to the world through the incarnation of the Son of God, Jesus Christ (Exodus 20:4-5; John 1:1-3,14; 1st Timothy 3:16)!

Here is a quote concerning what Hinduism errantly teaches:

> Hinduism cannot answer the essential philosophic questions that always arise wherever and whenever the human intellect matures. It has been weighed in the scales of truth and have been found lacking.

Even more importantly, Hinduism has no concept of a Creator God, the Creation, the Fall of man into sin and guilt, a Day of Judgment, atonement or forgiveness, or a Savior who redeems us from our sins by the sacrifice of Himself in our place.

It did not produce democracy, science or equality among different races and racks of mankind. Instead it produced great social evils which afflict the Indian people to this day. As a religion and a philosophy, Hinduism is a complete failure and cannot provide a basis for meaning, significance, justice, morals, truth and beauty.

Biblically, Hindus are idolaters, because they worship a host of gods other than the true and living God of Israel (not the present-day Illuminati-controlled state of Israel, but true Old Testament Israel and Jehovah). As you will discover in the following information from the New World Encyclopedia, Hindus worship umpteen different gods, none of them of which died on the cross for their sins as did Jesus Christ . . .

Around 300 B.C.E., the great epics known as the Puranas, which include the Ramayana and the Mahabharata were “remembered” (smriti). These stories are more familiar to the vast majority of Hindus than the contents of the Vedic and Vedantic literature. The Mahabharata is also a story of origins, a sacred history of India. The strand of religious practice represented by the Puranas is devotion, devotion to a “personal God” chosen by each individual, who, in return for worship and service, will aid the individual in their quest for moksha. This is known as the bhakti tradition, or way (marga).

By the time that the Puranas were written, the main deities of the Vedas had been supplanted in popular devotion by a pantheon of three: Brahma, Vishnu, and Shiva, respectively creator, preserver, and destroyer (then a new cycle of existence begins). The image of the Trimurti (three forms of God) is very popular in India, which > represents the unity of the three aspects of God. Each has a consort: Saraswati (associated with education and speech); Lakshmi (prosperity); and Parvati (creativity, the arts). The qualities of fame, fortune, memory, speech, intelligence, and resolve are all listed as feminine (Gita, 10:34).

>
> Each of the three has their own Puranas, and in these texts there is a tendency to regard the subject as the most important deity, assuming the functions of all three. In popular Hinduism, Brahma is less important that Vishnu and Shiva. As preserver, Vishnu manifests or appears in human form whenever humanity is in peril. These manifestations, or Avatars include Ram and Krishna, whose stories are told in the Ramayana and Mahabharata respectively.

In sharp contrast to what Hinduism falsely teaches, the Holy Bible tells us that there is only One God, and He is the Savior.

According to the Holy King James Bible:

> Isaiah 43:11, "I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour."
>
> And again we read in Isaiah 44:6, "Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God."
>
> Isaiah 44:8, "Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any."
>
> Isaiah 45:5, "I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else."
>
> Isaiah 45:21-22, "Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

Hinduism is Satanic, because Satan uses such false religions to blind the minds of men (2nd Corinthians 4:4), to hinder them from seeing the simplicity that is in Christ (2nd Corinthians 11:3-4), so that they might be saved (Romans 1:16).

My intent is not to be unkind, but the reality is that the entire culture of India has gone down a path of apostasy and false religion. Instead of worshipping the God of Israel Who spoke the universe into existence by His omnipotent power, wisdom and words, they succumb to worshipping four-footed beasts. Here is one of my favorite Bible verses from Leviticus 11:3, "Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall ye eat." I like my steaks medium-rare! Amen! If Hindus want to stick a straw up Bessie the cow's genitalia for a refreshing summer's drink, knock yourself out; but I'm having ribeye steak and a Coca-Cola for dinner! Needless to say, I won't be converting to Hinduism. Kindly, if you're involved in that satanic mess in Hinduism, please [6]repent and believe the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ before it's too late. Life is short, eternity is forever!

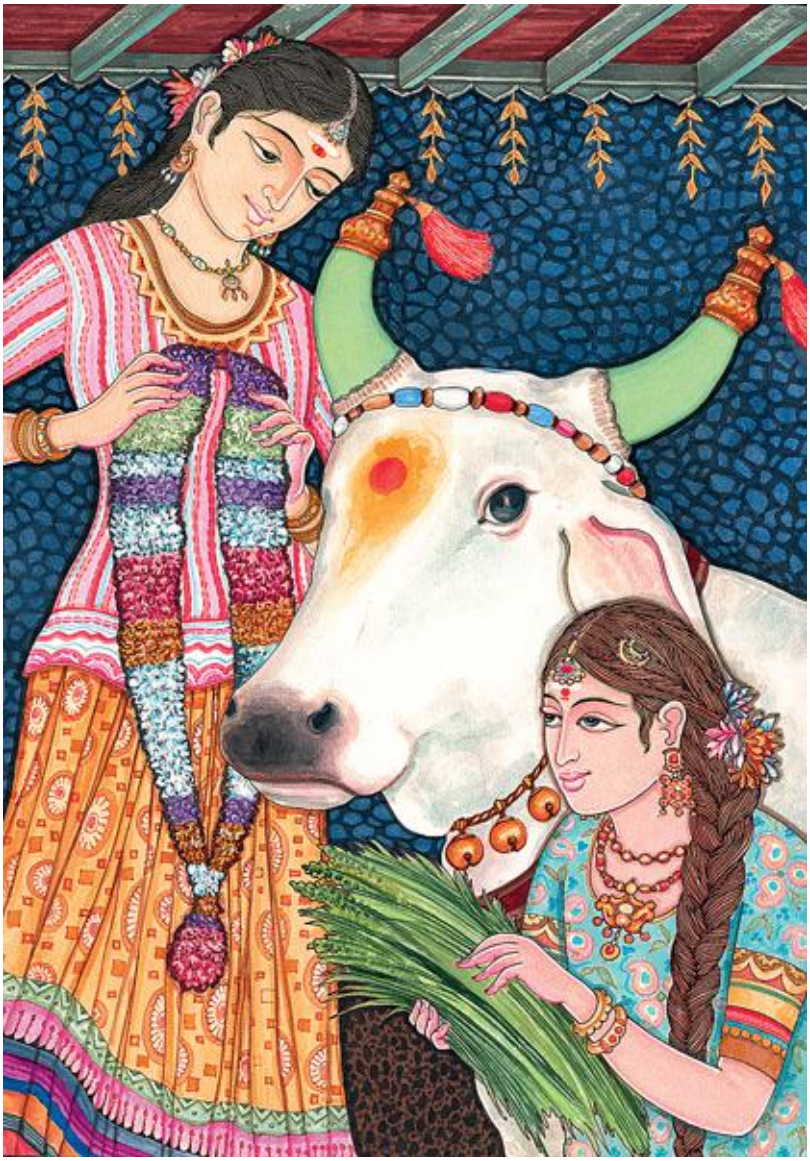
The following helpful and eye-opening information exposing Hinduism is from the excellent Christian website, [7]BibleBelievers.com . . .

HINDUISM



The word "Hindu" is of Persian origin and means "Indian." Hinduism claims nearly 1 billion followers worldwide. Approximately 80 % of India's population is Hindu. There are approximately 1.3 million Hindus in North America according to a 1993 census in Encyclopedia Britannica 1999. There are approximately 200 Hindu temples or Hindu centers in the U.S. ([9]www.probe.org/docs/hindu.html). Hinduism is the root of Buddhism as Buddha (Gautama) was raised in Hinduism and drew heavily from its philosophies. Hinduism by its nature is eclectic, as it has no definable beginning or founder. Hindus have a saying: "Ekam Sataha Vipraha Bahudha Vadanti," which may be translated: "The truth is One, but different Sages call it by Different Names" Hinduism like all other non-Christian religions accept various ideas of "God" and cannot define a true saving relationship with the God of heaven and creator of us all.

I). History and Roots of Hinduism:

Hinduism's Roots Are From 2 Systems:
3rd Century B.C. ancient civilization in the Indus River Valley

The Aryan people (a group of wandering nomads from Persia of Indo-European language) who came to the Indus Valley around 1500 B.C.

Its Roots Are Vedic.

"The religion of the Aryans is described in the writings of "holy men" contained in the Vedas (meaning "knowledge" or "wisdom"). The Vedas are four collections of writings composed between about 1500 and 500 B.C., which form the basis for Hindu beliefs, and which reveal a gradual development of religious ideas. The later sections of the Vedas are known as the Upanishads. These Vedic writings are considered inspired. Later Hindu writings, including the renowned Bhagavad Gita" ([10]www.probe.org/docs/hindu.html)

II). Philosophy and Teachings:

Hinduism is marked by the worship and belief in many forms of "God." There are nearly 330 million deities in the Hindu belief structure making it difficult to define a major belief system.

While Hinduism has a diversity of beliefs, some common beliefs can be found:
God:

The Hindu concept of God is best described by the series "Star Wars" and its idea of "The Force." It is this idea of an undefined "higher power" that has influenced much of Western culture from Alcoholics Anonymous' "God who you perceive Him to be" and Masonry's "great architect." All of these are a generic "God" that can be anything one chooses Him to be rather than the clearly defined God of Scripture.

The Upanishads define God as "Brahman" which is the culmination of their many gods into one "Reality" beyond comprehension.

Brahman became known as "Isvara" through the "Trimurti" (three manifestations) of Brahman. These three manifestations are: Brahma- the creator, Vishnu- the preserver, and Shiva- the destroyer.

Ishvara became personified later by 10 mythical incarnations of Vishnu called "Avatars." Bhagavad Gita says, "When goodness grows weak, When evil increases, I make myself a body. In every age I come back To deliver the holy, To destroy the sin of the sinner, To establish righteousness." Some of these Avatars have been said to have been Krishna, Rama, Buddha and Jesus Christ, however they must be born in India to be a full Avatar. Hinduism says that Christ was more a "messenger of God" than an Avatar.

According to [11]www.religioustolerance.org Hinduism can be separated in 2 major groups: Vaishnavaism- which regards Vishnu as the ultimate deity (making up 80 % of Hinduism) and Shivaism which regards Shiva as the ultimate deity.

"Atman is Brahman" a decree of Hinduism that says your true self (Atman) is, as are all living things, Brahman ("God"). Hinduism teaches that we are ignorant of our divine nature and therefore we live with personal desires and egos which cause our pain. This is the same idea that is taught in Buddhism through the "4 Noble Truths" and much like Scientology's "thetan" concept. This is also the reason that many Hindus are vegetarians not wanting to kill any life ("Ahimsa"- non-injury to living things) that might be "God."

Karma, Samsara & Moksha:

Karma is "cause and effect" much like Buddha taught in Buddhism. It is the idea that everything one does will affect him in a later life. For some it breeds fatalism in that you are doomed because of the past and so you simply accept it.

Samsara is reincarnation or transmigration. This also was transferred into Buddhism with some changes. In Hinduism, the soul (atman) is reborn in another body (human or animal). Along with Samsara is the "Caste" system where people are in 4 basic castes or social classes. These castes are Brahmins (priests), Kshatriyas (warriors), Vaisyas (merchants, farmers), Shudras (laboring class). One's caste is determined at birth or by personal karma and cannot be improved upon.

Moksha is liberation, like the Buddhist idea of Nirvana. Moksha is the solution to karma and attachment to personal goals and desires. "This can only occur when we truly realize that our separate self is actually an illusion and that only the undifferentiated oneness of Brahman is real. We must therefore strive to detach ourselves from the desires and actions of our ego in order to attain true enlightenment." ([12]www.equip.org/free/DH-122.htm)

Salvation (Moksha) 3 Paths to Moksha:

Through Karma Yoga a system of works guided by the "Code of Manu" with strict rituals and duties throughout life.

Through Jnana Yoga a way of knowledge. Through deep meditation (yoga) one realizes their oneness with the divine Brahman overcoming ignorance (Avidya).

Through Bhakti Yoga that is devotion to one of the many gods and goddesses of Hinduism. This is self-surrender, worship (Puja), participation in the many religious festivals, and pilgrimages to one of the numerous holy sites in India.

III). A Biblical Response to Hinduism.

There is but ONE God!

"For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) 6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him."
(1 Corinthians 8:5-6 KJV)

For man to be God is Satan's original lie!

"And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: 5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:4-5 KJV)

Man CANNOT earn or "realize" salvation through any works, meditation, or worship of created images.

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;"

(Titus 3:5 KJV)

2.11.9 The God Of All Comfort (2021-11-16 15:52)

“Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort.” —2nd Corinthians 1:3

The Apostle Paul had suffered horrible trials and tribulation while traveling through Asia, so bad in fact that he stated in 2nd Corinthians 1:8b, “we despaired even of life.”

In writing of God’s sustaining grace concerning the poet William Cowper, Joseph Larson said:

“It was William Cowper on his way in a cab to the Thames River to commit suicide, who, when the driver could not find it for the dense fog, returned to his house and thanking God for the fog, wrote:

Trials can make life seem not worth living. Paul said in 2nd Corinthians 1:9, “But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead." In other words, Paul says, "We felt as if we were under a death sentence and all hope was gone. But we suffered so that we would stop trusting ourselves and learn to trust God, Who raises the dead."

God moves in a mysterious way,

His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps on the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan His works in vain;
God is His own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for His grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face."

God will oftentimes bring a Christian to the point in life where there is no direction to look except up, to where all we have left is our faith. When all you have is God, God is all you need. God brought the Apostle Paul to the point where he even despaired life itself, so that Paul would learn to trust completely in God.

2.11.10 Laying Up Treasures In Heaven For Yourself (2021-11-19 03:15)

Matthew 6:19-21, "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

The longer I live on earth the more I realize how in vain it is to lay up treasures down here. I thank God that I have spent the last 19 years laboring night and day online for Christ:

1st Corinthians 3:5-9, "

Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

For we are labourers together with God*: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

I love this passage of Scripture. 1st Corinthians 3:9 teaches that WE ARE LABOURERS TO-GETHER WITH GOD!!! Wow! I love that. God desires for lost sinners to be saved more than anyone. 2nd Peter 3:9, "

The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Many people want to see evildoers and career criminals burn in Hell forever. But that is not the great loving heart of our God. Certainly, God is a righteous God Who loves justice and righteousness, but He also desires to see wicked sinners repent (think differently) and come to Jesus by childlike faith for the free gift of forgiveness and eternal life.

If I understand the Bible correctly, God will reward me for every keystroke and mouse-click, because I did it lawfully, preaching a correct Gospel, using the only inspired Bible (the King James) and I did it all for Jesus my Savior (Mark 9:41). Everything that we do to further the preaching of the Gospel will be rewarded by God in eternity. But this is only true if you are a born-again believer. Unsaved people can follow and serve Christ for a lifetime, and yet still split Hell wide open when they die (Matthew 7:21-23). YE MUST BE BORN AGAIN (John 3:3).

Hebrews 6:10, "For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister." Jesus exhorts all believers in Matthew 6:19-20 to lay up FOR YOURSELVES treasures in Heaven. Through prayer, giving to the poor, fasting, laboring and serving Jesus Christ and the Gospel, we are laying up eternal heavenly treasures which neither thief nor moth can corrupt. What a great God and Savior!!!

There is nothing selfish or wrong about wanting to labor here on earth to lay up treasures FOR YOURSELF in Heaven. That is exactly what Jesus said in Matthew 6:19-20. The Savior said to lay up treasures FOR YOURSELF!!! Our blessed Savior is so ethical that He even promises a REWARD to those who help a disciple who follows Christ. Matthew 10:42, "

And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. **"

Many of my web visitors over the years have helped my ministry, by sharing my articles on social media. The dear Lord said that those believers who be rewarded for helping me, because I follow Jesus Christ. I am not just an adopted son of God by choice, but I am also a disciple of Jesus by choice! The choice to become a disciple of Jesus, is a completely separate decision from choosing Christ as one's personal Savior. We must NEVER mix or confuse these two things, for do to so is the heresy of " salvation. In fact, one of the ways that we can earn rewards in Heaven is by refuting and exposing the Devil’s dangerous lie of salvation (which is rooted in heretical Calvinism).

Lordship

Lordship

You can lay up treasures in Heaven by helping your local Bible-believing, separated, soul-winning church. God does not reward anyone for playing church! God does not reward anyone for doing nothing for Christ or the Gospel. God rewards LABOR (1st Corinthians 3:8). Passing out Gospel tracts is LABOR. Tithing is LABOR, because you had to go to work to earn that money. Praying and fasting is LABOR. Fasting is letting go of the physical to grasp more of the spiritual during a time of prayer. God rewards that! Giving alms (money, clothes or food) to the poor is LABOR, because someone went to work to pay for those things. God keeps tract of our good deeds, sacrifices and efforts done for Jesus’ sake and the Gospel’s.

2.11.11 How Permanent Is Your Salvation? (2021-11-27 02:33)

John 3:3-7,

“

Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother’s womb, and be born?

Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

A human baby is born once! It is impossible for a human baby, once born, to go back into its mother’s womb and be born-again. That is exactly what Jesus explained to Nicodemus in our text passage above. Jesus was making it clear to Nicodemus that a man must be born for the second time, but this time spiritually instead of physically. Just as the first fleshly birth is irreversible, so also is the second spiritual birth irreversible, irrevocable and immediate.

The first birth was by water. Every child spends about nine months encased in the safety of their mother’s water bag. Jesus said that which is born of water is of water, and that which is born of the Spirit (Holy Spirit) is spirit. Some errant Bible scholars (like [1]Matthew Henry’s Commentary on the Bible) misinterpret water

in John chapter three to mean water baptism, but we know that is absolutely untrue! The repentant thief on the cross wasn’t water baptized. Yet, Christ promised that they both would be in Paradise that very same day (Luke 23:43).

No one in the Old Testament was water baptized to be saved. Yet, we read in Acts 10:43 that everyone in the Old Testament got saved the same way we do today, which is by faith alone in Christ. Acts 10:43, “To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.” Christ died on the cross to pay for me sins, so I wouldn’t have to pay for them myself in the Lake of Fire (Hell). We get saved by receiving Christ’s sacrifice on the cross as payment for our sins, believing that He raised up three days later from the dead for our justification (1st Corinthians 15:1-4).

Dear reader, how you choose to live your life here on earth has absolutely nothing to do with your eternal destiny. And if it did, we’d all be hopelessly doomed to be punished in Hell forever. The Holy Bible teaches that Christ came to save, not to condemn. God loves you so much friend that He would rather die than live without you, so He has already made a payment on the cross. God wants to credit (impute) that payment to your account. All He requires is childlike faith in Jesus Christ. What saith the Scripture? Romans 10:3-4, “ For they being ignorant of God’s righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.”

Since the day I trusted Christ as my personal Savior in 1980 at age 13, there’s never been another sin that could put me back into debt. God’s righteousness was put (imputed) to my account by faith. Christ paid for my sins so that I wouldn’t have to. Since we are all unjust by nature and by choice, we cannot save ourselves (Isaiah 64:6). That is the best news in all the world. I am going to Heaven on God’s righteousness, not mine. Philippians 3:9, “And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Sometimes people want to figure out how much they can ADD to the Gospel, so that people will understand it better. And then there are others who want to trim off everything, so that there's not much left to tell. The truth is that the message on how to be saved should always be the same, because it doesn't change with every preacher. Although different preachers use different styles of delivering their message, and there is such a thing as semantics in grammar, the fact is that the Gospel message in the King James Bible never changes! Everyone has a right to their own opinion, but no one has a right to their own facts.

What must I believe to be sure and secure in God's salvation? Because whatever the Gospel is, we've got to get it right because a person's eternal destiny depends on the truth of the Gospel.

In Galatians chapter two it talks about the Apostle Paul not compromising, so that the truth of the Gospel might remain with you, because there's always someone who wants to change the Gospel. So if the Gospel is the grace of God for man, then grace MUST have two things in order to truly be grace:

1. It must be free
2. It must last forever

So whatever God does, He does it permanently. God doesn't just save somebody for a day, a week, a month or a year, He saves you forever!!! You can only get saved (born again) one time. But what do we have to do to get this new birth? The Apostle Paul was a missionary church planter, starting churches all over the region and beyond. Paul would start one church and then move on to start another church elsewhere. If you are born once, you die twice; if you are born twice, you die once! Amen and amen!

But there were enemies of the early churches, tares among the wheat. These legalistic Judaizers came down from Jerusalem and messed up the Gospel, by ADDING things to the Gospel that were not the Gospel.

Galatians 1:7, " Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. " There is only one Gospel that saves. There is not a plan B, plan C, or plan D. Salvation is either by works or by grace, but it cannot be both ways. Romans 11:6,

"And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

" Paul says to be saved BY WORKS is another gospel,

which is a false gospel which cannot produce the miraculous new birth.

There are many sincere religious people in the churches today who are confused. They have many questions, still not certain they are saved. I know because I have met plenty of them. I have met deacons who confided in me that they did not have the assurance of God's salvation. I'm talking about the Harvest Baptist Church on Guam. One of their dear deacons came to me after a Sunday morning service. He knew about my website ministry. He knew that I am a preacher. He was concerned about his salvation, not sure if he was really saved.

I gladly expounded him in the Scriptures. I could see the relief in his eyes, as I comforted his heart with the simplicity of the inspired Word of God. I'll never forget what he said to me afterwards. He said: "Why don't they teach that kind of stuff from the pulpit?" I was a gentleman and didn't criticize the church pastors, but now I can say it boldly since I am no longer attending that church. Pastor Marty Herron is an incompetent pastor! Mr. Herron has no biblical right to stand behind any pulpit anywhere!!! The Bible requires that a preacher study to shew himself APPROVED UNTO GOD (2nd Timothy 2:15). Marty Herron is a disgrace! 2nd Timothy 2:15, " Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." The incompetent Bob Jones University (BJU) alumni who pastor the Harvest Baptist Church of Guam WRONGLY DIVIDE the Word of truth! Sadly, [2]BJU is a deadly Calvinist cult today!

> Galatians 1:6-8, "I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
>
> But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed. "

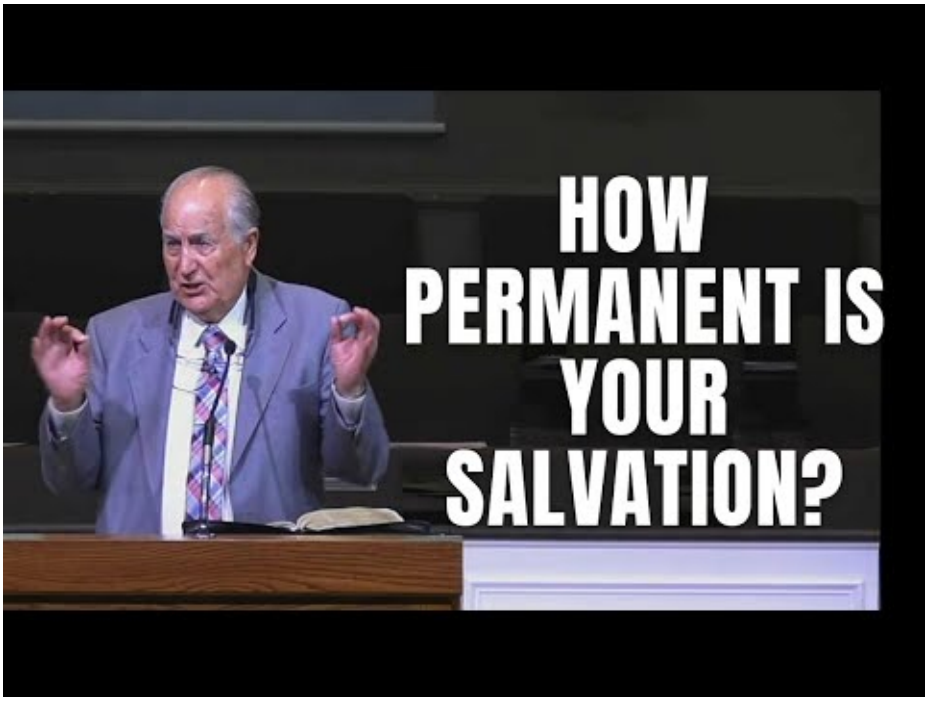
He fully paid for our sins. Every one who believes the Gospel has salvation everlasting, and we are secure in Christ! Praise God for His grace, His mercy and His completed, finished work at Calvary!!!!



How Permanent Is Your Salvation?
(Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold)

"Most people I lead to Christ, [I] never take any more than five minutes, because I strip away all the junk and give them the truth of the Gospel. ...I've got people on the mission field. I've got preachers around this country. I have seen so much come from just keeping the Gospel clear—keeping it simple so a person can understand it." —Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold (a beautiful quote from the sermon: "[3]How Permanent Is Your Salvation?")

2.12.1 Do You Really Have OCD Or Is It Something Else? (2021-12-04 01:09)

John 3:14-17, "

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

I have received numerous emails from a handful of web visitors over the decades, who confide in me that they have Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD). I always encourage such people to refrain from diagnosing themselves with such a mental disorder. I think in most cases, people who think they are suffering from OCD are really just lacking a solid grasp on what the Gospel is. I was wonderfully saved (born-again) at age 13. However, for the next several years I worried much. I cried and feared that I might not be saved. In hindsight, I did not have OCD, nor did I even know about such a disorder until I was much older.

What is OCD? It is a mental disorder that causes a person to incessantly worry that they are not saved, no matter what anyone tells them. I had a man from India years ago who wrote bizarre emails to me. At first I thought he was messing with me, mocking my ministry. He asked me if it mattered which of Jesus' hands were nailed to the cross first? Of course, it does not matter. He asked me if it mattered what material the cross was made of, wood or plastic? I replied that since plastic wasn't invented until the year 1862 by Alexander Parkes, obviously the cross couldn't have been made of plastic.

The man said that he feared while sitting in his recliner that Hell would open up and take him at any time. I was very doubtful about his sincerity at first, but then concluded that if he was willing to take the time to write lengthy emails, I ought to give him the benefit of the doubt, so I did. We exchanged 150 emails over a few months. I shared every sermon, article, video, book and resource I could think of about salvation to help the man find the peace and assurance he desperately desired. I do sincerely believe that this man has OCD, but I am not a psychologist. I finally had to kindly tell him that I simply could not help him with his issues.

However, I am convinced that most people who think they have OCD really don't. I encourage people who are struggling with doubts about God's salvation to listen to lots of Bible preaching on the subject, and to read Christian books about salvation, and most importantly to study the King James Bible. When I learned over time how salvation works, all my fears went away.

Some people refuse to trust God no matter what anyone says to convince them otherwise. God doesn't expect that you have no fears or doubts to be saved. In fact, the more doubts and fears you have, the greater will be your faith, just so long as you act on the faith and not the fear. Do you trust Jesus as your personal Savior? If so, you are saved according to

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

" All God requires to get to Heaven is childlike faith (confidence) in His only begotten Son, Who died in our place on the cross, was buried and physically resurrected from the dead three days later (1st Corinthians 15:1-4). Nothing more is required or permitted by God to go to Heaven.

I feel sorry for people who refuse to trust God. Listen friend, it is okay to have fears and doubts. Don't focus on your fears and uncertainties. Instead, focus on God's promise in 1st Corinthians 1:21b, "

TO SAVE THEM THAT BELIEVE.

" Do you believe? I do friend. I DO!

John 6:47, " Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." Saving faith is not the absence of all doubt and worry. Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen (Hebrews 11:1). Faith is placing your trust (resting) in the finished redemptive work of Jesus Christ. Jesus paid your sin debt and mine.

2nd Corinthians 5:21, "For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him." What a beautiful Scripture!!! God the Father made His only begotten Son to be sin for us. That is why in our text passage from John 3:14-15, Jesus mentioned to Nicodemus Moses in the Wilderness, who was instructed by God to form some brass into the form of a serpent and lift it up for the people to see. Anyone who looked to the serpent (i.e., looked to Jesus) was spared death. John 3:14-15, "

And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

The simple and sure way of salvation has always been through faith in Christ. Isaiah 45:22, "

Look unto me, and be ye saved*, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else. " The dear Savior Himself said in John 3:14-15 that just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the Wilderness, even so must He be lifted up on a cross, crucified, for the sins of the world. Jesus was crucified, just as He prophesied. He died and was buried, bodily resurrected three days later. The way to Heaven is to simply LOOK TO JESUS, the Author and Finisher of our faith. Hebrews 12:2, " Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith*; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

If you are one of few people who thinks you might have OCD, obsessing about going to Hell and not being saved, then I encourage you dear reader to spend time listening to good Bible preaching. We are what we eat and think! People who fear and worry only do so because that is what they have chosen to dwell upon in their mind. So the way out of that pit of despair is to start listening to doctrinally sound preachers like [1]Pastor Ralph Yankee Arnold, and [2]Pastor Max Younce, and [3]Pastor Jack Hyles and other fundamentalist preachers. Proverbs 13:20, " He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed." The Bible promises that if we walk with wise men—taking heed to their good judgment, sound wisdom and fear of God—then we will be influenced by them and become more like them.

And let me say dear friend, that if indeed you do have OCD, it doesn't in any way mean that you are not saved. Just because you have doubts and fears doesn't mean that you're not trusting Jesus. It just mean that despite your faith in the dear Savior, you are a worry-wart. Please do not confuse OCD with a lack of faith. Having difficulty finding the assurance of your salvation does not in any way reflect upon your faith. I worried about going to Hell for several years after I got saved at age 13 in 1980. I was saved, but naïve about how salvation works. What kept confusing me is the non-biblical requirement to pray a prayer, that I kept reading in every religious tract I picked up. In every Baptist church I had attended, I was taught to lead people to pray a prayer to be saved, which confused me.

I am also sick and tired of hearing pastors require people to walk down an aisle to the front of a church, to learn how to go to Heaven. God Himself does not require anyone to walk down an aisle to be saved, so why do preachers? Why cannot those preachers simply tell people how to be saved right their in their pew? God Himself in the Bible doesn't tell us to pray to be saved, so why do preachers add this? In the Gospel of John we are repeatedly told to simply "believe" to be saved, with no mention of repenting, praying or getting water baptized. The man who believes has repented (changed his mind), and the man who repents (changes his mind) has believed. More people will go to Hell someday because they tried too hard to be saved, doing more than what God required, rather than simply "BELIEVE ON THE LORD JESUS CHRIST" (Acts 16:31b).

So before you conclude that you are hopelessly a victim of Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD), condemned to a life of unnecessary fear and worry that you aren't going to Heaven, please take the time to begin making it your hobby to study the topic of salvation. Sit at the edge of your seat with curiosity every time you hear a preacher teaching about eternal life and how to be saved. I encourage you to read my own book titled, '[4]SALVATION,' which is 42 chapters long and full of helpful truths. Kindest regards and God bless.

2.12.2 A Very Dangerous Teaching In Bible Colleges And Churches Today (2021-12-09 19:13)

Galatians 1:6-9, "

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

There is a very dangerous teaching in many of today’s Bible colleges and churches, which says that “ salvation and a free grace Gospel both fall within the realm of orthodox Bible theology. Nothing could be further from THE TRUTH!

Lordship

Let’s compare the two plans of salvation:

1. Lordship Salvation - Lordship Salvation is the unsupportable and unbiblical belief that the performance of good works, the promise of good works or the evidence of good works, must accompany faith in Christ in order to establish or provide evidence that such faith has resulted in eternal life. Living the Christian life faithfully is required to prove that your faith is genuine, otherwise you do not go to Heaven. A major heretic [1]who preaches this damnable false plan of salvation is Dr. Steve Pettit (president of Bob Jones University since 2014). Faith in Christ is insufficient to get to Heaven. In addition, Calvinists (aka, Lordship Salvation) require that you live a sanctified life to prove that your faith is genuine. This is faith plus works for salvation, which does not produce the new birth.
2. Free Grace Gospel - Forgiveness of sins and eternal life are the free gift of God, which require nothing more than childlike faith in the Gospel (i.e., the Good News that Jesus Christ died on the cross for our sins, He was buried and then bodily resurrected three days later). This is ’THE GOSPEL’ according to 1st Corinthians 15:1-4. Believers SHOULD live for Christ and follow Him as Lord (Romans 3:31), but these virtues are not necessary nor permitted by God to get to Heaven (Galatians 3:1-3), nor do they have anything to do with the new birth (John 1:12-13). We are saved by God’s righteousness through faith alone in Jesus (Philippians 3:9), and the life we choose to live on earth has absolutely nothing to do with God’s promise of eternal life unto them that BELIEVE (1st Corinthians 1:21; Romans 5:20l Acts 13:39).

I challenge you to read [2]the simple plan of salvation as preached by Pastor Curtis Hutson (which is 100 % accurate). [3]Now look at this horrifying garbage by Dr. Steve Pettit (president of BJU). Folks, these are two VERY DIFFERENT plans of salvation. There is no way Biblically that Curtis Hutson and Steve Pettit can both be correct. Dr. Hutson teaches that you don’t have to forsake a lifestyle of sin to get to Heaven, but Dr. Pettit absolutely does! You cannot show me even one verse in the inspired King James Bible that says to turn away from sinful ways to be saved. Wicked false teachers have redefined key Biblical terms like “repentance” and “faith” to mean something very different than what God intended them to mean.

Dear reader, there is only ONE Gospel.

Galatians 1:6-7a, “

I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

Which is not another...

” There are NOT two different variations of the Gospel. I wish that Pastors like Jeff Redlin, Sean Quinlan and other fools would wake up to righteousness, and stop berating my ministry of telling THE TRUTH, and join me to expose [4]the accursed Bob Jones University camp today, who have become a cesspool of Calvinist iniquity. Calvinism is not the Gospel, not even close!!!

Sadly, one of today’s [5]most dangerous false prophets is Evangelist Ken Ham , who is supported financially by the Crown College (Pastor Clarence Sexton), Pensacola Christian College (Pastor Jeff Redlin), and other apostate religious institutions today. Ken Ham preaches the Devil’s lie of Lordship Salvation, requiring that sinners turn away from their sinful bad habits or else God won’t save them. Repentance does not, nor ever has, meant to turn away from sin. Repentance is the admission that one is as guilty a sinner as God hath declared us to be in His Word. Pastor Harry A. Ironside (1876-1951) got it 100 % right:

> "Repentance is the very opposite of meritorious experience. It is the confession that one is utterly without merit, and if he is ever saved at all it can only be through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, ’who gave himself a ransom for all.’ Here is firm footing for the soul who realizes that all self-effort is but sinking sand. Christ alone is the Rock of our salvation."

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside; [6]Except Ye Repent, pg. 36

Clearly, Ironside taught a Free Grace view of the Gospel. Consider further the following quote by Dr. Ironside:

> “The Gospel is not a call to repentance, or to amendment of our ways, to make restitution for past sins, or to promise to do better in the future. These things are proper in their place, but they do not constitute the Gospel; for the Gospel is not good advice to be obeyed, it is good news to be believed. Do not make the mistake then of thinking that the Gospel is a call to duty or a call to reformation, a call to better your condition, to behave yourself in a more perfect way than you have been doing in the past …

Nor is the Gospel a demand that you give up the world, that you give up your sins, that you break off bad habits, and try to cultivate good ones. You may do all these things, and yet never believe the Gospel and consequently never be saved at all.”

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the sermon: [7]What Is The Gospel?

Harry Ironside DIDN’T teach

Lordship Salv ation

, he simply taught that Biblical repentance was necessary for salvation, which is evidenced in the following quote by Pastor Ironside.

Read what Dr. Ironside said in his Gospel tract, ANOTHER GOSPEL? ...

> "When anyone comes promising salvation to those ‘who make full surrender’ of all that they have to God, and who ’pay the price of full salvation’ he is preaching another gospel, for the price was paid on Calvary’s cross and the work that saves is finished. It was Christ Jesus who made the full surrender when He yielded His life on Calvary that saves us, not our surrender in any way to Him."

SOURCE: Harry A. Ironside, from the Gospel tract, [8]Another Gospel.

In your face MacArthur! Harry Ironside just contradicted everything MacArthur teaches concerning salvation. In sharp contrast to Harry Ironside, here are some of MacArthur’s foolish unbiblical teachings from his book, The Gospel According to Jesus (Zondervan 1988):

> Saving faith is "unconditional surrender, a complete resignation of self and absolute submission" (page 153).

"Salvation is for those who are willing to forsake everything" (page 78).

"Saving faith is a commitment to leave sin and follow Jesus Christ at all costs. Jesus takes no one unwilling to come on those terms" (page 87).

"Eternal life brings immediate death to self" (page 140).
